Prédiger-amt, n. preacher's functions, holy office, holy orders. —birn, f. priest's-pear. —frau, f. preacher's wife, clergyman's wife. —kirche, f. [with catholics] church of the dominicans. —klugheit, f. pastoral or priestly prudence. —mantel, m. cassock, gown. —mönch, m. dominican monk or friar. —orden, m. the dominican order, the order of St. Dominic, of the dominicans. —schule, f. the seminary. —sorge, f. the care attached to a clergyman's duty, pastoral care. —stand, m. the condition or state of a preacher, priest or clergyman. —stelle, f. the place of a preacher &c. —stuhl, m. the form, bench or pew of the clergyman and his family. —tracht, f. the costume or dress of a preacher, priest or clergyman. —wittwe, f. a preacher's or clergyman's widow. —wohnung, f. a preacher's or clergyman's dwelling or residence. —würde, f. the [office and] dignity of a preacher or [resident] clergyman or priest.

Prédigt, f. [pl. -en] 1) [in a bad sense] tiresome long-winded discourse, the preaching of useless advice, boring speech. Er hat mir eine —, eine lange — gehalten, he has been preaching me a long homily, giving or reading me a long lecture of advice. 2) preaching. Eine [ab=] gehaltene — [with catholics], sermon, homily, [with protestants] sermon, [with some sects] lecture from the pulpit; erbauliche, lehrreiche —, edifying, instructive sermon or discourse; eine —, eine schöne — halten, ab=legen, [fam.] thun, to hold forth, to preach a sermon, a beautiful discourse; es lautet zur —, the bell tolls for the sermon, [in a more general sense] the bells chime for divine service, for going to church; in die — gehen, to go to the sermon, [in general] to church; seine —en herausgeben, to publish one's sermons; V. Buß—, Fasten—, Fest—, Leichen—, Sonntags—, Weihnachts— &c.

Prédigt-amt, n. the holy office, sacred orders. —auszug, m. an extract of sermons. —band, m. a volume of sermons. —buch, n. sermon-book. —entwurf, m. the planning, sketch of a sermon. —sammlung, f. collection of sermons. Eine —sammlung veranstalten, to make or form a collection of sermons. —stube, f. room for preaching or delivering a sermon. —stuhl, m. the pulpit. —wesen, n. the preaching, the pulpit.

||Prägeln, V. Prägeln.

Preien, v. tr. [in seamen's lang.] to hail, to speak with [a ship].

1. Preis, m. [-es, pl. -e], dim. —chen, ||—lein, n. [-s, pl. -] [allied to the Sw. bradd, a rim, and perhaps to Fries] 1) [lowest part of a horse's pastern] corset. 2) wristband.

Preisziegel, m. [for sloping-roofs] little ridge-tile, gutter-tile, pantile.

2. Preis, [from the old reissen, to take; appears to be allied to the Fr. prise, from prendre, to take, and the Lat. praeda, prey; in Dutch ruyten is to take by force, to plunder] indecl. subst. Etwas —geben, to abandon any thing, to leave any thing to the mercy of, [poetically] to devote; Alles ist in seinem Hause —gegeben, every thing in his house is exposed, abandoned or open to the grasp of every body; it. every thing in his house is left to go its own way, left to chance, is at sixes and sevens; eine Stadt —geben, to give up a city to plunder, to pillage, [in a religious style] to give up a city as a lamb to the slaughter, as a prey, as a booty, as a spoil; ein Schiff den Winden —geben, to give up a ship [in despair] to the mercy, to the fury of the winds; [in sportsmen's lang.] Wild den Hunden —geben, to throw off, to cast off the dogs, the hounds; sich Einem —geben, to surrender, to give one's self up to the mercy, to the discretion of any one, to give one's self up into the hands of any one; [of a girl] to yield, to surrender [herself], to allow herself to be seduced, to prostitute herself, fig. to unclasp or loose the virgin zone; sie hat ihre Tochter —gegeben, she has prostituted her own daughter; sie giebt sich Jedem —, she gives herself up, she surrenders her charms to every one, she is a common prostitute; sich der Verführung, den Lasteren —geben, to yield to seduction, to deliver up one's self to vice; Einen seinen Leidenschaften —geben, to abandon any one to his own passions, to leave any one as a devoted victim to his own passions; Einen dem Gelächter, der Schande —geben, to expose any one, to give any one up to laughter and derision, to shame, to make one a laughing-stock, a victim of shame and pity; diese Sache gehet — [in popular or provincial language], this thing goes a begging; it. goes to ruin; —stehen, to be abandoned, to be deserted; [fam. of things] to go a begging.

3. Preis, m. [-es, pl. -e] [generally derived from the Lat. pretium, the derivation however may be well regarded as undetermined] price; [formerly, at tournaments] prize. Einen —auf das beste Gedicht &c. setzen, to offer a prize for the best poem &c.; der — in der Malerei, the prize in painting; um den — streiten, to strive, to contend for the prize, to dispute the prize; den ersten — erhalten, gewinnen, davontragen, to obtain or receive, to win or gain, to carry off the first prize, [fam.] to march off with the first prize; den — vor als len seinen Mitbewerbern erhalten, to gain &c. the prize before, over, from all one's rivals, one's fellow-candidates; einen —auf Jemandes Kopf setzen, to set a price upon any one's head. Fig. Den — der Schönheit davon tragen, to carry off the prize, to gain the palm of beauty, [poetical] to win the golden apple of discord, [fam.] to bear the bell, [formerly, in tournaments &c.] to be chosen queen. SYN. V. Lohn 1).

4. Preis, m. [-es, pl. -e] [appears allied to reden; in Isl. hrosa means to praise] 1) [no pl.] praise, glory, renown, fame, honour &c. [in Scripture] Herr, du bist würdig zu nehmen — und Ehre und Kraft, o Lord! thou art worthy of taking [receiving] praise and glory [honour] and power [might]; — und Ehre sey Gott! praise and glory be to God; Gott Lob und —geben, to give God praise and glory, to glorify the Almighty; [in familiar lang.] man muß zu seinem —e sagen, it must be said to his praise, it must be spoken to his honour. 2) [pl. -e] worth, price, value, rate. Ständiger, stehender, laufender —, fixed, steady, current price; gemachter, festgesetzter, bedungener —, regulated, fixed, settled, stipulated price; hohe, niedere —e, high, low prices; um den höchsten, um den niedrigsten —, to or at the highest, to or at the lowest price; der genaueste, nächste, letzte —, the fairest, nearest, lowest price; der kostende — [in commerce], cost price; um den laufenden — verkaufen, to sell at the current, usual or retail price; um jeden möglichen —, at any price whatever, at every or any possible price; unter dem —e verkaufen, to sell at a loss, under cost-price, at a ruinous price; im —e heruntergehen, to come down, to fall, to sink in price; it. to lower, to lessen, to abate, to moderate, to reduce the price, to throw off something or so much per cent on the profit; im —e fallen, steigen, to fall, to rise in price; diese Waare hat gegenwärtig einen hohen —, this article fetches a high price at present, in the present moment; das Getreide steht hoch im —e, steht in einem hohen —e, wheat or corn is up very high, has risen high, is up in the market; das Getreide ist im —e gestiegen, the price of corn is raised; diese Waaren steigen im —e, these goods are rising in price, are getting dearer; des —es or [more usual] über den —eins werden, to be agreed in the price, to agree about, in the price, to come to terms; Etwas um einen billigen — [ab]lassen, to sell a bargain, to let any thing go cheap; Etwas um billigen — kaufen, to buy something cheap, as a good bargain, at a reasonable price; Etwas um einen [ganz] außerordentlich billigen — [um einen Spott—] verkaufen [fam.], to sell any thing at a price not worth naming, dog-cheap, as cheap as dirt.

Preis —aufgabe, f. question, theme, subject proposed for the prize, for the medal. —aussetzer, —aussteller, m. the proposer of the prize, of the medal. —ausstellung, f. 1) [also *Preis*aussetzung] the setting up of a prize for different competitors. 2) any exhibition of works of art or industry, agricultural products &c. competing for a prize or prizes. —aussteiler, m., —aussteilerin, f. distributor of the prize; [at horse-races] steward; [at fancy-fairs] stewardess, patroness; [at tournaments] the queen of beauty; [in wagers] the stake-holder. —aussteilung, f. distribution of a prize. —bewerber, m. candidate, opponent, antagonist, [for the hand of a lady &c.] rival. —bewerbung, f. candidateship; rivalry. —courant, m. [in commerce] V. —verzeichnis. —ertheiler, m., —ertheilung, f. distributor, distributing of the prize. V. —aussteiler &c. —frage, f. V. —aufgabe. —gesang, m. [with poets] V. Lobgesang. —lauch, m. Spanish garlic. —schrift, f. 1) prize essay, piece or poem. 2) piece or essay that has gained the prize or medal, prize-piece, essay or poem, [sometimes] laureat piece. —seher, m. [of provisions

&c.] 1) V. Schäger. 2) V. —aussetzer. —vererber, m. a meddling busy-body, a spoiler-trade. —verzeichnis, m. the current price, price current, tariff, tariff-list, [sometimes] tax, [in the sense of] regulated price [for bread &c.]. —wert, adj. and adv. praiseworthy, estimable, laudable. —würdig, adj. and adv. 1) praiseworthy, estimable, laudable. —würdiger Mann, —würdige That, praiseworthy man, laudable deed or action; —würdig handeln, to act in a laudable manner. 2) —würdige Waaren, goods well worth their price, their value. —würdigkeit, f. einer Waare, the value, worth of an article. Die —würdigkeit einer Handlung, the praiseworthiness, the praiseworthy part &c. of an action. —zettel, m. V. —verzeichnis.

*Preis*chen, n. V. 1. Preis.

*Preis*elbeere, f. [perhaps allied to the provincial räs = sour] 1) vitis idea, vaccinium, red bilberry, ort, cranberry, whortle-berry. 2) uva ursi, bear's whortle-berry, bear's grape. 3) the blue-berry and shrub of the Cape of Good-Hope, the Ethiopian myrsine. 4) V. *Berberis*beere.

Preisen, v. tr. 1) reg. [little used] to value, to estimate, to fix the price, worth, tariff, sale-price of any thing, [rare] to tax. Eine Waare —, to appraise, to make a valuation of an article; Eines Verdienste —, to appreciate the merits, to estimate the deserts of any one. 2) irr. to praise, to extol, to vaunt, to exalt, [sometimes, fam.] to cry up. Er preiset sich den Mächtigen [in poetry], he boasts of being the most powerful; Einen glücklich —, to believe, to esteem, to judge, to deem any one happy, fortunate; Jemandes Lob —, [fam., in jest, ironically or contemptuously] singen, to sing, to chant the praises of any one, [sometimes, fam.] to cry any one up, [low] to set any one up as a top-sawyer; Gott loben und —, to praise, exalt and glorify God; man kann seine Verdienste, seinen Namen nicht genug —, one cannot enough exalt, praise his merits, extol his rare qualities, nor amply enough laud his name; was der Pöbel am meisten preiset &c., what the vulgar most praise, cry up most &c.; ein gepriesener Mann, a man generally esteemed and commended; seine Waare — [fam.], to cry up, to trumpet one's goods, one's merchandise. SYN. V. Anpreisen loben. Das —, praise, eulogy commendation; encomium.

Preiser, m. [-s, pl. -], —inn, f. person who praises, commends, lauds, extols, exalts, vaunts, [fam.] cries up, [in a bad sense] one who trumpets forth or up, flatterer, gross hyperbolic advocate or praiser, commender, mock applauder, false eulogizer.

Preislich, adj. and adv. estimable, laudable, praiseworthy, commendable, meritorious. V. Preiswürdig; [in chancery or official style] —, hoch —, höchst —, [when addressing, in writing, certain high branches of the administration] worthy, most worthy; an das [ein] Großherzogliche[s] hochpreisliche[s] Ministerium des Innern, to the Grand Duke's or grand-ducal most worthy Ministry of the Interior; it [fam.] sich —belustigen, to amuse, to enjoy, to divert one's self famously.

Prelle, f. [pl. -n] 1) tossing in a blanket &c. Einem Fuchse die —geben [mode of sport unknown in England], to toss a fox, to give a fox a tossing in a blanket; die —des Sancho Panza, the tossing in a blanket of Sancho Panza. 2) blanket or cloth for tossing; [with sportsmen] the cloth used for tossing the fox.

Prellen, v. tr. [appears to be allied to rollen]

ten] 1) V. Praellen. 2) to toss in a blanket. Einen Fuch —, to toss a fox in the blanket, net or cloth [until he is half dead]. Fig. to dupe, to hoax, to cheat, to embezzle, to deceive, [fam.] to take in, to do, to diddle, to chouse, to come over, to bamboozle, to thimble, to hum, to humbug. Dieser Kaufmann hat uns garstig geprellt, this tradesman has regularly cheated, shamefully defrauded us; Einen um Etwas —, to chouse any one out of something, to swindle any one, to bamboozle any one; er hat ihn um einen Ducaten geprellt [fam.], he has gammoned, has diddled, [low] priggged, him out of a ducat. Das —, the act of tossing, the tossing in a blanket. Fig. cheating, cajolery, defrauding &c.

Prellgarb, n. V. —neß. —hammer, m. [with blacksmiths] the great [two cwt] sledge or forge-hammer. —neß, n. [in sportsmen's lang.] the cloth &c. for tossing the fox [in the blanket]. Die —neße [in the wild-boar chase], net-work for frightening the wild boar. —schlag, m. bound, leap, spring, jump, rebound, recoil, back-stroke, repercussion, counter-blow, reflection. —schuß, m. V. Prallschuß. —stange, f. [with turners] pole, bow. —stoß, m. V. Prallschlag.

Prellenwerth, adj. and adv. worthy to be, of being tossed in a blanket, [fam.] of being ducked in a horse-pond, fig. of being cheated or deceived.

Preller, m. [-s, pl. -] 1) one who tosses another in a blanket. Fig. cheating fellow, cheat, sharper, swindler &c. Nehmet Euch vor diesen —n in Acht, take care of these prigs, beware of these swindlers, be on your guard against these sharpers, these light-fingered gentry. 2) [in war] piece of twenty-eight, a 28 pounder; [on copper-sledge-hammers] a strong square piece of iron under the handle for increasing the smiting-force. 3) [low] bound, spring, back-stroke. Einen — thun, to spring, to leap, to bound, to make a bound, a jump, a leap; einen — bekommen, to receive a blow [from some elastic body]; ein — mit dem Prellneße, shake of the net [when tossing the fox]; ein — auf den Hintern [vulg.], a slap, a spank, a thwack, a whack, [fam.] a stinger on the backside, [with pugilists] a nasty one.

Prellerei, f. fraud, cheating, sharpening, swindling, defrauding &c. V. Prellen [fig.]. Das ist eine —, eine offenbare —, that is an evident take in, a glaring fraud; durch alle Arten von —, durch allerlei —en sich bereichern &c., to enrich &c. one's self by all sorts of roguish transactions, through every species, every description of roguery.

Prems, m. [-es, pl. -e] or —scheibe, f. V. Premsse.

Premsse, f. [pl. -n] [allied to the Lat. premo, to pressen] check, stay, stop [bowed piece of wood for stopping a windmill's sails].

Premsen, v. tr. to stop.

*Presbyterianer, m. [-s, pl. -] [in English history] presbyterian. Lehre der —, the presbyterian doctrine, presbyterianism.

Presenning, f. [pl. -en] [in seamen's lang.] tarpawling.

Presenning=leiste, f. [in seamen's lang.] tarpawling-batten or lath. —spiker, m. tarpawling-nail.

Preß, adj. and adv. close. —anliegen [as clothes], to lie close, to stick, to be a tight fit, to cleave [to the body]; [in billiards] der Ball, die Kugel steht —, the ball is close to, touches the cushion; einen Ball — legen, setzen, to lay a ball close to the cushion.

Preßbar, adj. and adv. compressible. Die Luft ist —, air is compressible; Wasser ist nur in einem geringen Grade —, water is only compressible in a trifling degree.

Preßbarkeit, f. compressibility.

Preßburg, n. [-s] [in geography] Presburg.

Preße, f. [pl. -n] 1) the press, a press. Etwas unter die — legen, to put something under the press, to press any thing; Etwas in die — nehmen, spannen, to put something in press, to press something; aus der — nehmen, to take out of the press; Tuch, Leinwand in die — thun, to put cloth, linen into a press; die — eines Weberstuhles [with weavers], the press of the loom; die — einer Windmühle, the wheel-stop or check of a windmill; [with cloth-makers] V. Tuch —; [in rural economy] V. Del —; [with printers] ein Buch unter die — geben, to put a book under the press, to print, to strike off a work; it. fig. [of authors] to publish a book, to get it printed; das Werk ist unter der —, the work is under the press, in the press; es kommt eben aus der —, it is just issued from the press, it has just been published; er hat vier —n im Gange, he has four presses at work. Fig. [in familiar lang.] In der — seyn, to be in a sad predicament, [fam.] to be in a sad scrape or hobble, [also] in a bad way; ich bin hart in der — gewesen, I have been in a bad way, [also] I got into a sad scrape, desperate hobble, [also] I have been well sifted, have passed through a rigidly strict examination. 2) gloss, lustre, dress [produced by pressing]. Dem Tuche die — geben, to give the gloss to a stuff, to dress cloth &c. by a press, to calender cloth [by means of card-boards]; dieses Tuch hat eine schöne, hat viel —, that cloth has a beautiful gloss, much dress; die — ist aus dem Zeug gegangen, der Zeug hat die — verloren, the stuff has lost all its gloss, all its dress.

Preßarm, m. [with stocking-weavers] press iron-holdfast. —bäcken, pl. [with stocking-weavers] press-cheeks. —bälken, m. [with printers] press-sleeper, the sleeper of a printing-press. —baum, m. press-tree, press-lever; [with cloth makers] press-beam. —benzel, m. [with printers] the rounce, bar, hose; [with book-binders] press-stick. —deckel, m. press-cover, [with printers] the tympan, tympanum. —haspel, m. [in paper-mills] winch [for forcing down and tightening the press]. —farren, m. the box, the chest of a press, carriage of a press. —fnecht, m. [with book-binders] press-jack [for leaning one end of the press upon when polishing the gilded edge of a book]. —meister, m. [with printers] the pressman. —schraube, f. 1) press-screw, box or nut. 2) [in conchology] the screw-wreath, the sharp-ribbed turbo, strombus or screw-shell. —schwengel, m. V. —benzel. —spindel, f. male-screw of the press. —stange, f. press-bar. —stoß, m. rounce.

Preßen, v. tr. [Lat. premo, Perf. pressi, Dutch persen, persen, Sw. persa] 1) to press, to compress, to squeeze, to serrate. Den Hut auf den Kopf —, to press [down] one's hat upon one's head; sie hat den Leib in eine Schnürbrust gepreßt, she had her body pressed, compressed, squeezed into a pair of stays. Fig. [in familiar lang.] Gepreßt sitzen, to sit huddled up, squeezed, jammed, [fam.] to sit without elbow-room; der Saal war gepreßt voll, the room was cram-full, full to suffocation, [low] the room was chock-full; it. [in seamen's lang.] den Wind —, to sail close to the wind, in the wind's eye; die Segel —, to crowd all sail, to lay on or stand under a [heavy press of sail, to bear up or down under every stitch of sail, under every rag the ship will carry; it. die Brust, das Herz ist mir gepreßt, my bosom is oppressed, my heart is afflicted, [fam.] I feel a weight here on my breast, on my heart; die Noth preßt mich, necessity compels me; it. I am pinched by distress; preßt mich nicht so, don't press or squeeze me so; er wird von seinen Gläubigern gepreßt, he is dunned, tormented, bothered by his creditors; das Volk, ein Land —, to oppress the people, a land, to burden a country; Einen —, to send the bailiff, sheriff's-officers after any one; man hat einen Gerichtsdiener zu ihm geschickt, ihn zu — [exquiren], they have put an execution in his house, they have levied a distress [by putting in a bailiff, a sheriff's-officer] in his house; eine Vergleichung, einen Vergleich nicht zu sehr —, not to push, to press, to strain a comparison or simile, a witicism or witty remark too far; Matrosen —, to press sailors; Schiffe —, to lay an embargo on ships. 2) to work &c. by means of a press, to press. Papier —, to press paper; Pappdeckel —, to strengthen, thicken pasteboard; Tuch, Strümpfe —, to dress cloth, stockings; heiß —, to dress or gloss by friction, by a calender or with card-boards; ungepreßte Strümpfe, undressed stockings, stockings without gloss or dress. 3) to express. Del —, to express, to cold-draw oil; den Saft aus Citronen &c. —, to squeeze out the juice of lemons &c.; Wein —, to press grapes; der Schmerz preßte ihr Thränen aus, grief, pain forced, drew tears from her eyes. Das —, the pressing [of wine]; it. the press, the pressing [of sailors].

Preßbank, f. [with paper-makers] press-bench; [with card-makers] pressed bench or board; [with carders] press [for pressing together the cotton-flakes]. —boi, m. fine-pressed baize, glossy baize. —bret, n. press-board, pressing-board. [with book-binders] Die —bretter, the press-boards. —eisen, n. iron pressing-plate; it. V. Bügeleisen —freiheit, f. the abused liberty, the licentiousness of the press. —freiheit, f. the liberty, the freedom of the press. —gang, m. [in English hist.] pressgang. —gefäß, n. [at wine-pressing] wooden bowl. —geld, n. 1) bailiff's or sheriff's-officer's fee. 2) [with cloth-makers] press money—calendering or glossing-money; [with printers] money for an impression, pressman's-money; [with vintners] fee or money for pressing grapes. —glanz, m. gloss produced by a press, mangle, roll-press, calico press, calender-mill &c. —haus, n. house or building for a press, rolling-press, calender-press, dressing-press. —haut, f. [with tanners] shagreen, asses'-skin. —keil, m. wedge of an oil-press. —kopf, m. 1) pressed head, german sausage, brawn. 2) the head of a press-screw. —most, m. cider, perry. —platte, f. plate of an oil-press. —saft, m. expressed gravy, expressed juice. —span, m. splinter-board, thin press-board, shingle-board for pressing-machines; it. [with cloth-makers] —späne, pl. the calender's gloss or dress-boards. Die Zeuge zwischen die —späne legen, to put the stuffs or cloths between the gloss-boards [for dressing]. —sütze, f. 1) seasoned pressed pork, brawn. 2) —sulfenstein [with miners], marbled sulphate of lime [variety of alabaster, resembling brawn]. —thür, f. [with cloth-dressers] gloss-square-board. —wand, f. the cheek [of a printing-press &c.]. —wein, m. expressed wine, wine obtained by means of a press [opposed to wine or grape-juice flowing out spontaneously]. —wind, m. [in seamen's language] a half-wind. Mit —wind segeln, to laverage, to go laverageing, to go or sail near the wind, with a scant wind, to tack about, to luff, to haul the wind and trim sharp; ein Schiff, das mit —wind segelt, a ship that sails [well or ill] with a side or scant wind. —zeug, n. press-tackle, the furniture of any press-machine; [with surgeons] a tourniquet. —zober, —zuber, m. wine-press bowl or cowl. —zwang, m. restriction, suppression of the freedom of the press.

Prèsser, m. [-s, pl. -], —inn, f. [at the wine press] a presser; [with cloth-makers] a dresser and glosser; [with printers] pressman. [with poets] Die ungestüme —inn, die Roth, that wringing exactor, necessity, that pressing and importunate Goddess, Necessity. Er hat den —, die — im Hause [in pop. lang.], he has a bailiff, [fam.] the harpies in his house; wenn er nicht zahlt, werde ich ihm den — schicken [in popular lang.], if he does not pay, I shall send the bailiff to him with a distress-warrant, with a writ.

Presserlohn, m. salary of the presser, of the dresser and glosser, of the pressman; it. salary, fee, money for grape-pressing.

Prèßling, m. [-es, pl. -e] 1) the garden-strawberry. 2) the garden strawberry-plant.

Prèsto, [in music] I. adv. presto time, quick time. II. n. a presto piece, a piece played in quick time.

Preusch, adj. [in woods and forests] tough. Dies Holz ist —, this wood is tough, knotty, does not split well, is not wedgeable.

Preuße, m. [-n, pl. -n] a Prussian. Eine Preussinn, a female Prussian.

Preußelbeere, f. V. Preiselbeere.

Preußen, n. [-s] [in geography] Prussia. Das eigentliche —, Prussia proper.

Preußisch, adj. and adv. Prussian, of Prussia. Der —e Staat, Prussia, the states or kingdom of the King of Prussia; die —e Münze, Prussian coin or money; seine [Se.] —e Majestät [Maj.], his Prussian Majesty; das —e Exercitium, die —e Kriegskunst, Prussian drilling, Prussian tactics; —Blau, prussian blue; —e Säure, prussic acid, V. Blausäure.

Preyen, V. Preien.

Prèzel, V. Brezel.

Priamus, m. [in poetry, sometimes Priam, gen. -s] [proper name] Priam.

Priap[us], m. [-s, pl. -en] [in mythology] Priapus. Fig. the penis, priapus.

Priapisch, Priapèisch, adj. Priapaeian, of Priapus. —es Gedicht, a poem out of the Priapaeia, an indecent song, ode or poem in honour of the God [Priapus].

Priapolith, m. [-en, pl. -en] [in mineralogy] priapolite.

Pricke, f. [pl. -n] [in nat. hist.] the lam-prey. V. Kalgabel.

Prickel, f. [in fam. or pop. lang.] 1) pricking. 2) bickering.

Prickeln, [Old Saxon priccan, probably allied to prägen, to press, squeeze] I. v. tr. to prick, to goad, to gore, to sting. II. v. intr. to produce a pricking sensation &c. Blattern, welche auf der Haut —, pustules, that prick and sting the skin; ein — auf der Haut, über den ganzen Körper empfinden, to feel a pricking sensation, an itching of the skin, over the whole body; ich fühle ein — in der Kehle, I feel a pricking sensation in my throat; das prickelt im Halse, that stings [in] the throat;

der Senf giebt dieser Sauce etwas —des, mustard gives this sauce a [more] piquant flavour, heightens, sharpens this sauce, makes this sauce more stimulating [to the palate]. Fig. —de Neugierde, Begierde zu &c., a goading curiosity, an ardent desire to &c.; —de Reizen, stinging, pricking, pointed, caustic, biting, bickering words. Das —, the pricking.

Pricken, v. tr. Die Karte — [in seamen's lang.], to prick the chart, to prick off the ship's work on the chart, to point. Das —, the pricking the ship's place or course on a nautical chart.

Priester, m. [-s, pl. -], —inn, f. [Old Norman Fr. prestre, Lat. presbyter, Gr. πρεσβύτερος, an elder] priest, priest[r]ess; [in antiquity] Ein — Jupiters, eine — in der Juno, a priest of Jupiter, a priestess of Juno; die katholischen —, the catholic priests. SYN. V. 1 Pfaffe.

Priester-albe, f. a priest's alb. —amt, n. the sacerdotal office, ecclesiastical ministry, priesthood. Die Heiligkeit des —amtes, the sanctity of the priesthood. —ansehen, n. 1) the exterior, the garb, the air of a priest. 2) the authority of a priest. —bäffchen, n. priest's band. —betrug, m. priestly imposture, intrigue, priestcraft. —birn, f. priest's-pear. —dienst, m. the priesthood, the functions, duty of a priest. —dünkel, m. the ignorant presumption, self-sufficiency of a priest. —ehe, f. marriage of priests. —ehelosigkeit, f. [in church history] celibacy [of the priests]. —frau, f. wife of a priest. —gewand, n. the habit of a priest, sacerdotal dress, cassock or gown. —grimm, m. V. —haß 1). —haß, m. 1) the rancour, hatred of a priest. 2) hatred, rancour against priests or the clergy. —haupt, n. 1) the head of a priest. 2) [unusual] chief-priest; chief of the priests. —haus, n. house of a priest, the rectory, vicarage, parsonage, presbytery. —hemde, n. the alb. —herrschaft, f. the hierarchy, hierarchical government or sway, the rule, the dominion of the priests. —hut, m. 1) priest's hat. 2) [in fortification] bonnet [sort of horn-work]. —joch, n. the yoke of the priesthood, tyranny of the priests. —kappe, f. —käppchen, || —käpplein, n. bonnet of a priest, priest's cap. —kaste, f. V. —zunft. —kleid, n. —kleidung, f. V. —gewand. —fragen, m. 1) priest's collar. 2) [in botany] the great daisy, ox eye. —frause, f. priest's ruff, lappets; it. V. —bäffchen. —macht, f. priestly power. —mantel, m. priest's robe, gown, mantle. —nachricht, f. priestly news, relation, tale, tradition. —orden, m. 1) ghostly order, order of the priests, priestly order. In den —orden treten, to embrace the ecclesiastical order or state, to go into the Church, to become a clergyman, [in a bad sense] to turn priest, [fam., but rare] to take to the gown and missal. 2) V. —weihe. —reich, n. the empire or kingdom of the priests, the hierarchy. —rock, m. V. —gewand. —sagung, f. institution of the priests, rules or regulations laid down by priests. —schmuck, m. a sacerdotal ornament. —schrift, f. V. Bitterschrift. —segnen, m. priestly benediction or blessing, sacerdotal benediction. —staat, m. 1) [fam.] the sacerdotal ornaments. 2) [=hierarchischer Staat] a hierarchical state. —stand, m. the priesthood, [fam.] the cloth. In den —stand aufgenommen werden, to receive the ecclesiastical state, holy orders, to take holy orders, to be ordained, to receive the order of priesthood, to be received or called into the bosom of mother church. —wahl, f. 1) the election of a priest. 2) election made by priests. —weihe, f.

[with catholics] the order of priesthood, ordination. Die —weihe empfangen, to receive the order of priesthood, to receive ordination, to take holy orders, to be ordained. —weisheit, f. the wisdom, the knowledge of the priesthood, of the priests. —wissenschaft, f. science of the priests. —würde, f. sacerdotal dignity. —zunft, f. [in a bad sense] the priestly or sacerdotal caste.

Priesterlich, adj. and adv. sacerdotal, priestly. Die —e Würde, der —e Schmuck, the sacerdotal dignity, the sacerdotal ornaments; die —e Kleidung, the priestly costume, sacerdotal dress or garb; die —e Einsegnung eines Brautpaares, the nuptial benediction.

Priesterlichkeit, f. quality, dignity of a priest, the priestly dignity or quality.

Priete, f. [pl. -n] einer Zugamme [in architecture &c.], ladder-groove or slides [two long slanting posts for guiding the ascent of the rammer that is drawn up by ropes].

Prima, f. 1) [in schools] the first class, form or part. In der — seyn, to be in the first class, to be a senior boy; it. to be a prefect, a monitor. 2) [in commerce] [more usual Prima wechsel] first letter of exchange.

Primaner, m. [-s, pl. -] [in schools] scholar of or in the first class, a senior boy; it. prefect, monitor.

Primas, m. [indecl.] [formerly in the German Empire, and still in Hungary &c.] [the chief ecclesiastic in the church, an archbishop] the primate. Der Fürst —, the prince primate.

1. Primat, m. [-en, pl. -en] [in Greece] primate. Die —en des Orts, the primates, the chief or first inhabitants of the place.

2. Primat, n. [-es, pl. -e] primacy, primateship; it. [in a more general sense] the primacy, leadership.

Primatisch, adj. primatial, primatical. —e Kirche, metropolitan church.

Prime, f. [pl. -n] 1) [with catholics] [prayer] prime, first canonical hour, matins at 6 A. M. 2) [in fencing] first parade. Stellung, Stoß in der —, position or guard, lunge, thrust or pass in the first parade. 3) [with printers] prima, pattern or first page of a printed sheet. 4) [a game] —, [—spiel] primero. —spielen, to play at primero. 5) [in mathematics] tenth part of unity; tenth of an inch.

Primel, f. [pl. -n] [in botany] primrose.

Primzahl, f. [pl. -en] [in arithmetic] prime-number.

Princip, n. 1) [-es, pl. -ien] principle, cause, foundation, groundwork. Die —ien einer Wissenschaft, the rudiments, elements of a science. 2) [-es, pl. -ien or -e] principle, V. also Grundsatz; it. [personified] principle. Das gute, das böse —, the good, the bad principle, God and the Demon, Ormuzd and Ahriman &c.

1. Principäl, m. [es, pl. -e] the principal. Der — eines Lyceums or einer höhern Schule, the principal [of a lyceum or superior grammar-school], [in Great Britain] warden, director, headmaster &c.; — einer Schauspielergesellschaft, manager of a troop of [chiefly, strolling] players, of the company of a [chiefly, minor] theatre; die —inn, the wife of the manager; it. female manager; [in commerce and trades] der —, die —inn eines Handlungsbieters &c., eines [Schneiders &c.] Lehrlings, the principal, the master, the mistress, of a shopman &c., of an apprentice.

2 Principāl, n. [-es, pl. -e] [in organs] diapason, principal stop, the principal row of pipes.

Principāl, adj. principal [chiefly used in composition, as Principālfrage, principal question &c.].

Principien, pl. V. Princip.

||Prinen, v. tr. [with seamstresses] to baste, to tack.

Prinz, m. [-en, pl. -en] [from the Lat. princeps, the first] 1) [in sportsmen's lang.] the master, the teacher [who formerly and still in Germany is so called by his pupils in the art of sporting]. 2) —, prince; —essinn, princess; —en vom Geblüte, princes of the blood; wie ein — leben, sich kleiden, to live, to dress like a prince. Fig. [in popular lang. ironically] Da kommen Sie endlich, mein —! so you are come at last, my worthy sir, [low] my fine fellow; so, my lord, here you are at last! woher, —essinn? where, from what most rare spot do you come, my princess, my queen, [very fam.] my charmer, from what cloud have you dropped? so, my Lady, and where did you spring from? Du bist mir ein sauberer —, you are a pretty fellow, a'n't you; you are a nice one. I guess, [low, insulting] you are a precious kidney, a rum cove you are. 3) [in nat. hist.] the prince, silver collar, prince of Wales [a butterfly]

Prinz=apfel, m. prince-pippin —metall, n. prince's-metal, tombac, pinch-beck.

Prinzen=begräbnis, n. 1) the interment of a prince. 2) [in conchology] prince's pall [variety of the date or olive shell]. —erzieher, m. the governor, the tutor to or of a prince. —flagge, f. 1) V. —flagge. 2) [in conchology] the broad red-blue or yellow-striped flag of Holland. —farbef, f. [with dyers] golden yellow, gold-yellow, prince's yellow. —flagge, f. prince's flag [formerly in Holland]. —führer, m. [obsolescent] V. —hofmeister. —garten, m. the prince's garden. —hofmeister, m. the governor, tutor of a prince. —firsche, f. prince's cherry, the red cherry or red-heart of Brussels. —kopf, m. [with gardeners] great head- or coss-lettuce. —leben, n. prince's life, life of a prince. Fig. [in popular language] Ein —leben führen, to live like a prince, [fam.] to lead a jolly, merry life of it. —lehrer, m. V. —erzieher.

Prinzessinn, f. [V. under Prinz] 1) princess. 2) [in nat. hist.] the princess, the princess of Wales [a butterfly]. 3) the party-coloured knotty vase [variety of the wreath-shell].

Prinzessin=apfel, m. the princess-pippin. —birn, f. summer white pear, the blanket-pear. —bohne, f. dwarf french bean. —pfsche, f. the princess-peach. —steuer, f. tax for the portion or dower of a princess, princess' aids.

Prinzlich, adj. and adv. princelike, princely, of or belonging to a prince. Die —en Güter, the property, the goods of the prince or princes. —gesinnt seyn, to be on the side, of the party of the prince.

Prior, m. [-s, pl. -e] the prior. —inn, f. the prioress.

Priorwürde, f. the priorship, priorate, dignity or rank of a prior.

Priorat, n. [-es, pl. -e] priorship, priorate.

Priorei, f. a priory.

Priorität, f. [chiefly in law] priority.

Prise, f. [pl. -n] 1) pinch. Eine — neh= men, to take a pinch [of snuff]; eine — Salz &c., a pinch of salt &c. 2) a captured ship, prize. Das Schiff wurde für eine gute — erklärt, the ship was declared a lawful prize; es liefen drei — in den Hafen ein, three prizes have run into the harbour, into port.

Prisma, n. [-s, pl. Prismen] [in physics] a prism Ein gläsernes —, a glass-prism, a prism of glass.

Prismatisch, adj. and adv. prismatic, prismatical; it. having the form of a prism. Ein —er Körper, a prismatic body; —e Farben, the prismatic colours, the seven primitive colours [of Newton].

Pritsch, m. [-es, pl. -e] [low] slap, spank.

Pritsche, f. [pl. -n] [allied to Precht] 1) [with workmen] rammer, beater, [if large] beetle; [for butter] flap; [for beating linen] beater, bat; [of a harlequin] wooden sabre; [for a shuttlecock] battledore; [for fives, cricket, rackets and tennis &c.] bat. Einem die — geben, to give any one the ferula, to spat any one with a flat ruler; it. to turn any one out of doors. 2) seat behind a sledge, the back-seat of a sledge. 3) camp-bed, bed, wooden couch in a guard-house. 4) breast-work, parapet, bardet, platform without epaulment 5) [with saddlers] common English flat saddle. 6) Eine — von einem Apfel, a score, slice, quarter of an apple; [of veal] a fillet; [of other things] a slice.

Pritschmeister, m. [formerly, sort of buffoon attached to a company of shooters or marksmen] merry-andrew, tom-fool, the fool.

Pritschen, I. v. tr. 1) to beat or strike with a beater, beetle, bat, battledore &c. Mit dem Pantoffel — [in popular language], to slap with the slipper; ein Kind — [in pop. lang.], to whip a child with anything flat, to spank a child's bottom, [low] to smack a child's backside; [in sportsmen's lang.] to strike any one with the flat [side] of a hanger &c. 2) [in pop. lang.] Einen —, to drive any one off or away, to expel or chase any one with blows of a cudgel &c. II. v. intr. [unusual] [in pop. lang.] to slam to the door, to bang to the door [after any one].

Privat, adj. and adv. [opposed to open, public] private, particular, peculiar.

Privat=absicht, f. private design. —angelegenheit, f. private, particular, peculiar, domestic affair, private concern, private secret. Er ist in einer —angelegenheit, in —angelegenheiten verreis, he is departed or set off or out on a particular business, on his private affairs. —audienz, f. a private audience —beichte, f. private confession. —brief, m. a private letter. —collegium, n. [at universities] private lectures or lessons [reading with a tutor], lectures delivered or lessons given quite privately. —communio, f. private communion. —haß, m. particular hate, peculiar hatred, personal hatred. —leben, n. private life; domestic life. —lehrer, m. a private teacher, private tutor [to or in a family]; master who gives private lessons. —mann, m. private individual, private person, private gentleman. Er ist ein —mann, he is a private individual, he leads a private [retired] life, the life of a private man, he lives as a private gentleman. —meinung, f. particular or peculiar, personal, individual opinion. —nutzen, m. private, particular or peculiar interest; it. personal, individual, one's own interest, advantage or profit. —person, f. a private person. V. —mann. —rache, f. private revenge, peculiar or particular vengeance, personal revenge. —recht, n. particular or peculiar right, private right. Das deutsche —recht, the German civil laws. —sache, f. a particular, a private affair, a private concern. —schreiben, n. V. —brief. —schule, f. a private school. —stunde, f. private lesson. —umgang, m. private intercourse, particular intercourse. —unterricht, m. private instruction or tuition. —versammlung, f. private assembly or meeting. —verschreibung, f. [in contradistinction to a bond &c. given before and set down by a public functionary, a notary &c.] obligation under sign manual, private signature, private bond or note-of-hand. —vortheil, m. particular, peculiar, private interest, advantage or profit.

Privatim, adv. privately.

Privatisiren, v. intr. to live in privacy; to lead a private, retired or domestic life; to live as a private citizen or gentleman.

*||Privet, n. [es, pl. -e] [in pop. lang.] the privy, the necessary, the place, the house of office, [in an English house] the water-closet, [fam.] the bower [in a garden]; [with collegians] the fornicus, [comic] the temple of Cloacina, [in seamen's lang. and fam.] the quarter-gallery; [low] jakes.

Privet=seger, —räumer, m. a night-man, a night-scavenger. —fotth, m. [delicate] job, [low] excrement, filth, turd, culsh.

Privilegiren, v. tr. to privilege. Einen —, to privilege any one, to accord or grant a privilege or privileges to any one; privilegirter Gläubiger, privilegierte Schuld [in law], a privileged creditor, debt, a creditor or debt having the preference of others and to be paid first.

Privilegium, n. [-s, pl. Privilegien] a privilege.

Probabiliorist, m. [-en, pl. -en] a teacher, expounder of the doctrine of probability.

Probabilismus, m. [-s] [with philosophers &c.] the doctrine, the opinion of probability, probabilism.

Probabilist, m. [-en, pl. -en] a believer in probabilism, one holding the doctrines, opinions, tenets of probability.

Probabilität, f. [pl. -en] probability.

Probät, adj. and adv. approved, tried. —es Mittel, an approved remedy.

Probation, f. probation, trial; proof.

Probe, f. [pl. -n] [Fr. épreuve, allied to prüfen, to the Lat. probare], dim. Pröbchen, ||Pröblein, n. [-s, pl. -] 1) proof, test, trial, essay or assay. Eine — mit Etwas anstellen, machen, to make the essay, assay, trial of any thing, to prove any thing; sich zur — Etwas von einer Sache geben lassen, to have given one, to take something as a pattern, sample or specimen; zur — nehmen, to take upon trial; Einem ein Pferd &c. auf die — geben, to give, to lend any one a horse &c. upon trial; ich gebe Ihnen diese Uhr auf die —, I will let you have this watch upon trial; — nehmen [in mining], to make the essay of a mine or ore; zur — singen, predigen, or — singen &c., to rehearse one's self, to try one's abilities, one's strength in singing, in preaching &c.; it. to show one's abilities in singing, preaching &c. by a proof-sermon, a proof-sermon &c.; die — bestehen, halten, aushalten, to stand the proof, to abide the touch-stone, to sustain the trial, to be proof against; er hält die — der Bestechung nicht aus, he can't hold out against money, he is not proof against corruption, [fam.] he has an itching palm, he has his price, he is to be bought; er hält in allen Fällen die — he is proof against every thing, not to be tempted, perverted or corrupted; he is as inflexible as steel; diese Farbe hält die —, this colour stands; Einen auf die — setzen or stellen, to put any one to the proof, to the test; ihre Freundschaft wurde auf eine harte — gesetzt or gestellt, their friendship was put to a hard proof, hard trial, a severe test, their friendship, their amity received a severe shock; seine Treue wurde auf die — gestellt, his truth, his fidelity was put to the test, was proved; mit einer Person or Sache eine — machen, to make trial of a person, test of a thing, to test a person &c., to put a person &c. to the test; nehmen Sie ihn zwei oder drei Monate auf die —, take him for two or three months upon trial. 2) essay, trial, pattern, sample, specimen. — von Wein, Del, Schießpulver &c., sample of wine, oil, gunpowder &c.; da ist eine — von seinem Getreide, there is a sample of his corn, of his grain; it. [with miners] eine — ansetzen, to make the essay of an ore by scorification; eine — einsetzen, to place the matter to be tested on the muffle; die — hüpfet, sprüget, the essay hops, flies; die — zu leicht gehen lassen, to give too much heat to the essay; it. lesen Sie nur eine Seite dieses Gedichts, sie ist eine — vom Ganzen, just read a page, only one page of this poem, it is a pattern, sample, specimen of the whole; daß ist ein Probchen von seiner Denkungsart, that is or there you have a little, a slight specimen of his way or mode of thinking; — n seiner Fähigkeit, seiner Kenntnisse, seiner Tapferkeit &c. ablegen, to give proofs of one's skill, acquirements, courage &c.; it. [in music, in the theatre] die —, the rehearsal; man hat zwei — n von diesem Lustspiele gehalten, there have been two rehearsals of this comedy; morgen ist [ein] Concert, heute ist — [davon], to-morrow there is to be a concert, to-day it's the rehearsal; it. [in arithmetic] proof; die — machen, to make the proof, to prove; die — der Division wird durch die Multiplication gemacht, the proof of division is done, made by multiplication. 3) mark, stamp, countermark [that any thing has been assayed or proved]; [with goldsmiths &c.] the stamp, government-stamp, [in England] lion [on silver &c.]; diese silbernen Löffel haben die — nicht, these silver spoons have not got the stamp, the essay-mark; Silber mit Augsbürger —, silver bearing the Augsburg stamp or mark; dieses Silbergeschirr hat die Pariser —, this silver-plate bears the Paris mark or stamp. 4) any instrument for assaying, proving, testing, touching [as a touch-needle, touch-stone &c.]; it. model; [with weavers &c.] a sampler; [in a moral sense] model, example.

Probe=arbeit, f. proof or essay-work. — backen, n. [with bakers] trial-batch. — band, m. model, volume serving as a pattern, given as a pattern; it. volume serving or given forth as a sample of those further to be published, specimen-volume. — band, n. 1) a riband serving as a pattern. 2) [with coopers] pattern-hoop. — blatt, n. 1) [in printing] proof-sheet. Die — blätter, the first proofs, the first leaves or sheets struck off; schmutziges — blatt, sheet or leaf full of monks or blots. 2) pattern-sheet or leaf, serving as a model; it. [of books to be published, of newspapers &c.] specimen-sheet, specimen-number. — blech, n. [with founders] metallic semi-spherical plate for the essays. — blei, n. [with founders] essay-lead. — bogen, m. [with printers] a proof-sheet. Eiznen — bogen abziehen, to draw, to strike off a proof-sheet; der zweite — bogen, the revise; it. specimen sheet [of a book, newspaper &c. to be published]. — buch, n. [with founders] 1) register-book or ledger for the assays. 2) book on docimacy or assaying, teaching the docimastic or assaying art. 3) book serving as a pattern, specimen or sample, V. — band, m. — dreschen, n. 1) the threshing [of corn &c.] for a sample. 2) threshing-trial [of a thresher or threshers to be hired or tried in their skill]. — druck, m. 1) proof-impression. 2) trial-impression. [with engravers] — drücke von einer geätzten Platte, proofs in aqua fortis. — eisen, n. [with miners] essay-iron. — ende, n. [of a piece of linen] pattern. — fäßchen, n. [for testing gun-powder] rundlet, runlet. — fest, adj. and adv. proof against, standing the test, beyond the reach of. Er ist ein — fester Freund, he is a staunch friend. — flug, m. first flight. — garn, n. [a small quantity of thread serving to regulate the thickness of the rest] needful, pattern-thread. — gehäuse, n. [with miners &c.] the frame of an assay-balance. — geräth, n. the essayer's utensils. — gesang, m. first song, trial or rehearsal of a song; it. a song or air sung in a trial of one's skill [in singing] or power of voice. — gewicht, n. 1) essay-weight, weight for assaying. 2) the standard-weight. — gold, n. [with goldsmiths] essay-gold, standard-gold. — halten, adj. and adv. proof against; staunch. — haltendes Silber, V. — silber. — haltigkeit, f. the quality of being proof against, of that which is proof against or that stands the proof. — hammer, m. [with miners] the essayer's hammer. — hengst, m. the teaser, a shew-stallion [for seeing if the mare be horsy; not the real stallion to cover]. — jagen, n. trial-chase, shooting, hunting, sporting on trial [for proving hounds, or testing one's own newly acquired skill]. — jahr, n. the year of probation, of the noviciate. — kapelle, f. [in chemistry &c.] essay-cupel. — keile, f. [with founders] an assay-trowel. — flust, f. V. — jange. — korn, n. 1) [with founders] bottom, remnant, button. 2) [in commerce] sample of corn. — kunst, f. [with founders] docimacy, docimastic science, science of assaying. Die — kunst auf trockenem, auf nassem Wege, docimacy by the dry way or touching, by the wet method or way, or analysing &c. — lampe, f. a docimastic lamp. — lehrling, m. an essay-apprentice, apprentice on trial, novice. — lektion, f. first lesson, lesson on trial, test-lesson. — löffel, m. 1) an assay-spoon; [with tinmen, soap-boilers &c.] a prover. 2) sample or pattern-spoon, spoon serving as a model or specimen. — mark, f. essay-mark. — maß, n. standard-measure. Ein Maß nach dem — maß abgleichen, to assimilate, to match a measure by the standard one, to procure a counterpart of the standard-measure. — mäßig, adj., — mäßigkeit, f. V. — haltig &c. — mehl, n. [with founders] essay-powder. — morgen, m. [in rural economy] a proof-acre [for taxing forests, woods]. — münze, f. [in the mint] proof-coin, V. — schlag. — muster, n. proof, pattern, sample, specimen, model, sampler. — nadel, f. [with goldsmiths] touch-needle. — näpfchen, n. [with founders] essay-porringer. — ofen, m. [with founders] the essay-furnace, cupel. — pfanne, f. [in alum-works] essay-pan. — pfund, n. pound-weight for assaying, standard-pound, V. — gewicht. — platte, f. [with tinmen] brass-plate on which tin is touched and assayed; [in the mint] coiner's standard, adjusting-weight; [with goldsmiths] — plättchen, a little gold essay-plate. — predigt, f. trialsermon [of a candidate or candidates for a living or curateship]; first sermon, maiden-sermon. Seine — predigt halten, to hold, to deliver one's maiden-sermon, one's trial sermon. — ring, m. [with pinmakers] gauge, gage or standard-ring [with gold &c. wire-drawers] iron gauge-ring. — ritt, m. 1) [of jockey's] trial-ride, trial 2) [in the riding-school] essay-ride [for ladies]. — röhre, f. [with miners] the essay or trial pipe [on a steam machine]. — rolle, f. [on the theatre] debut, maiden-part, first performance, first appearance. In einer — rolle auftreten, to make one's debut, one's first appearance, to play one's maiden-part. — schale, f., — schälchen, n. [with founders] little bason or scale for assaying. — scheffel, m. standard-bushel, [in England] Winchester bushel. — scherven, m. V. — näpfchen. — schiefer, m. V. — stein. — schießen, n. trial-shot [of a company of marksmen or archers]. — schlag, m. [in the mint] standard-piece; it. [at tennis] the service, mistress, essay. — schlag spielen, to give the service. — schrist, f. specimen of handwriting; it. a sample. — schuß, m. shot for proving a barrel and its range; it. shot for proving one's skill, trial-shot. — silber, n. 1) silver of good alloy, standard-silver [having the requisite fineness]. 2) essay-silver. — stämpel, m. [with goldsmiths] stamp, die. Das Gold, das Silber mit dem — stämpel zeichnen, to stamp gold, silver with the standard-mark. — stange, f. [with founders] the beam of an assay-balance or pair of scales. — stätte, f. [in the mint] the assaying or assaying place. — stein, m. 1) [with goldsmiths] touch-stone. Fig. Auf diesem — steine hielt seine Verstellung nicht aus, his dissimulation could not stand, was not proof against this test; this touchstone put his dissimulation to a test it was not prepared for, and incapable of baffling; das Unglück ist der — stein der Freunde, der Freundschaft, misfortune is the touchstone, the sure test of friends, of friendship. 2) [with founders, tinmen &c.] a large square stone generally of porphyry on which tin-stones are rubbed small &c.; [with tinmen] stone-mould for melting the essay-weights. — tube, f. [with founders] the chamber for assaying, laboratory; [in the mint] assaying or assaying-place. — stück, n. 1) specimen, pattern-piece, sample. Fig. Sein — stück ablegen, to make one's first essay, one's first trial, [fam.] to take one's maiden-flight. 2) model, pattern. — tiegel, m. essay-crucible for testing, assaying, proving ore &c. — tiegeldeckel, m. the lid of the essay-crucible or cupel. — tiegelfuß, m., — tiegelstüßchen, n. foot, little stand of the essay-crucible. — tute, f. [in mining] essay-cornet. — uhr, f. 1) watch upon trial, bought or sold upon trial. 2) [with watchmakers] [pendulum-] clock by which others are regulated, a regulator-clock. — viertel, n. quarter-standard; V. — maß. — wage, f. [with founders] essay-balance. — wasser, n. [for proving gold] corrosive liquor, coleritum. — jange, f. [with founders] essayer's long pinchers, long essay-callipers or tongs. — zeit, f. time of trial; [in a nunnery or convent] probation, noviciate. — zentner, m. standard hundredweight or quintal. — zettell, m. [in studs &c.] register of the mares in a stud that have been covered [have taken or not &c.]. — ziegel, m. [with brickmakers] pattern-tile. — zinn, n. common tin.

Proben=stößer, m. [with founders] brayer or pounder of the assay-ore or ore to be tested.

Proben, [generally] Probiren, v. tr. and intr. 1) to prove. Ein Pferd, eine Kanone, ei- nen Küras &c. —, to prove, to try a horse, to prove a cannon, a breast plate &c.; ein Federmesser, eine Feder —, to try a penknife, a pen; einen Wein, eine Speise —, to taste a wine, a dish of viands &c.; die Kraft eines Giftes an einem Thiere —, to test, to make an experiment of the strength of a poison on an animal; die Pfeifererde —, to try pipe-clay; das Gold und Silber —, to try, to essay, to touch gold, to try or assay silver; [with founders] das Erz —, to make an essay of mineral ore; [in the mint] eine Münze —, to assay a coin; it. man muß es —, one must try it, er will Alles —, he wants to try, to prove, to test, to analyze every thing; eine Rolle, ein Schauspiel, eine Musik &c. —, to rehearse a part, a play, a piece of music; Einen, seine Geduld &c. —, to try any one, any one's patience, to put any one, any one's patience or any one's stock of patience &c. to the proof. 2) [little used] to prove, to shew. Das —, the assay, essay, proof; das — des Goldes auf die Feine, the assaying of gold for ascertaining its degree of fineness or standard; das — einer Musik, Oper &c., the rehearsal, trial of a piece of music, of an opera &c.

Prober, m. [-s, pl. -] 1) one that proves, makes a trial &c. [not much used]; [with founders, in the mint] essayer, assayer. 2) hydrometer, gauge.

Probiren, Probiren, v. Proben, Prober. Probirblei, —buch, —gehäuse, —gewicht, n., —hammer, m., —kunst, f. &c. v. Probellei &c.

Problem, n. [-es, pl. -e] a problem.

Problematisch, adj. and adv. problematic. problematical.

Probst, m. v. Propst.

Procediren, v. intr. [chiefly in law] to proceed.

Procedur, f. [pl. -en] [chiefly in law] procedure, trial.

Procent, Prozent, n. [-es, pl. -e] percent. Ich bezahle nur ein or 1 —, I only pay one per cent; er gewinnt 100 — auf diese or an dieser Baare, he wins, he gets or nets a clear profit of a 100 per cent on this article; zu wie viel — haben Sie Ihr Geld angelegt? at how much per centage, at what rate of interest have you placed out, have you invested your money? zu vier, fünf —, at four, at five per cent.

Proceß, v. Prozeß.

Procession, Prozeßion, f. [Feierzug, um- und, großer or feierlicher Zug] [chiefly in the Romish or Greek church] procession. Am Fronleichnamstage ist jedesmal eine große —, on corpus-Christi-day there is always a grand or solemn procession; die Bürgerschaft begab sich in — or in feierlichem Zuge nach dem Schlosse, the citizens repaired in procession to the castle.

Processionsraupe, f. [in nat. hist.] the processionary or evolutionary caterpillar [in a band with a chief or leader at their head].

Processiren, v. Prozeßiren.

Proclamation, f. proclamation. Eine — ertassen, to make, to issue, to publish a proclamation.

Proclamiren, v. tr. Einen zum König &c., to proclaim any one king &c.; Etwas —, to proclaim, to herald forth, to publish something; ein verlobtes Paar —, to publish the bans.

Proconsul, m. [-s, pl. -n] [in Roman hist.] proconsul.

Proconsularisch, adj. and adv. proconsular.

Proconsulat, n. [-es, pl. -e] the proconsulate, proconsulship.

Procura, f. [in commerce] power to sign. Einem Buchhalter die — erteilen, to empower a book-keeper to sign in the name of his principal or principals.

Procuratraget, m. a person intrusted with the signature of a commercial firm.

Procurator, m. [-s, pl. -en] proctor, assignee, proxy, attorney; [in Venetian history] procurator.

Produciren, v. tr. and intr. to produce; it. to exhibit.

Produkt, n. [-es, pl. -e] produce. Das — der Erde, eines Landes, the produce, production of the earth or soil, of a land or country; [in arithmetic] das — der multiplicierten Zahlen, the product of multiplied numbers; 16 ist das — von zwei Mal 8, 16 is the product of twice 8.

Production, f. production; it. performance.

Profan, adj. and adv. [originally in Roman history] before the temple or shrine, uninitiated, vulgar, profane; [thence, commonly] profane, pagan, not sacred, unholy, impious, blasphemous.

Profan-geschichte, f. profane history. —chriftsteller, m. profane author or writer.

Profane, m. [-n, pl. -n] the profane, the laity [as opposed to the priesthood or initiated].

Profaniren, v. tr. to profane, to desecrate [in the original as well as in a more common sense].

Profess, m. [-fies] [with catholics] the order-vow. — thun, to make or take the order-vow; ein Ordensgeistlicher, welcher, eine Klosterschwester, welche — gethan hat, a monk or nun who has taken the vows after the novitiate, a professed monk or nun; seitdem er — gethan hat, since his profession, his taking of the order-vows, since he has professed.

Professhaus, n. house of or for profession, [with the Jacobite friars] natal house.

Profession, f. [of trades-people] trade, calling. Eine — treiben, to follow, to exercise a profession; ein Schuhmacher, ein Schneider seiner — or von —, a shoemaker, a tailor by trade; it. [in a bad sense] er ist ein Spieser von —, he is a professed gambler, he makes a profession of gambling, he makes gambling a regular business, a trade.

Professionist, m. [-en, pl. -en] artisan, tradesman.

Professor, m. [-s, pl. -en] professor; lecturer. — der Philosophie, professor of or in philosophy.

Professor-stelle, f. the chair, place of a professor. Eine — stelle erhalten, to obtain a professor's chair. —titel, m. title of professor.

Professorat, n. [-es, pl. -e] or Professur, f. [pl. -en] professorship, v. Professorstelle.

Professorinn, f. a professoress; the lady or wife of a professor.

Profil, n. [-es, pl. -e] [with painters] the profile. Einen Kopf im — e mahlen, to paint a head in profile, to paint a profile; sie ist schöner im — e, als &c., she is handsomer in profile, than &c.; it. [in architecture] das — eines Gebäudes, the profile, the profile of a building &c.

Profit, m. [-es, pl. -e] [in pop. language, Vorteil, Nutzen] profit. dim. —chen, n. [-s, pl. -] 1) a small profit. 2) a save-all [for candles].

Profitiren, v. intr. [in familiar and popular language] to profit by or on, to make a profit on or by [in a proper as well as in a figurative sense].

Profosß, m. [-en, pl. -en] [in the army] [formerly] provost, [now] military jailor, [and still in some armies] appointed to execute the corporal punishment on soldiers [the ranks with the non commissioned officers or corporals]. General — [formerly], the provost-marshal.

Prognosticiren, v. tr. and intr. to prognosticate.

Prognosticon or Prognosticum, n. [-s, pl. Prognostica] prognostic.

Prognostiker, m. [-s, pl. -] a prognosticator.

Programm, n. [-es, pl. -e] [in schools] the programma, program. [in a more general sense] Das — zu dem Feste, the program of the feast or festival; das — des neuen Ministeriums [modern], the programme of the new ministry.

Progrèß, m. [-fies, pl. -fies] [not much used, = Vorschrift, Sortschritt, Weiterrücken] progress.

Progression, f. progression. Arithmetische, geometrische —, arithmetical, geometrical progression.

Progressions-flächig, adj. and adv. [forming the commencement of an arithmetical progressive series as 6, 4, 2, from the numbers that shew the sides of the prism &c.] equidifferent. — mäßig, —weise, adj. and adv. v. Progressiv.

Progressiv, adj. and adv. progressive.

Pröhne, v. Prone.

Project, n. [-es, pl. -e] project, v. Entwurf, Plan.

Project[en]macher, m. [in fam. language, in contempt] maker of plans, of projects, a projector [of schemes &c.], v. also Planmacher.

Projection, f. [in alchemy] projection.

Projectionspulver, n. [with alchemists] projecting-powder.

Projectiren, v. tr. to project [in a proper as well as in a figurative sense]. Eine Reise — [in familiar language], to intend, to purpose making a journey.

Prolog, m. [-es, pl. -e] prologue.

Prolongation, f. [in commerce] prolongation, extension [of the usual grace, of the term for payment], instalment, renewal of a bill; it. [in a more general sense, not much used] delay, put-off.

Prolongiren, v. tr. [in commerce] to renew, to prolong [a bill]. Prolongirter Wechsel, a bill renewed, put off, prolonged.

Promemoria, n. [-s, pl. Promemorien] promemoria; memorial.

Promotion, f. promotion, [at a university] graduation.

Promotor, m. [-s, pl. -en] [little used] [in schools] promoter.

Promoviren, v. tr. [befördern] to promote. Er ist zum Kardinal &c. promovirt worden, he has been promoted to the cardinal-ship &c.; [in schools] promovirt werden, to be promoted [to a higher class]. II. v. intr. [in high-schools] to take one's degrees, a doctor's degree; to graduate.

Prompt, adj. and adv. prompt. [in commerce] — e [= baare] Zahlung, prompt payment.

Prone or Pröhne, f. [pl. -n] [allied to Branne = Rand] [in rural economy] border, edge of a field overgrown with brush or leaf-wood. Die — eines Waldes, the border of a wood or forest.

Prönne, f. [pl. -n] [probably allied to Rinne] [with miners] chop, cleft, fissure chiseled in the rock [for reaching the vein or lode of ore].

Prönnen, v. tr. [with miners] to chop, cleave, split or open the rock [with a chisel &c. for reaching the ore]. Das Gestein läßt sich wohl —, the rock is soft, crumbly, is easily worked, yields freely to the chisel.

Pronömen, n. [-s, pl. Pronomina] [in grammar] pronoun.

Propaganda, f. propaganda.

Propagandismus, m. propagandism.

Propagandist, m. [-en, pl. -en] propagandist.

Propèr, [-es or -ens, pl. -e] or Propertius, m. [the poet] Propertius.

Prophét, m. [-en, pl. -en], — inn, f. 1) [in the Bible] prophet, prophetess, [in profane hist.] predictor; seer; foreteller, augur; interpreter of dreams. Der königliche —, the royal, regal or kingly Prophet [David]; [in Scripture] die vier großen —n, the four great prophets; die zwölf kleinen —en, the twelve minor prophets; Sie sind ein schlimmer or schlechter — [in fam. lang.], you are a bad, a poor prophet; you are always prophesying wrong, falsely; it. [fam.] you are a constant croaker, always croaking; ein falscher — [in Scripture], a false prophet or seer. Prov. Ein — gilt nirgends weniger, als in seinem Vaterlande, a prophet is never honoured in his own country. 2) [in nat. hist.] the Surinam gryllus, walking-leaf, Spanish-horse.

Propheten=apfel, m. V. —gurke. —gabe, f. the gift of prophecy, [in Scotland] of second sight. —geist, m. spirit of prophecy. —gurke, f. the Arabian cucumber. —kraut, n. V. Bittfenkraut. —kuchen, m. a hard and thin fancy-biscuit or cake [strewed with sugar and cinnamon]. —schule, f. [in Jewish hist.] school of the prophets.

Prophetenschaft, f. quality, rank, dignity of a prophet or seer; the prophetic dignity.

Prophétisch, adj. and adv. prophetic, prophetic. Das —e Amt Christi, the prophetic ministry of Christ; eine —e Schreibart, a prophetic style. Fig. Eine —e Rede, ein —er Geist, a prophetic discourse, spirit; er hat — gesprochen, he has spoken prophetically.

Prophezeien, v. tr. to prophesy, to predict. Unglück —, to predict misfortune, [fam.] to croak; ich hatte ihm prophezeit, daß &c., I had foretold him, that &c. Das —, the prophesying, the predicting, the foretelling, the soothsaying, [fam.] the croaking.

Prophezeiung, f. prophecy, prophesying. Die Gabe der —, the gift of prophecy, [in Scotland] of second sight; die Erfüllung der —en, the accomplishment, the fulfilling or fulfilment of the prophecies; seine — ist eingetroffen, his prediction has been fulfilled, has come to pass, is accomplished.

Proponēt, m. [-en, pl. -en] in familiar language] one who proposes, moves any thing; it. [in schools, at universities &c.] candidate.

Proponiren, v. tr. [in familiar lang.] to propose, to move.

Propontis, m. [in ancient geography] the Propontis.

Proportion, f. proportion; relation.

Proportional, adj. proportional.

Proportional=linie, f. a proportional line. —zirkel, m. compass of proportion, a proportional compass, a sector. —zirkellinie, f. a quadratrix line.

Proportioniren, v. tr. to proportion, to proportionate. Ein gut proportionirter Körperbau or Wuchs [in fam. lang.], a well-proportioned frame.

Proposition, f. [Anerbieten, it. Satz] proposition.

Proprätor, m. [-s, pl. -en] [in Roman hist.] praetor.

Pröpst, m. [-es, pl. Pröpste] [from the Lat. praepositus = set before or over] [an ecclesiastical dignity] [with German or Lutheran protestants] provost, [in the Romish church] prior. V. Dom —, Feld —. Der — or Kirchen — [in the English church], dean [of a cathedral]; rural dean, it. archdeacon [of a diocese].

Propst=gericht, n. V. Provsteigericht. —stelle, f. dignity, place of a provost, prior, dean &c.

Propstei, f. 1) provostship; priorship, priorate. 2) provost's dwelling, the deanery, priory. 3) the district of a provost or prior &c.

Propstei=acker, —garten, m. —wiese, f. field or glebe, garden, meadow of the provost. —gericht, n. [tribunal in which the ecclesiastical provost presides] provostship.

Propsteilich, adj. and adv. appertaining to the provost or provostship.

Pröpstin, f. the lady provost, it. the provost's wife or lady; prioress.

Prorector, m. [-s, pl. -en] [at German universities] prorector; it. [sometimes, at grammar schools] the head teacher.

Prorector=amt, n. —würde, f. [at universities] prorectorate.

Prorectorat, n. [-es, pl. -e] V. Prorector=amt.

Prosa, Prose, f. [indecl.] prose. Er schreibt nur in —, he only writes in prose, he is a prosaic writer, a prose-author.

Prosaiker, m. [-s, pl. -] a prose-author, prosaic writer, prosaist.

Prosaisch, adj. and adv. prosaic, prosaical. Die —en Schriftsteller, the prose-authors; —er Ausdruck [in a bad sense], a prosy expression, a very common-place term; das ist — gesagt, that is quite in a prose-style. Fig. Er ist ein recht —er Mensch [in familiar language], he is a dry, thorough matter-of-fact man.

Proscénium, n. [-s, pl. Proscenien] the proscenium [of a theatre].

Prose, V. Prosa.

Proselyt, m. [-en, pl. -en], — inn, f. proselyte —en machen, to make proselytes.

Proselyten=macher, m. one who has the mania of making proselytes. —macherei, f. proselytism, the mania, the phrensy, mad desire of making proselytes or converts, of converting.

Proserpina, [-s or Proserpinen] [in mythology] [the goddess] Proserpine.

Prosit! [low, fam.] may it do you good! [said to one in Germany after sneezing, and thence, in a more general meaning, whilst in the enjoyment of some sensual pleasure as drinking &c.].

Prosodie, f. [pl. -n] prosody.

Prosodisch, adj. and adv. prosodical.

Prospèct, m. [-es, pl. -e] prospect; it. [in architecture] V. Riß, Aufriß.

Prospèctus, m. prospectus.

Prosperiren, v. intr. to prosper, to succeed.

Prospèrität, f. prosperity.

Prostituiren, v. tr. 1) to prostitute [a female]. 2) Fig. [in fam. lang.] to expose any one to shame or derision. Sich —, 1) to prostitute one's self, to turn strumpet. 2) Fig. [in familiar language] to commit a sad, a scandalous blunder.

Prostitution, f. prostitution.

Protasis or Protase, f. protasis.

Protection, f. protection; it. favouritism.

Protector, m. [-s, pl. -en] protector.

Protegiere, v. tr. [pron. Proteschiere] to protect; it. to favour.

Protest, m. [-es, pl. -e] [with bankers &c.] protest. Den — erheben, to make a protest.

Protestkosten, pl. the expences or costs of a protest.

Protestant, m. [-en, pl. -en], — inn, f. protestant. Die deutschen —en, die —en in Deutschland, the German protestants, the protestants in Germany.

Protestantisch, adj. and adv. Die —e Religion, the protestant religion, protestantism; die —en Reichstände [in German history], the protestant estates [of the Empire]; —er Geistlicher, protestant clergyman or preacher, minister; sie ist —, she is a protestant.

Protestantismus, m. protestantism.

Protestation, f. protestation. Eine — einlegen [in law], to enter a protest, to make a or one's protestation.

Protestiren, I. v. intr. to protest. Gegen eine Verhandlung —, to protest against an act; er hat dawider or dagegen protestirt, he has protested against it. II. v. tr. [with bankers] Einen Wechsel —, to protest a bill or letter of exchange; protestirter Wechsel, a protested bill.

Proteus, m. [in mythology] Proteus. Fig. Er ist ein wahrer — [in familiar language], he is a real Proteus.

Protokoll, n. [-es, pl. -e] [in law] minutes of any event taken by authority, verbal process, register, record, [in diplomacy] protocol. Etwas zu — nehmen, to draw up a verbal process of any thing; der Notar hat die Sache zu — genommen or hat ein — darüber aufgenommen, the notary has made a verbal process of the affair; das Gericht hat seine Aussage zu — genommen or hat ein — über seine Aussagen aufgenommen, the court, the magistrates got his evidence taken down; ich bitte, meine Erklärung zu — zu nehmen, I demand the making of a verbal process, the taking down of my declaration, my affidavit, I request the insertion of my declaration on the register, in the books, on the rolls of the court &c.; Zeuge or Depo= nent, unterschreiben Sie das —! witness, sign your declaration or affidavit! zu — geben, to depose, to give written evidence [before a court of law]; das — führen, to hold the register, to keep the rolls; in das — eintragen, to register, to insert on the rolls, on the records of the court, in the register, on the books, to record; das Eintragen in das —, the registering, the recording, the insertion in the rolls, on the record, the registration.

Protokollarisch, adj. and adv. protocolary; by protocol.

Protokolliren, v. tr. to register, to record; to put, to insert in the register, rolls, record or minutes, to minute down, to make or to draw up a verbal process; it. [in diplomacy] to draw up a protocol. Ist die Sache protokolliert? is the affair registered, placed on the record, recorded? seine Klage, seine Aussage wurde sogleich protokolliert, his complaint, his evidence was taken down [by the clerk of the court or tribunal] immediately.

Protokollist, m. [-en, pl. -en] [Protokollführer] the drawer up of a verbal process, clerk or writer at a court or tribunal; it. [in diplomacy] a protocolist, a protocoliser. Lord Palmerston ist ein berühmter —, Lord Palmerston is a celebrated protocolist.

Protonotarius, m. [pl. -notarien] protonotary, [generally, but erroneously, written] protonotary.

Protoryd, n. [-s, pl. -e] [in chemistry] protoxide.

||Pröseln, [appears allied to brasseln] v. intr. [with cooks] to stew. — lassen, to leave to stew, to let stew.

Prögel suppe, f. soup that has been left to stew.

1. Pröhen, v. tr. [perhaps allied to the old fretten, to do tiresome fretting work, to fret] Eine Kanone — [in artillery], to mount a cannon.

Prögelfette, f. [in artillery] limber chain of the carriage of a cannon. — Lochschiene, f. [in artillery] [Schwanzriegelblech] obere — Lochschiene, upper stock-cheek clout; untere — Lochschiene, under stock cheek clout. — Nagel, m. [in artillery] working-peg of the fore-carriage of a cannon. — rad, n. the fore-wheel or limber of a cannon-carriage. — ring, m. the cross-beam ring of an ordnance-train. — Schemel, [-schämel] m. the fore-train stool of a piece of ordnance. — Schemelblech, n. or — Schemelschiene, f. stool-plate. — Schemelstift, m. pin attaching the ordnance-frame stool to the axle-tree. — Schemelstock, m. stock of the cheek. — wagen, m. a two-wheeled axle-train of a cannon or piece of ordnance.

2. ||Pröhen, [V. Präsig] v. intr. [allied to the Engl. to fret = sich ärgern] [in popular lang.] [= mauten] to be in the sulks, to be sulky, to pout, to be in one's tantrums, to be grumpy or sullen. [low] to give another one's sauce. Das — [Mauten], pouting, sulking.

Pröschbüchsen, n. — winkel, m. boudoir, lady's dressing room.

||Prösig, adj. and adv. [in popular language] 1) stiff, unbending, inflexible, firm. 2) pouting, sulky, sullen, grumpy, peevish, cross-grained. Ein — er Mensch, a sullen fellow; — thun, to behave proudly, to play the grandee; it. to pout, to sulk, to make wry sullen faces.

Proviánt, m. [-es] [chiefly in the army or navy] provisions, provender, victuals, [fam. and low] prog. Eine Armee mit — versehen, to provide an army with provisions, with victualling supplies; eine Festung mit — versehen [verproviantiren], to victual a fortress; ein Schiff, eine Flotte mit — versehen [verproviantiren], to victual a ship, a fleet.

Proviantsamt, n. superintendence of the supplies. — brod, n. ammunition or munition bread, [with English soldiers, fam.] brown

George. — commissarius, m. V. — meister, — verwatter. — fuhrer, f. V. — wagen. — haus, n. victualling magazine; it. [sometimes, for troops on the march] canteen. — lieferung, f. furnishing of the provisions. — meister, m. commissary; [on board a ship] purser; [on a galley] major-domo. — schiff, n. a victualling ship, a tender. — verwatter, m. commissary, purveyor, victualling clerk; [sometimes] the owner of a magazine or canteen on the march. — wagen, m. the tumbril for provisions, bread-wagon.

Proviantiren, v. tr. to provision, to supply or purvey with provisions, [in seamen's language] to victual.

Provinz, f. [pl. -en] province, [as opposed to the metropolis] the country. Die schönsten — en Frankreichs sind &c., the finest provinces of France are &c.; er ist aus der —, he is from the country; die Nachrichten aus den — en, the news from the country.

Provinzrose, Provencerrose, f. [Cammetrose] the rose of Provence, the Provençal rose.

Provinzial, [chiefly in compound words] Provinziell, adj. and adv. provincial.

Provinzialrecht, n. provincial right; right of custom or usage, right by tradition, from immemorial usage; a bye-law. — sprache, f. provincial language, country-dialect. — versammlung, f. provincial assembly; [in England] county-meeting. — wort, n. a provincial word, saying or expression, provincialism.

Provinzial, m. [-es, pl. -e] 1) [not much used] an inhabitant of the province [as opposed to the inhabitant of the capital], a country-gentleman. [in familiar language or in contempt also Provinzler], country-bumpkin, a squire. 2) Eines Ordens [der Pater—], the provincial of a religious order.

Provinzialismus, m. [-s, pl. -en] provincialism. V. Provinzialwort.

Provision, f. [Worrath] provision; [in the army] provisions, supplies; [in commerce] [= Gebühr] commission, procuration-money.

Provisional, adj. [chiefly in law] [vorläufig, einstweilig] provisional, temporary.

Provisionalbescheid, m. — urtheil, n. provisional decree, temporary sentence, judgment or rescript.

Provisor, m. [-s, pl. -en] 1) [with chemists and druggists] the apothecary's foreman. 2) [= ein Unterlehrer] [in schools] an usher.

Provisorisch, adj. and adv. [vorläufig, einstweilig] provisional, provisory, temporary. — Verwaltung, — Gesetz, temporary administration, provisional laws.

Prozént, V. Procent.

Prozeß, m. [-ßes, pl. -ße] [from the Lat. processus, process, manner of advance] 1) [with chemists] process, chemical operations; [in gastronomy] culinary process; [in medicine] process. 2) procedure, mode of proceeding. Bürgerlicher, peinlicher —, civil, criminal procedure; M's Handbuch des deutschen peinlichen — ßes, M's Manual of criminal procedure in Germany. 3) law-suit, cause, action at law, plea, dispute, process. Einen — haben or führen, to have a law-suit, to litigate; it. einen — führen [said of the attorney], to plead a cause or case; einen — anfangen, to commence, bring or institute an action; sich in einen — einlassen, to embark in, to enter into a law-suit; in einen — verwickelt seyn, to be drawn into, to be hampered with, to be involved in a law-suit; einen — mit Einem anfangen, to commence or institute legal proceedings with or against any one, to go to law with any one; er ist in den — mitverwickelt, er ist als Partei mit in dem — ße begriffen, he has involved himself, he is implicated in this law-suit, in this criminal procedure; er hat keinen Theil mehr an dem — ße, he has no longer any share in this suit, [fam.] he has backed out of this action, he has no longer any concern, any stake in these legal proceedings; sie haben einen — mit einander, sie führen —, there is a suit pending between them; einen — wegen Etwas führen, to file a declaration against, to institute legal proceedings on account of something; der — führende Theil, [little used in this sense] the plaintiff, the bringer of the action; die — führenden Theile, the litigants, the litigant parties; seinen — selbst führen, to conduct one's own case, to plead one's own cause, to be one's own's counsel as plaintiff &c.; dieser Sachwalter führt einen schönen, glänzenden —, this advocate conducts a good, brilliant case; einen — eine Zeitlang ruhen lassen, to allow a cause, to let a case slumber awhile, remain dormant for a time; er hat den — liegen gelassen, aufgegeben, he has allowed the legal proceedings to drop, abandoned the case, allowed judgment to go by default, [if a barrister] thrown up his brief; den — wieder or von Neuem anfangen, [fam.] wieder aufrühren or in Bewegung bringen, to bring a cause on again for a new trial, to shew cause for a new trial; die Dauer des — ßes, the duration of the suit; [fam. when protracted in England] the chancery-length of the action; an der Einrichtung eines — ßes arbeiten, einen — zum Spruche einleiten, to be occupied with preparing things for a trial, in the management or arrangement of things [witnesses, evidence] for the hearing of a case; to be occupied in drawing up one's instructions in a case; to prepare a cause for decision or giving judgment; dies Gut liegt, ist im — ße, this property is in dispute, forms the groundwork of an action, is claimed at law by two rival parties; einen — gewinnen, verlieren [of the counsel], to gain, to lose a cause; einen or seinen — gewinnen, verlieren [said of the party], to win, to lose a law-suit, one's cause; Einem den — machen, to follow up any one [in a criminal case] to judgment; it. to condemn him to death, to pass sentence of death upon any one, [in England &c.] upon the prisoner at the bar. 4) [no plural] the conducting of an action. Er versteht den —, he understands the practical management of a case, the rules of court. 5) [no plural] the minutes &c. of a cause. Einen — einsehen, durchsehen, to look into, to revise, to reperuse, to look through the minutes, the evidence [of a case], the legal proceedings.

Prozeßacten, pl. the acts, the minutes, the proceedings of an action or process. — führer, m. the litigant or suing party, the plaintiff; it. the pleader, advocate, counsel for the plaintiff, [formerly] avowee. — führung, f. litigation, suing at law; it. procedure; it. the conduct, the management of a suit, action or prosecution. — kosten, pl. the costs [of a law-suit, a criminal procedure]. — krämer, m. — krämerinn, f. [in a bad sense] wrangler, a person always going to law and getting himself into hot water, a litigious, quarrelsome fellow or woman. — krämeerei, f. V. — sucht. — mäßig, adj. and adv. after the forms of justice, [strictly] in rule, conformably to the rules or regulations of the court, to the forms laid down [and ordained in such matters]. — ordnung, f. the rules laid down in law, in civil or criminal procedures; the precedents, order of court, judiciary order; [in English courts of equity] decree of the court. — sache, f. law-suit, law-pleading, an affair for the bar. In — sachen, in law-pleadings, in suits at law, in legal matters; in — sachen wohl erfahren seyn, to be thoroughly versed, to be deeply experienced in law-proceedings. — sucht, f. the mania of going to law, the frenzy of litigious dispute, litigious phrensy or mania, disposition or spirit of litigation. — süchtig, adj. and adv. litigious, [fam.] always liking to get into hot water. Er ist — süchtig, hat einen — süchtigen Geist, he is a litigious sort of a personage, he has a mind possessed with the mania of going to law, [fam.] he has a litigious spirit of his own. — wesen, n. V. — ordnung. — wissenschaft, f. the science of conducting a suit, the knowledge of court-practice, law-proceedings.

Prozessiren*, v. intr. to carry on a law-suit, to go to law, to be at law, [little used] to litigate. Sie — schon lange mit einander, they have been at law with one another this long time. Das —, the act of proceeding in an action, the procedure; das — war niemals stärker Mode, als Sc., the rage of going to law, the litigious spirit abroad was never more the fashion, more prevalent than Sc.

Prozession*, f. V. Procession.

Prozessualisch*, adj. and adv. referring to, in Sc. a law-suit.

Prudel, m. [-s, pl. -] steam; it. bubbling spring or well.

Prudelstein, m. [Badestein] bath-stoe.

Prudeln, v. intr. 1) to emit steam or vapor; to bubble up with a noise. 2) [= pfuschen] [fam.] to botch, to bungle.

Prudler, m. [-s, pl. -] [= pfuscher] [fam.] botcher, bungler.

Prüfen, [Lat. probare, Fr. éprouver and prouer, V. probe] v. tr. to prove, to examine, to scrutinize, to explore. Einen Wein —, to taste, to test a wine; das Gold — [in Scripture], to prove gold, [also in the mint] V. under Probiren; eine Rechnung —, to examine an account; einen Vorschlag, eine Lehre Sc. —, to examine a proposition, a doctrine Sc.; prüfet Alles, und das Gute behaltet [in the new testament], prove all things, hold fast that which is good; sein Gewissen —, to examine one's conscience; sich selbst —, to examine one's self; einen Freund, seine Treue Sc. —, to prove a friend, to try, probe or test a friend's sincerity, sterling worth Sc.; er ist von geprüfter Treue, Tapferkeit, he is of tried fidelity, of approved courage, his truth, his valour has been put to the proof, tested, proved; durch Leiden geprüft, proved by sufferings, tried by adversity; einen Schüler Sc. — [examiniren], to examine a scholar Sc. Das —, V. Prüfung.

Prüf-eisen, n. [Sonde] iron for sounding or probing. — funst, f. [unusual] criticism, V. Kritik. — stein, m. V. Probe-stein. — zeit, f. V. Prüfungszeit.

Prüfejahr, n. V. Probejahr.

Prüfenswerth, Prüfenswürdig, adj. and adv. worthy of examination, trial, proof, scrutiny, the test.

Prüfer, m. [-s, pl. -] — inn, f. examiner, person who examines; scrutinizer; prover, tester; taster Sc.; [in schools Sc.] examiner. Der — einer Schrift, critic; censor.

Prüfling, m. [-s, pl. -e] [Examinand] the person going up to be examined, [students' cant, in Oxford] to pass his little or big go.

Prüfung, f. 1) proof, examination. Ein Buch der —, einer strengen — unterwerfen, to submit a book to the proof or correction; it. to a strict or rigid examination or criticism; it. to a strict censure; die — eines Geistes, the examination, the scrutiny, the test of a conscience; eine — anstellen, to hold an examination; eine — bestehen, to pass or undergo an examination; die öffentliche — der Schüler Sc., the public examination of the scholars Sc.; ein zur — Beauftragter, a person deputed or appointed to examine. 2) [originally in theology and then in a general sense, a religious proof of our zeal] trial; it. [rarely] temptation. Gott schickt uns mancherlei —en, God sends us many trials; harte —, a rude trial.

Prüfungsausschuß, m. committee of examiners, the examining committee; a committee of inquiry. — geist, m. an examining, investigating, scrutinizing spirit, mind or disposition. — mittel, n. means of proof, of investigating, testing, examining. — stunde, f. hour of examination, of trial. Fig. hour of tribulation, of trial, of suffering. — tag, m. day of examination, of trial, examination or trial day. Fig. — tage, pl. time of tribulation, days of trial or suffering, period of affliction. — thal, n. [with poets] valley of trials, vale of suffering. — zeit, f. time or period of tribulation, days of sorrow, suffering or affliction.

Prügel, m. [-s, pl. -] [appears allied to the old prügen, prüfeln, to beat Sc.], dim. — chen, || — lein, n. [-s, pl. -] 1) cudgel, club, truncheon, stick, [low] oaken towel. Man muß ihn mit dem — dazu treiben [in popular lang.], he must be driven to it by the cudgel, one must take up the cudgel and force him to it. Fig. Mit einem or dem — barein schlagen [in popular lang.], to employ violent remedies, to have resort or recourse to violent means. 2) pl. [Schläge] beating, cudgelling, whacks with a shillelah, bangs, drubbing, threshing, licking. — austheilen, to deal out heavy blows [with a cudgel Sc.], to give a licking, a drubbing; er hat eine tüchtige Tracht — bekommen [low], he has had a sound threshing, a regular drubbing, he has come in for such a licking, horsewhipping, caning.

Prügel-falle, f. snare or trap [for foxes, badgers, polecats Sc.]. — holz, n. sagot-wood. — nacht, f. marking-stitch, carpet-stitch. — suppe, f. [low, chiefly comic] a good hiding, a sound drubbing, [fam.] an oaken towel, monkey's allowance, more kicks than halfpence. — weg, m. V. Knüppeldamm.

Prügelei, f. [Schlägerei] beating, assault and battery, drubbing, threshing.

Prügeln, v. tr. and intr. Einen —, to beat, to drub, to horsewhip, to cane, to thresh any one, to give any one a threshing with a stick, a cane Sc., to give any one a caning, [fam.] to lather, to currycomb, to lick, to tan any one with a cudgel, to cudgel. Er hat ihn zu Tode geprügelt, he cudgelled him to death; einen Hund —, to thresh a dog; it. [= knütteln] to clog a dog.

Prügler, m. [-s, pl. -] a thresher, a fighter, a man who likes to cudgel people, who is fond of caning or horsewhipping others.

Prunelle*, f. [mostly pronounced Prünette] [pl. -n] [in botany] 1) prunello. 2) sloe, wild plum; it. the brignole plum. 3) Die wohltreibende portugiesische —, self-heal, the cleone of Portugal. 4) Prunellen, n. V. Fliegen-schnäpper 2).

Prunellen-saft, m. 1) the juice of the prunello. 2) acacia juice or sap. — salz, n. [Salpeterfugelschen] salt of prunello, saltpetre-drops, nitre-balls.

Prünen, V. Prinen.

Prünenziegel, V. Prünziegel.

Prungnägel, m. [-s, pl. -nägel] [Prung is allied to the provinc. pfängen = zwängen?] [with dyers] [reel, for winding the cloth on out of the coop] staple, winder.

Prunk, m. [-s] [allied to prängen, pracht] excessive display, parade, pomp, sumptuousness, pomposity, gaudy shew. — zei-gen, treiben, to make a parade or display. [fam.] to cut it mighty fine, to shew off; ein Mann ohne allen —, a man without the least parade, a man without any shew, a simple, unassuming man; in diesem Hause herrscht mehr —, als Pracht und guter Geschmack, in this house there is more of gaudy display, than of magnificence and good taste. Fig. Es ist viel — in seine Handlungen Sc., there is much pride, much shew-off in his actions Sc.; die Tugend der Stoiker war nicht ganz ohne —, the virtue of the stoics was not altogether exempt from ostentation, was not entirely without parade. Syn. Prunk, Pracht, Gepränge, Pomp, Prakterei. Pomp approaches nearest to Pracht. It is an augmentation of the idea of Pracht, and indicates Pracht suited only for the highest or most distinguished persons, and on the most solemn occasions. Gepränge approaches more nearly to Prunk. It signifies, in its origin, a frequent Prängen; it is not, however, always without internal worth; only when it is vain and empty it is Prunk. Still lower than Prunk is Prakterei, for this seeks to excite attention and admiration by excellencies which it does not possess or, at least, not in the degree it pretends to.

Prunk-aufzug, m. pomp, magnificent apparel. — bett, n. state-bed; it. bed of state. — blume, f. a gaudy flower. — bohne, f. upright kidney-bean, tree-kidney-bean. — des-gen, m. dress sword. — finger, m. [not much used] ring-finger, the wedding-ring finger. — gebäude, n. sumptuous edifice or pile. — gemach, n. state apartment or suite of rooms; state chamber. — gericht, n. sumptuous dish or viand, state-dish. — geschirr, n. 1) V. — gefäß. 2) [Pferdegeschirr] state-harness [for processions Sc.]. — gespann, n. state set or team [of horses]. — gewand, n. state-habit or dress, robe of state or ceremony. — hengst, m. a shew-stallion; it. a splendid, fine stallion. — kleid, n. V. — gewand. — kutsche, f. state-coach, state-carriage. — liebend, adj. and adv. loving pomp, pride, display. — los, adj. and adv. without pomp, parade, pride, display, void of display Sc., simple, unpretending, unassuming. — palast, m. sumptuous palace. — pferd, n. V. — roß. — rede, f. a declamatory speech, declamation, pompous harangue. — redner, m. a declamator, pompous orator. — roß, n. state or parade horse, palfrey. — saal, m. state-room, [at St. James'] drawing-room. — sucht, f. mania, rage, excessive and ridiculous love of display Sc. — süchtig, adj. and adv. full to excess of display Sc.; loving parade Sc. extravagantly. — tag, m. state-day, day of pomp, of parade Sc. — voll, adj. and adv. full of [vain] pride, display Sc., pompous. — volle Gemächer, sumptuous apartments; — volle Philosophie, proud, vain, fond philosophy. — werk, n. 1) a sumptuous rich work or volume. 2) work of display, pomp Sc., every thing serving to display Sc. — sehen, there will be some blows, some cuffs [in the business, presently]. Fig. [in pop. lang.] Einem einen tüchtigen —, tüchtige Püffe ver-sehen, to give any one a sharp rap over the knuckles, to give any one some hard hits [in an angry discussion]; er kann einen guten or berben — vertragen, his shoulders are pretty broad, he has got a hard skin of his own, he can stand as much as most people, I take it; das ist ein harter —, that was a hard bang, a sharp rap over the knuckles, a severe wipe, a rude shock; it. that is a heavy blow to or for him [from fate]. 3) [pl. -e or -en] any thing puffed, a puff. Ärmel mit Püffen or —en [—ärmel], puff-sleeves.

4) [modern] a tumid or exaggerated statement or commendation, a puff. 5) V. —spiel; it.
V. Pafsch.

Puff=bohne, f. marsh-bean, sow-bean, Windsor-bean. —brett, n. board for playing at reverser, a sort of trick-track or backgammon. —spiel, n. a sort of backgammongame. —wagen, m. a peasant's wagon [entirely of wood, no iron].

1. Püffen, I. v. intr. [allied to the Lat. pavio, Gr. πλω, to beat; the radical sense is to drive, to thrust, hence, to swell] 1) to bump, to make a bumping sound, to pop. Ich höre es —, I hear it bump; es pufft, aber es knallt nicht, it bumps, but makes no report; schlagen, daß es pufft, to beat hard, to bang. Fig. [low] Das pufft, [fam.] that will do, that is not bad, [very fam.] that is not to be sneezed at; hundert Thaler, das pufft, a hundred dollars, that's something like, [in America, low] that's not a bad spec, a hundred dollars, I tell you; [ironical] ein Thaler, daß es pufft, a dollar, a large sum that to buy blacking with, a dollar, why what's a dollar? what's a humbug dollar? 2) to puff. Ein —der Zeug, a stuff that puffs or swells out; —de Ärmel, puff-sleeves, puffing sleeves. II. v. tr. 1) [in popular lang.] Einen —, to cuff, bang, bump, thump, [low] to whop any one, to give any one a licking. Man hat ihn derb, sie haben einander lange gepufft, he has been soundly pummeled, they have been long pummeling one another, they banged each other a long while, [fam.] they drubbed one another to their hearts' content. 2) [with milliners] Die Ärmel eines Kleides, einen Zeug —, to puff the sleeves of a dress, to puff a stuff.

2. Püffen, v. intr. to play at a game [a sort of backgammon].

Püffer, m. [-s, pl. -] 1) [in pop. lang.] a boxer, one who thumps, a cuffer. 2) a pocket-pistol, [low] a barker, a bull-dog, a warbler.

Püffern, V. Puffen.

Püffig, adj. and adv. [with milliners] puffy [of ribbons &c.].

Pühlloch, n. [-es, pl. -löcher] drying-floor tube of a sugar-refiner's stove.

*Püß, m. [-es, pl. -e] [in Polish polek means a regiment] a detachment, a picket [of Cossacks].

*Püspet, n. [-es, pl. -e] 1) [obsolete] a pulpit, V. Pult. 2) [in organs] leathern small bottle or purse [at the opening of the chest of the sound-board].

Püßroß, n. [-ßes, pl. -ße] [a bird] the lapwing, kind of plover.

Püß, m. [-es, pl. -e] [allied to both the Lat. pulsus, a blow, a beat, and the provinc. veß, gen., to beat] 1) [in medicine] the pulse. Einen starken, schwachen, ordentlichen, unordentlichen, gleichen, ungleichen — haben, to have a strong, weak or feeble, regular, irregular, equal, unequal pulse; nachlassender —, an intermittent pulse; langsamer —, a slow pulse;

schneller —, a quick pulse; fein — schlägt, his pulse beats; fein — geht schnell, his pulse beats or goes quick; fein — geht stärker, als gewöhnlich, his pulse beats stronger, is fuller than usual; das Schlagen des —es, V. — schlag; einem Kranken den — [be]fühlen, to feel a patient's, an invalid's pulse; it. fig.
Einem den — fühlen, to feel any one's pulse,
to take the measure of his foot, to pump him, [low] to suck him dry. 2) a peal [of church-bells]. Zwei, drei —e läuten, to ring two, three peals, [cant] to ring two, three bob-majors.

Puls=ader, f. artery; dim. —äderchen, || —äberlein, n. little artery, an arteriole. Der Wundarzt schlug ihm die —ader, the surgeon opened his artery; die große —ader, the great artery, the aorta; —ader-blut, n. arterial blood. —aderblut des Pfort-ners, the pyloric artery. —adergeschwulst,
f. —aderkropf, m. an aneurism. Der Sack einer —adergeschwulst, the aneurismal sack or sinus. —aderlehre, f. arteriology. — aderöffnen, n. —aderöffnung, f. arteriotomy. —hammer, m. [in physics] water-hammer. —messer, m. a pulsometer. pulsilogium, a pulse stop-watch. —pflaster, n.
epicarp, pericarp, topical remedy for the wrist. Ein —pflaster wider das Fieber, ein stärkendes —pflaster, an epicarp as febrifuge, a strengthening epicarp. —schlag, m. pulsation, beating of the pulse. Ein schneller, ungleicher —schlag, a quick, unequal pulsation.
—stillstand, m. —stillung, f. stoppage of the pulse; asphyxy; cessation of vitality. — umschlag, m. V. —vaster. —wage, f. V.
—messer. —zittern, n. jectigation, tremulous pulsation.

Pülsen, Pülsiren, v. intr. to beat, [of the heart] to palpitate [as the pulse does]. [with poets] Königlich Blut püset in seinen Adern, kingly blood beats in his veins.

Pült, n. and m. [-es, pl. -e], dim. —chen,
|| —lein, n. [-s, pl. -] [from the Lat. pulpitum]
1) desk; [in colleges] scab. —zu den Gesangbüchern in der Kirche, a chorister's desk; — für das Messbuch, reading-desk, pulpit; [with catholics] a mass-book desk. 2) [in fortification] corridor, covered way.

Pultdach, n. [in architecture] a complu-vium.

Pülver, n. [-s] [Lat. pulvis, gen. pulver-is]
1) powder. Zu —zerreiben, to reduce to powder, to pulverize. 2) —, dim. —chen, Pülz-verchen, || Pülverlein, n. [-s, pl. -] [in medicine] a powder. —aufeinmal in einem Glase Wasser zu nehmen, a powder to be taken at once in a glass of water, V. Brech—, Magen—, Niese—, Schlaf—; Einem ein Pülverchen geben, to give any one a small [dose in] powder, it. [in fam. lang.] to give any one a poison [in powder], to poison any one. 3) gunpowder, powder. —und Blei, Kraut und Loth, powder and shot [lead], powder and ball; grobes, feines —, coarse, fine powder; polirtes —, glazed powder; —zum Scheibenschießen, powder for shooting at a mark, mark-powder;
—, welches an der Luft brennt, powder that takes fire in the air, pyrophorus [of alum and flour]; ein Schuß —, a charge of powder; [in popular lang.] er ist keinen Schuß —werth, he is not worth his salt, a rush, a fig, a straw, he is not worth a rope's-end, a noose, the hanging; er kann kein —riechen, he can't bear the smell of gunpowder, he has a natural antipathy to powder, he is as arrant a coward as ever breathed, [in England] a true Bob Acres; er hat noch kein —gerochen, he has not smelt gunpowder yet, he has never yet been in action, a raw soldier, &c. [in England] all the fighting he has seen has been in Hyde-park; er hat schon —gerochen, he has smelt gunpowder, he has been in active service; er hat das —nicht erfunden, he never found out the longitude, he is no conjurer, he is no great luminary, [very fam.] he is no great shakes, [in England] he will never, he is not very likely to set the Thames on fire. Prov. Sein —mit Späßen verschießen, to waste one's powder on sparrows, to learn Dutch for travelling in France, to waste one's breath to no purpose, to toil all night and catch no fish; [fig. low] ein —für die Augen, V. Augen—, [fig.].

Pülver=beutel, m. powder-horn, powder-flask. —büchse, f. powder-box. —dampf,
m. powder-smoke. —donner, m. report, V.
Kanendonner. —faß, —faßchen, n. budge-barrel, V. —tonne. —feger, f. powder-sieve, duster. —flasche, f. powder-flask, pouch, powder-horn. —gang, m. V. Rinengang.
—haus, n. V. —magazin. —holz, n. frangula, black alder, sambucus nigra. —horn,
n. powder-horn. [in the army] —horn zum Feinen Pulver, a priming powder-case or horn; — horn der Konstabler, priming-horn. —kam-mer, f. 1) powder-room or magazine; [in seamen's lang] the magazine, the powder-room; [in artillery] powder-chest. 2) [in bomb-mortars] chamber; [with miners] chamber [of a mine, where the powder is put]. —karen, m. [in the army] cartridge-chest. —kasten, m. powder-chest. —korn, n., dim. —körnchen, || —körnlein, n. grain of powder. —magazin, n. powder-magazine. —maß, n. 1) measure for powder. 2) the charge. —masse, f. powder-mass [from which the gunpowder is manufactured].
—mehl, n. powder-meal; priming powder.
—mühle, f. powder-mill. —müller,
m. a gunpowder-maker or manufacturer.
—probe, f. [in artillery] a gunpowder prover or trier. —rauch, m. the smoke of powder. —rinne, f. [in seamen's language] the trough or powder-channel [for the powder-train in a fire-ship]. —röllchen, n. [Patro-ne] cartridge. —sack, m. powder-sack; [in artillery] cartridge-sack. Fig. [in guns] the vent-field; [with miners] a small-mine. —sag,
m. V. —masse. —schäufel, f. [for filling the cartridges] powder-shovel; [in artillery] [Ladeschäufel] the charger. —scheu, [fam.] I. adj.
and adv. afraid of the smell of powder, cowardly. II. —scheu or —scheue, f. fear of the smell of powder, cowardice. —schlag, m. a petard. —schwamm, m. powder-sponge, dutch tinder. —schwärmer, m. a fusee;
[Rolle] squib, cracker. —sprengen, n.
[with miners] the springing or blowing up of a rock. —thurm, m. powder-tower, powder-magazine. —tonne, f. 1) powder-barrel. 2) barrel or cask of powder. Kleine —tonne, a keg of powder, powder-keg. —verschwö-rung, f. [in English hist.] gunpowder-plot [5th of November]. —wagen, m. [in the army] powder-wagon. —wurf, f. [in artillery] a powder-saucisse or sausage. —zeug, n. V.
—masse.

Pülvericht, adj. and adv. like or resembling powder, pulverulent. —er Körper, a body having the resemblance of powder; es riecht hier —, there is a smell of powder, as mell like powder here, a gunpowder-smell here.

Pülverig, adj. and adv. containing powder, consisting of powder, powdery, dusty.
Die Stärke ist —geworden, the starch is become powdery, quite dusty, has turned to powder.

Pulvern, Pulverisieren, v. tr. 1) Steine &c. to pulverize stones &c.; gepulvertes Holz, pulverized wood, wood reduced to powder. 2) to strew, cover or sprinkle with powder, to powder.

Pump! [v. 2. Pumpen] [an onomatopoeia] plump! hump! bump!

Pump, m. [-es] [chiefly students' cant] [v. 1. Pumpen 2)] credit, [fam.] tick. Etwas auf nehmen, to take any thing on tick.

Pumpe, f. [pl. -n] [in Old Sax. byma is a tube or pipe] pump. Wasser-, water-pump, a common pump; — mit einem Druckwerke, a forcing-pump; eine — ohne Druckwerk, a sucking-pump, v. Dampf-, Druck-, Kett- —, Luft-, Schwengel-, Schiff-, Zieh- —; [in seamen's lang.] die venetianische — [Saug-], ship pump, common pump; eine untlare —, a choked or foul pump; die — fast, the pump fetches, is fetched; las in die — gießen or die — aufschlagen, to fetch the pump; die — lats pumpen, to free the ship by gaining on the leak; die — ist geborsten, the pump blows.

Pump-balcken, m. the huge handle or pump-balance beam [of a German pump]. — brunnen, m. a pump. — haken, m. v. Pumpen haken. — stange, f. v. Pumpen stange and Pumpstock, -stoc, m. v. Pumpen stock. — werk, n. v. Pumpen werk.

Pumpen-armel, m. [in seamen's lang.] pump dale. — ack, n. cistern. — bohrer, m. 1) a pump-borer [a workman]. 2) great pump-borer [tool to enlarge the bore of a ship's pump]. — bolzen, m. peg of a ship's pump. — daal, n. [in seamen's language] pump-dale, pump-vale. — deckel, m. head, lid or cover of a pump. — drucker, m. v. -schwengel. — eimer, m. lower pump-box. — feuer, n. [in fireworks] fire-jet [kind of wheel]. — gat, n. [in seamen's language] hole in the pump's side. — ged or -gedstock, m. [in seamen's language] the brake, break, staff or handle of a pump. — gesenk, n. [with miners] a pit sunk for one pump [when deeper v. -schacht]. — haken, m. pump hook. — hammer, m. [in seamen's lang.] a hammer with a notch and claw. — holz, n. 1) heel or shoe of the syphon or spout. 2) v. -rohr. — kammer, f. chamber of a pump. — kappe, f. valve or clapper to the wheel of a chain-pump; [in seamen's language] the lead or copper cap to a pump's bottom, pump-head. — kasten, m. [in seamen's lang.] chest or box in which a pump stands; [in a ship's hold] v. -food. — kessel, m. leaden or copper perforated plate to cover the bottom of a pump. — kette, f. pump-chain. — klappe, f. valve, clapper. — kleid, n. the service of a pump. — koker, m. the box or chest in which a pump stands. — kolben, m. lower or little pump-box. — macher, m. pump-maker. — mücke, f. v. Mücke. — nagel, m. pump-nail. — pott, m. v. -food. — reis, m. pump-hoop. — rinne, f. v. -daal. — rohr, n. — rohre, f. the pipe or tube of a pump. — sauger, m. v. -schuh. — schaft, m. shaft or deep pit [for a forcing pump &c.]. — schlag, m. stroke of a pump. — schlüssel, m. pump-key. — scraper, m. pump-scraper. — schuh, m. upper box of a pump; [in seamen's language] bucket. — schwängel, -schwengel, m. the break, swipe, brake, handle of a pump. — siet, n. [in hydraulics] sluice or channel of a gutter-wear or flood-gate. — sood, m. the pump-well. — spake, f. brake or handle of a pump; pump-handle. — spiel, n. play of the pump. — spiker, m. pump-nail tack or brad. — stange, f. the pump-spear, piston, pump rod. — steel, m. v. -schlag. — stiez fel, m. chamber of a pump. — stock, m. 1) v. -rohr. 2) [-stange] piston; [in seamen's lang.] pump-staff, break or brake. — topf, m. v. -food. — ventil, n. v. -starpe. — wage, f. pump-areometer. — werk, n. pump-machine, pump-work. v. Saugwerk.

1. Pumpen, v. tr. [allied to the prov. aumen, to heben, schöpfen] 1) to pump. Wasser, die Luft &c. —, to pump water, air &c.; das Wasser aus dem Schiffe —, to pump the water out of the ship. Fig. [bombastic] Dieser Anblick pumpte Blut in seine Wangen, this sight brought the blood into his cheeks. 2) Fig. [chiefly students' cant] to take or buy upon tick, on credit.

2. Pumpen, v. intr. [the Gr. πόμπος and Lat. bombus is a noise, a sound; allied to puffen] to make a lumpy dead sound on falling, to bump; v. Plumpen. Er fiel, daß es pumpete, he fell with a bump. [with bookbinders] to bump, to beat gently.

Pumper, m. [s, pl. -n] 1) one who pumps, a pumper. 2) Fig. [students' cant] one who takes &c. on tick.

Pumpermette, f. [pl. -n] [in popular lang.] [with Catholics] the darkness that fell on the Thursday before Good-friday; the afternoon mass on that day.

Pumpfern, v. intr. [in popular lang.] 1) v. Pumpen. 2) An die Thür —, to bang, to knock or rap loud at the door.

Pumpnickel, m. [-s] Westphalia rye-bread, brown George.

Pumphose, f. v. Puderhose.

Pumpfeule, f. [with tawers] 1) mallet, fulling-club of wet-leather dressers. 2) [in botany] typha, reed-club, reed-mace or maize. 3) v. Plumpfeule.

Pumpmütze, f. [pl. -n] coif, calotte.

Pumpsteule, f. [n] v. Rohrsteule.

Pumpstiefel, m. [-s, pl. -n] a wide stiff and large boot; a clumsy boot, clumsy cobbler's boot.

Punct, m. v. Punkt.

Punier, m. [-s, pl. -n] a Carthaginian.

Punisch, adj. and adv. Punic. Der — e Krieg, the Punic war.

Punkt, m. [-es, pl. -e]. dim. Pünktchen, || Pünktlein, n [-s, pl. -n] [from the Lat. punctum, supine punctum, to prick] 1) [the prick of any fine pointed instrument] point. Einen — machen, to make a point; [in mathematics] mathematischer —, mathematical point; — in der Mitte eines Bogens, the part of an arch intersected by its axis or diameter; der —, wo die Axe die Parabel durchschneidet, the point, where the axis of the parabola crosses or intersects, the summit of the parabola; einen — suchen, to look for a fixed point; die Erde ist nur ein — gegen das Ganze der Schöpfung, the earth is a mere speck compared with creation. Fig. Das trifft auf den — zu, that is right to a farthing, to the breadth of a hair, to a tittle; es ist — zwölf, it is on the stroke of twelve, it is exactly noon or mid-day; it is meridian; — fünf Uhr, at five o'clock precisely; er ist auf den — eingetroffen, he arrived punctual, to a second, a minute. 2) [an extremely small spot made by any other tool] a point, a dot, a tittle. Einen — über das i machen or setzen, to make a dot over an i, to tittle or dot an i; am Ende eines Satzes einen — machen, to put a dot or full stop at the end of a phrase; prov. Einem den — über das i machen, to explain to any one that 2 and 2 make 4; to tell any one that it is charming weather to-day; to teach one's grandmother to suck eggs; die — e und Abtheilungszeichen in einer Schrift machen, to make the dots and points in a writing, to punctuate a letter; zwei — e über einen Selbstlauter machen, to put a diaeresis over a vowel; ein Buchstabe mit zwei — en, a letter with a diaeresis; eine hebräische Bibel mit — en, a Hebrew bible with points; [in music] —, point, dot [increasing the length of the preceding note by a half]; [with painters] mit — en mahlen, to paint with dots; [with engravers] mit — en stechen, to prick, to dot. Fig. a) [particular part, proposition, circumstance of any thing written or spoken] point, period, article. Ein gewisser — in dieser Zeitschrift, a certain article, passage paragraph or topic in this journal; der erste — in seiner Predigt &c., the first point in his sermon &c.; die — e eines Vertrages, the articles, points of a contract; eine Rechnung — für — durchgehen, to examine an account item by item; ein wichtiger — or Haupt —, a principal, a weighty, a chief or main point, an essential or vital point; die vorläufigen — e, the preliminary articles; über diesen — sind wir einig, on this point we are agreed, we are fully agreed on this point; diesen — wollen wir nicht berühren, we will not touch upon this point or topic; die — e einer bei Gericht vorgebrachten Bitte, the heads of a petition; der Kläger hat ihm einen Eid über diesen — zugesprochen, the complainant had the oath administered to him on this head or point; man kann scherzen, aber [nur] bis auf einen gewissen —, one may joke, but only up to a certain point or limit; jest or quizzing must not be pushed too far, beyond certain limits; der — der Ehre, the point of honour; im — der Liebe ist er sehr feig, he is extremely fastidious in the article of love, in love matters, he is excessively delicate where love is concerned. b) Auf dem — e seyn, stehen, Etwas zu thun, abzureifen &c., to be on the point of doing something, settling out &c.; er war auf dem — e, zornig zu werden, he was on the point of getting angry. 3) [in conchology] ser-pula planorbis.

Punkt = achat, m. [in nat. hist.] punctuated quartz agate, dotted agate; [also] the sardonyx. — eisen, n. pointer, stiletto [for pointing], [with surgeons] a probe. — farn, m. [in botany] polypodium, polypody, the tartarean lamb. — foralle, f. [in nat. hist.] millepore. — linie, f. 1) line marked by points, dotted line. 2) [in nat. hist.] dotted serpent of Carolina, the ibibis. — mäßig, adj. v. Pünktlich. — nadel, f. [with engravers] round or flat graver, graver's needle, [for seals] scalper. — rad, n., dim. — rädchen || — rädlein, n. dotting-wheel. — schale, f. punctuated Venus shell. — stein, m. [Körnerstein] granite. — thier, n., dim. — thierchen, || — thierlein, n. infusory or microscopic worm, insect or animal, one of the infusoria worms. — weise, adv. Eine Rechnung &c. — weise durchgehen, to go through or over an account point by point, article by article, item by item, each item separately or seriatim. — wurm, m. v. -thier.

Punkten, [more usual Pünktiren] v. tr. 1) to mark with points or dots, to punctuate, to puncture. Eine hebräische Bibel —, to point, to punctuate, to mark with the points a Hebrew bible; eine Note —, to punctuate a note; eine gepunktete, punktirte Note, a note dotted and stopped, punctuated; sich die Paut —, to tattoo one's skin. 2) to point, to prick, to puncture. [with engravers] Einen Kupferstich, ein Blatt —, to engrave on a copper-plate with the needle; die gepunktete Art, die punktierte Manier, the dotted manner or style [of engraving with a needle]; Blatt in punktirter Art, an engraving or print that is dotted. 3) [in astrology] — [Punktiren], to divine, predict by geomancy. 4) [in medicine] to puncture. Einen Wassersüchtigen —, to tap a person that has the dropsy. Das —, Punktiren, die Punktirung, the punctuation [of a writing]; [with engravers, painters] etching; [also] dotting.

Punktiren, V. Punkten.

Punktir-figur, f. a figure in geomancy, a geomantic figure. — kunst, f. geomancy. — künstler or — wahrsager, m. a geomancer. — nadel, f. V. Punktadel. — rad, n. V. Punktad.

Punktirung, f. V. unter Punkten.

Pünktlich, adj. and adv. punctual, precise, exact. Einen Vertrag — halten, to observe an agreement strictly, to observe a contract to the strict letter; es trifft — zu, it is exactly so, it is right to a T, to a tittle; — erzählen, to relate punctually, critically exact, right to a letter; in haltung seines Wortes — seyn, to be punctual to one's word; er hat meine Befehle sehr — befolgt, he has followed my orders, my instructions very punctually; er ist — eingetroffen, he is arrived precisely, to a minute, at the appointed time; kommen Sie — um 6 Uhr, come punctually at 6, at 6 precisely. Syn. Pünktlich, Genau. Genau refers more to the thing in relation to which we act, pünktlich more to the time. We arrive pünktlich at a certain place, by sea, when the charts are quite genau. A pünktlicher man is, properly, he who does all at the right and appointed time. They are often, however, confounded; but never in such a way that he whom we call a genauen, or close man, can be considered also a pünktlicher man.

Pünktlichkeit, f. punctuality, exactitude. Eine gewissenhafte —, a conscientious, a scrupulous punctuality; mit großer — arbeiten &c., to work &c. with great punctuality; — in den Geschäften beobachten, to observe punctuality, to be exact in affairs, in business; er erfüllt, was er verspricht, mit großer —, he fulfils, what he promises, with great punctuality; what he promises, he is sure to perform at the stipulated time. V. Pünktlich.

Pünktum! interj. [in familiar lang.] enough said! come, that's enough! let us speak no more of it!

Punktur, f. [pl. -en] [with printers] point [iron-pointed blade fixed on the tympanum].

Punkturspize, f. the point of it.

Punsch, m. [-es, pl. -e] [perhaps allied to the Lat. poto, Gr. πνέω, πνέω, to drink, and probably also to vinum, Gr. οἶνος, Germ. Wein] [a drink] punch. Mit Eis gemachter —, iced punch; — machen, [fam.] brauen, to make, [fam.] to brew punch; eine Schüssel, [modern] eine Böle [Bowl] —, a bowl of punch.

Punsch-eule, f. V. Nachteule. — essenz, f. — geist, m. essence of punch. — gesellschaft, f. a society, company, band, crew of punch-drinkers. — glas, n. a punch-glass. — humpen, m. V. — navf. — lied, n. a song in honour of punch, sung round a bowl of punch. — löffel, m. punch-ladle. — napf, m. bowl for punch, punch-bowl. — pulver, n. punch-powder, powder for making punch.

— schale, f. V. — navf. — tisch, m. punch-table.

Punsch, v. intr. [in fam. lang.] to drink punch.

Pünt, m. [-es, pl. -e] or -e f. [pl. -en] [Fr. pointe] V. Spitze. [in fortification] Der — eines Bollwerkes, the point of a bulwark or bastion.

Pünze or Pünzel, f. [pl. -n] [Fr. poinçon] [with braziers &c.] punch; [with gunsmiths] boring or drill punch.

Pünzen, v. tr. to punch, to stamp, [with jewellers] to snarl.

Punzenir, m. [-s, pl. -e] puncher.

Punzeniren, Punzeliren, v. tr. V. Punzen. Punzenirte Arbeit, chiseled work, work in relief, chased or embossed work.

Pupill, m. [-en, pl. -en] pupil, ward, one under the care of a guardian. Die —, female ward, orphan under guardianship.

Pupillen-collegium, n. V. — rath. — geld, n. [generally] — gelder, pl. pupil's money, ward's money. — rath, m. 1) board, court for pupillary matters, [in England] chancery. 2) pupillary counsellor, member of such a board or court.

Pupille, f. [pl. -n] [Augapfel] the pupil, the apple of the eye. V. also under Pupill.

Pupin, m. [-es, pl. -e] [in nat. hist.] [Erdmeve] sea-duck, widgeon.

1. Puppe, f. [pl. -n] [appears allied to wēfen, wēben, Sw. svēpa, to wrap up, to swaddle] 1) [Rohrholben] reed-club, reed-mace or maize, typha. 2) lump or roll of old brass for remelting. 3) [in nat. hist.] — or Nymphe der Raupen &c., the pupa, chrysalis, aurelia, nymph of caterpillars &c. Die Raupen verwandeln sich in —, caterpillars change themselves, are changed into nymphs; die — des Seidenwurmes, the pupa, aurelia of the silk-worm; zur — werden, to change into a nymph, to become an aurelia; die Seidenwürmer sind jetzt —, the silk-worms are at present aurelia, in a chrysalis state. 4) [with fishermen] a float [to a line]. Fische mit der — fangen, to fish with a float, to catch fish with ground-tackle or trolling.

Puppen-hülse, f. the sheath of the chrysalis. — räuber, m. [in nat. hist.] the square gold-green gardener-beetle, the scaphant-scarab, the gold-green gardener-buprestis. — stand, m. the nymph or chrysalis-state, the pupa-state. Dieses Insekt ist im — stande, this insect is in the aurelia-state, is in the chrysalis-state.

2. Puppe, f. [pl. -n], dim. Püppchen, ||Püpplein, n. [-s, pl. -] [Lat. pupa, allied to Bube] 1) [word of endearment] little dear, darling. Das ist ein allerliebste Püppchen, there is a dear little darling, a little love, a dear little thing; komm' her, mein Püppchen! come here, my little toddle, my little bird, my chickabiddy; [with lovers] [fam., affectedly] my dear, my love, my darling, my bird, my pet! 2) [a child in swaddling clothes] Ein hübsches Püppchen! a pretty little doll, a sweet little cherub, angel, darling! 3) a doll. Eine — von Holz, Wachs, a wooden doll, a wax-doll; it. — zum Puppenspiele, puppet, mammet, mannikin and maidkin in the puppet-shew or at Punch and Judy; eine große —, a great puppet. Fig. a) [in contempt, of an affected dandyish man, over-fine or affected lady or damsel] Er ist einerechte —, he is quite a puppy; it. er or sie geht, sitzt &c. wie eine —, he or she walks, sits &c. as if on stilts, if he or she was set upon wires &c. b) Er ist immer mit seinem Garten beschäftigt, das ist nun seine —, he is always busy about his garden, that is quite his hobby-horse, his hobby, his pet-fancy.

Puppen-gesicht, n. doll-face. — fram, m. 1) a doll-shop or warehouse. 2) toys. — främer, — macher, m., — mache-rinn, f. doll-seller, doll-man, doll-maker; it. toyman, toymoman. — mäßig, adj. and adv. [in a bad sense] foppish, dollish, prim, stuck-out, beauish, nice, spruce, dandyish, handbox-fashion — spiel, n. 1) amusement with a doll or dolls, doll's play. Sie ist dem — spiele entwachsen, she is too big now to play with a doll, she has grown out of playing with a doll. Fig. [in familiar lang.] bauble, gew-gaw, toy, knick-knack, whim-wham, fingle-fangle, trifle, trinket, gim-crack. 2) [generally] puppet-shew, [Marionettenspiel] Punch and Judy. Ein — spiel geben or aufführen, to give, to represent a puppet-shew, to exhibit Punch and Judy; in's — spiel gehen, to go to the puppet-shew, to see Polchinello or Punchinello, [in England] Punch and Judy. — spieler, m. the player of the puppet-shew, [Marionettenspieler] the exhibiter of the puppets, the puppet-shewman, [in England] the shewman of Punch and Judy. — werk, — zeug, n. doll-work, toys, toy-work; V. — fram 2).

1. Puppen, v. tr. 1) [hüllen] to envelop, to wrap up, to swathe, to swaddle. 2) [schmücken] to trick or deck out, to adorn, to adonize, [fam.] to titivate. 3) [with fishermen] to fish with a float, to troll with ground-tackle.

2. Puppen, v. intr. 1) to play with a doll, with dolls, to make dolls. 2) to make any thing one's hobby-horse, one's pet-fancy. 3) to transform one's self, to be transformed into a chrysalis or nymph, into the aurelia or pupa-state.

||Püppern, [appears allied to wēben, to the prov. wēbern] v. intr. [low] to tremble, to palpitate, to throb. Das Herz pupperte ihm vor Freude, his heart leaped with joy, throbbed or beat violently for joy.

||Pur, [Lat. pur-us, appears allied to bar] adj. and adv. [unvermischet, klar] [in pop. lang. fig.] pure, genuine. — es Gold, pure gold; — es Wasser, pure water; — en Wein trinken, to drink pure wine; die — e Wahrheit, the pure [sincere] truth; — e Dummheit, pure [downright] stupidity; — e Lügen, pure [mere, regular, barefaced] lies.

||Pürdel, m. [-s, pl. -n] [appears allied to Bürde] [with blacksmiths] sledge-hammer.

Purganz, f. [pl. -en] [in medicine] purgation, a purgative, laxative, evacuating, aperient remedy &c.

Purgiren, I. v. tr. Einen Kranken —, to purge a patient. II. v. intr. to take an aperient, a purgative remedy &c.

Purgir-dorn, m. [in botany] the buckthorn. — essig, m. purgative vinegar. — fieber, n. scouring or flux-fever, vomiting bilious fever. — flachs, m. the little purge-flax. — firsche, f. the buckthorn-berry. — förner, pl. 1) grains of Tilly or of the Moluccas [pineus nucleus Moluccanus]. 2) cataputia or spurge-berries, grains or capers. — fraut, n. cataputia, spurge, euphorbia. — mittel, n. V. Purganz. — nuss, f. nux vomica, vomit-nut, dog-bane. — pille, f. aperient, purging, laxative pill. — pulver, n. an aperient powder. — salz, n. salts, common salts. — trank, m. purgative drink or potion, an aperient mixture. — winde, f.

scammony, purging bind-weed. Die amerikanische —winde, mechoacan, american scammony, white-rhubarb; die gelbe —winde, gamboge. —wurzel, f. purgative root, rhubarb, cathartic root.

Purhaber, m. [-s] wild oats, the wild oat.

*Purist, m. [-en, pl. -en] [in grammar] a purist.

Puristenfucht, f. [Purismus] purism.

*Puritaner, m. [-s, pl. -] [in Engl. hist.] puritan. Lehre der —, puritanism.

*Puritanisch, adj. and adv. puritan, puritanical.

Purper, Purpurn, adj. and adv. 1) purple, of a purple colour, like purple, purplish, pu-naceous. —es Gewand, purple garment; [with poets] das —e Meer, the purple sea; die —e [Herz:] Gluth, the purple flood of the heart; ihr —er Mund &c., her vermillion or rosy mouth &c. 2) [of purple] —er Mantel &c., a purple cloak, mantle of purple &c. 3) clothed or clad in purple.

Purpur, m. [-s] [Lat. purpura, Gr. πορφυρα, appears allied to the Gr. πορ, to the Germ.
Feuer] 1) [a red colour] purple. Mit — und Weiß gestreifte Tulpen, tulips streaked with purple and white; des Himmels — [with poets], the purple of the sky; der Wangen, der Lippen — [in poetical style], the vermillion, rosy hue of the cheeks, of the lips; der —ihres Mundes, the vermillion or carnation of her mouth; [in chemistry] minerischer or mineralischer —, mineral purple. 2) [the red and costly colour from the blood of some shell-fish] Tyrian dye, purple of Tyre, Sidonian purple, purple. Der —der Alten wurde aus dem Saft gewisser Schnecken bereitet, the purple of the ancients was prepared from the juice of certain shell-fish; der tyrische —, the Tyrian dye, the purple of Tyre; mit — gefärbte Wolle, purple-dyed wool. 3) a purple garment, the purple. Fig. a) the dignity of a Roman Emperor. Den — anlegen, tragen, to put on or assume, to wear the purple. b) Mit dem — bekleiden, to clothe with the purple [to create a Cardinal]. c) Den — der Könige ehren, to honour the purple [the dignity, authority] of Kings.

Purpurhammer, m. [in nat. hist.] the yellow-hammer or yellow-ring of Mexico, the yellow Theresa. —apfel, m. the purple-apple; it. the guanabana, anona, asiatic custard-apple. —bekleidet, adj. and adv.
[with poets] clothed or clad in purple. —beutel, m. a purple-purse. Dim. —beutelchen, n. der Erbschnecken, a bag or vessel containing a purplish juice between the heart and liver of certain shell-fish. — blume, f. 1) purple-flower. 2) [a species of the aloe] the farinaceous aletis. —brassen,
m. [in nat. hist.] the purple bream. —dohle,
f. the red-crow, purple-daw. —drossel, f.
the red-winged icterus or galbula. —faden,
m. purple-thread. —farbe, f. purple dye, purple-colour, purple. Die —farbe der Alten, the purple of the ancients; die —farbe der Blumen, the purple of flowers. —farben, —farbig, adj. and adv. purple, purplish. —farbener Stoff, purple stuff; — farbiges Kleid, purple dress; —farbige Blu-men, purple flowers. —färben, n. the dying in purple. —fieber, n. the purples, the spotted or petechial fever, the petechiae. — gewand, n. [with poets] purple garment. — gewölke, n. [with poets] purple clouds. — glanz, m. [with poets] purple lustre, brilliancy, hue, splendour, glance. —glut, f.

[with poets] purple hue or glow. —haube, f.
purple bonnet. —huhn, n. [in nat. hist.] the Madagascar water-hen, the porphyrio, the sultana. —hut, m. the red hat, a cardinal's hat. —kleid, n. purple-dress, purple-robe. — klepper, m. [in nat. hist.] [Dickschnäbler] the small purple sparrow or finch, the hawk-finch.
—klette, f. [in nat. hist.] the green-tailed woodpecker, the virginia creeper. —kopf,
m. parrot; grey red-headed crow. —kopf-chen, n. 1) Indian purple-headed woodpecker.
2) the little cardinal-duck; the large-headed winter duck. —koralline, f. purple sertularia or coralline. —krähe, f. V. —drossel.
—krämer, m. [in Scripture] a seller of purple, a Tyrian merchant. —lack, m. columbine
lac. —lippe, f. [with poets] vermillion, carnation, rosy lip, coral-lip. —mantel, m.
1) purple-mantle, mantle stained with puniaceous or Tyrian dye. —mantel der Cardinale, the cardinals' red cloak. 2) [in nat. hist.] the purple phalaena. —maulwurf, m. the red American mole. —mistel, f. the purple mistletoe. —motte, f. the surveyor moth. — mund, m. [with poets] vermillion or rosy mouth, coral mouth. —muschel, f. V. —schnecke. — natter, f. the red Egyptian asp or aspic. — pfirsche, f. purple-peach. Frühe —pfirsche, the early large-flowered purple-peach; späte —pfirsche, the late purple-peach. —reier,
m. purple heron. —rock, m. purple coat, dress. —roth, adj. and adv. purple-red.
—rothes Gewand, purple, punaceous garment;
—rothe Lippen, vermillion lips. —rotthe,
f. purple-red; [also] a purplish red; it. —rot-the der Schnecken, the liquor, juice or blood of the purple-fish, Tyre-oyster, snails. — saft, m. 1) purple juice. 2) [with poets] purple juice of the grape. Der —saft der Re-ben, the purple-juice, the ruby-coloured juice of the grape [red wine]. —saum, m.
purple-border or hem. —schiefer, m.
purplish shist. —schleier, m. 1) a purple-veil. 2) [with poets] the veil of Aurora.
—schnecke, f. 1) purple-fish, the purple.
2) burgan, nacre-shell, sadot, the tinctobuccinum. Die versteinerte —schnecke, the purpurite. —schwabe, f. the purple swallow.
—sonnenstrahl, m. [in conchology] the violet chama. —streif, m. purple band; [in Rom.
hist.] der schmale —streif, the [tunic] angustic-lavia; der breite —streif, the [tunic] laticla-via [the first for knights, the second for senators].
—teppich, m. purple tapestry, purple tablecloth, purple carpet &c. —traube, f. [with poets] purple-grape, purple raceme, cluster of purple [coloured grapes]. —violettfarbe, f.
the colour of heart's ease or the violet tricolor. —vogel, m. 1) V. —klette. 2) the porphyrio, the Madagascar water-hen, the sultana-hen. —weiderich, m. salicaria, spiked willow-herb, red lysimachy.

Purpuricht, adj. and adv. purplish. —
Blumen, purplish flowers.

Purpurisch, adj. and adv. V. Purpurroth, Purpuricht.

Purpurit, m. [-en, pl. -en] [in nat. hist.] [Purpurschnecke] purpurite, petrified purple-shell.

Purpurn, adj. and adv. V. Purpurfarben.

Purpurn, I. v. tr. [in a higher style and with poets] 1) to dye in purple, to empurple, to stain with a crimson-dye. 2) to clothe in purple. 3) Sich —, to become red as scarlet, to colour or stain one's-self with purple. II.
v. intr. to be, to become, to turn crimson, red as scarlet.

||Purren, [allied to bohren] v. intr. 1) [=
schwarren, brummen] to grumble, growl, mutter; [in seamen's lang.] to call the watch. 2) [=scharren, wühlen] to swarm, to stir or turn about, to be alive with, to crawl with, to be full of,
to abound with; fig. v. tr. [=reisen] to back up, to set on, to stir up; to irritate or disquiet.
3) to plug, to be always plugging, stuffing one's finger up one's nose.

Pürsch, Pürschen, V. Bürsch, Bürschen.

Pürzel, Pürzel, V. Bürzel.

Püschel, V. Büschel.

Püßarbaum, m. [-es, pl. -bäume] [in botany] [Seidenbaum] the capoc-tree.

Püßiren, V. Boffiren [Bossein, II.].

Püßiren, *Poußiren, v. tr. [in fam. lang.] [modern] Fig. 1) Einen —, to push any one on to a higher station, to make any one get on in the world, to patronize any one; sich —, to get on in the world, to raise one's self to a higher station. 2) [students' cant] Ein Mädchen —, to court, to make one's court to, to dally with a girl.

Püsten, [allied to the Gr. φυσώω, to blow]
v. tr. and intr. [blasen, hauchen] to blow, to breathe hard, to pant; [also] to cough, to hawk. Fig. Einem Etwas — [in popular lang.], to wish any one may get it, to snub a person's request, to be asked for bread and to give a stone. V. Püsten.

Püster, m. [-s, pl. -] [low] 1) a blower.
2) the bellows. 3) [Puder—] powder-sack, hair-powder zest.

Püsterrohr, n. V. Bläserrohr.

Püt, V. Putt.

Püte, f. [pl. -n], [Putzhuhn, n.] 1) turkey-hen. Sie ist dumm, wie eine —, she is very stupid, stupid as an owl, she is a regular goose. 2) V. Schlammbeißer.

Putzhahn, m. —, henn, f. —huhn, n.
V. Puter, Pute.

Putenbraten, m. V. Puterbraten.

Püte, f. [pl. -n] [in salt-works] salt-drain.

Püter, m. [-s, pl. -] [—hahn] turkey-cock. Bornig wie ein —, angry as a turkey-cock.

Puterbraten, m. roast-turkey. — hahn, m. V. —. —junge, m. —mädchen,
n. a young person to look after the turkeys.
—zucht, f. the breeding, rearing of turkeys.

Putern, v. tr. and intr. 1) to gabble, to jabber, to speak gibberish, to rant and tear away, to talk stuff or nonsense. 2) to sputter, splutter [to allow spittle to spurt out while speaking].

Pütsche, f. [pl. -n] [in salterns] a small salt-measure, a small short salt-tub.

Pütse, f. [pl. -n] [in seamen's lang.] dip-bucket.

Pütt, [for calling poultry, especially turkeys]
—! —! —! piew! piew! piew! pi! pi! pi!
pip! pip! pip!

Putthühnen, or Puttchen, n. or Puttel, m. [fam.] little chickabiddy! little peeper!

Pütting, f. [pl. -en] [in seamen's lang.] a link of the chains. Die Klappen der —en, a lower link of the chains of the shrouds which are bolted to the wales.

Puttingbolzen, m. [in seamen's lang.]
chain-bolt. —tau, n. futtock or foot-hook shroud.

1. ||Pütz, m. [-es, pl. -e] [allied to the Fr. bout]
[a diminutive person] a shrimp, a dapperling.

Puſigel, m. a tom-thumb, pigmy, puny shrimp, a whippersnapper, dapperling, hop-o-my-thumb, [very low] a squat-arse.

2. Puſſ, m. [-eſ] [from puſſen, to cut trim and make neat] 1) dressing, attire, set off, decking, embellishing. Sie verſteht den —, she understands dress, she knows to set herself off to the best advantage; ſie braucht zwei Stunden zu ihrem —e, she passes two hours at her toilet, she consumes two hours at or with her attire; ſie war im —e, im größ-ten —e [in a bad sense], she was rigged out like a duchess, she had her sunday-best on, she was bedizened out as fine as fine feathers could make her, as fine as a fool; ſie iſt im —e wie eine Braut, she is attired like a bride. 2) clothes, things, apparel, ornament, dress. Sie hat ſchönen —, she has handsome things, a good wardrobe; ſie bedarf keines großen —es, she does not require any great devotion to the toilet; —anlegen [for a man], to adorn one's self, to dress [for a party &c.], [for a woman] to adorn one's self, to deck one's self out; Bän-der &c. dienen den Frauen zum —, ribbons &c. constitute the ornament of women, serve as decoration, embellishment to the fair sex. Fig. Unſchuld und blühende Jugend iſt all ihr —, innocence and blooming youth are her only adornment. 3) [that which belongs to or- nament] trimming, apparatus, set. Ein — Bän-der, Spitzen &c., a fit-out in ribbons, lace &c.; ein — Edelſteine, a set of jewels. Syn. Puſſ, Schmuck, Zierde, Zierrath, Verzie- rung. Puſſen, Schmücken, Zieren. Puſſen implies, properly, a lower degree of beauti- fying; Schmücken and Zieren, a higher. Peasants puſſen their rooms when they sweep and dust them. Schmuck embellishes a thing by splendor and cost- liness; Zierrath by intrinsic beauty. Puſſen, in general, therefore, means to embellish; ſchmücken, to embellish by splendor and costliness, or on so- lemn festivals; zieren, to embellish by the addition of something in itself beautiful, but whose beauty consists more in the exquisiteness of the form than in splendor or costliness. Zierde, Zierrath, Ver- zierung imply that with which any thing is gezier- or embellished; with this difference, however, that Zierde is applied also figuratively, as, modesty is the greatest Zierde of youth; the other two not; whilst Zierrath are merely trifles with which we seek to embellish any thing. It is not every Zier- rath in a building which is also a Verzierung.

Puſſbume, f. artificial flower. — bandel, m. millinery, dress-making busi- ness. — händler, m. a man-milliner, habit-maker, keeper of a fancy warehouse. — händlerinn, f. milliner, dress-maker. — handlung, f. 1) milliner's trade. 2) milliner's shop, fancy warehouse. — junger, f. 1) a lady's-maid, dressing- woman. 2) a girl fond of dress, a dressy girl, [in a bad sense] a young tricky hussy. — kaſtchen, n. dressing-case. — kaſten, m. a wardrobe, chest of drawers. — kopf, m. V. Haubenkopf. — kram, m. millinery; it. finery, a woman's trinkets, implements for attire, toilet-apparatus. — laden, m. V. — handlung 2). — macherinn, f. millin- er, dress-maker, mantua-maker. — ſache, f. ornament, trinket, piece of finery, article of lace or millinery, [in a bad sense] jim-crack, gew-gaw, rigmarole, a set-off &c. — ſchach- tel, f. hand-box. — ſchuh, m. a dress-shoe, pump.

Puſſe, f. [pl. -n] 1) [ſicht—] snuffers. 2) [Schmuck] the snuff [of the wick].

Puſſel, m. [-eſ] [with bakers] [Sauerteig &c.] 1) the ferment-balls, the sour-dough, leaven. 2) V. Purzel.

Puſſeln, v. intr. and v. refl. ſich —, [pro- vincial or in fam. lang.] [= ſehr or kleinlich puſſen] to like to dress one's self up fine, smart. Wie ſie gepuſſelt iſt! how fine, how mighty smart she is dressed out; [fam.] how she is tricked out and bedizened to be sure.

Puſſen, m. [-eſ, pl. -] [V. Puſſ] [with foun- ders] mass of ore adhering to the sides of a furnace, mass of uncalcined ore or of con- gealed ore; it. [with miners] mountains filled with cavities, full of natural or artificial caves.

Puſſen, v. tr. [Lat. putare, originally to cut, to trim, and then to clean] 1) [abſchneiden] to cut off to trim, to shave. Sich den Bart —, to shave one's self. 2) [ſchneidend ſäubern] to trim, to prune, to clean &c. Das Licht —, to snuff the candle; Bäume —, to prune or lop trees. 3) [chiefly] to clean. Stiefel &c. —, to clean, to brush boots &c.; ein Zim- mer, Haus —, to clean a room, house; [with shoemakers] die Abſäße —, to polish the heels [with the box-wood polisher]; Geschirr, ein Gewehr, eine Degenklinge &c. —, to scour, clean, brighten, poli-h plate, to furbish a gun, a sword-blade; dieser Rüſſ iſt nicht recht gepuſt worden, this breast-plate has not been well furbished, brightened; mit einer Bürſte —, to clean with a brush, to brush, [also] to pol- ish, to shine with a brush, with the shining- brush; einen Brunnen —, to clean, to cleanse a well; ſich die Zähne —, to clean, to brush one's teeth; die Naſe —, to clean, to blow one's nose; Einem die Naſe —, to wipe, to clean any one's nose [as an infant's]; [in familiar language] die Sterne — ſich, the stars are fal- ling, shooting; die Vögel — ſich, the birds clean, prune themselves. Fig. [in pop. or low lang.] Einem —, Einem den Buſen —, to read any one a severe lesson or homily, to give any one a smart rap over the knuckles, to take any one to task, to catechize, to give any one a sharp rebuke, a good setting down, to snub any one; [the wife's lecture] to read any one [a husband] a curtain lecture, to comb his beard or wig for him, to give him a sound rating; to school, to reprimand, to chide any one. 4) [verſchönern] to deck, to adorn, to embellish, to adjust, to set off [to the best ad- vantage &c.], to dress, to beautify. Sich —, to adorn one's self, to trick one's self out; ſich auf's beſte —, to dress one's self in one's finest array, [fam.] to put on one's best, [in a bad sense] to put on one's sunday-best [speak- ing of snobs, country-bumpkins &c.]; ei! Sie ſind ja gepuſt wie eine Braut; Sie ſind heute ja recht or gar ſchön gepuſt! [fam.] why! you are dressed out as fine as my Lord, as my Lady, for a party; bless my stars, my gracious, how mighty fine we are to-day, what a swell we cut to-day, [as a compliment] you are dressed quite beautifully, as beautiful as a bride, you are arrayed in all your charms to-day; die Braut —, to deck the bride. Syn. V. 2. Puſſ. Das —, the cleaning, pruning, polishing &c.; — eines Brunnens, the clean- sing of a well; — einer Klinge &c., the fur- bishing of a sword-blade &c.

Puſſbecken, n. V. Bartbecken. — dame, f. [in fam. lang.] a fine lady. Ich will keine ſolche —dame zur Frau, I will have no such fine lady for my wife, a person who thinks of nothing save dress. — doſſe, f., dim. — doſſchen, || — doſſlein, n. [fam.] a doll, a moppet, a tricky hussy. — eiſen, n. 1) [with masons] a trowel, a scraper, brick-pointer, a regrater. 2) V. — meſſer. — ſeile, f. rub- ber-file, rubber. — gemach, n. 1) dressing- room, toilet-chamber. 2) state-room, drawing- room. — gewand, n. dress-suit, [fam. and low] sunday-clothes, sunday-dress; [in a bad sense] sunday-best. — holz, n. [with shoemakers] the heel-smother, burnisher, polisher; [with cutlers] polishers [for the knife-handle- plates]. — meiſſel, m. [with tinmen] colander or strainer-borer, punch or piercer [a pointed chisel]. — meſſer, n. V. Schermesser; [with cutters] [two-handled] knife or hair-scraper. — mühle, f. a corn-windmill. — narr, m., — närrinn, f., dim. — närrchen, || — närrlein, n. [in a bad sense] [for men] a coxcomb, a buck, a dandy, fop, sark, macaroni, a sprig; [for women] a fine lady, a dashing flareaway, a painted or gaudy butterfly, a dressy tricky flirt, [for a girl] a doll bedizened out, a little butterfly- miss. — ſchere, f. snuffers. — ſtein, m. a lap-stone. V. Wimſtein. — ſtock, m. [in ar- tillery] [Kräger] worm, wad-hook, wadding or spunging stick. — ſtube, f. 1) dim. — ſtüb- chen, || — ſtüblein, n. [in fam. lang.] V. — gemach. 2) [in the army] furbishing-room, room where arms are cleaned and brightened. — ſucht, f. the rage, the mania, the passion for dress, for personal embellishment. — ſüchtig, adj. and adv. imbued with a passion for dress, for ornament. Eine —ſüchtige Thörinn, a giddy-pated creature wholly devoted to the toilet, a silly gaudy butterfly. — tiſch, m., dim. — tiſſchen, || — tiſſlein, n. 1) a dressing- table, toilet-table, toilet. 2) table covered with or for fancy trifles, porcelain, knick- knacks, articles of virtu &c., [for silver or glass] a sideboard. — tiſchtuch, n. the toilet-cloth. — tuch, n. shaving-cloth. — werk, n. orna- ments, decoration embellishment. — zange, f. [with silk-weavers] burlers, tweezers. — zeug, n. cleaning utensils or instruments. — zim- mer, n. V. — gemach.

Puſſer, m. [-eſ, pl. -] 1) cleaner, cleanser, polisher, scourer, pruner, furbisher, V. Puſſen; V. Bart—, Licht—, Schuh—, Stiefel— &c. 2) V. Spurbiene. 3) [in popular language] Fig. [Auspuſſer] reprimand, lecture, snubbing.

Puſſicht, n. [-eſ] [provincial or low] pick- ings, pluckings, [off a dress] flue; [from the head] scurf, dandruff, dandruff; [in the kitchen] scrapings, peelings &c.

Puſſig, adj. [provincial or low] [V. 1. Puſſ] very little or small, tiny.

Pygmäe, m. [-n, pl. -n] [in fabulous hist.] pygmy, pigmy. Fig. pygmy, dwarf. Er iſt ein wahrer —, he is a regular pigmy.

Pyramidal, V. — iſch.

Pyramidalerz, n. common sulphuret of lead. — ſpath, m. pyramidal carbonate of lime.

Pyramidalſch, adj. and adv. V. Pyra- midenförmig.

Pyramidalſirt, adj. and adv. [in crystal- lography] — er Kriftal, pyramidal crystal, py- ramidical crystal.

Pyramide, f. [pl. -n] 1) pyramid. Die ägyptiſchen —n, the pyramids of Egypt, the Egyptian pyramids; die Form einer — haben, to have the form of a pyramid. 2) [in nat. hist.] Die glatte —, the smooth pyrami- cal trochus or turbo; it. V. Regelschnecke. 3) [in the army] Die —, the pile. Das Gewehr in — ſetzen, to place the arms in piles, to pile arms.

Pyramidegünſel, m. V. Berggünſel. Pyramidenförmig, adj. and adv. py- ramidical. Sich —förmig erheben, to rise pyramidically. — glocke, f. or die — förmige Glockenblume, the pyramidal bell-flower, the chimney-campanula. — ſchnecke, f. V. Re- gelschnecke.

Pyrenäen, pl. [in geography] the Pyrenees, the Pyrenean mountains.

Pyrenäisch, adj. and adv. Pyrenean. Das —e Gebirge, the Pyrenean chain of mountains, the Pyrenees.

Pyretologie, f. [pl. -n] [Fieberlehre] pyretology.

Pyritologie, f. [pl. -n] pyritology.

Pyrole, f. [pl. -n] [in botany] pyrola, winter-green.

Pyrost, m. [-es, pl. -e] [in nat. hist.] yellow thrush.

Pyromant, m. [-en, pl. -en] [Feuerwahr-sager] a pyromancer, a pyromantic.

Pyromantie, f. pyromancy.

Pyrometer, n. [-s, pl. -] [Feuermesser] pyrometer.

Pyrometrie, f. [Feuermesskunst, Feuer-messung] pyrometry.

Pyrometrisch, adj. and adv. pyrometric, pyrometrical.

Pyronomie, f. [Feuerkunst] [in chemistry] pyronomy.

Pyrophän, adj. [in mineralogy] pyrophanous.

Pyrophör, m. [-en, pl. -en] [in chemistry] [Luftzunder] pyrophorus.

Pyrophorisch, adj. and adv. pyrophorous.

Pyrotechnie, f. [Feuerkunst, Feuerwerk-kunst] pyrotechny.

Pyrotechniker, m. [-s, pl. -] pyrotech-nist.

Pyrotechnisch, adj. and adv. pyrotech-nic, pyrotechnical.

Pyrotisch, adj. and adv. [brennend, äsend] pyrotic, caustic.

Pyrrhichisch, adj. and adv. [in antiquity] Der —e Tanz, the pyrrhic dance; [in prosody] —er Fuß, —es Versglied [of two short syllables], pyrrhic foot, a pyrrhic.

Pyrrhonianer, m. [-s, pl. -], —inn, f. [in antiquity] a Pyrrhonist, a sceptic.

Pyrrhonismus, m. Pyrrhonism, scepticism.

Pythagoräer, m. [-s, pl. -] [in antiquity] a follower of Pythagoras, Pythagorean.

Pythagoräisch, adj. and adv. Pythagorean, Pythagoric. Die —e Lehre, Pythagorism.

Pythia, f. [-s or in poetry Pythiens, pl. -s] [the priestess of Apollo] Pythia.

Pythisch, adj. and adv. Pythian.

Q.

Q, n. [a consonant] Q. Ein großes —, a great, capital Q.

Quaal, f. V. Quaal.

Quäbbe, f. V. Quappe.

Quäbbelig, adj. and adv. [provincial or low] plump, fat, squab. —e Wangen, plump cheeks; sie ist —, she is squabby.

Quäbbeln, v. intr. [provincial or low] [allied to waben = sich bewegen] to shake or quaver with fat; it. to shake, to tremble.

Quäckelhaft, Quäckelig, adj. and adv. [provincial or in pop. lang.] 1) childish, trifling, puerile. 2) irresolute, wavering.

Quäckeln, v. intr. [another form of wackeln] [provincial or in pop. lang.] to totter, to reel, to vacillate. Fig. to be irresolute, to waver.

Quäckentraut, n. [-es] the great bind-weed.

Quäckente, f. V. Quackente.

Quäckler, m. [-s, pl. -] [provincial or in popular language] an unsteady frivolous person.

Quäcksalber, m. [-s, pl. -], —inn, f. [from quackeln = schreien, and salben] quack, quacksalver, an empiric, charlatan, mountebank Syn. Quackfalter, Marktschreier, Salbader. The Marktschreier is distinguished from the Quackfalter by his setting up his booth in public places and loudly proclaiming the merits of his medicines; the Quackfalter only goes into houses to recommend his medicines, or sends about printed bills in which he boasts of his cures. Quackfalter indicates, therefore, one who gives himself out for a physician from his ignorance, Marktschreier from his boasting. Salbader seems intended to indicate a Quackfalter in a still more contemptible light, as one who seeks to hide his ignorance, in a chattering and confused way, by technical terms from the learned languages.

Quacksalberei, f. quackery, empiricism, quackism.

Quäcksalbern, v. intr. to act or play the quack, to quack.

Quäder, m. [-s, pl. -] [from the Lat. quadrus, viereckig] or —stein, square stone, free-stone.

Quaderwerk, n. bound masonry.

Quadragesima, [without the article] the first Sunday in Lent, Quadragesima [Sunday].

Quadragesimal, adj. quadragesimal.

Quadrängel, [-s, pl. -n and †Quadrangula], Quadrángulum, n. quadrangle.

Quadrangulär, adj. and adv. quadrangular.

Quadránt, m. [-en, pl. -en] [in geometry] quadrant.

Quadrantaluhr, f. [pl. -en] quadrantal dial.

Quadrat, n. [-es, pl. -e], dim. Quadrätchen, [Quadrätlein, n. [-s, pl. -] a square, quadrate; [in arithmetic] a square or square number. Eine Zahl in's — erheben, to raise a number or quantity to the square or second power; das — von 8 ist 64, the square of 8 is 64; das — der Hypothenuse ist gleich dem — der beiden Katheten, the square of the side that subtends the right angle, is equal to the squares of the sides containing the right angle. it. [in printing] quadrat; Quadrätchen, n. M-quadrat; halbes Quadrätchen, N-quadrat. it. [in music] a natural. it. [in towns chiefly in popular lang.] a lot or certain number of houses built in a quadrangle.

Quadratzeile, f. square ell or yard. —fuß, m. square foot. —maß, n. square measure. —meile, f. square mile. —rechnung, f. calculation of square numbers. —ruthe, f. a square rood. —schein, m. [in astronomy] quartile, quadrate. —schuh, m. V. —fuß. —verhältnis, n. duplicate ratio or proportion. —wurzel, f. square root. Die — wurzel ausziehen, to extract the square root. —wurzelverhältnis, n. subduplicate ratio or proportion. —zahl, f. square number, quadrate number, square. —zoll, m. square inch.

Quadrätchen, n. [-s, pl. -] [in printing] V. Quadrat.

Quadratisch, adj. and adv. quadratic. —e Gleichungen, quadratic equations, quadratics.

Quadratur, f. quadrature.

Quadrille, [pronounced Kadrillje] f. [pl. -n] 1) [a kind of dance] quadrille. 2) [a game at cards played by four persons] quadrille.

Quadriren, I. v. tr. to square, to make square, V. Abvieren. II. v. intr. Fig. [not much used, stiff or affected] to suit, to fit, to agree. Das quadrirt nicht, that does not agree or square.

Quadrüpel, I. m. [-s, pl. -] [a Spanish gold-coin] quadruple. II. adj. quadruple, V. Bierfach.

Quadrupelallianz, f. [Bierbund or Bierbündnis] quadruple alliance.

Quäk! [the sound uttered by a frog] croak. Der Frosch schreit —, the frog croaks.

Quäckelchen, n. [-s, pl. -] a weakly child or infant, that is constantly crying or screaming.

Quackeln, V. Quaken, Quieken.

Quaken, v. intr. [Lat. coaxo, V. Quieken and Quäken] 1) [rather provincial] [in general] to cry with a disagreeable voice, to groan, to scream, to squall. 2) [especially, to cry like a frog] to croak; it. [to cry like a duck] to quack.

Quackente, f. the buffie headed duck. —kröte, f. rana musica. —reier, m. V. Nachtreier, Nachtrabe.

Quäken, v. intr. to utter the cry of a hare or fox. Fig. to scream, to squeak, to pipe [chiefly of little children, young pigs &c.].

Quäckfink, m. V. 1. Quäker 2).

Quäkenfrosch, m. the common frog.

Quäker, m. [-s, pl. -] one that croaks, croaker.

Quäkerente, f. V. Quackente.

1. Quäker, m. [-s, pl. -] 1) one that croaks or squeaks, a croaker. 2) the brambling.

2. Quäker, m. [-s, pl. -], —inn, f. [from to quake, zittern] Quaker [one of the religious sect called Friends].

Quäker-gemeine, —gesellschaft, f. society of quakers or friends. —glaube, m. quakerism, quakery. —versammlung, f. meeting of quakers.

1. Quäkerei, f. repeated croaking.

2. Quäkerei, f. quakerism, quakery.

Quäkerisch, adj. and adv. quakerlike, quakerly. Der —e Glaube, V. Quäkerglaube.

Quäckler, m. V. Quackler.

Quacksen, v. intr. [low] to croak.

Quäl, f. [pl. -en] [V. Quälen] pain, torment, grief, affliction. Die höchste — [To, desquäl], agony; Einem — anthun, to put any one to extreme pain or anguish, to torment, to torture any one; it. to tease, to vex any one; die —en der Liebe, the pains or torments of love. Syn. Qual, Pein, Marter, Solter, Plage. Pein indicates the extent of pain as to its violence, Qual as to its duration. Pein implies, therefore, the generic idea of pain, Qual the various species of it. This is evident also from the fact that Qual has a plural, whereas Pein has not. Hence mere annoyances, which we strive to get rid of, can also quälen. The uncertainty whether what we design to do be right and good, often quält the best and most conscientious, but after a bad action the conscience of the bad man peinigt him. Children quälen an affectionate mother with their unreasonable requests. Solter and Mar- ter are synonymous with Qual and Pein only in their figurative sense. Plage implies every kind of molestation. A nurse has much Plage with a sick child. Plage interrupts an agreeable state; Qual is an uninterruptedly painful one.

Qual=belastet, adj. [in poetry] loaded with pains or torments. — erfüllt, adj. [in poetry] V. — voll. — göttinn, f. Fury. — voll, adj. and adv. full of pains, torments or anguish. — volle Sorgen, corroding cares; des=volsten Todes sterben, to die a most cruel or painful death.

Qualen=rad, n. torture-wheel. — voll, adj. V. Qualvoll.

Quale, f. V. 1. Quehle.

Quälen, v. tr. [Sw. walla, Engl. to quell = bejähmen, Icel. quelia] to torment, to plague. Von der Sicht gequält werden, to be plagued or pestered with the gout; [in painting] die Farben —, to deaden the colours [by too much tampering with them]. Fig. Von Gewissensbissen gequält werden, to be stung with remorse; — de Sorgen, corroding cares; Einem mit Bitten &c. —, to tease, plague, harass or vex any one with entreaties or requests; Einen um Etwas —, to torment, tease or plague any one in order to obtain something; warum or was soll ich mich lange —? why should I rack or beat my brains about it?

Quälgeist, m. tormenting spirit, demon. Fig. a troublesome person; a bore; a person apt to tease others. — göttinn, f. Fury. — torn, n. spelt. — ort, m. place of torment or torture, [especially] hell. — teufel, m. V. — geist.

Quäler, m. [-ē, pl. -], — inn, f. one that torments, teases or vexes, tormentor, teaser.

Quälerei, f. 1) act of tormenting, teasing &c. 2) vexation, importunity.

Qualification*, f. qualification.

Qualificiren*, v. tr. 1) to fit for any place, occupation &c., to qualify. 2) to abate, to diminish; to modify, to limit by exceptions, [chiefly in law] to qualify. Ein qualifizirtes Geständniß, a limited or modified confession.

Qualität*, f. [pl. -en] quality.

Quäll, m. [-ē] [from quellen = sich bewegen] 1) pressure. Der — treibt das Wasser in die Höhe, the pressure makes the water rise. 2) the bubbling up of a spring of water.

Quälle, f. [pl. -n] medusa, sea-nettle, sea-blubber.

Quälm, m. [-ē, pl. [little used] Quälme] [D. walm, A. Sax. wylm, Sw. dwaln] 1) thick vapour, steam or smoke. 2) disposition to vomit, squeamishness.

Quälm=bad, n. vapour-bath. — dampf, m. very thick fume or smoke.

Quälmen, [V. Quatm] I. v. intr. to send up vapour, steam or smoke, to steam, to smoke. II. v. tr. Die Stube voll—, to fill the room with smoke [of tobacco].

Quälmecht, adj. and adv. resembling steam, vapour or smoke, vaporous.

Quälmig, adj. and adv. 1) full of smoke, steam or vapour, smoky. 2) emitting smoke or vapour, smoky.

Quälster, m. [-ē] [A. Sax. gcolster = Eiter, perhaps allied to gelb, provinc. gehl] 1) [provincial] bronchial mucus, phlegm. — ausswerfen, to spit phlegm. 2) a species of bug or wall-louse [cimex baccarum].

Quälsterbaum, m. 1) the mountain-ash or service-tree. 2) V. Mehlbaum 2).

Quälsterig, adj. phlegmatic.

Quälstern, v. intr. to spit phlegm.

Quändel, m. [-ē, pl. -] 1) middle of a charcoal-pile. 2) V. — pfahl.

Quändel=fohle, f. charcoal out of the middle of a pile. — pfahl, m., — ruthe, — stange, f. the pole stuck in the middle of a charcoal-pile.

Quändelbaum, — beerbaum, m. [-ē, pl. -bäume] [Quandel allied to the Dan. quant = stein] the alpine mespilus or medlar-tree.

Quändelbeere, f. the alpine medlar.

Quánt, m. [-ē, pl. -e] [Sw. quant = böse, Goth. vand, probably from wenden] 1) a sly, cunning fellow; it. a queer, rum fellow. 2) feint, false appearance, pretence.

Quantsweise, adv. in a pretended manner, only in appearance, only to make believe.

Quantität*, f. [pl. -en] quantity, V. Menge, Anzahl, Größe; Sylbenmaß.

Quantitativ*, adj. and adv. quantitative, quantitative.

Quantum*, n. [-ē] 1) quantity, number, quantum. 2) share, part or proportion assigned to each, quota.

Quappe*, f. [pl. -n] 1) eel-pout. 2) tadpole, bullhead, porwigele.

Quappeln, V. Quabbeln.

Quarantäne*, f. quarantine. Die — halten, to perform quarantine.

Quarantänehaus, n. hospital for quarantine, lazaret, lazaretto, lazaret-house.

Quärf, m. [-ē] 1) curds of milk. 2) mud, dirt. Fig. [in popular lang.] any thing mean and contemptible. paltry thing, trifle. Werfen Sie den ganzen — in's Feuer, throw the whole trash into the fire; den alten — wieder aufrühren, to rip up an old sore, to revive an old quarrel; einen — [nicht] sollst du bekommen [low], you shall not have a farthing [for it].

Quark=brod, n. a slice of bread spread over with curds or soft cheese. — faß, n. a tub or vessel, in which the dried curds destined for cheese are put. — fliege, f. V. Schneißfliege. — gehänge, — hänge, f. a hanging frame in which curds and cheese are dried. — fäse, m. a sort of small home-made cheese. — floss, m. curd-dumpling. — forb, m. a basket in which the curd-bag is put, to drain the curds of the whey. — nudel, f. a sort of macaroni prepared of curds, flour and eggs. — ringel, m. lanner, shrike, V. Neuntöchter. — saß, m. 1) curd-bag [used in the process of cheese-making]. 2) Fig. [vulgar] a slovenly, filthy, hoggy fellow. — schnitte, f. V. — brod. — spize, f. Fig. [low] a trifle. Eine — spize soll er haben, he shall have nothing of it. — trage, f. V. — forb.

Quärre, f. [pl. -n] a squalling child. Fig. or Prov. Die Pfarre mit der — bekommen, to get a living [or a place] and a wife together or at the same time.

Quarré*, [pron. Karréh] n. [-ē, pl. -ē] [in military affairs] hollow square.

Quarren, [allied to girren] v. intr. to squall; it. to grumble.

Quarrer, m. [-ē, pl. -] squaller; it. a scolding man, a grumbler.

Quärt, n. [-ē, pl. -e] [from the Lat. quartus] 1) the fourth part of a whole, a quarter. 2) [in some parts of Germany, a measure] a quart [of wine &c.]. Ein — chen or Quartier=chen, a quatern. 3) [among bookbinders] Ein —, ein Buch or Band in —, ein — band, a quarto, a volume or book in quarto. 4) [in seamen's lang.] [sea-] watch.

Quart=band, m. quarto, a book in quarto. — blatt, n. the fourth part of a sheet of paper, quarter of a sheet. — bogen, m. a sheet of paper twice folded, a quarto sheet. — flasche, f. quart-bottle. — stab, m. V. Biertelstab. — stos, m. [in fencing] quart.

Quárta*, f. [in public schools] the fourth class or form.

Quartäl*, n. [-ē, pl. -e] 1) quarter of a year. 2) quarterday. 3) quarterly payment. Er ist zwei — e Hauszins schuldig, he owes two quarters of rent, he owes a six months' rent. 4) a quarterly meeting.

Quartalweise, adv. by the quarter, every three months.

Quartäner*, m. [-ē, pl. -] a scholar of the fourth form. Er ist noch —, he is still in the fourth form.

Quartänfieber*, n. [-ē, pl. -] a fever which returns every fourth day, quartan.

Quartánt*, m. [-en, pl. -en] a book or volume in quarto, a quarto.

Quárte*, f. [pl. -n] 1) V. Quart. 2) [in fencing, the fourth movement] quart. — stoßen, to give a thrust in quart. 3) [in the game of picket a sequence of four cards] quart. Eine — vom Könige, a quart to the king; eine große —, a quart major. 4) [in music] a fourth, a quart. 5) [in metallurgy] quaternation.

Quartett*, n. [-ē, pl. -e] a musical composition of four parts, quartett.

1. Quartier*, n. [-ē, pl. -e] 1) V. Quart 1). 2) [in seamen's lang.] watch. — halten, to keep the watch, to be upon the watch; — rufen, to call the watch to relief; es ist —, — ist aus, the watch! ahoy! 3) quarter of a town. 4) [among shoemakers] quarter, V. Hinte—. 5) [in the manege] quarter of a horse's hoof. 6) — chen, n. a quatern, V. Quart 2).

Quartier=lied, — slied, n. [in seamen's lang.] watch-song. — volk, n. the watch-crew. — wache, f. watch.

2. Quartier*, n. [-ē, pl. -e] lodging [Dim. — chen, a small, usually neat or nice, lodging]; [in military affairs] quarters. Die Winter — beziehen, to go into winter quarters; — machen, to provide quarters; im — e liegen, to be billeted or quartered; er liegt bei uns im — e, he is quartered in our house; er hat zwei Soldaten im — e, two soldiers are quartered or billeted in his house; aus dem — e aufbrechen, to leave one's quarters, to dislodge. Fig. [the sparing of the life of an enemy when in one's power] quarter. Um — bitten, to beg or ask quarter, to call or cry for quarter; kein — geben, to give no quarter.

Quartier=billet, n. V. — zettel. — frei, adj. not liable to have, exempt from having soldiers quartered in one's house. — freiheit, f. exemption from having soldiers quartered upon one. — meister, m. [in military affairs] quarter-master. — pflichtig, adj. subject or liable to have soldiers quartered in one's house. — zettel, m. billet.

Quartieren*, v. tr. V. Ein—.

Quarz, m. [-ē, pl. -e] quartz.

Quarz=achat, m. quartz agate. — bruse, f. a quartz druse, crystallized quartz. — fels, m. quartz-rock. — fluß, m. coloured quartz. — kristall, m. quartz crystal, crystallized quartz. — sand, m. quartz sand, arenaceous quartz. — schiefer, m. gneiss. — sinter, m. quartz-sinter. — würfel, m. boracite.

Quärzel, m. [-s, pl. -], [dim. of Quarz] [in mining] a piece of rock or stone broken off, a fragment.

Quärzen, adj. made of quartz, quartz.

Quärzigt, adj. resembling quartz, quartz.

Quärzig, adj. quartz.

Quäsi, adv. as it were, seemingly.

Quasimodogeniti, [without the article] first Sunday after Easter, low Sunday.

Quässi, f. [not used in the pl., except in commerce, -n] [in botany] quassia-tree.

Quäst, m. [-es, pl. -e] or Quäste, f. [pl. -n], [dim. Quästchen, || Quästlein, n. [-s, pl. -]] [seems to be allied to wischen, Wedel &c.] tassel, tuft. Die — an einem Kissen &c., the tassel of a cushion &c.; V. Degen —, Puder —, Troddel —; [in seamen's language] a large brush or mop used in calking ships; [among fishermen] a bundle of green twigs used for catching fish, especially eels; [in botany] das Quästchen, adelia.

Quastgras, n. bent, bent-grass. V. Straußgras.

Quastenseide, f. silk for making tassels or tufts.

Quäswurm, m. [-es, pl. -würmer] [in the veterinary art] V. Schwanzwurm.

Quatember, m. [-s, pl. -] [from the Lat. quatuor tempora] 1) quarter of a year. 2) quarter-day. 3) quarterly payment. 4) [in the Roman church] a strict fast-day kept on the first Friday of every quarter.

Quatembergeld, n. money paid every quarter or by the quarter, quarterly payment. || —gericht, n. a court of justice held every quarter or every three months, [in England] quarterly assizes. —steuer, f. a tax or contribution paid every three months or quarterly. —tag, m. quarterday.

Quäter, n. [-s, pl. -] [at backgammon] quatre.

Quäterne, f. [pl. -n] four numbers [in a lottery].

1. Quätsch! [a word imitating the sound of a heavy soft body falling suddenly on a hard one] [low] squash! squab! slap! smash!

2. Quätsch, m. [-es, pl. -e] [low] squash. Man hörte einen —, a squash was heard; einen — thun, to fall with a squash; Einem einen — geben, to give any one a box on the ear.

Quätschelig, adj. and adv. [in common people's lang.] squab, plump.

Quätscheln, v. intr. [from quatschen] [in common people's lang.] to produce a certain sound by the agitation of a liquid substance [in a cask &c.], to quash.

Quätschen, [allied to quetschen] v. intr. [low] 1) [u. w. haben] to quash, to splash. Im Rothe —, to walk in the mud; die Schuhe — ihm, his shoes are full of water; fallen, daß es quätscht, to fall with a squash. 2) [u. w. seyn] to fall with a squash.

Quätschig, adj. and adv. [low] muddy, dirty.

Quätschlicht, adj. and adv. [low] 1) sticky, clammy, muddy. 2) V. Quätschelig.

Quätte, f. [pl. -n] the grab of the may-bug.

Quäck, adj. and adv. [Eng. and D. quick = hurtig, Sw. qwick, from wegen (bewegen), weden; allied to the Lat. vivus] lively, quick; [in chemistry] V. Quäck and Quäcksilber.

Quäckbeere, f. [pl. -n] [Quäck probably from the Low. Sax. quecken = sich vermehren] berry of the service-tree.

Quécke, Quêcke, f. [pl. -n] [from the Low Sax. quecken = sich vermehren] 1) any grass with creeping roots. 2) couch-grass, quitch-grass, twitch-grass.

[Quéckholder, m. V. Bachholder. — trespe, f. a kind of brome-grass [bromus inermis]. — weizen, m. V. Quêcke 2).

Quêcken=egge, f. a kind of harrow for tearing out the roots of couch-grass. — gras, n. 1) V. Quêcke 2). 2) knot-grass. — halen, m. a kind of plough for ploughing out the roots of couchgrass. — safft, m. juice of the roots of couchgrass. — trant, m. pisan of the roots of couchgrass. — wurzel, f. root of couch-grass.

Quêckig, adj. and adv. full of couch-grass or quitch-grass.

Quêcksilber, n. [-s] [from queck, which see] quicksilver, mercury; [in chemistry] hydrargyrum. Fig. Er hat viel — [in fam. lang.], he is full of mercury, fire or vigour, he is very lively, sprightly.

Quêcksilber=ähnlich, adj. and adv. quicksilvered. — auflösung, f. 1) dissolution, analysis of mercury. 2) solution of mercury. — borar, m. borate of mercury. — erde, f. mercurial earth. Geblätterte — erde, acetite of mercury. — erz, n. mercurial ore, quicksilver-ore. — essigsalz, n. acetate of mercury. — guhr, f. native or fluid mercury. — hornerz, n. mercurial horn-ore, corneous mercury, muriate of mercury. — kugel, f. ball of mercury or quicksilver. — lebererz, n. hepatic mercurial ore. — mittel, n. mercurial remedy or medicine. — niederschlag, m. [—präcipitat] red precipitate. — öl, n. oil of mercury, mercurial oil. — pflaster, n. mercurial plaster. — salbe, f. mercurial salve. — salpeter, m. nitrate of mercury. — satz, n. mercurial salt, muriate of mercury. — stein, m. native mercury. — vitriol, m. sulphate of mercury. — wasser, n. mercurial water. — weinstein, m. tartrate of mercury.

Quêcksilbern, adj. and adv. consisting of quicksilver or mercury, mercurial. Fig. [in familiar lang.] very lively, sprightly, full of fire or vigour.

1. Quêhle, f. [pl. -n] [also Bwehle, Bwehle, probably allied to wehen, weiden] towel.

2. Quêhle, f. [pl. -n] [from the Low-Sax. dwaten = watten] channel or gutter for conveying off the water in a mine.

Quêcke, V. Quêcke.

Quell, m. [-es, pl. -en] spring, source, fountain. V. Quelle 1).

Quell=ader, f. vein of a spring. — binse, f. the needle upright clubrush. — bottich, m. V. —stock. — brunnen, m. a well supplied by a spring of water, spring-well. — bütte, f. V. —stock. — gras, n. the water hair-grass. — grund, m. ground full of springs, marshy ground. — moos, n. V. Stufmoos. — nimfe, — en=nimfe, [—nymphen], dim. — nimschen, || — nimslein, [or — nymphchen] n. water-nymph, naiad. — reich, adj. abounding with springs, full of springs. — satz, n. pit-salt, spring-salt. — sand, m. [from quellen = sich bewegen] [also Quicksand] quick-sand. — semse, f. V. —binse. — stock, m. [in breweries] a large trough in which the barley is soaked. — wasser, n. spring-water.

Quelle, f. [pl. -n] [V. Quellen], 1) dim. Quellen, n. [-s, pl. -] spring, source, fountain. Aus der — schöpfen, to draw water from a spring; nach einer — graben, to dig for a spring or well. 2) Fig. Gott ist die — alles Guten, God is the fountain of all goodness; Griechenland, diese — der Kunst, Greece, that source of art; die — unseres Lebens, the spring of our life; an der — seyn, sitzen, aus der — schöpfen, to have from good authority; it. to consult the original authors, to go to the fountain-head; die — n der Geschichte, the original sources or materials of history. Syn. Quelle, ursprung. The first event with which a thing began, till it attained the state in which we perceive it, is its Ursprung; that which contains the reason why it can be, is called its Quelle. The Quelle of the corruption of manners among the Romans was their immense wealth, and if we go back to its Ursprung we find it in the Asiatic conquests.

Quellen=gräber, m. one who digs for springs or fountains. — hell, adj. clear as spring-water. — reich, adj. abounding with springs, full of springs. — studium, n. study of the original materials [of history &c.].

Quellen, [allied to watten = sich bewegen] ir. l. v. intr. [u. w. seyn and haben] 1) to issue forth, to spring [said of water]. Aus dieser Felsen quillt ein krystallhelles Wasser, a crystalline water springs or issues from this rock; Ströme Blutes quollen aus seinen Wunden, torrents of blood gushed from his wounds; Thränen quollen aus ihren Augen, tears flowed or trickled from her eyes. Fig. to proceed from, to arise, to spring from. Aus Gott quillt alles Leben, God is the spring or fountain of all life; hieraus quillt unser ganzes Unglück, it is from this source that all our misfortunes flow. 2) to come out, to be pushed out or forward, to project. Die Augen — ihm aus dem Kopfe, his eyes stick out of his head. 3) to be swelled by moisture, to swell in water. Die Erbsen — im Wasser, pease swell in water; Erbsen — lassen, to cause pease to swell in water, to soak pease. Fig. Der Bissen quillt mir im Munde [in fam. language], I have not the least appetite. II. v. tr. to cause to swell in water, to soak. Erbsen, Bohnen —, to soak pease, beans; gequollte Erbsen, half-boiled pease. [in a more extended but less usual sense] to cause to increase, to swell [of water].

Quellig, adj. full of springs or sources.

1. Quëndel, m. [-s] [Medio-Lat. quenula] the mother of thyme, wild thyme, wild running betony.

Quëndel=öl, n. oil of mother of thyme. — wolte, f. dodder of thyme, dodder.

2. Quëndel, m. [-s, pl. -] V. Quandel. Quendelbeere, f. V. Quandelbeere.

Quängeln, v. intr. [Low. Sax. quen = ächen; allied to weinen] [provincial and in popular language] to complain or lament with a drawling and feminine voice; it. to behave like a child, to be childish.

Quent, n. [-es, pl. -e], dim. — chen, || — lein, n. [-s, pl. -] [from the Lat. quintus] the eighth part of an ounce, a drachm.

Quer, adj. and adv. [Low. Sax. dwer, allied to swerch, Lat. varus, from an old verb queren = drehen] transverse, oblique, cross. Eine — e Linie, a cross line, diagonal line; — es Holz, a cross piece of timber, a piece of wood placed transversely; — über die Straße laufen, to cross the street; — über einen Fluß schwimmen, to swim over a river; ein Hieb — über das Gesicht, a cut athwart or across the face; — gegenüber, over the way, opposite; — über das Feld fahren, to drive across the field; — feldlein kommen, to come across the fields. fig. [in familiar language] to talk or act at random, inconsiderately, rashly, preposterously; [in seamen's language] ein Schiff — legen, to bring the broadside of a ship to bear upon some fort &c.; [in anatomy] der — e Bauchmuskel, V. — bauchmuskel. Fig. [in fam. lang.] Einem — kommen, to cross any one, to thwart any one's intentions; mit einem Balken — durch die Thüre wollen, to go the wrong way to work. Syn. Quer, Schräg, Schief. The straight is more immediately opposed to the crooked; but a perpendicular direction is also sometimes called straight. The line then lies quer on another if it cuts it at right angles, but if at any other angle, it lies schräg. Schief is that which has a different direction to what it should have. Crooked legs are called schief because legs should be straight; but we do not call the hooked beak of a bird of prey schief, for this was not intended to be straight.

Querabtheilung, f. transversal or diagonal division or partition. — achse, f. transverse axis. — arm, m. cross-bar. — ast, m. 1) a cross branch. 2) [in anatomy] transverse branch. — art, f. an axe with a double edge, twibil. — balken, m. cross-beam, purlin, traverse, joist; [in seamen's lang.] transom. — band, n. a sort of rail [that holds together the pales of a bridge]. Mit — bändern versehen or befestigen, to fasten with rails. [in anatomy] transverse ligament. — bank, f. cross-bench; [in German history] the bench of the Protestant bishops [at the Imperial diet]. — bauchmuskel, m. transverse abdominal muscle. — baum, m. cross-tree, cross-bar. — binde, f. [in blazonry] traverse. — blick, m. oblique look. Einen — blick auf Jemand werfen, to look askew or askance upon any one, to look at any one with an ill eye. — blutleiter, m. [in anatomy] transverse sinus. — bret, n. cross-board. — büßgel, m. the cross-bow of a sword's hilt. — dach, n. a cross roof. — damm, m. cross dike. — faser, f., dim. — fäserchen, n. fibril. — feldein, adv. V. under Quer. — finger, m. a finger's breadth. — flöte, f. German flute. — flügel, m. cross-wing; [among hunters] a cross-lane [through a forest]. — folio, n. oblong folio. — furche, f. cross furrow. — gang, m. 1) the act of walking across. Auf einem — gange durch diese Felder, in crossing these fields. 2) a cross alley or walk; [in mining] a cross vein, feeder of a vein; [in fortification] traverse. — gasse, f., dim. — gäßchen, n. — gäßlein, n. cross-street, cross-lane. — gesichtsbloodader, f. transverse facial vein. — gesichteschlagader, f. transverse facial artery. — gestein, n. the rocks that are across the veins or lodes. — giebel, m. cross-gable. — graben, m. cross ditch. — grimmdarm, m. transverse colon. — haus, n. a house that stands across. — hieb, m. a cut across or slanting. Er hat ihm einen — hieb über das Gesicht gegeben, he has cut him across the face. — holz, n. cross-piece of timber, cross-bar. Die — hölzer eines Fensterrahmens, the cross-bars of a window-frame. — kette, f., dim. — kettchen, n. — kettlein, n. cross-chain of a bridle. — luft, f. [in mining] a traverse cleft or fissure. — löp, m. [in familiar language] a perverse, preposterous, queer person, a cross-grained person or fellow. — löpfig, adj. and adv. [in familiar language] perverse, preposterous, queer, fantastical, cross-grained. — laden, m. the shutter of a sky-light. — latte, f. 1) a lath that goes across, a cross-lath. 2) V. — schämel. — lauf, m. running or course in a cross direction, the oblique course [of a ship &c.]. — linie, f. cross-line, diagonal line. — mauer, f. a wall built across any thing, cross wall. — muskel, m. transverse muscle. — naht, f. transverse suture. — pfad, m. cross-path, cross-way. — pfeife, f. 1) life. 2) V. — flete. — pfeifer, m. lifer. — sack, m. saddle-bag, wallet. — sackträger, m. one that bears a wallet; it. a beggar. — säge, f. crosscut-saw. — sattel, m. side-saddle. — saum, m. cross-hem. — schämel, m. the cross treadle of a weaver's loom. — scheidewand, f. V. — wand. — schnitt, m. cross incision, cross cut. — sinn, m. perverse way of thinking or disposition. — sinnig, adj. and adv. perverse, preposterous, cross-grained. — stange, f. cross-pole; it. cross bar. — strasse, f. cross-street — strich, m. 1) cross-stroke. 2) Fig. hindrance, impediment, disappointment. Er hat mir einen — strich durch meinen Plan gemacht, he thwarted me in. he traversed my project or design. — strichlein, n. [in printing] hyphen. — stück, n. a piece fixed or put across another, cross-piece. — stütze, f. a prop, stay or support fixed or put across any thing; [in trigonometry] versed sine. — tritt, m. V. — schämel. — wall, m. [in fortification] transverse. — wand, f. 1) cross-wall, partition-wall. 2) [in anatomy] diaphragm. — weg, m. cross-way. — wind, m. cross-wind, side-wind. — wunde, f. an oblique or transverse wound. — zahn, m. cross-hedge. — zug, m. 1) a cross-stroke. 2) a cross course, march or expedition; it. a cruise. — zug, m. a cross branch.

Querder, m. [-s, pl. -] 1) the small lamp. 2) V. 1. Röder.

Quere, f. quality of being transverse, diagonal or cross, oblique direction. In die —, nach der —, athwart, in a cross direction; den Hut die —, in die — aufsetzen, to put on one's hat athwart or awry; Etwas in die —, nach der — legen, to put any thing athwart, cross-wise or the wrong way; in die Länge und in die —, by length and breadth. Fig. [in familiar language] Einem in die — kommen, to thwart, to cross any one's purpose or designs; es kam mir Etwas in die —, some obstacle came in my way; Etwas die — nehmen, to take any thing wrong, to misunderstand, to understand any thing wrongly; es geht mir Alles der —, I am thwarted in all my designs.

Queren, [rather unusual] I. v. tr. to give a cross or oblique direction, to put in a cross direction. II. v. r. sich —, to lie or be athwart, to cross.

Quers, m. [-es, pl. -e]. dim. Querschen, n. [-s, pl. -] [from the old queren = drehen] 1) twirling-stick, chocolate stick or mill. 2) [in botany] whirl, verticil. 3) [in forestry] shoot. Quersförmig, adj. [in botany] verticillate.

Querslen, I. v. tr. to turn round or to stir or beat with the twirling-stick, to twirl. II. v. intr. [in pop. lang.] to move round with velocity, to twirl, to whirl.

Querstenkraut, n. [-s] V. Ackerhaubechel.

1. Quetsche, f. [pl. -n] 1) an instrument for squeezing, pinching or crushing. 2) state of being pinched. Fig. [in pop. lang.] dilemma, difficulty. In der — seyn, to be at a pinch.

2. Quetsche, f. [pl. -n] V. Zwetsche.

Quetschen, v. tr. [Sw. quesa, L. quatio, quasso, Engl. to quash] 1) to crush, to bruise [by sudden compression], to squash. Er hat sich den Finger gequetscht, he has bruised or crushed his finger; einem Pferde die Geilen —, to crush the testicles of, to geld a horse;

[in coining] das Metall —, to extend, to flatten the metal; [in mining] to pound or break the ore. 2) [to force out by pressure] to squeeze, to press. Den Saft aus einer Citrone &c. —, to squeeze a lemon &c. 3) [formerly] to oppress, to pinch [a nation].

Quetscheisen, n. iron for squeezing or crushing; [among hairdressers] V. — zange. — form, f. [among goldbeaters] large vellum-mould. — geld, n. [in coining] planchet. — hammer, m. [in coining] hammer for extending metal plates. — wunde, f. a bruise, contusion. — zange, f. an iron for burning the hair.

Quetschung, f. 1) act of crushing &c. 2) injury occasioned by violent and sudden pressure or by pinching, bruise, contusion.

*Queue, m. [pron. Röb] cue [for playing at billiards].

Quick, adj. and adv. V. Quack.

Quick, [-es] [V. Quack] I. n. [unusual] cattle. II. m. quicksilver, mercury; [among workers in metal] quicksilver or mercury dissolved in nitric acid or aqua-fortis.

Quickbrei, m. amalgam. — erz, n. V. Quacksilbererz. — metall, n. V. — brei. — mühle, f. [in metallurgy] a mill of cast iron for refining the silver-ore by means of mercury. — sand, m. [also Quets[sand]] quicksand. — wasser, n. [in chemistry] aqua secunda.

*Quidam, m. [-s] [in contempt] a certain person, somebody, quidam.

*Quidproquo, Quiproquo, n. [-s, pl. -s] quidproquo, mistake.

Quieten, [Lat. vag-io, allied to quäfen] v. intr. to squeak, to squeal, to pipe, to squeak.

Quietig, adj. and adv. [in popular lang.] squalling, screaming, squealing, piping.

*Quietsen, Quietschen, [in pop. lang.] V. Quieten.

*Quietismus, m. [system of the quietists] quietism.

*Quietist, m. [-en, pl. -en] quietist.

Quietsch, m. [-es, pl. -e] [low] squeak, scream, shriek.

Quitschfink, m. 1) V. Bergfink. 2) V. Dompfaff 2).

Quietschen, V. Quietsen.

Quint, V. Quent.

*Quinta, f. the fifth class or form of a school.

*Quintaner, m. [-s, pl. -] a boy or scholar of the fifth form.

*Quintanfieber, n. [-s, pl. -] a fever or ague which returns every fifth day, quintana, five-day fever.

*Quinte, f. [pl. -n] 1) the treble string of a violin. 2) [in music] fifth. 3) [in piquet, a set or sequence of five cards] quint. Eine — von der Dame, eine hohe or obere —, a quint to the queen, a quint major. 4) [in fencing] fifth movement, quinte. 5) Fig. [in popular lang.] crotchet, maggot, freak, whim, fancy, vagary.

Quintflöte, f. V. Hobflöte. — geige, f. alto, viol.

*Quintérne, f. [pl. -n] five numbers [in a lottery].

*Quintessenz, f. concentrated essence, quintessence.

*Quintett, n. [-es, pl. -e] a musical piece of five parts, quintett.

Quiproquo, V. Quidproquo.

Quirl, V. Quertl.

Quitsche, Quitse or Quise, f. [pl. -n] quicken-tree, mountain-ash, mountain-service.

Quitt, [another form of wett] [in pop. lang.] adj. and adv. rid, free, quit. Seines Eides — seyn, to be free, exempted or absolved from one's oath; aller Sorgen — seyn, to be free from all cares; wir sind —, we are even or quits; — or doppelt spielen, to play double or quits.

Quitte, f. [pl. -n] [Lat. cydonium sc. malum; Medio-Lat. cotunum &c.] quince. Die witzde —, a) wild quince, b) the bastard quince or mespilus; eingemachte —n, preserved quinces.

Quitten=apfel, m. quince. —baum, m. quince tree. —birn, f. a large yellow pear, quince-pear. —blüte, f. quince-blossom or bloom. —branntwein, m. quince-brandy. —brod, n. a sort of dried marmalade, rob of quinces. —farbe, f. quince-colour. —farben, —farbig, adj. yellow as a quince. —gelb, adj. V. —farben. —hänfling, m. linnet with a yellow beak. —latwerge, f. quiddany, marmalade of quinces. —mispel, f. bastard quince. —muß, n. V. —latwerge. —pfirsche, f. quince-peach. —schleim, m. emulsion of quinces. —sirup, m. sirup of quinces. —torte, f. quince-tart, quince-pie. —wein, m. a liquor prepared from the juice of quinces.

Quittiren, v. tr. 1) to give a receipt, acquittance or discharge. Einen über eine Summe —, to give any one a receipt for a sum; ich bin von ihm quittirt worden, I have his receipt. 2) [in fam. lang.] to leave, to quit, to forsake. Er hat den Dienst quittirt [of military officers &c.], he has left the service, has retired on a pension.

Quittung, f. receipt, acquittance, discharge. Einem eine — ausstellen, geben, to deliver, to give a receipt to any one; weisen Sie Ihre — vor, show your receipt; diese haben Sie nötig, damit man nichts mehr an Sie fordert, this receipt is necessary to your discharge. Syn. Quittung, Schein, Empfangschein. In a Schein every fact whatever can be made known; in a Empfangschein the writer acknowledges the receipt of something, in a Quittung the payment of a debt, with a declaration of the debtor's release from his obligation.

Quitze, V. Quitsche.

Quodlibet, n. [-s, pl. -s] hodge-podge, quodlibet.

Quote, f. [pl. -n] share, quota.

Quotidianfieber, n. [-s, pl. -] quotidian fever.

Quotient, m. [-en, pl. -en] 1) [in arithmetic] quotient. 2) quota, share.

Quotiren, [chiefly in commerce, and mostly pronounced Retiren] v. tr. to mark with ciphers, [in commerce] to quote.

Quotisation, f. the share of each individual in joint expenditure, club.

Quotisiren, v. tr. to assign any one his share in joint expenditure, to club.

R.

R, n. r. Ein großes —, a capital R.

Raa or Rah, f. [pl. -en] [allied to ragen;

Hilpert, Deutsch, Engl. Wört. 2. Bd.

the Sw. ra = Wahl, stake] [in seamen's lang.] sail-yard, yard; V. Besan —, Goek —, Maré —. Die große —, die Haupt —, the main-yard; lateinische —, lateen sail-yard; die blinde —, sprit-sail-yard; Einen von der — fallen lassen, laufen lassen, to keel-haul, to duck any one.

Raa=band, n. rope-bands, robbins. —fang, m. preventer. —haken, m. V. Enterhaken. —holz, n. V. —leiste. —kette, f. top-chains. —leiste, f. waist-rail. —nock, n. or das Noek der —, yard-arm. —segel, n. square sail. —seil, —tau, n. warp or towline.

Rabatt, m. [-es] [in commerce] deduction, draw-back, discount, abatement.

Rabatte, f. 1) the facing or turning of a coat. 2) border [in a garden].

Rabbelei, f. [in fam. or pop. lang.] idle declamation; it. pettifogging demeanour.

Rabbeler, m. [-s, pl. -] [in fam. or popular lang.] idle declaimer; it. pettifogger.

Rabbeln, v. intr. [in fam. or pop. lang.] to prattle, to talk nonsense.

Rabbi [-s, pl. -s] or [more usually] Rabbiner, [-s, pl. -] m. rabbi, rabbin. Die Lehre der Rabbiner, the doctrine of the rabbins.

Rabbiniſch, adj. and adv. rabbinical.

Rabbiniſm, [-s] or Rabbiniſmuſ, m. the rabbins' doctrine or opinions.

Rabbiniſt, m. [-en, pl. -en] rabbinist.

Rabe, m. [-n, pl. -n] [probably allied to rufen, Low. Sax. roven, Finn. raawun] 1) raven, crow, carrion-crow. Der indische —, macaw; die —n krächzen, ravens croak; er stiehlt wie ein — [in familiar lang.], he steals or filches like a magpie. Fig. [in familiar lang.] Den —n zur Speiſe werden, to become the food of ravens, to be hanged and denied christian burial. 2) [in astronomy] corvus. 3) [in conchology] whelk.

Raben=aaſ, n. [in contempt] a worthless person, a rascal, villain, hang-dog, ragamuffin. —ältern, pl. unfeeling, unnatural and wicked parents. —art, f. species of raven; it. the race of ravens, raven-kind. Fig. unfeeling conduct of parents towards their offspring. —artig, adj. and adv. fig. hard, unfeeling, unnatural. —bägen [in Switzerland], —dufaten [in Hungary], m. a batz, a ducat bearing the figure of a raven. —ei, n. 1) the egg of a raven. 2) [in botany] a puff-ball, puff-bist. —feder, f. 1) raven-feather. 2) V. —fiel. —fittig, —flügel, m. wing of a raven. —fuß, m. 1) foot or leg of a raven. 2) [in botany] buck's horn-plantain, hart's-horn. —gekrächze, —geſchrei, n. the croaking of ravens. —haar, n. [in poetry] hair black as jet, jetty black hair. —heller, m. [in Switzerland] a very small copper-coin, bearing the figure of a raven. —fiel, m. raven-quill, crow-quill. —krähe, f. carrion crow. —mutter, f. unnatural, cruel mother. —neſt, n. the nest of a raven. —ſchnabel, m. the beak of a raven or crow; [in anatomy] coracoid; [in surgery] crane's bill, raven's beak [a kind of forceps]; [in seamen's lang.] ripping-iron, rave-hook. —ſchnabelförmig, adj. having the shape of a raven's or crow's beak; [in anatomy] coracoid. —ſchwarz, adj. and adv. black as a raven or as jet, jetty black. —ſchwester, f. unnatural sister. —ſohn, m. unnatural son. —ſpate, f. V. —fiel. —ſtein, m. 1) a stone or heap of stones where ravens or crows collect. 2) Fig. a) place of execution. b) [in mineralogy] a sort of black stone; belemnite, arrow-head, finger-stone, thunder-bolt. —vater, m. unnatural, cruel, barbarous father. —vieh, n. V. —aaſ. —vierer, m. V. —heſter. —volk, —zeug, n. fig. [in vulgar language] thievish folks or people, thieves, knaves.

Rabiſch, m. [-es, pl. -e] [Wend. wrub = Einschnitt] [among miners] tally.

Rabiſch=auſſeher, —meiſter, m. master of the tallies.

Rabuliſt, m. [-en, pl. -en] a prattling, contemptible pleader, pettifogger.

Rabuliſtenſtreich, m. a pettifogger's trick.

Rabuliſtereſ, f. pettifoggery.

Rabzahn, m. V. Raffzahn.

Rache, f. [V. Rächen] revenge, vengeance. Etwas aus —, aus kleinlicher — thun, to do anything out of revenge, out of petty grudge, spite or malice; er dürſtet nach —, er athmet nichts als —, he burns with a desire to be revenged, he breathes nothing but revenge; auf — denken, ſinnen, to think of, to meditate revenge; — ſchwören, to vow vengeance or revenge; — an Einem nehmen, to take one's revenge on any one, to revenge one's self on any one; it. [familiar, in a milder sense Révanche nehmen] to take one's revenge, to retaliate any thing upon any one; das Blut der Unſchuldigen fordert —, innocent blood cries for vengeance; [in Scripture] die — iſt mein, to me belongeth vengeance.

Rach=begier, —begierde, f. desire of revenge. Immer —begier im Herzen haben, to breathe nothing but revenge. —begierig, adj. and adv. V. —gierig. —durſt, m. thirst of or for revenge. Seinen —durſt löſchen, ſtillen, to glut one's revenge, to satisfy [to the full] one's revenge. —gier, f. V. —begier. —gierig, adj. and adv. revengeful, vindictive. —gierigkeit, f. revengefulness, vindictiveness. —grimm, m. [in emphatic style] vindictive wrath. —grimmig, adj. and adv. [in emphatic style] wrathfully vindictive, burning with the desire of revenge. —luſt, f. V. —begier. —luſtig, adj. V. —gierig. —ſchwert, n. [in higher style] sword of vengeance. Das —ſchwert erteile, traf ihn, he fell a victim, a sacrifice to [deserved] vengeance. —ſucht, f. passion, violent desire of revenge, vindictiveness. Er that es aus —ſucht, he has done it out of revenge. —ſüchtig, adj. and adv. revengeful, vindictive. —voll, adj. and adv. full of revenge, revengeful.

Rache=engel, m. angel of vengeance, avenging angel. —gedanke, m. thought of revenge. —geſühl, n. sentiment of revenge. —geiſt, m. spirit of revenge. —glühend, adj. burning, glowing with revenge. —gott, m. God of vengeance, avenging God. —göttinn, f. Goddess of vengeance; [in mythology] Fury. [All these compound words are chiefly used in a higher style.]

Rächen, m. [-s, pl. -] [allied to recken] 1) jaws, mouth of a beast. Der — eines Hundes, Löwen &c., the mouth of a dog, lion &c.; einem Pferde den — ſtechen [with veterinary surgeons], to bleed a horse in the mouth. 2) [low, in contempt] the mouth or throat of a person. Den — auffperren, to open wide one's mouth; Einem den — füllen, to cram any one, to gorge, to glut any one; Einem Alles in den — ſtecken, to bestow all upon any one, to procure any thing for a person. 3) [in botany] the monkey-flower, the bastard fox-glove.

4) Fig. Der — der Hölle, the jaws of hell; der — des Todes, the jaws of death.

Rachen = blume, f. V. Rachen 3). — förmig, adj. having the shape of an open mouth; [in botany] labiate. — Mündung, f. [in anatomy, the narrow passage between the mouth and the gullet] isthmion.

Rächen, v. tr. and r. sich —, 1) to revenge, to avenge. Eine Beleidigung —, sich wegen einer Beleidigung —, to revenge an injury; sich wegen eines erlittenen Schimpfes an Ehem —, to revenge an affront or insult of or on any one, to revenge one's self on any one for an affront; seinen Vater —, to revenge one's father; die —de Hand Gottes, the avenging hand of God. 2) V. Revanchiren, sich [in familiar language].

Rächer, m. [-s, pl. -], — in n. f. avenger, revenger, vindicator. Gott ist der — der Unschuldigen, God is the avenger of the innocent.

1. Räck, m. [-es] [Reisbranntwein] arrack, rack.

2. Räck, n. [-es, pl. -e] [probably allied to the lecl. reka = to pursue, and to the Sw. racka = to run; V. Raa 1) the turning or winding of a river. 2) [in seamen's language] parrel.

Rack = aufholer, m. parrel-truss. — klampen, pl. parrel-cleats. — klotten, pl. parrel-trucks. — schleten or — schlitten, m. ribs of a parrel. — tatje, f. V. — ausholer. — tau, — troß, n. parrel-rope.

† Räcker, m. [-s, pl. -] 1) dog [in contempt], cur, bitch. 2) [rather provincial] a person that performs the most despised work, public flayer, night-man and the like. 3) [a word of vulgar and coarse reproach] rascal, villain.

Räckerhund, m. V. Räcker 3).

Räckett, V. Räckett.

Räckete, f. [pl. -n] [Ital. raggetto, from the L. radius = Estrahl] rocket, sky-rocket. Die — ist zerplatzt, the rocket has burst.

Räcketen = hülfse, f. the [cylindrical paper-] case of a rocket. — kappe, f. the cap of a rocket. — ladestock, m. setter. — ruthe, f. V. — stab. — saß, m. composition of a rocket. — seßer, m. V. — ladestock. — stab, m. stick of a rocket, rocket-stick. — stock, m. 1) the [wooden] mould of a rocket. 2) V. — stab. — zwilling, m. double rocket.

Räckett, n. [-es, pl. -e] [Ital. rachetta, Fr. raquette] racket. Das — von Holz, battle-door; die Seiten eines —es, the strings of a racket; ein — beziehen, to string a racket.

Räckett = bügel, m. — gestell, — holz, n. the wooden frame of a racket. — macher, m. racket-maker. — neß, n. the strings of a racket. — stiel, m. the handle of a racket.

Räd, n. [-es, pl. Räder], dim. Rädchen, || Rädlein, n. [-s, pl. -] [L. rota, Irish rit, Welsh rhot, Fr. roue, allied to reiten = sich bewegen; the Low Sax. rad or drad = schnell] 1) wheel. a) [a circular or round piece of wood or metal, that revolves on an axis] Die Räder in einer Uhr, in einer Mühle &c., the wheels of a watch, of a mill; das Rädchen am Sporn, rowel; das — or Rädchen der Pastetenbäcker, jaggig-iron; V. Brunnen —, Dreh —, Feuer —, Glücks —, Hinten —, Ramm —, Krahn —, Kron —, Minuten —, Mühl —, Pflug —, Schleif —, Schöpf —, Schwung —, Seiler —, Spinn —, Eput —, Steig —, Stirn —, Stunden —, Tret —, Uhr —, Worder —, Wasser —, Woll —, Zwirn —. b) [chiefly] carriage-wheel. Die Räder schmieren, to grease the wheels; er ist unter das — gekommen, ge-fallen, the wheel has passed over his body. Prov. Das schlimmste — knarret am meisten, the worse the wheel, the more it creaks; who is more busy than they that have least to do? idle folks have the most labour; er ist das fünfte — am Wagen, he is of no use at all. c) [formerly, an instrument for torturing and executing criminals] Einen mit dem — e hinrichten, to break any one upon the wheel; einen Verbrecher auf das — flechten, to fasten a criminal on the wheel; darauf steht Galgen und — [in pop. lang.], it is a capital crime. 2) a circle or round resembling a wheel. Ein — schlagen [mit den Händen und Füßen], to wheel about; dieser Pfau schlägt ein —, this peacock spreads his tail, is in his pride; mit einem Degen ein — schlagen, to twirl about a sword. it. [any thing round] ein Rädchen von einer Citrone &c., a slice of a lemon &c.; das — der Buchbinder, a bookbinder's roll.

Rad = achse, f. axle-tree; it. V. — nabe. — ähnlich, adj. resembling a wheel, V. — förmig. — arm, m. spoke of a wheel. — bahre, f. wheel-barrow. — band, n. V. — schiene. — bärge, f. V. — bahre. — bohrer, m. auger for boring the nave of a wheel, wheelwright's auger. — brechen, v. tr. 1) [formerly, in law] to break [a criminal] on the wheel. 2) Fig. to spoil words in pronouncing, to mutilate words. Eine Sprache — brechen, to murder a language; er — bricht das Französische, he speaks some broken French, very bad French. — brunnen, m. a well which is worked by means of a wheel. — distel, f. V. Mannstreu. — dreher, m. he that turns a wheel, wheel-turner. — felle, f. the fellow or felly. — feuer, n. [in chemistry] wheel-fire. — flusder, m. mill-race, the channel that conveys the water on the wheel. — förmig, adj. and adv. wheel-shaped. [in botany] — förmige Blumenkrone, wheel-shaped or rotate corolla or corol. — garn, — gespinnst, n. coarse woollen yarn. — haspel, m. wheel-windlass. — haue, f. V. Radebaue. — kuppe, f. V. — nagel. — linie, f. [in geometry] cycloid. — linig, adj. cycloidal. — macher, m. wheeler, wheelwright. — mantel, m. a cloak without sleeves that forms a wheel or circle when spread. — nabe, f. wheel-nave. — nagel, m. large nail for a wheel, wheel-nail. — schaukel, f. the ladle or flat board of a water-wheel. — schleibe, f. [in seamen's lang.] ram's block. — schiene, f. the iron hoop or band which guards the circumference of the wheel, tire. — schuh, m. trigger. — speiche, f. spoke of a wheel. — sperre, f. drag-chain, trigger. — spur, f. track of a wheel, rut. — strafe, f. [formerly, in law] the punishment of the wheel. — stube, f. the room or cage of a wheel or of the wheels. — theer, m. grease for the wheel, wheel-grease. — treter, m. he that sets a wheel agoing and keeps it in motion. — welle, f. axis of a wheel. — winde, f. V. — haspel. — zapfen, m. pivot, nut of a wheel.

Rade = bohrer, — brechen, — macher, V. Radebohrer &c. — haue, — haue, f. hoe, mattock.

Räder = achse, f. V. Radachse. — gehäuse, n. the clock-frame. — macher, m. 1) a man that makes wheels, chiefly spinning-wheels. 2) a man that makes sieves. — stempel, m. a bookbinder's roll. — thier, — thierchen, n. wheel animal. — werk, n. machinery consisting of wheels, wheel-work. Fig. machinery. Das — werk dieser Verfassung geht gut in diesem Lande, the machinery of this constitution works well in this country; das gesammte — werk der Verwaltung, the whole machinery of the public administration.

Radel, n. [-s, pl. -] V. Raden.

1. Radel, n. [-s, pl. -] [= Rädchen] V. Rad.

Rädel = schlange, f. V. Klapperschlange. — stein, m. V. Trochit.

2. Radel, m. [-s, pl. -] [from räden = sieben] a large sieve.

3. Radel, m. [-s] [in botany] V. Polch.

4. Radel, m. [-s, pl. -] [allied to räden = rütteln] [in mining] driving-bolt.

Radeln, [from räden = rütteln] I. v. intr. to turn round like a wheel. II. v. tr. 1) to turn round, to put into a rotatory motion. 2) to sift.

Rädelsführer*, m. [-s, pl. -] [probably from Rad = Kreis, circle; hence = Vortänzer, leader of a dance] ring-leader.

Raden, v. tr. 1) V. Reuten, Ausreuten. 2) to sift. V. Sieben.

Räden, m. [-s] [from raden = ausreuten] corn-cockle, cockle-weed, rose-campion.

Raden = distel, f. V. Mannstreu. — sieb, n. a large sieve.

Räden, v. tr. to sift.

Rader, m. [-s, pl. -] [from räden, to sift] 1) sieve. 2) sifter.

Raderforalle, f. [pl. -n] encrinite, stone-lily.

Radersäulenstein, m. [-es, pl. -e] entrochite.

Raderstein, m. [-es, pl. -e] trochite.

Radern, v. tr. 1) to crush by a wheel; [in a more limited sense] to break upon the wheel. Er ist lebendig gerädert worden, he has been broken upon the wheel alive. Fig. [in fam. lang.] Ich bin wie gerädert, I am quite tired, weary, fatigued, jaded, knocked up. 2) to sift. 3) V. Rabbrechen.

Radieß, m. [-es, pl. -e], dim. — chen, || — lein, n. [-s, pl. -] [small or little] radish, V. Rettig.

Radikal*, adj. and adv. radical. Das — Böse, the fundamental evil, the root of all evil.

Radikal = heilung, f. radical cure. — reform, f. [in modern English hist.] radical reform. — wort, n. radical word.

Radikaler*, m. [Radikalen, pl. Radikalen] [in modern English history] a radical, partisan of a radical reform in the institutions of the country.

Radikalismus*, m. [-s] radicalism.

Radiren*, v. tr. [from the Lat. radere, allied to kräzen] to scratch, to scrape, to erase, to scrape out [a word &c.]; [among engravers] to etch. Ein schön radirtes Kupferblatt, a fine etching.

Radir = eisen, n. [among surgeons] raspatory, scalping-iron. — firniss, m. varnish used for etching. — kunst, f. art of etching. — messer, n. scratching-knife, scraper, erasing-knife. — nadel, f. etching-needle, etching-pin. — wasser, n. diluted aqua fortis used for etching, tempered aqua fortis.

Radis, V. Radieß.

Radius*, m. [pl. Radien] [in geometry] [= Estrahl] radius, semidiameter.

Räff, m. [-es, pl. -e] [allied to Riff, Rippe] 1) streak, stripe; [in commerce] the salted and dried fins of the halibut. 2) a beam, a bar.

Raffzahn, m. 1) V. Schneidezahn; it. a long projecting tooth. 2) fore-tooth of a horse. — zahnig, adj. having long projecting teeth.

Räffel, f. [pl. -n] [from raffen] 1) V. Glachsraufe 2). 2) [among fishers] a round net, net for catching turbot. 3) an instrument for scraping things off or scraping them together, scraper, grater. 4) [low] mouth as the instrument of speaking, tongue, clack; [am. hunters] the upper jaw of a stag or deer. Fig. a babbling or prating scolding woman, gossip, scold.

Räffeln, 1) V. Raffen. 2) V. Raufen.

Räffeln, v. tr. and intr. to whisper, V. Flüstern.

Raffen, v. tr. 1) to take or gather up or together hastily and irregularly, to snatch up, to sweep away; V. Auf-, Hin-, Weg-. Fig. Er will Alles an sich —, he wishes to engross every thing. 2) V. Abraufen, Ausraufen.

Raffgut, n. stolen goods. — holz, n. wood picked up, V. Leseholz.

Raffinade, f. [pl. -n] refined sugar of prime quality.

Raffinieren, I. v. tr. to refine [sugar]. II. v. intr. [in familiar language] to refine, to meditate, to speculate. Auf Etwas —, to refine on any thing.

Raffinirt, adj. and adv. refined [sugar]; Fig. clever, subtle. — seyn, to be fertile in expedients, to be quick, clever.

Raffinirung, f. refinement, refining.

Rägen, v. intr. [allied to regen] In die Höhe —, to rise up, to rise high; V. Emporsteigen, Hervorsteigen.

Rägewurzel, Ragwurzel, f. [pl. -n] [in botany] the butterfly orchis.

Rah, Rahband, Rahnoek, Rähringe, Rahsege, sc. V. Raa &c.

Rahader, sc. V. Rehader &c.

1. Rahm, m. [-es] [Fr. crème, Lat. cremor = dicker Saft; seems to be allied to rinnen, gerinnen] 1) [any part of a liquor that separates from the rest, rises and collects on the surface] cream. Rahk —, cream of lime; Weinstein —, cream of tartar; [in mineralogy] V. Eisen —, Woll —. 2) [unusual] soot, V. Ruß. 3) [chiefly] cream [of milk]. Zu Schaum geschlagener —, whipt cream; — setzen, ansetzen, werfen, to gather cream, to cream; den — von der Milch abnehmen, abschöpfen, to take off the cream, to skim milk. Fig. [in fam. lang.] the best part of a thing. Den — von einer Sache abschöpfen, to take off the cream of a thing.

Rahm=apfel, m. custard apple. — beere, f. blackberry, V. Brombeere. — frau, — händlerin, f. cream-woman, milk-woman. — kanne, f. dim. — kännchen, || — kännlein, n. cream-jug. — käse, m. cream-cheese. — kelle, f. V. — löffel. — kuchen, m. cream-cake. — löffel, m. cream-ladle, cream-spoon. — suppe, f. cream-soup. — topf, m. dim. — töpfchen, || — töpflein, n. cream-pot. — torte, f. cream-tart. — weib, n. V. — frau.

2. Rahm, m. [-es, pl. Rähme] V. Rahmen. Rahm=eisen, n. [among printers] iron frame. — hobel, m. V. Satz-hobel, Reih-hobel. — holz, n. 1) [among joiners] wood for frames. 2) [among carpenters] sill. — schuh, m., — sohle, f., — stiefel, m., — stück, n. V. Rahmensschuh &c.

1. Rähmel, m. [-es] [from Rahmen = Rand] scrapings, that which sticks to the bottom or the sides of a vessel in which any thing was boiled.

2. Rähmel, m. and n. [-es, pl. -] [from rahmen = vereinigen] a bunch or bundle of flax of twenty pounds.

Rahmen, m. [-es, pl. -], dim. Rähmchen, || Rähmlein, n. [-es, pl. -] [Sax. rima, Pol. rama, allied to Rampe, Sw. ram = Zweig, Lat. ramus] [any kind of case or structure made for admitting, inclosing or supporting things] frame. Der — eines Gemäldes, the frame of a picture; ein Gemälde mit einem — einfassen, to frame a picture; der — zum Sticken, embroiderer's frame; [among printers] a) frame, b) the chase, c) das Rähmchen, frisket; [among shoemakers] welt.

Rahmen=hobel, m. V. Rahmhobel. — schentel, m. pannel-square, one of the upright pieces of timber which help to form the frame of a door. — schuh, m. a shoe with a welt, a welted shoe. — sohle, f. a welted sole. — stiefel, m. a boot with a welt. — stück, n. piece or part of a frame. [among locksmiths] Die — stücke, the iron-rails of a balustrade.

1. Rahmen, [from 1. Rahm] I. v. tr. to skim off the cream, to cream. II. v. intr. to gather cream, to turn to cream, to cream. Die Milch rahmt besser im Sommer, als im Winter, milk gives more cream in summer than in winter.

2. Rahmen, [from 2. Rahm] v. tr. to put in a frame, to frame [a picture &c.], V. Einrahmen

|| Rahn, [-ig] adj. and adv. [allied to ranfen] thin, slender, lean, slim.

1. Rahne, f. V. Schlankheit.

2. Rahne, f. [among foresters] 1) V. Windbruch. 2) V. Windfall.

Rahnig, V. Rahn.

Rai, m. [-es, pl. -e] ray [a fish].

Raiger, V. Reiher.

Raigras, V. Reigras.

Rain, m. [-es, pl. -e] [allied to Rand, Rinde] 1) [rather obsolete or provincial] boundary, V. Grenze. 2) the edge, border, skirt [of a forest, of a field &c.]; it. a ridge of land left unploughed, and covered with grass, balk; bank. Den — abspflügen, [low] absack, n. to encroach on the balk or ridge by ploughing; sie saß an einem — ander Straße [an einem Straßenraine], she sat on a bank at the roadside. 3) [obsolete] hill.

Rain=balken, m. balk, V. Rain 2). — baum, m. 1) a tree standing on the edge or border. 2) a tree marking the boundary. — beere, f. the berry of the buck-thorn, rheinberry. — blume, f. 1) the sandy everlasting. 2) V. Maßfeste. — farn, m. [in botany] tansy. — fohl, m. [in botany] the common nipplewort. — recht, n. V. Grenzrecht. — schwatzbe, f. V. Rheinschwabe. — schwamm, m. the little champignon or fairy agaric. — stein, m. stone marking the boundary. — weide, f. 1) privet. 2) V. Rheinweide.

Rainen, I. v. intr. to border upon. II. v. tr. [ein Feld] —, to bound, to fix the bounds [of a field].

Raitel, V. Reitel.

1. Raiten, v. intr. [allied to the Lat. reor, rat-us] to reckon.

2. Raiten, Raitern, v. tr. [V. Rädern] to sift.

1. Raiter, or Raitherr, m. [little used] V. Rechnungsführer.

2. Raiter, m. [-es, pl. -] a sieve.

Raf, V. Rack.

Rafel, V. Refel.

|| Rafen, v. tr. and intr. to hit, to touch. Den Regel —, to hit the skittle; fig. er ist leicht geraket [wird leicht empfindlich], he is easily offended, he is very touchy.

Rafete, Rafett, V. Radete &c.

Rälle, f. [pl. -n] [Lat. rallus] 1) rail, land-rail. 2) V. Rellmaus.

|| Rällen, v. intr. [Dutch rallen, rellen = plaudern, scherzen] V. Lärmen, Toben; it. V. Rammeln.

Räller, [-es, pl. -] Rälling, [-es, pl. -e] m. [from rallen?] he-cat, tom-cat, V. Rater.

Räm, m. [-es, pl. -e] [in mineralogy] V. Zwitter.

Rämfenwurzel, f. [in botany] the knotty-rooted figwort.

|| Rämm, m. [-es, pl. -e] 1) [from rammen = sich begatten] a) ram. b) tom-cat, he-cat. c) a he-goat, buck. d) bull. 2) [from rammen = lärm, Sw. ramla] raven. 3) [from rammen = heftig bewegen] cramp, spasm.

Ramm=block, m. rammer, beetle, paving-beetle. — block, m. 1) ram. 2) V. — block. — floß, m. V. — block.

Rammshorn, n. ram's horn. V. Widderhorn, Bockshorn. — kopf, m. ram's head. [in popular lang.] Dieses Pferd hat einen — kopf, this horse has the head of a ram. — nase, f. the nose of a ram, a ram's nose. Fig. [in common people's lang.] a crooked, hawked nose.

Rämme, f. [pl. -n] [V. Rammen] rammer, beetle, paving-beetle. Pfähle mit der — einschlagen, to drive in piles with the rammer.

Rämmel, [V. Ramm] I. m. [-es, pl. -] 1) ram. 2) rammer, paving-beetle. 3) [in mining] place where several lodes or metallic veins meet. II. f. [pl. -n] rammer, paving-beetle.

Rämmeln, [allied to the Sw. ramla = lärm; hence rammeln signifies originally to move with noise or vehemence, and then in general to move] I. v. intr. 1) [in common people's language] to make a great noise, to racket. 2) [in common people's language] to toss about, to tumble, to roll about [in one's bed &c.]. 3) to copulate [said of certain animals, such as hares, rabbits, cats]. Die Hirsche —, the stags are rutting. 4) [in mining] to meet, to join [said of the veins or lodes]. II. v. tr. 1) V. Einrammen. 2) [low] Etwas zu Schanden —, to tumble [a bed].

Rammelabend, m. [very low] V. Poterabend. — ochs, m. V. Zuchtsch. — zeit, f. copulating-season.

Rammen, [V. Rammeln] v. tr. to ram, to drive in [piles &c.].

Rammer, m. [-es, pl. -] one that rams or drives in [piles &c.], rammer.

Rämmler, m. [-es, pl. -] [V. Rammeln] the male of certain animals. a) buck. b) ram. c) he-cat, tom-cat.

Rämp, m. [-es] [in commerce] Im — e kaufen, to buy in the lump, in the gross.

Rämsel, m. [-es] [in botany] 1) bear's garlic, ramsons. 2) dame's violet. 3) the common milk-wort.

Ränd, m. [-es, pl. Ränder], dim. Rändchen, || Rändlein, n. [-es, pl. -] [seems to be = Strand allied to Rain, the ancient rinan = berühren] 1) edge, border. Der — eines Tisches, the edge of a table; der — eines Glases, eines Hutes, the brim of a glass of a hat; der — eines Buches &c., the margin of a book &c.; einen breiten — lassen, to leave a large or broad margin; einen — brechen, to fold the paper so as to make a margin; Etwas auf den — schreiben, to write any thing on or in the margin; auf dem — e stehende or am — e beigefügte Anmerkungen, marginal notes or glosses; der — eines Gehölzes, the border of a wood; der — eines Wappenschildes [in heraldry], the orle of an escutcheon; der — der Sonnenscheibe, der Mondscheibe &c., the limb of the sun, of the moon &c.; der — einer Pastete, Torte, the crust of a pie, tart; der — einer Wunde, the edge or margin of a wound; [in botany] der — einer Blumenkrone, the border or limb of a corol. Fig. Am — e des Abgrundes stehen, to be on the brink of a precipice, of ruin; er steht am — e des Grabes, he has already one foot in the grave; [in popular language] das versteht sich am — e [von selbst], that's a matter of course, that is beyond all question. 2) Fig. [= Ende] [in fam. lang.] end, conclusion, final arrangement, final agreement. Mit einer Sache zu — e kommen, eine Sache zu — e bringen, to make an end of a thing, to bring it to an issue to bring it about or to bear; ich werde schon mit ihm zu — e kommen, I shall bring him to reason, I am sure to finish with him.

Rand-anmerker, —bemerker, m. glosser, commentator. —anmerkung, —bemerkung, f. marginal note or gloss. —bemerken zu einem Buche machen, to write notes in the margin of a book, to gloss, to comment a book. —dorf, n. a village situated on the border or side of a marsh or moor. —ducaten, m. a ring-ducat. —erklärer, m. —erklärung, f. V. —anmerker, —anmerkung, —fisch, m. ballerus. —geer, f. [in seamen's lang.] wale, sheer-rail. —glosse, f. V. —bemerkung. Fig. [in familiar language] comment. Seine —glossen über Etwas machen, to comment upon any thing, business, action &c. —glossenmacher, m. V. —anmerker. —holz, n. [in seamen's language] the lower part of the fashion-pieces of the stern. —loch, n. edge-hole. —motte, f. the great Egger moth. —muster, n. welt [of a shoe]. —note, f. V. —anmerkung. —reif, m. edge-hoop; [in seamen's language] top-rail. —schreiber, m. V. —anmerker. —schrift, f. writing in the margin, marginal writing, note or gloss. Die —schrift einer Münze, inscription on the edge of a coin, legend of a coin. —sombolz, n. V. —holz. —ständig, adj. [in botany] marginal. —streifen, m. [in seamen's language] waist-rail. —stück, n. a part or piece of the edge or border. —zacken, m., dim. —zäckchen, || —zäcklein, n. part or edging [of lace].

Rändeln, v. tr. to furnish with an edge or border, to edge, to indent.

Ränden, Rändern, V. Rändeln.

Rändig, adj. having a border or margin [in composition, breit —, having a broad border or margin].

Ränst, m. [-es, pl. -e or Ränste], dim. Ränstchen, || Ränstlein, n. [-s, pl. -] edge, border; it crust [of bread]. Ein — Brod, a large piece or slice of bread; ein Ränstchen Brod, a little crust; it. das Ränstchen einer Münze, the ring-edge of a coin.

Räng, m. [-es, pl. -e] [allied to Rän, Rand; originally the same as Reihe, a row] rank, classification; row, tier, class. Ein Schiff vom ersten — e, a ship of the first rank, or class; a ship of the line, a three decker, a first rate ship. a first rater; eine Loge ersten, zweiten, dritten — es, a box in the first, second, third row or tier; — en [pl.] [Streifen] Haare, [with wig-makers] rows of hair. Fig. [generally, of station in society] rank. Angesehener, hoher, erhabener —, distinguished, high, eminent, elevated, exalted rank; er hat einen bestimmten, keinen bestimmten —, he has a fixed, no fixed rank, his position in society is well, not exactly ascertained; er hat einen hohen —, steht in einem hohen — e, he has, he fills a high rank, he stands, he moves in a distinguished rank or sphere, he holds an eminent rank or grade; seinen — behaupten, seinem — e gemäß leben, to maintain one's rank, to live conformably to, or commensurate with one's rank, as becomes one's rank; Personen vom ersten, vornehmsten, höchsten — e, persons of the first, the most illustrious, the highest rank; Leute vom niedrigsten — e, people of the lowest rank or class in society, the lower orders; sie setzten sich nach ihrem — e, they seated themselves, took their seats according to their rank; Einem den — geben, lassen, to give way to any one of superior rank, to yield to any one the precedence, the seat of honour; [in going &c.] to offer, to present the hand [abroad]; to offer the arm; [fam.] to offer a wing, a fin [in England]; [at balls or concerts, on the stage] to present the hand; V. Vorrang; er hat den — vor mir, he takes rank before me, he has a higher rank, is of higher rank, has the privilege of the entrée &c. before me; ein Gelehrter vom ersten — e, a scholar of the first rank, one of the distinguished amongst the learned; Einem den — ablaufen, to get the precedence, to carry the day against any one, to obtain an advantage over, to get the better of, to get the preference to, over or before any one, [fam.] to cut any one out, to supplant any one.

Rang = liste, f. [in military affairs] the army-list. —los, adj. and adv. without [any fixed] rank, without dignity. —mäßig, adv. according to rank. —ordnung, f. order, classification of ranks. Sie saßen nach der — ordnung, they sat, they were seated according to their priority of rank; it. V. —verordnung. —schiff, m. ship of the line. —streit, m. dispute about precedence, priority of rank. Einen —streit anfangen, to begin a dispute about precedence. —sucht, f. mania for, ridiculous desire after rank, ridiculous pretensions to rank, unbridled ambition for rank, [fam.] absurd desire of playing the topsawyer, of being the first fiddle in society [alluding to citizens or upstarts]. —suchtig, adj. and adv. desirous of rank, jealous of rank and honours. —suchtigkeit, f. V. —sucht. —verordnung, f. [-reglement, n.] a regulation concerning rank, precedence, the entrée, order of sitting, of marshalling.

Ränge, m. [-n, pl. -n] [low] 1) [from the Low Sax. rangen = to make a pother?] wrangling cross-grained chap, young good-for-nothing scamp. 2) [equal to rank, that is (stank?)] a tall ungainly fellow, a lanky fellow, a person all lath and plaster; [of about 18 or 20 years of age] a hobbledy-hoy, a chap intended for the church-steeple. Der —, [in a very bad sense] the gawky or overgrown booby, the lanky tall brute, the threadpaper bodkin.

Ränge, f. [pl. -n] [allied to rank] 1) [low] perch. Die garstige —! the nasty long perch! 2) [a species of red beet] beet-root.

|| Rängen, v. intr. 1) [= tärmern] to make a row, [fam.] to kick up a shindy. 2) [= dehnen] to stretch.

|| Ränk, adj. [stank] lank, slim, slender, thin. [in seamen's lang.] —es Schiff, a rolling ship, a ship that lists, lurches.

Ränk, m. [-es, pl. Ränke] 1) [old] turn, bend, winding. Der — einer Gasse, eines Weges, the turning of a street, bend of a road. 2) Fig. intriguing, intrigue, cabal, caballing, plot, machination, plotting, a secret or underhand contrivance, shuffle. Mit Ränken umgehen, Ränke machen, spielen, brauchen, to go about intriguing, to make, to play off, to use, to employ, to set to work, to set in play intrigues, to intrigue, [fam.] to set an intrigue or intriguing a-foot; —schmieden, anzetteln, to forge, to weave intrigues, to plot a cabal; gern mit Ränken umgehen, to delight in intrigue, to be naturally of an intriguing disposition, to be fond of going about intriguing; die Ränke des Hofes &c., the intrigues of the court &c.; Einem die Ränke ablaufen [somewhat unusual], to baffle any one's intrigues, caballing, plotting, to confound any one's secret projects, insidious designs &c. Ränke, Syn. V. List Ränkegeist, m. 1) spirit of intrigue, love of caballing or plotting, partiality for insidious designing or projecting. 2) an intriguing person. —macher, —schmied, —spieler, m., —spielerin, f. an intriguer, a crooked wily schemer, a meddlesome cunning fellow, a shuffler, a meddler, an underhand plotter, a tortuous caviller, pettifogger, [low] dodger, [fam.] a smooth-faced double-tongued gentleman or lady, an oily-tongued, crafty, subtle, dark personage, a stealthy caballer. —süchtig, adj. and adv. intriguing. —voll, adj. and adv. full of wiles, intrigue, intriguing, brimful of plotting, of laying trains and schemes.

Ränke, f. [pl. -n] or [less usual] Ränken, m. [-s, pl. -] [allied to rant, recken, ragen] [on plants] branch, twig, fork. [in botany] tendril, clasper. Die —n des Weinstockes, the tendrils of the vine; die —n des Hopfens, the claspers of the hop-plant; die Kürbisse &c. treiben —n, gourds or pumpkins &c. shoot out creepers, claspers; achselständige &c. —n, axillary &c. tendrils, creepers, claspers; einfache, zweifache &c. —n, simple, bifid or forked &c. tendrils, claspers, creepers; umgedrehte, zurückgedrehte —n, volute, coiled or gyrate, revolute or coiled back tendrils; die —n in geblühten Zeugen, the branch-work &c., the flowering in flowered stuffs.

Rankenbaum, m. an espalier-tree, a wallfruit tree, a tree trained to an espalier or trellis-work. —gewächs, n. V. under Ranken. —schwämmchen, n. edible agaric. —stab, m. [in mythology] Der —stab des Bacchus, the thyrsus of Bacchus. —wurz, f. [in botany] common scrophulary, blind-nettle, figwort.

|| Ränken, m. [-s, pl. -] [allied to ragen, recken] Ein — or Ranken Brod, a hunch of bread, [obsolete] a cantle of bread.

Ränken, v. intr., also v. refl. to push or shoot forth tendrils, claspers, creepers, [low] suckers, to climb by the help of tendrils, spirals, claspers, fleshy knobs &c. Auf der Erde fort —, to creep along the ground; die Bohnen — or — sich an Stangen, der Epheu an Bäumen und Wänden in die Höhe, beans climb or twine round poles or stakes, ivy creeps up, climbs up trees and walls; die Melonen &c. —, melons &c. creep, shoot forth claspers, runners; die Gurken — auf der Erde fort, cucumbers creep, trail along the ground; — der Epheu, — der Ge- wächse, — gewächse, creeping or climbing ivy, creeping or climbing plants, [in botany] ten- drilled, curled, cirrours, cirriferous, sarmentous plants.

Ränfig, adj. and adv. [in botany] [ranfend] tendrilled, twined, curled, cirrours, sarmentous, V. Ranfen. — an der Erde, creep- ing along or trailing on the ground, [in poetry &c.] rampant; — es Blatt, a tendrilled or cirrours leaf; — er Blumenstiel, a cirriferous peduncle; — e Zweige, cirriferous, sarmentous branches or twigs.

Ränfkorn, n. [-es] [Ranf perhaps in- stead of Frank] measles or quinsy [in pigs], [provincial] maslin in pigs.

Ränne, Ränrube, f. [pl. -n] [V. Ränge] beetroot.

Ranunkel, f. [pl. -n] [in botany] crow- foot, ranunculus, herba Vulcani. Gefüllte, halbggefüllte —, double, semi-double ranun- culus.

Ranunkelklaue, f. claw or foot of the ranunculus.

Ranze, f. [pl. -n] [in Sw. rone is the wild boar] [Mutterschwein] sow.

Ränzel, m. and n. [-es, pl. -] V. Ranz- gen 2).

Ränzen, m. [-es, pl. -] [appears allied to rund], dim. Ränzchen, Ränzlein, Ränzlein, n. [-es, pl. -] 1) [low, chiefly in contempt] the belly. Dicker —, a thick belly, pot-belly, paunch, tun- belly, [comic] corporation, portmanteau; den- voll haben, to have a bellyful or the belly full, 2) a travelling knapsack, pack, wallet, budget. Sein Ränzlein schnüren, to tie up, to strap to one's knapsack &c., to pack up one's things in one's travelling bag, in one's budget &c., [in a figurative sense] to make preparations, to pack up one's things for going away, for leav- ing [a place].

1. Ränzen, v. intr. [V. Ranzig] [little used] to smell rancid, strong, rank, to taste rancid.

2. Ränzen, v. intr. [from the old rānen, to resound &c.] 1) to make a noise, a row, a bother; [fam.] to turn the house topsy-turvy, upside-down, [drumming noise with the fingers] to play or beat the devil's tattoo. Im Bette herum —, to toss, to roll about, to flounder in bed 2) [in sportsmen's lang.] [of dogs &c.] to be in heat, in pride; [of elephants, deer &c.] to be in rut, to rut.

Ranzzeit, V. Rammelzeit.

1. Ranzig, adj. and adv. [Lat. rancidus, in Engl. to ruckle means, to fester] rancid, rusty. — er Speck, — es Del, rusty bacon, rancid oil; diese Butter schmeckt —, this butter tastes rancid; — werden, to turn ran- cid, [of bacon] rusty; der — e Geschmack, Ge- ruch, the rancid or rusty taste, smell.

2. Ranzig, adj. and adv. [V. 2. Ranzgen] [in sportsmen's language] in heat, in pride, rut- ting, horsy &c., salacious, randy, rank. Diese Hündin ist —, this bitch is in heat, V. Läus- fig. Fig. [low] Ein — er Mensch, a rake, a rake-hell dissipated person, a roué, a whore- monger.

Ranzigkeit, f. rancidity, [of bacon] rusti- ness.

Ranzion, f. [Fr. rançon, Sw. ranzon, per- haps from the Lat. redemptio] [Lösegeld] a ran- som.

Ranzioniren, v. tr. to ransom, to redeem.

Sich selbst —, to escape [said of a prisoner of war].

Räpen, m. V. 2. Rappe.

Räpert, Rämpert, m. [-es, pl. -e] [in seamen's lang.] carriage, frame [of a gun].

Rapfisch, m. V. 2. Rappe.

Rapiat, n. [-es, pl. -e] [Eubelbuch] me- morandum-book, waste-book, copy-book.

Räpp, m. [Fr. grappe] 1) [-en, pl. -en] [with vine-dressers] the stalk where the grapes were, but no longer are, the skeleton stalk of a bunch of grapes. 2) [-es, no pl.] V. Beerwein.

1. Räppe, m. [-n, pl. -n] [allied to Rabe] 1) [at Basle] coin of small value bearing the impress of a raven. 2) a black horse, a horse of a shining or raven-black. Fig. [in popular language] Auf des Schusters — n reiten, reisen, to go on foot, to walk a journey.

Rappenstein, m. [in mineralogy] [Raben- stein] the beleznite.

2. Räppe, m. [-n, pl. -n] [V. Raub] [in nat. hist.] Der —, Rapen, Rapfisch, the blue backed silver-carp.

3. Räppe, f. [pl. -n] [from rāpen, to rub, to grate] 1) tobacco-grater or rasp. 2) [with veterinary surgeons] the malanders [dis- ease of a horse's knee]. 3) V. Kräße.

Räpée, or Räppel, n. indecl. [in Fr. rapé] rappee-snuff.

Räppeemühle, f. a mill for rappee- snuff.

1. Räppel, m. [-es] [V. Rappeln] [in po- pular or low language] [Verrücktheit] a cracked brain. Din — haben, to be cracked, to be a little touched, to be not quite sound, right in the upper story, to be a little odd or queer at times, to be not quite right in one's head; wenn ihn sein — anwandelt, when the mad whim, the mad fit seizes him; es ist ihm ein — angekommen, he has got a mad freak, he is in his maggots or whims again, a start, a vagary, a rum mood, a curious fancy has come over him, [very fam.] he has got in- to his tantrums again.

Räppelkopf, m. [fam.] a capricious, eccentric, queer, rum, maggoty, flighty per- son; it. fool, idiot, a man out of his wits. — köpfig, — köpfisch, adj. and adv. whimsical, capricious, hot-headed; it. crazy. — köpfig werden, to be out of one's wits; it. to be always led astray by some mad whim or another, to act by fits and starts, without rhyme or reason, upon the impulse of the moment, as the humour or fancy drives one, to be as inconstant and capricious as a weather- cock; dieses Pferd ist — köpfig [hat den Kol- ler], this horse has got the staggers.

2. Räppel, m. [-es] V. Rassel, Klapper.

3. Räppel, m. [-es] [in rural economy] V. Rissel, [also] Flachstraufe.

Räppelig, adj. — seyn [den Rappel ha- ben], to be whimsical, crazy &c.; [of a horse] to be staggers, V. 1. Rappel.

Räppel, m. 1) [in the army] the recall. — schlagen, to beat a recall; vor dem regieren- den Fürsten schlagen die Truppen Marsch, aber vor den Prinzen schlagen sie nur —, be- fore the reigning prince the troops beat a march, but before the princes of the blood royal only a recall. 2) [obsolescent] recall [in general]. Er hat seinen — [seine Zurückrufung] bekommen, he has been recalled, he got or had his recall.

Räppeln, v. intr. [allied to the Low. Sax. rāpen, to stir] 1) [in pop. lang.] to make a noise, to rattle, to chink. Die Nüsse — in seiner Tasche, the nuts rattle in his pocket; er rappelt mit den Nüssen, mit seinem Gelde in seiner Tasche, he makes a rattling with the nuts, a chinking or jingling with the money in his pocket; V. Klappern, Rasseln. 2) [low] v. impers. Es rappelt ihm im Kopfe [er ist verrückt], he has a flaw in his brains, he is cracked, there is a jingling in his head, [in sailors lang.] his upper-spars are damaged.

Räpper, m. [-es, pl. -] [V. Raffen] [in rural eco- nomy] he who gathers the bundles of corn, the corn-sheaf gatherer.

Räppfink, m. [-en, pl. -en] [rapp allied to rufen, V. Rabel] the green-finch.

Räppfisch, m. [-es, pl. -e] [in nat. hist.] V. 2. Rappe.

Räppier, n. [-es, pl. -e] [appears allied to the Dutch grēven, to stick; to Griffel &c.] [Sechsdgen] duelling sword; foil. Altes —, the rapier, broad-sword.

Räppierball, m. the foil-button. — Klinge, f. the foil-blade.

1. Räppieren, v. intr. to fence.

2. Räppieren, v. tr. Tabak —, to rasp, to grate tobacco.

Räppört, m. [-es, pl. -e] [in the army] [Be- richt] report. — erstatten, to make a or one's report.

Räpportzettel, m. [täglich] [daily] bulletin.

1. Räpps, m. [-es] [from Raffen] [with mil- lers] grain lost between the mill-stones.

2. Räpps, m. [-es] V. Beerwein.

Räpps, V. Raps

Räppse, [fam.] Räppse, f. [no pl.] [V. Rappsen] [low] Etwas in die — geben, to throw any thing, to scatter any thing for a general scramble, to deliver up any thing for lost, to pillage or plunder, to abandon or give up any thing as worthless, hopeless, unattainable or untenable, to let any thing go a begging, to the devil; in die — kommen, gerathen, to fall into disorder, disarray, to fall to pieces, [where every one snatches and seizes what he can carry off], to go to the devil, to become the object of a general scramble.

Räppsen, v. tr. [from Rappen, Raffen] [low] to sweep away, to sweep away the stakes, [fam.] to make a clean table or board &c. of it.

Räppse, m. and f. V. Rappse.

Rapünzel, m. [-es, pl. -n], dim. Rapünz- chen, Rapünzlein, n. [-es, pl. -] [Lat. rapun- culus] [in botany] 1) rampion, the rapunculus esculentus. 2) Kleiner, wilder —, the little wild rampion, Venus' looking glass. 3) Wild- ber — mit großen Blumen, the peach-blos- somed campanula or bell-flower. 4) Der große —, der weiße —, the great rampion, the common wild rampion. 5) [= Ackerlatat] corn salad, lamb's-lettuce. 6) [= Winterfresse] winter cress. 7) Der gelbe —, Garten —, selleri, onagra, night or tree-primrose.

Rapünzelsalat, m. rampion-salat.

Rär, adj. and adv. [Lat. rarus, Fr. rare] [in familiar and commercial lang.] rare, scarce. Sich — machen [in fam. or pop. lang.], to make one's self scarce, to keep aloof.

Rarsäulig, adj. [in architecture] pillared or columniated with distant intervals, thinly pillared.

Rarität, f. [pl. -en] [Seltenheit] rarity; it. curiosity.

Raritätenkammer, f. — Kasten, — schrank, m. cabinet of curiosities, of rarities. it. rarity-box, show-box, V. also Gustkasten.

Rásch, m. [-es, pl. -e] [probably so called from the town of Arras] shalloon, rash, serge. Raschmacher, —weber, m. shalloon-maker or weaver.

Rásch, adj. and adv. [allied to frisch] [in a bad sense] rash; it. [in a good sense] swift, quick, lively, prompt, spirited. — es Pferd, a swift, [also] a spirited, mettlesome horse; Sie gehen in dieser Sache sehr — zu Werke, you go very quick to work in this affair, [in a bad sense] you are setting very rashly to work in this business; — er Entschluß, a prompt resolution; — er Angriff, a lively, brisk or warm attack; er ist sehr — [auffahrend], he is very hasty; ihm geht Alles — von der Hand, he is prompt, quick in every thing he does, [fam.] he strikes always while the iron is hot, he does not stand shilly-shally, but does every thing off-hand; — gehen, laufen, to walk quick, to run fast, hastily, in a hurry, [fam.] for a wager.

Rásch, adj. [probably from reissen] 1) crisp, hard, crackling. 2) sharp, sour, acid; V. Ráß, it. Rósch.

Ráscheln, v. intr. to rustle. Der Wind raschelt im Laube, the wind rustles amidst the foliage.

Ráschheit, f. swiftness, quickness, promptitude, readiness; it. [in a bad sense] rashness, precipitancy.

Ráscien, n. [-s] [in geography] V. Ráscien.

Rásen, m. [-s, pl. -] [probably from the old riesen, to grow] the grass-turf, sward, sod. Sich auf den — lagern, to lie down on the green sward; — stechen, to cut sod, clods or pieces of green-turf; mit — belegen, to cover with grass-turf, to lay down a grass-plot; das Belegen eines Platzes mit —, the covering of a place with a green-turf.

Rásenaltar, m. altar of green-turf. — bank, f. bench of turf, grassy bench, grass-bank. — bedeckung, f. [in fortification] the turf-lining [of the parapet]. — berg, m. [with miners] V. Steinbeidung. — bett, n. bed of turf. — binse, f. V. — semse. — eisenstein, m. [in mineralogy] meadow-iron-ore, ore of iron found under turf, V. — stein. — erz, n. 1) V. — eisenstein. 2) V. Weis erz. — grab, n. turf-grave; the sod. — hacke, f. turf-hoe, turf-cutter. — haupt, n. [in dikeing] the lowest layer of a dike or dam made of turf-plots. — holz, n. [in woods and forests] wood for rafters, joists &c. — hopfen, 1) m. the wild hop 2) n. [[with young people] hop-tops. — hügel, m. hill, mound covered with a green-sward. — kur, m. [with miners] share in a mine which is to be worked. — läufer, m. [with miners] [Gang] a gallery or vein horizontal to and near the surface of the earth. — mei ßer, m. [Abdecker] a flayer. — passen, m., — plagge, f. V. — stück 1). — plag, m. the green, the sward, the green-plot, a bowling-green. Der — plag vor dem Schlosse, Gutshause &c., the lawn before the castle, mansion &c., the castle-lawn. — rand, m. a rim or border of turf. — ried, — riedgras, n. turfy-leaved reed-grass, turf-sedge. — schicht, f. turf-layer. — schmiele, f. [in botany] lofty bulrush. — semse, f. [in botany] turf-rush. — seher, m. a workman that lays down turf-sods. — sig, m. a turf-seat. — stecher, m. 1) a turf-cutter. 2) a turf-spade, turf-cutler, [in agriculture] broad spade, turf-knife. — stein, m. ore found under turf, [almost] level with the earth, V. — eisenstein. — steinbrech, m. [in botany] turf-saxifrage. — stück, n. 1) plot, clod or sod of turf. Mit — stücken belegen, einfassen, to cover, to line with turf-sods. 2) [with gardeners] turf-parterre, green-plot. 3) V. — plag — stufe, f. [with gardeners] turf-step. — teppich, m. carpet of turf, of verdure, velvet lawn. — turf, m. turf-peat. — terrasse, f. turf-stairs, turf-terrace. — wälzer, m. [with miners] a turf-treader, a lazy workman. — weg, m. a turf-way or path.

Rásen, [allied to reissen, raffen &c.] v. intr. 1) [fam.] to make a row, a hurly-burly, an uproar, to make a bother, to make a noise. Die Kinder — auf der Straße, machen einen — den Lärm, the children are making a noise in the street, are kicking up a terrible din in the street; der Wind raset in den Bäumen &c., the wind roars in, howls in, blows furiously through the trees. 2) to rave. Er raset, er ist — d, he raves, he is stark staring mad; — d werden, to grow furious, to go mad; ein — der Mensch, ein — der, a raving madman, a hissing-hot lunatic; der — de Möbel, the raging, furious, frantic mob. Fig. [in fam. or mostly low lang.] Er hat mich fast — d gemacht, he has almost driven me mad, out of my seven senses, he was like to have turned my brains; er ist — d in dieses Mädchen verliebt, he is raving mad after this girl, this girl has completely turned his head; — der Schmerz, — de Leidenschaft, — der Hunger, raging, distracting pain, passion, gaunt hunger; er hat — de Zahnschmerzen, möchte vor Zahnschmerzen — d werden, he has an agonizing, a maddening tooth-ache, is ready to go mad from the tooth-ache; ich habe einen — den Hunger, I am dying with hunger, [fam.] I have a wolf in my belly; — des Geschrei, furious, frantic cries, wildest screams; einen — den Aufwand machen, to make a tremendous, enormous expense, to live in a ruinously expensive style; er ist — d auf das Spiel erpicht, he is quite furious after play, he is gambling-mad, he has a phrenzy, a perfect mania for play; er ist — d über ihn aufgebracht, he is perfectly furious against him; er ist — d vor Zorn, es ärgert ihn — d, zu sehen, daß &c., he is maddened, enraged to see, that &c.; er ist dar — über so — d aufgebracht, daß &c., he is in such a dreadful passion about it, that &c.; er spielt ganze Nächte, das ist — d, he plays whole nights, that is dreadful; — d über Eimen or auf Eimen losziehen, to fly out into a perfect fury against any one or about any one; er schwagt — des Zeug, begehrt — de Thorheiten, he chatters bedlam-stuff, extravagances, he rants, he tears common sense into rags, shreds and tatters; er hat — d viel Geld, he is prodigiously rich, he does not know himself what he is worth, he is as rich as Croesus, as a Jew; er lügt — d, he lies most tremendously, he draws the long bow with a vengeance, he tells lies as fast as a horse-jockey at a fair, he tells lies as thick as hops, he lies most monstrously; it. [chiefly with the Dutch] hat er schon geraset? has he sown his wild oats already? Syn. Rasend, Toll. A man is called toll and rasend when his insanity breaks out into violent actions; toll however, in so far as his actions and language have no rational connection, and rasend when he is under the domination of some violent passion.

Rase=dichter, m. [rather unusual] a dithyrambic poet. [rather unusual] — gedicht, n., — gesang, m., — lied, n. a dithyrambic poem, ode.

Raserei, f. 1) rage, raving madness, fury, phrenzy, delirium. In — gerathen, to fall into a phrenzy, into madness; er hat Anfälle von —, he has fits of madness, of delirium; die — der Leidenschaften, the phrenzy, the madness of the passions; er ist bis zur — in dieses Mädchen verliebt, he loves this girl to madness. 2) [little used] the extravagance [of a madman].

Rasiren, v. tr. and v. refl. Einen —, sich —, to shave any one, one's self; it. ein Haus, eine Festung —, to raze a house, a fortress, to level a house, a fortress to the ground; ein rasirtes Schiff, a ship cut down, a rasee.

Rasir=becken, n. shaving-basin. — messer, n. razor. — pinsel, m. shaving-brush. — zeug, n. shaving-case, shaving-box.

1. Ráspe, f. [with veterinary surgeons] V. 3. Rappe 2).

2. Ráspe, V. Ráspe.

Ráspel, f. [pl. -n] [allied to raffen, equal to reissen &c.] 1) a rasp-file, a grater-file; [with gunsmiths] gun-stock, rabbet-file; [with cutlers, in the mint &c.] planchet file; [with blacksmiths] hoof-file, shoeing-rasp; [with sawmakers] viereckige —, square rasp; runde —, a round file; krumme —, a crooked file; [in conchology] the rasp-petuncle [kind of oyster]. 2) the file or rasp-ridged nerita, the snow-ball.

Ráspel=börse, m. [in nat. hist.] the crenated or notch-scaled perch. — brod, n. rasp-bread. — seile, f. [with sculptors] a rifle-file, a file curved at the end, the polishing-file. — hauer, m. V. Seitenhauer. — haus, n. the rasp-house, Dutch bridewell, house of correction; penitentiary. — meißel, m. a rasp or grater-chisel or punch. — späne, pl. raspings, filings.

Ráspeler, m. [-s, pl. -], — inn, f. a workman, a workwoman who rasps or files, a rasper, a filer.

Ráspeln, v. tr. [V. Raspel] Hirschhorn, Elfenbein &c. —, to rasp, to scrape buckhorn, ivory &c.; Zinn —, to rasp, to grate tin; geraspeltes Elfenbein, ivory raspings, filings, minute ivory chips; geraspelte Brodkruste, rasped bread, French bread rasped, rasped crust.

Ráß, [V. Rásch] adj. and adv. [rather provincial] sharp, sour, tart, strong, stinging. — er Wein, sharp, tart wine; dieser Käse ist zu —, this cheese is too strong, too biting, too stinging; — es Obst, sour, tart fruit; — schmecken, to have an acid, a strong, saltish taste, to have a harsh, rough taste.

Ráße, f. [no pl.] sharpness, roughness, harshness, tartness of flavour, acrimony.

Ráffel, f. [pl. -n] a rattle, [of children] a coral-bell, a child's rattle.

Ráffeln, [allied to reissen, to the Gr. ἀράσσειν &c.] v. intr. to make a noise, [= prasseln] to crackle, to rattle [with the rattle], to spring the rattle, to clank, to clatter, to rattle [with arms, chains &c.]. Mit Ketten —, to clank with chains; mit dem Gelde —, to clink, to chink, to chime, to ring with the or one's money; die Wagen —, the coaches rattle, roll, thunder &c.; mit den Würfeln im Becher —, to rattle the dice in the dice-box. Das —, the rattling, clanking, clattering, clinking, V. Gerassel.

Rassel=blume, f. catananche, Candia lion's foot, bastard chicory, false endive. — bürr, adj. fig. [low] [said of men, horses &c.] meager or thin that one's bones might rattle [like those of a skeleton]. || — mann, — wächter, m. a watchman [who springs his rattle like a clock to announce the time of night].

1. Ráßt, m. [-es] [perhaps corrupted from Rat [in military affairs] Den — schlagen, to beat a march, the chase; it. V. Raster.

2. Rást, f. [appears allied to ruhen] [little used] 1) [no pl.] rest, repose. Weber — noch Ruhe haben [in familiar language], to have neither rest nor repose; Einem keine — noch Ruhe lassen [in familiar language], to leave any one neither rest nor repose. 2) [pl. -en] [an instrument &c. for arresting any thing while in motion] stop, rest; [with gun-smiths] notch, rest [in the nut of a fire-lock]; [with founders] the enlargement [of the hearth]. 3) [pl. -en] place of repose, resting-place, [rather unusual] place where one stops or halts, station, post-station, relay, stage. Auf der ersten —, at the first relay or stage.

Rast = loß, adj. and adv. restless, without relaxation or repose, unceasing; it. indefatigable, unwearied. — lofer Geist, a restless mind; a mind always at work, never tranquil. — losigkeit, f. restlessness. — ort, m. place of repose, resting-place. — síß, m., — stunde, f. V. Ruhesíß &c. — tag, m. day of rest, of repose, day of sojourning or tarrying. — tag halten, to sojourn, to tarry; die Truppen haben wenig — tage gehabt, the troops have made little stay, have rested every fourth day [on their march].

Rásten, v. intr. to rest, to repose, to take rest or repose; [with workmen] to relieve one another, to change, V. Ablösen; [in military affairs = Rastras fassen] V. under Rasttag. Fig. Dieser Mensch kann weder ruhen noch —, this man can neither repose nor rest; tranquillity of body and mind are denied to him; it. he is constantly fidgety.

1. Ráster, m. [-ß] [from the Lat. rastrum, a rake, which together with a glass was the sign formerly of an alehouse at Leipzig] Leipzig beer.

2. Ráster, m. [-ß] [probably from Rast, Rust or Russ, an interval, and the old Sax. dred or dräd, a thread] wire for twining round strings of musical instruments &c.

Rastral, n. [-es, pl. -e] [with musical stations] paw [five-pronged trident for drawing the 5 lines of the stave].

Rastriren, v. tr. and intr. to draw staves.

Rata, Pro — [used as an adv.], in proportion, according to one's share in a business or concern. V. Rate.

Ratāfia, m. [-ß] [kind of brandy] ratafia.

Ráte, f. [pl. -n] [Antheil or Beitrag] rate, quota, contingent, dividend, lot, scot, proportion, share.

Rátel, V. Reitel.

Rath, m. [-es] [appears allied to recht, sichten, be-reiten &c., and originally to the Lat. rat-io, equivalent to prudence, calculation or reckoning] 1) [in composition] V. Haus —, un —. 2) economy, prudence [used chiefly in the following and similar phrases], Etwas zu — halten, to go or set economically to work with any thing, to manage any thing prudently; er hält das Seinige zu — e, he practises economy, prudence in his household or worldly affairs, he is economical, thrifty, a good housekeeper, a good husband of his resources, he knows how to husband his means. 3) [= Abhilfe, Mittel, Ausweg] remedy, redress, means, expedient, resource, outlet. Dafür weiß ich keinen —, I am not aware of any remedy for it, I see no expedient for extricating [him &c.] from this [dilemma &c.]; da ist kein anderer, kein besserer —, als daß &c., da wird der beste — seyn, daß &c., there are no other means, no better device or expedient, than that &c., the best remedy for that, will be &c.; was — s, wo nun — s? [a little stiff] what remedy, what redress, what expedient &c.? what is to be done now? [fam.] do you see any loophole, for I don't? dazu kann schon — werden, a remedy can easily be found for that, that can very soon be put to rights, set all square again; hier muß schnell — geschafft werden, a remedy must be applied to it immediately, this must be looked to without any delay; er weiß überall — zu schaffen, he is a man of expedients, he knows how to remedy every thing. Fig. Da ist guter — theuer [in fam. lang.], here some good expedient would be of infinite value, this is an imminent, critical, sad extremity, here is a case extremely difficult, puzzling, [fam.] this is what I call a regular quandary, a perfect quagmire; er weiß seinem Leibe, er weiß sich seines Lebens keinen — [in popular language], he does not know what to do or what to be at for the very body and life of him, [low] he has got himself into a hobble, and does not know how to back out. Prov. Ueber Nacht kommt guter —, with night comes devils, and to-morrow is or begins a new day; kommt Zeit, kommt —, with time comes the remedy, counsel &c.; sufficient to the day is the evil thereof; don't hoe for to-morrow; hüte dich vor der That, der Lügner wird wohl — [obsolete], shun evil, and fear not the slanderer, speak truth and shame the devil. 4) [= Meinung, Ansicht] counsel, advice. Ein guter, weiser, kluger, heilsamer —, a good, wise, prudent, salutary or wholesome counsel; schädlicher oder verderblicher —, pernicious, destructive, dangerous, noxious counsel or advice; Einem einen — geben, ertheilen, to give counsel, to administer advice to any one; — bei Einem einholen, sich bei Einem — s erholen, Einem um — fragen, to take counsel or advice of any one, to ask the advice of any one, to consult any one; er fragt nur sich selbst um —, he asks counsel or advice from himself alone, he follows the dictates of his own judgement, he never consults any one [but himself], he advises with, he communes with himself only; ich verlange darüber keinen — von Ihnen, I do not require any advice from you about it, I do not demand, solicit your counsel, [insulting] when I want your advice, I will ask you for it; er weiß immer einen guten — zu geben, he has always good advice to bestow, he is a man of good counsel; er ist mit seinem — e beisgestanden, an die Hand gegangen, he has stood by me, he has assisted me, profited me by good counsel, with his advice, [fam.] he has been my right-hand man; Einem mit — und That beistehen [proverbial or familiar], to aid, to assist, to stand by any one with hand and head, with advice and succour; nach meinem — e, in my opinion, according to my advice, if you will be ruled by me, my counsel is; mein — wäre, daß &c., my advice, my counsel would be, to &c., in my humble opinion, it would be better to &c.; sich in den Büchern — s erholen, to seek, to look for advice in books; die Wahrsager, die Gestirne um — fragen, to seek counsel from the cunning-men or [ironically] soothsayers, from the stars, [fam.] to dive into the book of fate, to consult fortune-tellers, the stars. 5) consultation, deliberation, pondering, reflection, consideration. Mit Einem über Etwas zu — e gehen, to go or come to a consultation about something with any one, to deliberate or hold counsel on something with another; sie waren lange darüber zu — e, sie hielten — darüber, they were long in deliberation upon it, they held a consultation upon it, about it; mit sich selbst zu — e gehen, to deliberate, to ponder over any thing, to come to a serious reflection or deliberation with one's self; über Etwas — schlagen [mostly written rathschlagen], or — s pflegen, to consult, to deliberate, to hold counsel about something, to set, to put any thing, to bring forward any thing under deliberation or consultation; Einem zu — e ziehen, to consult any one. Prov. Alles mit —, look before you leap, think twice before you speak, let not your tongue run before your mind, do nothing in a hurry or without mature reflection. 6) [= Entschluß, Beschluß, Wille] [rather stiff or obsolescent] resolution, determination, will, pleasure, fancy &c. Ändern — s werden, to be of another opinion, to change one's mind, to alter one's resolution; den — Gottes verkünden [in Scripture], to announce the will of God, to preach the word; seines eigenen — es leben, to live after one's own fancy, one's own way, not to be dependent upon the will of another. 7) a senate, a deliberative assembly, council. Den — versammeln, halten, to assemble the senate &c., to hold the or a council; im — e sitzen, zum — e gehören, to sit, to have a seat in the senate, council, board, to belong to, to be a member of the senate &c.; der geheime —, the secret council; the privy council; der hohe —, the grand council; the council of state; der hohe — zu Jerusalem [in Jewish hist.], the sanhedrim; [in modern hist.] der [ehemalige] hohe — zu Venedig, [formerly] the high council at Venice, the Venetian senate; Cäsar wurde bei versammeltem — ermordet, Julius Caesar was assassinated in the assembled senate; der große —, der Staats — zu Constantinopel, the divan. 8) [the assemblage itself of such persons] In den — e gehen, to go to the senate, to repair to the council &c.; der — ist beisammen, the council &c. is assembled, has met; die Herren des — es, the gentlemen, the members of the council &c.; the senators &c.; — und Bürgerschaft, the town-council and freemen; aldermen and citizens, the magistrate and the burgesses; V. Stadt —. 9) [pl. Ráthe] [often a mere title] member of a council or board; a counsellor; a senator. Geheimer, geistlicher, weltlicher —, privy counsellor, ecclesiastical, lay or secular counsel or counsellor; der Herr —, die Frau Ráthinn [term of courtesy], the counsel or counsellor, the counsellor's lady; der königlich preussische, herzoglich nassauische Rath N., the Prussian councillor, the Nassau councillor Mr. N.; V. Amts —, Berge —, Bothschäfts —, Commerzien —, Domänen —, Finanz —, Forst —, Geheimer —, Gemeinde —, Gerichts —, Hof —, Kammer —, Kanzlei —, Kirchen —, Kreis —, Kriegs —, Land —, Legations —, Medicinal —, Ministerial —, Post —, Rechnungs —, Regierungs —, Schul —, Staats —, Stadt —, Steuer —, Titular — &c.

Rath = fragen, V. Rath 4). — frager, m., — fragerinn, f. [little used] a person asking advice, consulting any one. — geber, m., — geberinn, f. monitor, adviser, counsellor. Die Leidenschaft ist eine schlimme — geberinn, passion is a bad counsellor, is a bad monitress or monitrix; er ist nicht Urheber dieser That, er ist bloß — geber dabei gewesen, he is not the author of this deed, he has merely been the adviser of it; der und der ist sein — geber, sein einziger — geber, so and so, such a one is his adviser, his sole counsellor. — gebung, f. [little used] counsel, advice, exhortation, advice-giving. — ha us, n. 1) the guild-hall, town-hall, counsel-house, [in Roman hist.] the capitol. 2) [comic] parliament-house, [that is] privy, V. Abtritt 5). — hausaal, m. V. — saat. — hammer, f. [in seamen's lang.] counsel-chamber or cabin [on board men-of-war where the officers consult, usually in the captain's cabin]. — freis, m. V. — versammlung. — leer, adj. V. — loß. — leute, pl. 1) V. — geber. 2) V. — herr. — loß, adj. and adv. deprived, destitute, void of advice or counsel, without aid or succour. Ganz — loß, quite perplexed or bewildered, literally destitute of all counsel; being brought to one's last shift. — lofigkeit, f. perplexity, bewilderment; deprivation or destitution of advice. — mann, m. 1) V. — geber. 2) V. — herr. — männisch, adj. senatorial. || — assessor, m. the recorder of the [town-] council. — bedürftig, adj. and adv. standing in need of, wanting, requiring or demanding advice or counsel. — befehl, m. order of the council, of the senate. — bote, m. messenger of the council, of the senate. — buch, n. register, minutes, protocol of the council or senate. — schlag, m. [rather obsolescent in the sing.] advice, counsel, a piece or bit of advice, a word of counsel. Einem gute — schläge ertheilen, to give any one good counsels; man hat seine — schläge vereitelt, his counsels have been marred, disappointed, frustrated. — schlag gen, v. intr. to deliberate, to consult, to hold counsel. Nachdem er darüber mit ihnen gerathschlagt hatte, after having deliberated with them. — schlager, m., — schlagerinn, f. a person who deliberates, who consults with others, a deliberator, a consultant. — schlagig, adj. and adv. [in pop. lang.] of good counsel. Er ist ein — schlagiger Mensch, er ist sehr — schlagig, he is a man of good counsel, he gives sound, wholesome advice. — schlagung, f. deliberation, consultation. — schluß, m. decree [of God &c.]. Nach dem — schlusse des Himmels, according to, in obedience to the decree of Heaven, [with poets] by Heaven's decree. — scolligum, n. 1) V. Rath 7). 2) V. — versammlung. — bediener, m. usher, door-keeper, porter [of a senate, council &c.]; it. headle. — dorf, n. [formerly] village belonging to the [town-] council, senate &c. — fähig, adj. and adv. capable of being admitted to, eligible to the council, to the senate. — fähige Familie, senatorial, patrician family. — fähigkeit, f. eligibility to the council, to the senate. — flagge, f. [in seamen's language] flag of council, signal for holding a council [of war &c.]. — freund, m. [obsolete] member of the town-council, senate or court of aldermen, V. — glied. — geschlecht, n. [formerly, in free towns of the German Empire &c.] patrician race, blood or family. — glied, n. member of the council, senator, [town-] councillor, member of the municipality, alderman. Die sämtlichen — glieder, all the members of the council, of the senate, the whole council, the whole senate, the corporation or municipality, the board. — gut, n. property of the council or senate, of the corporation, municipal property. — handed, m. any affair brought before the council; it. affair of the council. — haupt, n. chief, head, chairman, president of the council or senate. — herr, m. 1) senator; common-councillor. 2) [in nat. hist.] the white sea-mew, the white sea-gull. — herrlich, adj. and adv. senatorial, senatorian, patrician. — herrstelle, — herrnwürde, f. place, dignity of a senator, patri-ciate. — hammer, f. assembly-room, meeting-room; [in England] town-hall, guild-hall, of the town-councillors, senators &c., council-chamber. — keller, m. the city-cellar or town-hall cellar. — kissen, n. [obsolete] senator's cushion, pad. Fig. [in fam. lang. obsolescent] Einem das — kissen nach Hause senden, to depose a senator. — konfuz lent, m. recorder [of a town-council]. — mann, m. 1) V. — glied, — herr. 2) V. — geber. — marshall, m. city-stabling or stables. † — meister, m. chief of the senate, consul. — oberhaupt, n. V. — haupt. — person, f. V. — glied, — herr. — protokoll, n. V. — buch. — saal, m. council-hall, council-chamber, senate-chamber, guildhall. — schluß, m. decree of the senate. Die — schlüsse des römischen Senates, the decrees of the Roman senate, the senatus-consultus. — schreiber, m. clerk, secretary to the council, of the senate; recorder. — schreiberei, f. the clerkship. — sitzung, f. sitting of the council, of the senate. — spruch, m. V. — schluß. — stand, m. [in the church &c.] the stand, pew, seat &c. of a councillor, senator. — stube, f. the council-chamber, chamber of the senate. — stuhl, m. [in the church &c.] senator's seat. — tag, m. council-day, day of audience. — verlaß, m. V. — schluß. — versammlung, f. the assembly of the council or senate. Sich in die — versammlung begeben, to repair to the council &c. — verwandte, m. 1) V. — glied. 2) [formerly, in a more limited sense] member of the grand council, of the privy council. — wage, f. public balance. — wahl, f. election of the members of the council, of the senators. — zimmer, n. V. — stube.

Rathen, irr. v. tr. [a word the primary signification of which means motion, hence inducement; so in Sw. rada is to come; Icel. rata to go and return (V. Gerathen); the old rathen meant to grow, V. Gerathen; in Goth. rathjan means to value; the Engl. to read, to peruse, the Swed. rada, to throw light upon, to explain, the Lat. reor, rat-us sum, to suppose] 1) to advise, to counsel, to exhort. Einem Etwas —, to counsel any one to do &c. something; was rätst Du mir zu thun? what do you advise me to do then? er rät ihm gut, übel, he counsels him well, badly, he gives him good, bad advice; ich rieth es ihm als Freund, I advised him to it as a friend; ich wollte ihm nicht —, es zu thun [as a threat], I would not advise him to do it, let him think twice about it before he does it, let him beware of it; — Sie mir, ob ich es thun soll oder nicht, advise me, tell me, am I to do it or not, if I shall do it or not; Einem zum Guten —, to give any one good advice; it. to counsel any one so as to induce him to do good [actions &c.]; [ironically or as a threat], to advise any one not to do a thing; zum Guten, zur Güte —, to advise coming to a good understanding; it. to advise conciliatory measures; Einem zum Besten —, to advise any one for the best, to give any one the best counsels; wenn Ihnen zu — ist, so lassen Sie es bleiben, if you are well advised, you will do nothing of the sort, you will let it alone; zum Frieden —, to counsel peace; ich weiß mir nicht zu — I don't know what to do, what to be at, I am in a strange dilemma, I am at my wit's ends, [fam.] what plan, which side &c. to espouse. the Lord only knows, for I don't; ich weiß mir nicht zu — noch zu helfen [proverbially], I am brought or put to my last shift; er läßt sich nicht —, von Niemand —, he does not allow himself to be advised, he takes advice from no one, he follows the dictates of his own judgment, he listens, he gives ear to nobody, he consults no one; damit ist mir nicht geholfen, that's of no use, that does no good to me, what is the good, the use of that to me? that does not help me a jot; ich halte es für ge —, es möchte gerathener, das Gerathenste seyn, V. Rathsam. Prov. Geschehenen Dingen ist nicht zu —, what is done can't be undone, your advice comes a day after the fair as it did to the man in the stocks; wem nicht zu — ist, dem ist nicht zu helfen, he that won't be advised is past all assistance or help. 2) to guess, to divine, to conjecture — Sie, wer es gesagt hat, guess who said it; er hat hin und her ge —, und es doch nicht er —, he guessed right and left, and did not hit it, he has made a hundred conjectures, a multitude, a myriad of guesses, but not one was the right one after all; Sie haben richtig ge —, you have guessed right; er schreibt so dunkel, daß man immer — muß, was er sagen will, he writes so obscurely, so mystically, that one is always compelled to conjecture what he means to say, his style is so obscure or recondite, that it is requisite to be constantly guessing at, considering his meaning; die Aerzte — oft nur, physicians often merely conjecture, [fam.] often make but a rough guess of it.

Rather, m. [-s], — inn, f. [little used] 1) a guesser, a solver. 2) V. Rathgeber.

Rathinn, f. the lady or wife of a prince's counsellor. V. Rath 9).

Rathlich, adj. and adv. 1) [= rathsam] advisable, suitable, useful, fitting. 2) [unusual] [= sparam] economical, sparing, frugal. 3) [dem Rathe gehörig] [obsolescent] belonging to the council, to the senate, senatorial, senatorian.

Rathlichkeit, f. 1) advisableness, expediency. 2) V. Sparsamkeit.

Rathsam, adj. and adv. 1) [= beisam, zuräthlich] advisable, suitable, fitting, salutary. Das halte ich nicht für —, I do not conceive it to be advisable; daß — ste ist, sich &c., the most advisable [thing, measure, step &c.] is &c.; es scheint mir — er, nachzugeben, it appears to me more advisable to yield, I think giving way would be more political, more fitting, more suitable. 2) [unusual] [= sparam] frugal, economical, sparing, thrifty.

Rathsamkeit, f. 1) V. Rathlichkeit. 2) V. Sparsamkeit.

Rathsel, n. [-s, pl. -] [from rathen] enigma, riddle, charade, puzzle. Ein — machen, to make an enigma, a riddle; Einem ein — aufgeben, vorlegen, to give, to propose a riddle to any one; ein — errathen, auflösen, to solve an enigma, to guess a riddle. Fig. In — n sprechen, to speak in riddles; sein Betragen ist mir ein —, his conduct is a riddle to me; die — des menschlichen Herzens, the riddles, the labyrinths of the human heart; dieser Mensch ist ein wahres —, this man is a perfect riddle, a regular problem; das Wort des — ist &c., the word, the solution of this secret or mystery is &c.

Rathselbild, n. enigmatical image or painting; it. V. Sinnbild. — deuter, m., — deuterinn, f. a man or woman who has the knack of guessing riddles, the gift of expounding enigmas, an Oedipus. — dichter, m. a composer, a proposer of riddles, of enigmas in verse or rhyme. — frage, f. enigmatical question. Fig. a puzzling question. — reim, m.

a rhyme containing an enigma or riddle. — spruch, m. an enigmatical sentence; it. an oracle. — voll, adj. and adv. full of enigmas, of riddles, of mysteries, enigmatical. — wort, n. 1) the word of a riddle or charade. 2) an enigmatical, mystical, recondite, abstruse word, speech, expression.

Räthselhaft, adj. and adv. enigmatical, mysterious. — sprechen, to speak enigmatically, mysteriously.

Räthseln, v. intr. [unusual] 1) to speak in enigmas, in riddles, enigmatically. 2) to take a delight in solving riddles.

Ratin*, m. [-es, pl. -e] [Fr. ratine] [sort of woollen stuff] rateen. Auf Tuchart zugerichtete —e, cloth-dressed rateens; gefröpfte or frisirte —e, cottoned, frized, nappy or curled rateens, Bath cloths [for Bath-cloaks &c.].

Ratiniren*, v. tr. [with cloth-makers] Einen Zeug —, to rateen a stuff, to raise the nap of cloth rateen-like, to cotton or frize it.

Ration*, f. [chiefly in military affairs] ration, a share or proportion of forage or fodder. Halbe —, doppelte —, half rations, half allowance; double allowance or rations; es gehören diesem Offiziere sechs Mundportionen und vier —en or Pferd —en, this officer has to receive six rations for himself and four of fodder for his horse; den Reitern ihre Heu- und Haber —en austheilen, to distribute to the horse-soldiers their rations of hay and oats: [in seamen's language] — an Zwieback, Getränk &c., ration in biscuit, liquor &c.

Rational*, adj. [in algebra &c.] rational. Rational=größe, f. rational quantity. — wurzel, f. rational root. — zahl, f. rational number.

Rationalismus*, m. [-s] [in theology] [Vernunftglaube] rationalism.

Rationalist* m. [-en, pl. -en] [in theology] [Vernunftgläubiger] a rationalist.

Rationalistisch*, adj. and adv. [in theology] rationalistical.

Rationell*, V. Rational.

Ratoffis, m. [pl. -en] [in mineralogy] rathoffite.

||Rätsche, Rätsche, f. [pl. -n] [allied to raffen] 1) [Rassel, Schnarre] a rattle. 2) [little used] V. Glacébreche.

||Rätschen, v. intr. 1) V. Rasseln, Schnarren. 2) [= schnattern, von Enten] to dabble.

Ratshente, f. the common wild-duck.

Ratte, Rähe, f. [pl. -n] [Fr. rat, Ital. ratto, Low. Sax. rotte, Lat. of the middle ages ratus, perhaps allied to the Lat. rodo, to gnaw, and to the German fraßen &c.] the rat. Kleine, junge —, dim. Rätzchen, ||Rätzlein, n. [-s, pl. -] a young rat, a little rat. Fig. [in pop. lang.] Er schläft wie eine — [incorrectly, for Rat 3] which see], he sleeps like a dormouse, like a top; —n im Kopfe [Grillen] haben, to have odd whims and fancies, maggots in one's head.

Ratten=birn, f. [with gardeners] the Jar-gonelle-pear, the lady's-thigh. — confect, n. [in pop. lang.] rat-mixture preparation for killing rats. — eidechse, f. chameleon. — fahl, V. — grau. — falle, f. rat-trap. — sang, m. rat-catching. — fänger, m. a rat-catcher. — fresser, m. [in nat. hist.] the rat eater of Surinam [a snake]. — gift, n. rat's-bane. — grau, adj. and adv. rat-grey. — kahl, adj. [in popular lang.] bald as a rat. Fig. poor as a church-mouse. — könig, m. [a lusus naturae, being a cluster of rats entwined with their tails] king of the rats. — koth, v. rat's-dirt. — kraut, n. [in botany] 1) [wildes Woll=kraut] yellow moth-mullein. 2) V. — gift. — kuchen, m. — kegel, f. poisoned pellets for rats. — nest, n. a rat's nest, a nest of rats. Fig. Dieses Zimmer ist ein wahres —nest, this room is a perfect rat's-nest. — pfeffer, m. staves-acre, dead-nettle of the woods. — pulver, n. rat-powder. — schwanz, m. 1) a rat's-tail. Fig. [in pop. lang.] Dieses Pferd hat einen —schwanz, this horse has a rat's-tail, is rather bare. 2) [in botany] double-leaf, twiblade or twayblade, ophrys, bifolia. 3) [with gunsmiths] a round file; [with cloth makers] rat's-tail, crease. 4) [in seamen's language] a rope tapering towards its end. — schweif, m. V. — schwanz.

Rättern, v. intr. [V. Rasseln] to rattle very loudly, strongly, forcibly, violently. Fig. [low] Er lügt, daß es rattert, he lies like a horsejockey at a fair, [seamen's cant] he tells crackers at the rate of 12 knots an hour.

Rattin, V. Ratin.

Rätz, m. [-es, pl. -e] 1) [obsolete or low] V. Ratte. 2) [= Murmeltier] the marmot. 3) [= Bilchmaus] rellmouse. Schlafen wie ein — [in popular language], to sleep like a dormouse. 4) [= die kleine Haselmaus] the dormouse. 5) [in sportsmen's language] a sort of stoat or lichen, V. Iltis.

Räze, V. Ratte.

Räzel, V. Räthsel.

Räzen, 1) V. Rasseln. 2) V. Rauben.

Räzen, V. Rätzen.

Räzer, [Räther] m. [-s, pl. -], — inn, f. [also] Rätzisch, [Räthisch] adj. [in geography] Rascian.

Rätzen, [Räthien] n. [-s] [in geography] Rascia.

Rätzwolf, m. [-es, pl. -wölfe] [Rauibörs] small river-perch.

Raub, m. [-es, no pl.] [allied to rauben, raffen, ruffen; to the Lat. rapio] 1) great swiftness, hurry-skurry, scouring haste. [not much used, except in the two following and similar familiar phrases] Auf den — zu Einem kommen, to come to any one in all haste; auf den —essen, to bolt down one's food; [with miners] auf den —bauen, to work carelessly, in a great hurry, it. to work a mine cheatingly, faithlessly. 2) the fetching or carrying away of the booty, the robbery. a) [of animals] Dieses Thier lebt vom —e, this beast lives from rapine or prey, this is a beast of prey; der Bienenstock steht unter dem —e, the bees are rifling [the flowers]. b) [especially of men] robbery, plunder, rapine, depredation. Der —eines Mädchens, the rape of a girl; der —von Gütern, spoliation; der —der Staats-gelder, peculation, embezzlement; einen —begehen, to commit a robbery; auf —ausgehen, to go out for robbery, on a pillaging or marauding expedition, to commit rapine or devastation, to go out for plunder; zum —egerüstet [in heraldry], ravishing. 3) booty, prey, spoil Auf seinen —losstürzen, to fall, to dart, to bound, to spring, to throw one's self headlong on one's prey; zum —e geben, to give up to plunder or pillage. Fig. Ein —seiner Leidenschaften seyn, to be the prey, at the mercy of one's own passions; er ist ein —des Todes &c. geworden, he has become the prey of death &c, death &c. has made him a spoil. 4) [the thing stolen] plunder, booty, pillage, robbery, larceny. Diese Beute leben bloß vom —e, these people only subsist by plunder, theft, robbery, larceny; er verbarg seinen —im Walde, he hid his plunder, his booty in the wood; den —zurückgeben, theilen &c., to restore, to share or divide the plunder, the spoil, the booty. SEN. Raub, Beute. Raub implies what is acquired by unjust violence, Beute by means, which if not just are at least not thought unjust. The moveable things which the soldier takes from a vanquished enemy are Beute; that which stragglers forcibly take from the inhabitants of any district is Raub.

Rauben, v. tr. and intr. [V. Raub] to ravish, to carry off, to rob. Der Wolf &c. raubt, the wolf &c. robs, lives by rapine, carries off his prey; eines Andern Gut —, to plunder, to pillage, to rob another's property; Kinder, Menschen —, to kidnap; auf den Landstraßen —, to rob on the highway; auf der See —, to pirate, to commit piracy on the high seas; in einem Feldlager —, to rob, to pilfer, to thieve, plunder, pillage in a camp; die Waaren aus einem verunglückten Schiffe —, to plunder goods out of a shipwrecked vessel [as the wreckers do]; die Räuber haben ihm seinen Mantel geraubt, the robbers have robbed him of his mantle or cloak; Alles, was er besitzt, ist geraubtes Gut, every thing he has is plundered property, the fruits of robbery, of extortion; ein Mädchen — [rather unusual], to violate, to ravish a girl, to commit a rape on a girl; die Soldaten haben in diesem Lande viel geraubt, the soldiers have levied great contributions, collected much booty in this land, have plundered in this country to a great extent. Fig. Einem Mädchen die Ehre —, to rob a maiden of her honour, a virgin of her maidenhead or virginity; Einem das Leben —, to rob any one of his life; der Tod hat mir ihn geraubt, death has robbed me of him; —Sie mir diese letzte Hoffnung nicht, do not rob me of this last hope; Einem die Ruhe —, to rob any one of repose, to deprive any one of rest, of serenity &c.; Einem seinen guten Namen —, to rob, to filch from any one his good name, to destroy any one's reputation, to defame, to traduce, to asperse, to slander, to calumniate, to vilify any one; dieses Mädchen hat ihm das Herz geraubt, this maiden has robbed him of his heart, has enslaved his heart. Das —, rapine, brigandage, plundering, robbery &c.

Raub=aal, m. V. Raubwa. — adel, m. [formerly] nobility thriving by robbery, knight-robbers. — alant, — alet, m. V. Raubfisch. — ameise, f. the lion-ant, V. Ameisenlöwe. — arbeit, f. [with miners] hurried work; it. dishonest peculating work. — begier, — begierde, f. ravenous lust, rapacity, a harpy feeling, robbing propensity. — begierig, adj. and adv. greedy of prey, of booty, of rapine; rapacious, ravenous. — bienne, f. pirate-bee. — falk, m. the gersfalcon. — fisch, m. fish of prey, voracious fish. — fliege, f. the lychomusca, hornet-fly, wasp-fly. — gebäude, n. [with miners] a mine worked faithlessly, in ruinous haste, to the injury of the proprietor, shamefully or in an unprincipled manner. — geflügel, n. birds of prey, of rapine, the carnivorous feathered creation. — genos, m. an accomplice in robbery, plunder, pillage, rapine. — geschwader, n. [with poets] a fleet of pirates. — gesindel, n. a robbing gang, a thievish pack of villains, a band, horde or troop of robbers, brigands, thieves, highwaymen; vermin, vagabonds or rabble that live by plunder, or infest by marauding and depredation; marauders. — gier, f. — gierig, adj. and adv. V. — begier, — begierig. — höhle, — horde, f. V. Räuberhöhle &c. — läfer, m. staphylinus, V. Mistläfer; [also] V. Puppenräuber. — kobalt, m. [Kobalt-nayf] ore of cobalt containing too much arsenic. — krähe, f. the black-beaked crow, carrion-crow. — krieg, m. predatory war or warfare. — lustig, adj. and adv. V. — gierig. — mord, m. assassination by brigands, highway murder and robbery, murder perpetrated for the sake of plunder or pillage. — nest, n. nest of thieves, den of robbers, the retreat of brigands, of highwaymen, the haunt of banditti, of outlaws. — pfehl, m. [in hydraulics] the ground pile [of a ship-mill]. — ritter, m. [formerly] knight-robber. — schiff, n. pirate-ship or vessel, corsair, [formerly] algerine. — schiffer, m. V. Seeräuber. — schloß, n. a castle held or built for knight-robbers, for brigands, for highway-robbery, for extortion; a castle that is the haunt of banditti. — schuß, m. V. Wildschuß. — staat, m. the state, kingdom of corsairs, pirates, of a horde of brigands and marauders, of public robbers. [formerly] Die — staaten Algier, Tunis und Tripoli, the corsair states, the barbarous or pirate kingdoms of Algiers, Tunis and Tripoli. — stollen, m. [with miners] a surreptitious gallery in one mine for the purpose of penetrating another mine with felonious intent. — sucht, f. rapacity, rapaciousness, ravenousness, greediness of violent acquisition. — süchtig, adj. and adv. V. — begierig. — thier, n. rapacious, ravenous, prowling, voracious, carnivorous animal, beast of prey. Der Löwe, der Tiger &c. sind — thiere, the lion, the tiger are beasts of prey, are sanguinary, are predaceous, carnivorous animals. — vogel, m. bird of prey, rapacious bird, carnivorous bird, bird of rapine; [in heraldry] bird with bells to his legs bird furnished with bells. Junger — vogel, a brancher, a young hawk; das Weibchen der — vogel, the female hawk. — vogelfarbe, f. [in sportsmen's language] [the colour of the plumage of birds of prey] mantle. — volk, n. V. Räubervolk. — wild, n. beast of prey; it. beasts of prey. — wuth, f. the fury of rapacity.

Räuber, m. [-s, pl. -], — inn, f. robber, thief, plunderer, freebooter, pilferer, marauder, depredator, ravisher, highwayman, pick-pocket, foot-pad, brigand, bandit, outlaw. — auf dem Meere, robber on the high-seas, pirate; — auf Flüssen, a fresh-water pirate; die — fremden Güter, the plunderers of other persons' property; der — eines Mädchens [rather unusual] the ravisher of a girl; unter die — fallen, to fall into the hands of robbers, V. Straßen-, Kirchen-, See-; die —, ein Trauerspiel von Schiller [in German literature], the Robbers, a tragedy of Schiller's or by Schiller. Fig. a) — am Lichte, a thief in the candle. b) [with gardeners] adnata, dangling shoot or branch, a sucker, a stolo. Die — wegschneiden, to cut away any superfluous and exhausting branch, sucker, shoot, or bough. c) [in botany] V. Rheinfarn.

Räuber=anführer, m. V. — hauptmann. — bande, f. band, troop of robbers, of thieves, a robber-gang. — genoss, m. an accomplice of robbers &c. — geschichte, f. the history, recital, life and adventures of robbers, of a robber or robbers, of a highwayman or highwaymen, a tale of outlaws. — haar, n. a hair split or forked. — hähn chen, n. [in nat. hist.] the straw-coloured staphylinus or may-bug. — haupt, n. — hauptmann, m. chief, leader, captain of a robber-band, of a band of outlaws or banditti. — höhle, f. the den, cavern, retreat, haunt, cave of robbers. — horde, f. horde, troop, gang of robbers. — schaar, f. V. — bande. — volk, n. predaceous people, a brigand or bandit race, a pirate-race.

Räuberei, f. robbery, depredation, pillaging, ransacking, rapine, spoliation. — en begeben, to commit robberies; sich durch — en [Erpressungen &c.] bereichern, to enrich one's self by robbery, by extortions &c.; ihre Verwaltung ist eine wahre —, their administration is a perfect robbery.

Räuberisch, adj. and adv. 1) inclined to robbery, rapacious, of a rapacious nature or propensity — es Volk, a people, a race addicted to plunder, prone to theft, inclined to rapine; — es That, a robber's deed, the action of a brigand; — er Mensch, a rapacious man; — es Gefindel, a thievish pack, crew or nest of robbers or brigands, V. Raubgefindel; — es Hände, Häuste, rapacious, thievish hands, robbers' clutches; — handeln, to act like a robber, as a brigand, as an outlaw. 2) [with miners] — es Bergarten, Erze, substances, ores or lodes containing too much arsenic; — [auf den Raub] bauen, V. under Raub; — er Art, — er Bau, V. Raubarbeit.

Rauch, [V. Raub] adj. and adv. [haarg] hairy, furred, shaggy, rough; [in botany] hispid. — es Hände, hairy hands; — es Kinn, a hairy chin; — es Pfote, a shaggy paw; er ist — wie ein Bär, he is as shaggy as a bear; — es Fell, furred skin, shaggy skin; ein — er Muff, eine — e Mütze, a fur-muff, a fur-cap, a hairy or shaggy cap; die — es Seite eines Pelzes &c., the hairy side, the shaggy side of a fur-skin, V. Raub; it. [in rural economy] — es Holz, V. Raubholz. Fig. [in familiar lang.] Das — es [Raube] herausschleppen [= Ernst, Strenge gebrauchen], to use rough means, to employ force, rigour, severity.

Rauch=apfel, m. [in botany] the thorn-apple. — bart, m. [in nat. hist.] [Schleimaal] the white-eel, the myxina, the silver-eel. — beere, f. [in botany] the hairy or rough-gooseberry; it. the tree or shrub itself. — beizig, adj. and adv. hairy-legged, shaggy-legged. — buche, f. 1) [Hagebuche] horn-beam, yoke-elm. 2) [Rothbuche] red-beech-tree, horse-beech-tree. — färber, m. a fur-dyer. — flügel, m. [in nat. hist.] phalaena with hairy wings. — frost, m. V. Raubreif. — fuß, m. 1) V. Schneehuhn. 2) [Trommettaube] the drum-pigeon. — füßig, adj. and adv. 1) hairy, shaggy or fur-footed. 2) rough-footed. — futter, n. 1) fur-lining. 2) V. Raubfutter. — gar, adj. and adv. [with furriers] dressed with the hair on. — gare Felle, skins dressed with the hair on. — gare, f. [Raubgare] [with refiners] last or greatest degree of the affinage or refining of copper. — gras, n. [in botany] Ostindisches — gras, east-indian small meadow-grass. — haarig, adj. and adv. hairy, rough, shaggy, furred. — haber, m. [in botany] 1) the wild-oat, sand-oat. 2) the rough-oaten meadow-grass. — handel, m. fur-trade, peltry-trade, commerce in peltry-wares. — händler, m. a furrier, dealer in peltry. — häutig, adj. and adv. shaggy, furred or hairy-skinned. — holz, n. [in rural economy] leaf wood. — hönig, m. honey in the comb, honey not yet strained, still in the wax, tun-honey, [classically] honey not yet sincere. — kopf, m. 1) a long-handled hairy brush 2) a) [in nat. hist.] the short tailed kingfisher. b) the golden falcon. — leder, n. cordovan or Turkey morocco-leather, bronze morocco. — ledern, adj. and adv. [with shoemakers] of bronzed morocco. — linde, f. the common elm; V. ulme. — meier, m. — meierkraut, n. [in botany] medicinal crosswort. — [schwan]z, m. [in nat. hist.] the hairy-tailed mouse, rambling-mouse. — seide, f. [Storerside] floss-silk, grogram-yarn, kind of ferret or coarse silk. — werk, n. 1) [with furriers] peltry-work, furs, skins. 2) V. Räuberwerk. 3) [in sportsmen's language] shaggy-skinned or fur-skinned animals. — werken, i. adj. and adv. of fur, furry, furred. II. v. tr. [in forestry] Einen [gefällten] Baum — werken [in rural economy], to lop off the branchwork of a [felled] tree. — werker, m. 1) skinner, leather-seller, fellmonger. 2) V. — händler. — wurz, f. V. Brauwurz. — zehente, m. tithes on hairy, furred, shaggy animals or cattle.

Rauchheit, f. [in botany] hispidity.

Rauch, m. [-es, pl. -e] [leel. reyk, Dan. rog, old Sax. rec; allied to riechen, old Germ. riehan, Sw. röka, Dutch rooken, to smoke] 1) smoke. Dicker, schwarzer, stinkender —, thick, black, stinking smoke; einen — geben, von sich geben, to give, to cast forth smoke, to smoke spontaneously; im — es aufgehen, to exhale, to go off, to be consumed in smoke; eine Stadt im — es aufgehen lassen, to reduce a city to ashes, to a heap of smouldering, smoking ruins; Fleisch &c. in den — hängen, to hang up meat or flesh in the smoke, to smoke-dry, [in America] to buccan; den — von Etwas an einen Körper gehen lassen, to fumigate a body; nach — riechen &c., to smell &c. of smoke; einen wohlriechenden — in ein or in einem Zimmer machen, to burn an odoriferous perfume in a room. Prov. Kein Feuer ohne —, no fire without smoke, no rose without a thorn, [also] where the volcano is, there it smokes, the devil cannot hide his cloven-foot, it will peep out; kein — ohne Feuer, no smoke without fire, there is always a why for a wherefore, what every body says must be true, what the world says is generally right; aus dem — es in das Feuer kommen, to leap out of the frying-pan into the fire. Fig. [in familiar language] Ein kleiner — brist ihn nicht, he is not to be frightened at shadows, he does not stick at trifles. 2) soot, lampblack &c. V. Hütten-, Zechen-. 3) [chiefly in feudal law, obsolescent] [= Rauchfang] the chimney. Man zahlt jährlich so und so viel für jeden —, so and so much is paid annually for each chimney [hearth]; er bezahlt vier — es, he pays duty on four chimneys [hearths]; seinen eigenen — haben, to have one's own fire-side; — und Brod haben, to have one's own hearth and bread, to have an independent or comfortable home, to be a housekeeper in easy circumstances. Six. Rauch, Quatm. When the Rauch is so thick that we can no longer breathe in it, and consequently threatening suffocation, it is called Quatm.

Rauch=agat, m. [in mineralogy] smoke-coloured agate. — altar, m. [in Jewish hist.] altar of incense; it. altar of sacrifice, of burnt offerings, sacrificial altar. — bad, n. [unusual] V. Dampfbad. — dach, n. [with coalmen] first roof or covering of the furnace. — dicht, adj. and adv. smoke-proof. Einen Ofen — dicht machen, to make a stove, a furnace smoke-proof. — fang, m. the chimney. V. also Esse 2) or Schornstein. Ein Flecken von hundert — fän gen, a borough or burgh of 100 chimneys [hearths]. —fanggeld, n. 1) the chimney-sweeper's fee, money [obliged] to be paid to the sweep. 2) chimney-tax, hearth-money. —fangkehrer, m. chimney-sweeper, sweep. —fangmantel, m. the chimney-piece or mantle-piece. —fangsteuer, f. V. —fanggeld 2). —fangträger, m. the iron-band of the chimney-piece; the holdfast of the mantle-piece. —farbe, f. smoke-colour; it. soot. —farben, —farbig, adj. and adv. smoke-coloured. —faß, n. a censer. —fleisch, n. smoked or blotted flesh, smoked meat, buccaned flesh, hung beef &c. —gans, f. 1) smoked goose. 2) the goose paid as quit-rent, as tax, as tithe. —gar, adj. and adv. sufficiently smoked, smoked enough. —gelb, adj. and adv. smoked to a tawny yellow. —gelbkies, m. arsenical pyrite. —geld, n. V. —fanggeld 2). —gewölbe, n. [in tin-smelting works] the furnace vault or gallery. —grau, adj. and adv. smoky-grey. —grün, adj. and adv. London-green, invisible green. —henne, f. V. —huhn. —huhn, n. fowl paid as quit-rent, as tax, as tithe. —kammer, f. 1) V. Räucherzimmer. 2) a smoky, dingy small room or chamber. —kerze, f. V. Räucherkerze. —kohle, f. burning wood nearly charcoal; it. a coal still containing gas, not yet a cinder, a smoking live-coal. —korn, n. [obsolete] chimney-tax, hearth-tax. —kristall, m. V. —topas. —kugel, f. [Dampfkugel] [in artillery] smoke balls [for damping the sight of the enemy]. —loch, n. 1) the smoke-hole, vent for the smoke. Das —loch eines Ofens, the issue, pipe for the smoke of the stove, kiln or furnace; [with glassmakers] the vent; [with coalmen] die —löcher eines Meilers, the smoke vents of a coal-kiln. 2) [low] smoky hole of a room, a dismal dingy den of a room. Seine Stube ist ein wahres —loch, his room is a regular dingy hole. —opfer, n. oblation, sacrifice of perfumes. Ein —opfer bringen, to burn incense, frankincense on the altar. —pfanne, f. V. Räucherpfanne. —pfennig, m. V. —fanggeld 2). —post, f. [obsolete] [in war] post or station for giving a signal with smoke. —pulver, n. V. Räucherpulver. —säule, f. a column or pillar of smoke. —schach, m. [in feudal times] suage, hearth-money. —schirm, m. a smoke-screen; it. [in England, a large wooden cover over malt-house chimneys turning like a weathercock] a kite. —schwalbe, f. [in nat. hist.] the [chimney-] swallow. —schwarz, I. adj. and adv. smoked, besmoked, smoky. II. n. V. —teufel [compound of the adj. Rauch]. —silber, n. smoked silver [for giving it a gold-colour]. —spinne, f. [in nat. hist.] the smoky or dingy field-spider. —stein, m. V. —topas. —steuer, f. V. —fanggeld 2). —topas, m. [in mineralogy] smoky topaz, dingy hyaline quartz. —umhüllt, adj. [in a higher style] smoke-enveloped. —verständige, m. [in architecture] fumist, the chimney-doctor. —wacke, f. compact carbonate of lime. —wolke, f. a cloud of smoke, a smoky cloud. —wurst, f. smoked chitterlings, smoke-dried sausage. —wurz, —wurz, f. [in botany] scrophularia. —zins, m. V. —fanggeld 2).

Räuchelig, V. Räucherig.

||Räucheln, [low] Rauchzen, v. intr. to taste or smell rather smoky, to have a slight smoky taste or smell. Diese Speise räuchelt, this food is a little smoky; seine Kleider —, his clothes are smoky, emit a smoky smell, are somewhat impregnated with smoke.

Räuchen, [V. Rauch] I. v. intr. to smoke, to reek, to fume. Der Ofen, das Feuer &c. raucht, the stove, the fire &c. smokes; diese Küche raucht, es raucht in dieser Küche &c., this kitchen smokes, it smokes in this kitchen &c.; der Vesuv rauchte stark, Vesuvius smoked incessantly, vomited forth much smoke; —der Brand, —de Kohlen, smoking fire-brand, smoking coals; der Schornstein raucht, the chimney smokes. Prov. Wo Feuer ist, da raucht es, where there is fire, it smokes, V. Rauch. Prov. Fig. [in familiar or jocose lang.] Sehen, wo die Küche raucht, [of parasites] to see where the kitchen smokes, to go and sponge for a dinner, to look in about dinner-time; er lernt, daß ihm der Kopf raucht, he studies so hard, that he sets his brains on fire; er läßt, daß ihm der Kopf raucht, he lies like a jockey, he lies through thick and thin; so lange die Küche raucht, sind sie Freunde, as long as the pot boils they will be friends, it's all cupboard-love between them. II. v. tr. and intr. Tabak, Kanaster &c. —, V. Dampfen; eine Pfeife, eine Pfeife Tabak, ein Pfeifchen —, to smoke a pipe, a pipe of tobacco, a little pipe or so; ich habe aus dieser Pfeife geraucht, I have smoked out of, in, with this pipe; was treibt er? er raucht, what is he doing or at? he smokes or is smoking his pipe. Das —, the smoking, the smoke.

Rauchtabak, m. tobacco.

Rauchzen, V. Räucheln.

Räucher, m. 1) [Tabak—] a smoker. Er ist kein starker —, he is no great, not a hard smoker. 2) V. Rauchkohl.

Räucherer, m. [-s, pl. -] 1) fumigator. 2) offerer up, burner of incense. Die — Baals [in Scripture], those who burnt incense to Baal, the worshippers of Baal.

Räucherig, Räucherig, adj. and adv. smoked, besmoked, smoky, full of smoke; it. of a smoky smell or taste. —es Gemälde &c., a smoky picture &c., a picture &c. begrimed with smoke, all dingy; Ihre Kleider sind —, riechen —, your clothes are smoky, smell smoky, have a smoky smell; diese Speise schmeckt —, this food is smoky, tastes smoky; —machen, V. Einräuchern Räuchern, I. v. tr. to smoke, to smoke dry, to blote. Pöckelfleisch, Schinken &c. —, to smoke, to blote, to buccan pickled-meat, ham &c.; geräuchertes Fleisch, smoked meat, flesh dried in smoke or buccaned; geräucherte Häringe, red-herrings; ein krankes Glied —, to fumigate a diseased limb; sich —, to fumigate one's self; Gemälde —, to smoke pictures [so as to seem old]; Briefe, Waaren &c. —, to fumigate letters, goods &c. [on account of the plague]; das — der Häringe, des Silberdrahtes &c., the smoking of herrings, of silver-wire &c., the fumigation of &c. II. v. intr. to perfume [with some instrument for dispersing the incense or for purifying the air in a room &c.]. In einem Zimmer —, mit Wachholderbeeren —, to burn incense in, to perfume a room, to burn juniper-berries in a room; in den Kirchen —, to burn incense in the churches; vor den Altären —, to burn incense before the altars; dem Herrn —, den falschen Göttern — [in Scripture], to offer up incense to the Lord, to burn frankincense &c. to false Gods. Fig. [in contempt] Einem — [= schmücken], to flatter, to adulate any one. Das —, the burning of incense; fig. adulation.

Räucherbüchse, f. box for incense, for perfumes; it. [with surgeons] the fumigatory

box. —faß, n. the censer, perfuming-pan. Das —faß halten, schwingen, to hold, to swing [to and fro] the censer. —faßchen, || —faßlein, n. a little censer; it. an incense-box or casket. —faßchenträger, m. the incense-bearer, the thuriferary, the carrier of the frankincense pan. —fleisch, n. V. Rauchfleisch —holz, n. odoriferous wood for perfuming. —kammer, f. the room for smoking meat. —kerze, f. a pastille. —klaue, f. Constantinople sweet-hoof. —lampe, f. a perfuming-lamp. —mittel, n. [with surgeons] a fumigatory. —pfanne, f., dim. —pfännchen, || —pfännlein, n. perfuming-pan, the acerra. —pulver, n. perfuming-powder, perfume in powder [for perfuming rooms]; it. [with surgeons] fumigatory powder. —werk, n. perfume, frankincense, spikenard &c. incense. —werk anzünden, verbrennen, to burn incense. —wurst, f. V. Rauchwurst.

Räucherung, f. 1) fumigation. Die — mit Gewürzen, aromatic fumigation; die trockene, die nasse —, dry, wet or moist fumigation. 2) the offering up of incense, the burning of incense [in churches &c.].

Räuchicht, adj. and adv. like smoke, smokish. — riechen, schmecken, to smell, to taste smokish, [rather] smoky.

Räuchig, adj. and adv. —e Küche, Stube, a smoky kitchen, room; it. a kitchen, a room filled with smoke, all smoky; it. dingy, begrimed with smoke.

Räude, f. [no pl.] [allied to Rinde, Grund] [Eck, Kruste] crust, incrustation, scab. Eine — bekommen, to get a scab, to make a scab [as a wound does].

Räude, f. [no pl.] [either the same as Raude or from rauchen, equal to Frauen, to scratch, as Schabe from schaben] [Krähe] the itch. [comic] the Scotch fiddle. Die eingewurzelte —, inveterate itch, mange; — der Schafe, the scab or rot of sheep; die — ist unter diese Herde gekommen, the scab has got amongst this flock; dieser Hund hat die —, this dog has got the mange, is mangy; die — der Pferde &c., the farcy or mange of horses &c.; die — am Halse der Pferde, the neck-mange of horses [generally stallions]; die — an den Knien der Pferde, V. Rappe [vet. surg.]; [with gardeners] — der Bäume, Netzen &c., scurf, scald, dandruff, blight &c. of trees, pinks &c.

Räudig, adj. and adv. itchy, scabby, mangy, scurfy. —es Kind, child with the itch. scabby child; ein —es Schaaf [used also fig.] a scabby sheep; eine alte —e Hündin, an old mangy bitch; —es Pferd, a mangy horse, a horse with the farcy; —er Baum, a scalded, blighted tree. Prov. Ein einziges —es Schaaf frisst die ganze Herde an, one scabby sheep mars or spoils the whole flock.

Räudigkeit, f. the state of having the itch &c., scabbiness, manginess &c. V. Räude.

Räufe, f. [pl. -n] [from raufen, equal to reißen, to pluck or tear out] 1) [in domestic economy] [Riffel] a breaker, a large flax-comb; a pill-comb. 2) the rack [in stables over the manger]. Heu auf die — stecken, to put hay into the rack; ein Pferd an die — anbinden, to tie a horse [up] to the rack.

Räufel, f. V. Raufe.

Räufeln, v. tr. [Riffeln] to pill [flax].

Räufen, v. tr. [allied to raffen, rupfen, to the Lat. rapio] 1) to move by plucking twitching, to pull, to pluck, [low] to lug. Einen bei den Haaren —, to pull, to lug any one by the hair; Einen beim Kämmen —, to pull or twitch out any one's hair while combing, with the comb; it sich —, mit einander —, to lug one another by the hair, to fall together by the ears, to grapple one another; it sich — [rather am.], to fight a duel [with swords], to brawl and draw steel, to come to cold-iron with one another. Prov. Wenn sich die Herren —, müssen die Unterthanen die Haare lassen, when princes fall out, the subjects pay the piper. 2) to pull out, to pluck out, to tear out. Einem die Haare aus dem Kopfe, aus dem Barte —, to tear out, to pluck out any one's hair, beard; er raufte sich vor or aus Verzweiflung die Haare aus dem Kopfe, he tore out his hair in [the extremity of] his despair; Glachs —, to pluck out, to pull up flax [from the earth]; Gras, Aehren —, to pluck up, to weed grass, to gather ears of corn, V. Ab —, Aus —. 3) Rupfen Eine Gans &c. —, to pluck a goose; it [ruffen] den Glachs —, to pill flax, to dress flax with the pill-comb. Das —, V. Rauferei.

Rauf = bold, m. V. Rauser. — degen, m. 1) a large long sword, rapier. 2) V. Rauser 1). — feder, f. [Schwungfeder] wing-feather, quill-feather, beam-feather. — hansdel, m. V. Rauferei. — holz, n. [with tawers] wooden roller, hair-scraper. — kunst, f. [rather obsolete, for Sechsfunkst] fencing. — meser, n. [with hatmakers] double-edged two-handled hair-scraper. — sinn, m. [in phrenology] the organ of destructiveness. — sucht, f. love of fighting, pugnacity, pugnacious propensity; [sometimes] love of mischief. — wolle, f. wool plucked from the living sheep, wool in flakes on thorny bushes, bird's-nest wool, glover's wool. — zange, f. [with blacksmiths] tongs [for bringing red-hot iron, as knobs &c. to the anvil]. — zanglein, n. [for plucking out hairs &c.] tweezers.

Räuser, m. [-s, pl. -] 1) tilter, brawler, bully, hector, bravo, swaggerer, duellist, domineering knock-me-down gentleman, gentleman-cut-throat. Er ist ein gewaltiger —, ein Erz —, he is a tremendous bully, an arch-bully, a hectoring, huffing bully, V. Rupffechter, Schläger. 2) [with hatmakers] V. Rupfer. 3) [in fam. lang.] V. Raufdegen 1).

Rauferei, f. [fam.] [Schlägerei] a row, skirmish, squabble, brawl, fray, wrangle, a set-to by the ears. Da giebt es eine tüchtige, eine gewaltige —, there is a terrible squabble, wrangle going on there; es sollen immer — in diesem Wirthshause vor, there are always rows kicking up, is constantly some dispute or another turning up in this public-house.

Raugraf, m. [-en, pl. -en]. [so named from their rough districts] Raugröfenn, f. [in German hist.] Raugrafe or Raugrave, Raugravine [extinct title].

Rauh, adj. and adv. [same as rauch, Dutch rouw, ruig, Old Sax. reoh, Low. Sax. rug, ruwe, rowe, allied to the Lat. rudis, crud-us, raucus &c.] coarse, rough, rude. Grobe, — Leinwand, coarse, rough linen; — Bürste, a rough brush; eine — Haut haben, to have a rough skin, [fam.] to have a goose-skin; — er Wea, a rough or rugged way, a rough road; — er Pfad, a rough, rugged, [also] arduous, steep path; — es Eisen, rough iron; — er Stein, a rough stone; — er Felsen, a rough, shaggy, craggy rock; der Sandstein fühlt sich — an, the sandstone feels rough or gritty to the touch; [in botany] — e Blätter, rough leaves; [with masons] — es Gemäuer, — es Mauerwerk, V. — gemäuer; — mauern, to rough-work, to rough-wall; eine Mauer — bewerfen, to do a wall over with mortar, to plaster or parget a wall; das — e Gemäuer bei einem hohen Ofen, the foundations of a furnace or kiln; den Marmor aus dem — en bearbeiten, to chip off, to clear off the rough crust of [a] marble; ein Spiegelglas, ein Rasirmesser aus dem — en schleifen, to polish a glass, to rough grind a plate-glass, to grind down, to polish a razor; — er Diamant [with jewellers &c.], a rough diamond; [with carpenters] aus dem — en bearbeiten, to rough-hew; — es Futter [in husbandry], rough fodder, [viz. grass, hay, straw]. Fig. a) [== heiser] Einen — en Hals haben, to have a scraped throat, a sore throat; eine — e Stimme, a harsh or hoarse, a gruff voice; — er Ton der Stimme &c., hoarse tone, rough or harsh sound of the voice &c.; eine — e Aussprache haben, to have a harsh, a grating pronunciation. b) [opposed to mild] — er Wind, — e Luft, Kälte, Bitterung, a bleak, bitter wind, cold, raw, bitter air, a raw or unpleasant cold, bleak, chilly, adverse [state of the] weather; in der — en Jahreszeit, during the cold time of the year, during the inclement season; — es Land, — er Himmelestrich, a raw bleak country, austere, unpropitious, ungenial climate; — er Geschmack, — er Wein, [opposed to mellow] harsh, rough, austere taste, rough harsh wine. c) [opposed to amiable in manners] rude, harsh. — er Mann, von — er Gemüthsart, von — em Betragen, a rude blunt, austere man, of a rude or a rough cast of mind, of austere humour, of a harsh rough temper, of coarse, unpolished, rustic, blunt, harsh manners; er ist ein — er, aber edler or tüchtiger Mann, he is a rough diamond; — e Sitten, rough manners; Einem — e Worte geben, Einem — begegnen to give any one rude uncivil words, to behave rudely to any one, to treat any one rudely; Einen — anfahren, to use any one roughly, harshly, to snub any one crabbedly, to be short, sharp and blunt with any one, [fam.] to be short and sweet with a vengeance to any one, to be gruff and surly as a mastiff-dog with any one; ein Lehrer, der — gegen seine Schüler ist, a master who is harsh, stern, unkind towards his scholars; [fam.] die — e Seite, das — e herauskehren, to use harsh means, to be rigorous, to employ rigour or severity, [low] to come the spitfire over any one [of a woman], to shew fight [of a man]; V. Grob, Reh. d) [opposed to polished and refined] — e Verse, — e Schreibart, rough or rude verses, coarse style of writing; [with engravers] — e Schraffirungen, rough hatchings; das — e in den Kupferstichen, the rough in copper-plates [from a trembling hand].

Rauh = a pfeil, m. V. Rauchpfeil. — arbeits, f. [with brushmakers] all brushes and brooms for sweeping away dust in rooms, dust-brooms, dust-brushes, long-handled, short-handled brooms, chamber-brushes, carpet-brooms. — bank, f. the long rough-plane, V. — hobel. — blätterig, adj. and adv. [in botany] rough-leaved. — buche, f. V. 1) Hagebuche, 2) Rothbuche. — bucket, m. [in nat. hist.] the rough aphrodite, the rough-backed sea-mouse. — distel, f. the fuller's thistle, teasel, dipsacus fullenum. — eisen, n. V. Reisen. — frost, m. V. — reif. — futter, n. grass, hay, straw for fodder. — gemäuer, n. [with masons] rough masonry, rough walling. — hobel, m. [with carpenters &c.] an organ-builder's plane, a long rough-plane. — honig, m. honey in the comb. — reif, m. hoar-frost, rime. — reifen, v. impers. Es — reift, it is a hoar-frost, it is a white-frost, V. — reif. — schleifer, m. the rough-grinder. — wacke, f. V. Zufließen. — weizen, m. bearded corn, bearded wheat. — werken, V. Rauchwerken. — zehente, m. [Garbenzehente] sheaf-tithe, field-tithe, tithe paid in sheaves, not in grain or sacks. — zeit, f. [Mauseszeit] the moulting-time [of birds].

1. Rauhe, Räuhe, f. 1) V. Rauhigkeit. 2) [Mause] the moulting [of birds].

2. Rauhe, n. [-n] [not much used] [in behaviour] rudeness, gruffness, harshness, asperity; [fam.] V. under Rauh, fig. c).

Rauheit, V. Rauhigkeit.

Räuben, v. tr. to roughen. Die Felle — [with curriers], to roughen the skins on the flesh side, to bronze, to tan skins black; [with cloth-manufacturers] das Tuch —, to nap, to raise the nap of, to dress cloth; überall gleich geraubetes Tuch, broad-cloth; das — des Tuches im ersten Wasser, the dressing of woollen in the first water or drench; das — im zweiten Wasser, the dressing of woollen in the second water or drench; das letzte —, the last dressing.

Räuber, m. [-s, pl. -] [Tuch] — napper, carder.

Rauhigkeit, [Rauheit] f. 1) roughness, rudeness, [in botany] scabrosity. Die — der Haut, der groben Leinwand, the roughness of the skin, of coarse linen; die — der Wege, the roughness or ruggedness of the ways. Fig. Die — des Weins, the roughness of the wine; die — der Stimme, the hoarseness, harshness, asperity of the voice; die — der Jahreszeit, der Bitterung, the rawness, the bleakness of the season, the unpropitious state, the unfavourable state, the ungeniality of the weather; die — seiner Sitten, seiner Gemüthsart, seines Betragens, the rudeness, coarseness, gruffness of his manners, of his humour, character or disposition, of his conduct, habits, mode of behaviour. 2) unevenness, inequality. Die — en von der Oberfläche eines Körpers wegschaffen, to remove the inequalities from the surface of any substance by rough-hewing, rough-grinding, polishing, rough-planing, scraping, edging, clipping, chiseling &c.

Rauke, f. [pl. -n] [Lat. eruca, probably allied to rauch] eruca, rocket. Wilde —, Wasser —, kleine, gelbe Wiesen —, eruca sylvestris, wild rocket, yellow meadow-rocket; die morgenländische —, oriental rocket, Armenian or Siberian rocket; die spanische —, great rocket, yellowwort, bladderwort, yellow reseda; Meer —, cakile maritima, sea rocket, V. Meer —.

Raufenrübe, f. bunias, bunium, earth-nut, pig-nut.

Raum, m. [-es, pl. Räume] [Goth., Low. Sax. &c. rum; appears allied to the Lat. rima, a cleft, and the radical signification to be that of separation] 1) space. Der —, den ein Körper einnimmt, ist seine Ausdehnung, the space which a solid occupies is its extent; ein großer, weiter —, a great, large, wide space, a large extent; ein leerer —, an empty space, a void, a vacuum; ein enger —, a narrow compass; der unendliche —, boundless, immense, endless, indefinable, illimitable space; die Räume des Himmels, the boundless fields, the immeasurable space of heaven, of the sky; der unbegrenzte — der Luft, the boundless space, regions, fields of the air. 2) room, place. Es ist nicht — genug da, there is not enough room here; der — ist zu enge, zu klein, the place is too narrow, too small or little; das nimmt zu viel —, einen zu großen — ein, that occupies, takes up too much room, too great a room, too much space, too great a place, too much place, that encumbers; um mehr — zu gewinnen, zu bekommen, for gaining, getting, having more room &c.; — machen, den — frei lassen, to make way, room, to leave the way free; lassen Sie — zu zwei Zeilen, leave space enough, room for two lines; der —, auf welchem ein Gebäude steht, the ground, place, seat of a building, on which a building stands, [of a mill] the ground-site, the mill-seat; der —, wo einst Karthago &c. stand, the site of ancient Carthage &c.; der — eines Gebäudes im Lichten, the area. 3) a certain measured portion of space. Ein ausgemessener —, a measured space; der innere — eines Gefäßes, Schiffes, the capacity of any vessel, ship, the cubic contents of a vessel, the tonnage of a ship; it. der [unterste] — in einem Schiffe [Schiffsraum], the hold of a vessel; Waaren in den — legen [in seamen's lang.], to stow away goods in the hold; — in den Galeeren, wo die Soldaten schlafen, between-decks in the galleys where the soldiers sleep; der — zwischen zwei Verdecken, between-decks, orlop-deck; — zwischen zwei Balken, space between two beams, a bay of joists, trimmer; ein allzuweiter — zwischen den Balken oder Sparren, too wide a space between joists or spars; der — zwischen den Säulen, an intercolumniate space, space between pillars; der — zwischen den Grundpfeilern, the medial, intermediate space, opening between the piles or stakes; es ist nicht genug — zwischen diesen Bäumen, there is not room enough between these trees, they are not planted in suitable [appropriate] distances from one another; — zwischen zwei Zeilen, space between two lines, [with printers] interlineate space, interlineation; [with printers] zu großer — zwischen den Wörtern, pigeon-holes, gap; im gehörigen — e aus einander setzen, to set at proper distances; der Seher hat nicht — genug zwischen den Zeilen gelassen, the compositor has not left space enough between the lines, has not set [the lines] at proper distances. Fig. — [Zeit] zur Buße geben, to give room, time for repentance; einer Bitte — geben [rather stiff], to grant, to accord, to give way to, to give a favourable ear to a prayer, request or petition; der Versuchung — geben [somewhat stiff], to give way, to yield, to cede to temptation; diesen Gedanken, dieser Neigung darf man nicht — geben [somewhat stiff], to these thoughts, to this inclination one must not give way, it is not proper to entertain, it is not right to abandon one's self, to give or yield one's self up, to succumb to these thoughts, to this inclination; it. [with coalmen] die Räume eines Meilers, V. Rauchlöcher. 4) [poetically] [for Zimmer, Gemach, Saal, Halle &c.] hall, abode, dwelling-place. So nehmt mich auf, ihr stillen Räume, receive me then, ye silent places, thou tranquil asylum; du stolzer —, der &c., thou noble hall &c., which &c.; des Tempels, des Gotteshauses Räume, the temple's vast interior. Syn. V. 2. Platz.

Raum-anker, m. [in seamen's language] spare-anchor, best bower-anchor [on the lowest deck for backing the sheet-anchor when in distress]. — eiche, f. [in rural economy] solitary oak [not reckoned as forest-timber]. — gast, m. [in the whale-fishery] the stower [in the hold]. — los, adj. and adv. [little used] spaceless.

1. Räumen, [Old Sax. ryman, Sw. ryma, to be absent, V. Raum] v. tr. 1) [weg-] to clear away, to take away, to remove. Die Bücher vom Tische &c. —, to clear the books from off the table &c.; den Schutt aus dem Wege —, to clear the rubbish out of the way; — Sie das bei Seite, clear that away, put that aside or by; V. Ab-, Auf-, Fig. Die Hindernisse, die Schwierigkeiten aus dem Wege —, to remove obstacles, difficulties out of the way; Einen aus dem Wege —, to put any one out of the way, to dispatch any one [by a violent death]. 2) to clean by removing, to clear. Einen Platz vom Schutte —, to clear a place from the rubbish; eine Brandstelle —, to clear away the ruins &c. after a fire; eine Straße, einen Weg —, to clear a street, a way, to disencumber or free a street, way; einen Brunnen, Graben, Teich —, to clean, to cleanse a well or fountain, a ditch, a pond; einen Hafen —, to cleanse, to free a harbour [by the drag or by sluice]; it. to clear a haven [from the empty ships]. 3) [= verlassen] to quit, to give up possession. Das Haus, ein Zimmer —, to quit, to leave the house, a room, to give up the keys of a house, to dislodge, to remove from the house, &c.; eine Stadt, ein Land — [verlassen], to evacuate, to quit a town, a country; eine Festung, Provinz —, to evacuate, to surrender up, to give up, to abandon a fortress, a province; einen Platz, den man inne hat, —, to dislodge, to go out from a place, to quit or leave a place; man wird ihn schon nöthigen, den Platz zu —, he will be soon compelled to quit, to dislodge; Einem sein Zimmer —, to yield, to give up one's room to any one; das Schlachtfeld, das Feld —, to yield or abandon, to quit the field of battle, to yield the ground; das Lager —, to decamp, to strike the tents, to quit, to abandon the camp. Das —, V. Räumung.

Räum-brief, m. [formerly] a writ or notice to a land-occupant to quit; it. [in Ireland, modern in popular language] a letter from Captain Rock. — buße, f. punishment or fine for neglect of such notice to quit. — eisen, n. [with founders] an iron-pecker. — feile, f. V. Räumer [with locksmiths]. — nadel, f. V. Raumnadel.

Raum-bohrer, m. squarer, rymmer, borer. — feile, f. V. Räumer [with locksmiths]. — nadel, f. [in artillery] priming-iron or wire [for cleaning the touch holes of cannon]; [with jewellers] a hinge-pick or needle; [with miners] hole-pick, picker or cleaner [of the boring-dust].

2. Räumen, v. intr. 1) [in seamen's lang.] Der Wind räumt, the wind veers aft, blows right a-stern, a-poop, blows favourably; it. [with vine-dressers] to dig about the roots of, to bare or ablaqueate the roots of the vine. Das —, V. Räumung.

Räumer, m. [-s, pl. -] [Aus-] 1) scavenger, cleanser, cleaner, [of privies] night-man. 2) a scoop; it. V. Raumböhrer, Räum-eisen, Raumnadel; [with locksmiths] a crooked file. 3) [in seamen's lang.] a poop-wind, a favourable or propitious wind, a wind that veers aft.

Räumig, adj. and adv. V. Geräumig.

Räumlich, adj. and adv. 1) V. Geräumig. 2) [obsolescent] occupying, filling space.

Räumlichkeit, f. V. Geräumigkeit; [with painters] die — beobachten, to observe the laws, the rules of perspective.

Räumshoots, adv. [in seamen's lang.] with a quartering wind.

Räume, f. [equal to Raum] [in seamen's language] the offing, the open sea, sea-room.

Die — suchen, to stand out to sea, to bear out or to make for the offing; die — gewinnen, to sheer off; it. to give chase; it. to fly from a pursuing enemy.

Räumundkraut, n. [-es] Chrysosplenium, golden saxifrage.

Räumung, f. the cleaning, cleansing, scouring, freeing [of a well or fountain, of a haven &c.]; it. the opening of the keys or of the docks; it. the quitting, leaving [a dwelling]; the evacuation [of a fortress]; the decampment, striking [of a pitched tent]; it. the root-baring, ablaqueation [of a vine].

Räumungsgeld, n. scavenger's fee, night-man's fee.

1. Räumen, [allied to rennen] v. intr. [in sportsmen's lang.] to double [as the hare does]. Die Hasen —, um den sie verfolgenden Hunden zu entkommen, machen die Hunde durch vieles — müde, hares double in order to escape the pursuing dogs, weary the dogs by dint of doubling.

2. Räumen, v. tr. [obsolete] [in Dutch ruy-nen; appears allied to trennen] to geld [a horse].

3. Räumen, v. tr. [allied to greinen, grunzen] to whisper. Einem Etwas in's Ohr —, to whisper something into any one's ear; er hat ihm einige Worte in's Ohr geraunt, he has whispered some words into his ear.

Räuner, m. [-s, pl. -] [not much used] [Ohren-] a whisperer.

Räupe, f. [pl. -n] [allied to the Lat. repa, to the Low. Sax. frupen] 1) a creeper, a creeping thing. Fig. [in popular or low language] Eine kleine —, a little child; die kleine —! the little maggot, the little crawling kitten! 2) [usually] the caterpillar. Haarige —, hairy caterpillar, [also] the marten-caterpillar, bear-caterpillar; einsame —n, solitary caterpillars; gesellige —n, gregarious caterpillars; die —n ablesen, die Bäume von —n reinigen, to gather caterpillars, to clear the trees of caterpillars. Fig. [in pop. lang.] —n [Grillen] im Kopfe haben, to have maggots in one's head; —n machen, to crack jokes. 3) V. Rappfisch.

Räupeisen, &c. V. Rauveneisen.

Raupenei, n. caterpillar's egg. — eisen, n. an iron scraper [for ridding trees &c. of caterpillar-nests]. — fliege, f. [in nat. hist.] the larva-fly. — fraß, m. the havock, the blight caused by caterpillars. — gras, n. [in botany] 1) bastard cat's-tail or bastard timothy-grass, rough or sharp mace-flax-grass, wild canary-grass, wild phalaris, bird-grass. 2) [Eiergras] cat's-tail grass. — haut, — hülse, f. caterpillar's-skin. — jäger, m. [in nat. hist.] the inquisitor-scarab, the caterpillar-beetle. — kle, m., — kraut, n. Indian shot, caterpillar-clover, scorpion-wort, scorpioides, scorpiurus. — nest, n. 1) a nest of caterpillars; [with gardeners] a web, a hatch, a batch of caterpillars. 2) a caterpillar's nest or web. — sauer, adj. and adv. — saueres Salz, bombiat. — säure, f. bombiac acid. — schere, f. V. —eisen. — schmeißer, m. [low] a butterfly. — stein, m. [in mineralogy] caterpillar-stone. — tödter, m. [in nat. hist.] 1) the ichneumon-fly; it. the sand-wasp, the sphex. 2) the caterpillar-eater, the larvicide. 3) [Purpurdohle] the purple Jamaica-jay or chough, the red-crow or daw of New-Spain.

Räupen, v. tr. and intr. to rid of or free from caterpillars, to pick caterpillars from off trees &c., to destroy caterpillars. Er hat schon geraupet, seine Bäume geraupet, he has already had a caterpillar-picking, scraping &c., he has rid, cleaned his trees of caterpillars.

1. Räufsch, m. [-es, pl. -Räufche] [allied to Raus, Grüß] [with miners] crushed or pounded and fine sifted ore.

2. Räufsch, m. [-es, no pl.] [allied to Raus, räs] [Preiselbeere] red bilberry; it. V. Preisdelbeere.

Rauschbeere, f. [in botany] the marsh-empetrum, the berry-bearing heath of the marshes, it. the fruit of it. Die weiße — beere, the white-berried empetrum of Portugal; die schwarze — beere, the black empetrum. — grün, n. 1) [Blasengrün] sap-earth. 2) [Moosbeerstaude] the creeping marsh whortle-berry. — wurzel, f. [Knoblauchtraut] sauce-alone, Dame's violet, Jack by the hedge, Hesperis, alliaria.

3. Räufsch, m. [-es, pl. -Räufche] [an onomatopoeia, V. 5. Rausch] a rush, a rushing; [hence] a) the crackling of vine-leaves [when burnt, shrivelled or parched]. b) the rustling of leaves. c) [provincial] the rushing fall of water, a waterfall. a) a rushing flickering fire of short duration [particularly in an oven or stove]. e) [rather provincial or in popular language] a short quick attack or onset, a rush. Im ersten — e, in the first attack, heat, rush, onset, onslaught.

4. Räufsch, m. [-es, no pl.] blasting, mildew, blight.

5. Räufsch, m. [-es, pl. -Räufche] [allied to brausen, rasen, to the old Sax. hreoſan, to move one's self violently; Swed. rusa, Dan. brusen, in Welsh rhys, a rushing, rhysiaw, to rush, also brysiaw, to press, to oppress] 1) intoxication, drunkenness. Er hat einen —, he is drunk, intoxicated, tipsy, [low] fuddled; ein Räufschchen, || Räufschlein haben [fam.], to be happy, to be half seas over, to be mellow, to be half way gone, to be in one's cups, to see double; einen — trinken, sich einen — trinken, to get tipsy, to take a drop too much; Einem einen — anhängen [in pop. lang.], to make any one drunk, [fam.] to have a design upon any one's health; seinen — ausschlafen, to sleep off one's debauch, to sleep one's self sober again; Einem, sich den — vertreiben, to sober any one, [low] to unfuddle any one, to grow sober again, to make one's self sober; Etwas im — e thun, to do any thing in a state of intoxication, while drunk; [in pop. lang.] er führt einen abeln, einen lustigen —, he is quarrelsome, happy or loving over or in his cups. Fig. Im — e der Freude &c., in the intoxication, delirium or transport of joy &c.; der — der Liebe, der Leidenschaften, the intoxication of love, of the passions. 2) V. — korn.

Rauschbaum, m. [in botany] 1) the intoxicating tree of Jamaica [for stupifying fish]. 2) [= Chinabaum] quinquina, cinchona, the bark, the Peruvian bark, Jesuit's bark, gauranaperide; [also] Cascarilla. — gelb, n. [in chemistry] realgar. Rotbes — gelb, red sulphuret of arsenic; gelbes — gelb, auripigment, orpiment, yellow sulphuret of arsenic. — gelbkies, m. common arsenical pyrites, silvery-white pyrites. — haube, f. [in falconry] hood. Dem Falken die — haube aufsetzen, to hoodwink the hawk; ein Falke, der die — haube gern trägt, a hawk that takes the hood gently. — korn, n. [in botany] aira, hair-grass, darnel, tare or tares, cow-wheat. — mittel, n. stupifying, intoxicating, narcotic remedy, intoxicating liquor.

Räufchen, [Gr. ρόθος, the rushin of waters,

V. 5. Rausch] v. intr. 1) [u. w. haben] [stärker or schwächer brausen] to roar, to rush &c. [of water, of the wind]. Sanft —, to murmur &c. [as the waves], to whisper, to sigh, to rustle, to murmur [as the wind, the leaves of the trees, the grass-blades &c.], to murmur, to ripple [as a brook]; die Wogen des Meeres, die Wellen rauschten, the waves of the sea, the billows roared; die — den Wellen, the roaring, the loud-resounding waves; das Meer fängt an zu —, the sea begins to roar; der Wind rauschet in den Blättern, the wind murmurs, rustles in the leaves, [seldom] flutters in the foliage; der Sturm rauschte im Walde, the storm, the blast howled, roared, thundered, bellowed, [at first] groaned, murmured in the forest; die dürren Blätter —, the parched leaves rustle, the dry leaves crackle; dieser Bach rauschet sanft, this rivulet murmurs, ripples; seidene Zeuge —, wenn sie bewegt werden, silk-stuffs rustle when moved; — der Beifall, — des Händeklatschen, boisterous, vociferous applause, loud clapping of hands, tumultuous acclamation; — de Musik, [too] loud, noisy music; die — den Weisen or Töne der Feldmusik, the high swelling sounds or tunes of the regimental band or bands; die Orgel rauscht, the organ sends forth its swelling sounds. Fig. Ein — des Vergnügens, — der Zerstreuungen, a noisy pleasure or amusement, noisy dissipations. 2) [u. w. seyn] a) to rush, to move with a rushing noise. Er ist an mir vorbei gerauscht, he rushed past me; [rather unusual] sie rauschte an ihm vorüber, she passed him quickly whilst her silken garments rustled audibly. Das — des Meeres &c., the rushing, the roaring of the sea &c.; das — der Winde, the roaring, the howling of the wind, of the blast; das — der Blätter, the rustling of the leaves; das sanfte — eines Baches, the murmuring, the rippling murmur of the brook; das — eines Seidenzeuges, the rustling of a silk-stuff. b) [of fluids] V. Gähren. c) [with refiners] [to draw the coarse wire only once through] to flatten. d) [in sportsmen's lang.] to be in rut, to froth or foam for the wild boar, to copulate, [in Dorsetshire] to roush [as swine do].

Rauschflöte, f. V. — pfeife. — gold, n. gold-tinsel, gold-foil. — leinwand, f. thick gummed cloth [which crackles when rubbed]. — pfeife, f. [in organs] the loud alto. — silber, n. silver-foil or tinsel. — werk, n. V. — pfeife.

Räuspfern, [Low. Sax. ruspfern; appears allied to rappeln, raspeln, to make a noise] v. intr. and v. refl. sich —, to hem and hawk, to hawk, to clear the voice by hemming. Ehe er anfang zu lesen &c., räusperte er, räusperte er sich erst einige Mal, before he commenced reading &c., he first of all hemmed, hawked a few times. Das —, the hawking and hemming, expectoration; [in medicine] excretion.

Raute, f. [pl. -n] 1) [allied to Ruthe as equivalent to a plant or vegetable] a) rue. Ge-meine or stark riechende —, garden rue. b) Wilde —, wild or mountain-rue. c) [Erdranch] fumaria, fumitory, fumiter of the shops. d) [kleines Johannisfräut] the little hypericum, creeping St. John's wort. e) white senecio, white groundsel; V. Aber —, Acker —, Beer —, Garten —, Größ —, Hof —, Mauer —. 2) [allied to Ruthe, a rod; in Lat. rud-is] [with architects, carpenters &c.] torus, tore; [in heraldry] [— n-franz] lozenge. 3) [allied to Ruthe in its amplest signification comprehending extent or amplification] [— n-vierung, — n-viereck] a) [with weavers] square, [also] lozenge or losenge, pane; it. [in geometry] a rhomb. Längliche —, a rhomboid; it. [in jewellery] die — n an geschnittenen Steinen, the facets on cut stones; Diamant mit — n, a diamond with facets; — n an einen Edelstein schleifen, to grind a precious stone down into facets; it. [in heraldry] er führt in seinem Wappen drei — n, he bears three lozenges on his arms; getheilte — n, cut lozenges; er führt ein aus blauen und goldenen — n bestehendes Feld, he bears lozenges gold and azure; durchsichtige or durchbrochene —, a mascle; rund durchbrochene —, a rustre; it. [at cards] a diamond; er hat — n umgeschlagen, er spielt in — n, he has turned up, he plays diamonds. b) [with locksmiths] Die — or Raute, the bow [of a key]; die — auf dem Horn strecken, to round the key-bow upon the bickern; die — an einem Schlüssel richten, to fit the bow on to the key.

Rautenacht, f. the eight of diamonds. — aß, n. the ace of diamonds. — balsam, m. rue-balsam, rue-balm. — bube, m. knave of diamonds. — dame, f. queen of diamonds. — baus, n. V. — aß. — drei, f. the three of diamonds. — essig, m. rue-vinegar. — fläche, f. V. Raute 3). — förmig, adj. and adv. lozenge-shaped, lozenged; [in anatomy and nat. hist.] rhomboidal. Der — förmige Schuttermuskel, the rhomboidal muscle, the rhomboid; das — förmige Band, the rhomboid ligament; [in nat. hist.] der — förmige Seebörs, the rhomboidal sea perch; der — förmige Klippfisch, the rhomboidal haberdine or lub-fish; die — förmige Meerbrössel, the rhomboidal peacock fish or turdus marinus; [in conchology] — förmige Arche, V. — förschen; — förmig geschnittener Diamant, a faceted diamond, a diamond ground down into facets. — fünf, f. the five of diamonds. — glas, n. 1) [in physics] [das Polyhedron] a polyhedron-glass, a convex multiplying lens. 2) a diamond-square or pane of glass, a quarrel. — könig, m. the king of diamonds. — korbchen, n. [in conchology] the rhombic ark of Noah. — kranz, m. a crown of rue-plants or leaves; [in heraldry] a lozenge chaplet or wreath [part of a crown or coronet placed like a fillet across the shield]. — kreuz, n. [in heraldry] a lozenged cross. — kreuz mit durchbrochenen — n, a cross with mascles. — muskel, m. rhomboidal muscle. — neun, f. the nine of diamonds. — öl, n. oil of rue. — richter, m. [with locksmiths] the bow-fitter [a tool for keys]. — schild, m. [in heraldry] a scutcheon in lozenge [for females]. — sechs, f. the six of diamonds. — sieben, f. the seven of diamonds. — stein, m. [with lapidaries] a stone with facets. — stich, m. [with seamstresses &c.] the lozenge-stitch. — strauß, m. rue [a plant]. — vier, f. the four of diamonds. — viereck, n. — viierung, f. V. Raute 3). — wasser, n. rue-water. — wein, m. rue-wine. — weise, adv. in lozenges, lozenge-fashion. [in heraldry] Ein mit — weise abwechselnden Farben getheiltes Schild, a [party-coloured] lozenged shield, a shield in lozenges. — zehn, f. the ten of diamonds. — zwei, f. the two of diamonds.

Ravelin, n. [-es, pl. -s or -e] [with some pron. as in the French, with others pron. Rawlinn] [Worchanze] a ravelin.

Ravenna, n. [-'s] [in geography] Ravenna.

Raygras, n. [-es] [Engl. rye = Roggen] [in botany] Frantzösisches —, French rye-grass; Englisches —, English rye-grass.

Räze, Räzer, &c. V. Räge &c.

Räzel, n. [-s, pl. -] [Gr. ὀφθαλμοί] a person whose eyebrows meet together.

Räzen, I. v. intr. [in sportsmen's language] [of hares] to cry. II. v. tr. 1) Einen Hasen — [locken], to entice or snare a hare by imitating its cry. 2) [low, provincial for reizen] to try to make any one angry, to provoke, to irritate any one. Einen Hund —, to try to make a dog angry [in jest or play, or as mischievous boys do].

Real, m. [-es, pl. -en] [a Spanish coin] a real. Ein — in Silber hat anderthalb — en in Kupfer or anderthalb Kupfer — en, a real in silver is worth one real and a half in copper; — en in Gold, reals in gold.

Real, adj. and adv. [chiefly in philosophy] real, substantial, material. Etwas — es, something real; die — e Welt [in contradistinction to the ideal world or ideal world] the real or substantial world. Das — e, the reality.

Realdefinition, f. [in logic] technical definition. — injurie, f. [in jurisprudence] real injury; outrage. — kenntnisse, pl. real, essential acquirements, [also] polytechnical acquirements or knowledge. — lehrer, m. master or teacher at a practical school. — schule, f. a practical school [opposed to a gymnasium or grammar-school]. — werth, m. real or actual value.

Reale, f. [formerly in France] the chief galley, the commander's galley.

Realgar, n. [-s] [Kaufschelb] realgar.

Realien, pl. 1) realities, real things [no illusions]. 2) [in contradistinction to classical learning] scientific attainments, real science.

Realismus, m. [-s] realism.

Realist, m. [-en, pl. -en] [in philosophy] a realist [antithetical to Nominalist, a nominalist].

Realität, f. [pl. -en] 1) [Wirklichkeit] reality. 2) [Grund- or unbewegliches Eigentum] real or fixed property. Er verkaufte seine sämtlichen — en in der Stadt N. und wanderte nach Amerika aus, he disposed of all his real property at the town of N. and emigrated to America.

Reassuránt, m. [-en, pl. -en] [in commerce &c.] re-assurer.

Reassuranz, f. [pl. -en] [in commerce] re-assurance.

Reassuriren, v. tr. [in commerce] to re-assure.

Rebe, f. [pl. -n] [allied to the Lat. repa, to creep, to Rebs, frabbeln, to move or stir by a crawling, creeping movement] 1) the vine, vine-stock, [also] vine-branch. Grüne —, a green vine-branch, a branch in leaf; wilde —, wild vine, wild grapes, labrusca, black bryony; an einem Geländer gezogene — n, a trellised vine; die — n anbinden, to tie up the vines to their props. [classically] to marry the vines; die — n schneiden, pfählen, to prune, to prop or underlay the vines; — n pflanzen, to plant vines; die — n blühen, the vines are in blossom, in bloom. 2) [in botany] Die indische — [virginische Seide], the greek periploca, indian apocynum or dog's bane.

Rebberg, m. — gabel, f. — garten, m. V. Rebenberg &c. — hahn, m. [far better Reb hahn from repen, to creep, as repa in the Lat.] the male partridge, the cock-bird, [in falconry] cock-partridge. — holz, n. — hügel, m. V. Rebenholz &c. — huhn, n. 1) [V. under — hahn] partridge. Das gemeine or graue — huhn, the common partridge; das rothe — huhn, the red partridge, red-legged partridge, the perdrix graeca, the partridge of Savoy; das weiße — huhn, the white partridge, the white wood-hen, the lagopus of the Alps, the ptarmigan, [in sportsmen's lang.] white game; junges — huhn, — hühnchen, a partridge-pullet, a young partridge, [in sportsmen's lang.] a young bird; eine Ritze — hühner, ein Volk — hühner, a covey of partridges; ein Paar — hühner, die sich gepaart haben, a brace, a pair of partridges. 2) [in conchology] [a species of the buccinum] a) the partridge-shell. b) Das kleine — huhn, the scarlet-pocked porcelain-shell. c) the streaky nerita. — hühnschnepfe, f. the partridge snipe, the woodcock. — Kresse, f. V. Rapunzel. — Land, n. 1) land propitious or genial to vines. 2) land planted with vines, a vineyard. — mann, m. [Winzer] the vine-dresser. — messer, n. — pfahl, m. V. Rebenmesser, Rebenpfahl &c. — recht, adj. — rechter Wein, genuine, unadulterated, pure wine, wine not drugged. — Schoss, m. — sprosse, f. — stück, n. V. Rebenschoß &c. — wurm, m. V. Rebensfäher.

Rebenähnlich, adj. [in anatomy] hederiform, hederaceous, pampiniformed. — artig, adj. [in botany] — artige Pflanzen, sarmentaceous plants. — asche, f. vine-ashes. — auge, n. vine-bud, vine-eye. — berg, m. vineyard; vine-covered [in poetry, vine-clad] hill. — blatt, n. a vine-leaf. — blut, n. V. — säft; [in poetry] the blood of the vine. — bolde, f. [in botany] oenanthe apiifolia, parsley-leaved drop-word. — gabel, f. || — gäbelein Rebgäbelein, n. vine-tendril. — garten, m. vine-yard. — geländer, n. a vine-trellis. — gott, m. the God of wine, Bacchus. — höhe, f. [chiefly in a higher style] a vine clad eminence or hill. — holz, n. vine-wood. Ein Bündel — holz, a bundle of vine-tendrils or branches. — hügel, m. a hill planted with vines, a vine-covered hill or eminence. — laub, n. vine-foliage, vine-leaves. — messer, n. vine-pruning knife. — milbe, f. [in nat. hist.] the vine-mite. — pfahl, m. vine prop. — recht, adj. V. Reb recht. — säft, m. the sap of the vine Fig. [Traubensaft] juice of the vine. — Schoss, m. — sprosse, f. vine shoot, vine-sprout. — senker, m. a new vine-sprig, layer of a vine, provine. — spitze, f. a vine-top or tendril [when pruned or cut off]. — stab, m. [in mythology] the thyrsus. — stecher, — sticker, m. [in nat. hist.] a vine-fretter, vine-grub, vine-weevil, devil's gold ring. — stock, m. vine-stock. — stück, n. a plot of ground planted with vines. — thräne, f. — wasser, n. the tears, weeping of the vine, [provincial] the vine-sweating or ooze [from the pores of the pruned ends of the branches in spring]. — treibend, adj. sarmentous. — vater, m. [with poets] the father of the vine [Noah]. — wasser, n. V. — thräne. — welle, f. a fagot, a bundle of vine-tendrils. — zinke, f. V. — gabel.

Rebecca, f. [-s or Rebekens] [name of women] Rebecca.

Rebell, m. [-en, pl. -en] a rebel; a mutineer.

Rebellion, f. rebellion; mutiny.

Rebelliren, v. intr. to rebel; to mutiny.

Rebellisch, adj. and adv. rebellious; mutinous.

Rebhühner, pl. V. under Rebhuhn.

Rebhühner = aloe, — brustaloe, f. [in botany] the partridge-leaved aloe. — beize, f. [in falconry] partridge-hawking. Die — beize mit dem Sperber or Habichte anstellen, to sport for, to hunt the partridge with the sparrow-hawk or hawk, to go out a partridgehawking, to fly the hawk at partridges. — falke, m. the merlin. Der indianische — falke, the indian falcon. — fänger, m. a tunneller of partridges. — garn, n. a partridge-tunnel or net. — granaten, pl. several grenades fired like grape at the same time with a bomb. — jagd, f. partridge-shooting, [also] V. — beize. — traut, n. [in botany] parietary, the pellitory of the wall, helxine. — mörser, m. [in artillery] a mortar for throwing a sort of bomb-grenades. — zeit, f. season for young partridges.

Recapitulation, f. [stiff or in chancery style] recapitulation.

Recapituliren, v. tr. [stiff or in chancery style] to recapitulate.

Recensent, m. [-en, pl. -en] critic, [modern] a reviewer.

Recension, f. criticism, review.

Recensiren, v. tr. Ein Buch —, to criticise a book, to review a work.

Recepisse, n. [pl. -] [Empfangschein] a receipt.

Recept, n. [-es, pl. -e] [in medicine] receipt, [by a physician] prescription. Ein vorzügliches, erprobtes —, an excellent, approved receipt, formula; haben Sie das — zu diesem Mittel? have you the receipt of or for this remedy? traget das — zum Apotheker, carry this receipt, this prescription to the apothecary's; ein — schreiben, to write a prescription, a receipt.

Reception, f. reception.

Receptur, f. act of receiving or taking, receipt; it. art of writing prescriptions.

Recess, m. [-ses, pl. -sse] 1) [in courts of law] [Abschied] the recess [opposed to term-time]. 2) [Vergleich] treaty, compact, compromise, arbitration. 3) [in chancery] V. Rechnungsanstand. 4) [in commerce &c.] [Rückstand, it. Schuld] balance, arrears, the remainder of an account, it. a debt. Einen — machen, im — seyn, to leave a balance on one's account, to be behind-hand or in arrears in one's settlements; [with miners] dieses Werk steht im — se, this mine is in debt, in arrears, has a lien on it.

Recessbuch, n. [with miners] book or ledger where the debts of a mine are kept. — schreiber, m. clerk who books down the debts or arrears of a mine, the mine-comptroller. — schuld, f. the accountable debt of a mine. Die — schuld abbauen or abwerfen, to pay off, to work off the debt of a mine by its produce.

Recessiren, v. tr. and intr. to make an agreement, a compact, a treaty, a compromise.

Rechange, [pron. as in the French] V. Ricambio.

Rechen, m. [-s, pl. -] [allied to ragen, reden] 1) a certain toothed or cogged instrument; [in domestic economy] pack, pegs, hooks [in a passage &c. for hanging hats &c. on]; [with watchmakers] the curb, [also] regulator, pendulum-spring; [in hydraulics] a rake, a structure or frame of cross-barred wood, a cogged or pronged frame [in ponds &c.]; V. Gloß, Mühl —; it. grate, grating, fish-grate or grating or lock. 2) [usually] a rake. Kleiner —, a little rake; ein hölzerner —, a wooden rake, a hay-rake, V. Heu —; ein eiserner —, an iron rake, a rake with iron-prongs; ein — voll, a rake-full; ein Zug mit dem —, a pull, a drag, a haul of the rake; einen Baumgang mit dem — säubern, ebnen, to rake an alley, Rechen=bohler, m. a gimlet. — stiel, m. a rake-handle. — zahn, m. the tooth, the prong of a rake.

1. Rechen, v. tr. and intr. to rake. Die Gartenbeete —, to rake the beds in a garden; man hat das Heu zusammen gerechet, the hay has been raked together; das Unkraut von einem Beete —, to rake, to extirpate or remove by raking the weeds [in a garden] from the bed; er rechet eben, he is just occupied with, engaged in raking [the gravel-walk &c.].

Rech=beere, f. [in botany] 1) spurge-laurel, German olive-spurge. Die weibliche — beere, n. ezereon, it. the spurge-laurel berry. 2) the alpine wild currant-bush. — lohlen, pl. [with coalmen] small knobs of coal that pass through the teeth of the rake.

2. Rechen, v. tr. and intr. [formerly for rechnen, whence the following compounds].

Rechen=amt, n. V. — kammer — bank, f. 1) [in schools] the cyphering form or class. 2) V. — bret; [in the chancery] V. — kammer. — bret, n. a reckoning or counting-board, an abacus. — buch, n. 1) a book of arithmetic, a tutor's assistant, [fam.] an arithmetic-book. 2) V. Rechnungsbuch. — fehler, m. an arithmetical error, miscalculation, misreckoning, miscomputation, miscounting, mistake in a sum or account. — haut, f. [old] tablets, memorandum-book, table-book, pocket-book, oil skin, parchment or asses-skin for noting down on. — herr, m. V. Rechner, Rechnungs-führer; it. Rechnungsunterfucher. — kammer, f. 1) chamber or court of accounts, a comptroller's chamber or court. 2) office of the court of accounts, a comptroller's office. — kammerrat, m. member of the court of accounts. — kerbe, f. [with watchmakers] the curb-groove. — knecht, m. [a book] [in pop. lang.] a ready-reckoner, tables, [at schools] a shirk, a key. Nach dem — knechte, according to the ready-reckoner, [fam.] to Cocker. — kunst, f. arithmetic, calculation, the science of numbers. — kunst mit Zahlen, numerical arithmetic, [fam.] cyphering; die allgemeine — kunst or die — kunst mit Buchstaben, universal arithmetic, algebra, analysis of numbers, specious arithmetic; die — kunst mit den Fingern, arithmetic with the fingers, dactylonomy; nach den Regeln der — kunst, arithmetically. — künstig, adj. and adv. [new word] arithmetical. — künstler, m. an arithmetician, [fam.] a dabster at figures. — kunststück, n. secret of arithmetic, ingenious calculation. — meister, m. an arithmetical master, cypherer, arithmetician, calculator. — pfennig, m. a counter. — pfennigschläger, m. a maker, a fabricator of counters. — schule, f. a school of arithmetic, a cyphering-school. — schüler, m. a scholar, a pupil in arithmetic. — stab, m. — stäbchen, n. a calculating-rod or staff [on which certain numbers are written for assisting the memory]. Die Rechnung mit — stäben, rhabdology. — stift, m. pencil, slate-pencil. — stube, f. V. — kammer 2). — stunden, f. lesson of arithmetic, [fam.] cyphering-lesson. — tafel, f. [in a school &c.] 1) a black board, a slate for calculating on 2) V. — bret. 3) table of problems or arithmetical questions. 4) V. Einmaleins. — tisch, m. table, office, board of accounts, an accountant's-table. 2) V. — bret. — unterricht, m. instruction, tuition in arithmetic. — ziffer, f. a cypher, figure, number.

Rechenel, f. or Rechenamt, n. [-es, pl. -ämter] chamber of accounts. V. Rechenkammer.

Rechenschaft, f. [no pl.] [from rechnen, old for rechnen] an account, reckoning, explanation, elucidation. Von seinem Verfahren &c. — geben, abgeben, to give an account, an explanation of one's conduct &c.; Einen zur — fordern or ziehen, — von Einem fordern, to demand a reckoning, an explanation from any one, to require a satisfactory elucidation from any one; man hat ihn wegen der Verwaltung seines Amtes zur — gezogen, he has been called to a reckoning, he has been summoned, brought to an investigation, made to give an account concerning the administration of his office; schuldig, von Etwas — zu geben, bound to give an account of any thing, responsible, answerable, accountable, amenable for any thing, V. Verantwortlich.

Recherche, f. [pron. as in the French] [pl. -en] investigation, research.

Rechling, m. [es, pl. -e] V. Börs.

Rechnen, [allied to the provincial reiten Lat. reor, ratus, to reihen, reiden, and so originally = to set together] v. tr. and intr. to reckon, to calculate, to compute, to cast up, to cypher, to count. Er kann nicht —, er lernt —, he cannot reckon or calculate, he is learning to calculate, to cypher, he is learning cyphering, accounts, arithmetic, [how] summing; er rechnet gut, fertig, he calculates well, he is a good, rapid accountant, he is quick at figures, [how] he is a good hand at summing; mit Rechenpfennigen —, to calculate, to reckon with counters; Sie haben nicht richtig gerechnet, you have not reckoned right, have not cast up correctly, you have made a false calculation or a miscalculation, V. Ver —, sich; Etwas an den Fingern her —, to reckon, to cast up any thing on or by one's fingers; im Kopfe —, to calculate, to reckon by the head, to do a sum of calculation mentally; von einem gewissen Tage an —, to set out, to start, to reckon, to date from a certain day; lassen Sie uns von dem ersten dieses Monats [vom ersten Juni &c.] an —, let us date, let us begin to reckon or count from the first of this month, let us start, begin with our reckoning from the first instant, of [June &c.] current; vom ersten dieses Monats an gerechnet, dating, reckoning, counting, computing from the first of this [month] instant: die Christen — die Jahre von der Geburt Christi an, Christians date, commence their era from the birth of Jesus Christ, mit Einem —, to reckon with any one. II. v. tr. 1) to comprehend under the number of, to put down for, to account, to reckon, to deem, to compute, to set down for or amongst. Einen unter seine Freunde, zu seinen Freunden, unter die Gelehrten &c. —, to reckon any one amongst one's friends, as one of one's friends, amongst the learned &c.; ich darf mich nicht darunter —, zu ihnen —, I do not dare to set myself down as one of them, as one of their number, I cannot venture to enlist, to enroll, to rank myself amongst them, to consider myself as of their number; ohne die Auslagen zu —, without reckoning in the outlay, the expences or costs, setting the expences out of the account or question, [fam.] expences apart, abstracting the expences; dabei rechne ich nicht, was &c., I do not reckon what &c., I place no dependance, I lay no stress upon what &c.; er hat so und so viel Einkommen, den Ertrag seiner Stelle mit [ein=] gerechnet, nicht mit [ein=] gerechnet, he has such and such an income, the revenue or profits, the salary of his place included, not included, embraced, comprehended, reckoned in; ich will das nicht —, I will not count, reckon, consider that, I shall not put that down to the account; ohne meine Mühe zu —, without computing, reckoning, counting my pains, without speaking of, alluding to the trouble I have had; Eines in das Andere gerechnet, reckoning one with another, upon an or the average, taking an average; ein Jahr in's andere gerechnet, taking the average of years, taking the years upon an average, reckoning one year with another, on the average of years; man muß ihn für tausend Mann —, he must be reckoned as equivalent to a thousand men, he ranks perforce equal to a thousand. 2) [schätzen] to value, to estimate, to make a valuation of, to tax, to prize, to count, to reckon. Man rechnet seinen Verlust so und so hoch, his loss is reckoned at so and so much. Fig. a) [to look upon, to consider] Sich Etwas zur Ehre —, für eine Ehre —, to regard any thing as an honour, to reckon any thing for an honour; das rechne ich für nichts, I count, reckon, value that as nothing, I look upon, I consider that as literally worthless, as nothing; gegen die Tugend ist die Gelehrsamkeit für nichts zu —, in comparison with, opposed to virtue science reckons, counts for nothing. b) to depend. Auf Etwas —, to depend upon, to reckon on, to count or repose upon, to rely upon, to make sure of something. Er rechnete darauf, daß ich ihn unterstützen würde, he made sure of my assisting him, he depended, he relied on my support, succour; darauf hatte er nicht gerechnet, he had not calculated upon that, he did not expect that, [fam.] he was out there in his reckoning; ich rechne auf Sie, auf Ihr Versprechen, Ihre Zusage, Ihr [gegebnes] Wort, I reckon, depend upon you, I rely upon your promise, your word, your pledged faith. Das — &c., the cyphering, calculating, reckoning &c. Er war mein Rechner im — und Schreiben, he was my writing and cyphering-master. V. Rechnung.

Rechner, m. [-es, pl. -en] 1) a reckoner, calculator, arithmetician, computer, accountant, cypherer. Er ist ein guter —, he is a good accountant; dieser Sternkundige ist ein vorzüglicher —, this astronomer is an excellent arithmetician, a profound or admirable calculator. 2) [Rechnungsbeamter] accountant in a public office.

Rechnung, f. 1) [the science, art and manner of computing] calculation, computation, reckoning, account, estimate, estimation, [also = Berechnung] supputation, computation. V. Buchstaben —, Decimal —, Differential — [under Differential], Finger —, Integral —, Sexagesimal —, Zahlen —, Zeit —, Rechen-kunst. 2) [every calculation, frequently in reference to income and expences] Eine genaue —, an exact reckoning, a critically correct or strict calculation; sich in einer — stoßen, to fail, to blunder, to stumble, to make a fault, an error in a reckoning or calculation; nach meiner —, after my reckoning, according to my calculation or computation; wenn kein Verstoß in der — ist, if there is no error in the reckoning or calculation; eine — mit Rechenpfennigen machen, to reckon, to make a reckoning with counters; Etwas, einen Posten, eine Summe in — bringen, to bring something, an article, a sum into the reckoning, into account, to put something &c. down to account; eine klare, verwirrte —, a clear, intricate reckoning, a plain, entangled or involved account, [fam.] even, square, plain account, odd, rum, bothering, queer account; er hat das in seiner — angeseht, he has put that down, charged that to his account, in the reckoning, it. in his bill; setzen Sie dieses auf meine —, put this down to my account, place this down to me; zahlen Sie ihm für or auf meine — die Summe von Sc., pay him on my account the sum of Sc., please to pay him [to Mr. so and so] the sum of Sc., and place the same to my account; er verlangt seine —, seine —en, he desires his bill [to be sent in, handed to him], he wishes to have his account made out; it. he demands his reckoning, his account, his money, wants his bill to be paid; eine — aufsetzen, to make out an account; — führen, halten, thun, to keep account, an account; treue und richtige — führen, to keep true and faithful account, a true and faithful account, an exact account; — ablegen, stellen, to render count, an account; eine — einsehen, untersuchen, prüfen, to see into, to examine, to inspect, to scrutinize, to investigate an account; eine — abhören, abnehmen, ablegen lassen, to audit, to receive an account, to have one's account sent in; eine — ausziehen, einen Auszug aus einer — machen, to extract an account, to make an extract of or from an account; Auszug einer — nach den Hauptsummen, a note, detailed memorandum, check of an account, an abstract of one's account; summarische —, a summary account; streichen Sie das in Ihrer — aus or durch, scratch that off your account, out of your account, pass or run your pen through that item or those items of your account; Anmerkungen zu den Posten einer — machen, to post, to post or margin notes to the items of an account; eine — beurlunden, für gültig or richtig erklären, to verify, to validate a person's accounts; die — en in Ordnung bringen, to bring into order, to regulate one's accounts; eine — schließen, abschließen, ausgleichen or saldiren, to close, to settle, to balance an account; offene — mit Einem haben, in offener — mit Einem stehen, to have an account current, to have an open or to keep a running account with any one; eine — berichtigen, bezahlen, einem Gewerbsmann, einem Handwerker seine — bezahlen, to pay, to settle, to liquidate an account, to pay or discharge a tradesman's, a workman's account; Amt, wobei eine — abgelegt werden muß, an accountable, amenable, responsible office, an office for which a reckoning, of which an account must be given; Beamter, welcher — abzulegen verpflichtet ist, a civil officer, a public functionary, who is obliged to render an account, who is responsible, amenable, accountable; um eine runde — zu machen Sc., to make an even account, [fam.] to square an account; Herr Wirth, machen, bringen Sie uns unsere —! make out our bill, landlord, if you please! landlord, bring us our account, our bill! auf — laufen, to buy on account, at or on credit, [fam.] on tick. Prov. Die — ohne den Wirth machen, to reckon without one's host, to count one's chickens before they are hatched, it. to outrun the constable; richtige — macht gute Freunde, erhält die Freundschaft, even reckoning makes good friends, short accounts make long friends, short reckonings, long friends; — hat Wandel [rather obsolete], every sum must be proved, mistakes will happen in the best regulated families. Fig. Sich [sichere] — auf Etwas machen, to reckon upon something [with certainty], to depend upon something, to rely upon any thing, to make sure of any thing, [fam.] to feel cocksure of any thing, to build upon something; Einem einen Strich durch die — machen, to derange any one's projects, to countermine, to cross any one's designs, to put any one out in a thing or plan, to mar one's calculations for one, to spoil the plot, to upset a fine scheme for any one; das ist ein großer, eingewaltiger Strich durch seine —, that is a powerful clog to his wheel, that deranges his measures, upsets him mightily, disconcerts him excessively, [fam.] that is a regular damper to him; ich nehme das auf meine —, I take that upon myself, upon my own account, at my own cost, risk and hazard, [fam.] my own shoulders are broad enough to bear that; er fand seine — nicht dabei, he did not find his account in it, it was not or it did not turn out as he expected, he was disappointed, [fam.] he was very far out, beyond his reckoning there, I fancy.

Rechnungs-abhör, — abhörung, — abnahme, f. audit, auditing, revision of an account. — abhörer, — abnehmer, m. — abnehmerin, f. auditor of an account, of accounts. — ableger, m. — ablegerin, f. the giver of an account. — abschluß, m. the making up or the closing, the balancing, settling or adjusting, the final settlement of an account. — amt, n. 1) an accountable or amenable charge, a responsible or answerable office. 2) V. Rechnungsfammer [chanc]. — anstand, m. [in chancery] difference about an item or contest about an article of an account or bill. — anstände vorbringen, to furnish the debatable items or articles; über die — anstände entscheiden, to judge, to pass, give or deliver judgment on the various disputed items of an account submitted to the court. — art, f. method of calculating, form of arithmetic. Die vier — arten [4 Species], the four first rules. — artikel, m. article, item, part of an account or bill. — aufgabe, f. an arithmetical problem, a sum in arithmetic. — beamte, m. a public functionary, a responsible civil officer, an officer to whom the management or supervision of accounts is intrusted. — beispiegel, n. an arithmetical example. — beilege, f. — beleg, m. a voucher of one's profits and expences, of one's accounts. — betrag, m. the sum of an account, of a calculation, the sum total, the amount. — buch, n. day-book, ledger, book of current expences. — fehler, m. an error or mistake of calculation, misreckoning, miscalculation. — führer, m. [in commerce] a book keeper, [in finance] an officer or accountant-clerk amenable to a controlling revision. — geld, n. V. — münze. — geschäft, n. V. — wesen. — kammer, f. V. Rechnungsfammer. — kunst, f. 1) art, science of drawing up, examining, auditing accounts. 2) V. Rechnungsfkunst. — münze, f. [eingeschildete Münze] fictitious money, imaginary coin or money. — papier, n. paper-money, paper bearing a fictitious value. — pflichtig, adj. and adv. accountable, responsible. Die Schatzmeister, die Kassierer sind — pflichtig, treasurers, cashiers are responsible, accountable; der — pflichtige, the responsible civil officer entrusted with money or in receipt of deposits. — pflichtigkeit, f. accountability, responsibility. — prüfer, m. V. — untersucher. — rath, m. member of the chamber, court or board of accounts, V. — untersucher. — sachen, pl. affairs relative to accounts. — tafeln, pl. ready reckoners, ready-made tables of accounts, tables shewing interest &c., calculating tables. [in England, in seamen's language] Gunter's scale, Gunter; [in England, in commerce and fam. language] Cocker. — untersucher, m. revisor, comptroller of accounts, auditor. — verständige, m. V. Rechner 1). — wesen, n. account-affairs of matters. — wissenschaft, f. arithmetic; it. V. — kunst 1).

Recht, [in old Goth. raihst means straight, not crooked, in Engl. right, and in Swed. rak, so that such verbs as regen, recken, recken, Lat. rego, Gr. ὀρέγω, to stretch forth, to extend, to reach or stretch, bear a strong affinity; V. Gerade adj. and adv. 1) [originally = gerade] straight. Ein — er Winkel, a straight corner, a right angle, a rectangle. Fig. a) [passend, angemessen] just, proper, suitable, convenient, true, real, right, veritable. Dieses Kleid ist —, hat die — e Weite und Länge, this dress is right, fits, it has the just, exact width and length; das — e Maas, Verhältniß, the just measure, the true proportion; das ist der — e Platz für dieses Gemälde, that is the right place for this picture; die — e Zeit, the right, just, true, proper time or season; zu — er Zeit kommen, eben — kommen, to come at the right time, just in time, [fam.] in the very nick of time; it. to be true to one's appointment; diese Kugel ist —, this ball is true, is of the just size; das — e Mittel, sein Glück zu machen, the true means or mode, the real way to make one's fortune; das ist der — e Mann, that is the right man, that is the man; er ist an den — en Mann gerathen, he is come to, has hit upon the right man; it. he has found his match; das kommt mir eben —, that is just the thing I want or wanted, [fam.] that is a godsend, why, that is the very thing for me; [proverb.] that comes like mackerel in lent; habe ich es — gemacht? have I done it right? er hat es nicht — angefangen, he has not begun it right, [fam.] he did not set right to work about it; die Sache nicht am — en Flecke angreifen, not to go to work about a thing in the proper manner, [familiar] not to set to work natively about it; da kommt Ihr mir — [ironically]! that won't suit me! it. that's just what I expected! er hat das Maul am or auf dem — en Flecke [low], he has a sharp tongue of his own; it. he knows when and how to speak, though gruffly or bluntly enough to be sure; man kann es nicht Jedem — machen, one cannot do right for every body, there is no pleasing every body; er hat ganz — daran gethan, there he has acted, done quite right, he has behaved perfectly right in that business; Du bist auch der — e [ironically]! Oh yes! you are just the man. Syn. V. Dr. dentlich. b) [opposed to wrong &c.] Sie gehen nicht —, nicht den — en Weg, you are not going right, the right way; Sie sind nicht — daran, you make a mistake, you err, you are wrong, you have not guessed right, [fam.] guess again; das ist nicht der — e Ausdruck, das — e [richtige] Wort, that is not the right expression, the proper phrase or term, the true or correct word; die — e Bedeutung eines Wortes, the true, proper, real, right, genuine signification, sense or meaning of a word; er spricht dieses Wort nicht — aus, he does not pronounce this word right, speak this word properly; das ist nicht — geurtheilt, that is not judged right; Sie haben — gerathen, you have guessed right; wenn ich — sehe &c., if I see right &c.; eine Sache im — en Lichte sehen, aus dem — en Gesichtspuncte ansehen, to see a thing in its or the true light, in its right point of view, in its true point of sight, in its proper bearings; Sie wissen die Sache nicht —, Sie wissen nicht —, wie sich die Sache verhält, you don't know the thing right, you are not acquainted with the true facts or the real features or merits of the case, you do not know how the affair stands, you are ignorant, not aware of the relative properties, of the bearings in this business; wenn oder wo mir — ist [in familiar or popular language], if I am not greatly mistaken, if I am not very much out; bin ich hier im — en Hause bei Herrn N., zu Herrn N.? am I here in the right house, at Mr. N's? Pray, does Mr. N. live here? c) [antithetical to adulterated, impure] genuine, pure. — es Gold, pure gold, unalloyed gold; der — e Glaube, the true faith, the real or pure belief; die — e Seite eines Stoffes, the right side, the face of a stuff; sein — er Vater, seine — e Mutter, his real, own father, his real, true, own mother [not step-father, father in law &c.]; seine — e Schwester &c., his own sister, his sister-german &c.; seine — en Kinder, his own children [not step-children &c.]. d) [in popular language] well [in health]. Es ist mir nicht —, it is not quite right with me, I am not quite right, I do not feel myself very well. e) [in familiar language] right, agreeable. Ihm, mir ist Alles —, I am, he is quite agreeable, he is, I am perfectly willing, he consents, I consent to every thing; das ist mir nicht —, I do not like that, that does not please me, that won't do at all for me, [fam.] oh! that does not hitch at all, that is no go [for me]; es ist mir nicht —, daß &c., I am vexed, sorry that &c. f) just, right, equitable, reasonable, legitimate, lawful. — thun, to act right, to do well, to do one's duty; Du hast nicht — gethan, thou hast not done right, you have done wrong; er hat — gehandelt, he has acted justly, lawfully, he has acted as an honest man [ought to act]; es ist nicht —, daß &c., it is not right, just, equitable, reasonable, that &c.; thun, was billig und — ist [in fam. lang.], to do what is reasonable and right, lawful and right, to act with justice and equity; das ist ganz — und billig, ich halte das für —, that is quite right, just and reasonable, I consider that right, proper; — es Maas und Gewicht führen, geben, to make, give right, true, just, full measure and weight; es ist ihm — geschehen [in familiar or popular lang.], it served him right, that was what he richly deserved, he has rightly, fully merited it. Prov. Thue — und scheue Niemand, do what is right, and fear no one, tell the truth and shame the devil. g) [in fam. lang.] great, excessive, good &c. Er hatte eine — e [große] Freude darüber, that caused him a most lively joy, that gave him great pleasure; eine — e Mahlzeit thun, to make a good, hearty repast or meal; ich thue das — gern, I do it very willingly, most readily; sich — lustig machen, to make one's self very merry; ein — frommer Mann, a truly pious man; er ist ein — er Feldherr, he is a true, a great general; es hat mir — wohl geschmeckt, I found that very good, it tasted, it relished uncommonly well; it. I ate with an excellent appetite; ich bin — hungrig, — erfroren, I am very hungry, extremely cold, thoroughly chilled; Einen — lieben, to love any one truly, sincerely, right well; was er will, das will er —, what he fancies, he will have; [familiar] by Jove, it is no child's play with him in his wishes &c.; ich habe Sie — lange nicht gesehen, I have not seen you this long while, for an age, it is a very long time since I last saw you; da wäre ich ein — er Narr, wenn ich das thäte, I should be a regular fool, if I did that; er ist nicht — bei Verstande, he is not right in his intellects or wits, in his head, he is not perfectly in his right senses; es ist — or gerade als ob er es mit Fleiß thäte, it is really, it looks exactly as if he did it on purpose; ich wünsche es — sehr, I wish [for] it very much, excessively, amazingly; er hat etwas — es gelernt, he has learnt deeply, he has paid intense application to his studies, he is a good scholar; [of tradesmen &c.] he thoroughly knows his trade, understands his business; [of workmen] he knows his craft; wir haben was — es gelacht, we [have] laughed with all our might, we roared with laughter, [low] we laughed till we were ready to split our sides; es ist nichts — es da, there is nothing remarkable there, very extraordinary, wonderful in that; it. [in pop. language] there are no respectable people there, you will only meet with rabble there [for instance, at places of public amusement &c.]; Einen für etwas — es ansehen [in popular lang.], to take any one for a person of consequence, for somebody of importance; er will etwas — es seyn, er hält sich für etwas — es [in popular lang.], he wishes to be somebody, he considers himself a man of consequence, of importance, [fam.] he does not think small-beer of himself, he thinks himself a great personage, he gives himself out as a man of family. h) [= gesetzlich] legitimate, lawful. Die — e Frau, der — e Erbe, — e Kinder, the lawful wife, legal heir, legitimate children. 2) [probably here recht is its root] right [antithetical to left]. Der — e Arm, the right arm, [in heraldry] dexterchere; der — e Fuß, die — e Hand, the right foot, the right hand; die — e Seite, the right side, [in heraldry] dexter canton or side; der — e Flügel eines Heeres, the right wing of an army; — er Flügel, marsch! [in military affairs] right wing, march! die — e Seite eines Schiffes, the starboard; — er Hand, zur — en Hand, to the right, on the right, on the right hand; [in heraldry] [to, on] dexter; er ging ihm — er Hand, zur — en, he walked at his right side; sich — er Hand, zur — en or — s wenden, to turn to the right; Einem die — e Hand lassen, freitig machen, to give, to yield any one the right or upper hand, to dispute with any one the right hand, the pass; [in heraldry] ein Pfahl, zu dessen — er Seite ein Löwe steht, pale with lion dexter; [in Scripture] Deine — e Hand soll nicht wissen, was die Linke thut, thy right hand shall not know what thy left hand doeth; die — e, zur — en Gottes, the right hand, at [on] the right hand of God. Fig. Er ist die — e Hand des Fürsten, he is the Prince's right hand.

Recht = eck, n. a right-angle, rectangle, a parallelogram. Ein längliches — eck, an oblong parallelogram; gleichseitiges — eck, a square. — eckig, adj. and adv. rectangular, right-angled. — fallen, n. [with miners] the regular descent or inclination [of a vein or feeder beginning not perpendicularly but obliquely]. — gläubig, adj. and adv. orthodox; [with catholics] catholic. Die — gläubigen, the orthodox or true believers; — gläubige Lehre, orthodox or catholic doctrine; die — gläubige Kirche, the true church, the catholic church. — gläubigkeit, f. orthodoxy, [with catholics] catholicity. Die — gläubigkeit dieses Sages ist erwiesen, the orthodoxy, the catholicity of this opinion is proved, demonstrated. — läufig, adj. and adv. [in astronomy] direct. — läufiger Wandelstern, a planet that in its orbit follows the order of the heavenly signs; — läufige Bewegung, a direct motion or movement; eine — läufige Uhr, a watch that keeps good time, goes right; a chrono-meter. — lehrig, adj. and adv. orthodox. — lehriger Schriftsteller, — lehrige Schrift, an orthodox writer, writing. — linig, V. Geradlinig. — schreibung, f. orthography. Die alte, die neue — schreibung, the ancient or old, the modern or new orthography or manner of spelling; die — schreibung lehren, to teach orthography; ein Neuerer in der — schreibung, a neographist, a writer who employs a novel orthography; die Neuerung in der — schreibung, novelty in orthography, new mode of spelling, neographism; Fehler gegen die — schreibung machen, to commit errors, slips or blunders in orthography, to make faults in one's spelling, to write incorrectly; die Regeln der — schreibung beobachten, to observe the laws, the rules of orthography, to write correctly. — seitig, adj. and adv. [in mathematics] Eine — seitige or geradlinige Figur, a rectilinear figure. — sprechung, f. [in grammar] orthophony, orthoepy. — winkel, m. a right angle, a rectangle. — winkelig, adj. and adv. rectangular. — winkeliges Dreieck, a right-angled triangle, a rectangular triangle; — winkeliges Parallelogramm, a rectangular parallelogram; — winkelige Figur, a right-angled or rectangular figure; Steine, Balken — winkelig behauen, to square stones, beams; das — winkelige Behauen der Steine, the squaring of stones &c.; einen Balken &c. — winkelig stellen, aufrichten, to square, to place or fix square a beam &c.

1. Recht, n. [indecl., no pl. or article] right. Er hat —, nicht —, he is right, wrong; Sie haben —, daß Sie es nicht leiden, you are right not to suffer it; Einem — geben, to agree with any one, to be precisely of a person's way of thinking; in einem Streite — haben, — behalten, to have right, reason, truth on one's side, to get the better of an antagonist [adversary] in an argument [dispute, strife]; dem Hunde — geben [in sportsmen's lang.], to pat, to caress a dog approvingly or encouragingly.

2. Recht, n. [-es, pl. -e] 1) the law, right [complex of laws of one kind] Das menschliche, göttliche —, human, divine right or law; das natürliche —, the natural law or right; das bürgerliche —, civil law; das geschriebene, positive —, written law, absolute or positive right, [in England] statute law; das kanonische —, the canonical law; das römische —, roman law; das herkömmliche —, the right of custom, prescribed usage, [in England] common law; V. Gewohnheits—, Kriegs—, Land—, Natur—, See—, Staats—, Völker— &c.; [with students in pl.] die — e studiren, sich der — e befleißigen, sich den — en widmen, to study the law, to apply one's self, to devote one's self to legal studies, to [the study of] jurisprudence; Doktor der — e, Doctor of laws, an L. L. D.; öffentlicher Lehrer der — e, a professor, one filling the chair of jurisprudence or of [civil, criminal &c.] law, V. — selehrsamkeit. 2) legality, law, right, due. Das ist gegen alles —, that is against all law, that is palpably, grossly illegal, unjust; mit Zug und —, with legal authority, with perfect legality. [fam., in a more general sense] with good reason, with every right; Jedem sein — widerfahren lassen, angedeihen lassen, to do, to render justice to every one, to give every one his right, his due; ein Jeder hat das —, sich zu vertheidigen, every one has the right, is entitled to defend himself; sein — behaupten, auf seinem — e bestehen, sich sein — nicht nehmen lassen, to maintain one's right [sometimes, privileges], to stand up for one's right [privileges], one's own, one's due, not to allow one's self to be deprived, defrauded of one's right, one's due; sich selbst — verschaffen, to do one's self justice, right, [fam.] to take the law into one's own hands; die Partheien bei ihrem — erhalten, to preserve the rights of the parties; man kann bei diesem Richter nicht zu seinem — gelangen, one cannot obtain or come to one's right from this judge; nach dem —, by the law, after the laws, juridically; von —swegen, mit allem —e, with full right, by every law, in all justice; von —swegen [mostly written R. R. W.] [annexed to a final sentence or decree from the tribunal or court of law in civil law-suits and criminal procedures], by order of the court, according to law; das — auf seiner Seite haben, to have the law, justice, reason, common sense on one's side; —sprechen, to render justice; der Weg —ens, justice, the path of justice, of right; den Weg —ens betreten, to institute a legal action, to go before a court of law or tribunal; durch Urtheil und —, by judgment, by judicial decision, by sentence or decree of the bench; Einem das — versagen, to deny any one justice; das — verzögern, to retard or delay, to put off justice; das — beugen, to pervert justice; Einem zu —e stehen, to be amenable to, to be under the jurisdiction of any one; das ist —ens, that is founded in right; sprechen was —ens ist, to pronounce or speak in law, to pronounce a decree, sentence, to pronounce judgment, to speak in judgment, to pass a decision; das — anrufen [rather unusual], to go before a court of law or tribunal; it. to pray for judgment. 3) [especially certain rights founded in law] Die natürlichen —e des Menschen, the natural laws, rights of man; Streitiges —, a litigious right; ein dingliches —, a real right; ein persönliches —, a personal right; das — über Eines Leben und Tod haben, to have the right, power of life and death over any one; seine —e übertragen, to hand or make over one's rights, powers; sich sein — vergeben, to neglect one's right, to allow one's right, powers to sink into abeyance; sein — verfolgen, to follow up, to pursue one's right; seine —e ausüben, geltend machen, Gebrauch von seinem —e machen, to exercise, to make valid, to make use of one's right [sometimes, privileges]; Etwas von seinem —e nachlassen, to relax somewhat, to abate something of one's right [privilege], power, due; Einem in sein — greifen, to violate, usurp, trespass on, unjustly assume the right, privilege of another; ein — an or auf Etwas haben, to have a right to, on, over something; Alle, die ein — daran or darauf haben, all having any claim, right over or to that; ich habe ein — daran or darauf, I have a right over or to it; mit welchem —e fordern Sie dieses? with what right, claim, title, pretensions do you demand, require this? V. Unter —, Bürger —, Eigenthum —, Eingeburts —, Erstgeburt —, Heim —, Weid — &c. Prov. Gewalt geht vor —, might rules o'er right; possession is nine parts of the law; überflüssiges — schadet nicht, a superabundance of right does no harm, nobody ever complains of having too much justice; wo nichts ist, da hat der Kaiser sein — verloren, where nothing is in sight, the crown loses its right. 4, [obsolescent] [= Strafe] punishment [of the law], sentence. Einem sein — anthun, to pass sentence upon any one, to put any one's sentence or punishment in execution; Gnade für — ergehen lassen, to employ, to use clemency rather than severity, to prefer mild, gracious means, grace, to using the rigour of the law. 5) [obsolete] [in finance] taxes, dues, rates. Die —e bezahlen, to pay one's taxes.

Recht = fertig, adj. and adv. [old] 1) V. Gesetz, Rechtschaffen. 2) V. Rechtmäßig. — habende, m. Der oder die — habende [in law], the person having right; it. one in the possession of a privilege or privileges. — haber, m. — haberin, f. [fam.] a caviller, wrangler, quarrelsome person, a pert disputant. — haberei, f. wrangling, cavilling, pert argumentativeness. — haberisch, adj. and adv. positive, cavilling, wrangling, dogmatical, liking to find fault, magisterial. Ein — haberischer Mensch, a noisy, quarrelsome, wrangling fellow, [fam.] a man always laying down the law. — lehen, n. [in feudal matters] a fee proper. — liebend, adj. and adv. loving justice or what is lawful and right, friendly to civil law and right, loyal. — los, adj. and adv. [unrechtmäßig, widerrechtlich] illegitimate, illegal, abnormal, informal, [in law] out of law, out of the pale of the law, deprived of all the benefits of law, outlawed, [in certain cases] without benefit of clergy. Für — los erklärt werden, to be proclaimed an outlaw; ein — loser Mensch, a man out of the pale of the law, proclaimed outlawed, an outlaw. — losigkeit, f. 1) illegitimacy, illegality, abnormal state. 2) outlawry.

Rechts = amt, n. office of judicature, judicial trust or function. — anhängig, V. — hängig. — anspruch, m. [legitimate] pretension, legitimate, lawful or just demand, demand or claim founded in right. — ausführung, f. juridical deduction; it. deduction of one's rights or privileges, of one's reasons. — ausschließung, f. juridical exclusion. — ausspruch, m. V. — spruch. — beflissene, m. [obsolescent or stiff] law-student. — behelf, m. legal or juridical means or expedient; V. — wohlthat. — behörde, f. a tribunal of justice. — beistand, m. attorney, solicitor, advocate, counsel; legal assistant. — berather, m. legal adviser; a consulting advocate, counsel or barrister. — beständig, adj. and adv. — gültig valid, lawful, done in due form, good in law, authentic, judicial, of competent authority. — beweis, m. deduction [in law]. — dreher, m. — dreherei, f. V. — verdreher &c. — erfahren, adj. learned in the law, versed or skilled in jurisprudence, in civil right. — erweis, m. V. — beweis. — fähig, adj. competent; it. qualified. — fähigkeit, f. qualification. Ertheilung der — fähigkeit, habilitation, cessation of minority [in the eyes of the law]. — fall, m. case at or in law, a legal case. — fällig, adj. and adv. — fällig werden, to lose one's case, suit, action. — forderung, f. legitimate pretension, lawful demand, legal claim. — form, f. form at or of law, legal manner or form. Diese Urkunde ist nicht in der gehörigen — form abgefaßt, this act or deed is not drawn up in form of law, has a flaw. — förmig, adj. and adv. according to form of law, in legal terms, according to the act, in the letter of the act. — förmiges Urtheil, a judicial sentence. — frage, f. question of law, legal question. — gang, m. form of process; it. course of justice, procedure in law. — gelehrsamkeit, — gelehrtheit, — gelehrtheit, f. jurisprudence, science or knowledge of law. Die römische, deutsche — gelehrsamkeit, Roman, German jurisprudence; ein der — gelehrsamkeit Beflissener, a student in law or jurisprudence; Professor der — gelehrsamkeit, professor of law. — gelehrt, adj. versed in jurisprudence, learned in the law. — gelehrte, m. a juriconsult, jurist, civilian, lawyer. Er ist kein großer — gelehrter, he is not a great lawyer. — gesuch, n. a praying for judgment or judicial decision. — gültig, adj. and adv. lawful, valid, done in due form, allowable, good in law. — gültiger Vertrag, valid contract; diese Verhandlung ist nicht — gültig, this act is not good in law; eine gute und — gültige Bürgschaft, a good and approved bail; — gültig contrahiren, to contract lawfully or validly. — gültigkeit, f. validity. — handel, m. process, suit, law-suit, action, cause, case. Wichtiger — handel, important case; bürgerlicher, peinlicher — handel, civil, criminal action, it. procedure, trial; einen — handel haben, mit Einem haben, to have an action, to be at law with any one; einen — handel anfangen, mit Einem anfangen, to commence or bring an action, to go to law with any one; einen — handel aburtheilen, to judge a case, to try an action; einen — handel, seinen — handel gewinnen, verlieren, to win, to lose an action, one's cause, to gain, to lose the verdict; einen — handel [als Sachwalter &c.] führen, to plead a case or cause; berühmte — händel, memorable cases, memorable trials. — hängig, adj. and adv. pending. — hängige Klage, during suit or prosecution; der Handel ist bei dem und dem Gerichte — hängig, the affair, the case is pending in such and such a court. — hülfe, f. help, assistance of justice. — kniffe, m. chicanery. — kniffe gebrauchen, to use chicanery, to chicanery or cavil, to use pettifoggish quibbles, tricks, fetches at law. — kosten, pl. V. Gerichtskosten. — kraft, f. the force, might of law. Einem Aussprüche — kraft ertheilen, to validate, confirm a sentence; zur — kraft gebeißen, to acquire, to have the force of law. — kräftig, adj. and adv. 1) having the force of law. — kräftig gewordenen Urtheil, judgment confirmed, passed into law. 2) V. — gültig. — künde, f. V. — gelehrsamkeit. — kundige, m. V. — gelehrte. — lehre, f. V. — gelehrsamkeit. — lehrer, m. a legist, a professor of [civil &c.] law. — lehrig, adj. and adv. [new word] [little used] juridical, concerning right, law. — lehrige Schriften, writings on law, law-writings, law-treatises. — mann, m. lawyer, V. — gelehrte. — mittel, n. legal remedy, a remedy by law. — nachtheil, m. [in courts of justice] prejudice. Sich gegen — nachtheile verwahren, to protest on the ground of prejudice, [in England] to move for a rule nisi on the ground of prejudice. — pflege, f. administration of justice. — regel, f. rule of right. — sache, f. cause, suit, V. — handel. — sache, m. a thesis in law, upon right. — schluß, m. decision of right, judgment. — schuldigkeit, f. obligation of right. — sprache, f. the language of jurisconsults, of lawyers. — spruch, m. decree, sentence, judgment, opinion from the bench. Sich einem — spruche unterwerfen, to throw one's self upon the mercy of the court, to acquiesce in the judgment of the court, to submit to the sentence pronounced or decree issued. — stand, m. 1) state of right, that state or condition in which the power of the law fully reigns or prevails, where right and justice rule over all. 2) [= Gerichtstand] the competent judge, instance, resort, jurisdiction, cognizance. — ständig, adj. and adv. 1) justiciable, under jurisdiction, amenable. 2) competent. — statt, f. [obsolete] V. — stand 2).

—Recht, m. 1) [—handel] litigation, dispute at law, [fam.] strife or quarrel that is actionable, matter for the gentlemen of the long robe; it. action at law, law-suit, trial. 2) dispute or controversy on a legal point, argument on a point of law. †—Recht, m. V. Gericht, Gerichtshof. —tag, m. [Gerichtstag] day of pleading, of audience; the day of trial, trial-day, [fam.] the day when the trial comes on or will be called on. Einen —tag über einen Angeklagten halten, to try an accused. —urkunde, f. authentic title. —verdreher, —verleher, m. a tortuous pettifogger or caviller, a man using or guilty of chicanery. —verdreherei, f. chicanery, tortuous quibbling or cavilling, taking advantage of the loop-holes of the law. —verdreherung, f. chicanery. —verfahren, n. the procedure. —verhandlung, f. legal or judicial proceedings or procedure; judiciary or judicial act; trial. —verständige, m. V. —gelehrte. —verwährend, adj. —verwährende Klausel, clause protesting against prejudice. —vormund, m. V. —beistand. —widrig, adj. V. Widerrechtlich. —wissenshaft, f. V. —gelehrsamkeit. —wohlthat, f. the benefit of right. Die —wohlthat der Abtretung seines Vermögens an seine Gläubiger, the benefit of making over one's property to one's creditors, the benefit of the [insolvent] act, of the bankruptcy law; die —wohlthat der Mündigspredung vor der Zeit, the benefit or privilege of being of age; die —wohlthat, nach dem Inventarium erben zu dürfen, the privilege to take possession of or to refuse an inheritance only after an inventory having been made. —wort, n. legal word, term in law or jurisprudence. —zwang, m. V. Gerichtszwang.

Rechte, f. [die — Hand] the right hand; it. [die — Seite] the right side, the right.

Rechten, v. intr. [streiten] to dispute. Mit Einem — über Etwas, wegen Etwas —, to dispute with any one about something, on account of something; sie — immer mit einander, they are always disputing, quarrelling, arguing with one another; um eine Erbschaft —, to dispute about a succession or inheritance [before the court, justice]; sie — mit einander, they are at law. Das —, dispute, disputing; it. process, action at law.

Rechter, m. [-s, / l. -], — inn, f. disputer, wrangler, jangler, stickler, bickerer, debater, disputant, [at law] mooter.

Rechtfertigen, v. tr. 1) to justify, to disculpate, to exonerate from blame, to excuse in the eyes of the law. Eine That —, to justify an act or action, to vindicate a deed; er hat sich wegen des ihm angeschuldigten Verbrechens gerechtfertigt, he has vindicated, cleared himself of the crime alleged against him or imputed to him; sein Betragen ist nicht zu —, his conduct is not to be justified, excused, exculpated; —der Umstand, —de Beweischriften, justifying circumstance or act, vouchers; der Erfolg hat ihn gerechtfertigt, the event has justified him; [in theology] die — de Gnade, der — de Glaube, the justifying grace, belief 2) [= richten, hinrichten] [obsolete] to punish corporally, to execute, to hang, to behead or decapitate. Das —, V. Rechtfertigung.

Rechtfertigung, f. justification, disculpation, exculpation, exoneration, excusing, vindication; avowry. Zur — zugelassen werden, to be received or admitted in justification; [in theology] die — der Menschen durch die Gnade Gottes, the justification, the justifying of men through [by] the grace of God. Syn. Rechtfertigung, Entschuldigung, Schuzrede, Verteidigung, Verantwortung, Schuzschrift. When we try to prove that we have not done something bad of which we are accused, or that what we have done is not bad, we undertake our Rechtfertigung. When however we grant that we have done it, and that it is wrong, we can only adduce reasons to diminish our culpability, and these serve as our Entschuldigung. A Schuzrede can do both. Maternal tenderness entschuldigt a mother's indulgence for the rudeness of her children, but does not rechtfertigen it. When a Schuzrede contains merely an Entschuldigung it is still distinguished from the latter by its presupposing an accusation, which Entschuldigung does not. A Verteidigung can also take place with arms where one is forcibly attacked. If the Verteidigung is only verbal it bears no less against reproaches than accusations. A Schuzschrift is a written Schuzrede. Verantwortung differs from Verteidigung as relating only to an accusation of unjust actions, and secondly, that we can verantworten only our own actions, but we can verteidigen those of another. Verantwortung is distinguished from Schuzrede in this, that by the latter we also verteidigen another against an accusation, but by a Verantwortung only ourselves.

Rechtfertigungsgrund, m. justifying reason. —Schrift, f. justifying memorial, document serving to prove [as an avowry], a voucher [in a law-suit].

Rechtlich, adj. and adv. 1) after the law or laws, legitimate, juridical, legal, lawful, judicial. —e Forderung, legitimate pretension, legal demand, lawful claim, title founded in right; —es Verfahren, judicial, legal proceeding; —verfahren, to proceed legally; durch —e Mittel, by legal means, by a legitimate mode or channel, [also] by the ways or means of right, of justice; —e Entscheidung, judicial decision; —verurtheilt werden, to be lawfully, legally condemned. 2) [billig, rechtschaffen] honourable, honest, reasonable, loyal. —er Mann, honourable, loyal man; —es Verfahren, upright, candid ingenuous, loyal, honourable procedure; —handeln, sich — betragen, to act, to conduct one's self or behave loyally, in good faith.

Rechtlichkeit, f. legality, loyalty; it. honesty. Die — seines Charakters, seiner Gesinnung, seiner Handlungsweise, the loyalty of his character, the honesty of his mind, the straightforwardness of his conduct.

Rechtmäßig, adj. and adv. legitimate, lawful, legal. —e Ehe, lawful marriage; —e Kinder, legitimate children; —er Besitzer, Erbe, lawful possessor, legal heir, heir at law; —e Forderung, lawful or legitimate pretension, legal demand; er hat einen —en Grund, dieses zu verlangen, he has legal grounds for demanding this; das gebührt ihm —, —er Weise, that belongs to him legitimately, lawfully; —e Mittel, legitimate, lawful means; —e Entschuldigung, legitimate, valid excuse; —es Verfahren, legal procedure; —e Wahl, legal, lawful election, [with catholics] canonical election; der —e Richter, the competent judge; die —e Befugnis eines Richters, the competence of a judge; Kinder für — erklären lassen, to have children declared legitimate.

Rechtmäßigkeit, f. legitimacy, legality, lawfulness, validity. Die — ein r Klage &c., the validity, legality of a complaint &c.; die — seiner Geburt, the legitimacy of his birth; die — einer Entschuldigung, the validity of an excuse; die — eines Richters, the competence of a judge.

Rechts, adv. on the right, to the right, right. Sich — wenden, setzen, to turn, seat one's self to, at or on the right; — und links wenden, drehen, to turn, to shift to the right and left; — und links um sich schlagen [in pop. language], to strike [out] right and left, to deal out blows on every side; [in familiar lang.] — seyn, to be right-handed; sie ist —, she is right-handed; [in the army] — um! right about! — schwenkt! wheel about, turn about! to the right about face! — lehrt! right face! zieht Euch —! right quarter face! — richt[et] Euch, to the right, in line! Frontveränderung —! front change to the right!

Rechtschaffen, 1) adj. and adv. honest, honourable, upright, ingenuous, loyal. Ein —er Mann, an honourable, upright man; a man of good faith, of honour, of integrity; —e Handlung, upright action; —es Herz, upright, ingenuous heart, [fam.] a heart in the right place; — handeln, to act candidly, uprightly, sincerely, loyally; sich gegen Jedermann — betragen, to behave honourably towards every one; —er Diener, honest, faithful servant; —er Soldat, loyal or perfect soldier, [also] perfect or thorough soldier; Etwas —es lernen, to study hard, to make a great proficiency in one's studies, to be a good, sound scholar. 2) adv. [in popular lang.] [= sehr] — fromm, fleißig, very pious, diligent or studious; — arbeiten, to labour assiduously, with great application; Einen — prügeln, to give any one a sound dressing, [fam.] to horsewhip, to cane any one out of his skin, [low] to give any one just about a good hiding; — trinken, to drink hard, [fam.] to drink till all is blue, to drink like a fish, [with drunkards] to drink like a man.

Rechtschaffenheit, f. honesty, probity. Die — seines Betragens, Gemüthes, seiner Grundsätze, the honesty of his conduct, the sincerity of his character or nature, the candour, rectitude of his principles; die — eines Richters, the integrity of a judge.

Recidiv*, n. [-s] [Rückfall] [in medicine] relapse; it. [Rückfall into the same faults] relapse, repetition of abjured errors; it. [as an adverb] — werden [in medicine &c.], to have a relapse, to relapse.

Recipiend*, m. [-en, pl. -en] [in colleges, chartered societies &c.] one who is or wants to be received or admitted, recipiendary.

Recipient*, m. [-en, pl. -en] 1) [not used] one who receives, admits &c. 2) [in chemistry] [= Vorlage] recipient, receiver, [also] gas-bladder; [in physics] [= Glocke] glass-bell. Der — der Luftpumpe, the receiver of the air-pump.

Recipiren*, v. tr. V. Annehmen, Aufnehmen. Einen Candidaten —, to receive, to admit a candidate person to the exercise of a public office after his having passed his examination.

Recitativ*, n. [-es, pl. -e] [in music] [Re-degesang] recitative. Ein begleitetes —, a recitative with an accompaniment; ein obligates or gebundenes —, a recitative obligato; die —e sind [meist] nicht an den Takt gebunden, recitatives are not obliged to keep time, are usually ad libitum.

Recitativzug, m. [in organs] recitative-stop.

Recitiren*, v. tr. [hersagen] to recite.

||Reck, n. [-es, pl. -e] a trestle, wooden horse or jack, frame, rack.

Recke, m. [-n, pl. -n] or Recken, m. [-s, pl. -] [from re & ce n, to extend] [obsolete] a giant, a warrior, hero of colossal size or stature.

Recke, f. [pl. -n] 1) [with curriers] V. Reckholz. 2) the rail of a trestle, of a clothes or dyers'-horse. 3) [in seamen's lang.] a rack [for sabres, pistols &c.].

Recken, v. tr. [allied to reichen, strecken, to the Lat. rego. Gr. ὀρέω] to stretch. Den Kopf in die Höhe —, to lift, to raise up the head; das Tuch reckt sich, the cloth stretches, gives; das Eisen —, to lengthen iron. Das —, extension, lengthening.

Reckbank, f. V. Soltertank. —holz, n. [with curriers] a tanner's wooden leg, pommel [an instrument for stretching]. —seil, n. [formerly] rack-rope or cord [for tying criminals to the wheel]. —zeug, n. V. Solttergeräth.

Recognition, f. recognition. Die — einer Vollmacht, the recognition of a full-power or plenipotence; die — eines Inculpaten durch die Zeugen, the recognition of a prisoner by the witnesses.

Recognosciren, v. tr. 1) [in the army] Eine Festung, den Feind —, to reconnoitre a fortress, the enemy. 2) [in feudalism] Ein Lehnen —, to make the recognizance of a fief. Das —, V. Recognoscirung.

Recognoscirung, f. Die — des Feindes &c., the reconnoitring of the enemy &c.; eine — vornehmen, to make a reconnoitring; einen Trupp auf — ausschicken, to send out a troop to reconnoitre.

Recognoscirritt, m. the reconnoitring of cavalry.

Recollecte, m. [-n] or —nmönch, m. a recollect, a minor of the order of St. Francis, a Franciscan friar or monk.

Reconvalescent, m. [-en, pl. -en] convalescent.

Reconvalescenz, f. convalescence.

Reconvalesciren, v. intr. to be convalescent, in a state of convalescence.

Reconvenient, m. [-en, pl. -en] [in courts of law] recriminator, the bringer of a counter-action, a counter-complainant.

Reconveniren, v. intr. [in courts of law] to bring a counter-action, to make a counter-complaint, a counterplea or counterplea, to make a recrimination, to recriminate.

Reconvention, f. [in courts of law] reconvention, counterplea, recrimination.

Recreditiv, n. [-es, pl. -e] [Abberufungs-schreiben] letters of recall, recredentials.

Recruit, m. [-en, pl. -en] [in the army] a recruit; [modern, not in England] a conscript, a raw soldier, [fam.] one in the awkward squad. Die —en, the recruits, [modern, not in England] young conscripts, [fam., in jest or contempt] the awkward squads, the Johnny raws, the young lobsters; zwanzig —en, twenty recruits; —en ausheben, anwerben, to levy, enlist recruits; die —en in den Waffen üben, to exercise the recruits; to discipline, to train the recruits; to drill the recruits.

Recrutenaushhebung, f. levy of recruits, [modern in France, Germany &c.] conscription.

Recrutiren, I. v. intr. to levy recruits, to send out a recruiting party, to beat for recruits. II. v. tr. Ein Regiment &c. —, to recruit a regiment &c. Das —, the recruiting.

Recrutirung, f. recruiting, [modern in France, Germany &c.] conscription.

Recrutirungspferde, pl. new horses to remount the troopers.

Rectification, f. 1) the making right or straight. Die — eines Flusses [des Rheines &c.], the rectification or straitening of the course of a river by certain works [cuttings, dykes &c.] at its banks. 2) rectification, dephlegmation.

Rectificiren, v. tr. 1) to make right or straight. 2) [in chemistry &c.] to rectify, to dephlegm, to dephlegmate. Den Weingeist &c. — [reinigen], to rectify spirits of wine. Das —, rectifying, rectification, dephlegmation.

Rector, m. [-s, pl. -en] the head-master, senior-master [of a school], the rector, principal [of a high school, college or university]. Ge- wesen —, the ex-master, [also] ex-rector, ex-principal.

Rectorat, n. —stelle, —würde, f. [Rectorat] the head-mastership, [also] rectorship [of a college &c.].

Recurriren, v. intr. to appeal; to take a recourse to &c.

Recurs, m. [-es, pl. -e] [in law] 1) remedy, redress. Seinen — or Regreß an Einem nehmen, to take one's remedy against any one; wenn ich meinen Proceß verliere, so nehme ich meinen —, so bleibt mir mein — an den und den, if I lose my suit, I take my remedy, I have my redress against so and so. 2) recourse. Den, seinen — an ein anderes Gericht nehmen, ergreifen, to have a recourse to another tribunal, another court.

Reddeven, v. tr. [in seamen's language] to trim. Die Segel —, to trim the sails.

Rede, f. [pl. -n] [V. Reden] 1) [the power of speaking] speech. Die Gabe der —, the gift of speech; [fam., in jest] the gift of the gab. 2) [kind of speech] tone of voice, voice. Einen an seiner — erkennen, to recognize any one by the tone of his voice, to know any one by his voice; seine — verstellen, to disguise one's voice, to speak in a feigned voice; [in literature] die gebundene —, rhyme, rhythm, verse, poetry; die ungebundene —, prose. 3) discourse, speech. Einem in die — fallen, to cut any one short, to interrupt any one; in seiner — abbrechen, to break off in one's speech, to stop, to leave off in the midst of one's discourse, of one's speaking; er blieb in seiner — stecken, he stopped short, he stuck in his speech; wovon ist die —? what is the speech about? what is spoken of? of what is one, are you, are they speaking? what is the matter? [fam.] what is the row? davon ist die — nicht, that is not the question, one is not speaking of that; es ist nicht der — werth, it is not worth talking about; als die — darauf kam, daß &c., when the subject, the discourse fell upon &c., as soon as one began to say that &c.; auf eine — fallen [rather stiff or unusual], to fall upon a discourse, a topic, to touch upon a subject; die — fiel auf diesen Gegenstand, the conversation fell upon this subject; die in — stehende Sache [a little stiff], the affair in question, the subject in hand; er achtet nicht auf meine —, he does not listen to my words, he turns a deaf ear to what I say; Einen bei seiner — halten, to take any one at his word; die — an Einen richten, to address one's speech to any one, to address any one; die — auf Etwas bringen, to cause the conversation to fall upon something, to bring up a subject, something upon the carpet; die Theile der —, die —theile [in grammar], the parts of speech; Einem — stehen, to give, when called upon, an answer to any one; it. V. under number 7). 4) [what one speaks] words, language. Höfliche —n, civil words, polite language; er führt sonderbare —n, he holds extraordinary language; das sind —n eines Narren, those are the words of a fool; er bleibt nicht bei einerlei —, er führt zweierlei —n, he does not keep to the same language, he tells two different stories, he is not consistent in his words, he is a weathercock in his spoken opinions; sie bleiben alle bei einerlei —, führen einerlei —, they all agree in their statement, they all tell the same story, they all hold the same language; gedenken Sie meiner —, meiner —n, remember my words, recollect what I tell you, do not forget my warning voice; seiner —, seinen —n nach, according to him, from his language, after his language, by what he says; es kam zwischen ihnen zu zornigen, unfreundlichen, groben —n, they came to high words, they used very coarse language to one another; das sind leere —n, those are empty or mere words, these words have no meaning, this language is all sound and fury, signifying nothing, this is a mere rhapsody. 5) subject, topic. Möglichen von seiner — abkommen, to turn the conversation, to change suddenly the subject; vergessen Sie Ihre — nicht! bei der — geblieben! do not lose sight of your subject, [in the house of commons] question! question! um wieder auf unsere vorige — zu kommen, to return to our previous subject, to leave off, to return from this digression. 6) rumour, report, the on dit of the day. Es geht die —, daß &c., the rumour, story goes, that &c., the report current is, that &c.; so geht die —, so says the world, so the report goes; sich in die — or in das Gerede bringen [chiefly in a bad sense], in die — kommen, to make one's self the theme of conversation, to make one's self get talked about; es gehen allerlei —n von ihm, there are all sorts of stories about him, people speak differently respecting him. 7) [Redens-schaft] explanation, satisfaction. — und Antwort über Etwas geben, to give an account of, an explanation about something; Einen über Etwas zur — setzen or stellen, to demand satisfaction, reparation from any one about something; to call any one to account about something; ich werde Ihnen dafür — stehen, I will give you, render you an account of it. 8) discourse, speech, oration, it. [=An-] — harangue. Er hat eine schöne — über diesen Gegenstand gehalten, he held a fine discourse upon this subject, [of a preacher] delivered a fine sermon on this subject; die —n des Cicero, des Demosthenes, the orations of Cicero, of Demosthenes; eine — verfertigen, ablegen, halten, to make, to compose a speech, to pronounce a discourse, to hold a discourse, to make an harangue, to utter a speech; eine — an das Volk halten, to utter a speech to the people, to hold a discourse to the people, to harangue the multitude, [low, in a bad sense] to hold forth to the mob, [at elections &c.] to address the people; eine geistliche —, a moral discourse, a sermon, a homily; die —n, Schul—n des Quintilian &c., the declamations, the rhetorical lectures of Quintilian &c.; die erste — [in parliament], the maiden-speech.

Redeart, f. 1) [little used] language, manner of speaking. 2) V. Redensart. — bild, n. [new expression] figure of speech, flower of speech, figure of rhetoric, a rhetorical figure, trope, metaphor. —blume, f. flower of rhetoric. —büchse, f. V. Rednersbüchse. —fertig, adj. and adv. always ready to speak, of a glib tongue, prone to speech. —flüchtig, adj. V. —schen. —fluß, m.

flow or stream of language, speech. — form, f. [in grammar] [Modus] mood. Die bestimmte or ungebundene — form, the indicative mood, the indicative; die unbestimmte or gebundene — form, the subjunctive or conjunctive mood, the potential, optative or subjunctive; die unbestimmte — form, the infinitive; die befehlende — form, the imperative. — f ü g u n g, f. [Wortfügung] the arrangement of words, syntax. — g e s a n g, m. V. Recitativ. — k u n s t, f. 1) rhetoric, the oratorical art, art of speaking well. Lehrer der — kunst, professor of rhetoric, teacher of elocution; [with the ancient Greeks] rhetor, orator, rhetorician, grammarian [in its primitive sense]; ein der — kunst Besessener, Verständiger, rhetorician, grammarian. 2) V. Beredsamkeit. — k ü n s t i g, adj. and adv. [new word] belonging to rhetoric, rhetorical. — k ü n s t l e r, m. rhetor, rhetorician; [ironically] wordy orator, speechifier. — l u s t, f. [little used] desire of speaking; it. desire of making speeches. — l u s t i g, adj. and adv. desirous of speaking; it. desirous of making speeches. Er ist sehr — lustig, he likes talking; er wurde immer — lustiger, his love of talkativeness, spirit of loquacity constantly increased. — p r u n k, m. [Bombast] bombast, pomposity, verbosity. Seine Schreibart ist ein bloßer — prunk, ein lächerlicher — prunk, his style is mere bombast, a ridiculous bombastic verbosity. — s a a l, m. V. Hörsaal. — s a n g, m. V. Recitativ. — s a ß, m. period. — s c h e u, I. adj. and adv. 1) timid in speaking, afraid to speak, nervous at talking, having stage-fright. Sein — scheues Wesen macht, daß &c., his timidity, nervousness. [at talking] is the reason, cause that &c. 2) [sometimes] taciturn. II. f. timidity depriving one of utterance, stage-fright in paroxysms, confusion so great as to incapacitate one from collected utterance. — s c h m u c k, m. ornament of style [in speaking], ornament of speech. — s c h w u l s t, m. bombast, verbosity, [fam.] seven-leaved boots, V. — prunk. — s t r o m, m. stream of language, torrent of words. — s u c h t, f. talkativeness; speechifying ardour or tendency. — s u c h t i g, adj. and adv. eager to talk; eager to make speeches. — t h e i l, m. [in grammar] part of speech or discourse. — ü b u n g, f. [at schools] public-speaking, declamation, [contemptuously] speechifying. — ü b u n g e n mit den Schülern halten, to exercise the boys in public speaking, in elocution. — v o r t r a g, m. declamation. — w e r k z e u g, n. V. Sprachwerkzeug.

Reden, v. intr. [allied to the Swed. prata, Gr. ῥητέω &c.; in Sw. reda means to count; it appears allied to rechnen, which see] 1) [especially by certain signs to endeavour to awaken images in the minds of others] to speak. Durch Zeichen —, to speak by signs; [in heraldry] ein — des Wappen, canting or vocal arms, rebuses; fig. [with painters &c.] ein — des Bild, a speaking picture; die Verzweiflung redet aus ihm, it is despair that speaks in him, despair makes him say that; — de or [more usual] s p r e c h e n d e Mienen, speaking, expressive countenance, face full of expression or meaning. 2) [to utter articulate sounds] to speak, to talk. Das Kind lernt —, the infant is learning to speak; Papageien lernen —, parrots learn to speak, to talk; laut, leise —, to speak, to talk loud, low; durch die Nase —, to speak, to talk through the nose. 3) [to express one's thoughts by words] to speak, talk, converse. Mit Einem —, to speak to or with any one; über Etwas, von Etwas —, to speak of, about, on or upon something; weil wir eben davon —, since we are now speaking about that, now that we are upon that chapter, since we have broached this or that subject, touched upon this topic; — Sie noch einmal mit ihm von dieser Sache, speak to him again upon this business, about this affair; vertraulich mit einander —, to converse familiarly with one another, to chat, to hold small talk; von Geschäften —, to speak on business; von der Tonkunst, von der Jagd &c. —, to speak upon music, on the chase &c.; vom Wetter —, to speak about the weather; mit sich selbst —, vor sich hin —, to talk to one's self, to think aloud; [in a bad sense] to mutter in one's sleeve or between one's teeth; eine Sprache —, V. Sprechen, er wollte kein Wort —, he would not speak a word, he would not open his mouth, one could not get a word out of him, he was not at all in a colloquial humour; öffentlich —, to speak in public; zu dem Volke —, to speak to the people, to harangue the multitude; er hat die Gabe, wohl zu —, he has a great fluency of speech, [fam.] he has an eloquent tongue of his own, [low] he has got the gift of the gab; [fam.] Einem darein —, to cut any one short, to interrupt any one, V. Rede 3); die Thiere in der Fabel — d einführen, to make beasts speak in fable, to introduce animals speaking in fable [alluding to Aesop &c.]; ich habe ein Wort mit Ihnen zu —, I have a word to speak, to say to you; Böses von Einem, hinter Einem Rücken —, to speak ill of any one, to slander or calumniate any one, [fam.] to speak behind one's back against any one; lassen Sie ihn —, let him speak; er hat gut —, er ist reich, it is all very well for him to talk, it is all mighty fine talking with him, he is rich; von sich — machen, to make one's self talked about; er läßt gar nicht mit sich —, he will not hear reason, listen to reason, words are quite thrown away upon him; wenn man ihn — hört, sollte man glauben &c., to hear him speak, one would think &c.; Einem zu nahe —, to offend any one by one's language or conversation; das war auf mich geredet, that was spoken at me, [fam.] that was a broad hint at me, that was a shot fired off or levelled, a hard wipe, a sly shot against me; von etwas Anderem —, to turn the conversation, to change the subject; jetzt redet er ganz anders davon, he speaks now quite differently about it, [fam.] his tone upon that subject is quite altered now; nach Jemandes Sinne or Wunsch —, Einem nach dem Munde [low nach dem Maule] —, to speak to any one's liking; in den Tag, in's Gelag hinein —, to speak at random, at hap-hazard, at chance-medley; von oben herab mit Einem —, to speak to any one in a loud tone, in a lofty manner, like a Don; Einem in's Herz, in's Gewissen —, to speak to any one's heart, any one's conscience. Prov. Man hat so lange von der Sache geredet, bis sie endlich wahr geworden ist, at last the thing is come to pass; long looked for come at last; they said he would die some fine winter's morning or another, and so at last he did to please them; Einem das Wort —, zu seinem Besten —, to speak a word for any one, in any one's behalf or favour, to put in a good, favourable word for any one, [fam.] to put a spoke in any one's wheel; zu tauben Ohren —, in den Wind —, to speak to deaf ears, to the deaf, to speak or talk to the wind; das heißt dich Gott — [low], it is well for you to say that. Das —, speaking, talking, discourse, language. Des — s müde seyn, to be tired of talking; mitten im —, in the midst of his discourse, of his speech; man hört an seinem —, wo er her ist, one hears by his tongue where he comes from, his language or manner of speaking betrays his origin; wenn er recht in das — hinein kommt, so hört er nicht mehr auf, when he is once fairly launched into the stream, he does not know when to stop; the moment he has got warm, grown heated with the discourse, he never knows when to leave off; man kann ihn nicht zum — bringen, nobody can get him to speak; das — wird ihm schwer, sauer, talking is a labour, a task to him, he speaks with difficulty, it. very reluctantly; man hat ihm das — verboten, he has been forbidden to speak, speaking has been forbidden him; viel — s von Etwas machen, to make a great noise about a trifle, a great fuss about nothing, to employ great verbosity about something. Syn. Reden, Sprechen, Sagen. Sprechen is merely to utter the sound which the words in any language require; reden, to express by words its sense; sagen relates to what is uttered, whether it be the mere sounds, or the subject of discourse. Parrots and some other birds may be said to sprechen; but it would be absurd to say that a parrot had geredet a long time. Sagen is more immediately related with to tell, to explain; as, tell me [sagen Sie mir] where he lives, and not reden Sie, or sprechen Sie mir. It is, however, the same thing whether we say sagen, reden or sprechen Sie mir nicht davon, do not speak to me about it.

Redensart, f. manner of speaking, phrase, [in didactics] locution. Eine neue, eine schlechte — art, a new, a bad phrase; zierliche — art, elegant mode of speaking, terse, polite phrase; gemeine — art, common mode of speaking, popular, [also] low, vulgar phrase; eine bildliche — art, a figurative phrase; eine gefuchte — art, a far fetched, an affected phrase; eine uneigentliche — art, an improper [i. e. figurative &c.] phrase; niedrige — art, a low phrase; deutsche, französische, englische — arten, germanisms, gallicisms, anglicisms.

Reder, m. [-s, pl. -] [not much used, low, chiefly in contempt] a talker, speechifier, prosy fellow, prater.

Rederei, f. [low, chiefly in contempt] [long or incessant] talking, chattering, speechifying.

Redlich, [from the obsolete Red, truth, V. Rath] adj. and adv. [bieder &c.] right, upright, loyal, ingenuous, straight-forward. Ein — es Herz, Gemüth haben, to have an upright or open heart, a virtuous mind, an ingenuous soul, [fam.] to have a heart in the right place, a straightforward mind; — e Absichten, upright intentions; ein — er Mann, an honest, honourable, candid, open-hearted man, a man of probity, of an excellent character; — handeln, to act honourably and right; er meint es —, his intentions are good, he means well; seine — gemeinten Absichten, his well-meant intentions; er gestand mir —, daß &c., he avowed, admitted frankly to me, that &c. Syn. V. Aufrichtig.

Redlichkeit, f. probity, integrity, right. Die — des Herzens, der Absichten, the probity, integrity, purity of the heart, of the intentions; das ist gegen alle — und Billigkeit, that is against all justice and moderation; die — seines Betragens, Verfahrens, the loyalty, the nobleness of his conduct, of his procedure or behaviour; eine erprobte, unbestechliche —, a proved or tried, an incorruptible probity or integrity.

Redner, m. [-s, pl. -], — inn, f. orator, speaker, debater; [who is making a speech] orator, speaker, haranguer, [with the old Greeks] rhetor, orator. Er ist kein —, he is no orator; ein beredter —, ein gewaltiger, ein heftiger —, an eloquent orator, a powerful, a vehement debater; ein frostiger —, an unimpassioned speaker; sie ist ein gute —inn, she is a good orator or oratress.

Redner = blume, f. V. Redebume. — Bühne, f. the tribune [in France, Germany], hustings, stage [in England], the rostrum [classically]. Er ist auf der —bühne [spricht eben], [fam] he is on his legs. — Gabe, f. the gift of speaking, of debating, of haranguing, the talent of oratory. — Geberde, f. an oratorical gesture, action. — Kunst, f. oratorical art, [fam] oratorical knack. Alles das sind bloße —künste, all that is mere rhetoric, declamation. — Stuhl, m. pulpit, chair. — Talent, n. V. —gabe. — Ton, m. an oratorical, declamatory tone.

Rednerisch, adj. and adv. oratorical, rhetorical, declamatory. — es Bild, — es Schreibart, a figure of rhetoric, oratorical image, declamatory style; das heißt —sprechen, that is oratorical speaking; dieses sagt man in der —en Schreibart, this is said in the declamatory style; der —e Ton, V. Rednerton; der —e Schmuck, the flowers, the ornaments, the embellishments of rhetoric; —e Uebungen, rhetorical, declamatory exercises.

Redoute, f. [pron. Redutte] [pl. -n] 1) [in fortification = Schreckens] a redoubt. 2) [= Maskenball] a mummery, masquerade, masked ball.

Redsam [mostly in a good sense], Redselig [mostly in a bad sense], [less usual] Redsprächig, adj. and adv. affable, loquacious, talkative, V. Gesprächig, Geschwäßig. — e Frau, a loquacious, talkative, nimble-tongued woman; er ist sehr —, redselig, he is very affable, he is very talkative; er ist mehr —, als beredt, he is more loquacious than eloquent.

Redsamkeit, Redseligkeit, Redsprächigkeit, f. loquacity, garrulity.

Reduciren, v. tr. V. Zurückführen, it. Einschränken, Vermindern, Herabsetzen; it. [in chemistry] [wiederherstellen] to reduce.

Reduction, f. V. Zurückführung, it. Einschränkung &c.; it. [in chemistry] [Wiederherstellung] reduction.

Reduction = quadrant, m. a sinical quadrant. — quadrat, n. [in seamen's lang.] reduction quadrate [kind of odometer or log]. — zirkel, m. proportional compasses.

Ree, —band &c, V. Raa &c.

Reede, Rēhde, Rhēde, f. [pl. -n] [Fr. rade, in Swed. reda means to prepare, to get ready, Isl. reida] [in seamen's language] road, roads, roadstead. Offene —, an open road, a roadstead free to all nations; beschlossene —, [under the protection of cannon] a closed road or bay; ein Schiff auf die — legen, to bring a ship into a road, to come to anchor in a road; das Schiff legt sich auf die —, the ship is arrived in the road or bay, is come to an anchor in the roadstead; die Schiffe liegen auf der —, the ships lie in the roads, are lying at anchor in the roadstead; eine gute, gesunde —, a good, a safe road or anchorage; eine schlechte, unsichere —, a bad, unsafe roadstead. Syn. V. Gestade.

Reedelos, adj. and adv. [in seamen's lang., of a ship] disabled, crippled, dismantled. Ein feil blihes Schiff —los machen, to disable, cripple, dismantle an enemy's ship; das Schiff ist im Treffen —los geworden, the ship was disabled, crippled &c. in the action.

Reeden, Rēhden, 1) V. Ausrehden. 2) Die Segel —, to trim the sails.

Reeder, Rēhder or Rhēder, m. [-s, pl. -] [in seamen's lang.] 1) [Ausrüster] the owner or freighter of a ship, the man that charters her; [in a more particular sense] a privateer, the captain or patron of a privateer, the owner of a privateer and who takes out letters of marque. 2) [Tafelmeister] a ship-rigger.

Reederei, f. 1) the fitting, equipping or chartering of a vessel. 2) a society or company of owners, the owners [of a vessel].

Reedung, f. [or Rehdung] 1) V. Reederei 1). 2) the rigging [of a vessel].

Reef, Reefen, V. 2. Reff, Reffen.

Reell, adj. and adv. 1) real, sure. — er [sicherer] Mann, a sure man, a man to be depended upon, a man of fortune, of substance, a man well off; — er Dienst, a real or essential service; ein — er Unterschied, a real, actual or virtual difference; — e Kenntnisse, real knowledge or acquirements; — er Dank, real thanks or gratitude [not confined to mere words]. 2) V. Real.

Reep, n. [-es, pl. -e] V. Seil.

Reepschlāger, V. Seiler.

Reeper, m. [-s, pl. -] V. Seiler.

Reeperbahn, f. —[schlitten, m. V. Sellaerbahn &c.

Refectorium, n. [-s, pl. -torien] refectory.

Referat, n. [-es, pl. -e] 1) [in chancery and the higher departments of the administration of the state] [Berichtserstattung] report. Eine Sache in das — nehmen, zum — bringen, to assign a cause over to report thereon; sein — über eine Sache machen or erstatten, to make or bring up one's report upon an affair; die Sache ist auf das — des und des Rathes abgeurtheilt worden, the case has been decided upon the report or exposition of such and such a member of the board or council. 2) [Geschäftskreis] province, verge, cognizance. Das gehört nicht in mein —, that is not in my province; er hat das — der Forstfachen, he has [in a certain board or department] to report on matters relating to the woods and forests.

Referendar, [-s, pl. -e] or Referendär, [-s, pl. -ien] m. [in some states of Germany a function or title in the higher branches of the administration, in others denoting merely a young aspirant to judicial functions] referendary.

Referent, m. [-en, pl. -en] he that has to report on a matter in a board or college. Einen — en ernennen, bestellen, to name, to appoint a person or party to report thereon; Bittschrift, worin um die Ernennung eines — en gebeten wird, petition praying the appointment of a party or person to report thereon; request of committitur.

Referiren, v. tr. and intr. 1) [not much used or obsolescent] Etwas —, to relate, to communicate a thing, to report on a thing. 2) [= vortragen] to sum up, to give a summing up; [in law-practice] to report, to bring up the report.

1. Reff, n. [-es, pl. -e] [appears to be allied to Rippe] [Trag—] a dosser. Ein — tragen, to carry a dosser.

Reff = bänder, pl. dosser-braces, the straps of a dosser. — stöcke, pl. the branches of a dosser. — träger, m. a street-porter; it. a hawker, a pedler.

2. Reff or Reef, n. [-es, pl. -e] [in Old Sax. ref and in Swed. rif mean both, clothing or raiment; perhaps from raffen] [in seamen's language] a reef. Ein — einnehmen or binden, to take in a reef; die — e losmachen, to let out the reefs.

Reff = band, n. reef-band; it. [old] reef-line. — gat, n. the eyelet-hole of a reef. — lāgel, n. a cringle for the reef-tackle. — seisling, f. V. —band. — tälje, f. reef-tackle.

3 Reff, n. [-es, pl. -e] [probably from raffen] 1) hatchel, flax-comb. 2) dredge, drag. 3) [in agriculture] [= Schwaden] a swath.

Reffen, v. tr. Die Segel — [in seamen's language], to reef, to reef the sails, to take in a reef or reefs.

Reflectibel, adj. [only used in natural philosophy] reflectible, reflexible.

Reflectibilität, f. reflectibility, reflexivity.

Reflectiren, v. tr. [= zurückstellen, zurückwerfen, widerspiegeln] [in physics] to reflect. Fig. [not much used] to reflect. Es reflectirt kein günstiges Licht auf ihn, it does not reflect a favourable light upon him. II. v. intr. 1) [= nachdenken] to reflect [in familiar language, though not much used]. Er reflectirte über den zu ergreifenden Entschluß, he reflected upon what or which resolution to take. 2) [= Rücksicht nehmen] [in familiar lang.] Auf Etwas —, to regard, to mind or to consider something, to attend to something; bei jeder Handlung reflectire auf den Ausgang, in every action reflect on the issue or termination of it.

Reflex, m. [-es, pl. -e] [Widerschein] reflection, reflexion.

Reflexion, f. 1) [in physics] [Zurückprallung] reflection. 2) [Ueberlegung, Betrachtung] reflection. Allerlei — en über Etwas machen, to make all sorts of reflections upon any thing.

Reflexionsfläche, f. plane of reflection, reflecting plane or surface. — linie, f. line of reflexion, reflecting line. — perpendikel, m. the cathetus of the eye, the cathetus of reflection. — punkt, m. the point of incidence or of reflexion. — strahl, m. a ray or beam of reflection, reflected beam or ray. — straße, f. the way of reflexion. — vermögen, n. 1) the property or faculty of reflecting. 2) the gift of reflexion. — winkel, m. angle of reflexion.

Reform, f. [pl. -en] reform.

Reformation, f. [Umbildung, Umgestaltung &c., it. chiefly, Kirchenverbesserung] reformation. Die von Luther zu Stande gebrachte —, the reformation brought about by Luther; dieses Land nahm die — an, this country embraced the Reformation.

Reformator, m. [-s, pl. -en] reformer. Luther, Calvin und andere — en [der Kirche], Luther, Calvin and other reformers [of the church]; er möchte ein — der ganzen [politischen] Welt seyn, he sets up for a reformer of the whole [political] world.

Reformer, m. [-s, pl. -] [modern word] [in modern English history] reformer. Ein gemäßigter —, a moderate reformer; ein Radikal —, a radical reformer, a radical.

Reformiren, v. tr. [umformen] to reform.

Reformirt, adj. reformed. Die — e Religion, the reformed religion; protestantism; [= Lutherthum] Lutheranism; it. [in many parts of Germany, chiefly] calvinism; ein — er, a protestant; it. [chiefly] a Calvinist; die — en in Frankreich wurden Hugenotten genannt, the Protestants [Calvinists] in France were called Huguenots; das — e Haus der Gemeinen, the reformed House of Commons.

*Refractär, m. [-s, pl. -s] [in military affairs, in Germany, France &c.] a refractory conscript.

*Refraction, f. [Strahlbrechung] refraction.

*Regal, n. [-es, pl. -e] 1) [in organs] [Menschenstimme] register. Grob —, the drone. 2) [Bücher—] shelf of a bookcase or library; [with printers] trestle, stand. 3) — or —e, n. [pl. also —ien] regal, royal or kingly prerogative; rights of the crown, royalties. 4) [fam. in jest] treat, entertainment.

Regal = [Royals] folio, n. royal folio. —papier, n. royal paper.

*Regale, n. [pl. Regalien] V. Regal 3).

*Regaliren, v. tr. [fam.] to regale, to treat, to entertain.

Rege, [V. Regen, v. tr.] adj. and adv. in movement or in motion, moving, stirring, active, lively, brisk, stirred up. —machen, —werden, to put or set in motion, to become movable, to stir, to get in motion; [in sportsmen's language] das Wild —machen [= aufjagen], to drive or force out game, to make the game break cover; [with miners] das Gestein wird —, the rock is loose or moving, totters, trembles, threatens to give way or to fall; das Bergwerk wird —, the mine promises or bids fair to be productive. Fig. active, zealous, lively. Ein —er Geist, Eifer, an active mind, a lively zeal; die Leidenschaften —machen, to stir up, awake or arouse the passions; das machte seine Eifersucht —, that stirred up, excited or raised his jealousy; eine alte Sache wieder —machen, to revive, to resuscitate an old affair, [fam.] to rake up an old story.

Rege, f. [pl. -n] [with fowls] perch for the decoy-bird.

Regel, f. [pl. -n] [from the Lat. regula] 1) a ruler, a rule. Fig. rule. Sich nach einer —richten, to conform to a rule; sich an die —n binden, to bind or attach one's self to the rules; sich nicht an die —n binden, to neglect the rules, not to tie one's self up to the rules; die —n der Dichtkunst &c., the rules of poetry &c.; diese Sache ist in der — [Ordnung], this thing is quite in rule, is strictly regular, quite according to rule; Einem —n geben, vorschreiben, to give, to prescribe rules to any one; nach den —n der Klugheit verfahren, to act in accordance with the rules of prudence; in der —, nach der — [= gewöhnlich], generally, according to the general rule it is so; in der — [Theorie] ist das richtig, aber &c., that is true in theory, but &c.; die —n einer Sprache, the rules of a language; eine Sprache nach den —n erlernen, to learn a language by the or its rules, grammatically; einen Kranken nach den —n behandeln, to treat a patient according to art. Prov. Keine — ohne Ausnahme, no rule without an exception. 2) Die — [Kloster—], discipline, rule. Die — des heiligen Augustin &c., the rules of St. Austin &c.; dieser Mönch lebt streng nach seiner —, this monk lives strictly up to the rules of his order; die —n dieses Ordens &c., the rules of this order &c. 3) [in arithmetic] Die vier ersten —n [Species], the four first rules; die — des Dreisatzes [regula de tri or — de Tri] the rule of three, of proportion, the golden rule; die verkehrte — de Tri, the rule of three inverse, of indirect proportion; V. Ketten—.

Regel = gebäude, n. [with neophytes] Das —gebäude einer Kunst &c., the digest of the rules, the theory, the system of an art &c. —kamm, m. [with silk-throwsters] the rule-comb of the warp. —los, adj. and adv. without rule, irregular. —loses Verfahren, an irregular proceeding; —lose Verse, irregular verses; —loser Mensch, an irregular man, a man of irregular habits; ein —loses Leben, —lose Sitten, an irregular life, dissolute or licentious manners; er lebt so —los, daß &c., he lives so irregularly, so disorderly, so unruly, immoderately, intemperately, that &c.; keine Sprache ist —los, no language is destitute of rules. —priester, m. [with catholics] a priest belonging to a monks' order, a regular, a monastic priest. —recht, adj. V. —mäßig. —widrig, adj. and adv. against the rule, contrary to rule, V. unregelmäßig.

Regeling, f. [pl. -en] [in seamen's language] rail, rails, rough tree-rails, sheer-rails, drift-rails, ribband. Die —en des Finkenheßes, rails of the netting; die —en des Galions, the rails of the head; die —en am Hinterteile des Schiffes, the stanchions.

Regelingsstüben, pl. [Finkenheßstüben] double netting-stanchions.

Regellosigkeit, f. irregularity; it. disorder. Die — seines Betragens, seiner Sitten, the irregularity of his conduct, the depravity or dissoluteness of his manners; sich —en zu Schulden kommen lassen, to allow one's self to be guilty of irregularities.

Regelmäßig, adj. and adv. regular, orderly. —e Bewegung, regular or regulated motion; —es Gebäude, a regular building; —e Schönheit, regular beauty; seine Lebensweise ist nicht sehr —, his mode of life is not very regular; —e Truppen, regular troops, [fam.] regulars; —einrichten, to arrange methodically, to regulate; —verfahren, to proceed according to rule, regularly, systematically; dieses Verfahren ist nicht —, this procedure or proceeding is not regular, in order; [in geometry] —e Figuren, regular figures; ein —es Vieleck, a regular or equiangular and equilateral polygon; [in grammar] —e Zeitwörter, the regular verbs; [in medicine] —er Puls, a regular pulse; das Fieber befällt ihn alle Tage — um 3 &c. Uhr, the fever takes him regularly every day about 3 &c. o'clock; sein Fieber fängt an, — zu werden, his fever is beginning to get regular or periodical; im —en Gang der Dinge, im —en Lauf der Geschäfte wird dies nicht wohl vorkommen, in the usual course of things or affairs, in the usual routine of business this will not easily, is not likely to happen or occur; —essen, schlafen, aufstehen &c., to eat, sleep, get up &c. regularly, punctually, at fixed hours; —leben, to live regularly, according to rule; er singt —, aber ohne Geschmack, he sings according to rule, but without taste; [in woods and forests] dieser Wald ist in —e Schläge eingetheilt, wird — ausgehauen, this forest is portioned out in regular divisions, is thinned symmetrically; [in war] —es Treffen, a regular engagement; eine Festung —angreifen, to attack a fortress systematically. Syn. V. Ordentlich.

Regelmäßigkeit, f. regularity.

Regeln, v. tr. to regulate. Eine Bewegung, sein Leben &c., to regulate a motion or movement, one's life &c.; sein Benehmen ist äußerst geregelt, his actions are extremely regulated; it. he lives, behaves very regularly or orderly; die Sprache begann bereits sich zu —, the language began to regulate itself, to come under the operation of regular laws.

Regen, [Lat. rego, Gr. ὀρέγω, allied to refsen, recken, reichen] v. tr. to move, to stir. Er regt weder Hand noch Fuß, he neither moves hand nor foot, [fam.] he does not move a limb; er ist so müde, daß er sich nicht — kann, he is so tired, that he cannot stir, [fam.] he is so knocked or done up, that he can't even crawl; regt Euch ein wenig! move a little; it. cheer up! bear a hand! be alive! Keiner regt sich! let no one stir! er darf sich vor seinem Vater nicht — [in pop. lang.], he does not dare to move before his father; es regt sich kein Lüftchen, not even a little breath of air is stirring; die ganze Stadt regte sich, the whole city was in motion; das Kind regt sich [= giebt Zeichen des Lebens im Mutterleib] [in obstetrics], the foetus moves, gives signs of life in the womb, [the first time] has quickened, [afterwards] kicks. Fig. Mein Fieber regt sich wieder, my fever-fit is coming on again; die Gicht regt sich wieder bei ihm, the gout begins to torment him again; es regte sich eine heftige Begierde in ihm, a violent desire was stirred up within him; Elnem die Galle — [more usual auf—], to stir up any one's gall, to provoke or excite any one's anger. Das —, V. Regung. Syn. Regen, Bewegen, Rühren. Bewegen, in general, is to change the place of any thing; the body bewegt sich, whether it pass through a greater or a smaller space. Sich regen, is the beginning of motion or its first element, and therefore indicates every little movement. Rühren is merely an intensive of regen. Figuratively, rühren means, to excite in any one the emotion of pleasing pain; but we can also bewegen any one to a violent emotion, as anger. The aim of the productions of the fine arts is chiefly zu rühren, or to excite the pleasing sentiments of pity &c.; an edifying sermon should rühren and bewegen the auditors.

1. Regen, m. [-s, pl. -] [allied to the Lat. rigure to water or bedew, to rieseln &c.] rain. Starcker, heftiger —, strong, violent or heavy rain; feiner, zarter, sanfter —, fine, gentle, soft rain, a light gentle shower; die langen [schweren] — haben der Frucht geschadet, the long [heavy] rains have injured the [corn-] crops; leichte — erquickten fort und fort das Land, soft rains, light showers continued to refresh the soil; es fällt —, the rain is falling; im — stehen, to stand in the rain; to be out in or to be exposed to the rain; dieser Wind wird —bringen, this wind will bring rain; der Nebel hat sich in — aufgelöst, the fog or mist has dissolved into rain; dieser Mantel läßt keinen — durch, this cloak lets no rain through, is rain-proof, is water-proof; die Felder, die Wiesen haben —nötig, the fields are in want of rain, are thirsty and parched for want of rain; die häufigen — haben die Ernte verderbt, the frequent rains have spoiled the harvest; wir werden bald —bekommen, we shall soon have rain; V. Blut—, Feuer—, Gewitter—, Land—, Nebel—, Plag—, Schwefel—, Staub—, Strich— &c. Prov. Aus dem — in die Traufe kommen, to jump out of the frying-pan into the fire, to fall into Scylla by seeking to avoid Charybdis; auf — folgt Sonnenschein, after a storm comes sunshine. Fig. V. Hagel 1) fig.

Regen = bach, m. [mountain-] torrent, rainbrook. —bogen, m. 1) the rainbow, [with poets] Iris; it. [in seamen's language] ein kleiner —bogen, a showery squall, a slight gust and squall, a flaw, an ox-eye. 2) [in conchology] the iris, the spanish fly, the rainbow top-shell of New Zealand. —bogenachat, —bogenchalcedon, —bogenstein, m. [in mineralogy] the rainbow-agate, iris chalcedony, iris-quartz, bluish opal. —bogenerg, n. iridescent sulphate of lead. —bogenfarbe, f. colour or hue of the rainbow, of the iris, iridescence. — bogenfarbig, adj. and adv. having the colour or hue of the rainbow; [in mineralogy] iridescent, irised. — bogenhaut, f., — bogenhäuten, n. [in anatomy] the iris. — bogenmetall, n. iridium. — bogenstein, m. rainbow-stone, iris-quartz. — bogenstrahl, m. [in physics] an iris beam, a prismatic ray or beam. — dach, n. 1) the eaves of a house. 2) [provincial and in popular language] umbrella, V. — schirm. — dicht, adj. and adv. rain-proof, water-proof, rain-tight, weather-tight. — dichtes Dach, — dichter Hut, weather-tight roof, water-proof hat; — dichter Ueberrock, Mantel, waterproof great coat, cloak, [modern] macintosh; dieser Zeug ist — dicht, this stuff is impervious or impermeable to the wet. — electrometer, n. a rain-electro meter. — fass, n. rain-tub, rain-cask, a rain-water butt. — feuer, n. [in pyrotechnics] a rain-fire, a rain of fire — flagge, f. [in seamen's lang.] a rain flaw. — fluth, f. a flood of rain, a deluge [of rain], V. — from. — frosch, m. small land-frog, rain-frog. — galle, f. 1) an imperfect rainbow, it. end or fragment of a rain-bow. 2) [in seamen's lang.] ox-eye, water-gall, weather-gall. — gestirn, n. [in astronomy] [die Hyaden] the Hyades. — gestöber, n. a drizzling sleet. — gewitter, n. a tempest or storm attended with rain, [in seamen's lang.] a heavy squall with rain. — gewölke, n. a bank of clouds charged with rain, foreboding or threatening rain, clouds charged with rain, rain-clouds. — guss, m. a heavy shower, [in seamen's lang.] a rainy squall. — hut, m. an excessively broad brimmed or flapping hat for warding off rain, an umbrella-hat. — kappe, f. the cowl or cape of a riding-cloak, a rain-cap, [with women] a hood. — kleid, n. [obsolete] a great-coat. — kraut, f. [in botany] [großer Hufstättich] great colt's-foot, butter-bur, tussilago petasites, the pestilence wort. — kuget, f. V. Brandvogel. — leder, n. the leathern hood [of a buggy, cabriolet &c.], the apron [of a gig &c.], a leathern cover [to a carriage &c.]. — loch, n. 1) [low] a rainy quarter, place where the rain generally comes from. 2) a hollow where the rain-water gathers; [= Wasserfana] a cistern, a rain-water tank. — luft, f. air charged with moisture, rainy atmosphere. — mantel, m. a cloak for the rain, an oil-skin cloak, [modern] a macintosh. — mantel mit einer kappe, a cloak or mantle with a capuchin, cape or cowl, a boat-cloak. [for women] a hooded cloak. — maß, n., — mess, f. [in physics] a rain-gauge or gage, hygrometer, hydrometer, hydroscope, pluviometer, ombrometer. — monat, m. rainy month; [in French history] the pluvial month, le mois pluviose. — nacht, f. rainy night. — pfeifer, m. [in nat. hist.] the plover. Goldgrüner — pfeifer, the black-breasted golden plover; grauer — pfeifer, grüner — pfeifer, the grey, green plover. — pfuhl, m. puddle, rain-puddle. — pugen, m. [in pyrotechnics] V. — feuer — ringel, m. [Ringelblume] marsh-marigold, rain-marigold. — rinne, f. [Dachrinne] rain-spout, rain-water spout, pipe or gutter, [in architecture] scotia. — rock, m. [obsolete] riding-coat; it. V. — mantel. — schauer, m. shower, april-shower. — schirm, m. 1) umbrella. 2) [in botany] umbel. — schirmbaum, m. [in botany] the umbelliferous magnolia, the tulip-tree of Carolina. — schirmförmig, adj. [in botany] umbelliferous. — schirmförmige Pflanze, umbelliferous plant. — schucht, f. ravine, a deep gully. — schnecke, f. the silbert-slug. — schnepe, f. pond-snipe, great plover, capriceps limosa, Agocephalus, god-wit, stone-plover. — strom, m. rain-torrent, rain-water flood. — sturm, m. rain-storm, a high wind with heavy rain. — tag, m. a rainy day. — tropfen, m. drop of rain, rain-drop. — tuch, n. [obsolescent or in common people's language] a head-kerchief used as a bonnet, a sort of Queen Mary's cap. — vogel, m. [in nat. hist.] 1) the curlew. 2) the Jamaica cuckoo. 3) [Wendebats] the torquilla, wry-neck. 4) V. — pfeifer. — wasser, n. rain-water. — wetter, n. rainy weather, showery weather. — wind, m. wind impregnated with or bringing rain, rainy or moist wind. — winkel, m. [low] V. — loch 1) — wolf, m. V. — vogel 1). — wolke, f. rain-cloud. — wurm, m. earth-worm, lob-worm. — wurmöl, n. earth worm-oil. — zeichen, n. sign or prognostic of rain. — zeit, f. rainy season, [in India and the tropics] the monsoon season.

2. Regen, m. [-s] [name of a river in Bavaria] the Regen [-river].

Regenhast, adj. and adv. rainy, [in science] pluvial.

Regensburg, n. [-s] [in geography] Ratisbon.

Regent*, m. [-en, pl. -en] 1) [Fürst, Herrscher] regent, prince, sovereign, monarch. 2) Der —, die — inn, regent [during the minority of the crown]; der Prinz —, the Prince Regent; die Königin — inn, the Queen Regent. 3) [= Vorstand] principal, head [of a seminary &c.].

Regentschaft*, f. regency. Während ihrer —, during her regency.

Regieren, [from the Lat. regere, but closely allied also to regen] I. v. tr. Ein Schiff, Fahrzeug —, to steer a ship, to govern or pilot a vessel; ein Pferd —, to manage, to guide a horse. Fig. Ein Reich, ein Volk &c. —, to govern a kingdom, to rule a people &c.; Gott regiert die Welt, Alles, God governs the world, every thing; mit Klugheit —, to rule with wisdom; es ist schwer, ein großes Volk zu —, it is difficult to govern a great people; dieser Hausvater regiert sein Hauswesen gut [in fam. lang.], this man governs his family and household well; sie regiert ihren Mann, die ganze Haushaltung [in fam. lang.], she rules her husband, manages the whole internal economy of the household, [fam.] she rules the roast; die Minister — im Namen des Fürsten, the ministers govern in the name of the prince; in diesem Hause regiert die Frau, er läßt sich von seiner Frau —, the woman [wife] rules in this house, he allows himself to be governed by his wife, [fam.] it is the wife in this house who is all in all, he allows his wife to wear the breeches; er ist kein Mann, der sich — läßt, he is not a man, who allows himself to be governed, [fam.] he is not a man to be led by the nose; er kann sich selbst nicht —, he cannot govern himself, he is not able to control himself. Fig. Der Teufel regiert ihn [low], the devil possesses him; [in grammar] dieses Zeitwort regiert die vierte Endung, this verb governs the accusative case II. v. intr. to reign, to rule Glücklich —, to reign prosperously; dieser Fürst hat lange regiert, this prince has reigned long; die Kunst, zu —, the art of reigning, der — de Fürst, König, die — de Königin, the reigning prince, King, Queen, the Prince, King, Queen regnant; der — de Bürgermeister, the mayor or burgomaster in office, in function, in full power, for the time being. Fig. Die Pest regiert an diesem Orte, the plague is dominant, reigns, is rife, has full sway in this place. SYN. V. Herrschen.

Regiersucht, f. [more usual Herrschsucht] passion, lust, thirst, ambition, mania of reigning, ruling, holding sway, governing.

Regierer, m. [-s, pl. -] [Herrscher] [little used] Gott, der — aller Dinge, der höchste — der Welt, God, the ruler of all things, the governor or moderator of the world.

Regierung, f. [das Regieren] 1) the government, reign, empire. Die — eines Staates zu besorgen haben, to be charged with the government of a state; die Zügel der — in Händen haben, to hold the reins of government, of empire in one's hands; die — antreten, to accede to the throne, to reach or enter upon the government, to come to supreme rule, to enter upon one's reign; die — niederlegen, to lay down the kingly power, to abdicate, to retire from the throne, to retreat from empire; eine gelinde, eine harte &c. —, a mild, severe &c. government or reign; seine — war friedlich &c., his reign was peaceable &c.; während seiner —, during his reign; unter der — dieses Fürsten, under the reign of this prince; unter der alten, neuen —, under the old, new reign or regime; er hat unter drei —en gelebt, he has lived under three reigns, under three crowned heads. 2) the reigning or governing power, the government, the regency. Sich an die — wenden, bei der — beklagen, to address one's self to, to complain to government; die Befehle der —, the orders of government; er ist der — verdächtig, he is suspected by government. it. [in the state-hierarchy or organisation of public offices] the government, the prefecture. Die — des und des Kreises, the government, the higher administrative authority of such and such a circle or division of the country or state [for the purposes of administration]. 3) the building devoted to the use of government; it. the building or office of a higher administrative authority. Gehen wir auf die —, let us go to the government-house; ich komme aus der —, I come from the state-office &c., [in England] I come from Downing Street; it. I come from the government-office, from the prefecture.

Regierungsadvokat, m. [in some states of Germany] advocate or counsel to government. [in England] the solicitor general. — antritt, m. accession to the throne. Bei seinem —antritt, on his accession to the throne, on his assumption of the crown. — art, f. V. — form. — assessor, m. assessor to the government, to the board of administration of a circle or large administrative district of the country. — befehl, m. government-order. — beisitzer, m. [unusual] V. — assessor. — bote, m. a King's messenger, Queen's messenger, government-courier; it. the messenger of a local government of a circle &c. — form, f. government, form of government. Die monarchische &c. — form, the monarchical &c. form of government. — gebäude, n. V. under — 3); [in England] Downing Street office; it. the Treasury &c. — kammer, f. 1) government chamber. 2) Die — kammer eines Glockenspiels, the spring-chamber in any piece of clock-mechanism, the chamber of the works, of the regulator. — kanzlist, m. an [inferior] writing-clerk to a government of a circle &c. — kunde, f. the science of government. — kunst, f. art of government, science of reigning. — last, f. charge, burthen, fatigues of government. — los, adj. and adv. anarchical. — losigkeit, f. anarchy. — nachfolger, m. successor to empire, to the government. — präsident, m. president of the government or cabinet; it. president of a government of a circle &c. — rath, m. counsellor to the government, member or one of the counsellors of a government of a circle &c. — sache, f. affair of government. — secretär, m. government-secretary; it. secretary of or to a government of a circle &c. — sorge, f. care of government. — verfassung, f. constitution or mode of government; V. — form. — wissenschaft, f. political economy as confined to governing.

Regiment, n. [-es] 1) [no pl.] [obsolete] the government, the regime of a state, reign, sway, rule of a sovereign prince, V. Regierung 1). 2) [pl. -er] [in military affairs] a regiment. Ein — Reiterei, Fußvolk, ein — zu Pferd, zu Fuß, a regiment of cavalry, of infantry, of horse, of foot, a horse or cavalry, a foot or infantry regiment; alte — er, old regiments. old corps; veteran regiments; ein — errichten, to raise a regiment.

Regimentsadjutant, m. [regimental] adjutant. — arzt, m. the surgeon-major [of a regiment]. — auditor, m. a regimental auditor or judge, a sort of deputy judge-advocate attached to a [German] regiment. — chirurg, m. regimental surgeon, chirurgion of a regiment. — commandeur, m. commander of a regiment. — feldscherer, m. [obsolescent] V. — chirurg. — form, f. V. Regierungsform. — gericht, n. a regimental court-martial or council of war. — inhaber, m. [formerly] the raiser and owner of a regiment, [now] the colonel [in chief], full colonel of a regiment. — kasse, f. the regimental chest. — kleidung, f. regimental uniform or clothing, regimentals. — musik, f. 1) the music performed or executed by a regimental band. 2) the band of a regiment. — pfeifer, m. the piper of a regiment. — prokos, m. the provost of a regiment. — quartiermeister, m. the quarter-master [of a regiment]. — richter, m. [obsolescent] V. — auditor. — rudder, n. [from Regiment 1)] fig. helm. rudder of public affairs. — stab, m. the staff of a regiment; it. the baton of command; the commander's staff; the commander-in-chief's baton. — stück, n. a field piece to a battalion. — tambour, — trommel — schläger, m. the drum-major. — tisch, m. the mess. — übergabe, f. the surrendering or resignation of a regiment [to another colonel]. — unkosten, pl. the [idle] expences of a regiment. Fig. [rather belonging to Regiment 1)] [in popular language] Auf — unkosten leben, to live on the commonweal, at other's cost, at other people's expense.

Regimenterweise, adv. in regiments; it. regiment fashion, regimentally.

Regiminalbehörde, f. [pl. -n] administrative authority.

Regine, f. [-nē, pl. -n] [a name of women] Regina, Reine.

Region, f. region. In höhern — en, in higher regions.

Regiren, V. Regieren.

Register, n. [-s, pl. -] [from the Lat. registrum of the middle ages] 1) [Verzeichniß] register, record. Ein — führen, to keep a register or record. in — eintragen, to insert in the register, put upon the record, to place in the list, to inscribe, to enrol or register; — zu einem Buche, the table of contents to a book; dieses Buch hat kein —, this book has no table of contents, no index; im — nachsuchen, to seek in the index, V. Geschlechts —, Namen —, Sach —, Schuld —, Sterb —, Steuer —, Sünden —, Tauf —, Todten —, Wort —; [with miners] miner's ledger, register of a mine. Fig. [in familiar and popular language] Er steht auf meinem —, he is down in my book, [fam.] I will pay him off one of these days, I have a bone to pick with him, I have got some old scores to wipe off against him; er steht im schwarzen —, he is down in the black book [he is looked upon with suspicion by the authorities; his reputation is destroyed for good order &c.]; sie will noch hübsch seyn, sie gehört aber schon in das alte —, she wants to be thought still pretty, she is down however in the superannuated list, she is like an old almanac and has been laid on the shelf, [fam.] she wishes to play the girl, but is one of the has-beens, one of the fuits; er gehört in's alte —, he is already old, [fam.] he has had his day; it. he has no longer any authority or credit, [fam.] his interest, power &c. has gone by; [low] ein altes —, an old crone, [low] my granam; sie ist ein langes — [low], she is a long great lath of a woman. 2) [generally things of the same kind &c.] [with organists] register, stop, set or row of homophonous pipes in diatonic series. Ein — ziehen, einstoßen, to draw cut, to push in a stop; alle — ziehen, to draw out all the stops of the organ; V. Flötenzug, Posaunen —, Trompeten — &c.; it. [in chemistry] register; die — dienen, [um] die verschiedenen Grade der Hitze hervorzubringen, the registers serve for regulating or producing the different degrees of heat; it. [with printers] — halten, [to take care that the type on both sides of a sheet correspond] to keep register.

Registeraufstand, m. [with miners] supplementary quarterly report. — papier, n. register-paper, office-paper, account paper. — sack, m. [with miners] envelop, sack or cloth-case for the register or mine-ledger. — schiff, n. [formerly] a registered ship of Cadix [for trade with Spanish America]. — stimme, f. organ-register, tone from one set or row of pipes, diapason. — zug, m. register, stop. Einfacher — zug, simple stop.

Registrator, m. [-s, pl. -en] registrar.

Registratur, f. [pl. -en] registry. Die Acten sind in der —, the acts, deeds &c. are in the registry Das — amt [in England], court of records.

Registrieren, v. tr. [eintragen] to register. Das —, the registering, the enrolling.

Regnen, v. imp. to rain. Es wird gleich —, bald —, it is going to rain, it will rain immediately, soon; es regnet gußweise, it rains in torrents, in bucketsful, it pours; dicht —, to rain fast; [supposed lusus naturae] es regnet Blut, Steine &c., it rains blood, stones &c. Prov. Wenn es nicht regnet, so tröpfelt es doch, if it does not rain, it drops, [fam.] every little is a help, [in Scotch] every little makes a mickle. Fig. [in fam. lang.] Es regnete dort Kugeln, Schläge, it rained balls, blows there; es regnet Geld bei ihm, it's a shower of gold in his house; es regnet or es — Früchte von den Bäumen, the fruit falls from the trees like hail; da wird es Berweise &c. —, there will be reprimands &c. there as plenty as blackberries, as thick as hops.

Regnerisch, adj. and adv. rainy, [with poets] pluvial, pluviose. Es sieht — aus, es or der Himmel droht [mit] Regen, it or the sky threatens rain, it looks rainy, it looks as if it would rain; es ist — es Wetter, it is rainy weather; die — e Jahreszeit, the rainy season, [in the Tropics] the monsoon.

Regnisch, adj. [a little] rainy. V. Regnerisch.

Regreß, m. [-ßes, pl. -ße] [law term] redress, remedy, action. Seinen — an Einem nehmen, sich an Einem regressiren, to take one's remedy against any one, to resort to one's remedy against any one, to an action for recovery against any one; er ist zwar verurtheilt, ihm aber der — an die Erben vorbehalten worden, he is indeed condemned [cast], but his remedy [action] against the heirs has been held up to him; er ist mein Bürge, aber arm, das ist ein schlechter —, da habe ich einen schlechten —, he is my bail or guarantee, but poor, that is a bad remedy, there I have but a poor redress.

Regressiren, v. intr. Sich an Einem —, to turn for redress to any one, to resort to one's remedy against any one. V. Regreß.

Regsam, adj. and adv. active; nimble, agile; [in seamen's lang.] quick, smart.

Regsamkeit, f. activity, agility, nimbleness.

Regularität, f. [Ordnung, Richtigkeit &c.] regularity.

Regulär, V. Regelmäßig.

Regulinisch, adj. [in chemistry] Der — e [reinmetallische] Theil, the reguline part.

Reguliren, v. tr. [regeln] to regulate.

Regung, f. [Bewegung] movement, motion, emotion. Man ist nicht Herr über die ersten — en, one is not master over the first emotions or transports; die — en des Gemüths, des Herzens, der Seele, the emotions or transports of the mind, of the heart, the movements of the soul; eine sanfte —, a soft emotion; eine unwillkührliche —, eine — des Bornes, an involuntary movement, a transport of wrath, a movement of anger; die — en des Hasses, der Liebe, the emotions of hatred, of love; eine — im Gemüthe hervorzubringen, to produce or excite an emotion in the mind; unordentliche — en, irregular emotions; passions.

Regungslos, adj. and adv. motionless, immoveable, destitute or void of motion, insensible.

Reh, adj. and adv. [appears allied to reflexen, and to the Lat. rigidus] [with farriers] foundered. Diese Stute ist —, this mare is foundered [stiff and lame in the joints]. V. Rehe.

Rehader, f. the vein which farriers usually open in the foot of a foundered horse.

1. Reh, n. [-es, pl. -e] [perhaps allied to reggen, to move] the roe [cervus capreolus]. Das männliche —, der — bock, the roebuck, brocket; das weibliche —, die — geiß, — ziege, [sportsmen's term] Ricke, the female roe, the doe; junges —, — kalb, — zicklein, — kieze, the doe fawn of the roe, a roe-fawn.

Rehwein, n. V. — fuß. — braten, m. roast venison of the roe. — brunft, f. [in sportsmen's language] the rutting season of roe-deer. — fahl, V. — farben. — farbe, f. fallow or fawn-colour. — farben, — farbig, adj. and adv. fallow or fawn-coloured or dyed. — fell, n. roe-skin. — fleisch, n. roe-venison — fuß, m. a roe-foot. Fig. Tisch mit — füßen, table with claws like a roe's feet. — geiß, f. V. under Reh. — haar, n. coat or hair of the roe; [with saddlers] wadding, hair-stuffing of the roe. — haut, f. the hide of the roe, V. —fest. —heide, f. [in botany] 1) common broom, birch-broom. 2) [Färbeginster] dyer's broom, genista tinctoria, genistella. —jagd, f. chase or hunt of the roe. Kopspelzur —jagd, pack of roestag-hounds. —kalt, n. V. under Reh. —leule, f. leg or haunch of roe-venison. —kieze, f. V. under Reh. —krant, n. broom, genista. —leder, n. roe-buckskin, roebuck-leather. —ledern, adj. and adv. of roe-buckskin, of roe-leather. —neh, n. snare or toil for the roe. —pastinake, f. [Wassermert] the nodiflorous water-parsley. —posten, m. V. —schrot. —rücken, m. a loin or saddle, a haunch of roe-venison. —schale, f. the edge of the hoof of the roe. —schlägel, m. V. —seute. —schrot, n. deer-shot. —spießer, m. [in sportsmen's language] the male roe-buck-fawn of six months. —wildbret, n. 1) roe [as game] 2) venison of the roe-buck or roe-doe. Biel —wildbret, much roe-game, many head of roe-deer; it. much roe-venison. —zicken, n., —ziege, f. V. under Reh. —ziemer, m. V. —rücken

2 Reh, f. [pl. -en] [allied to Raa] [in seamen's lang.] ribbon.

Rehbaum, m. [-es, pl. -bäume] [Reh appears allied to drehen] [with miners] axle-tree.

Rehblatten, v. intr. [in sportsmen's lang.] to attract or decoy the roebuck by imitating upon a leaf the noise of the doe.

Rehde, V. Reede.

Rehe, f. [V. Reh, adj.] [with veterinary surgeons] founders. Dieses Pferd hat die —, this horse has the founders, is foundered; it. adj. V. Reh.

Rehegras, n. [-es] V. Quecke 2).

Rehling, m. [-es, pl. -e] 1) [Vörs] perch. 2) [in botany] [Weißschwamm] yellow agaric.

Reibe, f. [pl. -n] V. Reibeisen, it. [for tobacco] V. Tabaks —.

Reiben, [allied to raffen, greifen, to the Lat. rapio] tr. v. tr. 1) Etwas —, to rub any thing; stark, sanft —, to rub hard, gently; sich —lassen, to have one's self rubbed, to get one's self shampoo'd; Einem den Arm mit Del, mit warmen Tüchern —, to rub any one's arm with oil, with hot cloths; die Augen —, sich die Augen —, to rub one's eyes; das Fleisch mit Salz —, to rub flesh or meat with salt; die Schweine —sich an den Bäumen, hogs rub themselves against trees; Stücke Holz stark an einander —, to rub pieces of wood strongly against one another; der Hirsch reibt [segt] sein Geweih an den Bäumen, the stag rubs [frays] his head against the trees, V. Ab —, Auf —, Aus —, Ein —, Her —, Jer —. Fig. [in familiar lang.] Sich an Einem — [= ihn necken], to banter or jeer any one; es will sich jedermann an ihm —, every body gives him a rub, a whack, a push, a thump, every one thinks him a crow to pluck; [low] Einem Etwas —, unter die Nase —, Einem die Ohren mit Etwas —, to twit any one with any thing to one's face, in one's teeth, to throw something into one's dish, to give any one a cap to fit and see how he wears it, how he likes it; man hat ihm seine Thorheit &c. unter die Nase gerieben, he has been badgered a good deal for his folly &c., [rather uncommon] he was brayed for a fool in a mortar. 2) to prepare by rubbing. Flachs, Hanf — [before the combing], to bruise flax, hemp; Rüchengeschrir — [schuern], to scour, clean, brighten kitchen-utensils; den Fußboden —, to scour, to rub the floor. 3) Klein —, to rub small, to triturate; zu Pulver —, to rub to powder, to pulverize; Muskatnuß &c. —, to grate nutmeg &c.; Brodkruste —, to rasp or grate bread-crust; Farben —, to grind, rub down or bray colours; [with miners] eine Probe —, to pulverize an ore for essay. Das —, the rubbing. Das — eines Fußbodens, the scouring or rubbing of a floor; [with surgeons] the friction [of affected parts]; das — der Farben &c., the grinding, the rubbing down, the braying of colours &c.; das — zweier Körper an einander, the rubbing, the friction, the grazing, trition, attrition of two bodies against one another; das — der Achse nutzt die Nabe aus, the friction or abrasion of the axle wears out the nave; das fleißige — öffnet die Schweißlöcher, repeated friction opens the pores of the skin; das trockene —, dry friction, shampooing; das nasse —, wet friction; das Aneinander — der Rieselsteine bringt Feuer hervor, the friction, rubbing together, percussion, attrition of flints or pebbles produces fire.

Reibzähle, f. [with workmen] broach, chamfering-broach, awl; it. the square-iron; locksmith's square-punch or piercer. —asch, m. a dish or saucer-shaped mortar [for pounding &c.]. —blech, &c. V. Reibblech &c. —eisen, n. rasp, grater; it. [in domestic economy] a pestle for pounding salt; it. a flax-pounder or flax-rolling-pin; it. a tobacco-rasp. —hammer, m., —holz, n., —kessel, —lappen, m., —pflanne, —platte, —schale, f., —scheit, n., —stein, m., —tuch, —zeug, n. V. Reibhammer &c. —taschel, m. [in trade] rappee.

Reibeballen, m. [with cardmakers] a rub-ball [for rubbing the cards so as to increase their power of taking the colours when stamped]. —blech, n. 1) V. Reibeisen. 2) V. Reibplatte. 3) [in artillery] stam-iron, fusée-plate, clout, hurter, foil, cramp-iron; V. Stoßeisen. —bret, n. [with masons] a plasterer's wooden dauber or dab. —hammer, m. [with miners] the braying or pounding-hammer. —holz, n. [in seamen's language] a sander; it. [with weavers] serge-stick or roller. —kessel, m. [with dyers] copper indigo-kettle. —leule, f. a pestle, a brayer; [with fire workers &c.] mullar, mullet, mollet. —lappen, m. [a rag, piece of cloth, leather &c. used as a] rubber; [with cardmakers] V. —balzen. —napp, m. V. Reibsch. —pauschel, m. pounder, pestle, brayer. —pflanne, f. [with miners] a mortar or pounding vessel for ore. —platte, f. a plate for pulverizing the ore of essay. —presse, f. [with paper-makers] cutting-press. —satte, f. V. Reibsch. —schale, f. a bowl or saucer for rubbing to powder or paste in. —scheit, n. [with coach-makers] the splinter bar —spur, f. [in sportsmen's language] [Kothspur] trail, dung-mark, dung-track. —stein, m. a pestle, a stone-pounder; it. a whet-stone; it. a grind-stone, [also] a hone; it. [Päufer] a grinding-stone for colours. —tafel, f. [with white-towers, leather-dressers] the rubbing-table or block. —tuch, n. a rubber, a rubbing-cloth, a duster, [also] a dish-clout. —wohl, n. [with gunsmiths &c.] [Bohrer, Draufbohrer, Brustbohrer] drill, wimble, gimlet. —zeug, n. any material for rubbing or friction; [in physics] electric matter, matter serving to conduct or develop electricity; [in electrical machines] the cushion.

Reiber, m. [-s, pl. -] [a person or instrument] rubber, grinder, bruiser, grater, [with locksmiths and glaziers] — an einem Fensterstocke, the pulley-roll to a window-jamb; [in physics] V. Reibezeug; it. V. Wurfwagen.

Reibling, m. [-es, pl. -e] 1) [provincial] [junger Stier] a bullock, a young steer. 2) [in botany] the orange agaric.

Reich, [see. rikur, Fr. riche; allied to Recke, regen, recken = to expand, to spread] adj. and adv. 1) [= reichlich] rich. —e Ernte, a rich, abundant harvest; die Ernte ist ausgefallen, the harvest has turned out rich, has proved an abundant one; —e Almosen, rich alms; dieser Weinberg bringt einen — en Ertrag, this vineyard yields an abundant return; eine — e Erbschaft, a rich inheritance; [with poets] —e Reime, rich rhymes. 2) — an Etwas, rich in something, abounding in or amply provided or stored with any thing. — an Geld, Gütern, Vieh, Verstand, Zugend, an wigigen Einfällen, rich in gold, goods, cattle, understanding, virtue, in witty ideas or conceits; dieser Schriftsteller ist — an Bildern, this author is rich, copious in images; der Zeug ist — an Seide, the stuff is rich in silk; der Gang ist — an Silber, Gold &c., the lode is rich in silver, gold &c.; das Land ist — an Wein, the land is rich in wine; er ist hunderttausend Thaler —, he is worth a hundred thousand dollars. 3) [containing a quantity of certain costly things] rich, prolific, costly, valuable. Ein — es Erz, ein — er Gang, a rich ore, a rich, productive lode; —e Stoffe, —e Kleider, rich, costly stuffs, rich, sumptuous, expensive clothes. Fig. —e Sprache, rich, copious language; — beladene Schiffe, richly laden ships; — gekleidet, meubliert &c., richly, sumptuously clad, furnished &c. 4) opulent, rich, wealthy. Ein — er Mann, eine — e Erbin, a rich man, a wealthy heiress; — machen, to make or render rich, to enrich; — werden, to become, to grow, to get rich; eine — e Heirath thun, to make a rich marriage; ein Mädchen — verheirathen, to marry a girl to a rich husband; das — ste Haus in der Stadt, the richest, the most opulent house in the town; der — e Mann im Evangelium, the rich man in the gospel; [fam.] er ist ein [alter] — er Kauz, he is a rich old boy, a rich old cock, a wealthy old dog, a rich codger, a regular nabob; that man is worth a plum at least, he is worth a jew's eye, that old fellow.

Reichweizen, m. [in botany] [a kind of wheat, the main ear of which has a secondary one] Smyrna-wheat, branch-eared wheat.

Reich, n. [-es, pl. -e] [appears allied to reichen in its signification of spreading or expanse] 1) [Staat] kingdom, empire, state. Das römische, russische —, the Roman, Russian empire or state, the kingdom of the Romans, of the Muscovites; die letzten Zeiten des römischen — es, the last times of the Roman empire, the latter empire; [in German history] das —, deutsche —, das heilige römische — deutscher Nation, the empire, German empire, the holy Roman empire of the German nation, the empire of Germany; die Fürsten, Stände des — es, the princes, classes or states of the empire; ein großes, mächtiges —, a great, mighty, powerful or puissant kingdom or empire. Fig. Das — Gottes, the kingdom of God; das — Gottes begreift das — der Natur, das — der Gnade, und das — der Heiligkeit, God's kingdom comprehends the kingdom of Nature, of Grace and of Glory, or the celestial kingdom; das — Christi, the kingdom, reign of Christ; Christus sagt, mein — ist nicht von dieser Welt, Christ says, my kingdom is not of this world; das — der Geister, the kingdom or land of spirits, the land of shadows. V. Pflanzen — Mineral — Thier —. 2) [Herrschaft, Regierung] reign, dominion, power, sovereignty, empire, domination. Zum — e gelangen [obsolete], to arrive or come to power, to succeed to dominion, to empire; sein — hat nun ein Ende [in fam. lang], his power, dominion, reign has now an end; sein — ausdehnen, to extend one's dominion; [in Scripture] dein — komme, dein ist das —, thy kingdom come, thine is the power or kingdom. Fig. Das — der Liebe, des Todes &c., the kingdom or dominion of Love, of Death &c.

Reichsabschied, m. [in German history] the recess of the empire. — acht, f. ban of the empire, imperial ban. Einen Fürsten in die — acht erklären, to put a prince to the ban of the empire. — adel, m. 1) the nobility of the kingdom. 2) [formerly in Germany] the nobility of the empire. — adler, m. the imperial eagle. — afterlehen, n. the arrière-fee or fief, the mesne-fief or mesne-tenure of the empire. — agent, m. agent of the empire. — amt, n. office of the empire. — angelegenheit, f. affair or cause of the kingdom or empire. — anlage, f. — anschlag, m. charge, impost for the necessities of the empire. — antheil, m. the contingent of the empire. — anzeiger, m. [Zeitung] the imperial gazette. — apfel, m. the imperial globe. — archiv, n. the archives of the empire. — armee, f. army of the empire, the imperialists. — ausschuss, m. a committee of the states of the empire. — austrag, m. [in German history] a special commission of princes convoked as judges by the emperor. — austragrichter, m. a judge of such special commission. — baron, m. V. — freiherr. — bauer, m. peasant of the empire. — beamte, m. high officer, grand officer of the empire. — bedenken, n. V. — gutachten. — beitrug, m. V. — antheil. — bischof, m. bishop of the empire. — boden, m. the lands, the soil, the territory of the empire. — bürger, m. citizen or burgher of the empire; it. inhabitant of an imperial city. — casse, f. V. — tasse. — collegium, n. college of the states of the empire. Die drei — collegia, the three colleges of the Germanic body. — contingent, n. V. — antheil. — deputat, n. V. — ausschuss. — dorf, n. imperial village. — einwohner, m. an inhabitant of the empire, a regnicolist. — erbamt, n. hereditary office of the empire. — erbbeamte, m. hereditary officer of the empire. — erbe, m. inheritor or heir of the empire or kingdom. — erzamt, n. high office of the empire. — erzbeamte, m. grand or arch-dignitary of the empire. — erzkanzler, m. grand or arch-chancellor of the empire. — fahne, f. banner of the empire, the imperial banner. — feind, m. enemy of the empire, of the kingdom. — feldherr, m. general of the empire; [in general formerly] captain general of the empire or kingdom. — fiscal, m. the procurator fiscal or exchequer-attorney of the empire. — fiscus, m. the imperial fisc or exchequer, the fisc, exchequer or treasury of the empire. — folge, f. succession to the crown or throne. — forst, m. imperial forest, forest of the empire. — frei, adj. and adv. immediate, independent, imperial [speaking of princes &c., cities, peasants &c.] — freie Dörfer, immediate or imperial villages. — freiheit, f. immediation, immediacy, freedom of the empire, independence of any medial power in the German empire. — freiherr, m. a baron of the German empire. — freiherrlich, adj. and adv. belonging or due to a baron of the empire. — freiherrliches Wappen, the arms of a baron of the empire. — fürst, m. — fürstin, f. prince or princess of the empire, of the holy empire. — fürstentitel, m. — fürstenwürde, f. title, dignity of a prince of the empire. — fuß, m. Der — fuß der Münzen, standard of the coins of the empire, [in general] of a kingdom or an empire. — gesälle, pl. revenues of the kingdom, of the empire, [in general] of the state. — gehülfe, m. colleague of an emperor, of a king, of a reigning prince; co-regent. — geld, n. V. — münze. — genoss, m. 1) V. — gehülfe. 2) subject, vassal of the empire. — gericht, n. tribunal of the empire, imperial tribunal, superior court of the empire. — geschichte, f. history of a kingdom, of an empire, of a state, of the empire. — gesetz, n. law, code, constitution of a state, kingdom or empire, of the empire, imperial code or laws. — gesetlich, adj. and adv. conformable to the laws of the state &c. — gesetwidrig, adj. and adv. against the laws of the state &c. — glied, n. member of the state, kingdom or empire, of the [German] empire. — graf, m. — gräfin, f. count, countess of the empire. — gräflich, adj. and adv. belonging, due to a count of the empire. Die — gräfliche Würde, the dignity of a count of the empire. — grafenschaft, f. county of the empire. — grundgesetz, n. fundamental law of the empire, [in general] of a state, kingdom &c. — gulden, m. a florin of the emperor, a rix-florin. — gutachten, n. advice, deliberation of the states of the empire. — handel, m. matter, cause, difference or affair touching the state &c., the empire. — haupt, n. V. — oberhaupt. — heer, n. army of the empire, the imperial army. — herkommen, n. the ways and customs of the empire. — historie, f. [obsolete] V. — geschichte. — hofrath, m. 1) [Gericht] the aulic council of the empire. 2) [Mitglied] a member of this council, an aulic counsellor of the empire. — hofrathsordnung, f. ordonnance or decree touching the proceedings of the imperial aulic council. — hofrathlich, adj. and adv. belonging or appertaining to the aulic council of the empire; that which emanates from the same. — hülf, f. the subsidies of the empire. — insiegel, n. V. — siegel. — insignien, pl. V. — kleindien. — kaiser, — könig, m. [der römische König, in German history] the king of the Romans. — kammergericht, n. the imperial chamber. — kammerichter, m. a counsellor of the imperial chamber. — kanzlei, f. the chancery of the empire. — kanzler, m. chancellor of the empire. — kasse, f. the treasury of the empire. — kassenmeister, m. V. — pfennigmeister. — kleindien, pl. the jewels or insignia of the crown, of the empire, kept for and used at the coronation of a monarch or of an emperor [especially, the German]. — könig, V. — kaiser. — körper, m. Der deutsche — körper, the [former] Germanic body. — kreis, m. circle or district of the empire. — krieg, m. war of the empire. — krone, f. crown of the empire, [in general] imperial crown. — land, n. immediate state of the empire, province of the empire. Die — lande or — länder, the states of Germany. — länder, m. subject, inhabitant of the empire. — lehen, n. fief of the empire, a dependant fee of the empire. — leute, pl. V. — bauer, — bürger. — macht, f. the forces, power of the empire. — marschall, m. marshal of the empire. — matritel, f. the matricule of the empire, register of the princes and states who sat at the diet. — münze, f. coin of the empire. — oberhaupt, n. the supreme chief of the empire, the Roman-German emperor. — oberpostmeister, m. the grand-master of the posts of the empire. — panier, n. V. — fahne. — pfennigmeister, m. treasurer of the empire, administrator or cashier of the revenues of the empire. — pflege, f. 1) [Gebiet] immediate province of the empire. 2) [Verwaltung] administration of a province of the empire. — pfleger, m. administrator of an imperial province, of a province of the empire. — post, f. post of the empire, imperial post. — postamt, n. post office of the empire, imperial post-office. — postmeister, m. the or an imperial postmaster. — quartiermeister, m. the marshal or harbinger of the empire. — rath, m. 1) senate or presidential council of the kingdom, of an empire. 2) V. — collegium. 3) senator of the kingdom, of an empire. — ritter, m. immediate noble or knight of the empire. — ritterschaft, f. the immediate nobility or knighthood of the empire. — ritterschaftlich, adj. and adv. that which belongs to or concerns the immediate nobility of the empire. — rolle, f. V. — matritel. — sache, f. affair concerning the empire. — sasz, m. possessor of an estate or fief which is immediately held [direct] of the empire, a feudatory of the empire. — sässig, adj. and adv. possessing an estate or fief held immediately of the empire. — saszung, f. 1) V. — abschied. 2) V. — gesetz. — schatz, m. treasure of the state, of the kingdom, of the emperor. — schatzmeister, m. treasurer of the state, of the kingdom, of the empire. — schluss, m. conclusion of the imperial diet. Die — schlüsse, the conclusions of the diet of the empire. — schlussmäßig, adj. and adv. conformable to the conclusions of the imperial diet. — schuld, f. debt of the empire. — schultz, m. V. — vogt. — schwert, n. sword of the empire, the imperial sword. — siegel, n. seal of the crown, of the empire. — stadt, f. imperial city, city of the empire. — städtisch, adj. and adv. that which appertains to or concerns the imperial cities. — stand, m. state of the kingdom or of the empire. Die Versammlung der — stände, the assembly of the estates of the empire, of the kingdom. — ständisch, adj. and adv. belonging, due to a state or the states of the empire. — standschaft, f. quality of the state or estate of the empire; rights, prerogatives of an estate &c. — steuer, f. i. post, duty, tax raised for the necessities of the kingdom, of the state, of the empire. — tag, m. the diet. Der schwedische, deutsche — tag, the Swedish, [former] German diet, the diet of Sweden, of the empire, the imperial diet; einen — tag aussprechen, zusammen berufen, to convocate a diet, the estates. — tagsabschied, m. V. — abschied. — tagsgesandte, m. deputy to the diet. — thaler, m. a rix-dollar, a crown of the empire. — truppen, pl. troops of the empire. — unmittelbar, adj. and adv. V. — frei. — vassall, m. vassal of the empire. — verfassung, f. constitution of the empire, of the kingdom. — verfassungsmäßig, adj. and adv. conformable to the constitution of the empire, of the kingdom. — versammlung, f. assembly of the estates or states of a kingdom, of the empire. — verwalter, m. administrator of the state of the kingdom, of the empire. — verwaltung, f. administration of the state, of the kingdom, of the empire. — verweser, m. 1) V. — verwalter. 2) regent; it. V. — vicarius. — verweser = Schaft, f. — vicariat, n. regency; it. vicariate of the empire. — vicarius, m. [— verweser] vicar of the empire. — vogt, m. prefect of the empire. — völker, pl. V. — truppen. — währung, f. value or current value of the money or coin of the empire. In — währung bezahlen, to pay in coin or money of the empire, or of a state, in imperial money. — wald, m. V. — forst. — wappen, n. the arms of a kingdom, of an empire, of a state, of the empire. — werth, m. V. — währung. — zepter, m. and n. sceptre of a kingdom, of the empire.

Reichard [obsolete]. Richard, [-s, pl. -e] [name of men] Richard.

Reichen, [allied to ragen, recken &c.] l. v. intr. [sich ausdehnen, erstrecken] to stretch, to expand, to extend, to spread, to reach, to go or come. Sein Gut reicht bis an den Fluß, his estate or property reaches down to the river; das Wasser reicht mir bis an die Brust, the water came up to my breast; dieser Berg reicht bis in die Wolken, this mountain towers up [ascends] to the clouds; seine or ihre Haare reichten ihm or ihr bis an den Gürtel, his or her hair reached down or descended to his or her girdle or waist; er reicht mir nicht bis an das Kinn, he does not reach my chin, come up to my chin; mit der Hand an Etwas —, to reach towards something with the hand; ich kann nicht so weit, nicht bis an die Decke —, I cannot reach so far, not up to the ceiling; das Geschütz reicht nicht bis hierher, the artillery or ordnance does not range, carry so far as here, this is beyond the reach or range of cannon-shot. Prov. Die Arme der Könige &c. — weit, kings &c. have long arms. Fig. a) [sich erstrecken] So weit das Auge reicht, as far as the eye reaches, extends; so weit die Stimme reicht, as far as the voice reaches, carries, bears; so weit reicht seine Macht, his power, his credit does not reach, extend so far; des Menschen Leben reicht selten an hundert Jahre, the life of man seldom attains a century. b) [hinreichend seyn] to suffice to be sufficient or adequate. Dazu wird sein Vermögen nicht —, his property will not be sufficient or enough for it, his income will not reach it; sein Geld hat gereicht, his money has sufficed, has been adequate [to his purpose &c.]; so weit die Summe — mag, as far as the sum may go, will be able to reach; das reicht nicht unter so Viele, that is not enough amongst so many. c) to do, to make do, V. Ausreichen. Er hat mit seinem Gelde gereicht, he has done, made do with his money, he has had enough money, his money has been adequate for his wants &c.; wir haben damit gereicht, we have made do with that or it, we have made that do, it was enough to effect our purpose, gratify our wishes &c.; das Geld reichte mir eben noch zur Bezahlung meiner Zechen, I had just eked out my money to be able to pay the landlord's bill. II. v. tr. to reach, to stretch forth or out, to extend, to present, to give. Einem die Hand —, to present or give one's hand to any one; einem Kinde die Brust —, to give a child the breast. Einem das Abendmahl —, to administer to any one the Lord's supper or communion; einem Bettler ein Almosen —, to give a beggar charity. Fig. Zoll, Steuern &c. — [more usual, now, zahlen], to pay, [fam.] to band in, [low] to fork out, the duty, taxes &c.; er reicht ihm das Wasser nicht [fam. and proverbial] he is not fit to hold a candle to him; Einem den nöthigen Unterhalt —, to hand, to furnish any one the necessary subsistence or support; Einem hülfreiche Hand —, to stretch forth a succouring hand to any one. Das —, the presentation. Das — der Steuer &c., the paying or payment of the taxes &c.; das — des Abendmahles, the administering of the communion.

Reichfrischen, v. intr. [anreichern] [with miners] to enrich copper by refining or remelting, or by the union of poorer coppers into one. Das —, the freshening and enriching of copper by remelting, refining &c.

Reichhaltig, adj. and adv. [with miners] — e Erze, rich ores; — e Schrift, a writing, work full of or rich in valuable, instructive matter; seine Worte sind — an schönen Gedanken, an wighigen Einfällen, his words are full of, are rich in, abound in fine thoughts, in witty ideas or lively sallies; — er Stoff, rich matter, rich subject, rich material.

Reichhaltigkeit, f. richness, wealthy state.

Reichheit, f. 1) V. Reichhaltigkeit. 2) the state of being rich, possessing wealth, V. Reichthum.

Reichlich, adj. and adv. 1) rich, abundant. — e Geschenke, Almosen, rich presents, liberal gifts, alms, bountiful or great charity; eine — e Geldbewilligung, a liberal allowance; er hat sein — es Auskommen, he has his comfortable income, snug little income of his own, he has enough to live on, he has an independence, he is independent or has an independent property; seine Kinder — versorgen, to provide amply for one's children; er giebt den Armen —, he gives [away] largely to the poor; er wünscht sich kein Vermögen, er ist — damit versehen, he wants for himself no fortune, he is richly provided for, he is well off; er ist — [dafür] bezahlt, belohnt worden, he has been amply, richly, well paid, rewarded, [fam.] he is paid, rewarded enough in all conscience; it. [figuratively and ironically] he has got his due, he has been well paid off for it. it. [in medicine] — e Absonderungen, Ausleerungen, Ausscheidungen, a liberal discharge of matter. 2) [hinreichend] sufficient, enough, adequately.

Reichthum, m. [-es, pl. Reichthümer] wealth, riches, opulence. Der größte — eines Volkes, the greatest wealth of a nation; eine unermessliche Quelle des — s für dieses Land sind &c., an inexhaustible source or mine of wealth, of riches to this country is &c.; unermesslicher —, große &c. Reichthümer, immense wealth, great &c. riches; das ist mein ganzer —, there are all my riches, all that I possess; er weiß seines — s kein Ende [in pop. language], he knows no end to his wealth, he does not know himself what he is worth, he revels, he rolls in wealth. Prov. Zufriedenheit geht über —, contentment is the greatest wealth or beyond riches. Fig. Der — einer Sprache, der Gedanken, the richness, copiousness of a language, of the thoughts; er besitzt einen großen — von Kenntnissen, he possesses a great wealth, stock, fund, depth, has a great store of knowledge, of acquirements, a world of lore.

Reif, [perhaps from the Old Sax. ripan, ripan, that is raffen, to reap and gather in for harvest] adj. and adv. ripe, mellow. Halb —, half ripe; — machen, to make ripe, to ripen, to mature, to mellow; — werden, to become, grow or turn ripe or mellow, to ripen;

[by synecdoche] manche Früchte sind zeitig, ohne daß sie zugleich — [genießbar] sind, many fruits of the earth are in season, come to maturity, without being at the same time eatable, good to eat. Fig. Das Holz ist noch nicht —, the wood is not yet come to its full age; so bald das Geschwür — war, as soon as the tumour was ripe; das — e Alter, the ripe age, the marriageable age, puberty; dieses Mädchen ist —, ist — zum Ehestande, this maiden is of ripe years, is at the age of puberty, is marriageable, is ripe or fit for marriage. [sarcastic] is nubile; — er Verstand, — es Urtheil, a ripe understanding, mature judgment; nach — er Ueberlegung, after mature deliberation; die Sache ist noch nicht —, the affair is not yet ripe, mature; dieser Verbrecher ist — zur Strafe, this criminal is ripe for punishment, this miscreant is at the summit of his crimes. Syn. Reif, Zeitig. When fruit has attained its proper size and perfection, it is called reif. For this, however, a certain time is required and when it has reached this, it is called zeitig. There are fruits, as, for instance, the medlar, which are zeitig without being reif. These acquire their Reife only after they are gathered and laid to ripen on straw.

1. Reif, m. [-es, pl. -e] [allied to greifen, to seize, to embrace; also to Schraube &c.] 1) Ein goldener — [Ring], a golden or gold-ring; ein goldener mit Edelsteinen besetzter —, a gold hoop ring; ein — um die Stirne [= Diadem, Stirnband, frontlet, fillet; der gewundene — an einem Trageforbe, the hoop wound round a dorsal panier, or porter's basket; [at the neck of any bulging vessel or tub] ring, top-hoop; [in war] a pitch-hoop, a tarred hoop; [in architecture] astragal, torus, tore, tondin; [in heraldry] sycamore [on the shield]; schwarzer Schild mit einem goldenen — e, shield sable with sycamore or; [with locksmiths] der — in einem Schlosse, the cap in a lock; eiserner —, serule or fret [round the nave of a wheel; head of a post, end of a stick &c.], tire [round the felloes]; V. Helm —, Steg —, Sturm —, Ortband, Zwinge. 2) [commonly] [for casks &c.] hoop. Hölzerner, eiserner —, wooden, iron-hoop; — e um ein Faß &c. legen, to put on hoops round a barrel &c.; die — e [oben und unten] an einem Eimer, the hoops to a bucket; den — treiben or schlagen [with children], to drive or strike a hoop, to play at hoop; durch einen — springen, to vault or jump through a hoop.

Reif = beuge, f. [with coopers] hoop-bender, hoop-pincher or callipers. — binder, m. V. — macher. — eisen, n. hoop-iron. — haken, m. [with blacksmiths] hoop-hook, hook for bringing an iron hoop on the wheel; [with joiners] [= Zwinge] cramp, vice-pin — holz, n. wood fit for making hoops — flöber, m. [Reifer] splitter. — macher, m. hoop-maker, cooper. — messer, n. [with coopers] cooper's adz; cooper's plane or shaver. — rock, — unterrock, m. hoop-gown, hoop-petticoat, a farthingale. — schlagen, n. game of hoop, play at driving-hoop. — spiel, n. V. — schlagen. — stab, m., — stange, f., — steden, m. V. — holz. — zange, f. V. — beuge. — zieher, m. V. — beuge. — zwinge, f. [with coopers] hoop-cramp or vice-pin; it. V. — haken.

2. Reif, m. [-es, pl. -e], dim. — chen, || — lein, n. [-s, pl. -e] [allied to Rippe, Streif, Ranft, instead of Rand, &c.] 1) [Tag] rope 2) edge of the key-bit or a key-ward. 3) [with locksmiths] the tooth of a key-bit, a key-chamfret.

Reif = bah, f. V. Seilerbahn. — schläger, m. [Seiler] rope-maker. — schlägerei, f. rope-making. —schlitt, —schlitten, m. [with rope-makers] a four-wheeled frame or cradle.

3. Reif, m. [-es, pl. -e] [in the old northmannic tongue hrim, Fr. frimas, Dutch rjm, ryp] 1) hoar-frost, rime. Mit — bedeckt, covered with hoar-frost, with a white frost, with frozen dew; es ist ein starker — gefallen, a sharp or strong hoar-frost has fallen; der durch den — verursachte Schaden, the damage done by a hoar-frost, the blast; V. Raub—, Roh—. 2) Der — der Pflaumen &c., the bloom of plums &c.

Reifmonat, m. November [frimaire].

4. Reif, [in geography, the old German name for] Riva [city in Italy].

Reife, f. Die — des Obstes, maturity, ripeness, mellowness, ripe state of fruit; zur — kommen, zu seiner — gelangen, to come to maturity or ripeness, to become ripe or mellow; auf dem Punkte der — stehen, seyn, to be at the point of ripeness; zur — bringen, to bring to ripeness, maturity; die Sonne bringt die Früchte zur —, the sun brings the fruits of the earth to maturity; die — des Alters, Verstandes, the maturity of age, of the reason or understanding; diese Sache ist zur — gediehen, this thing has thrived or advanced to maturity; dieses Geschwür ist zu seiner — gekommen, this tumour or abscess is got ripe, has come to a head, has suppurated; ein Geschwür zur — bringen, to bring a boil &c. to a head, to supuration.

Reifeln, v. tr. [in architecture], to channel, flute, chamfer, gutter, rebate; [with gun-makers] to rifle. Eine gereifelte Säule, a fluted column or pillar.

1. Reifen, I. v. intr. [u. w. haben and seyn] [reif werden] to ripen, to mellow to become, get, grow or turn ripe. Die Trauben haben or sind sehr spät gereift, the grapes have ripened very late; die — de Frucht, the ripening corn, wheat &c.; die — den Aehren, the ripening ears of corn, the ears of corn turning yellow or golden. Fig. Er war schon zum Manne gereift, als &c., he was already ripened into manhood, he had already attained the age of maturity, when &c. II. v. tr. [reif machen] to make ripe, to turn ripe, to ripen, to mellow, to mature. Die Sonne reift das Obst, the sun ripens the fruit. Fig. Die Erfahrung hat seinen Verstand gereift, experience has ripened, matured his understanding. Das —, the act or state of ripening &c.; the ripening; the state of being ripe; maturation; fig. perfection, [of tumours &c.] supuration.

2. Reifen, [V. 1 Reif] v. tr. 1) Ein Faß &c., to hoop a cask &c., V. 2. Bereifen. 2) [term of art] V. Reifeln.

Reifloben, m. chamfer-pincers.

3. Reifen, [V. 3. Reif] v. imp. to form a hoar-frost, to be a white or a hoar-frost. Um diese Zeit pflegt es zu —, about this time hoar-frosts are common, frequent, we are apt or liable to have hoar-frosts about this time or season of the year; es hat stark gereift, there has been a sharp white frost.

Reifer, m., —bahn, f. V. Seiler, Seilerbahn.

Reiflich, adj. and adv. Etwas — überlegen, prüfen, to consider, examine any thing maturely, ripely, deliberately; nach — er Ueberlegung, Prüfung, after [a] ripe, mature deliberation, examination.

Reifling, m. [-es, pl. -e]. [with gardeners, vine-dressers] [Wasser-schößling] sucker, ground-shoot, stolo.

Reigen, —tanz, m. [with poets] V. Reizen 2), Reihentanz.

Reiger, m. V. Reiber.

Reigras, n. V. Reihgras.

Reihe, f. [pl. -n] [allied to regen, richten &c.] 1) row, rank. Eine — Häuser, Bäume, Stühle &c., a row of houses, trees, chairs &c.; eine — Menschen, Soldaten, [abreast or in width] a line, row, rank of men, soldiers, [in succession or depth] line, row, rank, suite of men, file [opposed to rank] of soldiers; eine lange — stattlicher Krieger, a long array of stately warriors; eine — Säulen, a row, line, suite, run of pillars or columns, a colonnade; zwei schöne — n Perlen, Zähne, two beautiful rows or strings of pearls, rows of teeth; eine doppelte, dreifache —, a double, triple row, two, three ranks deep, [above one another] a double, triple tier; in einer — hinter einander hergehen, to march off in file, to file off, to go off or pass on one by one, two by two &c.; in — n vorbei ziehen lassen, to cause to pass by or to go past in files; eine — bilden, to form a rank, row, file, suite &c.; in eine —, in — n stellen, to range, form or place in a row or files; in der — bleiben, to keep in rank, in the file; aus der — treten, to leave the ranks, to step out from the rank or file; sich in die — stellen, to place one's self in the rank or file, to range one's self along with the others breast-a-breast, to file off with others; die — schließen, to close ranks, the file; eine lange — von Zimmern, a long suite of rooms or apartments; [with glass-cutters] die — n von Flächen an einem Kristalle, the rows of facets on a crystal; eine zusammenhängende — von Sätzen &c., a connected train, a series of propositions &c.; eine lange — von Phrasen, von Beinamen, a long string of phrases, of epithets [in mathematics] a series. Unendliche —, an infinite series; eine wachsende or zunehmende, eine abnehmende —, a divergent, convergent series; um die Summe dieser — n zu finden, to find the sum of these series. Fig. Eine — von Unglücksfällen &c., a succession of misfortunes &c.; er zählt unter seinen Vorfahren eine lange — von Königen, he counts amongst his ancestors a long line of kings. 2) a fixed rank, turn. Die — ist an mir, zu &c., it is my turn, to &c.; Sie mögen sprechen, wenn die — an Sie kommt, you may, can speak, when it comes to your turn; seine — ist vorbei, die — ist schon an ihm gewesen, his turn is past, it has already been his turn; die — wird auch an Sie kommen, your turn will also come, it will also be your turn, [fam.] it will be your turn next; jeder in seiner —, every one in his turn; die —, zu werfen, ist an Ihnen, it is your turn to throw [with the dice, ball &c.]. Syn. Reihe, Zeile. Reihe is used of every thing, Zeile usually only of written or printed characters. We say, the soldiers were placed in a Reihe. On the contrary, of a writing, we can say equally well, he has only written a Reihe, and he has only written a Zeile; the first, second, last Reihe or Zeile.

Reihen=draht, —faden, m. [with seamstresses] basting-thread, tacking-thread. —gang, m. [Procession] procession. —tanz, m. V. Reiben 2).

1. Reiben, v. tr. Die Soldaten &c., to range, arrange, marshal, array, place in ranks, draw up in array the soldiers &c.; Perlen &c. — or an —, to thread or string pearls &c.; sich — [of several or many persons], to make room, to step out of the way; it. to place one's self, to range alongside. Fig. Seine Gedanken — [ordnen], to arrange, to regulate, to classify one's thoughts; [with seamstresses] ein Kleid —, to baste, to tack a dress; in Falten —, to baste or tack in folds, to gather, to quill, to set.

2. Reiben, [allied to schreiben, Fr. crier] v. intr. [in sporting language] 1) to yelp [as foxes]. 2) to couple, to pair [as some water-fowl].

Reihen or [chiefly with poets] Reigen, m. [-s] 1) or —gesang, m. [Gesang, Lied] song, air. Einen — singen, to sing an air, a song; V. Berg—, Ruh—. 2) — or —tanz, m. a chain-dance, a dance with linked hands; [in a more general sense] den — führen [= Vortänzer seyn] to lead off the dance, in den — treten, to join the dance. Fig. [in popular lang.] Er wird auch an den — müssen, he will have his turn, it will come to his turn, [fam.] his turn will come next.

Reihen=führer, m. the leader off of the dance, of the chain dance. —gang, m. procession.

Reihenweise, adv. in rows, in files, in ranks, in turns, by turns &c.

1. Reiher, m. [-s, pl. -] [from reihen?] [in seamen's language] [= Bindseil] lashing.

2. Reiher, m. [-s, pl. -] [from reihen, to scream] [in nat. hist.] the heron, hern. Der blaue —, the blue crabber or cancrorhagus, the blue crab-eater heron of America; der große, aschfarbige —, the heronshaw; der kleine, weiße — [Busch—], the egretta, the white-tufted heron; der bunte —, the grey heron, the heron of Brittany, the pseudo-nycticorax; der gesternte —, V. Rohrdommel; — beizen, auf — beizen, to fly at the heron [of the falcon]; it. [of the sportman] to chase the heron by flying the falcon [at the heron].

Reiher=beize, f. the flight of the heron, the hawking at the heron. Ein zur — beize, auf die — beize abgerichteter Falke, a falcon trained for flying at the heron; zur — beize tüchtiger Vogel, a hawk adapted to or entered at the heron. —busch, m. 1) heron's crest or tuft of white feathers. 2) a crest, tuft or ornamental plume of heron's-feathers. —ente, f. Penelope's bird, the Penelope duck. —falk, m. a falcon entered at or trained for the heron. —feder, f. a heron's feather. —fett, n. heron-fat. —fleisch, n. heron's-flesh. —gehäute, n. V. —hütte. —gras, n. [in botany] feathered agrostis, heron-feathered bent-grass, heron feather-grass. —hütte, f. heronry, heronshaw. —jagd, f. V. —beize. —öl, n. heron-oil [for alluring fish]. —schabel, m. heron's-beak; [in botany] V. Storchschnabel. —stand, m. heronry, heronshaw. —strauß, —stuh, m. V. —busch.

Reihgras, n. [-es] [in botany] [das knotige Vieharas] 1) bulbous panic-grass or dog's-tooth. 2) couch-grass, quick-grass, quitch or quake-grass, V. Quecke.

Reihnagel, m. [-s, pl. -nägel] [with coachmakers] the pole-bolt [of a carriage].

Reihweise, adv. V. Reihenweise.

Reistopp, n. [-es, pl. -e] [in seamen's lang.] top-gallant-mast-head [pole or head for the top-gallant-royal].

Reim, m. [-es, pl. -e] [appears allied to reihen] 1) [obsolete] a poem, V. Gedicht. 2) [—vers] a rhyming verse, a rhyme. —e machen, to make verses, to versify, to compose, [in a bad sense] to make rhymes, to rhyme; it. to put into metre, into verse; in —e bringen, to bring into rhyme; schlechte —e machen, to make wretched rhymes, sorry verses, to poetize, to rhyme. 3) rhyme. Männliche —e, rhymes when falling upon final or pausal accentuated monosyllables, male rhymes; weibliche —e, final or pausal trochee-rhymes, female rhymes; ein gleiten-der —, a dactylic-rhyme; unreine —e, im- perfect, impure, false rhymes; abwechselnde —e, alternate rhymes, long and shorts, ele- giac or ballad-rhymes; nicht abwechselnde —e, unmixed rhymes, heroic rhymes, plain eng- lish or good old english rhymes; verses in couplets; doppelte —e, doubled rhymes, rhymes in duplicate; ein glücklicher —, a fortunate, lucky rhyme; reiche —e, a) ho- mosyllabic rhymes, b) jingling rhymes; V. Beberreim.

Reim = art, f. 1) kind of rhyme or rhymes. 2) the mode or manner of rhyming. — auf- gabe, f. 1) rhyme-endings or fragments of rhymed verses [given as an exercise &c. to an improvisatore &c.]. 2) a sonnet [so composed]. — bold, m. [in a bad sense] V. — schied. — fall, m. the cadence, the caesural or final pause. — frei, adj. and adv. not rhymed, without rhymes, rhymeless rhyme-free. — freies Gedicht, — freie Verse, a poem in blank verse, blank verses. — gedicht, n. poem in rhyme. — geseß, n. couplet, strophe, stanza. — kunst, f. art of composing rhymes, art of composing verse in rhyme. — los, adj. and adv. V. — frei. — räthsel, n. an enigma in rhyme, a charade in verse. — regel, f. a rule on the art of versifying or rhyming. — register, n. V. — wörterbuch — richter, m. the consonant preceding or commencing the rhyme. — saß, V. — geseß. — schied, m. [in a bad sense] a rhymester, rhymester, rhy- mist, a poetaster, a small-beer or a water- gruel poet, a hack-versifier, a sorry jingler. — silbe, f. the rhyming syllable. Vorge- schriebene — silben, rhyme fragments [bouts- rimes]. — spiel, n. game at rhyme-making, rhyme-forfeits, rhyme-capping. — spruch, m. rhymed sentence; a rhyme. — such, f. rage, mania, cacothies of rhyming. — werk, n. V. Reimerei — wort, n. the word that rhymes in a verse, the rhyme-word. — wör- terbuch, n. a rhyming dictionary, a dictio- nary of rhymes.

Reimeln, v. intr. [diminutive from reimen] [in a bad sense, fam.] to rhyme, [fam.] to make doggerel lines, to ape Hudibras.

1. Reimen, I. v. tr. to make to rhyme, to cause to rhyme. Ein Wort auf das andere —, to make one word rhyme with another, [in a bad sense] to rhyme; er thut nichts, als —, he does nothing but rhyme, but make doggerel verses, but scribble his hack- rhymes; dieses Gedicht ist schlecht gereimt, the rhyming of this poem has been slovenly at- tended to; gereimte Prosa, prose run mad. Fig. [fam.] Ich kann das nicht —, nicht zusammen —, I can't make this out, I cannot reconcile these words, these actions, these events &c., [fam.] I am quite in the dark here. II. v. intr. and refl. sich —, to rhyme. Diese Wörter — gut auf einander, — sich gut, these words rhyme well; dieses Wort reimt nicht mit je- nem, reimt sich schlecht zu jenem, this word does not rhyme with that, rhymes badly with that one. Fig. [fam.] Diese Dinge — sich nicht zu- sammen, these things do not rhyme or har- monize, don't tally, don't agree, there is very little agreement in these things; wie reimt sich das mit dem or zu dem, was Sie mir gestern sagten? how does this rhyme or tally with that, which you told me yesterday?

2. Reimen, v. refl. [appears allied to the Lat. rum-or, or to 2. reihen] [in sportsmen's language] sich —, to call one another [as waterfowl do].

Reimer, m. [-s, pl. -] a rhymester, [now, generally in a bad sense] a rhymester, rhymist &c. V. Reimschmied. Dieser Dichter ist ein sehr guter —, this poet is an excellent rhymester, versifier; er ist kein Dichter, er ist bloß ein elender —, he is no poet, he is only a miser- able or scurvy rhymester, a paltry versifier.

Reimerei, f. [generally in a bad sense] [das Reimen] 1) rhyming. Er giebt sich mit — ab, he takes it into his head to be scribbling rhymes, to be versifying. 2) doggerel poetry, Hudibrastic jingle.

Rein, m. [-es, pl. -e] V. Rain.

Rein, [the radical signification is that of what is washed, white, blank, spotless; in low Sax. reggen is used for rein, and rafen (the Engl. to rake) for scheuern, to wash] adj. and adv. 1) clear, spotless, stain- less, pure, clean. Ein —er [blanker] Spiegel, a clear, spotless, unclouded looking-glass or mirror; —er Teller, —es Geschirr, a clean plate, clean vessels, dishes, utensils &c.; —es Hemd, Bett, clean shirt, bed; haltet eure Hände, eure Zähne —, keep your hands, your teeth clean; die Kinder — halten, to keep the children clean [tidy]; dieses Kind war schon mit dem zweiten Jahre —, this child kept itself clean at the age of two years even; die Straßen — halten, to keep the streets clean [for another meaning see under 2)]; eine —e Schrift, —er Druck, fair writing, fair impres- sion; eine Schrift, eine Zeichnung in's —e bringen, to make a fair writing, drawing; it. to engross a writing, a minute, a document, a deed; — schreiben, to write fair, neat, clean; to engross; eine Sache in's —e bringen, to bring an affair to light, to arrange it, to put it in order, in a clear point of view; it. to settle an affair; die Stube — machen, to make the room clean, to clean the room. Fig. a) sound, whole, intact, un- tainted, pure, clean, unblemished. —es Vieh, —e Schaafe, sound cattle, sheep [op- posed to Schmiervieh, cattle tainted, foul]. b) clean [in a scriptural sense]. Die Juden halten sich nur dann für —, wenn &c., the Jews con- sider themselves clean only when &c.; —e Thiere, clean beasts or animals [in the Mosaic law]. c) [used in certain arts &c.] —e Um- risse, clear, distinct, pure outlines; — zeich- nen, to draw, to delineate with purity, clearly, in a clean, free manner [without daubing]; —e Stimme, a clear, pure, smooth [not husky or thick], even, articulate voice; das Clavier ist nicht — gestimmt, the piano is not in perfect tune; ganz —es Latein, perfectly pure latin; ein Wort — sprechen, to speak a word pure, in all its purity, to pronounce a word purely, correctly, to speak a word properly; —e Schreibart, a pure, clear, perspicuous, free, unembarrassed style; —er Ausdruck, Vor- trag, clear, distinct, lucid expression, dic- tion; — schreiben, eine Sprache — sprechen, to write clearly, intelligibly, purely, to speak a language in all its purity, classically; die —e Lehre [in theology], the pure doctrine. d) free of certain moral defects. Eine —e Liebe, a pure love [without sensual admixture]; it. sincere, true love [without sinister motives or dissimulation]; —e Begierden, pure, lawful desires; ein —es Herz, a clean, candid, spot- less, unblemished, pure heart; —es Gewiss-sen, a pure, free, sound, clean conscience; ich weiß mich —, I know that I am clean, upright; seine Sache ist nicht —, his case or cause is not clean, pur, free of blame, censure &c.; er hat seine Hände —, einen —en Mund ge- halten, he has kept his hands clean, pure, free, his mouth closed, shut, stopped; —e Gedanken, pure, immaculate, uncontaminated thoughts; eine —e Jungfrau, a pure, spot- less, immaculate, chaste virgin. Prov. Den —en ist Alles —, to the pure all things are pure, Hony soit qui mal y pense, evil be to him that evil thinks. 2) pure [free of all fo- reign admixture]. —es Gold, —er Wein, —es Wasser, —e Luft, pure unalloyed gold, pure unadulterated, genuine, unmixed wine, pure, plain water, pure, fresh air; dieser Diamant ist ganz —, hat ein sehr —es Wasser, this diamond is quite pure, without a flaw, has a very fine, clear water; ein —es Blatt Pa- pier, a clean sheet of paper; —es Korn, —er Weizen &c. [unmixed with tares, grit &c.], clean corn, wheat &c.; die —e Mathematik, pure mathematics; die Straßen — [vom Gesindel] halten, to keep the streets clear, free [of vagabonds &c.] [for another meaning see under 1)]; sein Haus — halten, to keep one's house clear, free [of unwelcome visitors &c.]; die Hündin ist — belegt, the bitch is lined by a dog of the same breed; —er Be- stand [with foresters], a district covered with wood of one sort; der —e Geist, the pure, abstract spirit; die —e Wahrheit, the plain truth; aus —en Beweggründen handeln, to act from pure [independent] motives; sein —es Einkommen beläuft sich auf &c., his net income amounts to &c.; das ist —e Bos- heit, that is pure, downright wickedness; das ist —er Verlust, that is clear, sheer, utter loss; das Erz — machen und — waschen, to free the ore of all impurities by washing. V. Wein. Fig. completely, clean. Das Haar — vom Kopfe abscheeren, to shave off the hair clean. [low] smack, smooth from the head; Alles — wegtragen, to carry every thing clean off; das ist — unmöglich, that is quite impossible; — nichts erhalten, to re- ceive nothing at all. 3) empty. —es Haus machen, to make a clean house of it; — ausgehen, to go out empty, to get nothing. SYN. V. Lauter, Nett.

Rein = dunklerei, f. [in grammar, rather unusual] over-nice, a too scrupulous purity in language, over-refinement in the choice of words &c.; purism. — geist, m. [new word] alcohol. — gläubig, m. [new word] orthodoxy; pure faith. — gläubig, adj. and adv. orthodoxal; believing in, entertaining the pure faith. Die —gläu- bigen, the orthodox; it. [in a more particu- lar sense, in England] the puritans; Lehre — gläubigen, puritanism. — haaren, v. intr. [with tawers] to depilate a second time, to re-abrade or scrape off clean the hair. Das —haaren, the scraping clean. — hanf, m. hatched, combed or dressed hemp. — schrei- ber, m. a copier out fair, a fair-copier, an engrosser. — schrift, f. a fair copy.

Reinblume, Reinfarn, Reinweide, f. [corrupted for Rainblume &c., which see].

Reine, der, die, das, V. under Rein.

Reinecke, m. [-s, pl. -] 1) [old proper name] Reineck. 2) [in fables] reynard, [rare] renard.

Reinette, f. [pl. -n] rennet, renneting, pippin, queen-apple.

Reinhard, m. [-es, pl. -e] [name of men] Reinhard, Regnard.

Reinheit, f. purity, cleanliness. Die — des Goldes, der Luft, des Wassers, the purity of gold, air, water: die — eines Spiegelglases &c., the clearness of a looking glass &c. Fig. Die — der Stimme, Schreibart &c., the clearness of the voice, of the style &c.; die — des Ausdrucks, Vortrags, der Sprache, the perspicuity of the expression, purity of the diction, of the language: übertriebene Sorgfalt für die — der Sprache, purism; die — der Sitten, des Glaubens, der Absichten, the purity of the manners, euehism; of the belief, orthodoxy; of the intentions, ingenuousness; die jungfräuliche —, maiden purity, virgin-chastity.

Reinhold, m. [-es, pl. -e] [name of men] Reinhold.

Reinigen, v. tr. [= waschen] to clean; [= läutern] to purify. Die Schuhe &c. vom Roste —, to clean the shoes &c. from the dirt; die Hände vom Schmutze —, to get the dirt off one's hands; ein Kind, das sich besudelt hat, —, to clean a child that has dirtied itself; den Hafen, die Gräben, die Straßen &c. —, to clean the harbour, ditches, streets &c.; einen Brunnen —, to cleanse, to clean out a pump, a well, fountain or source; vom Schlamm —, to cleanse, to clear &c. from the slime; sich die Zähne —, to clean one's teeth; die Luft, das Wasser &c. —, to purify the air, water &c.; die Metalle —, to purify, to refine metals; Gold reiniget sich im Tiegel, gold purifies, refines itself in the crucible; gereinigtes Gold, refined, pure gold; eine Flüssigkeit —, to cleanse, to clarify, to fine, to depurate a fluid or liquid; die Luft reiniget sich durch das Feuer, air is purified, rendered innocuous by fire; [in Scripture] sich —, to purify one's self [a Mosaic institution]; [in medicine] dieses Arzneimittel reiniget das Blut, den Unterleib, das Gehirn, this medicine purifies, cleanses, purges, acts as a detergent to the blood, the bowels, the brain; die Eingeweide —, to evacuate the bowels; [with surgeons] eine Wunde, ein Geschwür —, vom Eiter —, to cleanse a wound, to deterge an apostome, to express and cleanse, to mundify from pus; dieses Kraut hat eine —de Kraft, this vegetable has a purifying, it. purging or aperient quality; die Natur reiniget sich bei diesen Kindern, nature is throwing out the bad humours in these children; —des Mittel, —de Mittel, a purifying, detergent, detersive, depurative, depuratory, cleansing remedy, a detergent; it. aperients; den Weingeist —, to rectify spirits of wine; gereinigter Weingeist, rectified spirits of wine; das Kupfer vom Grünspane —, to take the verdigris off copper. Fig. Einen Wald vom Felde —, to fill up the bare spots of a wood with trees; das Meer von Seeräubern —, die Straßen, die Landstraßen von Dieben, von Räubern —, to scour the seas, to sweep the seas of pirates, the streets, the roads or highways of thieves, of robbers; die Sprache von fremden Wörtern —, to purify a language of its foreign words; den Geschmack —, to refine the taste, to render the taste more sensitive: sich von einer Anklage, einem Verbrechen —, sich durch einen Eid —, to free or exonerate one's self from an accusation or charge, to clear one's self of a crime, to exculpate or disculpate one's self, to absolve one's self by an oath. Das —, V. Reinigung.

Reinigkeit, f. purity, cleanliness; V. Reinheit.

Reinigung, f. cleaning, purification.

Die — der Straßen, eines Hafens, the cleaning of the streets, cleansing of a harbour [by sluicing or dragging]; die — eines Grabens, Brunnens, the cleansing of a ditch or dike, of a well; die — der Metalle, the refining, fining of metals; die — des Blutes, the purifying, cleansing of the blood; die — einer Flüssigkeit, the depuration, defecation, fining of a fluid; der höchste Grad der — der Salze, des Schwefels, der Metalle, the exaltation of salts, of sulphur, of the metals; die — [Entwässerung] des Weingeistes, the dephlegmation, alcoholisation, rectification of spirit of wine; die nochmalige — des Salpeters, Schwefels, Zuckers, the refining of saltpeter, sulphur, sugar; [with alchemists] die — des Steines der Weisen, the purification, effusion, mundification of the philosopher's stone; [in surgery] die — einer Wunde, eines Geschwüres, the absterion of a wound, of a suppuration; [in medicine] die monatliche — der Frauenpersonen or Frauenzimmer, the menses, flowers, the menstrual flux or discharge, the periodical flow, the courses or terms, catamenia of women, [in polite life] the state of being unwell or being out of order, [low, or in jest] the red letter-days; sie hatte ihre — [amongst ladies], she was out of order, she was unwell; wenn die monatliche — der Weiber eintritt, when the menstrual discharge of women comes on; Mittel, welche die monatliche — befördern, emmenagogues, menagogues. Abhandlung oder Lehre von der monatlichen —, catamenial nosology; die — der Weiber nach der Geburt, lochia, secundines, after-birth and evacuating discharge; [with Catholics] die —, the purification [of the chalice at mass by the priest]. Fig. Die — des Herzens, the purification of the heart; die — der Sprache, the refinement of language; [in the catholic liturgy] Mariä —, das Fest der — Mariä, the purification of the Virgin Mary, [fam.] candlemas, V. Lichtmesse; die — eines Angeklagten, the justification, exculpation, vindication of an accused; die kanonische —, the canonical purgation; die gesetzliche or levitische — [in Mosaic law], the legal purifications or lustrations.

Reinigungseid, m. oath of vindication or purgation, purgation or vindication by oath. —mittel, n. V. under Reinigen, reinigendes Mittel. —opfer, n. [with the ancients] lustration, expiatory sacrifice, expiation. —wasser, n. the lustral water [of heathen priests]. —wege, pl. [in medicine] the emunctories. —winde, —wurzel, f. jalap, julap.

Reinfräute, f. [Beerfräute or Beerhache] [with vinedressers] third dressing or pruning given to a vine.

Reinlich, adj. and adv. clean, cleanly, neat, tidy, decent. Sehr —es Zimmer, a very clean room; das Geschirr — halten, to keep the plates and dishes clean; —e Kleider, clean clothes; die Kinder — halten, to keep the children clean; sich — kleiden, sich in Wäsche und Kleidern sauber und — halten, to dress decently and cleanly, to keep one's self clean and neat in one's linen and clothes; dieser Mann ist sehr —, this man is very neat [in his person &c.], cleanly [in his habits]; sehr — auf seinem Leibe or auf seinen Leib seyn [in popular lang.], to be very cleanly in one's person; eine — e Köchin, a clean, nice cook; die Speisen sehr — zurechten, to dress food very cleanly, with a scrupulous attention to cleanliness.

Reinlichkeit, f. cleanness, cleanliness, neatness, niceness. Die — des Körpers, the cleanliness of the body; die — im Anzuge, im Hausgeräthe, cleanliness or neatness in dress, in furniture.

1. Reiß, m. V. Reiß.

2. Reiß, m. [probably = 3. Reiß] V. Sumpfsbinse.

3. Reiß, m. [es, pl. -er, -e], dim. —chen, ||—lein, n. [-s, pl. -e] [from riesen, Old Sax. risan, to rise; V. Reise, Reisen] scion, shoot, sprig, layer, sucker, offset, twig, spray, sprout; V. Pfropf—, Schoß—, Stamm—, Wurzel—. Ein —, —er abschneiden, to cut off a sprig, to prune or lop a shoot, scions; dünne —er treiben, to shoot weak wood; dünne —er [if close to the ground], stubs, [elsewhere] snags, spurs, stumps; die dünnen —er an den Enden der Zweige abschneiden, to lop off the short rough branches, snags or knots; wildes — an der Wurzel eines Baumes, sucker, stolo; — am Weinstocke, sucker, creeper, runner it. [as a collective] fagot, bundle of brush-wood.

Reißbaum, m. [with fowlers = Krafel] a dead tree with artificial limed branches and twigs, a decoy-tree. —bund, —bündel, —büschel, n. fagot a small fagot or bundle of wood. Ein Hundert —bündel, a hundred of fagots; grüne dünne —bündel, green fagots; dry fagots; —bunde, —bündel &c. machen, to make fagots, [in sieges] to make fascines; in Pech getränktes —bündel, a pitched fagot or fascine; das Machen der —bunde, fagot-making, fascine-making; die Einfassung eines Kunstweges, eines Deiches mit —bündeln, the lining of an artificial way, of a moat &c. with fascines. —büschelbinder, m. fagot-maker. —gebäude, n. [in seamen's lang.] dunnage. —holz, n. fagot-wood. Das Zusammenbinden des —holzes, fagot-making das —holz von beschnittenen or ausgeputzten Bäumen, lopped branches, cuttings, prunings, slips. —welle, f. V. —bund. —werk, n. fascine-work, fascines.

Reißche, V. Reuse.

Reise, f. [pl. -n] [V. Reisen = the old riesen, to rise, to raise one's-self up, that is, to move, to change or quit one place for another] 1) [old] a certain measure; [with weavers] the part already woven from the sley to the beam, the web, the measure or the length. 2) a certain extension; [with miners] a ditch or channel worn into the soil by water that has penetrated; a bank of alluvial soil. 3) [generally] journey, [for pleasure] tour; [by sea] voyage. Eine kurze —, a trip, an excursion; ganz kurze —, a jaunt; eine weite, lange —, a distant or wide, long journey or voyage; —n zu Wasser und zu Lande, travels by sea and land; eine —, —n thun, machen, to make a journey, voyages; er hat viele —n gethan, gemacht, he has travelled much, far and wide, has made many journeys or voyages; auf der — seyn, to be on a journey or voyage, on one's travels; wo geht die — hin? where does your journey take you to, lead to? where are you going? [fam.] where are you bound for? [in seamen's lang.] to what port? auf —n gehen, to go on one's travels; sich auf die — begeben, die — antreten, [fam.] sich auf die — machen, to enter upon one's journey, to set out upon one's travels, to start, to depart, to set forth or out; eine — nach Frankreich, Rom &c., a journey to France, Rome &c.; die Beschwerlichkeiten der —n, the fatigues of journeys, of travelling &c.; glückliche —! ich wünsche Ihnen glückliche —, a good journey! I wish you a safe or prosperous journey &c. auf —n lernt man Vieles, much is learned by travelling, seeing the world; auf seinen —n, on his travels; er hat seine —n beschrieben, eine Beschreibung von seinen —n herausgegeben, he has written, given an account of his travels, published a description of his travels; die —n über's Meer, voyages. [old] voyages beyond sea V. Ab—, Durch—, Entdeckungs—, Fuß—, Her—, Hin—, Land—, Luft—, Rück—, See—, Tage—. 4) V. —beschreibung.

Reise: altar, m. [with catholics] a travelling or portable altar. —anzug, m. travelling-dress. —apothek, f. —arzneikasten, m. medicine-chest, portable or travelling medicine-chest. —bedarf, m. —bedürfnis, n. articles and equipments necessary for travelling, V. —geräte. —beschreiber, m. a writer of travels or voyages; a tourist-writer. —beschreibung, f. relation, account, description of a voyage, journey &c. Sammlung von —beschreibungen, collection of voyages, travels &c. —besteck, n. travelling-case; travelling-equipage [implements, utensils &c.]. —bett, n. a travelling-bed, field-bed, camp-bed. —buch, n. an itinerary, a hand-book, manual or pocket travelling-companion. —bündel, n. a travelling bundle or parcel, [of an artisan &c.] a knapsack. Seizen —bündel schnüren [in familiar language], to do up, to pack up one's travelling-bundle, one's knapsack, [also used figuratively, chiefly comic] to pack up one's things. —cavalier, m. gentleman of or in the suite, attached to the train [of a high personage]. —erzählung, f. relation, narration, account of a voyage, journey &c. —fertig, adj. and adv. ready to set out on one's journey &c.; fully equipped or prepared for travelling. Sich —fertig halten, to hold one's self in readiness for setting out &c.; sich —fertig machen, to prepare one's self, to get one's self ready for travelling &c., to pack up one's trunk, one's things; —fertig seyn, to be ready for travelling &c., to be on the point of setting out &c. —flasche, f. hunting-flask, travelling-flask. —freund, m. 1) a tourist, a lover of travelling or rambling, a rambler, a pilgrim for pleasure, a traveller, a roamer or wanderer from choice, peregrinator, perambulator. 2) V. —gefährte. —frohone, f. [in feudal times] compulsory relays, pressing of cattle &c. in behalf of the lord of the manor or district, statute-relay-service. —führer, m. travelling harbinger, a court-courier for anticipating relays &c. —gebet, n. itinerary prayers, prayer for all those who travel by land or by water. —gebühr, f. [Diäten] travelling expences, reimbursement of one's fare and costs upon the road. —gefährte, m. travelling-companion, fellow-traveller. —gefolge, n. travelling-suite or train. —geld, n. travelling-money. Man hat ihm ein —geld ausgesetzt, his travelling money or allowance has been assigned him. —genos, m. V. —gefährte. —gepäck, —geräth, n. luggage, baggage. † —gesellschaft, m. V. —gefährte. —gesellschaft, f. travelling company or society. Unsere —gesellschaft bestand aus &c., our travelling-party was composed or consisted of &c. —gesellschaftster, m. travelling-companion, fellow-traveller. —helfer, n. travelling-halter for an equestrian journey. —handbuch, n. V. —buch. —hut, m. travelling-hat; it. hunting-cap. —jäger, m. huntsman of the suite; it. a sort of whipper-in. —jägerer, f. 1) hunters attached to the suite of a prince.

Hilvert, Deutsch • Engl. Wört. 2. Bd.

2) [in sportsmen's language] sport after small game; it. the hunt or collective members in such sport, the shooting-party. —junfer, m. V. —cavalier. —kapselle, f. V. —capelle. —kappe, f. travelling-cap. —karte, f. an itinerary card, a travelling-map, a map of the route. —kasten, m. —kästchen, —kistchen, n. a travelling-case. —keller, m. V. Glaschenkeller, Glaschenkutter. —kissen, n. travelling-cushion. —kiste, f. travelling-chest, box or trunk. —kleid, n. travelling-dress. —koffer, m. travelling-chest, box or trunk. —korb, m. travelling-hamper or basket, panier, hand-basket. —kost, f. travelling-fare, entertainment or cheer met by travellers. —kutsche, f. travelling-carriage or coach. —lied, n. a travelling-song; [in a more limited sense] pilgrim's hymn or song. —lust, f. 1) desire for travelling. Die Engländer besitzen eine große —lust, the English are very fond of travelling, are a nation of tourists, a migratory people, [fam., in jest, modern] a very locomotive people. 2) pleasure from or charm in travelling, a traveller's, wanderer's or tourist's delight. —lustig, adj. and adv. desirous of, delighting in travelling. —mann, m. [fam., chiefly in jest] [a great or eager] voyager, traveller. —mantel, m. travelling-cloak or mantle; boat-cloak; it. riding-coat, great-coat. —marschall, m. first gentleman or equerry in waiting while the court is travelling or on progress. —mütze, f. travelling-cap. —paß, m. passport, travelling permit. —pfennig, m. V. —geld; [for the poor] travelling-alms, viaticum. —pferd, n. travelling-horse, hackney, roadsier, riding-horse. —polster, n. V. —fissen. —rock, m. V. —steid. —sack, m. travelling-bag, carpet-bag; dim. —säckchen, —säcklein, n. bag, pouch; budget, wallet. —schreibzeug, n. portable writing-desk. —schritt, m. step of a traveller, travelling-step. Er hat einen guten —schritt, he steps out lustily, is a good walker or pedestrian. —schuh, m. a pedestrian's or traveller's shoe. —spiegel, m. pocket mirror or looking-glass. —stab, m. a traveller's staff, pilgrim's staff. —stiefel, m. a pedestrian's or traveller's boot. —stock, m. a traveller's stick, travelling-stick. —stunde, f. hour of departure. —sucht, f. rage, mania or phrenzy for travelling, roaming, wandering &c., enthusiasm for perambulating, peregrinating. —tag, m. 1) travelling-day. An unserm ersten —tage, on the first day of our journey. 2) day of departure. —tasche, f. wallet, provision-bag, game-bag or pouch, [of a rider &c.] courier's bag, budget. —taschenbuch, n. 1) pocket-book used in travelling. 2) V. —buch. —wagen, m. travelling-vehicle [as wagon, carriage &c.]. —weg, m. route, road, way. —werk, n. book or description of a voyage or journey made, of one's travels; it. collection of voyages and travels. —zeit, f. travelling-time. —zeug, n. V. —geräth, —bedarf.

Reisen, [= the old reisen, that is, to move, to change the relative position] v. intr. [u. w. fern] 1) [fam.] to be off, to decamp, to march, to cut one's stick, [at Cambridge] to say D. J. A. O. Er kann —, he can go, he can take or walk himself off, he can be off with his barrow. 2) to travel, [by water here and there] to cruise about. Zu Fuß, im Wagen —, to travel on foot, in a coach; mit der Post, mit Postpferden —, to travel by post, with post-horses; über Land —, to travel over-land, across country; zu Lande, zur See —, to travel by land, by sea or by water; wer in Italien, in der Schweiz reist, muß &c., whoever travels, [fam.] tours it in Italy, in Switzerland, must &c.; nach Italien, in die Schweiz &c. —, to travel to Italy, to Switzerland &c.; während wir in der Schweiz reisten, whilst travelling in Switzerland; er ist nach Rom gereist, he has travelled, made a journey to Rome, set out or off, has started for Rome; durch or über einen Ort —, to travel through, to pass through a place, over a spot &c.; hin und her —, to travel to and fro, to journey backwards and forwards, to go over the same ground; er reiset täglich zehn Meilen weit, he travels ten miles every day, [fam.] he travels or passes over ten miles' ground, does his ten miles daily; im Lande herum —, to travel about the country; er ist viel gereist, ein gereiseter Mann, he has travelled a good deal, he is a travelled man, a great or old traveller, [fam.] an old stager; wieder nach Hause —, to journey home, to return home, [fam.] to revisit one's Penates. one's household gods; ich bin des —s müde, I am tired of travelling, of roving about; eine Straße —, to take a route, or one's way; er ist or er hat sein ganzes Leben hindurch gereist, he has been travelling, roving &c. all his life.

Reisende, m. or f. [-n, pl. -n] traveller, voyager, [on the sea or land without a goal] rover, rambler, roamer. —zu Schiffe or auf dem Postwagen, [fig.] durch die Welt, das Leben [Passagier], a passenger on board ship, on the stage-coach, through the world or on earth, through life; dieser Gasthof ist sehr bequem für die —n, this inn is very comfortable for the passengers, has good accommodation for travellers &c.; der —eines Handelslungshauses, a traveller, commercial traveller, gentleman-traveller, [in jest] bagman, [formerly] a rider; es befanden sich auf diesem Schiffe hundert Soldaten und zwanzig —, there were a hundred soldiers and twenty passengers on board this vessel; it. [in popular language or with the trades] a wandering journeyman, a journeyman tailor, blacksmith &c. travelling on foot in search of work or to a foreign country for improving himself in his trade.

Reiser, m. [-s, pl. -] [obsolescent] traveller, voyager.

Reiserföhle, f. [pl. -n] [Grubenföhle, V. 3. Reis] pit-coal, fossil-coal, coal.

Reisig, n. [-es] collection of brushwood, bundle of coppice-wood, of loppings.

Reisigbesen, m. birch-broom. —bünd, —holz &c., V. Reisbünd &c.

†Reisig, adj. and adv. [veritten] riding. —er Knecht, a riding servant, [also] a horse-soldier, mounted trooper; der —e Zeug or Zug, cavalry, horse-cavalry; —es Pferd, V. Reitpferd; —er Förster, mounted forester or game-keeper; der —e, ein —er, mounted horseman, horse-soldier.

Reiß, m. [-es] [in Gr. ὄρυζα, in Span. and Port. arroz; perhaps allied to the Finnish ruis = corn, as well as to Oriz] rice. Ein Huhn mit — or in — gekocht, a fowl with rice, a pilau and a fowl, a fowl stewed or dressed in rice; —kochen, to cook, dress, boil, do rice; mit Butter und Fleisch gekochter —, rice dressed with butter and meat, a pilau; —in Milch gekocht, rice-milk; deutsches —, V. —gerste; schlesischer —, V. Mananagras.

Reißacker, m. rice-field. —ammer,

f. [in nat. hist.] rice-bunting, emberiza, oryzivora, the bob-wilson, agripenna, the pied rice-bird, rice-ortolan, the Carolina rice-thief. — artig, adj. like rice. [in botany] Das — artige Glanzgras [species of Phalaris], asperella. — bau, m. the culture or growing of rice. — beere, f. the fruit of the berberis, the herberry or barberry. — blume, f. [das feinste — mehl] rice-flour. — branntwein, m. [Wass] arrack, rack. — brei, m. 1) rice-pap, rice-gruel, rice-starch, rice thick-milk. 2) [in conchology] — breifinshorn rice-warted buccinum or whelk. — breimondschnecke, f. the rice-grained trochus or wreath. — breisnautilus, m. [in nat. hist.] the rice-grained paper-nautilus. — brod, n. rice-bread. — brühe, f. rice-soup, rice-broth, rice-potage. — dieb, m. V. — ammer. — dinkel, m. spelt, zea. — dublett, n. [in conchology] the thorny ox-heart, the rice-doublet. — ernte, f. rice-harvest. — feld, n. rice-field. — fresser, m. the Java rice eater, rice-bird of China, the padda, Coccothraustes caerulescens. — gerste, f. bearded barley. — kloß, m. rice-pudding. — koch, m. or n. [in cookery] a sort of rice-tart or pudding. — koralle, f. — körnchen, n. — körnerporzellan, f. [in conchology] the rice-grained porcelain-shell. — kraut, n. the annual stachys major Germanica. — kuchen, m. a rice-cake. — mäher, m. V. — fresser. — mehl, n. rice-flour. — müß, n. V. — brei. — papier, n. rice-paper. — pflanze, f. rice-plant. — schwaden, m. V. — artiges Glanzgras, under Reisartia. — speise, f. rice-food; a dish of rice. — stroh, n. rice-straw. — suppe, f. rice-soup. — vogel, m. 1) V. — ammer. 2) V. — fresser.

|| Reißelbeere, f. V. 1) Preiselbeere. 2) Berberisbeere.

Reißen, [the primitive meaning appears to be that of a quick movement, hence allied to the old riefen = reisen, to reiten, rasen &c.; moreover to rauschen, brausen; lastly in the signification of engraving or digging in, to rißen, Old Sax. vritan, Isl. and Swed. rita, Dutch ryten, Engl. to write] irr. I. v. intr. 1) [u. w. haben] to rush. An dieser Stelle reißt der Strom sehr, the stream or river rushes very strong at this spot, has a very strong or rapid current or course here; der Wind reißt [rather unusual], the wind rushes, blows violently. Fig. to gripe. Es reißt mich im Leibe, ich spüre ein — im Leibe [in den Eingeweiden], it gripes me in my stomach, I have got the gripes, a racking pain in my stomach or bowels; die — de Gicht, the flying gout; — de Schmerzen im Magen, in den Eingeweiden, racking or griping pains in the stomach, in the bowels; es reißt mich entsetzlich in der Schulter, it twinges me dreadfully in the shoulder; es reißt mich im Finger, my finger smarts, aches again; die Kolik verursacht ein heftiges R — in den Gedärmen, the cholic causes a violent griping in the bowels, [very low] entrails, guts. 2) [u. w. seyn] to cleave, split, burst, V. Ab — Auf — Aus — Zer —. Die Schnur, die Saite wird — or ab —, the cord, the string will break, snap; dieses Holz reißt leicht, this wood snaps, flies, splits easily; der Erdboden riß von der Hitze, the soil gaped, cracked, got fissures from the heat; dieses Gefäß ist in der Kälte gerissen, this tub is cracked by the frost; dieser Zeug reißt leicht, this stuff soon tears, rends, splits; ein Flintenstein, der reißt, a gun-flint that splinters, chips, flies. Fig. or Prov. Wenn alle Stricke —, when the worst comes to the worst, when it comes to the last shift, at the worst. 3) [u. w. haben] An Etwas —, to strain or tug at any thing, to draw, twitch or jerk something with violence. II. v. tr. 1) to move strongly. Die Saiten — [harpeggiren], to play arpeggio, [if very violent] to lash the strings. Fig. [in fam. lang.] Poffen —, to play the ape, the mountebank, the fool, the jester; Boten —, to speak indecently, to talk smut; Reime —, to make jingling, doggerel verses, to ape Hudibras with the wit left out, to murder verses. 2) to separate by tearing, rending &c., to tear, to snatch away, to carry off. Wolle —, to pick wool; entzwei —, to snap, to break asunder; in Stücke —, to tear, to break in pieces, to dash to pieces. 3) to draw by violence. Einen Nagel aus einer Wand —, to draw out, to extract a nail from a wall; Einem Etwas aus den Händen —, to tear, to snatch something away from any one's hands, to wrest something out of any one's hands; man hat ihm die Kleider vom Leibe gerissen, his clothes were torn from off his back; sich die Haare aus dem Kopfe —, to tear one's hair out by the roots; Einen zu Boden —, to knock or pull any one down, to throw any one headlong or sprawling to earth; er riß sich aus ihren Armen [los], he tore himself away, disengaged himself from her arms, from her embrace; man muß diese zwei Hunde auseinander —, one must part these two dogs; Personen, die sich schlagen, auseinander —, to separate, part persons fighting. Fig. Einen aus der Gefahr —, to draw out, to extricate, to free, to save any one from danger; Einen aus der Noth —, to remove any one from want, to lift any one up out of the depths of penury; Einen aus dem Irrthum —, to undeceive any one; diese Waare geht — ab, man reißt sich um diese Waare, this article [manufacture &c.] goes off rapidly, this piece of goods has a very great run; man reißt sich nicht sehr darum, there is not a very great demand for this article, [also] there is no very great interest, eagerness, curiosity expressed about it, [fam.] one does not put one's self at all out of the way about it; man reißt sich um ihn, um seine Gesellschaft, every body wants to have him [i. e. he is sought after by every body], his company is much coveted; ich habe mich nicht um seine Freundschaft gerissen, I have not sought his friendship, I have shewn no remarkable avidity for his friendship, I have not gone out of my way to obtain his friendship; die höchste Gewalt widerrechtlich an sich —, to usurp, to seize the supreme power; Etwas an sich —, to draw, pull any thing towards one; sich um Etwas —, to fight, to contend about something; fig. to seek any thing ardently, with avidity, to put one's self out of the way, in a way about the possession or gratification of something. 4) [= wegreißen] to carry away or off. Der Wind riß ihm den Hut vom Kopfe, the wind carried off [blew off] his hat; der Strom, die Fluth hat die Brücke mit sich [fort:]gerissen, the stream, the flood has hurried, swept away the bridge; die Wasserfluthen — Alles mit sich [fort], the torrents, the inundations sweep, carry away every thing before them. 5) to tear away in something, to rend. Ein Loch, Löcher in einem Stoff, in die Strümpfe, in die Beinkleider —, to tear a hole, holes in a stuff, in one's stockings, trowsers. 6) to work by rending, that is splitting, cleaving, riving. Latten — [= spalten], to split laths; Holz — [rather unusual], to cleave wood; [with curriers] die Narbe —, to pummel against the grain. 7) [aufreißen] Einen Karpfen — or ausnehmen, to gut, to paunch a carp; ein Hühnchen, einen Bruthahn —, to pull, to draw a fowl, turkey; einen Acker —, to plough up a field, to give a field the first ploughing; sich an einem Nagel &c. —, to tear one's self with, against a nail; it. [in botany] gerissenes Blatt, a laciniated, lacinate, lacerated, jagged leaf; it. ein Pferd, einen Stier —, to geld a horse, a bull. 8) [= zerreißen] — de Thiere, ravenous, ravishing, devouring, rapacious wild beasts. 9) to prepare by writing, tracing &c. in a rapid manner, to sketch, trace out. Einen Plan —, to trace, to sketch out a plan &c. Das —, the rupture, the rending, dilacerating; [in the body] gripes, racking pain, [in the joints] ache, excruciating pain, [in the sinews, arms] twinge; it. [of a plan &c.] sketch, outline.

Reiß-aus, n. [in fam. or pop. lang., chiefly comic] 1) indecl. — aus nehmen, to take flight, to take to one's heels, to scamper off, to run away, to take french leave, to be off without beat of drum, to take one's self off, to decamp, to cut one's stick, to make one's self scarce, to give leg-bail. 2) m. [provincial] a child, boy or girl that is apt to tear its clothes, does not take care of its clothes. Er ist ein rechter — aus, he [this little boy] is a complete destroyer of his clothes. — bant, f. stand with teeth for extracting hemp seeds. — blei, n. 1) plumbago, black-lead, molybdena. 2) [fam. for Reißstift] plummet, lead-pencil — bohrer, m. [with wheelwrights] small auger. — bret, n. a drawing-board, a drawing-table provided with straining apparatus. — eisen, n. V. Bootskrabber. — feder, f. 1) a drawing-pen. 2) a brass line-drawer or ruling-pen. 3) a port crayon, a pencil-case, pencil or crayon-holder. — gerecht, adj. [in sportsmen's language] skillful at shooting small game, small birds &c. — haken, m. [with upholsterers, locksmiths &c.] a mortise-chisel. Gebogener — haken, a picker, primer. — jagd, f. [in sportsmen's lang.] the hunting or shooting of small game. — jäger, m. a small-game sportsman or hunter. — kamm, m. V. Bredkamm — kohle, f. a charcoal-crayon. — latte, f. a split lath. — maß, n. 1) timber-merchant's callipers. 2) [Streichmodell] an upholsterer's gage. — messer, n. [with gold-beaters] flat gold-leaf knife or spatula. — schiene, f. thin narrow ruler. — stift, m. 1) [with gunsmiths] tracing-point; [with joiners &c.] a tracer. 2) V. Reißstift. — zeug, n. case of mathematical instruments. — zirkel, m. a pair of compasses with one changeable foot, with one jointed leg.

Reißer, m. [-s, pl. -] 1) an instrument for cleaving, tearing, pulling asunder, tracing &c. a) [with carpenters] [Vor —] tracer, tracing point, marking tool. b) [with coopers] a mark, brand or stamp to mark wine-vessels, a cask-marker. Ein Faß mit dem — zeichnen, to mark a cask with the cask-marker. c) [with masons] the tracer-brush, the line-brush. d) [with basket-makers] splitter. 2) V. Poffen — Boten —.

Reißern, v. intr. [in sportsmen's lang. = beschnüffeln, beriechen] to snuff up, to scent, to snuffle at.

Reißke, n. [-s, pl. -n] or Reißker, m. [-s, pl. -] [in Bohemian ryzec] [in botany] delicious or edible agaric, small blood-red amanite.

Reißling, V. Mooschwamm; [in nat. hist.] the birch-tree phalaena.

Reiste, f. [pl. -n] [appears allied to the Engl. wrist] a bunch or hank of hackled flax.

Reitau, n. [-es, pl. -e] [in seamen's lang.] tack or guy of a studding-sail-boom.

Reitbar, adj. and adv. 1) where one can ride, rideable. — er Beg, — er Pfad, a bridle-way, bridle-path. 2) what one can ride, rideable, mountable. Dieses Pferd ist nicht mehr —, this horse is no longer fit for riding; ein Pferd — machen, to break in a horse for riding.

Reite, f. V. Hofreite.

Reitel, m. [-s, pl. -] 1) packing-stick, a packer's stick. [2] [in agriculture] V. Pflugente.

Reiteln, v. tr. to pack up with the packing-stick.

Reiten, [originally = to move, to drive; allied to reisen, which see. Reiten formerly signified to go, to drive or ride in a coach, to travel] irr. I. v. intr. [u. w. seyn] 1) to move. [in seamen's language] Vor Anker —, to ride at anchor; das Schiff reitet leicht, the ship rides easy; das Schiff reitet durch, reitet schwer, the ship rides out, rides hard; es reitet auf dem Halse, she pitches and heaves, tosses at her anchor, the anchor is likely to come home from the ship's straining and pitching. Fig. [in pop. lang.] Auf Einem —, to vex, plague and worry any one, to persecute any one. 2) to ride [changing one's place while or by resting on something, generally a beast] Auf einem Stecken, einem Steckenpferde —, to ride on a stick, to ride a cock-horse or on a hobby-horse, to ride to Banbury-cross; auf einem Pferde, Esel, Elephanten &c. —, to ride [to be mounted] on a horse, donkey, elephant &c.; ich gehe lieber, als ich reite, I like walking better than riding; er reitet selten, he rides seldom; er giebt guten Unterricht im —, hat diesen Prinzen — gelehrt, das — gelehrt, he gives good lessons in riding, has taught this prince to ride, has taught [him] riding; gut —, gut — können, to ride well, to be a good rider or horseman, to have a good seat, to be able or to know how to ride well; er reitet schlecht, [in pop. lang.] er reitet wie ein Schneider, ist ein lateinischer Reiter, he rides badly, he has a bad seat, he is a bad rider or horseman, [fam.] he rides like a tailor; er reitet schön, he looks well on horseback, he sits gracefully on horseback, in the saddle; im Schritte, im Trabe —, to walk, to trot one's horse; er kam geritten, he rode here, he came or arrived on horseback; kurz, lang —, to ride with short, with long stirrups, [fam.] to ride with stirrups fox-hunting-fashion, army-fashion; dieses Pferd ist unter allen das beste zum —, this horse is amongst them all the best for riding; in Spanien bedient man sich zum — gewöhnlich der Maulthiere, in Spain they generally make use of mules for riding; auf dem Kreuze des Pferdes —, to ride on the crupper of the horse [behind another, as a lady formerly on a pillion]; geschwind —, to ride fast, hard; an die Bränke, nach Hause, über Feld, um die Stadt —, to ride [down] to the watering-place, home, across country, round the town; auf die Jagd —, to go a hunting; spazieren —, to take a ride, an airing on horseback, to ride out; Post —, to ride post; es ist or hat noch Niemand auf diesem Pferde geritten, no one has yet ridden [on] this horse, [poetically] no one has ever mounted this horse; er ritt ein prächtiges Schlachtross, he rode, [in higher style] he bestrode a fine or noble charger; er mußte auf dem [hölzernen] Esel —, he has been forced [as a punishment] to ride the wooden horse, V. Esel.

Prov. Auf des Schusters Rappen —, to travel on foot, [fam.] to have to walk it, to go a foot-back, to ride upon shanks-mare. 3) [being generally on horseback officially] Die — de Artillerie, horse-artillery, mounted artillery; — der Jäger [in the army], chasseur à cheval, light dragoon; it. [in the United States] a mounted ranger; — der Förster, mounted game-keeper, a forester on horseback, a mounted ranger. 4) [in botany] Ein — des Blatt, an imbricated leaf; eine — de Knospe, an imbricated bud; das — eines Blattes &c., imbrication of a leaf &c. II. v. tr. 1) [especially, to drive, to move] to ride. Fig. Der Alp reitet ihn [in common people's language], he is ridden by the nightmare, he has the nightmare; der Teufel reitet ihn [low], the devil is driving him on, he is urged on, possessed by or with the devil; das Unglück reitet mich [low], ill-luck pursues me in all I do or undertake, I am a poor fate-ridden fellow. 2) [to use riding, to possess or keep for riding] Einen Schimmel —, to ride a white horse, a grey; er ritt ein gutes, ein schlechtes Pferd, he rode or was on a good, a bad horse, he was well, badly mounted; ein Pferd ohne Sattel —, to ride a horse without a saddle, bare-backed. Fig. Einen Schriftsteller — [= ausschreiben] [in familiar language], to borrow without leave, to commit plagiarism upon, to purloin from an author. 3) [to lead somewhere while or by riding] Ein Pferd zur Tränke, in die Schwemme —, to ride a horse down to the watering-place, to drink, to the ford. 4) [to treat &c. by riding] Ein Pferd müde —, zu Tode —, to ride a horse hard, to death, to knock a horse up, to kill a horse by hard riding; ein Pferd reihe —, zu Schanden —, to ride a horse lame, foundered, to lame or founder, to spoil or ruin a horse with riding; Einen zu Boden —, to ride any one down, over him; sich müde —, to fatigue or to knock one's self up by or with riding. 5) [to compress] Der Stier reitet die Kuh, the bull leaps the cow.

Reitanzug, m. riding-dress, riding-habit, [also, for ladies, if astraddle] petticoat-trowsers. — bahn, f. the manege, riding-school, riding-place or ground, circus, hippodrome, riding-house. Ein Pferd auf die — bahn thun, to break in a horse for the riding-school, for the riding-lists; auf der — bahn abgerichtetes Pferd, a horse trained, broken in at the riding school. — decke, f. housing, saddle-cloth, horse-cloth. — gerste, f. a switch. — gurt, m. 1) a riding-belt. 2) [Sattelsgurt] a girth, saddle-girth. — haken, m. hook [for hooking or keeping up the skirts or tails of a coat when riding]; [with upholsterers] [= Zwinge] cramp; [with coopers] V. Reifbenge. — handschuhe, pl. riding-gloves, gauntlets or habit-gloves. — haus, n. riding-house, covered riding-place, a riding-school under cover. — hengst, m. 1) [not used] a stallion [as a riding horse]. 2) [from reiten = to cover] a stallion to cover, stone-horse, V. Zuchthengst. — hosen, pl. riding-breeches, knee-breeches. — jacke, f. riding-jacket. — kamasche, f. a gaiter, a spatterdash. — kappe, f. jockey-cap. — kissen, n. a riding-pad or cushion instead of a saddle, a pillion, a bardelle saddle. — kleid, n. V. — rock. — knecht, m. a groom. — knie, n. [in seamen's lang.] the knee of the stem. — koller, m. V. — jacke. — kunst, f. art of riding, equitation. — lehen, n. [in feudal law] fee or fief held upon knight-service. — mantel, m. a riding-cloak, [also] riding-coat. — masche, f. [from reiten = to move to and fro] [in sportsmen's language] a foul mesh. — maschine, f. V. — stuhl. — milbe, f. [Kräzmilbe] the itch-mite. — ochs, m. [Zuchtsch] bull. — page, m. page on horseback. — peitsche, f. horse-whip. — pferd, n. riding-horse, hackney, roadster, saddle-horse; it. horse broken in for the riding-school or circus. — rock, m. a riding-cloak with sleeves, a great-coat, riding-coat, [for ladies] riding-habit. — sattel, m. saddle, riding-saddle. — schämel, m. [in saw-mills] the carriage or stand of the sawing-jack. — scheide, f. a trace-strap. — schmied, m. V. Hufschmied. — schnur, f. a throttling-string round the cylinder of a cartridge, rocket, squib &c.; a cartridge-collar [in Fr. filagore]. — schule, f. riding-school or academy, manege, riding-house, circus. Ein Pferd auf die — schule thun, to bring a horse to the riding-school to be broken in. — essel, — stuhl, m. a riding chair or stool [for ladies]. — stall, m. stable for riding-horses; hunters-stable; stable for horses of a riding-school or circus. — stange, f. branch of a bridle. — stiefel, m. V. Reiterstiefel. — stock, m. [from reiten = to move to and fro] [with turners] mandrel. — strümpfe, pl. stirrup-stockings. — stuhl, V. — seffel. — tasche, f. V. Satteltasche. — thier, n. animal for riding. — zeug, n. the furniture of a saddle-horse.

1. Reiter, m. [-s, pl. -] [from reiten = to extend, to expand] 1) Spanischer —, chevaux de frise. 2) [in a limited sense] [in the army] [Cavallerist] horse soldier, trooper, dragoon &c. Ein Regiment —, a regiment of cavalry, of horse, a cavalry or horse-regiment; leichte —, light cavalry or horse, light dragoons, chevaulegers, lancers, hussars &c.; schwer bewaffnete —, schwere —, heavy armed cavalry, heavy cavalry, heavy dragoons, cuirassiers; einen — vom Pferde absetzen, werfen, ihm sein Pferd nehmen, töten, to dismount a trooper, to hurl a trooper from his saddle, to take away, to kill his horse; einen — [der sein Pferd verloren hat] wieder beritten machen, to remount a trooper or horse-soldier. 3) —, — inn, f. cavalier, horseman, rider; horsewoman. Er ist ein guter —, he is a good horseman, [in the manege] he is a good equestrian; er ist ein schlechter or [in pop. lang. and in jest] ein lateinischer —, he is a bad horseman, [in the manege] a bad equestrian; sie ist eine gute — inn, she is a good horsewoman, is quite an equestrian; er ist ein schöner —, he looks well, to advantage on horseback; von sechs — n begleitet, accompanied by six horsemen or cavaliers; it. [in pop. or fam. lang.] [= Reitkünstler or Kunstreiter] englischer —, an equestrian, a rider [as Ducrow's, Franconi's, de Bach's &c.].

2. Reiter, m. [-s, pl. -] [from reiten = to move] 1) [Widder] the ram. 2) [in nat. hist.] Der rothe —, [also] der gestreifte —, the redshank, [also] the striped redshank. 3) Der — [das brasilianische Wasserhuhn], Totano, Calidris. 4) [Kornwurm] the brown weevil, the brown corn-mite. Reiteraufzug, m. cavalcade. — büchse, f. V. — änte. — degen, m. [Pallasch] V. — säbel. — dienst, m. the service or duty of a horse-soldier, [in history] knight-service. — fahne, f. standard. — fähnrich, m. cornet. — flinte, f. carbine. — geld, n. [in seamen's language] [for the Strandreiter = coast-guard] salvage. — haufen, m. a troop of horse, detachment of cavalry. — jacke, f. — koller, n. or m. a trooper's jerkin or jacket. — lager, n. camp of cavalry, [low] straw-bed, bed of straw, [for light-horse] a flying camp. — lied, n. trooper's song, song for the cavalry. — mantel, m. trooper's cloak or mantle. — marſch, m. 1) cavalry-march. 2) march for the cavalry. — pferd, n. horse in service, trooper's horse; it. [unusual] V. Reiterſt. — picket, n. a picket of horse. — pistole, f. a horse-pistol. — regiment, n. regiment of cavalry, of horse, a cavalry or horse-regiment. — ſäbel, m. sabre, a trooper's sword. — ſchlacht, f. an affair, a combat of cavalry. — ſtiefel, m. trooper's boot; it. horseman's boot, [in England] topboot. — wache, f. guard of cavalry; it. vedette, vedette, sentry on horseback.

Reiterei, f. 1) [mostly in a contemptuous sense] riding, style, kind or manner of riding or sitting on a horse. Das ist eine ſonderbare —, that is singular, curious riding. 2) [in the army] the cavalry, the horse. Die — hat ſich tapfer gehalten, the cavalry has bravely conducted itself, has acted bravely; die leichte —, the light cavalry, light dragoons or horse, [also] hussars, lancers; die ſchwere —, the heavy cavalry, heavy-armed horse, heavy dragoons, cuirassiers; er verſteht den Dienſt bei der — gut, he understands the horse-service or duty well, he is a thorough-bred horse-soldier &c.

Reitern, V. Sieben.

Reitersalbe, f. [from the primary sense of reiten = to move hard to and fro, to scratch] itch-ointment.

Reitgras, n. [in botany] pointed reed-grass, horse-tongue, sword-grass, burweed, acute carex or sedge.

Reithalde, f. [pl. -n] [from reiten = ſieben] [with miners] dead-heaps [of stones], dead-rubbish [in buddles, or in ore-washing].

Reitfröte, f. V. Erdgrille.

Reitläus, f. [pl. Reitläuſe] 1) [Gitzläus] the crab-louse, body-louse, venereal louse. 2) V. Krähmilbe.

Reitläusfraut, n. [-eſ] [in botany] the tickwort, louse-wort of Martinique, yellow lousewort, rhinanthus; it. the ningas-liana or bindweed [remedy against the ningas tick, sand-flea or toe-nail louse of Buenos-Ayres].

Reitmaus, f. [pl. -mäuſe] 1) V. Erdmaus, Feldmaus, Spitzmaus. 2) [Mautwurfsmaus] the mouse-mole, the burrowing myopic mouse of Russia. 3) V. Erdgrille.

Reitwurm, m. V. Erdgrille.

Reiz, m. [-eſ, pl. -e] [V. Reizen] any thing irritating; it. irritation. Ein blendendes Licht macht einen ſchmerzhaften — in den Augen, a dazzling light makes a painful irritation, irritable feeling in the eyes; Salz, Pfeffer &c. verursacht einen — auf der Zunge, salt, pepper &c. causes an irritation or excitable sensation upon the tongue; einen — erwecken, to cause an irritation; ſinnlicher —, sensual irritation; der galvanische —, galvanism; dieſes Mittel wirkt durch —, durch einen —, this remedy works, operates by irritation, as an irritant. Fig. [that which excites, tickles, attracts] charm, attraction, allurements. Die Muſik &c. hat große —e, hat viel — für mich, music &c. has great charms, much attraction for me; dieſes Mädchen beſiſt —e, man kann ihren — nicht widerſtehen, this girl possesses attractions, her charms are not to be resisted; die —e der Wolluſt, the allurements, enticements, charms of sensual pleasure; das Geld iſt ein mächtiger — für ihn, money has a mighty charm, is a powerful attraction, bait for him. SYN. V. Annehmlichkeit.

Reizſähig, adj. and adv. irritable, V. —bar. — lehre, f. the doctrine of irritation or stimulation. — loſ, adj. and adv. charmless, without charms, void of attraction; destitute of excitement, allurements, enticement. — mittel, n. [in medicine] an irritant, an irritating, stimulating remedy, a stimulant. — mittel zum Niesen, a sternutatory. Fig. Ein mächtiges —mittel zur Tugend, a powerful stimulant to virtue. — voll, adj. and adv. full of charms, of attractions, of allurements, rich in charms.

Reizbar, adj. and adv. irritable; it. sensitive, sensible. Ein ſehr —es Nervensystem, an extremely sensitive, irritable nervous system; dieſe Theile des Körpers ſind die —ſten, these parts of the body are the most sensible; er, ſie iſt ſehr —, he, she is highly nervous, sensitive, irritable, susceptible; he is very sensible [of insult], [tam.] he is very ticklish, touchy.

Reizbarkeit, f. irritability, sensibility, excitability, sensitiveness, susceptibility, [tam.] touchiness, nervousness.

Reizen, [appears allied to the Lat. rito in irrito, as also to ripen, reißen; according to others it is closely related to the old reden = locken] to produce an incitement, to irritate. Dieſe Gegenstände — die Begierde, these objects irritate, stimulate the desire; der Schinken reizet zum Durſt, ham irritates, excites thirst; die Nerven können ſehr leicht gereizt werden, the nerves can very easily be irritated. are very susceptible of irritation; dieſe Brühe [Sauce] reizt die Gſluſt, this sauce stimulates, awakens, incites the appetite; [in medicine] — de Mittel, stimulants, irritants; die — de Heilart, the treatment by irritants, the method or system of cure by stimulants. Fig. a) to excite agreeable sensations, to charm. Man wird leicht durch die Schönheit eines Mädchens gereizt, one is easily charmed by the beauty of a girl; — b, charming, attractive; — de Schönheit, charming, attractive beauty; — der Ort, Aufenthalt, — de Gegend, Ausſicht, a charming, attractive place or spot, abode, region, view; ein — des Mädchens, a charming girl b) to excite passion, to rouse, to inflame. Ein Löwen —, to rouse a lion; Einen zum Zorne —, to excite any one's anger, to provoke any one to anger; er iſt leicht zum Zorne zu —, he is easily roused, provoked, stirred up to anger, [tam.] he is made of touch-paper; Einen zum Böſen —, to incite, to spur on any one to evil; ein Kind durch Neckereien —, to tease a child; [in sportsmen's lang.] Fuchſe, Katzen — [nearest allied to reiten, that is, reden = locken, to allure], to allure foxes, cats. SYN. V. 2. Locken. Das —, V. Reizung.

Reizung, f. irritation; it. excitation, incitation; it. [less usual = Reiz] charm &c.

|| Rekel, m. [-eſ, pl. -] [appears to be derived from recken = to stretch one's or itsself, whence the old Recke = Riese] 1) [low] a great dog, a mastiff. 2) a coarse vulgar man, a clown, a country-bumpkin, lout. 3) V. Raff [in commerce].

|| Rekelei, f. rusticity, clownishness, coarse vulgarity.

|| Rekelhaft, adj. and adv. clownish, boorish, rustical, churlish, loutish, slouching, chuffish, [quite tam.] bumpkinified, simpletonian, rusticified.

Rekrut, V. Recrut.

Relegation*, f. 1) [unusual = Verbannung] banishment, exile. 2) [at universities] expulsion, rustication.

Religiren*, v. tr. 1) [unusual] to banish, to exile. 2) [at universities] to expel, to rusticate.

Relicte*, or [more usual] — n, pl. [chiefly in law] [Hinterlassene] the remaining family of a person recently deceased, [especially] the heirs of the defunct.

Religion*, f. 1) religion. Die natürliche —, natural religion; die geoffenbarte —, revealed religion; ſich zu einer — bekennen, to profess a religion or religious creed; einer — anhangen, to follow a religion; einerlei — haben, to have one and the same religion, to be of the same religion; die — ändern, to change one's religion; von ſeiner — abſallen, ſeine — abſchwören, to fall off from or to abandon, to forswear, abjure or renounce one's religion, to turn renegade [from christianity to mahomedanism, but to paganism generally] to turn apostate, to apostatize; eine andere — annehmen, to embrace another religion; wenig — haben, to have little religion; viel — haben [in familiar lang.], to have much religion, to be of a pious, religious mind or turn of mind. 2) [with Catholics] [= kirchlicher Orden] Die — von Malta, the order of Malta, [= der Malteſerorden] the Maltese order. SYN. Religion, Gottesdienſt, Gottesverehrung. Religion is the feeling or knowledge in man of his dependence on God, and the sentiments of reverence and love which arise from this feeling or knowledge. Gottesdienſt indicates the actions which are grounded in the knowledge of God, and the sentiments arising therefrom. Gottesverehrung consists in our admiration of, and reverence to God, together with their external expression.

Religionsangelegenheit, f. affair of religion. In —angelegenheiten muß man &c., in religious affairs, in matters of religion one must &c. — bedrückung, f. vexation, grievance, hardship or intolerance for or from religion, religious oppression. — beſchwerde, f. 1) a religious grievance. 2) V. — bedrückung. — buch, n. book on religion, a religious book. — duldung, f. tolerance, sufferance of a religion, religious toleration. — edict, n. a religious edict. — eid, m. a religious oath to follow such and such precepts and tenets; [in English hist.] the oath of the test-act. — eifer, m. zeal for religion, religious zeal. Blinder — eifer, fanaticism, bigotry, religionism. — freiheit, f. religious liberty; it. the liberty or freedom of religion. — friede, m. 1) [rather unusual] religious peace [a mental as well as outward peace]. 2) [in German history] the peace of religion [concluded at Augsburg 26. Sept. 1555]. — geſellſchaft, f. a religious society. Die chriſtliche — geſellſchaft, the christian church, the society or federative band of christians; die — geſellſchaft der Herrnhuter, the communion or union of the Moravians; er gehört nicht zu unſerer — geſellſchaft, he does not belong to our society, union, belief, [with Methodists &c.] he doth not form one of us. — geſpräch, n. discourse upon points of religion; religious colloquy or conversation. — glaube, m. religious creed. — glaubensſatz, m. religious doctrine or tenet. — krieg, m. 1) holy war. 2) war of religion, a religious war. — lehre, f. 1) [a single one] a dogma or precept of religion. 2) [a whole system] the doctrine of religion, of a religion, of religions. 3) [science or knowledge] the science, the abstract lore of religion. — lehrer, m. preacher; it. teacher or preceptor in religion. — meinung, f. an opinion in matters of or relative to religion, religious tenet; it. a religious opinion. — menger, m. — mengerinn, f. [new word] a syncretist. Lady Esther Stanhope war eine — mengerinn, Lady Esther Stanhope was a syncretist, wished to unite different religious creeds into one. — mengerei, f. syncretism, that philosophy that speculates on the simplifying of all creeds into one. — partei, f. a religious party. Die verschiedenen christlichen — parteien vereinigen, to unite the various christian sects or creeds. — sache, f. affair, cause of religion. In — sachen, in religious matters. — satz, m. religious dogma. — schwärmer, m. fanatic, enthusiast, bigot, religionist. — schwärmerei, f. fanaticism, bigotry, religious enthusiasm. Einen zur — schwärmerei verleiten, to lead any one astray into fanaticism, blind religious zeal. — spötter, m. — spötterinn, f. a scoffer, a sneerer, a railer and mocker of religion, a free-thinker. Die — spötter und Freigeister, the scoffers and free-thinkers. — spötterei, f. sneering or scoffing at religious creeds want of respect for religion; blasphemy. — stifter, m. founder of a religion. — stiftung, f. founding, establishment of a new religion. — streit, m. — streitigkeit, f. religious controversy; it. [sometimes] religious strife or war. — trennung, f. [seceding from the established church of the country] schism. — übung, f. 1) exercise, observance of a religion. Freie — übung gestatten, to grant the free exercise or observance of a religion; die öffentliche — übung, public worship. 2) an act of religion. Eine — übung vornehmen, to do a religious act. — unterricht, f. instruction in, tuition of religion. Er hat einen guten — unterricht genossen, he has enjoyed a good or sound religious education, he has had good religious principles instilled into him. — verbesserung, f. reformation. — vereinigter, m. — vereinigung, f. V. — menger, — mengerei. — verfolgung, f. religious persecution. — verwandte, m. a follower of the same creed or doctrine; a brother or sister in the same sect; a member of the same church. — wahrheit, f. the truth of religion, the truth; it. a religious truth, a truism in religion. — wissenschaft, f. science of religion. — zwang, m. constraint in the exercise of the rites and ceremonies of a religion.

Religiös*, adj. and adv. religious. Er ist —, lebt sehr —, he is religious, pious, possesses deep religious sentiments, lives very religiously, piously, godly.

Religiöse*, m. [—n, pl. —n] [Ordensgeistlicher] a member of some religious order or fraternity, a monk, a friar, a templar &c.

Religiosität*, f. religion, religious character; it. religious exactitude. Viel — haben, to have much religion, to be very religious, devout, pious.

Reliquie*, f. [—pl. —n] [with Catholics] relic. — n von Heiligen, relics of the saints. Fig. relic. Eine — Schiller's, Sir Walter Scott's &c., a relic of Schiller, of Sir W. Scott &c.; eine — Napoleon's, a relic of Napoleon.

Reliquienstafeln, n. shrine for relics, reliquary, a depository or casket for relics. — stättenträger, m. the shrine-bier or altar for relics, that on which a reliquary reposes; [in Egyptian history] one of the Pastophori.

Reiser, m. [—s, pl. —] [in botany] [wild or rother Holunder] the wild elder-tree.

Reile, f. [—pl. —n] or Reilmaus, f. 1) the nut-mouse, rell-mouse, muscardin. 2) the dormouse.

Remedium*, n. [—s, pl. Remedien] 1) V. Heilmittel, Hülfsmittel. 2) [in the mint] delegated authority to the mint-directors for diminishing the lawful weight and alloy, V. Ringerung.

Remigius, m. [—pl. Remigiusse] [name of men] Remigius, Remi.

Reminiscenz*, f. [—pl. —n] [dunkle or leise Erinnerung] reminiscence. Ein Gedicht voll — en, a poem full of reminiscences.

Remise*, f. [—pl. —n] 1) [in sportsmen's language] cover, thicket for game such as hares &c. 2) [Wagen—] a coach-house. 3) [in commerce] discount. 4) [in commerce] V. Remesse.

Remissoriales*, pl. [in law] pardon, letters of grace.

Remittiren*, v. tr. [chiefly in law and commerce] [zurücksenden] to remit; it. [wegsenden] to send away.

Remonte*, f. [—pl. —n] [in the army] supply of new horses for troopers, remounting.

Remontepferd, n. horse for remounting.

Remontiren*, v. tr. Einen Reiter —, to remount a trooper.

Remotion*, f. [chancery style] Die — eines Beamten, the removal [as a punishment], [sometimes] degradation of an official.

Removiren*, v. tr. [chancery style] Einen Beamten —, to remove [in punishment], [sometimes] to degrade an official [by giving him a less agreeable or lucrative, or also an inferior post]; it. to degrade, to dismiss an official. Das —, degrading, removing, dismissing &c.

Removirung*, f. 1) [chancery style] V. Remotion. 2) [in law] Die — einer Schrift aus den Acten, the casting aside, the rejection of a writing, a deed.

Renata, [—s] Renate, [—*n*s] f. [name of women] Renée.

Renatus, m. [name of men] René.

Renegat*, m. [—n, pl. —n] a renegade [from the Christian to the Mahomedan faith]. Eine — inn, a female or she-renegade.

Renette*, f. [—pl. —n] [Renettapfel] a rennet apple.

Renitent*, m. [—n, pl. —n] and adj. [chiefly in law-style] [widerspenstig &c.] a renitent person, renitent, refractory, contumacious; [in courts of law] opposer.

Reniténz*, f. renitence, refractoriness.

||Rénken, V. Recken, Dehnen.

Rénne, f. [—pl. —n] the gutter, kennel; [with miners] a square trough or gutter for the ore and mineral rubble.

1. Rénnen, [probably instead of reinen] [with miners] Das Eisen —, to melt, to run the iron.

2. Rénnen, [Engl. to run, allied to rennen = to move] irr. l. v. intr. to run. Um die Wette —, to run for a wager; nach dem Ziele —, to run towards the goal, the winning-post; er rennt, als ob ihm der Kopf brennte, er rennt wie toll [fam.], he runs like a mad dog, he is running a muck; nach dem Ringe — [formerly, an equestrian game], to run or tilt at the ring; wider Etwas —, to run against something, V. Wand; gerannt kommen, to come running, quite out of breath [fam.]; ein Reiter rannte auf ihn zu, a horseman advanced towards him at full gallop; er ist mitten unter die Feinde gerannt, he ran into the midst of his enemies; beide Schiffe rannten an einander, both ships ran, struck against, fell foul of each other; beide Ritter rannten gegen einander, both knights ran against each other, careered against one another; er rannte gegen ihn, he ran against him, [fam.] he pushed against, he fell foul of him; die Pferde — lassen, to put or urge the horses to their fullest speed, [especially, on the racing-ground] to let or make the horses run or start, to make the horses run a race; wolten Sie Ihr Pferd mit dem meinigen — lassen? will you let your horse run with or against mine? Fig. In sein Verderben, mit Gewalt in sein Unglück —, to run to one's destruction, headlong into ruin, to one's ruin, [fam.] to run into ruin with one's eyes open, like a ship before a gale of wind; nach einem Amte, nach Ehrenstellen —, to run after an official situation, after honours. II. v. tr. to push running, to run. Einem den Degen in den Leib, durch den Leib —, to run one's sword into any one's body, through any one's body; Einen zu Boden —, to knock any one down by running against him, to run any one down. Das —, the running, the course. Mitten im — stille stehen, to stand still in the midst of one's course, to make a dead halt in the midst of one's full career; in vollem —, in full career, at full speed, [on horseback] at full, at a harem-scarem gallop. SYN. Renennen, Laufen. Renennen is properly used only of living objects, and indicates in them only the highest degree of speed; laufen indicates a less degree, but is said of lifeless objects as well as of living. Time läuft quickly; the perspiration läuft from the brow of the labourer in the heat of the sun; the river läuft through the valley; when the hourglass is ausgelaufen, it must be turned. A horse-race is called Pferderennen; for their quickest Laufen is called Renennen.

Renbahn, f. race-course, lists, [in antiquity] the hippodrome, [for horses] stadium; [with miners] the circular space in which a horse attached to any wheel-turned machine moves, the horse-ring. — berg, m. — berge, pl. [with miners] that which falls away from the ore, when it is rolled down from above through the gutter where the ore is washed and extracted, heap of ore-dross. — eisen, n. 1) [with miners] miner's rake or strike. 2) [noun collective] iron beaten with hammers until it is pure, refined, wrought, hammered or forged iron. — feuer, n. [with blacksmiths] a small iron-foundry. — herd, m. [with blacksmiths] the foundry or forge-furnace or hearth. — holz, n. spar-wood. — jagen, n. — jagd, f. hunt or chase with hue and cry, with the view hollo. — käfer, m. the running beetle, the pancake-eater, the ground-beetle. — lanze, f. the lance for jousting at the tourney, tournament or tilting lance. — pferd, — ross, n. V. Renner. — plag, m. V. — bahn. — säule, f. windlass on the shore for drawing up ships, shore-capstan, turning-pivot. — schiff, n. [Jagdschiff] cruiser; corvette; cutter; privateer; yacht [if belonging to a private gentleman for purposes of pleasure]. — schlitten, m. snow-sledge or sled, ice-sledge, [in America] sleigh or sley [very low, being provincial in England]. — spiel, n. kind of game, race-game, coursing. — spindel, f. [Drillbohrer] bow-drill, drill-borer. — stein, m. sink, drain, gutter, [with paviers] kennel, street-kennel. — t hier, n. 1) the rein-deer. 2) [in heraldry] rangier.

—thierbreme, —thierbremse, f. rein-deer gad-fly. —thierfell, n. rein-deerskin. —thierflechte, f. the rein-deer lichen or moss. —thierhaut, f. V. —thierfell. —thierheerde, f. herd or troop of rein-deer. —thierhorniß, f. the oestrus of the rein-deer. —thierkalb, n. the fawn of the rein-deer. —thierleder, n. rein-deer leather. —thiermoos, n. V. —thierrechte. —thierzucht, f. the breeding, rearing of rein-deer. —wagen, m. [with the ancients, at races &c.] curriole, racing-charriot, car; [with four horses] a quadriga; [with two horses] a biga. —werk, n. [with miners] V. —berg. —zeug, n. armour, panoply for a tournament or tilting-match.

Rénner, m. [-s, pl. -] 1) a racer. Dieses Pferd ist ein vortrefflicher —, this horse is a capital racer. 2) [with blacksmiths] [Schmetscher] meller.

Renommiren, v. intr. [students' cant] to make the bully, brawler &c.

Renommirt, adj. [= berühmt &c., a bad word] renowned. Ein —er Gasthof, a well-known inn; ein —er Schneider, a fashionable tailor.

Renommist, m. [-en, pl. -en] [Kaufbold, it. Praxter] bully, tilter, brawler, duellist, [low] a huffing cove; it. braggadocio, boaster, swaggerer, hector.

Réntbar, adj. and adv. yielding rent, revenue, a fixed income or interest.

Rénte, f. [pl. -n] [either from the Fr. rente, it. rendita, or from rennen = to come] 1) income, revenue, rent, interest. Sein Geld auf —n legen, to put out one's money to interest; von seinen —n leben, to live from one's yearly income; tausend Thaler —n, a thousand dollars income, revenue. 2) [unusual] [Rentamt] receiver's office.

Réntamt, n. situation, berth, office in the finance-department; it. office of a steward to a prince, nobleman or gentleman; it. [provincial] the office of a revenue-steward of a community [town or village]. 2) extent, district of a revenue. 3) office, chamber of finances; it. the or a revenue-office. —beamte, m. a financier; one employed in the exchequer or finance-department; it. a prince's, nobleman's or gentleman's steward. —kammer, f. the chamber of finances, an exchequer-office. ‡ —kammermeister, m. intendant of the finances. —meister, m. receiver, treasurer, master of the accounts, a comptroller general, intendant of the finances, [in ancient Rome] the quaestor; it. [provincial] revenue-steward or receiver of a community [town or village]. —meisteramt, n. the office of receiver, treasurer &c., [with the ancient Romans] the quaestorship. —meistere, f. 1) V. —meisteramt. 2) the district, the house of a receiver, collector, treasurer. 3) V. Rentenei. —rath, m. counsellor of the finances, of or to the exchequer. —rechnung, f. the account of the receipts, rents, finances, money received or collected. —rechnungsschreiber, —schreiber, m. secretary, clerk of a finance or exchequer-office. —verwalter, m. receiver of the finances; it. a prince's, nobleman's or gentleman's steward.

Rentei, f. V. Rentenei.

Renteischreiber, m. V. Rentschreiber.

Rénten, Réntiren, v. intr. and refl. to yield as rent or revenue. Dieses Fabrikgeschäft, dieses Haus, dieses Grundstück rentirt sich gut, this manufacturing business, this house, this property yields a handsome profit or revenue.

Rentenei, f. finance-office; it. receiver's office.

Rentenirer, V. Rentner.

Renterei, f. V. Rentenei.

Réntier, m. [pron. as in the French] [-s, pl. -s] V. Rentner.

Réntiren, V. Renten.

Réntirer, V. Rentner.

Réntner, m. [-s, pl. -], —inn, f. a person living from his [her] yearly income, interest of capital or annuity &c.

Rentnerei, f. V. Rentenei.

Rentriren, v. tr. [with tailors] to line-draw. Das —, line-drawing.

Rénzel, V. Ränzel.

Reölen, V. Riolen.

||Rép, &c. V. Reif &c.

Reparation, f. reparation.

Reparatur, f. [pl. -en] repair.

Repariren, v. tr. to repair, to mend.

Repartiren, v. tr. [vertheilen] to divide, to distribute, to assess.

Repartirung or Repartition, f. division, distribution, assessment.

||Répen, v. tr. 1) [low] V. Raufen, Reifsen. 2) to measure wood.

||Réper, m. [-s, pl. -] 1) [low] V. Reifer. 2) [Holzmesser] an assizer or meter of wood.

Repertorium, n. [-s, pl. Repertorien] [Sundbuch] a repertory, an inventory.

Repetent, m. [-en, pl. -en] an under-master, a teacher who rehearses or reinstructs, a tutor for the gatherings.

Repetiren, v. tr. and intr. to repeat, V. Wiederholen; [of a watch] to repeat. Das —, the repetition or repeating; [of a watch] the repeating.

Repetirrechen, m. [with watch-makers] rack. —uhr, f. a repeater. —werk, n. works of a repeater.

Repetition, f. repetition.

Replik, f. [pl. -en] [Gegenantwort] a reply.

Repositorium, n. [-s, pl. Repositorien] [Büchereisell] book-case, book-shelves.

Répphuhn, V. Rebhuhn.

Repräsentant, m. [-en, pl. -en] representative. Die —en der fremden Mächte, the representatives of the foreign powers; die —en [Stellvertreter] des Volks or die Volks—en, the representatives of the people [the parliament, the states &c., the chambers].

Repräsentation, f. representation.

Repräsentationsrecht, n. right of representation.

Repräsentiren, I. v. tr. to represent. Baron N. repräsentirt den russischen, den St. Petersburger Hof or Rußland in London or bei dem Kabinet von St. James, Baron N. represents the Court of Russia, of St. Petersburg, or Russia in London or at the cabinet of St. James; das Parlament repräsentirt das Volk, the parliament represents the people. II. v. intr. [in familiar or court language] Er repräsentirt gut, dieser Fürst repräsentirt gut, he makes or presents a good, nobly dignified figure, fills his duty of representing well or nobly, this prince has a fine, noble bearing [on public occasions, audiences &c.].

Repressalien, pl. [Gegenthätlichkeiten, Vergeltungsmaßregeln] reprisals.

Repressalienbriefe, pl. letters of mark.

Reproductent, m. [-en, pl. -en] [in law-courts] the defendant.

Reproduciren, v. tr. 1) [in nat. hist.] to reproduce. 2) [in law] to reproduce.

Reproduction, f. reproduction.

Reproductionskraft, f. regenerative force, reproductive power.

Reproductiv, adj. and adv. reproductive.

Rèps, m. [-es] [Räpps] brassica arvensis, Flanders cabbage, colza, rape, cole-rape, cole-seed; it. French turnip, navew.

Republik, f. [pl. -en] republic, [free] commonwealth.

Republikaner, m. [-s, pl. -], —inn, f. [Freibürger; it. republikanisch Gesinnter] a republican.

Republikanisch, adj. and adv. republican. —e Regierung, Regierungsform, a republican government, form of government; —denken, gesinnt seyn, to think as a republican, to have republican ideas and sentiments.

Republikanism, m. [-s, pl. -en] [Freibürgerinn] republicanism.

Repuls, m. [-es, pl. -e] [stiff and little used] a repulsive or refusing answer, a repulse, refusal, denial.

Repulsion, f. [in physics] [Zurückstoßung] repulsion.

Repulsionskraft, f. repulsive or repellent force or power.

Repulsiv, Repulsorisch, adj. and adv. repulsive.

Reputation, f. reputation, character.

Reputirlich, adj. and adv. [achtbar] [in common people's language or comic] reputable. Ein recht —er Mann, a very honest man, a man bearing a very good character; it. a very respectable man; quite a genteel man.

Reputirlichkeit, f. reputability.

Requête, f. [pron. Refät] [pl. -n] 1) [not much used] [Bittschrift] request. 2) [with cooks] a savoury patty.

Requetenmeister, m. [in France] master of the requests.

Réquiem, n. [-s, pl. -] [with catholics] [Eetmesse] requiem, repose or rest for the dead. Das — von Mozart, the [celebrated] Requiem of Mozart.

Requiriren, v. tr. to require, to put in requisition.

Requisit, n. [-es, pl. -e] a requisite.

Requisition, f. requisition. Eine — an Etwas machen, to make a requisition of something; it. [in law] eine — [ein Ersuch schreiben] an Einen stellen or richten, to address a letter of request to any one. [in military affairs] V. Zwangslieferung.

Requisitionsschreiben, n. or Requisitoriales, pl. [in law, from a superior to an inferior, or from a court of law, tribunal &c. to a private individual] request in writing.

Rescribiren, v. tr. and intr. [in law or chancery style] to notify by decree in consequence of a previous application.

Rescript, n. [-es, pl. -e] rescript [of a prince, ministry, court of law &c.]; mandate [of the Pope &c.].

Resèda, [no pl.] Resède, f. [pl. -n] mignonette. Resedenkraut, n. mignonette.

Reservât, n. [-es, pl. -e] [in law or chancery style] [Vorbehalt] reserve, reservation.

Reserve, f. [pl. -n] [chiefly in war] [Rücken halt] the reserve.

Reserviren, v. tr. [in law or chancery style] to reserve.

Resident or Minister-Resident, m. [-en, pl. -en] [minister-] resident [less than an ambassador and more than agent or chargé d'affaires]. Die —inn, the resident's lady.

Residentenstelle, f. the office or place of resident, residentship.

Residenz, f. [pl. -en] 1) [—Stadt, Hoflager] the residence [of a prince and court]. Die Vergnügungen der —, the pleasures of the residence, of the city or town where the court resides; der Hof hat die sommerliche — or Sommer— [das Sommerhoflager] in Windsor, in St. Cloud, in Schönbrunn &c. aufgeschlagen or bezogen, the Court has taken up its summer-residence at Windsor &c. 2) [in livings] Pfründen, welche zur — [zum bestimmten Aufenthalt] verpflichten, benefices or livings which render residence incumbent on the holder of the living, which do not admit of non-residence.

Residenzbaumeister, m. architect to a city where a court is held. —bewohner, m. inhabitant of the city where a court resides. —stadt, f. V. Residenz 1).

Residiren, v. intr. to reside [as a prince with his court].

Residuum, n. [-s, pl. Residuen] [in chemistry &c.] residuum, residue, residence, deposit.

Resonanz, f. [pl. -en] [in music] [Wiederhall, Widerschall, Rückklang] resonance. Die —en unterscheiden, to distinguish the resonances.

Resonanzboden, m. —decke, f. the sounding-board. —loch, n. [Schallloch] sound-hole.

Respect, m. [-es] [in familiar or popular lang.] respect. Ich habe allen — vor ihm I respect this man greatly, he deserves my warmest esteem; Einem seinen — bezeugen, to pay a person one's deferential compliments, to make a person a respectful visit; den — außer Acht lassen, den — außer Augen sehen, to neglect the deference or respect due to a person, quite to forget what one owes one's superior.

Respectlos, adj. without respect. —losigkeit, f. want of respect. —tag, m. [in commerce] day of grace. —voll, adj. and adv. full of respect, respectfully, deferential.

Respectiren, v. tr. [in familiar and popular language] to respect. — Sie seine Befehle! attend to his orders!

Respectiv, adj. [stiff] respective. Die —en Bevollmächtigten, die —en Höfe, the respective plenipotentiaries, courts.

Respondent, m. [-en, pl. -en] [in colleges] the respondent, defender of a disputation or theme [when passing his examination].

Respondiren, v. intr. [in colleges] to respond, to be a respondent, to sustain and defend one's theme; [in commerce] to be answerable for, to be bail or surety.

Responsgelder, pl. [in commanderies] money paid to a military order by its component knights, responsion.

||Reß, V. Räß.

Reßbaum, m. [reß perhaps = groß] [with carpenters] [Träger] post [if upright]; beam [if horizontal]; rafter [if at an angle]; sleeper [if across horizontally to support rods].

Reßsen, v. tr. [allied to reißsen] [with miners] to dig, to hew, to cut.

Reßsen, m. [-s] [allied to reißsen] [with miners] a trench, or canal for washing the ore.

Reßt, m. [-es, pl. -e], dim. —chen, || —lein, n. [-s, pl. -] [Fr. reste, from the old Germ. restan = rassen = to rest, to remain quiet; or, according to others, from the Lat. residuum] 1) rest, remainder, remnant, remains, residue, remanent, scrap, dross, rearward, relic, trace; [in trade] balance, overplus, residue [of money], rest, residue &c. [of goods &c.]; [in arithmetic] the remainder. Dies ist der — von seinem Vermögen, this is the remainder, the wreck of his fortune; sie war nicht mehr jung, besaß aber noch die —e sehr großer Schönheit, she was no longer young, but possessed still the traces, remains of great beauty; der — von einem Stücke Tuch, Zeug, the remnant of a piece of cloth, of stuff; der — von Waaren, the remains, [if worthless] the dross, residue &c. of goods; einen —, ein —chen von einem Zeuge &c. kaufen, to buy a relic or fragment, a strip, morsel or bit of any article of wearing apparel &c.; die —e vom Essen, von der Tafel, von einem Gastmahl, the scraps of a meal, the fragments of the table, the relics of a banquet; es ist noch ein —chen im Fasse, im Glase, there is still a residue, a drop left in the cask, a supernaculum or drop left in the glass, [fam.] there is still a drop, a shake-up, a thimble-full left &c.; zahlen Sie mir die Hälfte, den — will ich Ihnen borgen, pay me the half, I will credit you the rest, the balance; den — der Rechnung bezahlen, to pay the balance of the account; die Eintreibung der —e, the getting in, gathering, recovery of the arrears; einen — bezahlen, to pay a balance, a sum in arrear; dieser Beamte hat einen — gesetzt, gemacht, [er hat ein Deficit in seiner Kasse, Rechnung], this officer [clerk] has a deficit in his account, in his cash-box; zwei von vier abgezogen, bleibt zwei —, take two from four and there remains two. Fig. Einem den — geben [low], to serve any one out, to do him, to sew or do any one up, to settle his hash; dieser Hieb, diese Flasche gab ihm [vollends] den — [low], this cut, this bottle did for him, settled him, gave him his quietus, finished him; er hat seinen — [low], he is done up [whether in drinking, fortune or life]. 2) state of being in arrears or debt. Im —e bleiben, im —e seyn, to remain in debt, in arrears, to be in arrears, difficulties; er bleibt mir noch zehn Thaler im —e, he is still ten dollars in arrears with me; er ist bei seinen Gläubigern im —, he is still in arrears with his creditors.

Reßstort, m. [in seamen's lang.] last place of call or touching at for a ship to complete her cargo. —zetteln, m. [with miners] account of the residue and wages in arrear.

Restant, m. [-en, pl. -en] 1) a person behind-hand in his payments, a piece-meal or backward paymaster. 2) —en, pl., outstanding debts, arrears.

Restantenbuch, n. register of, book for posting outstanding debts or arrears, [also] ledger of arrears, payments by instalment, bad debts &c.

Restaurateur, m. [-s, pl. -s or -e] [pron. Restauratör] [modern] one who keeps a [genteel] eating-house.

Restauration, f. restoration; it. eating-house.

Restaurator, m. [-s, pl. -en] restorer. V. Wiederhersteller.

Restauriren, v. tr. 1) to restore. 2) [in familiar lang. and comic] to refresh any one, one's self. Einen —, sich —, to restore one's knocked-up strength by food and drink.

Reßten, Reßtiren, v. intr. 1) to remain, to be left. Es — noch zehn Thaler in der Kasse, there remain, there are still left ten dollars in the cash-box, in the till. 2) to be due. Es reßtet, reßtirt noch eine ansehnliche Summe, there is still due a considerable sum. 3) to be in arrears. Es — noch viele Schuldner, many debtors are still in arrear, behind-hand, backward in their payments; er reßtet or reßtirt noch mit zehn Thalern, he is still ten dollars in arrears, has still ten dollars to make up, [where honour is implicated or restitution] he has still ten crowns to make good.

Reßter, [with shoemakers] V. Rüsster.

Reßtiren, V. Reßten.

Restituiren, v. tr. to restore, to give back, to refund.

Restitution, f. restitution.

Restitutionsedict, n. edict of restitution [more especially that issued by the emperor Ferdinand II.].

Retardat, n. [-es, pl. -e] work or contribution in arrear; [with miners] claims, notice of resumption or exclusion [to a partner &c. for non-payment of dues]. Einen Gewerken in das — setzen [with miners], to serve a shareholder with notice of forfeiture in case of non-payment of arrears; [in finance] resumption; it. arrears; einen Posten in's — setzen [in finance], to place an article, an item down to the arrears, to the chapter of resumption.

Retardatfure, f. —theil, m. mine-action, adventure or share forfeited through non-payment of arrears or dues.

Retardatencommission, f. commission for the arrears.

Retardiren, I. v. intr. [with watch-makers] Diese Uhr retardirt, this watch loses, goes too slow, is slow. II. v. tr. [stiff or in chancery style] V. Verzögern, Verspäten.

Retardirwerk, n. [with watch-makers] the stop [of a clock &c.], the check of the regulator.

Retirade, f. [pl. -n] [in war] retreat.

Retiriren, I. v. tr. [bad word, not used] to take or draw back. II. v. intr. [in war] to retreat.

Retörte, f. [pl. -n] [in chemistry] a retort.

||Rette, m. [-n, pl. -n] [= Rüde?] the male of the canine species, dog [opposed to bitch].

Rettel, m. [-s, pl. -] [in nat. hist.] [a fish] the roach.

Reßten, [allied to reißsen, as in the Gr. ῥῑνω, to draw, and ῥῑνω (ῥῑνωαι), to draw from captivity, to save from danger] v. tr. to save. Einen aus einem brennenden Hause —, to save any one from a house on fire; man konnte nur sehr wenig —, only very little could be saved; Einen aus der Gefahr, vom Tode, Verderben —, to save or release any one from danger, to save, snatch or rescue from death, destruction; Einem das Leben —, to save any one's life; sich —, sich durch die Flucht —, to save one's self, one's self through flight; sich eben noch mit dem Leben —, just or barely to escape with life; sich an einen sichern Ort —, to take refuge for safety in a secure place; sich vor einem wilden Thiere auf einen Baum —, to save one's self from a wild beast by climbing a tree; er hat ihn aus den Händen der Feinde gerettet, he freed, liberated, delivered him out of the hands of his foes; rette sich, wer kann! sauve qui peut [of the French], [fam.] the devil take the hindmost! ich weiß nicht, wohin ich mich — [flüchten] soll, I do not know whither I shall fly or flee to take refuge, where to hide my head. Fig. Den Schein —, to save appearances; das Vaterland —, to save one's country. Syn. V. Befreien. Das —, the saving, V. Rettung.

Rettgebühr, f. right of salvage.

Retter, m. [-s, pl. -], —inn, f. savor, deliverer, preserver, liberator. Er war mein —, sie war meine —inn aus der Noth, he was, she was my savor from want, he, she preserved me, rescued me from distress; hier ist meine —inn! here is my preserver, my guardian angel! it. [in sportsmen's lang.] a harrier broken in for preventing the rest of the pack from tearing the hunted puss.

Rettig, m. [-es, pl. -e] [Lat. radix, a root] 1) [V. Radieß, Monat—] a radish. 2) horse-radish. Der wilde — [Meer—], wild horse-radish. 3) [in conchology] radish-shell, turnip-shell.

Rettig=rübe, f. the garden or cultivated horse-radish. —salat, m. salad in which there is radish &c. dressed up, [also] radish sauce. —samen, m. radish seed. —schote, f. radish pod.

Rettung, f. [das Retten] the saving, safety, deliverance. Er, das, bewirkte seine —, he, that effected, he, that worked his safety, deliverance; er arbeitet an der — seines Vaterlandes, he labours for the deliverance of his country; da war keine — möglich, there was no possibility of saving any thing or one's self or others; ohne — verloren, lost without resource, irretrievably lost; ihm habe ich die — meines Lebens, meiner Ehre zu danken, I have to thank him for the saving of my life, of my honour; ich sage das zur — meiner Ehre, I say that to save my honour; Einen um — anrufen, to call upon any one, to invoke, to implore any one for succour, deliverance; — [das Bergen] eines sich in Noth befindenden Schiffes [in commerce], salvage.

Rettungsboje, f. any thing thrown to a man in the water to save himself by clinging, a safety-buoy. —los, adj. and adv. not to be saved, past hope of safety. —los verloren seyn, to be lost without resource, to be irretrievably lost, [fam.] to be lost to all intents and purposes. —mittel, n. means of safety. Es gibt für ihn kein —mittel mehr, there is no means of safety more for him, all chance, mode of saving him is over. —schrift, f. [in law] a rejoinder re-asseverating the truth of a previous statement put in and read. —versuch, m. essay, attempt, endeavour to save, trial of safety.

Reue, f. [no pl.] [V. Reuen] repentance, regret. — über Etwas empfinden, to feel repentance, to experience regret at something, to be sorry for having done something; er empfindet — über seinen Fehler, he feels regret for the fault he has committed; er hat viel — darüber bezeugt, he has testified much repentance about it, he has shewn a great deal of regret at it; die — über begangene Sünden, the regret, the repentance, penitence for one's past sins. Syn. V. Leid.

Reuzgeld, n., —handlohn, m. V. —kauf. —kauf, m. the forfeit-money, indemnification-money for an uncompleted contract &c. Fig. Der —kauf ist ihn angekommen [in popular language], he is sorry for his bargain, he would be glad to be off his bargain. —muth, m., —müthig, adj. and

adv. V. Reue, Reueig. —stimme, f. [in a higher style] voice preaching or announcing repentance. Die —stimme des Gewissens, the upbraiding voice of conscience. —voll, V. Reuevoll.

Reuevoll, adj. and adv. penitent, repentant, full of repentance. — sank er zu meinen Füßen, touched with repentance, he sank at my feet; ein —es Herz, —e Gefinnungen, a heart overflowing with repentance, sentiments full of penitence, of deep contrition.

Reuen, [in Old Sax. hrinwan means to feel affliction] I. v. intr. [not much used] to repent. Ein —des Kind, a repentant child. II. v. imp. Diese That reuet mich, es reuet mich, dies gethan zu haben, it repenteth me of this deed, I deeply deplore this deed, I repent, I am deeply afflicted, very sorry for having done this; es hat ihn sehr gereuet, he has much, he has deeply repented it; mein Geld, die verlorene Zeit reuet mich, I regret my money, my lost time; er darf sich sein Geld nicht — lassen, he ought not to regret having spent his money; es reuet mich nunmehr, es wird ihn ewig —, I repent it now, he will repent it for ever, till doomsday; [old and with poets] es reuet mich der That, I do repent me of the deed.

Reuer, m. [-s, pl. -], —inn, f. [with catholics] a penitent [monk or friar].

Reuig, adj. and adv. repentant. Ein —es Gemüth, a repentant mind; ein —er Sünder, a repentant [sinner].

Reüse, f. [pl. -n] [in Dutch ruysche means a hive; in Goth. raus is a tube; allied to Reis] [Strehse] a weir-basket. —n stellen, legen, to lay the weir-baskets.

Reüsperrn, V. Räuüsperrn.

Reuß, [in geography] Das Fürstenthum —, die Fürstenthümer —, the principality of Reuss, the principalities of Reuss [belonging to the German confederation].

Reüße, m. [-n, pl. -n] [Ruße] a Russian; [chiefly or now almost only used in the following phrase] Selbst[be]herrscher aller —n, autocrat of all the Russians.

Reußen, n. [-s] 1) [Rußland] Russia. [chiefly or now almost only used in the following phrase] Selbst[be]herrscher aller —, the autocrat, the Czar of all Russia. 2) V. Reuß.

Reußisch, adj. and adv. 1) V. Russisch. 2) of the principality of Reuss.

Reüt, n. [-es, pl. -e]. —feld, —land, n. [Reubruß] maiden-land newly ploughed, new turned up land.

Reüte, f. [pl. -n] 1) [das Ausreuten] rooting up, eradication, extirpation. Die — eines Stück Landes, the ploughing up, turning up, laying in fallow of a piece of untilled land. 2) [Reuthacke] hoe; [in agriculture] V. Pflug—. 3) V. Reite.

1. Reüten, [allied to reissen] v. tr. to tear up by the roots, to eradicate, to extirpate, to deracinate. Die Baumwurzeln aus der Erde —, to extirpate, to eradicate the roots of trees from a soil; ein Stück Land &c. — [urbar machen], to plough up, to lay in fallow a new piece of land &c.

Reutzgabel, f. [with soap-boilers] a fork for separating and dispersing the clots, a stir-up fork. —hacke, f. hoe. —haude, f. [with miners] heap of ore-dross after washing. —haue, f. hoe. —horn, n. corn sown, growing or grown upon maiden-land. —krage, f. rake or strike [for drawing the slack out of the furnaces for tin melting]. —spaten, m. [in agriculture] large spade for digging up untilled land; [with gardeners] weeding-spade. —zehnte, f. the tithes off new-ploughed land and a maiden-crop, the first-fruits off a virgin-soil.

2. Reüten, V. Reiten.

Reüter, m. [-s, pl. -], —inn, f. 1) an eradicator, an extirpator, one who roots up or out, who deracimates. 2) V. Reiter. 3) [Sieb] a sieve, strainer.

Revanche*, f. [pron. as in the French] compensation; it. revenge [at cards].

Revanchiren*, v. refl. [pron. Revangschiren] [in fam. lang.] to be revenged; to have one's revenge [at cards].

Reveille*, f. [pron. Reveille] [no pl.] [in the army] reveille, the tattoo at day-break, [with the French] the diane. — [schlagen], to beat the reveille, the morning-tattoo.

Reverberiren*, v. tr. and intr. to reverberate.

Reverberir=feuer, n. [in chemistry] a reverberated fire. —ofen, m. [in chemistry] a reverberating furnace, a furnace with a reverberatory.

Reverenz*, f. [pl. -en] [obsolete or comic for Reveregung] a bow, a salute. Ein gewaltiger —enmacher, a man that bows too often, a tremendous bow-maker.

Revers*, m. [-es, pl. -e] 1) the reverse [of a medal or coin]. 2) counter-deed, defeasance, a counter-bond. Einen — ausstellen, to give a defeasance &c. 3) [in German universities] a promise signed by a fresh student to keep the university-regulations, bond on the part of the freshman to observe the statutes and decrees of Alma Mater.

Reversgraf, m. [in German history] a mediate count.

Reversalien*, pl. [chiefly in German history] counter-documents of defeasance, reversals by which it is declared that what must happen this time, shall not be of detriment to the general rights. — ausstellen, to give the deed of defeasance.

Reversino*, m. [-s] a game at cards, reversis.

Reversiren*, sich, v. refl. to give a counter-deed, a defeasance, a counter-bond, a reversal letter, to oblige one's self by bond; it. to renounce by a solemn act.

Revidiren*, v. tr. to review, to re-peruse, to read again. Eine Rechnung —, to revise an account; Waaren —, to revisit goods.

Revidirbogen, m. [with printers] the third proof-sheet.

Revier*, n. [-es, pl. -e] a country, canton, quarter, district [now chiefly or almost only used in the sense of Forst, a verderer's or ranger's jurisdiction, and Jagdrevier, which see].

Revieren*, v. intr. [in sportsmen's language] to scent, to track, to range, to ferret out. Dieser Hund revieret gut, this dog lays on the scent well, has a good scent, nose, [also] tracks well, follows up the track well, beats about well.

Revision*, f. revision; [with printers] [= Revidirbogen] third proof-sheet.

Revisor*, m. [-s, pl. -en] revisor.

Rhabarber*, f. rhubarb. Galsche —, rhubarb of the Alps, monk's rhubarb, patience, dock; it. false rhubarb, meadow rue; it. schwarze —, V. Jalappe.

Rhabarber=auszug, —extract, m., —tinctur, f. extract, tincture of rhubarb. —baum, m. frangula, black alder. — pflanze, f. V. Rhabarber. — pulver, n. powdered rhubarb, rhubarb-powder. — wurzel, f. V. Rhabarber.

Rhapontik, f. 1) rhapontium, monk's rhubarb, patience. 2) onagra, night or tree-primrose. 3) greater centaury, common centaury or rhapontic, knapweed.

Rhapsodie, f. [pl. -n] rhapsody.

Rhede, f. V. Reede.

Rhein, m. [-es] (generally derived from rin *n*en; some, with less probability, refer it to Rain = a boundary; in the language of the ic and oe Troubadours every rivulet is called rhén) [in geography] the Rhine.

Rheinsalze, f. 1) salmon-pearl of the Rhine. 2) lake salmon-trout. — armee, f. [chiefly in the history of the first French revolution] army of the Rhine. — bayern, n. Rhenish Bavaria. — brücke, f. bridge of or over the Rhine. — bund m. [in German history] confederacy of the Rhine. — damm, — deich, m. dike of the Rhine. — diamant, m. transparent pebble, the Rhenish diamond [answering to the English Bristol or Cornish diamond]. — dorf, n. a Rhenish village, a village on or near the Rhine. — fahrt, f. voyage on the Rhine, [modern] tour or excursion up or down the Rhine. — fahrzeug, n. a vessel of the Rhine. — fall, m. 1) [near Schaffhausen] cataract of the Rhine. 2) [provincial] wine of Grisons, it. of Valteline or Velteliner; it. wine of Istria, of Prosecco. — festung, f. fortress on the Rhine. — fisch, m. fish of the Rhine. — fischerei, f. Rhine-fishery; fishery in the Rhine. — fluß, m. [not much used] the Rhine river, the river Rhine. — fürst, m. a prince whose land borders the Rhine, a Rhine-prince. — gau, m. [in geography] the Rheingau [a particular district on the borders of the Rhine]. — gebirge, n. a mountain or chain of mountains on or fringing the Rhine. — gegenb., f. country of the Rhine, Rhine-country. — gegenben, the Rhine-countries; environs, neighbouring districts of the Rhine. — gold, n. Rhine-gold, Rhenish gold [found in the alluvial sand]. — graf, m. [formerly, now only occurring in the title of some German princes] Rhinegrave, count of the Rhine. — gräfinn, f. Rhinegravine, countess of the Rhine. — grafschaft, f. county of the Rhine. — herr, n. V. — armee. — herr, m. [formerly] master of the ports [at Cologne]. — kiesel, m. a transparent pebble, the Rhenish diamond. V. also — diamant. — hessen, n. Rhenish Hesse. — kreis, m. circle of the Rhine. — lands, m. Rhine salmon. — land, n. country, land, district or province skirting the Rhine. Die — länder, the countries, districts &c. skirting the Rhine. — länder, m., — länderinn, f. inhabitant of the Rhine, one living in its neighbourhood. — ländisch, adv. Rhenish. — ländische Ruthe, the Rhenish rod; — ländischer Wein, Rhenish wine, [as, for instance, Hock or Hochheimer]. — lied, n. song of the Rhine [either referring to the Rhine or composed in the Rhine-country]. — preußen, n. Rhenish Prussia. — reise, f. voyage upon or tour along the Rhine. — salm, V. — lands. — schanze, f. [chiefly in the history of Germany during the first French revolutionary war] line, intrenchment, fortification to prevent the enemy's passing or crossing the Rhine. — schiff, n. a great vessel, a ship of the Rhine. — schiffahrt, f. navigation of the Rhine. — schnecke, f. 1) [Eintagsfliege] an ephemera. 2) phryganea, caddis-worm, caddis, may-fly. — schwalbe, f. 1) V. Erbs schwalbe. 2) [at the mouth of the Rhine, near the sea] V. Mewe. — stadt, f. city of the Rhine. — strom, m. the Rhine-stream, the Rhine. — taucher, m. the little smew. — thal, n. the or a valley of or bordering [on] the Rhine; it. the Rheinthal [in Switzerland]; it. the Rhein-valley [what was the ancient bed of the Rhine between Switzerland and Bingen]. — überfahrt, f. passage of the Rhine. — übergang, m. 1) passage of the Rhine. 2) [the] crossing [of] the Rhine. Der — übergang der Franzosen im Jahre 1792, der Allierten im Jahre 1814, the crossing of the Rhine by the French armies in 1792 by the allied armies in 1814. — ufer, n. shore, bank of the Rhine. Das linke, rechte — ufer, the left, right bank, [where the stream is very broad] shore of the Rhine. — weide, f. 1) black poplar. 2) Rhine-willow, sea-thorn, sand-thorn, sea-buckthorn. — wein, m. wine of the Rhine, Rhenish wine [as, for instance, Hock or Hochheimer].

Rheinisch, adj. and adv. Rhenish, of the Rhine. Die — en Länder, Fürsten &c., the countries, princes of the Rhine, the Rhenish provinces, the Rhine-Princes &c.; — e Weine [Rheinweine], Rhenish wines; ein — er Gulden, ein Gulden — [in reckoning], a florin Rhenish standard; ein — er Goldgülden [formerly], a Rhenish gold-crown or dollar; — e Kirschen, red and white-heart cherries; der — e Bund, V. Rheinbund.

Rhetorik, f. rhetoric.

Rhetoriker, m. [-s, pl. -] rhetorician.

Rhetorisch, adj. and adv. rhetorical. — e Figur, rhetorical figure; die — e Klasse, the rhetorical class.

Rheumatisch, adj. and adv. rheumatic, rheumatismal.

Rheumatismus, m. [pl. Rheumatismen] rheumatism.

Rhinoceros, n. [pl. -se] [in nat. hist.] Rhinoceros, the rhinoceros.

Rhizolith, m. [-en, pl. -en] [in mineralogy] [Wurzelstein] rhizolite.

Rhodier, m. [-s, pl. -], — inn, f. one of or from Rhodes, a Rhodian.

Rhodisch, adj. and adv. Rhodian, in the manner of the Rhodians.

Rhodiserdorn, m. — holz, n. V. Rosenholz.

Rhodiseritter, m. [-s, pl. -] knight of Rhodes.

Rhodiserwurzel, f. V. Rosenwurzel.

Rhodus, n. or die Insel —, [in geography] Rhodes.

Rhombisch, adj. and adv. rhomboidal. [in mineralogy] Versteckt — er Quarz, rhombiferous quartz.

Rhombit, m. [-en, pl. -en] [in nat. hist.] a rhombite, fossil containing the impression of a turbot.

Rhomboid, n. [-es, pl. -e] [in geometry] a rhomboid.

Rhombus, m. [pl. Rhomben] [in geometry] a rhomb.

Rhone, f. [less usual, but more correct m.] [probably = Rhein, that is, river; the English to run = rennen, schnell laufen; old Engl. to ron, Welsh rhin = a river] [in geography] the [river] Rhone.

Rhumb, m. [-es, pl. -e] [Windstrich, Compasstrich] [in seamen's lang] rhumb-line, point of the compass. Von — zu — segeln, to sail by traverse.

Rhythmisch, adj. and adv. rhythmical, rhythmic. Der — e Wohlklang der Verse, the rhythmic harmony of verse.

Rhythmus, m. [pl. Rhythmen] rhythm.

Ribbe, f. V. Rippe.

Ribben, v. tr. [Stach &c.] to peel [flax &c.].

Ricambio, n. [in commerce] re-exchange.

Ricambiorechnung, f. account of re-exchange.

Richard, m. [-s, pl. -e] [name of men] Richard, [in familiarity or contempt] Dick.

||Richt, n. V. Gericht.

Richte, f. [pl. -n] 1) [fam. and rather provincial] straightness. Etwas in die — bringen, to make any thing straight; in die — gehen, to go straight along, to keep on straight, to keep straight a-head before one, to keep the straight or main road, path &c. 2) [provincialism = Reihe] Eine — Häuser, a row of houses.

Richten, [allied to regen, recken, recht, therefore = to stretch, to expand] I. v. tr. 1) [in general] to give to any thing a certain direction [usually with the statement of the nature or kind of such direction]. Etwas in die Höhe, nach der Seite —, to raise any thing up, sideways; sich im Bette in die Höhe —, to raise one's self, to rise or sit up in bed; eine Stange &c. in die Höhe —, to raise or lift up a pole &c.; sich auf den Beinspitzen in die Höhe —, to raise one's self up on tip-toe; die Segel nach dem Winde —, to bend the sails to the wind, to trim the sails; das Schiff nach dem Winde —, to haul the wind again, to bring a ship to the wind, after yawing to leeward; eine Sonnenuhr nach der Weltgegend —, to set a sun-dial to its meridian; die Augen, Blicke auf Etwas —, gen Himmel or auf zum Himmel —, to direct one's eyes, looks towards any thing, to turn one's eyes, one's looks towards heaven; die Kanonen nach der Stadt —, to point or turn the cannons towards, to level cannon on the town; die Kanonen —, zum Schusse —, to point the cannons, to bring the cannon to a proper level for firing; eine Büchse zum Schusse —, to make [a gun] ready and present; die Haare zurecht — [rather stiff or unusual], to arrange one's hair, to put one's hair to rights, to dress one's hair; die Sprigen —, to direct or point the fire-engines; ein Fernglas —, to point, to direct a telescope; eine Uhr —, den Weiser einer Uhr —, to set, to regulate a watch, to set the hand of a watch. Fig. Seine Gedanken, seine Absicht, seine Aufmerksamkeit, sein Herz auf Etwas —, to turn one's thoughts, to direct one's intention, to give one's attention to any thing, to set one's heart upon something; darauf ist eben seine Absicht gerichtet, his intentions are precisely directed to that, his views are exactly turned that way, that is exactly what he proposes to himself, what he is aiming at, what he desires; sein Gebet zu Gott —, to direct one's prayer to God; ein Schreiben, die Aufschrift eines Briefes, eine Vorstellung an Einen —, to address a letter, to direct the address of a letter, a representation to any one; sich nach seiner Vorschrift —, to go by, to act up, after or according to, to follow one's instructions; ich werde mich darnach zu — wissen, I shall know how to shape my course thereupon, to take my measures in consequence; sich nach den Leuten, nach dem Wissen der Leute —, to go by, to imitate others, to conform to the will of others; seine Frau richtet sich ganz nach ihm, his wife conforms, accommodates herself, gives way entirely to him, his humour; his wife acts entirely after his wishes; sich nach den Umständen —, to yield, to give way, to conform to circumstances, [fam.] to yield with a good grace to what can't be helped, to put the best face on the matter, to make the best of a bad bargain; sich nach den Befehlen seiner Zuhörer —, to conform, to descend to the comprehension of one's hearers, to adapt one's discourse &c. to the capacity of one's listeners; die Arznei auf Jemandes Zustand —, to regulate the medicine by the condition or state of any one; — Sie sich nicht nach mir, don't take me for your regulator, guide, don't trim or shape your course by mine, don't imitate me, don't follow my example. 2) [to treat by directing, pointing &c. in a certain manner] to make straight, to straighten. Einen Weg —, to make straight, to smooth, to make level or easy a way; die Hörner — [with combmakers], to dress the horns; die Felle — [with tawers], to stretch the hides or skins, it. to spread the hides and skins; die Scheren — [with knife-grinders] [= dengeln], to grind down the notches and tally the blades of shears &c.; [with blacksmiths] ein Stück —, to straighten a piece; die Stäbe —, to flatten, to hammer flat iron blades, to edge iron plates; den Draht zu den Nadeln —, to straighten the pin-wire, needle-wire; ein Buch — [with book-binders], to beat a book well; die Ränder der Münzplatten — [in the mint], to hammer the planchets; ein Stück Holz — [with joiners &c.], to trim or dress a piece of wood with the plane; [with coopers] die Fassdauben — [= krümmen], to dress the staves; das windschiefe Holz —, to straighten curled, cambering, bent, warped wood; einen Mast —, to raise up a mast, to fix a mast upright; [with carders] die Zähne, Häkchen der Kardätschen —, to straighten or dress the bent teeth, claws of the cards; eine Kardätsche —, to dress a card, to file smooth the teeth of the card; einen Meiler — [bedecken], to cover over a charcoal kiln; einen Deckel auf eine Schachtel —, to fit on a cover or lid to a box; die Zuchschere —, to trim the blades of the shears so as to tally; die Nege, Fangeisen —, to dress, trim the nets, to lay or set the nets, traps; ein Gebäude —, to fit up a building with its carpentry-work; sich —, to raise one's self upright, to rise up, to sit or stand up straight richtet [when spoken, richt] euch! [to the soldiers] in line! Fig. Sich —, to prepare one's self, to get and hold one's self in readiness; das Mittagessen —, to prepare the dinner, to get the dinner ready; Alles zur Reise —, to prepare every thing for the journey. 3) [properly, to bring any thing somewhere] Fig. Etwas in's Werk —, to bring something into play, into force, to put something into execution, into effect; Einen zu Grunde —, to ruin any one, to bring any one to ruin 4) [closely allied to richt] a) [urtheilen, beurtheilen] to judge. Richte selbst; was wäre Liebe ohne Tugend? judge yourself: what would be love without virtue? über Alles — wollen, to wish to judge of every thing. it. to pass judgment upon, to judge. Ueber Andere —, das Verhalten Anderer —, to judge, to censure, to criticise others, the conduct of others; Gott wird uns —, God will judge us, pass sentence upon us; richtet nicht, auf daß ihr nicht gerichtet werdet [in Scripture], judge not, lest ye be judged; eine Schrift, ein Kunstwerk &c. — [rather unusual], to criticise a writing, a work of art, V. Beurtheilen; Gott wird kommen, zu — die Lebendigen und die Todten [in Scripture], God will come to judge both the quick and the dead; it. [in a bad sense] Einen, die Handlung Anderer —, to censure, to find fault with, to cavil at, to condemn, to judge any one, the conduct or actions of others; wer Alles richtet, macht sich Feinde, he who judges [harshly], censures, finds fault with, cavils at every thing, makes himself enemies; it. eine Streitsache, über eine streitige Sache —, to judge a process, a cause of contention. b) —, [hin—], to execute, to fulfil the last sentence of the law. Einen mit dem Schwerte, Beile, Stränge —, to execute any one with the sword, axe, rope or by hanging. Das — eines Stabes &c., the setting up &c. of a staff &c.; das — der Kanonen, the pointing, turning, levelling of the cannon; das — eines Verbrechers, the execution of a criminal. V. Richtung. II. v. intr. [in sportsmen's language only] to repair. 1) [= sich wohin begeben] Zu Holze —, to repair to the forest, to covert. 2) [= nachstellen] Den Vögeln, dem Wilde —, to lay snares for birds, game.

Richt-bank, f. 1) tribunal, the bench. 2) [in Northern Germany] the dresser. —baum, m. [with carpenters] pulley-beam [for raising beams]. —beil, n. the axe of the executioner. —bier, n. [fam.] beer given by the landlord to the carpenters when the fitting up of a house is completed as a sort of house-warming or paying his footing. —blech, n. jeweller's scale of moulds [for ascertaining the size of precious stones]. —blei, n. level, plummet-level. —block, m. [for beheading] the block. —bret, n. V. —egel. —büchse, f. the scaffold [for executions]. —eisen, n. [with glass-makers and blowers] straightening rod, iron plate for smoothing glass; [with artillery-smiths] a screw-auger bender. —elle, f. [Eichelle] an ell-pattern, a sample-ell, standard-ell. —essen, n. 1) [with carpenters] house-warming, footing paid in the shape of a dinner to the carpenters by the landlord of a new-built house. 2) V. Fenstermaßzeit. —hammer, m. [with coppersmiths] flattening-hammer; [with cutlers] hammer for straightening knife-blades; [with shearers] hammer for straightening the shear-blades. —haus, n. [obsolete] V. Gerichtshaus. —hebebaum, m. [in gunnery] lever or hand-spike for raising and pointing cannon. —holz, n. [with pin makers] straightening board, pin-wire reel. —kamm, m. large tooth-comb. —kanne, f. [Eichmaß] standard or imperial quart measure. —kegel, m. —bret, n. [in artillery] frontlet, the cannon-sight; [with goldsmiths] triblet, triboulet. —keil, m. wedge for pointing cannons, a quoin. Der untere — keil, the bed. —klöppel, —kliebel, m. a long pole in the middle of a charcoal-kiln for making the draught-hole. —korn, n. [with gunsmiths] the sight, the aim [on a gun-barrel]. —leisten, m. [with shoemakers] a broken last. —maß, n. V. —essen. —maß, n. [Eichmaß] gauge, standard-measure; it. [with letter-founders] square [for proving the rectangular form of the letters]. —pfennig, m. [in the mint] the 65,635th part of a mark; it. the standard grain of fineness [for gold or silver]. —platz, m. the place of execution. Einen zum —plage führen, to lead any one to the place of execution. —schacht, m. 1) [with miners] a perpendicular shaft. 2) [Grenzschaft] a boundary-shaft. —scheffel, m. [Eichschefel] standard bushel, [in England] Winchester bushel. —scheibe, f. [with locksmiths] the notches in the key-plate of a lock. —scheit, n. ruler, great ruler, level. Ein Stück Holz nach dem —scheite beschlagen, to square wood by the level. —schnur, f. the line, levelling-line, cord. Die —schnur anlegen, halten, to place, to hold the line; das Holz mit der —schnur zeichnen, to mark wood with the line; mit der —schnur gezeichnete Linie, a stroke with the line, a line chalked out with the string. Fig. Gerechtigkeit ist die —schnur aller seiner Handlungen, justice is the rule and line of all his actions, justice is the line he has chalked out for himself in all his dealings. —schraube, f. [in artillery] regulating-screw [for pointing cannon]. —schwert, n. the sword of Justice, the sword of the executioner. —spann, n. [in seamen's lang.] the lower part of the fashion pieces of the stern. —spille, —spindel, f. [with wire-drawers] piercer for the drawing-plates. —stange, f. [in wind-mills] lever for bringing the mill-stones closer. —statt, —stätte, f. 1) V. —platz. 2) [in sportsmen's lang.] [Stellweg] a riding or lane through a forest. —steig, m. [Fußsteig] [not much used] footpath. —stein, m. a kind of anvil, hand-anvil. —stock, m. [with gunsmiths] an instrument for straightening a bent barrel or tube, a bender; [with carpenters] measure, ruler. —stuhl, m. 1) V. Richterstuhl 2) [for beheading with the sword] stool, chair. —tag, m. V. Gerichtstag. —visier, n. 1) V. —kegel. 2) [Visier] aim, sight. —wage, f. [Wasserwage] level. —wägung, f. [das Niveliren] [little used] levelling. —winkel, m. [in artillery] [Erhöhungswinkel] the angle of elevation. —zange, f. regulating-pincers. —zirkel, m. [with watchmakers] a protractor.

Richter, m. [-s, pl. -] 1) one who sets any thing right, who directs &c. [in artillery] Der — der Kanone, the pointer of the cannon, the captain-cannoneer. 2) [one who judges, decides] judge. Die —inn, a) a female judge; arbitress [of our details &c.]. b) the judge's lady. Er soll mein —, sie soll meine —inn seyn, he, she shall be my judge; sich zum — aufwerfen, to erect or constitute one's self judge; vor dem — erscheinen, to appear before the judge; eine Sache an den — gelangen lassen, vor dem — verhandeln, to carry a case before the judge, to plead or proceed before the judge; die Sache schwebt vor dem —, the affair is before the judge; Einen als — erkennen, to recognize any one as judge; der natürliche, gewöhnliche or ordentliche —, the natural judge, the customary, usual judge, the judge in ordinary; ein recht or ganz gewöhnlicher — [in fam lang.], an ordinary judge, a mere business-despatching magistrate; ein außerordentlicher —, a special judge. Prov. Wo kein Kläger ist, da ist auch kein —, where there is no plaintiff, there is also no judge; Gott ist der oberste —, God is the sovereign judge; die Kirche ist —inn in allen Glaubenssachen, the Church is judge in all articles of belief; [in the Bible] das Buch der —, the book of judges, the judges. V. Berg—, Blut—, Dorf—, Hof—, Kammer—, Kunst—, Land—, Nach—, Ober—, Scharf—, Schieds—, Sitten—, Splitter—, Stadt—, Unter—.

Richtersamt, n. a judicial office, judge's function or duty, judicature, charge or office of judicature. —schwert, n. the sword of Justice. —spruch, m. [judicial or judge's] sentence, decree. —stuhl, m. 1) the judge's seat, the bench. 2) [Gericht] bench, tribunal, court of justice. Das gehört nicht vor seinen —stuhl, that does not come before his court, his tribunal, that does not come under his jurisdiction. Fig. Einen vor den —stuhl Gottes fordern, to summon or cite any one before the judgment-seat of God; der —stuhl des Gewissens, the tribunal of the conscience. —thron, m. [in higher style] judge's high seat. Vor dem —throne des Allmächtigen, before the judgment-seat of the Almighty. —waage, f. the balance, scales of Justice or Themis.

Richterlich, adj. and adv. of or appertaining to a judge, judicial. Sein —es Ansehen gebrauchen, to employ one's authority of judge, as a judge, one's judicial authority; —es Amt, V. Richteramt; der —e Spruch, das —e Urtheil, the sentence, decree of the judge, the judicial sentence decree.

Richtig, adj. and adv. 1) [= straight, even] Fig. Leite mich auf —er Bahn [in Scripture], lead me in the right way. 2) Fig. [allied next to recht] right. —es Testament, a good and lawful or legal will; —es Verfahren, legal or lawful procedure; —schreiben, sprechen, to write, to speak correctly; seine Aussprache ist nicht —, his pronunciation is not correct, good, right; —e Schreibart, Zeichnung, an accurate style, correct design or drawing; —zeichnen, singen, to draw, to sing accurately, correctly; —es Verhältniß, just proportion; —es Maß, Gewicht &c., just measure, weight, &c., due or right measure, weight &c.; —messen, to measure right; —e Rechnung, just, exact, accurate reckoning; das trifft —zu, that tallies exactly; —gezählt, well counted; meine Uhr geht —, zeigt die Stunden —, my watch goes right, tells the time right, keeps good time; —bezahlen, mit der Zahlung —einhalten, to pay exactly, to be punctual in payment at the time fixed; —er Bezahler, a punctual payer, an exact paymaster; die Posten kommen —an, the post, the mail arrives punctually, comes in always to a minute, keeps its fixed time; der —e Weg, die —en Mittel, the right way, the right or true means; einen Auftrag —beforsgen, to discharge a commission well, faithfully, to the letter; einen Brief —bestellen, to forward a letter to its address; mit einander über Etwas —werden, to agree, to come to a mutual arrangement or agreement about something; wir sind mit einander — [in fam. lang.], we are agreed, [fam.] we are all right with one another; es ist Alles —, every thing is adjusted, arranged, [fam.] put square, it. [s. metimes for berichtigt or bezahlt] [with landlords, innkeepers &c.] the bill, reckoning, or the guest's other items to be paid, are all paid; der Handel ist —, the bargain is struck, concluded, made, arranged; diese Klinte schießt —, this gun shoots true; er schießt sehr —, he shoots very true, he is a dead shot, takes an unerring or deadly aim; eine Schuld —machen, to pay a debt; er ist nicht —im Kopfe, es steht in seinem Gehirne nicht — [in familiar lang.], he is not quite right in his head, [fam.] his brains are addled, he is a little touched, cracked, not quite right in his upper story, disordered in his thinking apparatus; ein —denkender Kopf, a right thinking head, a sound mind; er urtheilt sehr —, he reasons, judges soundly, very justly, appositely; —e Abschrift, an exact, faithful copy; —er Gedanke, Ausdruck, —es Bild, a right or just thought, expression, image; ist es nicht so? —, ganz —! is it not so? right, quite right, just so!

er hat —geantwortet, he has answered well, right, pertinently; einen —en Begriff von Etwas haben, to have a just idea, true conception of something; dieser Satz ist —[wahr], this proposition is true; ein —es Urtheil über Etwas fällen, to pass a correct or sound judgment or sentence upon any thing; —übersetzt, well, right translated; es ist dieser Frau nicht —gegangen [in common people's language], this woman has had a miscarriage, a premature delivery; es geht in diesem Hause nicht —zu [es spukt] [in familiar lang.], this house is haunted; das Ding geht nicht —zu, damit geht es nicht —zu [in fam. lang.], there is deceit, magic, something not right in this business; mit seiner Sache ist es nicht ganz — [in fam. lang.], it is not quite right with his affair, his case is defective, suspicious, lame; er wird —[gewiß] kommen, he will come I am sure, he will certainly come, [if a slight doubt exists] he will surely come.

Richtigmachung, f. [little used] arrangement, settling, putting in order, V. Richtig—machung durch Rechnung und Gegenrechnung, liquidation.

Richtigkeit, f. justness, exactitude, correctness. Die —der Stimme, des Ohres, des Verstandes, eines Gedankens, Ausdrucks &c., the justness of the voice, nicety or accuracy of the ear, correctness of the understanding, of a thought, of an expression &c.; die —des Gewichtes, Maßes, einer Rechnung, the exactitude, accuracy of the weight, measure, of an account; die —der Schreibart, Sprechart, the accuracy, critical nicety of the style, dialect; die —einer Zeichnung, the correct delineation of a drawing; die Sache hat ihre —, mit dieser Sache hat es seine — [in familiar language], there are very good grounds to go upon in this business, the affair is true; das hat seine —, that is true, certain, sure; eine Sache in —bringen, to arrange, to conclude, to settle an affair; —mit Einem machen [obsolescent or in common people's language], to come to terms with any one; it. to pay any one, to liquidate, discharge, settle one's debts; meine Sachen sind noch nicht in —, my affairs are not yet settled, in order.

Richtung, f. 1) [= das Richten] Die —eines Stabes &c. [little used] the setting up of a staff &c.; die —einer Kanone, the levelling, turning, pointing of a cannon; die —eines Fernrohrs, the pointing, directing [to the object] of a telescope; die —der Truppen, the marshalling in line, the arraying of troops. Fig. [rather stiff] Die —der Absicht auf Etwas, the directing or direction of the intention upon something, the bending of the mind on something. 2) direction. Diese zwei Linien haben einerlei —, these two lines have one and the same direction, tendency; die —des Magneten, der Wurzeln, der Stengel einer Pflanze, the direction, inclination of the magnet, of the roots, stalks of a plant; die wagerechte, senkrechte —, the horizontal, perpendicular direction; die —der Bewegung, the direction, determination of the movement; seine —nach Etwas hinnehmen, to take one's direction towards something; in gerader —, in a straight direction, directly, in a right line; der —des Weges folgen, to follow the direction, sweep of the road; nach allen —en, in all directions, to the four points of the compass; stellen Sie diesen Tisch nach dieser —, place this table in this direction; dieses Zimmer hat 30 Fuß nach jeder —, this room is 30 feet in length, depth and breadth, this room forms a cube of thirty feet, this room is thirty feet every way; in verkehrter, falscher —, in a wrong, false direction. Fig. Eine gute, schlimme —nehmen, to take a good, bad direction, a right, wrong direction, bias [as a young man]; die —seines Gemüths, der Gedanken, the bent of his mind, of the thoughts; die —der Volksgesinnung or des Volkswillens nach dem und dem Ziele, the bent of the people, of the nation's will or mind towards such and such an object.

1. Ricke, f. [pl. -n] [probably from recken = to move spontaneously; in Swed. racka means to run; in Engl. rick means a curved line] [in sportsmen's lang.] the roe, the doe of the roebuck.

2. Ricke, f. [pl. -n] [perhaps allied to frähen, to crow, to caw] [Saatträhe] the rook.

3. Ricke, f. [ns or der -, pl. -n] [abbreviated for Friederike, in fam. lang. and provincial] Frederica.

Riebsel, f. [pl. -n] or —beere, f. the gooseberry.

Riebselstrauch, m. gooseberry-bush.

Riechbar, adj. and adv. [little used] having odour or smell.

Riechen, [allied to rauchen; also in Hebrew ruach = breath] irr. I. v. intr. [to spread an odour or make a smell] to smell. Gut, übel —, to smell well or good, bad or ill, to have a good, a bad smell; er riecht nach Wein, he smells of wine; das riecht wie Balsam, that smells like balm; das riecht gar nicht, that does not smell at all, that has no scent whatever; die Rose riecht lieblich, the rose smells sweet; dieser Wein riecht gut, angenehm, this wine has a good, agreeable scent, perfume, flavour, smells like a nosegay; das riecht brandig, bumptig, that smells burnt, stinky or musty, that has a burnt, a stinky or musty smell; zu stark —, to smell too strong; dieses Fleisch fängt an [übel] zu —, this meat begins to smell; aus den Füßen, aus dem Munde —, to have foul feet, a foul breath; der Todte roch schon, the corpse smelt already; er hat einen —den, übel —den Athem, his breath smells, he has a foul breath; übel —de Pillen &c., fetid pills &c.; wohl —d, odorous, odoriferous; wohl —de Hölzer, odoriferous woods; wohl —des Rauchwerks, perfumes, perfumery, [in churches] incense; wohl —de Wasser, Hand—schuhe, perfumed or sweet-smelling waters, gloves. II. v. tr. and intr. to smell [with the organs of scent]. An eine or an einer Rose &c. —, to smell a rose &c., [poetically] to inhale the sweetness of a rose; er hat den Schnupfen, er riecht nichts, he has a cold, he smells nothing; dieser Hund riecht fein, riecht das Wild von weitem, this dog scents well, has a fine scent, scents the game from afar; er kann den Wein nicht —, he can not endure the smell or scent of wine, the odour of wine is insupportable to him, it. [in pop. lang., with the stress laid on riechen] he cannot endure wine, wine is an abomination to him. Fig. [in popular lang.] Er hat den Braten gerochen, Lunte gerochen, he smelt a rat; er kann kein Pulver — [in pop. lang.], he cannot bear the smell of powder; wer konnte das — [low]? who was to foresee, to guess that? kaum hat er hierher gerochen, so &c. [low], scarcely has he arrived here, when &c. Das —, V. Geruch.

Riechbein, n. [in surgery] [Siebbein] the ethmoid bone. —beinschlagader, f. [in surgery] the anterior artery of the ethmoid bone. — büchse, f. — büschchen, n. a [small] scent-box, vinegeret or vinaigrette. — born, m. [in botany] [Weinrose] the yellow eglantine; it. the eglantine, sweet-briar. — dose, f. V. — büchie. — flasche, f. — fläschchen, n. smelling-bottle, essence-bottle. — salz, n., englisches — salz, smelling-salts, sal volatile. — topf, m. an essence-jar, perfume-pot [with the conserved leaves of flowers]. — wasser, n. scent-water, perfume-water.

Niecher, m. [-s, pl. -] 1) [not much used] a smeller, one who smells or scents [with the olfactory nerves]. 2) [low] the nose, the smeller, the claret-bottle.

Nied or [better] Niet, n. [-s, pl. -e] 1) [perhaps allied to breit; in Hungarian ret is the same as the Lat. pratum, a meadow] a marshy district or soil, marsh; it. common. 2) [allied with breit] [with cloth-weavers] a comb, slaie. 3) [allied to Reiß] [Rohr] a reed.

Niedanger, — anker, m. bank of a dike overgrown with bulrush. — blatt, n. [with weavers] slaie, comb. — fohre, f. [in nat. hist.] a roach. — genster, m. [in botany] spanish broom. — gras, n. [in botany] horse-tongue, sword-grass, burweed, reed-grass, bur-reed, sedge. Das spizige — gras, the pointed sword-grass; das schwärgliche — gras, the blackish burweed; das eisgraue — gras, the whitish sword-grass; das fingerförmige — gras, the finger-formed burweed or sedge; das — gras mit getrennten Geschlechtern, the dioecious reed-grass; das verlängerte, vielährige — gras, the allongated sword-grass; das fadenförmige — gras, the filiform reed-grass; das gelbe — gras, the yellow burweed; das stinkende — gras, the fetid or stinking burweed; das kugelförmige — gras, the globulous burweed; das rauh — gras, the rough burweed; das lehmige, schlammige — gras, the marshy burweed; das stachelige — gras, the prickly sedge; das blasse — gras, the pale sedge; das schwadenartige — gras, the panic-formed sedge; das dolbenförmige — gras, the umbellated sedge. — kamm, m. V. — blatt. — knospe, f. V. zweifelnospe. — kolbe, f. V. Rohrkolbe. — kraut, n. V. zweifelnospe — meise, f. V. sumpfmeise. — schnepe, f. 1) V. Wuhlschnepe. 2) V. Doppelschnepe. — perling, m. V. Rohrperling.

Niefe, f. [-s, pl. -n] [allied to Reiß, Rippel] channel, chamfer, furrow, groove. Die — n an einer Säule, flutings on a pillar. an einer Muschelschale, the striae on a shell; mit — n versehen, V. Niefeln.

Niefeln, Niefen, v. tr. to channel, to chamfer, to furrow, to groove, to flute, to striate; [with gunsmiths] to rifle. [with millers] Einen Mühlstein —, V. Schärfen.

Niege, f. [-s, pl. -n] 1) V. Reihe. 2) V. Falte.

Niegel, m. [-s, pl. -] [allied to regen = to move] 1) [certain things for fastening, for holding &c. other things] [in artillery] — der Paffette, the transom of a gun-carriage; V. Achsen —, Ruhe —, Schwanz —, Stell —, Stirn —; [with carpenters] [Querholz] tie-piece, cross-piece, intertie, interduce, traverse, V. Spann —; [with coachmakers] the tree-bolt; [also] the pole-bolt, the thill-pin; [with seamstresses] der — an einem Knopfloche, Hemdschließe &c., the loop, the eye or eyelet of a button-hole, the stay, gusset, or heart of a shirt-bosom &c.; [on which a windmill rests] plates, beams, the summers; [with coopers] cross-bar; [on railroads] [iron] rail; [also] tram. 2) [especially for fastening a door] bar, [also] bolt. — mit einer Feder, a spring or catch-bolt; auf einer Metallplatte befestigter kleiner —, a little bolt, a slip-bolt; eine Thür, ein Fenster mit einem — verschließen, to shut a door, a window with a bolt or bar; den — vorlegen, vorschieben, to put on the bar, to draw to the bolt, to slip, slide or push to the bolt; den — wegstun, zurückschieben, to undo, to push back the bolt or bar; — an einem Thorwege, iron-bar, clathrus: einen — vorschieben, Einem einen — vorschieben [fig. in familiar language], to frustrate any thing or any one by placing obstacles in the way; [with locksmiths] — an einem Schlosse, bolt to a lock; stehender —, dead bolt; dieser — geht nicht mehr, ist eingerostet, this bolt does not move any more, is rusty; ein deutscher —, a catch spring or snap-bolt; bolt of the tumbler or spring-lock; V. Schub —. 3) [in seamen's language] the cradle [for launching a ship].

Niegelbalken, m. V. — balken. — band, n. [with carpenters] tie-band of the thill; [with saddlers] stirrup-bar or bridle. — bohrer, m. [with coopers] a wimble or gimlet for cross-bars. — balken, m. [with locksmiths] the bolt-staple, a hold-fast, a bolt-nab. — holz, n. [with carpenters] wood for intertie or interduce, [also] the intertie; [with clear-starchers &c.] rolling-board, sleek or burnishing board, mangling-pin; [with joiners] the cross-piece or tie of a door; [with coachmakers &c.] die — bölzer an einem Karren, the two beams for the pegs, a sort of ladder on a cart; das — holz [with coopers] the cross-bar of a cask; das — holz an den Boden einer Tonne befestigen, to fasten in the cross bar of a barrel &c.; it. V. Zapfenholz. — kraut, n. the herb mercury. — loch, n. staple, bolt-hole. — mauer, f. V. — wand. — nagel, m. a bolt, a great iron-pin or peg. — schloß, n. a stock-lock. — wand, f. [with carpenters] wood-partition, nogging. — weg, m. tramway. — werk, n. [in architecture] V. Sachwerk.

Niegeln, v. tr. to bar, to bolt; V. Auf —, Ein —, Ver —, Zu —; [in architecture] to fill up the joist-bays, the trimmers, noggings &c.

Niefe, V. Niede.

Niem, V. Niemen.

1. Niemen, m. [-s, pl. -] [appears the same as the Lat. ramus, a branch, and remus, an oar; in Low. Sax. Reem is a strap for fastening; the radical meaning of the word is that of extension] 1) [certain objects extending in length] strip. In lange — zerschneiden, to cut up into long strips, into ribbons; [in architecture] V. 1 Reisste a); [with butchers] ribbons, fillets or strips of beef; it. [in seamen's lang.] V. Ruder. 2) [commonly a strap of leather] Der — zu den Rasirmessern, a razor-strap, a razor-strop; schmal —, a narrow strap, thong or lash; — an den Schuhen, shoe-string, latchet; —, worin die Schnalle gehängt wird, tongue, lappet, ear of a buckle; diese Kutsche hängt nicht gut in den —, this carriage does not well hang in the braces, is not well hung, has not swing or play enough, V. Kutsch —; —, woran der Klöppel einer Glocke hängt, brail of a bell; der — an einem Wehrgehänge, the band of a shoulder-belt; der oberste — an einem Wehrgehänge, brace, suspender, leader, bearer of a shoulder-belt; — am Pferdegebisse, the bit-strap; — am Stangenzaume, part of the cheeks of a bit; V. Halfter —, Kehl —, Kreuz —, Peitschen —, Schwanz —;

— an einem ledernen Beutel, the string of a leathern purse; die — an einer Trommel, the braces of a drum; — von Pergament, a string of parchment; — an einer Urkunde, the lappet, string or tape to a deed; Brief mit einem einzigen, mit einem doppelten —, a letter with a single, with a double label; V. Bauch —, Brust —, Bügel —, Hänge —, Hief —, Knie —, Leit —, Spann —, Sprungs —, Trag —, Wurf — &c. Prov. V. Eder.

Niemfisch, m. [in nat. hist.] the Jamaica-eel. — klampen, pl. [in seamen's language] the oar-cleats or pegs, the row-locks. — messer, n. [in seamen's language] a sort of knife for the rounding off of an oar. — nadel, f. [with saddlers] a needle or bodkin for drawing straps or tongues through.

Niemenwein, n. — fuß, m. [in nat. hist.] himantopus, long-legged plover. — blume, f. [in botany] a sort of exotic mistletoe, the caprifoliaceous loranthus. — fuß, m. V. — bein. — läufer, m. [in salterns] a supernumerary workman at Halle to supply the place of those that are sick. — löcher, pl. the strap-holes, buckle-holes. — macher, m. [in seamen's language = Rudermeister] the oar-keeper. — pferd, n. a horse fastened to a spring-tree-bar, any horse preceding the wheeler or thill-horse. — schneider, m. V. Niemer. — seil, n. a fore-rein. — stechen, n. legerdmain or conjuring with a strap. — stecher, m. a conjurer with a strap. — wage, f. the spring-tree-bar, the trace-bar. — werk, n. strap-work. — werk an einer Kutsche, the main braces of a coach. — wurm, m. the tape-worm.

2. Niemen, m. [-s, pl. -] a bale of ten reams.

Niemer, m. [-s, pl. -] leather-cutter, belt-maker, girdler.

Niemergesell, m. leather-cutter's journeyman. — handwerk, n. trade of a leather-cutter or belt-maker. — meister, m. master belt-maker. V. Niemer. — nadel, f. a shoemaker's needle, a cobbler's awl.

Niepel, m. [-s, pl. -] 1) [allied to the Low. Sax. reppen, to move quickly] ||a) V. Kater. b) [in the old plays] clown; [now, low, for Grotian, Rümmel, which see]. ||c) V. Schornsteinfeger. 2) [V. Reiben] [with miners] mixing of the cement [of clay and coal-dust].

Nies, V. Niese.

Niesche, f. V. Nösch.

Niese, m. [-n, pl. -n] [from the old riesen = to raise one's self up, to exalt one's self, Engl. to rise] a giant. Die Niesinn, a female giant, a giantess. Er ist ein wahrer —, he is a real giant; [in mythology] [Giganten] giants; jene himmelfürmenden —! those Titans!

Niesenameise, f. [in nat. hist.] the great black ant; V. Nosameise. — ähnlich, adj. giant-like, resembling something huge. — anemone, f. V. — meereffel. — arbeit, f. 1) the labour of Hercules, an Augean or a Herculean labour. 2) a giant's work, a huge, a colossal work. — barbe, f. [in nat. hist.] surmullet, grey mullet. — bau, m. 1) a giant's make, a colossal frame or stature. 2) a gigantic building, a huge or Atlantean pile. — bäum, m. giant-tree. — bein, n. giant-leg or thigh bone. — berg, m. giant-mountain. — bett, n. giant's bed, giant-bed; a gigantic or colossal bed; it. fig. V. — grab. — bild, n. colossus, gigantic figure, colossal statue; it. [behind certain galleys] gigantic figure. — brust, f. a Herculean chest, a very large expanded breast. — brut, f. brood or race of giants, giant's progeny. — eidechse, f. V. Krokodill. — erbbeere, f. the Chili strawberry. — fettgans, f. [in natural history] sort of penguin, the great spheniscus. — fliege, f. gigantic fly. — förmig, adj. V. — mäßig. — gans, f. [in nat. hist.] the great or gigantic goose. — gebälk, n. [in architecture] principal beam; a huge colossal girder. — gebirg [el], n. [in geography, literally the mountain of the giants] the Riesengebirge [between Silesia and Bohemia]. — geist, m. 1) V. — gespenst, 2) fig. a giant-genius, a soaring and most comprehensive or all-embracing mind; master-spirit. — geschlecht, n. race, generation, brood of giants, gigantic race, Titanian or Typhoean race. — gespenst, n. 1) gigantic spectre or phantom. 2) [in nat. hist.] the great Surinam gryllus or walking-leaf. — gestalt, f. gigantic figure or frame, colossal shape. — gleich, adj. and adv. giant-like. — glocke, f. 1) a great or gigantic bell. 2) [in botany] the broad-leaved campanula or bell-flower. — grab, n. [Hünengrab] giant's grave, gigantic barrow. — groß, adj. gigantic, colossal, Typhoean; huge. — gröÙe, f. gigantic size, colossal stature. — harfe, f. a very large harp; it [large] aeolian-harp. — haupt, n. [higher word for] — kopf, which see. — herz, n. [in conchology] gigantic heart-shell. — hund, m. 1) a giant's dog; it. a huge dog or mastiff. 2) and — lasten, m. [with miners] great ore-chest. — läufer, m. giant beetle, Hercules scarab. — kampf, m. [in mythology] the war or battle of the giants, of the Titans, gigantomachy; fig. a gigantic combat. — knochen, m. a giant's bone; a very large bone; [especially] bone of the mammoth. — kohl, m. great cabbage, Scotch cabbage. — kopf, m. gigantic or colossal head, giant's head. — körper, m. gigantic body or frame. — kraft, f. gigantic or prodigious strength. — krieg, m. V. — kampf. — land, n. 1) [in nursery tales] land of giants; Brobdignac. 2) [in geography, in consequence of exaggerated reports of the height of its inhabitants] Patagonia. — länge, f. gigantic height or stature. — lerche, f. [in nat. hist.] the ring-ousel. — mäßig, adj. and adv. — mäßige Größe, Gestalt, Stärke, gigantic, colossal, Typhoean, Briarean, Titanian size, shape, strength; ein — mäßiger Hund, a huge dog or mastiff; er liebt nur das Außerordentliche und — mäßige, he likes or loves only the extraordinary and the gigantic. — maul, n. a very large or gigantic mouth; [fam.] a mouth like a Cheshire cat's. — meerneßel, f. [in nat. hist.] a species of sea-polype the gigantic actinia or sea-nettle. — mücke, f. the gigantic tipula. — mund, m. a very large or gigantic mouth. — muschel, f. [in conchology] the great bason-concha, imbricata concha. — ohr, n. the giant ear-shell, the great 8-holed Haliotis. — penguin, m. V. — fettgans. — schabe, f. [in nat. hist.] the gigantic moth of South America. — schildkröte, f. the green tortoise or turtle. — schlacht, f. V. — kampf. — schlange, f. a huge snake or reptile; [especially, in natural history] boa, python. — schrift, m. giant's step or stride, gigantic step. Fig. [in familiar language] — schritte machen, mit — schriften vorwärts gehen, to make gigantic steps or progress; die Arbeit geht mit — schriften vorwärts, the work proceeds rapidly or amazingly; die Weltgestaltung geht or will mit — schriften vorwärts, civilisation advances with giant-strides. — schwamm, m. [in botany] the giant-agaric. — seerneßel, V. — meerneßel. — stark, adj. strong as a giant, of gigantic or prodigious strength, [in familiar language] strong as a horse. — stärke, f. extraordinary, prodigious, gigantic, Typhoean force or strength. — stein, m. 1) [the Riesenstein, denomination of several places in Germany, literally] giant's tomb. 2) gigantic tomb. — streit, m. V. — kampf — topf, m. sepulchral gigantic urn of the barrows. — werk, n. colossal, gigantic work. — wespe, f. urocerus, the gigantic carpenter-wasp.

Rieseln, [from the old riesen, to move one's self] I v. intr. 1) to crumble away and fall down bit by bit, by little and little with noise, to keep on dropping. 2) [of fluids] to purl, to drip. Das Blut rieselte aus seiner Wunde, the blood oozed, trickled out of his wound; ein sanfter Regen rieselte nieder, auf die Matten &c., a soft or balmy rain fell, a gentle shower bedewed the plains. [fam.] sprinkled the meadows &c.; — de Quelle, a purling source; das sanfte — dieses Baches, the gentle murmuring, tinkling, drip-dropping of this brook. II v. impers. [of condensed fog or vapour] Es rieselt, it drizzles; it is a Scotch mist; [of frozen vapours] it is a sleet; V. Graupeln.

Riesenhaft, adj. and adv. gigantic, colossal, huge. V. Riesenähnlich, Riesengleich, Riesenmäßig.

Rieß, n. [-es, pl. -e] [probably from the old rie, sen = to move spontaneously; therefore radically = measure] [= 20 quires of paper] a ream.

Rießhänge, f. [with stationers = Aufhängekreuz] a peel, the stationer's T [a tool for suspending paper, bill-sticking &c.]

Rießling, m. [-es, pl. -e] [from räÙ = acidulous?] the small acidulous white field-grape [verging to green and speckled with yellowish spots, the corymb small with the berries thickly clustering on the comb], that grape of which the well-known Rhenish wine is made; [in England] the small white wall-grape.

Rießweise, adv. by reams. Papier — verkaufen, to sell paper by the ream, in reams; [with booksellers] — verkaufen, als Maßulatur, to sell by the ream, ream-fashion, for waste paper.

Riester, m. [-s, pl. -] [allied to the Old Sax. vräÙan, to turn, wrest or twist] 1) [with shoemakers] piece, patch. 2) [in anatomy] the wrist, carpus; it. the instep. 3) [in agriculture] the tail, handle or stilt [of a plough]; it. the plough-neck, plough-wrest.

Riet, n. V. Ried.

Rietsche, f. V. Reißke.

Riff, n. [-es, pl. -e] [allied to Rippe] [in seamen's lang.] 1) a reef, a bank. Sand — Stein — Korallen — sand-bank, stone or rock-reef, coral-reef. 2) — or Reef, [on a sail for taking in a point or points] reef.

Riffe, Riffel, f. [pl. -n] or Riffelkamm, m. [from riffen = raffen] a flax-comb or hackle, great pill-comb; [with shoemakers] a pounder, a pestle.

Riffeln, v. tr. [from riffen = raffen] 1) Den Glash —, to rub off the seed-capsules, to pill the flax. 2) to file smooth with the smoothing file, V. Riffelsteile; [with shoemakers] den Rand —, to dress or trim smooth the edge or border; [with upholsterers] V. Rieseln Fig. Einen — [low], to quiz any one, to banter and jeer any one; it. [student's cant] to reprimand any one severely. 3) V. Rieseln.

Riffelsteile, f. [with gunsmiths &c.] a short, round, somewhat crooked file. — holz, n. [with shoemakers] smoother, polisher, burnisher. — kamm, m. V. Riffel. — raspel, f. [with gunsmiths &c.] polisher.

Riffen, V. Raffen.

Rigolen, V. Riolen.

Rille, f. [pl. -n] [allied to rinnen = rotten] [Rinne] a rill.

Rimesse, f. [pl. -n] [in commerce] [Geldsendung] a remittance. — n machen, to make remittances.

Rimessebuch, n. book of remittances, remittance-book.

Rimpeln, v. tr. [with comb-makers] to cut the comb's teeth with the saw.

Rimpler, m. [-s, pl. -] [perhaps from räÙmen] a comb-maker's double-bladed saw or guide-saw.

Rind, n. [-es, pl. -er] [in Dutch rind, rund; old Sax. brith, rith; probably allied to Rüde and the Swed. rinda, to drive, to push] 1) a horned beast, bovine animal, rother-beast, black cattle. 2) a steer, a young ox. 3) a heifer.

Rindsfleisch, n. beef. Ein Stück — fleisch, a piece of beef; gedämpft — fleisch, stewed beef, beef à la mode, à la mode beef; gekochtes — fleisch, boiled beef. — fleischbrühe, f. beef-broth. Starke — fleischbrühe, ox-soup; schwache — fleischbrühe, beef-tea. — fleischstein, m. [in mineralogy] flesh-marbled quartz-agate. — fliege, f. gad-fly. — gras, n. V. Riedgras. — leder, n. neat-leather; ox-skin, cow-skin. — vieh, n. 1) neat-cattle, horned cattle, black cattle. 2) Fig. [low term of insult] beast, stupid ox, bull-headed lout. — wurz, f. [in botany] hyoscyamus, henbane.

Rindsauge, n. 1) ox-eye, bull's eye, cow's-eye. 2) [in botany] a) ox-eye, buphthalmum. b) the bastard or false camomile, pseudo-anthemum. c) great daisy, ox-eyed daisy, chrysanthemum. — baum, m. [in botany] the chionanthe or snow-tree of Ceylon. — blase, f. ox-bladder, cow-bladder. — blume, f. V. — auge. — blut, n. ox-blood, bull's-blood, beef-blood. — braten, m. V. Rinderbraten. — brühe, — brühsuppe, f. V. Rindsfleischbrühe. — fett, n. V. Rinderfett. — haar, n. cow-hair. — haarfarbe, f. [with dyes] cow-hair die or tint. — haut, f. ox-hide, cow-hide, neat-hide, cow-skin. — leder, n. V. Rindleder. — mark, n. beef-marrow. — wurzel, f. V. Rindwurz. — zunge, f. V. Rinderzunge.

Rinderblut, n. V. Rindsblut. — braten, Rindsbraten, m. baked beef [in or over a Dutch stove], [in England] roast beef [with a spit or string]. — darm, m. 1) tripe. 2) [in conchology] tubulus marinus, the sea-solent, marine syphon. — fett, Rindsfett, n. beef-fat or suet. — herde, f. herd of oxen. — hirt, m. neat-herd, drover, cow-keeper. — magen, m. 1) rumen, paunch. 2) [old] herbal. 3) [old] psalter, psalm-book. — mark, V. Rindsmark. — staar, m. common starling. — stelze, f. [in nat. hist.] yellow waterwagtail. — talg, m. — unschlitt, n. beef-tallow. — weizen, m. [in botany] melampyrum purpureum, cow-wheat. — zunge, Rindszunge, f. ox-tongue, neat's-tongue, bullock's tongue.

Rinde, f. [pl. -n] [allied to Grind, Rand] 1) the rind, cortex, bark [of wood]. Außerste, oberste — eines Baumes, the first, outer rind, bark, coat of a tree; die — ablösen, abschälen, to peel, to strip off the rind or bark; die — von einem Baume abschälen, to peel, to rind, to take or strip off the rind or bark from a tree, to bark a tree; [with gardeners] in die — pfropfen, to bud, to inoculate, to engraft in the rind or bark; V. Birken — China — Eichen — Erlen — Kiefern — Zimmet — &c.; [in medicine] die jeuitische —, bastard Peruvian-bark. Fig. the mere outside, hollow shell of any thing. Syn. V. Bast. 2) crust [of bread, pastry], V. Kruste. Eine —, ein Rindchen Brod, a crust of bread. 3) Die — auf einer Wunde, the crust, scab, hard scab, [also] slough of a wound. V. Schorf. 4) — am Käse, rind of cheese.

Rind=fällig, adj. and adv. [with foresters] said of a tree that loses its bark, the bark of which peels off. — messer, n. a knife for scraping or rasping bread-crust. — fällig, V. —fällig.

Rindenbaum, m. [in botany] bastard Peruvian bark tree, the false cinchona, V. Fiebertindenbaum, Zimmetindenbaum. — äfer, m. V. Borkenäfer. — leber, m. woodpecker, pianet, creeper. — koralle, f. [in nat. hist.] sea-lace zoophyte, fucus-leaved coral. — stein, m. [in mineralogy] 1) stalactite. 2) incrustation, incrustated or incrustated stone — wanze, f. [in nat. hist.] the bark or rind-bug, rind-kermes.

Rindenartig, adj. and adv. cortical. [in anatomy] — e Substanz des Gehirnes, cortical substance of the brain; [in botany] — e Lagen des Splintes, the cortical layers of the alburnum; — e Samenkapsel, crustaceous pericarp.

Rindern, adj. [not used] of an ox, bull or cow.

Rindern, v. intr. 1) [of cows when in heat] to be bullish. 2) [when copulation has taken place] Die Kuh hat gerindert, the cow has been leaped, covered, has had the bull.

Rindig, adj. and adv. covered with bark, rindy, crusty.

Ring, m. [-es, pl. -e] [allied to Kringel, and this to rinnen, to move] 1) [Kreis] ring, round, circle. Im — e herum tanzen, sich setzen, to dance, to sit round in a ring; ein Pferd im — e herum reiten, to ride a horse round in a ring; im — e herum trinken, to drink round about; die Gläser im — e herum gehen lassen, to send the glasses round. 2) a circular figure, ring. [in astronomy] Der — des Saturn, the ring of Saturn; — um die Sonne, den Mond, halo round the sun, moon; V. Sonnen—, Stunden—; — um die Brustwarze, the areola round the breast-nipple; [with gardeners] —, V. Jahr—, Jahreswuchs; blauer — um die Augen, um eine Wunde, ring, circle, black and blue mark around the eyes, round a wound; ein — von Federn oder Haaren von anderer Farbe, als der übrige Körper, a collar, ring or circular mark of feathers or hair of a different colour from the rest of the body; ein Hund, eine Taube mit einem weißen — e um den Hals, a dog, a pigeon with a white ring or [natural] collar round its neck; [in botany] der — der Schwämme, the neck of fungi. 3) a circular place, circus, circle; it. [obsolete] V. Markt, Marktplatz. 4) a circular work, stuff, thing or object. Ein — von Horn, Messing, a ring of horn, brass; kleiner —, —elchen, || —lein, n. little ring; [with jewellers] — an Ohrengehängen, ring to a pendant or ear-bob; eiserner —, um Etwas damit zusammen zu halten, iron ferrule, hoop for holding any thing together; V. Reif—, Zwinge—, Achsen—, Deichsel—, Raben— &c.; die — e an einem Vorhange, curtain-rings; der — e an einer Thür, the ring-knocker at a door; — an einem Ruffe [um ihn daran aufzuhängen], ring to a muff; — einer Locke, woran der Klöppel hängt, the ring of a bell to which the clapper is attached; — an einer Schnellwage, ring to a steel-yard; — zum Ringelrennen, ring for running at the ring; nach dem — e rennen, den — abstechen, to run at the ring, to carry off the ring; — [Stieb] einer Kette, link of a chain; — am Schlüssel, the bow of a key; — zu Schlüsseln, a ring for a bunch of keys; — zu Schüsseln, a ring-stand for supporting dishes; die — e [Handhaben] an einem Koffer, the ring-handles to a chest; — am Halse einer Flasche, ring on the neck of a bottle; die — e am dorischen Kapitale [in architecture], the annulets on a Doric capital; — am Schafte der Säulen oben und unten [in architecture], astragal, moulding on the shaft of the pillars above and below; [with gunsmiths] [Ladstocher] ferrule, verrel, the pipe; — am Gewehrlauf, bolt on the barrel of a gun; [in heraldry] — in den Wappen, annulet, virol; mit — en von anderer Farbe, virole, bearing ringlets or annulets of another enamel; [in commerce] ein — [Bund] Eisendraht &c., ring or coil of iron-wire &c.; [with pin-makers] ein — gerichteten Drahtes, a take-up or ring of prepared wire; [with sword-cutters] — der Degen-scheide, ring of the sword-sheath; [in falconry] — am Fuße des Falken, varvel; — an dem Wurfriemen, ring or loop on the leash; [with watch or clock-makers] — um das Federgehäuse, ring round the spring-box or barrel; [in the manege] ring, ringle; [for a mare, to prevent her being covered] den — anlegen, to ringle a mare; [in seamen's language] die — e an den Schiffen und Anker, ring-bolts, anchor-rings; die — e zum Geschütze auf jeder Seite der Stückpforte, the rings for the cannon on either side of the port-hole; die — e an den Tauenden, puddening of the yards, mat or paunch of the yards [to preserve the furling-lines against fretting]; die — e am Segel [für die Rahbänder &c.], the cringles or hanks; —, worin sich das Steuerruder bewegt, the googings [for hanging the rudder to the stern-post]; der — um die Öffnung für die Spille, partner hoop, capstan-hoop, V. Spieren—e; —, worin der SeeCompass oder eine Lampe schwebend hängt, gimbals of a sea-compass or of a lamp; V. Bügel—, Schlüssel—, Schüssel—, Tau—, Trage— &c. 5) [generally] Der — am Finger, finger-ring; —, der mit Edelsteinen oder Perlen ganz herum besetzt ist, a hoop; glatter oder einfacher goldener —, plain gold ring; — am dritten Finger der linken Hand, wedding-ring; mit Diamanten besetzter —, diamond-ring; glatter —, plain ring; — mit Schmelz, enamelled ring; einen — tragen, to wear a ring; er steckte ihr einen — an den Finger, he put, he placed a ring on her finger; — zum Siegel [Siegel—], seal-ring; V. Fischer—, Haar—, Kugels—, Ohr—, Siegel—, Frau—, Verlobungs—. 6, [in conchology] Der gelbe or goldene —, the golden ring, the white porcelain-shell of Venus.

Ring=achat, m. [in mineralogy] quartz-agate in concentric bands or fillets in form of rings, ring-agate. — amset, f. V. —droffel. — anker, m. [in seamen's language] a one-fluked anchor. — artig, adj. and adv. V. —förmig. — auge, n. [in nat. hist.] 1) [geringelte Natter] the ring-striped adder. 2) a species of sea-bream. — band, n. [in anatomy] annular ligament. — bauch, m. [a fish] the liparis Lipari-herring, snail-fish, sandling. — bein, n. ring-bone. — blume, f. [in botany] 1) anacyclus. 2) V. Ringelblume. — bolzen, m. ring-bolt. — bord, m. V. Raabots; — bürger, m. [obsolete] citizen or burgher who lives near the market-place or public square. — droffel, f. ring-ousel, turdus torquatus. — eisen, n. [with tawers] ring-iron-peg for softening skins. — ente, f. [in nat. hist.] the morillon-duck, the ringneck. — finger, m. the ring-finger. — fisch, m. [in nat. hist.] a species of cepola, the ringed ribbon-fish. — förmig, adj. and adv. ring-formed, annular, orbicular. — förmige Gewölbe, annular vaults; — förmige Sonnenfinsterniß, annular eclipse; [in anatomy] — förmige Muskel der Augensieder, the orbicular muscle of the eye-lids. — futter, —futteral, n. ring case. — gießbedenband, n. [in anatomy] the crico-arytenoid ligament. — gießbedenmuskel, m. the lateral crico or annular-arytenoid muscle. — haspe, f. ring-hook. — horn, n. [in conchology] the univalve damier, tiger-shell, leopard-shell. — kästchen, || —kästlein, n. a ring-casket, ring jewel-box. — knorpel, m. [in anatomy] annular or cricoid cartilage. — tragen, m. der Offiziere, officer's gorget or neck piece. — kugel, f. [in physics] the armillary sphere. — lerche, f. [in nat. hist.] Die große —lerche, the calandra, chalandra or galander of the Pyrenees, the great singing-lark of Italy. — luftröhrenband, n. [in anatomy] the crico-tracheal ligament. — maß, n. [with goldsmiths] ring-measure. — mauer, f. Die —mauer eines Klosters, cloister-wall, close-wall; eine Stadt mit —mauern umgeben, to surround a town with walls; die Vorstädte mit in die —mauer der Stadt einschließen, to enclose the suburbs within the city-walls; die —mauer einer Stadt niederreißen, to dismantle a town, to raze the city-walls; das Niederreißen der —mauern einer Stadt &c., the dismantling, razing of the walls or enclosure-walls of a town &c. — merle, f. V. —droffel. — nagel, m. a pin or nail with a ring or round eye. — rennen, n. V. Ringelrennen. — sachtel, f. V. —kästchen. — schildknorpelband, n. [in anatomy] the crico-thyroid ligament. — schildmuskel, m. [in anatomy] the crico-thyroid muscle. — schraube, f. [with locksmiths] screw-ring, ring-screw, sort of auger. — schwabe, f. V. Meerschwatze. — schwamm, m. [in botany] schwarzfleckiger —schwamm, black-spotted agaric. — spindel, f. [with turners] mandrel. — stein, m. gem or precious stone of or for a ring — stock, m. packing-stick [for linen]. — tanzen, m. V. Ringeltanz. — tau, n. [in seamen's language] ring-rope, cable-stopper. — taube, f. V. Ringeltaube. — uhr, f. 1) a ring-watch, a watch in a ring. 2) dial-ring. — weise, adv. round, around, ring-fashion, in a ring.

Ringel, [-s, pl. -] 1) n. ringlet. In — n., in ringlets [of hair]. 2) m. a) [round the neck of an animal] collar. b) ring, little ring, circle, hoop. c) [with pastry-cooks] a sort of ring-cracknel. d) V. —biene.

Ringel=achat, V. Ringachat. — amset, f. V. Ringdroffel. — biene, f. nymph, egg or pupa of the bee, the embryo bee. — blume, f. [in botany] marigold. — blumenfarbe, f. [with dyers] marigold-dye. — bohne, f. common French bean. — brod, n. [not much used] V. Brezel, Kringel. — droffel, V. Ringdroffel. — falk, m. the ring-tail, ring-falcon. — gans, f. 1) tippet-grebe. 2) tadorna, shel-drake, vulpanser, borough-duck; V. Erdgans, Guchsgans. — gedicht, n. [with poets] roundelay, rondeau. — kette, f. chain of rings, links, loops, hoops &c. — koralle, f. the articulated coralloid or Isis horse-tail. — kraut, n. [Springkraut] caper-spurge, touch-me-not balm. — kuckuck, m. green-peak, green woodpecker. — locke, f. [with poets] ringlet, lock of hair. — mewe, f. the gray sea-mew with black collar. — motte, f. ring-moth, convolute Phalaena bombyx.

—natter, f. the harmless yellow-necked viper, common snake or harmless adder, the batrachophonous natrix or adder, ringed snake, watersnake. —ode, f. V. —gedicht. —persing, m. [a fish] ruff. —rahe, m. the ash greythroated raven. —ralle, f. railbird with collar. —raupe, f. 1) that tribe of lepidopterous insects whose eggs are placed round the branch in a ring, instead of being in a nest. 2) [especially] annular-caterpillar, fruit-tree caterpillar, the marriage-favor. —reihen, m. V. —tanz. —reim, m. 1) the burden of a song, refrain, refret, ritornello, returning couplet, chorus. 2) V. —gedicht. —rennen, n. running or tilting at the ring, carousal-tournament. Ein —rennen halten, to open, to hold a tilting-match or game at the ring. —renner, m. a runner or tilter at the ring. —ritt, m. [in the manege] volt, a bounding turn, ring. —sang, m. [affected] V. Rundgesang. —sag, m. [in music] ritornello, refret. —schlange, f. 1) V. —natter. 2) amphibena, annulated snake, two-headed snake. —schlupfer, m. double-banded saw-fly. —schote, f. [in conchology] ribboned nautilus. —schwanz, m. 1) the tail of some cats with coloured rings; annular or ring-tail. 2) V. Würfelschwanz. —spag, m. V. Bergspertling. —spiel, n. V. —rennen. —stebahn, f. course or lists for the tilting at the ring, carousal. —stehen, n. V. —rennen. —stuck, n. [in music] rondeau, roundelay. —stute, f. [geringelte Stute] a ringled mare. —tanz, m. ring-dance, merry-go-round dance, brawl, grig-dance, sort of may-dance, may-pole dance. —taube, f. [in nat. hist.] 1) ring-dove. 2) V. Fackeltaube. —vogel, m. V. —raupe. —weizen, m. V. Kuhweizen.

Ringeln, v. tr. 1) Die Haare —, to curl or dress the hair in ringlets, in tendrilled locks; geringelte Haare, hair [curled] in ringlets; geringelt [in botany, nat. hist. &c.], ringed, annular. 2) to furnish with a ring, to ring Eine Stute —, to ringle a mare; geringelte Stute, a ringled mare; die Zeugungsglieder bei Menschen [männlichen Personen] —, to infibulate the genital male organs [for the prevention of coition]. Das —, the ringling [of a mare]; infibulation [of men].

Ringeln, [in old Sax. vrinfan, to turn, twist or wrest; does not appear to be intimately allied to Ring, but rather to regen, recken, strecken] irr. l.v. intr. 1) [zappeln, sich abtampfen] to struggle, to strive, to flounder. 2) to grapple, to tustle, to wrestle merely with the arms and hands. Mit Einem —, to grapple with any one, to tustle with any one; sie haben lange mit einander gerungen, they grappled a long time with one another. Das —, grappling; tustling, struggling or wrestling with the arms or hands; sich im — üben, to practise one's self in grappling, in arm-wrestling. Fig. Mit dem Tode —, to struggle, wrestle, grapple with death, to be in the last throes, agonies, struggle; mit dem Tode —d, struggling &c. with death, being in the last throes, struggle, at the last gasp; mit tausend Gefahren —, to struggle &c. with, to contend against a thousand dangers; nach Ehre &c. —, to strive, to aspire for honours &c.; das — mit dem Tode, death-struggle, last throes, last agony. SYN. V. Kämpfen. II. v. tr. 1) [drehen, winden] to twist, to wrest, to wring. Einem Etwas aus den Händen —, to wrest, to wring any thing out of any one's hands; die Hände —, to wring one's hands. 2) V. Ringeln.

Ringekunst, f. wrestling, art of wrestling. —platz, m. wrestling-place, palaestra.

Ringer, m. [-s, pl. -] [Kämpfer] wrestler, struggler, combatant, athlete.

Ringerkunst, f. V. Ringekunst.

Ringern, V. Verringern

Ringern, f. [instead of Verringern] = diminution [in the mint] [das Remedium] permission from the sovereign to the mint to debase the coin more than the law allows either in point of weight or alloy. Die — des Korns, debasement in alloy; die — des Schrotens, debasement in weight; die — an Schrot und Korn, deficiency or debasement of the coin.

Ring, adv. —um, —herum, round, around, all round, round about; er sah —herum, —um sich her, he looked round about, he regarded all around; —um den Berg &c., all round, quite round the mountain &c.; die — herum liegende Gegend, the region lying around, round about, the vicinity, the neighbourhood; —herum drehen, to turn round, quite round; sich schnell —herum auf der Ferse drehen, to spin round upon one's heel; —herum einschließen [einen Garten, ein Feld &c.], to enclose [a garden, a field &c.] in or round about on all sides; eine Festung —herum einschließen [in war], to beleague or encompass a fastness or fortress; —herum eines Gesundheit, auf die Gesundheit eines Gastes trinken, to drink the health of any one round about, to drink [all] round to the health of a guest; —um ein Haus &c. herum gehen, to go round the whole house &c., to make or to go one's rounds about a house &c.

Rinke, f. [pl. -n] residuum of whale-blubber &c.

Rinken, m. [-s, pl. -] [from Ring] 1) a great, large, big, broad ring; [in architecture] the uppermost member to the shaft of a column, astragal. 2) [Schwaste] buckle. 3) [Knieband] knee band, garter.

Rinkentuch, n. [in sportsmen's language] hunting nets with rings a-top.

Rinken, v. tr. [schnallen] to buckle.

Rinkinken, v. intr. [allied to ringen] [in seamen's lang.] to fall foul of, to beat and dash against one another [speaking of ships in a storm that are moored close to each other].

Rinne, f. [pl. -n] [from rinnen], dim. Rinnechen, || Rinnelein, n. [-s, pl. -] 1) rindle, gutter, canal, water-course, drain, trench, furrow for running water. Der Regen hat hier —n gegraben, the rain has ploughed the ground here, formed furrows, gutters here, the ground or soil has been furrowed here by the rain; die —n in den Gassen, the drains in the streets, [for rain water] street-gutters; steinerne, bleierne —n, stone-conduits, lead-conduits; [in seamen's lang.] —n, das Wasser zur Pumpe zu leiten, limber-holes; die —, das gepumpte Wasser abzuleiten, the pump-dale; [with founders] die —, zum Abfluß für das geschmolzene Metall aus dem Tiegel, cast, jet; —, aus welcher das geschmolzene Metall aus dem Ofen in die Gießform fließt, founder's basin or gutter; die — an einer Presse or Kelter, the scuttle-pipe, duct or mouth of a wine-press; [= Dachrinne] the house roof or attic-gutter, the leads, wooden roof-gutter; it. [Abzucht] drain, sewer, shore; [in architecture] —, gully hole, it. the gullet of an ogee, it. small hollow duct or gutter on dependent marble-slabs &c. in hydraulic erections; —n auf einer Terrasse &c. aus-hauen, to cut trenches, dig gutters on a terrace &c. 2) Die —n, cavities gutter-formed.

Die —n an Säulen &c., flutes, reeds, flutings, chamferings, channellings, rebates, gutter-work; it. [in botany] —, [a long furrow] stria, streak, flute, channel; it. [with silk-throwsters] die — am Garnbaume, the channel of the weaver's beam or roller. 3) [in nat. hist.] [a bivalve] solen, razor-shell. 4) [in sportsmen's language] V. —garn.

Rinn-eisen, n. iron supporting the gutter or gutter-spout or the leads of an attic-gutter, iron-stay, bearer or brace for gutters. —holz, n. wood fit for making gutters. —leiste, f. [in architecture] ogee, cymatium, wave, doucine, gula recta, cyma, gorge or gule of a column. —stein, m. [in architecture] gutter-stone; it. [= Gasse] sink, laver. —werk, n. canal, trench, gutter, drain.

Rinnen-blatt, n., —blume, f. hydrophyllum, water-leaf. —förmig, adj. and adv. gutter formed; [in botany of a Blattstiel] furrowed, fluted. —garn, n. [in sportsmen's language] [from rinnen = to move] flying draw-nets [for catching birds of prey]. —knecht, m. [with brewers] beer-stand, beer-truck. —muschel, f. solen, razor-shell. —schnabel, m. [a bird] the albatross. —zirkel, m. [with coopers] a notcher for making the croes of the staves, a cromer.

Rinnen, [allied to rennen; in Gr. ρεῖν, to flow] irr. v. intr. I. [u. w. fenn] 1) to flow gently, to gush, to trickle, to ooze, to drill, to rill, to stream. Das Blut rinnet in den Adern, the blood flows in the veins; ein rinnendes Wasser, running, flowing water; Thränen rannen aus ihren Augen, über ihre Wangen, tears gushed from her eyes, trickled down her cheeks; Balsam rinnt von, aus diesen Bäumen, balm distils from, oozes out of these trees; aus einem Gefäße heraus —, to run, to leak from a vessel. 2) [more usual gerinnen] to congeal, to coagulate, to thicken, to curd or curdle, to settle. II. [u. w. haben] to run, to leak. Dieser Krug ist gesprungen, er rinnt, this pitcher is cracked, it runs; dieses Fäßchen rinnt durch den Spund, von allen Seiten, this little cask runs, leaks through the bung-hole, from all sides; seine Augen —, his eyes run over or are filled with tears, are brimful; it. [triefen], his eyes weep, he is bleary-eyed; diese Lichter —, these tallow-candles gutter, run. Das —, running, flowing, trickling, oozing.

Rinn-auge, n., —äugig, adj. and adv. V. [the more usual word] Triefauge &c.

Rinnsal, n. [-es, pl. -e] 1) a water-course. 2) the bed of a river.

Rinnfel, 1) m. [-s, pl. -n] a gutter; it. the bed of a river. 2) n. [-s] rennet.

Riöle, f. [pl. -n] [probably allied to Reizehe; in Slavonian ruju means to furrow] [little used] a deep furrow or trench.

Riölen, v. tr. and intr. [with farmers and gardeners] Ein Stück Land —, to dig and manure, to trench or break a piece of land. Das —, die Riölung, digging and manuring, trenching.

Riölplug, m. [in agriculture] a trenching-plough.

|| Riölung, f. V. under Riölen.

Ripel, V. Riepel.

Rippe, f. [pl. -n] [appears allied to the Lat. ripa, to Reif, Rebe; in Welsh rib, rhibin means Strich; Isl. rifa is = Rife. In some significations the meaning of girding or belting prevails, where it might be more closely allied to the old Sax. braefnan, to bear] 1) certain long bent or curved bodies. Die —n eines Schiffes, the ribs of a ship; [in architecture] joist, juffer, quarter [under a floor]; it. fillet [separating the flutes or reeds]; die — n einer Kuppel, eines Gewölbes, the ribs or quarters of a cupola, of a vault, nerves of mouldings, vault-projections; [with firework makers] — n, ribs; [in botany &c.] stalk, ribs, nerve in the leaf, it. raised streaks on the fruit cuds, pods or shells of some plants, and on the seeds of umbelliferous plants; die eßbare — in der Mitte des Mangolds &c., the edible chard in the middle of the red beet &c.; [in conchology] die — n einer Muschel, the ribs of a shell; [with miners] die — n am Treibebhut, the iron clouts to the top of a refining-hearth; [with musical instrument-makers] die — n einer Laute, the pieces of the body of a lute; [with book-binders] die — n eines Buches, the ribs or nerves on the back of a book; [with basket-makers] die — n an dem Flechtwerk der Körbe, the ribs of baskets. 2) —, dim. Rippchen, || Ripplein, n. [-s, pl. -] [generally] rib [to the body of an animal]. Die obere, längere oder wahre — n, the upper or superior, the sternal, the real or true ribs, the long ribs; die untere, kürzere oder falsche — n, the lower or inferior, the asternal, short or false ribs; er stieß ihn in die — n [mostly vulgar], he gave him a blow in the ribs, [low] he gave him a rib-roaster; Einem alle — n im Leibe entzwei schlagen [vulgar], to break all the ribs in any one's body, [low] to break all the bones in any one's body; [in cookery] — n, Rippchen, ribs, short ribs, cutlets, it. chops; auf dem Roste gebratene Rippchen, grilled cutlets.

Rippholz, n. [in artillery] platform for the batteries. it. Die — hölzer der Brückenkähne, the ribs of bridge-boats; die — hölzer eines Schiffes, ribs of a ship.

Rippen=apfel, m. the large-ribbed pippin or calville-apple. — blase, f. [in nat. hist.] ribbed holothurion or sea-nettle. — blutader, f. the intercostal vein. — braten, m. a roast fore quarter; it. roast pork-chops. — bruch, m. fracture of the ribs. — farn, m. [in botany] a kind of fern or brake, hlechnon. — fell, n. V. — haut. — fleisch, n. rib-flesh, costal flesh. — geschirr, n. sort of horse-furniture, ribbed or barred harness. — hals, m. [in anatomy] the neck or thinner part of a rib. — halter, m. [in anatomy] the scalene or costo-trachelian muscle. — haut, f. — häutchen, n. [in anatomy] the pleura. — heber, m. [in anatomy] the costal elevator-muscle. — knorpel, m. costal cartilage. — kuchen, m. V. Herzgeßpann. — los, adj. and adv. without ribs, ribless; [in botany] without sensible nerves. — pulsader, f. intercostal artery. — schnalle, f. [with founders] [on a horse-harness] ribbed buckle. — stoß, m. [in pop. lang.] blow in the side, in the ribs, [low] a rib-roaster, a winder. Ein leichter or heimlicher — stoß [as a notice, sign or warning], a nudge with the elbow; Einem — stoßegeben, to give any one blows or hard knocks in the sides. — stößer, m. [a bad jolting conveyance] [low] a double-rumbler, shake-gut concern of a coach &c. — stück, n. [in the kitchen] fore-quarter, it. rib-piece. — theil, m. [in anatomy] costal part. — weh, n. pain or ache in the side or sides, stitch. — winkel, m. [in anatomy] costal angle, angle of the ribs. — wirbelbeine, pl. costal vertebrae, back or chine bones.

Rippig, adj. and adv. ribbed; [in botany] nerved.

† Ripprapps, V. Rapps.

* Rissalit, m. [in architecture] projecture.

Risch, adj. and adv. [low or provincial] V. Rasch, Schnell.

Rischdrähtig, adj. and adv. [in woods and forests] straight-veined.

Risling, V. Riesling.

Rispe, f. [pl. -n] [appears allied to Reiss] [in botany] panicle; it. V. Folsch, Taubhaber.

Rispensförmig, adj. and adv. [in botany] paniculate, paniculated. — gras, n. 1) paniculate gramineous plant. 2) [Schiffgras] reed-grass, bur-reed, sea-grass. 3) [Weidgras] poa, meadow-grass; it. aquatic paturin, water meadow-grass.

Riß, m. [-ßes, pl. -ße] 1) [das Reissen] tearing, laceration. Einen — in Etwas thun or machen, to make a tear or rent in any thing; Etwas mit einem — e wegbringen, to carry off, to detach something with a single tear. 2) any opening through laceration. — in einem Kleide, Zeuge &c., tear, rent, fracture, rupture, slash, cut, gash in a dress, a stuff &c.; — vom Hängenbleiben an einem Nagel, a tear or rent from a nail &c.; — [durch eine gemachte or beigebrachte Wunde], a laceration [through an inflicted wound]; — des Erdbodens, crevice, fissure, crack, rent, chap, chink, cleft of the earth or soil; — einer Glocke, eines Glases, crack, flaw of a bell, of a glass; — einer Kupferplatte, flaw of a copper-plate; — einer Wand, crevice, crack, rent, chink, flaw &c. of a wall; — des Holzes, crack, fissure, rent, flaw of wood; ihr Kleid hat einen — bekommen, her dress has got a tear, a rent; wo haben Sie diesen — in Ihr Kleid gemacht? where have you hitched and torn this hole in your dress? ein — heilt schneller zu, als ein Schnitt, a laceration heals quicker than a cut; er machte einen — in den Brief, in das Papier, he made a tear in the letter, a rent in the paper; bei großer Dürre bekommt der Erdboden — e, in great drought, in long continued dry weather the ground [gets] chaps; dieser Topf steht zu nahe am Feuer, er wird einen —, — e bekommen, this pot stands too near the fire, it will crack, it will get a flaw; diese Wand bekommt — e, this wall is cracking, is getting flaws, crevices; dieses Gemälde, dieser Diamant ist voll — e, this picture, this diamond is full of flaws; durch den — [die Spalte] der Thüre sehen, to look through the chink of the door; ein Stein, der — e hat, a stone that has flaws, cracks; ein Glas, das — e hat, a glass that has flaws, a cracked glass; ein — [with miners], a mine flawed or with a fissure that admits day-light. Fig. Vor dem — stehen, vor dem — treten, sich vor dem — stellen [in pop. lang.], to become bail, surety or guarantee, to be answerable for every event, [low] to stop up the gap; it. er ist ein Mann, der vor dem — steht [in pop. lang.], he is a man to mount the breach, he is courageous in danger: dies macht einen großen —, einen gewaltigen — in meine Rechnung [in fam. lang.], this makes a very serious breach in my calculations, a great derangement to my projects; diese Ausgabe hat einen großen — in meine Kasse gemacht [in familiar language], this disbursement, these expences has [have] made a very great hole in my purse, has [have] left a very great vacuum in my money-bags, casket, till; sein Tod hat einen großen — in dieser Familie gemacht, his death has left a wide gap, vacancy, a great vacuum in this family, by his death a vacancy has been left in this family, not easily to be filled up again 3) [f om reissen, abreißen = to draw, and so = Zeichnung] sketch, design, outline, plan. Eizen — machen, einen — zu einem Gebäude machen, to make a plan, to trace out a plan for or sketch of a house; — eines Gebäudes, des äußern Umfanges einer Festung durch bloße Linien, the sketch, outline of a building, delineation of a fortress; die Vorstellung aller Seiten und Theile eines Gebäudes in einem — e, the development of a plan of a building by the front, back and side views, by its faces and profiles; der — von einem Gebäude nach seinen innern Theilen, the internal elevation of a building delineated [by the ground plan, cut in half &c.]; — im Großen auf eine Wand, Bretter &c., a plan or draught as large as life or nature on a wall, boards &c., a scantling, pattern, design, trace; V. Ab-, Auf-, Grund-, Stand- &c. Syn. Riß, Rize, Spalte. A Riß is a separation, as well in soft and thin bodies, as in hard and thick ones; a Rize, in soft but thick bodies, and Spalte only in hard ones. Evasen are greater and wider than Rizen. A Spalte goes entirely through, a Rize is often confined to the surface of a soft but thick body.

Rißbank, f. dam, mole, breakwater. — platte, f. 1) a comb-maker's ruler [for tracing a right line on the comb]. 2) [Kupferplatte] plate of a plan, design, sketch.

Rissig, adj. and adv. torn, rent, lacerated, cracked, flawed, creviced, chapped, split, rived. — es Holz, cracked wood, wood full of chinks; — er Boden, chapped ground, ground full of cracks, crevices, flaws; — er Stengel, a stalk with a cracked rind, a lacerated stalk; — e Wand, Mauer, a wall full of crevices, flaws, fissures, chinks; — es Gefäß, a cracked vessel; — e Haut, a chapped skin; [with miners] — [graben, or rinnenweise], laufen, to run ditch- and trenchwise.

Risling, V. Riesling.

Rist, m. [-es, pl. -e] [allied to Riese from the old riesen = to rise] 1) the withers [of a horse]. 2) instep.

Riste, f. V. Reiste.

Risten, v. tr. Den Hanf, Flachse —, to bottle, to make or put up into bottles hemp, flax.

* Ritornell, n. [-es, pl. -e] [in music] ritornello.

* Riträtte, f. [pl. -n] [in commerce] V. Rückwechsel.

Ritt, m. [-es, pl. -e] 1) [= Gang] [in sportsmen's language] V. Spurgang. Fig. In einem — e, at a blow, at a stroke, at once, off hand. 2) ride. Wir haben einen — nach N. gemacht, we have had, taken a ride on horseback to N.; werden Sie einen — machen? shall you take a ride, an airing on horseback? seine häufigen — e, his frequent rides on horseback; in einem — e, in one ride, without drawing bit; V. Aus-, Durch-, Lust-, Spazier-, um-; ein Pferd auf den — geben, to let a saddle-horse, to keep a saddle-horse, riding-horse, a hack-horse for letting.

Rittelgeier, m. [-s, pl. -]. Rittelweih, f. [pl. -n] a kind of hawk, a kistrel.

|| Ritteln, V. Röteln.

Ritter, m. [-s, pl. -] 1) [old] cavalier. V. Reiter. 2) knight. Einen zum — schlagen, to dub any one a knight; irrender, fahrender —, paladin, knight errant; der — von der traurigen Gestalt [Don Quixote], the knight of the rueful or woe-begone countenance; [in English history] — und Rundköpfe, Cavaliers and Roundheads; die Herren und — wurden zu dem Landtage berufen, the seigneurs and knights were summoned to the diet; des heiligen römischen — s; — [formerly], knights of the holy Roman Empire; der — dieser Dame, the knight, the cavalier, the champion of this dame. Fig. Un Einem zum — werden wollen [in fam. lang.], to wish to prove one's courage to any one, to make it a point of honour to drive any one to extremity and provoke him to hostility; der — einer Dame, the knight, squire, lover of a lady; der dienende —, Cavaliere servente, [in Italy] cavaliere serviente. 3) member of a noble worldly order. — des Maltheserordens, Hosenbandordens, knight of the Maltese order, of the order of the Garter; — des schwarzen Adlerordens, — vom Elephantenorden, knight of the black Eagle, of the Elephant; der König hat mehrere Offiziere zu — n der Ehrenlegion ernannt, the king has named many officers knights of the legion of honour, has given to several officers the cross of the legion. 4) Arme —, [apparently a false expression from the confusion of the English words] warm fritters; arme — backen [probably another misunderstood phrase], to live like the poor knights of Windsor, to be hard put to it for a livelihood, to have much ado to keep soul and body together. 5) [in nat. hist.] a) day-butterflies. b) [a fish] the cavalier, umbra, umbla, umble, umber, grayling, thymallus. c) a kind of prickly shell, the caltrop-murex.

Ritterakademie, f. academy, military school for young knights or nobility. — alter, n. the age of chivalry, [in general] feudal age. — art, f. the acts, manners, customs of the ancient knights. Nach — art, after the manner of chivalry or knighthood. — banck, f. [at Diets] bench of the knights. — bild, n. 1) the picture of a knight. 2) equestrian statue. — blume, f. V. — [vern 2]. — brauch, m. custom, usage of knighthood, amongst knights, of chivalry. — buch, n. book, romance or romance of chivalry. — burg, f. knight's castle or hold, [often, in a more general sense] manorial castle, seignorial castle, feudal castle. — bürtig, adj. and adv. of noble race, of knightly birth, of ancient nobility. — bürtigkeit, f. nobility of race. — canton, m. V. — anton. — dank, m. knightly reward, reward of a knight. — dienst, m. knight-service. Fig. a gallant service. Erweisen Sie der Dame diesen — dienst, show to this lady such knightly service. — ding, n. V. — gericht. — dorf, n. noble village, knight's village, manorial, seignorial village. — eid, m. knightly oath, oath of a knight. — feld, n. field belonging to a knight's domain, to a manor. — freiheit, f. privilege of a knight, of knighthood. — gebrauch, V. — brauch. — gedicht, n. poem upon chivalry. — geist, m. spirit of knighthood, of chivalry. — gerechtigkeit, f. knightly right or privilege. — gericht, n. 1) court of knights. 2) a seneschal's jurisdiction; it. the court where the seneschal presides — geschichte, f. 1) history of chivalry. 2) a novel, tale or romance of, or laid in, the chivalrous or feudal times, a romance of chivalry. — geschlecht, n. race of knights, [more general] noble race. Eines der ältesten — geschlechter Deutschlands, one of the most ancient knightly, [more general] noble houses, one of the oldest knightly, [more general] noble families in Germany. — geschmack, m. 1) knightly taste; knight's fashion. 2) taste for chivalry. — gut, n. property or estate belonging to a noble; manor. — hauptmann, m. seneschal; [in German history] the president or highest functionary of a certain union or district of knights of the empire. — haus, n. 1) house of assembly for the knights; it. [in Sweden] the house of knights or nobles [a branch of the legislature or states of the kingdom]. 2) knightly house, [more general] noble house, V. — geschlecht. — hof, m. noble or seignorial house, gentleman's or country squire's mansion, manor-house. — hufe, f. hide of land, dependent on a manor. — anton, m. [in German history] a union or district of knights of the Empire. — kasten, m. [formerly] the chest or till that received the contributions of the nobility. — kreis, m. 1) seneschal's jurisdiction. 2) V. — anton. — kreuz, n. 1) cross of a knight, of a knightly order. Das — kreuz der Ehrenlegion, des Bähringer Löwen &c., the cross of the [French] Legion of Honour, of the [Badish] Order of the Zähringen Lion. 2) [in botany] clary of the Pyrenees. — lehen, n. noble fief, knight's fee or fief. — mann, m. [in Saxony] a day-workman on a noble's estate. — mantel, m. knight's mantle. — mässig, adj. and adv. knightly, in a knightly manner, chivalresque. — orden, m. knightly order, it. order of chivalry; it. order of knighthood. — ort, m. [little used] V. — freis. — pferd, n. 1) a knight's steed or war-horse. 2) [formerly] V. — steuer. 3) [in nat. hist.] V. Heu pferd. — pflicht, f. knight's or knightly duty, knightliness. — rath, m. 1) council of knights, of nobles; [in German history] council of the nobility of the Empire. 2) [formerly, in some parts of the German Empire] a member of the council-board of the knights of the Empire, in a certain union or district. — recht, n. 1) right, privilege of a knight, of knighthood or chivalry. 2) [collective] the right, the laws of the knighthood or nobility of a province. — rolle, f. 1) knight's-roll, list of knights or cavaliers. 2) part of a knight upon the stage. — roman, m. romance of chivalry. — saal, m. the knight's-hall, the great or banqueting hall in feudal castles; it. the hall of ceremony, the court drawing-room. — schild, m. knight's shield. — schlag, m. the dubbing of a knight, the laying on the order of knighthood, knighting. Einem den — schlag ertheilen, to dub any one a knight; it. creation, promotion of knights; einen — schlag halten, to make, to dub, to create a batch of knights, to hold a court for the creation of knights or awarding of knighthood. — schloß, n. knight's castle; feudal castle. — schule, f. academy, military school for young knights or nobility. — schwert, n. knight's sword. — sinn, m. mind, disposition, sentiments of a knight, chivalrous, high, valorous mind or sentiments. — sitte, f. knightly, [also] courteous manners. — sitz, m. seat, castle of a knight; it. manor-seat, V. also — hof, — gut. — smann, m. [Ein — smann] [in familiar or old quaint language], knight. Ein tapferer, kühner, biederer — smann, a valiant, a true-minded knight, a gallant cavalier. — spiel, n. a chivalrous game, [chiefly] tournament, jousting. Im — spiel den Preis davon tragen, to carry off the prize of the tournament. — sporn, m. 1) knight's spur, golden spur. 2) [in botany] larkspur, delphinium. Gefüllter — sporn, comfrey; gelber — sporn [indische Kresse], Indian cress, nasturtium indicum, capucine, cardaminum, acrivola. — stand, m. 1) knightly condition, chivalry, knighthood, [more general = Adelsstand] nobility; it. [with the old Romans] equestrian order. In den — stand erhoben werden, to be dubbed a knight, to be raised to knightly rank or dignity. 2) [collective] V. — schast 2). — statue, f. [Ritter-Standbild] equestrian statue. — stern, m. 1) star [of an order of chivalry or knighthood]; it. order or decoration in the form of a star. Er trägt einen — stern, he wears an order, the insignia of an order in the form of a star. 2) [in conchology] the equestrian star of the Mediterranean. — steuer, f. money or tax in lieu of knight-service, tax or impost on a knight's fee. — stuh, m. V. Helmfeder, Helmschmuck. — tafel, f. 1) knights' table, table of the knights, knights' or cavaliers' banqueting-table; it. König Arthur's — tafel, King Arthur's round Table. 2) V. — bank. 3) V. Marschallstafel. — tag, m. solemn day of assembling for the knights of a district. — tapferkeit, f. knightly prowess. — täubel, f. the cavalier - pigeon. — tod, m. a knight's death; it. dying in harness. — tracht, f. costume of a knight or cavalier. — treue, f. knightly faith, chivalrous faith. — tute, f. [in conchology] the knight cornet-shell. — waffe, f. knightly weapon. — wesen, n. chivalry. — wort, n. word or pledged faith of a knight, cavalier, [in general] of a gentleman. — würde, f. dignity, rank of a knight, chivalry, knighthood. Einem die — würde ertheilen, to create or dub any one a knight, to accord any one his spurs. — zehrung, f. knight's billeting or billet, passade, temporary sojourn or quarters and support or hospitality accorded to a knight errant. Einem die — zehrung reichen, to give knight's alms to an errant cavalier. — zeit, f. times or days of chivalry, [in general] feudal times or ages. — zug, m. 1) [formerly] knight's campaign or crusade; it. roaming in quest of adventures; hap-hazard or erratic riding forth of a knight errant. 2) knight's action, deed, trait of a knight, feature of a chivalrous character in one's conduct or actions.

Ritterlich, adj. and adv. knightly, like a cavalier, chivalrous, chivalresque, as a knight. — handeln, fechten, to act, fight as a gentle knight, as a cavalier, knightly &c.; — übungen, Sitten, knightly exercises, chivalrous manners, [also] courteous manners; von — er Abkunft, of knightly, noble, pure, unsullied, untarnished blood, race, descent or lineage; — er Muth, — e Tapferkeit, chivalrous courage, chivalrous valour, prowess; von — em Muth, von — er Tapferkeit, valiant, brave, courageous, heroic, with the gentle courage of a knight; — e That, heroic action or deed, knightly feat; sich — wehren, [now in a more figurative sense, chiefly in fam. lang.] halten, to defend, to hold one's self as a true knight, valiantly, as a brave champion.

Ritterschaft, f. 1) [Stand] chivalry, knighthood. Freunde —, knight-errantry; die Blume der —, the flower of chivalry; Einem die — ertheilen, to award any one his spurs, to admit any one to the Round Table, to the order of knighthood, to dub any one a knight; [in Scripture] die Waffen unserer —, the arms of our warfare. 2) [collective] the body of knights, the cavaliers, the nobility; a certain league or confederacy of knights or nobles. [in German history] Die schwäbische —, fränkische — &c., the knighthood of Swabia &c., the Frankish &c. nobility, knighthood or chivalry.

Ritterschaftlich, adj. and adv. appertaining to the nobility or knightly order, to the body of the nobility or to a certain league or body of nobles or knights.

Ritterthum, n. [-es] chivalry, knighthood; knightliness. Der Geist des alten —, the spirit of ancient chivalry.

Rittlings, adj. and adv. [in familiar lang.] astraddle, a-straddle, astride. — auf Etwas sitzen, sich — setzen, to sit astride upon any thing, to seat one's self astraddle across any thing.

Rittmeister, m. [-s, pl. -] captain of horse, in the cavalry, of a horse-company. Die —in, [in the awkward but very common German title-fashion.] the wife of a captain of horse. Die Frau —inn, die verwittwete [Frau] —inn N., the lady of a cavalry-captain, Mrs. captain N., the widowed Mrs. captain N. or the widow of captain N.

Rittstroh, n. V. Rüttstroh.

Ritualle, n. [-es, pl. -e] [Kirchendienst-buch] ritual, service, book of divine service.

Riß, m. [-es, pl. -e] or Riße, f. [pl. -n] dim. —chen, || —lein, n. [s, pl. -] [= Riß from reißen] 1) crack, flaw, chink. Die —e in diesem Brette, in dieser Thüre, in dieser Wand, the split in this board, chink in this door, flaw or crevice in this wall; — in einem Gefäße, crack or flaw in a vessel; aus der —e des Felsens hervorstechen, to grow out of the crevice of the rock; bei der Blatternimpfung macht man einen kleinen — in die Haut, in vaccination one makes a little opening in or incision into the skin; — in der Haut von einem Dorne &c., scratch in the skin from a thorn &c.; [with miners] notch, nick, scratch [in the rock]. Syn. V. Riß. 2) [with common people] [an onomatopoeia] —raß! crick-crack!

Ritzen, v. tr. to scratch, to graze, to open slightly, to flay or abrade superficially, to cut into a little, to notch, to nick. Ein Dorn hat ihm die Haut geritzt, a thorn has scratched his skin; er hat sich mit einer Stecknadel geritzt, he has scratched himself with a pin; [with miners] to make a notch.

Riß-eisen, n. [with miners] tool for notching, scratching rock or stone; it. [in seamen's language] V. Grabber. —feder, f. [with miners] thin plates placed into the notches for assisting or increasing the power of the wedges, blade of intercalation. —federn einlegen, to line the wedges. —messer, n. [with surgeons] lancet. —werk, n. instruments for scratching, notching, nicking, grazing, slight incisions.

Rißicht, adj. and adv. [fam. and vulgar] scratchy, chinky, notchy, cracky, flawy, flawish, [polite] resembling a scratch, an abrasure, a flaw, a chink &c.

Rißig, adj. and adv. full of cracks, flaws, chinks, crevices; cracked, flawed, chinked, gaping, sprung, scratched, notched, nicked, flayed slightly.

Röbbe, m. [-n, pl. -n] or —, f. [pl. -n] [in nat. hist.] a seal, the phoca, sea-dog, sea-calf, marine calf.

Robbenfang, m. seal-fishing, seal-hunting, sealing. —fell, n. seal-skin. —fleisch, n. seal-flesh. —knüttel, m. club, staff for seal-hunting. —schiff, n. V. —schläger 2). —schläger, m. 1) seal-hunter. 2) vessel equipped for the sealing-voyage, seal-fishery or sealing. —speck, m. seal-blubber. —thran, m. the train-oil from seal-blubber. —zunge, f. 1) the seal's-tongue. 2) [in conchology] seal's-tongue, cat's-tongue, kind of the bivalve tellina-shell.

Robert, m. [-s, pl. -e] [name of men, allied to Ruprecht or Rupert] Robert, [fam. and low] Bob.

Robertskraut, n. [in botany] [Art Storchschnabel] the herb Robert, crane's bill

Robert, English geranium, stork's bill, pigeon's foot, Robert-herb, pelargonium.

Rocamboles, f. V. Rockenbolle.

1. Röche, m. [-n, pl. -n] [allied to rauch] [a fish] the ray.

Rocheadler, m. [a fish] sea-eagle.

2. Röche, m. [-n, pl. -n] [perhaps allied to Recke, ragen, to tower, and signified formerly the elephant] [at chess] rook, castle; sometimes also the figure of an elephant bearing a castle on its back.

3. Röche, m. [-n, pl. -n] V. Rack, Racker.

Röcheln, [icel. hraeka, allied to the Gr. ῥέζω, ῥοχθίω, to snore, with the Fr. roucouler, to coo, to crockel] v. intr. to rattle in the throat; [chiefly] to have or to be in the rattles. Der Kranke ist schlimm, er fängt schon an zu —, the invalid is bad, he begins already to have the rattles. Das —, the rattles, the rattling of the throat, the having or being in the rattles.

Röchen, Rochiren, v. intr. [at chess] to castle.

Röchler, m. [-s, pl. -] one who rattles in the throat; an asthmatic person, a short-breathed, puffy, broken-winded fellow.

Röchwand, f. [pl. -wände] [in mineralogy] coarse or common carbonate of lime.

Rock, m. [-es, pl. Röcke], dim. Röckchen, || Röcklein, n. [-s, pl. -] [allied to Strack, to the Gr. ῥάκος, a piece or shred of cloth, to the Lat. braccae, breeches, and to brechen = to bend; therefore = Hülle, a hull, envelope or shell] 1) a robe, gown [for men, senators &c.]; [generally] a coat, a frock-coat, [also, sometimes] a great coat. — der Geistlichen, robe, gown, cassock; langes Röckchen für Knaben [before boys are breeched], boy's frock, pelisse, boy's gown; V. Echor —, Rinder —, Priester —, Regen —, Reit —, Schlaß — &c.; Ihr — sieht sehr gut, your coat fits very nicely, well; er küßte ihm den —, he kissed the hem of his garment; Einem den — ausklopfen [ihn prügeln] [low], to dust one's jacket for one, [low] to tan one's hide for one; er hat nicht einen guten or ordentlichen — am or auf dem Leibe [in common people's language], he has, not even a decent coat to put on or to his back. 2) — der Weiber, petticoat, skirt or tail of a lady's gown; it. [in general] gown [of ladies]; sie hat drei Röcke an, she has three petticoats on; den — aufheben, hinaufschlagen, to raise, to tuck up the petticoat; einer Dame den — küssen, to kiss the hem of a lady's gown or robe. V. Fischbein —, Ober —, Reiß —, Unter — &c.

Rockfalte, f. fold of a robe, gown, petticoat. —knopf, m. button of a coat, robe, gown, petticoat. —schloß, m. the lappet of a robe, gown, petticoat, the flap of a coat. —tasche, f. pocket of a robe or gown, pocket of a coat.

1. Röcken, m. [-s, pl. -] [probably from regen, recken = to turn; allied to the Gr. ῥέζω, to run] 1) an instrument for spinning hemp on, a hemp-staff or frame, a spinning-rock. 2) a distaff. Einem — anlegen, to fill a distaff; sie sitzt immer am —, she is always spinning, always at her distaff, her spindle, at her spinning-wheel; ich will noch diesen — abspinnen, I will spin this one distaff-full more; sie hat den — abgesponnen, she has spun out what was in her distaff; ein — voll, a distaff-full.

Rockenband, —blatt, n. —brief, m. ribbon, leaf, paper wrapped round the rock or distaff. —philosophie, —weisheit, f. [in fam. lang., ironical] philosophy of old women. —stiel, m. distaff-handle. —stock, m. the top, the loose joint cone of the distaff. —stube, f. chamber of [chiefly old] spinning women; [in general] spinning-room. —unf, f. [in familiar language, comic] society, set of [chiefly old] spinning-women, of spinsters, of old maids.

2. Röcken, [Roggen] m. [-s, pl. -] [in Finlän. rucho means a plant, and in old Germ. Rogen is fruit] [Getreideart] rye. Den — schneiden, to cut or reap the rye; it. ägyptischer —, Egyptian rye, the quadrilinear naked barley, celestial barley; it. wilber —, V. —gras.

Rockenähre, f. an ear of rye it. the reedy sand-grass of Friesland. —blätter, pl. [in botany] common wild dock, patience, lapathum agreste, monk's rhubarb. —blume, f. V. Kornblume. —blüthe, f. flower of the rye. —bolle, f. Spanish garlick, roc-cambole. —brei, m. rye-pap, rye-frumenty. —brod, n. rye-bread. —feld, n. field sown with rye, a rye-field. —gerste, f. V. Korngerste. —gras, n. rye-grass, sand-hair-grass, elymus or panic of the sands. —kloß, m. rye-pudding. —korn, n. 1) a grain of rye. 2) rye-corn. —mehl, n. rye-flour. —moor, m. and n. moor or marshy soil fit for growing rye. —mutter, f. V. Mutterkorn. —stein, m. rye-stone, shistous clay. —stroh, n. rye-straw. —trespe, f. rye-cockle, rye-tare, rye-darnel. —vogelchen, n. —wurm, m. the rye-weevil, rye-mite.

3. Röcken, m. [-s, pl. -] [allied to Rock, a covering or dress] [in seamen's language] coats of the masts, helm-coats.

Röcken, [undoubtedly from Rock, a dress] v. tr. Einem Deich — [in hydraulics], to dress or clothe a dike with turf, to turf a dike.

Rodaun, m. [-es, pl. -e] [fish] V. Rothauge.

Rode, f. [pl. -n] [allied to reuten] 1) [—land, Neubruck] land newly ploughed, turned up or made arable, sart. 2) V. —hacke [under Roden].

Rodel, m. [-s, pl. -] [in law, corrupted from the Lat. rotulus] V. Verzeichniß.

Rodel, m. 1) [-s, pl. -] [Reitel] a packing-stick. 2) [-s, no pl.] [in botany] crista galli, cock's comb, louse-wort.

Rodelapfel, m. V. Stapperapfel. —ballen, m. wheel rail. —traut, n. pedicularis, louse-wort.

Rodeln, V. Rütteln.

Roden, v. tr. [= reuten] Ein Land —, to grub up, to convert wood-land into arable land or sart.

Rode = a cker, m. field, plain newly ploughed, lately turned up. —hacke, —haue, f. pickaxe, hoe for grubbing up fresh or maiden-land. —land, n. sart, V. Rode 1). —zehnte, m. tithes upon fresh-made arable land.

Röden, m. [-s, pl. -] V. Gettmagen.

Rödenkopf, m. [-es] [a fish] the gill-head or goldney, dorado, gilt-head, dolphin.

Röder, m. [-s, pl. -] a grubber up, one who grubs up waste or other land for converting it into arable land or sart.

Röderich, m. [-s, pl. -e] [name of men] Roderick.

Rödler, m. [-s, pl. -] V. Trommeltaube.

Rodomontade, f. [pl. -n] [Großsprecherei, Prahlerei] rodomontade.

Rohf, m. [in seamen's lang.] V. Roof.

Roselke, m. [-n, pl. -n] [a fish] the eelpout, lota, quab.

Rögel, [from regen] adj. and adv. [provincial for locker, wackelnd] — es Erdreich, — er Zahn; light land, loose tooth.

Rögeln, v. intr. V. Wackeln.

Rögen, m. [-s, pl. -] [formerly Rogen was = fruit] [generally noun of multitude] fish-eggs, roe, seed or spawn of fishes. Männlicher —, soft roe, milt; weiblicher —, hard roe, spawn. Fig. [in familiar language] Er hat den besten — [i. e. den größten Nutzen] davon gezogen, he has had the cream, the best of it.

Rögenfisch, m. a fish with the hard roe or spawn, a spawner. — hecht, — karpsfen, m. Sc. a spawner or hard-roed pike, carp Sc. — stein, m. roe-stone, egg-stone, oolite. — stint, m. smelt, sparling.

Rögner, Rögner, m. [-s, pl. -] V. Rogenfisch.

Röggen, m. [-s] V. 2. Roeken.

Rögling, m. [-es, pl. -e] Rögner, m. [-s] V. Rögner.

Rögmurz, f. 1) [Ragmurz] orchis. 2) V. Zaurube.

Roh, adj. and adv. [= rauh, Lat. rudis, crudus, old Sax. hreoov, hreoog Sc.] rough, raw. — e [more usual, raube] Bitterung, raw or rough weather. Fig. a) rough, raw, unpolished, unhewn; coarse, crude; hard; unfashioned; natural; brute. — e Erzeugnisse, Metalle, raw productions, metals; — er Marmor, — er Stein, unhewn or rough marble, stone; — e Diamanten, rough diamonds; — e Seide, raw silk; — es Fleisch, — e Früchte [nicht gekochte], raw flesh, raw, crude fruits; diese Gemüse werden — gegessen, these vegetables are eaten raw; — e Speisen, crude or undressed food; — e Stoffe, raw materials; diese Völker essen das Fleisch —, these people eat raw flesh, are homophagists; — er Zucker, raw, unrefined sugar; [with miners] — e Erze, raw, coarse ores; — es [or unverarbeitetes] Eisen, raw, unwrought iron; — er Schwefel, sulphur of the first melting, coarsesulphur; — es Quecksilber, — er Spießglanz, — er Salpeter, raw quicksilver or crude mercury, crude antimony, native saltpetre; — er Fluß, [sulphate of potass and saltpetre mixed and not yet decrepitated] raw or crude flux; — er [nicht gerösteter] Schlich, raw slick; — e Leinwand, — es Garn [nicht gebleichte], raw unbleached linen, thread; — es [ungewalktes] Tuch [with cloth-manufacturers], raw unfilled cloth; — es [ungebundenes] Buch, book in sheets, unbound; eine Arszenei — [in ihrer natürlichen Gestalt] nehmen, to take a crude medicament or drug; — e [ungegerbte] Haut, raw hide, raw skin, hide or skin undressed or untanned. b) of false alloy, of poor quality, not rich in quality. — er Rest, crude matt of copper-ore. c) [= unverdaulich] — e Speisen, crude indigestible food, substances difficult of concoction as food. d) [= entblößt] Das — e Fleisch einer Wunde, the raw, bare flesh of a wound; [fam.] sich — [provincial, rah or reh] or wund liegen [of bedridden persons], to lay bare or make the flesh raw by dint of lying too long, to make the flesh slough by too long a recumbent posture on one part; sich — [provincial, rah or reh] reiten [on horseback], to fetch leather. e) destitute of a certain finish, imperfect. — e Arbeit, rough, imperfect, unfinished work; [with engravers] — e Züge und Schraffirungen, rough, imperfect cuts or strokes and hatchings; einen Gedanken noch — auf das Papier hinwerfen, to convey a thought still crude, undigested, immature Sc. to paper; dieser junge Mensch ist noch ganz — [neu und unwissend], this young man is still quite raw, fresh, [in a particularly good sense] is still a rough diamond; ein — er [= ungebildet], ganz — er Mensch, a rude, unpolished, brutal man, quite a barbarian; jenes — e Volk, that rude uncivilized people, that barbarous people, that nation of barbarians; — e Sitten, rude, barbarous, rustic, coarse Sc. manners; sein — es Wesen, Betragen, his gross, vulgar manners, his brutal, rustic, coarse, unpolished behaviour; das ist nicht Tapferkeit, sondern — er Muth, that is not valour but a brutal courage.

Roharbeit, f. [with founders] V. — er Arbeit. — eisen, n. V. — es Eisen. — faß stahl, m. V. — stahleisen. — gut, n. raw goods, raw materials. — höpfig, adj. and adv. [with brewers] said of beer when the hops have not been sufficiently boiled in the wort. — lech, n. [with founders] matt of silver. — ofen, m. [with founders] furnace for uncalcined ore. — pfanne, f. V. Schwefelpfanne. — reif, m. V. Rauhreif. — schlacken, pl. [with founders] matt scoria or slag. — schmelzen, n. V. — e Arbeit. — stahl, m. 1) V. — stahleisen. 2) unprepared, raw steel. — stahleisen, n. [with founders] [Spiegeleisen] crystalized tritoxyd of iron, oligist or oligistic iron. — stein, m. [with founders] raw matt; [with miners] barren stone without ore. — zucker, m. raw sugar.

Röhe, f. V. Rehe.

Rohheit, f. 1) [without pl.] — des Obstes, Fleisches, der Seide, crudity of fruit, rawness or raw state of meat, of silk; der Marmor in seiner —, the marble in its rough, unhewn state; die — der Sitten, rudeness, coarseness of manners; — des Verstandes, inculture of the understanding. 2) [pl. -en] coarse vulgar action, grossness, vulgarity, rusticity. Es ist eine —, so zu sprechen, it is a great vulgarity to speak so.

Rohigkeit, f. V. Rohheit 1).

Röbling, V. Rehling.

Röhm, V. Rahm.

Röhne, V. Ränge.

Röhr, n. [-es, pl. Röhre or Röhre], dim. Röhrchen, Röhrlein, n. [-s, pl. -] [Fr. roseau, old Goth. rauð, Lat. arundo, Isl. reyr; allied to the old riesen = to grow, to move] 1) [generally = Gewächs] [in botany] reed, cane. Das gemeine —, common reed; das zähme —, cultivated or garden reed, arundo sativa domestica, manured reed, evergreen reed; indisches — [Bambus], bamboo, indian cane; indisches — zum Flechten der Stühle Sc., rattan for chair-bottoms; von — geflochtener Hausrath, cane-furniture; — schneiden, to cut reeds; ein Haus mit — decken, to thatch or cover a house with reed; schwach wie ein —, feeble, weak, frail, unsteady, vacillating as a reed. Prov. V. unter Pfeife. Ein —, ein spanisches —, — stock, cane, cane-stick, spanish cane; ein hübsches —, a pretty, neat, delicate, natty little cane. 2) something long and hollow, pipe, tube. — eines Ofens, the small chimney of an oven, tube, funnel or chimney-pipe to a German stove; — eines Schlüssels, pipe of a key; — einer Spritze, Tabakspfeife, barrel or tube of a syringe or squirt, tube or shank of a tobacco-pipe; [with glass-blowers] — zum Blasen, blow-pipe, bunting-iron or rod; — eines Fernrohrs, tube of a telescope; das Röhrchen [in surgery], a cannula or pipe for a wound or sore; V. Blase —, Haber —, Röth —, Seh —, Sprach —; [with watchmakers] the socket [into which the hour and minute hands are fastened]; — eines Feuegewehres [der Lauf], tube [of a great gun], barrel [of a small gun, musket Sc.]; gezogenes —, a rifle-barrel; it. a rifle-gun, carabine. Fig. [in popular lang.] Etwas auf dem — e [Korne] haben, to aim at any thing, to have any thing in view, to have one's eye upon any thing.

Röhrachat, m. [in mineralogy] cylindrical stalactitical agate-quarz. — ammer, f. V. — sperting. — arbeit, f. rattan. — art, f. kind, sort, species of reed or cane. [in botany] — arten, plants of the nature, growth of reeds or canes, reedy, rushlike plants. — bein, n. V. Röhrbein. — blatt, n. [with weavers] [das Ried] comb, slay reeds. — blech, n. iron-plate for stoves. — bohrer, m. borer or screw for rifling a gun, a gun-punch. — brüller, m. V. — dommel. — bund, n. bundle of reeds. — busch, m. tuft of reeds. — cassie, f. cassia of Brazil or of the shops, cassia fistula or purging cassia. — dach, n. roof of reeds. — decke, f. 1) eines Zimmers, a room-floor of reeds, of rushes, a reed-floor, rush-floor. 2) [Matte von Röhr] a reed-mat, rush-mat. — dicke, f. — dicke, n. V. — gebüsch. — dommel, f. [according to many Röhr is here = Hor, old for dung; Dommel is allied to the Dutch dompelen, to dive] bittern [Ardea stellaris]. — drossel, f. a variety of the king-fisher, the alcedo vocalis. — eisen, n. [with founders] a bar or crutch for raking and stirring. — falk, m. bald buzzard, sea-eagle, osprey, ossifragus, ossifrage, fish-hawk. — feiler, m. [with armourers] burnisher, fixer of the stock on to the gun-barrel. — flechte, f. V. — geflecht. — flöte, f. reed or oaten pipe; [in organs] V. — pfeife. — frosch, m. marsh-frog. — gebüß, n. canonmouth. — gebüsch, n. bed of reeds, tuft, thicket or patch of reeds. — geflecht, n. a layer of reeds; a reed-mat. — geschwür, n. fistula. — glanz, m. [in botany] reed-phalaris, reed-Canary-grass. — gras, n. 1) [Riedgras] reed-grass, horse-tongue, sword-grass, burweed. 2) feather-reed. 3) Großes — gras, great reed-grass. 4) [Rasenschmiele] reedy bulrush or hairgrass. — hahn, m. moor-cock. — halm, m. reed-stalk or tube. — heide, f. 1) heath covered with reeds. 2) [Färbeginsten] dyer's broom. — henne, f. moor-hen, fulica, coot. — hirse, f. great millet, Indian millet, sorgum, melico or milium arundinaceum. — hobel, m. a gouge-plane [for the bed of the gun-barrel]. — hörchen, n. [Röhrenschnecke] wimble. — huhn, n. V. Bläshuhn. — kamm, m. [with weavers] V. — blatt. — kolbe, f. — folben, m. 1) typha, reed-mace. 2) [Leichfolbe] cat's tail. — leiter, m. the fire-man who directs the leather-pipe of a fire-engine. — meise, f. [Sumpfschnecke] marsh tom-tit, reed-muskin or titmouse. — mewe, f. the great sea-swallow, pratincola. — milbe, f. tick, acarus, sheeptick. — nagel, m. a reed-nail [for fastening reeding to the wall]. — pfeife, f. 1) oaten pipe, reed-pipe, reed; [in organs] funnel-pipe. 2) [in vitriol-manufactories] the copperas reed-pipe [on which the vitriol crystalizes]. — reher, m. V. — dommel. — sänger, m. pincock or tom-tit of the reeds. — schelle, f. [in organs] V. — pfeife. — schiene, f. clouts, for making gun-barrels. — schilf, n. marsh-reed, common water-reed. — schloß, n. [with locksmiths] pipe - padlock. — schmieb, m. gun-barrel smith. — schneppfe, f. the reed-snipe. — schwalm, m. V. — mewe. — seßfel, m. V. — stuhl. — spalter, m. [a workman] reed-splitter. — sparren, m. a roof-rafter of reeds. — spag, m. 1) [Weutelmeyer] the Polish tom-tit. 2) V. Bergspertling. 3) V. — verling 1). — spertling, m. 1) [Art Ammern] reed-ortolan, water chaffinch, water-sparrow. 2) V. — sänger. 3) V. — droßel. — stab, m. cane. — steine, pl. [zoophytes] straight-stalked and branched tubipores or tubularia. — stengel, m. the blade or culm of the reed. — stift, m. [in a weaver's slay-reed] reed-blade. — stod, m. 1) walking-cane. 2) [with copper-smiths] little anvil or rod for hammering the iron-tube-plates round upon. — stosse, f. reed-sickle [for cutting off the reeds in a pond above the ice]. — stosgras, n. V. — glanz. — stuhl, m. cane-seat or chair, rush-chair, rush-bottomed chair. — stuhlflechter, m. a workman who makes straw, rush or cane-seats to chairs. — teich, m. reed-pond. — vogel, m. V. — droßel. — wand, f. reed-lined or reed-covered wall. — wein, m. [rather unusual] sugar-cane wine. — werk, n. reed-work, rush-work, cane-work; [in organs] V. Schnarrwerk. — wiese, f. reedy meadow. — zirkel, m. [with gunsmiths] gunsmith's compasses or calibers.

Röhrchen, n. [-s, pl. -] V. under Rohr and Röhre.

Röhre, f. [pl. -n], dim. Röhrchen, || Röhrlein, n. [-s, pl. -] 1) [from rühren = to hollow] — der Füchse, Dachs, des Kaninchens &c., the earth of the fox, burrow of the badger, rabbit &c. 2) [immediately from Rohr] [any hollow body, such as] a pipe, a tube, V. Rohr. Die — eines Ofens, the funnel, chimney-pipe or flue of a German stove &c.; — einer Pumpe, cylinder of a pump; die — zu Wasserleitungen, conduit-pipes; das Wasser in — n leiten, to conduct water by pipes or through canals; die — n eines Röhrbrunnens, fountain-pipes [for bringing the water]; it. pipes of a fountain for letting out the water or through which the water spurts out; die — eines Springbrunnens, canal, pipe, tube, cylinder, playing or jet pipe of an artificial fountain; — eines heimlichen Gemaches, the canal of a Continental house-privy; it. funnel-pipe or flue of a water-closet; — einer Spritze, Feuerpistole, tube or barrel of a syringe or squirt, tube of a fire-engine; — eines Wetterglases, eines Wärmemessers, tube of a weather-glass, of a thermometer; die Toricellische —, the Toricellian tube; — einer Gießkanne, spout of a can or watering-pot; — einer Dachrinne, spout of a house-gutter; — eines Leuchters, socket of a candlestick or sconce; — einer Lampe, lamp-socket; die hölzerne — an einem Mahlgange, a miller's scuttle; die — in der Hintermauer eines Schmelzofens, towel of a furnace; — an einem Blasebalg, nozzle, snout; — am Helme eines Destillirkolbens, the beak of a still; [with chemists] das Röhrchen, brass-pipe for luting; [with surgeons] cannula, pipe for a sore, it. V. Spritzröhrchen; [in anatomy] — n, hollow bones, ossa cava; V. Arm —, Harn —, Luft —, Mark —; die Eustachische —, the Eustachian tube; das Röhrlein [Schienbein], the tibia; [in botany] — der einblattigen Blumenkrone, the tube of the monopetalous corolla; [with turners] gouge for the rough; [in nat. hist.] V. — nschnecke.

Röhrbein, n. [in anatomy] the hollow bone of the thigh, os cavum. — blech, n.

iron-plate for the tube of a German stove. — brunnen, m. fountain. Ein — brunnen mit sechs Röhren, a fountain with six pipes. — büchse, f. iron ring for binding two water-pipes, it. box of pipes or of fountain-ducts [for connecting two pipes of a fountain]. — erz, n. brown cylindrical hematite. — fisch, m. V. Pfeisefisch. — gebiss, — geschwür &c., V. Rohrgebiss &c. — hahn, m. fountain-key or cock. — hobel, m. [with gunsmiths] gouge. — hohlschnauze, f. a fish-tribe, the solenostoma. — holz, n. 1) [in hydraulics] wood for making pipes, tubes, canals, ducts, conduits. 2) [in botany] lonicera, upright honeysuckle &c., V. Heckentische 1). — kanne, f. can with a stop-cock. — kasten, m. fountain-basin, fountain-reservoir. — knochen, m. V. Röhre [in anatomy]. — kraut, n. V. Wenzeln. — meister, m. V. — enmeister. — messer, n. reed-splitter, rush-splitter or splitting-knife. — teich, m. pond supplied by pipes. — trog, m. V. — kasten. — wasser, n. pipe-water, canal-water, conduit or cistern-water; it. fountain-water. — wunde, f. V. — geschwür.

Röhrenbaum, m. [spanischer Holunder] lilac-tree. — blech, n. sheet-iron, iron-plate. — blume, f. the siphonanthus. — böhre, m. auger or wimble for wooden water-pipes. — büchse, f. V. Röhrbüchse. — fahrt, f. [in hydraulics] a series or chain of water-pipes, a water-conduit. — fisch, m. trumpet-fish, scolopax. — formig, adj. and adv. tubular, tubiformed, like a pipe, pipe-shaped; [in botany] tubulated, tubulous, fistulous, fistular. — holz, n. V. Röhrholz. — hülse, f. [in botany] V. Hartriegel 1). — fern, m. [with founders] bore-rod or joint of a pipe or funnel-mould. — fitt, m. [in hydraulics] cement or mortar for the clay-pipes. — knochen, m. V. Röhrknochen. — kocher, m. tubulus marinus fistulatus, the fistular tubulary. — kralle, f. tubipore. — krabbe, f. the tubular crab. — leitung, f. V. — fahrt. — loth, n. solder for pipes. — meister, m. the surveyor or inspector of public fountains, a sort of master of the works. — platte, f. leaden plate or sheet-lead, roll lead for pipes. — schnecke, f. 1) pennicillus, worm-shell. 2) [die Röhre] tubulus marinus. — schwamm, m. fistular sponge. — weide, f. V. Hartriegel 1).

Röhreln, v. tr. [unusual, except with gardeners] to fit or furnish with a little pipe or tube; to inoculate or bud [in flute].

1. Röhren, I. v. intr. V. Rieseln; [said of dry substances] [also in Röhren fließen, of liquid bodies] to fall by bits, to drip. II. v. tr. to fit or provide with a pipe or tube, to put a tube in or on to any thing.

2. Röhren, v. intr. [in Lower Sax. rahren, Engl. to roar = laut schreien, brüllen] [with sportsmen, speaking of the stag's cry] to bell, to bellow, to croyn, to bray as the stag.

Röhricht, adj. and adv. like a reed &c., V. Rohr.

Röhricht, adj. and adv. like a tube or pipe &c., V. Röhre.

1. Röhricht, Röhrig, n. [-es, pl. -e] a place covered with reeds, reed-plot, reed-bed, reed-thicket. Er versteckte sich in dem — e, he hid himself amongst the reeds.

2. Röhricht, Röhrig, n. [-es, pl. -e] [from röhren = rieseln] small particle or grain of any thing that crumbles away from the parent mass &c. through crevices &c.; [with glass-makers] broken particles of glass, glass-rubble.

Röhrig, adj. and adv. — er Teich, — e Seegend, a reedy pond, country.

Röhrig, adj. and adv. containing pipes or tubes; made of tubes or pipes; [in anatomy] fistular; [in botany] tubular, tubulated.

|| Röhrlein, n. [-s, pl. -] V. under Rohr and Röhre.

Röhrleinbaum, m. [in Asia, Africa &c.] cassia, pudding-pipe-tree. — kraut, n. V. Röhrkraut. — wurm, m. phryganea, phryganium, cade-worm, caddis, hemerobius.

Röhrsen, V. Röhreln.

Röhrling, m. [-es, pl. -e] [from 2. röhren = to cry] [Hausunke] earth-toad.

Röjen, v. intr. [in seamen's language] [rudern] to row, be making head-way, waft, glide, go through the water [as a row-boat &c.]. Das —, the going through the water or making head-way from rowing, the rowing.

Röjebank, f. [Ruderbank] thwart, bench, bank or seat of a boat, oar-bench, the thwarts. — lampe, f. [in seamen's language] row-lock of the gun-wale.

Röjer, m. [-s, pl. -] [in seamen's language] [Ruderer] a rower.

Rölade, f. [pl. -n] [with cooks] roulade.

Roland, m. [-s, pl. -e] 1) [proper name] Roland. 2) Fig. [Riese] giant, gigantic person. Der — von Bremen &c., the [well-known] stone statue of a giant knight at Bremen &c.

Rolandsbegen, m. sword of Roland, durandal; it. the sword of a Roland or giant. — distel, f. eryngo, sea-holly. — rose, f. a stately tall rose-tree or bush. — statue, f. Roland's statue [at Bremen &c.].

Röling, m. [-es, pl. -e] the edible or green aquatic frog.

Rölle, f. [pl. -n] [V. Rollen], dim. Röllchen, n. [-s, pl. -] 1) [in a bad sense] a gad-about, a street-walker, a trull, a quean. 2) something rolling, i. e. moving on its own axis. — um Etwas in die Höhe zu ziehen, a pulley; ein Flaschenzug mit zwei — n, a machine with two pulleys, a dispaston; — Etwas leicht fortzubewegen, a little wheel, a trundle, caster, roller; ein Bett, ein Lehnstuhl mit — n, a bed on casters, a truckle or trundle-bed, an arm-chair or easy-chair on casters, on wheels; die — n an der Spule eines Spinnrades, the spool-groove of a spinning-wheel [round which and the wheel the string runs simultaneously]; it. [in seamen's language] [der Logien] V. Log —; it. — [= Walze], roller; eine Last, einen Marmorblock &c. auf — n fortbewegen, to transport, to move along a burthen, a marble-block &c. upon rollers; it. a garden-roller; it. —, Röllchen, auf welchen man Draht wickelt, a spindle, spool, bobbin, quill round which thread is wound; ein Röllchen Seide, Eisenbraut &c., a bobbin-full of silk, coil of iron-wire; it. [with printers] the cylinder, roller [on which the carriage of the printing-press moves backwards and forwards]; [with copper-plate-printers] roller; it. [with weavers] roller; it. [in house-keeping] [= Mänge] a mangle; Wäsche durch die — gehen lassen, to put linen in the mangle, to have linen mangled, to mangle linen. 3) something rolled up, roll. Eine — Tabak, Papier, Band, Zeug, a roll of tobacco, a roll or scroll of paper, a roll of ribbon, stuff; ein Röllchen Tabak, a twist or small roll of tobacco-leaves; eine — Eisenblech, a roll of sheet-iron; eine — Kupferstiche, Landkarten &c., a roll of prints or copper-engravings, of maps &c.; eine — Stöckische [180 fish], a packet or bundle of dried cod-fish; eine — Geld, Dufaten, a rouleau or roll of money, ducats; it. [in fam. or popular lang.] eine — [= Locke], a lock, curl or ringlet of hair. 4) a roll or scroll [= writings, parchment-deeds, documents, formerly rolled up]; [in a more circumscribed sense] a) [= Verzeichniß] Er steht nicht auf meiner —, he does not stand upon my roll, scroll, list, catalogue. b) an actor's part. Die — n schreiben, vertheilen, to write, to distribute the parts; die — des Cäsar &c., the part, the character of Caesar &c.; aus der — fallen, to get out of one's part, out of one's cue, not to keep up the character to be represented. Fig. Er hat auch eine — dabei gespielt [= mitgewirkt], he had a part to play likewise in it, [fam.] he had a finger in the pie; eine große — spielen, to play a great part, to act conspicuously, to have a great share in the proceedings; er hat dabei eine schlechte, erbärmliche — gespielt, he played a bad, a sorry, a pitiful part in that business, he cut but a very poor, sorry figure, he made himself out a great tom-fool in that affair; er spielt seine — gut, spielt eine schöne —, he plays his part well, a fine part; eine solche — kleidet Sie nicht, kleidet Sie sehr übel, such a part becomes you not, suits you very indifferently; die — eines Verliebten spielen, to play the part of a lover. 5) [having the shape of a roll] Waaren in — n, goods in rolls; rolls of goods. Etwas in eine — zusammen wickeln, to do up any thing into a roll. 6) [something like a roll] [in architecture] a Doric lintel, hyperthyron, V. Bogen —, Seiten—. 7) [something on which an object is rolled] [with wax-chandlers] little wheel. 8) [any instrument for other bodies to roll upon] [with miners] trough, gutter, channel, passage, duct, furrow, drain. 9) standing sieve [for sifting earths, wheat &c. which roll over it]; V. Holzrutsche. 10) [in common people's lang.] large bell for the neck of a mule, ass, ram &c.; it. horse's bell or bells [when harnessed to a sledge]. 11) [in natural history] [= —schnecke] volute [univalve with spiral cone]; it. V. Walzenschnecke.

Rollen=band, n. rolled ribbon, ribband in roll, a roll of ribbon. —blech, n. flue-sheet-iron in rolls, roll-sheet-iron. —blei, n. rolled lead, sheet-lead, purified lead. —dach, n. [with silk-weavers] the model-loom for the low warp. —förmig, adj. and adv. roll-formed or shaped, cylindrical. —geschirr, n. harness furnished with bells. —kanaster, m. roll-canaster. —macher, m. pulley-maker. —register, n. [with velvet-weavers] oblong frame. —schnecke, f. volute, the mitre [univalve with spiral cone], V. Rote 11). —tabak, m. roll-tobacco.

Rollen, [Fr. rouler, in Britany ruila; allied to tröllen, (fam.) = to go, to roll along, i. e. to move] I. v. intr. 1) [u. w. seyn] to move. [low] Auf den Gassen herum — or streichen, to lounge, to stroll, to saunter about the streets. it. [in sportsmen's lang.] to be in heat, to rut. 2) [u. w. seyn] to move in, by or with a rolling motion, to roll. Einen Stein vom Berge — lassen, to let a stone roll down the mountain; die Kutschen — durch alle Straßen, über die Brücke, the coaches roll through or along all the streets, over the bridge; der Kalk, kleines Gestein rollte von der Mauer, the lime, small stones rolled [down] from the wall; die Erde rollt [more usual dreht or bewegt sich] um die Sonne, the Earth rolls round the Sun; [with poets] jedes — de Gestirn, each rolling star, each star revolving round us; eine große Thräne rollte ihm über die Wange, a great tear rolled down his cheek; seine Augen rollten, his eyes rolled, turned in his head; die über Felsen — de Flut, the flood rolling over rocks; die See rollt, the sea rolls, runs high. it. [in seamen's language] [= hin und her schwanke] to roll. Das Schiff rollt, the ship rolls, is rolling. 3) [u. w. haben] to move with a rolling rattling noise, to roll. Hörst du den Donner —? do you hear the thunder rolling? der Widerhall rollte durch das Thal, the echo rolled through the valley. II. v. tr. 1) to move any thing by rolling, to roll. Eine Kugel, ein Faß —, to roll a ball, a cask; Steine vom Berge in's Thal —, to roll down stones from the mountain into the valley; eine Last auf Walzen fort —, to roll along, to transport a burden upon rollers; aus einander —, to unroll; [with miners] die Erze —, to roll the ore through or along a wooden trough; die Augen im Kopfe —, herum —, to roll the eyes in one's head, to roll them about; Getreide, Erbsen —, to roll wheat, pease over a slanting sieve [for sifting them]; die Gerste —, to roll, to cleanse the barley; das Schrot in einer Mühle —, to roll the shot in a mill; it. der Strom rollt seine Wellen über Felsen, the stream rolls its waves over rocks. 2) to handle by rolling. Den Teig mit den Händen —, to roll the dough with one's hands; [with wax-chandlers] die Kerzen mit dem Rollholze —, to roll the tapers with the roller; den Thon zu den Tabakspfeifen —, to roll the pipe-clay; [with hatters] die Hüte mit dem Rollstocke —, to roll the hats with the roller; die Wäsche —, to roll or mangle, to calender linen. 3) [aufrollen] to roll up. Ein Stück Zeug —, to roll up a piece of stuff; ein Gemälde, Papier, Etwas auf eine Walze —, to roll up a picture, paper, any thing round a roller; das — der Kutschen, der Augen, the rolling &c. of the coaches, of the eyes; das — des Donners, the rolling of the thunder. III. v. refl. sich —, to roll spontaneously, to coil, to curl, to roll up. Die Haare — sich [in fam. or pop. language], the hair curls naturally.

Roll=apfel, m. V. Klapperapfel. —bank, f. [in seamen's lang.] roller to pass the cables from one place to another. —baum, m. [with miners] V. Haspelbaum; it. V. Drehstuhl. —bett, n. bed with casters, trundle-bed, truckle-bed. —blei, n. roll-lead. —boden, m. V. —hammer. —bret, n. a mangling-board; it. board on which any thing is rolled, a rolling-board; [with wax-chandlers] rolling-board. —brücke, f. a bridge on rollers. —eisen, n. iron for rolling any thing; it. the iron of a rolling-pin, of a roller. —eisen der Strumpfwirker, a stocking-weaver's roller. —erde, f. 1) [with miners] loose friable earth. 2) sifted earth. —faß, n. [with pin-makers] bran-tub or vessel for drying the pins. —fuhr, f. a vehicle, a car on rollers. —gerste, f. winter barley. —handtuch, n. the long-towel, round-towel. —holz, n. 1) rolling-pin, roller; [with wax-chandlers] roller; [with earthen-ware potters] rolling-pin; it. [for charts and maps] roller; [with printers] moulinet, cylinder, roller [for the proof-sheets]. 2) horn-beam or yoke-elm-wood. —hügel, m. [in anatomy] the apophysis of the thigh, trochanter. —hammer, f. [Manghammer] mangling-room, calender-room. —kasten, m. the chest or box of a mangle; [with miners] ore-chest of a stamping-mill. —korb, m. filled gabion. —kuchen, m. [with pastry-cooks] rolled fritter, roll-pancake. —maus, f. dormouse, rell-mouse. —messing, n. roll sheet-brass. —mühle, f. V. —eisen. —muskel, m. [in anatomy] rotator-muscle. —muskel des Auges, the trochlearis, the grand oblique. —muskelnerve, m. the trochlearis nerve, pathetic nerve. —ofen, m. portable oven, oven on casters. —pferd, n. wooden horse on casters; [in seamen's lang.] V. Raper. —pflaster, n. [with druggists] magdalen, roll-plaster. —podwerk, n. [with miners] a stamper with hopper. —quehle, f. 1) V. —handtuch. 2) envelope or cover for linen while in the mangle. —schacht, m. [with miners] shaft for rolling or transporting earth. —schicht, f. [with masons] layer of stone of the thickness of the wall. —schlange, f. a species of tubulus marinus or sea-pipe-worm, the spirorbis. —sessel, m. chair on casters or rollers. —stein, m. garden-roller. —stock, m. [with makers of fireworks] rolling-stick or pin for rocket-cartridges; it. [with hatmakers] spindle-roller. —stuhl, m. arm-chair on casters. —tabak, V. Rollentabak. —tonne, f. V. Polirfaß. —tuch, n. 1) V. —quehle. 2) [in sportsmen's language] nets with rings. —vogel, m. [with fowlers] decoy bird. —vorhang, m. [Routenau] blind. —wagen, m. 1) a sledge-vehicle, a cart on runners, a kind of sled. 2) a light two-wheeled vehicle, a gig, a market-cart; it. car with seats or a bench. 3) a child's go-cart. —walze, f. rolling-pin, roller, cylinder [of a calender or mangle]; it. peritrochium, roll, axis, axle-tree, roller, winch. —wäsche, f. linen for mangling; it. linen that has been mangled [instead of ironed]. —werk, n. a work moveable on rollers. —zeit, f. [in sportsmen's language] rutting-season, season for being in heat or pride [for beasts of prey]. —zeug, 1) m. stuff that is clouded or watered, waved, tabbled, calendered. 2) n. V. —wäsche. —zwehle, f. V. —handtuch.

Röller, m. [-s, pl. -] 1) [unusual] one who rolls any thing. 2) [for linen] mangle, calender; [for pipe-clay] roller; [for tobacco] roller. 3) [provincial] V. Rater. 4) [Mandelfröhe] the jay of Alsace, the roller, [also] German parrot.

Roman, m. [-es, pl. -e] [Fr. roman, allied to romance, a tale], dim. [almost exclusively in a bad or in a comic sense] Romänchen, || Romänlein, n. [-s, pl. -] novel, romance. Der Held, die Heldinn eines —es, the hero, the heroine of a novel or romance; Etwas in einen — einwickeln, to clothe any thing with or in the garb of a novel or romance; to give any thing a romantic look.

Romanen=dichter, m. —dichterin, f. a novel-writer, a romance-writer, a novelist, [in a bad sense] a romancer, a romance-scribbler. Die alten —dichter, the old romancers. —held, m. —heldinn, f. 1) hero, heroine of a romance, of a novel. 2) [in a bad sense] a person with a too romantic turn [of mind], too romantic in one's behaviour; it. a confirmed novel-reader. —lesen, n. [in a bad sense] —leserei, f. romance-reading, novel-reading. —leser, m. —leserin, f. a romance-reader, a novel-reader. —mäßig, V. Romanhaft. —sammlung, f. collection of romances, novels, tales, fabulous narratives. —schmierer, m. [low, in great contempt] a [fertile] romance-scribbler of the worst description, a regular hack of a romance-scribbler, a mongrel spawner of romances. —schreiber, m. [often in a bad sense] novel-writer; romance-scribbler. —schreiben, n. [chiefly in contempt] —schreiberei, f. novel-writing, the art of romance, novel or tale-writing, the inditing romantic tales; romance-scribbling. —schriftsteller, m. novel-writer, novelist. —schriftstellerei, f. novel-writing, V. —schreiber. —streich, m.

adventure, feature of the novel-hero or heroine; it. a romantic act. Sie hat in ihrer Jugend mehrere — streiche gespielt, she has played or done several romantic things, she has had several romantic adventures in her youth. — styl, m. novel-style, romantic style.

Romänhaft, adj. and adv. romantic. Das klingt —, ist —, that sounds romantic, borders on the romantic, is romantic; it. that sounds rather out of the way; dies ist — geschrieben, this is written romantically; — fühlen, to feel romantic, to be romantic, of a romantic disposition.

Romänien, n. [-s] [in geography] Romania.

Romänisch, adj. and adv. from or of Romania, Romanian; Romaic. — er Wein, Romanian wine; die — e Sprache, Romansh, [as spoken under the two first French dynasties and as it is still spoken by the Grisons]; [in architecture] — e Treppe, a staircase with climbing breadths or slanting string-boards in lieu of abrupt steps, and which may be ridden up; [with fire-work artificers] — es Licht, a Roman candle.

Romantisch, adj. and adv. romantic.

Romanze, f. [pl. -n] [V. Roman] a short poetical narrative; a romance; a ballad; [in music] romanza.

1. Römer, m. [-s, pl. -] [probably allied to Raum, Engl. room; Isl. rum &c.] 1) [drinking-glass] a rummer. 2) the council-house at Frankfort on the Maine.

2. Römer, m. [-s, pl. -], — inn, f. 1) a Roman. Die alten —, the old or ancient Romans; er ist ein —, sie ist eine — inn, he is, she is a Roman, [now] from or of Rome. 2) [in botany] Die — inn, V. Tollkirsche.

Römermonat, m. [in German history] contribution of the states of the German Empire to a common war, Roman-month. — z in *z*ahl, f. [in chronology, a returning series of fifteen years] indiction. — zug, m. [in German history] journey of the elected Roman King to Rome for his coronation; Roman expedition.

Römisch, adj. and adv. Roman, of Rome. — er Kaiser, the Roman Emperor; der — e König [in German history] [the title of the son and successor to a German Emperor] the king of the Romans; — gekleidet, clad in the Roman garb or fashion; — e Nase, a Roman nose; [in architecture] — e Ordnung, the composite order; — er Alaun, rock-alum; — er Vitriol [blauer], Roman or blue vitriol; — er Wermuth, Pontic mugwort; — er Kümmel, cummin; — es Roth, kind of red ochre, Roman red; die — e Kirche, the Roman [catholic] church, the church of the Pope, the papal religion; die — e Religion, the Roman catholic religion; ein — er, ein — katholischer Christ, a Roman, a Roman Catholic, [in a bad sense] a Papist.

Römpennuß, f. [pl. -nüsse] V. Muskatnuss.

Röndatsche, f. [pl. -n] [obsolete] [Rund] [schild] a round buckler or shield.

Rönde, f. [in the army] V. Runde.

Röndeau, [pron. as in the French] n. [-s, pl. -r] V. Rundgesang.

Röndel, n. [-es, pl. -e] 1) [in architecture] rotunda. 2) a round place, a ring. 3) [in fortification] a horse-shoe. 4) V. Rundschild.

Röof, m. [-es, pl. -e] [in seamen's lang.] the cook-room in a ship, caboose.

Rooßbalken, m. post of or to the caboose.

Rooß, n. [-es] [probably allied to frauß, & reffe] [in common people's language] V. Hönigwabe.

Rooßbär, m. V. Honigbär. — sprosse, f. cross wood or hive-beam.

Roquesäure, [pron. as in the French] m. [-s, pl. -s] riding-cloak, roquelaure.

Rösa, f. V. 1. Rose.

Rösa, adj. and adv. V. Rosenfarben.

Rosalie, f. [-nē, pl. -n] [name of women] Rosalia, Rosalie.

Rosamünde, f. [-nē, pl. -n] [name of women] Rosamunda, Rosamond.

Rosarium, n. [-s, pl. Rosarien] V. Rosenkranz.

Rösch, [also räsch], [allied to reissen = to break] adj. and adv. [in fam. or pop. lang.] — es, — gebackenes Brod, well baked bread; die Kruste an diesem Brode ist nicht — ge nug, the crust of this loaf is not baked enough; — es, — gebratenes Fleisch, well done meat, meat well done, roasted to a turn, to a titlle, to a T.; it. — es Erz [with miners], ore slightly stamped or pounded; — es Häuptel, Hebel, ore-slime slightly or gently crushed and pounded.

Röschgewächs, n. [with miners] silver-ore containing sulphur, black prismatic silver.

Röschheit, f. quality or state of that which is well cooked, well done, done brown or crisp.

Rösche, f. [pl. -n] [allied to the old riesen, to rieseln = to move] 1) [Wasseraraben] ditch, gutter, trough, canal, furrow for the flowing off of the waters in a mine. 2) first trench or ditch opened in a soil to be worked by miners. — n treiben, to make the trench, to begin the trenching in a soil containing ore. 3) [in hydraulics] slope or bias of a flat soil or of a river.

Röscherschlämm, m. [with miners] coarse washed ore; it. coarse slime deposited in the first buddles.

Röschen, v. tr. [with miners] to conduct a canal, ditch, furrow &c.

1. Röschen, n. [-s, pl. -] [name of women; dim. for Rose and for Rosalie] little Rosa, Rosette, [fam.] Rosy-posy; it. little Rosalie

2. Röschen, n. [-s, pl. -] dim. of 2. Rose, which see.

1. Röse, f. [-nē] [also Rösa, -s] [name of women, contraction of Rosalie] Rosa.

2. Röse, f. [pl. -n] [appears to belong to the old riesen, to the Lat. cresco, to grow, and so originally to have meant merely a vegetable, a plant, or growth], dim. Röschen, Röslein, n. [-s, pl. -] 1) [especially, name of several plants] Die chinesische —, hibiscus. rosa sinensis, Chinese rose; die — von Jericho, honey-suckle, the rose of Jericho, Anastatica [= Geißblatt]; V. also Geld —, Klapper —, Sammet — &c. 2) [Lat. rosa, Fr. rose, probably allied to roth, Low. Sax. roos] the rose. Die gemeine, wilde —, the simple, wild rose, the eglantine or sweet wood-brier; V. Hag —, Hundes —; die gefüllte —, hundertblättrige —, the double rose, the hundred-leaved rose; die weiße, rothe —, a) the white, the red rose, b) fig. [in English history] die weiße und die rothe —, the house of York and Lancaster; — n brechen, to pluck or gather roses; wie eine — blühen, to bloom, to be fresh as a rose. Prov. Zeit bringt — n, time brings roses, every thing to pass, [fam.] wait and it will come; die schönste — wird endlich zur Hagebutte, the finest rose at last becomes a hip or haw, the finest flower must fade in time, the finest beauties are subject to decay, beauty is but skin-deep, and does not last for ever. Fig. Dein Weg sey mit — n bestreut! [poetical or emphatical] may thy path be strewn with roses! auf — n gehen, to walk upon roses; to have every thing to one's wish; to be born with a silver-spoon in one's mouth. 3) [in poetic style] Die — n [= die Rosenfarbe]. Die — n ihrer Wangen, the roses, roseate beauty of her cheeks. 4) certain artificial figures resembling a rose. Eine — von Bändern, von Diamanten, a rose, rosette of ribbons. a rose-cluster of diamonds; eine — an den Fenster Scheiben, a Gothic rose-window [where the panes in the middle formed a rose]; [in architecture] — von Gips &c., a rose of plaster of Paris &c.; [with hatters] a round coat of glue in the crown of the hat, a rosette; [with lute and piano-makers] the sound-hole of a lute, of a piano, the rose; [with harness-makers] the ornament on the knee of the bridle-bit, rose; [with carpenters] a boss in timber, a rose; [with steel-manufacturers] an iris-coloured flaw in steel, a rose-flaw. 5) [probably closely allied with frauß] a) an excrescence on the leaves of the willow &c., the rose-gall. b) [in sportsmen's language] Die — am Hirschgeweih, the start on a stag's antlers; die — am Döchte eines Lichtes, the thief, letter, messenger, [if large] rose, funeral-plumes, hearse-feathers in the wick of a candle. 6) [closely allied to roth] [in nat. hist.] Die glatte — [bivalve, allied to the muscels], the burred roseate tellina; it. V. Seestern. 7) [allied to roth, low Sax. roos] the erysipelas, St. Anthony's fire.

Rosenader, f. [in anatomy] saphena, mother-vein. — affe, m. arikima, little lionape. — akazie, f. rose-acacia. — aloe, f. the roseate aloe, rose-aloe. — apfel, m. 1) rose-apple. 2) V. Hagebutte. 3) the eglantine, sweet-brier. 4) [in the East Indies] the apple-rose of India, sialit. 5) [Schlafapfel] reddish-green agaric on the branches of a dog-rose or wild rose-bush. — artig, adj. and adv. of the nature of the rose, rosy; [in botany] rosaceous, rosiform. Die — artigen Pflanzen, the rosaceous plants, the rosaceae; [in medicine] erysipelatous. — aufguß, — auszug, m. infusion, extract of roses. — balsam, m. balm of roses. — band, n. rose-coloured ribbon, rosy ribband. Fig. fillet, band or chain of roses. — baum, m. 1) rose-tree. 2) [Alprose] Alpine rose. 3) [Stiftrosenbaum] rosebay, oleander. — beere, f. V. Hagebutte. — bett, n. a rose-bed, rose-parterre. — bez frängt, adj. and adv. rose-crowned, crowned with roses. — bestreut, adj. and adv. strewn or sown with roses. — bett, n. [with poets] a bed or couch of roses. — biene, f. the carpenter-bee, apis centuncularis. — birn, f. bergamot-pear; rose-water pear. — blatt, n. a rose-leaf. — blume, f. [in nat. hist.] rosaceous echinus, the rose-urchin. — blüte, f. the rose, rose-blossom; it. [in botany] a rose-like flower. — bock, m. the musk-beetle, bison-cerambyx. — bohrrer, m. the gall-fly of the rose. — brod, n. V. — fuden. — busch, m. rose-bush. — conserve, f. conserve of roses. — bistel, f. eryngo. — dorn, m. the sweet-brier; it. dog-rose, wild brier. — duft, m. smell, fragrance, odour, exhalation of the rose; [with poets] perfume, rosy fragrance. — düfte durchwürrten die Luft, balmy odours perfumed the air. — er be se, f. [with the flowers in umbels] rose or crown-pea. — etz, n. V. Blesenerz. — essenz, f. extract of roses. Orientalische — essenz, ottar of roses. — essig, m. rose-vinegar. — extract, m. V. — auszug. — farb, — farben, — farbig, adj. and adv. roseate, rosy. — farbiges Band, — farbiges Taft, rose-coloured ribbon, pink-taffety; — farbiger Wein, wine of lively red [as pink-champagne], [with English poets] Shiraz wine, rosy wine; V. Rosenroth. — farbe, f. rose-colour, pink, rosy hue or dye. Eine schöne — farbe, a beautiful pink. — feld, n. 1) field of roses, planted with or grown over with roses [as in Persia &c.], V. — garten. 2) Rosenfeld [name of a little town in the Württemberg part of the Black Forest]. — fest, n. [in France] the feast of roses. — finger, m. rosy finger [of Aurora]. — fingerig, adj. and adv. rosy-fingered [as Aurora]. — gang, m. alley of roses. — garten, m. 1) a rose-garden. 2) [the name of the Gulistan, a celebrated Persian poem] the rose-garden. — gebüsch, n. thicket of roses. — geländer, n. an espalier furnished with roses. — glut, f. [with poets] rosy glow. Die — glut ihrer Lippen, her rosy lips; die — glut des Morgenhimmels, the roseate glow of the morning-skies [at dawn]. — gut, n. rose-leaved sulphate of zinc. — häger, m. pink pippin. — hain, m. a grove of roses. — hecke, f. hedge of roses. — holder, m. the Guelder rose. — holz, n. 1) wood of the rose-tree. 2) the rhododendron, mountain-rose. — holzöl, n. oil of Rhodium. — honig, m. [with apothecaries] honey of roses, rhodomel. — käfer, m. the gold-beetle. — kühchen, n. 1) the rosy-breasted variety of the male bullfinch. 2) the cardinal grossbeak of Louisiana. — kränze, f. wreath, garland, fillet of roses. Fig. V. — band. — knope, m. 1) [rather coarse] V. — knope. 2) [a species of bulla] the rosebud. — knope, f. a rosebud. — krantz, m. 1) a chaplet or crown of roses. 2) [with Catholics] [Vateroster] rosary, chaplet of beads, paternoster. Den or seinen — krantz beten, to tell one's beads; die Bruderschaft des — krantzes, the brotherhood of the rosary or of our lady of the rosary. 3) [a kind of zoophyte] rosaceous sertularia. — krantzformig, adj. and adv. bead-formed, rosary or chaplet-formed; [in botany] moniliform. — krantz mühle, f. [in hydraulics] chain-pumpwork. — krantzstaube, f. bladder-nut tree, staphylea. — kreuzer, m. a Rosicrucian. — kreuzung, f. [in seamen's language] rose-bridles. — kuchen, m. [with confectioners, it. with apothecaries] rose-cake. — kühlein, n. diarhodon, rose-drops, rose-lozenge. — kupfer, n. V. Sein kupfer. — lach, m. salmon returning from the sea; [in Yorkshire] [for the second year] spred, [for the third] mort, [for the fourth] fork-tail, [for the fifth] half-fish. — lager, n. couch of roses. V. — bett. — laube, f. bower or arbour of roses, a rose-summer-house. — lauch, m. pink-flowered garlic, rose-garlic. — laus, f. the rose-puceron, rose-aphis. — lippen, pl. rosy lips, vermilion lips. — lorbeer, m. V. — baum 2) 3). — mädchen, n. 1) [at the feast of the roses] the Queen of the roses. 2) a rose-girl, flower-girl who sells roses, rose-chaplets. — mehl, n. powdered rose-leaves. — melbe, f. rosa-ceous orach. — monat, — mond, m. the rose-month, month when roses blow. Fig. Im — mond der Liebe [with poets], in the first rosy or blissful time of love, in the budding-time of love. — mund, m. 1) [with poets] rosy mouth. 2) [in nat. history] a) [bulla achatina] the red partridge. b)

[a species of mitre-shell] the false Midas' ear. — mundig, adj. and adv. rosy-mouthed. it. — mundige Schnirkelschnecke, V. — mund b). — muschel, f. [a bivalve] rose-coloured tellina. — narzisse, f. [in botany] double-daffodil. — nobel, m. [an old coin] a rose-noble. — nobelgold, n. [formerly] [twenty three carats and a half fine] rose-noble gold. — öl, n. rose-oil. — pappel, f. 1) vervain mallow. 2) [Stiefrose] rose-mallow. — reich, adj. and adv. rich in roses, rosy: — roth, l. adj. and adv. rosy red. — rothes Band &c., pink ribbon &c.; — rother Mund, rosy mouth; — rother Wein, wine of a pale red, pink wine, rosy wine; [in mineralogy] — rother Quarz, [a variety of rock crystal] rosy quartz, V. Mischquarz. II. n. rose-red, pink. — safft, m. syrup of roses. — salbe, f. rose-ointment. — schwamm, m. the gall of the dog-rose or rosa canina; [in commerce] bedegua, bedeguar [spongia rosae]. — sirup, m. V. — safft. — sonntag, m. [with Catholics, the third Sunday before Easter] the Sunday on which the Pope used to consecrate golden roses intended for presents, rose-Sunday. — spath, m. rose-spath. — stein, m. 1) [in mineralogy] rhodite. 2) [with jewellers] [Rosette] a) cluster of diamonds as a rose; b) a diamond the facets of which are cut like a rose, a rose-diamond. 3) the Rosenstein [name of several princely country-houses in Germany, one of the best known of which is the beautiful villa of the king of Württemberg near Stuttgart]. — stock, m. 1) the rose-tree, rose-shrub, rose-bush. 2) [in sportsmen's language] head [to a stag's antlers]. — strauch, m. rose-shrub, rose-bush. Witz der — strauch, dog-rose, dog-brier, wild rose-bush. — strauß, m. a nosegay of roses. — thal, n. 1) valley of roses; vale covered with rose-trees. 2) name of several places in Germany; it. the well-known grounds near Leipzig. — tücher, pl. [in commerce] V. Gärz befäpchen. — wange, f. [with poets] rosy or roseate cheek, a cheek of roses. Ihre — wangen verbleichten, the roses on her cheeks are faded, withered away. — wasser, n. rose-water, otto, ottar or attar of roses, yatar-gul. — weg, m. 1) road bordered with rose-bushes. 2) path strewn with roses. — wegerich, m. the rose-plantain. — weide, f. rose-willow. — weiderich, m. marsh-epilobium, marsh-willow-herb or loose-strife, marsh-marigold. — wein, m. rose-wine. — wickler, m. rose tailor-caterpillar. — wurzel, f. Rhodia radix, rose-root, rhodiola, roseal orpine. — zeit, f. the season of roses. — zinn, n. tin having an alloy of one lb of lead to every 15 lb of tin, rose-tin; it. fine tin, block tin. — zucker, m. conserve of sugar and rose-leaves, rose-sugar.

1. *Rosette, f. [name of women] [-nē, pl. -n] [Röschen] Rosetta.

2. *Rosette, f. [pl. -n] [with jewellers] [Rosenstein] a rose-diamond, a diamond with facets to imitate a rose.

Rosettenstempel, m. [with white-smiths] a rose-stamp.

Rösicht, Rösig, adj. and adv. rosy, roseal, roseate, pink, red, vermilion as the rose. — es Mädchen, a girl fresh as a rose, with a rosy complexion; ihre — en Wangen &c., her rosy, roseate cheeks &c.; die — eschreibart von Hafiz &c., the rosy, flowery style of Hafiz [the Persian poet] &c.

1. *Rosine, f. [-nē, pl. -n] [name of women] Rosina.

2. *Rosine, f. [pl. -n] [Fr. raisin, a grape], dim. Röschen, || Röslein, n. [-s, pl. -] 1) [getrocknete Weinbeere] dried raisin. Große — n, raisins of Damascus; kleine — n, currants. 2) Falsche — n, Alpine currants.

Rosin=farbe, f. raisin-colour. — farben, — roth, adj. and adv. of the colour of a dried raisin, chiefly of currants, it. [old] V. Hochroth.

Rosinen=bad, n. [in medicine] bath prepared with the pulp of raisins, a raisin-bath. — brühe, f. raisin-sauce. — käfer, m. V. Rosenkäfer. — kuchen, m. plum-cake. Ein kleiner, flacher — kuchen, a plum-bun. — mann, m. a mannikin made of raisins [for children]. — meth, m. mead or hydromel of raisins, raisin-wine. — tunke, f. sauce, juice of raisins. — wein, m. raisin-wine.

*Rosmarin, m. [-es] 1) rosemary, ros marinus. 2) [Mutterkraut] wild rosemary, feverfew, motherwort. 3) [Berglavendel] mountain-lavender, germander of the mountains, mountain-germander. Der kleine wilde — V. — heide.

Rosmarin=blatt, n. rosemary leaf. — blüte, f. flower of rosemary; [with druggists and chemists] anthos. — essig, m. rosemary-vinegar. — geist, m. spirit of rosemary, Hungary-water. — heide, f. [in botany] rosemary-heath, turf-grass, peat-grass, rosemaryling. — kraut, n. a kind of laserpitium or lazarus-wort, libanotis. — öl, n. oil of rosemary. — stengel, m. stalk, stem of rosemary. — stock, m. rosemary-stock or plant. — strauch, m. rosemary-shrub. — wasser, n. rosemary-water. — weide, f. rosemary-leaved willow. — wein, m. rosemary-wine. — zweig, m. rosemary-twigs or branch.

*Rosoli, m. [-s] [from the Lat. ros solis, Sonnenthau] [a perfumed liqueur] Rosoli, ros-solis, [cant] sun-dew.

Rosolipflanze, f. [a plant] ros solis, rossolis, sun-dew.

Röß, adj. and adv. [low] [röthlich] reddish, ruddy.

1. Röß, n. V. Roß.

2. Röß, n. [-fies, pl. -ffe] [old hors, old Sax. hors, Bohem. or; Heb. ruz is to run; appears allied to rasch, reifen &c.], dim. Rößchen, || Rößlein, n. 1) [the highest word for horse] steed, horse; V. Krieger, — Schlacht, — Streiter, — Turnier — &c. Syn. V. Pferd. 2) [closely allied to reifen, reifen = to move; possibly also to Rost] [with cloth-weavers] —, Rößchen [Krämpfbank], the carder's long-stool, horse; [with belt-makers] a bench or stool on which the belt-work to be sewn is attached by a wooden catch, horse; [in architecture] gespanntes —, two beams curved towards each other for bearing weights arched or bent horse; [with cap-makers] a moveable triangular iron instrument, horse; [with miners] a coal-measure, four of which go to a ton, a quarter, a ross.

Ros=ader, f. great tendon of the horse's foot. — aloe, f. caballine or setid aloe. — ameise, f., — am pfer, m. V. Pferdeameise &c. — apfel, m. 1) horse-dung. 2) the rose-apple-tree of Malabar, sialite. — arbeit, f. V. Pferdearbeit. — arzenei, f. horse-physis, horse-medicine, horse-remedy; horse drench. Fig. [low, in contempt] a physis good only for a horse, too strong for the human body or constitution. — arzneifunde, — arzneifunst, f. veterinary art or science. — arzt, m. V. Pferdearzt. — bahre, f. [Eänfre] litter. — balsam, m. [—münze] horse-mint, water-mint, hoary calamint. — bauch, m. fig. [with common people] nick-name for great red plums. — beere, f. V. Feldbeere. — bezoar, m. V. Pferdestein. —bohne, f. dried bean, horse-bean. —breme, f. V. Viehbreme. —bube, m. [obsolescent] horse-boy, stable-boy. —decke, f. V. Pferdebedeckung. —dienst, m. knight-service, duty of following on horseback the lord of the manor or seigneur to the war; it. V. Pferdendienst. —dienstgeld, n. right of exemption from following on horseback the lord of the manor to war, redemption of knight-service. —dille, f. V. Pferdebidle. —breck, m. V. —fotb. —drossel, f. ring-ousel. —egel, m. horse-leech. —eisen, n. horse-shoe. —ente, f. common wild duck. —epich, m. Macerona, Smyrnium, Alexander. —farn, m. 1) V. Adlerfrucht. 2) [Engelsfuss] polypodium, polypody. —fenchel, m. 1) cicuta, cicutaria, water-hemlock. 2) hart-wort. 3) V. —fümmel. 4) V. Haarstrang [botany]. —fleisch, n. V. Pferdefleisch. —geier, m. V. Raageier. —gelb, n. V. Rauchgelb. —göpel, m. V. Pferdegoßel. —gras, n. V. Pferdegras. —haar, n. horse-hair. —haaren, —hären, adj. and adv. of horse-hair. —härener Zeug, —härenes Tuch, horse-hair stuff, horse-hair-seating. —handel, —händler, —hirsch, m. V. Pferdehandel &c. —huf, m. 1) V. Pferdehuf. 2) [in botany] [Hufstich] coltsfoot, tussilago, cactalia of the Alps. —läfer, m. black-beetle. Gehörnter —läfer, V. Hirschläfer. —kamm, m. 1) horse-comb. 2) curry-comb. Doppelter &c. —kamm, curry-comb with two rows &c. 3) Fig. [in familiar lang.] [= Pferdehändler] horse-dealer, horse-jockey. —kastanie, f. V. Pferdekastanie. —lette, f. V. Berglette. —kopf, m. 1) horse's head. 2) Fig. V. Quappe. —koth, m. horse-dung. —krücke, f. V. Schlammkrücke. —krücken, v. tr. to clean, to clear out with the great rake. —krücker, m. a cleaner or clearer out of ditches with the rake. —kümmel, m. ser-mountain, silver-mountain, bastard-lovage, seseli, wild spinage, laser-wort; it. V. —fenchel. —kunst, f. [Göpel] a gin or horse-mill put in motion by horse-power. —lattich, m. 1) V. Hufstich. 2) [a species of cactalia] tussilage, petasites, butter-bur. —lauf, m. horse-race or course. —leder, n. horse-leather. —linnen, n. strong and coarse linen. —mähne, f. a horse's mane. —markt, m. V. Pferdemarkt. —maul, n. 1) the mouth of a horse. 2) V. Watroß —mücke, f. V. Viehbreme. —mühle, f. horse-mill. —müller, m. the miller of a horse-mill. —münze, f. wild mint; it. watermint, water-balsam. —nagel, m. 1) V. Huf-nagel. 2) [in botany] —nagel, pl. grandiflorous gentian. —nessel, f. horse-nettle, stachys major Germanica. —nuß, f. V. Pferde-nuß. —pappel, f. 1) round-leaved mallow, little mallow. 2) [Hafenvappel] wild mallow. 3) a variety of the colts-foot, great petasites, butter-bur. —pfahl, m. a stake or picket for horses at camps. —pflaume, f. imperial plum. —polei, m. 1) V. —münze. 2) V. —nessel. —ramme, f. [in hydraulics &c.] a rammer worked by horse-power. —rippe, f. [a species of plantain] little plantain, lanceolate plantain. —rübe, f. V. Zaanrübe —sänfte, f. horse-litter, litter drawn or borne by horses. —schwanz, m. 1) horse-tail. 2) [in botany] a) [Kannenfrucht] horse-tail, shave-grass. b) [Sadebaum] a species of juniper, savin-tree, sabine-tree, sad-tree. 3) [Meervegetritt] ephedra maritima, uva marina, great sea-grape, shrubby sea-horse-tail, anabasis. —schwanzbaum, m. savin or sabine-tree. —schwefel, m. coarsest and first deposit of sulphur during refining used as a horse-medicine, horse-sulphur; stone-brimstone. —schweif, m. 1) a horse's tail; it. [with the Turks as an emblem of rank] horsetail. Ein Bassa or [now, more usual] Pascha von drei —schweif, a Pasha of three horse-tails, of three tails; it. [in Polish history] the standard of the life-guards. 2) [in botany] V. —schwanz; it. stinking horse-tail, aquatic horn-wort. —stall, m. V. Pferde-stall. —stange, f. [with stocking-weavers] rod of the horse. —stein, m. V. Pferdestein. —stert, m. 1) [familiar, in botany] the alopecurus pratensis, meadow-fox-tail. 2) [in nat. hist.] the libellula. —täuscher, m. V. —kamm 3). —täuscherei, f. horse-selling, horse-bartering. —veilchen, n. —viole, f. 1) V. Hundsvielfchen. 2) V. Grühlingsveilchen. —wall, m. [in commerce] the refuse or fag-ends of Russia-leather. —wärter, m. V. Pferdebedient. —wedel, m. 1) [in popular language, for —schweif] horse-tail, horse's-tail. 2) [an instrument made of horse-hair] a whisk of horse-hair. —weide, f. V. Bruchweide. —werk, n. [in the mint = Streckwerk] a flatter or flattening-machine worked by horse-power. —wicke, f. 1) V. Feldwicke. 2) mountain orobus, spring-heath-pea, mountain vetch-pea. —wurm, m. the intestinal worm of the horse. Kurzer, bicker —wurm, bot. horse-bot; it. V. —läfer. —wurzel, f. Weiße —wurzel, the stalkless caroline or carline-thistle, dwarf-thistle, wild artichoke, English thistle. —wurzel, f. V. Zaanrübe. —zähmer, m. [rather unusual] a breaker in [of horses], a jockey, horse-breaker. —zahn, m. 1) the tooth of a horse. 2) [in botany] black henbane. 3) [in mineralogy] variety of crystallized carbonate of lime. —zäum, m. —zücht, f. V. Pferdezüaum &c.

Rösselsprung, m. [at chess] knight's move or leap; [also] movements of the knight or horse checking the squares collectively within his controul, knight's guard.

Rössen, Rösseln, v. intr. 1) to be horsy or in heat [as the mare for the stallion]. 2) to smell of horses. Seine Kleider —, das Zimmer über dem Pferde-stall röselt, his clothes smell of horses, of the stable, the room over the stable smells of it.

Rössig, adj. and adv. horsy [as the mare], in heat.

Rösling, m. [-es, pl. -e] [allied to roth] early red-streaked pippin.

*Rössli, V. Rosoli.

1. Röst, m. [-es, pl. Röste] [allied to Reis, Ruthe, Erösse, and to the verb reisen, riefen = to move] 1) certain things consisting of parallel rods, or also rods lying over one another. — in einem Ofen, Kamine, auf einem Feuerherde, a grate in a German stove, chimney, on a hearth; [with cooks, for broiling] a gridiron; Bratwürste auf den — legen, über or auf dem — e braten, to lay sausages on the gridiron, to broil or grill sausages; ein Stück kalten Braten, einen Schlägel von einem gebratenen Huhn auf den — legen, to broil a piece of cold roast meat, the leg of a fowl, to make a grill of it; einen Schlägel von gebratenem Huhn mit Pfeffer und Senf auf den — legen, to devil the leg of a fowl, to make a devil or curry-grill out of a fowl's leg; der heilige Laurentius wurde auf einen — gelegt, St. Lawrence was broiled, grilled, or laid on a gridiron; it. [in architecture] a sort of foundation-frame-palisading; dieses Haus steht auf einem — e, this house stands upon piles and rafters, upon pattens; it. [in heraldry = das Helmgerüst] the bars of the visor, helmet-grating; it. [in hydraulics] — einer Schleuse, ground-timber frame of a sluice, sluice grating; — vor einer Röhre, a lead-sink-plate before a drain; it. [at tennis] the grill or hazard; it. der — einer Tragbahre, the rail-work or railing of a hand-barrow; it. [with weavers] an instrument for guiding the warp-threads that are to be shorn, grate. 2) something stratified; [with miners] a pyre of ore, wood and coals for expelling the sulphur &c. from the ore, the roasting heap or bed; einen — betten, aufsetzen, to make up, lay on or prepare the beds for roasting; den — abziehen, to remove the roasted ore; den — recht führen, to conduct the ore-roasting well; [in a more circumscribed sense, where it also might come from rößen] a) as much ore, wood and coals as belong to a roasting-pile or bed, roast, ore-roast, b) the roasted ore; den — wenden, to turn the roasted ore.

Röstbett, n. [with miners] the area, the place for roasting; it. the roasting. —braten, m. a broil, a grill, [if with mustard, pepper &c.] a devil; it. roast-beef. —brenner, m. [with miners] a workman charged with the roasting of the ore. —börrer, pl. [with miners] small spinous formations during the ore-roasting; the ore-roasting-thorns. —hütte, f. V. Rösthaus. —junge, m. [with miners] boy that breaks the ore and removes it to the place of roasting. —läufer, m. [with miners] the man who removes the roasted ore in a wheelbarrow. —meister, m. [with miners] he who inspects the rough work, the foundry-inspector. —pfahl, m. [in architecture] a pile to a grated wooden foundation-frame. —pfähle einschlagen, to drive in such piles, to pile. —platz, m. V. —stätte. —scheibe, f. toast, a slice of toasted or broiled bread. —schicht, f. [with founders] a cast of raw matt. —schläger, m. [with miners] workman who breaks the ore for the second roasting. —schoppen, m. [with miners] the shed to the roasting-place. —schwelle, f. [in architecture] joist, juffer, quarter, sill, cross-beam, rafter of a wooden grated foundation-frame. —stab, m. a bar of a gridiron, of a grate. —stadel, m. —stätte, f. [with miners] area, pile or pyre for ore-roasting; the ore-roasting spot, place or locality. —wender, m. [with miners] a workman who is charged with turning or stirring the ore while roasting. —zwitter, m. sixty tons or 180 cart-loads of ore or lode-earth.

2. Röst, m. [-es] [appears to be another form for Rüste] 1) rust, rustiness. Der — frist das Eisen, rust consumes, eats away iron; der — von Eisen [Eisen-, Eisen-flecke] in der Wäsche, iron-mould in linen; der — von Eisen ist ein starkes Arzneimittel, the oxyde of iron is a powerful remedy; vor dem — bewahren, to preserve from the rust, from rust or rusting; dem — e ausgesetzt seyn, to be liable to rust, to growing or getting rusty, rust-eaten; ein Messer vom — e säubern, to clean a knife from the rust, to take off or remove the rust; den — verlieren, to lose the rust. 2) [in botany] rust, rubigo, blast, smut, blight. Dieser Weizen ist voll —, this wheat is full of rust, smut; der weiße —, mildew, [low] mothery; der weiße — ist den Melonen am schädlichsten, the white rust, mildew is most pernicious to melons &c. 3) [with miners] martial flowers, flos ferri or Martis.

Röstbraun, V. —farben. —farbe, f. rust-colour. —farben, —farbig, adj. and adv. rust-coloured; [in botany] rubiginous. —flecken, m. mould, stain, speck or spot of rust. —flecken, n. [kind of porcelain-shell] the dragon-head, the dracuncul. —papier, n. rust-paper, sand-paper.

scouring-paper. —tute, f. the rusted ornet-shell. —weibe, f. the moor-buzzard, circus.

3 Röst, m. [-es] [in the mint] alloy [to silver and gold].

1. Röste, f. [pl. -n] [a word partly allied to 1. Rost, and partly to rösten] 1) [das Rösten] the roasting, torrefaction; the soaking or steeping of hemp, flax &c. 2) [V. 1. Rost 2) a] [with miners] the place or pyre itself of ore-roasting. 3) the batch of ore to be roasted. 4) [V. Rösten] [in household economy] the place where hemp &c. is steeped, the rating-pool; it. the batch of hemp &c. to be steeped or macerated.

2. Röste, f. [pl. -n] [allied to rōth, Lower Sax. rōs] [in trade] madder in powder.

Rösten, v. intr. [u. w. haben and seyn] to rust, to get or grow rusty. Seine Waffen — lassen, to let one's arms, weapons grow rusty; die Feuchtigkeit macht das Eisen &c. —, humidity or damp makes iron &c. rust, rusts iron. Prov. Alte Liebe rostet nicht, old love does not wear out, old or real affection mocks time.

1. Rösten, [allied to the Dutch roesten, to the Engl. to rot] [in husbandry] Das [geschnittene] Getreide —, to let the [reaped] corn lie [in the dew or rain for a few days, to make the threshing easier]; Hanf —, Flach —, to soak, to steep hemp, flax. V. Röstung 1).

2. Rösten, [W. rhōstir, Fr. rōtir &c., allied to braten] v. tr. and intr. to grill or broil, it. to fry. Brod in Butter —, to broil bread in butter; man lasse diese Rippchen noch etwas —, have or let these cutlets, chops be broiled a little more; aufglühenden Kohlen ein wenig —, to do slightly, to broil a little on live coal or the embers; ein Stück, eine Scheibe geröstetes Brod, a piece, a slice of toasted bread, toast; den Kaffee —, to roast or burn coffee; Mehl in einer Pfanne —, to brown flour in a pan; Rhabarber —, to torrefy rhubarb; Brod am Feuer —, to toast bread [with the toasting-fork, in a Dutch oven &c.]; [with miners] das Erz —, to roast the ore or lode-earth. Das —, V. Röstung 2).

Röst-haus, n. [with miners] building or structure for ore-roasting, the shed over a roasting-pyre or bed —holz, n. [with miners] wood for aiding the combustion and roasting of the ore-earth. —ofen, m. [with miners] furnace or kiln for roasting ore. —pfanne, f. [with cooks] a pan for browning; it. V. Bratpfanne. —recht, n. right of steeping hemp &c. in a river, rating-pool. —schlacke, f. scoria or slag of raw matt. —stätte, f. [with miners] V. Röststätte.

Röster, m. [-s, pl. -] V. Röstbrenner.

||Rösterig, V. Röstig.

||Röstern, V. Rosten.

Rösterverk, n. [-s] [in seamen's language] gratings of the hatches.

Röstig, adj. and adv. 1) rusted, rusty, [in chemistry] oxydized. —werden, seyn, to get, grow or become rusty, to rust, to be rusted or rusty; —machen, to make rusty, to rust. Fig. [low] old, superannuated [said of females, chiefly spinsters]. Eine —e alte Jungfer, a superannuated old maid; sie gehört auch schon in's —e or alte Eisen, she too belongs to the old-maiden-sisterhood. 2) —es Wasser, chalybeate water; —e Erde, ferruginous earth.

Rostrāl, n. [-es, pl. -e] the rostral or claw for drawing the stave on music-paper. Mit dem —e liniren, to draw the lines of the stave with the rostral.

Hilpert, Deutsch, Engl. Wört. 2. Bd.

Röstung, f. 1) the soaking, steeping, [in chemistry] maceration of hemp, flax &c. 2) the roasting, broiling &c., torrefaction, torrefying.

Rötel, V. Röthel.

Röth, [in Sans. rohida, Old Sax. reod, read, Isl. raudur, Gr. ῥοδός, in old Northmannic rioda means to smear and make bloody] adj. and adv. 1) ruddy, russet, sandy. Das —e Wildpret, V. —wild; eine —e Kuh, a dun cow; —er Zucker, sandy brown sugar [resisting further crystallization or bleaching]. 2) [generally] —von Gesichtsfarbe, Wangen, Lippen, red in complexion, as to one's cheeks, lips, of a red, ruddy, sanguine complexion, of red, ruddy, crimson, cherry, blooming, scarlet cheeks, of red, vermilion lips; eine —e Nase, —e Augen haben, to have a red, [comic] Bardolph nose, red, bloodshot, [if small] ferret eyes; —es Haar, red hair, sandy-coloured hair; —er Bart, red beard; stark —es Haar, flaming red hair, [in jest and insult] carrots; volles —es Gesicht, a plump and rubicund face, [if a boy or country girl] a round or chubby cherry-cheeked face. Prov. Heute —, morgen tobt, to-day fresh and healthy and to-morrow a corpse, here to-day and gone to-morrow, hale one minute and dead the next; dieser Mensch, diese Frau ist —von Gesicht und Haaren, ist brennend —, this man, this woman is red in the face or red-faced and red-haired, has a stark, flaming, fiery red face, head of hair; —e Glätte [Goldglätte], gold-litharge; —e Schlacken [with miners], red scoria or slags; —er Arsenik, —es Erz, Kupfer, red arsenic, ore, copper; die —e Fahne [Blutfahne], the red flag; eine Thüre —anstreichen, to paint a door red; —tärben, to dye or stain red; —gefärbtes Tuch, cloth dyed red, red cloth; dieses Holz färbt das Wasser —, this wood dyes or stains the water red, crimson the water; —werden [of the human face], to redden, to grow or become red, to blush, to turn red; er wurde ganz —vor Zorn, he became quite red with anger, he coloured up deeply with rage, [fam.] he got as red as a turkey-cock; er wird —, sobald man mit ihm spricht, he blushes as soon as he is spoken to, [fam.] he is quite a victim to mauvaise honte; vor Scham —werden, to blush from, with or for shame; über nichts mehr —werden, to blush no longer at any thing; er wird über nichts mehr —, his blushing days are over; Sie machen mich —, Ihre Lobeserhebungen machen mich —, you make me blush, your praises, eulogiums render me confused, [fam.] shame-faced; it. —werden [of fruits], to redden, to grow or become red, to turn red, to blush; it. [at cards] das —e Haus, der —e König &c., ace, king &c. of hearts; —auspielen, to play hearts; V. 1. Hahn, fig., Ruhr; —es Gold, red gold; das —e Wasser [in medicine = die Blutsuche], [a disease of sheep] the rcp, red-water; it. [with miners] —es Gebirge, mountain containing iron; it. [in heraldry] —, gules; eine goldene Binde im —en Felde führen, to wear a band or in a field gules; it. [in geography] das —e Meer, the Red Sea [in consequence of an erroneous supposition regarding its colour, the true appellation being the Sea of Edom, and Edom meaning red].

Röth, n. [-es] 1) [the quality of any thing in as far as it is red, it. the red itself] red, redness. Ein abgestorbener, in's Schwarze fallender —, a faint, deep [dark] red inclining to black; züchtiges —überzog ihr Gesicht, a modest red, the blush of modesty mantled o'er her face; das —[des Abends or das Abend—] the evening-red, [poet.] the hue of the setting sun; das —[des Morgens or das Morgen—], the morning-red, Aurora. 2) red [as a colour]. Indisch —oder englisches Braun, Indian red, English brown, red-ochre, russet-brown ochre; spanisch —, spanish red or vermilion; —auflegen, to put on rouge, to use rouge, to paint one's self.

Roth-äderig, adj. and adv. [as stones, wood &c.] red-veined. —after, m. the hemorrhoidal chrysomela, the gilded harlequin [a coleopter of the beetle-tribe]. —auge, n. 1) [a fish] red bream, cyprinus rutilus. 2) [a little river-fish] jaculus, vandosia, the Swiss mugil [a sort of mullet]. 3) the purple-red orphie of Normandy [of the genus cyprinus]. 4) [in conchology] a univalve, the flavostomous nerita. —äugig, adj. and adv. red-eyed. —backe, f. aim. —bäckchen, || —bäcklein, n. 1) red cheek, vermilion or cherry-cheek. 2) a person with red cheeks, a red-cheeked person. Dicke —backe, a great thick chubby red-faced person, a person with a face as fat and red as bull-beef, [if a wench or country girl] a chubby cherry-cheeked girl; niedliches —bäckchen, a dear little chubby cherry-cheeked infant. —bäckig, adj. and adv. red-cheeked. Dicker —bäckiger Bursche, a trumpeter-cheeked fellow; V. —backe 2). —band, n. [in nat. hist.] a univalve, one of the bullae, the rose-bud. —bart, m. 1) a red beard. 2) [a person] a red-beard. Ein hässlicher —bart, an ugly nasty red bearded fellow; Friedrich der —bart [in German history], Frederick surnamed Barbarossa. 3) [in nat. hist.] a) V. Barbe. b) [Meerbarbe] rubellio, red mullet, rouget, roach, rocket. c) Penelope's bird, the red-headed duck. d) [Rothkehlchen] robin red-breast, the red-breast. —bärtig, adj. and adv. red-bearded. —bauch, m. [in nat. hist.] [Erecht] the red-bellied woodpecker. —bäuchig, adj. and adv. red-bellied. —baum, m. 1) V. Gerstenbaum. 2) [species of sycamore] the scarlet maple. —beere, f. V. Erdbeere. —bein, n. [in nat. hist.] kind of snipe, the red-shank. —beinig, adj. and adv. red-legged. —binder, m. [Saffbinder] cooper. —blässhchen, n. the water-hen. —bleierz, n. chromate of lead, red-lead-spar, red-lead-ore. —blende, f. red-blend, ruby of zinc. —braun, adj. and adv. red-brown. —braunsteinerz, n. red manganese, siliciferous rosy oxyd of manganese. —bruch, m. a flaw in iron that is brittle when at a red heat, red-sear. —brüchig, adj. and adv. 1) —brüchiges Eisen, iron brittle or liable to flaws at a red heat while under the hammer, red-sear. 2) [in woodlands] —brüchiges Holz, wood unsound at the pith or heart and also ruddy and fragile, heated wood. —brüschchen, || —brüschlein, || —brüschel, n. V. —fechtchen. —brüstig, adj. and adv. red-breasted, red-bosomed. —buche, f. red-beech. —buchen, —büchen, adj. and adv. made of red-beech, red-beeched, red-beechy. —döbel, m. [when the fish is old and turns red] the common gudgeon, cyprinus gobio, turdus iliacus. —drossel, f. redwing, red thrush. —eiche, f. oak of the hardest kind, the robur, red oak, winter or common oak. —eisenstein, m. red oxyd of iron, oligist iron, crystallized tritoxyd of iron. —ente, f. 1) Penelope's bird, the red-headed duck. 2) V. Kriechente. —erle, f. the alder-tree. —fahl, adj. and adv. pale red, of a faint red. —färber, m.

a dyer in red. —farbig, adj. and adv. of a red hue, dye or colour, red-coloured, hued or dyed, ruby, rubied, rubric, rubrical; [in heraldry] gules. —faul, adj. and adv. V. —brüchig 2). —feder, f. 1) phoxinus squamosus, a sort of carp; it. V. —auge 2). 2) rubellio, red mullet, rouget, roach, rocket. —fichte, f. red fir. —fink, m. fringilla, greenfinch, it. V. Dompfaff 2). —fisch, m. 1) the mountain-trout, the salmon-trout of the Alps, salmo alpinus or red charr or [now written] char. 2) red umber, grayling, thymallus. —fleckig, adj. and adv. red-spotted, red-stained, red-speckled, red-freckled, red-dappled. —flosse, f. [a fish] the smaris. —flosser, m. [in nat. hist.] red mullet. —föhre, f. 1) Alpine fir, pine of the Alps. 2) [—forelle] river-trout, V. Rothfisch. —fuchs, m. V. Brandfuchs. —fuß, m. 1) the redshank. 2) the laughing goose, the wild goose of the North. —füßig, adj. and adv. red-footed. —füßige Schnepfe, V. —fuß 1). —gans, f. barnacle-geese, barnacle, bernicla, concha anatifera, clakis, white-fronted goose, brent-geese, tree-geese, anas erythropus. —gar, adj. and adv. [with tanners] [of leather] tanned. —gebirge, n. [with miners] red rock, red stone. —gelb, adj. and adv. reddish yellow, russet-yellow, sandy, ruddy. —gelbe Farbe, ruddy colour. —gerber, m. a tanner. —gerberei, f. tannery. —gerste, f. red barley, winter-barley. —gestreift, adj. and adv. red-streaked, red-striped, with red rays. —gießer, m. a copper-founder. —gießerei, f. a copper-foundry. —gimpel, m. V. Dompfaff 2). —glühen, n. the red-heat [of iron]. —glühend, adj. and adv. red-hot, at a red-heat, glowing. Das Eisen —glühend machen, to make iron red-hot, to bring iron to a red-heat. —glühhitze, f. the red heat, a welding or sparkling heat. —güldenerz, —güldischerz, n. silver-ore alloyed with sulphur and arsenic, sulphurated antimoniated silver, stibiate of silver. Peruvianisches —güldenerz, rossicler, rosiclar, red-silver-ore of Peru. —güldenblüte, f. flowers of red-silver. —günsel, m. [in botany] tormentil, septfoil. —haarig, adj. and adv. red-haired, rufous, [insulting] carrot-haired. —haariger Mensch, [in contempt] Kerl, a rufous, a red-haired or sandy-haired man, [insulting] a carrotty fellow, carrots. —hafer, m. wild oats. —hals, m. [in nat. hist.] 1) the capriceps limosa, god-wit, stone-plover. 2) V. —ente. —hänfling, m. V. Blutbänfling. —heizen, n. [with founders] reddish heat, gentle red-heat or heating. —hirsch, m. common stag. —holz, n. red wood [for dying]. —huhn, n. 1) V. Haselhuhn. 2) [Bergbuhn] the red partridge, the perdrix Graeca. —hut, m., —kappe, f. [fig. fam., in a bad sense] the man with a red hat, a cardinal. Er hatte Feinde unter den —kappen, he had enemies amongst the red-hats, the cardinals. it. [in the first French revolution] a red-capped fellow, a Jacobine, a French democrat. —karausche, f. V. —auge 1). —kehlen, n. the red-breast, the robin, ruddoc. Das große —kehlen, V. —schwänzen; das braunsalbe, getigerte —kehlen, the rubetra major, stone-chatter, stone-smick, moor-titling, great bunting. —kehle, f. a genus of lizard in Egypt, the red-throated green lizard. —knopf, m. [in botany] the siliquastrum or Judas-tree of Canada. —kobalterz, n. ore of red earthy cobalt, the arseniate of cobalt of Hany. —kohl, m. red cabbage. —königs kupfer, n. [with founders] red regulus of copper, copper of red scoria. —kopf, m. 1) a person with a red head, a rufous, [comic] sandy-pate. 2) a) [in nat. hist.] V. Rothente. b) the red-head [a bird of passage]. c) pica graeca, butcher-bird, collurio, lanus, the red-headed shrike. d) a kind of sea-bream, the orphie. —köpfig, adj. and adv. red-headed, sandy-pate. Der —köpfige Bürger [in natural hist.], V. —kopf 2) c). —korsten, m. [in commerce] kind of dutch-cheese with a red mark. —kraut, n., —kohl, m. red cabbage. —kupfer, n. [with founders] red copper. —kupfererz, —kupferglas, n. ore of red oxyd of copper. —lachse, m. red salmon. —lauf, m. [in medicine] 1) erysipelas. 2) [provincial] [rothe Ruhr] bloody flux. 3) [in horses] the femoral St. Anthony's fire; it. a sort of fever in sheep, rot-fever, sacred fire. —laufähnlich, adj. and adv. erysipelatoid. —laufartig, adj. and adv. erysipelatous. —lauffraut, n. the herb Robert. —lauffugel, f. kind of edible mushroom, red boletus. —machung, f. [in the mint] when more copper than silver is taken in alloying the silver, rubration. —mantel, m. man with a red mantle or cloak. Ein —mantel, der —mäntler [chiefly used in the wars against the French Republic], an Austrian Croat. —maus, f. the lemming, lemming. —metall, n. a brittle amalgam of six parts copper and one part zinc, brittle bell-metal. —mund, m. 1) [sometimes, but affectedly, in poetry, for] vermilion lips. 2) a kind of trumpet-shell, the purple hemastoma. —mündig, adj. and adv. red-mouthed. —mütze, f. 1) man with a red cap [chiefly used of the most democratic or worst set of Republicans in the first French Revolution]. 2) [in botany] the rust, rubigo or red smut in wheat. —nase, f. [in popular lang.] man with a red nose, a copper-nose, a ruby-nose, [comic] a Bardolph nose. —nasig, adj. and adv. red-nosed, [comic] meteor-nosed. —nesselfalter, m. peacock-butterfly. —nehen, n. a disease in horned cattle, bloody urine; red murrain. —nuß, f. kind of nut with a red skin, the red hazle-nut, nut of Lombardy. —rock, m. man in a red cloak, gown or coat; [in England, in jest or contempt, for the military] red coat, a soldier. Die —röcke weichen keinem andern Militär an Tapferkeit, the red coats are equal in valour to any other military; die —röcke kommen! [in a popular tumult] the red-coats are coming! —röckig, adj. and adv. red-coated, red-gowned, red-cloaked. —rüster, f. the American elm. —schär, m. the lubfish. —schenkel, m. [a bird] 1) the redshank. 2) grey plover or godwit. —schimmel, m. a roan, a roan-horse. —schimmelt, adj. and adv. [speaking of amber] pale red. —schlag, m. [with miners] yellow and red blende, yellow and red sulphuret of zinc. —schmied, m. [not much used] brazier, V. Kupferschmied. —schnabel, m. 1) the red-billed sparrow of Brasil. 2) the little red-billed gull or sea-mew. 3) a kind of parrot, red-beaked parrot. 4) the red-beaked toucan. —schnabelig, adj. and adv. red-beaked, red billed. —schnur, f. a string rubbed with red-chalk or ruddle, the carpenter's red-string. —schuppe, f. kind of sea-bream; pagel, rubellio, erythrinus. —schwanz, m., dim. —schwänzchen, || —schwänzlein, n. Sylvia Phoenicurus, red-tail, red-start. —seitig, adj. and adv. V. —brüdig [of wood]. —silbererz, n. red silver-ore; sulphurated antimoniate silver. —spath, m. red spat, rosy or siliferous oxyd of manganese. —specht, m. Großer —specht, the green-red speckled woodpecker; fleiner —specht, little speckled woodpecker. —spiegelglanzerz, —spiegelgläsererz, n. hydro-sulphurated amorphous or acicular antimony. —stein, m. [Rothel] ruddle. —steinroth, adj. and adv. ruddle-red. —sterze, f. V. —schwanz —stift, m. red crayon, red-lead pencil, V. —stein. —strahlig, adj. and adv. red-rayed, red-beamed, darting red rays or beams. —streifig, adj. and adv. red-striped, red-streaked. —striemling, m. a variety of the apple, the red-streak. —strumpf, m. 1) fig. a man with red stockings; it. [fam., in a bad sense] a denomination applied to certain dignitaries in the Romish church. 2) [in botany] cinnamon-coloured boletus. —tanne, f. V. —fichte —vogel, m. 1) the little nightingale. 2) V. Dompfaff 2). 3) V. Stieglitz. —wälsch, [Roth from rot, in thieves' latin or slang = a beggar] gipsy-cant, slang. —wälsch sprechen, das —wälsch verstehen, to jabber in the gipsies' lingo, to understand cant, [fam.] to be up to the slang of vagrants; it. [= kauderwälsch, which see] das ist für mich —wälsch, that is so much Greek, Arabic, Hebrew, High Dutch to me; ich verstehe sein —wälsch nicht, I don't understand his jargon, his gibberish, his slang, his outlandish lingo. —wälschen, v. intr. to talk slang, to make use of cant-language, of the jargon of the swell-mob. —wangig, adj. and adv. red-cheeked, with red, rosy, ruddy, vermilion cheeks. —warm, adj. and adv. V. —glühend. —weide, f. the osier, the osier-willow. —wild, —wildbret, n. fallow deer, red deer. —wildbret essen, to eat red-deer-venison; [in sportsmen's language] in diesem Walde hält sich —wildbret auf, there is some red deer, some fallow in this wood. —wildhafer, m. the perennial tare or hair-grass. —wurst, f. [Blutwurst] black-pudding. —wurz, f. tormentil, septfoil. Wilde —wurz, field cromil, graymil or cromwell, gold-moss. —ziegel, m. [in conchology] the red osca-brion.

Röthe, f. 1) redness, red, ruddiness, red flush. Eine schöne —überzog ihr Gesicht, a beautiful crimson [suffusion] mantled, dawned over her face, her face was suffused with a beautiful blush, a glow of scarlet mounted to her cheeks &c.; die Haut des Kranken hat eine ungewöhnliche —, the skin of the patient has an extraordinary redness or ruddiness; eine starke — am Himmel, a strong redness, a lively red in the sky; die — der Haare, the redness of the hair; —des Kupfers, copper-redness; die —stieg ihm in's Gesicht, the red, [in scorn &c.] the copper-glow, the red glow mounted to his face; die —benehmen, verlieren, to take off, to disperse, to lose the redness. 2) [= Grapp] madder. [in botany] Sehr kleine —, little white or blue star-wort, crucianella, petty madder. 3) the broad-leaved white Ladies' bed straw.

Röthel, m. [-s, pl. -] 1) [a fish] roach, gardon, the rubellio. 2) ruddle, red chalk, rubric, red crayon, red-keel, sinople, graphie oxyd of iron. Armenischer —, Armenian bole; mit —zeichnen, schreiben, to mark, write with ruddle, to rubricate, to design, draw or write with red chalk or a red crayon; mit —gemachte Zeichnung, a drawing in red chalk, a drawing made or done with red crayon; eine Schnur mit —färben, to rub a string or cord over with ruddle. 3) V. Blutstein.

Röthelerde, f. ruddle-earth, red-earth, english-earth. —farbe, f. 1) colour of ruddle, of red-chalk, [in a bad sense] brick-dust colour. 2) rubric-dye. —farben, —farbig, adj. and adv. of the colour of ruddle, red-chalk or rubric. —geier, m. a kind of hawk, the kistrel. —jaspis, m. sanguine or ruby-jasper. —kreide, f. red-chalk. —stein, m. V. Rötbel2). —stift, m. red-crayon, red-chalk-pencil. —weibe, f. V. —geier. —zeichnung, f. a red-crayon drawing, a drawing in red-chalk.

Rötheln, I. v. tr. Eine Zeichnung —, to design, to make a drawing in red-chalk, with a red crayon; geröthelte Zeichnung, a drawing done in red-chalk; ein Stück Papier —, to rub over a piece of paper with red-chalk &c. II. v. intr. [in an affectedly poetical style] to mantle, to suffuse, to be rufescent, to rufesce, to turn red.

Rötheln, pl. the measles. In unserem Viertel sind die — stark herumgegangen, haben die — stark geherrscht, the measles have been rife, have been going about, have been very prevalent or rife in our quarter.

Röthen, v. intr. [unusual] V. Rötthen.

Röthen, I. v. intr. and generally v. refl. sich —, to blush, to flush, to become or turn red, to redden, to mantle. Die Kirichen —, the cherries are turning red; der Himmel röthet sich, the sky reddens, becomes red; ihr [der Dummhütigen] Angesicht röthet sich wieder, her face [of a person in a swoon] is turning red again, is regaining its colour; lieblich — sich die Gipfel der Schneeberge von der untergehenden Sonne, the tops of the snow-capped mountains are tinged with a lovely glow from the setting sun. II. v. tr. to redden, to make or tinge red, to colour red, to empurple, to crimson, to mantle. Ihr Blut röthete die Wellen, her blood crimsoned the waves, the waves were dyed red with her blood; als die untergehende Sonne die Berge röthete, as the setting sun gilded the mountains; die Scham röthete ihr Gesicht, modesty suffused her cheek, her face; das Eisen im Feuer —, to heat iron red, to bring iron to a red-heat or glow, to make iron red-hot in the fire.

Röthlein, n. [-s, pl. -] V. Lachsforelle.

Röthlich, adj. and adv. ruddy, reddish, russet, somewhat red, rubicund. Falsches Gold wird —, false gold turns reddish; —es Haar, Wasser, hair, water somewhat red, reddish hair, water; —es Gesicht, a ruddy, hale countenance.

Röthlich=braun, —gelb, &c. adj. and adv. reddish-brown, reddish-yellow &c.

Röthling, m. [-es, pl. -e] 1) V. Rothschwanzchen. 2) V. Rothauge1). 3) a kind of lip-fish, the labiated barber-fish. Gestreifter —, the diagram-fish. 4) a kind of trout, umber, grayling, thymallus. 5) a kind of edible mushroom, the yellow boletus, the porous and viscous autumnal mushroom. 6) [rather unusual] wine of a clear pale-red colour.

Rötte, f. [pl. -n] [Welsh rhawd, Ital. frotta, allied to Rude1; V. Rotten] 1) [especially = Menge, in a bad sense] a troop, horde. Eine — Wölfe, a troop, pack of wolves; die — [Schaar] der Philister, the host of the Philistines; eine — Diebe, Straßenträuber, Bettler &c., a pack, gang of thieves, band of highwaymen, troop of banditti, beggars &c.; das Haupt der Aufrührer mit seiner ganzen —, the ringleader of the insurgents with his whole troop; et gehört auch zu der — [in fam. or pop. language], he belongs also to the faction, party, tribe, league, cabal, set, sect, band &c. 2) [in the army &c.]

section, file; platoon. In —n vorbeiziehen, to defile in sections; it. [= Corporalschaft] detachment of a foot company, a squad; it. [formerly, for Compagnie] company.

Rott=gesell, m. member or accomplice of a sect, faction, party. Er und seine — gesellen, he and his adherents, accomplices, hangers-on. —mann, —meister, m. chief of a troop; [especially, in the army] leader of a file, corporal; it. [with miners] [Schichtmeister] comptroller, conductor of the mines or gangs.

Rottensaufmarsch, m. deploying in files. —feuer, n. file-firing. —geist, m. 1) a factious spirit, spirit of faction. 2) a factious person. —macher, —stifter, m. a caballer, plotter. —weise, adv. in bands, in troops, in packs; it. [in the army] in or by files, [also] in detachments.

1. Rötten, [Rottiren] v. intr. and refl. [appears allied to the old Sax. vrithan, to twist or turn; lee. rotast means to unite, to ally] to cabal, to canvass for or to form a party, a faction, a sect. Sich —, to unite or collect in bands, troops, packs, to congregate, to assemble [for bad purposes]; viele Heiden werden sich wider dich — [in Scripture], many heathens [nations of the gentiles] shall unite against thee; sich zu bösen Buben —, to associate with low riff-raff, bad or low company; V. Zusammenrotten.

2. Rötten, [allied to roden, reuten, or the Low-German reiten for reissen] v. tr. to eradicate, extirpate, destroy, exterminate, root out, annihilate. [in Scripture] Ich will ihn mitten aus seinem Volke —, I will cut him off from the midst of his people; V. Ausrotten.

Rötter, m. [-s, pl. -] [in sportsmen's lang.] a defender.

Rötterei, f. [Rottirung] faction, cabal, schism, mutiny.

Röttgang, f. V. Baumgang.

*Rottiren, V. Rotten.

*Rottirer, m. [-s, pl. -] V. Rottenmacher.

Röttland, n. [-es] [from rotten=reuten] new turned-up land.

Röb, m. [-es] [appears allied to the old rie, sen, to rieseln &c.] 1) [low] mucus running from the nose, snot, snivel. Den — hinaufziehen, to snuff up one's snivel, to sniff or snuffle up. 2) [a disease in horses] glanders. Dieses Pferd hat den —, this horse has got the glanders, is glandered.

Rob=alaun, m. V. Steinalaun. —bus be, m. [very low] little snotty; [in general] a snotty, snivelling fellow, a dirty blackguard. Einen wie einen —buben behandeln, to treat any one as you would a little snot-breech. —drüse, f. the pituitary gland. —fisch, m. V. Schleimfisch. —löffel, m. [low] a sniveller; it. a snotty blackguard, a snivelling, snottosed rascal. —maul, n. [low] 1) mouth begrimed with snot, snot-chops. 2) a little snotty child. —nase, f. —näschen, n. [low] 1) a snotty nose. 2) a snotty child, [insulting] little snot-nose, snot-breech. —schnecke, f. V. Erdschnecke. —schwefel, m. [Pferdeschwefel] caballine sulphur, horse-brimstone.

Röben, v. intr. 1) [low] to let the snot drop or run down, it. to snuff the snot up. 2) [in farriery] to have the glanders, to be glandered.

Röbig, adj. and adv. 1) [low] snotty, snivelly. Eine —e Nase, a snotty, [polite] dirty nose. 2) [in farriery] glandered. —sehn, to be glandered.

Röbigkeit, f. 1) [low] snottiness, state of that which is snotty. 2) state of that which is glandered.

Rösling, m. [-es, pl. -e] [low, little used] [Rognase] a snotty person.

Rübe, f. [pl. -n] [in Swed. rofwä, Lat. rapa, Gr. ῥάπυς &c.; probably allied to Rebe, Rippe, and so originally something long] 1) dim. Rübchen, Rüblein, n. [-s, pl. -] rape. Gelbe — [Möhre], the carrot; rothe —, a) the beet, red beet, field-beet, b) [Mangold] the root of scarcity, the mangelwurzel; it. die große, weiße — [Runkelrübe], white beet-rave, white beet-root, beet-radish; weiße —, the turnip or turnep, naphew; Enten mit —n [in cookery], ducks and turneps, ducks dressed and served up with turnips. Prov. Alles untereinander mengen wie Kraut und —n, to mix up every thing into a hodge-podge or hotch-potch, higgledy-piggledy, like an olla potrida or Irish stew, to make it all into a mish-mash, hubble and squeak, pell-mell; V. Dick —, Rohl —, Runkel —, Stoppel —, Zeller —; weißes Rüblein, V. Rapunzel. 2) [with farriers] — des Pferdeschwanzes, that part of the horse's tail which is an elongation of the spine, dock, stump. 3) [in conchology] sort of pilgrim-shell, the long-tailed turnip-shell; it. the glossy club; it. the turnip-shell, the radish-shell [a univalve, a sort of bladder-shell].

Rübe=öl, n. V. Rübesamenöl. —samen, V. Rübesamen.

Rübe=land, n. V. —acker. —saat, f. —samen, m. [Ress] rape-seed, rape. —saamenöl, n. rape-seed-oil, rape-oil.

Rüben=acker, m. a turnip-field, a field planted with beets. —artig, adj. and adv. beet-like, turnip-like. —bau, m. beet-root-culture, turnip-culture. —baum, m. the bulbous dolichos. —beet, n. bed of beets, of turnips. —boden, m. soil or ground genial to turnips or beet. —feld, n. V. —acker. —fliege, f. the Hessian fly, turnip-fly, the fly. —förmig, adj. and adv. beet-formed, turnip-formed, [in botany] napiform. —garten, m. garden for beet, for turnips. —hahnenfuß, m. the bulbous ranunculus or crow-foot. —kerbel, m. bulbous chervil, bulbous cicuta. —kraut, n. leaves of beet, of turnips, [the latter when young] turnip-tops. —rapunzel, m. 1) onagra, night or tree-primrose. 2) kind of bell-flower, the rampion-campanula. —rettig, m. common or garden horseradish. —samen, m. 1) seed of beetroot &c.; turnip-seed. 2) V. Rübesamen. —schässel, n. scrapings or raspings of beet-roots, turnips &c. —scheide, f. [in conchology] a species of mollusca, the napiform ascidia. —schneiz, m. a turnip-slice, a slice of beet. —stecher, m. turnip-scoop. —zucker, m. sugar from the white or red beet-root, beet-root-sugar.

Rübel, m. [-s, pl. -] a Russian silver-coin, a ruble. Ein Papier —, paper-ruble.

Rübezahl, m. [-es] [name of a gnome who is said to have inhabited the Riesengebirge, especially the Schneekoppe] Rubezahl.

*Rubicell, m. [-s, pl. -e] [with jewellers] little ruby, rubicellus.

*Rubin, m. [-es, pl. -e] ruby. Blaffer —, V. —balas. Fig. [in fam. lang., comic] Er hat —e auf der Nase, he has grog or brandy-blossoms, wine-pimples on his nose.

Rubin=apfel, m. the api-apple, white and red or motley-pippin. —balas, m. a balas-ruby. —farbe, f. ruby-colour or hue, ruby-tint. —farben, —farbig, adj. and adv. ruby-coloured or hued, ruby-tinted, rubied, ruby. —fluß, m. ruby-fluor. —glanz, m. 1) ruby-lustre. 2) [in nat. hist.] [Brachvogel] the midwall or bee-eater of the Brazils. —ring, m. a ruby-ring. —roth, adj. and adv. ruby-red, V. —farben. —schwefel, m. ruby of arsenic, realgar. —stein, m. V. Rubin.

*Rubriciren, v. tr. [chiefly in law practice] to note, to mark; it. to number or endorse; it. to give or note the contents of a legal document, brief &c. at the head of it.

*Rubrik, f. [pl. -en] [Abtheilung, Abschnitt, Ueberschrift] rubric.

Rübsen, m. [-s] V. Rübsamen.

Rübsenacker, m., —feld, n. field of rape-seed, of the wild turnip. —öl, n. V. Rübsamenöl.

Rüchbar, V. Ruchbar.

Ruchgras, n. [-es] [here Ruch = Geruch, smell] [in botany] sweet-scented vernal grass. Das wahre gelbe —, the authoxanthum odoratum, sweet hay-grass.

Ruchlos, [from the old r u a h s a n, Low-Sax. rochen, Old Sax. recan = sorgen, to care; formerly = careless, reckless, indifferent] adj. and adv. impious, wicked, profane, criminal, unrighteous, ungodly, perverse. Ein —er, an impious man, a wretch, a criminal, Syn. V. Gottloser; —es Leben, impious, unholy life; —e That, an impious action, unrighteous deed, ungodly act.

Ruchlosigkeit, f. 1) impiety, ungodliness, unrighteousness, wickedness [of a person or deed]. 2) an impious action. Das ist eine —, that's a wicked act; —en sagen, —en begehen, to utter blasphemies, to blaspheme; to act or commit impieties.

Ruchsen, [Fr. roucouler] v. intr. to coo [as pigeons]. Die Tauben —, die Turteltauben girren, pigeons coo, turtle-doves moan, complain, [also] coo. Das —, cooing.

Ruchtbär, [old Ruch = Ruf] adj. and adv. noised abroad, divulged, publicly reported or rumored, notorious. Eine —e Sache, eine —gewordene Sache, an affair bruited about, made public; —machen, to bruit about, to divulge, to proclaim, to herald forth; —werden, to become public, to become known to the world. Syn. V. Lautbar.

Ruchtbareit, f. notoriety, publicity.

Ruchtig, adj. and adv. [not used] V. Ruchbar, Berüchtigt.

Rück, m. [-es, pl. -e] [from regen] [in fam. or popular language] blow, shake, shock. Geben Sie dem Tische &c. einen kleinen —, give the table &c. a little push, shove, a little touch this way; einen Zahn mit Einem — ausziehen, to draw out or extract a tooth at one jerk, with a single tug, pull or hitch; eine Last auf Einen — aufheben, to raise up a burthen at one heave, breath, strain, effort; der Stiefel will keinen — thun, the boot won't make a single move, won't stir a peg, a jot, an inch, the boot won't draw on, come on a bit; [in the manege] der — mit dem Zügel [when the horse pulls too hard with his mouth], a rein in, a pull in, a check with the bridle, [for turning the horse] a side-twitch, side-jerk, ebrillade. Fig. [provincial] fit, attack, paroxysm. Er hat seinen —, he has got his fit on him, he is in his fit, the fit is on him.

Rückwind, m. V. Rückwind.

Rück, m. [-es, pl. -e] [= Rücken] a prolonged elevation, a ridge. In many compounds it stands for Rücken or for zurück.

Rückantwort, f. [chiefly in law-style] a reply. —auflanger, pl. [in seamen's lang.] top-timbers. —bank, f. [in sportsmen's lang.] frame for knitting the thin nets on. —bettung, f. [in military affairs] gun-platform. —bewegung, f. a backward or retrograde movement. —bleibsel, n. rest, residue, remainder. —blick, m. backward look. Fig. Einem —blick auf sein vergangenes Leben thun or werfen, to cast a retrospective look over one's past life. —bret, n. 1) [with rope-makers] the peg-block. 2) [with carpenters] the block or stay for the axle-tree of a mill. —bringen, V. Zurückbringen. —bürge, m. [in law-practice] counter-pledge, counter-surety or security. Einen —bürgen stellen, to give counter-security; —bürgen werden, to certify [to] a counter-security. —bürgschaft, f. subsidiary bail, auxiliary security, certification of bail. —denken, v. intr. V. Zurückdenken. —erinnern, v. refl. Sich an Etwas —erinnern, to remember, to recall to mind, to recollect any thing. —erinnerung, f. a remembrance, a recollection. Eine schwache —erinnerung, a reminiscence; die —erinnerungen an jene Tage, the remembrances, reminiscences of those days; die Platoniker glaubten, unsere Kenntnisse seyen bloße —erinnerungen, the Platonists believed our knowledge and acquirements were mere reminiscences. —fahren, V. Zurückfahren. —fährig, V. —gängig. —fahrt, f. return. —fährt, f. V. Hinterfährt. —fall, m. 1) reversion [of any thing to the grantor or his heirs or assigns]. Der —fall eines Lehens an den Lehensherrn, the reversion of a mesne-fee to the fee in chief; unter dem Bedinge des —falles, under or with power of reversion. 2) [in medicine] relapse. Einen —fall bekommen, to have a relapse. Fig. [in morality] relapse, [pharisaical and canting] backsliding. Hüten Sie sich vor dem —falle, vor einem —falle, beware of a relapse, take good heed lest ye fall or slide back; der —fall zur Sünde, the relapse into or unto sin. —falschen, V. Zurückfalschen. —fällig, adj. and adv. —fälliges Lehen, a reversible or revertible fee; —fälliger Reher, Sünder, a relapse, a heretic or sinner judged as obstinate and irreclaimable by Mother Church, through a second fall from grace; —fällig werden, [of a patient] to have a relapse, it. [of a sinner] to sin again, to have a recidivation, to recidivate, to repeat sin, heresy or schism, [in theology] to be relapse. —fallrecht, n. [in feudal matters] right of reversion. —fluß, m. reflux, ebb. Den —fluß des Wassers hindern, to prevent the ebbing of the water. —fordern, V. Zurückfordern. —fracht, f. 1) back-carriage, back-fare. Dieser Fuhrmann hat keine —fracht bekommen, this driver had no back-fare; —fracht eines Schiffes, back-freight. 2) allowance for back-carriage or back-freight of goods. —frage, f. 1) further advice, ulterior order or command [taken from any one]. Ohne —frage kann ich es nicht thun, erlauben, without further advice, without consulting my superiors, without having satisfactory or competent authority, without joint-permission of my partners, without the full concurrence of the firm, of the principal party concerned I cannot do, permit this. 2) a second consultation or letter of advice, second or repeated instructions. Eine —frage halten, to demand, consult, deliberate, advise again, to take information or instruction once more, a second time. —fuhr, f. return-conveyance. —gabe, f. V. Zurückgabe. —gang, m. 1) return. Es geschah auf dem —gange, it happened on my return, on my way back, on [my] returning [to such and such a place], it. it happened on his, her, their &c. returning or on their &c. way back. Fig. Der —gang der Post, the return of post; it. [in astronomy] retrogradation, V. —lauf. 2) Fig. a) [in law] redress, remedy. Seinen —gang an Jemand nehmen, to take one's redress, to have recourse to one's remedy against any one. b) miscarriage, failure, loosing ground, loss of ground or time, [fam.] crab-progress. Um den —gang der Sache zu verhindern, to prevent the total failure, miscarriage of the business; ein —gang in den Vermögensumständen, retrogradation, deterioration, decline in one's pecuniary affairs; ein —gang in den Kenntnissen, retrogression in knowledge, decline in acquirements. —gängig, adj. and adv. [—gehend] returning. [in war] Eine —gängige Bewegung machen, to make a retrograde movement; [in astronomy] —gängige Bewegung eines Planeten [opposed to the order of precession of the signs], retrograde movement. Fig. Eine Sache —gängig machen, to cause any thing to miscarry, fall to the ground; die Heirath ist —gängig geworden, the marriage has not taken place, the match has been broken off, put aside. —gängigkeit, f. state of any thing that fails, lapses, miscarries, does not happen, non-success, failure, rupture. —gangrecht, n. [in law] redress, right of redress, of recovery, of reprisals. —gedanke, m. [rather stiff] thought, reflexion on or over the past, after-thought, after-reflection. —gehen, irr. v. intr. to return. Mit —gehender Post, by return of post. —grath, m. back-bone, spine, [rarely] chine, [in anatomy] the spinal column, dorsal, right, medullary column, rachis. Den —grath brechen, to break one's back; Einem den —grath zerbrechen, to break any one's back; der —grath des Falken, the spinet of the falcon. —grathsein, n. V. Rückenwirthel. —grathshöhle, f. canal of the back-bone, of the spine. —grathsmuskel, m. [in anatomy] the spinal or vertebral muscle. —grathsnerv, m. spinal nerve. —grathstrecker, m. [in anatomy] the extensor of the spine. —grathswirthel, m. vertebra of the back or spine. —gurt, m. [with harness-makers] girth, girt. —haken, m. [in gunnery] gun-tackle-hook, back-hook [for drawing the cannon with its carriage to and fro]; [in seamen's language] train-tackle-hook, train-hook, relieving-hook. —halt, m. 1) restraint, reserve, [also] curb, control. Ohne —halt sprechen, to speak without restraint, to speak frankly, openly, without reserve, unreservedly; sich einer Sache ohne allen —halt überlassen, to abandon one's self to any thing without any regard to decorum, restraint, moderation &c. 2) [Stütze] support, stay, prop, V. Rückhalt. —halten, V. Zurückhalten. —jan, m. [at backgammon] outer table, jan de retour. Den —jan machen, to be in one's outer table. —kauf, m. redemption, redeeming, recovery. —kauflich, adj. and adv. [Wiederkäuflich] redeemable. —kehr, f. 1) return. Seine —kehr wird bald Statt haben, his return will soon take place, he will soon be returned [to the person speaking or the place where he is expected]; it. he will depart again, set out or start again, return or go back in a short time [for the place whence he came]; bei unserer —kehr von der Jagd, at our return from the chase or hunt; [in sportsmen's lang.] die —kehr des Wildes von der Ägung, the return of the game from feeding or baiting Fig. Die —kehr des Frühlings, einer Krankheit, the return, periodical arrival of the spring, of a disease. 2) (umkehr) Fig. Die —kehr zum Guten, zu Gott, the return to good, to God. —kunft, f. V. Zurückkunft. —ladung, f. V. —fracht. —lauf, m. return; [in artillery] V. Rückstoß; [in astronomy] the retrogradation [of a planet]. —laufen, V. Zurücklaufen. —läufig, adj. and adv. returning reverting, [in astronomy] retrograde. —läufige Verse, retrograde verses, recurrent or reciprocal verses. —lehne, f. V. Rücklehne. —leine, f. [with fowlers] the knittel of a fowling-net. —marsch, m. march back or home, homeward march, return. Das ganze Heer ist auf dem —marsche begriffen, hat den —marsch angetreten, the whole army is on its march home, has commenced its return; [it. for —zug] retreat. —mehl, n. [Nachmehl] the commonest flour for brown bread, thirds. —prall, m. back-blow, rebound, reverberation, resilience, repercussion. Die Kugel schlug an die Mauer an, und er wurde durch den —prall derselben verwundet, the ball struck against the wall, and he was wounded by its rebound; [at billiards] stroke from off cushion, back-stroke, cushion-stroke; einen Ball durch —prall machen, to make a hazard by a stroke from off cushion, by a double; [at skittles] er hat drei Regel durch —prall gemacht, he knocked down three pins by a back-stroke; [in optics] reflection; [in sound or echoes] reverberation; [in general philosophy] repercussion; [of elastic bodies] recoil. —reise, f. home-journey, home-voyage, return. Auf meiner —reise, at or on my return; er ist auf der —reise begriffen, he is on his return, he is coming back; it. he is returning. —riemen, m. [with saddlers] ridger for the shaft-horse, the back-band. —ruf, m. 1) a call back or in answer. Wir hörten seinen —ruf auf unsern Ruf vom Walde her, we heard his call in answer to ours from the wood. 2) recall. Einen —ruf bekommen, to have or get one's recall. —rufen, V. Zurückrufen. —russchreiben, n. letters of recall. —schein, m. [Gegenverschreibung] defeasance, counter-deed. Die Schuldverschreibung ist nur zum Scheine, er hat einen —schein, the acknowledgement of debt, the obligation is only for pretence, he has a set-off, V. Gegenschwein, Revers. —schere, f. V. Rückbret 2). —schlag, m. a back-blow, back-stroke; [at nine-pins] back-stroke. So und so viel Regel im —schlage machen, to make so and so many pins by the back-stroke; [in physics] —schlag des Blitzes, an after-flash of lightning. Fig. a falling off. Das ist ein arger —schlag, that is a shocking fall-off. —schreiben, n. V. Antwortschreiben. —schritt, m. step backwards, retiring step, retreating step, a back-step. Fig. Ein —schritt zu dem alten Irrthum, a return, [in canting lang.] a backsliding, a relapse into ancient error. —seil, n. [in seamen's lang.] gun-tackle. —seite, f. back, reverse. Die —seite eines Hauses, the back of a house, [sometimes, provincial] the backside [of a house]; —seite eines Zeuges, the wrongside of a stuff; —seite eines Papiers, Blattes, Briefes, opposite side, other side of a paper, leaf, letter; —seite einer Pagina [with printers], the verso, the back of a page; —seite der Hand, back of the hand; —seite einer Münze, the reverse, pile, scutcheon-side of a coin; —seite eines Tragekorbes, Stuhles &c., the back of a dorsal-basket, of a chair &c.; —seite des Aufgrabens, the field-side of a trench. —sicherheit, f. [in matters of debt] subsidiary or auxiliary security, V. Gegensicherheit. —sicht, f. 1) V. —blick. 2) Fig. consideration, regard. —sicht auf eine Sache nehmen, to have regard or respect for, to pay attention to, to keep account of any thing; nehmen Sie —sicht auf meine Ruhe, auf seine Jugend, sein Verdienst, pay attention to, have some respect, regard consideration for my repose, his youth, merit, consider, take into consideration my repose, his youth, his merit, make allowance for, consider his youth; ein Richter soll weder auf die Person, noch auf Empfehlungen —sicht nehmen, a judge should neither have respect for the individual, nor give ear to recommendations; er hat einige —sicht auf meine Bitte, gar keine —sicht auf seine Vorstellungen genommen, he has had some consideration for my request, he has paid no attention whatever to, he has not shewn the slightest respect for the representations he made to him; er ist durch —sichten der Ehre &c. dazu genöthiget worden, he has been compelled to it through considerations of honour &c.; man muß auf seine Dienste —sicht nehmen, one must take his services into consideration, into remembrance, we must not forget or overlook his [long, tried] services; dieser Mensch nimmt auf Niemand —sicht, this fellow, this man pays no respect to any one, has no consideration, no regard for any body; in —sicht seiner Verdienste, seiner Jugend &c., looking at, taking into consideration, with respect to, on account of his merit, his youth &c.; er thut Alles nur mit —sicht auf seinen Vortheil, he does every thing only in as far as it relates to, concerns his own advantage, [fam.] all he does is for number one, for self only; in verschiedenen —sichten, in different respects, points of view, under diverse aspects; er ist in jeder —sicht tadelnswerth, he is blamable in every respect, in every point of view, look at it which way you like he is worthy of censure; er hat es in der —sicht gethan, he has done it in or with the view, out of such [and such] a consideration; er sagte, er wolle es in —sicht Ihrer, aus —sicht auf or für Ihren Vater thun, he said, he would do it for your sake, for your father's sake, out of consideration of or for you, your father; Einem die schuldische —sicht versagen, to fail in the respect, in that consideration which is due to any one, to be wanting in proper respect to any one; nur nach —sichten [parteiisch] handeln, to act only from interested, selfish, party &c. motives, to act only with ulterior views or further object, with something in view; it. to act always with too deferential, too scrupulous or over-nice considerations; to be too punctilious, scrupulous, delicate in one's behaviour or conduct. Syn. V. Ansehung. —sichtlich, adj. and adv. relative, relating to, respecting, regarding. —sichtlich seiner, Deiner, auf diese Begebenheit, with respect to him, touching you, as far as this event is concerned; V. in —sicht. —sichtslos, adj. and adv. without respect or consideration, without regard to any thing, regardless of. —sichtsvoll, adj. and adv. regardful, respectful. —siegel, n. counter-seal. —sig, m. [speaking of the side] the back-seat of a carriage [with one's face to the horses]; it. [sometimes, incorrectly, for Vorderstz, with one's back to the horses] front-seat. —sprache, f. [chiefly in law and diplomatic style] parley, conference, consultation. —sprache mit Jemand halten, nehmen, to confer, to hold a conference, to take a consultation with any one. —sprung, m. a spring, leap or jump backwards, a back-leap. [in sportsmen's language] —sprung des Hasen, the circuitous course described by puss to regain her form; it. rebound. Fig. Einen —sprung thun, to leap back, to spring back, to withdraw; it. [in familiar language], to withdraw one's words, [fam. and injurious] to eat or digest one's words. —spur, f. [in sportsmen's language] the wrong scent, back scent, false scent or trail. —stand, m. 1) arrears, arrearage. Im —stande seyn, to be in arrears, to be behind-hand; [in law-practice] to be in arrears, to be a reliquator, to pay only piece-meal, by instalments; er ist mit tausend Thalern im —e, he is a thousand dollars in arrears, he has a thousand dollars to make up, to make good; dieser Pächter &c. ist immer im —stande, this farmer or tenant is always behind-hand, never pays up to the mark; alle Zahlungen abgerechnet, bleibt er noch mit so viel im —stande, all payments reckoned off, he remains so much still in arrears, he has so much still to pay; dieser Pächter ist durch den Krieg in —stand gekommen, this farmer has got into arrears through the war, [fam.] in consequence of the war this farmer has got behind-hand in the world. 2) the balance, remainder, rest, overplus, arrears [of a debt or bill]. Den —stand bezahlen, to pay the balance, to settle the difference, to pay up the arrears; die —stände eintreiben, to pursue payment of the outstanding arrears or balances of accounts, to sue recovery of the same; er ist die —stände von Zinsen, Steuern, Miethe &c. von so und so viel Jahren schuldig, he is in debt so and so many years for the arrears of interest, taxes, rent &c.; der —stand der Steuern, the being behind-hand with, the state of non-payment of the taxes; verlorene —stände, bad debts, arrears lost. —ständler, m. [little used] a person behind-hand, a reliquator. —ständig, adj. and adv. 1) indebted, due in debt. Er ist noch mit einer starken Summe —ständig, he is still behind-hand with, still in debt [for] a considerable sum; ein —ständiger, a person behind-hand, in arrears, a reliquator. 2) causing arrears, a balance, a deficiency, making any one behind-hand [in his payment &c.]. Die —ständige Summe, das —ständige bezahlen, to pay the remaining sum, to pay off the balance, clear the account, discharge the remainder; die —ständigen hundert Gulden, the hundred florins remaining, still due, the balance of a hundred florins; wie hoch beläuft sich Ihre —ständige Forderung? haben Sie Ihre —ständige Forderung erhalten? how much does your remaining demand or claim amount to? have you received the balance of your account, the rest or remainder of your claim? das Kapital mit den —ständigen Zinsen bezahlen, to pay the principal and remaining interest or interest in or with arrears; die —ständigen Steuern eintreiben, to recover the taxes in arrears, still due, that were not paid up. —stehen, V. Zurückstehen. —stellig, adj. and adv. [little used, except in chancery-style] V. —gänzig, —ständig. —stoß, m. a thrust, shove or push from behind, a back-thrust. —stoß der elastischen Körper, the repulsion of elastic bodies; —stoß der Kanone, the recoil of the cannon. —strahl, m. a reflected ray or beam. —strahlen, V. Zurückstrahlen. —strahlung, f. reflexion of the lights [from the principal objects to the accessories]. —streich, m. back-stroke, back blow, a blow from behind. —streicher, m. [with cutlers) a blade with a back, with one edge, a one-edged blade. —strich, m. —strich der Zugvögel, the return-migration of birds of passage. —stück, n. 1) V. Rückenstück. 2) V. —aufsteiger. —sturz, m. overthrow, fall backwards. —taube, f. [little used] V. Hohltaube. —tritt, m. 1) step backwards, retreating step. 2) retiring, stepping back. 3) Fig. a) returning to one's place &c. Sein —tritt zur römisch-katholischen Kirche, his return to Catholicism. b) withdrawal, withdrawing. Sein —tritt vom Amte, his withdrawal from office. —wand, f. —wand eines Schrankes, einer Kutsche, Kanzel, back of a wardrobe or closet, of a coach, of a pulpit. —wechsel, m. [in commerce] re-exchange upon protestation, a return-bill or cheque. —weg, m. road or way for returning; it. way back, the return. Den —weg antreten, auf dem —wege seyn, to commence one's return, one's way back or home, to be on one's return home or back; einen andern —weg nehmen, to take another road or way for returning, another way home or back; auf dem —wege, auf meinem —wege, on my return, as I was returning, coming back, on my road home or back. —wehr, f. [in war] retrenchment, V. Rückenwehr. —weichung, f. yielding, drawing back; [in architecture] gradual diminution of thickness in the wall or plinth, retreat. —weisung, f. [Zurückweisung] a reference. —welle, f. a machine for turning a wind-mill. —wind, m. [in seamen's lang.] an eddy-wind, a squall, a wind that blows from all points of the compass, sudden gust as if rebounding from off-shore, a rebuff. —wirken, v. intr. to react. —wirkende Kraft, reactive force or power; [in grammar] —wirkende Ausdragsörter, reciprocal verbs, verbs of the middle voice; it. V. Zurückwirken. —wirkung, f. reaction. Wirkung und —wirkung stehen im Verhältnisse mit einander, action produces equivalent or equipollent reaction, the reaction is equal to the action; it. V. Zurückwirkung. —wurf, m. [in general] a sling or jerk back or backwards; [especially at nine-pins] back-blow, back-stroke, rebound. Zwei Regel im Hinwürfe und vier im —würfe machen, to make or score two pins by the direct bowling and four by the back-stroke. —zug, m. 1) V. —strich. 2) a move back; [especially] retreat [of troops]. Zum —zuge blasen, to sound the or to retreat. —zugsordnung, f. order of retreat.

||Rücke, f. [pl. -n] [in nat. hist.] [Saatkraße] the rook.

Rücken, V. Rücken.

Rücken, [allied to ragen = to move] I. v. intr. to move. Vorwärts —, to move forwards, to advance, to come on; rückwärts —, to move backwards, to retire, to go back; nicht von der Stelle —, not to move, stir from the place, [fam.] not to move, budge an inch; mit dem Stuhle näher —, to come or move nearer with the chair, to draw one's chair nearer; vom Feuer weg —, to move away or off from the fire, to draw back from the fire; — Sie ein wenig näher, rückt näher an einander! come a little nearer, approach a little [more]! stand, sit, lie, draw, press nearer one another! der Zeiger rückt immer weiter, the index [minute or hour-hand] keeps gaining, gains more and more; [in sportsmen's language] der Hase rückt zu Holze, the hare is making for the wood, for cover; die Sonne rückt immer höher, the sun keeps ascending, mounts higher and higher; die Bäume — heraus [more usual, schlagen aus], the trees shoot up, shoot out, sprout, put forth, shoot into wood &c. Fig. Die feindlichen Truppen rückten in's

Land, in die Stadt, the troops of the enemy pushed forward into, entered the country, the town; vor eine Stadt —, to advance, approach or draw on towards a town [with an army]; in's Feld, aus dem Lager —, to draw into the field, to open the campaign, to break forth from the tents or camp; in die Winterquartiere —, to enter, to go into, to retire into winter-quarters; mit einer Mauer weiterhinaus —, to advance further with a wall. Fig. Es rückt nicht, will nicht — [in familiar lang.], it does not advance, get on, does not progress, won't come on; die Zeit rückt näher, the time approaches, draws on, moves on apace; [mit der Sprache] heraus — [in familiar language], to speak, to uncloset one's teeth, [fam.] to open one's teeth, to come out with a thing; höher —, to advance, to rise by promotion. II. v. tr. [= bewegen] to move, to push, to draw, to remove, to displace. Etwas von seiner Stelle —, to move any thing from its place; man hat diesen Tisch, Stuhl, dieses Glas, Buch &c. gerückt, this table, chair, glass, book &c. has been moved, touched; den Tisch an die Wand —, to move the table on to the wall; den Topf vom Feuer —, to move, to take the pot from off the fire; — Sie das ein wenig zu mir her, move that, push that a little nearer to me; den Zeiger einer Uhr vorwärts oder rückwärts —, to move forwards or backwards, to put on or back the hand of a watch; den Hut aus dem Gesichte, aus der Stirne —, to move the hat from off the face, the forehead, to raise, lift or put up the hat a little more; Etwas zurecht —, wieder an seinen Ort —, to put any thing to-rights, to arrange any thing, to move or put any thing [back again] into its place. Fig. [in popular lang.] Einem den Tisch — [ihn beschmausen], to go and have a house-warming with any one. Das —, the moving, stirring, removing, displacing.

Rücken, m. [-s, pl. -] [allied to ragen, recken = to stretch, to extend], dim. ||Rücklein, n. [-s, pl. -] 1) Der — eines Berges, the ridge, crest of a mountain; — eines Buches, Kammes, the back of a book, comb; den — eines Buches machen [with book-binders], to put on the back to, to make the back of a book; [in architecture] der — eines Gewölbes, the extradoes, cope of a vault; der — der Nase, the ridge of the nose; der — eines Beetes, the back or ridge of a garden-bed; [with miners] das Flöz macht einen —, the lode makes a back, ridge; [in sportsmen's language] the spur, the false toe [of the dog, wild boar &c.]. 2) a) Der — eines Thieres, the back or chine of an animal; der — [das —stück] eines Hasen, Kaninchens, the back of a hare, rabbit; der — [das —stück] eines Ochsen, rump [of beef]. b) [especially of a man] the back. Einen breiten — haben, to have a broad or wide back, broad, wide or large shoulders; einen frummen — machen, to make a crooked back, to bend one's back, to stoop, to hump up one's back; eine Last auf dem — tragen, to carry a burthen on one's back; auf dem — liegen, to lie upon one's back; sich mit dem — an Etwas lehnen, to lean against any thing with one's back; mit dem — gegen einander gelehrt, back to back. Fig. a) [in fam. lang.] Einem den — fechten, to turn one's back on or to any one, [fam.] to cut any one; Einem den — fegen [low], to give any one a sound threshing, horsewhipping, [low] to tan any one's hide, any one's jacket for one; Einem den — frei halten, sich den — frei halten, to take any one's part, to support, to back any one; to keep one's self safe, out of danger; einen steifen — haben, to be of an obstinate, sullen disposition; einen breiten — haben, to have a broad back of one's own, broad shoulders, to be able to bear it; seinen — beugen, to be submissive, to submit, to yield, to knock or knuckle under; Einem den — fragen [low], to scratch any one's back for him, to flatter any one; das Glück hat ihm den — gekehrt, Fortune has turned her back on him, has wished him good-bye; den — wenden, to turn one's self round, fig. to go away, to desert, to abandon. b) to retire or remove one's self a little. Etwas, sein Vaterland &c. mit dem — ansehen müssen [in fam. lang.], to be obliged to quit or renounce, to be compelled to leave one's country, one's fatherland, to be compelled to expatriate or exile one's self; Etwas hinter Jemandes — thun, to do any thing behind any one's back, without his knowledge, permission; Einem hinter dem — Böses nachsagen, to speak ill of any one behind his back, to backbite any one. 3) [especially the opposite side of the one in front] Der — eines Messers, the back of a knife; [in fortification] der — der Laufgräben, the back, reverse, flank of the trenches; im — beschießen, to flank-fire, to fire obliquely into the trenches; dem Feind in den — fallen, ihn im — angreifen, to fall upon the enemy in the rear, to attack the enemy in the rear, from behind; den Feind im — haben, to have the enemy in one's rear, behind one, at one's heels, one's back; ein Morast deckte den — des Heeres, a morass covered the rear of the army. Fig. Einem den — halten [in fam. lang.], to back any one, to shoulder or prop up any one, to support or keep any one in countenance.

Rückenader, f. [in anatomy] the dorsal vein. —band, n. [in anatomy] the dorsal ligament of the os calcis, pternia or calcaneum. —birn, f. V. Pfundbirn. —blatt, n. the iron-back or hearth-plate of a chimney. [with sculptors] Das —blatt eines Altarstückes, the back of an altar-piece. —blut, n. a disease in horned cattle and sheep, blood of the spleen, disease of the milt. —barre, f. [in medicine] the dorsal phthisis or consumption. —drüse, f. [in anatomy] the dorsal gland, pancreas. —fell, n. V. —haut. —fläche, f. the flat or surface of the back. —flosse, f. a dorsal fin. —flosser, m. a fish with dorsal fins. —gelenk, n. V. —wirbel. —granne, f. [in botany] the dorsal ridge [that rises from the surface of the exterior side of a glume or valvule]. —gurt, m. V. Rückgurt. —haar, n. hair of or on the back. Das —haar des Bibers, the ridge, the dorsal stripe, the mother-wool of the beaver; [in heraldry] das —haar eines Hundes, wenn es von anderer Farbe ist, als das übrige, the dog's mantling; [with hatters] Hüte von —haaren, beaver-hats from the mother-wool or hair. —halt, m. [fig. = Stütze, Schutz] support, stay, prop. Einen guten — halt haben, to have good support or protection; Eines — halt seyn, to be the support or stay of any one, to protect or support any one; [in war] [Reserve] the reserve, body of reserve, the reserve-corps. —halter, m. stay, support, prop, [fam., of a man] a bottle-holder. —haut, f., dim. —häutchen, || —häutlein, n. [in anatomy] = das —fell the pleura. —höcker, m. [in anatomy] a dorsal tubercle. —kamm, m. dorsal crest [of certain lizards &c.]. —flinge, f. a blade with a back or with one edge, a one-edged blade. —korb, m. a basket for the back, a dorsel or dorser, a scuttle-basket. — Fräßer, m. a claw, hand or other instrument for scratching the back, a back-scratcher. — lehne, f. the back [of a seat for leaning against]. — mark, n. spinal marrow. — muskel, m. [in anatomy] the dorsal muscle. Der breite muskel, the great or grand dorsal; der grätige muskel, the spinous muscle of the back. — nerve, m. [in anatomy] the dorsal nerve. — pfeife, f. [with organ-builders] pipe of the choir-organ. — pferde, — paarden, pl. ropes under the yards, the man-ropes. — rabe, m. V. Wandelfröße. — riemen, m. [on horse-harness] the back-band. — rippe, f. [in botany] the midrib or ridge of the under part of a leaf. — schanze, f. [in fortification] a little half-moon on to the back of a greater one, reduct, reduct, redout, a secondary half-moon. — schild, m. the back-shield of the tortoise or turtle, carapace. — schlag, m. blow on the back. — schmerz, m. pain in the back. An schmerzen leiden, to suffer from pains in the back. — schwimmer, m. [Ruderwanze] the notonectes, water-bug, water-skipper. — seite, f. the side of the back, of the rear. — ständig, adj. [in botany] dorsal. — streif, m. dorsal streak or stripe. — streifraupe, f. the caterpillar in livery. — stück, n. 1) part of the chine [of pigs or hogs], of the saddle or loin [for mutton]; of the sirloin [for beef], of the back [for all dead animals]. 2) piece of the back [to a garment]. Das stück von einem Harnische, the back of a cuirass. 3) picture of the hinder view or back of any thing, dorsal picture. — weh, n. back-ache. — wehr, f. [in fortification] a transverse wall against shot coming from the rear. — werk, n. [in organs] the choir-organ. — wind, m. [in seamen's lang.] a wind in the stern, a poop-wind. — winkel, m. [in anatomy] the dorsal angle [to the middle pieces of the fingers]. — wirbel, m. — wirbelbein, n. [in anatomy] the dorsal vertebra. — wolle, f. the mother-wool [of the sheep]; the back-wool.

Rücker, m. [-s, pl. -] 1) [quite unusual] one that moves, budes, a budge. 2) [with watchmakers] the curb of the main-spring [for retarding and regulating].

Rücklings, adv. 1) [rückwärts] backwards, rearwards. — fallen, to fall backwards, flat on one's back, [fam.] one's seat of honour; — gehen, to go or to walk backwards, [fam.] to walk crab-fashion, heels foremost; — schlafen, liegen, to sleep, to lie on one's back. 2) [= in the back, im Rücken] from behind, in the rear. Einen anfallen, to attack any one behind, V. Hinterrücks.

Rücksen, V. Ruchsen.

Rückwärts, adv. 1) behind, in the rear, backwards, retreating, retiring, backing off or out. — fallen, gehen, sehen, to fall, go or walk, look backwards; die Krebse gehen —, crabs walk backwards, retreating; einen Schritt thun, to make a step backwards, to step back; weder vorwärts noch können, to be able to go neither forwards nor backwards, to be neither able to advance nor to recede; der Mond geht nie —, the moon never retrogrades; das Heer machte eine Bewegung —, eine — gehende or rückgängige Bewegung, the army made a retrograde movement; sich auf den Boden fallen lassen, to let one's self fall back to the ground or down; — sitzen, fahren, to sit, to ride with one's back to the horses. Fig. [in fam. lang.] Die Sache geht weder vorwärts noch —, the thing neither goes forwards nor backwards, is at a stand, does not move a bit, is at a dead halt, is becalmed, stays stock-still; seine Sachen, seine Geschäfte gehen —, his affairs are in a bad way, his business is getting behind-hand, [fam.] is going the wrong side of the post, of the gate, of the wall, of the door. 2) [not much used, = zurück] — kommen, to come back, to come again, to return.

Rückweise, adv. by short impulses, by fits, jumps or starts; little by little, by little and little, by degrees. Sich fortbewegen, to move on by sudden movements. Fig. — arbeiten, to work at intervals, by fits and starts; er ist großmüthig, he is generous when the fit [to be generous] is on him, when he is in the mood or vein.

Rüde, m. [-n, pl. -n] [probably from reiten = to copulate] 1) the dog or male of the canine genus. 2) [any large strong dog] a mastiff; [in sportsmen's language] a kind of big, strong, thick-headed and short-snouted dog, a boar-hound; [formerly] strong large hunting-dog. Der Ritter mit seinen —n, the knight with his hounds.

Rüdengebell, n. [chiefly in romance-style] the [deep-mouthed] barking of the boar-hounds. — horn, n. [in sportsmen's language] horn used at boar-hunting. — hund, m. a boar-hound. — knecht, n. a servant appointed to attend to the dogs, a dog-keeper. — paar, n. [chiefly in romance-style] a couple of boar-hounds, of large strong hunting-dogs. — partei, f. [in hunting] the whippers-in.

1. Rüdel, n. [-s, pl. -] [allied to rütteln] 1) a sort of spoon, a spatula, a stir-about, a skimmer-spoon. 2) [with fowlers] the net-perch, V. Gerege 3).

2. Rüdel, n. [-s, pl. -] [allied to Rotte] [in sportsmen's lang.] Ein Hirsche, Schweine, Wölfe, a herd of deer, a troop of wild boars, a pack of wolves; Hirsch, der im geht, a stag belonging to the troop or herd, a gregarious stag; im November gehen die Hirsche in — zusammen, in November stags go together in herds, congregate, become gregarious; ein Schwein, das im geht, V. — schwein; dieses Schwein geht nicht mehr mit dem —, this wild boar or hog goes no longer with the herd, is solitary; [fam.] auf diesem Spaziergange sieht man allerlei un-tereinander, in this walk one meets with all sorts of snobs, of tag-rag-and-bobtail, of the lowest rabble &c.

Rüdel schwein, n. a gregarious wild-hog.

Rüdeln, [= rütteln] I. v. intr. to move, to stir. II. v. tr. to move, agitate, stir up with the wooden skimmer-spoon.

Rüden, m. [-s, pl. -] [a sort of carp, of the cyprinus genus] crucian.

Ruder, n. [-s, pl. -] [in Low. Sax. roor; allied to the old Sax. rovan = to drive on] 1) an instrument for moving or turning round any thing. — in den Brauhäusern, a brewer's scoop. 2) a certain instrument for impelling any thing swimming. a) [in sportsmen's language] Die — [= die Süße] der Wasservögel, the oars, the webbed or palmated feet of the waterfowls or palmipeds. b) [generally] oar [to a large vessel]; die einer Galeere, the oars of a galley; die sämtlichen einer Galeere, the collective oars of a galley; das führen, to manage or handle an oar, to trim an oar; ein Schiff mit Hülfe der — leiten, to conduct a ship with the help of oars; ein Schiff, welches Segel und — führt, a ship, that carries both sails and oars; am sitzen, das ziehen, to sit at the oar, to pull an oar; die beifegen, to row at full speed, at full tug, to row cheerily; die Schaufel des —s, the blade of the oar; der Griff des —s, the oar-handle, the handle of the oar; das — an einem Rahne, a boat-oar, an oar; die — auslegen, to get the oars to pass; mit dem — den Grund berühren, to touch ground, the bottom with the oar; dieses Fahrzeug führt auf jeder Seite vier —, this vessel carries four oars on either side, is an eight-oared vessel; ein Zug or Bund —, three oars bound together, a batch of oars; it. [a peculiar sort of short oar] a scull. 3) [Steuer—] rudder, helm. Fig. Am sitzen, am des Staates sitzen, to sit at the helm, to guide or pilot the helm of the state, of affairs.

Ruderbalken, m. V. — träger. — band, n. a band for fastening the oar. — bank, f. — bank einer Galeere, the bench of oars in a galley; it. the crew of a galley; die hinterste — bank, the hindmost bench; it. the hindmost set or line of rowers; eine Galeere von fünf und zwanzig — bänken, a galley-ship of five and twenty oar-benches; Einen an die — bank schmieden, to chain any one down to the oarbench, to cause any one to row in chains, to make any one a galley-slave; — bank einer Schaluppe, the thwarts, seat, bank or bench of a boat. — besteu- rer, m. [in seamen's language] steersman, helmsman, man at the rudder. — bursche, m. a rower. — dolle, f. V. — ring. — gän- ger, m. [in seamen's lang.] pilot. — gat, n. V. — loch. — griff, m. the oar-handle; [on a rudder] the whip-staff. — haken, pl. [in seamen's lang.] the pintles of the rudder. — kahn, m. a row-boat, a boat with oars; it. a boat that has a rudder. — knecht, m. a rower; it. a galley-rower, [sometimes, more especially] V. — slave. Hinterster — knecht, the rear oar [in a galley], the back-strokesman; vorderster — knecht, the fore-rower, the first oar or oarsman, the strokesman, the stroke-giver; — knechte, welche sich auf eine gewisse Zeit verbinden, volunteer rowers in a galley; — knechte, die als Verbrecher am Ruder ziehen, galley-slaves, slaves on board the hulks; sämmliche — knechte einer Galeere, the galley-crew; die — knechte ruderten aus Leibeskräften, the galley-crew rowed as hard as they could pull, at full tug, strained every nerve at the oar; ein Kanonenschuß nahm alle — knechte einer Bank weg, a cannon-shot swept away one entire bench or bank of oars. — leute, pl. rowers. — lichter, m. [in seamen's lang.] a rope for raising the rudder a little, rudder-stopper. — loch, n. the rudder-case. — los, adj. and adv. without oars, oarless; it. without a rudder, having lost the rudder. — meister, m. the under-officer or overseer of a galley, it. the oar-keeper in galleys; it. a sort of galley-serjeant. — nachen, m. V. — kahn. — nagel, m. the boat-thole. — pflöck, m. row-peg, row-lock. — pfo- sten, m. the main-piece of a rudder. — pinne, f. rudder-pin, whip-staff, the tiller, V. Helms- stock. — platte, f. the wash of an oar, oar-blade. — riemen, m. the rudder-thong. — ring, m. a ring instead of a row-lock. — schau- fel, f. V. — platte. — schiff, n. a row-ship, a galley. — schlag, m. stroke of an oar or oars. — slave, m. a galley-slave. Sämt- liche — klaven eines Schiffes, the galley-crew. — spiker, pl. rudder-nails. — stange, f. an oar, a rowing pole or perch. — stelle, f. [with paper-makers] the vat-chest, swimmer. — stock, m. the tiller, helm, V. Helms- stock. — stropp, n. the rudder-strap or grommet. — talje, f. tackle for the tiller. — träger, m. [Dolbord] row-lock of a galley. — wan- ze, f. [in nat. hist.] the notonecte. — werk, n.

oar-work. —zug, m. V. Ruderfchlag.

Ruderer, m. [-s, pl. -] rower, oarsman; [as a peculiar sort of rowers] sculler.

Rübern, I. v. intr. 1) [sich bewegen] to move, to row. Die Enten &c. — mit den Füßen, ducks &c. row with their feet; die Vögel — mit ihren Flügeln in der Luft, birds row with their wings through the air. 2) to use the oar, to pull, tug at or with the oar, to row. Er muß zur Strafe —, he has been condemned to the galleys; aus Leibeskräften —, to row at full tug or strain, to strain every nerve at the oar; nach einem Orte, an's Land —, to row to a spot towards land; frisch! gerudert ihr Schiffsleute! come be alive my men, my hearties! pull away and with a will! let go! row cheerily! so —, daß Niemand bespitzt wird, to feather one's oar well, not to fetch any crabs, [as an order] row dry! gegen den Wind gerudert! pull to windward! rückwärts —, a) to row backwards [speaking of the common posture of every rower], b) to back water, to hold water; it. to pull to starboard. II. v. tr. to row. Das Fahrzeug, den Rahn —, to row the vessel, the boat. Das —, the act of rowing, rowing. Im — geübt seyn, to be practised in rowing, to be a good hand, a crack-hand, a dab or dabster at handling an oar; er versteht sich nicht auf's —, he does not know how to handle, to feather an oar, he is a regular crabsman.

Rüdiger, m. [-s, pl. -] [name of men] Roger.

*Rudimente, [pl.] [Anfangsgründe] rudiments.

Rudolf, [Rudolph] m. [-s, pl. -e] [name of men] Rodolph, Ralph.

Rudolfschnecke, f. concha persica, the purple-fish or shell of Panama.

1. Ruf, m. [-es, pl. -e] 1) [= Laut] cry. Man hörte einen —, a cry was heard. 2) call, cry, voice. Der — der Thiere, the call, answering cry of animals; auf Eines — hören, to listen to the call or cry of any one; er kam auf den ersten —, he came at the first call, the moment I called him, cried out to him; die Schafe verstehen den — des Hirten, the sheep hear, understand the voice of the shepherd. it. [in sportsmen's language] a wind upon the horn, a call, a mot. Einen —, zwei, drei — e in das Horn stoßen, to sound once, twice, thrice on the bugle or hunting-horn, to wind a call, two, three mots upon the horn. [in the army] a sign with the trumpet or bugle, trumpet-call. Den — blasen, to sound a call. Fig. a) Er hat einen — nach Berlin erhalten, einzunehmen — als Professor nach Göttingen bekommen, he has received an invitation, a summons &c., he has been called to Berlin, has received an invitation to [fill] a [professor's] chair at Göttingen. b) an inward instinctive impulse, a call. Einen — zu Etwas in seinem Innern vernehmen, to have a call, to feel one's self called, to have a natural bias, bent, turn, instinctive desire or taste for any thing; dem — e der Natur folgen, to obey the call, to follow the dictates of nature; dem göttlichen — e widerstehen, to resist the voice of God, the divine summons; it. [= Mission] V. Beruf. 3) [= Gerücht] [little used] rumour. Es gehet der —, daß &c., the rumour goes, that &c. it. renown, fame, reputation, character [either good or bad]. Einen guten, übeln — haben, in gutem, übelm — e stehen, seyn, to have a bad character or reputation, to be in ill repute, [fam.] to be in bad odour; sie hat einen schlimmen —, she is of a bad character, of ill fame, her fair name has been breathed upon; ein Mann, der einen guten — hat, a man of good fame, of unblemished character, of good reputation, in high public estimation; Jemand in einen bösen — bringen, to ruin or take away any one's character, to give any one a bad name; den guten — Jemandes wiederherstellen, to re-establish the good name, fair fame of any one, to clear up any one's character; das könnte seinem guten — e schaden, seinen guten — beflecken, that might injure his reputation or character, tarnish or foul his fair fame, his good name; er hat den — eines ehrlichen Mannes, sie steht im — e der Schönheit, he has the reputation, credit of being an honourable man, she has the renown, the reputation of a beauty, of being a beauty, she passes for a belle; Einen nur dem — e nach kennen, to know some one merely by reputation, by name. it. [= guter —] reputation, fame, name, character [in a good sense]. Sein — ist gut gegründet, das kann seinem — e nichts schaden, his reputation is established, that cannot in the slightest degree affect his reputation, injure his name, character; diese Anstalt kam bald in —, this institution soon acquired a reputation, grew into vogue; er steht in einem unverdienten — e, he enjoys a reputation foreign to his deserts, a name, a good character that he does not deserve; die Werke dieses Dichters stehen in großem — e, the works of this poet are in great fame, are very much lauded or extolled, stand very high, enjoy the greatest repute; diese That, diese Kur hat ihn sehr in — gebracht, this action, this cure has brought him very much into repute, vogue, has brought him forwards, [fam.] has made him quite the go. 4) [in sportsmen's lang.] a whistle, a call; a bird-call, cat-call, quail-pipe. 5) [with fowls = Lockvogel] a decoy-bird.

Rufsenbung, f. —fall, m. [little used] the vocative. V. Vocativus.

2. Ruf, n. [-es, pl. -e] [in seamen's lang.] V. Roof.

||Rufe, f. [pl. -n] [allied to reiben] V. Schorf, scab, crust. Es bildet sich schon eine — auf der Wunde, there is already a scab or crust forming over the wound.

Rufen, [in Goth. hroþjan, appears allied to the Lat. crepō, irr. I. v. intr. to cry, to call out. Ich höre —, I hear something or somebody cry, calling out; mit lauter Stimme —, to cry with a loud voice; zu Gott —, to cry out to, unto God, to pray to God with a loud voice, it. to invoke or call upon God for succour, to cry out to God for help, aid; Feuer, Rache, Diebe, Mörder —, to cry fire, revenge, thieves or thief, murder; er rief um Hülfe, he cried out help, for help; in's Gewehr —, to cry to arms; it. Einem —, to cry out to or for, to call any one; wer hat mir gerufen? who cried out for me? who called me? II. v. tr. 1) to make known by crying or proclamation, by the herald or crier, to cry. Die Stunden —, to cry the hours [as a watchman] 2) to summon or require by crying, to call. Einen —, bei or beim Namen —, to call some one, to call by name; einen Hund —, to call a dog; den Hühnern, Gänsen —, to call the hens or fowls, the geese; [it. as animals do] das Männchen ruft dem Weibchen, the male calls [to] the female; die Glocke ruft uns in die Kirche, the bell calls, summons us to church; die Trompete ruft den Krieger in die Schlacht, the trumpet calls the warrior to the fight, the battle; Einen zu Hülfe —, to call any one to help, to come to one's help, to call out to any body for help, for succour; Sie kommen wie ge — [= gerade recht] [in familiar lang.], you come in good season, just in time, in the right time, in the very nick of time, most opportunely; Einen zum Zeugen —, to call [on] any one as a witness, to invoke any one's testimony or evidence; Einen zu sich, bei Seite —, to call any one to one's self, apart, aside; Einen — lassen, to call any one, to let any one be called or sent for, to send for any one; man rufe den Arzt, lasse den Arzt —, let the physician be called [in], let him be sent for. Fig. Gott hat ihn zu sich ge —, God has summoned him, called him to himself; Gott hat uns ins Leben ge —, God called us into life; [modern and a little highflown] Etwas in's Leben —, to call into existence, to set up, to establish, to bring forth; er hat diese Anstalt in's Leben ge —, he it was that called this establishment into existence, to him we owe the existence of this establishment; die Herren N. und N. haben die Dampfschiffahrt auf dem Rheine in's Leben ge —, Messrs. N. and N. were the first to set on foot and establish a or the steam-boat-navigation on the Rhine; gehe, wohin dich die Ehre ruft! go where glory calls thee! meine Geschäfte — mich anderswohin, my business calls me elsewhere; it. Etwas in's Gedächtniß, Einem Etwas in's Gedächtniß —, to call something to one's mind or memory, to recall to mind any thing to any one, to remind any one of something by recalling it to his memory. Das —, crying, calling, V. 1. Ruf.

Rufenberg, m. [-es, pl. -e] [with miners] impurities of certain tin-lodes or ores.

Rufer, m. [-s, pl. -] 1) a crier, a caller, one who cries, cries out, calls, proclaims, summons; [in saltworks] a workman who calls to work the persons who carry the brine-leavings, brine-settlings &c. 2) [in seamen's language] [for Sprachrohr] speaking-trumpet.

Rüff, m. [-es, pl. -e] [allied to Rufe] [with glass-makers] a black and porous scoria or slag.

Rüffel, m. [-s, pl. -] [allied to raffen] a rough plane, a jack-plane.

Rüffelsamm, m. &c. V. Riffelsamm &c.

Rüffrig, Rüffrig, [from Rüff] adj. and adv. [with miners] — e Gänge, lodes or gangs of tin-ore mixed with much dross or waste.

Rüffhobel, m. [-s, pl. -] V. Ruffel.

Rüfig, adj. and adv. [in popular lang.] having a scab, scabby; it. [chiefly with bakers &c.] crusty, having a thick or much crust. — werden, to be crusty, to make a crust.

Rüffraut, n. [-es] [Ruf perhaps allied to reiben] the blue-flowered henbane or fleawort or flea-bane.

Rügbar, adj. and adv. blameable, censurable; it. denounceable, accusable.

Rügbarkeit, f. blameability, accusability, the quality of that which may be blamed, denounced or accused.

Rüge, f. [pl. -n] [from rügen] 1) [= Anklage, not much used] an accusation, denunciation, inculpation. Die — thun, to make an accusation, to lay a complaint. 2) [not much used] a judicial inquiry, inquisition, information, search, quest, inquest, scrutiny, disquisition. 3) [the most usual acceptance of the word] [Tadel, Verweis] reprimand, lecture, censure; [in law practice] admonition. Das verdient eine —, that deserves a reprimand, [a vote of] censure. 4) [formerly, a peculiar sort of Gericht] a court of misdemeanours, a court competent to try actions of assault. 5) [seldom used, = Polizeigesetz] regulation of the police, order from a magistrate or quorum, a police-institution. 6) punishment of a transgression. 7) fine, penalty, forfeit. 8) [old, = Geraehen] crime, transgression.

Rügebuch, n. register for enrolling the complaints that have had a judicial hearing; it. book of the police-regulations. — gericht, n. V. — 4); it. [still, in several parts of Germany] a tribunal or commission of judges or certain other public functionaries for the trial of certain offenses against the forest-laws, the regulations of the agricultural police &c. — graf, m. [formerly] the president of a court that tried cases of assault, trespass and slander. — herr, m. [formerly] assessor of a court of assault and slander. — meister, m. 1) [in familiar lang.] V. Sitztenrichter. 2) [formerly] judge of a court of assault and slander. — opfer, n. [with the ancient Jews] the cake of memorial. — ordnung, f. [formerly] regulations and procedure touching trespass, assault and battery &c. — richter, m. [formerly] a judge who takes cognizance of actions and complaints of assault, trespass &c. — sache, f. affair concerning some injury, affront &c. — schreiber, m. [formerly] a sort of clerk or notary who takes cognizance of assaults, injuries &c. — strafe, f. [formerly] penalty pronounced by the tribunal that takes cognizance of assault, trespass and the like; it. [now] penalty pronounced by the — gericht. — tag, m. [formerly] the day for hearing or pleading the plaint upon a case of assault, injury, trespass &c. — urtheil, n. [formerly] sentence delivered by the court of assault and trespass.

Rügen, [appears allied to the Lat. rogare, the Germ. fragen, as likewise to rechten, richten v. tr. 1) [Meidung thun] [obsolete, except in chancery-style] to mention. Der oben gerügte Punkt, Hauptmann, the point, the captain mentioned above, above-mentioned. 2) [bekennen] [obsolete] to avow, acknowledge, confess. 3) [beschuldigen] [obsolescent] to accuse. Mich rügt ein Bösewicht, a scoundrel accuses me. 4) [generally] to censure with words, to rate, reprimand, scold. Jemandes Fehler —, to blame, to condemn the faults of any one; ich will es nicht —, I do not mean to censure it, I will not take the matter up; er rügte das Benehmen des Ministers laut und öffentlich, he denounced the [culpable &c.] behaviour of the minister to all the world, loudly and publicly; Fehler eines Schriftstellers —, to animadvert upon, to hold up, to lay hold of, to expose with acumen the faults of an author. 5) [bestrafen] [chiefly in law-style] to punish. Ein Vergehen —, to punish a transgression, a misdemeanour; diese Beleidigung soll gerügt werden, this injury, this offence shall not remain unpunished, shall not be passed over with impunity.

Rüger, m. [-s, pl. -] 1) [formerly] the plaintiff in a case of assault, trespass or slander. 2) [not much used] reprovcr, reprimander. Der — unserer Sünden, der Pfarrer, the reprovcr of our sins, the clergyman. 3) [formerly] the fiscal receiver or collector of the fines and penalties awarded by the competent tribunals.

Rüggericht, &c. V. Rügegericht &c.

Ruhe, f. [pl. -n] [fam. or in poetry Ruh] [V. Ruhen] 1) the vis inertiae of any thing, the motionless or apathetical state of a thing that does not move, repose, rest. Ein Körper befindet sich in —, im Stande der —, wenn er an seinem Orte, in seiner Lage beharrt, so lange keine äußere oder innere Kraft auf ihn wirkt, a body is at rest, in a state of repose, if it remains in its place, so long as no external or internal power acts upon it; der Hahn der Flinte steht in —, wenn er nicht gespannt ist, the cock of the gun is down, when it is not cocked; setzet den Hahn eurer Flinte in —, let down the cock of your gun, uncock your gun, your gun-lock. 2) corporeal rest after an exertion, repose, quiescence. Die — thut mir wohl, repose, rest does me good; ich bedarf jetzt der —, I now stand in need of repose; bei'm dreitägigen Fieber hat man einen Tag —, in tertian agues one has a day's interval of repose, an intermittence of a day's rest or quiescence. Fig. Einen Acker in — lassen, to let a field lie in fallow; jetzt kommt die — des Winters, the repose, the sluggishness, the apathy, the quiet of winter is now at hand. 3) the exemption from or freedom of certain external deranging or exciting causes. Nicht zur — kommen können, keinen Augenblick — vor Geschäften &c. haben, to be unable to get any rest, to have not a moment's relaxation from business &c.; ich habe keine — vor ihm, I have no rest for him, he gives me so much trouble, he won't leave me alone &c.; seine Gläubiger lassen ihm keine —, his creditors give him no rest, [fam.] no breathing-time, are dunning him constantly or incessantly; nichts stört die — seines Schlafes, nothing disturbs the tranquillity of his sleep; die — von Geschäften, Berstreuung &c. lieben, to like relaxation, repose from business, mental occupation or distraction &c., to love temporary quiet, secession or seclusion from the cares or [noisy] pleasures of the world; in sicherer — auf dem Lande leben, to live in secure repose a country life; in tiefer — leben, to live in profound repose, peace &c.; sich zur — setzen lassen, to retire upon half-pay [in England], on a superannuation, on a superannuated allowance; sich zur — setzen, to retire from or give up business, to retreat from active life; einen Beamten zur — setzen, to pension off, to superannuate an official, to pension any civil officer upon the retired allowance. Fig. the exemption from, or absence of certain internal deranging causes. Wo finde ich — für mein Herz? where shall I find rest, repose, tranquillity for my heart? wenn Ihnen meine — und Zufriedenheit nur das Geringsste werth ist, if my tranquillity, repose and contentment is in the slightest degree dear to you; was ist süßer, als — des Gewissens? what is sweeter than the repose of conscience? die — seiner Seele, seines Geistes, the repose, tranquillity, quiescence, quietude, quiet of one's soul, mind or spirit; dem Tode mit — entgegen sehen, to face or await death with composure, calm serenity; ich liebe die —, I love repose, I like quiet; in — und Frieden leben, to live in or at rest and peace; die — einer Familie stören, to disturb the quiet, trouble the peace of a family; für or über die öffentliche — wachen, to watch over the tranquillity, security of the public, over the public peace; ein Störer der öffentlichen —, a disturber of the public peace; vor diesem Kinderger-schrei kann man keine Zeile in —, mit — lesen, schreiben, there is no reading, writing a line in peace or quiet for the noise of these children; Sie sollen Recht haben, lassen Sie mich nur in —, you shall have justice, satisfaction, right &c., I allow you to be right, only leave me in peace, in quiet; die nächtliche —, the repose, calm, quiet of [the] night; —! be quiet!; —! —! sage ich, peace, peace! I say, be quiet, will you! 4) (= Schlaf) rest, repose, sleep. Sich zur — begeben, legen, to betake one's self or repair to rest, to lay one's self or lie down to rest; er hatte die ganze Nacht keine —, he had no rest, repose the whole night; Einem eine angenehme — wünschen, to wish any one an agreeable repose, a good night's rest, V. Mittag —, Morgen —, Nacht —. 5) the place of rest, the resting-place. a) (= Grab). Zu seiner — eingehen, to go to one's long home, long resting-place, long rest; einen Todten zu seiner — begleiten, to accompany a corpse to its place of rest, of repose; die ewige —, die endliche — (= Tod), the eternal rest; Einen zur ewigen — bringen [ironical, for to murder any one], to give any one his quietus, to settle him [quietly], [cant] to settle his hash. b) [in sportsmen's lang.] resting-place of deer, lair, lodge, repair, covert. c) [in mechanics = Ruhepunkt] the fulcrum. d) [with gunsmiths, der Schlagfeder] the rest. Syn. Ruhe, Rast, Friede. Ruhe, in general, is that state in which we do not move; Rast, that in which a fatiguing motion ceases. Hence Rast is said only of living beings, for these only feel the fatigue of motion and the want of repose. Ruhe, on the contrary, is used of bodies, whether lifeless or living. Rast, moreover, only succeeds to motion in order to continue it; Ruhe can precede all motion and continue for ever. We resten only after bodily motion; but there is also an internal Ruhe, — that of the soul and mind. That state, in which the mind is not agitated by any emotion is called Ruhe; Friede, when not agitated by unpleasant emotions.

Ruhealtar, m. [with Roman catholics] an altar set up in the streets for the Corpus Christi procession. — bank, f. a resting-bench. Prov. Müßiggang ist des Teufels — bank, idleness is the mother of all vice. — bankhobel, m. [with joiners &c.] the jointer. — bett, n. bed of repose or rest, fig. [= Grab] bed of rest, grave, long home, narrow couch. — bock, m. [with fowlers] prop [for the perches with the bird-limed twigs]. — brett, n. [in gunnery] the sole or bottom of a gun-carriage. — bühne, f. [with miners] resting-floor or stage. — feind, m. enemy of public peace and tranquillity. — feld, n. V. Brachfeld. — fuge, f. [in architecture] a seam between the stones placed level or following a given slope. — gehalt, m. superannuation, pension, retired allowance; half-pay. — jahr, n. [in Jewish hist.] the sabbath-year, the sabbatic year. — kammer, f. [dim. — kammerchen, || — kammerlein, n.] sleeping-chamber, the bed-chamber; boudoir, private room; snug cosy little room!; fig. [= das Grab] the tomb. — kissen, n. cushion or pillow for sitting or reposing on. Prov. Ein gut Gewissen ist ein sanftes — kissen, a good conscience is a soft pillow. — küpe, f. [with indigo-manufacturers] settling-tub, vat for settlings. — los, adj. and adv. without repose or relaxation, restless, uneasy. Ein — loses Leben, a restless life, a life passed in agitation. — ort, m. resting-place or spot. — platz, m. [dim. — plätzchen, || — plätzlein, n.]

resting-place; snug cosy corner or retreat. Man hat in den Garten verschiedene —pläze vertheilt, different resting-places, seats &c. have been distributed throughout the garden; it. [in architecture] landing-place. Treppe mit —plätzen, a staircase with landing places; it. [in sportsmen's lang.] the lair, lodge, repair, covert, form; it. [in seamen's lang. = Ankerplatz] anchorage, harbour, road, bay. —polster, n. V. —tissen. —pulver, n. [with apothecaries] sleeping-powder. —punkt, m. centre of gravity; point of repose; [in music] rest, [also] pause; [in poetry] pause, caesural pause, final pause; [in mechanics] stay, support, prop, point of support, the fulcrum, hypomochlion. —riegel, m. [in gunnery] tie-bolt or pin of a gun-carriage. —sessel, m. chair of rest or repose, lounging-chair, arm-chair. —sitz, m. resting-seat; it. a retreat, place of retreat. Er hat sich einen angenehmen —sitz für sein Alter erbauet, he has built himself a delightful retreat for his old age. —stab, m. [with painters, = Malerstock] maulstick, mostick, leaning-stick or staff. —stand, m. state of repose, of quiet, of rest, of tranquillity, repose. Sich in —stand begeben, to retire from active life, to withdraw into retirement; einen alten Diener &c. in —stand versetzen, to pension off, to superannuate an old servant &c. —statt, —stätte, f. place of repose; fig. (= das Grab) the tomb. Einen zu seiner —statt begleiten, to accompany anyone to his last resting-place, to attend any one's funeral. —stein, m. a resting-stone [for labourers &c. to rest their burdens on &c.]. —stelle, f. place of repose, resting-place; [in architecture] a landing-place [on a flight of stairs]; [in music, rhetoric] pause, rest. Die —stellen gut beobachten, to observe the pauses well; [with painters] repose. —störer, m., —störerin, f. quareller, wrangler, brawler; it. disturber of the public peace. Er wurde als ein —störer aus dieser Gesellschaft verbannt, he was expelled as a litigious fellow from this society, the club he belonged to expelled him for his turbulence and unruliness; die Obrigkeit hat diese —störer beim Kopfe genommen, [the] justice has, the authorities have arrested or laid hands on, hold of these brawlers, disturbers of the peace of the community. —stunde, f. [dim. —stündchen, || —stündlein, n.] hour of rest, of repose. Nun schlägt die —stunde, the hour of rest is now striking; the curfew-bell is tolling; eine —stunde halten, to take an hour's rest, to repose an hour. —tag, m. day of repose, of rest, of relaxation. Des Herrn —tag, the day of rest, the Lord's day, the Sabbath, Sunday. —zeichen, n. [in music = Pause] pause; it. rest. —zeit, f. time of repose, of rest.

Ruhen, [Swed. ro, Low. Sax. rauen, Ice. roth, the radical signification appears to be to lie] v. intr. 1) [especially, not to leave one's place] to repose, to be in repose, in a state of repose or rest, to rest. Ein Körper ruhet, wenn er an demselben Orte beharret, a body rests, is in a state of rest, when it remains in the same place, the balance rests, is at its equilibrium; ein —des Fenster, eine —de Brücke [in architecture and engineering], a window or sash that never opens, a dormant window, a fixed bridge. 2) [especially to keep quiet] Er kann keinen Augenblick —, he cannot remain or keep quiet an instant; wollt ihr —! will you keep or be quiet! Fig. Die Waffen —, the weapons rest, slumber, grow rusty; aller Zank, Streit &c. ruht, all wrangling, squabbling &c. is laid at rest, in oblivion, is now at an end, sleeps; ich kann nicht —, bis ich &c., I cannot rest, rest satisfied, until I &c. 3) [generally to leave off any exertion] to leave off, to repose, to cease. to have or take repose or rest. Von seiner Arbeit —, to leave off, to rest from one's work; nach gethaner Arbeit ist gut — [often used proverbially], when one's labour is over, one's work is done, resting, reposing is good, repose is doubly sweet as soon as one's labour is completed; auf seinen Lorbeern —, to repose upon one's laurels; [also, ironical] to repose on one's [badly, too easily acquired] laurels or achievements, [also] to repose on one's laurels too soon, without having won them entirely; die Arbeiter, Pferde &c. ein wenig — lassen, to let the workmen, horses &c. rest a little; — Sie ein wenig, rest yourself a little; er schläft nicht, er ruht nur ein wenig, he does not sleep, he is only resting, [fam.] resting himself a little. Fig. Dieser Wein ist noch trübe, man muß ihn noch — lassen, this wine is still thick, it must be allowed to rest longer, it must have time to settle; der Hahn eines Gewehrs ruht, wenn er nicht gespannt ist, the gun-cock rests, is down, when it is not cocked; dieser Acker ruhet, man muß ihn — lassen, this field is in fallow, one must let it lie in fallow; die Aecker sind nur um so viel besser, wenn sie geruht haben, the fields are all the better, are so much the more improved for having lain in fallow; einen Teich — lassen, to drain off a pond and sow it [with grass, rice &c.]; ein Werk, eine Arbeit — lassen, to let a work, a task or labour lie dormant, stagnant. 4) [schlafen] to sleep, to rest, to repose. Ich wünsche Ihnen wohl zu — [as a civil wish, in Germany], I wish you a good night's repose or rest, a good night; ich wünsche Ihnen wohl geruht zu haben, [as a civil, polite, deferential or, in a bad sense, obsequious wish or address, in Germany] I hope you slept well last night, I hope you have slept well, I wish you a very good morning, it. [very fam. and sometimes slightly ironical] good morning to your nightcap! wie haben Sie geruht? how have you slept? how did you sleep last night? ich habe diese Nacht nicht wohl geruht, I have not rested well at all to night, my sleep or rest was very disturbed or often broken last night; zu Mittag — [fam. sein Mittagsschlafchen halten], to take one's afternoon's nap, one's siesta, one's afternoon's snooze. 5) to lie buried, to rest, to repose [in the grave]. Er ruhet schon längst im Grabe, he has rested in his grave a long time now; [on tombstones] hier ruhet die Asche, hier — die Gebeine des und des, hier ruhet der und der, here rest the ashes, here rest the bones, the mortal remains of so and so, here rests such and such a one. 6) to rest upon, to lean or to be laid upon, to bear upon. Dieser Balken ruhet auf der Mauer, this beam rests, bears upon the wall; das ganze Gebäude ruhet auf Säulen, the whole building rests upon pillars; ihr Arm ruhet auf seiner Schulter, her arm rested upon his shoulder. Fig. Der Geist Gottes, der Segen seines Vaters ruhet auf ihm, the spirit of God, the blessing of his father rests upon him, the benediction of his father hovers over him; sein Blick ruhet lange auf dem Greise, his look rested long, a long time upon the old man, his gaze was fixed, fastened for a long time upon the aged man.

Ruhig, adj. and adv. 1) [opposed to strong movement] tranquil, calm, still, reposing. Der Kranke muß sich — verhalten, the invalid, the patient must keep himself quiet; er saß — auf seinem Bette, he sat, was seated tranquilly on his bed; — schlafen, to sleep calmly, profoundly, tranquilly; die Luft ist —, war ganz —, the air is calm, there was not a stir in the air, [also] the air was hushed; die See war —, ward wieder —, the sea was calm, grew calm again, went down smooth; —er Puls, a calm, quiet pulse; seyd —! be quiet! it. no noise, no wrangling here! Fig. [= free from internal agitation] Seyn Sie deshalb —, Sie können hierüber, deshalb — seyn, be easy, undisturbed, unapprehensive, remain tranquil on that account, you can be quite at your ease respecting this, on this account, don't fret yourself about it, don't be alarmed, don't make yourself uneasy or frightened about it; ich kann über diese Sache nicht — seyn, I cannot remain quiet, be at ease, be free from agitation or excitement about this affair; Etwas — abwarten, to expect any thing calmly, tranquilly, quietly; — dem Tode entgegen sehen, to look death calmly in the face, to await death tranquilly, with tranquillity of soul; —es Gemüth, Gewissen, a calm or tranquil mind or conscience. 2) [exposed to no strong exciting or deranging causes] Ein —es Leben führen, to lead a calm, tranquil, peaceable, quiet, unostentatious life, a life secure, void of care &c.; — leben, to live tranquilly, peaceably; sich ein —es Alter bereiten, to prepare for one's self a tranquil old-age; im —en Besitze eines Gutes seyn, sein Glück — genießen, to be in the quiet possession of a property, to enjoy peaceably one's good fortune, tranquilly, calmly one's happiness; —er Besitzer eines Gutes, quiet occupant, undisturbed possessor of an estate. 3) [where tranquillity prevails] In einem —en Thale leben, to live in a peaceful vale; das —e Grab, the quiet grave, the silent tomb; die —e Nacht, the calm, tranquil, quiet night.

Ruhländer, m. [-s, pl. -] [with vine-dressers] sort of little vine, the grape of which is sweet-watered, liver-coloured.

Ruhm, m. [-es] [V. Rühmen] 1) [formerly = Ruf] Sein — ist nicht fein [in familiar language], his reputation is not very good. 2) glory. — ist ein höherer Grad der Ehre, glory is a higher degree of honour, honour carried to a higher degree constitutes glory; sich — mit Etwas erwerben, to acquire glory, to win renown by or through any thing; nach — streben, to strive after, to aspire to glory; seinen — in Etwas suchen, setzen, sich einen — aus Etwas machen, sich Etwas zum — machen, schätzen or rechnen, to seek, to place or set one's glory in any thing, to make a glory to one's self out of any thing, to glorify one's self about or concerning any thing; das gereicht ihm zum —e, that turns out to his glory, is greatly to his credit; das muß ich ihm zum — nachsagen, I must say that to his glory, in his honour, praise, favour, to his credit; ohne — zu melden [in familiar language], without vanity, without boasting, without vaunting; dieses Regiment hat sich mit — bedeckt, this regiment has covered itself with glory; ein ehrlicher Mann [zu seyn] ist sein —, his glory consists in being an honourable man; it. he regards the being an honourable man as his greatest glory; dies sey mein —, this be my glory, I aim at that merit and renown.

Ruhm = begier, — begierde, f. desire or thirst of glory; [in a more general sense] ambition. Sein Fehler war [eine] zu heiße — begier, his fault, foible, the weak part of his character was a too ardent thirst of glory, renown, distinction; edle, lobenswürdige — begierde, noble, praiseworthy ambition; von — begierde glücken, to burn with the desire of acquiring glory, fame, deathless renown, of distinguishing one's self, of acquiring preeminence. — begierig, adj. and adv. desirous, covetous of glory. — gier, f. avidity of glory, immoderate desire, extravagant thirst of glory, craving after fame. [in general, but in a worse sense than Ruhmbegierde] ambition. — gierig, adj. and adv. greedy of glory or renown, mad after fame, ambitious. — gierigkeit, f. V. — gier. — göttin, f. [Gama] Fame, the Goddess of renown. — liebe, f. love of glory. — los, adj. and adv. without glory; obscure. — loses Leben, obscure life; ein — loses Bequemlichkeitsleben führen, to lead an inglorious life of ease; — los sterben, to die without having earned any laurels of fame, unknown to fame, without having reaped any glory. [with poets] unmentioned and forgot. — losigkeit, f. privation, want, defect, absence of glory, fame, renown, reputation. — narr, m. a fool or madman after glory, it. an ambitious fool or madman. — neid, m. the envy of another's glory. — redig, adj. and adv. boasting, vaunting, vainglorious. Ein — rediger Mensch, ein — rediger, a boasting person, a boaster, an ostentatious spoken person, [fam.] a braggart, a big-talker. — redigkeit, f. boasting, vaunting, wordy exultation or ostentation, [fam.] bragging, talking big; es ist viel — redigkeit in dem, was er sagt, there is a great deal of bragging in what he says. — reich, adj. and adv. glorious, illustrious, honourable, bright, commendable, famous. Eine — reiche That, a glorious action. — sucht, f. passion, mania, phrensy of glory, fame, renown, distinction, [in general] ambition. Aus thörichtem — sucht verheerte er den Erdbreis, from a mad ambition he desolated the earth. — süchtig, adj. and adv. greedy, voracious after or of glory, fame; ambitious. Er ist grenzenlos — süchtig, he is immoderately ambitious, his ambition knows no bounds. — voll, adj. and adv. full of glory, of renown; glorious. — volle That, — volles Leben, glorious deed, life; — voll sterben, endigen, to die, to end gloriously. — würdig, adj. and adv. worthy of glory, of fame, of renown, glorious. — würdige That, a glorious action; — würdig handeln, to act most meritoriously, laudably, praiseworthy; er starb eines — würdigen Todes, he died a glorious, an honourable death. — würdigkeit, f. the quality of that which is glorious or worthy of glory, of celebrity.

Rühmen, [in old Sax. hruman means to cry out, in Swed. roma to shout applause, to applaud; allied to the Lat. rumor] 1) [provincial] to say, to tell. 2) [generally] to vaunt, to extol, [= loben] to praise, to celebrate, to laud. Man kann sein Verdienst, seine Thaten nicht genug —, one cannot sufficiently praise his actions, celebrate his deeds, extol his exploits, laud his deserts; das kann ich nicht —, I cannot praise that; ich werde es zu — wissen [in fam. lang.], I shall know how to eulogize it, I shall speak of it in terms of eulogium; I shall take care not to forget it; man muß ihn seines guten Betragens wegen —, praise cannot be refused him on account of, on the score of his meritorious conduct; er wird als ein rechtschaffener Mann gerühmt, man rühmt ihn als einen rechtschaffenen Mann, he is reputed, he has the reputation, the fame of being, the character of an honest man; sich —, to praise one's self, to boast, [fam.] to brag; man muß sich nicht selbst —, one must not praise one's self, [fam.] we should not brag, people should not trumpet forth, blazon abroad, sound their own praises; sich einer Sache —, to take credit to one's self for any thing, to boast or brag of any thing; er rühmt sich seiner Gelehrsamkeit, he boasts of, he is proud of, he vaunts his own learning, [fam.] he crows over his learning; er rühmt sich, mir große Dienste geleistet zu haben, er rühmt sich dessen zu sehr, he boasts of his having rendered me great services, he boasts about it too much; er hat keine Ursache, sich dessen zu —, he has no reason to boast, to be proud of it; er rühmt sich als meinen Beschützer, he passes himself off, he pretends to be my protector; it. sich einer Sache —, to pique one's self about, to take pride in, to feel proud of any thing; er rühmt sich dessen nicht, he does not pique himself about it, he does not value himself or pride himself upon it; [in fam. lang.] sie macht nicht viel — von ihren guten Werken, she does not claim any distinction for, she is not proud, vain or vain-glorious of her good works, she seeks no applause for her good deeds; man macht viel — von ihm, he is spoken of in very high terms, named or cited with great praise, [in a bad sense] he is very much cried up, trumpeted forth. Syn. V. Loben.

Rühmer, m. [-s, pl. -] [little used] one who praises or extols any person or thing, [chiefly in a bad sense] a crier up, a hyperbolic praiser or commender; ein — seiner eigenen Thaten, a crier up of one's own performances, a boaster, [fam.] a self-trumpeter, one's own trumpeter, a crower.

Rühmlich, adj. and adv. with glory, fame, renown or celebrity, glorious; laudable, creditable. Eine — e Handlung, That, a glorious action, illustrious or famous deed; eine — e Handlung, a creditable action; seine — en Anstrengungen, his laudable or praiseworthy exertions; einen — en Tod einem langen Leben vorziehen, to prefer a glorious death to a long life; — sterben, enden, to die gloriously, to make a glorious end, a distinguished exit, to end famously; er hat sich — aus dieser Sache gezogen, das ist sehr — für ihn, he has come out gloriously, triumphantly from or of this business or affair, that is very creditable, honorable for him; — von Jemand sprechen, to speak in eulogizing terms of any one, to speak advantageously of any person; to speak honorably of any one, to mention any one honorably, to make mention of any one in distinguishing or the most flattering terms of approbation; sein Amt —, mit — er Treue verwalten, to discharge the duties of one's office, to fill one's office honorably, with exemplary fidelity or loyalty; ein — es Zeugnis, an honorable testimony; das ist nicht —, that is not praiseworthy, that is not commendable; das — e dieser That, the commendable or praiseworthy part of this action.

Rühmlichkeit, f. glory, honor, praiseworthiness; laudability, creditableness.

Ruhr, f. [pl. -en] (V. Rühren) 1) [an action of moving, stirring, disturbing, only used in the following peculiar acceptations]. a) [in husbandry and vineyards] the second or third dressing of land for winter-sowing; it. the second or third dressing of a vine. b) [in seamen's lang.] Die — eines Schiffes [Grund —, das Stranden], the grounding, running aground, stranding of a ship. 2) [that which is stirred, only used in the following words] [in falconry] [Federspiel, Bertol] lure, covering of the lure, blind; [with fowlers] V. — vogel. 3) dysentery, flux. Die — or rothe —, the bloody flux, dysentery; die weiße —, flux, dysentery, diarrhoea, great looseness of the bowels; die — haben, an der — sterben, to die of the flux, bloody flux, dysentery.

Ruhr-alant, m. meadow-inula, yellow-flowered elecampane. — artig, adj. and adv. — artiger Durchfall, a dysenteric flux, a flux attended with blood or mucus and tenesmus. — haken, m. V. Rührhafen. — kirsche, f. cornel, cornelian cherry, dogberry. — krank, adj. and adv. ill of the flux or dysentery. Es gibt heuer viele — franke, there are a great many dysenteric patients this year. — kraut, n. a simple having anti-dysenteric properties; [in botany] a) [rankende Rheindolme] the diaceous gnaphalium, hispidula, elichrysum, cat's-foot, cudweed; b) filago; c) V. — alant; d) [gemeines Dürrkraut] common conyza, flea-bane; e) V. Rührwurz; f) [das jährliche Bingenkraut] the annual mercury, plant-mercury; g) [unechtes — kraut, die Salzblume] corymbiferous micropus. — lerche, f. V. — vogel. — mittel, n. an anti-dysenteric remedy, a remedy for diarrhoea. — nuss, f. the [red] filbert. — pflanze, f. a plant or simple of anti-dysenteric virtues, V. — kraut 1). — recht, n. V. Strandrecht. — rinde, f. a rind or bark of anti-dysenteric virtues, of astringent power. — vogel, m. [with fowlers] a decoy-bird. — wurz, — wurzel, f. tormentil, septfoil. Brasilische — wurzel, ipecacuanha, V. Brechwurzel.

Rührbar, adj. and adv. moveable, capable of being moved, stirred, disturbed. Fig. that which may be touched, excited, roused; sensible, sensitive. Ein — es Herz haben, to have a sensible heart.

Rührbarkeit, f. possibility of being moved or stirred. Fig. sensibility, sensitivity.

Rühren, [in agriculture] V. Rühren 3).

Rühren, [probably allied to ragen, regen; in old Northm. hrocra, means to move, Lat. ruere = to move quick, to rush] I. v. intr. 1) to touch, to reach. [in Scripture] Die Leiter rührte mit der Spitze an den Himmel, the top of the ladder reached to heaven; V. Reichen. 2) Fig. [= herrühren, entstehen] to hold from or of, to depend from or upon. Von Jemand zu Lehen — [in feudal law], to occupy or hold a fee of another, to hold a mesne or inferior fief of a fief dominant or in chief; daher rührt all unser Unglück, thence comes, proceeds, is derived all our misfortune; woher rührt das? whence springs, comes that? where does that rise, come from? woher rührt es, daß &c.? how or whence comes it, that &c.? V. Herrühren. II. v. tr. 1) [bewegen] to stir, to move. [with fowlers] Den Lockvogel — [flattern lassen], to make the decoy-bird flutter; sich —, to stir or move one's self; er ist so müde, daß er sich nicht — kann, weder Hand noch Fuß — kann, he is so tired, that he cannot move, can neither wag hand nor foot; er ist nicht todt, er rührt sich noch, he is not dead, he moves still; es war eine solche Menge Menschen da, daß man sich nicht — konnte, there was such a crowd of people there, there was no moving for them; so-balb sich das Kind in der Mutter rührt, as soon as the child moves in its mother's womb, as soon as the child quickens; rührt euch nicht von der Stelle! don't move, stir, [fam.] budge from the place or spot! vor seinem Vater wagt er [es] nicht, sich zu —, he does not dare move before his father; rühre dich! [in fam. lang. tummle dich! eile dich!] be alive! bear a hand! speed yourself, rouse yourself, push on, keep moving, come, stir your stumps! put your best leg foremost! come, double quick! was man auch sagen mag, er rührt sich nicht, whatever any one may say, he does not move, does not rouse himself up, shake off his indolence and apathy &c.; er ließe alle seine Freunde zu Grunde gehen, ohne sich zu —, he would let all his friends perish, without stirring, he wouldn't stir, move an inch to save his friends from drowning, perishing. Syn. V. Regen. Fig. Einen —, ihm das Herz —, to touch, move, excite, affect any one, any one's heart; das rührt ihn gar nicht, er ist ein Mensch, den gar nichts rührt, that does not touch, affect him at all, he is a man whom nothing excites, moves, he is a man totally insensible to every affection of the soul; er wurde aufs Äußerste, lebhaft davon oder dadurch gerührt, he was extremely, livelily, powerfully moved, touched by, at it; zum Mitleid gerührt werden, to be touched with pity, moved with or by compassion; der Anblick rührte ihn [bis] zu Thränen, the sight drew forth tears of compassion, sympathy &c. from him; dieses Schauspiel rührt die Zuschauer nicht, this spectacle does not affect, makes no lively or lasting impression on the spectators; Gott hat sein Herz gerührt, er hat sich bekehrt, God has touched his heart, he has reformed; ein — der Anblick, Auftritt, eine — de Rede, a touching sight, an affecting scene, a touching, moving discourse; eine — de Schönheit, a touching, moving beauty. 2) [te —, an —] to touch. [in Scripture] Seine Hand hat uns nicht berührt, his hand hath not touched us; die Harfe — [less poetical spielen], to play, to touch the harp; die Trommel —, to beat, to play the drum; vom Donner, vom Blitz gerührt [getroffen], hit with the thunder, struck with the thunderbolt, by lightning; er stand unbeweglich, wie vom Donner gerührt, he stood motionless, as if or like one struck by thunder. Fig. Vom Schläge gerührt werden, to be struck with an apoplectic fit, with a fit of apoplexy, with apoplexy; er ist schon mehrmals vom Schläge gerührt worden, he has had several fits of apoplexy, he has been struck several times with apoplexy. 3) a) [um —] to mix, to stir up or about. Den Brei —, to stir up the pap; die Schokolade muß noch mehr gerührt werden, the chocolate must be more stirred, milled; in Etwas —, to stir any thing. b) [—d mischen] mehrere Dinge untereinander —, to mix up, stir up several things together; Eier, Gips, Mörtel —, to whip, stir or dress buttered eggs, to mix up plaster of Paris, mortar; Butter —, to beat up butter, to churn cream; [fam.] V. Buttern. c) [—d, grabend bearbeiten] Einen Acker — or ruhren, to give a field its second dressing [by digging, turning up &c.]; einen Ausfluß —, to cleanse a drain. Das — V. Rührung.

Rührbottich, m. [with dyers] V. —fäse. —ei, n. [with cooks] a buttered egg. Wir aßen einige —eier, we ate some buttered eggs. Fig. [modern] a mixture, a stir-up. Müllner nannte die Oper ein —ei von Kunst und Wahn, Müllner called the opera a compound of art and nonsense. —eisen, n. any iron instrument for stirring about; [with distillers] iron bar for stirring the mash, scoop; [in salterns] rake, strike; [in glass-foundries] the fretting-iron, the frit-iron or poker. —faß, n. [Butterfaß] a churn, a barrel-churn. —gabel, f. a fork for stirring or whipping. —gerste, f. [with fowlers] the twig or spray to which the decoy-bird is tied. —haken, m. [with founders] slice, rake, strike, stirrer [for molten silver or copper]; [in the mint] a little shell; [with gilders] hook; [with potters] hoe; [with bricklayers] mortar-crook or plash, mortar-stirrer or mixer; [in agriculture] a double-edged plough-share without wheels, a hook-plough, V. Hafensflug. —holz, n. wood for stirring, a stirring pole; stick or staff for poking, raking, churning &c.; [with soap-boilers] V. —stock; [with tawers] crutch. —kelle, f. [—löffel] the skimmer-spoon, pot-ladle; [with bricklayers] beater, it. trowel, V. —früde. —kette, f. a chain used instead of shot for cleaning the sides of a vessel by shaking. —krüde, f. crutch, rake, strike, raker; [with bricklayers] the beater; [with brewers] [Malzfrüde] the oar; [with sugar-refiners &c.] spoon, spatula. —kübel, m. tub or vat for stirring, churning &c.; [with bricklayers] trough. —küpe, f. [with indigo-dyers] the second vat. —löffel, m. V. —felle. —löffelbret, n. [in kitchens] the rack for the ladle-spoons. —misch, f. V. Buttermisch. —nagel, m. the mill-clapper. —schaufel, f. [with bricklayers] trowel. —scheit, n. [in alum-works] the pallet [for stirring the lye]; [with brewers] the mash-oar; [with bakers] the kneading-beetle; [with bricklayers] beater, trowel; [with pastry-cooks] mixer, spatula. —schnur, f. [with fowlers] string to which the decoy-bird is attached. —spatel, m. [with wax-chandlers] spatula; [with confectioners] ice-cream spoon. —stäbchen, n. [in the mint] rod for stirring the molten metal, stirring-rod. —stange, f. [with paper-millers] stirring-pole [for the stuff]; [with charcoal-burners] rake, strike; [with founders] stick [for stirring the molten metal]; [with tawers] the stirring-pole [for the slack-lime pit]. —stecken, —stock, m. stick for stirring, poking, tempering, beating, churning, V. —scheit. —stock zur Schokolade, the chocolate-mill; [with soap-boilers] the tallow stirring-stick; [with sugar-boilers] V. —früde.

Rührig, adj. and adv. active, agile, nimble, alert, [fam.] natty. Ein —er Mann, an industrious man; ein —er Mensch, an active fellow; ein —er Arbeiter, an alert, nimble workman; —es Mädchen, an industrious girl, [also] an alert, nimble girl.

Rührigkeit, f. activity, agility, alertness, nimbleness.

Rührsam, adj. and adv. 1) [in familiar language, chiefly comic] easily to be touched or affected, [too] sensibly sentimental, lackadaisical. Dieser junge Mann hat ein sehr —es Herz, this youth has a heart easily touched, a heart of tender touched by love or female beauty. 2) [in fam. lang.] intended to touch, capable of touching or affecting the heart or feelings. Ein gar —es Drama, Melodrama, a highly sentimental drama, melodrama. 3) V. Rührig.

Rührung, f. 1) [das Rühren] stirring, moving. Unter — der Trommeln, drums beating. Fig. emotion, softening, pity. Man kann das nicht ohne — lesen, hören, one cannot read, hear that without emotion, without being moved, touched; diese Worte erregten eine tiefe — bei ihm, these words caused him a deep, powerful, profound emotion; ich benutzte seine —, I profited by his emotion; eine Musik, welche sanfte — erweckt, a music that awakes, inspires soft emotions; die — der Zuhörer bezwecken, to endeavour to touch, to aim at exciting the emotion of the auditors, audience; die — des Herzens, the emotion, commiseration, sympathy of the heart. 2) [in seamen's lang.] —des Ankers, the coating of the anchoring with old ropes.

Rührungslos, adj. and adv. insensible, not to be moved, touched or excited, void of sensibility, dead to emotion. V. Regungslos.

*Ruine, m. [-s] [untergang] ruin. Das hat seinen —, seinen völligen —, den — seines Hauses veranlaßt, vollendet, that has caused, completed his ruin, his total ruin, the ruin or [down-] fall of his house.

*Ruine, f. [pl. -n] [die Trümmer, das Trümmerstück] a ruin. [with painters &c.] Eine schöne —, a beautiful ruin; diese — ist eines der besten Gemälde dieses Meisters, this ruin is one of the best paintings of this master; die —n eines alten Schlosses, einer Ritterburg, the ruins of an old, of a feudal castle; der Befehlshaber begrub sich mit der ganzen Besatzung unter den —n [Trümmern] der Festung, the governor buried himself with the whole garrison under the ruins of the fortress. Syn. Ruine, Trümmer, Wrack. Ruinen are the remains of great works, as, edifices, bridges &c.; Trümmer, those either of great or small. Ruine is the whole of any work, which, though still existing, has been so injured by time or devastation, that its original beauty is destroyed. Wrack is the remains of a ship stranded.

Ruinenartig, adj. and adv. resembling ruins, ruinous-looking. —förmig, adj. and adv. shaped like ruins. —marmor, —stein, m. marble, stone representing ruins, decayed walls &c.

*Ruiniiren, v. tr. [in fam. lang. for zu Grunde richten] to ruin, [fam. and low] to ruin. Er ist völlig ruiniirt, he is completely ruined, [fam.] he is brought to the dogs; er hat seine Gesundheit durch Ausschweifungen ruiniirt, he has ruined his health by his debaucheries, excesses; diese Provinz ist durch den Krieg gänzlich ruiniirt, this province is entirely ruined in consequence of the war.

Ruland, m. V. Roland.

Rülps, m. [-es, pl. -e] [V. Rülpsen] 1) [low] belch, eructation, ructation. Einen — lassen, to make a belch. 2) fig. [low] a great booby, a great fat lout; [also] a rip.

Rülpsen, v. intr. [low] to belch, to eructate.

† Rülpsen, m. [-s, pl. -] [probably allied to rollen] 1) a belcher, an eructator, a man who breaks wind upwards. 2) V. Rülps 1).

Rúm, m. [-es] [Sans. roma is water] [Zuckerbranntwein] rum.

Rum-brennerei, f. a rum-distillery. —flasche, f. rum-bottle.

Rummel, m. [-s] [appears allied to the Lat. rum-or, originally = noise; as also to Ruhm; V. Rumpein] 1) [in pop. language, rather provincial] [Geräusch, Lärm] noise, row. Einen — im Hause haben, to have much noise, a row in the house. 2) [allied to the Fr. ramas] a) [collective, = Gerümpel] old stuff, old lumber, old things, old jumble; it. collection or heap of things good and bad mixed together, things good and bad in the lump; it. old iron. Etwas im — kaufen, den ganzen — kaufen, to buy any thing in the lump, to buy the whole lot [as it is, good, bad or indifferent]; it. [in popular language] er wird dir den ganzen — erzählen, he will tell you the whole long-and-short of it, the whole yarn, the whole bobbery, all about it, all the minutiae, the whole of the details. b) [at piquet] point. Seinen — angeben, to call or tell one's point; seinen — zählen, to count one's point; Ihr — gilt nicht, ist gut, your point is not good, is good; mein — ist stärker, besser, als der Ihrige, my point is stronger, better than yours; wie viel zählen Sie im —? how many do you count, reckon to your point? den — haben, to have the point. Fig. [in pop. lang.] Er versteht den —, hat den — weg, he is up to snuff, knows a trick or two, is a sly old fox, an old bird.

Rümmel, m. [-s, pl. -] [allied to rumpfen, rumpeln] 1) shapeless stumpy log; [in economy] [Sägeblock] block, log. 2) [with millers] the run or gutter of the mill-stones.

Rummelrei, f. [in pop. lang.] 1) [das Rum-meln] noise, row; V. Rumpeln. 2) old things, lumber, rubbish. 3) old tumble-down house. Was soll ihm die alte —? what's the good of that old heap of lath and plaster to him?

Rummeln, V. Rumpeln.

Rumör, m. [-s] [in pop. lang.] [Lärm] noise, row. — machen, to make a noise, a row; die ganze Stadt ist in — [in Aufruhr], the whole town is in an uproar, in commotion.

Rumor = hauptmann, m. [formerly in Vienna] captain of the watch, patrol. — haus, n. [formerly in Vienna] guard-house for the night-watch, the watch. — wache, f. [formerly in Vienna] [Schwache] watch, watchman, patrol.

Rumören, v. intr. [in pop. lang.] to make a noise, a row, [fam.] to kick up a dust, a shindy, a hobbery; V. Lärmen, Toben.

Rumörer, m. [-es, pl. -] [in pop. lang.] a noisy, turbulent fellow, a rattling blade.

Rumörisch, adj. and adv. [in pop. lang., not much used] noisy, turbulent &c.

Rumpeln, [allied to rappen] I. v. intr. [in fam. or common people's lang.] 1) [u. w. haben] to make a noise, a rumbling, a row. Altes Eisengerät rumpelt, wenn man darin kramet, old iron makes a noise when it is handled; ein alter plumper Wagen, der auf dem Pflaster rumpelt und stößt, an old heavy or lumbering carriage, that rumbles and jolts upon the paving-stones; mit altem Gerät —, to make a row, a rumbling, a jumbling with old utensils; wer rumpelt so auf dem Boden? who is it making such a racket in the loft? es rumpelt [knurrt] ihm im Bauche [low], his bowels are rumbling, grumbling, growling. 2) [u. w. sein] In das Zimmer —, to bounce into the room, to burst slap-bang into the chamber, to bounce, stumble [with great noise] into the room. II. v. tr. [with miners] Einen —, to cob one with the cobbing-board, to bump any one. Das — im Leibe, grumbling, rambling, growling in the body or bowels.

Rumpel = geist, m. V. Polstergeist. — holz, n. [with miners] cobbing-board for the new miners who pay their footing, or are thus freemasoned. — kammer, f. a lumber-room. — kasten, m. 1) chest for all sorts of old utensils. 2) an old rotten broken-down back of a vehicle or coach, an old double-rumbler. — mette, f. V. Pumpermette.

Rümpf, m. [-es, pl. Rümpfe] 1) certain hollow spaces. — eines Hemdes [with shirt-makers, semstresses], the body of a shirt; [with shoemakers] — des Stiefels [Schäft], the leg of the boot; [with millers] hopper, mill-hopper, [also] the spout of a mill-hopper; [in rural economy, provincial = for Bienenstock] bee-hive. 2) the trunk, the body. Den Kopf vom — e hauen, trennen, to hew or cut off, to chop off or separate the head from the trunk or body, to decapitate; der — einer verstümmelten Bildsäule [ein Torso], the trunk of a mutilated statue, a torso; der — [das Geripp] von einem Hühner, the carcass of a fowl; — eines Schiffes, the hull, the carcass, skeleton of a vessel.

Rumpf = baum, m. [with millers] the trimmer. — leder, n. [with shoemakers] the leather for the legs and tops of boots. — leiter, f. V. — baum. — loch, n. [with millers] the hole in the bolter-box. — mulde, f. [with millers] spout of the mill-hopper. — zange, f. [with founders] callipers or pinchers for sow- or pig-iron.

Rümpfen, [appears to be one and the same word as krümmen and schrümpfen] v. tr. [in fam. lang.] to turn or curl up. Das Maul, die Nase —, to curl up, to sneer with the mouth, to turn up or wrinkle the nose; was habt Ihr nöthig, das Maul, die Nase zu —? what need have you to be making mouths, faces, for turning up your nose? er rümpft das Maul, die Nase über Alles, he looks over-nice, too nice by half, makes faces, turns up his nose at every thing.

Rümpfer, V. Rimpler.

Ründ, [Fr. rond, from rennen, rennen, to move quick, to run; with old writers we find for it sinweil = sich wägend] adj. and adv. round. — wie ein Ei, wie eine Kugel, round as an egg, as a ball; — er Stein, Klotz, round stone, clod; — er Teller, Tisch, Stock, a round plate, table, stick; eine vollkommen — e Figur, a perfectly round figure; die Erde ist — wie eine Pomeranze, the earth is round like an orange, spherical; — e Buchstaben, — e Schrift, round letters, type; mit — en Buchstaben schreiben, to write a round hand; — es Wasserbehältniß, — er grüner Platz, round sheet of water, round patch of verdure; — machen, werden, to make, to become round; diese Kugel ist nicht — genug, this ball is not round enough; indem die Rieselsteine mit dem Strome fort-treiben, werden sie nach und nach —, as the pebbles are rolled along by the stream, they gradually become round; länglich —, oval; erhaben — or — erhaben, convex; — herum, round about, it. all round, quite around; — um das Haus gehen, to go round the house; zehn Meilen — herum or in der or in die Runde, ten miles round; das Glas — herum or in die Runde gehen lassen, to send the glass round, to let the glass circulate, pass round; das Haupt mit Blumen — um-wunden, the head encircled, wreathed round with flowers, the head crowned with a chaplet of flowers; der Kopf geht mir — [in fam. lang.], my head goes, turns round, is giddy, swims; [in botany] — e Stengel, Blätter, round stalks, leaves; [with sculptors &c.] — e Figur, — e [erhabene] Arbeit, figure, work in alto-relievo; [in heraldry] der — e Kolben, rundle; [fam.] — e [dicke, fleischige] Waden, Arme, round cheeks, trumpeter-cheeks, plump or full cheeks, brawny, fat, round, fleshy arms; — e Stirne, round forehead; sich — essen [in popular language], to eat one's self fat, to get stout, a corporation by dint of eating; — er Bauch, a round belly, round paunch; die Frau ist — [in common people's lang. for schwanger], the woman is big, in the family-way. Fig. a) [in familiar lang.] without ceremony, sincere. Etwas — heraus sagen &c., to say &c. any thing frankly, without reserve, [low] out plump or plain, [fam.] without mincing the matter, without circumlocution; sagen Sie Ihre Meinung — heraus! tell me your opinion frankly! state candidly what you think! speak unreservedly! eine — e Antwort geben, to give a distinct, categorical, precise, definite answer; to give any one a smart answer, an answer to the point; mit einer Sache — herausgehen, to explain one's self frankly, freely, openly; er geht — [dabei] zu Werke, ist ein ganz — er Mann, he goes roundly to work, acts quite in a matter of fact manner, is a plain-spoken, downright man, [low] has no nonsense about him. b) [wohlklingend] harmonious, even, round, smooth; — e Stimme, Periode, — er Satz &c., a melodious voice, a round or well turned period, harmonious composition &c. c) [of numbers that may be reduced by tenths] even. — e Zahl, even number [opposed to odd]; man nimmt nach einer — en Zahl 30000 Einwohner in dieser Stadt an, the number of the inhabitants of this city is computed at 30000, taking an even number; Sie fordern 52 Gulden, machen wir eine — e Rechnung, ich gebe Ihnen 50, you demand 52 florins, let us make the sum even or even reckoning, I will give you 50. d) [in familiar lang.] hard to be understood, crabbed, obscure, ambiguous, perplexed. Das ist mir zu —, that is beyond or above my comprehension, [fam.] that's out of my depth, too deep for me, beyond my fathoming, out of my line.

Rund = äugig, adj. and adv. round-eyed. — backig, adj. and adv. round-cheeked, plump-cheeked, [fam.] trumpeter-cheeked. — baum, m. [Weißbaum] tree, axle-tree; [with miners] beam of a windlass, roller of a winch. — bett, n. round bed [in a garden]. — blättrig, adj. and adv. round-leaved. — blume, f. [Kugelblume] globularia, French daisy, the alypum of Montpellier. — brüstig, adj. and adv. round-breasted, with the breast well rounded off, well arched. — bürste, f. a round brush with a handle in the middle, puff. — eisen, n. [with sculptors and tinmen] a round chisel; V. — meißel. — erhaben, — erhoben, adj. and adv. convex. — erhabenheit, f. convexity. — farbe, f. [with tanners] soaking in a hot mixture of ooze and water. — fisch, m. the moon-fish, orbis; [in commerce] kind of dried haddock. — fries, m. [in architecture, gunnery] V. Etab. — gattet, adj. and adv. [in seamen's lang.] Ein — gattet Schiff, a ship with a round stern, a ship dutch-built. — gebäude, n. rotunda. — gedicht, n. [formerly] rondeau, roundelay. — gesang, m. a choral, convivial song; [formerly] roundelay. Einen — gesang anstimmen, to give out, to lead a choral song. — haue, f. [with miners] a turf-hoe or spud. — hobel, m. a convex plane. — hohl, adj. and adv. concave. — hohl auf beiden Seiten, concavo-concave. — höhlung, f. concavity. — holz, n. round or circular wood; [in seamen's language] any piece of round wood, as, the stay-blocks of the foresail-sheet; it. [collective noun] faggot-wood — fels le, f. [with masons] a circular or round-trowel. — Kopf, m. 1) a round head. 2) a man who has a round head; [in English hist.] a Roundhead, [insulting] a crop-eared Puritan. — Köpfig, adj. and adv. 1) round-headed. 2) [in Engl. hist.] Diese — Köpfigen Schurken [term of insult with the Cavaliers or Royalists], those round-headed, crop-eared ruffians. — Köpfiger Nagel, a round-headed nail. — meißel, m. [with sculptors] a circular or round chisel. — messer, n. [with tanners] two-handled scraper or parer, scraping-knife. — münder, m. [in conchology] snail, ore rotundo trochus, round-mouthed periwinkle. — ochsenauge, n. [in architecture] round roof-oxeye-window, round dormar-window in the roof. — perle, f. [with stone-engravers] puncheon. — platz, m. an open place surrounded by houses built in a circle; a round square; it. [with gardeners] ring of verdure. — säge, f. [with chairmakers] a round saw; [with shipwrights &c.] circular saw. — säule, f. round column, circular pillar; it. [Watte] cylinder. — schild, m. round-buckler or shield, a target-shield. — schildchen, n. 1) a little round shield or target. 2) [in botany = Schildkraut] hedysarum, the clypeolus alyssoides, the buckler of Narbonne, the rush thlaspi. — schlägel, m. [with forgers] a round beater. — schnäbelig, adj. and adv. round-beaked. — schnur, f. round cord, bobbin; [with button-makers] loop. — sprung, m. a leap, jump or spring round, in a circle. — stab, m. [in architecture] astragal, torus, tore. — stahl, m. [with turners] googe, rough scraping-tool. — stein, m. a round stone. — stichel, m. a seal-engraver's burine or graver. — stück, n. 1) a round piece. — stück in Gärten, the ring, the round plot of verdure in gardens. 2) [in music, unusual for Rondeau] rondeau, rondo. — tanz, m. a ring-dance, a may-pole-dance, V. Ringeltanz. — tempel, m. rotunda. — trunk, m. a health pledged or goblet passed round. Beim — trunk bemerkte er &c., while the toast was going round, he remarked &c. — um, adv. quite round, all round, round about. Sich — um drehen, to turn quite round, [fam.] to spin round like a top, to make the circuit. — um gehen, reiten, fahren, to walk, ride, drive round, to go the rounds or make the circuit on foot, horseback or in a carriage; das Schloß ist — um von Wasser umgeben, the castle is completely surrounded, environed with or by water. — wache, f. V. Runde. — werk, n. round work; [with sculptors] work in alto-relievo; [with painters &c.] relief; prominent work [speaking of casts of plaster of Paris]; nach — werken zeichnen, to design the embossed or prominent part, the relief or relievo. — wurm, m. an ascaris. — würmer, pl. ascarides. — wurz, f. V. Hohlwurz. — zirkel, m. bended compasses, caliber-compasses.

Ründ, n. [-es, pl. -e] 1) [chiefly in a higher style] a round place. In der Mitte des Gartens ist ein großes —, welches mit Blumen besetzt ist, in the midst of the garden is a large round place, that is planted with flowers; wir ruhten im — e der Bäume aus, we reposed in a circle, circular spot formed by trees. V. under — stück. 2) [— werk = runde Figur] Nach dem — e zeichnen, to draw in alto-relievo; das große — der Erde, the great ball of the earth, the great orb of the earth, V. Erden—.

Runda, n.* [obsolete] [in music] a piece for a full band upon the passing round and pledging of a toast, flourish. — singen, to sing bacchanalian or other convivial songs with a chorus.

Rundatsche, f. [pl. -n] [Ital. rondazza] V. Rundschild.

Ründe, f. [pl. -n] 1) a circular motion or figure, a round, a circle, a ring. In die — gehen, tanzen, to walk, dance in a ring; sich in die — setzen, to sit in a ring, circle; in die — gepflanzte Bäume, trees planted in a ring, circularly; ein Pferd in der — tummeln, to ride a horse round in a ring, round a ring, in a circus; zehn Meilen in der — or in die — [im Umkreis], ten miles round, in circumference; die Gläser in der — herum gehen lassen, in die — trinken, to send or hand, to let the glasses go or pass round, to send the pledge about, to drink all round with a pledge; it. die — [with dancers], the round figure, ring. 2) [in the army] rounds. Die — machen, to go the rounds; die — ist schon herumgegangen, the rounds have been already made, gone over.

Runden-gang, —weg, m. [in a fortress] the way of the rounds, the rounds. — zeichen, n. a metallic ticket or check for the watch who walk the rounds or patrol.

Ründe, f. 1) [better Rundheit] roundness, rotundity. Die — der Erde, einer Schüssel, eines Tellers, einer Kugel, the roundness of the earth, of a dish, plate, ball. Fig. Die — des Ausdrucks, eines Redesages, the roundness, rounding off, harmonious turning or wording of an expression, the elaboration of a period. 2) [in seamen's language] bend.

Ründen, v. intr. it. sich — [= rund werden], to become round, orbicular, spherical; V. Rundung.

Ründen, [as a technical word frequently Runden] v. tr. to round, to make round. Eine unförmliche Masse —, to round a shapeless mass; [with painters, sculptors] eine Figur, die Gegenstände —, to round, relieve or raise a figure, the objects; it. [with painters] to give a certain roundness through broken colours, to give the proper contour, turn or form to a piece of work; er hätte diesen Arm anders — können, he might have given the contour to this arm differently; wohlgerundeter Arm, a well turned arm; man muß die Stellen, welche man — will, nicht mit Farben überladen, the places one wants to round off, to give form or contour to, must not be overcharged with colours; [with goldsmiths] einen Kranz &c. —, to round a coronet &c.; ein Land, einen Staat — [arrondiren], to round off, to form a land, state into a contiguous whole by the acquisition of the intervening lands &c.; [ironically] to enlarge; sich — [sich arrondiren], to become round; dieser Staat hat sich auf Kosten der benachbarten Staaten gerundet [arrondirt], this state has enlarged itself [all round] at the expence of the neighbouring states. Fig. Den Ausdruck, eine Periode &c. —, to round off, to turn, to elaborate an expression, a period &c.; ein wohlgerundeter Redesatz, eine wohlgerundete Schreibart, a well-rounded period, a well-rounded, a terse style, an harmoniously turned phrase &c., [fam.] a Ciceronian period. Das —, die Ründung eines Körpers, Places, einer Periode, the rounding of a body, place, period. V. Abrunden.

Ründheit, f. V. Runde 1).

Ründlich, adj. and adv. rather round, a little or slightly round, roundish, it. [of persons] plumpish, [fam.] in good condition. Ein — er Stein, Kopf &c., a roundish stone, head &c.; — e Hand, a little fat hand; sie ist klein und —, she is little and rather inclined to be stout, has a tendency to embonpoint; [in botany] globulous, globular, suborbiculated, suborbicular; — e Wurzel, globulous root; — es Blatt, suborbiculated or suborbicular leaf; Pflanze mit einem — en Kopfe, plant with a globular or globulous head.

Ründlichkeit, f. rotundity, V. Ründe 1).

Ründung, f. 1) rendering globular, orbicular or spherical, rounding, roundness. Die — einer Kugel, Kuppel, eines Tisches &c., the rounding of a ball, cupola, table &c.; die — dieser Kugel ist vollkommen, sie hat eine vollkommene —, the sphericity of this ball is perfect, it has a perfect round shape or roundness; einem Dinge die — geben, to give roundness to any thing, to round a thing; [with painters, sculptors] einer Figur die — geben, to give form or contour to a figure; [in fam. lang.] er füllt einen großen Lehnstuhl mit seiner —, he fills up a great arm-chair with that immense size, huge bulk, that mass of flesh, that fat carcass of his. 2) a round thing, a ball, ring; [in sportsmen's language] a circular path, a round. Halbe —, a half-round, a semicircle.

Ründung, f. [das Runden] the rounding off, the act of rendering round, globular, orbicular or spherical. Die — dieser Kugel hat ihn viele Mühe gekostet, the reducing of this ball to a perfect sphericity has cost him much trouble; die — eines Staates [V. under Runden] rounding off, [also] the enlarging or enlargement of a state. Fig. Die — des Ausdrucks, eines Redesages, the rounding off, turning of an expression, proposition; V. Ründen.

Rüne, f. [pl. -n] [commonly derived from runen = raunen, flüstern, to whisper; more probably from runen, the low Sax. for schneiden, to cut, in Dutch runnen] [usually in the pl.] runic characters, rune, runes.

Runen = schrift, f. runic writing or letters. — stab, m. a staff on which runic characters were engraved, a runic staff or wand.

|| Rünge, f. [pl. -n] [in Goth. rung = staff; allied to ragen] 1) drag, trigger, skid [of a rail- or baggage-wagon]. 2) a sort of ladder.

Rung = schale, f. — schämel, — stoß, m. the wood-work of a wagon, in which the drag hangs.

Rungenhorn, n. the horn of such a ladder.

Runisch, adj. and adv. runic.

|| Rünke, m. [-n, pl. -n] or Rünken, m. [-s, pl. -] [allied to the Lat. truncus, and Germ. Strunk] a lump cut off, a hunch. Ein großer — Brod [in common people's lang.], a large hunch of bread.

Rünkel, f. [pl. -n] or — rübe, f. [allied to Rünge] common beet or beet-root.

Rünkel = rübensyrup, m. syrup of beet root. — rübenzucker, [less usual] — nzucker, m. beet-root-sugar. — rübenezuckerfabrik, f. manufactory of beet-root-sugar.

Rünzel, f. [pl. -n] [Old Sax. vrincle, Low Sax. frünkel, Lat. ruga, Ital. grinza, Fr. francis; appears allied to scrumpfen] [dim. Rünzelchen, n.] [in paper-stuffs &c.] a wrinkle, pucker, false tuck or fold; [in playing-cards] a defective fold, wrinkle; [on the skin] wrinkle. Dieses Kleid hat — n, this dress has puckers forms wrong folds, gathers; die — n austreichen, ausbügeln, to undo, to iron out, to smooth the wrinkles, gatherings, false plaits &c.; — n bekommen, to shrivel [as fruit does]; [of the brow &c.] to have or get wrinkles, deep lines, furrows, to wrinkle; — n im Gesichte, auf den Händen haben, to have wrinkles on the face, furrowed, deep or indented lines upon the hands; sie fängt an, — n zu bekommen, she is beginning to have wrinkles; bei diesen Worten bedeckten — n seine Stirne, at these words wrinkles clouded his brow, his brow was contracted into wrinkles, his brow was furrowed with deep lines, was deeply knitted; diese Nachricht glättete, vertrieb die — n seiner Stirn, this news smoothed down, chased the wrinkles from his brow; Pomade, die — n zu vertreiben, a pomatum for effacing wrinkles; die — n am Augenwinkel bei alten Leuten und Pferden, the crow's-feet at the corner of the eye in old people and horses; sie hat — n in den Augenwinkeln, she has crow's-feet at her eyes, her eyes are crow-footed, puffy, puffed, puckered.

Rünzel = bart, m. or —blatt, n. [in botany] [a genus of plants belonging to the ragworts, with a nectary apparatus, the under-lip of which is recurved and rugose] arethusa. — blume, f. [a liliaceous plant] aletris. — häutig, adj. and adv. having the skin wrinkled. — kamm, m. [in conchology] the wrinkled lepas, pectinated patella. — krebs, m. [Stachelkrebs] wrinkled or striated crawfish. — meernessel, f. the wrinkled actinia. — muschel, f. the dorsal-wrinkled limpet. — ohr, n. V. Meerohr. — schlange, f. a kind of snake with a wrinkled skin and two antennae to the upper lip; cecilia. — stirnig, adj. and adv. with a wrinkled brow or forehead. — voll, adj. and adv. full of wrinkles.

Rünzelig, Rünzlig, adj. and adv. wrinkled, rugose. Eine — e Haut, Stirn, a wrinkled skin, brow or forehead; — er Apfel, — e Pflaume, a shrivelled apple, plum; diese Birnen fangen an, — zu werden, these pears are getting shrivelled, are beginning to shrivel; [in botany] rugous, rugose; — es Blatt, a rugose leaf; — e Oberfläche, a rugose or rugged surface, a salebrous superficies; dieser Zeug, dieses Papier ist ganz — geworden, this stuff, paper has got quite crumpled, rumpled; — an den Augen, in den Augenwinkeln, crow-footed, puffy, puckered at the eyes, at the corners of the eyes; ein altes, — es Mütterchen, an old shrivelled shrunk-up grandam, old granny, [in a bad sense] old crone; — werden, to get or have wrinkles, to wrinkle, it to shrivel, to shrink.

Rünzeligkeit or Rünzlichkeit, f. state of being wrinkled &c.; [in botany] rugosity.

Rünzeln, v. intr. and v. refl. sich —, to wrinkle [as the skin]; to shrivel [as fruit]; to shrink [as parchment]. Seine Stirn rünzelte sich, his brow wrinkled, was knit; dieses Kleid rünzelt sich, this dress forms false folds, this dress gathers, puckers; das Pergament rünzelt, wenn &c., parchment shrinks, if &c. II. v. tr. 1) Die Stirn —, to wrinkle, knit, furrow the brow, to frown; das Alter hat sein Gesicht gerünzelt, old age has ploughed, furrowed, wrinkled his face. 2) [in conchology] Das gerünzelte Weib, V. Dünnpippe. Das — der Stirn, the knitting, wrinkling of the brow or forehead, frowning; das — der Haut, the corrugation of the skin.

Rup, m. [—es, pl. —e] a Turkish, it. a Polish coin in silver, a roup.

Rüpel, m. V. Riepel.

Rupert, m. [—s, pl. —e] [name of men] Rupert, Robert.

Rüpf, m. [—es, pl. —e] [in common people's lang.] a pluck. Einen — thun, to make a pluck, twitch, tug, sudden pull; er hat — bekommen, he has been plucked, pulled, lugged by the hair, ear.

Rupf = vogel, m. a plucked bird. — wolle, f. a lock of fine wool. — zange, f. tweezers.

Rüpfe, f. [pl. —n] [in common people's lang.] 1) (das Rupsen, which see) action of plucking, twitching, lugging. 2) a rock-full of hemp or flax, a batch of hemp or flax for one spinning.

Rüpfen, [from raufen] v. tr. to pluck. Einen bei den Haaren —, to pluck any one by the hair; sich die Barthhaare aus der Haut —, einem ein Haar aus dem Barte —, to pluck the hairs of one's beard out by the roots, to pluck, pull or twitch a hair out of any one's beard; sich —, sich den Kopf —, die Haare auf seinem Kopfe —, to tear one's hair, to rend the hair from one's head; ein Huhn, eine Gans &c. —, to pluck or strip a fowl, goose &c.; die Seidenkaninchen —, to strip silk-haired rabbits of their wool from time to time; [in sportsmen's language] der Hund hat den Hasen gerupft, the dog has torn puss' jacket [without catching her]; — [with hatters], to pluck out the coarse hair from the beaver-skins. Fig. [in fam. and common people's lang.] Einen —, to pigeon any one; ein junger Mensch ohne Erfahrung, der sich — läßt, a young greenhorn who lets himself be pigeoned; er ist gerupft worden, im Spiele tüchtig gerupft worden, he has been pigeoned, properly taken in, diddled, done brown at play.

Rüpfer, m. [—s, pl. —] —inn, f. [little used] a person who plucks or twitches out hair, feathers &c., a plucker, stripper, twitcher; it. [with hatters] Die —inn, the workwoman who plucks out the coarse hair of the beaver-skins.

Rupie, f. [pl. —n] a rupee.

Rüppe, f. [pl. —n] V. Kaltraupe.

Rüppeln, V. Rippeln.

†Rüppig, [instead of rupftig] adj. and adv. ragged; it. poor, beggarly, paltry, pitiful, mean. — einhergehen, to go about ragged, all in rags, like a beggar; ein — er Mensch, a ragged-clothed fellow, a beggar; — es Geschenk, a beggarly gift, paltry present, a mean, pitiful donation; — bezahlen, belohnen, to pay, reward in a beggarly, niggardly manner; das ist sehr —, that is very paltry, mean, beggarly; sich — betragen, aufführen, to behave, to conduct one's self like a curmudgeon, like a paltry niggardly sneak.

Ruprecht, m. [—es, pl. —e] [name of men] Rupert, Robert. Der Knecht — [Povanz], [in popular superstition and nursery-tales] bugbear, old bogey.

Ruprechtskraut, n. V. Roberts-kraut.

Ruß, V. Ruß.

Rüsch, m. [—es, pl. Rüsch] [Goth. rans, allied to Rohr, which see] rushes, bulrushes, reeds and similar plants collectively. Da wächst nichts, als — und Busch [in fam. lang.], nothing grows there save rushes and brushwood, briars and brambles; über — und Busch [über Stock und Stein] [in fam. lang.], over hill and dale, right or slap across the country, as the crow flies.

Rüsch or Rüsch, f. [pl. —n] V. Rüster.

Rüscheln, v. intr. [in pop. lang.] [= ra-scheln, huscheln] to rustle. Fig. to act in a don't-care manner, to act negligently, with indifference, nonchalance.

Rüschlich, adj. and adv. [in pop. lang.] [= huschlich] negligent, giddy-pated, in a don't-care manner. Ob ihr gleich so — seht, daß ihr auf nichts Achtung gebt, although you are so giddy-brained, so thoughtless, so empty-pated, that you mind nothing.

Rüselpflanze, f. [pl. —n] [Rüsel = Rüsel] [a corniculate plant, one of the Bignoniae] cornaret martinia.

Ruß, m. [—es, pl. —e] [probably allied to Rauch] 1) — im Kamin &c., soot in the chimney &c.; der Rauchfang ist voll —, the chimney is full of soot. 2) a disease in barley and oats, smut.

Ruß = artig, adj. and adv. fuliginous. — artige Dämpfe, fuliginous vapours. — braun, adj. and adv. sooty black, black as soot. — braun, n. [Bister] bister. — butte, f. a bister-pottle. — farbe, f. 1) soot-colour or dye. 2) a colour prepared with soot, lamp-black. — faß, — faßchen, || — faßlein, n. a barrel of or vessel for soot, V. — butte. — hammel, m. [low] V. — fäbel 2). — hütte, f. a fabric where bister is made. — kammer, f. a chamber for collecting lamp-black. — kobalt, m. [in mineralogy] black cobalt, earthy black oxyd of cobalt. — kohle, f. [in mineralogy] earthy pit-coal of a deep blackish grey. — kreide, f. black chalk. — kübel, m. 1) tub for bister, for lamp-black. 2) Fig. [low] a dirty, filthy person, a blackamoor. — öl, n. birch-oil. — ringel, f. [Ringelschlange] the fuliginous amphisaena. — schabe, — scharre, f. a soot-scraper. — schlägel, m. [low] V. — fäbel 2). — schwarz, 1) adj. and adv. sooty black, black as soot. 2) n. [with painters] V. — braun. — silber, n. [in mineralogy] silver gang or ore combined with sulphur, arsenic and iron, black silver. — steinkohle, f. V. — kohle. — stoff, m. fuliginous matter. — wall, m. V. Rußwall.

Rußbaum, m. [—es, pl. Rußbäume] V. Rüster.

Rüsse, m. [—n, pl. —n] Russinn, f. a Russian. Er ist ein ächter — [when in a bad sense], he is a true Muscovite.

Rüssel, m. [—s, pl. —] [allied to fressen, reissen, in Engl. to root is = wühlen, Low Sax. wröten, Gr. ὀρυσσειν] 1) — der Schweine, snout of hogs; der — eines wilden Schweines, the snout of a wild hog or boar; — des Elephanten, der Fliegen &c., the trunk, proboscis of the elephant, of flies, V. Saug—. 2) [low, in contempt for the mouth] muzzle, chops, jaw, snout, tobacco-box, mug.

Rüssel = drache, m. [in nat. hist. = See-hahn] the obcordate snouted cock fish, elephant fish, king of the herrings of the south, the sea-cock of Chili. — fisch, m. [of the genus chetodon] the beaked bandoleer-fish. — flechte, f. [Pfeiffenflechte] the fistular lichen. — fliege, f. [Schwebeflechte, Blumen-bremsen] humble-bee, [fam.] humble-bee, [with children] the humbledoor or humbledore, bob-bee. — förmig, adj. and adv. snout-formed, trunk-shaped, in the form of a proboscis. — käfer, m. [Schweinskäfer, Elephanten-käfer] the elephant-beetle. — maus, f. the long-snouted or pointed-nosed mouse. — thier, n. an animal furnished with a snout, it. with a trunk or proboscis.

Rüsselicht, adj. and adv. resembling a snout, a trunk or proboscis.

1. Rüsseln, v. intr. V. Rüschn; [in sportsmen's language] to snout up, to root up [as the hog].

2. Rüffeln, v. tr. and intr. to seize with the snout, muzzle, with the trunk or proboscis, it. to thump, to strike, to whack, to give blows with the snout, with the trunk or proboscis.

Rußen, [Verußen] v. tr. to blacken or begrime with soot. [with drawing-masters &c.] Eine Zeichnung — [be—, tuschen], to lay on the shades and wash a drawing.

Rußicht, adj. and adv. resembling soot, of the nature of soot, sooty, V. Rußartig; [with miners] —es Silber, V. Rußsilber.

Rußig, adj. and adv. full of soot, covered, blackened, begrimed, smeared over with soot, sooty. —e Hände haben, to have sooty, smutty hands; sich — machen, to make one's self all smutty, sooty; —e Gerste, —er Hafer, smutted or blasted barley, oats; —er Körper, a fuliginous body.

Rußisch, adj. and adv. Russian. Das —e, die —e Sprache, the Russian, the Russian language or tongue; das —e Reich, the Russian or Muscovite Empire; —e Waaren, Russian or [sometimes] Baltic goods, wares or merchandize; —es Glas [a species of mica, Art grauer Glimmer], [in mineralogy] muscovy glass or mica; —er Thee [also called Karawanenthe], Russian or caravan-tea. Fig. [in fam. language] —e [streng] Kälte, Russian cold, polar or Siberian cold, an icy cold.

Rußland, n. [-s] [in geography] Russia.

Rüst, f. [pl. -en] [in seamen's lang.] the chain-wale.

Rüste, f. 1) [allied to Rast] [obsolete or in poetry] Zu — gehen, to sink, to rest, that is, to set [speaking of the sun], [fam.] to go to roost [as Master Sol or Dan Phoebus]. 2) [with charcoal-burners] lump [or lumps about the charcoal-kiln].

Rüsten, [appears allied to the old riesen = to move; the Swed. rusta means to equip and make a raging chafing noise; V. Ausrüsten] I. v. intr. [with carpenters and bricklayers] to make or set up a scaffolding. Morgen werden wir —, wird gerüstet, um an dieser Kuppel zu arbeiten, to-morrow we shall fix the scaffolding, the scaffolding will be put up to-morrow, for working at this cupola. II. v. intr. and v. tr. to prepare, dress, make ready, arrange, fit up. Zum Feste, zu einem Schauspiele, Gastmahl —, to make the requisite preparations for, to prepare a feast, spectacle, banquet; zum Essen, zum Tische —, to cover or deck the table, to lay the cloth, it. to prepare the dinner, supper, meal. III. v. tr. to furnish with the requisite apparatus &c., to fit out, to equip. Einen mit Etwas —, zu Etwas —, to provide any one, to equip any one with something, for something; es ist Alles zur Abreise gerüstet, every thing is arranged, prepared for the journey or departure; die Zimmer —, to prepare the rooms, to arrange, to set to rights, to make ready the rooms; lassen Sie ein Bett für mich —, have a bed prepared. let a bed be made up, got ready for me; das Erdreich — [= bearbeiten], to dress, to till the earth, ground or soil; ein Schiff, eine Flotte —, to equip, to fit out, to arm a ship, a fleet, V. Ausrüsten; einen Soldaten —, to clothe and arm, to equip a soldier; ein völlig gerüsteter Reiter, a cavalier or knight armed at all points, a horse-soldier fully equipped, a man-at-arms; vom Kopf bis zu den Füßen gerüstet, armed from head to foot, armed cap-a-pie. IV. v. refl. to get one's self ready. Sich zur Abfahrt, zur Reise, zum Kampfe —, to equip, to fit one's self out for departure, a journey, for the combat; sich zum Kriege —, to fit one's self out for the war; man rüstet sich von allen Seiten, preparations for war are making, countries &c. are arming on all sides; sich zu Lande und zur See —, to arm by sea and land, to fit out both one's land and sea-power. Fig. Sich mit Standhaftigkeit, mit Geduld —, to arm one's self with firmness, with patience. Das —, V. Rüstung.

Rüstbaum, m. V. [Rüster] the elm-tree; [with timbermen] scaffolding-pole, imp, king-post in scaffolding. Die —bäume aufrichten, to set up the scaffolding-poles; [with miners] a piece of wood laid cross-wise when a shaft is to be sunk, sole. —bock, m. stand, prop, shore, trestle [for scaffolding-boards]. —brett, n. a scaffolding-board. —gabel, f. wooden forks [to surround the charcoal-kiln]. —haus, n. [Zeughaus] arsenal. —holz, n. [with miners] prop, shore. —kammer, f. magazine of arms, armoury-room; [in seamen's lang.] magazine, powder-room. —kasten, m. —kiste, f. [with miners] chest for removal of ore or gang. —leine, f. [in seamen's lang.] shank-painter of the anchor. —leiter, f. [Wagenleiter] the rack or side-rails of a wagon. —loch, n. [with carpenters, masons] scaffolding-hole. —meister, m. 1) keeper of an arsenal; it. keeper of an armoury; it. [formerly, for Unteroffizier] master at arms. 2) [obsolete] V. Bogener. —nagel, m. [with bricklayers] scaffolding-nail. —saal, m. hall of arms, armour-hall. —seil, n. [with masons] imp-rope, scaffolding-rope. —stange, f. a scaffolding-imp, imp-pole of a scaffolding. —strick, m. V. —seil. —tag, m. [with the old Jews] the sabbath-eve, festival-eve. —wagen, m. [in the army] baggage-wagon, it. great rack-wagon. —zeug, n. instrument, tool. Fig. [in Scripture] Ausgewähltes —zeug, vessel of election, of grace, a chosen vessel; [in mechanics] a crane [for raising burthens].

1. Rüster, m. [-s, pl. -] [V. Riester] [with shoemakers] the toe-piece, cap, tip. — auf seine Schuhe setzen lassen, to have one's shoes fresh toed, capped, new pieces put to the toes.

2. Rüster, f. [pl. -n] [from the old riesen = to rise up aloft] [in botany] 1) [gemeine Ulme] the elm-tree, the common elm. Die rothe —, die sibirische —, the dwarf-elm of Siberia; mit —n bepflanzter Platz, an elm-plantation, grove, walk, place. 2) [Maßholder] maple-tree, acer, whitten-tree. 3) [Leinbaum] the maple-plantain or plane-tree. 4) Kleine — [Spindelbaum], f. susanus, euonymus, spindle-tree, prick-wood.

Rüsterfalter, m. the elm-tree-butterfly. —spinner, m. [in nat. hist.] [Bärenmotte] bear-fly, the elm-spinner, the marbled shell-fly. —wald, m. an elm-grove or wood. —wanze, f. the elm-bug.

||Rüstig, adj. and adv. V. Ruhig.

Rüstig, [allied to rasch, Ital. presto] adj. and adv. alert, vigilant, nimble, lively, quick, prompt, expeditious, it. vigorous, strong, robust. Ein —er Mann, a vigorous, active man; eine —e Frau, ein —es Weib, a lively, bustling, alert woman, a strong, robust woman; ein —er Wittwer, eine — Wittwe [in fam. lang., often comic], a [still] robust, vigorous widower, a buxom widow; für sein Alter ist er noch ziemlich —, he is still tolerably active for his age; [in Scripture] wo Saul sah einen starken und —en Mann &c., and as soon as Saul saw a strong and valiant man &c.; — arbeiten, sich — an Etwas machen, to labour cheerfully, to set to work lustily, cheerfully about any thing; ein —er Krieger, a valiant warrior.

Rüstigkeit, f. agility, vivacity, promptitude, activity; it. vigor.

Rüstung, f. 1) preparation, fitting out, arming, equipping for war, service &c., [also] armament. —en zum Kriege machen, to make preparation, preparatives for war, to arm; in diesem Staate, Hafen &c. werden große, furchtbare —en gemacht, in this city, port &c. great armaments, formidable expeditions are being made. 2) something set, fixed or raised up; [with carpenters] a scaffolding. 3) apparatus, apparel, fitting out, equipment, panoply. Die — eines bewaffneten Magneten, the arming, poling, capping or casing of a loadstone; die — eines Vogelstellers, a Fowler's tackle; [in Scripture] Wagen, Rosse, feste Städte und —, the chariots, horses, strong cities and arms, V. Aus—, Zu—, Kriegs—, See—. 4) [Waffen—] armour, mail. Leichte, schwere —, light, heavy armour; volle — eines Ritters, a knight's panoply; vollständige —, a suit of armour; die — anlegen, to put on or don one's armour; die völlige — anlegen, to arm one's self to the teeth; ein Reiter, Ritter in völliger —, a man at arms, a knight in full armour, [comic] armed cap-a-pie; die — ablegen, to put off or doff one's armour; die — ihrer Soldaten ist sehr leicht, the armour of their soldiers is very light.

Ruthe, f. [pl. -n] [Lat. rud-is, rad-ius; allied to the old riesen = to move] dim. Rüthchen, ||Rüthlein, n. [-s, pl. -] a rod. Die — an einem Ziehbrunnen, a swipe, the long seesaw handle or rod, the pump-spear, the bucket of a well in Germany; die — des Ankers, the shank of an anchor; it. [in seamen's lang.] [Raa des Besansegels] the mizzen-yard; [with locksmiths] [Essentlinge] poker; [with cap-makers] iron rod-borer or piercer; [with velvet-weavers] brass-rod; die — an einer Brücke, horizontal beam that supports the floor of a wooden-bridge; — des Dreschflegels, the rod of a flail; die steife — [with common people der Quers] turnstile, V. Radschiene. 2) [with land-surveyors] a rod, pole or perch. 20 —n Reben, twenty rods of vines; [in sportsmen's language] the fox's brush, the hare's scut; [in anatomy] the penis, yard [of men], the pizzle, rod [of animals]; die weibliche —, the clitoris; die ungeheuer große weibliche —, the fig-leaf, the natural apron [with Bojesman female Hottentots]. 3) [Baumreis] twig, spray. Die — Aarons [in Scripture], the rod of Aaron; —n von Birken, Weiden [Birkenruthe, Weidenruthe] &c., twigs of birch, willow &c. aus —n geflochtener Korb, a basket of woven twigs, an osier-basket, [with basket-makers] a hurthen-basket with or of twigs; V. Reim—, Spieß—; it. [Wünschel—] the divining-rod; die — schlagen lassen, to apply the divining-rod; — zum Angeln, V. Angel—; it. —n [Weinranken], tendrils of the vine. 4) bundle of twigs for flogging, the rod. Dieses Kind fürchtet die —, this child fears the rod; einem Kinde die — geben, to give a child the rod, to flog or whip a child; er hat die — auf den Hintern bekommen, he has had the rod, the birch [applied] to his posteriors; einen Verbrecher mit —n hauen, to flog, to whip, to flagellate a criminal with rods. Prov. Man muß die — segnen, womit Gott uns züchtigt, we must kiss the rod that God chastises us withal. Fig. Unter Jemandes — stehen, to be under the rod, the ferule of any one, to be under any one's correction; der — erwachsen seyn, to grow too old for whipping, to grow out of one's leading strings; er bindet sich selbst eine —, he is making or preparing a rod for his own bottom; dieser Fürst regiert seine Völker mit einer eisernen —, this prince rules his people with an iron rod, with a rod of iron.

Ruthenbündel, n. a bundle of rods, a fascis. Die —bündel der Reichsberather des alten Roms [Fasces], the fasces of the first magistrates of ancient Rome. — fischer, m. a fisher or fisherman with a rod and line, an angler. — fischerei, f. angling. — förmig, adj. and adv. in the form of a twig, rod-formed, twig-shaped; [in botany] virgated. — gänger, m. [formerly, with miners] a miner who seeks lodes &c. by the divining-rod. — hieb, m. lash, stripe, cut with the rod. — kappe, f. [in rural economy] — kappe eines Dreschflegels, the strap or thong of the flail. fräut, n. [in botany] ferula, fennel-giant. Syrisches — fräut, galbanum. — lang, adj. and adv. of the length of a rod, pole or perch. — mann, m. V. — gänger. — muskel, m. [in anatomy] muscle of the penis. — nerve, f. [in anatomy] nerve of the penis. — schlag, m. 1) blow, lash, stripe or cut with the rod, or with rods. 2) — schlag der Wünschelrute, stroke of the divining-rod. — schlagader, f. [in anatomy] artery of the penis. — schläger, m. V. — gänger. — segel, n. [in seamen's lang.] a boat's sail with diagonal sprit. — streich, m. stroke with a rod, with rods.

Rutil or Ruthil, m. [-es, pl. -e] [in mineralogy] rutil, rutile, sphene, oxyd of titan or titanium.

Rutsche, f. [pl. n.] 1) [in forests] a gutter or trough for the transport of wood by sliding, V. Holz—. 2) [in common people's language] — or || Rutschel, V. Schaukel.

Rutscheln, v. intr. V. Schaukeln.

Rutschen, [from reiten] v. intr. 1) [originally, to move slowly] [in sportsmen's language] Der Hase rutschet zu Holze, puss is slowly making for, running to cover; auf dem Hintern —, to slide or wriggle along on one's breech. 2) [gleiten] [in pop. lang.] to slide, to glide, to escape. Er rutschte mit dem Fuße, his foot slipped; die Leiter rutschte und fiel, the ladder slid, slipped and fell down; Holz von einem Berge — lassen, to let wood slide down from a mountain [by a trough]; es rutschten mehrere Ziegel vom Dache, several tiles slid, rolled off from the roof. Fig. [in pop. lang.] Die Sache will nicht —, the affair won't march on, get on, progress, [fam.] make headway.

Rutschberg, m. [in Russia &c. and hence in Berlin, Hamburg &c., for public amusements] Russian mountains.

Rutschenbinse, f. [in common people's lang.] round-headed or conglomerate rush.

Rutscher, m. [-s, pl. -] [little used] a slider, glider, slipper, a wriggler on one's seat or backside, V. Rutschen.

Rutscherrecht, n. [in feudal law] compound-interest due to the fief paramount for arrears of taxes &c. — zins, m. compound-interest.

Rutschig, adj. and adv. [in pop. lang.] sliding, gliding, slipping.

Rutschke, f. [pl. -n] V. Rutschenbinse.

Rüttelgeier, m. [-s, pl. -] V. Rüttelweihe 1) and 2).

Hilpert, Deutsch Engl. Wört. 2. Bd.

Rüttelweihe, f. [pl. -n] 1) [Mäusefalk] the buzzard. 2) [Mauerfalk] the kestrel.

Rütteln, [from reiten = to move] v. tr. 1) to shake, stir, jog, wag, toss, nudge, jolt. Er faßte ihn bei den Schultern, und rüttelte ihn aus allen Kräften, he took him by the shoulders and shook him with all his might; Einen aus dem Schlafe —, to rouse any one up out of his sleep by dint of shaking him, [fam.] to stir up the sleeper with the long pole; wenn der Weinstock in der Blüthe ist, muß man den Wein nicht —, when the vine is in bloom, the wine must not be shaken; einen Baum — [more usual schütteln], damit die Früchte herunter fallen, to shake a tree, so that the fruit may fall down or drop off; das Getreide — [worfeln], to winnow the corn; der Weg war holperig, wir wurden tüchtig gerüttelt, the road was rugged, we were dreadfully jolted; vom Fieber gerüttelt, shaken, pulled down by the fever or ague [as a person who shakes in an ague fit]; gerüttelt voll, shaken full, good measure; ein voll gerüttelt Maß, a measure shaken down and of proper quantity, good measure. 2) [with gloves] Eine Naht [mit dem Rüttelholz] —, to smooth a seam with the polisher. Das —, shaking, stirring, jogging &c.; [in a coach] jolting; [of corn] winnowing.

Rüttelholz, n. [with gloves] the seam-polisher.

|| Rütten, V. Rütteln 1).

Rüttstroh, n. [in domestic economy] [Wirrstroh, Krummstroh] loose straw, straw [for litter &c.].

Rüttich, m. [-s] [in botany] 1) [Wasserpfeffer] persicaria, [low] arse-smart. 2) [Stöckfraut] common mild spotted persicary, fleabane.

Rüssel, n. [-s] [in geography, the German name for] Lisle, Lille.

S.

S, s, n. ein kleines s, a little s.

Sa, sa, [exclamation for speed, or signal given by sportsmen to dogs]. — lustig, hei! — hop—, hop—! come, come along! courage! cheer up! cheerily! &c.

Saal, m. [-es, pl. Säle] dim. Sälchen, n. [the same as Salte, derived from the Lat. aula, or from the Gr. αὐλή] hall, saloon, large room, assembly-room, drawing-room. Ein hoher —, a lofty room; sich im — e versammeln, to assemble, to meet in the great hall, in the saloon, drawing-room; ein großer —, worin Concerte, Bälle gegeben werden, a large concert-room, a spacious ball-room; V. Bilzder —, Bücher —, Ess —, Hör —, Ritter —, Speise —, Tanz — &c.

Saaldecke, f. 1) the ceiling of a hall, saloon &c. 2) saloon-carpet, hall-carpet, drawing-room-carpet. — gericht, n. [formerly] V. Hofgericht. — geselle, m. [in paper-mills] paper-drying-boy [term used by paper-makers for those men or boys who remove the paper previously hung up, when properly dried]. — meister, m. [obsolete] the chamberlain, the comptroller of the household [of a Prince].

Saalsbader, m. and Saaltbad, n. V. Salbader &c.

Saale, f. the Saale [river].

Saane, f. V. Saäne.

Saat, f. [pl. -en] 1) the sowing-time or season, the seed-time. Man ist mit der — beschäftigt, the farmers are employed in sowing their fields; die Zeit zur —, seed-time, the time for sowing; — ackern, pflügen, to complete the sowing, to finish the seed-planting [being the fourth tillage]. 2) seed [especially of corn]. Die Vögel fressen die —, the birds eat the seeds or seed; V. Aus —, Ein —, Früh —, Sommer —, Winter — &c. Fig. the crops, green-corn, standing-corn. Die — steht schön, the crops look well, are in good condition. Syn. Saat, Samen. Samen imply the grains which are put into the earth in order to become plants; Saat are such as are already in the earth and in the beginning of their germination. Saat and Samen are often opposed to each other, as in the following passage of Schiller: „Sieh, voll Hoffnung vertraust du der Erde den goldenen Samen, und erwartest im Lenz fröhlich die kommende Saat“, „Lo! full of hope, thou entrustest to the earth the golden seed, and awaitest joyfully in the spring the sprouting crops“.

Saatbohne, f. seed-bean. — erbse, f. seed-pea. — fahre —, fahrt —, furche, f. [with husbandmen] the last or fourth culture given to a field, the sowing. — feld, n. [in agriculture] sown field, seed-field. — fest, n. the sowing-festival [an ancient Roman festival, feriae sementivae]. — frucht, f. seed-fruit, sprout, germinating seed. — furchen, v. tr. [in rural economy] to give the last or fourth culture to a field. — gerste, f. seed-barley. — gras, n. seed-grass, V. Windhalm 1). — gurke, f. 1) common or cultivated cucumber. 2) a seed-cucumber or gherkin, a cucumber run to seed. — hazber, m. seed-oat or oats. — hanf, m. the seed-hemp, the female hemp. — hirse, f. seed-millet [panicum miliaceum]. — holz, n. V. Koltschwein. — huhn, n. the green plover. — käfer, m. seed-beetle. — karde, f. [with clothiers and drapers &c.] the teasel [carduus fullonum, employed for raising a nap on new-made cloth]. — korn, n. seed-corn. — krähe, f. the rock [corvus frugilegus]. — lerche, f. the field-lark, the skylark. — linse, f. the seed-lentil, the lentil run to seed [ervum lens]. — perle, f. seed-pearl, V. Samenperle. — rabe, m. V. — krähe. — rose, f. rose-mallow [alcea]. — springer, m. V. — käfer. — tuch, n. V. Säetuch. — vogel, m. the whimbrel, the curlew-knot. — wicke, f. seed-vetch, vetch run to seed [vicia]. — zeit, f. seed-time. Während der — zeit, during seed-time, [that is] during the time for sowing; die — zeit war dieses Jahr schön, the sowing-season was very propitious this year.

Sabäer, m. [-s, pl. -] — inn, f. [in ancient history] a Sabeian, star-worshipper; V. Feueranbeter. Lehre der —, Sabäism, doctrine of the Sabeians, sabeism, star-idolatry.

* Sabaite, m. [-n, pl. -n] [in ancient hist.] V. Feueranbeter.

* Sabäisch, adj. and adv. [in ancient hist.] Die — en Feste, the feasts, or festal days of the Sabeians.

Sabbath, m. [-es, pl. -e] [a hebrew word equivalent to rest-day, day of repose]. 1) the sabbath of the Jews. Den — halten, entheiligen, to keep holy, to violate the sabbath. 2) [with Christians, chiefly in a more elevated style] sunday, the Lord's-day. 3) Fig. [sabbath, that is meeting and rejoicing of fabled assemblies of witches, devils, imps, hobgoblins upon the Blocksberg &c.] Hier hielten böse Geister ihren —, evil spirits, malignant sprites here kept their sabbath or hellish revelries.

Sabbath-frau, f. sabbath-maid, a christian maid-servant who waits upon a jewish family on their sabbath-day. — halter, m. — heiliger, m. sabbatarian, sabbath-holder or keeper; it. [sometimes, for] a jew. — jahr, n. the sabbatic year, seventh or prophetic year. — magg, f. V. — frau. — schänder, m. — schänderinn, f. sabbath-breaker, profaner of the sabbath. — stag, — tag, m. sabbath-day. — stille, f. [chiefly in poetry] sabbath-stillness, the silence of a sabbath-day. — weib, n. V. — frau.

Sabbater, m. [-s] or — tag, m. the seventh day, the sabbath-day.

Sabbaterweg, m. a sabbath-journey [a certain distance or limit for travelling prescribed to the Jews on their sabbath].

Sabbathianer, m. [-s] V. Sabbathhalter.

Säbbe, f. — bart, m. V. Säbber &c.

Säbbel, m. [-s], — bart, m. V. Säbber &c.

Säbber, m. &c. V. Geiser &c.

Säbel, m. [-s, pl. -] [this word is generally derived from the Arabic Seif = sword, in modern Greek one of the names is ζαούνη = sabre, and ζαβός crooked, curved; the last of these words has a strong similarity with υόός; sabre, scimeter, falchion; sword. Der ungarische —, the Hungarian sabre [used by hussars]; der — eines Kürassiers, Dragoners &c., the sword of a cuirassier, dragoon &c.

Säbel-bein, n. 1) [a leg bent outwards] a howed leg, crook-shank [the Germans employ bent inwards for bowed, and bent outwards for knock-kneed; the idea is quite antithetical in English]. 2) a twisted or deformed foot [the exterior side of either foot resting unnaturally on the ground]. — beinig, adj. and adv. bow-legged, crumped, crook-shanked. — bohne, f. the Bengal kidney-bean [resembling a sabre in shape]. — finne, f. another name for the sword-fish [xiphias gladius]. — fisch, m. V. Schwerdfisch. — förmig, adj. and adv. sabre-formed, scimeter-shaped, acinaciform. — förmiges Blatt [in botany], acinaciformed leaf. — fuß, m. bow-foot, crump-foot, V. — bein 2). — füßig, adj. and adv. bow-footed, crump-footed. — füßiges Pferd, bow-legged, crooked-legged horse. — gesäß, n. sabre-hilt, the hilt of a scimeter. — gehent, n. sabre-belt, sabre or scimeter waist-belt. — heuschrecke, f. [in nat. hist.] the sabre-tailed locust or grass-hopper [a species of locust armed with a horny acinaciform excrescence on its tail]. — hieb, m. sabre-cut. Einem — hiebe geben, to sabre, to cut a person down with a sabre. — holz, n. [marine term] gnarled wood, camock [such as parts of the oak, used for the knees of vessels by ship-builders]. — Klinge, f. sabre-blade, the blade of a scimeter. — krumm, adj. and adv. bent or curved like a sabre. — krummes Bein, V. — bein 1). — scheide, f. sabre-sheath, sword-sheath. — schnabel, m. sabre-beak, acinaciformed beak, shaped like a falchion. — schnäbler, m. [in nat. hist.] the blue-footed scoping avocette [recurvirostra avocetta Linn.]. — tasche, f. hussar-pouch or pocket [suspended near the sabre and an appendage to it in the hussar-uniform].

Sabellianer, m. [-s, pl. -] [in church hist.] a Sabellian.

Säbeln, v. tr. Einen —, to sabre a person; V. [the more usual words] Ab —, Nieder —.

Säbenbaum, m. [-es, pl. Säbenbäume] [derived from the Lat. sabina] a species of juniper, the sabine or savin tree [Juniperus sabina Linn.].

Sabiäner, m. V. Sabäer.

Sache, f. [pl. -n] dim. Sächelchen, || Sächlein, n. [-s, pl. -] [allied naturally to the word sagen, as chose in French is connected with the word jaser] 1) cause, affair, [also] a strife of words [and consequently =] law-suit, process. Eine schlimme —, a bad cause; bürgerliche, peinliche —, civil, criminal action; die — hängt vor Gericht, ist vor Gericht anhängig, the cause is pending, the action is not yet decided; die — wegen hinzugekommener Umstände auf's neue untersuchen, to examine the cause afresh on account of additional circumstances that have transpired; die neuere Untersuchung einer —, the additional research and investigation of a cause; die Verhandlungen in — n des B. gegen den C., the acts, the records in the cause of B. versus C., in re B. versus C.; hier sind die Urkunden in dieser —, here are the records, documents of this case; er hat eine gerechte —, he has a just cause, his cause is just; in seiner eigenen — Richter seyn wollen, to wish to be judge in one's own cause. Fig. Sich Jemandes — annehmen, to take the part, to espouse the part of any one, to make another's cause one's own. V. Geld —, Hals — &c. 2) [any circumstance, object or subject spoken of] affair, subject. Ueber eine — sprechen, to speak about any thing, any subject, matter, to discuss any affair; eine — erklären, to elucidate or explain any thing; die — ist diese, the affair, the fact is this, V. Haupt —, Neben — &c.; das ist die ganze —, that is the whole affair; das thut nichts zur —, that has nothing to do with the matter, affair, subject; er ist in dieser — zu Hause, he is quite at home in this matter or business; sprechen Sie nicht von solchen — n, do not speak on such topics, about such things; einem Mädchen artige, süße — n vorsagen, to whisper pretty things, to say soft things to a girl; von der — abkommen, abweichen, to come off, to edge off from the subject, to make a diversion, to turn off from the subject, to make a digression; lassen Sie uns zur — kommen! zur —! let us come to the subject, the matter in hand, if you please! question, question! um wieder zur — zu kommen, — to return, to revert to the subject, to come back to the previous question; kurz von der — zu reden, to be brief, to cut short the subject, to wind up the matter in a few words. 3) [in general any object, subject, theme, topic &c.] Die Gestalt der — hat sich [ganz] verändert, the complexion of the case is quite altered, circumstances are no longer the same, the face of the thing wears a new aspect; es sind wichtige — n vorgefallen, very important events have transpired, taken place; den Gang der — erzählen, to relate the whole circumstances, particulars of the case; man erzählt schöne — n von Ihnen, some very pretty stories are being told, are rife about you, at your expense; nach Gestalt der — n [chiefly in law], according to the face or complexion of appearances, according to the shape of things, according to the circumstances; ich halte mich an die —, und nicht an die Worte, I look to the facts and not the words, facts, not words for me; Reichthum, reich seyn ist eine schöne —, it is a fine thing to be rich; Schönheit ist eine vergängliche —, beauty is a transitory possession, a fleeting thing; das ist eine wunderbare —, that is a wonderful thing; es ist eine schöne — um das Licht, light is a beautiful thing; was für eine angenehme —, zu Hause zu seyn [in fam. lang.], how comfortable, how delightful it is to be in one's own house, at home! das ist keine große — [in fam. lang.], that is not a serious, important affair, that is of no very great consequence; das ist eine andere — [in fam. lang.], that is quite another affair; die — n sind nicht mehr im alten Stande, the circumstances are no longer the same, matters are or have greatly changed; die — n haben sich günstig gestaltet, gewendet, matters have taken a favorable turn; er hat tausend artige — n or Sächelchen, he has a thousand pretty things, pretty little things, knick-knacks; V. Spiel —, Zucker —; es fehlen mir noch einige nöthige — n, I am still in want of some necessary things; viele — n besitzen, to possess many things [such as, clothes, goods, tools]; er hat alle seine — n verkauft, he has sold all his things; meine — n sind mir gestohlen worden, my things have been stolen from me; [in grammar] dieser Ausdruck wird eben sowohl von Personen als von — n gebraucht, this term is equally employed for persons as for things. 4) any affair. Eine — anfangen, to commence an affair, a thing; er ist pünktlich in seinen — n, besorgt seine — n pünktlich, he is punctual, methodical in his affairs, minds his business, looks well after his concerns; seine — n in Ordnung bringen, to arrange, to set in order one's affairs, to settle one's accounts; verbrießliche, wichtige &c. —, distressing, important &c. affair; eine öffentliche —, a public cause or affair; [in fam. lang.] seine — n stehen schlecht, gehen gut von statten, his affairs are in a bad state, in a good train, he is badly off, well off; sich in Anderer — n mengen, to meddle with the affairs of others; sich einer — annehmen, to take an interest, to interest one's self in a matter; gemeinschaftliche — mit Einem machen, to make common cause, to espouse or embrace the same cause with any one; seine — schlecht, gut machen, to do ill or well one's business; die — Gottes, der Kirche &c., the cause or interest of God, of the Church; die — der Menschen or Menschheit führen, vertheidigen, to espouse, to defend the cause of humanity; thun Sie dieß der guten — zu lieb, do this for the love or sake of the good cause, for the righteous cause; [in the New Testament] wenn ihr für die — der Gerechtigkeit leidet, glücklich seyd ihr, if ye suffer for the sake, cause, of righteousness, happy are ye; das ist meine — nicht, [for das geht mich nichts an, it. dazu habe ich keine Neigung], that is not my affair, that is no concern of mine, that is a thing I am not particularly fond of; in — n der Religion, in matters of Religion; Schweigen ist nicht seine —, to be silent, silence is not his forte, to hold his tongue, to keep his own counsel is not one of his virtues.

Sach-bemerkung, f. a remark upon or about some subject, [also] a remark to the point or purpose. — beweis, m. proof extracted and deduced from the subject or affair itself, deductive proof. — dienlich, adj. and adv. suitable, suitably. — dienliche Vorkehrungen treffen, to take suitable or fitting measures; seine Bemerkungen sind sehr —dienlich, his observations are very much to the purpose. —erklärung, f. the explanation or elucidation of a thing, [in logic] the definition of things. —fällig, adj. and adv. [in law] cast in a law-suit. —fällig werden, to be cast in a suit or action at law, to lose one's cause, one's process; Einen —fällig erkennen, to record, to declare any one as cast or non-suited. —führer, m., —führerin, f. advocate, counsel, attorney, pleader. —gedächtniß, n. the memory, the recollection, the remembrance [in so far as it retains and verifies events, incidents &c.]. Er hat ein vortreffliches —gedächtniß, his mnemonic faculty or power of remembering as to events &c. is great. —geschlecht, n. [in grammar] the neuter gender. —kenner, m., —kennerin, f. a connoisseur. —kenner mögen darüber urtheilen, the connoisseurs may pass their judgement upon it. —kenntniß, f. 1) a knowledge of the subject. Er urtheilt darüber mit —kenntniß, he passes his judgement upon it with a perfect knowledge of the subject. 2) the knowledge of things [in so far as they are opposed to words]; the knowledge of facts. —klage, f. [in law] a real action. —kunde, f. V. —kenntniß. —kundig, adj. and adv. expert, in a skilful manner, skilfully, au fait. —kundiger Beurtheiler, Uebersetzer, a skilful critic, an expert translator; ein —kundiger, a connoisseur, an experienced person, a good judge. —leer, adj. and adv. destitute or barren of matter, poor in facts. Eine —leere Schreibart, a style poor in facts, void of useful or interesting matter. —recht, n. [more usually Sachenrecht] 1) the universal purport and recognition by every human law of that which constitutes property, right of property. 2) the right possessed by man over every thing that constitutes property, right of personal or national property. [The right of personal or national property can never extend to persons; the slave-trade therefore is an infringement of the right of persons, and is consequently an unreal as well as an unjust Sachenrecht. The Stars, Sun, Moon are things that man can never possess as property, they are Dinge, but a horse, a house, a garden are a Sache, which man can possess, and with respect to these and similar things, the Sachenrecht exists in both its significations]. —register, n. table of contents, index. —reich, adj. and adv. copious, full of matter. —reiche Schreibart, a copious style, abounding in facts; der Brief ist schlecht geschrieben, aber —reich, the letter is badly written, but abounding in facts, full of or copious in matter. —verständnis, m. 1) the real sense, the defined meaning of a thing. 2) [in fam. lang.] the understanding of a thing. —verständnis, adj. and adv. speaking, acting, judging &c. with a full knowledge of the subject. Ein —verständiger Mensch or Mann, ein —verständiger, an expert man, a connoisseur, [in law, ein Experte] practical lawyer; —verständiges Urtheil, judgement pronounced, delivered, formed from a full knowledge of the subject-matter; ein —verständiger, der —verständige, connoisseur; —verzeichniß, n. V. —register. —walter, m., —walterin, f. a person who conducts the affairs of another in a conscientious manner; [especially] an attorney; an advocate, V. —führer &c.

Syn. Sachwalter, Anwalt. A Sachwalter is any one who conducts the business of another, attends to his interests, and defends him when he is accused; an Anwalt is one, who, by virtue of his office, has a right and an obligation to do all this. V. Advocat. —wälderamt, n. the pleader's office; it. the place of pleading &c., bar. —wort, n. [in grammar] noun, substantive.

Sächlich, or Sächlich, adj. and adv. concerning any affair, relative to any thing [not to words]. Das —e Recht [Sachenrecht] V. Sachrecht; [in gram.] —es Geschlecht, the neuter gender. Fig. positive [opposed to the negative]. Die —e Eigenschaft, das —e, the positive.

Sächse, m. [-n, pl. -n] Sächsin, f. a male or female native of Saxony, a Saxon.

Sachsenrecht, n., —spiegel, m., the code or law of the ancient Saxons, Saxon-lage.

Sachsen, n. [-s, pl. -] [in geography] Saxony.

Sächsisch, adj. and adv. Saxon, appertaining to Saxony. Die —en Fürstenthümer, the Saxon principalities [the small sovereign principalities of Saxe-Coburg, Saxe-Weimar &c.]; —es Blau, Saxon blue; das —e Recht (das Sachsenrecht, der Sachsenpiegel), the code or law of the ancient Saxons, Saxon-lage; it. [less usual and instead of sächsisches Recht or sächsische Gesetz] the law or code of [the present kingdom of] Saxony; die —e Frist, V. under Frist; eine doppelte —e Frist, a double Saxon delay [a delay, respite, grace in payment of four months].

Sacht, adj. and adv. [in A. Sax. and Engl. soft, in lieu of saft, as it is in the Scottish dialect, and this is identical with sanft. The Dutch in the same manner say zacht instead of zucht] 1) soft to the touch. —e Klippen [in seamen's lang.], bearded rocks [rocks or large shingle near the surface of the water, covered with slimy viscous matter, in consequence of which they do not so much endanger vessels]. 2) gentle, soft, light. —auftreten, reden, an die Thür klopfen, to walk or tread lightly, to speak softly, to tap gently at the door. 3) slowly, little by little, step by step, by degrees, insensibly. Sie müssen —er gehen, you must walk gentlier, go slower; der Dieb zog ihm das Tuch — aus der Tasche, the thief drew the pocket-handkerchief gently out of the gentleman's pocket; —e, —e! gently, gently! [in fam. lang.] —hen, gently, softly, by degrees. Syn. V. Gelind. 4) [with weavers] der —e Tritt, V. Taffettritt.

Sacht-muth, —müthig —sinnig, V. [the more usual words] Sanftmuth &c.

Sachttheit, f. softness, moderation.

Säck, m. [-es, pl. Säcke] [the primitive idea conveyed by this word, almost similar in its spelling and sound in a great number of languages, was doubtless that of something hollow, something sinking and forming thereby a cavity or recess] 1) [generally] a hollow space, enclosed and impervious at one end. Die Gasse endigt sich in einen —, the street ends in a sack, [that is] has no thoroughfare, is a blind alley, V. —gasse. 2) [especially] a large or small sack, bag, [also] pocket; [diminutive] Säckchen, || Säcklein, n. [-s, pl. -] a little, a small bag, pocket, [in trowsers] a fob. Ein leinener, zwillichener, ledetner —, a linen, buckram, leather sack or bag; unten im —e, at the bottom of the sack; einen — leeren, zubinden, aufbinden, to empty, tie, untie a sack; ein — zu Getreide, Kohlen &c., a wheat-sack; a coal-sack &c., V. Kohlen-, Pulver-, ein — mit Nüssen, Haber &c. or ein — voll Haber, Nüsse &c., a sack or a sackful of walnuts, oats &c.; ein — mit or voll Geld, a bag filled with coin, a sackful of money; ein Säckchen voll Salz &c., a bag full of salt &c.; Etwas in einen — fassen, Korn &c. in Säcke füllen, thun, to put something into a sack, to fill sacks with corn &c.; 200 Säcke Mehl, two hundred sacks of flour or meal; der Müller hat seine Säcke mit Mehl [seinen Kunden] geliefert, the miller has furnished his sacks with flour, has delivered his sacks filled with flour [to his customers]; im —e ersäufen, to drown in a sack; Etwas in den — stecken [in fam. lang.], to put something in one's pocket, to pocket something; er hat Geld im —e, he has money in his pocket; fig. he is a moneyed, warm man; schwer wie ein —, heavy as a sack; it. [amongst surgeons] the sack, the sinus [in an abscess]; es hat sich unten in der Wunde ein — gebildet, a sack, a sinus has formed at the bottom of the wound; it. [amongst tailors] a pucker; ihr Kleid macht an verschiedenen Orten Säcke, her dress is puckered in several places; V. Bettel-, Dudel-, Futter-, Hosen-, Klingel-, Kräuter-, Mantel-, Mehl-, Schnapp-, Schub-, Stroh-, Wad-, Woll-, Zwerch-; [low] seinen — [= Magen] füllen, to cram one's sack, one's stomach, to fill one's stomach. Fig. Mit — und Pack abziehen, to pack, to troop off with bag and baggage, it. [in fam. lang. for aussziehen] to remove out off one lodging to another with all one's things, furniture; Einen in den — stecken or schieben [in pop. lang.], to obtain the mastery, the ascendant over any one, to put any one, to stick any one into a sack, to lead any one by the nose, to put any one in leading-strings; Einen im —e haben [in pop. lang.], to have one in a bag or net [in one's power, in one's toils or clutches, under one's thumb]; Etwas in einen löcherigen — schütten [in pop. lang.] V. Sieb, to fill a sieve, a riddled pannier or a bucket that has holes in its bottom with water, to undertake an impossibility; er ist ein Narr in seinen — [in pop. lang.], he has no objection to pass for a fool, provided it suits his interest; Etwas schon im —e haben [in pop. lang.], to have something already in one's pocket, to feel quite sure of having, to be already certain or confident of receiving something; die Kasse im — kaufen, to buy a pig in a poke. 3) [a measure] a sack [= three bushels]. Ein — Korn, a sack of corn. 4) [W. segan, a covering] a garment of affliction, despair, repentance, atonement. Im —e und in der Asche Buße thun, to do penance in sackcloth and ashes.

Sack-band, n. a sack-string, a bag-string, a sack-band [for tying a sack or bag]. —drillich, m. buckram, sacking, sack-cloth. —flechte, f. [in botany] liverwort [a species of lichen]. —fliege, f. V. —wespe. —flosse, f. a kind of sea-bream. —förmig, adj. and adv. sack-formed, bag or purse-shaped. —förmige Haut [in botany], skin which forms a bag or pouch, pursey-skin. —gans, f. V. Kropfgans. —garn, n. [with fishermen] 1) trammel, circular fishing-net, a seine, bag or purse net. 2) [amongst gamekeepers and poachers] trawl, partridge-net. 3) bag-net or snare, a boney-springe. —gasse, f. blind-alley, no-thoroughfare, turn-again. — geige, f. pocket-fiddle, kit [used by dancing-masters]. — geld, n. 1) corn-fee, corn-measuring-fee. 2) V. Taschengeld. — geschwulst, f. [amongst surgeons] a cyst, cyst, cisted tumour, a wen. — gölte, f. V. — gehente. — hase, m. [in agriculture] the slightly ploughed part of a furrow. — kalender, m. V. Taschenkalendar. — knecht, m. 1) sack-porter. 2) Fig. malt-stick, stick for sacking malt. — last, f. a sack [measure of three bushels]. — lehen, n. chief held by the bursar or warden of a college. — leinswand, f. sack-cloth, sacking, sacking-stuff. — macher, m. sack-maker. — mann, m. [quite obsolete] sacker, pillager. Einen — mann machen, to make a sack, to plunder and sack, to deliver up a town to be sacked and pillaged. — messer, n. [in common people's lang.] V. Taschenmesser. — nadel, f. 1) V. Wacknadel. 2) [in nat. hist.] V. Wackelfisch 1). — netz, n. [amongst fishermen] a bag-net, seine, trammel, caul. — pfeife, f. bag-pipe, the bag-pipes, pibroch, V. Dudelsack. — pfeifer, m. bag-piper. — pistole, f. — puffer, m. pocket-pistol. — pumpe, f. pocket-pump [used by public lecturers, experimentalists &c.]. — spiegel, m. pocket-looking-glass, pocket glass or mirror. — spinne, f. [kind of spider that makes an infundibuliform trap or nest in dry earth or sand] the ant-lion. — sprige, f. [kind of siphonic worm] the syringe-worm, the siphuncle [siphunculus]. — steuer, f. V. — geld 1). — stich, m. [amongst seamen] splice-knot, sailor's or fisherman's knot. — träger, m. 1) sack-porter. Prov. Ein Esel heißt den andern — träger, the kettle calls the frying-pan black-face. 2) saccophori [in church history, a sect of Christians that wore sack-cloth]. 3) [in nat. hist.] V. Nimmersatt. 4) or — trägerinn, f. V. — winne. 5) [larvae spinning sack-formed cocoons] sack-spinning larva. — tuch, n. 1) [in common people's lang.] pocket-handkerchief, handkerchief, V. Taschentuch. 2) sack-cloth, sacking. — uhr, f. [in common people's lang.] a watch, V. Taschenuhr. — wespe, f. ichneumon fly. — zehente, m. tithes paid in clear corn put into sacks. — zieher, m. [in the working of mines &c.] sack-drawer [person or instrument that draws up or pulls sacks]. — zins, m. V. — zehente. — zwillich, m. canvass for sacks, sack-cloth, sacking. — zwirn, m. sack-twine, sack-thread or sack-twist.

Säckel, m. V. Sackel.

Säckelkraut, n. [in botany] shepherd's pouch, scrip or purse [thlaspi, bursa pastoris].

Säcken, I. v. tr. to sack, to pocket, to bag, to put in a sack. Die Taschen voll — [low], to fill one's pockets, to cram one's pockets full, V. Ab —, Auf —, Aus —, Be —, Ein —; den Wanst voll — [vulgar], to stuff, to cram one's belly like a sack, to gormandize; einen Verbrecher —, V. Säcken 2); [amongst sportsmen] Hirsch, der gut gefackelt ist, hart or stag in grease. II. v. r. sich — 1) to pucker, to be puckered [such as coats, gowns &c. ill-made and forming large wrinkles or folds]. 2) to be choked up [of tubes, tunnels]. 3) to sink down, to give way from the foundation [of buildings]. Das —, 1) sacking, stuffing. 2) sinking down, giving way.

Säcken, v. tr. [in German criminal law formerly, and now only in Eastern countries] to put into a sack or sacks, to sack. Einen Verbrecher —, to drown a criminal in a sack, to sack a criminal.

Säcker, m. [-s, pl. -] [not much used] a sacker, a person employed or hired to fill sacks.

Säckerfalk, m. V. Sakerfalk.

Säcker, m. [-s, pl. -] sack-maker [not much used in this sense]; it. purse-maker, glover, leather-breeches-maker, V. Beutler. — inn, f. a female sack- or purse-maker.

Säcker-gesell, m. journeyman purse-maker. — handwerk, n. sack trade; purse trade. — junge, m. purse-maker's apprentice. — meister, m. master purse-maker.

Sacrament n. &c. V. Sacrament &c.*

Sacristan, m., Sacristei, f. V. Sacristan &c.*

Säcularisiren, v. tr. V. Säcularisiren.*

Sadebaum, m. [-es, pl. Sadebäume] [Sadelbaum], V. Säbenbaum. Wilder —, wild savin-tree.

Sádrach, m. [-es, pl. -e] [in Scripture] demon, devil, dragon. Fig. [in common people's lang.] wicked and outrageous person.

Saducäer, m. [-s, pl. -] [in Scripture and Jewish history] a Saducee [a sect of the Jews that denied the immortality of the soul, the existence of spirits, the resurrection of the body &c.] Die Grundsätze, die Lehre der —, the doctrines of the Saducees, Saduceism.

Saducäisch, adj. and adv. Saducean.

Säen, v. tr. [Goth. sajan, A. Sax. sagan, Lat. sero, sevi, satum] 1) to scatter, to pour out, [such as, money, salt, ashes &c.]. Fig. [in fam. lang. or jestingly] Das Geld ist dünne bei ihm gesäet, he is not very flush of money. 2) to pour into, to sow. Es ist Zeit zu —, it is time for sowing; es ist gutes Wetter zu —, es ist gut —, it is good weather for sowing; man hat schon gesäet, the sowing is already over; Getreide, Hanf —, to sow corn, hemp; dieses Feld ist gesäet, this field is sown; dieser Weizen ist dicht gesäet, this wheat is sown thick. Das —, the sowing, [little used] seed-time; wir sind mit dem — fertig, we have finished our sowing, the sowing is over.

Säe-fasten, m. V. — vflug. — land, n. sown field; it. field for sowing. — mann, m. the sower. — maschine, f. — pflug, m. sowing-machine, drill-plough. — sack, m. — tuch, n. seed-bag, seed-cloth [in which the sower carries the seed-corn or grain for sowing]. — wetter, n. sowing-weather, weather favourable for sowing. Wir hatten sehr gutes —wetter, we had very good sowing-weather. — zeit, f. sowing-season, sowing-time, seed-time. — zeug, n. V. — vflug.

Säer, m. [-s, pl. -] — inn, f. sower, person who sows, [seldom] seeder.

Saffian, m. [-es, pl. -e] [perhaps allied to Saffran, a Turkish word] Morocco leather [manufactured from goat's-skin, and when spurious of calf's-skin &c.]. Zu — verarbeiten, auf — art zubereiten, to prepare, dress or manufacture Morocco-leather; zu — verarbeitetes Bocksfell, goat-skin prepared for Morocco-leather; türkischer —, — aus der Barbarei, Turkish, Barbary Morocco; rother, schwarzer, zitronenfarbiger —, red, black, lemon-coloured Morocco; fein, grob genarbt —, fine, coarse-grained Morocco; ein mit — überzogenes, in — gebundenes Buch, a book covered with, bound in Morocco; die Kunst, — zu machen, the art of working and dressing Morocco-leather.

Saffian-bereiter, — macher, m. Morocco-leather dresser. — fabrik, f. the fabric or manufactory for the dressing of Morocco-leather. — schuh, m. Morocco-shoe.

Sáflor, or Safflor, m. [-s, pl. -e] [the name is oriental and perhaps connected with the previous and following one] 1) safflow, safflower, bastard saffron, dyer's saffron [carthamus tinctorius]. 2) Wilder —, saffron-flower, vernal crocus; [in commerce] — or flor, safflower; [in mineralogy] zaffar, zaffer, zaffre, zaphara [a kind of chalk or lime of cobalt].

Safflor-pflaster, n. safflower-plaster. — samen, m. saffron-seed.

Sáfran, m. [-s] [Arab. sahafaran and Pers. zafferan] 1) saffron. Mit — färben, zubereiten, bestreichen [Leinwand, Reis &c.], to dye, prepare, stain with saffron [linen, rice &c.]. 2) Wilder —, dyer's saffron, V. Safflor; V. also Eberwurz and Zeitlose. 3) Indischer or Babylonischer —, Indian or Babylonian saffron, curcuma, turmeric; [in chemistry] zaffre [a metallic chalk], V. Eisfen — &c.

Safranbaum, m. the cornel-tree of Ceylon. — blütze, f. saffron-flower. — branntwein, m. usquebaugh [a sort of brandy in which saffron has been steeped]. — farbe, f. saffron-die, saffron-colour. — farben, — farbig, adj. and adv. saffron-coloured, croceous. — gelb, adj. and adv. saffron-yellow, saffron-yellowish. — geruch, m. saffron-smell. — geschmack, m. saffron-taste, saffron-flavour. — öl, n. saffron-oil, oil of saffron. — pfirsche, f. yellow alberge, yellow peach. — pflanze, f. V. — 1). — pflanzung, f. saffron-plantation. — pflaster, n. [in medicine] saffron-plaster, oxycroce.

Sáft, m. [-es, pl. Säfte] [A. Sax. saef, saep, Engl. sap, French sève, allied to Europe in Low Sax. to trickle is called siaven] dim. Säftchen, || Säftlein, n. [-s, pl. -] 1) [of plants &c.] the sap, the juice, [of fruits] the juice. Den — aus einem Kraute drücken, to squeeze or press out the juice of any vegetable; der — des Fleisches, eines Bratens, the gravy of meat, of roast meat; der — der Äpfel, Birnen, Zitronen, the juice of apples, pears, lemons; diese Pfirsche hat einen guten, einen sehr angenehmen —, viel —, this peach has a good, a very agreeable juice, much juice; eingesottener — von Birnen, the stewed or inspissated juice or syrup of pears; die Pflanzen nähren sich von dem —e, welchen sie aus der Erde ziehen, plants are nourished by the juices which they extract from the earth; im Frühling steigt der — in die Bäume, in the spring the sap ascends into the trees; die Bäume stehen im —e, the trees are full of sap; der — in den Weinstöcken, in den Birken, the sap in vines, in birches, vine-juice, birch-juice; V. Birken —, Reb —, Zitronen —; die Säfte des menschlichen Körpers, the humours, juices of the human body; schlechte, fehlerhafte, verdorbene, überflüssige Säfte, the foul, vicious, peccant, corrupted, overflowing or superabundant juices or humours; Zufluß von Säften, Ueberfluß an Säften, Austreten der Säfte, affluence, superabundance, overflowing of humours; das bringt die Säfte in Bewegung, that puts the humours in motion, that stirs up the bile; Ueberfluß an Säften, zu viel Säfte haben, to have an overplus of juices, to be of a gross habit of body; das Uebel sitzt nicht im Blute, es liegt in den Säften, the disease, the evil is not in the blood, but in the humours or secretions; der rothe —, the blood [the red secretion]. V. Milch—, Nahrungs—, Nerven—. Fig. [in fam. lang.] Den — und die Kraft aus einem Buche ziehen, to extract the pith and marrow from a book; was er sagt, hat weder Kraft noch —, what he says has neither life nor soul, is perfectly insipid and powerless; eine Rede ohne Kraft und —, a speech without point or animation, without acumen or force. 2) [amongst chemists, druggists, apothecaries] syrup [as a medicine]. Einem ein Säftchen bereiten, eingeben, to prepare, to administer a syrup to any one.

Saft = bälglein, n. [in botany] the spiral tube, the sap-vessel. — behältniß, n. [in botany] the nectareum. — birn, f. the juicy pear [kind of pear having much juice]. — blau, n. sap-blue, sun-flower-blue [prepared from the extracted juice of the helianthus and generally used as a powder by laundresses for impregnating diluted starch]. — fäden, pl. [in botany] juicy fillets, succulent filaments [in moss-flowers]. — farbe, f. sap-green, sap-dye [prepared from the juices of either the vegetable or animal kingdom]. — fäule, f. [in the human body] cachexy. — fuge, f. V. — ring. — fülle, f. abundance of humours. — gang, m. [in botany] the sap duct, spiral tube. — gefäß, n. 1) [in anatomy] the lacteals, chyloferous vessels. 2) [in botany] the sap-vessel. — grube, f. [in botany] V. — behältniß. — grün, l. adj. and adv. [dyed with a sap-green colour] sap-green, sap-greenish. II. n. indecl. [dye or colour prepared by decoction, infusion &c. from different plants] sap-green. — holz, n. sap-wood [wood into which the sap has ascended]. — kraut, n. leak, alliary [cruciferous plant of the garlic tribe, alliaria]. — leer, — los, adj. and adv. sapless, juiceless, humourless. — lose Früchte, juiceless fruits, fruits that are not succulent; — und kraftloses Fleisch, juiceless and tasteless meat. Fig. [in contempt] — und kraftloses Gewächs, nonsensical tittle-tattle, spiritless verbosity, insipid empty talk. — muß, n. syrup. — pflaster, n. diachylon-plaster. — räuber, m. [in botany] parasitical plant, a parasite [plant]. — reich, adj. and adv. rich in juice, sap, juicy, succulent. — reiches Fleisch, juicy, succulent meat; — reiche Melone, Pfirsche, juicy melon, peach. — ring, m. [in botany] sap-ring. — röhre, f. spiral tube, sap-tube. — voll, adj. and adv. sapful, juicy, succulent; V. — reich. — zeit, f. [chiefly in rural economy or in science] sap-time, sap-season, spring.

Säftlosigkeit, f. absence of juice, sap, humour.

Säften, v. intr. [rather unusual] 1) to be in sap. Die Bäume — schon, the trees are already in sap. 2) to ooze, run out spontaneously [speaking of sap or juice]. Die Äpfel — durch den Saft, the apple-juice oozes through the sack.

Säften, V. Säftigen.

Säftig, adj. and adv. succulent, juicy, abounding in juice. — es Obst, — e Früchte, juicy fruit; — e Birnen, Melonen, juicy pears, melons, pears. melons, which melt in the mouth; diese Pfirsche ist nicht —, this peach is not juicy; — es Fleisch, succulent, juicy meat; [in botany] — e Steinfrucht, juicy stone-fruit, juicy drupa; — e Beere, juicy berry; — e Samendecke, fleshy arillus; — e Pflanzen [with thick fleshy leaves] succulent plants. Fig. [in common people's language] — er Scherz, Spaß, — e Reden, — e Erzählungen, indecent joke or jest, smutty conversation, smutty stories, smut.

Säftigkeit, f. juiciness, succulency.

Säftigen, v. tr. to fill [plants] with sap, to render juicy. Die Kraft, welche die Bäume säftigt, the force, the power that vivifies the trees with sap, that causes the circulation of sap in trees.

Sagbar, adj. and adv. that which can or may be said, expressible, sayable. Es ist nicht —, wie &c., it is impossible to say, how &c.

Säge, f. [pl. -n] 1) [in fam. or pop. lang.] what one says, say; saying, speech, talk, words. Nicht bei seiner — bleiben, not to abide by one's say, to contradict one's self; seiner — nach, according to him, according to what he says; der allgemeynen — nach, according to what all the world says, according to the universal say; V. An—, Aus—, Zu—. 2) rumour, report; it. tradition, old saw, saying. Es geht die —, daß &c., the rumour, the report goes that &c., the report, the talk is that &c.; nach der — stand hier ein Kloster, according to tradition a convent stood here; die — kam je weiter aus von ihm [in Scripture], and the talk concerning him spread farther and wider; vor der Erfindung der Schreibekunst bestand die Geschichte nur in — n, before the invention of writing history consisted merely in traditions; eine —, welche von unsern Vorfahren an sich bis auf uns vererbt hat, a tradition that we have inherited from our forefathers; die — n [Mythen] der Alten von ihren Göttern, the traditions [myths] of the Ancients about their Gods; nordische — n, Northern fables, myths or traditions.

Sagen = forschung, f. traditional research, researches in the mythic lore, in the mythology or tradition of a nation or nations. — geschichte, f. 1) history derived from tradition, traditional history. 2) history of traditions, fables. — zeit, f. the fabulous age, the heroic era, the traditional period.

Säge, f. [pl. -n] [either connected with Sack or with the Lat. sagena, Gr. σαγμα, derived from σαρνω, to thicken, to lead back] 1) net V. Sägenetz. 2) [V. Sägen] a saw. Mit der — zerschneiden, abschneiden, to saw, to cut with a saw; eine —, Holz, Steine zu zerschneiden, a saw for cutting wood, stone; eine — schmieren, to grease a saw; die — greift ein, the saw catches, holds, enters; die — eines Wundarztes, a surgeon's saw, a surgeon's tenon-saw; die — n, womit man Steine zerschneidet, haben keine Zähne, saws used for cutting stones, have no teeth; V. Baum—, Brett—, Garten—, Hand—, Holz—, Loch—, Stein—. 3) [in conchology] saw-mussel, radiated triangular spotted mussel, tellina.

Sägebaum, m. V. Säbenbaum. — blatt, n. saw-blade. — blech, n. steel for saws, saw-set, plate, lamina or sheet for saws. — block, m. saw-block [log or block intended to be sawed into planks]. — bock, m. a trestle, a sawing-jack. Die — böcke der Brettschneis-ber, the trestles used by sawyers in saw-pits. — fisch, m. 1) [a kind of shark] saw-fish, pristis. 2) [a kind of grampus] saw-grampus [squalus pristis]. — förmig, adj. and adv. saw-formed, serrated, saw-toothed, [in botany] serrated. — förmiges Eisen, Holz, iron, wood shaped like a saw; — förmiges Blatt, serrated leaf, leaf denticulated like a saw; [in gunnery] — förmige Batterien, batteries in redent, redant or redan, in zig-zag; — förmig gezähnt, gezackt [in heraldry], indented. — gerüst, n. saw-frame. — gestell, n. saw-sash. — hai, m. V. — fisch. — kloß, m. V. — block — kraut, n. [in botany] wild lucerne, saw-wort. — lohn, m. sawing. — mehl, n. saw-dust. — mehlartig, adj. and adv. like saw-dust, [in botany] scobiformed. — meister, m. master-sawyer, V. — müller. — mühle, f. saw-mill. — müller, m. owner of a saw-mill. — muschel, f. [a sort of lampin or patella] saw-mussel. — netz, n. [amongst fishers] a seine. — rippe, f. saw-cockle, the rainbow-cockle. — schnäbler, m. goosander, saw-beak. — schnauze, f. V. — fisch. — span, m. [generally used in the pl.] — späne, saw-dust, scobs. — tacher, m. 1) V. — schnäbler. 2) V. Biberente. — wagen, m. [in saw-mills] saw-wagon. — wert, n. V. Sägenwerk. — zahn, m. the tooth of the saw. — zug, m. V. Sägenschnitt.

Sägenblatt, n. V. Sägeblatt. — artig, V. Sägeförmig. — fliege, f. leaf-wasp; saw-fly [sirex gigas]. — förmig, V. Sägeförmig. — gatter, n. [in saw-mills] saw-lattice, saw-grate. — muskel, m. [in anatomy] the costo-scapular muscle [which draws back outwardly the scapula or shoulder-blade]; der hintere untere und obere — muskel, the dorso-costal, and the lumbo-costal muscles. — schmied, m. saw-smith, saw-maker. — schnitt, m. saw-notch, saw-cut; it. — e, [in fortification] redans, redan-lines, zig-zag or crenated battlements; — schnitte auf den Köpfen der Pfähle bei dem Abstecken der Minengänge, notches, serratures on the tops of stakes for setting out of mine-galleries. — seger, m. a saw-wrest, saw-setter. — wert, n. saw-mill; [in fortification] redan-work [intrenchment thrown up upon a bridge &c.]. — werksbatterie, f. redan-battery, zig-zag-battery.

Sägen, v. trans. [Old Sax. seagan, saegan, Swed. saga, Ice. seiga, Allemann. er sait, instead of er sagt, he says; in early Latinity secere, a compound of which survived in sece, say on] to say. Seine Gedanken, etwas Schönes, Wahres —, to say one's thoughts, something fine, true; die Einnen — ja, die Andern nein, some say yes, and others no; er hat ihm etwas in's Ohr gesagt, he has said something in his ear, he whispered something to him, V. Ohr; ich sagte es wohl, es würde so kommen, I said it would be so, I said how it would turn out; Etwas geradezu, rund heraus, ohne Umstände —, to say something right-out, plump, flatly, without ceremony, without standing upon trifles, not to mince the matter; Einem seine Meinung —, to tell any one one's mind, V. Meinung; man sagt, er werde bald kommen, they say he will soon come; man hat ihm gesagt, daß &c., [familiarily] er hat sich — lassen, daß &c., he was told, he has heard that &c.; es wird viel Unwahres gesagt, a great many things are said, that are not true; was sagt man Neues or [in fam. lang.] gutes Neues? what is the last news, the best news? ich habe Ihnen nur Ein Wort zu —, I have but one word to say to you; um Alles mit Einem Worte zu —, to say all in a word; es wäre viel lieber oder davon zu —, there would be a great deal to say respecting or about that; was wird man davon —? what will people, what will the world say about it? es liegt mir nichts daran, was die Leute dazu — werden, I don't care a rush for what people will say of it, as for what the world will say about it, I snap my fingers at it; Ihr seyd der unverschämteste Mensch, Ihr seyd nicht recht bei Verstande, sage ich, I declare, you are the most impudent fellow, you are out of your wits; so Etwas habe ich noch nie gehört, das muß ich —, I never heard the like, I declare; weiter habe ich nichts mehr zu —, I have nothing more to say; habe ich es nicht gesagt? have I not said it, did I not say so? ist es nicht so eingetroffen, wie ich gesagt habe? has it not turned out exactly as I said? wie gesagt [=wie ich es gesagt habe], as I said; er ist, wie gesagt, ein schlechter Mensch, I told you so, he is a contemptible fellow; die Sache muß, wie gesagt, unverzüglich zu Ende gebracht werden, this affair or business must, as I have already or just said, be brought to an end, I repeat, this affair &c. requires a speedy termination; wie gesagt, so geschehen, or gethan! so said! so done! im Vorbeigehen gesagt, while upon the subject let me say, by the way, by the by he it said; Einem einen guten Morgen —, to wish a good morning to any one; Einem gute Nacht —, to say good night to any person; Einem einen Gruß — lassen, to send one's compliments, respects, greeting to any one; ich sage Ihnen dafür Dank, I return you thanks for it, I thank you for it; für Jemand gut —, to become bail or surety, to be bound, to give security, to make one's self responsible for another; was wollen Sie damit —? what do you mean by that? das heißt genug gesagt, enough said, that is evidently enough said; das will ich damit nicht gesagt haben, that is not what I meant to say, that is not the meaning intended to convey; I don't pretend to say so [there is a sort of submeaning] [es war nicht mein Wille, ich hatte die Absicht nicht, das or so viel zu —]; unter uns gesagt, between us, between you and me; das ließe ich nicht von mir — [V. Nachsagen], I would not suffer that to be said of me; man sagt ihn todt, reich, they say he is dead, rich; wie or was ich Ihnen sage [in fam. lang.], as I tell you, as I say to you, I assure you; was ich — wollte [when one has diverted from the subject and wishes to revert to it], what I wished to say &c., to return to the subject; [ja! ei!] was wollt' ich doch — [when one has digressed from his subject or suddenly forgotten by a slip of memory what he intended to say or was just about to say], what was I going to say, though! ich sagte nur so, I only said so in jest, I only said so [for fun, that was all]; das — Sie nur so, das beliebt Ihnen zu —, it pleases you, or, you are merely pleased to say so, you are not in earnest when you say that; bei or zu sich selbst —, to say to one's self; gesagt werden [in grammar], to be said, to be employed, to be used; dieses Wort wird nur von Sachen gesagt [in grammar], this word is only used, said, in speaking of things [that is, not of persons]; Mancher spricht viel, ohne Etwas zu —, people often talk a great deal, without saying any thing; lassen wir ihn reden, er weiß nicht, was er sagt, let him talk, he knows not what he says; lassen Sie sich —, permit me to say to you, listen, if you please, to what I have to say; lasse dir doch auch Etwas —, only hear me, just listen to me, to reason, for a moment; nie ließ er sich Etwas —, never did he listen to good advice, he would never hearken to reason; lasse dir gesagt seyn, daß &c., [threatening command] consider it as good as said, that &c.; ich will es mir gesagt seyn lassen, I will consider it as good as said, I will pay attention to the order; er hat Etwas, viel zu — [in fam. lang.], he has something, much to say [he has power, authority, much credit &c.]; ich habe bei dieser Sache nichts zu —, I have nothing to say with this business, this affair does not concern me, so, I have nothing to say to it; die Bibel sagt, dieser Dichter sagt irgendwo, Goethe sagt in seinem Faust, the Bible says, this poet says somewhere, Goethe says in his Faust. Fig. Mein Herz sagt es mir, daß du mich liebst, my heart says to me, that you love me; dein Gewissen wird dir —, ob &c., your conscience will say to you, if &c.; sie hat schöne Augen, die aber nichts —, she has beautiful eyes, but they say nothing; ihre Blicke sagten mir, daß &c., her looks said, told to me, that &c.; was will, was kann das — [=bedeuten, to signify], what shall, what will, what can that mean? what does that say? das will so viel —, that says as much as; das hat wenig, viel zu —, that says little, much, that is of trifling importance, of much consequence; das hat nichts zu —, that is of no consequence; was hat das zu —? what does that signify? of what consequence is that? seine Gründe — nichts, wollen nichts —, diese Verzierung — nichts, his reasonings say nothing, these embellishments say nothing at all; zehn Thaler wollen nicht viel —, ten dollars don't say much, are but a mere trifle; tausend Thaler wollen schon viel —, a thousand dollars will say something, will tell, a thousand dollars carry some weight with them. Das —, the say, the saying. Seinem — nach, according to his say; alles mein — ist umsonst, all my talking, all that I can say is useless; all my reasonings, exhortations, remonstrances are thrown away. SYN. V. Reden.

Sagebeiwort, n. [in grammar, but little used] adverb. — wort, n. [in grammar, the same as Zeitwort] the verb.

Sägen, [Swed. saga, Ital. segare, Lat. secare, Gr. θῆναι ew. V. Sech, Etzel &c.] I. v. tr. [= zersägen], to saw, to saw asunder [wood, stones, marble &c.]. Einen Balken der Länge nach —, to saw out a piece of timber in lengths; [etwas] sägen lassen, to have, to get, to cause to be sawn; eine Fuhre Holz zweimal — lassen, to have a load of wood sawn twice; Bretter &c. —, to have planks &c. sawn. II. v. intr. 1) to saw, to be occupied with or engaged in sawing [something]. 2) [in seamen's lang.] to row backwards. Das —, the sawing. Das — hat so und so viel gekostet, it has cost so and so for the sawing, the sawing has come to such and such a sum.

Säger, m. [-s], —inn, f. [little used] sayer.

Säger, m. [-s, pl. -] 1) a sawer, a sawyer. 2) [in nat. hist.] V. Säge schnäbler.

Sägerbock, m. [in seamen's lang.] a gin or triangle with pulleys for drawing up wood to be used for planks, a tripod trestle, three-footed jack.

Säglich, [little used] V. Sagbar.

Sägo, m. [also Sagu, and Sego, the name is oriental, in Hindoo sabudana] sago. Sago = baum, m. — palme, f. sago-tree, sago-palm [saguerus and cycas circinalis, growing in the Moluccas and neighbouring Islands]. — grüße, f. — mehl, n. sago-powder, sago.

Sähl. This word, which occurs in several compounds, implies extension in general, or, more especially, extension in length only, and sometimes an inclination to all sides. In some words it appears more or less altered into Sai, Sel, Seil, Sol, Schal, Sahl, Sel, Ziel &c.

Sahlband, n. [allied to Seil] 1) [with clothiers, drapers &c.] list, selvage, edge, border, band. Lockeres — band, loose selvage; die — bänder von einem Tuche abschneiden, to cut off the selvage from a piece of cloth; dieser Zeug ist ohne die — bänder oder zwischenden — bändern 5/4 breit, this stuff is, without reckoning in the selvage, five quarters in breadth; die — bänder der Breite nach [an beiden Enden des Tuches], the borders breadthwise [to both ends of the cloth]; ein Stück Tuch so zusammenlegen, daß die — bänder auf einander zu liegen kommen, to put together or fold a piece of cloth in such a manner that the two selvages may lie one upon another [to double or fold once evenly a piece of new cloth]; rippiges or geripptes — band, ribbed or corded list; Tuch mit guten, schlechten — bändern, cloth with good, bad selvages [finished off well or badly]. 2) [amongst miners] the crust, matrix, gauge, vein-stone, rider, outer-coat [of a vein of metal]. — buch, n. [here Sahl is probably the same as Saal, that is dwelling or habitation] doom's-day-book, V. Sagerbuch. — erde, f. [here Sahl is probably equivalent to Rand, border or setting] turf-squares, turf-clods [square pieces of turf, employed while building under water, or in any hydraulic construction]. — leiste, f. V. — band. — leistenkette, f. the matrix chain [the west leading to the vein-rider of an ore in a mine or lode]. — weisde, f. [A. Sax. sealk, salk, Lat. salix, and French saule; here Sahl is either allied to Seil, that is Band, and then Weisde is peculiarly superfluous, or, it belongs to the Swedish word sele, meaning [gentle, gently-flowing] river [Stuß] so that it might be called Stußweide] 1) sallow, willow-tree. 2) basket-withy, osier tree. 3) Glatte — weide [Lorbeerweide], round-leaved or laurel-leaved willow [flower with five stamens, salix caprea, Linn.].

Sahling, f. [pl. -en] [naval term for the beam that serves for a stay to the masts and top-gallant-masts] the trestle-trees, the cross-bars of the top and top-gallant-mast; V. Sang —.

Sahlit, m. [-en, pl. -en] [in mineralogy] malacholite, soft-stone [a variety of the augite which was found at Sahla in Sweden].

Sähne, f. [only used in sing.] [Dutch saen, appears especially to have signified a thick fluidity, and to be allied to the Lat. san-ies, and sanguis blood or gore] cream. V. also Rahm [which latter word is used chiefly in South-Germany, Sähne in North-Germany].

Sahn = brezel, f. [amongst bakers and pastry-cooks] a cream-cracknel. — frau, f. the cream-woman. — käse, m. a cream-cheese. Ein — käschen, cream-cheese or clotted cream. — kuchen, m. a cream-cake.

Saigen, Saiger, V. Seigen, Seiger.

*Saife, f. [pl. -n] a saick [small Turkish trading galley].

Saite, f. [pl. -n] [allied to the Lat. seta, and perhaps with the Gr. χάλυξ. In A. Sax. sað and in Old Sax. seid, string or rope] string, cord, chord [for lutes, violins &c.] V. Darm —, Draht —, Geigen —, Harfen —, Klavier —. Metallene —, metallic string, wire-string; ein Instrument mit — n beziehen, to string a musical instrument; to put a set of strings on an instrument; die — n höher, tiefer stimmen, spannen, nachlassen, to tune or pitch the strings higher, lower, to screw up, to let down the strings; die — ist gesprungen, the string has snapped, has sprung; die — n rühren, to touch or strike the chords, to wake the strings; die — n leise berühren, to touch the strings gently, to skim the strings or chords; die — n zu hart greifen, to handle the strings too roughly; eine falsche, unrechte —, a false, a wrong string or chord; eine verstimmte —, a string out of tune; die — an einem Spinnrade, the string or cord of a spinning-wheel. Fig. [in fam. lang.] Die — n zu hoch spannen, to screw up one's strings too high, to carry matters a peg too high, with too high a hand, with too lofty a tone; gelindere — n aufziehen, to come down a peg [or two], to change one's note, to speak in a lower tone; berühren Sie diese — nicht, don't touch upon that string.

Saitenbezug, m. a set of strings [for a musical instrument]. — brett, n., — halter, m. tail-piece, string-fastener. — instrument, n. string- or stringed instrument. — flang, m. 1) twang, the sound or vibration of a stretched string when struck. 2) V. — spiel. — flingen, n. V. — spiel — macher, m. string-maker. — spiel, n. [poetically] 1) music of stringed instruments, string-instrumental-music. 2) [—instrument] string or stringed instrument. — ton, m. string-tone, the tone of a string-instrument. — tonwerkzeug, n. V. — instrument. — wurm, m. V. Sadenwurm.

Saitig, adj. and adv. [only in compounds] stringed, V. Drei-, Vier-, Sechß- &c.

Säferfalk, m. [-en, pl. -en] [the word Säfer has its origin from the Russian word sokol, a falcon, so that Säfer is here a pleonasm] the sacre or saker [a kind of strong falcon]. Das Weibchen des — en, the sacret or sakeret.

Saframent, n. [-es, pl. -e] [in religion] the sacrament. Die sieben — e der Katholiken, the seven sacraments of the Roman Catholics; die Protestanten haben nur zwei — e, die Taufe und das Abendmahl, Protestants have only two sacraments, baptism and the Lord's supper, i. e. communion; einen Kranken mit dem heiligen — e versehen, to administer the holy communion to a sick person, [with roman catholics] to administer the viaticum [sacrament taken by a person too ill to receive it at church].

Saframentsfest, n. V. — tag. — häuschen, n. the tabernacle [in roman-catholic churches]. — schänder, m. sacrament-scoffer, violator of the sacraments, sacrilegious character. — tag, m. Corpus-Christi day.

Saframentlich, V. Saframentlich.

Saframentiren, v. intr. [very low] to curse, to swear [in a plebeian vulgar manner].

Saframentirer, m. [-s, pl. -] [in church hist.] 1) sacramentarian [a person who held heretical opinions with respect to the Eucharist or Lord's supper]. 2) [low] a swearer.

Saframentlich, adj. and adv. sacramental, sacramentary. Die — en Zeichen, the sacramental signs.

Safristan, m. [-es, pl. -e] a sacristan, sacrist, vergier, sexton.

Safristei, f. the sacristy, the vestry [in a church or cathedral]. Die Aufseherin über die —, a vestry-nun [in nunneries and female convents] 2) leather-dresser's work-room.

Säkularisation, f. [das Säkularisiren] secularisation.

Säkularisiren, v. tr. to secularize [a cloister, convent, abbey &c.]. Das —, secularisation.

Salad, m. V. Salat.

Salair, [pron. Salähr], Salär, n. [-s, pl. -e] V. Salarium.

Salamänder, m. [-s, pl. -] 1) salamander [a species of lizard]. 2) salamander [a fabulous spirit dwelling in flame].

Salamanderbaum, m. chinese laurel, salamander-tree. — eidechse, f. salamander lizard or newt. — haar, n. [in mineralogy] asbestos, salamander's hair or wood, V. Sedererz, also Amianth.

Salariren, v. tr. [chiefly in chancery style and in commerce] to pay a salary, to appoint with a salary, to reward.

Salarium, n. [-s] salary, fee, appointments, reward.

Salat, m. [-es, pl. -e] [probably from the Ital. salata salted, seasoned] salad, [low] sallet, salleting. Den — anmachen, zubereiten, to make, to dress a salad; guter, gut angemachter —, good, well dressed salad; gekochter —, dressed, prepared, seasoned salad; V. Gurken —, Hering —, Kartoffel —, Kraut —, Lattich — &c.; [in botany] lettuce; Krauser —, crisp lettuce; V. Forellen —, Kopf — &c.; einen — stechen, pflücken, to cut, pluck or gather a lettuce &c. for a salad, to pluck a salad; einen — belesen, to pick a lettuce &c. for a salad. 2) V. Kaiser —, Mauer —, Walb —. 3) mountain-fir [pius montana Linn.]. 4) V. Leene [in botany].

Salatbaum, m. Canadian judas-tree [cercis siliquastrum]. — beet, n. lettuce-bed, salad-bed. — blatt, n. lettuce-leaf. — bohne, f. the common French bean. — gabel, f. salad-fork. — gewächs, n. salleting, any plant fit for salad. — haupt, n., — kopf, m. head or heart of salad. — korb, m. salad-basket. — kraut, n. salleting. — löffel, m. salad-spoon. — napf, m. V. Schüssel. — pflanze, f. 1) V. — gewächs. 2) young lettuce. Die — pflanzen versehen, to plant out, transplant young lettuces. — samen, m. lettuce-seed. — schüssel, f. salad dish or bowl. — wurm, m. 1) mole-cricket. 2) lettuce-maggot [larva of the cock-chaffer].

Salbader, m. [-s, pl. -] [in fam. lang., and comic] [probably from the word Salber, or it was originally Salb-Bader, from Salben and Bader] quack, charlatan, V. Quacksalber. Fig. chattering, gossip, prater, twaddler, tedious proser.

Salbaderei, f. [in fam. lang. and with contempt] 1) V. Quacksalberei. 2) tedious chattering, prosing, tittle-tattle, gossiping.

Salbadern, v. intr. [in fam. lang. and with contempt] 1) V. Quacksalbern. 2) to prate tediously, to bore with chattering, to gossip, prose, prate. Was salbadert ihr da? what are you chattering about there?

Salbe, f. [pl. -n] [probably allied to the

Gr. ἀλεῖω, as also to the Fr. sale, anciently salō, dirty] dim. Salbchen, || Salblein, n. [-s, pl. -] ointment, salve, unguent, balm. Mit — schmieren, bestreichen, to smear, bedaub, rub with ointment; erweichende, wohlriechende —, emollient, odoriferous ointment, V. Augen —, Brand —, Haar —, Kühl —, Bund —; [in seamen's language] ship-paint, calking pitch or tar.

Salbenbaum, m. 1) the black poplar. 2) water-elder, guelder-rose. — bereiter, m. salve or ointment-preparer, maker, dresser. — büchse, f. [dim. — büchsen, || — büchstein, n.] ointment-box, pyx, salve-box; surgeon's ointment-case, salutory. — handel, m. V. — fram. — händler, m. a dealer in ointments and perfume, a perfumer; a vendor of balsams. — fram, m. 1) retail-trade, traffic in salves, ointments. 2) wholesale, ointment-trade or -business. — främer, m., — inn, f. ointment trader, vendor. V. also — händler. — spatel, m. ointment-spatule, salve-spatula [flat thin knife for spreading ointment].

Salbei or Salvei, f. or [provincial] m. [probably from the Lat. salvus, or from the Low Sax. saht, whitish] sage, clary [salvia Linn.]. 1) Die große, breitblättrige —, the large broad-leaved sage; die kleine schmalblättrige —, the little small-leaved sage; die weiße schmalblättrige —, the white small-leaved sage [of Catalonia]; die wollige —, the woolly sage; die buntblättrige —, the parti-coloured sage; die wilde —, meadow-sage; die römische —, clary, orval, orvial, V. Gold —, Silber —. 2) Wilbe —, mountain sage [in South-America]. 3) Wilbe — [kind of germander or speedwell], wild-sage, germander-sage. 4) V. Frauenmünze.

Salbeibaum, m. V. — strauch 1). — blatt, n. sage-leaf. — blume, — blütze, f. sage-flower, sage-blossom. — blumenzucker, m. sage-flower-sugar. — essig, m. sage-vinegar. — grau, adj. and adv. [amongst dyers] sage-gray. — öl, n. sage-oil. — samen, m. sage-seed. — stock, m. sage-stock. — strauch, m. 1) the shrubby phlomis, Jerusalem-sage, sage-shrub, Sicilian mullein or clary. 2) Wilder — strauch, mountain clary. — weide, f. sage-willow, small round-eared willow.

Salben, v. tr. to anoint. Einen, sich —, to anoint any one, one's self; die Fechter salbten sich zum Kampfe, the wrestlers anointed themselves for the contest; die Alten ließen sich —, wenn sie aus dem Bade stiegen, the Ancients had themselves anointed, when they stepped out of the bath; sie salbte die Füße unseres Heilandes, she anointed the feet of our Saviour; mit Del —, to anoint with oil; einen Leichnam —, to embalm a corpse; eine Beule —, to rub with oil or ointment a boil; einen König —, to anoint a king; Samuel salbte den Saul zum König von Israel, Samuel anointed Saul as king of Israel; die Könige von Frankreich wurden aus dem heiligen Fläschchen gesalbt, the kings of France were anointed with oil out of the consecrated vial; Bischöfe bei ihrer Weihe —, to anoint bishops at their consecration; die Gesalbten des Herrn [in Scripture], the Lord's anointed [kings]; gesalbtes Haupt, anointed head, sacred head; einen Kranken mit dem heiligen Oele —, to anoint a sick person with the holy oil, to administer the extreme unction; [low] Einem den Rücken —, to give one a sound drubbing, a regular threshing, to grease one's back with a thick oak-cudgel. Das —, V. Salbung.

Salb=nuß, f. [dim. —nüßchen, || —nüßlein, n.] ben-nut [nut of the smooth bonduc, fruit of the Moringa]. — nußbaum, V. Behenbaum. — nußöl, V. Behenöl. — öl, n. [for extreme unction] the chrismal oil. — stube, f. anointing-room, chrismal chamber.

Salber, m. [—s, pl. —] —inn, f. anointer, consecrator.

Salberei, f. [mostly in a bad sense] the action of anointing; it. [with contempt] daubery.

Salbicht, adj. and adv. unctuous, having an ointment-smell.

Salbling, Salbling, m. [—es, pl. —e] 1) [provincial] alpine-trout. 2) V. Salmling 2).

Salbung, f. [of kings] unction, consecration; [of bishops] unction, anointing, chrism. Fig. Eine Predigt, Rede, ein Buch voll —, a homily or sermon, a speech, a book full of unction.

Salbung=reich, —voll, adj. and adv. unctuous, full of unction; oily; greasy. —reiche Predigt, a sermon full of unction; ein-reicher, —voller Mund [of an orator, chiefly a sacred one, sometimes comic], unctuous lips [like St. Chrysostom], [if comic] an oily mouth.

Salbiren*, v. tr. [V. Saldo] to balance, clear, settle, adjust; pay. Eine Rechnung —, to balance an account. Das —, balancing, the paying, discharging in full.

Saldo*, m. [—s, pl. —s or [more usual] Saldi] [an Italian word derived from the Germ. Soll] balance of an account. Den — einer Rechnung bezahlen, to pay the balance of a bill; den — ziehen, to strike the balance.

Salap, m. [—s, pl. —e] salop, salep [orchis morio].

Salapwurzel, f. salep-root, fool's-stone.

Salier, m. [—s, pl. —] [in Roman history] a Salian.

Saline*, f. [pl. —n] [from the Lat. salina] salt-work, saltern, salt-pit, salt-mine.

Salisch, adj. and adv. [in Roman history] salian, [in French history] salic, salique. —er Priester, salian priest; —es Gedicht, song or hymn of the Salians or Salii; —e Jungfrauen, Salian virgins; das — e Gesetz, the salic law; —e Güter, lands and hereditaments entailed on heirs-male, in fee-tail male.

Salit, V. Salit.

Salünke, m. [—es] valerian, spikenard.

Salivation*, f. [in medicine] salivation.

1. Salml, m. [—es, pl. —e] [Lat. salmo, French saumon] [the name of the salmon in spring and summer] salmon. Kleiner —, [dim. Salmlchen, || Salmllein, n.] little salmon, samlet; frischer, eingesalzener —, fresh, salted, pickled salmon; —e fangen, to catch salmon; der Kopf eines —es, the jole of a salmon; eine Schnitte von einem —e, a slice or steak of salmon; [in foundries] tin-block [a long square piece of tin].

Salmbörse, m. salmon-perch [a sort of perch resembling a salmon in shape and taste]. —brassen, m. salmon-bream. —fang, m. salmon-catching, salmon-fishery. —forelle, f. salmon-trout. —garn, n. salmon-net. —kopf, m. —schnitte, f. V. Salml. —netz, n. V. —garn. —parisch, m. V. —börse.

2. Salml, [—es, pl. —en] [provincial, old or comic for Psalm] [church hymn] psalm, chant, hymn, canticle.

Salmiak, m. [—s] [contracted from sal ammoniacum] sal ammoniac [a substance found naturally and that can be formed artificially by fixing muriatic acid gas and ammoniacal gas]. Natürlicher —, muriate of ammonia; gemeiner —, common sal ammoniac; vitriolischer or Glauber's geheimer —, sulphate of ammonia.

Salmiak=beschlag, m. the efflorescence of sal ammoniac [a whitish crust upon the salt, upon exposure to air]. —blumen, pl. [in chemistry] flowers of ammoniacal salt [sal ammonia sublimated to a feathery form]. —geist, m. [in chemistry] spirit of sal ammoniac. —kruste, f. crust of ammoniacal salt. —rinde, f. rind of sal ammoniac, its crust mixed with sand. —rubin, m. [in chemistry] ruby of sal ammoniac [ruby-red dice-shaped crystal, obtained by dissolving common sal ammoniac in the still warm solution of iron in aquafortis, that is, nitric acid]. —salz, n. sal volatile. —spiritus, V. —geist.

Salmling, m. [—es, pl. —e] 1) little salmon, samlet, young salmon. 2) [the one year old salmon] samlet of the Rhine.

Salome, f. [—s] [name of women] Salome.

Salomon, [with some also Salomo] m. [—s, pl. sometimes, chiefly in higher style, —e] [proper name] Solomon.

Salomon'siegel, n. 1) the seal or seal-ring of Solomon, Solomon's seal [to which the Eastern traditions ascribe miraculous or wonder-working qualities]. 2) [in botany] Solomon's seal [convallaria polygonatum].

Salpeter, m. [—s] [derived from sal petrae, rock salt] nitre, saltpetre, nitrate of potash [a mineral salt]. Roher — vom ersten Sude, raw saltpetre from the first boiling, raw saltpetre of the first crystallization; glänzender — vom zweiten Sude, sparkling saltpetre of the second water, of the second crystallization; gereinigter —, purified saltpetre; gebrochener, klarer —, rock or crystal saltpetre; natürlicher —, native saltpetre, aphronitre, flowers of nitre, natron [found prepared by the hand of nature in Bahar and in other parts of the East-Indies, likewise on the borders of many lakes in the interior of Africa]. —sieden, läutern or reinigen, to boil, strain, refine, purify nitre.

Salpeter=alaun, m. nitrate of alum, nitrous alum. —artig, adj. and adv. nitrous, partaking of the nature of saltpetre. —blume, f. V. —schaum. —dampf, m. [in chemistry] nitrous or nitric acid gas, nitric vapour. —druse, f. crystallised saltpetre [in tiny crystallized groupings over a superficies]. —dunst, m. nitrous vapour or exhalation. —erde, f. nitrous earth [earth containing nitre]. Ausgelaugte —erde, washed nitrous earth. —erde, —probe, f. nitrous earth sample or specimen, test of nitrous earth. —fraß, m. 1) nitrous rot, injury done by saltpetre [mural decay or rot, wall-carries produced by the presence of nitre]. 2) crumbled or decayed hollow of a wall. —gas, n. V. —luft. —geist, m. V. —säure. —gesäuert, V. —sauer. —grube, f. saltpetre-pit, nitre-mine. —grundlage, f. [in chemistry] nitric base. —haltig, adj. and adv. nitrous, nitric, nitry, holding nitre. —hütte, f. saltpetre-house or hut [place where nitre is prepared]. —kessel, f. saltpetre-ladle. —kessel, m. saltpetre-boiler, caldron. —kristall, n. saltpetre-crystal, crystal of nitre. —küchlein, —kügelchen, n.

nitre-ball, trochisk of nitre [for sore throats], [in chemistry] salt of prunel. —lauge, f. saltpetre-lees, saltpetre-brine. —luft, f. [in chemistry] nitrous air, gas. —mutter or —mutterlauge, f. [in saltpetre works] mother of saltpetre [lees or residue from which the saltpetre has been procured by boiling]. —öl, n. oil of saltpetre, blood of salamander. —salmiak, m. nitrate of ammonia [nitrous acid with volatile alkali]. —salz= säure, f. nitro-muriatic acid. —sauer, adj. and adv. [in chemistry] nitric, nitrous. —saurer Kalk, nitrate of lime; —säure Salze, nitrates; —säures Gold, Kupfer &c., nitrate of gold, copper &c.; —säure Luft, V. —luft. —säure, f. nitric acid, spirit of nitre. Versäzte —säure, dulcified spirit of nitre, sweet spirit of nitrous ether; unvollkommene —säure, nitrous acid. —schaum, m. nitre or saltpetre-scum. —schwefel, m. sulphate of nitre. —sieder, m. saltpetre-manufacturer. —siederei, f. saltpetre-manufactory. —stoff, m. 1) saltpetre stuff, matter, material, principle containing nitre. 2) azote, nitrogen. —strauch, m. nitre-shrub [a plant peculiar to the region of the Volga]. —täfelchen, n. V. —fügelchen. —wand, f. nitro-earthen wall [wall where there is saltpetre already, or which is built for it from the earth or mortar employed]. —wasser, n. nitrous water, saltpetre-brine. —wurzel, f. [figuratively] the matrix of the nitre removed by lixiviation &c. —zeltlein, n. V. —küchlein.

Salpetericht, adj. and adv. V. Salzpeterartig.

Salpeterig, Salpetrig, adj. and adv. nitrous, nitry, selenitic &c. —es Wasser, nitrous water; —e Säure or [absolutely] Salpetersäure, nitrous acid.

Sälse, f. [pl. —n] [Ital. salsa, whence the French word sauce] 1) a sort of acid or vinegar sauce, pickle [a sharp, seasoned or also a sour liquid condiment]. 2) [the juice of fruits boiled down to a thickish consistency] rob, inspissated juice, syrup.

Salsen=born, m. [in botany] barberry-tree [berberis vulgaris]. —kraut, n. sauce-alone. —speise, f. food prepared with acid sauce.

Salutation*, f. salutation, greeting.

Salutiren*, v. tr. and intr. [military and naval term] to salute. Mit der Pike, dem Degen —, to salute with the pike, sword; die Hafenbatterien salutirten das Schiff, salutirten, the batteries of the port saluted the ship, fired a salute.

Salväner, m. [—s, pl. —] V. Salviner.

Salvatellader, f. [pl. —n] [in anatomy] the salvatella vein.

Salvationschrift, f. [pl. —en] [Vertheidigungsschrift] [in courts of law] pleadings, the replication [of the plaintiff], rejoinder [of the defendant].

Sälve, f. [pl. —n] salute by firing, salvo, volley, discharge [of fire-arms or artillery]. [military or naval term] Eine — geben, to fire a salute; man gab eine — mit dem groben Geschütze, they fired a salute with cannon; bei seiner Ankunft gab man ihm zu Ehren eine allgemeine —, drei — n mit dem Gewehr, in honour of his arrival a general salute was fired, three volleys of fire-arms or musketry were given; [in artillery] round or discharge of cannon [the firing off of several pieces at once].

Sälvegarde*, f. [now, more usual Sauve, garde, the latter being pronounced as in the French] [pl. -n] safe-guard.

Salvei, V. Salbei.

Salvete, f. [pl. -n] [low, from the Ital. salvietta] napkin, plate-cloth.

Salvener or Silvener, m. [-s, pl. -l] [a vine-tree having less branches and leaves than others, producing a small deliciously sweet grape, from which a rich strong wine is made] salvener-vine, Austrian-vine.

Salviren, I. v. tr. [bad word for retten] to save. II. v. refl. Fig. [in fam. lang., in jest] to save one's self, to escape, to make off.

Salz, n. [-es, pl. -e, the pl. being only used in chemistry] [in the Goth. Swed. and Isl. languages salt, Bohem. sůl, Wel. halen, Gr. ἀλς Lat. sal, French sel. These words are derived with little probability from the Gr. ἀλλεσθαι, to spring] salt. Feste — e [in a fixed form], fixed salts; flüssige — e, liquid salts; zerfließbare — e, deliquescent salts; alkalisches —, salt alkali; saures —, acid salt; essigsäure — e, acetous salts; wesentliche — e, essential salts; englisches —, a) rock-salt, common salt, b) Epsom salts, sulphate of magnesia; armenisches —, Armenian salts, muriate of ammonia; — von Agrigent, salts of Agrigentum; V. Bitter —, Glas —, Harn —, Milch —, Mittel —; — zum Würzen, Rüchen —, salt for seasoning, kitchen-salt; gediegenes, gegrabenes —, fossil salt, rock salt, mineral salt, V. Brunnen —, Quell —, Stein —; grobkörniges, graues, weißes —, coarse-grained, grey or bay, white salt; — graben, gewinnen, to dig, to obtain salt; — sieden, to boil, to prepare salt by boiling; — einschwärzen, to cheat the excise of the salt-tax by smuggling or fraud; ein Korn —, V. —korn; ein Schiff mit — or ein Schiff mit — beladen, a vessel laden with salt; Etwas mit — würzen, or [more usual] Etwas salzen, to season with salt; in — legen, to lay, to put in salt; Fleisch &c. mit — bestreuen, to strew salt over meat &c., to bestrew meat &c. with salt; diese Hammelskeule lag nicht lange genug im — e, this leg of mutton did not lie long enough in salt; dieser Schinken ist recht im — e, ist gut im — e getroffen, this ham is well cured, the salt has well struck into this ham, this ham has taken the salt well; Etwas bloß mit — essen, to eat any thing simply or quite plain with salt; Fische aus dem — e, bloß mit — wasser zubereitet, fish dressed plain with salt [without sauce &c.], simply boiled in water into which salt has been thrown. Fig. In diesem Werke findet man kein — or auch nicht ein Körnchen —, there is not a grain of salt, not an atom of wit in this work; es ist — in seinen Reden, there is some salt in his speeches; attisches —, attic salt, attic wit; mit — gewürzter Scherz, spiced raillery, witty bantering; [in Scripture] Eure Rede sey mit — gewürzet, let your speech be seasoned with salt; ihr [die Apostel] seyd das — der Erde, ye [the apostles] are the salt of the earth. Prov. Um einen Menschen wohl zu kennen, muß man erst einen Scheffel — mit ihm essen or gegessen haben, to know a man well, you must eat first a bushel of salt with him; [low] Einen bei Gesanden in das — hauen, to detract any person's character to another, to speak ill of, to slander any one behind his back, to scanmag any one behind his back.

Salz = abgabe, f. salt-tax, salt-duty. — accise, f. 1) V. —abgabe. 2) the salt-tax office. — ader, f. [amongst miners] a vein of salt, a salt-vein. — alaun, m. muriate of alumina. — amt, n. 1) the office or board for the regulation relative to the salt-monopoly, salt-tax &c. 2) the salt-office or bureau. — arbeiter, m. salt-worker. — art, f. 1) property, quality, nature of salt. 2) sort, species, variety of salt. Die verschiedenen — arten, the different kinds of salt. — artig, adj. and adv. saline, brackish, partaking of the nature of salt. — äther, m. muriatic ether. — aufseher, m. V. —inspector. — beamte, m. officer or clerk to a salt-office. — bediente, m. servant in a salt-manufactory; it. a gabelman. — beere, f. [in botany] orach-berry. — bereiter, m. 1) salt-maker. 2) gabelman. — bereitung, f. the preparation of salt. — berg, m. salt-mountain, mountain of fossil-salt. — bergwerk, n. salt-mine, salt-pit, saltern. — bildung, f. salification, salifying. — binse, f. V. —gras. — blei, n. sugar of lead. — block, m. V. —fuchsen. — blumen, pl. 1) [in mineralogy] flowers of salt, salt-efflorescence [sublimated salt, also, delicate salt-particles or crystals, which adhere to salt-cots]. 2) mural salt, crystals of salt adhering to walls, salt-crust on walls. — bluthe, f. V. —blumen 2). — boden, m. salt-granary. — bohne, f. pickled kidney-bean. — born, m. V. —brunnen. — brodem, m. salt-vapour, salt-steam. — brühe, f. 1) sauce composed of salt and water. 2) pickle, brine. Mit — brühe zubereitete Fische, fish boiled in water and salt, dressed in their own pickle. — brunnen, m. salt-well, salt-source. — büchse, f. [dim. —büschchen, || — büchstein, n.] [in the kitchen] salt-box, it. salt-cellar [on the table]. — bude, f. salt-shop, huckstering-place for salt, such as a booth, shed or stall. — butter, f. salt-butter. — cucumber, f. V. —gurke. — erde, f. saline-earth, earth containing muriate of soda. — fabrik, f. V. —siederei. — faktor, m. 1) overseer of a salt-work. 2) salt-factor in a store or warehouse of salt. — fäß, n. [dim. —fäßchen, || — fäßlein, n.] 1) [in a magazine] salt-barrel, salt-tub; it. [in the kitchen] salt-box; it. [at table] salt-cellar. Silbernes, fristallenes, porzellanenes — fäßchen, silver, crystal, porcelain salt-cellar. 2) Fig. [amongst veterinary surgeons] flesh-cavities [in the eye-pits of a horse]. — fisch, m. salt-fish; cured, pickled fish. — fleisch, n. salt-meat. — fluß, m. 1) [in foundries] salt-flux [mingling of saltish materials, through which the melting and scoriating of the ore is facilitated]. 2) [term in medicine] salt-rheum, acrimonious pituitous discharge. — freiheit, f. allowance of salt. — fuhre, f. 1) carriage of salt, salt-carriage. — führen thun, to convey salt in any vehicle. 2) vehicle laden with salt, salt-laden cart or wagon. — führer, m. conductor, carter, wagoner &c. to a salt-laden vehicle. — fütterung, f. salt-fodder, salted fodder [for cattle]. — gast, m. [in salt-works] a salt-customer, a salt-chapman. — geist, m. V. —säure. — genoss, m. coproprietor, copartner of a salt-work, sharer or share-holder in a saltern. — gericht, n. V. —amt. — gesäuert, adj. and adv. muriated. — geschmack, m. salt-taste. — gewerk, n. V. —genoss. — graf, — gräfe, m. [in some parts of Germany] salt-intendant [the chief or foreman appointed to superintend a salt-work]. — gras, n. [a saluginous grass used for fodder] arrow-headed grass. — grube, f. saltern, salt-pit, salt-mine. — gurke, f. pickled cucumber, pickled gherkin. — handel, m. salt-trade, salt-traffic. — handeltreiben, to carry on the salt-trade; der —handel im Kleinen, the huckstering or retailing of salt, the carrying on of the salt-trade in a small way. — händler, m., — inn, f. salt-dealer, salt-merchant, salt-seller. Der —händler im Kleinen, V. —hôte. — haring, m. white-herring, salt-herring. — haufen, m. large lump, heap of salt [salt thrown up in a heap, pile of salt. — haus, n. salt-house; it. salt-warehouse. Im —hause aufschütten, to pile up, store up salt in the warehouse; das Aufschütten des —es im —hause, the laying or storing up of salt in its warehouse. — häutchen, n. [in salt pits &c.] salt-pellicle, salt-cuticle [a thin layer or stratum of salt that is formed upon saltpetre lees]. — hecht, m. 1) salt pike or jack. 2) large pike or jack. — herr, m. V. —junfer. — hölle, m., — höllein, f. huckster, huckstress of salt. — inspector, m. salt-inspector. — junfer, m. [obsolete] lord, proprietor, owner of a salt-mine or salt-work. — kaper, f. pickled caper. — kärner, m. carter, driver, man that brings salt anywhere. — kasten, m. [in the kitchen] salt-box. — kiste, f. [in the kitchen], V. —kasten. — kloß, m. 1) lump, clod of salt. 2) [in domestic economy] salt-cat [to allure pigeons]. Die —klöse in die Körbe thun, to put the clods or lumps of salt into the salt-baskets. — kumpen, m. salt-lump, large knob of salt. — knappe, — knecht, m. [in salt-works] journeyman salt-maker. — koch, m. salt-cook [chiefly in a princely or royal household]. — kornalle, f. V. —kornvorcellane. — korb, m. [in salt-works] salt-basket [into which the granulated salt is beaten]. — korbflechter, — korbfüller, m. salt-basket-maker, salt-basket-filler. — korn, n. grain of salt. dim. —körnchen, || — körnlein, n. a) a salt-granule, a tiny grain, a particle of salt. b) [in conchology] Das —körnchen, [also] die —kornporcellane, f. porcelain-shell [cypraea]. — koth, f. salt-cot, salt-house [hut where the culinary salt is boiled out of the brine]. Arbeiter in den —koth, a workman in salt-cots. — kram, m. salt-trade in retail, salt-huckstering. — kramer, m. salt-hawker, salt-huckster, salt-retailer. — kraut, n. 1) marsh-samphire, kali [out of which potash is made]. 2) jointed glasswort, kali [salicornia herbacea, parietaria officinalis]. 3) V. —gras. 4) orach or orage. 5) velvet goose-foot [chenopodium villousum]. 6) V. Mischkraut 2). — krebs, m. salt-crawfish. — kristalle, pl. salt-crystals. — krücke, f. salt-strike, salt-stirrer. — kuchen, m. 1) a coarse wheaten or rye-cake. 2) salt-cat. — lache, f. V. —morast. — lake, f. V. —brühe. — lecke, f. [in the chase and rural economy] salt-lick [a place where salt is strewn or given for domestic cattle or animals of the chase to lick]. — magazin, n. salt-magazine, V. —haus. — mann, m. 1) V. —führer, — förner. 2) V. —händler. — markt, m. salt-market. — marmor, m. salt-grained or salsigranulated marble. — maß, n. salt-measure. Das —maß streichen, abstreichen, to strike the salt [when measured]. — masse, f. [in mineralogy] saline concretion. — messer, m. salt-meter, salt-measurer [a person whose duty it is to measure out salt to the customers]. — meste, f. salt-box [in the kitchen]. — moorast, m. salt-marsh. — mühle, f. salt-mill [for crushing lumps of fossil salt, or salt gem]. — mutter, f. mother of salt [the lees in vessels where the salt-brine is kept]. — nie-derlage, f. salt-warehouse, V. — haus. — ordnung, f. salt-regulation. — pacht, f. salt-renting, salt-farming, salt-rent — pächter, m. a salt-renter, contractor, farmer of salt; a farmer [general] of the salt-tax or gabella; it. the farmer of a salt-work. — paß, m. [formerly] salt-pass, salt-passport [a letter or deed that affranchises a person or company and exempts him or them from the salt-tax]. — pfanne, f. [with salters] a salt-pan, copper for boiling brine. — pfänner, m. [a person having a share or stake in a salt-pan] saltern share-holder, salt-pan partner. — pfennig, m. salt-tax. — pflanze, f. the kali plant, the kalophyte, salicornia fruticosa; ti. V. — frucht, — beere. — preis, m. salt-price, price of salt. — probe, f. 1) salt-test, salt-trial [an essay made on salt waters, brackish or saline springs or salterns] V. — wage. — probefunft, f. 1) art of testing, essaying a saline source, a saltern, a brackish spring. 2) science, art of discovering saline sources, brackish springs or waters. — quelle, f. salt-spring, salt-source. — regie, f. V. — verwaltung. — richter, m. [obsolete] V. — graf. — rinde, f. salt-crust, rind, film or crust of salt. — rinne, f. V. — trog. — samenkraut, n. marine pond-weed, marine water-spike, potamogeton maritimum. — sauer, adj. and adv. [in chemistry] muriatic, hydrochloric. — saures flüchtiges Laugen — V. Salmiak; — saures Arsenik, V. Arsenikbutter; — saures Blei, V. Hornblei; — saures Eisen, Gold &c., muriate of iron, of gold &c.; — saure Erde, muriatic earth; — saure Kalk, muriate, hydrochlorate of lime; — saures mineralisches Laugen — [Koch-], muriate of soda. — säule, f. salt-column; pillar of salt. [in Scripture] Und sie wurde in eine — säule verwandelt, and she was changed into a pillar of salt. — säure, f. [in chemistry] muriatic-acid, hydrochloric acid. Uebersäure, oxygenesirte, dephlogistisirte oder vollkommene — säure, hypermuriatic acid, dephlogisticated marine acid; salpetrige oder salpetersäure — säure, nitromuriatic acid; versüßte — säure, dulcified spirit of salt, muriatic alcohol. — schank, m. [provincial] salt-retail-trade; retailing of salt. Einen — schank haben, to retail salt, to sell salt in a retail-shop. — schaufel, f. [in salterns] salt-shovel, salt-spade [for shovelling the salt into the baskets]. — schäum, m. 1) salt-scum, saltish scum. 2) salt-pellicle [which by degrees is converted into a crust]. — schleibe, f. [in salterns] 1) [a wooden vessel, into which the salt is removed] salt-tub or chest [containing about three bushels, used for removing or transporting the salt]. 2) V. — fuchen 2). — schenk, m. [obsolete] salt-huckster. — schiff, n. salt-ship, ship laden with salt. — schlag, m. [in mineralogy] common granulated quartz. — schmant, m. [in salterns] [impurity in the salt-spring, which rises up and floats like a scum] salt-film. — schöpp, m. V. — stein. — schrape, m. [in salterns] salt-scraper [to scrape the dirt off the salt-blocks or lumps]. — schreiber, m. a clerk in a salt-office, clerk at or of a salt-work or saltern. — schwaden, m. [in salterns] V. — brodem. — schwärzer, m. a salt-smuggler; an unlicensed seller of salt. — schweiß, m. salt-oozing [that escapes or forces its way out of clefts of rocks &c.]. — see, m. 1) salt-lake. 2) f. [not much used instead of salzige See] briny sea, ocean. — sieder, m. a salt-maker, salt-boiler or distiller. — siederei, f. 1) salt-boiling, salt-making 2) saltern, salt-house, the place where salt is boiled or made. — sode, f. V. — siederei. — sohle, f. [source containing salt] salt-source, saline water, salt-brine, mother-brine. — speicher, m. salt-granary, salt-warehouse; it. [öffentlicher — speicher] public magazine or warehouse for bonded salt. — spindel, f. V. — wage. — stätte, f. [in salterns] salt-place, salt-hob [a raised-up place near the salt-pan or boiler in salt-works where the salt is dried in baskets]. — stein, m. 1) salt-stone, selenite. 2) V. Stein. 3) salt-crust-film. — steuer, f. 1) salt-tax, salt-duty, salt-impost, gabel. Die — steuer erhöhen, to raise the duty on salt. 2) saltern-tax, an impost or duty levied on salterns, saltern-dues. 3) saltage-dues, salt-freight-duty [paid by salt-ships]. — stock, m. salt-stock, salt-mass, salorge, bed of fossil salt, a mine of rock-salt. — strauch, m. the shrubby kali, kali geniculatum majus. — streicher, m. striker, V. — meßer. — stube, f. [in salterns &c.] brine-reservoir [a receptacle for the preservation of the water saturated with salt]. — stück, n. piece, lump, clod of salt, salt-cat, V. — stoß. — sumpf, — teich, m. salt-marsh, salt-pond. — theil, m. [dim. — theilchen, n.] 1) portion, particle of salt. 2) [eines Körpers] salsuginous part of a body &c. — tonne, f. salt-tun, salt-barrel. — topf, m. salt-pot, pot of or for salt. — trockenofen, m. [in salterns] salt-drying oven, salt-stove. — trog, m. salt-trough. — versilberer, m. [obsolete], — verwalter, m. administrator, steward in trust of a saltern. — verwaltung, f. administration, management in trust of a saltwork; it. board of salt-trade, administration, financial board or office for the revenues of the state arising out of its salt-works. — wage, f. salt-gage, salt-guage, a test-liquor; [in chemistry] a sali-meter, a salt-areometer. — wagen, m. salt-wagon, wagon or cart having a load of or for carrying salt. — wasser, n. 1) salt-water, saline or brackish water. 2) water impregnated with salt, or saturated with it, brine, pickle. — werk, n. 1) V. — bergwerk 2) salt-work, saltern, salt-cot. — werker, m. [Haltore] salt-maker, salt-boiler. — wesen, n. every thing relating to salterns and to the conducting of them. — wirker, m. V. — sieder. — zins, m. salt-census, V. — steuer 2). — zoll, m. the salt-duty, impost or tax levied on salt, gabel. — zöllner, m. gabelman, V. — bediente.

Salzen, v. tr. to salt, to season with salt [as flesh or meat, sauce &c.]. Die Suppe ist zu stark ge—, the soup is too much salted; er ist nicht gerne ge—, he is not a fancier of, he does not relish a salt-flavour in his food; das ist außerordentlich stark ge—, that is salted uncommonly strong, that is as salt as brine; ge—e Butter, salt-butter; ge—es Fleisch, salt-meat, pickled meat, corned meat; ge—es Schweinefleisch, salt pork, pickled pork; frisch ge—es junges Schweinefleisch, fresh and young pickled pork; diese Knackwurst ist recht, ist zu stark ge—, this german sausage, dried sausage is well, is too much salted; ge—es Fleischwerk, ge—e Fische, salt-meat, salt-fish; er handelt mit ge—em Fleische, mit ge—en Fischen, he trades or deals in salt-meat, salt-fish, he is by trade a dry-salter; Ge—es, or ge—es Fleisch ist ihm nicht gesund, any thing salted, or salt-meat is not good for him; Steinsalz salzet besser, als Brunnensalz, rock-salt salis better than bay-salt or sea-salt. Fig. Ge—e Hiebe [low], smart whacks, blows that make one feel them, [with seamen] stripes with the salt-eel; ge—e Waare [in pop. lang.], goods excessively dear; ein ge—es Epigramm, ein ge—er Scherz [in fam. lang.], a pungent witty epigram, a [very] piquant or pungent joke or jest, a caustic, biting epigram or jest. Das — des Fleisches, der Butter &c., the salting or curing of meat, of butter &c.

Salzen, adj. and adv. [in fam. lang., rather provincial] for gesalzen] salt, salty, saltish. — es Brod, salty bread; — e Butter, salty butter, salt butter.

Salzlicht, adj. and adv. saltlike, saline, brackish. V. Salzartig.

Salzig, adj. and adv. [containing much salt] salted, saline, [in chemistry] salsuginous. — es Wasser, salt-water; briny water; brackish water; — er Geschmack, salt-flavour, saline-taste [where the salt predominates, or of which it is the sole ingredient]; die —en Theile eines Körpers, the salsuginous parts of a body; dieser Schinken ist zu —, this ham is too much salted, too salty.

Salzigbitter, adj. and adv. [in chemistry] salso-amarous, salino-bitter, saline-amarous [prepared with impure bitter salt].

Salzigkeit, f. the salt- or saline-principle, saltiness. Die — des Meerwassers, the saltiness of the sea, the salt-principle in sea-water.

Samaria, [—s] or Samaritanien [—s] [in geography] Samaria.

Samariter, Samaritaner, m. [—s, pl. —] — inn, f. a native or inhabitant of Samaria. Der barmherzige — [in Scripture], the good Samaritan. Fig. [in fam. lang.] Er ist ein rechter barmherziger —, he is a true good Samaritan, is a very good, compassionate, charitable man.

Samaritisch, Samaritanisch, adj. and adv. Samaritan, of Samaria; in the manner of the Samaritans.

1. Säme, m. [—ns, pl. —n] or Samen, [—s, pl. —] [Lat. semen, from säen] 1) seed, grain. Jede Frucht hat ihren —n, each fruit has its seed; —n bringen, tragen, to bring, to bear seed; das ist aus —n gezogen, that is raised from seed; dies Kraut giebt viel —n, this vegetable yields much seed; in —n schießen, to shoot into seed, run to seed; —n säen, to sow seed; der —n dieses Weizens ist groß, the seed or grain of this wheat is large; die Vögel haben den —n gefressen, the birds have devoured the seed; das Jahr war schlecht, die Ackerleute haben ihren —n nicht wieder erhalten, the year or season was unfavourable, the husbandmen have not received an adequate return for their outlay in seed; das Senfsorn ist das kleinste unter allen —n, the mustard-seed is the least of all seeds, a grain of mustard seed is the least of all; V. Hanf — Kohl — Korn — Lattich — Lein — Mohn — Rübe — Weizenkorn Syn. V. Saat. Versteinter — [in nat. hist.], V. — nstein; die vier kühlenden —n, the four cooling seeds [namely, those of melons, gourds, cucumbers, and pumpkins]; kühlende —n, emollient or emulsive seeds. 2) Der —n in thierischen Körpern, the seed of animal bodies, the spermatic liquor, the sperm, the seed, the seminal liquor, the semen; der männliche —, der weibliche —, the seed of a man, of a woman, the human male, female seed, [vulgarly] spunk; [also] the male seed, the female seed; die Lehre von den thierischen —n, spermatology. 3) Der — in der Schmelzhütte, metallic dross, slack. Fig. a) Der — des göttlichen Wortes, der Zwietracht &c., the seed of the divine word, the seeds of discord &c.; den —n der Ehrsucht in die Herzen der Kinder streuen, to strew the seeds of ambition in the hearts of children. b) [for something as it were sown and hence] posterity, seed. Der — Abrahams [in Scripture], the posterity, the seed of Abraham. 4) [in natural history] Der — der Seidenwürmer, the eggs or brood of silkworms; it. [von Fischen], the spawn or fry [of fishes]. Einen Teich mit —n besetzen, to fill a pond with spawn.

Samenader, f. [in anatomy] the spermatic vein. — adergeschwulst, f. testicular or varicose hernia, spermatocele, swelling or rupture of the varix, varicocele, hernia of the scrotum. — aderschnur, f. spermatic cord. — balg, m. [in botany] the skin of seeds. — baum, m. tree left for seed, seed or stock tree. — behälter, m. — behältniß, n. seed-vessel; [in botany] the pericarp, seminal capsule. — bereitung, f. [in animal bodies] the elaboration of seed. — bläschen, n. [in anatomy] the seminal or spermatic vesicle [at the lower part of the posterior surface of the bladder]. — blatt, n. [dim. — blättchen, n.] [in botany] the seed-leaf [the development of the cotyledons or seedlobes]. Mit — blättchen versehen, provided with seed-leaflets, cotyledinous; Pflanze mit zwei — blättchen, a dycotyledinous plant. — blutader, f. [in anatomy] spermatic vein. — boden, m. seed or grain-floor; [in botany] receptacle. — bohne, f. V. Saatbohne. — bohrer, m. the seed- or male heamp. — breit, m. [in botany] chorion. — bruch, m. [in medicine] spermatocele. — büchse, f. seed-box; [in botany] capsule [of mosses, generally furnished with a calyptra or veil]. — decke, f. [in botany] the arilla. — drüse, f. [in anatomy] the prostate gland. — dunst, m. V. — öl. — erbse, f. V. Saaterbse. — ergießung, f. [involuntary] efflux of the seminal liquor [nächtliche — ergießung], a wet dream; it. [in the womb] semination. — erzeugend, adj. and adv. [in anatomy] spermatic, seminiferous. — erzeugung, f. the generation of seed. — fach, n. [in botany] seed-compartment, seed-cell, seed-partition. — fisch, m. [for ponds &c.] fry, spawn, bry. — fluß, m. [in medicine] 1) seed-flux or gleet, discharge of the male seed. 2) the gonorrhoea, clap. Einfacher, gutartiger — fluß, simple, mild gonorrhoea; bössartiger, eiteriger — fluß, virulent, malignant gonorrhoea; den — fluß betreffend, appertaining to the gonorrhoea. — gang, m. [in anatomy] spermatic tube, seed-duct. — gefäß, n. 1) [in anatomy] the spermatic vessel [where the seed is elaborated]. 2) [in botany] the seed-vessel. — geflecht, n. [in anatomy] the spermatic plexus. — gehäuse, n. [in botany] the pericarp, seed-case, [also] the capsule. — gerste, f. V. Saatgerste. — getreide, n. seed-corn, seed-wheat. — gurke, f. V. Saatgurke. — haber, m. V. Saathaber. — halter, m. [in botany] receptacle. — handel, m. seed-trade. — händler, m. — inn, f. seed-dealer, seedsman. — haut, f. [dim. — häutchen, || — häutlein, n.] [in botany] the tunic, the seed-skin. Außere — haut, the outward or exterior tunic; innere — haut, the interior or inward membrane, V. — decke. — holz, n. 1) seed-wood, wood merely bearing seed. 2) a tree left for bearing seed, stander, standel. — hülsen, f. [in botany] seed-coat, cod, husk, hull, shell, pod. — käfer, m. seed-beetle. — kapsel, f. [in botany] the capsule. — karpfen, m. V. Saatkarpfen. — keim, m. embryo, germ. — kelch, m. seed-cup, calyx, the seed-vessel of some plants. — kern, m. kernel [of cherries, plums, peaches &c.]; seed [of melons, pumpkins, cucumbers]; pipkin [of apples, pears &c.]. — klappe, f. V. — lappen. — knopf, m. — knospe, f. the capsule, the pericarp. — knoten, m. [in anatomy] spermatic ganglion. — kohl, m. seed-cabbage, cabbage left for or run to seed. — kops, m. capsule. — korn, n. 1) grain of seed or corn. 2) V. Saatforn. — kraut, n. 1) seed-cabbage, cabbage left for seed. 2) water milfoil, the potamogeton or pond-weed. Krauses — kraut, frog-lettuce; schwimmendes — kraut, water-grass, pond-weed; leuchtendes — kraut, shining pond-weed; das — kraut mit breiten, glänzenden, durchwachsenen Blättern, the broad-leaved shining perfoliated pond-weed. 3) the aquatic bloodwort. 4) Spitziges — kraut, V. Wasserhöftraut. — krone, f. V. Haarkrone. — kügelchen, n. seminal globule. — lappen, m. [in botany] V. — blättchen. — lehre, f. V. Saatlehre. — linse, f. V. Saatlinse. — lode, f. seed-jet. — los, adj. and adv. seedless, grainless. Fig. [in the biblical style] without seed, childless, without posterity. — milch, f. [in the pharmacopoeia] emulsion. — mittel, n. [in medicine] spermatic medium, spermato-paetica. — möhre, f. seed-carrot, carrot run to seed. — moos, n. the vesicular coral moss. — mutter, — nelke, f. the pink, gilliflower run to seed. — öl, n. seed-oil; [in botany] seminal aroma [vivifying matter contained by each granule of the pollen]. — perle, f. seed-pearl. — reis, n. V. — lode. — röhre, f. [in anatomy] seed-duct, seminal canal. — rübe, f. seed-rape, seed-turnip run to seed. — saft, m. [in botany] the liquor of the Amnios. — sammlung, f. collection, gathering of seed. — säule, f. [dim. — säutchen, n.] [in botany] seed-pillar, seed-stalk. — schlagader, f. spermatic artery. — schnur, f. V. — strang. — schote, f. [in botany] the siliqua. — schule, f. [amongst gardeners] nursery, seed-plot. — staub, m. [in botany] the pollen, seed-dust. — stein, m. spermolite [petrified seed]. — stengel, m. [in botany] the peduncle. — strang, m. [in anatomy] the spermatic cord or string. — strangnerve, m. [in anatomy] the spermatic external nerve. — strauß, m. [in botany] the panicle. — theile, pl. [in anatomy] the spermatic parts. — thier, n. [dim. — thierchen, n.] [in anatomy] spermatic animal, spermatic animalcule. — tragend, adj. and adv. seed-bearing, bearing seed; [in botany] seminiferous. — tragende Blumen, Bäume, seed-bearing or seminiferous flowers, trees. — träger, m. [in botany] receptacle, V. — halter. — verzeichniß, n. V. Sämereiverzeichniß. — werk, n. [familiar term], V. Sämerei. — werkzeug, n. [in anatomy] spermatic organ. — zapfen, m. [in botany] the cone [of a fir], [also] the catkins [of willows &c.]. — ziebel, f. 1) seed-onion, onion run to seed, onion intended for seed. 2) seed-bulb, bulb, offset, sucker.

2. Same, m., [-ns, pl. -n] [in mills for crushing ores, the flat pit under the ground hearth, the first basin beneath the tables where the ore is washed] first basin under the launder or buddle-tables.

Sämerei, f. seeds of plants, grains, all sorts of seed, grain. Mit — en handeln, to deal in seed.

Sämerei-handel, m. V. Samenhandel. — händler, m. V. Samenhändler. — verzeichniß, n. seed-list, seed-catalogue.

Samhaus, V. Weißgerberei.

Sämisch, adj. and adv. Samian, of or appertaining to Samos. — e Erde, the land or soil of Samos, the Samian earth.

Sämisch, adj. and adv. [connected with the French word chamois, the chamois]. [amongst white-leather dressers] — es Leder, — Leder, chamois leather, shammy leather, chamoy, wash-leather. Die Felle — machen, — gerben, to prepare, to dress skins as chamois leather; schwarz — machen, to dye black chamois leather, to bronze shammy leather; die Felle zum — machen bereiten, zurichten, to make, prepare, dress goat-skins chamois-like, to ramal, that is, to scrape off the hair before the skins are dressed; das — machen, das Bereiten der Felle zum — machen, the preparing or dressing skins chamois-like.

Sämisch-gärber, or — gerber, m. chamois-leather-dresser or curer, chamoy-dresser. — gärberei, or — gerberei, f. 1) chamois-leather-dressing trade. 2) chamois-leather-dressing manufactory.

Sammeln, I. v. tr. [Swed. samla, Old Germ. samen, allied to the Gr. αἶμα, together] to collect, amass, gather together, assemble. Die Früchte von den Bäumen —, to gather fruit from the trees; die Bienen — Honig von den Blüthen, bees gather honey from the flowers; das Regenwasser in einem Behälter —, to collect rain-water in a reservoir or cistern; den Unrath in einem Hause —, to collect all the filth, ordure in a house; er hat Alles gesammelt, was die Alten darüber gesagt haben, he has amassed, compiled all that the Ancients have said upon that subject; er beschäftigt sich mit nichts, als Denkmünzen, Muscheln &c. [zu] —, he spends his time in collecting metals, shells &c.; Geld, ein großes Vermögen —, to amass money, a large fortune; seltene Bücher, Kupferstiche, allerlei Merkwürdigkeiten, Kunstgegenstände &c. —, to make a collection of scarce and rare books, prints, copper-plate engravings, of articles of virtue &c.; Materialien zu einer Arbeit —, to collect materials for a work; er sammelt alle Neuigkeiten, he collects all the news; ein Heer, Truppen —, to raise, levy an army, troops, to collect, to assemble an army, troops; it. to concentrate an army, troops; seine Truppen, die Trümmer seines Heeres wieder —, to rally one's troops, to assemble together the remains of one's army; Kenntnisse —, to collect, to acquire knowledge or science, V. Stimme; die gesammelte Weisheit war stark, the collection in money was considerable; seine Gedanken —, to collect one's thoughts; seine letzten Kräfte —, to gather together or up one's last strength, one's remaining force [in speaking of a sick person]. II. v. intr. to make a collection [of articles of value &c.] Er sammelt gerne, he is quite a collector, he is fond of making collections &c.; [also] he is always ready for raising subscriptions [for charitable &c. purposes]; du sammelst, wo du nicht ges säet hast [in Scripture], thou reapest, where thou hast not sown; für die Armen —, to make a collection for the poor; man wird heute für die Armen —, they are going to make a collection to-day for the poor. III. v. refl. Sich —, to gather, to collect. Das Volk sammelte sich in Haufen, the people collected or assembled in crowds; sammelt euch Alle, all of you meet together; das Unreine sammelt sich auf dem Boden, the filth, the impurity collects at the bottom; es sammelt sich bald, it soon runs up, accumulates, mounts [speaking of a bill, of debts]. Fig. Sich —, to collect one's self, it. to collect one's self, one's wits, one's thoughts; it. to recover one's self-possession, to resume one's spirits, to tranquillize one's mind; — Sie sich, compose yourself, be composed! er sammelte sich, um zu beten, he composed himself for or to prayer. Das —, V. Sammlung. Syn. Sammeln [sich], Versammeln [sich], Zusammenkommen. Sich versammeln implies to come together singly, accidentally, or by degrees; hence it may be said equally of things or of persons and animals. Water sammelt sich in a pit; people sammeln sich in the market; where carrion is, vultures sammeln sich. Versammeln [sich] indicates, besides this, generally, the aim of coming together, as, to deliberate on something, to celebrate a feast &c. The citizens versammelten sich in the town-hall; they versammelten sich in the meadow. Zusammenkommen is the more general term, and is distinguished from the other two in being used also of two only, whereas the others can only be said of many.

Sammelbrod, n. dole-bread, alms-bread. — gelder, pl. alms, gatherings or collection. — gerinne, n. [in architecture and building] a branch-pipe [for the collecting of water]. — kasten, m. 1) cistern, reservoir, it. receptacle. 2) a chest or drawer for preserving knick-knacks, literary extracts &c. 3) [in anatomy] reservoir of the chyle, chyle-receptacle; Pecquet's reservoir. — kohl, m. hodge-podge [all sorts of vegetables cut up and dressed together]. — korn, n. corn left on the field or collected for the poor. — name, m. V. — wort. — platz, m. rendez-vous, resort, assembling-place. Der Hydepark in London, der Garten der Tuileries in Paris, der Prater in Wien, der Corso in Mailand &c. ist der — platz der schönen Welt, the Hydepark of London, the garden of the Tuileries in Paris, the Prater at Vienna, the Corso in Milan &c. is the resort of the fashionable world; sein Haus ist der — platz der schönen Geister, der guten Gesellschaft, his house is the place of meeting for the wits, for good society; Alexandrien war lange der — platz aller Gelehrten, Alexandria was for a long time the spot where all the learned congregated; — platz der Truppen, rendez-vous of the troops; diese Stadt ist zum — platz für die Reiterei bestimmt, this town is destined for the concentrating, congregating, head-quarters of the cavalry; der — platz [with sportsmen], the throw-off, place of meeting; als sie auf dem — platz waren, when they were at the place of meeting; — platz für den Unrath einer Stadt, common sewer, receptacle for the rubbish, filth and dirt of a town. — wort, n. [in grammar] noun-collective, noun of multitude. Heerde, Volk &c. sind — wörter, flock or herd, people &c. are nouns of multitude. — wörtlich, adj. and adv. collective, collectively. Ein Wort — wörtlich nehmen, to take a noun collectively. — zahl, f. collective number.

Sämnet or Sämmt, m. [-es, pl. -e] [probably or perhaps from the Gr. ἑμυτος, six-threaded, in the Latin of the middle ages exametum] velvet. Gerissener —, shorn or smooth velvet; geschorener, geblümter —, shorn, ramage-velvet, flowered velvet; — mit goldenem oder silbernem Grunde, velvet with a gold or silver ground; gestreifter —, striated, streaked, shot, striped or radiated velvet; gedruckter, gepreßter oder gemodelter —, stamped, embossed or goffered velvet, velvet raised in figures or plain ground; farmesinrother —, crimson velvet; sich in — und Seide kleiden, to clothe one's self in velvet and silk, in silks and satins.

Sammet = ameise, f. carolina - ant [formica villosa coccinea]. — artig, adj. and adv. velvet like, velvet; it. [among gardeners] tufted. — artiger Atlas, Zeug, velvet satin, stuff; das Fell des Maulwurfs ist — artig, the skin of the mole is like velvet; — artige Blumen, sleek velvet flowers, [among gardeners] tufted sleek flowers; — artige Wurzeln [in botany], tufted velvet roots. — band, n. tuft-band, velvet-band. — blume, f. [dim. blümchen, || blümlein, n.] 1) velvet-flower, a flower made of or like velvet. 2) [in botany] velvet-flower; a) the Indian pink, Tunis flower; b) the amaranth; c) the cock's-comb, the Prince of Wales' feather; d) French-mary-gold. — borte, f. velvet-galloon, velvet-lace. — bürste, f. velvet-brush. — decke, f. velvet-cover, velvet-covering or coverlet. — ente, f. velvet-duck, the great sea-duck. — erde, f. [in mineralogy] velvet-talc. — erz, n. [amongst miners] V. Sedererz. — fabrik, f. V. — weberei 2). — gras, n. velvet-grass, hare's-tail [with leaves resembling velvet]. — haut, f. velvet skin, a skin soft as velvet; it. [in anatomy] the muscosity [in different parts of the animal body]. — hose, f. 1) velvet-breeches. 2) the Bantam cock. — huhn, m. [dim. hünnchen, || hünnlein, n.] water-rail, velvet runner, brook-ouzel, bilcock. — hülle, f. velvet-covering. — hut, m. velvet-hat; velvet-bonnet [of ladies]. — kleid, n., — kleidung, f. velvet-dress; velvet-gown [of ladies]. — fragen, m. velvet-collar. — läufer, m. V. — huhn. — leder, n. velvet leather, soft leather. — macher, m. V. — weber. — malve, f. V. — pappel. — mantel, m. velvet-mantle. — messer, n. velvet-knife. — milbe, f. the ground satin mite. — moos, n. velvet-moss. — muschel, f. velvet-stamper [conus luzonicus]. — mütze, f. velvet-cap. — nelke, f. red-rose campion. — pappel, f. 1) [= Pappetrose] yellow-flowered marsh-mallow. 2) [= Heilwurz] common mallow [of the shops]. — raupe, f. velvet-caterpillar. — rock, m. velvet-coat. — rose, f. 1) rose made of, or embroidered on, velvet. 2) velvet-rose. 3) V. — nelke. — schnecke, f. velvet-snail. — schuh, m. velvet-shoe. — schwarz, I. adj. and adv. black or dark as velvet, velvet-black. II. n. velvet-black; [amongst painters] ivory-black. — spinne, f. velvet-spider. — spize, f. velvet-lace. — streifen, — streifig, adj. and adv. velvet-striped or variegated. — stuhl, m. velvet loom or frame [of the velvet-weaver]. — tute, f. [a shell] English velvet. — verbrämung, f. velvet-trimmings. — vogel, m. velvet-winged butterfly. — weber, m. velvet-weaver or maker. — weberei, f. 1) velvet-making or weaving. 2) velvet-manufactory. — weich, adj. and adv. soft, smooth as velvet.

— weiche Haut, satin skin. — weiche, f. the softness of velvet. — weste, f. velvet-waistcoat.

Sämneten or Sämnten, adj. and adv. of velvet, velvet. — es Kleid &c., velvet dress &c. Fig. V. Sammetweich. — er Hügel [in poetry], velvet-decked hill [hill covered with a carpet of verdure, soft and sleek as velvet]; — e Haut, velvet or satin skin.

Sämnethaft, adj. and adv. velvet-like.

Sämnethaftigkeit, f. having the nature or qualities of velvet, velvet-quality.

Sämmler, m. [-s, pl. -] — inn, f. collector. a) [of collectors from other works] a compiler. Dieser Schriftsteller ist ein bloßer —, this author is but a mere compiler. b) [for the poor] collector. V. Lumpen-, Kräuter-, Steuer-.

Sammlung, f. [das Sammeln] 1) collection, collecting; it. compilation. Eine — für die Armen machen or veranstalten, to make a collection for the poor; eine — der schönsten Stellen in einem Buche &c. veranstalten, to make a collection or compilation of the most beautiful passages in a book &c. Fig. Die — der Gedanken, the collecting of the thoughts. 2) selection, collection. Gelehrte — en machen, to make literary collections, to make a compilation of literary extracts; eine — von Büchern, Gemälden &c., a collection of books, pictures &c.; die — der Seltenheiten in einem Naturalienkabinette &c., the collection of curiosities in a museum &c.; sein Werk ist bloß eine —, his work is only a compilation; eine — von guten und schlechten Gemälden, Büchern unter einander, an indiscriminate collection of good and bad pictures, and of books without choice or taste; die — der Wasser [in Scripture], the gathering together of the waters.

Sammlungspunkt, m. the meeting point, spot appointed, chosen or commanded for congregating or rallying. V. Sammelort.

Sämt, V. Sammt.

Sämmt, [from Sammeln] I. adv. all together [as an adverb only used in the following phrase]: — und sonderes, collectively and individually, generally and particularly, collectively and separately, V. Se —, Inse —, Sämmtlich. II. prep. with, together with, by. Gott hat uns — Christo lebendig gemacht, God has quickened us together with Christ; er — allen Uebrigen, he with all the rest. Syn. V. Mit.

Sammtamt, n., — bezeichnung, f. &c., V. Gesammtamt &c.

Sämmtlich, [obsolete Sämmtlich] adj. and adv. all, altogether or all together, collective, collectively. Die — en Einwohner, all the inhabitants; der — e Adel, die — e Einwohner, the whole of the nobility, all the inhabitants; die — en Truppen &c., all the troops &c.; sie dankten ihm —, they thanked him collectively, in a body; wir dankten ihnen —, we collectively, conjointly thanked them, in a body we thanked them; it. we thanked them all, collectively and individually; die — en Schriften Göthe's, Schiller's &c., the complete, entire, collected, whole, works or writings of Goethe, Schiller &c.

Samojede, m. [-n, pl. -n] Samojedinn, f. a Samoid, Samoyed.

Samojedenland, n. the land or country of the Samoids or Samoyeds.

Samojedisch, adj. and adv. appertaining or belonging to the Samoids, Samoidal, Samoyedal. Die —e Sprache &c., the language or dialect of the Samoids, the Samoyedish language.

Samogitien, n. [-s] [in geography] Samogitia [in Russia].

Samoiſe, f. [pl. -n] a Samorose, a long flat conveyance [for rivers].

Sämpel, V. Zämpel.

Sámstag [from Sabbathstag] m. [-es, pl. -e] saturday, V. also Sonnabend.

Samstags, adv. on saturday.

Sámstáglich, adj. and adv. on saturdays, every saturday; on a saturday; as on a saturday.

Sánet, [=heilig, but only used as a sort of prefix, and never alone] Saint. — Paul or Paulus, Saint Paul, St. Paul; — Johannes &c., St. John &c. — Gallen &c. [in geography], St. Gal &c.

Sanction, f. Sanction, V. under Pragmatisch.

Sanctioniren, [unusual, Sanciren] v. tr. to sanction; V. Befrástigen, Bestátigen.

Sánd, m. [-es, no pl.] [derivation uncertain; allied perhaps together with sammeln, to the Gr. preposition σάν] sand. Schwarzer, grauer, weißer, rother —, black, grey, white, red sand; grober, feiner —, coarse sand, fine sand; grober —, mit Kies vermischter —, coarse sand, mixed with gravel; sehr feiner, very fine sand; — graben, to dig sand; — auf den Brief streuen, den Brief mit — bestreuen [den Brief sanden], to strew sand upon the letter; mit — schuern, to scour with sand; die Quelle war mit — verschüttet, the source or fountain was clogged up with sand; er trieb seinen Kahn auf den —, he drove his boat upon the sand; der Schiffmann hat uns auf den — gesetzt, the steersman or pilot has got us on the sand, left us aground upon the sand; wir blieben im — e stecken, we remained sticking in the sand; das Fahrzeug läuft auf den —, the vessel is getting embedded in the sand; ein auf dem — e sitzendes Fahrzeug, a vessel fast aground in the sand, stuck fast in the sand; das Steckenbleiben im — e, das Sigenbleiben auf dem — e, the sticking fast, the being embedded in the sand; es erzeugt sich oft ein — in den Nieren, gravel or sand is often developed in the kidneys, V. Gries; Ihrer sind wie — am Meere [in familiar speech], they are as the sand in the sea, they are as countless, numerous as the grains of sand in the Ocean. Fig. [in fam. lang.] Einem — in die Augen streuen, to throw dust in the eyes of any one, to deceive any one; auf — bauen, to build upon the sand [speaking of any unstable undertaking or groundless hope &c.]. Prov. Wer dem Glücke traut, hat auf — gebaut, he who trusts to Fortune, builds on sand.

Sand=aal, m. 1) sand-eel, sand-launce, Tobias-fish [ammodytes tobianus]. 2) V. Sander. —acker, m. sand-field or plain. —ader, f. vein of sand. —allee, f. V. —gang. —art, f. 1) nature or quality of sand. 2) kind, sort or species of sand. —artig, adj. and adv. sandish, sand-like, of the nature of sand. —artiger Glasquarz, sandy hyaline quartz. —auster, f. sand-oyster. —bad, n. [in medicine] sand-bath; it. [in chemistry] sand-bath, sand-heat [for the vessel or alembic to be placed in or upon]. Im —bade destilliren, to distil in a sand-bath.

—bällen, m. V. —floß. —bank, f. [sea-term] sand-bank, mound of sand, shelf of sand. Ein Meer voll —bänke und Klippen, a sea full of sand-banks or sands and shoals; unser Fahrzeug blieb auf einer —bank sitzen, stranded auf einer —bank, scheiterte auf einer —bank, our vessel remained fast, stuck on the sands, on a sand-bank, lay high and dry on a sandbank, stranded, struck or foundered on a sand-bank. —bänke, pl. [in geology &c.], banks, layers, strata, beds of sands, gravel, grit. —bars, m. V. Sander. —beere, f. 1) bear-berry, berberis, barberry. 2) arbutus-berry. —behälter, m. sand-repository, reservoir or store. —beinquelle, f. osteolites, fossil bones, fossils in sand. —berg, m. sand-hill, sand-mountain. —bett, n. sandy bed [of a river]. —bocksbörn, m. V. —fischer. —boden, m. 1) sandy soil. 2) [place where gravel or sand is kept] sand-granary. —bohrer, m. sand-drag, sand-borer [machine for digging out or extracting superfluous sand from a well]. —boot, n. sand-boat, sand-barge. —börs, m. V. Sander. —brod, n. V. Erdmandel. —bruch, m. [amongst surgeons] gritty splintered fracture. —bube, m. sand-boy [boy who retails or hawks sand]. —büchse, f. 1) sand-box. 2) or —büchsenbaum, m. sand-box-tree [hura crepitans]. —capelle, f. V. —fapelle. —distel, f. sand-thistle, sand-carline. —döbel, m. [a fish] the Cyprian dobule. —dörn, m. sea-buckthorn, sand-thorn [hippophae rhamnoides]. —dörrleiche, f. [unusual] the sand-mummy [of Egypt and Arabia] V. —mumie. —doublette, f. V. —telline. —endivie, f. sand-endive. —erz, n. [amongst miners and geologists] sand-stone ore, ore breaking into sand-stone. —fahrer, m. V. —mann. —faß, n. [dim. —fäßchen, || —fäßlein, n.] sand-box, sand-vessel, V. —büchse. —feder, f. [in botany] feather-grass. —feld, n. sand-field, sandy field. —fennich, m. V. —liesgras. —fisch, m. V. —aal. —floß, m. sand-flea, chigoe, chigger. —floß, n., —flühe, f. stratum, bed of sand. —form, f. [amongst founders] sand-mould. —formenmacher, m. sand-mould-maker. —förmig, adj. and adv. sand-formed, areniformed. —frau, f. sand-woman. —fuhre, f. 1) sand-cartage. 2) a wagonful or load of sand. —führer, m. sandman, sand-carter [person who brings a load of sand]. —galle, f. sandy piece of ground in a field, sandy spot, patch. —gamanter, m. [in botany] sand-germander. —gang, m. sand or gravel-walk. —gebirge, n. V. —berg. —gegend, f. sandy region, arenacious country. —gemählde, n. sand-picture [produced by parti-coloured sands]. —glas, n. 1) glass for sand. 2) sand-glass V. —uhr. —glimmer, m. V. Raseglimmer. —gräber, m. 1) sand-digger. 2) [in nat. hist.] sand-beetle, cicindela quadrilineata, pearly scarabee. 3) sand-buckler, a species of grave-digger or necrophorus insect found in America [necrophorus americanus]. 4) black-beetle, median of cock-roach [necrophorus medianus]. —gras, n. 1) V. —haber. 2) millet. —grasgilge or —graslie, f. sand-tick [the trombidium phalangoides]. —gries, m. sand-grit, fine gravel. —grube, f. sand-pit. —grund, m. sand-soil, sandy ground. —guß, m. [amongst founders] sand-jet or cast; it. works cast in sand [the act of pouring molten iron in sand-moulds; also cast iron-wares, which have been founded in sand-moulds]. —gut, n. [in commerce] V. Erdgut. —haargras, n., —haber, m. 1) horse-hair-oats, sand-oats, avena strigosa. 2) black oat. 3) V. Svishaber. 4) V. —rohr. —häger, m. V. —horst. —halm, m. V. —rohr. —hase, m. 1) V. Berghase, Steinhase. 2) [at nine-pins or kittles] a false throw, a miss. Einen —hasen machen or werfen, to make a false throw, to miss. —haufen, m. sand-heap, sand-hillock. —hirsch, m. sandstag, a stag that haunts sandy plains or dry spots. —horn, n. [a kind of snail] sand-volute. —horst, m. [sand-hill, especially in a river] sand-heap, sand-barrow, sand-bank. —hügel, m. sand-hill. —huhn, n. V. —läufer. —insel, f. sand-island, island of sand. —käfer, m. the cicindela, the large-thighed pearly scarabee, sand pearly beetle. Gefleckter —käfer, embroidered Chinese buprestis, scarabee or beetle. Der Wald —käfer, the forest buprestis. —kaspelle, f. [in chemistry] sand-cupel. —kärcher, —kärner, m. sand-carrier. —karsren, m. sand-cart or sand-wheel-barrow. —kartoffel, f. the sand-potato. —kasten, m. sand-chest. —kaute, f. V. —grube. —kicher, m. [sort of buckthorn] sand-astragal. —kissen, n. sand-cushion, cushion filled with sand. —klaffer, m. [in nat. hist.] [a sort of gaping or water-spitting mussel] the sand-gaper [mya]. —klinge, f. V. —horst. —kloß, m. 1) mass of sand, sand-clod. 2) [in medicine] granular venereal swelling of the testicles. —knoblauch, m. sand-garlick, sand-leek. —kobalt, m. [by miners &c.] sand-cobalt. —körder, m. [a kind of water-worm] the amphitrite. Der kleinförnige —körder, the granular-spotted amphitrite. —kölchen, n., —kölbleingras, n. V. —liesgras. —koralle, f. sand-coral, sand-madrepore. —korn, n. [dim. —körndchen, || —körntein, n.] 1) grain, granule of sand. 2) [in agriculture] sand-rye. 3) [in conchology] sand-stamper, black-silver-cloth. —krabbe, f. sand-crab [cancer vocans]. —kraut, n. sand-wort, sand-asparagus. Das mittlere —kraut, the alpine of the alps; das —kraut mit Portulaksblättern, purslane-leaved sand-wort, sea-purslane; das dreirippige —kraut, the European chick-weed, three-rippid sand-wort. —krebß, m. V. Sandkrebß. —kriecher, m. 1) V. —klaffer. 2) [a kind of poisonous viper] sand-creeper, ammodyte viper. 3) V. —wanze. —kuchen, m. a kind of tart that melts in the mouth [so called from its colour and grittiness resembling sand]. —lage, f. V. —schicht. —land, n. 1) V. —boden 1). 2) sandy country. —lauch, m. V. —knoblauch. —läufer, m. 1) [in ornithology] sand-snipe, strand-plover, sand-piper [tringa cinclus]. 2) water-hen, moor-hen. 3) V. —käfer. 4) [amongst seamen] V. —uhr. —liesgras, n. [—fennich, —kölbchen] sand-phleum. —lilie, f. sand-lily. —linde, f. V. Steintinde. —löffel, m. [amongst blacksmiths &c.] sand-spoon [for sprinkling sand over red-hot iron]. —mann, m. sand-man, sand-hawker. Fig. [in fam. lang.] Der —mann, das —männchen kommt, or kommt ihm in die Augen, his eyelids are getting heavy, his eyes are picking straws [speaking of a child that is very sleepy]. —märgel, m. V. —mergel. —meer, n. [poetically] a sea, an ocean of sand, a sandy sea [speaking of the Arabian, African deserts &c.]. —mergel, m. sand-marl, calcareous clay mixed with sand. —mohn, m. [in botany] wild red-poppy, sand-poppy, papaver rhoeas. —mornell, m. [in natural hist.], the sand-plover. —mühle, f. sand-mill, mill set in motion by sand. —mumie, f. the sand-mummy [of Egypt and Arabia] V. —dörrleiche. —näse gelein, n. V. — nasse 2). — natter, f. V. — frieder. — nelfe, f. 1) the sand-pink [growing in drift and quicksands]. 2) the sea-pink [growing on the strands, in mountains &c.]. — ofen, m. [among chemists] V. — bad. — pfad, m. sandy path; a gravel-path, walk. — pfanne, f. [with skin-dressers] sand-pan [a pan or pipkin for heating sand]. — pfeife, f. 1) [in conchology] a) [Kuhdarm] trump-marine. b) [Messerschelde or Scheidemuschel, which latter see]. 2) pipe-sand [species of sand-stone]. — pfeifer, m. [in nat. hist.] sand-piper [species of strand-plover]. — pfrieme, f. — pfriemenhaber, m. bearded-sand-oat. — plan, m. the arena [for gladiatorial exhibitions &c.], the lists [for tilting-matches]. — pulver, n. [in dispensatories] sand-powder, lithotriptic powder. — rad, n. [in hydraulics] sand-wheel [wheel for raising up sand out of its bed]. — raufe, f. [in botany] sand-cress. — räumer, m. [in hydraulics &c.] sand-drag [a scoop for removing sand]. — rechnung, f. [in antiquity] calculation or reckoning of sand, attempting an impossibility. — reff, — riff, n. V. — sank. regen, m. sand-rain, sand rained down [from volcanos, waterspouts or other electric causes]. — reiter, m. [in popular language] a sand-rider, that is, a horseman, thrown from his seat or dismounted. — ried, or — riedgras, n. sea-lime-grass, sandy reed-grass, sand-sedge. — roden, m. — rodengras, n. V. — torn, — haargras. — rohr, n. sea-reed. — röhre, f. auricomous amphitrite. — rohrschmiele, f. [in botany] the sandy tubercular rush or hair-grass, the reedy agrostis. — rubrpflanze, f. [in botany] flux-wort, yellow immortal. — sack, m. sand-sack, sack of or for sand; [in fortification] sand-bag. — sackchen, n. sand-bag; [among engravers] engraver's-cushion, sand-cushion [upon which the copper or steel-plate is put while being designed]. — schaufel, f. sand-spade; [a lead-pourer] sand-ladle or scoop; [in the structure of dams and dikes] sand-shovel, gravel or small shingle-shovel. — schelle, f. sand-covered spot, spot covered with flitting sand or a quick-sand. — schicht, f. 1) sand-bed, sand-stratum, sand-layer. 2) [with paviers &c.] sand-layer [under the pavement]. — schiefer, m. schistous or laminated brown free-stone, leafy sand-stone. — schilf, m. V. — rohr. — schimmel, m. roan horse. — schlange, f. V. — flaffer. — schmiele, f. V. — rohrschmiele. — schuppe, f. sand-scoop, spade, a square spade. — schwalbe, f. V. Rheinschwalbe. — segge, f. V. — riedgras. — seife, f. — seifer, m. sand-strainer, sand-filter [for purifying water]. — spergel, m. V. — fraut. — spiering, m. V. — aal. — staub, m. sand-dust. — stein, m. sand-stone, gritty free-stone. Biegsamer — stein, flexible, bending or pliant sand-stone; eisen-schüssiger — stein, ferriferous, ferruginous or iron sand-stone; bunter — stein, variegated sand-stone; glimmeriger — stein, micaceous sand-stone; dieses Schloss ist mit or von — steinen gebaut, this castle, hold &c. is built of sand-stone. — steinarbeit, f. sand-stone-ware; sand-stone-work. — steinbrech, m. [in botany] sand-saxifrage, sand parsley. — steinbruch, m. — steingrube, f. sand-stone quarry or pit. — steinporphyr, m. sand-stone porphyry, argillaceous sand-stone mixed with feldspath. — steinschiefer, m. schistous or slaty sand-stone, sand-stone-slate. — strecke, f. sandy streak or patch. — telline or — tellmuschel, f. sand-tellen. — torf, m. sand-turf, sand-peat; sandy turf or peat. — torte, f. sand-tart [a tart that melts in the mouth]; V. also — fuchen. — trespe, f. sand-rye-brome-grass. — tute, f. [in zoology] sand-stamper. — ufer, n. sand-shore, sandy shore or bank. — uhr, f. hour-glass, sand-hour-glass, sand-clepsydra; [in seamen's lang.] sand-glass, sand-watchglass. — uhrstein, m. trochlear stone. — voll, adj. and adv. [rather out of use] full of sand, sandy. — wagen, m. sand-wagon [wagon for carrying sand]; it. wagon laden with sand. — wanze, f. sand-bug. — wasser, n. sandy or gritty water. — weg, m. sandy way, sandy path or road; it. a sanded way [in England] gravel-walk. V. kits. — weide, f. 1) the sand-willow. 2) [Bachweide] the rose-willow, salix helix. — weizen, m. V. — haber 1). — wespe, f. the ichneumon-wasp, the sphex sabulosa. — winde, f. V. Ackerwinde. — wurm, m. 1) the lug, lumbricus marinus. 2) [Wurmölwe] the worm-lion, musca vermileo, nemotelus vermileo. 3) [Kieferwurm] the groundling, cobitis taenia. 4) [Kronenwurm] [with farriers &c.] a fistula of the coronet [Hornwurm]. — wüste, f. sandy desert, sandy waste. Die — wüsten Afrika's, the sandy deserts. the sands of Africa; die Gegend um die Stadt ist eine — wüste, the country round about the town is a sandy waste. — zucker, m. V. Mehlsucker.

*Sandale, f. [pl. -n] [Bindsohle] a sandal.

Sandarach, V. Sandrac.

Sandar, m. [-es, pl. -e] [in nat. hist.] V. Sander.

Sandel, m. [-s] [Arab. zandal, Pers. jondul, Sans. chandana] 1) [—holz] the smooth bonduc, moringa nickar, guilandina moringa. 2) Rother —, rothes —holz [Brafilienholz], red saunders, sanders, red sandal-wood, pterocarpus sandalinus. 3) — [or —baum, —holz], yellow or white saunders, the real or white sandal, sandalum album, verum.

Sandelbaum, m. V. — 3). — baumöl, n. oil of sandal-wood. — farbig, adj. and adv. sandal-coloured. — holz, n. V. — öl, n. V. Satbnußöl.

Sandeln, V. Sanden.

Sanden, v. tr. [mit Sand bestreuen] to sand, to strew with sand. Die Deiche —, to sand the dikes, to strew the dikes with sand [in marshy countries]; [with blacksmiths] to sand iron [for preventing it flaming when at a red heat]; die Gänge in einem Garten — [rather unusual], to sand or gravel the walks in a garden; eine Schrift —, to strew sand over a writing.

Sänder, m. [-s, pl. -] 1) [not used] one who strews sand, a sander. 2) [in nat. hist.] [Sandaal, Sandarach, Sandbors &c.] the sandeel, the lancelet.

Sändig, adj. and adv. sandy, containing sand, [in science] arenaceous. — er Boden, — es Erdreich, — es Land, sandy ground, soil, sandy earth, land; — es Ufer, sandy shore; das — e Lybien, sandy Lybia; — es Brod, sandy, gritty bread; — es Mehl, sandy flour.

Sandrack, m. [-es] [Lat. sandaraca, Arab. sandros] 1) sandarach, sandarack, sandrac, gum-juniper; it. [a fossil] sandarac, orpiment, red arsenic. 2) [sometimes] V. Bienenbrod.

Sänst, [in Madag. saf saf, and in Tib. tschiamp-u mean I, soften; probably allied to Saft, saft, and to the Engl. soft; its primitive meaning seems to be that of yielding to pressure] adj. and adv. soft, tender. Eine — e Haut haben, to have a soft, sleek skin; ihre — e Haut, her soft, tender skin; sie hat — e Hände, she has soft, delicate hands; das fühlt sich — an, that feels soft; das Kind streichelte ihr — die Wangen, the child stroked softly her cheeks; Etwas — anrühren, to touch anything softly, gently, tenderly, delicately; eine — e Luft, a soft, balmy, mild air; — er [gelinder] Himmel, Himmelsstrich, a mild sky, mild, genial climate, a soft clime; ein — es Bett, a soft, downy bed; ich will mein Haupt nicht — niederlegen, bis &c., I will not lay my head on the pillow, until &c.; — er Ton, a soft, gentle tone; die — en Töne ihrer Laute, the dulcet, soft, mellow notes of her lute; — spielen, singen, to play, sing tenderly; — [nicht laut] sprechen, to speak softly, low, in a low tone; dieses Pferd galoppirt sehr —, hat einen — en Gang, this horse gallops easily, has an easy or a smooth pace; — gehen, to walk gently, softly; die Kutsche ist kein Fuhrwerk, das für einen Verwundeten — genug wäre, the coach is not a vehicle that is easy enough for a wounded person; in dieser Kutsche sitzt man sehr —, it is very comfortable, easy sitting in this coach; das — e Riefeln einer Quelle, the gentle, low, soft murmuring of a fountain; ein — er Regen, a soft, gentle, fine, rain. [in music] softly, slowly, andante. Ein — es Tonstück, a soft, gentle strain. Fig. — e Helle, — es Licht, soft, subdued, mellowed light; — e Farben, soft colours; — e Aussicht, soft, placid view; — e Augen, ein — er Blick, ein — es Lächeln, — e Haltung, soft gentle, meek eyes, a gentle, soft, quiet, mild look, a soft, quiet, faint smile, a soft or gentle carriage or demeanour; ein — es Gemüth, Betragen, gentle, easy disposition, soft &c. manners; — e Schwermuth, a gentle, calm melancholy; das — e in den Augen, Blicken, Sitten, softness in the eyes, looks, manners; sie hat viel — es in ihrem Charakter, she has a great deal of softness, gentleness, meekness in her character; — er Verweis, a gentle rebuke, mild reproof; er hat mir meinen Fehler auf eine — e Art vorgeworfen, he has gently chid me for my fault; — er Mensch, a gentle man; — er Schlaf, a soft, quiet, calm sleep; — schlafen, to sleep calmly, softly, sweetly; — er Tod, calm, gentle, easy death; [in Scripture] denn mein Joch ist — und meine Last ist leicht, for my yoke is easy and my burden is light; — er hebt sich neben dem Hause ein Hügel, a gently sloping hill, a gentle eminence rises near the house; — er Abhang, gentle slope; die Treppe steigt — an, the stairs are easy to mount, are of easy ascent; [with miners] V. Sänstig. Syn. V. Gelind.

Sänfte, f. [pl. -n] 1) [Sänfteit] [little used] softness, gentleness. 2) a sedan-chair, a sedan; [in the East] palanquin; [for wounded or sick persons] litter. Die Stangen einer —, the poles of a sedan-chair; sich in einer — tragen lassen, to have one's self conveyed in a sedan; eine offene, unbedeckte —, an uncovered, an open sedan, litter; man trug ihn vom Schlachtfelde in einer —, he was removed from the field of battle on a litter.

Sänstenzpferd, n. horse for conveying a litter. — stange, f. the pole of a sedan-chair &c. — träger, m. a sedan-chairman, a chairman; a litter-bearer; a palanquin-bearer. Nach — trägern schicken, to send for chairmen.

Sänftheit, f. [das Sanfte] [speaking figuratively] softness. Die — der Augen, der Blicke, the softness, mildness, gentleness of the eyes, of the looks; die — seines, ihres Betragens, in seinem, ihrem Betragen &c., the gentleness, quietness, mildness, placidity, meekness of his, her conduct, manners, proceedings; eine schwermüthige —, a melancholy softness.

Sänftig, adj. and adv. [with minors] —es or sanftes Gebirge, a gently - sloping, gently - rising mountain.

Sänftigen, v. tr. [V. Sanft] 1) with poets [be—] to calm, allay, soothe, lull, still, appease, assuage, hush. Das tobende Meer —, to calm, subdue the raging sea. Fig. Die Säure durch Zucker —, to dulcify, edulcorate an acid with sugar; den Schmerz —, to moderate, assuage, mollify, mitigate &c. the pain, V. Be—, Lindern, Milbern. Das —, V. Sänftigung.

Sänftigung, f. softening, mollification, mitigation. — einer Säure, edulcoration.

Sänftigungsmittel, n. a lenitive, an emollient or assuasive remedy, a palliative.

Sänftlich, adj. and adv. softly, gently, V. Sanft.

Sänftmuth, f. gentleness or sweetness of disposition, meekness, mildness or placidity of temper, a good temper. Zur — geneigtes Gemüth, a disposition inclined to gentleness; die — ist auf ihrem Gesichte ausgedrückt, sweetness of disposition is expressed on her face; er verwies es mir mit —, he chided me for it with gentleness; — haben, besigen, beweisen, to have, possess, shew a good temper, an even temper; mit — behandeln, to treat with gentleness, mildness, tenderness. Syn. V. Mäßigung.

Sänftmüthig, adj. and adv. good-tempered, sweet-tempered, gentle, soft, easy, good-natured, good-humoured [old and with lyric poets, debonnair]. Die wahren Christen sind —, true Christians are gentle, mild; —er Fürst, a mild prince; —er Charakter, a gentle character, sweet temper, good nature; —e Menschen machen sich beliebt, good-natured people make themselves beloved; [in Scripture] selig sind die —en, blessed are the meek.

Sänftmüthigkeit, f. sweetness of disposition, of temper, [in biblical style] meekness, lowliness.

Säng, m. [-es, pl. Sänge] [poetical] [from singen] [Gesang] song, strain. Mit — und Klang [fam.] with singing and the ringing of bells, with pipe and tabor, in the midst of vocal and instrumental music.

Sangsboden, m. V. Klangboden. — drossel, f. V. Gesangdrossel. — finck, m. [with fowlers] [Rockfinck] a decoy-finch. — herd, m. [with fowlers] an airy for large singing-birds. — lerche, f. V. Feldlerche. — meister, m. V. Singmeister. — rede, f. [more usual Recitativ] recitative. — schwalbe, f. V. Gesangschwalbe. — spiel, n. [more usual Vokalmusik] vocal music, piece of vocal music. — ständchen, n. vocal serenade; it. a serenade of instrumental and vocal music. — streit, m. V. Wettgesang. — vogel, m., — weise, f. V. Gesangvogel, Gesangsweise.

Sängenfraut, n. [-es] the common hemlock, kex.

Sänger, m. [-s, pl. -en] —inn, f. a singer, male singer; a songstress, female singer. Ein berühmter —, eine vortreffliche —inn, a celebrated singer, an excellent singer or songstress; — in der Kirche, chorister, chanter, singing-man, singing-boy; es sind gute — in diesem Chore, the chanters in this choir are good; [with poets] die — des Waldes, the choristers, singers, songstresses of the woods; [in nat. hist.] — [kleine Graßmücke], the yellow wren, willow wren, green-wren, small yellow-bird, motacilla trochilus; [with poets] [Dichter] bard, poet; der thracische — [Orpheus], the Thracian bard.

Sanguinisch, adj. and adv. [blutreich, heißblütig, sehr lebhaft, feurig] sanguine. —e Natur, —es Temperament, sanguine complexion, temperament.

Sanikel, m. [-s] 1) [Bruchkraut] sanicle. Der männliche, der weibliche —, the male, female sanicle. 2) five-leaved toothwort, dentaria pentaphyllos. 3) Schwarzer — [schwarze Meisterwurzel], the great black masterwort, astrantia major.

Sanität, f., V. Gesundheit.

Sanitätscollegium, n. board of health; [in England, speaking that of the celebrated quack Morrison] college of health. —commission f. 1) board of health. 2) sanitary commission.

Sänf, m. [-es, pl. -e] [from sinken] [with boatmen &c.] a waterlogged float or raft.

Sānsrit, n. the sanscrit, shanscrit, shanscree. Die —sprache, the sanscrit language, the shanscrit.

Sāpaju, m. [-s, pl. -s] [afse] sapajou, sapajo.

Sapanholz, n. [-es] [rottes Särbeholz] red sandal-wood, red sanders.

Sāphir or Sāpphir, m. [-es, pl. -e] sapphire, oriental sapphire, perfect corundum, telesia. Brasilischer —, yellow sapphire or telesia; orientalischer —, blue telesia, oriental sapphire; männlicher —, male sapphire; weiblicher —, female sapphire.

Sāphir = blau, I. adj. and adv. sapphire-blue. II. n. the sapphire-blue. —fluß, m. blue fluat of lime. —kristall, m. crystallized blue hyaline quartz. —rubin, m. spinelle ruby, the spinel, spinel and balass ruby. —spat, m. cyanite, disthene, sappure, sappare, zeolite cyanite.

Sāphiren or Sāpphiren, adj. and adv. [composed of sapphire, adorned with sapphires, like sapphire] sapphirine.

Sappadillbaum, m. [-es, pl. -bäume] [in botany] sap[adillo]-tree [of the genus sloanea]; the common sapota, achras sapota.

Sāppe, f. [pl. -n] [V. Sappen] [in sieges] sap. Ganze —, whole sap; halbe —, half sap; einfache —, doppelte —, simple, double sap; fliegende, flüchtige —, flying sap.

Sāppen, Sāppiren, v. intr. [Fr. saper; Ital. zappare; Armen. sappa; in Ital. zappa is a hoe, zappone a pickaxe] [in fortification] to sap, to make a sap.

Sāpper, Sāppirer, m. [-s, pl. -en] [in fortification] sapper.

Sāpperloth! Sāpperment! [a low word of swearing by] zounds! [low] zooks!

Sāpphisch, adj. and adv. [from the poetess Sappho] sapphic. Das —e Versmaß, —e Verse, sapphic metre, sapphic verses, sapphics; eine —e Strophe, a sapphic stanza or strophe.

Sāppho, f. [-s, pl. -en] [the poetess of Lesbos] Sappho.

Sāppiren, V. Sappen.

Sāppir = fasshine, f. [in sieges &c.] sap-fagot. —gabel, f. sap-fork.

Sarabānde, f. [pl. -n] [Klappertanz] saraband.

Sāra, f. [-'s] [a woman's name] Sarah; dim. Sārchen, Särchen, n. [-s, pl. -en] Sally, [vulgar] Sal.

Saragóssa, n. [-'s] [in geography] Sarra-gossa.

Sāraß, V. Sarraß.

Sarazēne, m. [-n, pl. -n] [in Arab. sara = a desert] a Saracen. Eine Sarazeninn, a Saracen woman.

Sarazēnisch, adj. and adv. Saracenic, Saracen.

Sārdachāt, m. [-es, pl. -e] sardachate.

Sardelle, f. [pl. -n] [in nat. hist.] the anchovy; pilchard. Frische —n, fresh anchovies &c.

Sardellen = brühe, f. anchovy-sauce. —fang, m. 1) fishery for anchovies, anchovy-fishery. 2) the place where they fish for anchovies &c., anchovy-fishery. —garn, —netz, n. net for anchovies &c. —salat, m. a salad of anchovies. —tun = te, f. V. —brühe.

Sārder, m. [-s, pl. -en] [commonly Karneol, cornelian] sardel, sardine.

Sardinien, n. [-s] [in geography] Sardinia.

Sardinier, m. [-s, pl. -en] —inn, f. a Sardinian.

Sardinisch, adj. and adv. Sardinian. —e Sprache, Sardinian dialect.

Sardöner, Sardönier, V. Sarber.

Sardönisch, adj. and adv. sardonic, sardonian. —es Lachen, sardonic laughter, sardonic grin.

Sardönix, m. [-es, pl. -e] sardonix.

Sārdthun, m. [-es, pl. -e] [in nat. hist.] the bonito, scomber pelamis.

Sārg, m. [-es, pl. Särge] [Fr. cercueil, formerly sarcueil; the Arab. sardsch or charch-an, Ossset, Sarg = gear; furniture, and in the Mong. chargui, is a way; allied to σαργ-ἀννης σαργού, to the Lat. sarc-us, sarcum, or else to σαρκοφάγος, a sepulchre] coffin, bier. Hölzerner, marmorner —, a wooden coffin, marble sarcophagus; den Todten in den — legen, to lay the dead person into the coffin, into the bier. Fig. 1) Steinerne — an einem Brunnen [Was-serbehälter], stone-basin, stone-reservoir of a fountain. 2) [in fam. lang.] V. under Nagel.

Sarg = beschlag, m. coffin-furniture, ornaments &c. —deckel, m. coffin-lid. —fuß, m. the foot of a coffin. —nagel, m. [with nail-makers] coffin-nail. —stein, m. [in ancient hist.] the stone of Assos, the sarcophagus stone, lapis assius. —tuch, n. the pall.

Sārg, f. V. Sarge.

Sarkāsmus, m. [pl. Sarkasmen] sarcasm.

Sarkāstisch, adj. and adv. sarcastic, sarcastical; sarcastically.

Sarkophāg, m. [-es, pl. -e] [in antiquity] [sargförmiges Grabmaht] sarcophagus.

Sarmāte, m. [-n, pl. -n] [in geography] a Sarmatian.

Sarmātien, n. [-s] [in geography] Sarmatia. Das asiatische —, Asiatic Sarmatia; das europäische —, European Sarmatia.

Sarmatisch, adj. and adv. Sarmatian. Das —e Weltmeer, the Sarmatian ocean; die —en Gebirge, Sarmatian mountains.

Sarraß, m. [-es, pl. -e] [Säbel] [in common people's lang. and comic] sabre, hanger, [slang] reap-hook.

Sarsaparille, f. [pl. -n] [in botany, Ezech. winde] sarsaparilla.

Sársche, f. [pl. -n] [Fr. serge, Sp. xerga, Ital. sargia = a coverlet] serge. Graue, schwarz —, grey, black serge; rauhe or haarige —, shaggy serge, frize, rateen in the hair; glatte — or Rasch, smooth serge or rateen; auf beiden Seiten rechte —, druggel, baize; seidene —n, silk serges; Kleid von —, —nes Kleid, serge-dress.

Sársche-fabrik, —weberei, f. serge-fabric, serge-factory. —weber, m. a serge-weaver.

Sárschen, adj. and adv. composed of serge, V. Sársche.

Sárter, m. [V. Zerte] [-s, pl. -] [in seamen's lang.] 1) [Schiffsmode] model, mould, frame-timbers of a ship. 2) V. Zarter, Zertter.

Sárving, V. Serving.

Säß, m. [-en, pl. -en] or Sässe, m. [-n, pl. -n] [from sitzen] inhabitant, possessor, owner, proprietor [obsolete, and now only recurring in composition, as] Amt —, Bei —, Erb —, Frei —, Haus —, Hinter —, Roth —, Land —, Schrift —.

Saß-jagen, n. [amongst sportsmen] [provincial] chase limited to the female stag] hind-chase, hind-hunt, hind-hunting or shooting. —fraut, n. V. Knoblauchfraut.

Sassafras or Sassafrax, m. [from the Lat. saxifragia?] [indeclinable noun] the sassafrass-tree.

Sassafras-holz, n. or —rinde, f. sassafrass-wood, the rind of the sassafrass-tree. —öl, n. sassafrass-oil.

Sassaparille, V. Sarsaparille.

Sässe, m. [-n, pl. -n] 1) V. Saß. 2) [the old name of the Saxons] Saxon. Die Sprache der —n, die —nsprache, the language of the ancient Saxons, the old Saxon language.

Sässe, f. [pl. -n] [from sitzen] [amongst sportsmen] form, seat. 1) —eines Hasen, the form of a hare. 2) V. Saß.

Sassenage, m. or —r Käse, [out of Dauphiny] Sassenage-cheese.

Sässisch, adj. and adv. [old] Saxon.

Sátan, m. [-s, pl. -e] [Hebrew word meaning enemy or antagonist] satan, devil. So denn ein — den andern treibt [in Scripture], now if satan drives out satan. Fig. [in common people's lang.] Sein Weib ist ein wahrer —, sie ist ein wahrer — von einem Weibe, his wife is a regular she-devil, she is a devil of a wife, a fiend incarnate of a wife; ein — von einem Pferde, a devil of a horse.

Satan's-arbeit, f. [in common people's lang.] devil's work; it. devil's-own-work, diabolical work. —engel, m. devil, fiend, imp of satan, fallen angel. —herz, n. devil's-heart, heart of satan. —kunst, f. satan's art, infernal or diabolical artifice. —sprache, f. satan's language, diabolical, infernal or hellish language.

Satánisch, adj. and adv. satanic, satanical; satanically. —e Bosheit, Freude, satanic malice or villainy, diabolical joy, satanical exultation.

Sátin, m. [-s, pl. -e] [Fr. satin, allied to Seide] satin.

Satin-art, f. satin-mode, satin-form. Auf —art weben [satinieren], to weave after the manner or form of satin. —holz, n. satin-wood. —weber, m. satin-weaver.

Satinade, f. [pl. -n] [in commerce] satinet, peeling satin, satinade [silk stuff imitating satin].

Satire &c. V. Satyre.

Satrápe, m. [-n, pl. -n] [in ancient hist.] satrap [viceroi of a Persian province], [now in a more general sense] satrap, pasha, governor &c. Fig. [in contempt] haughty, tyrannical, oppressive or exacting high official, military governor, viceroi &c. [chiefly in the Eastern countries].

Sätt, adj. and adv. [Lat. sat, satis; connected with the Gr. σάττω, to stop] 1) [originally] so close as to leave no perceptible or observable interstice. [in architecture and building] —aufliegen, to lie flat or close [as on a slab or flag]. 2) satisfied with food or drink, filled, saturated. Ich bin —, I am satisfied, I am satiated, I have had enough; sich —essen und trinken, to drink and eat one's full, to satisfy one's hunger and thirst; ich fand ein Gericht nach meinem Geschmacke, woran ich mich —aß, I found a dish to my taste and I eat my full of it; bis zum Uebermaße —seyn, to be cram full, to be filled superabundantly, to be crammed, stock-full; er ist so —, daß er bersten möchte [low], he is so gorged, crammed, filled, that he stands a good chance of splitting, he is so choke-full, that he is ready to burst; Einen —machen, to give a man his bellyful, his full allowance; man kann ihn nicht —machen, there is no satisfying him, there is no appeasing his hunger, he is insatiable; dieser Arme ist sich kaum halb —, this poor devil does not eat half his bellyful; ein —er Magen, a filled stomach, a bellyful; ein Satter weiß nicht &c., he, whose stomach is well lined, does not know &c. Fig. [in familiar lang.] sufficiently contented, satisfied [and consequently equivalent to] disgusted, wearied, tired, replete, satiated, filled to satiety and nausea. Ich kann mich nicht —daran sehen, hören &c., I cannot look my fill, hear my fill at it; sich —lachen, spielen &c., to laugh, play to one's heart's content; eine Sache or einer Sache —werden, to get tired of, to become satiated with any thing; Sie werden es bald —haben or kriegen [in fam. lang.], you will soon have enough of it, you will soon get sick of it; ich bin diesen Menschen or dieses Menschen —, I am sick of this man, I am out of all patience, I am bored to death with this fellow; ein der Welt freuden —er [ein Blasirter, modern], a worn-out debauchee, voluptuary, sensualist; des Lebens —seyn, to be weary of life, to be disgusted with existence, to be tired of living. 3) in difficulties, distressed, embarrassed. 4) [amongst painters &c.] —e Farbe, full-bodied colour; ein —es Gelb, Grün, a full or deep yellow, green; —er Zug, Strich, Buchstabe, a well-developed feature, a full-drawn trait, a full-bodied-letter; —er Wein, full-bodied wine, generous wine; —er Reim, a rich rhyme.

Satt-gelb, I. adj. and adv. deep- or dark-yellow. II. n. Das —e, the deep or dark-yellow. —gelebt, adj. and adv. satiated, disgusted with life, wearied, utterly wearied, wearied to death of life, [also, sometimes] blasé, surfeited with the world's pleasures. Der —gelebte, die —gelebte, the man, the woman wearied of life, the life-tired person; a blasé. —grün, I. adj. and adv. deepgreen, dark-green. II. n. Das —grün, the deep or dark green.

Sátte, f. [pl. -n] bowl, porringer, milk-pan, earthen-pan.

Sáttel, m. [-s, pl. Sättel] [from sitzen, in Low Sax. sitten] 1) [generally] something on which something else is seated, or probably that which is itself seated upon something else V. —2). 2) saddle. Lederner —, —mit Stücken reien, leather-saddle, embroidered saddle, saddle with embroidery; flacher —, flat saddle; englischer, deutscher, ungarischer, polnischer —, English, German, Hungarian, Polish saddle, V. Klepper —, Reit —, Saum —, Turnier —, Weiber —. Der —liegt zu weit vorn, the saddle is too much in front, presses too much on the collar; einem Pferde den —auflegen, abnehmen, to put the saddle upon, to saddle a horse, to take the saddle off a horse, to unsaddle a horse; er schwingt sich ohne Steigbügel in den —, he vaults into his seat without stirrups; er sitzt wohl, fest im —, he has a good or firm seat, he sits his horse well; ein Pferd ohne —reiten, to ride without a saddle, to ride on the horse's bare back; ein für jedes Pferd passender —, a saddle fitting every horse's back, it. fig. [in fam. lang.] common place discourse; —und Zeug, saddle and furniture; Einen aus dem —heben, werfen, to hurl one from one's saddle [at tilts and tournaments], it. fig. a) to unseat, capsize, supplant one; b) to floor one to a non-plus. Fig. Fest im —sitzen, to sit fast in one's saddle, to be master of one's subject, not to let go off one's advantage; in alle Sättel gerecht seyn, to be fit for any thing, to be equally a good hand at one thing as at another, to be a jack-of-all-trades. 3) [different uses of the word] Ein —auf der Nase [in pop. lang.], a saddle, hump on the nose; er hat einen —auf der Nase, he has a hump-nose, a camel or dromedary nose, Roman nose; der —in einer wälschen Muff [partition wall, dividing the kernel into four parts] the zest in a walnut; [in hydraulics] der —[short cross-beam, with which the tops of two posts or spars are fastened together] head-piece, crown or saddle cross-bar; [in anatomy] der —, das —bein [of the ethmoid bone in the skull, which with the holes piercing it resembles a saddle], the apophyses of the sphenoidal bone, the saddle-bone, the sella Turcica, the pituitary pit; [with brewers] [vault in a malt-kiln] the kiln-vault; [with clothiers] [a wooden frame like a gallows, for preserving the shears in their place] the post of the shears; [with miners] [wood with a hole in the middle, through which a spindle passes, so that it may move backwards and forwards together with the machine-railing lying upon it] saddle, fetch and carry, the messenger; [in foundries] [instrument on which the chests are laid to be broken into pieces] the saddle; [with type-founders] [on which the matrix rests] the bed; [in fortification &c.] sharp, shelving ridge of any thing, asses-back; [with lute-makers] V. Steg; [in seamen's lang.] the step of a mast. 4) [in natural history] [a little and very light oyster in the Mediterranean] onion-shell; it. englischer or polnischer —, V. —muschel. 5) [in metallurgy] [scoria that forms upon the ore in proportion as it enters into fusion, and which assumes the figure of a saddle] saddle. 6) [with fowlers] [kind of bird-snare, which is placed with loops of horsehair upon a live dove for catching birds of prey] a horse-hair saddle-springe or snare.

Sattel-band, n. [bridge on a Hungarian saddle] saddle-band. —baum, m. 1) [on riding-saddles, crooked pieces of wood, which form the skeleton of a saddle] saddle-tree. Das eiserne Band am —baum oder —bogen, saddle-bow. 2) [in botany] [Etabl. baum] the fagara [the eight-stamened iron-wood]. —bein, n. [in anatomy] V. —2). —blech, n. side-bar, wither-band. —blech eines Saumsattels, the bow of a pack-saddle. —dach, n. [in architecture] the gable-end, roof hanging down on both sides. —decke, f. [over a horse's saddle] saddle-cloth, saddle-housing, caparison. —fertig, adj. and adv. ready for saddling; [also] ready for mounting. —fest, adj. and adv. firm in the stirrups, firm and fast in the saddle, in one's seat. Fig. [in fam. lang.] perfectly au fait at, quite master of one's subject. Er ist —fest darin, that is his strong point; he is quite at home on that subject. —förmig, adj. and adv. saddle-formed, saddle-shaped. —fort[saß], m. [in anatomy] [process of the pterygoid or sphenoidal process] the clinoidal apophysis. —frei, adj. and adv. [formerly, in feudal lang.] saddle-free. Ein —freier Hof, —freies Gut, property or estate free of knight-service, independent of feudal supremacy. —gurt, m. saddle-girth. —gut, n. [provincial] 1) [= ein —freies Gut, V. under —frei. 2) an estate, subject to knight-service [providing a saddled horse]. —hammer, m. [with saddlers] [a long small hammer for hammering nails into the saddle] saddle-hammer. —hof, m. V. —gut 1) and 2). Holz, n. 1) [no pl.] saddle-wood, wood fit for making saddle-bows. 2) [with saddlers] —hölzer, pl. [which connect the front and hinder saddle-tree] saddle-heams, sleepers. 3) [no pl.] [in botany] Nordamerikanisches —holz [wood of the balsam-poplar, also the tree itself] wood of the tacamahac balsam-tree; it. the tacamahac balsam-tree. —kammer, f. [room where saddles, bridles &c. are kept] the saddle-room. —kissen, n. 1) [part of a saddle] the pannel. 2) [a cushion that one lays under the saddle, so that the horse may not be galled] saddle-pad. —knecht, m. groom. —knopf, m. pommel of the saddle. —krähe, f. V. Nebelkrähe. —lehen, n. [in feudal times] tief subject to knight-service, by furnishing a saddled horse. V. —gut 2); it. V. Mannlehen. —muschel, f. [in conchology] [a very remarkable kind of oyster in the Baltic Sea &c.] the Polish oyster, the ophyppium placentiforme. —nagel, m. saddle-nail. —pausch, m. [elevation in the middle of the hinder saddle-tree] the cantle, the trousse-quin. Ein —mit einem —pausch ist viel bequemer, als ein flacher, a saddle that has a cantle or trousse-quin is much more commodious than a flat one. —pferd, n. a saddle-horse; it. the postilion's horse, the horse of a post-chaise or post-horse on which the post-boy sits; the left or near wheeler, [occasionally] the thill-horse. —pistole, f. saddle-pistol, holster-pillow. —polster, n. saddle-bolster, saddle-pillion. —raupe, f. [in nat. hist.] [the caterpillar of which makes zig zags] the zig-zag phalaena. —roß, n. V. —pferd. —rücken, m. [with sportsmen] the chine or saddle of the wild-boar. —steg, m. [with saddlers] [between the saddle-trees] the cross-bit or cross-beam. —tasche, f. 1) saddle-bag, saddle-pocket; budget, courier's-bag. 2) the flaps of a saddle. —tief, adj. and adv. [of horses, who have a deep back] saddle-backed. —tragen, n. [formerly, a punishment of the horse-troopers to bear a very heavy saddle some hours] the walking of the pony. —wagen, m. [in artillery] [a kind of conveyance with a sort of saddle on the axle, for bringing on the cannons] cannon-wagon. —zeug, n. [for a saddle-horse] harness, riding-tackle. —zwecke, f. a brass-tack or nail for saddles.

Hilvert, Deutsch Engl. Wörtl. 2. Bd.

Sätteln, v. tr. to saddle. Ein Pferd —, to saddle a horse; ein Packpferd, Maultthier —, to saddle, to packsaddle a horse, to saddle a pack-horse or mule with a pack-saddle; es ist Zeit zu —, it is time now for saddling; es ist gesattelt, das Pferd ist gesattelt, he is saddled, the horse is saddled. Prov. Früh gesattelt, spät geritten, the more haste, the less speed.

Sätttheit, f. [popular and figurative] repletion, sufficiency, fullness; [also] satiety, surfeit. Die — ist Schuld an seinem Uebel, it is repletion or fullness that causes this disgust or loathing of his; die — an Vergnügungen, Reichthümern &c., the surfeit of pleasures, the satiety of riches &c.

Sätttig, adj. and adv. nourishing, contenting, sufficing, filling. —e Speise, nourishing, satisfying, substantial food.

Sättigkeit, f. einer Speise 1) the satiating or satisfying nature or quality of a particular food. 2) [not much used] facility of being satisfied or satiated. 3) V. Sätttheit.

Sättigen, I. v. tr. 1) [especially to introduce as much of something into another body, as that body can receive] to fill, to saturate. Gesättigte or satte Farbe [with painters], a deep-bodied or full-bodied colour, a rich colour, V. Satt; [in chemistry] eine Säure mit einem Laugen-salze &c., to saturate an acid with an alkali; mit Silber gesättigtes Scheidewasser, aqua fortis saturated with silver; gesättigtes Kalkwasser, saturated lime-water. 2) Einen —, to satisfy any one; völlig —, to satiate, to glut, to surfeit; er sättigte fünftausend Mann mit fünf Broden und zwei Fischen [in Scripture], he filled five thousand men with five loaves and two fishes; er ist nicht zu —, man kann ihn nicht —, he is not to be satisfied, he is insatiable, no one can give him enough, his fill. Fig. Nichts sättiget seine Nachsicht, nothing satiates, appeases his craving vengeance; sein Geiz &c. ist nicht zu —, he is insatiable in his avarice, his voracious avarice can never be appeased, there is no stilling, allaying or appeasing his thirst, his hunger of gold; seine Augen an Etwas —, to feast one's eyes, to take one's fill of gazing on some object. II. v. refl. sich —, to satisfy one's self, to eat one's fill, to eat enough, to appease one's hunger completely; sich mit Etwas —, to eat of something to one's heart's content. Fig. Er sättiget sich nie am Vergnügen, he never surfeits himself with pleasure, he is insatiable in his pursuit of pleasures, they never surfeit him. III. v. intr. to produce repletion, to fill, satisfy the stomach. Milch-speisen —sehr, milk-food soon fills or distends with repletion the stomach. —de Speise, food that fills and satisfies the stomach; gesättiget seyn, to be satisfied, [fam.] to have one's bellyful of something. Das —, the filling, saturating, satisfying, satiating, surfeiting &c.

Sättigung, f. the act of filling, saturating [saturation], satisfying &c., [also] the effect and feeling of repletion. Fig. filling, contenting, satisfying, allaying, repleting, surfeit. Uebermäßige —, —bis zum Uebel, superabundant satisfying, contenting even to loathing, satiety, cloying, disgust, surfeit; [in chemistry] saturation; die — des Scheidewassers mit Silber, the saturation of aqua fortis with silver.

Sättigungspunkt, m. [in chemistry] the point of saturation, the saturation-point. —trieb, m. the instinct of satisfying one's desire, of satiating, gorging, glutting &c.

Sättler, m. [-s, pl. -] 1) saddler; die —inn, the saddler's wife; the saddler-woman. —, welcher Pferdegeschirr, Rutchen macht, saddler and collar-maker; saddler and coach-maker. 2) [in natural history] the Greenland seal, the crescent-phoca.

Sättlerzähle, f. saddler's awl. —arbeit, f. saddler's work. —eisen, n. V. —ähle. —gare, f. preparation of saddle-leather, of saddle-skins. —gesell, m. journeyman-saddler. —gewerk, n. V. —handwerk. —hammer, m. V. Sattelhammer. —handwerk, n. saddler's trade, saddling-line or business. —junge, m. saddler's apprentice. —kneif, m. saddler's cutting-knife. —meister, m. master-saddler. —nagel, m., —zwecke, f. V. Sattel-nagel &c. —säule, f. V. —ähle.

Sattlerei, f. [Sattlerhandwerk] 1) [no pl.] saddlery, saddler's trade, saddling-line or business. 2) [pl. -en] saddler's workshop.

Sättig, adj. and adv. [rather stiff] sufficient, enough; sufficiently enough. Einen —en Vorrath von or an Etwas haben, to have a sufficient provision of something; ich habe —e Ursache, es zu glauben, I have reason enough for believing it; ein —er Beweis, a sufficient proof; er ist —davon unterrichtet, he is sufficiently informed of it. V. Hinlänglich.

Sättigkeit, f. [little used] sufficiency.

Saturei, f. [Lat. satureja] [in botany] satureia, savory. Deutsche —, winter savory. Satureiöl, n. oil of savory.

*Saturiren, v. tr. [in chemistry] to saturate, V. Sättigen. Das —, die Satura-tion, the saturation.

Saturn, m. [-s] [in mythology] Saturn, the God of time; [in astronomy] the planet Saturn. Der — ist von sieben Monden begleitet, Saturn is accompanied by seven moons or satellites.

Saturns-fest, n. [of the ancient Romans] the Saturnalia. —salz, n. [in chemistry] salt of Saturn [of lead]. —ring, m. [in astronomy] the ring of Saturn [now believed to be seven of them].

Saturnalien, pl. [in antiquity] V. Saturns-fest.

Saturniner, m. [-s, pl. -] [in church hist.] Saturnian.

Sätyr, m. [-s, pl. -e] [in mythology] [one of the attendants of the nymphs, Bacchus or Pan; a demigod or sylvan deity and goat-footed] a satyr, a faun. V. Faun.

*Satyre, Satire, f. [pl. -n] 1) [in antiquity] [kind of Grecian play] satire. 2) [poetical rebuke or invective and as is said the invention of Archilochus who employed first the biting iambic] satire. Feine, beißende —, refined, biting satire, fine, caustic, pungent satire; die —n des Horaz &c., the satires of Horaz &c.; —auf den Geiz, die Ruhmsucht &c., satire against avarice, ambition &c.; eine —auf Jemand machen, to compose, to write a satire against or on any one.

Satyren-dichter, m. satirical poet, satire-writer, writer of satires. —dichtung, f. satirical poetry. —schreiber, m. satirical writer, satiric author, writer of satires, a satirist.

*Satyriasis, f. [in medicine] satyriasis.

excessive carnal desire.

Satyrifer or Satirifer, m [-s, pl. -] satirist, a satirical poet, writer or author; it. a satirical man, a man prone to satire.

Satyrisch or Satirisch, adj. and adv. satiric, satirical; satirically. Die —e Dichtart, satirical poetry; ein —es Gedicht, a satirical poem, a satire; —es Werk, a satirical work; —er Mensch, —e Laune, a satirical man, a satirist, satirical disposition, a satirical humour; das ist — gesagt, that is said satirically.

Satyrifiren or Satirifiren, v. intr. to satirize, to quiz, to be satirical upon &c.

Säb, m. [-es, pl. Säße] dim. Säßchen, ||Säglein, n. [-s, pl. -] 1) a deposit, a sediment, subsidence. Der — in einer Flüssigkeit, the deposit, the sediment, the lees in a fluid or liquid; [in chemistry] the residuum, V. Bozden—; [with chemists and druggists] feces, dregs, lees, settlings; [with essayers] bottom, remnant, metallic residuum [at the bottom of the crucible]; der — vom Kaffee, the grounds of coffee; — von schlechtem Theere, dregs of bad pitch and bad tar; — des Harnes, deposit, sediment of urine; der Harn bildet einen —, urine forms a deposit, a sediment is left by urine. 2) [with artificers, stuff for filling rockets &c.] composition, mixture. Fauler —, slow composition, slow mixture; [with brewers, a stratum of barley for germinating into malt] layer; den — aus einander breiten, to lay the barley all abroad, to make a layer; [with miners, tubes of pump-work placed together] row or set of pump-tubes; einen — einrichten, to place, to set, to fix a pump; den — anfrischen, to refresh the pump; den — lindern, to new-leather the piston of the pump; [with foundrymen, as much as is put in at once] a batch; [with printers, as much as is placed on a side, page, leaf &c.] a pull, one pull; [in games, the money on the table for which one plays] stake, fishes, deposit, counters or markers when they represent points or a sum to be played for, V. Ein—; der ganze —, [all on the table] the pool; er hat den ganzen — gewonnen, he has won the pool, all the stakes; [with fishermen &c.] fry, spawn [for filling or augmenting the number of fish in a pond &c.]; [with glass-melters, as much mass of glass as is molten at a time] the metal, one heat; dieser — muß tausend Gläser geben, this metal must yield a thousand glasses; it. ein — Baaren [a quantity of the same goods], assortment of goods; ein — Schachteln, Eimer &c. [of which the smaller are always stuck into the larger from the smallest size to the largest] a set or nest of boxes, pails or buckets &c.; ein — Steine, a course, a layer of stones [in a building]; ein — Holz, a pile or stack of wood; ein — Bäume, Weinstöcke, a plantation or nursery of trees, of vines; junger oder neuer — [a fresh laid vineyard], a young or new set of vines; [with sportsmen] V. Horn—; [with miners] ein — Gezäh, a wedge and two springs; [also the three pounding-stamps or pestles in a stamping-mill-trough] crushing or pounding stamp and gear or works; [in physics] galvanischer — [plates of zinc &c. with saturated leather or cloth between], galvanic pile, the galvanic battery. 3) [any faculty of the reasoning powers or understanding expressed by words, as] thesis, theme, position, proposition, period. Allgemeiner, besonderer —, general, particular or peculiar thesis, proposition; Sie verstehen den — nicht recht, you do not understand the thesis right; einen — aufstellen, vertheibis-gen, to advance, to sustain or defend a proposition, a thesis; ein sehr gewagter —, a very hardy, a very venturesome proposition; ein falscher —, a false or erroneous proposition; ein allgemein angenommener —, a proposition universally received; ein —, der sich umkehren läßt, a convertible proposition; umgekehrter oder Wechsel—, a proposition the converse of another; zusammengesetzter —, a complex proposition; einen — verdammen, to condemn a proposition; es war eine Ketzerei in einem seiner Sätze, there was a heresy in one of his positions; gewisse religiöse Sätze, certain religious tenets; — aus der Bibel, a passage, text from or out of the bible; ein — aus der Sittenlehre &c., a point of morality &c.; — [in grammar], period; dunkler, schön abgerundeter, großer und wohlgeordneter —, an obscure or dark, a well rounded off or turned, a long, well-sustained or well arranged period; einen — bis zu Ende lesen, to read a passage to the end, to finish a period. 4) [with sportsmen, those mots that are blown in a breath upon the horn] the winding of a call. 5) [different terms] spring, leap, bound, caper. Er that einen großen —, he made a great bound; er, das Pferd war mit einem — über dem Zaune, dem Graben, with a single bound he, with a single leap the horse cleared the hedge, the ditch; dies Pferd macht nichts als Sätze, this horse does nothing but prance and caper; die Sätze des Hirsches, the springs of the stag; der Hirsch machte mehrere Sätze, the stag made several bounds; fig. Sätze machen [in fam. lang.], to wriggle about like an eel in one's excuses &c., to make subterfuges; [with tanners] — des Leders in die Fohgrube, the tanning of the leather in the tanpit; — [in music], the composition; Händel's, Graun's, Bach's —, the composition of Haendel, of Graun, of Bach; um gut zu singen, muß man den — verstehen, one must understand composition or thorough-base, if one wishes to sing well.

Satzbaum, m. V. —stock. —fisch, m. spawn, young fry. —hase, m. [with sportsmen] doe-hare, brood-hare [big with young]. †herr, m. [in jurisprudence, the judge who puts the creditor in possession of the goods of the debtor] a bankrupt-judge, an insolvent-commissioner. —karpfen, m. [for filling a pond or removing to another] carp-fry, young carp, brood-carp. †leute, pl. [in court-practice] witnesses. —löffel, m. [with foundrymen] iron spoon. —maß, n. [in artillery] V. Radmaß. —mehl, n. [Bo-denmehl] starch; [in pharmacies] secula. —meißel, m. [with locksmiths] [for driving home the rivet-nails] the clincher or rivetter, the rivetting chisel, the rivet-turnscrew. —möhre, f. [with gardeners] the seed-carrot, carrot left for seed. —rübe, f. seed-turnip, turnip left for seed. —stod, m. willow-set, willow-offset, willow-twigg planted for growth and for transplanting. —stück, n. [in court-practice] part, article. —teich, m. fish-pond. —weide, f. V. —stock. —weise, adv. 1) by fits and starts. 2) [in strata and beds] by piles, pile-fashion. 3) [in discourses or propositions] by theses or by periods. —zeit, f. [with sportsmen] breeding-time [for game]. —zwiebel, f. V. Samenzwiebel; it. [with gardeners] onion or any bulb for transplanting.

Säßig, adj. and adv. that which has or forms a deposit or sediment; [in medicine] forming a subsidence or deposit.

Satzung, f. statute, ordinance, precept, commandment, rule, constitution; institution, law. Meine —en sollt ihr halten [in Scripture], you shall observe my commandments; menschliche —en, human institutions; kirchliche —en, ecclesiastical laws, church observances; die —en des mosaischen Gesetzes, the mosaicschen —en, the observances of the mosaic law, the mosaic ordinances; die —en der Christen, the tenets of the Christians; die —en eines geistlichen Ordens, the constitution, the statutes, the laws, the rules of a religious order, of a monastic institution; die —en in Glaubenssachen, the dogmas, the tenets in articles of belief. V. Kirchen—, Menschen—, Reichs—.

Satzungslehre, f. the dogmatic system, the precepts of one's creed. —los, adj. and adv. without regulation, rule &c.; without constitution. —recht, n. positive right, absolute right.

1. Sau, Säue, f. [a river in Hungary] the Sau, the Save.

2. Sau, f. [pl. Säue or [with sportsmen] Sauen] [Swed. so; Engl. sow; Ice. syrr, the sow, the swine; Gr. ūs appears to belong to ūs, that is qūw, used causally and equivalent to „to engender“; Schwein is the more polite word for the common pig] pig, hog, swine; [with sportsmen] wild boar; wild hog, wild swine; [also] the sow, the wild sow. Eine Herde Säue, a herd of swine, a drove of pigs, a troop of hogs; die Säue hüten, to guard, to mind the pigs, to keep or to tend swine [as in a forest]; die — hat geferkelt, the sow has littered, has brought forth a litter of pigs, has pigged, has farrowed; die — mit ihren Ferkeln, the sow and her pigs, her sucking pigs, her young ones, her farrow, her litter. Prov. Wer sich unter die Treber, unter die Kleien mengt, den fressen die Säue, if you will live with a hog, you must expect to have bristles; if you sleep with dogs, you must expect to be bitten by fleas. Fig. [very low] a) dirty slut, filthy sow, nasty slattern, a dirty trollop. Die garstige —! the filthy sow; eine dicke —, a thick greasy wench. b) [an ink-stain] a blot. Eine — machen, to make a blot. c) [name for certain other things or conditions, where however the word might have another origin] [with foundrymen] a sow of black or impure copper, [if of 250 pounds of weight in England] a pig of black copper; [also] Säue [at the melting of copper, those slacks or slags still holding much ore] sows, pigs, sweepings; das Erz sitzt in der —, a part of the minerals is lost in the slags; eine — machen or das Silber in die — jagen [with foundrymen], to work bunglingly; [with refiners, swelling up of the ashes in the cupel, or when it scorifies] scoria; [in launders or buddles] a basin to catch the parts of the mineral which escape from the buddle-table; [with miners, block, on or to which is hung the tree of the winch or coal-gin on which the wagon is] bar for stopping the movement of the axle; [in fabrics] a stove for drying madder, a madder drying-kiln; [in household economy &c., a pan with cover and feet] a tripod pot with lid, a lidded pot on legs.

Sauzaas or —as, n. [with bakers, millers] pollard. —apfel, m. V. Holzapfel. —auge, n. 1) a pig's eye, hog's eye. 2) [in botany] the herb paris, uva vulpis, uva lupina, wolf's berries or grapes, lycostaphylae, true-love. Fig. —balg, m. 1) [very low] hoggish beast of a man, a hog, a pig.

 2) [in botany] red goose-foot, chenopodium, sow-bane. — bär, m. [||—bäh], V. 3. Eber. — beere, f. night-shade, morel with dark berries. — beller, m. boar-hound. — birn, f. V. Hotbirn. — blume, f. the dandelion. — bohne, f. 1) [in botany] [in the fields] sow-bean; [in gardens] a sort of windsor-bean, broad-bean; it. horse-bean; V. Bilsenfraut. 2) [in conchology] the molar, the horse-bean shell. — borste, f. V. Schweinsborste. — brod, n. 1) V. Erbsapfel. 2) cyclamen, sow-bread. 3) lathyrus arvensis. — bruch, m. [with sportsmen] the rooting place of a wild boar. — bürste, f. [in nat. hist.] the bristly horn-beam, the rough horn-fish, [one of the genus esox, called also] rough-garfish, sea-needle. — bistel, f. 1) sonchus, sow-thistle. 2) the carline, the carline thistle. 3) serratula, saw-wort. 4) wild endive, field andryale [of the genus cichorium]. — breck, m. [low] the excrement of swine, pig-dirt. — essen, n. [low] pig-eating, filthy hoggish eating. — fang, m. 1) chase, hunt, capture of the wild-boar. 2) V. — garten. 3) a blow, thrust, pierce with boar-spear or boar-pike, hog-spearing. — fänger, m. V. — besser. — fenchel, m. V. Rosfenchel. — finder, m. V. — besser. — fisch, m. the dolphin; it. V. — hund 2). — fleisch, n. V. Schweinfleisch. — fräß, m., — fressen, n. [very low] V. — essen. — garn, n. [with sportsmen] toils for boar-catching. — garten, m. [with sportsmen] park or enclosure for the wild-boar, and where he also captures himself by entering. — glocke, f. V. Schweinglocke. Fig. [low] Mit der —glocke läuten, to talk smut, to be filthy and obscene in one's conversation, to utter obscenities. — gras, n. [in botany] 1) V. Poršč. 2) centinodium, knot-grass. — has, — heße, f. baiting or hunting of the wild-boar. — hirt, — hüter, m. a swine-herd, hog-herd, a tender of porkers or swine, pig-driver. — hirtinn, f. a female swine-herd, a woman pig-keeper, tender or guarder. — hund, m. 1) a wild-boar hound, V. — besser. Fig. [low] filthy sloven, nasty beast. 2) [large cartilaginous fish of the Mediterranean] sea-fox, sea-ape. — hundarbeit, f. 1) [with sportsmen] training or breaking in of a dog for boar-hunting or baiting. 2) Fig. [low] V. Sauerei. — hüter, m. V. — hirt. — igel, m. V. Schweinigel. — jagd, f., — jagen, n. V. — has. — kanne, f. [vessel for holding the hog-wash] the hog-tub. — kastanie, f. V. Erdbuß. — kasten, m. cage for transporting wild-boars from one park to another &c. — kerl, m. [low and insulting] filthy beast, pig, hog, a beastly piggish fellow, rascal, blackguard. — knoten, m. V. — fraut. — koben, m. [low] V. Schwein-koben. — koch, m., — köchin, f. [low] a beastly, dirty, uncleanly cook, a paltry cook. — koth, m. V. — breck. — kraut, n. 1) [of the genus cichorium or succory] sow-endive, the herba costa of the Germans and Swiss, pectoral spotted hypocheris, [with long roots] hog-lettuce. 2) the great scrophularia, great blind-nettle, fig-wort. 3) V. — gras 2). 4) the great nightshade, bella-donna. 5) V. — bohne 2). 6) the herb-paris, true-love, uva-vulpis. 7) great cow-parsnep. — la che, f. [in which the wild swine wallow for cooling themselves] bog. — leben, n. [low] Ein —leben führen, to lead a hoggish, a piggish life of it, to live like a hog. — leder,

n. 1) V. Schweinsleder. 2) Fig. [term of insult and very low] slut, slattern, quean, dirty bitch, a lousy strumpet. — locker, m. V. Schwarzfischchen. — löffel, m. [in botany] pond-weed, potamogeton. — magen, m. 1) pig's stomach, pig's belly. 2) Fig. [low] a) a man with a gluttonous, indiscriminating appetite. b) a stomach that can bear with or digest every thing. Er hat einen —magen, his stomach is of a miraculous digestive power, bears with every thing eatable, he has the stomach of an ostrich. — mandel, f. V. Erbsmandel. — markt, m. V. Schweinemarkt. — maß, f. V. Schweinemaß. — melde, f. V. Schweinmelde. — mensh, n. [low] V. — leder 2). — milch, f. sow's milk. — mist, m. pig-dung, pig-ordure, pig-dirt. — mutter, f. V. Mutterschwein. — neß, n. Fig. 1) [in agriculture] part of a field untouched by the plough. 2) [low] a pig-sty of a dwelling, a pig-nest of a building, a paltry or filthy little town, village or place, [in England] an Irish cabin or village. — neß, n. V. — garn. — nickel, m. [low] beastly sow of a woman, filthy low street-walker, dirty bitch. — ohr, n. 1) [low] pig's ear; it. V. Schlappohr. 2) [in botany] broad-leaved plantain. — pelz, m. [fig. and low] V. — kerl. — rebe, f. V. Bittersüß, n. — reißle, m. black hog-mushroom. — ringel, m. potentilla, argentina, silver-weed. — rübe, m. [in the chase] wild-boar hound or dog, V. Rüdenhund. — rudel, n. troop, herd of wild-boars. — rüssel, m. 1) the snout of a hog. 2) [in botany] V. — ohr 2). 3) V. — blume. — rüsselfisch, m. the sus marinus, capybara, sea-hog. — sack, m. 1) [low] V. Schwartzenmagen. 2) Fig. [low, in a bad sense] V. — magen 2 a). — salat, m. wild lettuce. — schneider, m. [low] V. Schweinschneider. — schwein, n. wild boar, wild hog, wild swine. — schwemme, f. a bog where the wild swine love to wallow, V. — sache. — spieß, m. [with sportsmen] the boar-spear, the boar-pike. — stall, m. [low] V. Schweinestall. Fig. V. — neß 2). — stecher, m. [with sportsmen] wild-boar stickler. — stein, m. V. Stinkstein. — steller, m. [with sportsmen] dog trained for baiting or bringing the boar to bay. — stock, m. [with miners &c.] block on which the dirty water of the buddles runs. — sumpf, m. [with miners] a bason for receiving the dirty water of the buddles. — tanne, f. 1) lycopodium, club-moss. 2) V. Poršč 1). — tanz, m. [low] a fiddler's green dance, a drunken low dance. — täubling, m. red agaric. — tob, m. [in botany] 1) sow-bane. 2) chenopodium, red goose-foot. — trank, m. 1) [Sautrinken n.] hog's wash, hog-wash. 2) [fig. and low] swill, swipes, hoggish muddy drink. — treiber, m. [low] V. Schweintreiber. — trog, m. [low] V. Schweinetrog. — wild-bret, n. [with sportsmen] the wild boar, flesh of the wild-boar, game so far as relates to wild-swine. — wirthschaft, f. [low] hoggish household, a household of pigs. — wuhle, f. [low] V. Schweinswuhle. — wurz, f. [in botany] 1) great common scrophularia, king's-evil-wort, blind-nettle, fig-wort. 2) water-betony, pile-wort. 3) common senecio, groundsel. 4) white bryony, white jalap or julap, devil's turnep.

Säuber, adj. and adv. [appears allied to the Engl. soppy, and originally to have meant washed, as the Lat. lautus] 1) clean. — e Straße, — es Zimmer, — e Zeller, clean street, clean room, clean plates; — e Kleidung, — e Wäsche, clean dress, clean linen; ein — es Hemd, a clean shirt; — in Kleidung, clean and neat in one's dress, with clean clothes on; er ist immer — und gut gekleidet, he is always cleanly and well clothed or clad; sich — halten, to keep one's self clean; die Kinder — halten, to keep the children clean; er hält sich — in Wäsche und Kleidung, he keeps himself clean both in his linen and clothing. SIN. V. Lauter. Fig. [in fam. or pop. lang.] — mit Etwas umgehen, verfahren, to go soberly to work with any thing, to manage or treat something delicately; sie nähet, arbeitet —, she sews, works cleanly and nicely; — e Naht, clean hem or sewing; [ironically and familiar] ein — er Boegel, Beißig, a rum bird, a queer fish; das ist ein —er Schlingel, that is a proper scoundrel; das ist ein —er Versprecher, that is a proper fine promiser for you now; — e Reden, ein — er Entschluß, fine words! oh! most rare resolution! eine — e Zumuthung, a proper demand that now for a poor fellow, isn't it? 2) [loving cleanliness] clean. Ein — er Koch &c., a clean cook &c. 3) clear. Ist die Küste —? is the coast clear [of guards &c.]?

Sauberkasten, m. [with millers] the bolting-chest or room.

Säuberer, m. [—s, pl. —] a cleaner, a scourer &c.; V. Säubern.

Sauberkeit, f. [of a thing] cleanliness, neatness. Die — der Kleidung, einer Wohnung, the cleanliness of a dress, the neatness of a dwelling; dieser Kupferstich ist mit vieler — gemacht, sehr sauber ausgeführt, this engraving is done with much neatness, is very neatly done.

Säuberlich, adj. and adv. neatly, cleanly. — gekleidet, neatly dressed. Fig. [in fam. lang.] Etwas — anfassen, to handle, to touch something delicately, gently; — mit Etwas umgehen, to go delicately, gently, to work with any thing, to employ sober gentle means about something; [in Scripture] fahret mir — mit dem Knaben Absalom, preserve me my son Absalom.

Säuberling, m. [—es, pl. —e] [little in use] [a man who is excessively scrupulous in the cleanliness of his person] a spruce, dressy man, a spruce bean, a fop, [in England] a beau Brummel, a lady's man. Er macht, spielt den —, he comes the beau Brummel over us, he cuts it as spruce and nice as a female quaker, as a quakeress.

Säubern, v. tr. to clean. Den Mund, die Zähne —, to clean the mouth by rinsing, to clean the teeth; das Haus, ein Zimmer &c. —, to clean the house, a room &c.; seine Kleidung, die Stiefel &c. —, to clean or brush one's dress or clothes, one's boots; sich — [from dirt, from vermin &c.], to clean one's self; ein Bett von Wanzen —, to clean a bed of bugs, to destroy a brood, a swarm of bugs in a bed by cleaning &c.; ein Kind —, to clean a child; eine Wunde, ein Geschwür —, to purify, to cleanse, to clean a wound, an abscess; die Bäume — [of dry branches, of moss], to clean, to prune, to lop, to unmoss trees; einen Acker &c. von Steinen —, to clean a field &c. of stones by picking; das Getreide —, to clean wheat from chaff &c. by fanning, sifting, winnowing; einen Garten, die Gänge eines Gartens —, to clean a garden, the walks of a garden, by weeding, spudding, hoeing &c.; die Bienen — sich [when they fly up and down before the hive on a bright day], the bees take an airing, for cleanliness and purity, Auswittern, III. 2); [with miners] (= den Schutt wegräumen), to clear away, to clean away the rubbish, litter, fragments &c. from where one works; das Land, die Gegend von Landstreichern —, to clean, to cleanse, to rid, to sweep clear the land, the country, the neighbourhood of vagabonds and gipsy fellows. Das —, the cleaning.

Säuberstieb, n. [with millers] [for cleaning the flour] bolting sieve or searce, a meal-bolter.

Säuen, [low] I. v. tr. [to go piggishly to work with any thing] to dirty, to soil, V. Be—, Ver—. II. v. intr. 1) to wallow about in the mud of the street, in the gutters like a hog. 2) to work piggishly. 3) to speak and conduct one's self like a pig, to talk bawdily, and be beastly in one's actions.

1. Säuer, m. [-s, pl. -] [low] a pig in one's speech and actions, a lover of bawdy, smutty, filthy conversation and beastly actions, V. Säuen.

2. Säuer, m. [-s] [with bakers] V. —teig.

Säuer, [Old Sax. and Swed. sur; Fr. sur, Pol. surowy, perhaps allied to sehren = to injure, to damage] adj. and adv. sour, [in chemistry] acid. Unreifes Obst ist —, unripe fruit is sour; —e Frucht, sour, sharp fruit; —e Äpfel, sour apples, apples that are sharp, tart and acid to the taste; —wie Essig, sour, sharp, acid as vinegar; —er Wein, —e Milch, sour wine, sour milk; —e Kirschen, sour, acid, sharp, tartish cherries; die —e Gährung, the acetous fermentation; dieser Trank ist zu —, this drink, this ptisan is too sour, too acid; die Hitze macht den Wein —, the heat makes the wine sour, turns the wine; die Milch wird —, the milk turns sour; der Wein fängt an — zu werden, sticht — auf, the wine begins to turn sour, is getting sharp; —e Gurken, pickled gherkins or cucumbers; das ist zu —, that is too sour, there is too much vinegar in it; —e Brühe, vinegar sauce; —es Salz, —e Flüssigkeit [in chemistry], acid salt, acid liquid; der —e Saft einiger Pflanzen, the acid sap or juice of some plants; —e Milch, turned or curdled milk; die Milch ist — geworden, the milk has turned sour, has curdled; der —e Geschmack, the acid taste, acidity; diese Früchte haben einen —en Geschmack, these fruits have a sour, sharp, acid taste; —er Geruch, sour, acid smell; er ist kein Liebhaver vom —en, he is no lover of sour, of acids. Prov. V. Äpfel. Fig. [in fam. or pop. lang.] a) [unfriendly, crabbedly] —sehen, aus- sehen, ein —es Gesicht, —e Mienen machen, to look cross, sour and crabbed, to make up a face, a look as crabbed, as sour as verjuice; —es Gesicht, —e Mienen, a vinegar countenance, a sour mien. b) [oppressive] Eine —e Arbeit, a crabbed piece of work, a crabbed job; er hat sich die Sache, er hat es sich — werden lassen, he worked hard, he toiled, plodded deeply to obtain his object, to get the business over; das wird mir sehr —, that gives me a great deal of pain, I am hard put to it; er hat es sich — werden lassen, sein Glück zu machen, he had an up-hill game of it to make his fortune; diese Rolle wird mir sehr — werden, this part will be as bitter to me as ashes, will give me a great deal of trouble; das kommt ihm or ihn sehr — an, he finds that a crabbed piece of work for him, that gives him a great deal of bother and worry, [also] he does it most reluctantly, unwillingly; Einem das Leben — machen, to embitter any one's life for him; dieser Sohn macht ihm das Leben sehr —, this son of his embitters his life, is bringing his gray hairs with sorrow to the grave; er macht sich das Leben selbst —, he torments himself, he poisons his own existence, sours his own happiness, renders sour all the happiness of his own life; das Leben wird mir — [in fam. lang.], my life is embittered, the happiness of my existence is soured and turned, life itself is a burthen to me; diese Arbeit kostete mich manchen —en Schweiß [in fam. lang.], this work, this toil, has cost many a weary drop of sweat to my brow; er hat sich manchen —en Wind unter die Nase wehen lassen [low], he has faced many a sharp cutting wind, he has weathered many a gale, he has experienced many bitter mortifications, has had his life soured and embittered by many a mishap on many a time and oft. Syn. Sauer, Herbe, Bitter [all of these words used, of course, in a fig. sense]. We call sauer, the unpleasant sensation proceeding from oppressive toil. Herb and bitter rather imply the painful. What is bitter, proves more lastingly and intensely painful than what is herbe.

Sauerampfer, m. rumex acetosa, sorrel. Der kleine —ampfer, V. Schafampfer. Amerikanischer —ampfer, bladderdock, bladder-sorrel. —ampferbaum, m. 1) the tree-sorrel, rumex lunaria. Der runde blätterige —ampferbaum, the round-leaved wood or tree-sorrel. 2) the sorrel-tree [of the genus Andromeda]. —blau, n. [with vine dressers] [kind of grape] reddish grape, grape of a yellowish brown or faint red colour. —blei, n. chromate of lead. —braten, m. [with cooks] meat baked with vinegar or some acid preparation. —brühe, f. vinegar-sauce. —brunnen, m. 1) mineral source or chalybeate spring generally acidulous. 2) mineral water. Den —brunnen brauchen, to take or to drink the waters; er trinkt nichts, als —brunnen, he only drinks mineral water; der Teinacher, Pyramonter &c. —brunnen, the waters, the mineral waters of Teinach, of Pyrmont &c. —brunnensalz, n. V. Bittersalz. —dattel, f. the tamarind. —dorn, m. the barberry. —eisen, n. brittle black iron; [in chemistry] oxide of iron, carbonate of lime containing iron and manganese. —erde, f. V. —stein. —gras, n. horse-tongue, sword-grass, burweed, a meadow-weed or sort of reed-grass that blisters a horse's tongue. —haltig, adj. and adv. [in chemistry and mineralogy]. —haltige Stoffe, acidiferous substances. —honig, m. [in pharmacies] [wine-vinegar mulled with honey] oxymel. —käse, m. soft curd-cheese. —kirsche, f. agriot cherry, acidulous cherry; it. agriot-cherry-tree. —lee, m. 1) olys, wood-sorrel, the hallelujah plant. 2) V. Schafampfer. —leesalz, n. salt of sorrel, salt of lemons, a super-oxalate of potash. —leesäure, f. [in chemistry] oxalate, oxalic acid. —kobalt, m. mine, lode or ore of cobalt containing iron. —kraut, n. sour-kraut, pickled cabbage. —kraut einmachen, to make sour-kraut, to make pickled cabbage, to pickle cabbage. —luft, f. [in chemistry] 1) oxygen, the base or vital principle of air, air that is deprived of its nitrogen azote, by being dephlogisticated, the acidifying principle. 2) mephitic gas, carbonic gas, carbonic acid gas, [when submitted to the requisite pressure] carbonic acid. —malve, f. the sabdariffa, one of the ketmias in America, cultivated in India, the American mallow. —maul, n. [low] V. —topf. —milch, f. curdled milk. —nickel, m. [in mineralogy] oxide of nickel. —ort, m. [with bakers] the kneading-trough, leaven-corner. —quecksilber, n. sulphuret of mercury, cinnabar, vermilion. —salz, n. [salt formed by the union of an acid with a base] acetate, acid or acetous salt [when the acid and base are equal, a neutral; when acid predominates, a super-salt, and when the base does, a sub-salt]. —sichtig, adj. and adv. [in fam. lang.] sour-looking, crabbed-faced, wry, lemon-juiced, verjuiced, vinegar-looking. Ein —sichtiger Mensch, a morose, screwed-up, sour-looking fellow; warum sind Sie so —sichtig? why do you look so cross, so sour? —stein, m. [in nat. hist.] [a crystalline white and yellowish stone of an acidulous taste found in the environs of Rome] oxypetra, sour-stone. —stoff, m. acid or sour substance; [in chemistry] [the base of vital air] oxygen, the acidifying principle that causes oxidation. —stoffluft, f. V. —luft 1). —süß, adj. and adv. sour-sweet, half sour and half sweet. —süße Frucht, —süßes Getränk, an acidulous, tartish fruit, acidulated drink. Fig. —süße Miene, a face half glad, half sorry, half friendly, half unfriendly; —süße Arbeit, occupation or labour with both agreeable incitements and likewise its drawbacks. —teig, m. sour dough, leaven. Junger, frischer —teig, young, fresh leaven; matter —teig, old, stale, worn-out leaven, stale sour dough; künstlicher —teig, artificial leaven; —teig ansetzen, to set the leaven, to set the sponge; hütet euch vor dem —teige der Pharisäer [in Scripture], beware of the leaven of the Pharisees. —teigler, m. [in church history] [one who tasted leavened bread at the Lord's supper] leavener. —topf, m. [in fam. lang.] a morose pouting fellow, a sulky snarling man. —topfigkeit, f. sulkiness, peevishness, moroseness. —topfisch, adj. and adv. sulky, peevish, morose, sombre, testy, sour. —topfische Laune, ein —topfisches Wesen, a peevish, waspish humour, a behaviour somewhat testy; —topfische Miene, —topfisches Gesicht, a sour countenance, a dogged, sullen countenance. —uran, m. oxide of uranium [found native in pebble or uran ochre]. —wasser, n. mineral water. Rippoldsauer, Selterser —wasser, Rippoldsau mineral water, mineral-water of Selters; V. —brunnen 2). —wasserblei, n. the sulphuret of molybdenum [found in nature]. —wismut, m. oxide of bismuth. —zink, m. [Galmei] oxide of zinc. —zinn, n. oxide of tin.

Säuerach, V. Saurach.

Säuerbar, adj. and adv. acidifiable, capable of being acidified. Das Chromium ist —, chromium is acidifiable.

Säuerere, Säuerung, f. V. Säure, Säuerung.

Säuerer, f. [low] 1) piggishness, beastliness, uncleanness; filthy dirt, filth. Es herrscht in diesem Hause große —, there prevails an especial and excessive state of filth in this house. 2) bawdiness, beastliness, smut. Eine — machen, —en sagen, to commit a beastly act, to talk in a disgusting smutty manner.

Säuerlen, Säurlen, v. intr. [in fam. lang., rather provincial] to be or to become sourish, to be or to become slightly sour or acidulous, to border on the sour. Das Bier, der Wein säuerlet [hat einen Stich], the beer, the wine is getting sourish, has a tinge of acid taste in it.

Säuerlich, adj. and adv. sharpish, tartish, sourish, acidulous, acetous, acetose, acescent. — er Geschmack, — e Brühe, a sourish taste, a sharpish sauce; — e Flüssigkeit, Arznei, Speise, an acescent or acidulous fluid, medicine, food; diese Substanz ist —, hat einen —en Geschmack, this substance is sourish, has a tartish taste; die Limonade ist —, the lemonade is slightly acid, just acidulated; dieser Apfel schmeckt ein wenig —, this apple has a sharpish flavour; — er Wein, acetous, acetose, acescent wine, wine bordering on the sour, turning sour; das —e, the acescence; — machen, to acidulate; Pflanze von —em Geschmacke, a plant of a sourish taste, having an acidulous flavour.

Säuerlich süß, adj. and adv. between sweet and sour, a little tartish, a sherbet flavour, sourish-sweet. — e Pomeranze, a slightly tartish orange.

Säuerlichkeit, f. acescence.

Säuerling, m. [-es, pl. -e] 1) V. Sauerampfer. 2) mineral [acidulated] water, V. Sauerbrunnen. 3) in botany V. Sauerborn. 4) V. Berberis. 5) V. Pfefferschwamm. 6) the small baking-pear.

Säuern, v. intr. 1) to turn sour, to become sour, to be growing or getting sour. Im Sommer sauert die Milch bald, in the summer milk soon turns sour, soon acidulates; den Teig — lassen [with bakers], to set the sponge. Fig. [in pop. lang.] Es ist noch nicht im Gasse, wo es — muß, the affair is not over yet. 2) V. Ber—.

Säuern, v. tr. to make sour. Der Sauerteig säuert den Teig, the leaven makes the dough sour; den Teig — [with bakers], to set the sponge; gesäuertes Teig, leaven dough, the sponge; gesäuertes Brod, the leavened bread, V. Ein—; Wasser mit Zitronensaft —, to acidulate water with lemon-juice.

Säuerung, V. Säurung.

Säufen, [in Armoric souba means to wet, to macerate, to soak; allied to saugen, to suck] irr. v. tr. and intr. 1) [speaking of brutes] to drink. Einem Thiere zu — geben, ein Thier — lassen, to give to drink to a beast, to let a beast drink; das Pferd soff wenig, hat nicht gesoffen, the horse drank little, has not drunk, might or would drink perhaps if &c.; ein Mensch, der Unrecht säuft wie Wasser [in Scripture], a man who drinks up iniquity like water. Fig. [sometimes in poetry, but rather too strong an expression] Die Erde säuft das Blut der Erschlagenen, the earth drinks in the blood of the slain. 2) [of persons who drink to excess] [in a bad sense and vulgar] to sot, to swig, to tinkle, to swill. Gut — können, to drink in style, to be able to drink till all is blue; er thut nichts als —, er säuft gerne, he is fond of tippling, he likes hard drinking, he wastes his life over the cup; er hat zu viel gesoffen, er ist voll, he has drunk too hard; he is as full as a sack, as a tun, as he can hold; — wie ein Loch [very low], to drink like a sand-bag; es sind ihrer drei da, die beständig —, there are three of them there, who are always swigging or guzzling; die ganze Nacht durch —, to pass the whole night in fuddling; er frist und säuft Tag und Nacht, he gorges, he crams and sots throughout the whole four and twenty hours; er hat sich das — angewöhnt, he has got into the habit of drinking hard, of tippling; das ist ein beständiges —, that is a perpetual intoxication; sie konnte das beständige — ihres Mannes nicht länger ertragen, she could no longer endure the constant hard drinking of her sot of a husband; ein unaufhörliches Fressen und —, an incessant guttling and guzzling. Syn. Saufen, Trinken. Saufen signifies to drink in long draughts; hence it is only said of animals, especially those which are accustomed to drink in great quantities and with noise. Said of men, saufen implies to drink to excess. In polite language, however, its use should be avoided.

Sauf=aus, m. indecl. [low] toper, sot. — bruder, m. — brüderchen, || — brüderlein, n. [low] a comrade of another sot, a fellow-topper, a jolly convivial toper. — finne, f. [low] a grog-blossom. — flasche, f. [low] V. — putte. — gelag, n. [low, or in contempt] a noisy drinking bout, a revel, a tippling party. Ein — gelag anstellen, to make a debauch, a carousal, to make a night of it. — genosß, m. [low] V. — bruder. — gesellschaft, f. [low, or in contempt] a tippling party, a set or company of drunkards. — gier, f. [in contempt] the passion for fuddling one's self, the raging thirst after drink. — gurgel, f., — hals, — hanß, m. [low] V. — aus. — held, m. [rather low] a regular hard-drinker, a downright incorrigible drunkard. — krank, adj. and adv. [low] ill, sick from tippling. — lied, n. drunken song, a bacchanalian song. — lust, f. [low] thirst for drink, strong desire of making one's self drunk. — lustig, adj. and adv. [low] desirous of liquor, of getting tipsy. — putte, f. [in seamen's lang.] a demijohn, a tommy, a bottle or case holding 4 or 5 gallons. — pulver, n. hepatic powder. — sack, m. [very low] a toper as thirsty as a quicksand, a hard drinker with a stomach like a sand-bag, an everlasting guzzler. — schulb, f. a drunken score. — schwester, f. [low] a Moll Flagon, a she-drunkard, a low gossip fond of being intoxicated. — sucht, f. [low] V. — gier. — tag, m. [low] a day for getting drunk on, a day for a drinking-bout, a bacchanalian day.

Säufer, Säuser, m. [-es, pl. -] [low] a toper, a fuddler, a tippler, a drunkard, a regular toper. — inn, f. a she-drunkard, [fam.] a female that makes a David's-sow of herself, a she-soaker.

Sauferei, f. [very low] 1) drunkenness. Die — dieses Bedienten, the drunkenness of this domestic; in — wandeln [in Scripture], to wander in, to be addicted to drunkenness. 2) [pl. -en] V. Saufgelag.

Säuge, f. [pl. -n] [with brewers] chimney to a malt-kiln.

Säugeln [Ab—], v. tr. [with gardeners] Bäume —, to engraft trees [by decortication of the sides to be joined, by adhesion and pressure]. Das —, adhesive grafting by removing the bark [opposed to grafting by inserting or cutting the wood].

Säugen, [Fr. sucer, Lat. sugo, appears allied to saufen] irr. v. tr. and intr. 1) to suck. Die Bienen — an den Blumen, bees suck, sip the flowers; den Saft aus einer Frucht —, to suck out the juice from a fruit; das Blut aus einer Wunde —, to suck the blood from a wound, it. to suck out the blood from a wound, to suck a wound; die Bluteigel — sich voll Blut, leeches suck themselves full of blood; der Schwamm, die Erde saugt das Wasser in sich, sponge, the ground imbibes the water, drinks up the water; an einem Knochen —, to suck a bone; der Bär saugt an seinen Taten, the bear sucks his paws. Fig. [in pop. lang.] Etwas aus den Fingern —, to find any thing out of one's self, naturally [without being told], it. [= erfinden] to invent, forge, trump up something; an den Hungerpfoten —, to be ravenously hungry and too poor to buy the necessaries of life, [fam.] [in England] to dine with Duke Humphry. 2) to suck [as infants and the young of animals]. An seiner Mutter, an einer Amme, an einer Siege &c. —, to suck its mother, a wet-nurse, a she-goat &c.; das Kind will —, hat gesogen, the child wants to suck, has sucked; die Brust —, an der Brust —, to suck the breast, at the breast, [fam.] to suck titty [if infants, kittens, or pet-animals], to suck the teats, dugs, udder [of large or unpetted animals]; [in Scripture] selig sind die Brüste, die du gesogen hast, blessed are the breasts that have given thee suck; ein —des Kind, Lamm &c., a sucking child, lamb &c., a suckling child, suckling lamb &c. [not weaned]. Das —, the act of sucking, sucking; it. sipping, soaping, it. imbibing, drinking in or up; inhaling with the mouth, with the trunk, capillary tubes &c.

Saug=ader, f. [in anatomy] absorbent vessel, one of the absorbents. Die —ader der Därme, lymphatic vessel, one of the lymphatics. — aderblume, f. [widder Hanf] the prickly galeopsis, dead nettle, stinking dead nettle. — aderdrüse, f. [in anatomy] lymphatic gland. — aderlehre, f. treatise on the lymphatic vessels, on the lymphatics. — egel, m. V. Bluteigel. — flecken, m. a red spot made on the skin by sucking. — gefäß, n. V. — ader. — sand, m. [in hydraulics] sand spontaneously adhering to posts. — warze, f. nipple [of a woman]; teat [of animals]. — wurm, m. the cynips.

Sauge=beutel, m. a sugar-titty. — borste, f. [in nat. hist.] bristle of the radicle. — ferkel, n. sucking pig. — fisch, m. [in nat. hist.] 1) [der Bootsmann] the pilot-fish. 2) [der Säuger] the remora, sucking-fish. — flasche, f., — glas, — horn, n. an infant's sucking-glass or horn, sucking-bottle. — kalb, n. sucking calf. — lamm, n. sucking lamb. — loch, n. 1) hole between the tail and the fundament of a badger into which he shoves his nose during winter, badger's pouch. 2) [to a bel-lows] sucker. — mahl, n. V. Saugstücken. — mutter, f. [in hydraulics] lateral forcing or working tube to a forcing-pump, mother-pump. — pflanze, f. [Schmarozerpflanze] a parasitical plant, parasite. — pumpe, f. 1) sucking-pump. 2) V. — rüssel. — rohr, n. the pipe, piston-tube or bore [of a pump]. — röhre, f. the sucking or working tube of a forcing-pump; [in anatomy] V. Sauggefäß. — rüssel, m. [of insects] proboscis, trunk. — schale, f. [in nat. history] the sucking scale or skin of fishes belonging to the genus echineis, the exhaustor, sucker. — schwamm, m. sponge. — tochter, f. [provincial] V. Milchtöchter. — werk, n. [in hydraulics] a pump. — werkzeug, n. V. — rüssel. — zahn, m. milk-tooth.

Säugen, v. tr. to give suck, to suckle. Eine Amme hat ihn gesäugt, a wet-nurse suckled him; eine Ziege, die ihre Jungen säugt, a she-goat suckling or having the young at her teats; eine — de Mutter, Kuh &c., a mother, cow &c. giving suck. Das — eines Kindes, the suckling of a child, the giving suck to a child, [in scientific &c. lang.] the lactation.

Säugamme, f. a wet-nurse.

Säugethier, n. a mammiferous animal, a mammifer, a mammal. Die Klasse der — e, the class of the mammalia, of the mammifers or mammals; zur Klasse der — e gehörig, of the mammiferous or mammalian class.

Säuger, m. [-s, pl. -] 1) one who sucks; a sucker; [in husbandry] a sucking lamb, a lamb-suckling. 2) a sucker [of a pump], piston. 3) [in nat. hist.] Der große — [große Schildkröte], the great remora or sucking-fish; der kleine —, the little remora, the limpet-remora, ship-barnacle. 4) [an insect] a sucker, V. Blut-, Weiden—. 5) [in botany] the hydrangea.

Säuger, m. [-s, pl. -] [in seamen's lang.] a ring for the stay-sails.

Säugerinn, f. [little used] a woman suckling or giving suck; it. V. Säugamme.

Säugling, m. [-s, pl. -e] a child still at the breast, a suckling, it. a child [out] at wet-nurse. Er war noch ein —, als &c., he was still at the breast, not yet weaned, when &c.; diese Amme liebt ihren —, wie ihr eigenes Kind, this wet-nurse, foster-mother loves the child she is suckling as much, as if it was her own.

Säuisch, adj. and adv. [low] beastly, hoggish, piggish, swinish, filthy, nasty, foul, sluttish. — er Mensch, a filthy wretch of a fellow, a dirty brute or beast; — es Weib, a dirty slut, a filthy trollop, a nasty, beastly wench, a slovenly hussy; careless jade, a Moll-trollop; er lebt —, he lives like a hog, he leads a wallowing, a pig-sty life of it; wie dieser Koch die Speisen so — zubereitet! how nastily this cook paws and fumbles the victuals, the food [in preparing or dressing it]! geht doch nicht so — damit um! don't be handling that, meddling with that in such a nasty, dirty manner!

Säulbaum, m. [-es, pl. -bäume] [with timber-merchants] a tree fit for carpenters to make posts out of.

Säulchen, n. [-s, pl. -] 1) [dim. for kleine Säule] a little column or pillar. 2) [in botany] the columel. V. Säule.

Säulchenförmig, adj. and adv. [in botany] columellar. — tragend, adj. and adv. columellar, columniferous, columnar. Eine — tragende Frucht, a fruit containing a columel.

Säule, f. [pl. -n], dim. Säulchen, n. [-s, pl. -] [comes from the old sal, sal = to come high; Fr. saillir; Lat. salio; in old Swed. sula is a mountain; in Goth. suljan means to prop] a pillar, V. Bild-, Denk-, Feuer-, Grenz-, Hage-, Rauch-, Schand-, Spitz-, Wolken-; [in anatomy] die — des Zwerchfelles, the pillars of the diaphragm or midriff; [in architecture] a column. Eine viereckige —, a pier, pierdroit, square pillar; hölzerne, marmorne, eberne —, a wooden, marble, bronze column; ein auf — ruhendes Dach, roof resting upon columns; gewundene, geriefte or gereifelte —, a wreathed, twisted column, a fluted column; glatte, schraubenförmig gereifte —, plain or smooth column, spiral-fluted column, twisted and fluted column; gemauerte —, column of masonry; freistehende, gekuppelte —, isolated, insulated, insular, solitary column, geminated, bijugous, yoked or coupled column, a single, double column; — ohne Gesims, a cippus; — mit einem Kreuze oben, a cruciferous column; —, welche die Figur eines Thieres trägt, a zoophoric column; — mit einem Äschenkrüge, a funeral column; — mit einem Bilde or eine Bild-, a statuary or honorable column; — n, welche an die vier Winkel eines Pfeilers anschließen, cantoned columns; ein Gebäude, dessen Ecken mit — n &c. geziert sind, a cantoned building; ein auf vier — n ruhendes Gebäude, a tetrastyle; die fünf Arten von — n, the five kinds or orders of columns; eine Reihe von acht — n, an octostyle; zwei Reihen — n, two rows, two orders of columns; eine Reihe — n, welche das Auge nicht zugleich [auf einmal] fassen kann, a polystyle colonnade; römische —, a column of the composite order; die Hälfte des Durchmessers einer —, the module of a column; eine — aufrichten, to raise, erect a column; den Fuß zu einer — machen, to make pedestal for a column; der Würfel an einer —, the plinth; it. die — n an einem Himmelbette, the pillars, columns, posts of a four-post or English bedstead; die vier — n am Rutschenhimmel, the four columns, pillars, supporters, pierdroits to the imperial of a carriage; die vier — n am Tappetenweberstuhle, the four feet or legs of a tapestry-loom; [with watch-makers] die vier — n, Säulchen des Uhrblattes, the four pillars of a watch-plate; [in physics] galvanische —, V. Saß; [in nat. hist.] — eines Schneckenhauses, the interior columnar axis of a snail-shell, columel; [in botany] das Säulchen [Samen-], the columel.

Säulenbau, m. 1) the erection, building, construction of a column, of columns. 2) the manner of constructing columns, structure of a column, of columns. 3) a building sustained by or resting upon columns. — baum, m. V. Säulbaum. — blume, f. a columniferous flower. — dick, adj. and adv. thick as a column. — förmig, adj. and adv. in the form of a column or pillar, columnar. — fuß, m. base, pedestal of a column or pillar. — gang, m. colonnade, colonade; [in architecture] peristyle. Der — gang der Peterskirche zu Rom, the colonnade or peristyle of St. Peter's at Rome; ein — gang umgibt das Schloß, a peristyle surrounds the castle or palace. — gesims, n. V. — knauf. — glied, n. member of a column. — halzele, f. colonnade; it. a hall, large room or gallery supported by columns or pillars. — haupt, n., — knauf, m. capital of a column or pillar. Korinthischer, ionischer &c. — knauf, Corinthian, Ionic &c. capital. — kopf, m. V. — knauf. — franz, m. fillet or listel, astragal, orle, girdle or cincture of a column. — freis, m. round colonnade, peristyle. — kupplung, f. 1) the grouping of columns. 2) group of columns, grouped columns or pillars. — laube, f. [bedeckter — gang] portico. — ordnung, f. [in architecture] order of architecture. Die dorische, ionische — ordnung, the Doric, Ionic order; die toskanische und die zusammengesetzte or römische — ordnung, the Tuscan and the composite order. — platte, f. plinth, abacus. — raum, m. V. — weite. — reihe, f. row of columns, colonnade. — saal, m. V. — halle. — schaft, m. shaft of a column. — schört, m. [in mineralogy] columnar shorl, tourmalin, turmalin, tourmal. — spath, m. prismatic spath. — stein, m. [in mineralogy] basalt. — stellung, f. [in architecture] arrangement of the columns. — stuhl, m. [in architecture] pedestal, stylobate. — thor, n. gate resting upon columns. — weite, f. [in architecture] intercolumniation. Es giebt fünferlei Arten von — weiten, there are five sorts of intercolumniations; die schöne — weite, the eustyle. — werk, n. colonnade; it. columnar remains. Das — werk am Eingange ist großartig, prächtig, the colonnade at the entrance is grand, magnificent. — zierath, m. ornament, decoration of a column.

Säulen, v. tr. Ein Gebäude —, to adorn, garnish, ornament, furnish an edifice with columns.

1. Saum, m. [-es, pl. Säume], dim. Säumchen, || — lein, n. [-s, pl. -] [appears allied to sa, sa = to unite or cement] [= Rand] hem, border, rim, brim, edge. — eines Mantels, Unterrockes, Kleides &c., the hem of a cloak, petticoat, dress &c. Fig. Der — eines Waldes, Feldes, einer Felsenwand, edge of a forest, border of a field, brink of a precipice; [with semstresses] der — eines Hemdes &c., hem of a shirt &c.; runder, platter, breiter —, round, flat, broad hem; einen — machen, to make a hem; — am Tuche, list, selvage of cloth, V. Saßband; ein Säumchen, little edge, little hem; [in seamen's lang.] — eines Segels, the edge of a sail, canvass-edging; der — [in architecture], fillet or listel, astragal, orle, girdle or cincture [of a column]; der — [Gurt or Ueberschlag] des äußersten Umfangs der Schnecke am ionischen Capitale, the girdle, cincture of the Ionic volute; der — [in heraldry], orle [of a shield]; [in botany, conchology, astronomy &c.] — eines Blattes, einer Schnecken-schale, der Sonne, margin, edge of a leaf, of a snail-shell, limb of the sun; [with blacksmiths] the part where the metal is soldered, seam; [in nat. hist.] das Säumchen, cask-shell; das doppelte Säumchen, decussate whelk; das geflochtene or gefaltete Säumchen, the small curled casket.

Saumbaum, m. [in woods and forests] [Grenzbäum] a tree on the edge of a forest or wood, a boundary tree. — farn, m. V. Adlerfarn. — flosse, f. 1) marginal fin. 2) the marginated labrus or scarus. — latte, f. a length-lath [for wind-mills]. — naht, f. [with semstresses, tailors] hem. — schicht, f. [with tilers] row of tiles fringing the roof or the laths of the eaves. — schwele, f. [with carpenters] sablier, raising-piece, plate, sell. — spinne, f. [Cumpspinne] the fringed spider, the ash-grey spider with three white lines upon the corselet. — tau, n. [in seamen's lang.] [Leit] bolt-rope, leech-rope.

2. Saum, m. [-es, pl. -e] [something gathered up, collected up, as it were, = a burthen, a weight, a seam; in Swed. some, Ital. soma] seam. Ein — Wein, a measure of about 160 bottles of wine; ein — Tuch, twenty two pieces of cloth.

Saumesel, m. an ass employed for burthens, a pack-ass; a sumpter-ass. — ochs, m. an ox of burthen. — pferd, — roß, n. a sumpter-horse, a pack-horse. — sattel, m. pack-saddle. Einem Esel &c. den — sattel auflegen, to put the pack-saddle on a sumpter-ass &c. — sattler, m. a maker of pack-saddles, a pack-saddler. — thier, n. sumpter-horse, sumptermule, [rarely] sumpter-ass, an ox of burthen.

1. Säumen, v. tr. [with semstresses] Ein Halstuch, Handtuch &c. —, to hem a neckkerchief, a handkerchief; [with carpenters] einen Baum — [viereckig behauen], to hew a tree square with the adze; gesäumte Bretter, planks or boards cut out from a squared tree; ein Brett —, to dress a board on the bark-side with the adze by the chalked or ruddled line. Das —, the trimming square, the dressing of wood with the adze or hatchet.

2. Säumen, [Ice. söma, Swed. suma, Fr. chômer, to keep or take a holyday] I. v. intr. to delay, to drawl, to lag, linger, tarry, crawl or creep about any thing. Ich will es thun und nicht —, I will do it and not linger, delay, drawl, go lazily to work about it, I will do it out of hand, without delay, with all speed, without stopping; säume nicht, feinen Augenblick! don't delay, tarry not an instant! haste, not a moment is to be lost! säumet nicht, es zu thun, don't delay doing it, you had better lose no time in putting it into execution; man darf damit nicht —, that brooks no delay, it admits of no sluggish or indifferent see-saw acting or doing; man hat mit der Hilfe zu lange gesäumt, help, succour, timely assistance, auxiliary aid has been too long delayed, put off, postponed, neglected; er säumte nicht, ihm zu antworten, zu kommen &c., he tarried, hesitated not to answer him, did not linger &c. coming to him. II. v. refl. [aufhalten] to stop, to delay, to postpone. Sich —, to delay, to dawdle, to lag, to linger, to dally; säume dich nicht! don't delay! tarry not! [fam.] don't stop! don't be lagging! er hat sich keinen Augenblick gesäumt, he has not delayed an instant. Das —, delaying, delay, tarrying, the drawling &c. about the performance of any thing, lagging, dawdling, dallying. SYN. Säumen, Saudern, Säubern. We säubern, when we dally with or merely postpone from time to time the commencement or completion of any task; we Saudern, when we do not begin it quickly through a want of energy or resolution, and we säumen, or put off through dread of the concomitant labour, or from feeling our strength unequal to the work to be performed.

1. Säumer, m. [-s, pl. -] 1) [unusual] a stitcher of a hem or hems, a hemmer. 2) the owner, it. driver of sumpter-beasts. 3) V. Saumthier.

2. Säumer, m. [-s, pl. -], —inn, f. [not much used] V. Trändler, a lingerer, delayer, tarryer, dawdler, drawler, laggar, dallyer.

Saumhaft, adj. and adv. [unusual] slow, tardy.

Säumig, adj. and adv. tardy, laggard, slow. — seyn, to be slow, negligent, lazy, [fam.] to be a slow-coach; —er Bezahler, a bad paymaster; er zeigt sich — in seinen Geschäften, he is negligent, dilatory in his affairs, [fam.] lets the grass grow under his feet. V. Saumselig.

Säumigkeit, f. V. Saumseligkeit.

Säumling, m. [-es, pl. -e] V. Trändler, a lazy, sauntering, indolent, negligent, sluggish, dawdling fellow, a lag-last, a humdrum, a drone; a trifler, a dallyer.

Säumniß, f. [pl. -ße] or —, n. [-ßeß, pl. -ße] 1) procrastination, dilatoriness, delay, slowness, negligence, neglect. Der — fliegen sie mich an, they reproach me with procrastination, with delay. 2) a hindrance, delay, obstacle, [in law] let or hindrance, [fam.] drag-chain.

Saumfal, n. [-es] [obsolete] V. Saumseligkeit.

Saumselig, adj. and adv. slow, lazy, negligent, indifferent. In seinen Angelegenheiten, Geschäften — seyn, to be neglectful of one's affairs, business; — bei seiner Arbeit zu Werke gehen, to go lazily to work about what one has to do. V. Säumig.

Saumseligkeit, f. slowness of disposition, a putting-off disposition, procrastinating humour, negligence, neglect, indifference.

Saurach, m. [-es] [from sauer] the barberry, barberry tree.

Säure, n. [-n] V. Sauer, adj.

Säure, f. [pl. -n] 1) sourness, tartness, acidity. Die — des Essigs, Weines, Zitronensaftes &c., the acidity of vinegar, wine, lemon-juice &c.; dieser Wein hat viel —, this wine has or contains much acidity, is very sour, tart, rough; ein Apfel von angenehmer —, an apple of an agreeable acid, sharp or tart flavour; — im Magen, acidity in the stomach. 2) [saurer Stoff] Eine scharfe —, a sharp acid; die — im Magen, the acid in the stomach; er hat eine schlimme — im Magen, he has too much acid in his stomach, there is too much acidity in his stomach; seine Krankheit rührt von einer sich im Magen anhäufenden — her, his illness proceeds from too great a presence of acid in the system, in the digestive organs, in his stomach; ein die — brechendes, dämpfendes Mittel, absorbent remedy, an absorbent; [in chemistry] —n, the acids; minerische, vegetabilische — [Pflanzen—], thierische —, a mineral, vegetable, animal acid; färbende —, V. Blau—; preussische —, V. unter Preussisch; V. Arsenik—, Borax—, Essig—, Fluß—, Kohlen—, Phosphor—, Salpeter—, Salz—, Schwefel—, Weinstein—, Wolfram—, Zitronen—.

Säurebildend, adj. and adv. acidifying. [in chemistry] —bildender Stoff, the acidifying principle, oxygen. —brechend, adj. and adv. absorbent. —brechendes Mittel, absorbent remedy, an absorbent. —fäbig, adj. and adv. V. Säuerbar. —haltend, adj. and adv. acidiferous; —haltende Stoffe, acidiferous substances.

Säurenstoff, m. V. unter Säure bildend.

Säursen, V. Säuerlen.

Säurung, f. the act of making sour, of leavening &c.; acidification.

Säus, m. [es] [in popular language] [das Säusen, Gesäusen] noise, humming &c. Fig. V. unter Braus.

Säusel, m. [-s] [only used in poetry] Der — der Luft [in poetry, but rather obsolete, and now more frequently das Säuseln], the gentle agitation, low cadence, whispering, sighing of the breeze, murmuring or rustling of the Zephyr or west-wind. V. Gesäusel.

Säuseln, I. v. intr. 1) to murmur, sigh, whisper, complain [as the air]. Der Wind säuselt in den Blättern, the wind murmurs in the foliage. Das — der Lüfte, der Westwinde, the whispering of the breezes, of the west-winds, Zephyrs; das — der Bäume, the rustling of the trees. 2) to move, fly with a rustling, flapping, whizzing sound. II. v. intr. and tr. to lull, to hush. Ein Kind in den Schlaf —, durch — in den Schlaf bringen, ein —, to lull a child or hush a child off to sleep, to make a child fall asleep or feel drowsy by humming a low ditty, singing a lullaby.

Säusen, [allied to säuseln] v. intr. 1) [u. w. haben] to whistle, sigh, howl [as the wind]; to hum, to buzz [as bees]. Der Wind bläset woher er will und du hörst sein — wohl [in Scripture], the wind bloweth from whence it listeth and thou hearest the sound thereof; die Kugeln sauseten, the balls whistled; der Pfeil saufete durch die Luft, flog — durch die Luft, the arrow hissed, whizzed through the air, flew whistling through the air; die Ohren — ihm, his ears ring, sing, tingle. Das —, the noise, whistling, humming, buzzing; das — des Windes, the whistling, howling of the wind; das — in den Ohren, the ringing, singing in [the] one's ears; das — und Brausen des Kochwassers, the bubbling and walloping of boiling water. 2) [u. w. seyn] [daher —] to come at full pelt; [of a carriage &c.] to rattle, rumble up or off. Gesaufet kommen [fam.], to come tearing along, to arrive in an obstreperous or noisy manner. SYN. Säusen, Brausen. Säusen indicates every sound of the wind or of the agitated air, which, in its smallest degree, is expressed by the diminutive säuseln. Brausen indicates the noise occasioned by the motion of a denser fluid, as, for instance, of water, or by a violent wind.

Säusehorn, n. [in conchology] whelk, triton, buccinum. —laut, m. whistling sound. —wind, m. impetuous howling wind. Fig. [in fam. lang.] a giddy-pated person, a flighaway, a flighty being.

Säuser, m. [-s, pl. -] 1) [not used] a person who hums, makes a noise. 2) V. [the more usual expression] Säuselaut.

Säve, V. 1. Sau.

Savoyard, m. [-en, pl. -en], —inn, f. a Savoyard.

Savöhen, n. [-s] [in geography] Savoy.

Savöher, m. [-s], —inn, f. a Savoyard.

Savoyer Kohl, m. [Wirsing] Savoy-cabbage.

Savöyisch, adj. and adv. Savoyard, of Savoy. Die —en Gebirge, the mountains of Savoy; —e Sprache, the language of the Savoyards.

Sbirre, m. [-n, pl. -n] [hässlich, the Italian sbirro] [frequently either in emphatic style or comically] archer, sergeant, constable, tip-staff.

Scabiöse, f. [pl. -n] [Grindkraut] the plant scabious, scabiosa.

Scala, f. [pl. Scalen] V. Scale.

Scälde, m. [-n, pl. -n] [perhaps from the Ice. skilja, to see into, to inspect] a poet amongst the old Northmans or Scandinavians, a scald.

Scäle, f. [pl. -n] 1) [Gradleiter] scale. 2) [in music] [Tonleiter] scale, gamut. Die —n or Treppen der Schnecke im Ohre [in anatomy], the osseous processes of the cochlea in the ear, scala; die innere, äußere —, the internal, external scala [of the cochlea].

Scäles, m. [in anatomy] [Hirnschalenhaut] pericranium, epicranium.

Scälp, m. [— or -es, pl. -e] [chiefly of the North-American Indians] scalp. V. Hirnschädelhaut, Kopfhaut.

Scälpell, n. [-s, pl. -e] [Zergliederungsmesser] a scalpel-knife.

Scälpiren, v. tr. [of the North-American Indians] Einen —, to scalp any one.

Scamöniun, n. [-s] V. Scamönenharz.

Scamonien-harz, n. [with druggists] scammony. Aleppisches, Smyrnisches-harz, scammony of Aleppo, of Smyrna. — kräut, n. V. — winde, — saft, m. V. — harz. Mit Quitten und Schwefel zubereiteter — saft, scammony prepared with quinces and sulphur, diagyridium. — winde, f. [a plant] scammony.

Scandal, n. and [rather low] m. [-s, pl. -e] [bad word] [Uergerniß, Unflöß, Lästerung] scandal; it. [low] a row, a scandalous, shocking action.

Scandalisiren, [bad word] v. tr. [ärgeren &c.] to scandalize. Sich über Etwas —, to take offence at a thing, to be shocked, vexed at a thing.

Scandinavien, n. [-s] [in geography] Scandinavia.

Scandinavier, m. [-s, pl. -] a Scandinavian.

Scandinavisch, adj. and adv. Scandinavian; in the manner &c. of the Scandinavians.

Scandiren, v. tr. [with poets] Einen Vers &c. —, to scan a verse &c.; er hat diese Verse falsch scandirt, he has scanned these verse wrong. Das — or die Scansion, scanning.

Scansion, f. V. unter Scandiren.

Scapolith, m. [-en, pl. -en] [in mineralogy] = Blätter Bergkristall scapolite, paranthine.

Scapular, n. [-es, pl. -e] [with monks] scapulary.

Scarami, m. [-es, pl. -e] [Ital. scaramuccio] 1) [obsolete] = Handgemenge a skirmish. 2) V. Pickelhäring.

Scarification, f. [Schöpfung] scarification.

Scarificiren, v. tr. and intr. [schöpfen] to scarify.

Scarpe, f. [pl. -n] [in fortification] [Grabenböschung] the scarp.

Scène or Scène, f. [pl. -n] [Auftritt, Schauspiel] scene. Eine ergreifende —, a pathetic scene; eine herzerreißende —, a heart-rending scene; welche reizende —! what a charming sight or spectacle!

Scenerie, f. [pl. -en] scenery.

Scenographie, f. [Riß, Abbildung] scenography.

Scenographisch, adj. and adv. scenographic.

Scepter, V. Zepter.

Schaaf, Schaam, Schaar &c. V. Schaf &c.

Schabatte, f. [pl. -n] [perhaps allied to the old Schapel, Fr. chapeau] [with blacksmiths] the wooden block or stand for the anvil.

Schäbe, f. [pl. -n] [from Schaben] 1) a tool for a scraper; [with bakers] [Trogwarre] scraper, [with potters] the clay-scraper, scraping-knife. 2) V. 2. Kröße. 3) [in nat. hist.] tiny mite dog-louse, blatta, the moth. Die — n sind in diesen Pelz gekommen, haben diesen Zeug angefreßen, the moth has, the mites have got into this fur, have consumed, gnawed away this stuff; die deutsche —, the German cockroach; die ostindische or morgentändische —, the Indian or common cockroach, [in some places] the pantry or miller's black beetle; die amerikanische — [Kakerlake], the cockroach of the Antilles; die lappländische, schwarzgefleckte lappländische —, the black-sprinkled cockroach or blatta of Lapland; it. V. Motte.

Schaben = fräßig, adj. and adv. gnawed by the moth, moth-eaten. — gift, n. white arsenic. — kräut, n. 1) moth-mullein. 2) V. Rainblume 2) 3) V. Porich 2). 4) [Traubenkraut] a kind of chenopodium, germander-hotrys. — loch, n. moth-hole.

|| Schäbe, f. [pl. -n] [from Schaben, or allied to the Engl. shiver = Evstitter] boon, chaff of hemp or flax. Ein Haufen — n, a heap of boon; — n von gehacktem Hanse, Flochse, boon, chaff of hemp or flax; — n [in salterns], flakes, peelings, scales.

Schabelmohre, f. [pl. -n] V. Radelkerbel 1).

Schaben, [Lat. scabo, Gr. σκάπτω] v. tr. 1) [reiben] to rub, scrub; [with tanners] to rub hides with a whetstone or tanner's hone. Sich an Etwas —, to rub, to scrub one's self against any thing. 2) [kräzen] to scratch. 3) to scrape. Brod —, to rasp bread, bread-crust; die Erde von einer Wurzel —, to scrape the earth from a root; ein Fell, Pergamenthäute —, to scrape a hide, parchments-skins; ein Fell or eine Haut — [with tanners], to flesh, pare a hide; die Nägel —, to scrape the nails; ein Faß —, to rasp a tub; Schokolade &c. —, to scrape chocolate &c.; [with engravers] ein Blatt — [radiren] to etch a plate; ein schön geschabtes Blatt, a beautiful etching; die geschabte Manier, mezzotinto engraving. Fig. [in familiar language] Einem ein Rübchen —, to make game of any one by rubbing one's two forefingers together, the one over the other; — und schinden [rather low], to amass and scrape up or together, to collect or hoard by hook and by crook.

Schab-aas, n. [with tanners] flesh and skin, that is scraped off from the flesh-side of the skin, hide-scrappings, hide parings. Das — aas dienet zum Abtrocknen des Leders, the hide-scrappings do for the drying of the leather. — ab, n. indecl. V. Abgeschäbel. — ab im Korne, tare, agrostemma githago, corn cockle. Fig. [provincial] Ein — ab seyn, to be despised, to be a laughing-stock. — bretter, pl. [with carpenters &c.] planks for ceiling. — läser, m. dissector beetle, dermestes. — rübe, f. turnip, turnep. — stein, m. [with tanners] a hone for rubbing the hides with. — zieger or ziegerskäse, m. a Swiss green-cheese [partly prepared from vegetables]. — ziegerkraut, n. [blauer Steinflee] lotus urbana, melilotus, sweet trefoil, bastard balsam of Peru.

Schabe-bank, f. [with gut-spinners] horse or long-stool for scraping the guts. — baum, m. [with tawers] scraping-form or long wooden leg or stool. — blech, n. a shoemaker's point or point-tool. — block, m. [with comb-makers] horse, block. — brett, n. [with tawers] scraping-board or table; [with bookbinders] horse, stove. — degen, m. [with tinmen] dagger for polishing and dressing tin. — eisen, n. [with catgut manufacturers] iron-scraper, tin-rasper; [with braziers] scraper [for scraping off saltpetre &c. from kitchen-utensils]; [with engravers] scraper or burin for the lights; [with various trades] scraper, parer; [with gilders upon leather] paring-knife; [with masons and sculptors] rip; [with tawers] roller, peeler; [with tanners] half-round scraper; — eisen der Stuhlmacher, chairmaker's rasp, scraper. — hals, m. [low] V. Knauser. — hobel, m. shaving or scraping-plane. — kelle, f. [with masons] notched trowel. — kiste, f. [with sugar-refiners] box or case for the sugar gratings. — flinge, f. [in various arts] blade for scraping, paring, rasping, shaving. — frücke, f. [with engravers] V. under eisen. — manier, f. [in engraving] mezzotinto. — messer, n. scraping-knife, paring-knife; [with curriers, tawers] head-knife; [with braziers] V. — eisen; [with bookbinders] scraper, scraping-dag; [in brass-workshops] a scraper. — rübchen, n. little carrot that one scrapes. Fig. [in fam. lang.] Einem ein — rübchen machen, V. under Schaben. — wolle, f. raw-fleece.

Schaber, m. [-s, pl. -] 1) a scraper; one who scrapes; [with tawers] parer; [with parchment-makers] a scraper. Fig. [fam.] V. Knicker. 2) [a tool] a scraper, shaver, parer, rasper or rasp, V. Schabeisen; [with fire-work-makers] scraper, rake; [with gunners] scoop, scraper; [with sempstresses] scratcher; [with dentists] [Zahn-] scraper, teeth-scraper; [in saltpetre-works &c.] scraper.

Schaberei, f. [low] everlasting scraping, rubbing; it. V. Knicker.

Schabernack, m. [-es, pl. -e] [from Schere = to plague] 1) [in fam. lang.] hoax, trick, humming, practical joke. Einem einen — thun, spielen, to play any one [off] a trick, to pass off a hoax, [low] a gammon upon any one; er hat es mir zum — gethan, he has done it to plague, to annoy, to hum me. 2) [in pop. lang.] a joker, a hoaxer, quizzer, [fam.] a wretch.

Schabernacken, v. tr. and intr. [in fam. or pop. lang.] Einen —, to hoax, to hum any one, V. Schabernack. Sie — einander immer, they are always playing off their tricks, mad pranks, horse-jokes upon one another.

Schabernacker, m. [-s, pl. -] [in pop. lang.] V. Schabernack 2).

Schabernackisch, adj. and adv. [in pop. lang.] hoaxishly or hummily inclined, loving fun, tricks, practical jokes, horse-play.

Schäbig, adj. and adv. [in pop. lang.] 1) [beschabt] — es Kleid, a dress worn out or threadbare, a shabby-genteel dress, a dress become shabby; er sieht — aus, he looks very shabby. 2) [fräßig] scabby, itchy, mangy. — er Hund, Fuchs, a mangy dog, fox; er ist — geworden, he has got scabby, mangy. Fig. [knausernd] — er Geiz, sordid avarice, V. Schmußig.

Schablone, f. [pl. -n] [appears allied to the old Schapel, Fr. chapeau] [with workers in stucco] model, mould; [with architects] catenaria; [with gun-founders] [Lehre] gauge, mould.

Schabrücke, f. [pl. -n] [Turkish word] [Fattendecke] housing, saddle-cloth. Ueber das Kreuz hängende —, boot-housing; lange —, long housing; sammetne, tuchene, mit Gold, mit Silber gestickte —, a velvet-housing, horse-cloth, housing embroidered in gold, in silver; [in heraldry] mit einer —, clothed [speaking of a horse].

Schäbsel, n. [-s, pl. -] [in fam. lang.] scraping; [with tawers] scraping; [with bookbinders] paring, shaving. — von Rüben, scraping of carrots, turnips, turnip-scrappings, peelings; — von Einwand, lint.

1. Schäch, m. [-es, pl. -e] [a Persian word signifying king] 1) the shah. 2) a Persian coin; shah, shack. 3) [in nat. hist.] the shah, dial-bird [sort of pica graeca or speckled magpie].

2. Schäch, n. [-es] [das — or Schach, sofel] chess. — spielen, to play chess, at chess; eine Partie — spielen, to play a game at, of chess. it. check! check king! check to the king! — bieten or geben, den König in — bringen, to give check, to bring the king into check, to place or put the king in check; — mit dem Thurne bieten, to give check with the castle; den König aus dem — ziehen, to take or move the king out of check; — dem König! — dem König und der Dame! check to the king! check to the king and queen! — und matt, — matt! check and mate! check-mate! Fig. [in fam. lang.] Einem — bieten, to dare, to brave, to defy any one; Einen im — halten, to keep any one in check, in control, under one's thumb.

Schachbrett, n. 1) chess-board. Die Felder des — brettes, the squares of the chess-board. 2) [in botany] the streaked, party-coloured or chequered stapelia. — feld, n. square of a chess-board. — figur, f. chessman, piece. Die — figuren, the chessmen, pieces, the men; elfenbeinerne — figuren, ivory men or chessmen; es ist eine von den — figuren dieses Brettes verloren gegangen, one of this set of chessmen, one of the men or a man of this chess-board is lost. — förmig, adj. and adv. [in heraldry] checkered, checkee. — maschine, f. V. under — spieler. — matt, adj. and adv. check-mate. Fig. [in familiar language] — matt seyn, to be knocked up, regularly done, off one's legs, done up; Einen — matt machen, to knock any one up, to tire out or down any one, [also] to drive any one into a corner, pin him, nail him, bring him to the scratch, to a dead-stand or dead-halt. — spiel, n. 1) chess, game of chess. 2) chess-men, the men, pieces. Ein — spiel von Holz &c., wooden &c. chessmen. — spieler, m. chess-player. Der künstliche — spieler [— maschine], the automaton chess-player [of Mr. de Kempelen]. — stein, m. [— figur] chessman, man, piece. — tafel, f. V. — brett. — weise, adv. [of plants &c.] in quincunx, it. [in heraldry] chequered, checkered. — zug, m. move [at chess].

Schächblume, f. [pl. -n] fritillary, crown-imperial, the checkered lily.

Schächen, V. Schächten.

Schächer, m. [s] [from the Hebr. sakar] [fam., in contempt] dealing in a [mean or low] Jewish manner, brokering, huckstering, low cheating trade. Sich auf den — legen, to turn a penny by hook or by crook, to huckster, to deal in frippery, to carry on a low huckstering trade.

Schacherjude, m. a Jew, a huckstering grab-all of a Jew, an old-clothes-man.

Schächer, m. [-s, pl. -] [Old Sax. scacan, to push, to shake] [obsolete] robber and murderer, thief. Die beiden —, welche mit Christo gekreuziget wurden [in Scripture], the two thieves, who were crucified with Christ; der bekehrte —, the penitent or good thief. Fig. [in fam. lang.] Ein —, armer, erbärmlicher —, a man poor in mind and pocket, a poor devil, wretch, creature.

Schächerkreuz, n. the gallows, the tree, gibbet; [in heraldry] pairle.

Schacherei, f. [fam.] low brokering, huckstering, dealing in second-hand clothes &c.

Schächerer, m. [-s, pl. -] [fam.] a low dealer, a low petty huckster, who turns a penny where he can.

Schächern, [V. Schächer] [fam.] v. intr. to deal in trumpery and second-hand goods, rubbish &c., to huckster and peddle in the manner of pedler-jews &c. Er hat immer Etwas zu —, he has always something to sell, chop, to turn or get a penny by. Das —, low dealing, huckstering, hawking, buying and selling like a Jew.

Schächfraut, n. V. Pfriemenkraut.

Schächt, m. [-es, pl. -e or Schächte] [appears allied to schicken, gehen, and also to Schicht] 1) [a level, plane] [in woods and forests] Ein — Holz, a part of a field grown over with wood; ein schöner — Holz, a beautiful wood, a land nicely or handsomely wooded; [with land-measurements] cubic measure; it. square measure, of which the thickness is only one tenth. 2) V. — ruthe 3) [Biereck] a square; [with miners] the highest part of the square, orifice of a furnace; [of a mine-pit] shaft; V. Fahr —, Förder —, Runst —, Seiger —, Trage —, Wetter — &c.; einen — abteufen, absenken, to sink a shaft; einen — austonnen, auszimmern, to line a shaft with wood-work; einen — auswechseln, to change the [rotten for sound] lining of wood to a shaft; einen — fassen, to line a shaft with wood-work, [also] to widen a shaft to its required size; den — beleitern, to fix the ladders in a shaft; einen — aufgewältigen, to re-open a closed or dilapidated pit; den — zubühnen, to close or fence over the mouth of a well; den — absfeigern, to sound the depth of a shaft; einen — auf einen Gang absenken, to sink a shaft down to a vein; in den — fahren, to go down the shaft; der — eines Steinsbruches, road or way of a stone-quarry.

Schächtbühne, f. [with miners] the landing-place or stage of a shaft. — erz, n. [with miners] 1) ore detached from the parent-mass. 2) fragment of ore detached in part by the action of fire from the main-lode. — feger, m. 1) a cleaner or cleanser of a shaft. 2) [in nat. hist.] a pond-loach, V. Schlammbeißer. — fuß, m. a measure of a square-foot that is an inch thick. — gestänge, n. [with miners] rods attached to the long poles of a gin or water-engine. — haus, n. [dim. — häuschen, n.] [with miners] the shed over a shaft. — holz, n. [with miners] 1) wood fit for lining a shaft. 2) the wood-work of a mine-shaft. — hut, m. [the word far more in use is Tschako] [in the army] Hungarian cap, tchako. — kappe, f. der Bergleute, miner's cap. — kraut, n. 1) [kind of valerian] behen, cucubalus, the berry-bearing chick-weed. 2) [Pfriemenkraut] common broom. 3) [Färbegewächs] dyer's weed, genista tinctoria, genistella. — latte, f. [with miners] lath for the side-lining of a shaft. — linie, f. [with land-surveyors] the square measure of a line to one tenth of a line in thickness. — loch, n. [with miners] pit at the end of a slate-quarry for the water escaping from the slate-walls. — maß, n. V. Schacht [with land-measurements]. — meister, m. overseer or inspector of the shafts, pits. — müße, f. V. 1) — hut, 2) — kappe. — nagel, m. [with miners] a lath-nail for shaft-miners. — richt, m. [in saltmines, Stollen] gallery. — ruthe, f. measure of a square-yard to a foot-thickness. — scheider, m. [with miners] partition in a climbing-shaft from the top to the bottom. — schiene, f. [with miners] iron-clout or band for the woodwork-lining of the shaft. — schuh,

m. V. — fuß. — stange, f. V. — latte. — stätte, f. [with miners] place of or for a shaft. — stempel, m. [with miners] transversal board or plank of the mine-shaft. — steuer, f. [with miners] shaft rent. — stoß, m. [with miners] the short side of a shaft. — tonne, f. [with miners] a lining-board or plank for or of a shaft. — zoll, m. [with land-surveyors] measure of a square inch to a line in thickness.

Schächtel, f. [pl. -n] dim. Schächtelchen, || Schächtelchen, n. [-s, pl. -] [appears allied to Schacht = a pit; Ital. scatola = a little clothes-press, box] box. Eine hölzerne —, a wooden box; ein Sag or Einsag — n, a set, a pile of boxes [as pill-boxes &c.] V. Sag; eine — voll Aprikosen, a box of, a box full of apricots; Waaren in — n thun, to pack [up] goods in boxes. Fig. [low] Eine alte —, a withered and shrivelled old woman, an old hag, a skinny old jehabel; it. [in sportsmen's language, in jest] an old beast or animal.

Schächtelboden, m. bottom of a box. — borste, f. hog's bristle used by shoemakers. — deckel, m. box-cover, box-lid. — fisch, m. [Buckelisch] African trunk-fish [Ostracion triquetus]. — form, f. 1) box-form, box-shape. 2) box-mould. — gut, n. [with brush-makers] the strongest and longest bristles, the long hairs. — halm, m. 1) [Schaftheu, — stroh] winter shave-grass. 2) [Häckerfannenkraut] horse-tail, equisetum. 3) [stinkendes Schaftheu] aquatic horse-tail, stinking horse-tail. 4) common shave-grass. — heu, n. V. — halm 1). — holz, n. wood fit for making boxes. — främer, m. a seller of pill-boxes, hand-boxes &c. — fraut, n. V. Schafthalm 1). — latwerge, f. V. — salt. — macher, m. box-maker. — malzer, m. the man who paints the wooden boxes. — malzeret, f. 1) manner of painting boxes. 2) a painting on a box, a box-painting. Fig. [rather unusual] a wretched daub of a picture, a sign-post painting. — mann, m. the box-man, V. — främer. — rand, m. V. — schiene. — salt, m. marmalade in boxes. — schiene, f. side of a box, wood or shaving for the cylindrical part of a box. — stock, m. V. — form 2). — zarge, f. V. — schiene.

1. Schächte, v. tr. V. Ein —. Fig. [in fam. lang.] In einander geschachtelte Säge, passages inserted or jammed into one another.

2. Schächte, v. tr. to rub, to polish with shave-grass. Eisenbein —, to give ivory a gloss by rubbing it with shave-grass.

Schächten, v. tr. [chiefly in heraldry] to divide into square compartments, to checker. Geschachtetes Schildhaupt, checkered chief, chief checkee; geschachteter Schild, chequered shield; er führt einen von Blau und Gold geschachteten Schild, he carries a shield chequered azure and or.

Schächten, v. tr. [allied to Schächer] [low, not much used] 1) to slay [as the Jew-butcher]. Ein Kind —, to kill and slay an ox in the Jewish manner. 2) Einen —, to give any one a caning, horse whipping, to tan one's jacket. Fig. to cheat, to chouse any body.

Schächter, m. [-s, pl. -] [with the Jews] a Jew-butcher; the slayer or chief-priest; the priest-butcher of the Jews, of a synagogue.

Schächthalm, m. [-es, pl. -e] V. Schächtelhalm.

|| Schächte, f. [pl. -n] ewe, sheep.

Schäcke, Schäckig, V. Schette, Schettig.
|| Schäcker, m. [-s, pl. -] 1) [Alt. Kram-mersvögel] field-fare. 2) great missel-thrush.

Schädel, m. [-s, pl. -] [from scheiden = to partition, to divide] [Hirnschale] the skull, [fam.] pate, numskull, head-piece.

Schädel = bohren, n. [das Trepaniren] trepanning, trephining. — bohrender, m. [with surgeons] 1) a trepan, a trephine. 2) an operator with the trepan or trephine. — form, f. form or shape of the skull. — förmig, adj. and adv. skull-formed, skull-shaped. — haut, f. the pericranium, [comic] scalp. — knochen, m. bone of the cranium. — lehre, f. 1) craniology. 2) a treatise on craniology. — naht, f. suture of the cranium or brain-pan. — nuß, f. [in botany] annual craniolary. — schinden, n. [an unusual word for Scalpiren] scalping. — stätt, f. [at Jerusalem] the place of the skulls, Golgatha, Calvary, Mount Calvary.

1. Schäden, m. [-s, pl. Schäden] or Schade, m. [-ns, pl. Schäden] [from schaden] damage, injury, wrong, degradation, loss. Dieses Hausgeräth hat einen —, this furniture is injured, spoiled; der durch den Fluß angerichtete or verursachte —, the damage, degradations caused by the river; the wear and tear caused by the river's action; das Wild, der Sturm hat großen — angerichtet, the game, the storm has made, caused great destruction, havoc; ihr Schiff hat in dem Sturme großen — gelitten, their ship has suffered great damage in the storm; der Hagel hat großen — gethan, the hail has done great injury, mischief; [Srs. V. the verb Schaden]; der Miethsmann muß für den während seiner Miethe entstandenen — haften, the party hiring is held responsible for the injury, loss, breakages, deteriorations happening during the time of hire; den — an den zerbrochenen Gläsern &c. dem Wirth bezahlen, to indemnify the landlord for the loss sustained by broken glasses &c.; einen — am Auge, am Kopfe, an der Brust haben or bekommen, to have or receive an injury, [also] to suffer by illness, pain, ulceration &c. in the eye, head, breast; innerer —, internal disease or injury; offener —, external injury or disease; ein alter, unheilbarer —, an old incurable disease; — nehmen, zu — kommen, to come to bodily injury, to receive harm, to get or be wounded; Niemand nahm beim Umwerfen —, Niemand kam beim Umwerfen zu —, nobody was hurt, received injury, got the slightest damage by the upset. Fig. 1) loss of property. Dabei habe ich —, das verursacht mir großen —, I incur a loss or I lose by that, that causes me great injury, detriment, that impairs my means very much; es war mir ein — von hundert Thalern, that was a loss to me of a hundred dollars; das wäre ein zu großer — für mich, that would be too great a loss for me, I can't afford it; seit Kurzem hat er großen — gelitten, he has had a heavy loss, a serious or severe drawback lately; er hat sich mit meinem — bereichert, he has enriched himself at my expence; einen — vergüten, ersetzen, to repair, make good a loss, to indemnify, to reimburse; mir ohne —, without loss or injury, let or damage to me, without prejudice to my interests; [in law] bößlicher —, wilful injury; unersetzlicher —, irreparable loss, irretrievable, irremediable damage; unvermeidlicher —, unavoidable damage, necessary loss or damage; zufälliger —, fortuitous, accidental, casual loss or damage; zugefügter —, loss or damage occasioned, caused, brought about; mittelbarer —, mediate, emergent loss or damage; die Schäden und Interessen, damages and costs, damages with costs; Einen in die Schäden und Interessen, in die Kosten und zum Erfasse des verursachten —s verurtheilen, to condemn any one to the payment of damages with costs; er hat den — selbst tragen müssen, he has been obliged to sustain the damage, the loss himself, [fam.] he has had to pay the piper himself; mit — verkaufen, to sell at a loss under cost-price, to undersell; der Verkauf mit —, selling at a dead loss, under cost-price, underselling; wenn es ohne seinen — geschehen kann, if it can take place without prejudice to him, without entailing injury upon him; welchen unersetzlichen — richtet [nicht or doch] der Krieg an! what irreparable damage, destruction, loss does [not] war produce! 2) [especially = Nachtheil] prejudice, disadvantageous result, detriment, notable damage, injury. Srs. V. Nachtheil. — leiden, to suffer damage; er hat — an seiner Gesundheit, an seinem guten Namen gelitten, he has suffered in his health, good name; his health, his good name, reputation or character has suffered, been impaired; Ausschweifungen thun der Gesundheit großen —, excesses do great harm, injury to the health, excesses impair, harm, affect, derange, prejudice, touch the health materially; das wird Ihnen keinen — thun, that won't do you any harm; das thut mir —, that does me harm, affects or prejudices my interests, causes me injury, acts to my detriment; seine Flucht that der ganzen Familie —, his flight turned [out] to the detriment of, operated to the prejudice of, acted prejudicially to, had disastrous, unfavourable or baleful results for the whole family; prov. durch — wird man klug, misfortune teaches us to be wise, we learn wisdom by bitter experience, our heads grow wiser at the expence of our bodies; eine Sache zu Anderer — mißbrauchen, to use any thing to another's harm, prejudice; prov. wer den — hat, darf für den Spott nicht sorgen, he who loses must expect to laugh on the wrong side of his mouth, the party losing must pay the piper; prov. besser nachgeben, als — leiden, it is better to bend than break, timely concession saves much disgrace, it is better to yield with a good grace; für allen — gut seyn, to be answerable for all the consequences, for any mischief or harm that may ensue; ohne — davon kommen, to come off with a whole skin, without a scratch, with no bones broke, to come off or out scot-free; zu Ihrem, zu seinem —, to your, his prejudice, at your, his expence; das soll dein — nicht seyn, that shall not turn, operate to your disadvantage, that will not be productive of any injury to you, on the contrary; — verursachen, stiften, to do harm, wrong or injury to any one, to cause damage or detriment to any one, to exert a pernicious or baleful influence over the prospects &c. of any one. 3) Schade! [exclamation of regret or sympathy]. Das ist —! that's a pity! ist das nicht —? ach —, —! is not that a pity? oh that is a pity! gracious me! oh dear! es ist sehr —, ewig —, Jammer —, [low] Mord —! that's a great, a confounded pity, a thousand pities! es ist —, daß sie gestorben ist, it's a pity she died; es wäre

—, wenn Sie das schöne Wetter nicht benutzten, wenn das nicht geschehen sollte, it would be a pity, if you did not take advantage of the fine weather, if that should not take place; es ist — um ihn, he is to be pitied, regretted, lamented, I am sorry for him, I feel regret at his loss; — um ihn! the more 's the pity for him! es ist — um ihn, daß er sich nicht besser aufführt, es ist sehr — um dieses Mädchen, daß man es nicht besser erzieht, it is a great pity for him that he does not conduct himself better, it is a thousand pities, it is very much to be regretted that this girl does not receive a better education; [ironically] — um den Ruhm, wenn man dabei Hungers stirbt, glory is a very fine thing no doubt, but what's the use of it to a man dying of hunger? genius is admired, but starves in a garret; fame does not fill a hungry belly or an empty purse; glory is all very fine, but the main chance for me; — für alle Schätze, wenn &c., a fig for all your treasures, for all the riches in the world, if &c. Srs. Schaden, Unheil. Schaden implies an evil arising from the diminution of any good; Unheil, the evil itself, which spreads, in time and space, to an immeasurable extent. Schaden is often tantamount to Beschädigung, as, a Schaden in the foot which hinders one from walking. Unheil is any evil in general.

Schade = geld, n. V. Schadenersatz. — kauf, m. a bad bargain.

Schaden = ersatz, m. indemnification, indemnity, indemnifying, amends, compensation, reparation, damages. — ersatz verlangen, to demand an indemnity, to require reparation. — freude, f. malignant joy. — freund, m. a mischief-maker, a wicked dog, a wag fond of practical jokes. — froh, 1) adj. and adv. rejoicing in the misfortune of others. Ein — froher Mensch, a mischief-maker, [fam.] a practical joker; — frohes Gemüth, a mind taking pleasure in the sufferings of another; — frohes Gelächter, malicious, ill-natured laughter. 2) m. [fam., indecl.] malignant fellow. V. — freund. — frohheit, f. joy at the pain or troubles of others. — geld, n. 1) V. — ersatz; it. V. Schmerzensgeld. 2) money given to guarantee one's self against damage. — klage, f. [in law] complaint. — lust, f. [little used] 1) [Schadenslust] the spirit of destructiveness, the love or organ of mischief. 2) V. — freude. — schätzung, f. estimation, valuation of a damage, casting of damages.

2. Schäden, m. [-s, pl. -] [in nat. hist.] [Weiß] sheat-fish, common silurus.]

Schaden, [appears allied to scheiden, Lat. caedere] v. intr. to injure, to hurt, to harm, to prejudice, to do injury, hurt, harm or prejudice. Zu große Anstrengung schadet, too much exertion is hurtful, is injurious, pernicious; Unmäßigkeit schadet der Gesundheit, debauchery injures, hurts the health; was kann das —? what harm can that do? what does that signify? es schadet nichts [ist gleichgültig], it's of no consequence, it does not signify, no matter! never mind! versuchen schadet nichts, there's no harm in trying, there can be no harm in making the trial; es wird dir nicht —, it won't hurt you, that will not do you any harm; [in Scripture] wenn sie etwas Tödtliches trinken, wird es ihnen nicht —, and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them; das würde mir bei ihm geschehen, that would have prejudiced him against me, done me harm in his good opinion; would have injured my credit [= influence] with him; er sucht mir zu —, he endeavours to injure me; sich gegenseitig or wechselseitig —, to reciprocally or mutually injure one another; das hat mir viel geschadet, that has done me a great deal of harm; er schadet sich nur selbst damit, he only injures, wrongs himself by it; es kann nichts —, wenn Sc., it can't do any harm, if Sc.; eine Bückigung kann ihm nicht — [wird ihm heilsam seyn], a chastisement can't hurt him [will do him good]. Syn. Schaden, Beschädigen, Schaden thun. A thing schadet in so far as it renders the former condition less perfect. Much watching schadet the health. We say equally Schaden thun. A storm can schaden or Schaden thun. Beschädigen refers more especially to physical injury; as, the storm has beschädigt many trees; the lightning has beschädigt his arm.

Schädhaft, adj. and adv. damaged, injured. —es Bein, a bad leg; —e Zähne, rotten teeth; —es Gebäude, Dach, ruinous edifice, damaged roof; —e Grundmauer, —er Balken, ruinous foundation, rotten beam or post; —es Bauholz, rotten timber, touchwood; dieses Gebäude, diese Mauer wird —, this building, this wall is falling to decay, is giving way, is bulging out, is ready to fall.

Schädhaftigkeit, f. eines Gebäudes, einer Mauer &c., the giving way, the falling into decay of a building, of a wall &c.

Schädlich, adj. and adv. injurious, hurtful, prejudicial, disadvantageous, pernicious. —e Speisen, —e Luft, unwholesome food, unhealthy air; der Gesundheit, den Augen —, hurtful, injurious, destructive to the health, to the eyes; —e Arznei, a pernicious remedy; dies Mittel ist — für die Brust, this remedy is injurious to the chest; der Wein ist Ihnen —, wine does not agree with you, is a bad thing for you, is injurious to your constitution; alles —e entfernen, vermeiden, to remove, to avoid every thing hurtful, apt or liable to be injurious; die Kälte ist den Gewächsen —, cold is injurious to plants; —e Thiere, noxious beasts, destructive animals; —e Gewohnheiten, Maßregeln &c., pernicious or bad habits, measures &c.; dem Gemeinwesen —, detrimental, injurious to the public, to the common weal; diese Unternehmung war sehr — für ihn, this undertaking was very disastrous to him; seinem guten Namen, seiner Ehre —, injurious to his good name, prejudicial to his honour; —e Lehre, pernicious invention, doctrine; —er Mensch, a man of dangerous principles; — gesinnt seyn, to have hostile sentiments, to be in a malignant mood, [fam.] to be dangerous, to be bent on mischief.

Schädlichkeit, f. destructiveness, perniciousness, hurtful quality. — der Luft, unhealthiness, unwholesomeness, malignity of the air; Sie werden die — davon einsehen, you will perceive the malignancy, the perniciousness of it.

Schadlos, adj. and adv. indemnified, made free of harm or damage, compensated. Einen — halten, to save any one harmless, to indemnify any one; er hat mich, er hat sich dafür — gehalten, he has indemnified me, he has retrieved his loss, made up his loss upon that, it. er hat sich für dieses [ihm entgangene] Vergnügen &c.

— gehalten, he made up for that pleasure &c.; bei einem Handel, Streite — ausgehen, to come out harmless or without loss from an affair, dispute or litigation; der Verkäufer leistet die Gewähr, den Käufer, wenn das verkaufte Gut in Anspruch genommen werden sollte &c., — zu halten, the seller gives guarantee to save the buyer harmless, should the article sold be disapproved &c., the seller is answerable to the purchaser for the article sold, an article sold is held to be warranted in law. Syn. Schadlos, unbeschädigt, Entschädigt. Unbeschädigt is said of things and persons, schadlos and entschädigt of persons only. Persons are unbeschädigt, when an injury might have happened to them, but has not. Things are unbeschädigt, when they might have become less perfect and useful, but are not so. He who remains schadlos, suffers no loss in his property. We call him entschädigt, who receives some compensation for his loss; he is schadlos gehalten, whose loss is completely made good.

Schadloshaltung, f. indemnity, indemnification, compensation, reimbursement. Er hat so und so viel — bekommen, he has received so much by way of compensation, as indemnity; Einem eine — zustehen, to allow any one a compensation; Etwas als — bewilligen, to accord any thing as compensation.

Schadlosigkeit, f. state of being indemnified. Ich verdanke ihm meine —, I am indebted to him for the compensation I have received.

Schaf, n. [-es, pl. -e] dim. Schäfchen, || Schäflein, n. [-s, pl. -] [allied to the Lat. ovis, to the Lithuan. awis; in Bohem. scope = a wether] sheep. Gemeines —, the common sheep: das wilde, orientalische — [Muffelthier, Argali], the musimon; das kretische —, the Candian goat, the goat of Crete; eine Heerde —e, a flock of sheep; die —e scheeren, to shear sheep; die —e hüten, to tend or keep sheep, to guard the flock. Prov. V. Räubig. Der geduldigen —e gehen viele in einen Stall, people that wish to be accommodating, can easily find room; der Wolf frisst auch die gezähnten —e, though you take all possible care, you may be mistaken in the end. Fig. a) Er hat sein Schäfchen geschoren or ins Trockene gebracht, he is at his ease, he sits upon his own eggs, he has gathered in his corn, he has made his hay when the sun shone, he has made up his mouth; er hat sein Schäfchen geschoren, he has feathered his nest, he has taken care of No. one; [in Scripture] V. Hirt, fig.; ein verirrtet —, a lost or stray sheep, a sinner; das ist ein räubiges —, welches man von der Herde absondern muß, that is a black or scabby sheep, that must be separated from the flock, [fam. in England] that's a low black-guard, who must be sent to Coventry; er ist ein gutes, frommes — [always with the submeaning of a rather circumscribed intelligence or judgment, and a great store of patience], he is a good-natured fellow; ein einfältiges, dummes —, a sheepish fellow, a simple sawney, a simpleton. b) Schäfchen am Himmel, small fleecy white clouds in the sky; es sind Schäfchen am Himmel, der Himmel ist voll Schäfchen, the sky is dappled, curdled, there is a mackerel-sky. c) [in botany] Schäfchen [Räucher], catkin.

Schaf = ampfer, m. [in botany] sheep-sorrel. —art, f. 1) character, nature of sheep. 2) kind, race, breed of sheep. —artig, adj. and adv. of the nature or character of sheep. —bein, n. sheep-bone, shank-bone. —blätter, f. [generally pl.] the rot. Mit den —blättern angestrichen, having the or infected with the rot, scabby. —bock, m. the ram. —bolle, f. sheep-dung, sheep's pellet. —bremse, f. the gad-fly or breeze of sheep. —butter, f. butter made from ewe-milk. —darm, m. sheep-gut [for making strings]. —dieb, m. a sheep-stealer. —diebstahl, m. sheep-stealing. —dromedar, n. V. —fameel 2). —dünger, m. sheep-dung as manure. —egel, m. sheep-fluke or flounder. —enger, m. V. —bremse. —euter, n. udder of the ewe. —fell, n. sheep-skin. —fett, n. sheep's fat, mutton-fat or suet, tallow. —finke, m. the slow stinking black-beetle. —fleisch, n. mutton. —futter, n. sheep-fodder. —garbe, f. [in botany] 1) [Wasskraut] milfoil, yarrow. 2) [Wasserratte] water-aloes. —glocke, f. sheep-bell. —gras, n. V. —schwingel. —gründkraut, n. V. —rapunzel. —haut, f. 1) sheep-skin, a sheep's skin. Fig. [in familiar language] In einer —haut stecken, to be a Tony Lumpkin, a simpleton. 2) [in anatomy] —hautchen, n. amnios. —heu, n. 1) hay good or fit for sheep. 2) [Kannenkraut] sheep-fescue-grass. —hirt, m., —hirtin, f. shepherd, [poetically &c.] pastor [V. the more poetical word Schäfer], shepherdess. —hock, m. [in seamen's lang.] place for cattle from the stem to the windlass, cage. —hof, m. 1) yard, great enclosure for sheep. 2) [Schäfererei] sheep-fold, pin-fold. —hund, m. 1) sheep-dog. 2) the grub of the chafer. —hürde, f. fold, sheepfold, pen. —husten, m. [in common people's language] a dry husky weak cough. —hütte, f. V. Schäferhütte. —fameel, n. 1) [Kameelziege] the lama. 2) [dromedar] the wild, Peruvian sheep. 3) the pacos, the brown lama of Peru, alpagna. —käse, m. cheese made from ewe-milk. —kerbel, m. wild chervil. —knecht, m. an under-shepherd. —kopff, m. V. —schopf. —koth, —kothel, m. V. —lorbeere. —kraut, n. 1) grass &c. good or fit for sheep. 2) [in botany] a) the blue meadow-speedwell. b) hairy broom. c) the Tartarian lamb. —kropff, m. [with veterinary surgeons] sheep's maw. —lamm, n. female lamb. —laub, n. foliage, leafy branches for sheep. —lauf, m. circular gamboling, running or chevying of sheep. —laus, f. 1) sheep-louse. 2) V. —zäcke. —leber, f. sheep's liver. —leberegel, m. V. —egel. —leck, f. [in rural economy] salt-lick for sheep, a sheep-lick. —leder, n. sheep-skin, sheep-leather. Ein Buch in —leder einbinden, to bind a book in sheep. —ledern, adj. and adv. of or in sheep-leather. —lederne Handschuhe, Hosen, gloves, breeches of sheep-leather. —linse, f. 1) bladder-nut, it. bladder-nut-tree, bastard senna-tree. 2) the variegated hatchet-vetch. —lorbeere, f. [—koth] sheep-dung, sheep-pellet. —lunge, f. the lungs of a sheep, sheep-lights. Fig. Eine —lunge haben [in common people's lang.], to have weak lungs, a pulmonary weakness. —mäßig or —mäßig, adj. and adv. [in fam. lang.] like a sheep, sheepish. Eine —mäßige Miene haben, —mäßig aussehen, to have a sheepish air or mien, to look sheepish; sich —mäßig betragen, to conduct one's self like a simpleton; die Menge ist —mäßig, sie thut —mäßig, was sie Andere thun sieht, the multitude are like sheep, they act like a flock of sheep, do what they see others do, [fam.] with the multitude it is always one fool makes many. —maul, n. 1) sheep's face. 2) [in botany] a) small valerian, corn-salad, lamb's lettuce. b) escharole, Batavian endive. —meister, m. master-shepherd. —milch, f. V. —säde. —milch, f. ewe-milk. —mist, m. sheep-dung, it. sheep-dung as manure. —mülle, —mülbe, f. —müllm, m. [Kreuzbaum] the agnus-castus. —mummel, m. V. Kreuzbaum. —mutter, f. V. Mutter. —nuß, f. the great walnut. —orgel, f. V. Schäferpfeife —pelz, m. 1) the skin and fleece of a sheep. 2) a sheep-skin worn as a covering, cloak or mantle, a sheepskin-cloak. —perrücke, f. [with wig-makers] a woollen wig. —pferd, m. a sheep-fold, pen or cot. —pilz, m. [in botany] 1) the red boletus. 2) the orange-boletus. —pöde, f. V. —blatter. —rapunzel, f. sheep-scabious, scabiosa. —räude, f. V. Räude. —refel, m. V. —rüde. Fig. [low, insulting appellation] sneaking cur, mongrel, whelp. —rippe, f. 1) a sheep's rib. 2) V. —jarbe. —rüde, m. a shepherd's poodle-dog, a shaggy sheep-dog. —saite, f. string made from sheep-gut, a fiddle-string. —salbe, f. sheep-ointment. —saug, n. a sheep's eye. Fig. [in pop. lang.] a sheep's eye, unmeaning, stupid eye, an eye without expression of soul or mind. —scabiose, f. V. —rapunzel. —schaf, m. a poll-tax on sheep. —schelle, f. sheep-bell. —schinkel, m. 1) sheep's leg; [in cookery] leg of mutton. 2) [in seamen's lang.] a sprit-sail. —schere, f. sheep-shears. —scheren, n. sheep-shearing. —scherer, m. —schererin, f. a male or female sheep-shearer. —schur, f. 1) sheep-shearing. Die —schur vornehmen, to shear the sheep. 2) time or season for shearing sheep, sheep-shearing, shearing-time. In der —schur, während der —schur, during shearing-time. —schwingel, m. [Hartgras] sheep fescue-grass, stubble-grass, festuca ovina. —sgesicht, n. Fig. [in fam. lang.] sheep's-face, sheepish face; it. booby, calf, lout. Er sagte das mit einem —sgesichte, he said that with a sheepish, stupid air. —shirn, n. brain or brains of a sheep. Fig. [low] V. —skopf. —skleid, n. clothing of a sheep. [in Scripture] Hütet euch vor den falschen Propheten, die in —skleidern zu euch kommen, beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing; ein Wolf in —skleidern, a wolf in sheep's clothing. —skopf, m. a sheep's head. Fig. a) a horse with a head like a ram's. b) [low] a dunce, a booby. Hält er mich für einen —skopf? do you take me for a fool? —sköpfig, adj. and adv. Fig. [rather low] weak-minded, silly, [fam.] very soft. —smäßig, —smaut, V. —mäßig &c. —snase, f. 1) a sheep's nose. 2) Fig. a variety of the apple, la haute bonté. —spiel, n. game of fox and geese or „who stole the sheep“. —suppe, f. [in botany] silvery alchimilla or lion's-foot. —stall, m. stall or stable for sheep, sheep-cot or pen. Der Wolf ist in den —stall gebrochen, the wolf has broken into the sheep-fold [also used in a figurative sense] —stand, m. sheep-flock, sheep-walk or run. Dieses Gut hat einen großen —stand, this estate feeds a great many head of sheep, this property has a large sheep-run or pasture. —sterben, n. mortality amongst sheep. —stoppe, f. V. —schwingel. —stroh, n. straw for sheep. —täubling, m. the green agaric. —trieb, m. 1) sheep-walk or run. 2) right of sheep-pasture. —trift, f. V. —weide. —vieh, n. sheep as stock or farm-stock, ewes, wethers and rams collectively. —wasser, n. [in anatomy] liquor of the amnios [in the afterbirth]; it. [with dyers] the moisture of sheep's intestines employed as a cotton-dye, sheep-water, sikion. —weide, f. sheep-walk, sheep-run, sheep-pasture. —weizen, m. [Botch] the zizany, tare, darnel, hair-grass. —welle, f. [in rural economy] fagots or bundles of leafy ash-twigs for sheep. —wolfe, f. sheep-wool. —zäde, f. sheep-tick, sheep-fag or louse, hippobosca ovina. —zoll, m. a sheep-tax or toll. —zucht, f. the breeding of sheep. —zunge, f. 1) a sheep's tongue. 2) [in botany] [Mittelsweigerich] great plantain; it. lamb's tongue, white plantain.

Schäfschen, n. [-s, pl. -] little sheep. dim. of Schaf, which see.

Schäfschenblume, f. [Löwenzahn] dandelion.

Schäfe, f. [pl. -n] V. Zuckererbse.

Schäfel, sch. v. refl. [as the sky does] [somewhat unusual] to become dappled or mottled, to have mackerel-clouds.

Schäfen or Schäfen, adj. and adv. of or belonging to a sheep.

Schäfer, m. [-s, pl. -] —inn, f. shepherd, shepherdess. Junger —, a young shepherd, a shepherd-boy or swain; junge —inn, a young shepherdess, a shepherd-girl or maid; — [with poets = Liebhaber] swain, —inn [= Geliebte] sweetheart, mistress. Ein treuer, zärtlicher —, a faithful tender swain; eine flatterhafte —inn, an inconstant shepherdess, a fickle or false mistress.

Schäferamt, n. —beruf, m. profession, calling, vocation of a shepherd, vocation to a shepherd's life. —bube, m. V. —fnabe. —dichtart, f. pastoral poetry. —dichter, m. —gedicht, n. V. Hirtenlied &c. Gessner's —gedichte, the pastoral poems, eclogues of Gessner; Aminta, ein —gedicht von Tasso, Aminta, a pastoral poem by Tasso. —flöte, f. a shepherd's flute. —gesang, m. V. —lied; it. V. —gedicht. —gespräch, n. V. Hirten-gespräch. —haus, n. a shepherd's house. —hund, m. shepherd's dog, sheep dog. —hütte, f. 1) hut or cabin of a shepherd. 2) V. —farren. —junge, m. V. —fnabe. —farren, m. shepherd's cot. —fnabe, m. a shepherd's boy; it. a shepherd boy, a young shepherd. —fnacht, m. a shepherd's man, an under-shepherd. —leben, n. shepherd's life; [in poetry] Arcadian life; pastoral life; nomad life. —liebe, f. pastoral love, love of the shepherds. —lied, n. pastoral lay, song, shepherd's ditty. —lust, —lustbarkeit, f. diversion, amusement of shepherds. —mädchen, n. a shepherd's daughter, it. a shepherd girl, a young shepherdess. —musik, f. shepherd's strain, pastoral music. —name, m. a shepherd's name. Damon, Phyllis &c. sind —namen, Damon, Phyllis &c. are pastoral names, the names of [poetical] shepherds and shepherdesses. —nuß, f. 1) [Erdeiäpfel] earth-nut. 2) [der rothe Steintrock] dropwort, red saxifrage, filipendula. —ordnung, f. regulation for shepherds. —pfeife, f. [Schäfergeißel] shepherd's bagpipe, reed. —rohr, n. [chiefly in poetry] shepherd's reed. —roman, m. a pastoral romance or novel; [in the drama] a pastorelle. —stab, m. shepherd's staff or crook, sheep hook. —stück, n. [in music] pastorelle, a pastoral air, lay or piece. —stunde, f. [in the belles lettres style, and often also in fam. lang., in jest] the hour of shepherds, the shepherd's hour, the hour that makes lovers happy. Die —stunde naht, ist gekommen, hat geschlagen, the hour of the shepherd approaches, is come, has struck. —tanz, m. shepherd's dance; it. [in music] a Sicilian, a Sicilian rondo. —tasche, f. V. Hirtenstasche. —welt, f. pastoral, rural life. —wohnung, f. the dwelling of a shepherd. —wolfe, f. wool taken as a perquisite by shepherds, and of a better quality than peasant's wool. —zeit, f. the good times when the shepherds of the poets lived, the reign or era of the pastoral life, the golden age of shepherds, Arcadian epoch.

Schäferrei, f. 1) sheep-walk; it. sheep-fold, sheep-cot. Ein Gut mit —en, an estate, a farm with sheep-walks, with sheep-grounds or pastures. 2) V. —gedicht.

Schäferlich, adj. and adv. pastoral. —es Leben, pastoral life; —er Name, pastoral name, shepherd's or shepherdess' name.

Schäff, n. [-es, pl. -e] Schäffel, m. [-s, pl. -] V. Scheffel.

Schäffen, [allied to schöpfen, perhaps also to schaben, so also to the Lat. scabo, Gr. σκαίρω &c.] reg. and irr. v. intr. [in familiar or popular style] to do, to make, to work. Mit seinen Händen —, to do, to make with one's hands; an einem Baue —, to work at a building; er hat viel zu —, nichts zu —, he has much to do, his hands full, he has nothing to do, his hands empty; was haben Sie zu —? what have you got to do? Einem zu —geben, to give any one something to do, to give any one work, occupation, labour, a job; was hat er in der Stadt zu —? what has he to do in the town? er hat hier, an diesem Orte nichts zu —, he has nothing to do here, he has no business in this place. nobody wants him here; mit ihm habe ich nichts zu —, will ich nichts zu —haben, I have nothing to do with him, I will have nothing to do with him; damit habe ich nichts zu —, mag ich nichts zu —haben, I have nothing to do with it, I am not going to have any thing to do with it; was schaffst du? what are you doing? er hat mit diesem Mädchen zu — [in common people's lang.], he has to do with this girl; er hat mit dieser Frau zu —gehabt, he has had an affair with this woman; sich viel zu —machen, to give one's self plenty to do, much ado; er hat immer viel, sehr viel, überaus viel zu —, he has always plenty to do, he is always very busy, overwhelmed with business; er macht sich immer mit Dingen viel zu —, die &c., he is always meddling with things, which &c.; er macht mir viel zu —, he gives me plenty to do, gives me much trouble, bothers me excessively; sie macht ihrer Mutter viel zu —, she gives her poor mother plenty to do, keeps her mother on the move, on the look out; dieser Austritt machte dem ganzen Hause viel zu —, this scene set or put the whole household in movement, gave much occupation to the whole house; wenn du ihn beleidigst, wird er dir viel zu —machen, if you affront him, he will work you pretty hard, bring the house about your ears, make the house too hot to hold you; ich werde ihm zu —machen, I will work him up, touch or stir him up with the long pole, I will give him a bone to pick, I'll give him a hitch or a tangled skein to unravel; diese Nachricht macht ihm doch zu —, this news moves him not a little, puts him on the sidget, makes him think seriously. II. v. tr.

1) to transport, to bring, to procure, to provide, to furnish, to produce. Etwas an Ort und Stelle —, to bring or transport something to the place named; alles Nöthige ins Haus —, to furnish the house with every thing needful; Einem ein Pferd, Geld &c. —, to procure any one, to provide for any one, to furnish or supply any one with a horse, money &c.; sich Kleidung &c. — [more usual an—], to provide or furnish one's self, to fit one's self out with clothing &c.; Einem eine Wohnung — [more usual ver—], to procure a lodging for any one, to furnish any one with a lodging; Einem Linderung —, to give solace, consolation to any one; [in Scripture] schaffe uns Brod, give us bread; Einen aus dem Hause —, to dislodge any one, to eject any one from the house, to turn any one out of doors; alle seine Bedienten aus dem Hause —, to dismiss, to turn away all one's servants; ich habe mir einen Theil meiner Arbeit vom Halse geschafft, I have got through, got rid of a part of my work, V. under Hals; Einen aus dem Wege —, to remove any one, to get rid of any one, to put any one out of the way, [to effect his absence by removal, abduction or assassination]; Rath, Hülfe —, to counsel, to find means, an expedient, a remedy; da will ich schon Rath —, I will find out a remedy for that; I'll set that to rights; Einem Ruhe, Frieden —, to procure any one repose, peace; Einem Recht —, to render or do any one justice; er hat sich selbst Recht geschafft, he has done himself justice, has taken the law into his own hands; er hat sich Ruhe geschafft, he has given himself repose; he contrived not to be disturbed again; das schafft nichts, that is of no use, that is of or that produces no effect, void of all utility in the affair in question. 2) to create, to make, to produce. Gott hat alle Dinge aus Nichts ge-, God created, made all things out of nothing; er schuf den Menschen nach seinem Bilde, he created man in his own image; die —de Kraft, the creative power. Fig. Neue Wörter, ein neues Heer &c. —, to create new words, a new army; neu geschaffene Stelle, a newly created place or berth; [in Scripture] schaffe in mir ein reines Herz, create in me a pure and upright heart; die Dichter haben die Götter ge-, the poets created the Gods; ein —der Geist, a creative genius. III. v. tr. and intr. [in seamen's lang.] to eat, to get one's grub or prog. Das —, die Schaffung, creation.

Schaffsack, m. [in common people's lang.] V. Arbeitsbeutel.

Schaffenskraft, Schaffungskraft, V. Schaffende Kraft [under Schaffen], Er schaffen, Er schaffen.

Schaffer, m. [-s, pl. -] —inn, f. [little used] V. Schaffner.

Schafferei, f. 1) [das Schaffen] [fam., but not much used, in a bad sense] Eine erbärmliche —, a pitiful job, a sad bungling, miserable piece of work. 2) [little used] V. Schaffneret.

Schaffner, m. [-s, pl. -] —inn, f. house-steward, purveyor, purse-keeper, caterer, [female] housekeeper; [in a monastery] manciple, bursar, [also] steward, intendant; [in some private mansions] butler, head butler; [in some parts of Germany] church-steward; [in Scripture] da es Abend ward, sprach der Herr des Weinberges zu seinem —, and evening being come, the lord of the vineyard spoke to his steward; [provincial, in a mail-coach = Conducteur] guard; [provincial, in an inn] cellarman, head waiter, book-keeper.

Schaffnerei, f. 1) stewardship, office of a steward, receiver &c. 2) dwelling of a steward &c. 3) district, range of a steward &c., stewardship.

Schaffot, n. [-es, pl. -e] [probably from schaffen = rüsten, and so = Gerüste] [Blutgerüst] scaffold; [in seamen's lang.] place of the hind-castle, place before the waist-ladders of the gangway between the quarter-deck and fore-castle.

Schäft, m. [-es, pl. Schäfte] [from schaffen, to fashion, to make] shaft. Der — des Spießes, der Hellebarde, the shaft or staff of the pike, halbert; ein Stoß mit dem —e, a blow with the staff, shaft or handle; der — eines Federkiels, the stalk, shaft, stock or stem of a quill; der — einer Säule, the shaft of a column; [in rural economy &c.] der — eines Baumes, the stem, shaft or trunk of a tree; der — des Leuchters, the stick or shank of the candlestick; der — eines Bergbohrers, the shank or shaft of a miner's auger, mining-drill or trepan; der — des Ankers, V. Anker —; der — des Steuerruders, the main-piece or shaft of the rudder; der — eines Stiefels, the leg of a boot; der — einer Nadel, the shaft or body of a needle; der — eines Bohrers, the shank of an auger, wimble, centre-bit &c.; der — eines Schloßriegels, the shaft or body of the dead-bolt of a lock; der — eines Schießgewehres, the stock, mounting of any fire-arm; einen — an eine Flinte machen, to new-mount or new-stock a gun; [with gunners &c.] der — eines Stückwischers, the shaft of the maulkin or sponge; [in heraldry] mit einem — e von anderer Farbe, futé; [in botany] stalk; [with surgeons, rather unusual] the yard, the penis, genitals; [with ropemakers] die Schäfte eines Taues, the strands of a rope; [with masons] pier-wall; [in seamen's lang.] der — des Schiffes, the knee of the head, the cut-water; der — eines Taues [Ducht], strand of a rope; [with locksmiths] der — eines Schlüssels, the shank of a key; [with weavers] [halber Gang] a half-reach; it. die Schäfte [with weavers], the comb tringles, cogs or teeth.

Schaftsauge, n. [with weavers] the comb-tringle ring, loop or eye. —baum, m. [in botany] the spathelia of Jamaica. —bock, m. [in artillery] the sledge or trestle to a gun-carriage. —draht, m. [with pin-makers] pin-wire. —förmig, adj. and adv. stalk-formed, in the shape of a shank, stem, shaft or trunk, [in botany] scapiform. —gesimse, n. [in architecture] the inferior cornice of the shaft to a column. —halm, m. [in botany] 1) [Schachtelhalm, Pferdeschwanz &c.] horsetail, shave-grass. 2) [Kannenkraut] pewter-grass. —heu, n. V. —halm 2). Stinkendes —heu, stinking horse-tail. —holz, n. wood for stocks to guns &c.; [in architecture] wood coarsely cut for shafts. —leisten, m. [with shoemakers] [Stiefelbrett] boot-tree, boot-last. —modell, m. [with gunsmiths] wood-model, [with pinmakers] box for cutting the pin-wire into pin-shanks. —nadel, f. [with cap-makers &c.] bodkin, [with hosiers &c.] turning-needle. —pflock, m. [generally in the pl.] [in upright looms] iron-pins with a catch. —schneider, m. [with pinmakers] the shank-cutter. —spiegel, m. [Pfeiler Spiegel] pier-glass.

Schäften, Schäften, v. tr. to stock, to mount. Ein Schießgewehr, einen Hobel &c. —, to mount, to stock any fire-arm, to put on the stock to a plane &c.; eine Flinte neu —, to new-stock, to remount a gun, einen

Spieß —, to put on the shaft to a pike-head; [in heraldry] geschäftet, stocked, mounted, futé; [schwarz geschäftet, futé sable]; [in woods and forests] gut geschäfteter Baum, a beautifully trunked tree, a tree with a handsome or straight stem or trunk; [in sportsmen's lang.] wohl geschäfteter Hund, a dog that has a good barrel; [in seamen's lang.] ein auf 50 Kanonen geschäftetes Schiff, a ship pierced for fifty guns, a ship mounting or carrying 50 guns, a 50 gun ship; [in sportsmen's lang.] eine zersprungene Leine —, to splice a broken line. Das — einer Flinte, the mounting, putting on the stock of a gun.

Schäftig, adj. and adv. [of ropes] V. Zweie —, Drei —, Vier — &c.

Schäh, or Shāwī [pronounced Schahl], [-es, pl. -e] a shawl, ladies' shawl.

Schākal, m. [-s, pl. -e] [a Hebrew word which also means a fox] the jackal, chacal, the golden dog. Der kapische —, the Cape jackal; der kleine — [in Spain], the little jackal, the Barbary dog.

Schāke, f. [pl. -n] [Low. Sax. Schake is Schenkel] [with pinmakers] a link of wire nearly like a figure of 8; [in seamen's lang.] link to a chain.

Schakenholz, n. [with pinmakers] piece of wood with two tags or pegs for forming the figure-of-eight chain-links. —kette, f. V. Schake.

Schākel, m. [-s, pl. -] [in seamen's lang.] V. Schake.

Schāker, m. [-s, pl. -] —inn, f. 1) wag, merry rogue, a rattle, playful dog, romp, frolicsome girl, hoyden, tom-boy. Das ist ein kleiner —, that is a little rogue, young wag; was will der —? what does this young dog want? 2) [Schert] [in popular lang.] jesting, quizzing, play, romping. Seinen — mit Jemand haben, to have one's joke with some one, to quiz or banter somebody good-naturedly.

Schākereī, f. [das Schākern] 1) joking, frolic, jesting, waggery, rattling. 2) good-natured quizzing, play. Es war eine bloße —, it was only play, it was a harmless squib; er trieb tausend —en, he played off a thousand tricks, antics, said and did all sorts of funny things.

Schākerhaft, adj. and adv. joking, romping, waggish, playful, frolicsome.

Schākerhaftigkeit, f. waggish, merry, wanton humour, waggishness, playfulness.

Schākern, [perhaps allied to the Lat. jocari] v. intr. to jest, to play the wag, to be full of play, to joke. Er thut nichts, als —, he does nothing but jest, play, romp, talk or do funny things, rattle along is all he does; sie schäkert gern, she likes a romp, loves fun and gayety of heart; sie haben den ganzen Abend mit einander geschäkert, they have been cracking their jokes at one another the whole afternoon, [also] [of man and woman] they have been dallying the whole afternoon; mit einem Mädchen —, to dally with a girl; verliere deine Zeit nicht mit —, don't lose your time in frolicking. Das —, jesting, joking, frolicking, romping, talking and acting funnily, with humour, mirth or light gayety.

Schākwerk, n. [-es] [in seamen's lang.] the joining of the different pieces, out of which great masts and yards are put together.

Schal, [it has been assimilated to schalt] adj. and adv. flat, stale, insipid. —er Wein, —es

Bier, stale or flat wine, beer. Fig. spiritless, insipid, unprofitable; tasteless, pointless, void of acumen, dull. Eine — e Rede, ein — er Spaß, ein — er Kopf, an insipid speech or flat discourse, a stale or empty jest, a shallow head or mind; eine — e Unterhaltung, a dull amusement. [also] an insipid conversation; ein — es und albernes Märchen, an idle silly tale, an empty unmeaning tale.

Schalkeppf, m. V. Flachkopf.

Schal, V. Schel.

Schalbar, adj. and adv. that which can be shelled, peeled &c.

Schalbe, f. [pl. -n] V. Färse.

1. Schale, f. [pl. -n] dim. Schälchen, n. [-s, pl. -n] [allied to the Swed. skyla, to cover, or to the Gr. κοίλος, hollow] 1) [as something covering] shell. Die — n der Früchte und Gewächse, the shells of fruits and vegetable productions; die [harte] — einer Nuß, the shell of a nut; grüne Nuß —, the green integument, rind or shell of a nut; Nüsse aus den — n machen to shell nuts; wenn die Frucht reif ist, öffnet sich die —, when the fruit is ripe, the shell opens; die stachelige — der Kastanien, the prickly or echinated capsule of the chestnut; die — [der Ketch] der Eichel the acorn-cup; die — or Schelfe eines Apfels, einer Birne &c., the skin, peel of an apple, pear &c. V. Apfel —, Zitronen —, Nuß —, Pomeranzen —, Zwiebel —; fig. [in familiar language] Sie halten sich bei der — auf, Sie müssen tiefer auf den Grund gehen, you stop at the outside, the surface, you go only skin-deep, you must penetrate deeper, enter into the spirit [of the law, for instance]; die — n der Muscheln, Schnecken, Krebse, Schildkröten &c., the shells of mussels, snails, crawfish, tortoises &c.; Austern aus den — n machen, to shell, to open oysters; die — des Eies, the shell or shard of the egg, egg-shell; die jungen Hühner laufen nach dem Auskriechen aus der —, chickens run upon creeping out of the shell, the moment they are hatched; V. Hirn —; die — eines Baumes, the rind or bark of a tree; die — n des Firsches, Rehens, Schafes, Schweines &c., [of the bisulcous foot] the edge of the stag, deer, the toe of the sheep, hog &c.; die — n auf den Achsen der Wagen, V. Schalholz 2); die — n an den Messern, the handles of clasp-knives; die — n eines zu Brettern gesägten Blockes, the outer or cheek-boards of a trunk sawn into planks; [in seamen's lang.] die — n der Wange eines Mastes, the fishes of the cheek of a mast; einen Mast mit — en versehen, to fish a mast; [with miners] halbe — n or Schalholzer, board or plank for lining a shaft or pit; [with founders] the shell of a furnace, mould, coat; [in natural hist.] das Schälchen, the acetabulum [of the foot-disk of certain insects]; [with bookbinders] die — eines Buches, the covering, cover of a book. Syn. V. Hülse. 2) [something hollow] cup, [in a more especial sense] = Unterscheide or Unterschalchen saucer, dish. Große —, bowl, tureen; porzellanene, goldene, silberne —, a porcelain, golden, silver bowl, [also] a porcelain &c. cup, [more especially] saucer or dish; eine [große] — mit Suppe, Punsch &c., a bowl or tureen of soup, a bowl of punch; eine — Fleischbrühe, a basin, porringer of broth; aus einer — trinken, to drink out of a cup, bowl &c.; eine —, ein Schälchen Kaffee trinken, to drink or take a cup or dish of coffee; V. Kaffee —, Thee —, Trunk —; Kasse — [fig.], wine, beer &c. with crumbled bread, a roll &c., cold tankard, bishop; die — an einer Wage, V. Wag —; [with braziers] the material or plates for making kettles, coppers &c. 3) [in conchology] [die Scheldemuschel] solen, razor-shell-fish, razor-shell.

Schalblech, n. antitritie iron-plate covering the linch-pin of a wagon; it. iron or capping of the cross-bar. — brett, n. [with carpenters] the outside board or deal of a tree sawed into planks, the slab, flitch, flaw-piece; [in architecture] slab [over the scaffolding of an arch]. — biele, f. V. — brett — erz, n. [with miners] ore removed from the parent-mass; it. ore-fragment not yet quite fallen. — fisch, m. the trunk-fish, ostracion. — gebirge, n. [in geology] a stony layer of a stratified mountain. — gewicht, n. [in commerce] small hundred-weight of Genoa, the cantaro. — haut, f. der Käfer, membrane of the elytra or wing-sheaths of beetles. — holz, n. 1) [in woods and forests] barked wood. 2) wood for coating or lining a ditch; [with miners in the pl.] wood for lining the shaft; [in architecture] staff-laths for a mud-cielling to adhere to; [in artillery, with coach-makers] cross-bar; [with carpenters] V. — brett. — kantig, adj. and adv. [in woods and forests] — kantige Balken &c., posts &c. the edges or corners of which are covered with bark or rind. — muschel, f. [in conchology] lepas, patella, limpet. — o hst, n. shell-fruit. — o hr, n. [with veterinary surgeons] 1) a horse blemished by having too wide an ear. 2) the horse itself, oreillard, wide-eared, lap-eared. — stein, m. a testaceous stone. — thier, n. 1) conchyliiferous, conchiferous animal; [with joints] crustaceous animal; [without joints] testaceous animal. Die Krebse, die Krabben sind — thiere, deren Schale in Gelenke getheilt ist, crawfish, crabs are crustaceous animals, their shell being distributed into joints; die Schildkröten, die Austern gehören zu den — thieren mit harten Schalen ohne Gelenke, tortoises, oysters belong to the testaceae, are testaceous. 2) [living in the water] an ostraceous animal. — thierkenner, m. conchologist, conchyliogist. — thierkunde, f. conchology, conchyliogy. — thierlehre, f. 1) science or knowledge of shells. V. — thierkunde. 2) treatise on conchology. — wage, f. a scale-balance, the scales, a pair of scales. — wand, f. board or plank-partition, partition or wall of wainscoting. — werk, n. 1) eines Deiches &c., the coating or lining of a dike or ditch &c. 2) — werk eines Kornbodens, cieling, ashlering of a cornloft. — wurm, m. crustaceous vermes. V. — thier.

Schalensformig, adj. and adv. cup-formed; [in nat. hist.] crateriform, in the shape of a bowl or porringer. — frucht, f. shell-fruit, fruit with a pod, husk or shell. — häuse, n. the shell or shard [of an animal]. — mehl, n. [with millers] flour that has not passed through the bolter, unbolten flour. — schneider, — schrotter, m. he who puts on the handles or cases of clasp-knives. — thier, n. V. Schaltthier.

2. Schale, f. [pl. -n] 1) V. Kalbs —, Hammels —. 2) [with miners] [Erz —] ore or lode separated or fallen from the parent-mass or vein.

Schalen, v. tr. Ein Messer —, to put on the handles to a clasp-knife, to haft or case a clasp-knife; [in architecture, with masons &c.] V. Be —; das Wer eines Deiches —, to coat or line the side or sides of a ditch or dike with thick boards or stout planks; [in sportsmen's lang.] hoch geschalteter Hirsch, a stag whose cloven foot is high edged.

Schälen, [in Swed. skilja means to portion out, to separate] I. v. tr. Obst —, to peel fruit; geschälte Birnen &c., peeled pears &c.; Nüsse —, to shell nuts or remove nuts from the calyx, it. to peel nuts; die frischen Kerne der Walnüsse —, to peel the kernels of walnuts while still green, to blanch walnuts; Bäume —, to bark trees, to strip off the bark, to peel off the rind of trees; geschältes Holz, barked wood; Gerste, Mandeln —, to peel barley, to blanch almonds; geschälte Gerste, peeled barley; die Färberröthe —, to bark madder; Etwas aus der Haut —, to peel off the skin from, to skin any thing; to blanch any thing; Eier —, to strip off the shell from, to shell hard eggs, it. to take off the cuticle or thin skin of an egg; fig. sie ist wie aus einem Ei geschält, she is as fresh as a new blown rose; ein Stück Land —, to peel off the turf from a plot of ground; das Brod —, to chip off the crust from, to cut the crust off the bread; [with paper-manufacturers] das Papier —, to detach the leaves. II. v. refl. sich —, to shell, to peel off, to scale off [spontaneously], [of snails, oysters &c.] to cast the shell Die Haut schält sich, the skin peels off, scales off, comes off in flakes. Das —, the act of peeling, the scaling &c.; das — der Rinde, the decortication.

Schalblase, — blatte, f. V. Hitzblatter. — eisen, n. iron-tool for peeling any thing. — fisch, m. V. Schellfisch. — gang, m. [with millers] a mill for spelt or zeawheat; it. V. Graurengang. — hacke, f. a peeling-hoe, a turf-spud or spade. — hengst, m. [Schalthengst] stallion, stone-horse. — pflug, m. a plough for laying open or turning up untilled ground. — zah, m. a scaly tooth.

Schäler, m. [-s, pl. -n] one who peels &c. V. Schälen.

Schalig, adj. and adv. furnished with a shell. — e Schnecken, shell-snails [opposed to snails that are naked]; [in botany] — e Gewächse, vegetables or plants producing shell-fruits. V. Dick —, Dünn —, Ein —, Hart —, Weich —, Zwei —.

Schalst, m. [-es, pl. Schälste], Schälstinn, f. [originally a servant, Swed. and Icel. skalk, V. Marischall; in Swed. skalkas means to cheat] a knave, a sly old fox, shirk, slyboots; it. [its more usual acceptance] wag, frolicsome fellow. Ein durchtriebener —, a regular old rogue or knave, a crafty fox, a sly cunning rascal, a knowing rum blade, it. [now, more usual] an arch-wag; proverb V. unter Glück 3); er, sie ist ein kleiner —, sie ist eine kleine Schälstinn, he, she is a little slyboots, she is a little sly puss, a knowing little hussy; [fam.] er hat den — im Nacken, he is a sly, cunning fellow, a sharp blade, he is a chap that does not let his left hand know what his right hand does; er weiß den — zu bedecken [obsolescent], he knows how to cloak his knavery, tricks, his goings on; he knows how to palm off upon the world; warte, kleiner —! wait, you little sea-cock; it. [with gardeners] Schälste, cabbages without hearts, though of good growth. Syn. Schalk, Schelm. The aim which the Schalk tries to attain, by his cleverness, is a surprise, a disgrace, which he prepares for another from a malicious pleasure. The Schelm employs the same means to attain every other aim.

Schalstfohl, m. V. Schälste [under Schalk]. — leiste, f. [in seamen's lang.] V. Presenningleiste. — o hr, n. [obsolescent] one who turns a deaf ear, who is deaf on one side, one who won't hear. —rath, m. [obsolete] malicious or knavish advice, roguish counsel. —tulpe, f. a tulip precarious in its mode of blowing and its variegated hues, being sometimes of one colour only.

Schaltsauge, n. 1) a roguish, wanton eye, a sly look, a playful look or mien; it. [obsolete] a rogue's or knave's eye, a sinister eye. 2) [in fam. lang.] V. Schalts. —äugig, adj. and adv. roguish-eyed, arch-eyed, with a waggish look; it. [obsolete] knavish, roguish or sinister eyed, shirk-eyed. —deckel, m. Fig. [in common people's lang.] 1) hat, [low] chopper. 2) false or sham pretext, a make-believe. —frage, f. [obsolescent] a subtle or malicious question, a question with a double meaning. —freund, m. [obsolescent] a false friend, a friend with two faces. —herz, n. [obsolescent] a malicious heart. —knecht, m. [in Scripture] dishonest servant, the false steward. —narr, m. [obsolescent] a buffoon, a jackanapes. —narrheit, f. buffoonery, tom-foolery.

Schaltschaft, adj. and adv. roguish, sly, waggish; it. [obsolete] crafty, subtle, cunning, knavish. —es Mädchen, a sly puss; a sly, arch girl; —e Augen, —e Miene, roguish eyes, look. SYN. Schaltschaft, pose. The pose is one who plays another a trick out of jest, in so far as he rejoices in the injury he causes him. The Schaltschaft rejoices merely at his success and the embarrassment of the person deceived. V. Leichtfertig, Muthwillig.

Schaltschaftigkeit, f. roguishness, slyness, [obsolete] knavishness, roguery. Die — ihre Augen &c., the roguishness of her eyes &c., her roguish eyes &c.

Schaltheit, f. 1) [in Scripture] guile, subtlety. Die Schlange verführte Eva durch ihre —, the snake seduced Eve by its guile, subtlety, craft, the serpent by its cunning beguiled Eve. 2) [obsolescent] stratagem, malice, trick, [fam. and low] flam, take in, gammon. Eine solche — hätte ich nicht hinter ihm vermuthet, I could not have thought him capable of such a piece of deceit, of such a trick; in allen —en erfahren seyn, to know all sorts of tricks, [fam.] to be as sly as a fox, to be up to every thing, to know a trick or two.

Schaltsch, V. Schaltschaft.

Schall, m. [-es] [another form for hall] sound. Es gibt einen —, wenn man an ein leeres Glas schlägt, there is a sound given, there is a resonance if you strike an empty glass; unter dem — der Trompeten, Glocken, Pauken &c., amidst the sound or clangour of trumpets, the ringing or pealing of bells, the bray of kettle-drums &c.; einen annehmen — von sich geben, to impart, to yield, to give out or emit an agreeable sound. SYN. Schall, Knall. Every thing audible is a Schall, whether loud or soft; Knall implies a loud, violent Schall. The Knall arises suddenly with all its violence, and vanishes just as suddenly. The Schall of thunder is often heard first at a distance, then nearer, and is again lost in the distance; but a sudden and violent sound of thunder, which vanishes no less suddenly, is a Knall.

Schallbecken, n. a cymbal. —brechung, f. refraction of sound. Lehre von der —brechung, or —brechungstheorie, f. diacoustics. —boden, m. V. Klangboden. —ente, f. 1) V. Quafente. 2) V. Röfente. —gelächter, n. [more usual Schallendes Gelächter] loud burst or roar of laughter, horse-laugh, horse-laughter. —ge- wölbe, n. acoustic vault, whispering vault, echo. Die Kunst, —gewölbe zu bauen, echometry. —glas, n. an anacoustic glass, a vexing glass. —horn, n. [in sportsmen's lang.] V. —stück. —krant, n. V. Kellerhaß 2). —lehre, f. acoustics. —loch, n. sound-hole [in violins &c., belfreys]. —los, adj. insonorous. —messer, m. [in music] echometer. —rohr, n. a speaking-trumpet; it. all sorts of trumpets, bugles, any wind-instrument of brass; it. [Schalmei] shalm or shawm [obsolete]. —strahl, m. [in physics] a ray of sound. —stück, n. 1) the bell of a trumpet, bugle, horn, speaking-trumpet; it. sounding-post of a kettle-drum. 2) [little used] symphony. —welle, f. [in physics] undulation or wave of sound. —wort, n. V. Klangwort.

Schallen, reg. and irr. v. intr. to resound, to sound, to emit or yield a sound, to ring, to re-echo, to reverberate. Eine Tonne schallet, wenn man darauf schlägt, a cask sounds, if struck; ein —des Gelächter aufschlagen, to break into a hearty roar of laughter, into a horse-laugh; —de Stimme, a resounding voice; die Trompeten —, the trumpets resound, clang, [poetical] bray; dieser Saal schallet zu sehr, this hall, [large] room, saloon has too much echo, resounds or rings too much; dies Gewölbe schallet sehr stark, this vault resounds very much, has a strong echo; die Stimme schallet hier stark, the voice has fair play here, is not lost or absorbed here; noch — mir diese Donnerworte in den Ohren, these words of thunder still resound, ring in my ears; das schallet hohl, that sounds hollow; —der Ort, an echoing, reverberating spot; [in sportsmen's lang.] das Thier schallet, the hind cries.

Schallen, V. Schellen.

Schalm, m. [-es, pl. -e] [in seamen's lang.] link, ring [of a chain]. it. Die —en [Presenningsteifen], tarpawling-ledges.

Schalmbaum, m. V. ulme. —eisen, n. V. Walddart.

Schalmei, f. or [obsolete] Schalme, f. [pl. -n] [allied to shalm, to the Fr. chalmereau] the hautboy, it. [generally] pipe, oaten-reed, [obsolete] shalm, shawm; it. pipe to a bagpipe.

Schalmei-Bläser, m. pipe-player; it. [unusual, for Hoboebläser or —spieler] hautboy-player. V. also Schalmeier. —pfeifer, m. V. Schalmeier.

Schalmeien-Klang, m. sound of the rural pipe, [unusual] sound of the hautboy. —rohr, n. [in botany] the reed, the oaten or garden-reed.

Schalmeier, m. [-es, pl. -] [unusual] [for Hoboebläser or —spieler] player on the pipe; it. hautboy-player or performer.

Schalmen, [allied to schälen] v. tr. Einen Baum —, to bark or strip a tree; [in woods and forests] V. Anlaschen; it. [in seamen's lang.] to nail the tarpawling-ledges.

Schalotte*, f. [pl. -n] [from the Fr. échalotte] the shalot, eshalot, scallion.

Schalotten-blume, f. the anemone pulsatilla, pasque-flower, Flora's bell. —gras, n. bulbous meadow-grass, dark-brown quitch or couch-grass. —zwiebel, f. V. Schatotte.

Schälten, [allied to the old schellen = to move] v. tr. and intr. 1) V. [the usual word] Schieben. 2) to dispose of. Mit Einem, Etwas —, to dispose of any one, of any thing; Sie können damit —, wie Sie wollen, you can do with it, dispose of it, as you think proper; Einen — und walten lassen [in fam. lang.], to let any one do as he likes, [fam.] to give any one plenty of rope; eine Summe, Geld, womit man frei — und walten kann, a sum, money at one's entire disposition, a sum, money held at one's entire free will and pleasure. Das —, the disposing, the power of disposing, the disposition &c. SYN. Schalten, Walten. Schalten may be either for detriment or for benefit; walten, only for the latter. Hence we are said to walten über, but to schalten mit any thing.

Schaltjahr, n. [V. Schalten 1) and Ein-schalten] [in chronology] intercalary year, embolismic year; [generally] bissextile or leap-year. —monat, m. intercalary month, embolismic month. —tag, m. intercalary, embolismic, odd day.

Schalter, m. [-es, pl. -] 1) [at post-offices] letter-box. 2) [not used] one who disposes of &c., one who rules over.

Schaltung, f. [rather unusual] the disposing, disposition. Das Recht der freien —, the right of freely disposing of &c.

Schaluppe, f. [pl. -n] sloop, long boat.

Scham, f. [no pl.] [perhaps from the old schimmen, whence schimmern] 1) nakedness, nudity; it. the privy parts. Seine — nicht bedecken können [fam.], not to have wherewith to cover one's nakedness; die männliche —, the penis, the yard; die weibliche —, the female organ of generation, [fam.] thing, affair, [in anatomy] the vulva. 2) [originally perhaps = Schamröthe] shame. Eine richtige, eine unzeitige —, a proper, false shame; eine jungfräuliche —, a virginal or maiden-shame; — empfinden, haben [über Etwas], to have or feel shame [at or about any thing]; vor — roth werden, to become or turn red, to blush or colour for shame; ein Ueberrest von — hat ihn abgehalten, a rest or relic of shame has retained or deterred him; man muß alle — verloren, abgelegt haben, [fam.] keine — im Leibe haben, um so zu reden, zu handeln, one must have lost all shame, be dead to all shame, have lost all sense of delicacy or modesty, one can have no shame in his whole composition to speak so, to act so or thus; vor — die Augen nicht aufschlagen, nicht sprechen können, not to be able to raise one's eyes, to lift up one's eyelids, not to be able to speak for shame; du solltest vor — sterben, vergehen, you ought to die for shame, to perish with shame; weder — noch Schande haben [in fam. lang.], to have neither shame nor modesty; aller — den Kopf abgebissen haben [in fam. lang.], to have lost all sense of shame, to be dead or callous to every feeling of delicacy, [fam.] to be brass itself, to have plenty of brass in one's face, to have brass enough for any thing; [in Scripture] die Weiber sollen sich mit — und Zucht schmücken, women should adorn themselves with shame and modesty. 3) [obsolete] V. Schande. SYN. Scham, Scheu. Scheu is felt at every danger; Scham only from the apprehension that we may bring upon ourselves dishonour or contempt. Hence we feel Scham only with reference to our fellow-creatures; and Scheu only with regard to things when they are dangerous, as fire, water &c.

Schamader, f. [in anatomy] pudic vein. —baum, m. the leguminous agaty of Malabar. —band, n. [dim. —bändchen, n.] [in anatomy] the fraenum or ligament of the vulva. —bein, n. [in anatomy] share-bone, the pubis, the os pubis, os pectinis. —beinhöcker, m. [in anatomy] the tuber or tuberosity of the pubis. —beinmüßel, m. [in anatomy] the third of the fifteen muscles of the thigh, the pectineus. — beinverbindung, f. [in anatomy] the symphysis of the pubis. — beule, f. V. Leistenbeule. — blutader, f. [in anatomy] pudic vein. — bug, m. V. — seite. — drüse, f. [in anatomy] the inguinal gland. — erregend, adj. and adv. exciting shame, a blush [of shame]. — erröthen, n. the blush [of shame]. Ich darf ohne — erröthen gestehen, I can admit without shame, without a blush [of shame]. V. — röthe. — euter, n. the inguinal udder [of some mammiferae]. — gang, m. [in anatomy] the vagina. — gefühl, n. a sentiment, feeling or sense of shame. Rein — gefühl haben, to have no sense of shame, no feeling of modesty. — gegend, f. [in anatomy] the region of the pubis. — glied, n. 1) the privy or secret parts, the pudenda. 2) V. — 1). — haar, n. the hair about the privy parts, the puberty; [in anatomy] the hair of the pecten. — hügel, m. [in anatomy] the mons Veneris, the hill of Venus, [cant of medical students] mount of olives, the hillock of love. — knoschen, m. [das Schoßbein] one of the three ossa innominata, the ischium. — kraut, n. [Hundsmelde] 1) stinking goose-foot. — lefsze, f. the lips of a woman's pudenda, the labia. Die äußern — lefszen, the labia; die innern — lefszen, the nymphae, the nymphs. — lefszenbändchen, n. [in anatomy] ligament of the lips to the female organ. — leiste, f. the perinaeum. — lippe, f. V. — lefsze. — los, adj. and adv. impudent, indecent, unchaste, immodest, brazen, V. unverschämt, Grech. Ein — loser Weib, a shameless, malapert, pert, brazen-faced hussy, an impudent or barefaced bitch; — loser Antrag, — lose Reden, an impudent proposition, saucy or impudent words; — loser Eügnen, a barefaced liar; es ist etwas — lofes in seinem Betragen, there is something immodest, indecent, obscene in his conduct. — losigkeit, f. 1) impudence, indecency. Die — losigkeit in seinem Betragen, the indecency of his conduct. 2) effrontery, malapertness. — losigkeit begehen, to be guilty of repeated acts of assurance, of effrontery, to commit indelicacies — nerve, m. [in anatomy] pudic nerve. — pflanze, f. 1) the sensitive plant, the mimosa. 2) the leguminous agaty of Malabar, the bastard mimosa. — riße, f. [in anatomy] the orifice of the vagina, the vulva. — roth, adj. and adv. red with shame, scarlet [with shame]. — roth werden, seyn, to turn red with shame, to be scarlet; Einen — roth machen, to make any one red with shame, to put any one to the blush, to make any one blush or feel ashamed. — röthe, f. the red, flush or blush of shame, scarlet, blush. Die — röthe steigt ihm ins Gesicht, überzieht sein Gesicht, the blush mounts into his face, passes or mantles over his face; Einem eine — röthe abjagen, to put any one to the blush; man muß ihm die — röthe ersparen, his feelings of delicacy must be spared, [also] his scruples must be lulled, you must not touch on any sore subject, he must be managed or handled very gently or cautiously. — schlagader, f. [in anatomy] the pudic artery. — seite, f. the groin, V. 2. Leiste, Weiche. — theile, pl. the privy or secret parts, the privities, the nakedness, [in fam. lang.] the fig-leaf — zunglein, n. [in anatomy] [Klitoris] the clitoris, clitory.

Schamade*, f. [from the Ital. chiamare, to call] chamade, parley. — schlagen [used also fig. in fam. lang., in jest], to beat a parley; auf die — antworten, to answer a parley.

Schamapfel, m. [-s, pl. -äpfel] [with gardeners] a russet pippin with a vinous taste.

Schämel, m. [-s, pl. -] [lim. — chen, || — ein, n.] [Lat. scamnum, scabellum] 1) [in fortification] banquette, a raised way, little bench [for firing better over the parapet]. 2) scaffolding, trestle, truck [generally portable or moveable]; [in saw-mills] carriage, car or cart; [in artillery] the foot of a mortar; it. bed to the limbers on to which the end of the gun-carriage or frame is fastened, the settle; [with tilers, plumbers &c. Dach —] seat, settle or stool fastened to ropes, hanging-seat; [with miners] seat, driver's seat [to a horse-gin or winch]; [with foundries] the bellows-tails; [with weavers] the tread, the loom-treadle; [to a coach] [Federstock] cross-bar. 3) a four-legged stool, joint-stool, a cricket; it. [Fuß —] foot-stool. Das Schämelen, a little stool, a low-stool; [for criminals] the prisoner's stool [during trial]; [for smaller offenders and chiefly for those doing penance before the church] stool of repentance, [scotch] cutty-stool.

Schämelbein, n. leg of a stool. — bohrex, m. [with chairmakers &c.] centre-bit, large gimlet. — geld, n. [in some places] hire, rent of a seat, bench, form, pew settle, [in English law] hote for sitting. — mörser, m. a mortar with a foot or stand.

Schämen, [V. Scham] v. refl. sich —, to be ashamed. Sich seiner Herkunft, Armuth &c. —, to be or to feel ashamed of one's birth or origin, of one's poverty &c.; Adam und Eva waren beide nackt und schämten sich nicht [in Scripture], Adam and Eve were naked and not ashamed; sich vor Jemand —, to feel ashamed in or at the presence of any one, to blush before any one; schäme dich vor dir selbst, blush for yourself, you ought to feel or be ashamed of yourself; sich wegen Etwas, über Etwas —, to be or feel ashamed at, of or about any thing; sie schämt sich, daß sie sich geirrt hat, sich geirrt zu haben, she is ashamed at having made a mistake, at having erred, faltered, at having been mistaken; ich entschloß mich dazu, weil ich mich schäme, nachzugeben, I made up my mind to it, for I was ashamed to retreat, to give way or yield; schäme dich dessen nicht? an't you ashamed of or at it? pfui! schäme dich in dein Herz! du solltest dich zu Tode — [in fam. lang.]! out upon you! you ought never to hold up your head again for shame; man darf sich nicht —, arm zu seyn, one should or need not be ashamed of [or at] being poor; sich —, daß Rechte zu thun, ist eine falsche Scham, to be ashamed of doing or acting right is a false shame; — Sie sich nicht, don't be ashamed, don't be shamefaced, [fam.] hold up your head and don't look as if you had stolen a sheep, robbed a henroost; sich Jemandes —, to be ashamed of a person; er schämt sich seines eigenen Vaters, seines Sohns, he was ashamed of his own parent, he was ashamed at having such a son; er schämt sich nicht, sie Brüder zu heißen [in Scripture], he is not ashamed to call them brethren; schäme dich nicht, das Recht[e] zu bekennen, don't be ashamed to tell the truth, to acknowledge what is right or true. Das —, V. Scham, Beschämung.

Schamhaft, adj. and adv. modest, chaste, pudical, pudic. — es Kind, Mädchen, a modest child, girl; — e Ohren, chaste ears; ein Mädchen muß — seyn, a maiden should be chaste, modest, bashful; sie ist sehr —, sieht sehr — aus, she is very bashful, looks very shamefaced, coy. SIN V. Reusch.

Schamhaftigkeit, f. modesty, chastity, pudicity. Unzeitige —, ill-timed modesty, false shame; unächte —, mock modesty, demureness.

|| Schämig, adj. and adv. V. Schamhaft; it. V. Berschämt.

Schämlich, adj. and adv. 1) that which has or marks some shame; slightly ashamed, or colouring up. 2) [provincial] shameful, disgraceful, to be ashamed of.

Schämperlied, n. V. Schumperlied.

Schämwielen, v. intr. [in seamen's lang.] V. Scheuern, sich.

Schändbar, adj. and adv. [in fam. or pop. lang.] shameful, disgraceful, ignominious, infamous, dishonourable, vilifying, vile. — e Dinge, ignominious things; — e Worte, infamous, indecent words, vile expressions, bawdy language, bawdry, smut, obscenity; ein — es Leben führen, to lead a low, vile, an ignominious, infamous life; — er Mensch, a low, vile blackguard, a scoundrel.

Schändbarkeit, f. infamy.

Schände, f. [from schinden = verlegen, V. Schadel] 1) [mostly in common people's lang.] detriment, damage, deterioration. Etwas zu — n machen, to spoil, ruin, destroy any thing; zu — n or zu Grunde gehen, to be ruined, to go to the dogs, [low] to pot, [of things] to spoil; Einen zu — n prügeln, to beat any one to a mummy, to within an ace of his life; ein Schiff zu — n schießen, to cripple a ship, to riddle or cribble a ship, it. to sink her by broadsides; sich zu — n arbeiten, laufen &c., to work or run one's self to death, to death's door, off one's bottom or stamina, to injure one's constitution by working, running &c.; ein Pferd zu — n reiten, to ride a horse to death, to spoil, to cripple, to knock or lay up a horse by dint of hard riding, to harass a horse. 2) [opposed to Ehre, that is = unehre] dishonour, disgrace, ignominy, opprobrium, shame. Das ist ihm eine —, [more usual] *ge*reicht ihm zur —, that is a disgrace to him, turns to his dishonour; es ist eine — für einen Soldaten, zu fliehen, it is disgrace, infamy for a soldier to run away or turn his back; für eine — halten, to consider as a disgrace; besser mit Ehren sterben, als mit or in — leben, better to die with honour, than live in disgrace; die — tilgen, von der — frei sprechen, to wipe out, to sponge out, to efface the disgrace, to absolve or acquit of dishonour; in den Rechten glaubt man dem nicht, der seine eigene — *aus*sagt, it goes for nothing in law, what a man says to his own prejudice, what a man declares to his own dishonour, he who alleges his own shame is not believed in the eye of the law, in jurisprudence; er kann seine — nicht verbergen, he cannot conceal his shame, hide his infamy; er hat — davon gehabt, das machte ihm —, that turned out to his dishonour, that fixed a stigma on him; mit — bedeckt, beladen, covered, oppressed with shame or ignominy; Armuth ist keine —, poverty is no dishonour, crime, disgrace; er macht seinen Eltern —, he covers his parents with disgrace, shame; er wird Ihnen keine — *ma*chen, he will do you no dishonour; Einem eine — *an*thun [in pop. lang.], to offer an insult or affront to any one; Einem alle — *an*thun [in pop. lang.], to cover, to load any one with dishonour; man hat alle — davon vor der Welt auf ihn gewälzt, they have given him the full dishonour of it in the eyes of the whole world. Sie werden nur — davon haben, you will only get shame and confusion by it; das ist mir keine —, ist keine — für mich, that is no disgrace to or for me, that does not redound to my shame or dishonour; — einlegen [in fam. lang.], to draw down shame and confusion, dishonour upon one's self; Einen der — Preis geben, to abandon, to give up, to expose any one to public shame, to disgrace; ein Mädchen in — bringen [in fam. or pop. lang.], to dishonour, to ravish, to deflower a girl, to abuse a maid by carnal knowledge; seine — an Jemand erziehen [in fam. or pop. lang.], to be disgraced by the education of any one; ich bekenne es zu meiner —, I admit, confess it to my shame; zur — des Menschengeschlechts, der Vernunft, to the disgrace of the human race, of humanity, of reason; zu — n werden or in — gerathen, to be struck with disgrace, to be covered with dishonour, with ignominy; it. [in fam. lang.] to be brought or put to one's wit's ends, to be struck speechless, dumb with confusion; Einen zu — machen [in fam. lang.], to confound any one; Gott macht den Stolz des Hochmüthigen zu — n [in Scripture], God confounds the pride of the haughty. 3) that which brings shame. Es ist eine —, so zu handeln, it is a shame to act so; Etwas — halber thun, to do any thing for honour, for glory, on the score of honour, to save abuse, to avoid censure; Einem alle — nachsagen. anthun [in pop. lang.], to say all the infamies that one can imagine of another, to tear a person's character to pieces, to rags and tatters, to vilify the reputation of another to the lowest degree, to abuse, rail at or treat any one like a pickpocket, to call any one all the names in the calendar; [proverbial] V. under Horcher; sie haben Mann mit Mann — getrieben [in Scripture], they have committed abominations, sodomy; V. Blut—; mit einer Person andern Geschlechts — treiben, to have a criminal intercourse or connexion; seine — nicht bedecken können [in common people's lang.], to have not the means of covering one's nakedness. Syn. Schande, Schimpf, Schmach, Injurie, Entehrung. Whatever diminishes the worthiness of any one in the eyes of others, is for him a Schande; that which is a mark of dishonour for him, is a Schimpf: when this consists in such a treatment as implies the want of every honourable feeling, it becomes a Schmach. Schimpf and Injurie are distinguished from each other in this, that the former indicates any treatment by which a man suffers in his character, whether this honour had before been forfeited or not; Injurie, when his honour is intact. Entehrung arises either from the judicial sentence of the forfeiture of any one's honour, or from the conversion of the favourable opinion of his moral worth into an injurious one.

Schand=altar, m. [in Scripture] altar of abomination. —balg, m. 1) [low] [in a bad sense] bastard; it. [nickname for a child] little monkey, little toad, frog hopper, little sea-cock, son of a gun, vermin, rip. 2) [very low] a vile whore, strumpet, trull. —bild, n. abominable, detestable figure, it. effigy. —brief, m. 1) infamous letter. 2) defamatory, libellous letter. —bube, m. rascal, black-guard, scoundrel, wretch. —buch, n. infamous book, disgracefully vile book. —bühne, f. V. —pfahl 1). —deckel, m. 1) [low] a bad hat. 2) [in seamen's lang.] washboard, weatherboard; it. [also Schanddeck, n.] gunnel, gunwale. 3) Fig. Die Trauung war ein —deckel ihres vorher gepflogenen unerlaubten Umganges, marriage served as a cloak to their previously illicit connexion. it. bad, sorry pretext. —birne, f. [in fam. lang., in high contempt] a girl that has disgraced herself; [chiefly] V. —balg 2). —fleck, m. Fig. stain, spot, tarnish, foul blot or spot, mark of ignominy, opprobrium, shame. Du hast deiner Ehre einen —fleck angehängt [in Scripture], thou hast affixed a foul stain to thine honour; dem guten Namen einer Person einen —fleck anhängen, to tarnish or sully the reputation of any one, to bespatter or libel any one's good name or fair fame; Einem einen —fleck anhängen, to disfigure any one; sich einen —fleck anhängen, to injure one's own character, to tarnish or blemish one's own honour; das ist ein großer —fleck an seiner Ehre, that is a [very] foul spot on his honour; er ist der —fleck seines Hauses, he is the disgrace of his house, a stigma to his family; er ist der —fleck dieser Gesellschaft, he is a disgrace to this society or company. —friede, m. shameful, disgraceful, ignominious peace. —gebot, n. [in pop. lang.] a paltry, pitiful offer. Das ist ein —gebot, that is a paltry price to offer; ein —gebot thun, to offer ridiculously cheap. —gedicht, n. 1) an infamous, obscene, filthy poem. 2) a defamatory, libellous, calumniating poem. —geld, n. 1) [in fam. lang.] money acquired in a disgraceful manner, devil's money. 2) [in common people's lang.] a vile price, a price ridiculously dog-cheap, a price cheap as dirt. Etwas um ein —geld verkaufen, to sell any thing dirt-cheap, dog-cheap, for an old song; er hat mir ein —geld geboten, he offered to me a price that was almost next to nothing. —gemählde, n. 1) obscene picture. 2) defaming, defamatory picture. —geschichte, f. [—geschichtchen, n.] [in fam. lang.] 1) scandalous story, anecdote. 2) smutty story, obscene tale or anecdote. —gesell, m. a vile wretch, a rascal, scoundrel, [fam.] gallows-bird. —glocke, f. [formerly] bell rung for a hue and cry. —hure, f. [very low] V. —balg 2). —kauf, m. [in pop. lang.] a purchase dog-cheap. —krieg, m. an infamous, a disgraceful, an unjustifiable war. —laster, n. [in common people's lang.] infamous vice. —leben, n. [in common people's lang.] infamous, disgraceful, demoralized, abandoned life; shameful life. —lied, n. 1) [in common people's lang.] a bawdy song, an obscene or smutty song. 2) ignominious song. —lüge, f. [in common people's lang.] infamous, disgraceful lie. —lügner, m. infamous liar. —lust, f. [in pop. lang. or in high contempt] infamous, disgraceful, shameful pleasure. —mahl, n. mark, stigma or brand of infamy. —maul, n. [low] 1) a serpent's tongue, an ill, a malicious, venomous, slanderous tongue. 2) a person fond of smut, of telling bawdy stories. —mit-tel, n. ignominious, disgraceful, shameful, infamous, opprobrious, foul means. —name, m. V. Schimpfname. —ort, m. infamous place or spot, a low haunt, a vile purlieu. —pfahl, m. 1) the pillory, the post. 2) V. —säule. —preis, m. [in common people's lang.] price far below the worth, a price dirt-cheap, dog-cheap. —rede, f. [in fam. lang.] infamous language. —reden, pl. 1) bawdy language. 2) ignominious, disgraceful or dishonourable language. —säule, f. column of infamy or ignominy. Fig. disgraceful or shameful monument. —schrift, f. 1) infamous, ignominious writing. 2) a libel, a scandalous or defamatory libel or writing. —sprache, f. abominable, disgusting language. —stein, m. [formerly] stone of infamy [to be borne by criminals]; it. V. —pfahl. —stück, n. infamous, abominable, obscene, bawdy piece. —that, f. infamous, mean, vile action, indignity, infamy. Er hat unzählige —thaten verübt, begangen, the infamous actions he has committed are innumerable. —titel, m. ignominious title. —tod, m. [in pop. lang.] an ignominious death. —volk, n. [in pop. lang.] infamous people. —wache, f. guard of dishonour. —weib, n. [rather low] a detestable woman; it. V. —balg 2). —winkel, m. [in common people's lang.] an infamous place, a bawdy shop, a stew, a bagnio, a whore-shop, a tramp-house. —wort, n. 1) [in pop. lang.] an ugly word, a nasty, filthy, dirty, smutty word. 2) injurious, offensive, libellous, scandalous word, an injury, an infamy, defamation, a word of assault. —wurz, f. officinal consound, the comfrey of the shops. —zeichen, n. V. —mahl.

Schänden, v. tr. 1) to injure, to damage. Der Verlust der Nase, eines Auges &c. schändet das Gesicht, the loss of the nose, of an eye &c. disfigures the face; Einem das Gesicht —, to spoil one's face for one, to mutilate any one's face for him; proverb. wer seine Nase abschneidet, der schändet sein Angesicht, he who cuts off his own nose, spites his face; eine Bildsäule — or verstümmeln, to mutilate a statue; die Rinde eines Baumes, einen Baum — or beschädigen, to wound the bark of a tree, to mutilate a tree; einen Braten — [in cookery], to hack a roast-joint, a piece of roast-meat. 2) Fig. to dishonour, to deteriorate, to injure, to prostitute &c. Diese Handlung hat ihn geschändet, this action has dishonoured, disgraced him; seinen guten Namen, seine Ehre —, to prostitute one's good name or fair fame, to pawn one's honour; er hat seine Familie geschändet, he has dishonoured, disgraced, overwhelmed with shame his family; den Sabbath — or entheiligen, to break, to violate the sabbath, to trespass on the Lord's day; geheiligte Dinge —, to profane sacred things; Armuth schändet nicht, poverty does not dishonour; ein Frauenzimmer — [= sie entehren], to debauch, to dishonour, to violate a female; eine Geschändete, a dishonoured female; diese Frau hat ihre Ehre geschändet [= die Ehe gebrochen], this woman has prostituted her honour, violated the marriage-bed; eines Andern Ehebett —, to violate the marriage-bed or couch of another; einen Knaben —, to take improper liberties, to commit sodomy on a boy, [low] to bugger a boy; sich selbst — [= onaniren], to pollute one's self, to commit onanism, masturbation, self-stupration or self-pollution; [low schandiren] [rather provincial for schimpfen] to call names. Einen —, to call any one names. Das —, V. Schändung.

Schänder, m. [—s, pl. —] gross injurer; ravisher, despoiler. Er tödtete, erschlug den — seiner Ehre, he slew, killed the vile injurer of his honour; — eines Mädchens, violator, deflowerer of a maid; V. Blut—, Ehren—, Knaben—, Sabbath—, Selbst—.

Schandiren, [low] V. under Schänden 2).

Schändlich, adj. and adv. 1) [in common people's lang.] maimed, disfigured, mutilated, crippled, frightful, ugly, [fam.] mangled, spoilt. —es Gesicht, horrid ugly face, frightful countenance; die Blattern haben sie — zugerichtet, the small-pox has shockingly disfigured her; Einen — zurechten, to maul any one, to spoil any one's beauty for him, to cripple any one [by giving him a sound threshing]. 2) shameful, ignominious, infamous, dishonourable. —er Mensch, a wicked man, an infamous fellow; —leben, handeln, to live, act disgracefully; —es Betragen, —e Handlung, —e That, dishonourable conduct, disgraceful or villainous action, atrocious deed; —e Reden, scandalous, infamous discourse; er hat uns —verlassen, lief auf eine —Art davon, he has shamefully abandoned us, he ran away most shamefully; man hat ihn —behandelt, he has been treated ignominiously, vilely; es liegt etwas —es in dieser Handlung, there is something base, there is great immorality, baseness, turpitude in this action; ein —es Gewerbe treiben, to carry on an infamous trade; —er Geiz, infamous, vile avarice; —er Tod, ignominious, disgraceful death; auf eine —e Art sterben, to die in an ignominious manner, [fam.] to die like a dog on a dunghill or a cat in a gutter; —e Gewohnheit, ignominious, vile, shameful, low habit or custom.

Schändlichkeit, f. turpitude, infamy, ignominy, disgrace.

Schändung, f. causing of injury, of dishonour. —des guten Namens, der Ehre, dishonouring of a good name, gross injuring of a person's character, destruction of reputation, defamation; pawning of one's honour; —eines Frauenzimmers, the violation, debauching, ravishing, rape, forcing of a female, V. Rothzucht; —einer Jungfrau, the deflowering, ravishing of a virgin; V. Schwächen, Schwächung.

Schäne, f. [pl. -n] [generally in the pl.] peeled willow-wands or rods, basket-twigs.

Schänke, m. [-es, no pl.] [with landlords and vintners] 1) retail, retail-trade. V. Bier—, Wein—. 2) [provincial] V. Schrank.

Schanker, m. [-s, no pl.] [with surgeons] a cancer, [if venereal] a shanker.

1. Schanze, f. [pl. -n] [Fr. chance, from the Lat. cadere, Fr. cheoir] [in games &c.] chance, hazard. Auf seine —sehen, to pay attention to one's game, to mind one's play; die —versehen, to make a fault, a revoke, an oversight; fig. to be mistaken, to allow one's self to be deceived or taken in, to mistake the point; it. to wander from one's subject, to digress; seine —bewahren, to conceal one's game, to be on one's guard. Fig. Etwas, sein Leben in die —schlagen [in fam. lang.], to stake any thing, to expose or set any thing, one's life upon the hazard of a die; Alles in die —schlagen [in fam. lang.], to stake one's all upon the cast, throw or turn up, to play lose all, win all; neck or nothing, to stake all upon the venture.

2. Schanze, f. [pl. -n] [perhaps allied to the Lat. scandere] [Verschanzung] fort, intrenchment, redoubt, sconce. Kleine —, a small fortress, a little fort, a fortlet; man verband mit der großen —zwei kleine —n, two small forts were added to the great one as dependents; V. Feld—, Stein—, Stern—; auf die —geschickt [obsolescent], zur Schanzarbeit verurtheilt werden, to be sent as a convict to the fortifications, to be condemned to hard labour on the public works of defence; it. [in seamen's lang.] —, the hind-castle.

Schanzarbeit, f. working or labour at a fort, at a fortification; it. intrenchment. —arbeiter, m. pioneer; it. workman at fortifications. —geräth, n. instruments, tools of pioneers. —gräber, m. V. —arbeiter. —kleid, n. [in seamen's lang.] the waist-cloth, [if aloft] top-armour; [to a galley] tilt, screen, netting-sails, quarter-cloth, waist-cloth, target-fence; it. boarding-netting, boarding-nets. Das —kleid ausspannen, ein —kleid vorziehen, to barricade a ship, to up with the boarding-nets; it. to dress a ship, to spread a ship's waist-cloths. —korb, m. [in fortification] gabion, musket-basket. Gefüllter —korb, gabion filled with earth; —körbe machen, aufstellen, to make, to set the gabions; Werk, Brustwehr von —körben, gabion-work; eine Batterie durch —körbe decken, to cover a battery with gabions. —krone, f. [in artillery] the mural crown, vallaris. —kunst, f. the art of fortifying, of intrenchment, of circumvallation. —läufer, || —loper, m. 1) [in seamen's lang.] seaman's or sailor's jacket, flushing-jacket. 2) [frequently, but badly, pronounced in the first syllable like a French word Schanstov] a sort of mantilla. —netz, n. V. Sinfennetz. —pfahl, m. [Palissade] palisade, palisading. Mit —pfählen versehen, verwahren, befestigen, to palisade. —wehr, f. barrier. —wurz, f. V. Weinw. —zeug, n. V. —geräth.

Schanzenfrohne, f. statute labour at the fortifications. —läufer, m. V. Schanzläufer.

Schanzen, v. intr. to work or labour at a fortress, fortification, intrenchment. Die Bauern haben geschanzt, the peasants have been working at the fortifications; V. Ein—, Wer—. Fig. [rather low] to work like a horse, like a dungeon negro or galley slave. Wenn man den ganzen Tag geschanzt hat, after having toiled, slaved, drudged the whole day.

Schanzer, m. [-s, pl. -] [Schanzgräber] a pioneer; it. a workman at fortifications.

Schäpel, m. [-s, pl. -] [formerly] V. Rosenkranz.

Schäpelschnabel, m. [-s, pl. -] [schnäbel] 1) curved beak. 2) [in nat. hist.] an aquatic bird as large as a pigeon, avocetta, recurvirostra.

*Schäquerille, f. V. Cascarille.

1. Schär, f. [pl. -en] [allied to Heer, probably from Scheren = abtheilen] [noun collective] 1) multitude, crowd, troop, band, flock, shoal, swarm. Kleine —, little troop; in or zu —en herein kommen, to enter in crowds; das Volk versammelte sich in —en, the people collected in masses, in crowds; eine unzählbare —Zuschauer, a countless multitude, host of spectators; eine —außerlesener Truppen, a body of picked troops, a select number of choice troops; die —der Musen, the band or chorus of Muses, the nine Muses; die himmlischen —en, the celestial host or bands, the heavenly Sabaoth; eine —[ein Rudel] [in sportsmen's lang.], a herd of fallow deer. 2) a number of armed persons, body. Feindliche —en, the enemy; [in Scripture] die Kinder Israel sollen sich schlagen, ein Jeder bei dem Panier seiner —, the children of Israel shall fight, each under the banner of his tribe; V. Kriegs—.

Scharhausen, m. swarm. —flust, f. crack that joins itself to another. —wache, f. [formerly] night-watch, the watch, the guard, the night-patrol. Er rief die —wache herbei, he called the watch. —wächter, m. [formerly] soldier of the watch; watchman.

2. Schär, f. [pl. -en] [from Scheren V. Pflug—1); [with miners] notch in the traverses of a mine-shaft.

Scharbaum, m. the chip, ground-wrist of a plough. —deich, m. the most exposed part of a dike. —gang, m. [with miners] 1) lode stretching between the cardinal points. 2) a narrow lode or gang which goes to rejoin the principal lode or vein. —framme, f. the cramp of the ploughshare. —kreuz, n. [with miners] cross of St. Andrew. —nagel, m. V. —riegel. —pfahl, m. V. Strebebohl. —riegel, m. the ploughshare, pin. —schmied, m. hatchet-cutter, edge-tool maker, smith. —schmiedsarbeit, f. hatchet-cutlery-work, edge-tool making. —waage, f. [in fortification, Dossierbrett] a level for sloping and shelving. —werk, n. [Frohne] statute-labour; it. [with carpenters &c.] mending, doing up, refitting, [also] extra-job. —werken, v. intr. [Frohnen] to do statute-labour; it. [with carpenters &c.] to mend, to do up, to refit, [also] to do an extra-job, to work out of hours, to do extra-work.

*Scharade, f. [pl. -n] a charade.

1. Schärbe, f. [pl. -n] 1) [Wasserrabe] cormorant. 2) [Eisente] the clangula.

2. Schärbe, f. [pl. -n] [from Scheren] [with miners] staff against which the gin-trundle or lantern of the lever rests.

Scharbrett, n. cutting-board, chopping-board, trencher. —kohl, m. —kraut, n. any herb chopped up or for chopping up. —messer, n. chopper, chopping-knife.

|| Schärben, Schärben, v. tr. Petersilie &c. —, to chop up parsley &c. fine. V. Schaben.

Scharbock, m. [-es] [perhaps allied to Scharfe, the Engl. scurvy] 1) [Scorbut] the scurvy. Mit dem —behaftet, attacked with the scurvy, scorbutic; ein Mittel wider den —, an anti-scorbutic [remedy]. 2) [in botany] V. —kraut 2).

Scharbocksheil, m. V. —kraut. —krank, adj. and adv. ill of the scurvy, scorbutic. Der —ranke, scorbutic patient. —mittel, n. an anti-scorbutic [remedy]. —s-flee, m. common buck-bean, marsh-trefoil. V. Sieberflee. —skraut, n. any anti-scorbutic plant or herb; [in botany] a) [Löffelkraut] cochlearia, scurvy-grass, b) [kleines Schöllkraut] little celandine.

Scharbockig, adj. and adv. 1) V. Scharbocktrank. 2) [pertaining to scurvy] scorbutic. —e Krankheit, scorbutic malady.

Schärde, f. [pl. -n] [perhaps from Scheren] [a fish] the halibut [hesus, flounder].

Schäre, f. [pl. -n] [with carpenters] a brace, strut, bearer.

Schäre, f. V. Schere.

Schären, v. tr. and refl. sich —. 1) [versammeln] to assemble in a crowd or in crowds, to crowd or huddle together, to meet, to reunite, to agglomerate or conglomerate. Sich —, to meet together, to assemble. Fig. v. intr. and pers. [with miners] to join, to meet [as gangs]; ein Gang scharet dem andern zu, one lode meets or joins the other. 2) to separate into troops or bands.

Schärenweise, adv. in crowds in troops, in bands.

Schärf, [allied to the Lat. carpo] adj. and adv. sharp, keen. —es Messer, Schwert &c., sharp knife, sword &c.; einen Säbel, eine

Art &c. — machen, to sharpen, to set, to whet a sabre, an axe &c.; scharfer machen, to set, to hone, to give a keener edge; dieser Degen ist — geschliffen, this sword is sharp set, is keen edged, has a fine or good edge; diese Klinge schneidet wie das scharfste Messer, this blade cuts like the sharpest knife; — e Waffen, weapons ground to an edge, [fam.] edge-tools; — es Reibeisen, a sharp rasp; — e Schneide, sharp edge; — e Spitze, — es Eisen, — er Stock, sharp point, sharp-pointed iron, stick; — er Stein, sharp-pointed stone; — e Ecke, — er Winkel, sharp corner, acute angle; — er Pfriem, sharp-pointed or piercing bodkin; diese Nale ist nicht — genug, this awl is not pointed enough; ein Pferd — beschlagen, to shoe a horse rough; [in architecture] die — e Kante, edge, square edge; — behauen, to square; [in seamen's lang.] — gebautes Schiff, a narrow or sharp-bottomed ship. [in botany] scabrous [speaking of plants]; — e Borste, bristle strewed with remarkable asperities. Fig. sharp, biting, stinging, mordant, piquant, strong. — er Geschmack des Salzes, Pfeffers &c., pungent taste, hot taste of salt, pepper &c.; diese Salze sind —, these salts are acrid, acrimonious; — er Senf, Essig, Reitig, Räse &c., hot or pungent mustard, stinging or sharp vinegar, biting or burning &c. radish, strong cheese &c.; — gesalzene Speise, food highly or over-salted, too much seasoned; — er Wind, cutting, piercing, bleak wind, [in seamen's lang.] a smart breeze; — e Lauge, strong lie or buck, strong brine; — es Geblüt, acrid blood; — e Gäfte, acrimonious humours; es hat sich ihm eine — e Feuchtigkeit auf die Augen gesetzt, an acrid humour has fallen on his eyes; Einen in — er Zucht halten, to keep any one up to a strict, rigid discipline; er hat einen — en Verweis bekommen, he has received a sharp reprimand; Einen — behandeln, — mit Zeman verfahren, to treat any one, to act towards any one harshly, strictly, rigidly, rigorously, sharply; diese Sache muß aufs scharfste untersucht, bestraft werden, this affair must be examined, must be punished in the strictest manner; Etwas — wägen, to weigh any thing exactly, nicely; Einen — bewachen, to guard, to watch any one narrowly; er hat es mir — eingebunden, he has enjoined me strictly, positively, expressly; Etwas — verbieten, to forbid any thing severely; Einem [einen] — en Befehl geben, to give any one a severe, stern order; — e Strafe, Büchtigung, a rude, rigorous, severe penalty, chastisement; Einen — anreden, to address any one sharply, gruffly, rudely; er ist seinen Kindern —, hält sie —, he is severe to his children, keeps them too strict; — aneinander kommen, to have a lively or sharp attack, debate, a sharp dispute; die — e Frage [formerly, in law, = Solter], the question, the rack torture; ein — es Gesicht haben, to have a sharp, clear, good sight or eyesight; — er Blick, piercing, sharp, look or eye; Einen — ansehen, to look piercingly, to gaze steadily or fixedly at any one, [fam.] to look at any one as if you would look him through; er sieht —, he has a sharp or good sight or eyesight, [also] he looks sharp, close, it. he has a long, a clear head, he throws a rapid glance at any thing, his view of matters is quick, rapid and decided; — er Verstand, Blick, a quick, subtle, penetrating mind, regard or look; — e Beurtheilungskraft, an acute, penetrating, profound judgment; — es Gedächtniß, a retentive, sure or good memory; — denken, to think deeply or profoundly;

— e Nachfrage halten, — nachfragen, to enquire closely, to make close or strict enquiries; ein — es Gehör haben, to have a quick or fine ear, to be quick of hearing; — er Ton, a piercing, acute, sharp, shrill, grating tone or sound; [in grammar] raised voice or sound; — es Tonzeichen, a sharp, an acute accent; — e Predigt, a powerful sermon; — gehen, fahren &c. [in pop. lang.], to walk quick, at a brisk pace, to drive fast; — arbeiten [in pop. lang.], to work hard, [cant word at college &c.] to fag; es ging daselbst — her [in pop. lang.], it was very hot, warm work there; — laden, to load with ball [opposed to blank or blank cartridge]; — feuern, schießen, to fire, shoot with ball; — er Schuß, V. — schuß; — er Schüsse, V. — schüsse; — es or reißendes Wasser, rapid water, swift running water. SYN. Scharf, Scharfsichtig, Scharfsinnig, Fein, Durchdringend. A scharf mind discovers in objects, things, which, from their inconsiderableness and fineness, are difficult to be perceived; a scharfsinniger perceives every thing easily; a durchdringender discovers even what lies deepest and most concealed. Feinheit of mind discovers the most delicate characteristics of things, which perhaps a mind more sound, but less feint, overlooks. Great interest makes us scharfsichtig, and the most ordinary minds become so when self-interest is mainly concerned. V. also Schärfe.

Scharfbauch, m. 1) [rather unusual] a pointed belly, a belly protuberating to a point. 2) [in nat. hist.] [Eprotte] sardel, sardin, pilchard; it. sprat. — blättrig, adj. and adv. [in botany] scabrous-leaved, with rough leaves. — blick, m. piercing, thrilling look. Fig. penetration, clearsightedness. — bolzen, m. a pointed bolt or pin. — born-raupe, f. the thorny or prickly caterpillar. — eckig, adj. and adv. acute angled, sharpcornered. — eckiger Stein, a stone cut or hewn at an acute angle. [in botany] acute-angled. — eisen, n. [in seamen's lang.] the calking-iron. — geladen, adj. and adv. [as a gun] loaded or charged with ball. — gespitzt, adj. and adv. sharp, sharp-pointed, acute. — hakig, adj. and adv. with or having a pointed crook. — hammer, m. [in brass-works] hammer for stretching, for lengthening. — hobel, m. V. Schärphobel. — kantig, adj. and adv. square edged or beveled, sharply edged. Dieser Balken ist — kantig behauen, gesägt, this post or beam is hewed, sawn square-edged. — klaug, adj. and adv. sharp-clawed. — kraut, n. 1) [Frauenfrieg] asperugo. 2) V. [the usual word] Sauerkraut. — maul, n. [in conchology] the white porcelain-shell having sharp teeth at the orifice or mouth. — ortig, V. — kantig. — randig, V. — kantig. — rennen, n. a tournament or tilting under terms of mortal hostility, à toute outrance. — richter, m. executioner, hangman. — richteram, n. office of executioner. — richterhaus, n. — richterswohnung, f. executioner's house or dwelling. — richterei, f. 1) executioner's office, function, employment or situation, hangman's trade. 2) V. — richterhaus. — rippe, f. [in conchology] the screw-shell. — schmeckend, adj. and adv. of a pungent, acrid, strong taste. — schneidend, adj. and adv. sharp-cutting, keen-edged. — schneidende Arbeit, Waare, work or wares in edged tools, hatchet-cutlery, and similar hardware. — schneidig, adj. and adv. sharp, sharp-cutting, keen. — schießen, n. [with a musket and cannon] firing with ball. — schuß, m. shot from a gun or cannon loaded with ball. — schuß or — schüsse, m. 1) a sharp-shooter. Die Tyroler — schützen, the Tyrolese sharpshooters; [in the English and American armies &c.] rifleman; it. [in sportsmen's lang.] a sportsman who shoots flying. 2) a boundary-guard who is authorized to shoot all game passing the frontiers. V. Grenzschiße. — sicht, f. V. — sichtigkeit. — sichtig, adj. and adv. perspicacious, sharp or quick-sighted, fig. clear-sighted. — sichtiger Mann, Verstand, a clear-sighted man, a penetrating mind, [fam.] a man who can see round a corner, through a brick-wall, with half an eye, who can see his way; er ist — sichtig, hat ein sehr — sichtiges Auge, he is a long-headed character, personage; SYN. V. Scharf. — sichtigkeit, f. clearsightedness, perspicacity, penetration. Die — sichtigkeit durchschaut den Zweck und den Ausgang der Dinge, und sieht ihre Folgen vorher, perspicacity of judgment penetrates into the object and issue of things, and foresees their results. — sinn, m. fig. penetration, sagacity, perspicacity. Ein Mann von großem — sinn, a man of great acuteness of mind. — sinnig, adj. and adv. having acute senses [taste, sight &c.]; fig. perspicacious. Er ist — sinnig, ein sehr — sinniger Denker, he is clearsighted, a very fine thinker; SYN. V. Scharf. — sinnigkeit, f. V. — sinn. — spitze, f. sharp point. — spitzig, adj. and adv. sharp-pointed. — winkelig, adj. and adv. V. — edig. — zackig, adj. and adv. jagged. — zahnig, adj. and adv. sharp-toothed, sharp-teethed.

Schärf, n. [—es] [in seamen's lang.] the sharp build, rising of the ship's floor fore and aft. — des Hintertheils, the sharp build of the stern; [with nailmakers] groß —, a spike nail of two inches and a quarter; klein —, a tenpenny nail of one inch and a quarter; [in artillery] langrel, langrage; eine mit — geladene Kanone, a cannon armed with case-shot, with murdering-shot; los es —, grape-shot.

1. Schärfe, f. V. Schärpe.

2. Schärfe, f. 1) — eines Messers &c., the sharpness of a knife &c. Fig. — des Essigs, Salzes, Pfeffers &c., the acidity of vinegar, strength, virtue, saltiness of salt, pungency of pepper; — des Scheidewassers, the force, strength, corrosiveness, mordacity of aquafortis; — der Galle, Gäfte &c., the acidity, acrimony of the bile, of the humours &c.; — des Blutes, acrimony of the blood; — des Gesichts, sharpness, acuteness, quickness of the vision, goodness of the sight; — der Sinne, subtlety of the senses; — des Gedächtnisses, the strength, goodness, quickness, retentiveness of the memory; die — des Verstandes, the subtlety of the mind, perspicacity, sagacity; die — der Urtheilskraft, the force, depth or profundity of the judgment; — des Gehörs, the fineness, quickness of the hearing; — des Richters, der Gesetze &c., the rigour, severity of the judge, of the laws &c.; nach der — verfahren, to proceed with rigour, with severity. 2) [with millers] the sharpening of millstones. Einem Mühlsteine die — geben, to sharpen a millstone by or with the miller's pick. 3) the edge. Einen mit der — schlagen, to strike any one with the edge of the sword; in die — einer Klinge fallen, greifen, to fall upon the edge of a blade, to seize or lay hold of a blade by the edge; durch die

— des Schwertes fallen, umkommen, to fall, to perish by the edge of the sword; die — an dem Hufe eines Thieres, the edge of the frog of an animal's hoof; die — eines Hauses, Pfeilers, the acute angle or bevel of a house, of a pillar; [formerly, in law] einen Missethäter mit der — angreifen [mit der Folter], to put a criminal to the question, to the rack. Fig. Die Sache steht auf der — des Messers, the affair is at its crisis, is on the point of being decided. Syn. Schärfe, Strenge. Schärfe shows itself in the exactness with which faults are examined; Strenge, in the degree of displeasure and punishment with which they are visited. He who does not overlook a single fault, is scharf; he who is not indulgent towards a single one, is streng.

Schärfen, v. tr. 1) [schneiden] Sich an etwas — [die Haut aufziehen], to graze, to flay the skin against any thing; [with bookbinders] das Leder —, to pare the edges of leather thin. 2) to sharpen, to set, to give an edge or point. Dieser Degen ist geschärft [scharf abgezogen], this sword is sharpened, ground sharp; Sicheln, Sensen —, V. Dengeln; eine Säge —, to file a saw; einen Hobel, Grabstichel —, to set a plane, a graver; die Mühlsteine —, to sharpen, roughen or indent millstones with the pick; ein Hufeisen —, to rough or roughen a horse-shoe; ein Pferd —, to shoe a horse rough; die Bohnenstangen —, to sharpen the bean-props at the sticking-end; eine Feder — [rather unusual], to mend a pen. Fig. Das Gesicht — [scharf machen], to fortify or strengthen the sight; eine Speise durch Gewürze —, to season any article of food; Essig, Zitronensaft — eine Brüh, vinegar, lemon-juice give a relish to a sauce; die Glust —, to awaken, to rouse, to stimulate the appetite; den Verstand —, to sharpen, to enliven the intellects; das Gehör —, to render the ear more acute, the sense of hearing more nice, fine; den Ton — [in grammar], to sharpen the tone, to pronounce the acute sound or accent; das geschärfte Tonzeichen, the acute accent; einen Schmerz — [verstärken], to render a pang more acute; eine Strafe —, to increase a penalty; einen Befehl —, to issue a command with great solemnity, force, effect; geschärfte Befehle, strictly enjoined orders; V. Ein—. Das —, V. Schärfung. Syn. Schärfe, Wehen, Schleifen. We schärfen that which is still blunt, and not able to cut; we wehen that which already cuts, but which we wish to cut better; and that which we schleifen, is not only schärfer, but it becomes also smoother and more polished, or acquires the particular form we wish to give to it.

Schärfshobel, m. [with joiners &c.] [Schrothobel, Schrupphobel] a jack-plane. — hammer, f. [with paper-manufacturers] room where the rough edge of paper is taken off. — stein, m. [with bookbinders] stone for paring the edges of leather on. — en, n. [Acut] the acute accent.

Schärflich, adv. [rather stiff or obsolescent] severely, sharply. Etwas — gebieten, to order any thing with severity of tone or manner, to enjoin any thing most strictly, rigorously.

Schärfing, V. Stichling.

Schärfung, f. eines Werkzeuges, the sharpening of an instrument or tool. — eines Stück Holzes, Steines, the sharpening, thinning, the feather-edging of a piece of wood, of a stone. Fig. Das dienet zur — des Verstandes, that serves, tends to the brightening up, sharpening of the intellects.

Schärge, Schärgen, V. Scherge.

Schärlach, m. [-es, no pl.] [probably from the Arabic shakara, to be red] 1) [—farbe] scarlet dye or colour, scarlet. 2) stuff, dress of scarlet dye. Einige Ellen —, some ells of scarlet cloth &c.; ein Mantel von —, a scarlet mantle; in — gekleidet, clothed or clad in scarlet. 3) V. —kraut.

Schärlachsbäum, — beerbaum, m. the scarlet-oak, holm-oak, French oak. — beere, f. [fig. Art Schilbläuse] the kermes of the scarlet-oak, cochineal-berry, scarlet-grain. — blume, f. [Kardinalsblume &c.] caltrops, lychnis chalcedonica, cross of Jerusalem, flower of Constantinople; cardinal-flower, scarlet-lobelia. — bohne, f. the scarlet-bean, the scarlet-runner. — farbe, f. 1) scarlet, scarlet-dye, hue or colour. 2) kermes. — farben, adj. and adv. scarlet-coloured. — färber, m. a dyer in scarlet. — fieber, n. the scarlet-fever, scarlatina. — gesicht, n. fig. scarlet-face. — hehlchen, n. the Robin red-breast. — kessel, m. [with dyers] a copper for the dyeing of scarlet. — korn, n. V. —beere. — kraut, n. V. Schärlei 1). — laus, f. Amerikanische —laus, the cochineal insect of the opuntia or Indian fig-tree; it. kermes. — lilie, f. the spotted amaryllis, the narcissus-lily, scarlet-lily of Africa. — mohn, m. red poppy. — nessel, f. [Waldnessel] stachys major Germanica, forest-nettle. — roth, 1) adj. and adv. scarlet-red, dyed in scarlet; it. red as scarlet. 2) n. or — röthe, f. the red of scarlet, scarlet. — taube, f. the small scarlet dove of the East Indies. — tuch, n. scarlet-cloth. — vogel, m. a scarlet bird; [especially] the scarlet parrot. — wurm, m. V. —laus.

Schärlachen, adj. and adv. of scarlet, scarlet [either as to colour or stuff, cloth &c. so dyed].

Schärlei, m. [-es] 1) [Schärlachkraut] horminum, clary. 2) [wilder —] wild clary, oculus Christi. 3) [Borretsch] borage. 4) [Schartenkraut] sarratula, dyer's sawwort.

Schärling, Schärling, m. [-es] [Heilfrucht] cow-parsnep, bastard acanthus, false bear's-foot or bear's breech.

1. Scharlötte, f. V. [the correctly spelt word] Charlotte.

2. Scharlötte, [in botany] V. [the correctly spelt word] Schalotte.

Scharmügel, n. [-s, pl. -] [probably from Schar and megetn] a skirmish. Sich in ein — einlassen, to engage in a skirmish; das — ging wider Willen des Generals an, the skirmish took place against the wishes of the General. [with miners &c.] a paper-cornet.

Scharmügelu, Scharmügi, v. intr to skirmish.

Scharmüßler, m. [-s, pl. -] a skirmisher, sharpshooter.

Schärnbull, m. [-en, pl. -en] V. Mistkäfer.

Scharnier, n. [Fr. charnière] [-es, pl. -e] [Gewerbe, Gewinde] hinge, a turning joint.

Scharnierband, n. [with locksmiths] joint-frame. — stift, m. hinge-pin or peg.

Schärpe, f. [pl. -n] [allied to schärben, schären &c.] [Binde, better Fesdbinde] [if over the shoulder] a scarf, [round the waist] sash; it. [in surgery] [Armbinde] a sling, a scarf.

Scharpie, f. [Fr. charpie] [Zupsteinwand] lint.

Schärre, f. [pl. -n] 1) [a tool] a scraper, hoe, scrubber, V. Pech—, Pflug— &c. 2) [in fam. lang.] the part that sticks to the bottom of a saucepan or frying-pan, skin. 3) V. Misteldrossel. 4) the yellow lingula.

||Schärren, m. [-s, pl. -] [perhaps from schären = abschließen] 1) V. Brod—. 2) V. Gleis—.

Schärren, [appears to be allied both to xelow[axo] and to zerren] I. v. intr. to scratch with a noise, to scrape. Mit dem Fuße —, to scrape with the foot, with the feet; die Studenten schärren mit den Füßen, um ihre Unzufriedenheit zu bezeigen, the students scraped with their feet, grated their feet backwards and forwards on the floor, to shew their discontent; das Pferd schärret, the horse paws, paws the ground; die Hühner — in der Erde, in dem Mist nach Futter, fowls scratch in the earth, in the dung after food; nach Würmern —, to grub or scratch for worms, [of badgers] to burrow for worms. II. v. tr. 1) to make by scratching. Ein Loch in die Erde —, to burrow. 2) [verschärren] Etwas in die Erde — or ein—, to bury any thing by scratching or burrowing; V. Auf—, Aus—, Ein—, Her—. 3) [zusammenschärren] Geld auf einen Haufen —, to rake or scrape up money into a heap, to scrape money together. 4) [herunterschärren] Den Ruß aus den Schornsteinen —, to scrape down the chimney-soot; das Harz von den Bäumen —, to scrape off the resin from the trees. 5) to clean by scraping. Die Gänge in einem Garten —, to hoe, to scrape the walks in a garden. Fig. V. Zusammen—. Das —, the scraping, scratching &c.

Scharrdraht, m. [with organ-builders] scraper of the pipe-valves. — eisen, n. scraper, rake, hoe, scrubber, paddle, raker, [with chimneysweepers] scraper; [in seamen's lang.] calking-iron. — erde, f. scavenger's sweepings, mud &c. — fuß, m. 1) a foot when or in so far as it may be used for scratching. 2) V. Kratzfuß. 3) [in fam. lang.] a gentleman or worthy fond of bowing and scraping, a very obsequious personage. — füßeln, v. intr. [in fam. lang.] to bow and scrape. — füßler, m. [in fam. lang.] V. Kratzfüßler. — holz, n. [with brickmakers] little scraper. — loch, n. rabbit-hole or burrow. — maus, f. V. Mautwurf. — netz, n. V. Kratzgarn. — schaufel, f. a drag. — stock, m. stanchion to a mast.

Scharrer, m. [-s, pl. -] [a person] a scratcher, a scraper &c. V. Harz—.

Scharricht, Scharrsel, n. [-s] V. Scharre 2).

Schärstock, V. Scherstock.

Schärtdeich, m. [-es, pl. -e] [in hydraulics] a degraded dike, a dike that has lost its slopiness.

Schärte, f. [pl. -n] [allied to schären = to cut, to the Swed. skaerda] 1) notch, jag, tooth, breach. Dieses Messer hat —n, ist voll —n, this knife has notches, is full of or is all over notches; eine — in Etwas machen, to make a hole, a gap &c. in any thing; eine — auswehen [fig.], V. under Auswehen;

[in fortification] V. Schieß—; [with locksmiths] die — am Schlüsselbarte, the notch of a keep for its corresponding ward in the lock. 2) [in botany] saw-wort. V. Feld—, Färber—.

Scharten-distel, f. [Schardistel] the long-tufted thistle. —kraut, n. 1) V. Scharlei 4). 2) [Storchschnabel] geranium orientale columbinum, dove's foot, crane's bill. —schäbler, m. [a bird] phaenicopterus, the flamingo. —zeile, f. [in artillery] merlon, pier.

*Schartefe, f. [pl. -n] [appears to come from charta] [in contempt] an old musty book, dusty cob-webby pamphlet. Einer, der alte — n liest, a porer over old books, a book-worm.

Schartekenhändler, m. [in contempt] a dealer in old or secondhand-books.

Schartig, adj. and adv. notched, jagged, snicked, nicked. Ein Rasirmesser &c. — machen, to make a razor &c. notchy; die Keste im Holze machen die Meißel &c. —, the nots in wood notch, jag, chip the chisels &c.; ein —es Messer, eine —e Axt, a notched knife, axe. Prov. Allzuscharf macht —, too much severity does no good, is revolting.

Schartstück, n. [-es, pl. -e] [with coopers] [Kammstück] the outer bottom-piece or cantlet of a flat-tub or vat.

Scharwenzel, m. V. Scherwenzel.

*Schäse, f. [more usually written Chaise] [pl. -n] [leichte Kutsche] chaise; [with common people indiscriminately for] carriage.

Schäsmint, V. Jasmin.

*Schässe, f. [pl. -n] [at tennis] the place where the ball falls at the second bound, the chase. Die Entfernung der — n wird nach den Platten abgemessen, the distance of the chases is measured by the slabs; eine — anzeichnen, die — gewinnen, to mark a chase, to gain the chase.

Schätte, m. [-ns, pl. -n] [provincial or sometimes with poets] V. Schatten.

Schatten, m. [-s, pl. -] [appears allied to schütten, that is, to cover] 1) absence of light, darkness, gloom. Die — der Nacht, des Todes [with poets], the darkness, the shadows, the cimmerian void of night, of death; V. Halb—, Schlag—; sich in den — stellen, im — ergehen, to place one's self, to repair to or to walk in the shade; Etwas in den — stellen, to place any thing in the shade, it. [in a rather unusual figurative sense] to cover or veil over, to have a secret meaning in one's words; it. fig. Etwas, Einen in den — stellen, to eclipse any thing, any one, to throw any thing, any one into the shade; sich in den — eines Baumes legen, einer Laube legen, to lie under the shadow, in the shade of a tree, in the shady cool of an arbour; [with designers, painters &c.], shade; große Lichter erfordern große —, great or strong lights require great or deep shades; dies Gemälde hat zu viel —, this picture has too much shade; Licht und — sind in diesem Gemälde gut gehalten, wohl angebracht, light and shade are well kept up, balanced, sustained in this picture; die Haltung der Lichter und —, the knowledge of chiar-oscuro, of the neutral tint. 2) the shadow, shade [of any body]. Einen — werfen, to cast a shadow, a shade, to shadow or shade; diese Bäume werfen einen herrlichen —, geben einen angenehmen —, these trees cast a magnificent shadow, offer or yield an agreeable shade; die grünen — [in poetical style], the green or sylvan shades; die Sonne zerstreut die —, the sun chases away, dissipates the shades; er folgt ihm wie sein —, he follows him like his shadow, his familiar; unser Leben ist wie ein —, fließt dahin wie ein — [in Scripture], our life is like a shadow, passes away like a shadow; wie ein Schatten vergehen, aussehen, to pass away, to look like a shadow. Fig. a) [= Schein] the shadow, the semblance. Nach dem — greifen, to snatch or grasp at a shadow, it. to mistake or take the shadow for the substance, the semblance for the reality; vor seinem eigenen — fliehen, to be afraid of one's own shadow, to have a superstitious or panic fear; ein — von Freiheit, von Hoffnung, a shadow of freedom, hope; das ist der — von dem, was ich erwartete, that is hardly the shadow of what I expected; diese Gebräuche und Opfer waren nur der — [das Sinnbild] der Geheimnisse und der Wahrheiten des neuen Bundes, these customs and sacrifices were but the shadowing forth, imaging, portraying of the secrets and truths of the new law. b) [with poets] shade, ghost, phantom. Die bleichen, leeren —, the pale, empty or vain shades; Achills — erschien ihm, the shade or ghost of Achilles appeared to him; das Reich der —, V. — reich; Polyxene wurde dem — Achills geopfert, Polyxena was offered up as a sacrifice to the manes of Achilles. 3) [in poetical style] covert, embowered retreat, shady depth. Rings um das Haus sind schöne — gepflanzt, around the house are planted shady groves, umbrageous nooks, recesses, retreats. Fig. [Euch, Erquickung] [in Scripture] Unter dem — deiner Flügel, under the shadow of thy wings. 4) V. — fisch.

Schattenbild, n. 1) V. — riß. Fig. Es ist, sie ist nur ein — bild seiner, ihrer früheren Schönheit, it is, she is but the mere shadow of its, of her former beauty. 2) Fig. phantom, chimera, creature of the imagination. Nach — bildern greifen, to grasp at phantoms. V. Hirngespinnst, Trugbild. — dien st, m. [with the Jews as typical] worship or service of the shades. — erz, n. fixed sulphate of lead, fixed sulphuret of lead. — farbe, f. [with painters] umber. — fernrohr, n. a sciathe-ric telescope. — fisch, m. 1) [umber] umbra, chromis. 2) umbla, salvelin, red char, grayling. — fürst, m. [with poets] the king of hell, the prince of the shades, of the manes. — gang, m. embowered or umbrageous alley. Diese köstlichen — gänge! those delicious shady walks! — gebild, n. V. — bild 2). — gebilde, n. [in mythology] the dwelling or region of the shades. V. — reich. — grö-ße, f. 1) greatness of the shade or shadow. 2) [in poetical style] imaginary greatness, visionary grandeur. — hut, m. [Sonnenhut] a large-flapped or umbrella hat, [in Spain] sombrero. — käfer, m. the tenebrio, the stinking beetle, V. Mehlkäfer. — kraut, n. star-wort. — land, n. [with poets] V. — reich. — länge, f. length of the shade or shadow. — leben, n. [in higher style] life transitory as a shade, as a dream. — licht, n. the mellowed light of day, daylight [antithetical to the direct light of the sun]. — linie, f. sketch, outline. — los, adj. and adv. shadowless, shadeless, without shade, without a shadow. Die — losen Völker, the ascii, V. Unschattig. — masse, f. [with painters] mass of shade. — morelle, f. the morello-cherry thriving in a shaded aspect. — reich, adj. and adv. rich in shade, very umbrageous. Ein — reiches Plätzchen, a [most] shady nook, spot or place. — reich, n.

realm, empire, kingdom, sojourn of the shades, of the manes. — richter, m. [in mythology] V. Höllenrichter. — riß, m. [eines Körpers] a plan or outline traced from the shadow thrown upon an opposite and perpendicular surface; silhouette. — riß eines Kopfes, a likeness of a head traced or taken from the shadow; den — riß von Jemand machen, to take the likeness of any one by means of his shadow or reflection, to make a person's silhouette. Fig. representation of any thing confined to generals. — risse berühmter Männer, portraits, sketches of celebrated men. — scheu, adj. and adv. [of horses] skittish, apt to start. — schnitt, m. V. — riß. — seite, f. eines Hauses &c., the shady side, the northern aspect of a house. Fig. Die — seite irgend einer Sache or von Etwas, the disadvantageous side, the worst point of view of any thing. — spiel, n. the magic lantern [with its grotesque glass-slips]; it. [in physics] V. Farbenbild 2). Chinesisches — spiel, ombres chinoises. — spieler, m. the exhibitor of the magic lantern; rareeshow-man. — stufe, f. [Nuance] used in a proper as well as fig. sense] the shading, shadowing; the blending. Um eine — stufe besser, geringer &c., one shade darker, less &c. — thal, n. [in higher style] 1) umbrageous valley, shady valley. 2) valley of shadows, haunted by phantoms — uhr, f. sun-dial, sciathe-ric dial. — umriß, m. V. — riß. — weg, m. shaded way or road. Die — wege eines Gartens, the covered walks of a garden. — welt, f. V. — reich. — werk, n. any work that is only a shadow, semblance, type or allegory. — wesen, n. imaginary, visionary being. — zeiger, m. gnomon [of a dial &c.], V. Zeiger, Zeigerstange.

Schatten, I. v. intr. to give shadow, to yield shade. II. v. tr. [with painters] —, [more usual] schattiren. Eine Figur —, to shadow a figure; die Farben —, to shade, to blend the colours; [with clothiers &c.] to shade, to blend. Das —, V. Schattung.

Schätter, V. Schetter.

Schättig, adj. and adv. shady, umbrageous. Ein — er Ort, Gang, a shady place, walk, a covert; die — en Plätze in diesem Garten, the coverts, retreats of this garden; diese Pflanzen lieben einen — en Ort, these plants delight in a shady spot; — er Baum, a shady tree; — er Wald, shady forest.

Schattiren, v. tr. and intr. [with painters &c.] to shade, it. to blend. V. Schatten.

Schattirung, f. [with painters &c.] V. Schattung.

Schattung, f. 1) action of shading, of shadowing, of yielding shade. 2) [more usual, Schattirung] shading; blending. 3) [with poets] Sie gingen in der — des Haines, they walked in the shady cool of the grove.

*Schatulle, f. [with some pronounced Schatulle] [pl. -n] cash-box, till. Die königliche, fürstliche &c., die königlichen, fürstlichen &c. Schatullgelber, the privy-purse [of the sovereign, prince]; er wies ihr einen Gnaden-gehalt auf seine — an, he assigned her a pension out of his privy-purse.

Schätz, m. [-es, pl. Schätze] [appears to be the same word as the Lat. gaza and allied to the Fr. gésir] 1) [Vorrath] [little used] store, stock. Neues und Altes aus seinem — e hervorziehen [in Scripture], to bring out of his treasure things new and old. 2) [especially] treasure. Ein —, ein großer — an Gelde, a treasure, a great treasure of money; Schätze sammeln, aufspeichern, to amass treasures, to hoard up riches, einen — vergraben, to bury a treasure; einen — heben [=ausgraben], to dig up a treasure; seinen — angreifen, to take from one's treasure; der öffentliche —, der — eines Staates, the public treasury; der königliche —, the royal treasury, the coffers of the king; der — einer Kirche, the treasury, funds of a church; V. Braut—, Mahl—, Schlage—. Fig. Ein wahrer Freund ist ein großer —, a true friend is a great treasure; an diesem Bedienten besitze ich einen — [in fam. lang.], I possess a treasure in this servant; einen — von Kenntnissen besitzen, to have a fund of acquirements; das Werk enthält einen — von Erfahrungen, the work contains a fund, a quantity of facts known by experience; proverb. Gesundheit ist der beste —, health is the best treasure, the greatest blessing; sammelt euch Schätze, die weder Motten noch Rost fressen [in Scripture], gather up unto yourselves treasures, that neither moths nor rust shall devour; da wo euer — ist, ist auch euer Herz [in Scripture], where your treasure is, there is also your heart; mein —, lieber Schatz, mein Schätzchen! [fam.] my love, my dear, my darling! [= Geliebter, Geliebte, with the humbler classes] sweetheart; einen — haben, ein Schätzchen haben, to have a lover, a sweetheart, to have a mistress, a sweetheart, to keep company, to walk with a young man or woman; ihr, sein —, her, his sweetheart. 3) [Abgabe] tax, impost, toll, dues.

Schatzamt, n. V. —kammer. — collegium, n. V. —kammer 2). — einnehmer, m. receiver of the finances. — frei, adj. and adv. [steuerfrei] exempt from taxes, duty-free. — freiheit, f. immunity, exemption from, freedom of taxes. — geld, n. 1) contribution, tax, impost, dues. 2) money put into the saving-box; [fam.] treasure for a rainy day, it. for highdays and holydays. — graben, n. V. Schatzgräberei. — gräber, m. a treasure-hunter or digger. — gräberei, f. rage for treasure-hunting [by digging up suspected spots]. — gut, n. [steuerbares Gut] an estate subject to the land-tax, liable to contributions. — haus, n. V. —kammer 1). [in Scripture = Vorra:thshaus] treasure-house, storehouse, magazine. — herr, m. V. Schätzer 1). — kammer, f. 1) the treasury. Die öffentliche —kammer, the public treasury; königliche —kammer, the Royal treasury, [in England] the exchequer. Er ist mit seinen Forsterungen auf die königliche —kammer angewiesen, he has been assigned upon the privy purse, the king's coffers for the settlement of his claims. 2) [— collegium] the treasury-room, the chamber of receipts and expences; [in England] the exchequer; it. the treasury. Der Kanzler, die Lords der —kammer, the Chancellor of the Exchequer, the Lords of the Treasury. — kammerchein, m. [Tre:forchein] a treasury ticket or note, [in France] a royal bond, [in England] exchequer-bill. — kästchen, n. casket. Fig. title of many religious and edifying [sometimes also of other, chiefly amusing or collectaneous] books. — kasten, m. strong-box, money chest, cash-box, coffer. Eiserner — kasten, iron strong-box. — meister, m. treasurer. — meisteramt, n. office of treasurer. — meisteramt bei einem Kirchen/schatze, treasurership in a collegiate-church. — meistererei, f. [dwelling] the treasury. — pflichtig, adj. and adv. [steuer:bar] liable to taxes, to duty, to imposts. — pflichtigkeit, f. liability to pay taxes. — rath, m. 1) [—kammer] council of the receipts and expences. 2) counsellor of the treasury or member of the council of receipts and expences. — schein, m. V. —kammer-schein. — schreiber, m. V. Schatzungs-schreiber. — verwalter, — verweser, m. V. —meister.

Schätzbar, adj. and adv. V. Schatzpflichtig.

Schätzbar, adj. and adv. estimable. — Eigenschaften, estimable qualities; er ist mir noch so —, wie damals, I have as much esteem for him now as ever, he is as estimable to me now as then; ein sehr — es Frauenzimmer, a very estimable woman, a lady in every respect worthy of esteem; ein sehr — es Werk, a very estimable, valuable work; eine sehr — e Mittheilung, a very valuable communication or information; — er, — ster Freund [in letters], my dearest Sir, my dear or my very dear friend.

Schätzbarkeit, f. price, value, estimation, valuation. — einer Person, worth, merit; bei, ungeachtet seiner anerkannten — kann man &c., in consequence of, in spite of his known worth, of the esteem he is held in, one can &c.

Schätzen, v. tr. 1) to estimate, to make a valuation for the raising of taxes or contributions. Die Stadt wurde um tausend Dukaten geschätzt, the city was taxed, was placed at a contribution of a thousand ducats; V. Be—, Brand—. 2) to pay the contribution or contingent, a tax, to contribute. Das —, V. Schätzung.

Schätzen, v. tr. [may be allied to scheiden, in the same way as cerno means also to perceive with the mind and hence to think &c.] 1) to appreciate, to value, to estimate; it. to tax. Den Werth der irdischen Güter richtig —, to appreciate earthly possessions or goods at their real value; das Brod, Fleisch &c. —, to tax bread, meat &c., to ordain a fixed price for bread, meat &c.; Einen —, to tax any one [for a property tax]; man hat ihn als wohlhabend geschätzt, he has been taxed as being a man in easy circumstances; Einen zu hoch —, to surcharge or overtax any one. 2) [hoch—] to appreciate, to estimate. Sie kennen den Werth des Lebens und — es, they know the value of life and appreciate it, and know how to estimate it; so viel Güte kann nicht nach Geld geschätzt werden, so much kindness can not be recompensed, valued by money; ich schätze ihn sehr, I esteem, I value him highly; man schätzt seine Redlichkeit &c., his probity &c. is esteemed, his integrity &c. is recognized; man schätzt diesen Prediger sehr, this preacher is very much approved of, prized; würde man ihn darum höher —, wenn &c.? would the world think more highly of him, if &c.? sich selbst —, to esteem one's self; der Madeira ist sehr geschätzt, mehr geschätzt, als &c., Madeira wine is in much repute, in great request, stands in higher estimation, than &c.; mein [sehr] geschätzter Freund, my most esteemed friend; eine Sache über die andere —, to value one thing more than another, to set a higher value upon one thing than on another, to attach more importance to one thing than another. 3) to appraise, to value, to take or make a valuation of. Eines dem Andern gleich —, to consider one [thing] as equivalent in value to the other; er schätzt das Eine höher, das Andere geringer, he esteems, prizes the one more, the other less; Sie — dies, diesen Zeug zu niedrig, you value this at too low a rate, you set too low a price upon this stuff, you value the worth of this, of this stuff too low; sie haben ihre Güter &c. — lassen, they have had their lands &c. valued; wie hoch hat man die Möbeln geschätzt? how much has the furniture been appraised at? man hat dieses Haus, dieses Gut auf 500 Dukaten geschätzt, this house, estate has been valued at 500 ducats; hat man dieses Gut schon geschätzt? has the valuation of this property taken place already? Sachkundige haben den Schaden auf 100 Gulden geschätzt, the appraisers, umpires have valued the damage at 100 florins; wie alt — Sie ihn? how old do you take him to be? what age do you think he is of? man sollte ihn höchstens 50 Jahre alt —, one would take him to be fifty years old at the most, at the very furthest, at the outside he would be looked upon as a man of fifty; it. ich schätze mich selbst noch nicht, daß ich's ergriffen habe [in Scripture], I do not yet flatter myself to have attained it; Etliche, die uns —, als wandelten wir fleischlicher Weise [in Scripture], some who consider us to behave after the manner of the flesh; it. ich schätze es für eine Ehre, I esteem it as an honour, I look upon it as an honour; sich glücklich —, to esteem one's self fortunate, to consider one's self lucky. Das —, V. Schätzung.

Schatz = herr, † — mann, † — meister, m. V. Schätzer 1). — preis, m. the price fixed or declared by the authorities, the tax; it. the valuation-price [at a public or private sale]. — recht, n. the right of fixing the price, of appraising, of estimating &c. — tafel, f. des Fleisches, Brodes &c., the tariff of the price of meat, bread &c.

Schätzenswerth, — würdig, adj. and adv. estimable, valuable. — werthe Eigenschaften, estimable qualities, valuable properties [dispositions or qualities]; dies Anerbieten ist sehr — werth, this offer is very commendable, deserves a grateful return, ought to be highly appreciated. — würdigkeit, f. quality of that which is estimable.

Schätzer, m. [—s, pl. —] 1) [Taxator, Schätzherr, Schätzmeister] estimator, valuer, appraiser. Man läßt gewisse Lebensmittel durch — schätzen, certain articles of food are submitted to the valuation of valuers, of competent judges; nach dem Berichte kunstsverständiger —, according to the report of expert appraisers, of competent appreciators or judges; — von öffentlich zu verkaufenden Sachen &c., an auctioneer. 2) an amateur, a connoisseur of pictures, articles of virtu &c.; [of some things as of birds, dogs &c.] a fancier.

Schätzung, f. [rather obsolete] 1) the impositions of fines, of tolls; impost or tax upon provisions. 2) contribution, tax, impost, duty, scot. — entrichten, to pay the imposition, tax, impost, toll; eine — ausschreiben, to ordain an impost.

Schätzung = anlage, f. the assessment, the fine, the cess. Zu hoch angelegte — anlage, the over-assessment. — anschlag, m. assessment, rating, cess, repartition of imposts. — geld, n. the money or funds arising from taxation; fines, fining or imposition, impost. — recht, n. right of establishing or ordaining imposts, of levying, distraining a tax. — schreiber, m. clerk in the exchequer.

Schätzung, f. Die — eines Gutes &c., the valuation, appraisement of an estate &c. — des Brodes &c., the tax, official price of bread &c.; die — des Vermögens, property-tax; übersehte —, over-assessment; die — der Güte einer Sache, the appreciation, estimation, valuation of the [good] quality of a thing; die — des Verlustes und Schadens, the valuation of the loss and damage; nach der vorzugenommenen —, according to the valuation made, taken; die — der Erbtheilung, the estimating of the portions or proportions of an inheritance or succession; die — der Güter zur Erbtheilung or Erbtheilung, the valuation of the goods for portioning out the inheritance; eine gerichtliche — und Verkaufung der Güter eines Schuldners anstellen, to institute a legal valuation or appraisal and sale of a debtor's goods; die — der Ausgaben, the arbitration, arbitrage of the expences; it. die — [in seamen's language, = die Giffung], the dead reckoning; eine — über die Geschwindigkeit des Schiffes anstellen, to make or keep a dead reckoning of the speed or sailing of a ship. V. Achtung.

Schätzungspreis, —werth, m. the price of the estimation, the worth of the valuation. Eine Sache um den —preis nehmen, to take a thing at the price of its valuation, at the price given to it by valuation.

Schau, f. sight, shew, gaze. Etwas zur — ausstellen, legen, to expose, place any thing to the view of the public; Etwas auf die, in die — nehmen, to take any thing for the sake of inspection, to inspect any thing; auf — und Probe geben, to give upon or for inspection and trial; Waaren zur — auslegen, to lay out goods for shew, to display goods; diese Waaren sind nur zur — ausge stellt or ausgehängt, these goods are only placed out or hung out for show; Gemälde, einen Leichnam &c. zur — ausstellen, to display or expose to public view pictures, a corpse &c.; man hat den Körper des Verbrechers zur öffentlichen — auf das Rad geflochten, the body of the criminal upon the wheel has been publicly exposed, made a public spectacle of; diese Gemälde wurden dem Publikum zur — ausgestellt, these pictures were exposed, shewn to the public, publicly exhibited, made an exhibition of; zur öffentlichen — dastehen, to serve as a public spectacle, a spectacle or sight to all the world; sich, seine eigene Schande zur — stellen, to publish one's own disgrace or shame to all the world; Tugenden zur — tragen, to make a parade, an ostentation of one's virtues; V. Heer —, Brod —, Reich —, Fleisch —; it. [in seamen's lang.] die Flagge im —, an ensign with a waft, an ancient; eine — machen, to hoist out the ancient.

Schauamt, n. [in some parts of Germany] 1) the office of a sworn appraiser, of an appraiser to the crown. 2) the college, council or collective body of sworn appraisers or official auctioneers. —ausstellung, f. public exhibition, shew —bild, n. [rather unusual] statue erected in a public place of resort. —brod, n. [with the ancient Jews] the shew-bread. —bühne, f. 1) the stage, the boards, theatre. Die —bühne stellt ein Gefängniß vor, the scene or stage represents a prison; V. —platz; die —bühne betreten, to go upon the stage, to tread the boards; man hat die —bühne geschlossen, the theatre is shut; die vaterländische —bühne [Nationaltheater], the national theatre, stage or drama; die deutsche —bühne [more usual Bühne] ist heutzutage nicht mehr was sie war, ist gesunken, the German stage, the German drama are no longer what they formerly were, have sadly degenerated, are sadly fallen. 2) collection of plays. —ende, n. [in commerce, = der Mantel] pattern. —essen, n. food placed for shew [not eating]. —federn, pl. fancy-feathers for the shop-windows. —fenster, n. [fam. Guckfenster] window for peeping slyly out of. —führen, v. tr. to walk or lead about publicly. —gang, m. [Gallerie] the gallery. —gebühr, f. V. —geld 2). —gehäuse, n. [with goldsmiths &c.] wire-cage [for exhibiting their articles]. —geld, n. 1) V. —münze, —stück. 2) price of admission, entrance-price to any exhibition or shew. —gepräng, n. pageantry, showy array. V. Gepränge. —gericht, n. dish served up for mere show [not eating]. —gerüst, n. scaffolding or stage [for seeing any thing upon it &c.]. —glas, n. [Stern-glas, Fernglobe] opera-glass, perspective, glass. —großchen, m. V. —münze. —herr, m. 1) a commissary-inspector. 2) [with miners] the sworn inspector of the mines; it. the examiner of the ore delivered at the furnaces. —kasschen, n. [with goldsmiths] the shew-case [before the shop]. —legen, v. tr. to display. —meister, m. the inspecting master of any guild or company of artizans. —münze, f. a coin struck not for current use, but in commemoration of a person or event and merely to be looked at, as it were, medal, medallion. Große —münze, medallion; falsche —münze, a spurious medallion or antique coin, a Paduan. —münzer, m. a maker of medals, medallions or medallion coins. —pfennig, m. 1) V. —münze. 2) V. —Schag-geld 2). —platz, m. the theatre, the place of exhibition. —platz des Krieges, the theatre of the war; auf dem —platze erscheinen, to appear on the stage, to go on the stage, to turn actor, performer; der —platz ist in Genoa, the scene is or lies in Genoa; der —platz verändert sich, the scene alters, changes, it. [sometimes, fig.] matters wear a different face; vom —platze abtreten, to retire from the stage, fig. to die, to make one's last exit; V. —bühne. —prahm, m. [in seamen's lang.] floating-bridge. —saal, m. [rather unusual] the play-house. —spiel, n. 1) sight, spectacle. Der Aufgang der Sonne ist ein erhabenes —spiel, the rising of the sun is a sublime spectacle; Freudenfeuer, Erleuchtungen sind gewöhnliche —spiele, bonfires, illuminations are common sights. [in theatricals] the play, the drama, the piece. 2) a play, a drama, a piece. Schiller war groß im Trauerspiel, Iffland löblich im —spiel, Kogebue ergötzt im Lustspiel und in der Posse, Schiller was great in tragedy, Iffland creditable in the [serious or every day life] play or drama, Kotzebue highly amusing in the [comic] play and in the farce; ein —spiel schreiben, to write a play; das —spiel besuchen, ins —spiel gehen, to visit the theatre, to go to the play; ein —spiel geben, to give a play, to act, to perform a play. —spieldichter, m. —spieldich-terinn, f. a dramatic writer, author or poet, a writer for the drama. Ein schlechter, armseliger —spieldichter, a bad, poor playwright; sie ist eine gute —spieldichterinn, she is an excellent dramatic authoress. —spiel-dichtung, f. dramatic poetry. —spieler, m. —spielerin, f. an actor, actress; player, performer. Eine Gesellschaft, Truppe —spieler, a theatrical company; eine Truppe wandernder or herumziehender —spieler, a troop of strolling players; ein schlechter —spieler, a bad actor, [obsolete] a miserable comedian; die Bühne zu hat gute, vortreffliche —spieler, the theatre at W. has good, excellent actors. —spielhaus, n. the play-house. Er wohnt neben dem —spielhause, he lives close to, adjoining the theatre; in Wien sind fünf —spielhäuser, in Vienna there are five play-houses. —spielkunst, f. the dramatic art. —spielsaal, m. [not much used] play-house, the body of the theatre. —stellen, v. tr. to display. —stellung, f. display; exhibition. —stück, n. V. —münze. —stube, f. cabinet-specimen [of mineralogy]. —tag, m. visiting day of commissioners for inspecting goods &c. —thal, n. [in Scripture] valley of visions. —thurm, m. 1) watch-tower, barbacan. 2) turret, lantern, terrace, belvedere [of a mansion &c. for the sake of the view]. —tisch, m. [in Scripture] the table of the shew-bread. —torte, f. tart for shew [only]. —tragen, irr. v. tr. to carry for shewing, to display. —warte, f. V. —thurm 1). —werk, n. [in commerce] specimen, sample, pattern. —würdig, adj. and adv. worthy of being seen, of being looked at.

Schaub, m. [-es, pl. -e] a bundle, bottle or truss of straw, a lock of straw. —an einer Stange, a wisp of straw.

Schaubrett, n. [with bakers] the slide-cover to the meal-tub or bolting-hutch. —dach, n. roof thatched with straw-sheaves. —enbünd, n. [with thatchers] a straw-sheaf. —enlage, f. [with thatchers] bed or layer of straw-sheaves. —hut, m. 1) [obsolete] a wide-flapped hat, an umbrella-hat. 2) [with surgeons] a roller or bandage with two equal heads, a capeline. —werk, n. work made or done with straw-sheaves or thatch.

Schaubar, adj. and adv. visible.

Schauber, m. [-s, pl. -] [with fishermen] [Art Hamen] a sand-net without a fork.

Schauder, m. [-s] [V. Schaudern] shuddering; it. shivering. Mich ergreift ein — bei diesen Gedanken, I am seized with a fit of shuddering at these thoughts, on thinking of that; bei dieser Nachricht lief ihm ein eisalter — durch alle Glieder, überfiel ihn ein heftiger —, at this news an icy-cold shiver ran through all his limbs, a dreadful shuddering came over him; ein — ergriff or überfiel ihn bei diesem blutigen Auftritt, horror seized him at this bloody scene.

Schaudervoll, adj. and adv. causing shivering, shuddering; horrible. Ein —er Gedanke, a horrid, horrible thought.

Schauderhaft, adj. and adv. 1) exciting a shudder or a shiver, terrific, terrifying. —e Dinge erzählen, to relate fearful, horrible things; —es Märchen, a tale the recital of which makes one shudder; das ist —, that is dreadful, that makes one shudder; ein —er Unfall, Anblick, a shocking accident, sight. 2) [in common people's lang.] sensible to fear, prone to terror, timid in the extreme. —er Mensch, a man who is frightened at his own shadow, at every bush.

Schauderhaftigkeit, f. 1) quality of that which excites shuddering, fear &c. 2) [popularly] extreme timidity.

Schaudericht, adj. and adv. exciting shivering, shuddering, [fam.] making the skin creep, the blood curdle, the hair stand on end.

Schauderig, adj. and adv. full of horror; horrible; causing a shudder, a cold sweat.

Schaudern, [appears to be allied to schütten, schütteln &c.] v. intr. to shudder, to shiver. Ich schauderte dabei vor Entsetzen, I shuddered for horror at it; ich schaudere, [fam.] es schaudert mich, [in pop. lang.] es schaudert mir die Haut, wenn ich daran denke, I shudder when I think of it; [fam.] my skin creeps at the thought of it; vor Furcht, vor Abscheu —, to tremble through or for fear, to shudder through or with disgust; die Haut schaudert ihm vor Kälte, his skin is shivering with cold; mich ergreift ein — des Gefühl, a shivering sensation seizes, comes over me. Das —, shivering, shuddering, trembling. Mich ergreift — bei diesem Anblick, a shudder seizes me at this sight, I am filled with horror at this sight, this sight overpowers me with horror; wer könnte ohne — daran denken? who could think of it without shuddering, without being horror-struck? V. 1. Schauern 2). Syn. V. Beben.

Schauen, [in old Germ. scannan meant forschen; the Engl. to scan = prüfen, to show = zeigen, and show itself = sich zeigen] v. tr. and intr. [chiefly in higher style] to regard, to gaze, to view, to see, to look. Umher —, to gaze or look around; zum Fenster hinaus —, to look out at or [more usual] of the window; das! Brod, Fleisch — [betrachten], to examine, to inspect the bread, meat; [in divinity] Gott —, to see God, to perceive God intuitively, to view God face to face; die or in die Zukunft —, to penetrate, to dive into futurity, to scan the future; er schauet die Zukunft, he scans, he reads futurity, he beholds the future; wir wandeln im Glauben und nicht im — [in Scripture], we walk by faith and not by sight.

1. Schäuer, m. [-s, pl. -], — in n. f. 1) a beholder, a regarider. V. Brod —, Fleisch —. Fig. a person who foresees that which is to happen, one who reads the future; [in Scripture] prophet, seer. 2) [in seamen's lang.] a workman, a helper.

2. Schäuer, m. [-s, pl. -] [allied to Scheuer, Fr. écurie] 1) [Schußort] shelter. Im — stehen, to stand under shelter, to be sheltered. 2) a shed, [for carriages &c.] coach-house; V. Schoppen.

3. Schäuer, m. [-s, pl. -] [allied to schütten, schütteln] 1) a shower; it. a hail-storm. 2) — [der Haut], shuddering, shivering, trembling, creeping of the skin, [in medicine] horror. Es hat mich ein — befallen, ergriffen, I have been surprized or attacked, seized with a shivering fit, a cold tremor; es läuft mir ein — über die Haut [in fam. lang.], a chilly trembling, a shivering is running over my skin; bei dieser Nachricht ergriff ihn ein unwillkürlicher —, at this news an involuntary fit or paroxysm of shivering took hold of him; beim Eintritt in diese Höhle empfindet man einen heimlichen —, on entering this cavern a secret sensation of dread is experienced; die Krankheit fing mit einem leichten — an, the disease commenced with a slight shivering; er fühlt den herannahenden —, he feels the trembling fit coming on; das Kind ist am Schäuerchen gestorben, the child died in convulsions, in a fit. it. shudder, shuddering. Die ganze Versammlung ergriß ein —, a shuddering ran through the whole assembly, V. Schauder. Fig. Seizen tollten — haben, to have one's mad fit on, to have one's fit of moody madness on again; der schlafende, der wei-nende — [in medicine], the sleepy, crying fit, a fit of lethargy, of crying; gute or helle —, lucid intervals; good intervals.

Schauer=feber, n. the trembling or horrid fever. — geschichte, f. history or story that makes one shudder, a horrible history, a tale of horror. — holz, n. [with weavers] a sleek, a sleeking-tool. — kalt, adj. and adv. so cold as to shiver, as to chatter with one's teeth. — kraut, n. [Schaftheu] winter shave-grass. — schlange, f. the boiquira-serpent. — voll, adj. and adv. full of horror, of terror, frightful, horrible, terrible, dreadful. Im — vollen Dunkel der Nacht, in the horrid gloom, in the frightful murkiness of the night; — volle That, an action causing shuddering, a horrid deed.

1. Schäuerig, adj. and adv. [rather unusual] sheltered. Hier ist es —, it is sheltered here.

2. Schäuerig, adj. and adv. 1) shivering, shuddering, trembling, quaking. Es ist mir —, I am shivering; bei diesem Anblicke wurde es mir ein wenig —, I felt myself shuddering a little, a slight tremor seized me at this sight. 2) chilly, exciting shivering. — es Wetter, chilly weather; diese — Nacht, this chilly, horrible night; — es Töne, dismal, lugubrious sounds, dread-inspiring sounds; — er Ort, horrid spot, mysteriously awful spot; das — e der Einsamkeit, der Nacht &c., the chilly dread, the horror of solitude, of the night &c.

Schäuerlich, adj. and adv. V. Schauderig. In dieser Einsöde ist es so —, in this solitude it is so fearful.

Schäuermannsknopf, m. [-es, pl. - knöpfe] [in seamen's lang.] a wall-knot with a Moor's head.

1. Schäuern, [V. 3. Schauer] v. intr. 1) Es schauert [hagelt], it hails; es schauerte Regen herab, it showered down rain, there was a shower, there has been a shower. [with dyers] to make a simmering or hissing noise as the vat does before the blue froth of the indigo comes. 2) to shudder, shiver, tremble, quake. Bei dieser Erscheinung schauerte Jeder, every one quaked, shook at this apparition; ich schauere vor Freuden, I tremble for joy; er schauert vor Kälte, he is shivering with cold; ich fürchte mich, daß mir die Haut schauert or es schauert mir die Haut vor Furcht [in fam. lang.], I am in an ague-fit of fear; mir or mich schauert's vor dem Tode, I shudder at death. I tremble at the thoughts of dying, V. Schaudern; [with poets] eine — de Stille, a dread silence. Syn. V. Beben. Das —, shuddering, shivering, quaking.

2. Schäuern, [V. 2. Schauer] v. intr. [not used, except sometimes in poetry] to shelter. Die Eiche schauerte uns, the oak sheltered us.

Schäufel, f. [pl. -n], dim. Schäufelchen, || Schäufellein, n. [-s, pl. -] [allied to schieben] shovel. Feuer auf eine —, mit einer — nehmen, to take fire upon, with a shovel; das Getreide mit einer — umkehren, to stir the grain with a shovel; eine — voll Feuer, Getreide, Erde, a shovel-full of fire, grain, earth; V. Feuer —, Kohlen —, Korn —, Maß — &c.; — an einem Ruder, the wash or blade of an oar; — an Wasser-rädern, the wing or ladle, flat board of water-wheels; [with gardeners] hoe, scraper; — an dem Geweihe eines Dammhirsches, palm of a stag's antlers; die — n, — zähne, the incisory teeth [of deer]; die — n des Ankers, the flukes of an anchor, V. Ankerfliege.

Schäufel=band, n. [with locksmiths] the iron-work of a door or window with a dove's or swallow's tail. — bein, n. a shovel-formed bone; [in anatomy] the os innominatum. Versteintes — bein, petrified os innominatum; die — beine der Bienen, the third pair of legs of bees where they place the farina &c., the spoons of the bees. — blatt, n. 1) [in botany] a shovel-formed leaf. 2) the pan of a shovel. — boh-rer, m. [with miners] gimlet for boring tubes and pipes. † — bürger, m. V. Wästelbürger. — ente, f. V. Moderente. — fisch, m. the tiburo-shark. — förmig, adj. and adv. shovel-formed. — förmiges Geweih, palmed head, horns or antlers. — gehörn, n. the palmed top, palm or crown of a stag's antlers; it. V. Handgehörn. — geweih, n. V. — gehörn. — hirsch, m. a stag that has palmed antlers. — holz, n. [in woods and forests] wood for ladles, flat-boards, jaunts, fellows of water-wheels. — hose, f. [in salterns] a tub of fresh water for cooling the heated shovel. — kunst, f. [in hydraulics] a machine with buckets, troughs, flat-boards, ladles &c. — ohr, n. a shovel-formed or scoop-shaped ear. — rad, n. a wheel with ladles, buckets, flat-boards. — recht, n. 1) exclusive right of spade-husbandry on another's farm on payment of a certain rent. 2) [formerly] right of improving copyholds. — schlag, m. 1) place or spot where the right of spade-husbandry is in force. 2) the mud, cleanings, sweepings of ditches; V. also Schäufelwurf. — stiel, m. shovel-handle, spade-handle. — stück, n. [in sportsmen's lang.] a shoulder of venison. — werk, n. V. — kunst. — wurf, m. earth, mould, sand, mud &c., thrown up by the shovel in digging. — zahn, m. a broad incisive tooth.

Schäufelicht, adj. and adv. in the shape of a shovel; [in sportsmen's language] — es Geweih, palmed antlers.

Schäufelig, adj. and adv. provided with shovels &c., provided with ladles to water-wheels &c.

Schäufeln, v. tr. 1) to work with a shovel, to shovel. Getreide, Erde —, auf einen Haufen —, to shovel up corn, earth, to heap up corn &c.; die Gänge in einem Garten —, to hoe, to weed the walks in a garden; er fand im — einen Schatz, he found a treasure while digging; V. Ab —, Aus —, um —. 2) to provide with shovels. Die Wasserräder —, to fix jaunts round water-wheels.

Schäufelse, f. [pl. -n] the owl, screech-owl, horn-owl, madge-howlet.

Schäufler, m. [-s, pl. -] one who works, stirs with the shovel, one who digs with the shovel or spade; [in fortification] digger, pioneer; V. Zwei —, Vier — &c.

Schäufel, f. [pl. -n] [in seamen's lang.] a barge; it. a floating bridge.

Schäufel, f. [pl. -n] a see-saw; a swing. Sich auf eine — setzen, to seat one's self on a swing.

Schäufel=brett, n. V. Schaufel. — pferd, n. a rocking-horse.

Schäufeln, [Ital. cioccolare, Fr. choquer] I. v. intr. to see-saw, to swing; [of ships] to pitch, to heave and set, to rock, to dance. II. v. tr. and intr. Sich auf einem Stuhle — or mit dem Stuhle —, to rock, to rock one's self, to swing in or with the chair; er schaukelt sich beständig hin und her, he is always rocking himself to and fro; mit dem Rahne —, to rock with the boat, to make the boat dance, dip, toss; sich auf einem Schaukelbrette —, to see-saw with a board; einander —, to balance one another, to play at see-saw, to swing one another; Einen —, to swing any one. Das —, see-sawing, swinging; [upon a chair] rocking, swinging backwards and forwards.

Schaukler, m. [-s, pl. -n] one who see-saws, a swinger, V. Schaukeln.

Schaum, m. [-es, pl. -en], little used, [see skuum; It. schiuma; Fr. écume; probably allied to the Lat. spuma] foam, scum, — vom Wein, Bier, froth, head of wine, beer; — eines Pferdes, foam of a horse [at the mouth], [if thick] lather, [if detached] a foam-flake; wenn dieser Mensch im Zorn ist, tritt ihm der — vor den Mund, when this man is in a passion, the foam flies out of his mouth, he foams at the mouth; mit — bedecktes Pferd, a horse covered with foam; das Eiweiß zu — schlagen, to whip the white of an egg up to froth, into a froth; schenken Sie hoch herunter ein, das wird — geben, pour out from a good height, that will give it a froth, a head, make it froth up; zu — werden, to turn to froth, to foam; der — eines kochenden Topfes, the froth, the scum of a boiling or simmering pot; der — der Milch, der Chocolate, the scum, the film of milk, the froth of chocolate; der Zucker wirft viel — auf, sugar causes much froth; den — von einem Sirop abschöpfen, to skim off the scum from or of a syrup; der — der Metalle, the dross of metals; — auf der Blauküpe, the froth in an indigo-vat; der — des Meeres, der Wellen, the spume, yeast, foam of the sea, of the waves; der — [more usual Geißer] am Munde eines Kindes, the drivel at the mouth of a child. Prov. Träume sind Schäume, dreams are lies. Fig. Alle seine Entwürfe sind zu — geworden, all his projects have ended in smoke.

Schaumartig, adj. and adv. of the nature of foam, like froth &c. — Bier, n. foaming beer, beer with a head, that is up. — Blase, f. [dim. — Bläschen, n.] a bubble of froth, of foam &c. — Blase auf dem Biere, Weine [especially on Champagner], pearl, bubble on beer, on wine [especially on champagne]. — Blume, f. artificial flower made from fish-glue. — Brett, n. [with dyers] skimming-board [to the indigo-vat]. — Diele, f. [in seamen's lang.] the whipstaff of a rudder. — Erde, f. pearled carbonate of lime. — Fliege, f. V. —wurm. — Gold, n. tinsel, orichalc. — Kalk, m. V. —erde. — Kelle, f. a skimmer, a slice. — Kette, f. the curb, the champing-bit or mastigadour, the tranchfile or cross-chain of a bridle. — Kraut, n. [Gauchois] meadow-cress, lady's smock, cardamine. Rauhes — kraut, rough cardamine. — Lava, f. blistered, vitreous lava. — Löffel, m. a skimmer. — Moh'n, m. V. —röstein. — Niter, m. [in saltpetre-works] nitre-scum. — Röslein, n. [weißer Behen] the white bonduc or nickar, white pod-bearing behen or ben. — Salz, n. [Strand] salt formed naturally on the sea-shore. — Stein, m. a zeolite. — Thierchen, n. V. —wurm. — Thon, m. [Wassererde] fuller's earth. — Wurm, m. the procicada, larva of the spumeous grasshopper enveloped in foam or cuckoo's spittle, the locusta-pulex, cicadula. — Zikade, f. V. —wurm.

Schaumen, V. Schäumen and Abschäumen.

Schäumen, I. v. intr. to foam; [as beer, chocolate] to froth; [as wine] to mantle. Die See schäumt, the sea foams, works, is yeasty; die — den Wellen, the foaming waves or billows; das Pferd schäumt, the horse foams; vor Wuth —, to foam with rage; — wie ein Eber, to froth, to slobber or slaver like a boar; — der Mund, foaming, frothing mouth; dieses Bier schäumt sehr, this beer has a great deal of head, froths up very much; — der Champagner, mantling, sparkling champagne; nicht — der Champagner, still champagne; aus dem Felsen — [as water], to foam forth from, to dash out in spray from the rock. II. v. tr. 1) Das Meer — [in seamen's language], to scour, to haunt, to infest the seas [as pirates]; ein gereiztes Thier, das Zorn und Wuth schäumt, an irritated animal, who vents, foams out his wrath and fury. 2) Das Fleisch, Honig, Wachs &c. —, to scum, skim the meat, the flesh-pot, honey, wax &c., V. Ab—. Das — [in chemistry, Ab—], despumation.

Schäumer, m. [-s] [with paper-manufacturers] fining mill or roller.

Schäumer, m. [-s, pl. -n] 1) [little used] the person who foams, foamer. 2) [little used] the person who skims, a skimmer. 3) V. Schaumkelle.

Schaumicht, adj. and adv. resembling foam.

Schaumig, adj. and adv. foaming, frothy, yeasty, lathery; mantling, heady. — es Bier, foaming beer.

Schaumigkeit, f. spumosity, frothiness, yeastiness.

Schauung, f. [unusual for das Beschauen] visitation, inspection, examination.

Schebe, f. [pl. -n] V. Schere.

Schebecke, f. [pl. -n] [in seamen's lang.] xebec.

Schäch, n. [-es, pl. -e] [Schacht am Schiffe] the knee of the head, the cutwater.

Schäcke, f. [with some authors m.] [pl. -n] [perhaps allied to the Ice. skakr = unequal] 1) a spotted or dappled animal, V. Schäckig; [in the manege &c.] a pied, piebald horse. V. Blau—, Braun—, Gelb—, Schwarz—. 2) [in nat. hist.] [a bird] the land-rail. 3) the small lark of Buenos Ayres. 4) dim. Schäckchen, n. the summer-teal.

Schäckente, f. albelus, mergus, the smew, V. Merckente.

Schäckenzug, m. a set or team of piebalds.

Schäcken, v. tr. to spot, to dapple. Ge-schäckte Pferde, piebalds.

Schäcker, m. [-s, pl. -n] [in sportsmen's language] the English fox-hound.

Schäckig, adj. and adv. — es Pferd, a pied-horse, a piebald, V. Schäcke, [if with black marks] black-speckled, dappled; — [of marble] spotted; [of clothes] chequered, motley; [of birds, flowers &c.] speckled, variegated, spotted; [of pinks more particularly] variegated; [of the tiger] striped, streaked; [of the ounce] speckled; [of the leopard] spotted. [low] Sich — lachen, to laugh till one is black in the face; ich habe mich bald — gelacht, I thought I should have died with laughing, I nearly split my sides with laughing.

Schädel, V. Schädel.

Schäkel, Schäre, V. Schel, Schere.

Schäffe, m. [-n, pl. -n] V. Schöffe, Schöppe.

Schäffel, m. [-s, pl. -n] [appears allied to schöpfen] 1) a bushel. Ein halber — Salz, half a bushel of salt; der — ist in einem Lande größer, als in dem andern, the bushel is greater in one country than in another; einen — voll, einen — Korn aus-säen, to sow a bushelful, a bushel of corn. Prov. V. unter Salz; sein Licht unter einen — stellen, to hide one's light under a bushel, to put one's candle under a bushel. 2) [in many parts] as much land as one can sow with a bushel of seed, especially corn-seed.

Schäffelmacher, m. a bushel-maker. — macherarbeit, f. work in bushel-making. — macherhandwerk, n. — macherei, f. bushel-making, bushel-making-trade. — machersbude, f. bushel-maker's shop. — ränder, pl. flat hoop, wattle, splint. — Saat, f. as much as one can sow with a bushel of wheat. — Saat, m. a bushel corn-sack. || — schach, m. — steuer, f. duty or tax on every bushel of corn. — weise, adv. by bushels, by the bushel. — zehente, m. tithe of threshed corn.

Schäffelig, adj. — er Sack, a bushel-sack.

Schäffeln, v. intr. [as wheat] to yield, to bear, to produce. Das Getreide schäffelt gut, the corn is full in the ear, yields well, gives a good return.

Scheibe, f. [pl. -n], dim. Scheibchen, || Scheiblein, n. [-s, pl. -n] [perhaps allied to schaben, and the older word schiben = to cut, to portion out or divide] 1) — von einem Apfel, einer Birne, einer Rübe &c., a slice from an apple, of a pear, turnip &c.; Gurken in — n zerschneiden, to cut up cucumbers into slices; eine — Semmel, Brod, Wurst, Schinken &c., a slice of roll, bread, sausage, ham &c.; — an Uhren, dial, dial-plate, watch-plate; die — [Fenster—], pane, square, glass, window-pane, window-glass; eine — zerbrechen, to break a pane, a square; man muß — n in dies Fenster einsetzen, there must be panes, glasses put to this window, this window must be glazed, must have its glasses put in; — Honig [Honig—], honey-comb, part or fragment of the comb; V. Wachs —; elektrische — [in physics = Harzfuchen], an electric plate; V. Knie —, Salz—; [in botany] the disk [of composite flowers]; die — der Blätter, the disk of flowers [not including the rays]; — or Rolle in einem Kloben, um welche das Seil läuft, a pulley; — der Töpfer, potter's lathe or wheel; — n des Drehlings [with millers], bars, arms of the pinion or spring-wheel; — des Kompasses [on which the hours are marked], edge, border, limb of the compass; — der Sonne, des Mondes, orb or disk of the sun, face or disk of the moon; it. [die Schieß—] the disk, target, the mark, the white mark, butt; das Schwarze or den Nagel der — treffen, to hit the bull's-eye; nach der — schießen, to shoot at the mark; er hat die — verfehlt, he has missed the mark; it. — or Wurf — der Alten [Discus], discus, quoit; die —, mit der — werfen, to hurl the disk, to play at quoits, V. — n Wurf, Wurf—; it. die — an einer Spule, the heads, ends, disks of a spool or bobbin; [with brewers] bed of grain or barley for germinating; it. [in sportsmen's lang.] das Scheibchen, das Scheibel, earth carried off by the hoof-edges of deer; it. die — [the tail of a roebuck] the single; it. die — [with cloth-manufacturers, a piece of deal rosined over for dressing cloth] sleeking board; dem Tuche mit der — den Strich geben, to dress cloth with the sleeking board; [with miners, for attaching to any hydraulic machine] disk or round piece of leather; [with founders, the upper cooled part of molten copper &c.] leaf-disk, pancake; [with watchmakers] durchbrochene — über der Unruhe einer Uhr [the piece covering and sustaining the balance], the cock of a watch; [in seamen's language] die — eines aufgeschossenen Laues, coil of a rope; die — des Blockes, the sheave of a block; die — dieses Blockes ist mit einem Metallring eingelegt, the sheave of this block is bushed; die —, [with paper-manufacturers] horse-hair sieve, strainer; [with wire-drawers] the drawing-plate. 2) [in nat. hist.] V. — nisch.

Scheiben=apfel, m. [with cooks, for apple-puffs and crowdies] squat apple. — artig, adj. and adv. in the form of a disk, of a quoit; [in botany] discous, discoid, flosculous. — artige Blume, discous flower. — auster, f. [in conchology] basket-oyster. — bank, f. drawing-plate [for gold-wire]. — birne, f. [Dicksiel] the blob-tailed pear. — bohret, m. a cooper's turrel. — büchse, f. gun or rifle for shooting at a mark, at the butt. — dorsch, m. [a fish] the great torsk or tusk. — fisch, m. the orbis, the moon-fish. — form, f. 1) the form of a disk, the disk-form. 2) the wooden mould for wax-cakes. — formig, adj. and adv. V. — artig. — gat, n. [in seamen's language] the block-hole for a sheave; it. any hole for receiving a sheave, sheave-hole. — glas, n. a disk, plate of glass, glass-disk, glass-plate. — honig, m. honey in the comb, wax-honey, virgin-honey. — instrument, n. [Mess-] astrolabe. — keule, f. [with glass-blowers] balloon, club-formed bubble of glass. — kosbalt, m. testaceous native arsenic. — könig, m. [Schützenkönig] the king of the members of a shooting-club; the best shot at a target-shooting match. — kraut, n. the garlic-scented thlaspi. — krücke, f. [with coopers=Reißbeuge] hook, hoop-bender. — kunst, f. [in hydraulics] machine with ladles, troughs &c., overshot wheel &c. for carrying off water. — moos, n. flowering lichen. — mutterkranz, m. [in surgery] an orbicular pessary. — nagel, m. nail in a target or shooting butt; nail in the bull's eye. — pulver, n. [for shooting at a mark] glazed powder. — rennen, n. [formerly] a foot-race to a target as the goal. — ring, m. [in botany] 1) [= Ringblume] iron-wort. 2) [knotiger Wassermerk] nodiflorous water-parsley. — rohr, n. V. Scheibenbüchse. — rund, adj. and adv. round as a disk, circular, orbicular, orbled, discous, V. — förmig. — schießen, n. shooting at a mark or the target. — schnecke, f. the thorny planorbis. — schütze, m. a member of a shooting-club. — thierchen, n. [in nat. hist.] the infusory disk-animalcule, the cyclis. — weise, adv. in slices. — werfen, n. [in antiquity] playing at quoits, hurling of the disk. — werfer, m. [in antiquity] a hurler of the discus, a player of quoits, a discobolus. — werk, n. [in seamen's language] sheaves, pullies. — wurf, m. [in antiquity] 1) hurl, cast, throw of the discus or quoit. 2) length or reach of a cast of the quoit &c. — zieher, m. the greaser of the bars in brass-wire-drawing.

— zug, m. V. Flaschenzug. — zwickel, m. space between two round panes of glass, frame.

Scheibicht, adj. and adv. in the form of a disk; it. in slices. Eine Rübe — schneiden, to cut a turnip in slices.

Scheibling, m. [-es, pl. -e] V. Scheiben=apfel.

Scheidbar, adj. and adv. [chiefly with surgeons] separable, divisible, distributable; it. [in chemistry] separable.

Scheidbarkeit, f. separability.

Scheide, f. [pl. -n] 1) point of separation, place of division; it. [Grenze] boundary, frontier, border, limits. 2) [especially certain parts closely surrounding others] [in anatomy] sheath, capsule, V. Pfortader. Die — or Mutter —, the vagina; [in botany, Blumen —] spathe, sheath; it. die — [of the grasses], the sheath of the stem in the grasses; gespaltene —, a split sheath or spathe [down to the stem-joint]; halbgeschlossene —, straight spathe or sheath; gebogene —, twisted spathe or sheath; Früchte in der —, fruits in a sheath or spathe; — der Moose, the case or sheath of the mosses; [in nat. hist.] die — um den Rüssel vieler Insekten, the sheath around the trunk of many insects. 3) Die — eines Messers, the sheath of a knife; — eines Degens, the scabbard of a sword; das Messer, den Degen aus der — ziehen, to draw out from its sheath, from its scabbard the knife, the sword, to unsheath the knife, sword; ein Messer in die — stecken, to replace a knife in its sheath, to sheath a knife; das Schwert wieder in die — stecken, to replace a sword in its scabbard, to resheath a sword; proverb. ein Schwert hält das andere in der —, the best safeguard against an enemy is being in a state of defence; — einer Stricknadel, V. Strick. 4) [in architecture] scabellum. SYN. Scheide, Futteral. Scheide is distinguished from Futteral in this, that the former is destined to prevent others being hurt by the body it covers, the latter, that the body covered by it may itself not be hurt. Hence cutting and pointed bodies are placed in Scheiden, while all others are covered with Futteralen.

Scheide=haaken, m. scabbard-hook. — muschel, f. [Messer=] the solen, the razor shell-fish. — presse, f. [for speckling black sword-scabbards] sheath or scabbard-press.

Scheiden=band, n. [in anatomy] the vaginal ligament. — fläche, f. [in anatomy] the flat part or surface of the vagina. — förmig, adj. and adv. sheath-formed, scabbard-shaped, [in botany] spathous. — förmige Blätter, spathous leaves. — fortsetz, m. [in anatomy] the vaginal process. — gras, n. [Sumpfwolfgang] spathous marsh-cotton-grass. — haut, f. [in anatomy] — haut der Hoden, the vaginal or elythroid tunic. — käfer, m. coleopterous weevil. — mündung, f. [in anatomy] orifice of the vagina. — schlagader, f. [in anatomy] the vaginal artery. — vorhof, m. [in anatomy, where the skin of the clitoris passes into the vagina and is without wrinkles] the vestibule of the vagina.

Scheiden, [allied to the Lat. scindo, scidi, to the Gr. oxlō, to the Germ. scheitern] irr. I. v. tr. [trennen, absondern] to separate, to part. Eine Sache von der andern —, to separate one thing from the other; ein Graben scheidet beide Grundstücke, a ditch separates the two fields; die Pyrenäen — Frank-reich von Spanien, the Pyrenees separate France from Spain; die Schafe von den Böcken — [in Scripture], to separate the sheep from the goats; das Gute von dem Schlechten —, to separate the good from the bad; die Erze — [with miners], to separate the ore by pounding; das Gold vom Silber —, to separate gold and silver from each other [by melting or solution]; das Zinn und Blei vom Kupfer, das zum Seligern gebient hat, —, to separate the tin and lead from the copper, that has been used in refining; geschiedenes Gold, gold refined by solution, depurated gold; gemischte Körper vermittelst eines Feuers — [in chemistry], to decompose mixed bodies by flame; V. Ab —, Aus —; ein Ehepaar —, to divorce, [if not completely and for ever] to separate, to part man and wife; sie sind von Tisch und Bett geschieden, they are legally separated, they are separated a mensa et toro, from bed and board; sich — lassen, to get divorced; sie ist von ihrem Manne geschieden, she is divorced, [sometimes, merely] she is separated from her husband; seitdem er sich hat — lassen, since he got divorced; ein Geschiedener, die Geschiedene, the divorced; sich von einem Handelsgeossen —, to dissolve partnership; wir sind geschiedene Leute [in fam. or pop. lang.], we are parted, separated, [fam.] we don't row any longer in the same boat, we no longer go in harness together, we are split; einen Streit —, [rather unusual] to terminate a difference, to end a dispute, V. Schlichtten. II. v. intr. [abreisen, sich trennen] to set out, to start, to take leave, to part. Sie sind als Freunde geschieden, they parted as friends, they quitted each other friends; von einem Orte, einem Freunde —, to leave or quit a place, to quit a friend, to part from a friend; scheidet! separate! leave each other! seinen Weg — [not much used], to part and pursue one's way; [with poets] von or aus der Welt, von der Erde, von hinnen —, aus dem Leben —, [or simply] —, to quit the world, to leave this earth, this life, [or simply] to depart; das — de Jahr, Jahrhundert, the departing year, century. III. v. refl. sich — [sich absondern] to separate, to divide. Hier scheidet sich das Land, here the land separates, these are the boundaries, limits, frontiers of the land; hier — sich die Wege, here the roads or ways branch off, separate; die Milch scheidet sich, the milk turns, curdles; wenn Seele und Leib sich —, when soul and body separate, part.

Scheide=bank, f. [with miners] a table for strewing and culling the ore. — baum, m. b. r. of separation; [Grenzbaum] a tree marking the limit or border. — becher, m. the parting-glass, the stirrup-cup. — bein, n. [in anatomy] the vomer. — böck, m. [with founders] a curcube-stand or support. — brief, m. 1) [with the ancient Jews] letter of divorce or repudiation. 2) act of repudiation, divorce. — eisen, n. [with miners] hammer for separating the ores. — erz, n. [with miners] picked and culled ore; [in chemistry] disparted or depurated metal. — fahre, — furche, f. [between two fields] the last ridge, the boundary-balk. — fäustel, m. V. — eisen. — gaden, m. [with founders in Hungary &c.] laboratory for or of depuration. — gefäß, n. vase, vessel for or of depuration. — gerüst, — gestell, n. [in physics] [Stötorium] a glass-stool or beeswax-plate used as a non-conductor, an insulating stand, an insulator. — glas, n. 1) the parting - glass. V. — becher. 2) [in chemistry, — trichter] separatory, separator. — gold, n. depurated gold. — hammer, m. V. — eisen. — haut, f. [in anatomy] V. Scheidenhaut. — junge, m. [with miners] a youth employed to cull and pick ore; [with calico - weavers] the stay of the loom. — kolben, m. [with chemists, founders, for the depuration of the noble metals] matrass. — kunst, f. [Chemie] chemistry. — künstig, adj. and adv. [chemisch] chemical. Die — künstige Arznei: mittel lehre, pharmaceutical or pharmacological chemistry. — künstler, m. [Chemiker] chemist, chymist. — künstlerisch, adj. and adv. chemical. — kuß, m. parting-kiss. — latte, f. [with miners, in the midst of a shaft to prevent the jostling of the tubs in ascending and descending] lath or bar of separation. — linie, f. 1) [Grenzlinie] boundary-line. 2) line of demarcation. — mahl, n. 1) V. Abschiedsschmaus. 2) V. — punkt. 3) V. — pfahl. — mauer, f. a party-wall; it. [in a chimney] partition-wall. — mehl, n. [with miners] the picked and culled ore in powder. || — meister, m. [in salterns at Halle for disputes amongst the inhabitants of the valley] umpire, arbitrator, mediator, conciliator. — messer, n. [with surgeons] the pericranium-knife, separatory. — münze, f. brass money, copper coin, small change, [low] coppers. — ofen, m. [with founders] furnace for parting metals. — pfad, m. 1) [between two estates] intervening path, intermediate path, a path common to two conterminous spots of land. 2) a cross-way, a road branching off or forked. 3) road, way, path where one takes leave, a parting-road. — pfahl, m. a parting or separating post; it. boundary-post. — pfähle, pl. [in mill-building] piles or stakes for dividing the current or fall, a lock-weir, paddle-weir. — punkt, m. point of separation; [in grammar] diaeresis. Ein e, ein i mit den — punkten, an e, an i with the diaeresis. — rede, f. parting speech; the last words before parting or leave-taking. — schacht, m. [with miners] shaft of separation, parting-shaft. — spruch, m. decision or sentence of the umpire, referee or arbitrator. — stein, m. a mere-stone, V. Grenzstein. — strom, m. 1) [Grenzstrom] boundary or frontier river, conterminous river. 2) river branching off, having arms, forming a delta. — stube, f. [with miners] room for picking and culling ore. — stunde, f. parting-hour, hour of separation, of departure, of leave-taking. — trichter, m. V. — glas 2). — trunk, m. last drink [before parting], stirrup-cup. — wand, f. 1) partition-wall, party-wall. Ein Zimmer durch Wegnehmung der — wand vergrößern, to increase the size of a room by the removal of the partition-wall, to throw two rooms into one; diese Zimmer sind nur durch — wände abgetheilt, these rooms are divided only by panelling, wainscoting; it. [in anatomy] wall, partition; die — wand der Nase, Nasenlöcher, the wall, the diaphragm of the nose, of the nostrils; — wand des Gehirns, Herzens, the transparent or diaphanous partition, the septum lucidum; the fleshy partition of the ventricles of the heart; die — wand des Gaumens or Schlundes, the membranous valve of the palate or throat; — wand der Schnecke im Ohre, the spiral blade of the cochlea; die — wand der Brust, mediastine, diaphragm, midriff; — wand des Hodensackes, the elythroid or vaginal tunic; eine knöcherne — wand, an osseous partition or wall; it. [in botany] partion, diaphragm [of a capsule]; je zwei Fächer sind durch eine — wand von einander getrennt, every two cells are separated by a partition; [in nat. hist.] durch — wände abgetheilte Muschel &c., a chambered shell. 2) [with miners] flat stone or iron-plate for pounding or breaking the ore on. — wand & höhle, f. [in anatomy] ventricle of the septum lucidum. — wasser, n. aqua fortis, nitric acid. Verdünntes, schon gebrauchtes — wasser, aqua secunda, nitro-muriatic acid; mit — wasser äßen, to corrode, to bite, to consume with aqua fortis; — wasser, welches das Gold auflöst, aqua regia, V. Königs-wasser. || — weck, m. a wooden wedge. — weg, m. 1) [Grenzweg] boundary-way, frontier-road. 2) a bivia, a causeway, a road or way branching off into two, a forked road. 3) road or way where one takes leave, farewell-road. — werck, n. [with miners] a stony barren earth to be separated from the ore. — zeichen, n. a sign or signal of or for parting or to part; it. [in the Romish church] the dying-bell, the knell, V. — punkt.

Scheider, m. [-s, pl. -] 1) [in chemistry] a refiner of metals; [with miners] a picker and culler of ore; V. Grenz-, Sand-, Markt-. 2) any separating medium, that which separates two things or objects.

Scheidig, adj. and adv. [in botany] spathous, sheathing.

Scheidung, f. separation. [in chemistry] — gemischter Körper, depuration, separation of mixed bodies; — der Metalle, the separation, dissolution, refining of metals; die — durch Scheidewasser, durch die Quart or die nasse —, depuration, solution and separation by nitric acid or nitro-muriatic acid; die — durch Guß und Fluß or die trockene —, refining of metals; die — der Seele vom Leibe, dissolution, the flight or separation of the soul from the body; [in medicine] — einer Krankheit, the crisis, critical period of a disease; die — zweier Eheleute, divorce; er, sie hat auf — angetragen, geklagt, he, she has demanded a divorce, has sued for divorce; — von Tisch und Bett, separation from bed and board, a mensa et toro.

Scheidungsline, f. V. Scheidelinie.

1. Scheik, m. [-es, pl. -e or, with some, also Scheiks] [an Arab chieftain] sheik.

2. Scheik or Scheig, n. [-es, pl. -e] a short round bark [used in the North-Sea only], sheik.

Schein, m. [-es] 1) [sometimes pl. -e, but only in the proper signification of the word] — eines leuchtenden Körpers, the shining, the light of a shining or illuminated body; ein heller —, a bright light, a vivid brightness; ein schwacher, blasser or matter —, a weak, pale, feeble or dull light or gleam; einen — haben, von sich geben, werfen, to have light, to yield, give forth or emit, to throw or dart out light; Sonne und Mond werden ihren — verlieren [in Scripture], the sun and moon shall lose their light; der — des Mondes, the light of the moon, moonlight; der — der Sterne, the light of the stars, starlight; beim — e, beim hellen — e des Feuers, der Fackeln, by the light, by the blaze of the fire, by the light, by the glare of the torches, by torchlight; beim — e einer Lampe, by the light of the, by the gleam of a lamp, by lamplight; einen — am Himmel sehen, to see a light, a brightness in the sky, in the heavens; man fängt an, einigen — gegen Morgen zu sehen, one begins to see some light in the east, some gleam in the eastern sky; V. Nord-, Wider-, der neue — [Neumond], new moon; V. Horn-, März-, [in astronomy, Aspect] aspect, V. under Gedritt, Seviert, Gefänst, Gesechst. Syn. Schein, Schimmer, Glanz. Schein is such a degree of light in a body which not only makes the body itself visible, but also other bodies which lie within its influence; Schimmer such a ore as that neither surrounding bodies, nor itself, can be seen sufficiently clear; Glanz is such a degree of light as dazzles the sight. Fig. a) Sich mit dem — e begnügen müssen, to be forced to put up with the appearance, the semblance of the thing, to pay or content one's self, by necessity, with the name, the shadow, the mock-reality &c.; ein betrüglischer — von Hoffnung, a deceitful semblance, a false glimmering or ray of hope; einigen — von Hoffnung haben, to have some faint sparks of hope left. b) appearance. Den bösen — [ver]meiden, to save appearances; dem — e muß man nicht trauen, one must not trust to appearances, appearances are deceitful, trust not to the semblance, [fam. and proverb.] all is not gold that glitters; ich lehre mich nicht an den äußern —, I don't stop at the mere look of the thing; der — trügt, appearances are deceitful; der — verspricht viel, appearances promise much; falscher —, false appearance, illusion; der Sache einen — zu geben wissen, to know how to give a colour to the thing; Etwas nur zum — e thun, to do any thing for the look of the thing, to do as others do for form's sake; sie weinten zum — e um ihn, they cried about him just for the look of the thing, for form's sake, out of pure grimace; Sie müssen mich zum — e zanken, you must pretend to give me a severe rating; ein nur zum — e geschlossener Vertrag, an illusory, a feigned contract; unter dem — e Rechtsens, under the appearance, pretence of justice, of right; er hat den — gegen sich, der — ist gegen ihn, appearances are against him; es hat den —, als ob &c., it looks as if &c., it has the look of being &c.; V. An-. Syn. Schein, Ansehen, Aussehen. Aussehen indicates merely the external appearance; Schein and Ansehen indicate this external appearance with relation to the internal nature of the objects. Aussehen, however, is merely Schein when the visible exterior does not agree with the internal nature, or when this agreement is doubtful; Ansehen, when it is certain. 2) [pl. -e] [chiefly in commerce, Empfang—] a receipt. Lassen Sie sich einen — darüber geben, get a receipt for that, let them write, received to that; geben Sie mir meine — e zurück, give me my receipts back; einen — von sich geben, ausstellen, to give a receipt; it. [Zahlung—] acquittance, quitance, discharge; V. Empfang—, Post—, Lauf—, Todten—, Trau—, Zoll—; [fam.] health-certificate, attestation, affidavit; [in commerce, for invoiced wares &c.; it. Zoll—] cocket.

Scheinzabel, m. false or sham nobility. — andacht, f. false, sham, mock devotion, feigned piety, apparent devotion. — art, f. [in nat. hist. = Halbart] unreal or spurious species. Die Kardendistel ist eine — art der Distel, the teasel is not a real thistle, but an apparent one; dieser Hund ist eine — art des Wachtelhundes, this dog is not a real spaniel, but a mongrel one. — begriff, m. apparent, specious idea. — begründung, f. begging the question, petitio principii. — behelf, m. turn-off, shift, loop-hole, evasion, specious come-off; V. Ausflucht 3). Behelf. — beichte, f. false confession, apparent confession or shrift. — beter, m. a mock devotee, V. — heiliger. — beweis, m. 1) a seeming, apparent proof, a specious argument. 2) a feigned proof. — bild, n. a false image; phantom; phantasm; it. [sometimes] illusion. — blind, adj. and adv. blind to all appearance, seemingly blind. — büße, f. apparent penitence; mock, false, feigned repentance. — christ, m. a false christian, hypocrite. — christenthum, n. sham christianity, hypocrisy. — contract, m. V. — vertrag. — cur, f. palliative course of medicine or medical treatment. — ding, n. imaginary thing or being. — dornraupe, f. the bastard prickly caterpillar. — ehe, f. an apparent marriage. Sie leben in einer — ehe, they live together and pass for man and wife, they are only married in appearance, [fam.] they are only married on the wrong side of the blanket. — ehre, f. apparent, mock, false honour. — einwurf, m. specious objection. — feder, f. [with German locksmiths] the spring-cap. — feind, m. 1) an enemy for the sake of appearance, of form &c.; a friendly enemy. 2) an enemy or hater of feint, trick or deception. — feindschaft, f. apparent, feigned, seeming enmity, a friendly enmity. — freude, f. apparent, feigned joy, forced happiness or mirth. — freund, m. a false, feigned, hollow friend. — freundschaft, f. false, feigned friendship. — friede, m. pretended, hollow peace. — fromm, adj. and adv. puritanical, pharisaical, hypocritically or falsely devout, over-religious, canting. — frommes Wesen, over-devoutness, cant; ein — frommer, eine — fromme, a canting fellow, a hypocrite, a false devotee. — frömmigkeit, f. apparent, feigned, false piety, overstrained affectation of religion; religious humbug; cant. — furcht, f. 1) pretended, sham fear. 2) a fear or dread of any thing feigned, of appearances. — gelehrt, adj. and adv. wise in appearance, plausibly or superficially learned. — glaube, m. apparent belief, pretended faith. — gliederig, adj. and adv. [in nat. hist.] annulated with deep incisions imitating articulation, subarticulate. — glück, n. apparent good fortune, seeming good luck, delusive or imaginary prosperity. — gold, n. false, mock gold. — groß, adj. and adv. apparently great. — gröÙe, f. apparent greatness. — grund, m. specious, plausible reason, specious argument. — gut, adj. and adv. good in appearance. — gut, n. apparent, imaginary good. — handel, m. 1) V. — vertrag. 2) trade carried on for form's sake, as a cloak. — heilig, adj. and adv. canting, over-meek, puritanical, methodistical, hypocritical, bigoted. — heilige Miene, — heiliges Betragen or Wesen, — heiliger Eifer, sanctified mien, [in England] puritanical or Simon-Pure manners, hypocritical zeal; eine — heilige Miene annehmen, to assume or put on a sanctified look, [fam.] to look as canting as be damned; das ist lauter — heiliges Wesen, that is all downright hypocrisy, sheer methodistical humbug; — heiliger Mensch, ein — heiliger, eine — heilige, a Simon-Pure, a Tartuffe, a hypocrite, a religious humbug, one of the new light, a she-hypocrite, a false devotee. — heiligkeit, f. hypocrisy, religious humbug or gammon, sham devotion, that religion which is pinned to any one's sleeve. — herrschaft, f. 1) apparent, imaginary domination. 2) the power, the might of appearances, of outward shew. — hoff- nung, f. deceitful, visionary hope, flattering, fond, delusive hope. — hülfe, f. pretended succour, feigned help. — käfer, m. glow-worm; fire-fly. — kampf, m. pretended, feigned, fictitious combat, mock fight. — kauf, m. a mock or fictitious purchase. — keusch, adj. and adv. mock-modest, demure. — klage, f. 1) mock, mimi-ni-pimini, fictitious complaint or lament. 2) mock action at law. — flug, adj. and adv. prudent in appearance. — flugheit, f. apparent, feigned, pretended prudence. — körper, m. body existing only by a hallucination of sense, by optical or nervous deception &c., a body in appearance. — krank, adj. and adv. sham-sick, ill for the sake of shamming, skulking, shirking, evading. — krankheit, f. sham-sickness, feigned or fictitious malady. — kunst, f. 1) imaginary art. 2) art of dissembling and pretending, of appearing what one is not. — leben, n. imaginary life; apparent, useless life. — lebendig, adj. and adv. living as to appearance. — lehre, f. [more usual Lehre] perspective. — liebe, f. pretended, fictitious, false love. Die Liebe dieses Kindes ist nur — liebe, this child's love is all cupboard-love. — lob, n. false praise, flattery. — lust, f. apparent, feigned or fictitious pleasure. — macht, f. imaginary power. — mangel, m. pretended want. — mittel, n. a palliative, a palliative remedy. — nebel, m. V. Sonnenrausch. — nutzen, m. imaginary profit. — philosoph, m. pretended or pseudo-philosopher, a philosopher. — philosophie, f. false philosophy, philosophism. — pracht, f. vain ostentation. — quittung, f. [little used] acceptance, friendly or accommodation-receipt, the remitting of a debt without payment, fictitious receipt. — reue, f. false repentance, mock or sham-contrition. — ruhe, f. pretended repose, fictitious or apparent tranquillity, [fam.] cat's sleep, dog-sleep. — sieg, m. imaginary victory. — silber, n. [Argenteus] Queen's metal, britannia, German silver. — stolz, m. manners that appear to be proud, seeming pride. — strafe, f. pretended punishment. — streit, m. fictitious quarrel, pretended dispute. — sucht, f. love of shewing off, of cutting a dash. — süchtig, adj. and adv. imbued with the love of shewing off, of cutting it fine. — thräne, f. crocodile's tear. — tob, m. apparent death, trance. — tobt, adj. and adv. apparently dead. Ein — tobt, a man in a trance, one seemingly dead. — treu, adj. and adv. who or what appears to be faithful, seemingly true or loyal. — treue, f. feigned fidelity or loyalty. — tugend, f. feigned, mock, sham virtue. — übel, n. apparent, imaginary evil; supposititious ill. — ursache, f. apparent cause, reason. — verdienst, n. apparent merit, specious merit, seeming deserts. — vergügen, n. false pleasure, pleasure bought with pain. — vertrag, m. illusory, pretended, supposititious contract. — vollkommenheit, f. imaginary or utopian perfection, the beau idéal. — wahr, adj. and adv. true in appearance, superficially true. — wahrheit, f. apparent truth. — wechsel, m. 1) imaginary change, seeming alteration. 2) [in commerce] accommodation-bill. — werfer, m. a lamp-reflector or refractor. — wert, n. feint, pretence; dissimulation, [fam.] humbug, [low] gammon. — wesen, n. 1) imaginary, fictitious being, phantom, chimera. 2) appearance, feint, pretence, mere outside shew. — widerspruch, m. an apparent or seeming contradiction. — wohl, n. imaginary advantage, benefit. — wort, n. unmeaning word, a non-sequitur word. — wunder, n. apparent miracle. — wurm, m. V. — fäfer. — wurzel, f. [in botany] bastard root, a stoloniferous root, a stolo, a sucker. — zahlung, f. V. — quittung. — zorn, m. feigned rage, pretended anger, passion that is put on, counterfeit wrath. — zornig, adj. and adv. angry, blustering, passionate through pretence, for shew or make-believe.

Scheinbar, adj. and adv. 1) [little used] clear, shining, glowing; fig. [old = augenscheinlich] evident, visible. 2) [chiefly in common people's lang.] looking well, spruce, smart. Eine Waare — machen, to make a shop-article have a good or spruce look, to give a set-off or gloss to an article that has not intrinsic worth; das sieht noch ganz — aus, that looks still quite smart, spruce, [fam.] that looks still quite the thing, the go, quite taking. 3) apparent, optically or ocularly visible. [in astronomy] Der — e Ort eines Sternes, der Sonne, the apparent place of a star, of the sun; die — e Größe eines Gegenstandes, the apparent size of an object; die — e Bewegung der Sonne um die Erde, the apparent movement of the sun round the earth; der — e Gesichtskreis, the sensible or visual horizon. Fig. — er Grund, Beweis, specious, plausible reason, apparent or seeming proof; diese Gründe sind nur —, these reasons are merely apparent ones; unter dem — en Vorwande, under the specious, plausible pretext; er hat die Sache so — vorge-tragen, daß &c., he represented the case so speciously, plausibly, that &c.; die — e Rich-tigkeit einer Sache, the apparent justice of a thing; eine — e Tugend, a false, seeming virtue.

Scheinbarkeit, f. appearance.

Scheinen, [allied to the Swed. skonja, to see, to (schön &c.) irr. v. intr. 1) to shine. Die Sonne scheint, the sun shines; der Mond schien, the moon shone, it was moonlight; die Sonne scheint hell, warm, angenehm, the sun shines bright, warm, agreeable or comfortable; die Sonne scheint zu heiß, the sun shines too hot, the sun's rays or beams are too powerful; die Sonne schien uns ins Ge-sicht, in die Augen, senkrecht auf den Kopf, the sun shone in our faces, eyes, perpen-dicularly upon our heads; heute hat die Sonne nicht geschienen, the sun has not shone to day, not come forth to day. Syn. V. Leuchten. 2) to appear, to seem, to look. Die Dinge — oft anders, als sie sind, things often seem different from what they really are; es ist nicht genug, ein ehrlicher Mann zu —, it is not enough to seem to be an honest man; er will reicher —, als er ist, he wants to appear richer than he is; er scheint ein gelehrter Mann zu seyn, er ist, wie es scheint, ein ge-lehrter Mann, he seems to be a learned man, he is, by what it seems, a learned man; dies scheint mir ein gutes Mittel zu seyn, this appears to me to be a good remedy; es scheint, er verstehe nicht viel, he does not look as if he knew much; es scheint wohl nicht, daß sie einwil-ligen werde, it does not look as if she would consent, her consent is not very likely; to judge by appearances; diese Früchte — reif zu seyn, these fruits appear to be ripe, look ripe; es scheint, es wolle schneien, it looks as if it would snow, it looks like a fall of snow brooding in the air; so scheint es, so scheint es mir, so it appears, so it seems to me; mir scheint es nicht so, it does not appear so to me; diese Farbe scheint mir nicht lebhaft genug zu seyn, this colour does not seem to me to be lively enough. Das —, the appearance.

Scheinlich, adj. and adv. [little used] apparent, V. Augen—, Wahr—.

Scheiße, f. [very low] 1) [Roth] shit. 2) [Durchlauf] diarrhoea, looseness, scouring. Er hat die —, he has got the squirt.

Scheißen, irr. v. tr. and intr. [very low] to shit, to shite, to cack, to bog. In's Bett —, to shit one's bed, a-bed; Bisam —, to shit musk.

Scheiß-beere, f. [very low] 1) V. Kreuzbeere, it. Gausbeere. 2) privet-berry. 3) V. Heckenkirche 1). 4) V. Wehlbeere 3); it. V. Wehlbaum 4). it. —beere or —beerholz, n. clematitis, viburnum, snowball-tree. 5) [Hirschfraut] berry of the nightshade. —haus, n. [very low for Abtritt] the shit-house, the privy. —kraut, n. [very low] 1) [Stachsfraut] purging-flax, mill-mountain, linaria, toad-flax. 2) [Springkraut] spurge, euphorbia. 3) [—melde] dog's mercury, cynocrambe; orach. —lorbeer, m. [very low] thymelaea, spurge-laurel, mezereon; it. V. Seidelbast. —melde, f. [very low] V. —kraut 3). —rübe, —wurz, f. [very low for Zaanrübe] white bryony.

Scheißer, m. [-s, pl. -] —inn, f. [very low] a shitter.

Scheißerei, f. [very low, insulting] 1) shitting. 2) shit, turd; fig. [insulting] shitten stuff, shit, paltry stuff.

Scheißerhaft, Scheißerig, adj. and adv. [very low] shitten, squashy. Fig. [extremely low] Er sieht — aus, he looks as if he had shit his breeches, he looks very shitten.

Scheit, n. [-es, pl. -e or -er] [dim. —chen, ||—lein, n. [-s, pl. -] [from scheiden, to cleave or split] 1) a log, a billet. Ein großes —holz, a great log of wood; Holz in —e or —er schlagen, to cleave wood into logs; V. Kern—, Stock—, —erz haufen; das Schiff ging in —er or zu —ern [more usual scheiterte], the ship went to pieces. 2) [Pack—] a packer's stick; [with bakers = Knet—] a kneading-beetle; V. Grab—, Richt—.

Scheit-flöße, f. a trough, gutter or float for conveyance of logs, of log-wood. —hauer, m. wood-feller and -cleaver. —maß, n. the measure of a cord or fathom of wood. —meiler, m. [with charcoal-burners] a furnace for logs or billets.

Scheiterhaufen, m. a wood pile or stack, a pyre. Einen —errichten, to raise a pile, stack; einen Verbrecher zum —verdammten [formerly], to condemn a criminal to the flames, to the faggot, to be burnt alive, to an auto-da-fe; sie bestieg unerschrocken den — [in the East-Indies, of a suttee], she ascended the pyre without trepidation.

Scheitel, f. [pl. -n] or Scheitel, m. [-s, pl. -] [from scheiden] the crown [the apex of the head]; it. the grain of the hair, the parting, the seam. Von der Fußsohle bis an die — [in Scripture], from the sole to the crown; bekränzt ihm den — mit Rosen [poetical], crown him with roses; der Berge, der Alpen — [with poets], the mountain-crown, the summit of the mountains, of the Alps; it. der — bei den Bürmern, the superior process, the middle, the highest ridge of the back. Fig. V. —punkt.

Scheitel-bein, n. [in anatomy] parietal bone, bone of the summit of the head. —fläche, f. vertical surface; [in physics] [Vertikalfläche] vertical plane. —gerad, V. —recht. —haar, n. [Kopfsaar] hair of the head. —kappe, f. [dim. —kappchen, ||—kapplein n.] skull-cap [especially for priests]. —kreis, m. [in astronomy] [Vertikalkreis, Vertikalzirkel] vertical circle. —linie, f. [in astronomy] [Vertikallinie] vertical line. —loch, n. [in anatomy] hole of the parietal bones. —punkt, m. [in astronomy] [Zenith] vertical point, zenith; it. vertical point, angle [of a crooked line]. —punkt eines Winkels, the summit, apex of an angle. —recht, adj. and adv. [in astronomy, geography] vertical; V. also Gotthrecht; [in botany] —rechtes Blatt, vertical leaf. —winkel, m. [in astronomy] [Azimutwinkel] azimuth, azimuthal angle. Die —winkel [in geography], vertical angles. —winkelkreis, m. [in astronomy] azimuth-circle. —winkel-linie, f. [in astronomy] azimuth-line.

Scheiteln, v. tr. to part. Die Haare auf dem Kopfe, auf or über der Stirne —, to part the hair upon one's head, on one's forehead or front; sie trägt die Haare gescheitelt, she wears her hair parted; sich —, [as parted hair does] to part.

Scheitern, [from scheiden] I. v. intr. to be wrecked, to be cast away, lost, to split. Unser Schiff scheiterte an einem Felsen, our ship bilged, split, struck upon, was wrecked on a rock; sie scheiterten auf einer Sandbank, they were wrecked upon a sand-bank; gescheitertes Schiff, a wreck. Fig. Unsere Pläne, Hoffnungen scheiterten, our plans, hopes foundered, were broken up, wrecked; eine gescheiterte Hoffnung, a hope wrecked, baffled, miscarried, rendered vain. II. v. tr. [not much used for —machen] to wreck. Der Sturm hat mehrere Schiffe gescheitert, the storm has foundered, wrecked several ships.

Schiel, [in Lower Sax. and Dutch schell and schel is oblique, awry and crooked; to these the Lat. scelus appears allied] [properly schief, then also schielend] adj. and adv. [rather low in the proper sense] squinting, squint-eyed, askew, askance. Fig. —zu Etwas sehen, to regard any thing askance, with an evil look, an ill-omened leer, [also] with an envious eye; siehst du darum so —, daß ich so gütig bin [in Scripture]? is thine eye evil, because I am good? Einen —ansehen, to look at any one from the corner of one's eyes, to give any one a sidelong look, to look askance at any one; it. fig. to look at any one with an evil eye, not to like any one; —er Blick, a side-glance; ein —es Gesicht zu Etwas machen, to make [up] a wry face at any thing.

|| Schelb, V. Schel.

|| Schelbe, f. V. Färse, Kalbe.

Schelde, f. [in geography] the Scheld.

Schelfe, f. [pl. -n] [low] peel, rind of fruit; [it. Hülse] pod, cod, shell, [low] shuck, husk. Syn. V. Hülse.

Schelfen, [low] [Schälen] I. v. tr. Apfel —, to pare apples; Nüsse —, to crack, to shell nuts; Bohnen, Erbsen —, to shell beans, peas. II. v. refl. Die Haut schelfet sich, the skin peels off, flakes off.

Schelfern, V. Schelfen II.

Schellinke, f. [pl. -n] [a kind of Indian vessel built without nails] junk.

Schelle, f. [pl. -n], dim. Schellchen, n. [-s, pl. -] [from schallen] 1) bell. —an einer Hausthüre, einem Thor, the door-bell, street-bell, gate-bell; —auf einem Tische, hand-bell; Kuh—, a cow-bell, a bell for the neck; —für weibende Thiere, a little neck-bell; mit einer —klingeln, to ring a bell, the bell; ziehen Sie die —an, ziehen Sie die —an der Thüre an, pull the bell, the door-bell, ring at the door-bell; ein Halsband mit —n, a collar with bells to it; man hängt den Raubvögeln —an an die Füße, the feet of birds of prey have bells hung on to their feet; V. Schlitten—; [in heraldry] mit einer —behängt, hung with a little bell, clariné; Schaf, Kameel mit einer goldenen —, sheep, camel belled or, clariné d'or. Proverb. Der Käse die —anhängen, to bell the cat. 2) [low] [Maul—] a cly, a buckhorse, a box on the ear, a stinger. 3) —n, chains to or for the hands and feet [of criminals]. 4) [in German cards, now only in common people's lang.] —n, diamonds. —n auspielen, to play diamonds; —n umschlagen, to cut, to turn up diamonds; ich habe zwei —n bekommen, I have got two diamonds, two in diamonds. 5) [with gardeners] V. Rüchen—. 6) [in conchology, —horn] the striated buccinum, the fluted whelk.

Schellen-acht, f. [in games] eight of diamonds. —aß, n. ace of diamonds, the diamond-ace. —band, n. [for animals] bell-collar. —baum, m. the Brazilian ahovai. Westindischer —baum, the West-Indian ahovai or cerbera, the deadly mangrove-tree. —baumsame, m. seed of the ahovai. —blume, f. V. —pflanze. —bube, m. knave or jack of diamonds. —feder, f. a bell-spring. —gellengel, n. jingling or tinkling of bells. —geläute, n. 1) ringing or pealing, jingling or tinkling of bells. 2) the set of bells [to sledge-harness]. —gerassel, n. jingling. —halsband, n. V. —band. —horn, n. V. Schelle [in conchology]. —kappe, f. fool's-cap, cap and bells. Fig. Einer Sache die —kappe anhängen [in fam. lang.], to turn a thing into ridicule. —könig, m. king of diamonds. —klang, m. ringing, jingling, pealing of bells. —macher, m. a bell-maker, a maker of harness-bells, of team-bells. —muschel, f. V. Naupmuschel. —narr, m. a fool with his cap and bells, with his bauble, with his plaything. —netz, n. [to some billiard-tables] pocket with a bell attached. —pferd, n. a horse decked with bells. —pflanze, f. the Peruvian bell-flower, the nolana. —sack, m. a sack with a bell fastened to it; V. —netz, Klingelbeutel. —sackträger, m. V. Klingelbeutelträger. —schlange, f. V. Slapverschlange. —schlitten, m. a sledge with bells. —schnecke, f. Geslügelte —schnecke, the streaked or twisted whelk, the concha globosa denticulata. —trommel, f. a tamborine; timbrel. —werk, n. 1) work composed of or furnished with bells. 2) [formerly] V. Schelle 3). Jemanden in das —werk [zur Kettenstrafe] verurtheilen, to condemn any one to working in chains. —zeug, n. [Schlittenge-schirr] bell-harness. —zug, m. bell-pull, bell-wire [in a room].

1. Schellen, v. intr. [from schallen, V. Schelle] to ring the bell, to ring. Mit einem Glöckchen —, to ring with a little bell; man hat geschellt, an der Thüre geschellt, somebody has rung, rung at the door, rung the door-bell; der Magd —, to ring for the maid-servant; dem Kellner, dem Aufwärter, dem Zimmermädchen or [obsolescent] der Kammermagd —, to ring for the waiter, for the chamber-maid; — Sie, ring the bell, ring.

2. Schellen, v. intr. to fall down heavily, V. 3er—.

Schell=ablen, m. sea-eagle, osprey, fish-hawk. —apfel, m. a flat, hard and sourish apple. —art, f. [in salt-works] hatchet or axe for cleaving lumps and blocks of salt. —beerbaum, m. mountain-bramble, cloud-berry-bramble. —beere, f. the cloud-berry. —braten, m. [with cooks] cutlets. —eisen, n. [with braziers] iron-staff for rivetting the head of the nail round, the iron-driver. —ente, f. [Böffente] morillon, sheldrake. Das Männchen der Schellente, sheldrake. —fisch, m. the haddock. Breiter —fisch, ling. —fischstöhr, m. the sturgeon. —fischteufel, m. a genus of fishes with their gills upon the neck or back, the lyre-fish, quaviver, small sea-dragon, the callionymus or kallionymus. —hammer, m. [with masons] large hammer. —harz, n. rosin. —hengst, m. [Beschäfer] stallion. —kraut, n. celandine, swallow-wort. Gehörntes —kraut, red-flowering celandine; eisengraues —kraut, glaucous celandine; kleines —kraut, little scrophulary, crow-foot, pile-wort, fig-wort. —lack, m. 1) gum-lack in squares, in lozenges. 2) V. Siegestack. —würz, —würzel, f. V. —kraut.

Scheller, m. [-s, pl.-] 1) a ringer, a bell-ringer; it. [in several parts of Germany, for Außscheller] the public or town crier. 2) [in nat. hist.] V. Bergeinsiedler.

Schellern, V. 1. Schellen.

Schellung, f. [V. 2. Schellen] contusion, laceration, abrasion [of skin and flesh by a severe fall or blow].

Schelm, m. [-es or -en, pl. -e or -en] [perhaps allied to the Swed. skilja, to perceive] 1) [fam.] a fellow up to snuff, wide awake, a dabster at larks and speers, a person who is no fool. Ein kleiner — [loses Bübchen], a young urchin, a young scapegrace, an idle young dog, a flibbertigibbet; ein loser —, a rogue; Sie sind ein loser —, ah, you rogue you! [fam.] den — hinter den Ohren, im Nacken haben, [obsolescent] ein — in seiner Haut seyn, to be a sly, a knowing body, a crafty dog; der — sieht ihm, ihr aus den Augen, he, she has roguish, wicked eyes; armer —! poor devil! poor fellow! SYN. V. Schalk. 2) a rascal, a cheat, a knave, a rogue, a sharper, a swindler. Er ist ein großer —, he is a desperate cheat, a complete knave, an arrant rogue, an arch-thief; Einen zum — machen [obsolet], to render, to declare any one infamous, degraded [by a legal process]; man hat ihn als einen — weggejagt, he has been expelled with infamy, kicked or turned out as a cheat, [in English regiments] he has been drummed out with rogue's march and his coat turned inside out; er ist an seiner Partei zum — geworden, he has turned traitor to his party, [of a culprit] he has turned king's evidence; er handelt wie ein — [Betrüger], he acts like a cheat, a swindler, a pickpocket; ein —, der es thut! whoever does is a rascal for his pains! ein —, der es böse meint! honni soit qui mal y pense, evil be to him that evil thinks! ich will ein — seyn, wenn &c., I'll be hanged, if &c., I wish I may be shot, if &c. SYN. Schelm, Schurke, Spitzbube, Gauner. A man becomes a Schelm by the sentence of the law; a Schurke by the voice of public opinion; a Spitzbube by overt acts of stealing &c.; a Gauner by artful practices, as false play &c.

Schelm=auge, n. 1) [schelmisches Auge] roguish eye. 2) [fam.] Du — auge! ah you rogue, you urchin you! ah! you little gipsy, you baggage you! —birne, f. a sort of pear, choke-pear. —gesicht, n. 1) a roguish look. 2) [fam.] a roguish-looking person. —gesindel, —gezucht, n. [in a bad sense] the low rabble, the blackguard mob, the tag-rag; it. [chiefly in addressing children or half grown boys or girls, in a good or comic sense] ihr kleines —gesindel, you little rascals! you little rogues! —glück, n. rogue's or thief's luck. Fig. [in fam. lang.] Er hat —glück, he is lucky, he has the devil's own luck. —rebe, f. evil discourse, bad language. —sinn, m. V. Schelmensinn. —sprache, f. thieves' latin, gipsy-cant, gibberish, V. Diebsprache. —streich, m. a knavish trick, a swindling act, cheatery, a sharper's trick. Einen —streich ausüben, to commit a dishonest act, a roguish piece of business; er verübt lauter —streiche, he only practices dishonesty, he does nothing but cheat, he lives by cheating, he lives by his wits; darunter steckt ein —streich, there is roguery in that. —stück, —stückchen, n. V. —streich. Das ist ein's von seinen —stückchen [in a gentle or good-natured sense], there is another of his plaguy tricks again, there he is at his practical jokes again; ein —stückchen aussinnen, to hatch a scheme for cheating, bamboozling, gammoning, taking in.

Schelmens=auge, n. V. Schelmauge. —gesicht, n. V. Schelmgesicht. —gras, n. sword-grass, acute carex or sedge. —kraut, n. ivy-leaved gentian. —pack, n. [low] V. —gesindel. —rotte, f. nest, band of thieves, gang of sharpers. —sinn, m. bad, evil mind. —sprache, f. V. Schelm-sprache.

Schelmeln, v. intr. [not much used] to cheat, to commit little roguish actions, to cheat in a small way.

Schelmen, v. intr. [not much used] to act like a rogue, to cheat, to take in.

Schelmerei, f. 1) character of the rogue, roguery, imposture, cheatery, swindling. Seine — ging so weit, daß &c., his roguery, his knack at cheating, his powers or talents for swindling went to such lengths, that &c. 2) a roguish or knavish action, cheating, imposition. Seine — geht so weit &c., his swindling, imposture goes so far as &c.; —treiben, to cheat, to swindle, to commit the acts of a rogue; den Kopf voll —en haben, to have one's head full of knavish devices, of impostures, swindling schemes.

Schelmisch, adj. and adv. [in a good and in a bad sense] roguish; [in a bad sense] cheating, bamboozling, taking in. —er Mensch, [in a good and in a bad sense] rogue, [in a good sense] a roguish person, [in a bad sense] a cheating fellow, a cheat; ein —es Mädchen, a roguish, arch girl; —handeln [in a good sense], to play a roguish, wanton, arch trick or tricks, [in a bad sense] to act like a rogue, a shuffler; —er Weise davon gehen, to go away like a rogue, decamp like a thief; —es Lächeln, a roguish, an arch smile; —e Miene, —es Aussehen, roguish mien, arch look or countenance; —e Augen, roguish eyes; —er Streich, a knavish piece of business, a sharper's trick; [fam.] a trick, a turn up of the knowing ones, of the fancy coves, [in a good sense] a roguish trick, wanton-play.

Schelte, f. V. Schülpe.

Schelsucht, f. envy, jealousy.

Schelsüchtig, adj. and adv. envious, invidious, jealous. Ein —er Mensch, ein —er, an envious wight.

Schelsüchtigkeit, f. enviousness, invidiousness, jealousy.

Scheltbar, adj. and adv. [not much used] blameable, reprehensible, censurable.

Schelte, f. [pl. -n] [Scheltwort] [in common people's lang.] insults, reprimands, scolding, reproof, taking to task, [from a wife for her husband] curtain-lecture, [low] slang, clack, scan-mag. —bekommen or kriegen, to get a rating, a scolding.

Schelten, [allied to schaffen, nearly in the same way as the Lat. increpare from crepare] irr. v. tr. 1) [as the hind] to bray, to troat. 2) [heissen] to treat. Jemand einen gnädigen Herrn —, to treat any one, to behave towards any one as a lord, as a squire of high degree, as a great man [to his face, not behind his back]; er hat ihn einen Schurken, Unverschämten gescholten, he treated him as a rascal, an impudent fellow. 3) [in Scripture] to bid, to command. Mit meinem — mache ich das Meer trocken, at my rebuke I dry up the sea. 4) [generally, in pop. lang.] to insult, to storm and bluster, to rate, to scold, to find fault. Er thut den ganzen Tag nichts, als lärmern und —, he does nothing but storm and scold all day long; Einen, auf Einen —, to reproach, to reprove, to reprimand, to lecture any one; er schalt nicht wieder, da er gescholten ward [in Scripture], he reviled not, when he was reviled; man hat ihn gescholten, er hat wieder gescholten, they abused him, and he abused in his turn, again; sie schalten einander ärger, als die Troßbuben, als Fischweiber, they vituperated each other in a shocking manner, they abused, rated one another worse than pickpockets, than Billingsgate-fishfags; er wird darüber —, he will storm, kick up a rumpus about that; V. Reifen, Schmähen, Sanken; it. ich mag ihn weder loben noch — [tadeln], I would neither praise him nor blame him. SYN. V. Reifen. Das —, scolding, rating, twitting, insulting. Man ist an sein — gewöhnt, they or we have got used to his finding fault; er kann das — und Fuchen nicht vertragen, he cannot endure scolding and swearing.

Schelt=brief, m. 1) insulting or threatening letter. 2) letter of reproaches, of reprimands, of censure, [in a less harsh sense] a scolding letter, a letter of reproof. —schrift, f. [not much used] writing filled with invectives, with insults, a libellous writing. —wort, n. an insulting word, a word of abuse, an invective. In —worte ausbrechen, to break out into invectives, to burst out into a torrent of abuse; vergeltet nicht —worte mit —worten [in Scripture], return not revilings with revilings.

Scheltens=werth, V. Scheltbar.

Schelter, m. [-es, pl.-] a scolder, a rebuker, a taker to task &c. V. Schelten.

*Schema, n. [-s, pl. -s, Schemate or Schemata] model, plan, scheme.

*Schematisch, adj. and adv. conformable to the scheme or plan.

*Schematisiren, v. intr. to schematize.

*Schematism [uß], m. [-s, pl. -en] schematism, representation of the aspects of the celestial bodies; diagram.

Schemel, V. Schamel.

Schemen, m. [-s] [little used, except in poetical style = Schattenbild] shadow, phantom, phantasm.

Schénbord, m. [-es, pl. -e] [with whale-fishermen] the knee-board for the harpooner in a boat.

*Schénlsje, or [French] Chenille, f. [pl. -n] [with embroiderers, lace makers &c., silken cords &c. worked upon satin &c.] chenille.

Schénk, m. [-en, pl. -en] — inn, f. 1) [more usual Schénkwirt] publican, vintner. V. Bier—, Kaffee—, Wein—. 2) [Mund—] cup-bearer; V. Erz—e.

Schénkbar, adj. and adv. 1) [V. Schénken 4)] of which a present can be made, presentable. 2) [V. Schénken 2)] Das Bier ist noch nicht —, the beer is not yet fit to be tapped, not settled, not mellow, not drinkable yet.

Schénkhast, adj. and adv. [V. Schénken 4)] [in common people's lang.] liberal, generous.

Schénkhastigkeit, f. [in common people's lang.] liberality.

Schénke, f. [pl. -n] 1) public-house, tavern, dram-shop. Er geht gern, oft in die —, he likes to visit, he haunts the ale-shop, he is a tavern-hunter; er sitzt or liegt beständig in der —, he is constantly sitting, lolling about, he soaks in the tavern, dram-shop; eine — haben, halten, to keep a public-house, to carry on trade in the publican's line. V. Bier—, Branntwein—, Kaffee—, Wein—; eine [Marketenberz] — im Lager, a canteen, sutling-house. 2) [in common people's lang.] V. Geschenk.

Schénkel, m. [-s, pl. -] dim. — chen, [Schénkelein, n. [-s, pl. -] [in old Sax. skanku is the leg; it is allied to hinken, originally to go] 1) the thigh. Der eigentliche or große — [die Hantel], the hip, the haunch, [low] the buttock. Ein Pferd mit guten, feinen, schönen —n, a horse with good, tapering, handsome hind-legs; ein Pferd mit starken, fleischigen —n, a horse with strong, fleshy hind-legs, a horse well-trussed; ein Windhund mit runden —n und breiten Lenden, a harrier with round thighs and broad in the loins; die Kunst des Reiters besteht in der Uebereinstimmung der Hand und der —, the art of the rider, the science of horsemanship consists in the keeping time with the hand and thigh or leg; das Pferd folgt, gehorcht den —n, the horse answers to, obeys the legs, the pressure of the legs; dem Pferde die Hüfte mit dem — geben, to cherish, to aid, to ease the horse with the legs; der — der Vögel, the thigh of birds, [when dressed] leg. 2) certain things similar to a thigh. [in anatomy] Die — des verlängerten Hirnmarkes, the legs of the spinal marrow; die — des Schamzüngleins, the legs of the clitoris; [in architecture] — eines Hebezeuges, the leg, foot, stand of any apparatus for raising; [of a door or window] jamb, jambs; der — am Dreischlig, the space in a triglyph. [with spur and bit-makers] die — an den Reitstangen, the guards to the branches of the bridle or bit; die — des Sporns, Hufeisens, the branches of the spur, quarters of a horse-shoe; [with miners] seat of the driver on the gin or winch; — an der Fahrt, the legs of a mining-ladder; [in seamen's lang.] pendant or pennant-rope; [with vine-dressers] vine-shoot; die — eines Birkels, the legs, the feet of a pair of compasses; [in geometry] die — eines Winkels, the sides of an angle, V. Gleichschenkelig.

Schénkelader, f. femoral vein. — anhang, m. [in anatomy] trochanter [either major or minor]. — bein, n. thigh-bone, thick bone, crural bone, the femur. — binde, f. [in anatomy] the broad aponeurosis of the thigh, the crural aponeurosis, the fascia lata. Die Muskel der breiten —binde, the fascia lata femoris, the [femoral] ilio-aponeurotic. — birne, f. jargonelle-pear, lady's thigh. — blatt, n. [with saddlers] the straps of the crupper. — blutader, f. crural vein. — bruch, m. crural rupture; it. crural hernia. — deich, m. cross-dike; it. arm of a dike. — drehet, m. [in anatomy] rotator, rotatory muscle, V. — anhang. — haken, m. [in seamen's lang.] can-hook. — knochen, m. V. — bein. — lade, f. [with pin-makers] knee-board for wire-cutting. — muskel, m. [in anatomy] crural muscle. Große —muskel, the glutaeus. — nerve, m. crural nerve. — neßbruch, m. [in anatomy] crural hernia of the epiploon, epiploerocele. — pulsader, f. crural artery. — schiene, f. [formerly, in armour] the tasses, the cuishes. — schlagader, f. V. — pulsader. — stein, m. scelites. — wolle, f. thigh-wool. — wurzel, f. [in nat. hist.] the haunch, the hip.

Schénkelig, adj. and adv. having thighs, legs. Die —es Pferd, a well-trussed horse, V. Dünn—.

Schénkeln, v. tr. to furnish with thighs or legs [unusual, except in the following and similar phrases] Schön geschenkt, handsome legged, having handsome thighs, well thewed.

Schénken, v. tr. [appears to have meant originally darreichen, to reach forth] 1) [to reach forth as it were the breast] [low] Ein Kind —, to suckle a child, to give a child the breast. 2) to sell in a small way, by retail. Bier, Wein &c. —, to sell beer, wine &c. by the quart or pint, by the bottle or small measure; hier wird guter Wein geschenkt, good wine is sold, dealt out here; [obsolete] Salz —, to huckster in salt, to retail salt. 3) [gießen] to pour. Wein aus einer Flasche in ein Glas —, to pour out wine from a decanter or bottle into a glass; Wein aus einer großen Flasche in eine weiße — [in England], to decant a bottle of wine; das Glas, die Tasse &c. voll —, to fill the glass to the brim, to pour out a brimmer or bumper, to fill the cup &c. full, V. Ein—; [in common people's lang.] Einem — [elliptically for Einem etwas — and more usual einschenken], to give any one some drink, something to drink. 4) to give [as a present], to bestow [as a gift]. Einem etwas —, to give any one something, to make any one a present, a keepsake; er hat ihm eine Kutsche, Uhr, tausend Thaler geschenkt, he gave him, he made him a present of a coach, a watch, a thousand dollars; was — Sie mir, wenn ich es Ihnen sage? what will you give me to tell it you, if I tell it to you? proverb, V. unter Gaus; geschenkte Handwerke, those trades wherein the apprentices, when out of their time, receive by right, during their tramp or travels, money from their masters. Fig. Einem sein Herz —, to give to any one one's heart, to bestow one's affections upon any one; Einem seine Freundschaft —, to accord any one one's friendship; wenn Sie mir Ihre Liebe — wollen, if you will grant, accord me your love, your affection; wenn mir Gott Leben und Gesundheit schenkt, if God grants, gives me life and health; Einem eine Schuld —, to forgive any one his debt; man hat ihm die Hälfte [seiner Schuld] geschenkt, they have given him back, forgiven him the half [of his debt]; die Strafe —, to pardon, to let off from punishment; es soll dir geschenkt seyn [in fam. lang.], I pardon you, I'll let you off this time; das soll ihm nicht geschenkt seyn [in fam. lang.], he shall not escape, pass scot-free, he shall not be let off with impunity, I shall not forget him in a hurry, I shall put him down in my black book; Einem das Leben —, a) to give life, birth to any one, b) to pardon any one's life, [more especially] to give quarter. Das —, V. Schenkung.

Schénkamt, n. V. — enamt. — bier, n. beer sold by retail, in draught. — faß, n. beer-pail or cooler. — geber, m. [for Geschenkgeber] [in jurisprudence] V. Schénker. — gefäß, n. V. — tanne. — gerechtigkeits, f. right of keeping a beer-house or wine-house, of selling by retail, [in England] beer-licence. — haus, n. beer or ale-house, wine-shop, liquor-shop, gin-shop. — hochzeit, f. [for Geschenkhochzeit] [fam.] nuptials where the guests make presents to the married pair. — kanne, f. the beccan, ale-pot, quart-jug. — keller, m. public cellar, the shades. — maß, n. beer or ale-measure, vintner's quart or pint measure, standard pot. — nehmer, m. [for Geschenknehmer] [in jurisprudence] the donee, the legatee. — recht, n. V. — gerechtigkeit. — stube, f. the tap-room, the bar of a public house or liquor-shop. — teller, m. [Kredenzsteller] salver. — tisch, m. [Kredenzstisch] side-board; it. dumb-waiter. — wein, m. wine sold in retail, in draught, by bottle. — wirth, m. — wirthin, f. publican, public-house keeper, tavern-keeper, landlord, landlady. — wirthschaft, f. 1) trade of a public-house keeper, [fam.] trade in the public-line. 2) a public-house, a tavern [of an inferior sort], [fam.] a public, a liquor-shop, a dram-shop.

Schénkenamt, n. office of cup-bearer; post filled by the serjeant of the wine-cellar.

Schénker, m. [-s, pl. -] — inn f. the giver, the grantor, the donor, the presenter.

Schénkung, f. [das Schénken] the act of giving, the making of a present; it. [das Geschenk] gift, present, keepsake, meed, guerdon, [in law] donation. Eine — an eine Kirche &c. machen, to make a donation to a church &c.; [in civil law] — aus Verbindlichkeit, a giving that is not gratuitous [opposed to donation]; eine — unter Lebendigen, a grant, a deed of gift, a disposal between living parties; eine — auf den Fall des Todes, a bequeathing, a grant &c. by will, a testamentary bequest, a legacy; eine vergeltende —, a remunerative gift or grant; eine belastete —, a gift that may be withdrawn by the donor through ingratitude on the part of the donee, [also] a donation to which a condition is attached; eine unbedingte, eine bedingte —, a pure and simple, an unconditional, a free gift, a conditional gift or concession; eine — widerrufen, für ungültig erklären, to revoke a gift or grant, to declare a gift &c. for invalid, or of no effect, to quash a deed of gift.

Schénkungsbrief, m. — urkunde, f. deed of gift.

Schépp, m. [-es, pl. -e] [in Low Sax.

scheypen means also schneiden, to cut [in salterns, Wannenstein] selenite of sea-salt, and containing Glauber-salts, schlot.

Scheypphammer, m. [in salterns] sharp-edged hammer for detaching the schlot or salt-crust from the salt-pans.

Schëpp, adj. and adv. [low] V. Schief, Quer.

Scherbchen, n. [-s, pl. -] [in conchology] V. Kammvenus.

Scherbe, f. [pl. -n] dim. Scherbchen, || Scherblein, n. [-s, pl. -] [from scheren = to divide] 1) [in seamen's lang.] a lengthening seam made between the ends of two planks, a scarf. Einfache —, butt and butt; die doppelte —, scarf of two ends of timber laid over each other, V. Lang —. 2) potsherd, shard. In —n zerbrechen, zerfallen, to break, to fall in pieces, to shiver into bits; die —n eines Glases, Topfes, the broken pieces, the fragments of a glass, pot; die —n von zerbrochenen Töpfen sammeln, to gather up the fragments, the bits, the pieces of broken pots. Prov. An den —n siehet man, was am Hasen oder Topfe gewesen ist, adversity is the test of a man's character. 3) [Gefäß] pot, vase. Blumen in —n setzen, to put or plant flowers in pots, in vases; aus den —n nehmen, to take out of pots; V. Blumen —n; it. [in chemistry] vessel for crystallizing a fluid, a capsule; [with metal-refiners] test, coppel, cupel, cappel; [with shoemakers] a small mug; [with miners] a measure of four quintals of rosin-slacken. 4) [in botany] V. Scherpche.

Scherbenarsenik, m. [in mineralogy] native arsenic. — berg, m. a heap of potsherds, of broken pottery or crockery. — blume, f. a flower in a pot or vase. — bürr, adj. and adv. [in pop. lang.] lean as a lath, as an eel-skin, a shotten herring. — futter, n. mould for tests, for assay-coppels. — gericht, n. [at ancient Athens] ostracism. — gewächs, n. 1) plant reared in a pot or vase. 2) plant in a flower-pot or vase. — karren, m. [with miners] a cartful, a load or four quintals of slacken. — kobalt, m. [with miners] testaceous cobalt, native arsenic. — kraut, n. [in botany] serratula, dyer's saw-wort. — nelke, f. a pink or carnation in a flowerpot or vase. — zange, f. V. *Schlacken*zange.

Scherbel, m. [-s, pl. -n] or Scherben, m. [-s, pl. -] pot, vase, flower-pot; V. Scherbe 3).

Scherbelstein, or Scherbenstein, m. a variety of steatite, pot-stone.

Scherben, v. tr. V. Scharben.

Scherbet, V. Sorbet.

Schëre, f. [pl. -n] [dim. Scherchen, || Scherlein, n. [-s, pl. -] [V. 1. Scheren] 1) [something cutting] a pair of scizzars or scissors, the scissors. — der Parze, the scissors or shears of the Fates, of fate; mit der — entzwei schneiden, to cut [in twain] with the scissors; die — [in the m't], clippers, the shears; [with shearers] große —, the shears, sheep-shears. 2) [something torn off, separated, divided; the Engl. scar, Dan. skaar, a notch] [in geography] Die —n, groups of rocks, islands, banks in the Baltic. 3) — eines Leiters wagens; the fork of the wagon-beam; — an einer Wage, the handle of a balance; it. V. Belt —; [with bakers] the notched hole of the peel for the handle; [in fortification] die einfache —, V. Scherwerk; die doppelte — [der Schwabenschwanz], double tenail; [in nat. hist.] die —n des Krebses, Skorpions, the pinchers, the claws, the nippers, [fam.]

clapperclaws of the craw-fish, scorpion; it. [in seamen's lang.] die —n eines Bockes, the sheers; die — eines Flügels, V. Scherholz; —n des Rubers, the googings of the stern-post; it. [in the manege] — am Gebisse, branch of the bit; V. Blech —, Draht —, Papier —, Schaf —, Schneider —, Tuch —; it. ganz kleine —, a pair of housewife or dressing-case scissors; — eines Wundarztes zu Einschnitten, a surgeon's scissors for incisions or snipping; eine gekrümmte —, hooked, curved, grape-scissors. 4) [in botany] wild chervil.

Scherenassel, f. the nipper-footed milleped or wood-louse. — flotte, f. [V. under Schëre 2)] the coasting flotilla or gun-boats of Sweden in the Baltic &c. — förmig, adj. and adv. scissor or shear-formed, forked. — glied, n. V. Scher, glied. — schleifer, m. a cutler who grinds and sets bevel-edged tools as scissors, shears &c. Herumziehender — schleifer, the knife-grinder. — schmied, m. cutler. — stock, m. [with smiths] a block to which the great shears are fastened which cut the brass-plates. — tausendbein, n. V. — assel.

Schëren, [allied to the Gr. τείνω and ἐργάζω] irr. 1. v. tr. 1) to shear, to cut with scissors &c.; to clip [for short cuts], to snip; [with weavers] to warp, to cut, to twitch. Das Gras — [low for mähen], to mow the grass; mit einem Schermesser —, to shave; sich —, den Bart —, to shave one's self, to shave; sich den Bart — lassen, to get or have one's self shaved; proverb. an armer Leute Bart lernt man —, the curing of the rich is learned by killing the poor in an hospital, a valet's foot is often his master's last; Einem eine Platte —, to shave any one's crown, [in a bad religious sense] to make a shaveling of any one; sich den Kopf — lassen, to get or have one's head shaved, it. [in common people's lang.] to have one's hair cut or cropped; die Haare vom Kopfe —, to cut the hair short, close to the head; er ist geschoren, he is cropped, polled, shaven, shorn; einen Hund, die Schafe —, to shave or shear a dog, to shear the sheep; [with cloth-manufacturers] die Tücher —, to shear cloth, the cloths; zu halben Haaren —, V. Bärteln; geschorener Sammet, cut-velvet; [in rural economy] V. Abästen; [with gardeners] die Hecken, Bäume — [beschneiden], to shear the hedges, to prune or clip trees. Fig. Ich weiß nicht, wie ich da geschoren bin [low for wie ich da daran bin], I don't know where I am, what to be at, what to think of it; Alle über Einen Kamm — [in pop. lang.], to treat all alike, upon the same footing; sie sind Alle über Einen Kamm geschoren, they are all alike, [low] they are all of the same kidney, it is six of one and half a dozen of the other with them; sein Schäfschen geschoren haben [fam.], V. Schaf, fig. a); dieser Wirth versteht es, seine Gäste zu — [zu übernehmen] [in pop. lang.], this landlord knows how to fleece his guests, knows how to make a woodcock's bill; Einen — [in common people's lang.], to bother, to tease, to importune, to dun any one; die Unterthanen — [drücken] [in common people's lang.], to oppress, to grind down one's subjects [as a tyrant]; das schiert mich nicht [in common people's lang.], that does not concern me, it does not affect me, [fam.] I shan't bother myself about it, it is no beverage of my brewing; [low] was schiert dich das? what has that to do with you? [insulting] what's that to you? mind your own business; sich um Etwas —

[low], to vex one's self or care about any thing, to be jealous about any thing; ich schiere mich nichts um sie, um sie Alle, I don't care a fig for them all, I don't trouble myself about them [all]. 2) [ausspannen &c.] [with rope-makers] ein Tau —, to stretch, to warp a rope; [with weavers] —, to warp [the warp of a cloth &c.], V. Anschiere, Scherung; dieses Tuch ist auf 36 Ellen geschoren, the warp of this cloth has 36 ells; it. [in seamen's lang.] ein Schiff —, to hoist the frames and nail the ribbands; die Planken —, to set up, to arrange the planks, the side-boards. II. v. intr. [allied to the Engl. scare, and perhaps to the Greek σκαλπειν] Die Störche —, the storks wheel, career in their flight, fly here and there; — beim Schlittschuhlaufen, to make half-rounds, semicircles, wheels in skating; ein Pferd, welches schiert, a horse that champs. III. v. refl. sich —, 1) [sich packen] [low, in a bad sense] to sheer off, to pack off, to make one's self scarce, to cut one's stick, to give leg-bail. Schier or schier dich aus dem Wege! make yourself scarce! be off! march! 2) [low, for sich plagen] to toil and slave, to work hard, to toil continually. Man muß sich —, und weiß nicht warum, one must fag and toil or must labour and toil [continually] without knowing why. Das — des Bartes, shaving; das — des Hauptes, the shaving of the crown of the head, of the pate; das — des Tuches, der Schafe, the shearing of cloth, of sheep, the cloth-clipping; [Schafschur] the sheep-shearing.

Scherbank, f. [with smiths] the bench to which the tin-shears are attached; [with damask-weavers] bench of the warp-bobbins; [with shearers] [tritt] step or foot stool of the shearing-table. — becken, n. a barber's basin. — beutel, m. V. — fact. — block, m. [in seamen's lang.] a warping-block. — distel, f. V. Schwartendistel. — eisen, n. 1) a horse-shoe of two moveable pieces. 2) V. Scharfeisen. — floße, f. V. — wolle. — futteral, n. barber's case or traps. — gabel, f. [with cloth-manufacturers] a wooden prong or fork for warping. — gang, m. V. Sente. — garn, n. yarn or thread for the warp. — glied, n. [with miners] = Stöbenglied a figure of eight hook for joining a broken chain. — haare, pl. the cuttings of cropped hair; [especially] shorn wool, first shearings or fleece. — haken, m. [with cloth-manufacturers] hook for fastening the cloth to the shearing-table; it. [in seamen's language, formerly] grappling-hooked blades on the tarred coats of the yard-arms for cutting up rigging. — holz, n. [in seamen's lang.] staff of the weather-flag, vane-stock; it. [with cloth-manufacturers] wool-mallet or pounder. — horn, n. V. Ammonshorn. — kasten, m. [with weavers] oblong frame. — kind, n. [with cloth manufacturers] a journeyman who clips or shears. — klöschchen, n. V. — kufe. — kohle, f. coal not pure, mixed, slaty &c. — kufe, f. [with cloth-manufacturers] V. — kasten. — latte, f. 1) V. — kufe. 2) [in seamen's lang.] V. Sente. — leine, f. or — lien, m. 1) [in seamen's lang.] — leine eines Hahnpoostes, a crow-foot, a complicated span. 2) V. Schwigtien. — messer, n. a razor. Fig. [low] Sie hat ein Maul, wie ein — messer, she has a tongue as sharp as a two-edged sword, a viper's, a biting, cutting tongue. — messerfisch, m. [in nat. hist.] [Messerrücken] the razor-fish. — messerheft, n. razor-handle. — messerriemen, m. a razor-strap, a strop. — messerschäbler, m. [in nat. hist.] the razor-bill, the alca torda. — mühle, f. [in silk-mills] the warp-beam. — nickel, m. [in botany] 1) European sanicle or self-heal. 2) [gemeines Johannisraut] hypericum, the fuga daemonum with perforated leaves, St. John's wort. —rahm, —rahmen, m. [with ehintz-weavers] the great warp-reel. —rahmbrett, —rahmenbrett, n. the board for the great warp-reel. —sack, m. [des Barbiers] barber's bag or pocket. —schwanz, m. V. Hühnergeier. —sente, f. V. Ente. —spann, m. [in seamen's lang.] V. Richtspann. —stock, m. [in seamen's lang.] 1) —stock des Decks, binding-strake. —stock der Luken, coaming of the hatches. 2) V. —enstock. —stube, f. [Barbiersstube] [obsolescent] barber's shop. —tag, m. day for shaving on, shaving-day. —tanz, m. [in Northern Germany] a dance where the dancers intersect one another. —tisch, m. [with cloth-manufacturers] shearing or clipping-table. —tritt, m. V. —bank. —tuch, n. shaving-cloth, chin-napkin. —wenzel, m. V. the separate word Scherwenzel. —werk, n. [in fortification] tenail. —werk eines Halbmondes, tenailon; it. lunets. —wolle, f. the shorn wool, the clippings of the nap [from cloth]. —zeug, n. shaving-traps or tackle.

Scherer, m. [-s, pl. -] —inn, f. the shearer. Ein Schaf, das verstummet vor seinem — [in Scripture], as a sheep before her shearers is dumb; der — [Bart—, usually der Barbier], the barber, [in a bad sense] the tonsor, V. Feld—, Schaf—, Tuch—; [with weavers] V. Anzettler.

Schererei, f. 1) [in a bad sense] shaying, shearing, fleecing. 2) [= Plackerei] vexation, worrying; trouble, toil. Viele — mit Etwas haben, to have a great deal of plague, of trouble about any thing; das macht mir viele —, that gives me a great deal of trouble.

Scherf, n. or m. [-es, pl. -e] dim. —chen, —lein, n. [-s, pl. -] [allied to Scheren, Lat. carpo, Gr. xelqo] a farthing. Eine arme Wittwe legte zwei —lein ein [in Scripture], a poor widow put in two mites. Fig. [in fam. lang.] Sein —lein mit beitragen, to contribute one's mite; ich will mein —lein auch dazu beitragen, I will also contribute my mite to it or towards it.

Scherge, m. [-n, pl. -n] [perhaps from the old Germ. scurgan, to shove, to push] [formerly] a sort of bailiff; [now, frequently used in a bad sense] a humbailiff, catchpole, policeman. Die —n nach Einem ausschicken, to send the constables after any one; ich verachte, ich fürchte nicht den Tyrannen mit allen seinen —n, I despise, don't fear the tyrant with all his myrmidons or dogs in power. Syn. Scherge, Häfcher, Henker. The Häfcher watches over the observance of the laws of the police; the Henker executes the punishments awarded to criminals; Schergen imply both, in certain provinces, as having originally had to confine both the suspected and the criminal.

Scherge=amt, n. —dienst, m. office, place, duty of a humbailiff.

Scherger, v. tr. [stoßen, schieben] to shove. Den Tisch an die Wand —, to push the table up to the wall.

Scherghast, adj. and adv. [V. Scherge] after the manner of a sheriff's officer, of a catch-pole, humbailiff.

*Scherif, m. [-s, pl. -s] 1) [in the East, the title of a descendant of Mohammed] a sherriffe. 2) [in England] sheriff.

Scherke, f. [pl. -n] [from Scheren II. on account of its wheeling flight] [Astermewe] the grizzly rail, the speckled sea-swallow, the spotted sea-mew.

Scherling, m. [-es, pl. -e] [Heilfrucht] acanthus, bear's foot or breech; it. cow-parsnep.

Scherpche, f. Scherpe, f. [pl. -n] [in botany, popular] 1) V. Patscherpe. 2) V. Faulbaum. 3) V. Mehlbaum 4).

Scherpe, f. [pl. -n] or Scherpen, m. [-s, pl. -] V. Schärpe.

Scherung, f. 1) [das Scheren] shearing. 2) [with weavers] V. Aufzug, Kette; it. Weberkamm.

Scherwenzel, m. [-s] [appears to come from Scheren, to move and to turn or to warp] [in common people's lang.] 1) a man who can turn his hands to any thing, a jack of all trades. 2) [a German game at cards where the knave is the best card] beggar my neighbour; it. knave; it. the quinola at reversis. 3) [provincial, Pudel] a poodle. 4) [obsolete] a hobby horse. Das muß ihm immer zum — dienen, that is his hobby horse.

Scherwenzeln, v. intr. 1) to be always ready to lend a helping hand, to be jack of all trades. 2) to play at beggar my neighbour; it. at reversis &c.

Scherz, m. [-es, pl. -e] [V. Scherzen] joke, quizzing, jest, capers, hoax, practical joke, fun, frolic, rattle. Etwas aus or im —e sagen, thun, to say, do any thing in fun, out of or for fun; es ist kein — [es ist mein Ernst], it is no joke I assure you [I am serious], I am not joking, jesting; es ist ein bloßer —, it is a mere joke, a piece of fun; das ist kein — mehr, ist mehr als —, that is more than a joke, that is carrying the joke too far; — bei Seite, ohne —, joking apart, jesting aside, without jesting; den — zu weit treiben, to push or carry the joke too far; oft wird aus dem —e Ernst, play often becomes serious; einen — machen, sagen, vorbringen, to say a witty thing, to indulge in a pleasantry, in a bit of fun, in a joke; platter —, sorry jest, stale joke, low or vulgar joke; er versteht keinen —, he is unable to understand, he will not relish, he does not take a joke [in good part], it. he is not a man to be bantered &c. with impunity, [low] he is a rum joker; — verstehen, to take a joke, [low] to twig; to stand joking; sie ist für den — gemacht, she abounds in pleasantry, she is cut out for joking, for making fun; seinen — mit Jemand haben, to have one's joke with any one, at any one's expence; er hat einen — daraus gemacht, hat es für — aufgenommen, he made a joke of it, took it as a good joke, in jest; it. das ist mir ein —, that is a mere trifle, joke for me, it's easy work for me; V. Posse, Spaß; [with poets] die —e [allegorical divinities] the Sports; in Begleitung der Grazien und —e, attended by the Graces and the Sports. Syn. Scherz, Spaß. Scherz is opposed to what is serious; Spaß, that by which we seek to raise laughter. When Scherze are amusing effusions of wit and humour, they are sensible Scherze. Every Spaß, therefore, is a Scherz, and some Scherze are also Spaß, as an insignificant aim may excite a laugh; but every Scherz is not a Spaß, for other insignificant objects may exist, besides that of exciting a laugh.

Scherz=brief, m. sportive, funny, joking letter. —feuer, n. V. Lustfeuer. —gedicht, n. comic poem. —gott, m. 1) [in mythology] Momus. 2) Die —götter, the Sports. —liebend, adj. and adv. laughter-loving, funny, mirthful, jovial. —lieb, n. comic song. —lüge, f. a sham, flam, fib, white lie. —lust, f. love of joking, jesting, bantering, raillery. —lustig, adj. and adv. of a mirthful, wit-loving nature, waggish, fond of cracking jokes. —macher, m. [in a good sense] a wit, a wag, [more frequently in a bad sense] a sorry jester, [low] a queer joker, [fam.] a bit of a wag. —name, m. a nickname. —rede, f. joking, jesting, funny language, humorous conversation; it. V. also —wort. —treiber, m. a wag. —weise, adv. jocosely, out of fun, jestingly, bantering, waggishly. —wort, n. comic, ridiculous word; it. [more frequently] waggish, bantering, jesting word.

Scherzen, [probably from Scheren, to move quickly backwards and forwards] I. v. intr. 1) Die Hunde, die Rälber —, the dogs, calves gambol, frolic; [with poets] die Weste — um das Laub, the zephyrs dally, wanton with or in the foliage. 2) to jest, to quiz, to joke, to banter, to rally. Sie scherzt gerne, er thut nichts, als —, she likes talking nonsense, jesting, he does nothing but joke, banter, quiz; sprechen Sie ernsthaft oder — Sie? are you speaking seriously, or are you joking? are you in fun or in earnest in what you say? mit einem Kinde —, to prattle nonsense, to sport with a child; it. mit Jemand, mit Etwas —, to quiz any one, to rail, to jeer, to laugh at any thing, to make game of any one, of any thing; proverb. mit großen Herren ist nicht gut —, it is dangerous work to trifle, to sport with the great, [fam.] lions have claws; [in fam. lang.] damit ist nicht zu —, that is no jesting matter, [fam.] that subject &c. had better be left alone; er läßt nicht mit sich —, he does not relish joking, take a joke at all, he is not a man to be made game of; es war nicht Ernst, ich habe nur gescherzt, it was not in earnest, I was only joking, merely in fun. II. v. tr. [= verspotten] Einen — [unusual], to make game of, a laughing stock of any one, to banter, to quiz any one. Das —, joking, jesting, bantering &c, V. Scherz.

Scherzer, m. [-s, pl. -], —inn, f. [not much used] a wag, a quiz.

Scherzhast, adj. and adv. funny, comic, jesting, joking, waggish, quizzing. —e Reden, quizzing speeches, sharp hits, waggish discourses; —e Lieder, comic songs; eine Sache — vorbringen, erzählen, to bring up a thing on the carpet in a funny manner, to relate a thing comically, waggishly; —er Weise, in a comic, humorous manner, funnily; —e Laune, Miene, funny humour, humorous vein, comic countenance or face; —er Mensch, a wag, a sly wag, a quiz; —seyn, to be a quiz, a wag.

Scherzhastigkeit, f. humorous vein, funny or comic humour, comicality, waggishness, raillery, spirit of fun, of glee.

Scherzlich, [unusual] V. Scherzhast.

Schesmin, V. Jasmin.

Schetter, m. [-s, pl. -] [in Engl. shattery means brittle] [Steifsteinwand] buckram.

Schetterbrett, n. V. Schindelfbrett.

Scheu, [in Swed. sky means to shun, to avoid] adj. and adv. shy, wild. —e Thiere, animals that are wild, easily scared, shy, that keep aloof; die Tauben sind —e Vögel, pigeons are shy birds; ein —es Pferd, a skittish, starting horse, it. [= — gewordenen Pferd] a frightened, scared horse; ein Pferd — machen, to startle a horse; das Thier wurde —, the animal became shy, grew or got wild, was startled, scared; ein —er [schüchterner] Mensch, a timid, shy, bashful, nervous man; sein Ton hat das Kind — gemacht, his [tone of] voice has startled, frightened the child; V. Furchtsam, Leutes —, Licht —, Menschen —, Wasser —. Fig. Eine —e Tugend, an austere virtue. Syn. Scheu, Struſig. [Sich] Scheuen, Struſen A horse which flinches at any object that suddenly presents itself, has the fault of shying in a less degree; one which scheut has it in a higher. The first merely stands still before the object; the latter tries suddenly to get away from it.

Scheu-klappe, f. —leder, n. [for horses] eye-flap, blind, [in the riding-school] lunet, lunette, [cant] blinkers.

Scheu, [V. Scheu, adj.] f. 1) [Furcht] fear, shyness. Einem Pferde die — benehmen, to soothe, to pat a horse when startled or scared; ohne Furcht und — Etwas thun, to do any thing without fear or shyness, [fam.] to do something with all the coolness imaginable, [also] to do any thing without shame or a sense of shame; reden Sie ohne alle —, sagen Sie ohne alle —, was &c., speak without any restraint, say or tell without fear what &c.; keine — empfinden, to have no shame; ohne Scham und —, without shame or bashfulness, with all the brass in the world; — vor Jemand tragen, to be afraid of any one, to stand in awe of any one. 2) [unusual Abscheu] horror, loathing, disgust. — gegen Etwas haben, to have a dislike, an antipathy towards any thing.

Scheuſche, f. [pl. -n] scarecrow, bugbear, V. Vogel —.

Scheuchen, I. v. tr. [generally of animals only] to scare. Wie ein gescheuchtes Wild, Reh, like a frightened, hunted, startled deer; die Hühner aus dem Garten —, to hunt or drive the fowls out of the garden; die Vögel —, to frighten away, to scare away the birds, V. Ver —; die Kinder mit dem schwarzen Manne —, to frighten, to terrify children with old Bogey. Fig. [verjagen] Die Sorgen — den Schlaf von meinen Augen, cares chase away sleep from my eyes, cares scare, affright sleep from my pillow. II. v. intr. [provincial] to be a croaker, to be always croaking.

Scheucher, m. [-s, pl. -], —inn, f. 1) a scarer away, a frightener, terrifier. 2) [provincial] a person who always or everywhere foresees evil or evil consequences, a croaker.

Scheuchner, m. [-s, pl. -] [with vine-growers] a large blue grape.

Scheuchsel, m. and n. [-s, pl. -] V. Scheuche.

Scheuen, [V. Scheu, adj.] I. v. intr. to be frightened or scared, to startle, to shy, to start. Das Pferd scheute, scheute an einem Steine, vor einem Lappen, the horse was scared, startled, shied, started at a stone, at a patch. II. v. tr. to shun. Die Arbeit, die Mühe —, to be afraid of work, trouble; das Licht, die Kälte —, to fear the light, to be apprehensive of, to dread the cold, [in a more general sense] to dislike cold, or cold temperature; die Gule scheuet das Licht, the owl shuns the light, daylight. Prov. Gebrannte Kinder scheuen das Feuer, a burnt child dreads the fire, a scalded cat fears cold water; thue Recht und scheue Niemand, do what is right and fear no one, [fam.] tell the truth and shame the devil. III. v. refl. sich —. Dieses Pferd scheuet sich vor dem Wasser, this horse won't take the water, shies at water; ich scheue mich, diese Kranken zu besuchen, aus Furcht, angeſteckt zu werden, I am fearful of visiting these patients, sick persons, for fear of catching the contagion, of infection; er scheuet sich davor, he has a mortal aversion to it, he dreads it; er scheuet sich vor der Arbeit, he has a dread of work, he does not like work; sich der Sünde or vor der —, to eschew sin, evil; sich vor Niemand —, to be afraid of no man, to fear no one; vor wem sollte ich mich —? whom have I to be afraid of? whom should I fear, dread? ich scheue mich, er scheuete sich, es zu sagen, I am ashamed, he hesitated to say it.

1. Scheuer, f. [pl. -n] [to this the Fr. écurie is allied; Schüre is in old Germ. = Decke] a barn, a granary. Mein Getreide ist in der —, my corn is in the barn, I have housed my grain, my wheat. V. Heu —, Korn —, Siegel —.

Scheuer-dach, n. roof of a barn, of a corn-loft. —eule, f. the barn-owl, the little owl. —leiter, f. a barn-ladder, the granary-steps. —tenne, f. threshing-floor of the barn. —thor, n. gate or door of the granary, the barn-door.

2. Scheuer, f. [pl. -n] [V. Scheuern] [das Scheuern] the cleaning, the scouring; it. [in seamen's language] die — des Ankers [Ankerfütterung], lining of the bow.

Scheuer-faß, n. kitchen-buck-tub, pantry-buck-tub; [with scullions &c.] dish-tub; [with butlers &c.] plate-tub; [with pin-makers] the scouring-barrel; [with goldsmiths] a brazen vessel for scouring silver-plate previous to gilding, plate boiler. —frau, f. char-woman, [in the kitchen] scullion, cook's-maid, kitchen wench. —haber, m. V. —lappen. —kammer, f. [with tinmen] scouring-room [for the iron-plates previous to their being tinned]. —kraut, n. V. Schaftheu. —lappen, m. a dish-clout, [chiefly in seamen's lang.] mop. —magd, f. a scullion, a scouring-wench. —sack, m. [with pin-makers] sack filled with bran or sawdust for rubbing dry the scoured pins. —sand, m. scouring-sand. —stande, f. V. —faß. —stein, m. [in seamen's lang.] holy stone [for scouring the deck]. —tag, m. 1) day for washing up dishes and plates. 2) V. Aſchermittwoch, Mariä Reinigung. —tonne, f. [with pin-makers] V. —faß. —trog, m. [with pin-makers] small trough or spout. —tuch, n. dish-clout. —weiß, n. V. —frau. —wiſch, m. V. —lappen, Strohwisch.

Scheuern, v. tr. [allied to the Lat. curare, Fr. écurer, Engl. to scour] 1) [stark reiben] to rub hard. Die Schweine — sich an den Bäumen, hogs rub themselves against trees; [in seamen's lang.] sich — [of ropes], to chafe. 2) to scour, to clean, to cleanse, to wash, to scrape, to rub. Die Stube —, to clean or scour, to wash out the room; die Stufen einer Treppe —, to scour the stairs; den Fußboden —, to scour, to polish the floor by rubbing with beeswax &c.; einen Kübel —, to clean out a bucket by scraping &c.; das Küchengeſchirr —, to wash up the kitchen utensils; mit Sand —, to scour with sand; die Arbeit — [with cutlers &c.], to clean with whitening the blades, tools &c. which, after being tempered, have to be reheated; die Nadeln im Scheurfaße — [with pinmakers], to rub dry, to polish the pins in the scouring-barrel; den Draht zu den Nadeln — [streichen], to flog brass-wire upon a block; die Silbermünzen — [in the mint], to scour or brighten the planchets or blanks. Fig. [in pop. lang.] Einem den Kopf —, to read any one a lecture that he won't forget in a hurry, to give any one a regular blowing up. Das —, rubbing, scouring, cleaning, burnishing, polishing; das — eines Fußbodens, the scrubbing or scouring, the polishing or rubbing bright of a floor.

Scheune, f. [pl. -n] barn, granary, shed, V. 1. Scheuer, Kornscheuer &c.

Scheun-eule, f. V. Scheureule. — knecht, m. a foreman over the threshers in a barn. —tenne, f. V. Scheuertenne.

Scheure, f. [pl. -n] V. 1. Scheuer, Kornscheuer &c.

Scheußal, n. [-es, pl. -e] [from scheuen] 1) monster; revolting, horrible object. Diese Frau ist ein wahres —, this woman is quite an object, a hideous creature, the picture of ugliness or deformity; Einem ein — seyn [obsolescent], to be any body's bugbear, loathing, abhorrence; er ist allen Menschen ein —, he is a pariah, a monster, an object of execration to all men, a detestable wretch. 2) V. Scheuche.

|| Scheußelig, adj. and adv. abominable, execrable, horrible.

|| Scheußeligkeit, f. state or quality of what is abominable &c., V. Abscheulichkeit.

Scheußlich, adj. and adv. hideous, revolting, terrifying. Ein —es Ungeheuer, a hideous monster; ein —es Gesicht, a loathsome face; das ist — anzusehen, that is dreadful, hideous, revolting to look at; — entstellt, frightfully, hideously, horribly disfigured; eine —e That, an atrocious, horrible, execrable deed; ein —er Anblick, a most shocking sight.

Scheußlichkeit, f. 1) ugliness, frightfulness, hideousness, deformity, horror. — einer Handlung, the atrocity of a deed. 2) a hideous thing, a revolting action, an atrocity.

|| Scheve, f. [pl. -n] [in the Friesland lang. Schief = Svreu] hard fibres of hemp and flax-stalks, bullen.

Schicht, f. [pl. -en] [appears allied with σχίζω, Lat. scindo, scidi] 1) [generally] [das Schichten, Abtheilen] [in law] legitimate inheritance or compulsory bequest of property to issue male and female, portion or share in equity. Die — der Kinder erster Ehe, the lawful inheritance of the children by the first marriage; it. part, parcel, portion, lawful portion, thirds. — des hohen Ofens [with foundries], mouth, whole depth, cavity of the furnace; [with miners &c.] rest, hour or time of repose; — machen, to make a rest, to leave off work, to finish one's job. 2) a miner's day-work [stipulated upon or legally enforced and varying from six to eight up to twelve hours]. Die — antreten, to commence one's day's work; — halten, die — verfahren, to work on, to stick to one's work the due time; to finish one's job; [with foundries] the melting, the smelting, [also] the batch; die — beschicken, to get ready the batch of ore with the fluxes &c. for the melting; it. die —, the time requisite for the melting or smelting; it. die —, the result or produce of one smelting-batch; eine — Glätte, the litharge of one smelting, of one refining. 3) [especially a certain part of a whole] Die — der Kinder erster Ehe, the legitimate portion or inheritance of the children by the first marriage; it. [with miners] a quarter of a six-bushel measure, V. Seche; it. the thickness of a shaft-rod, a yard in depth or thickness; drei — en tiefer Graben, a ditch three yards deep. 4) [lage] bed, couch, layer, stratum. Vulkanische — en, volcanic strata; eine — Sand, Thon, Kreide, a stratum or bed of sand, clay, chalk; fig. [modern] die verschiedenen — ender Gesellschaft, the different layers, degrees, classes, grades of society; eine — or — e Steine, a bed or layer of stones; [with masons] a course, a layer [of stones, bricks &c. in building]; sie legen die erste — or — e, they are laying the first row, course, layer; eine — or — e Pflastersteine, a layer of flag-stones, a pavement, [if not horizontal] ledge; V. Doppel—; die weiche — in einem Steine, the fissile layer, the lamina in a stone, the breaking grain; eine — Holz, a layer of wood [in a stack of wood]; eine — Käse, Brod, Apfelschnitten, a layer of cheese, bread, apple-slices; eine — Erdbeeren auf eine — Zucker legen, to spread a layer of strawberries on a layer or groundwork of sugar; [in chemistry] several substances arranged as strata, stratification; in — n legen, to stratify. 5) [with founders] that which is poured into or strewn alternately in smelting furnaces, batch; [with tinmen] a copper-plate for flattening the tin; V. — bank.

Schichtbank, f. [with tinmen] bench for flattening the copper-plates. — fuge, f. [with slaters] cleaving-grain. — glätte, f. [with founders] that which is drawn off from refined silver, the litharge of one melting, of one refining. — Holz, n. stacked or piled wood; [with charcoal-burners] charred fagot-wood. — Feil, m. [in seamen's lang.] a wedge for stowing, for trimming the hold, for ballast-trenching. — Kup, m. [with miners] share amounting to eight common shares, the quarter of a mine, a fourth-share in a mining-concern. — Lohn, m. [with miners] wages for a miner's task or work by the job. — meister, m. [with miners, founders] 1) the comptroller of the workmen's wages, the auditor of the mines. 2) assayer of metals. — meistere, f. 1) the office or post of a mine-auditor, [also] of a metal-assayer. 2) the district of such a person. — räumer, m. one who removes the rubbish in a quarry, a quarry-man. — s chreiber, m. [with miners] a clerk of the mines. — semmel, f. a batch of rolls. — theilung, f. V. Erbtheilung. — trog, m. [with founders] the wooden bowl or scuttle for filling the furnace. — weise, adv. in beds, in layers, in piles, in strata; fig. [fam.] sandwich-fashion. bread- and butter-fashion. — weise arbeiten [with miners], to work by the job, the day, the legal hours; Etwas — weise legen, to place any thing in layers, to lay in beds, in strata, in piles.

Schichtel, n. [-s, pl. -n] [allied to Schicht, a layer, a deposit] [with gloves] the finger-gusset, a forset.

Schichteln, v. tr. [with gloves] to put the finger-gussets.

Schichten, v. tr. 1) (theilen, absondern) to divide, to share, to portion out, to apportion, to separate. Die Güter einer Erbschaft —, to lot out, to portion out the goods of an inheritance; die Kinder erster Ehe — or ab—, to portion out the estate in legal proportion to the children of the first issue; eine Rede in ihre Theile —, to separate or divide a discourse into its component parts. Fig. [=classificiren] to classify, to class. 2) to lay in stratified rows, to pile, to arrange in layers or beds. Häringe &c. —, to lay herrings &c. in layers, to barrel herrings &c.; das Holz —, beim Messen —, to pile up, to stack wood, to stack or range wood for measuring; ein Schiff — [bepacken], to freight a ship, to stow the hold; Kässer in das Schiff —, to stow away the casks in the ship; it. — [in chemistry], to stratify. Das — der Güter, the portioning out, the apportioning, distributing according to law of the effects; [in chemistry &c.] stratification; [in seamen's language] stowing, freighting, trimming. Fig. classification, classing.

Schichter, m. [-s, pl. -] [in seamen's lang.] a stower.

Schichtig, adj. and adv. stratified; in strata, beds or layers. V. Ein—, Weit—, Zwei—.

Schichtling, m. [-es, pl. -e] [in mineralogy] argillaceous veined agate.

1. Schick, m. [-es] [=Geschick 1)] [in fam. lang.] Es ist kein — in dieser Sache, there is no arrangement, harmony, fit in this thing, this thing does not do, this is not the thing.

2. Schick, m. [-es, pl. -e] [in nat. hist.] the monitor-finch or Mytilene of Provence.

Schicken, [appears to be allied to the Gr. ἔκω v. tr. and intr. to send. Eine Kugel, eine Bombe in die Stadt — [werfen, schießen], to throw a ball, a bomb into the town; einen Boten nach der Stadt, in die Stadt, zu or an Jemand —, Einem einen Boten —, to send a messenger to the town, on an errand into the town, to any body, to send any one a messenger, an express; schicke mir den Bedienten, schicke den Bedienten zu mir, send me the servant, send the servant to me; die Magd —, um Brod zu holen, to send the girl for bread; Einen Gesandten nach Wien —, to send an ambassador to Vienna; die Kinder in die Schule —, to send the children to school; Einen auf Reisen —, to send any one upon his travels; Einen in's Elend — [verweisen], to send any one into banishment, out of his country, to banish or exile any one; Einen nach Etwas —, to send any one after something, to fetch something; nach Wein, nach einem Briefe, Buche —, to send after or for wine, a letter, a book; nach dem Arzte, dem Schneider &c. —, to send for the physician, the tailor &c.; proverb. in den April —, V. under April; ein Kind schlafen —, to send a child to sleep, to bed; Einem einen Brief —, to send any one a letter; einen Bedienten, einen Brief auf die Post —, to send a servant, a letter to the post-office, to the post; Waaren &c. mit der Post, durch die Post —, to send goods &c. by or through the post; noch einmal, wieder or zurück —, to send again, back, to return; sobald sie angekommen waren, schickten sie ihre Leute zurück, as soon as they arrived they sent their people [servants] back; ein Buch in die Welt — [not unfrequently in a rather contemptuous sense], to usher or send a book into the world, to publish or print a book; Einen in die andere Welt — [in fam. lang.], to send any one into the other world, to despatch any one. Syn. Schicken, Senden. Schicken implies merely removal from one's self; senden always refers to a particular destination. The object for which we send any one is more important; we may schicken any one for a common or even ridiculous object. Those whom a sovereign sends to his equals, are called Gesandte; but we schicken the commonest men to spy into the enemy's camp. Fig. a) [=verhängen] to send. Die Leiden, die uns Gott schickt, the sufferings that God sends us; proverb. Gott muß es —, wenn es soll glücken, whatever thrives is of God's sending; Gott hat es so geschickt, God has so willed it, thus ordained it; Gott schicke es zum Besten, may God dispose of it for the best, direct it for our good. b) Sich zu Etwas — [anschießen], to set about, to prepare or dispose one's self, to get ready for any thing, business, to do something; sich in Etwas —, to accommodate or lend one's self to any thing. [fam.] to trim one's boat to watch which way the wind blows or veers; er weiß sich gut zu —, he knows very well how to suit, to accommodate himself to others; in Betreff seines Geschmacks weiß er sich nach uns zu —, with respect to taste he knows how to bring it into unison with ours; sie weiß sich in ihren Mann zu —, she knows how to manage her husband; sich in sein Elend —, to bear one's misfortune, one's misery resignedly, with resignation, stoically; ich kann mich hierein noch gar nicht — [finden], I don't yet understand one word of it, I can't see my way yet at all, [also] I cannot yet bring myself, accustom myself to it; darin werde ich mich nie — lernen, I shall never get used to it, I shall never learn how to give into it. V. Fügen. c) Sich — [sich zuschlagen], to happen. Es muß sich oft wunderlich —, strange things often happen; man weiß nicht, wie es sich noch — kann, it is not known what may yet happen; wenn es sich gerade so schickt, if it so happens, if an opportunity for it presents itself; wenn man zum Unglück bestimmt ist, muß sich Alles dazu —, when one is doomed to bad luck, every thing contributes to it, concurs in producing it; nachdem es sich schickt, according to circumstances; es hat sich gerade so geschickt, daß &c., it has so happened, that &c., chance has willed that &c.; proverb. was seyn soll, schickt sich wohl, what is to be, must be; whatever must be is sure to happen. d) Sich — [an—, passen], to be likely, to look probable, to seem likely, to have an appearance or air, it. to agree, to harmonize with, to match, to blend. Es schickt sich Alles zum Winter, every thing looks like winter coming, announces or heralds the approach of winter; der Himmel schickt sich zum Regen, the sky looks likely for rain, forebodes rain, it looks rainy in the heavens; sich zusammen, zu einer andern Person or Sache —, to agree, to chime, to suit, blend, to correspond, to be suitable or fitting to another person or thing; diese Zeuge — sich gut zusammen, these stuffs match, assort well together, are a good match; der Rock schickt sich nicht zu der Weste, this coat does not match the waistcoat; eine Tapete schickt sich gut zu schönen Möbeln, tapestry matches with, sets off handsome furniture; diese Besehung schickt sich gut zu dem Kleide, this trimming suits, matches the dress beautifully, is perfectly becoming to the dress; zwei Farben, die sich gut zusammen —, two colours that assort well together, that match, that blend, that form a pleasing contrast; dies Tuch schickt sich zu einem solchen Kleide, this cloth is just the thing for, will match such a dress; diese beiben Dinge — sich nicht gut zusammen, these two things don't square, don't match with each other; das schickt sich recht wohl für ihn, that suits him very well; die Antwort schickte sich nicht auf die Frage, this answer did not tally with the question, was not apposite; er schickt sich nicht zu diesem Amte, dieses Amt schickt sich nicht für ihn, he is not fit for this office, this office is not fit for him, [fam.] is not the thing for him; es schickt sich ganz in seinen Kram [fam., ironical], it suits his purpose amazingly; bei Ihrem Alter schickt sich diese Kleidung trefflich für Sie, at your age, your time of life this mode of dress is very becoming to you, it. [ironically] this decking out, this [gay] attire becomes your time of life most superlatively; es schickt sich nicht für Sie, so zu handeln, it does not become you to act in such a manner; dieß, dieses Kleid &c. schickt sich nicht für eine Frau von ihrem Alter, this, this dress does not become, was never intended for a woman of her time of life. Das —, V. Schickung.

Schicker, m. [-s, pl. -], — inn, f. [not much used] a sender, one who sends or despatches a message, a messenger &c.

Schicklich, adj. and adv. 1) [tauglich, passend] fit, fitting, suiting, suitable, apt, proper, matching, becoming, pertinent, apposite. Die —en Mittel, the proper, suitable remedies, fitting or proper means; eine —e Heirath, a fitting, proper, a not untoward marriage, an excellent match; eine —e Frage, Antwort, a fitting, proper question, an apposite, pertinent answer; auf eine —e Art, —antworten, to answer pertinently, to the question, to answer aptly; nichts ist weniger — für die Gesundheit, als &c., nothing is less suitable to the health, than &c.; er weiß immer das —e zu treffen, he always knows how to hit off or upon what is becoming. 2) [wohlständig] becoming, proper, decorous, congruous, decent. Es ist nicht —, so zu sprechen, it is not proper, decorous, gentleman-like, ladylike to speak so, [fam.] it is not the thing to speak so. Das —e, the becoming, pertinence; it. propriety, decorum.

Schicklichkeit, f. pertinence, propriety, decorum, decency. Es wäre der — gemäß, it would be in harmony with &c.; conformity, seemliness would by so doing be consulted; das heißt gegen die — verstoßen, that is in sooth injuring propriety, deranging what is most befitting, kicking against decorum, order &c.

Schicklichkeitsgefühl, n. sense of propriety, of decorum &c. —grund, m. reason of propriety, of decorum, grounds for decency, for conformity, for that which is becoming.

Schicksal, n. [-s, pl. -e] 1) fate, destiny, lot. Niemand kann seinem —e entgehen or entrinnen, no one can escape his destiny, shun his fate, [proverbial] every bullet has its billet, Fate raps at the poor man's cottage and the king's palace; er hat sein — mit dem seines Freundes verbunden, er hat seines Freundes — getheilt, he has joined his lot to that of his friend, he has shared his friend's destinies; ein sonderbares — haben, to have a strange destiny; sein Leben war ein Gewebe von den sonderbarsten —en or der sonderbarsten —e, his life was an entangled web, a tissue of the most extraordinary events, fate had chequered his life in a most varied manner; mit seinem — zufrieden seyn, to be content with one's lot; sterben ist unser aller —, to die is the common lot of us all, is our common fate, destiny. SYN. V. 1 Los. 2) [no pl.] [das Fatum] fate, destiny, necessity. Die Unvermeidlichkeit des —s, the fatality of fate, of the divine decree; die Beschlüsse des —s, the decrees of fate; das Buch des —s, the book of fate; so hat es das — beschlossen, fate, destiny has so decreed it, the fates, the three sisters have so ordained it. V. Fügung, Geschick, Schickung, Verhängniß.

Schicksal=deuter, m., —deuterinn, f. interpreter of fate, expounder of destiny, of fate, a Sybil.

Schicksals=gang, m. the march of destiny, of the destinies, the career of fate. Sein —gang war einer der or gehörte zu den ungewöhnlichsten, the march of his destiny, his fate, his life has been one of the most extraordinary, his was a most strange lot, career. —gesetz, n. the law of fate, decree of destiny. —göttinn, f. [in mythology] the Goddess [of] Fate, one of three fatal sisters, Fate, the fatal Goddess or sister. —richtung, f. the direction, the turn one's fortune, one's life takes; the march of destiny. —wechsel, m. change of fortune, vicissitude. —weg, m. the way one's fortune takes, the way which one is led by one's fate.

Schickung, f. 1) [das Schicken] sending, expedition, expediting; it. message, despatch. 2) [Bestimmung] destiny; fate. Gottes weiser — vertrauen, sich ihr überlassen, to trust to, to resign one's self to, to repose or rely on God's providence; das ist eine — des Himmels, eine — von oben, that is a judgment of heaven, a judgment from above; eine sonderbare —, a strange destiny.

Schiebe, f. [pl. -n] [with gardeners] [das Schiebeisen] hoe, spud.

Schieben, [appears allied to heben] irr. I. v. tr. to push, [low or fam.] to shove. Einen Kasten an die Wand —, to push a wardrobe against the wall; schiebe den Tisch ein wenig zu mir her, push the table a little towards me, a little this way; einen Karren —, to push or wheel a wheelbarrow; das Brod in den Ofen —, to put or set the bread in the oven; den Kiegel in das Loch —, to push the bolt into the hole, to bolt, to slip the bolt; ein Fenster in die Höhe —, to push up, to raise the window, to raise up the window-sash; das Buch, das Glas &c. bei Seite —, to push the book, the glass &c. aside; Einen fort —, zur Thüre hinaus —, to push or thrust any one on, any one out, out of doors, out of the door; V. Ein—, Vor—, Weg—; Etwas in die Tasche, in den Mund —, to put, to thrust any thing into one's pocket, mouth; Etwas heimlich an einen Ort —, to place something furtively in any place, to slide any thing by stealth into any spot; als er das Geld zählte, schob er einige falsche Thaler mit unter, whilst he was counting the money, he passed some false dollars; er schob ihm einige Dukaten in die Hand, he thrust, slipped some ducats into his hand; Regel — [spielen], to play at nine-pins or skittles; um den ersten Wurf —, to throw or bowl who shall go first, to string for lead. Fig. [in pop. lang.] Etwas auf die lange Bank — [es auf—, ver—], to spin any thing out, to procrastinate, [fam.] to put off 'till to-morrow, 'till next christmas, to delay; die Schuld auf Jemand —, to throw or lay the blame upon another; er hat es auf mich geschoben [fam.], he has shoved it off upon me, upon my shoulders; einen Antrag, ein Begehren, einen Wunsch von sich — [fam. for ablehnen], to release one's self from a commission, to beg to be excused, [fam.] to back out from doing any thing when asked &c.; Einem Etwas ins Gewissen — [for Etwas eines Gewissens anheimstellen], to appeal, to leave a thing to any one's conscience; Einem Etwas auf den Hals, in die Schuhe — [in pop. lang.], to lay the blame upon another, to throw the whole fault on the shoulders of another; er schiebt ihn in den Sack [rather low], he turns him round his little finger, he leads him by the nose; he is the stronger of the two; it. — [in seamen's lang.], to hoist up with a will; to haul upon a hawser. II. v. intr. 1) [hervorkommen] Die Pflanzen —, the plants sprout out, shoot up, grow apace. Dieses Pferd schiebt, schiebt Zähne, this horse is shedding his milk-teeth; Ihr Pferd hat schon geschoben, your horse has already shed his milk-teeth. 2) [in common people's lang.] Geschoben kommen, to come along full tear, full swing, at a spanking rate. III. v. refl. sich —. 1) [sich ver-schieben] Das Papier hat sich geschoben, the paper has got rumpled, crumpled; die geschobene Schrift, running hand; geschobene, lateinische Buchstaben, italic letters, text; geschobenes Viereck [eine Raute], lozenge, rhomb; geschobenes Kreuz, cross of St. Andrew, of Burgundy, a saltier-cross. 2) [fortgehen] [rather low], to shove one's boat off, to cut one's stick, to give leg-bail. Das —, V. Schub.

Schiebe=barte, f. [with coopers] adze, adze. —blinde, f. [in seamen's lang.] spritsail. —deckel, m. a cover that runs in a groove, a slide-cover. —eisen, n. [with gardeners] V. Schiebe. —fenster, n. a sash-window; a slide-window. —handschräuben, n. a sliding hand-vice. —karren, m. a wheelbarrow. Schutt &c. im —karren führen, to wheel rubbish &c. in a barrow. —kärner, m. a barrowman. —kasten, m., [more usual] —lade, f. a drawer. —lade=den, m. a slide-shutter, a shutter running in a groove. —leuchter, m. candlestick with a moveable socket, a slide-candlestick. —ochs, m. [not much used] a draught-ox [yoked by the head]. —riem or —riemen, m. the barrowman's straps or braces, a barrow-strap. —ring, m. [with goldsmiths] sliding-ring, slider. —sack, m. V. Schuback. —stange, f. [with miners and in hydraulics] pole; [in organs] stop, register, register-staff; [in saw-mills] a contrivance for pushing the log against the saw, see-saw, slider, the saw-cog or rochet. —thür, f. a sliding-door, a panel-door. —wägelchen, n. a two-wheeled easy-chair [for taking airings]. Einen Kranken in einem —wägelchen [fort]führen, to wheel about for an airing an invalid in an easy-chair. —werk, n. [with miners] 1) a cog-wheeled machine with click and spring-work. 2) [Selbstgänge] flat rods or poles moving backwards and forwards. —zange, f. [in seamen's lang.] 1) langrel joined crosswise for sweeping and raking. 2) ear-rings, head-lines. —zeug, n. cog-work, mechanism for propelling the log to the saw.

Schiebe=bank, f. plate for wire-drawing gold. —blech, n. [with locksmiths] the sliding-bolt, slide-bolt; [with bakers, pastrycooks] the sliding oven-door. —bock, m. [with miners, = Lauffarren] wheel-barrow. —floz ben, m. [with wire-drawers] the pinchers [for drawing the coarse wire through the iron-plate]. — rad, n. [in saw-mills] cog-wheel, rochet. — schloß, n. spring or snap-lock. — stange, f. the see-saw, the rod of the cog-wheel in a saw-mill. — stein, m. [at backgammon] piece, man. — wand, f. [little used] scene. V. Bühnenwand.

Schieber, m. [-s, pl. -] 1) [Einer, der schiebt] a pusher, thruster, shover; V. Karren-, Regel-; [with wire-drawers] the drawer of the coarse wire through the drawing-plate; [in rural economy] ox yoked by the head. 2) [with bakers] the peel; [Rohsen-] the strike, rake, flat shovel; it. V. Schiebelech; [with hatmakers] a hatter's hurdle; [with joiners &c.] — eines Fensters, the sash-frame, the window-groove or slide; [with locksmiths] V. Schiebelech; — eines Kastens, the sliding-groove, the slide of a large trunk, of a chest; — an einem Backofen, the sliding-door or cover to an oven; — an einem Glasofen, the hocca-stopper; — einer Siegelpresse, the screw of a letter-sealing press; der — [with gunsmiths], stop, stay [to the nut]; it. — in der Bohrbank, the T-stop or cramp in a bench for boring cannon on; — an einem Helme, the vizor of a helmet; der — [for opening and shutting an umbrella, a parasol], slider; — an einem Pferdezaume, sliding knot to a bridle; it. der — [in farriery], pursiness, broken-winded state.

Schieber nuth, f. [with joiners] the groove in which the window runs, sash-groove or frame.

Schieberling, m. [-es, pl. -e] V. Pfifferling.

Schiebselzwinkel, m. [-s, pl. -] [with stocking-weavers] the common clock of a stocking.

Schied, m. [-es, pl. -e] [from scheiden, and also = Entscheiden] the sentence of a court that decides matters relating to mines.

Schiedsbuch, n. [with miners] code, book of mines. — mahl, n. [Grenzzeichen] boundary-mark. — mauer, f. V. Scheidemauer. — rain, m. line or stripe of demarcation between two fields, boundary-line, border-strip or plot. — stein, m. V. Grenzstein. — wand, f. V. Scheidewand.

Schiedeschacht, m. V. Scheideschacht.

Schiedsfreund, m. arbitrator, umpire, mediator [chosen by both parties]. — gericht, n. court, tribunal of awards, of arbitration. — mann, m. arbitrator, referee, umpire. — männer, -leute er wählen, to choose arbitrators, umpires. — probe, f. [with founders] decisive assay. — probenglas, n. [in manufactories of blue colours] stained glass for the assays. — richter, m. arbitrator, umpire, referee. Einen — richter wählen, to choose a referee; über die Wahl der — richter einig werden, to agree in the choice of referees, of umpires; die Streitsache wurde durch — richter geschlichtet, the dispute was arranged by arbitration; Ihr Vater soll als — richter darüber entscheiden, your father shall decide as umpire about it, I or we refer this to the arbitration of your father; wir haben diesen Streit dem und dem als — richter übergeben, we have surrendered this dispute into the hands of such and such a one for his decision. — richterin, f. an arbitrix, an arbitress. — richterlich, adj. and adv. by arbitrament, by arbitration. — richterlicher Spruch, an arbitrament, the decision of a referee, of an umpire; einen Streit durch — richterlichen Spruch entschei- ben, to decide a difference by arbitration; sie werden alle Punkte ihres Rechtsstreites auf — richterliche Entscheidung aussetzen, they will stake all the points or heads of their lawsuit upon arbitration. — spruch, m. arbitrage, arbitrament, arbitration, umpire's decision, referee's sentence, mediator's judgment, award. Bei dem — spruche bleiben, sich dem — spruche unterwerfen, to abide by the arbitrament, to submit to the [judicial] sentence of the referee; wir werden uns den — spruch des Richters gefallen lassen, we will conform entirely to the mediating decree, to the decision of the judge.

Schiedlich, adj. and adv. [in fam. lang.] pacific, tranquil. Es ist Alles friedlich und abgegangen, all has passed off peaceably and tranquilly, orderly.

Schief, [from schieben] adj. and adv. oblique, transverse, aslope, athwart, across, awry, wry, crooked, slanting; [in architecture] bending, leaning, out of the perpendicular. — e Linie, an oblique line; — er Winkel [not a rectangle], an oblique angle; — e Fläche [making an angle with the plummet], oblique plane; — stehende Säule [not upright], a leaning column; der Stuhl, der Tisch steht —, the chair, the table slopes, stands aslope, uneven; dieses Zimmer ist ganz —, this room is quite irregular, [fam.] built at sixes and sevens, has not got a right angle in it; diese Treppe wendet sich nicht gut, sie ist —, this staircase does not turn or wind well, it is awkward; — stehende Mauer, a leaning, sloping, bulging, top-heavy wall; — er Thurm [as that of Pisa &c.], an inclined, a leaning tower; ein Stück Holz — einlegen, to place a piece of wood in a slanting or sloping posture; die — e or krumme Kante des Holzes, the crooked edge of the wood; — es [ungleiches] Holz, gnarled, writhed, twisted wood; — schreiben, to write slanting, aslant, [fam.] chinese-fashion; — schneiden, to cut across, transversely, slopingly, obliquely; dieser Wagen hängt —, this coach hangs, leans on one side, does not hang true; sich — ankleiden, to dress one's self awry, awkwardly; — gehen, to walk awry, sidling, obliquely, diagonally, to sidle, to waddle; — e Beine haben, to have twisted, deformed, bent, bow-legs, to be bow-legged; ein — es Maul machen [rather low], to make a wry mouth [used also fig.]; fig. to pout, to make a face; Einen — ansehen, to look at any one out of the corners of one's eyes, [in a bad sense] to leer at any one, [low] to look askew at any one, fig. to regard any one with an evil eye, unwillingly, askance; [in botany] — e Wurzel, — er Palm, oblique root, stalk; — es Blatt [one lobe being the larger], a subdimidiated leaf; — er Weg, an oblique, indirect way; — er Wind [in seamen's lang.], a sharp wind, a wind nearly right ahead, a side-head-wind; seine Schuhe — [krumm] treten, to wear down or tread one's shoes on one side. Fig. Die Sache geht — [in fam. or pop. lang.], the affair goes wrong, all wrong, does not go on right; — e Maßregeln, wrong measures, awkward proceedings; Etwas — anfangen [in fam. or pop. lang.], to set to work about any thing at the wrong end, to begin any thing upside-down, topsy-turvy, all wrong; — denken, urtheilen, to think, to reason crookedly, to judge incorrectly, wrong, without arriving to a right conclusion; — er Kopf, a wild, rambling, odd, eccentric head; — es Urtheil, — er Gesanke, a wrong, perverted, disordered judgment, a wrong, queer, odd, divergent thought; es ist etwas — es in seinem Kopfe, there is something queer in his head, his mind has something odd, devious, eccentric about it; [in fam. or pop. lang.] eine Sache — nehmen, Etwas — aufnehmen, to take any thing in bad part, in a wrong point of view.

Schief-bein, — beinig, V. Krummbein &c. — hals, m. 1) a stiff neck; a wry neck. 2) a person having a stiff or wry neck. — halsig, adj. and adv. stiff-necked; wry-necked. — hobel, m. [with an oblique chisel] inclined plane. — kopf, m. 1) head on one side, a distorted head. 2) a person whose head is placed awry. Fig. an odd, a queer head, mind, fellow. — kreuz, n. cross of St. Andrew, of Burgundy. — lauf, m. a cross, oblique, diagonal course, [fam.] a cross cut. Der — lauf eines Schiffes, the oblique sailing of a ship by the rhomb, loxodromic course, loxodromy. — liegend, adj. and adv. inclined, sloping. — maß, n. [Winkelmaß] a bevel measure, a measure out of square. — maul, n. [low] 1) twisted, distorted mouth. 2) a person whose mouth is on one side. — maulig, adj. and adv. [low] wry-mouthed. — nase, f. 1) twisted, bent, crooked nose, a nose not in the centre of the face. 2) a person with a nose not straight. — nasig, adj. and adv. oblique-nosed. — rund, adj. and adv. oval. — runde Perlen, rough pearls, Scotch pearls. — schwamm, m. [in botany] oblique agaric. — sehen, n. [an ophthalmic disease] oblique vision, squinting, lusciosis. — winkelig, adj. and adv. [either acute or obtuse] oblique-angled. — winkeliges Dreieck, any triangle not rectangular, an oblique triangle; — winkeliges Viereck, a parallelogram with oblique angles, a rhomb.

Schiefe, f. [pl. -n] 1) [das Schiefeyen] obliquity. 2) [little used] inclined plane, a slope.

Schiefer, m. [-s] [allied to the Sw. skifwa, to cleave] 1) [especially whatever can be defoliated, dilaminated] — auf dem Kopfe, scurf; it. — [in common people's language = Splinter], fragment, splinter; [with masons] splinter, shiver of a stone; [with painters] a scale, flake [of old pictures]. Sich einen — in den Fuß treten, to tread a splinter into one's foot, to get a splinter in one's foot while walking or treading. Fig. [in common people's lang.] Einen — [Groll] auf Jemand haben, to have a bone to pick with any body, to owe any one a grudge; einen — im Herzen haben, to have a gnawing worm at one's heart, a secret grief, a hidden care. 2) a slate; [also = a slaty sort of rock] schist, argillite. Thonartiger —, argillaceous schist, schistous clay; — brechen, to quarry slate, to dig out slates; ein Dach mit — decken, to cover a roof with slates, to slate a roof, a house, to slate-roof a house.

Schiefer = alun, m. 1) sulphate of lime, laminated, foliated or fibrous sulphate of lime. 2) aluminous schist. — amianth, m. tabular or braided asbestos, fossil-cork, suber-montanum. — arbeiter, m. a slate-quarryman or workman in a slate-quarry. — art, f. 1) the nature, quality of slate. 2) kind, species, variety of slate. Die — arten, the schistous rocks, the slates. — artig, adj. and adv. schistous. — bank, f. stratum, layer, bed of slate, of schist. — berg, m. mountain of slate, of schistous rock. — blatt, n. a lamina, lamin or lamel of slate, a slate. — blau, adj. and adv. slate-blue, slate-coloured, of a slaty colour or hue.

—blau, n. 1) slate-blue. 2) slate or pencil mountain-blue. —block, m. a block of slate. Stück von einem —blocke [amongst slate-quarrymen, a piece of slate heavy enough for one man], a man's load of slate. —brecher, m. a workman in a slate-quarry. —brett, n. V. —latte. —bruch, m. a slate-quarry or pit, a quarry of schistous rock. —büchel, m. [in conchology] the dorsal-imbricated sea-lemon. —dach, n. slate-roof, slated roof. —decker, m. a slater. —deckergerüst, n. a slater's scaffolding. —deckerhammer, m. V. —hammer. —farb, —farben, —farbig, adj. and adv. slate-coloured, V. —blau. —farbe, f. slate-blue. —flöz, n. V. —bank —gang, m. [with miners] slate-guang or gang, a vein or lode of slate. Einen —gang öffnen, to open a slate gang. —gebirge, n. schistous mountain. —gerüst, n. swinging or hanging scaffolding. —geschworene, m. [with miners] a sworn visitor or inspector of a slate-quarry. —gestein, n. schistous rock. —gewerkschaft, f. company, society of slate-miners, shareholders of a slate-quarry. —gips, m. foliated gypsum, laminar and fibrous sulphate of lime. —glimmer, m. mica. —grau, adj. and adv. slate grey. —grüsfel, m. V. —stift. —grube, f. V. —bruch. —grün, n. 1) malachite, green carbonate of copper. 2) V. Borax. —gyps, m. V. —gips. —hammer, m. [with slaters] a slate-hammer. —hauer, m. V. —brecher. —hauer, m. [with miners] the miner who works upon the coppery slate. —kohle, f. schistous coal. —kopf, m. [with miners] an ore-veined layer of slate. —latte, f. slate-lath. —mergel, m. hardened calcareous schistous clay. —nagel, m. a flat-headed slate-nail. —niere, f. [with miners] reniform slate. —platte, f. a slab, tablet, or flat smooth piece of slate, of schist. —sicht, f. V. —bank —schneider, m. a slate-cutter. —schneiderflöz, m. block for cutting slate on. —schwarz, n. slate-black, black ochre. —schwüle, f. calcareous schistous and bituminous clay. —spath, m. schistous, lamellar or foliated spath. —stein, m. schist, slate, argillite. —steinblatt, n. a lamel, lamin, lamina of slate, a slate. —steinern, adj. and adv. of slate, slaty. —steinprobe, f. proving of slate, a slate-assay. —stift, m. a slate-pencil. —stück, n. a piece of slate. —tafel, f. a slate; a tablet of slate, a cyphering-slate. —thon, m. schistous bituminous clay. —tisch, m. a table with a slate-stab. —trepan, m. [with surgeons] the trepan, the trephine. —wacke, f. slate-wacke, horn-slate, lamellar horn-rock. —wand, f. 1) rock, wall, ledge of slate, of schist. 2) a wall covered with slate. —weiß, n. finest white-lead. —zahn, m. a tooth that scales off or exfoliates; [in rural economy, alluding to the imperfect pointed teeth of pigs] a bad pointed tooth.

Schieferer, m. [-s, pl. -] [not much used] a slate-quarryman, a workman in a slate-pit.

Schiefericht, adj. and adv. 1) [= ab-splittend] splintery, liable to splinter. 2) slaty, schistous.

Schieferig, adj. and adv. 1) splintery, apt to shiver. 2) slaty, schistous. —er Stein, —es Gestein, a slaty stone, schistous rock; —es Holz, wood having splinters. Fig. [provincial] V. Scheu adj.; [in common people's lang.] er wird leicht —, he is very touchy, susceptible.

Schiefern, v. refl. sich —, 1) [sich blättern] to detach itself in leaves, laminae, scales, flakes, crusts, to scale or peel off, to exfoliate. Ein Stein, der sich schiefert, a stone that scales off in laminae, that exfoliates; der Knochen hat sich geschiefert, the bone has exfoliated, has become carious; der Knochen fängt an, sich zu —, the bone begins to exfoliate; die Haut schiefert sich, the skin is coming off. Das — [of bones or of minerals], exfoliation. Mittel, welches das — der Knochen bewirkt, an exfoliative remedy. 2) [provincial] to run a splinter into one's skin, one's hand.

Schiefheit, f. eines Körpers, the slope, obliquity of a body; die — eines Gedankens, Urtheils, the wrongness, erroneousness, obliquity, the whimsicality, oddity, singularity, eccentricity of a thought, judgment; a partial, erroneous, one-sided judgment, thought; ein Mensch voll —en, a man full of oddities, of strange humours, a queer man.

Schiel, [V. the more usual word Schel] adj. and adv. squinting, with a cast or turn in one's eyes. Fig. —er Wein, V. Schieler.

Schielauge, n. 1) an eye with a cast or a turn in it, a squinting eye, [low] a squint-eye. 2) a person having a squinting eye, that has a squint, [low] squint-eye, cock-eye, squinter. —brille, f. spectacles for curing obliquity of vision, goggles. —farbe, f. a blended colour changing as the direction of the falling light changes, as in shot-silk, a shot-colour. —kraut, n. 1) V. Schellkraut. 2) V. Milchkraut. —ohr, n. a slanting ear. Sein Pferd hat —ohren, his horse has slanting ears. —zeug, m. [in commerce] a shot-stuff, a stuff shot-coloured [as shot-silk].

Schielen, v. intr. 1) to leer, to ogle, to peep or peer from out the corners of one's eyes. Mit einem Auge nach Etwas —, to peer at any thing with one eye, to throw a sidling look, a side-glance at any thing; er hat nach dem Spiele seines Nachbarn geschielt, he has peeped [over] at his neighbour's game; nach schönen Mädchen —, to ogle, to look stealthily at the pretty girls, [in a bad sense] to leer after the pretty wenches. 2) to squint, [low] to look askew. Einwärts —, to squint towards the nose; das Auge schielt, the eye squints; —des Auge, a squinting eye. it. an eye having a cast or turn in it; er, sie schielt, he, she squints; sie schielt mit or auf dem einen Auge, she squints with or of one eye. Fig. —der Taffet, shot-taffety; —de Farbe, a changing-colour; a chameleon hue; [in commerce] a shot-colour; —de Perlen, pearls slightly clouded or dull —der Satz, Ausdruck, an imperspicuous, a dubious, an ambiguous phrase, expression &c., a sentence &c. not palpable, not having a direct power, not striking to the point; es liegt etwas —des [Zweideutiges] in seinem Betragen, there is something ambiguous, there is more than meets the eye in his conduct. Das — [in medicine], strabism, squinting, obliquity of vision.

Schieler, m. [-s, pl. -], —in n, f. 1) a person who squints, [insulting] a squinter; it. a person with a cast or turn in his eye or eyes. 2) [in commerce] —, or Schieler Wein, claret, claret wine.

Schielerstein, m. V. Schillerstein.

Schielicht, adj. [of a colour] changing; passing into transitions, dolphin-hued, cha-meleon-hued; [of stuffs &c.] shot. —e Seide, —er Zeug, shot-silk, shot-stuff.

Schiemann, m. [-es, pl. -männer] [in seamen's lang.] the boatswain's mate, quarter-master.

Schiemanns-garn, n. [in seamen's lang.] yarn, twine, spun-yarn. —gast, m. [in seamen's lang.] the quarter-master's seaman or sailor. —maat, m. [in seamen's lang.] the quarter-master's mate, man at the bow-sprit.

Schiemannen, v. tr. [in seamen's lang.] to refit, to repair the rigging of a vessel.

Schiene, f. [pl. -n] dim. Schienchen, || Schienlein, n. [-s, pl. -] [allied to the Lat. scindo, Germ. schinden, Gr. σύνω, to cleave or split; therefore originally something long or longish] V. Schienbein, Arm—, Bein—, —an einem Rade, band or clout to a wheel, the tire; —n um ein Rad legen, to lay the tire of a wheel, V. Achsen—, Rad— &c.; die — [für Eisenbahnen], the [iron—] rail [for rail-roads]; die —n an den eisernen Defen, corner-bands or clamps securing German iron-stoves; die — [with surgeons], splint, splinter [for forming a swathe or cradle to a broken leg or arm]; —n an einen zerbrochenen Arm legen, to put or lay the splinters round a broken arm; — [in hydraulics], the cramp-iron, the iron-collar round the chamber-tube, sluice-pipe &c.; [in farriery] ein Glied von einem Pferde mit —n in der Lage erhalten, to keep a horse's limb in the posture required by means of splints; die — [with potters], the turning-staff of the wheel or lathe, it. [a piece of wood shaped like the heel piece of a shoe or a tongue for smoothing the pots] splint, slice.

Schienbein, n. the shin-bone. Sich am —beine stoßen, to graze, to rub the skin off, to fray one's shin-bone, one's shin; [in anatomy] the tibia; [in horses] [sometimes] the cannon. —beinfläche, f. the surface of the tibia. —beingräte, f. [in anatomy] the ridge or crest of the shin-bone. —beinknochen, m. [in anatomy] tibia. —beinknopf, m. [in anatomy] the head or ball of the tibia. —beinmuskel, m. [in anatomy] tibial muscle, muscle of the tarsus. —beinerve, m. tibial nerve. —beinröhre, f. the fibula, outer bone of the leg or shin. —beinschlagader, f. [in anatomy] die vordere —beinschlagader, the anterior tibial artery; die hintere —beinschlagader, the posterior tibial artery. —eisen, n. 1) iron for bands, in bands, in strips, hoop-iron. 2) iron-band, iron-clout, iron-tire, V. Rad—. —faß, n. [with foundries] a sort of iron-crate for carrying the charcoal or coal to the furnace. —haken, m. [with foundries] —haken des Blasfebalges, hook to the cheeks of the forge-bellows. —hörlein, n. [in salterns] the recipient. —nagel, m. V. Schienennagel. —zange, f. [with blacksmiths] tongs for holding the clout or tire-iron.

Schiene durchschlag, m. [with blacksmiths] [Episthammer] the clout or tire-piercer. —faß, n. V. Schienfaß. —knochen, m. tibia. —nagel, m. [with nail-smiths] a clout-nail, tire-nail, hoop-nail, V. Radnagel. —röhre, f. [in anatomy] [Wadenbein] fibula. —ruthe, f. [with weavers] a tringle for supporting the tapestry. —stempel, m. [with blacksmiths] a stamp or blunt puncheon for marking the holes of the clouts and tires, or of the fellow-bands. —weg, m. [modern] rail-road.

Schienen, v. tr. Ein Rad —, to lay on the tire of a wheel, to tire a wheel; geschien= tes Rad, a tired or clouted wheel; den Arm —, to swathe or bandage up the arm in splints or splinters, to cradle the arm; ein geschientes Bein, a leg swathed in, secured by splinters or splints, a cradled leg. Das — eines Rades, the tiring, the laying on the tire of a wheel; das — eines Armes &c., the swathing up of an arm &c. in splints or splinters.

1. Schier, [allied to scheren = to move quick] adv. 1) [old = schnell, vögtlich] quick, at once. Es wird ihre Ernte gar — kommen [in Scripture], yet a little while, and the time of her harvest shall come; auf's — kommen, to come quickly, as quick as possible. 2) [in common people's lang., for bald] soon. Es ist — Nacht, night is coming on apace, it will soon be night, it is getting dark. 3) [in common people's lang., for beinahe] almost, nearly, all but, within an ace or inch of. — wäre ich gestorben, I was almost, was on the point, within a hair's breadth of dying. [fam.] I had one leg in the grave; es ist — Mittag, it is almost mid-day, it is on the point of striking twelve or on the stroke of noon, noon is close at hand.

2. Schier, [from scheuern] [= glatt] adj. [in woods and forests] — es Holz, smooth wood, wood free from knots.

Schieren, V. Schüren and Scheren.

Schier-butte, f. [in vitriol-manufactories] settling-tub. — hammer, m. [with blacksmiths] a hammer moved by water, for beating out the blisters in the brass plates intended for kettles &c., flattening or planishing hammer. — loch, n. V. Schürloch. — tuch, n. coarse bolting-cloth or kitchen-cloth.

Schierling, m. [-es] [perhaps allied to the Old Sax. skern, skearn = dung, because this plant flourishes on dung-heaps] 1) hemlock, common or great hemlock. 2) Der kleine — [stolle Petersilie], fool's parsley, parsley-leaved aethusa. 3) V. Wasser.

Schierlings-absud, m. decoction of hemlock. — becher, m. cup, goblet of hemlock. Sokrates leerte den — becher, Socrates drained the goblet, cup of hemlock. — blatt, n. hemlock-leaf. — gift, n. hemlock-poison. — saft, m. juice of hemlock. — tanne, f. little Virginian fir. — trank, m. drink, draught, potion of hemlock.

Schiesse, f. [pl. -n] [with bakers] a peel, V. Schieber 2).

Schießen, [allied to schütten, to the provincial schusseln = to move rapidly to and fro &c.] irr. I. v. tr. and intr. 1) [generally = werfen, stoßen &c.] to throw, to dart, to cast, to hurl, to launch, to shoot. Brod in den Ofen —, to shoot [put] bread into the oven; die Sonne schießt heiße Strahlen, the sun darts, sends down, shoots forth hot beams, emits hot rays; einen zornigen Blick auf Jemand —, to dart an angry look at any one; in Columnen — [with printers], to arrange the sheets properly in the chase, to impose or set properly the pages; Geld — [= hinzählen and fig. in general = zu etwas hergeben], to count down, to advance money; er hat das Geld zu diesem Handelsunternehmen geschossen, it was he by whom the money for this commercial speculation or undertaking had been advanced, posted, subscribed; die Sonne — [in seamen's lang.], to take an altitude of the sun, the sun's altitude [with a quadrant &c.]; einen Speer —, to hurl, to dart, to throw, to cast the spear; mit einem Bogen, einer Armbrust, Pistole, Flinte, Kanone —, to shoot with a bow, a crossbow, a pistol, a gun, a cannon; mit Pfeilen —, to shoot with arrows. [in a stricter sense] a) [especially to fire away or at with a fire-arm &c.] Mit Schrot, mit Kugeln &c. —, to fire with shot, with balls &c.; in die Luft —, to fire in the air; im Fluge —, to shoot flying. [in sportsmen's lang.] to take [a bird] upon the wing; nach einem Ziele, nach der Scheibe, nach dem Vogel —, to shoot or fire at a mark, at the target, at the bird, at the popinjay; auf or nach etwas, nach Einem —, to shoot or fire at any thing, at any one; eine Kugel nach Einem —, to fire a ball at any one; er hat auf einen Hirsch geschossen, ohne ihn zu treffen, he has shot or fired at a stag, without hitting [touching] him; die Feinde schossen unaufhörlich, the enemy fired incessantly, kept up an unceasing fire; noch einmal —, to fire or shoot again; ich habe schlecht geschossen, ich will noch einmal —, I have shot badly, I will shoot again; falsch —, vorbei —, to shoot untrue, to fire past, to miss one's aim in shooting; an einem Hasen vorbei —, to miss a hare; mit der Büchse —, V. Bürschen 2); über Bank — [in artillery], to fire in barbe, over the parapet. b) [to wound by shooting] Einen —, to shoot any one, to wound any one by a dart, ball &c., to inflict a wound by a dart, ball &c., a gunshot-wound; Einen in den Arm, vor den Kopf —, to shoot any one in the arm, in the head, it. through the head, to blow any one's brains out; er wurde mit einem Pfeile in den Arm geschossen, he was shot [wounded] in the arm by an arrow. Fig. Mit der Liebe Pfeil geschossen seyn [obsolescent, in poetical style], to be shot by the arrow of love; er ist geschossen [hat einen Sparren] [in common people's lang.], he is rather touched, cracked, not quite right. c) [to bring any one into a certain condition by shooting] Einen todt —, über den Haufen — [in fam. lang.], to shoot any one dead, so that he falls all of a heap, like a lump, stone-dead; er wurde mit Pfeilen todt geschossen, erschossen, he was shot dead, shot or killed with arrows; ein frumm und lahmer geschossener Soldat, a soldier lamed and crippled by a gunshot-wound, by the shot of &c.; das Schiff, der Pallast wurde in Grund und Boden geschossen, the ship was sunk by the shot, broadside or broadsides, the palace was reduced to a heap of ruins by the cannonading. d) [to fell or lay prone by shooting] Einen Hasen &c. — [todt—], to shoot a hare; sie haben nichts geschossen, they have shot nothing. e) [to blow up] Berge herein — [with miners], to spring a rock, to blow up a rock [with gunpowder]. 2) [speaking of fire-arms themselves] Eine Kanone, die 20 Pfund schießt, a cannon that carries a twenty-pound ball, a twenty-pounder; eine Kanone, Flinte, Pistole, die weit schießt, a cannon that ranges, shoots or carries far, having a long range, a gun, pistol that carries, shoots far; ein Pfeil schießt nicht so weit, an arrow does not shoot so far, it is out of bow-shot; diese Flinte schießt gut [with a barrel bored true], this gun shoots well; diese Flinte schießt Schrot und Kugeln, this gun shoots [carries] shot and ball. Das —, firing, cannonading; das —, [Frei—], rifle-shooting, shooting at a mark; [with printers] das — in Columnen, the setting of the pages in the chase, the imposition. II v. intr. [u. w. seyn] [to move quickly] Vom Berge in's Thal —, to shoot, to dart, to rush headlong or prone, to precipitate one's self or itself from the mountain into the valley; hier schießt ein starker Bach aus der Höhle, at this spot an impetuous brook shoots, dashes out of the cavern; plötzlich schoß ein starker Regenguß auf uns herab, on a sudden a violent torrent of rain poured down upon us; das Blut schoß ihm aus der Nase, aus dem Munde, the blood gushed, poured, burst out of his nose, mouth; die Thränen schossen ihr in die Augen, the tears started into her eyes, her eyes were filled or suffused with tears; das Glas ist mir aus der Hand geschossen [in fam. lang.], the glass dropped, fell out of my hand; geschossen kommen [in pop. lang.], to come flying, like a shot, as if launched; eine Schlange schoß auf sie zu, a snake darted at her; ein Adler schoß auf seine Beute, an eagle darted, swooped upon his prey; in die Höhe — [as plants], to shoot up, to spring up, to grow apace; in Samen —, to shoot into grain, into seed; dieser Salat ist geschossen, this lettuce has or these lettuces have run to seed; in Aehren —, to shoot [forth] into ear; V. Auf- and Schossen; it. V. An-; [with locksmiths] die — de Falle, the spring-latch, spring-catch; — der Stern, a shooting or falling star; ein Seil — lassen, to let go a rope, to let a rope fly; [in seamen's lang.] das Tau, die Taue — lassen, to easy or ease off or away a rope, the ropes; Taue und Segel — lassen, to let fly ropes and sails; den Leithund — lassen, das Hängefeil — lassen [in sportsmen's lang.], to let go the led-dog, to lengthen, to slip the leash; einem Pferde den Zügel — lassen, to give a horse the reins. Fig. Einem, seinen Leidenschaften, den Zügel — lassen, to give any one plenty of rein, full scope, play or swing to his passions, to let any one go or stretch to the full length of his tether, [most used] to give any one plenty of rope, to let any one take his own course; to indulge one's passions to the fullest extent, to give full play to one's passions; to yield to one's unbridled passion; it. ein Wort — [entschlüpfen] lassen, to let slip or fall a word, to speak an unguarded word.

Schießbahn, f. the place for butt-shooting, mark-shooting. — be- darf, m. ammunition. — beere, f. V. Scheißebeere. — blech, n. [with miners] a broad piece of iron for springing a rock. — bolzen, m. [in seamen's lang.] sort of graps for cutting up the enemy's rigging, bolt, quarrel. — brett, n. V. Segbrett. — eisen, n. 1) [with miners] a hammer-shaped iron-plug used in springing rocks. 2) [in water-work-apparatus] plug, peg. — fisch, m. V. Hornfisch. — gat, n. [in seamen's lang.] [used by the crew for their musketry when their ship is boarded] loop-hole in the ship's sides or bulkheads. — geld, n. money due to the game-keeper for game shot by him, [if the game be large] V. Bürschengeld; it. [with miners] right of the master-miner to so much money for every successive depth made to the mine. — ge- rechtigkeit, f. right of sport over the lands of another. — ge- wehr, n. any weapon that expels its charge by the combustion of powder, a pistol, gun, rifle, musket &c. — ge- wehre, fire-arms. — graben, m. trench or ditch in a city or town for shooting-practice. — grube, f. [in military tactics] caponniere, loop-hole with covered lodgment. — haus, n. house used by marksmen, rifle-shooters, [in England] pigeon-shooters, as a rendezvous for meeting and practice. — herb, m. [with fowlers] the area covered with nets into which the birds are scared by shooting arrows &c. at them. — hund, m. [in sportsmen's lang.] a retriever, a dog trained to fetch the game; it. a water-spaniel; it. any sporting-dog [as pointer, setter, hound]. — hütte, f. hut, cabin, lodge for shooting game from, [in India] a hunting bungalow, [in England, often elegant] shooting-box. — jagd, f. shooting. Wollen Sie heute zur — jagd mitgehen? will you go out a-shooting to day with us? — karren, m. [in sportsmen's lang.] a light sort of caravan used in duck- and wild geese-shooting. — klänge, f. [with pinmakers] [Drahtmaß] wire-gage, gauge or calibers. — kugel, f. ball, bullet. — loch, n. [in castles] loop-hole; [for cannon] V. — charte. Mit — löchern versehen, to provide with battlements or loop-holes; it. [with miners] — loch, hole for springing a rock; [in seamen's lang.] [Stückpforte] port, port-hole, chase. Schiff mit 50 — löchern, a ship with 50 ports, pierced for 50 guns. — mahl, n. 1) butt, mark, target. 2) place or ground for mark shooters, for target-firing. 3) mark or palpable hit of a shot fired. — mauer, f. wall on which the target &c. hangs. — nagel, m. V. — zwecke. — patrone, f. [with miners] cartouch, cartridge. — pferd, n. horse trained to stand the mounted sportsman's fire, V. Freibpferd. — plock, m. [with miners] V. — röhre. — plan, — platz, m. place for rifle-shooting, target-firing, for practice at shooting. — prügel, m. [Stinte] [in contempt or comic] [a gun] a popper, pop-gun, thingamy with a trigger to it. — pulver, n. gunpowder, powder. — pulverthee, m. [in commerce, a kind of tea] gunpowder-tea. — recht, n. V. — gerechtigkeit. — ring, m. V. — klänge. — röhre, f. [with miners] wood-cartridge, touch-wood. — scharte, f. [in fortification] loop-hole, battlement. — scharte eines Bollwerkes, embrasure of a bastion or rampart; eine Mauer mit — scharten versehen, to furnish a wall with loop-holes, battlements, embrasures. — schartenzeile, f. [in fortification] a merlon. — scheibe, f. butt, target. — schlange, f. acontias, dart-snake, anguis jaculi. — schute, f. [in Holland] a market-barge. — spiel, n. [rather unusual] diversion or game of mark-firing, butt-shooting, rifle-shooting. — spreize, f. a plug-prop or quoin-holder [in springing rocks]. — spuhle, f. [with weavers] shuttle. — stand, m. place for shooting from at a mark; [with sportsmen] place or spot [behind a tree &c.] from where the sportsman takes aim at the deer. — statt, f. V. — platz. — steiger, m. [with miners] the miner who lays and fires the train in the springing of rocks. — stück, n. V. — blech. — tafel, f. 1) [Weißtafel] a shuffle-board, or shovel-board. 2) [obsolete] [Basttafel] billiard-table. — tasche, f. shooting-pocket, V. Jagdtasche. — wagen, m. V. — farren. — wand, f. wall on to which the butt or target is. — wiese, f. meadow for firing at a mark in; it. meadow near a place used for rifle-shooting &c. — zwecke, f. a tack for shooting through a blow-pipe.

Schießbar, adj. and adv. shootable, within shot, near enough to be killed. Diese Wachteln sind —, these quails are within reach, within gunshot.

Schießbarkeit, f. possibility of shooting or killing by firing any fire-arm.

Schießer, m. [-s, pl. -] 1) [not much used in this sense] a shooter, a shot. 2) [with bakers] the journeyman who puts the bread into the oven; [it. = Schiffe] the baker's peel. 3) [in children's games] a marble. 4) [in nat. history = Stachis] sepia, cuttle-fish, [with some persons] pounce-fish, ink-squitter.

Schießerei, f. [in common people's lang., in a bad sense] wretched shooting, pop-popping, bang-banging, wasting or throwing away powder and shot.

Schiff, n. [-es, pl. -e] dim. — chen, || — lein, n. [-s, pl. -] [allied to the Gr. σκάφη, Lat. scapha, a skiff, in Brittany schaff; probably from schaffen = to equip, to make and put in readiness] 1) [especially certain instruments or objects generally in so far as they are hollow] [in rural economy] — und Geschirr, agricultural implements, farming implements, arable tools; einen Ackermann auf's Neue mit — und Geschirr versehen, to supply a husbandman with fresh implements, [fam.] with new tackle, to give a labourer a new fit out of arable tools; das — [with printers], galley; [with painters] — chen, paint-pot; [in a paint-box] saucer; [with weavers] —, it. — chen, a shuttle; [in architecture] das — einer Kirche, the nave of a church. 2) [= Fahrzeug] a ship, vessel, bark. Ein — chen, a little vessel, a small vessel, a boat, a skiff, V. Bei —, Fluß —, Handels —, Kriegs —, Last —, Linien —, Markt —, Platt —, Ruder — &c. Ein — ausrüsten, to fit out or equip a vessel, a ship; ein — vom ersten Range, a vessel of the first class or size [from 1400 to 1500 tons], [if for war] a first-rater; ein — vom zweiten Range, a ship of the second class [from 1100 to 1200 tons], [for war] of second rate, a second-rater, a second-rate ship or vessel; ein — vom dritten Range, a ship of the third class or size [from 800 to 900 tons], [for war] a third-rater; ein — von 100 Tonnen, a ship of a hundred tons; ein —, das Segel und Ruder führt, a vessel propelled by sails and oars, a galley; ein — von hundert Kanonen, a hundred-gun ship; ein —, das viel Spring hat [in seamen's lang. or in ship-building] a round-sheered vessel; ein —, welches auf der einen Seite stärker ist, als auf der andern, a lop-sided or lap-sided ship; ein schwankendes oder wankendes —, a rolling or unsteady ship, a ship that does not trim in sailing; ein —, das vorne tiefer im Wasser geht, als hinten, a ship that pitches, plunges, dives; ein dichtes —, a tight, close, snug ship; der obere Theil eines — es, der über dem Wasser geht, the dead works, upper works of a ship; der untere Theil eines — es, der im Wasser geht, the quick works of a ship; der weiteste Theil eines — es, inwendig beim großen Mast, the extreme breadth of a ship from outside to outside; das — in seiner Breite, the beam of the ship; das — hat so und so viel Fuß Breite or in der Breite, this ship has so many feet beam; ein — wenden [in seamen's lang.], to put a ship about; — gewendet! [Ree!] [in seamen's lang., words of command] about ship! ein — auf die Seite legen [um es zu fischholen], to careen a ship; ein — auf das Land ziehen, trocken legen [um es auszubessern], to lay a ship up high and dry, to bring a ship into dry-docks; ein — ballasten, mit Ballast versehen, to ballast a ship, to furnish her with ballast, to ship her ballast, to stow her ballast on board; ein —, das nicht Ballast genug hat, a walt ship; zu — e gehen, to embark, to go on board; ein tief geladenes —, a ship of charge; auf einem — e seyn, to be on board, aboard [ship]; von hier gehen die Waaren zu — e weiter, from here the goods are forwarded by water, proceed by ship, are shipped aboard; mit dem — e abgehen, abfahren, to start, to depart on board ship, to set sail; das — läuft aus, läuft ein, the vessel sets sail, sails away, comes into harbour, arrives, makes for port; das — stößt auf den Grund, strandet, the vessel runs aground, touches ground, grates the bottom, strands; das — scheiterte [an den Felsen &c.], the ship was wrecked, went to pieces [in coming in contact with the rocks &c.]; ein — aufbringen, to make a prize, to capture a vessel; ein aufgebracht —, a prize; ein — vermieten or verfrachten, to freight or charter a vessel; ein — mieten, to hire a vessel; ein — entern, to board a vessel; ein — or sich an ein — anheften or anklammern, to grapple a vessel, it. [in a different sense, sich an ein — ankammern, of a person sinking] to cling to a ship; sich dem feindlichen — e an die Seite legen, um es zu entern, to lay one's self along-side of the enemy's ship for boarding her; auf ein — abhalten or zufegeln, to bear down upon a ship; zwei — e haben auf sie abgehalten, two ships have borne down upon them; [in heraldry] ein — mit Segeln und Tauerwerk, a vessel with sails and rigging, equipped. 3) — chen, n. [something resembling a ship or having the form of a ship] a) [in botany] the lowest petal of a papilionaceous flower, the keel. b) [in conchology] V. — boot; it. the yellow &c. pinnace-shell or cockle. c) [in anatomy] navicular or cymbiform cavity of the external ear.

Schiffamt, n. 1) [unusual] the admiralty, navy-board. 2) the tribunal or chamber of commerce, board of trade. — ballen, — eballen, m. a ship-beam, a ship's beam. — bant, — ebant, f. the bench of any oared ship, the row-bench or oar-bank of a galley. — bau, — ebau, m. 1) naval architecture, ship-building. 2) the building of a vessel or ship. — bauer, — ebauer, m. one who understands naval architecture, a shipwright. — baufhof, m. stocks, dry docks. — baumholz, n. ship-timber. — baufunst, f. naval architecture, the shipwright's art. — baumeister, — ebbaumeister, m. a naval architect, a master-shipwright. — baurath, m. [not much used] board or council of naval architecture; it. the member of such a board or council. — beil, n. seaman's axe, pollaxe. — bein, n. [in anatomy] the navicular or cymbiform bone, scaphoid bone. — besen, m. a swab; it. a large brush for scrubbing the ship's sides under water, the hog. — besteuerung, f. [in seamen's lang.] art of sailing and steering, of navigating, navigation. — bett, n. a bed in a ship, a ship's bed; a cot [of a superior officer], a berth [of a midshipman or sailor, of a common seaman]; it. V. Hangebett. — biene, f. [in France] a bee belonging to a hive placed on a boat or barge. — bohrer, m. 1) a sort of piercer for boring holes for the wooden-pegs in ship-building, a gimlet. 2) a shipwright's auger or wimble. 3) V. — wurm. — boot, — ebboot, n. 1) — boot, [on rivers, lakes] a boat. 2) — ebboot, [in seamen's lang.] Großes — boot, the ship's boat, long-boat, pinnace; kleines — boot, skiff, yawl; ganz kleines — boot ohne Steuerruder, a punt. 3) [in conchology] Dickschaliges — boot, the great chambered nautilus, the sailor, polypus testaceus; dünnschaliges, zartes or feines — boot, the argonaut, the papyraceous nautilus. — brod, n. V. — zwieback. — bruch, m. shipwreck. — bruch leiden, to be cast away, to be wrecked, to suffer shipwreck; sich, Etwas aus dem — bruche retten, to save one's self, something from the wreck. Fig. wreck. Dies allein rettete er aus dem allge- meinen — brüche seines Vermögens, this alone he saved from the universal wreck of his fortune. — brüchig, adj. and adv. shipwrecked, wrecked, cast away; — brüchig werden, to be wrecked, cast away. — brüchige Leute, shipwrecked people, persons cast away; — brüchige Waaren, shipwrecked goods, sea-waifs. — brücke, f. [over rivers] a bridge of boats, pontoon. — bündel, n. so much freight allowed to every man on board as a perquisite, a seaman's venture. — bursche, m. V. [the more usual word] — junge. — fahne, — sfahne, f. 1) flag. 2) [in conchology] dolabriformed trochus. — fahrer, m. mariner, navigator. — fahrt, f. 1) voyage, sea-voyage, a navigation. Nach einer gefährlichen — fahrt, after a dangerous navigation, a perilous voyage; während der ganzen — fahrt, during the whole voyage, passage. 2) art of navigating; navigation. Die — fahrt verstehen, to know navigation; ein Ausdruck in der — fahrt, an expression in navigation, it. a marine or nautical term. V. Seefahrt. 3) [das Fahrwasser] a channel or small strait where it is navigable for ships homeward or outward bound in or near harbour, fair-way. — fahrtsgewärth, n. [nautische Werkzeuge] nautical instruments. — fahrtswissenschaft, f. a practical and theoretical knowledge of navigation, nautical knowledge. — fahrtswunde, — fahrtswund, f. V. — wunde. — flagge, f. a ship's flag. — flotte, f. [little used] V. Flotte. — förmig, adj. and adv. nautical, naviform, cymbiform; [in anatomy] das — förmige Bein, V. — bein. — fracht, f. 1) [of goods] freight. 2) [of a ship] freightage, chartering. — gefecht, n. an action, naval combat, sea-fight, sea-battle, naval or sea-engagement; [in Roman history] naumachy. — geld, n. passage-money, freight, [old or pedantic] naulage, [in English history] ship-money. — geräth, n. the full equipment and rigging of a ship [men and provisions excepted]. — gerippe, n. the carcass of a ship without masts or tackling, the hull. — geschütz, n. a ship's guns or battery; it. V. — stück. — grund, m. the sink of a ship, the lowest part of the hold. — hafen, — shafen, m. grapple, grapnel, grappling-iron, [in the English preventive service] creeper; it. [with fountain-architects] creeper, searching-hook. — halter, m. [in nat. hist. = Schildfisch] the remora, the barnacle. — handel, m. 1) V. Seehandel. 2) [rather unusual] trade with or in ships, ship-trade, buying and selling of ships. — hauselein, n. [if of sails] an awning on the deck; [of wood] pavilion; [in some vessels on the quarter-deck instead of under] round-house. — heer, n. [more usual Flotte] fleet. — herr, m. V. — sherr. — holm, m. any place, properly an island where ships are built, a dock-yard; a careening-wharf. — holz, n. V. — baumholz. — junge, — sjunge, m. a cabin-boy, a ship-boy. — kampf, m. naval engagement or combat, an action. — kette, f. 1) a chain, row or array, a line of vessels. 2) — skette, f. a ship's chain. — kiel, m. keel. || — kind, — skinder, pl. the crew of a merchantman or merchant-vessel; it. crew of a herring-buss. 2) the crew [of any vessel]. — kleid, n. ship-clothes, sea-dress. — knecht, — sknecht, m. common sailor, common seaman, V. also Bootsknecht. — koch, m. V. — skoch. — kopf, m. [in artillery] — kopf einer Kanone [formerly], the head or muzzle tulip-formed. — krug, m. a ship's pitcher or water-jar. — kunde, f. navigation, science of navigation, of seamanship, [very rare] histiodromia. — kundig, adj. and adv. understanding or knowing, skilled in navigation. — kunst, f. art of navigating, navigation; naval science. — küttel, f. [in conchology] V. — boot 3; it. the most beautiful of mother-of-pearls, burgan, nacre-shell. — küttelstein, m. fossil nautilus or argonaut, a nautilus. — lader, m. a lighterman. — ladung, — sladung, f. ship's cargo or freight. — laffette, f. the gun-carriage on board ship, the carriage or frame for a ship's gun; a deck-carriage. — lande, f. ship's landing-place, a hard, [for some merchant-vessels] a wharf, a quay. — last, f. 1) a last or a weight of two tons [by which tonnage is reckoned in Holland &c.]. 2) a ship's last or tonnage, counting two tons to each last. — laterne, — slaterne, f. 1) ship's beacon or mast-lantern. 2) ship's lantern [used in the vessel]. Die — laternen auslöschen, to extinguish the ship's lights [in the binnacle &c.], it. to extinguish the ship's lanterns; die — laternen anzünden, to hoist up the lights or night-signals [by lanterns], it. to light the lanterns [in the ship]. — leine, f. a towing-line or rope [for towing ships on rivers against the stream]. — leiter, f. 1) a ship's side-ladder. 2) a ship's ladder, rope-ladder. — leuchte, f. 1) signal-light, mast-lantern. 2) a ship's lantern [for the use of the crew]. — leuchter, m. a ship's candlestick [with two points]. — leute, pl. 1) mariners, sailors, seamen; watermen, boatmen, bargemen, ferry-men, rowers. 2) — slleute, pl. the crew, it. V. — voll. — lohn, m. freight [for goods], passage-money, fare [for passengers]. — mäkler, m. a shipbroker. — mann, m. [on rivers] boatman, waterman; it. V. Schiffer. — maß, n. cubic measure, tonnage; it. V. Schachtmaß. — mast, m. a mast. — meißel, m. [for driving a small pin or wedge into a tree-nail to swell it] iron-pin. — model, m. [Carter] draught, model, mould, frame-timbers of a ship. — mörser, m. [for bombs and shells] ship's mortar, the mortar of a bomb-boat. — mühle, f. 1) a mill built on a flat ship in a river. 2) — smühle, f. a hand-mill in a ship. — müller, m. the owner of a mill on a flat ship in a river. — mumme, f. Brunswick-beer, ale or mum good for long voyages, [in England] Hodgson's pale ale. — muschel, f. V. — boot 3. — müße, f. 1) [seldom used] a cap shaped like a boat. 2) a seaman's cap, a cap or bonnet worn on board ships. — nagel, m. [with nail-makers] a plank nail, round-headed peg. — offizier, m. V. — soffizier. — ordnung, f. 1) law, rules &c. regulating navigation. 2) regulation for the voyage. — pfecht, n. ship-pitch. — pfehl, m. [on the coast] post for a hawser. — pferd, n. a towing-horse, a tow-horse. — pfund, n. a ship-pound [generally 280 lb., in Hamburg 320 lb. and varying in other places or countries]. — prediger, — sprediger, m. ship's chaplain, sea-chaplain. — pumpe, — spumpe, f. a ship's pump. — rechnungsschnur, f. [das Log] log, log-line. — recht, n. V. Seerecht. — reich, adj. and adv. abounding in ships. Die Themse ist ein — reicher Fluß, the Thames is a river covered or studded with vessels, with small craft. — rose, f. [Windrose] card or face of a sea-compass [with the 32 winds]. — rüstung, f. 1) equipment or fitting out of a vessel. 2) V. — geräth. — ruthe, f. V. Schachttruthe. — sand, m. sand as ballast. — säule, f. rostral column.

— sbalken, m. — sbant, f. V. — balken — bauf. — sbart, m. sea-grass or weed that sticks to a ship's sides impeding her sailing, ship's beard. — sbau, — sbauer, — sbäumeister, m. V. — bau &c. — sbauch, m. the belly of a ship. — sbefehlshaber, m. captain of a ship; [in English war-ships] post-captain, [first four years after promotion from a lieutenantancy] commander. — sbefleidung, f. the outside and inside plank-work of a ship. — sbewegung, f. ship's motion, movement of the vessel. — sboden, m. bottom of a vessel, the ship's bottom. — sbort, n. V. — boot. — sbord, m. ship-board. — sbreite, f. extreme breadth of a ship from outside to outside, the beam. — scapitän, m. V. — sbefehlshaber; [in general] captain in the navy, naval captain, sea-captain, [of a merchantman] master. — schädel, — schädel, m. beak, figure-head, head, prow of a ship; [in antiquity] rostrum. Mit — schädeln gezielte Säule, V. — säule. — schnecke, f. burgan, nacre-shell. — schreiber, m. the clerk of a merchant-vessel, the supercargo. — schuh, m. V. Schachtshuh. — seil, n. cable. Die sämtlichen — seile, the rigging, tackle. — sfähnrich, m. [more usual Seefadett] a midshipman. — sflagge, f. ship's flag; [in England] jack, union-jack. — sforn, f. the form or build of a vessel; [in seamen's language] die — sfornen, the ship's mould-timbers. — sfracht, f. V. — fracht. — sfrachtebrief, m. [Cetapartei] an agreement respecting the hire and freight of a ship, charter-party. — sfrachtschein, m. bill of lading. || — sfreund, m. one interested in a merchant-ship. — sgebäude, n. shell, hull, carcass of a vessel. — sgeleite, n. escort, convoy. — sgeräth, n. V. — geräth. — sgerippe, n. the carcass of a vessel. — sgeschrei, n. [the peculiar] cry of the crew, of the seamen. — sgeschütz, n. the ship's cannon, ordnance, heavy metal of a ship. — sgeschwader, n. squadron. — shauptmann, m. [more usual Schiffscapitän] a ship's captain, a captain in the navy. — sheilige, m. the image of the guardian or patron saint of the vessel. — sherd, m. V. — sküche. — sherr, m. fitter out, owner, freighter of a vessel. [rather old] ship's patron. — shintertheil, n. poop, stern. — sholm, V. — holm. — sjunge, V. — junge. — skammer, f. [more usual Schiffskajüte] ship's cabin. — skastell, n. the quarter-deck, poop, fore-castle and hind-castle of a ship; the upper-works. — skette, V. — fette. — skiel, m. the keel. — sklarierer, m. [provincial] V. — mäkler. — sknecht, V. — knecht. — skoch, m. ship's cook. — skrahn, m. the wheel-crane of a wharf, quay or hard. — skrone, f. [in antiquity] the naval or rostral crown. — sküche, f. the ship's kitchen, the cook-room, caboose or co-boose, [in men of war] galley. — sküttel, f. V. — küttel. — sladung, f. ship's cargo or freight. — slaffette, f. V. — laffette. — slast, f. V. — last. — slleiter, — slleuchte, f. — slleute, pl. — slmäkler, m. V. — leiter &c. — slmacht, f. [not much used] [Flotte] fleet; it. [Seemacht] navy. — slmannschaft, f. the sailors and [on board men of war] marines of a ship, the crew. — slmiethe, f. hire, freight, fare, [very rare] naulage. — slmörser, m. V. — mörser. — slnase, f. V. — schädel. — sobertheil, n. the dead works — soffizier, m. a ship's officer; [especially] a naval officer. — soldat,

m. 1) a marine. 2) a seaman of a king's ship or man of war. Die sämtlichen —soldaten und Kriegswerke eines —es, the armament of a vessel. —spapier, pl. ship's papers. —spappe, f. the calking-stuff, the graving, the pitch oakum for paying a ship's bottom. —spart, m. share, part in a vessel. —spartener, m. a partner of a ship. V. —sfreund. —spatron, m. V. —sheitige, —sherr. —spiel, n. [in antiquity] naumachy. —sportion, f. daily allowance of prog, grog &c., ration. —sprediger, m., —spumpe, f. V. —prediger &c. —srand, m. brim, edge, brink, side of a vessel. —srath, m. a council of officers held in the captain's cabin; a council of war; a court of ship's officers. —straum, m. the hold, the bottom of the hold. —scheber, m. a freighter; a ship-owner. —srose, f., —sfnabel, m. V. —rose &c. —sseite, f. ship's side, flank. —soldat, m. V. —soldat. —spiegel, m. stern, stern-frame, it. pediment of the stern [where the patron-saint is put in some vessels]. —spur, f. the wake of a vessel. —stange, f. [Ruderstange] oar, galley-oar. —steller, m. [Schildstich] remora, sucker, [in seamen's lang.] barnacle. —stheer, n. V. —theer. —stiefe, f. [from the upper deck to the bottom of the hold] ship's depth. —stopfer, m. a ship's calker. —stopfhammer, m. the calking-iron, making-iron. —streiber, m. calking or making-iron. —stück, n. a piece of cannon or ordnance on or for a ship, a sea-piece. —sühr, f. a ship's chronometer. —suntertheil, n. the quick works or those parts of the hull below the water-mark. —sverkleidung, f. V. —sbeleidung. —svermiether, m. a charterer. —svermietzung, f. freighting, chartering, freight-letting. —svolk, n. ship's crew, the manning, the seamen and officers, the ship's company. —svordertheil, n. the prow. —swand, f. [Wandtau] shroud. —swappen, n. [out upon the stern-pediment] the arms of a vessel. —szeug, n. V. —sgeräth. —szeughaus, n. marine or naval arsenal, dock-yard. —szimmermann, m. V. —zimmermann. —szunge, f. [with printers] the slice. —szwieback, m. V. —zwieback. —tau, —stau, n. any rope of a ship; it. the anchor-cable, hawser. —tauerwerk, —stauerwerk, n. the cables, rope-work, rigging. —theer, n. or m. tar, pitch. —treppe, —streppe, f. ladder of a ship. —uhr, f. V. —sühr. —wacht, f. the watch [of a ship]. —wächter, m. a sailor who does duty as a sentry at a naval arsenal &c. —wagen, m. a ferry-boat or ferry-barge; [new name] a floating-bridge. —werft, n. V. —holm. —werftständer, m. the aquatic cantharis. —wetter, n. fair weather, weather with a fair wind. Gutes, schlechtes —wetter, fair, foul [sailing-] weather; [with poets] prosperous or auspicious, adverse weather. —winde, —swinde, f. capstan, capstern; it. a ship or ship's crane; it. a windlass for turning a ship. Lose, versehbare —winde, a sort of capstern, the crab; die Stangen der —swinde, the bars of the horizontal capstan or windlass, the handspeers. —wurm, m. [Bohrwurm] teredo-worm, the ship-worm. —zärte, f. [in seamen's lang.] charter-party, bill of lading. —zeug, —szeug, n. V. —geräth. —zieher, n. towing of boats or barges, tracking of a ship. —zieher, m. one who tracks or tows a boat by a rope reaching ashore, hauler. —zier, —szier, f. the ornaments of a vessel. —zimmermann, —szimmermann, m. 1) a ship-carpenter, a shipwright. 2) the ship's carpenter. —zimmermanns kunst, f. shipwright's art, V. —baukunst. —zimmerplatz, m. the stocks, the building or dock-yard. —zoll, m. 1) a toll or duty on ships, ship-toll. 2) a toll or tax paid for the right of navigating in a river. 3) or —zollstätte, f. the place of paying the toll or ship-toll, the custom-house. —zug, m. naval or sea-expedition, V. also Seezug. —zwieback, m. sea-biscuit. —zwieback einnehmen, an Bord nehmen, to take in the stock of biscuit or ship the biscuit on board.

Schiffbar, adj. and adv. navigable. Dieses Meer ist nicht —, this sea is not navigable; einen Fluß — machen, to make a river navigable.

Schiffbarkeit, f. state of a river &c. that is navigable, navigability.

Schiffbarmachung, f. Die — dieses Flusses wird eine Million Gulden erfordern, the rendering navigable of this river will cost a million of florins.

Schiffchen, n. [-s, pl. -] a little ship, pinnace, a small vessel, barge, wherry, cutter, bark, skiff. V. under Schiff.

Schiffchenförmig, adj. and adv. shaped like a littleship or skiff, [in botany] keel-formed, keeled.

Schiffen, I. v. intr. 1) to go by water, on board a ship, to make a voyage, passage or trip. Nach England, nach Livorno &c. —, to sail, to go by ship to England, to Leghorn &c.; von Smyrna nach Konstantinopel —, to travel by sea from Smyrna to Constantinople. 2) to navigate. Längs den Küsten hin —, to coast, to sail along the coast; dies macht, daß man auf diesem See nicht — kann, that is the reason why one cannot sail on this lake, that puts a stop to, prevents all navigation on this lake; dieser Steuermann schiff gut, this pilot navigates, steers well, sails the ship well. II. v. tr. Waaren, Truppen nach Amerika —, to ship goods, to ship or transport troops to or for America. V. Aus —, Ein —, Wer —. Das —, navigation.

Schiffer, m. [-s, pl. -] —inn, f. waterman, sculler, boatman, ferryman, wherryman; a sea-faring man or woman, navigator, sailor, seaman, female sailor. Der erste —, the first navigator; [in seamen's lang.] the master [on board of a man of war]; — eines Rauffahrers, the captain, master, [in the Dutch trade] skipper of a merchantman; [obsolescent, or only when speaking of Levant or Barbary ships] patron; [= Schiffsherr] master, owner.

Schiffershaken, m. a ferryman's crook or pole. —hose, f. sailor's breeches or trowsets, slops. —jacke, f. waterman's jacket; sailor's jacket. —junge, m. a ship-boy, cabin-boy. —kalender, m. [in seamen's lang.] nautical almanach. —kittel, m. waterman's jacket; sailor's jacket, pea-jacket. —knecht, m. a man or boy serving a waterman &c.; a waterman's &c. boy or man, ship-boy. —knoten, m. [in seamen's lang.] a spring or figure of eight knot for hoisting weights on board. —kunst, f. V. Schiffkunst. —lohn, m. 1) passage-money, fare [across a ferry], V. Fahr-geld. 2) passage-price, fare [on the sea], V. Schiffgeld. —mütze, f. sailor's cap. —mütze chen, n. [in conchology] a kind of lepas or pa-tella] the chinese cap. —rock, m. seaman's coat or jacket. —sprache, f. nautical language, seamen's language, seaman's terms, sea-phrasology; seafaring-talk; [cant] ship-yarn. —stange, f. V. —hafen. —zirkel, m. compass, ship's compass. —zunft, f. guild or company of mariners; a collective body of watermen.

Schiften, [allied to Schiff a ft] v. tr. [verbinden] to join, to scarf, to bind together. [with carpenters] Einen Sparren —, to join a rafter lengthwise upon another; ein Gewehr —, V. Schäften; [in falconry] einen Falken —, to engraft fresh flag-feathers upon a falcon's wing.

Schiftsarm, m. [with miners] the wheel-spokes of a winch or gin. —sparren, m. [in architecture] a sort of rafter, a hip, [with miners] the sleeper to the shed of a gin-machine.

Schifane, f. [pl. -n] [Fr. chicane, appears to be derived from fec] chicanery, cavil, shift, pettifoggery [in law].

Schifantren, v. tr. and intr. to cavil, to dodge, to chicane, to sneak.

Schilbe, f. [pl. -n] [perhaps from the old schellen, to divide] [in the salt-mines at Hall in Suabia] a measure of one cwt. and a half of salt.

1. Schild, m. [in some cases n.] [-es, pl. -e] dim. —chen, || —lein, n. [-s, pl. -] [probably from the old schillen = schellen, that is, to divide, in Swed. skilja, whence also schilbern, to distinguish, and thence naturally to depict, to paint, as in the Lat. distinguere] [generally something striking prominently the eyesight] a) mark on the breast of the grey partridge and of the black-cock, spot. b) yellow or white spot on the haunches of fallow-deer, dapple, dappled spot. c) [in seamen's lang.] the stern of a ship, buttock, stern-frame. d) [in sportsmen's lang.] a linen image of an animal which one holds before him for the sake of stealing up to the birds, and shooting them. e) n. [pl. -er] Das — eines Kaufladens, Gasthauses, the sign of a shop of an inn; dies Haus hat einen Adler, Hirsch &c. zum —e, führt or hat das — zum Adler, Hirsch &c., this house has an eagle, a hart &c. for its sign. Fig. [in fam. lang.] Das — der Großmuth aushängen, to publish or proclaim one's magnanimity; [rather low] sie läßt das — aushängen [of a strumpet = sie trägt sich sehr bloß], she lets every body see what she is, [low] she lets every body see, that she has paid her footing.

2. Schild, m. [-es, pl. -e] dim. —chen, || —lein, n. [-s, pl. -] [allied to the Swed. skylda, to cover, V. Schate] 1) [generally something serving as a cover or lid, for instance] Der — der Schildkröte, the shell or shield of the tortoise; der — über der Unruhe einer Uhr, the cock of a watch; der — zum Neugeln, the scutcheon for grafting, inoculating and budding; der — [der Deckel] eines Electrophors, the cover of an electrophor; der — eines Schlüssellochs, a piece of metal hanging before the key-hole, tongue, guard; — um ein Schlüsselloch herum, a brass or other plate round a key-hole, scutcheon, shield; — an einem Thürklopfer, the scutcheon or plate of a door-knocker; [in architecture] a scroll, a cartouche of flowers, of foliage &c. round an inscription, arms, name &c.; [with shoemakers] the thickest part of sole-leather. 2) [as a weapon of defence] shield, buckler. Runder —, round buckler or shield, target; kleiner —, target, little shield; dreieckiger, ovaler —, triangular, oval shield, buckler; [in mythology] — der Pallas, the aegis, the shield of Minerva; sich mit dem —e decken, den — vorhalten, to cover one's self with one's shield, to ward off or parry with the shield; mit der Lanze und dem —e fechten [formerly], to fight with the lance and shield; mit dem [Breit-]Schwert und dem —e fechten or kämpfen, [with the Scottish Highlanders formerly] to fight with the [broad-] sword and target; güldene —e [in Scripture], golden shields; unter — reisen [obsolete], to travel armed, with one's arms. Fig. Der Herr ist mein Schutz und mein — [in Scripture], the Lord is my shield and my buckler; sein Rang dient ihm zum —e, his rank serves in lieu of a shield to him, screens him, protects him. [in heraldry] shield. —chen, —lein, scutcheon, escutcheon; leerer —, a blank shield or scutcheon; der Fuß des —es, the field of the shield; er führt eine Rose in seinem —e, he wears or bears a rose in his shield; — mit dem Wappen der Ahnen, a genealogical shield or pennon. Fig. a) [in fam. lang.] Etwas im —e führen, to have some design, some object in view; nichts Gutes im —e führen, to ponder or brood over, to be hatching some fatal design or project, to be brooding mischief. b) [formerly] noble dignity, knighthood. Zum —e geboren seyn, to be of noble blood, of a high or a good family, of gentle birth or blood; den — niedern, to degrade one's nobility. 3) [something "shield-like or scutiform"] Der — der Postknechte, Boten &c., the scutcheon or arm-plate of postboys, of messengers &c.; der — [das Blech], worauf der Name einer Pflanze steht, the ticket, billet [of lead &c.] on which the name &c. of the plant is inscribed. 4) [formerly, something marked with a shield] —chen [= Thaler], crown, dollar. Goldener —, a golden crown [of France]. 5) [kind of patella or lepa] the shield-limpet.

Schildabtheilung, f. [in heraldry] partition, quartering of the shield. —amse, f. the ring-ousel. —bank, f. [in seamen's lang.] [Schiffbank] checks or bits of the windlass. —bauer, m. [in the Tyrol] a free peasant. —baum, m. [in botany] [Eichholzschoten] [of the adenanthra] condori, condoumani. —besen, m. 1) gillyflower-leaved draba or whitlow-grass. 2) V. Doppel-2). —besenkraut, n. V. —besen 1). —blume, f. [in botany = Schildkröte 2)] tortoise-flower, chelone. —bürger, m. fig. [in a contemptuous or comic sense] a chap of the national guard, a citizen-soldier; an Abderitian, a narrow-minded citizen; an ass, a fool, a ninny-hammer —bürgerstreich, m. Abderitian trick, Abderitian doing, tomfoolery, asinine stuff, trash. —bürtig, [old] V. Schildbar. —dach, n. [in antiquity] the testudo, the tortoise. —decke, f. [in heraldry] mantle of the shield. —drossel, f. the ring-ousel. V. —amse. —drüse, f. [in anatomy] the scutiform or thyroid gland. —drüsenblutader, f. [in anatomy] the thyroid vein. —drüsenschlagader, f. [in anatomy] the thyroid artery. —ente, f. 1) V. Rösente. 2) wild duck. —feld, —feldstück, n. [in artillery] V. —zapfenstück. —ferkel, n. [Wanzenstier] armadillo, tatu. —fink, m. V. Buchfink. —fisch, m. V. Messerfisch 1). Der große —fisch, the great remora, sucking-fish, sea-lamprey; der kleine —fisch, the remora, barnacle. —flechte,

f. weißgrünliche —flechte, tartarous lichen; weiße —flechte, archil, white moss, glassy lichen, perella. —floh, m. monoculus, podora aquatica, water-perroquet. —förmig, adj. and adv. buckler-shaped, shield-formed, [in anatomy] scutiform, [in astronomy] clypeiform, [in botany] scutiformed, scutiform. —frank, m. [formerly, in the mint] ducat. —führer, m. [old] one who carried a buckler. —fuß, m. [in heraldry] the bottom, plain. —gefährte, m. V. —knecht. —gerechtigkeit, f. 1) right of hanging out a sign. 2) [Gastgerechtigkeit] right of keeping an inn, a public-house. —giesbedenmuskel, m. [in anatomy] the thyro-arytenoidian muscle. —großchen, m. [formerly] a groat stamped with, bearing the impress of a shield. —hahn, m. V. Birkhahn. —halter, m. [in heraldry] tenant, [together with an animal] supporter. —haupt, n. [in heraldry] [the third part of the shield at the top] chief. Silbernes —haupt mit umgekehrten goldenen Bienen, chief argent with reversed batlements or. —hecht, m. cayman, jacare. —helm, m. [in heraldry] casque, cask, helmet. —hof, m. [in the Tyrol] farm of a free peasant. —igel, m. echinus marinus reticulatus, reticulated sea-urchin. —käfer, m. 1) the cassida, the tortoise-beetle, the green beetle, capricorn. 2) Runder —käfer, V. Sonnenkäfer. —kehle, f. [in anatomy] the thyro-epiglottic ligament. —kehle, f. [in anatomy] the thyro-epiglottic muscle. —klee, m. hedy-sarum, French honey-suckle; it. Maltese or Spanish sainfoin. —knappe, m. [formerly] shield-bearer, esquire, squire. —knecht, m. shield-bearer, V. also —knappe. —knopf, m. [in seamen's lang.] a plaited or spliced wall-knot. —knorpel, m. [in anatomy] the scutiform or thyroid cartilage. —knorpelfläche, f. [in anatomy] the surface of the thyroid or scutiform cartilage. —knorpelrand, m. edge, border of the scutiform or thyroid cartilage. —krabbe, f. [Taschentreß] the pagurus crab, the cancer pagurus. —krähe, f. V. —reißer. —kraut, n. 1) [Helmkraut] cassida, skull-cap, scutellaria, blue centaury, blue-flowered marsh-cassida. 2) V. —klee. 3) the alissoid clypeola, the sandy buckler of Narbonne. —kröte, f. 1) tortoise, turtle. Große, eßbare —kröte, the great, edible, green turtle, carretta, hawk's-bill; it. —kröte, [—krott, —patt, n.] shell or shield of the tortoise. Dose von —kröte, a tortoiseshell-box. 2) [in botany] V. —blume. 3) [in conchology] Das —kröthen, V. —krötenporzellan. —kröten, adj. and adv. of tortoiseshell. —krötenkamm, a tortoiseshell-comb. —krötenarbeit, f. tortoiseshell-work. —krötenbinde, f. [with surgeons] the tortoise-ligature. —krötenboxe, f. tortoiseshell box. —krötenfisch, m. the turtle-fish, tetrodon testudineus. —krötenengeschwulst, f. [with surgeons] a tumour, on account of its size compared to a tortoise-shell, tortoise carbuncle. —krötenigel, m. V. —krötenwein. —krötenkäfer, m. 1) [Asteriskfäfer] attelabus, arachnoides. 2) [Stugtäfer] black beetle, dung-beetle. —krötenkamm, m. a tortoise-shell comb. —krötenkraut, n. V. —blume. —krötenlaus, f. sea-acorn, tortoise-louse. —krötennapfschnecke, f. the tortoise-shelled nipple, the round tortoise-shelled buckler. —krötenpode, f. V. —krötenlaus. —krötenporzellan, f. [Schildpatthorn, Schildkröthen] a sort of porcelain-shell in the Persian gulph and Indian ocean, the sea-hare, lapisia, the caretta. —krötenchale, f. the shell of a tortoise; it. the upper-shell of the hawk-bill-turtle. [with connoisseurs] carapace. —krötenchild, m. 1) the tortoise's or turtle's shell. 2) [a kind of limpet] the round tortoiseshelled buckler. —krötenchmaus, m. turtle-feast. —krötenchwanz, m. 1) the tail of a tortoise. 2) [in conchology] murex. —krötenchwein, n. the four-banded dasypus or tatu, the armadillo with four girdles. —krötenstein, m. the chelonite, it. V. Schinit. —krötenuppe, f. turtle-soup. Eine nachgemachte —krötenuppe, mock-turtle. —krötentute, f. the mottled cornet-shell of Surinam, the tortoiseshelled cornet, the serpent's skin. —krötenwarze, f. V. —krötenlaus. —krott, n. V. under Schildkröte 1). —kürbis, m. V. Melonenkürbis. —laus, —lausfliege, f. cochineal, kermes, coccus. —laus der indischen Feigen, the cochineal of the Indian fig-tree, nopal, cactus, opuntia or prickly pear; polnische —laus, scarlet grain or kermes of Poland, coccus polonicus; die getrocknete und zu Pulver geriebene —laus, carmine. —lehen, n. [in feudal law] a tenure of knight's service whereby the owner was bound to serve on horseback in complete armour. —mauer, f. a wall in vineyards planted on hilly sides for preventing the soil to be washed away by rain. —motte, f. the dorsal-clypeated moth of the red beech. —natter, f. the water-snake or hydra of the river Ural. —ohr, n. the shield-handle, it. thong or strap of the buckler. —padb, n. V. —patt. —padde, f. 1) [die —kröte] the tortoise, the turtle. 2) [in seamen's lang.] —padben, pl. a hollow cleat for fastening or belaying. —patt, n. [V. under Schildkröte 1)] the shell of the tortoise or turtle, a tortoiseshell. —pattfarbig, adj. and adv. of the colour of tortoise-shell, tortoiseshelled. —patthorn, n. V. —krötenporzellan. —pfannenbedel, m. [in artillery] an iron-band over the trunnion of a cannon or mortar. —rabe, m. V. —reißer. —rand, m. border or rim of the buckler, of the shield. —reißer, m. the night-heron. —riemen, m. the thong or strap of a buckler. —schnecke, f. V. Erdschnecke. —schwamm, m. the shield-agaric. —stichel, m. [with engravers] the round graver. —träger, m. 1) [formerly] the shield-bearer, armiger, it. [—knappe] esquire, squire. 2) [in nat. history] a) the clypeated coryphene. b) a kind of lizard in the East-Indies, the armiger. —wache, f. 1) [originally a custom with knights on the eve of receiving knighthood] the watch by a suspended shield; [now, generally] sentry. Auf die —wache kommen, to go upon duty, to turn out upon guard; —wache stehen, to stand sentry, to be on duty; von der —wache kommen, abgelöst werden, to be relieved [doing duty or from mounting guard]; die —wachen versehen, to do duty as a sentinel, to mount guard, to stand sentry; Soldat, der —wache steht, sentry, sentinel; einen Reiter auf —wache stellen, to place a cavalry-soldier, horseman &c. as vedette, on vedette duty, to cause a horse-soldier to mount guard. Fig. [rather unusual] —wachen [as a verb, for lauern], to lie in wait for, to be on the look out, to be on the watch. 2) the sentry, a sentinel, a vedet or vedette. —wachen zu Pferde aufstellen, to place [mounted] sentries, vedets; er hat eine —wache, he has a sentry before his door, [if a prince] he has a guard of honour, [if a criminal, deserter &c.] he has a sentinel, a guard over him; [in war] die verlorene — wache, a sentry on the forlorn hope, a sentry in the most dangerous part, at the post of honour; auf der verlorenen — wache stehen, to stand sentry on a forlorn hope. — wächter, m. [in the bible] a watch, a guard. — zapfen, m. — zapfen des Geschützes, the trunnion of a piece of ordnance. — zapfenband, n. [with cannon-founders] the trunnion-bracer. — zapfenstück, n. [in artillery] the trunnion-piece, the middle piece of a cannon. — zungenbeinmuskul, m. the thyro-hyoidian or hyo-thyroidian muscle.

Schildbar, Schildbürtig, adj. and adv. [old] noble, born noble, of knightly or gentle blood.

Schilden, v. tr. [formerly] to protect, defend or ward off with the shield, to shield; it. [now, but unusual] to supply or provide any one or thing with a shield.

Schilderei, f. [V. 1. Schild] 1) [in a real and figurative sense; sometimes, but seldom, in a bad sense] the painting, picture, depiction. 2) [in a quaint or, sometimes, higher style for Gemälde] a painting, picture. Syn. V. Mahlerei.

Schilderer, m. [-s, pl. -] 1) V. Schildwache 2) painter; [in chintz-manufactories] calico-printer.

Schilderig, adj. and adv. [in botany] scaly.

1. Schildern, v. tr. [V. 1. Schild] v. tr. 1) [properly to paint over, to repaint] [in sportsmen's lang.] Geschilderte Feldhühner, speckled or spotted partridges, partridges which have some spot; wohl geschildertes Geflügel, birds richly covered with breast-plumage. 2) [malen, nachbilden, ausdrücken] to paint, to depict, to represent, to portray, to figure. Geschilderte Kattune, printed calicos, chintzes; [in seamen's lang.] die Masten &c. — [anstreichen], to paint, to black the masts. Fig. [beschreiben] to paint, depict. Das Glück der Ehe &c. —, to portray the happiness of marriage &c.; er schildert die Personen, die Charaktere sehr gut, he portrays persons, characters capitally; ich will sie Ihnen mit zwei Worten —, I will give you a perfect idea of her. I will portray her to you in two words, V. Schilderung. Syn. V. 1. Malen.

2. Schildern, v. tr. [with sportsmen] Feldhühner —, to go a partridge-shooting by carrying a painted animal made of linen in front so as to steal poacher fashion upon the unsuspecting birds.

3. Schildern, v. intr. [Schildwache stehen] to stand sentry, to do duty as sentinel, [if on horse-back] to mount guard.

Schilderzäße, pl. [obsolete, in the army] Aufgeführte — zäße, sentries, sentinels, horse-guards placed on duty after the tattoo; abgelöste, abkommende — zäße, the night-sentries [or the sentries placed after the tattoo] relieved. — haus, n., dim. — häuschen, n. — häuslein, n. the sentry-box, watch-box.

Schilderung, f. 1) [not used] [in the army] action of doing duty as sentry, mounting guard. Die — eines Soldaten [das Schildwachestehen], the standing sentry. 2) [in a proper or figurative sense] the painting, picture, portrait. Die — der Leidenschaften, der Natur &c., the portraying, depicting of the passions, of nature &c.; eine — von Etwas machen, to make a picture, a description of any thing; ich will Ihnen eine kurze — von ihm machen, I will give you a short description, a slight sketch of him.

Schildig, adj. and adv. provided with an escutcheon, a scutcheon, a shield or buckler. — er Groschen, V. Schildgroschen.

Schilf, n. and m. [-es, pl. -e] [theme uncertain; perhaps allied to the Lat. ulva; some suppose it to come from the Old Sax. scylfan = schwanken, to totter, to waver] 1) [Rohr] reed. Das große oder zahme —, the cultivated or garden reed, the flag-lily of the gardens, the Spanish reed. — schneiden, to cut reeds. 2) [Binse] scirpus, club-rush, bull-rush; großes — [Seebirse], sea-weed. 3) [Schmiele] greyish or silvery reed-grass; scharfes —, whitish corn-grass.

Schilfart, f. species or kind of reed, sedge or calamus. — artig, adj. and adv. of a reedy nature, having a similarity to a reed, reedy. — bekränzt, adj. and adv. [with poets] crowned with reeds, reed-crowned. — brücke, f. a bridge laid over bundles of reeds. — dach, n. a roof formed of reeds, a roof thatched with reeds. — decke, f. a covering or awning of reeds. — gestade, n. [with poets] a reedy bank. — gras, n. 1) [Stanzgras] reedy phalaris or canary-grass. 2) [Wald —] cyperoid scirpus or club-rush. 3) bur-reed, bur-weed. — hütte, f. a cabin of reeds, a reed-hut. — lunge, f. the felis chans, Caspian lynx. — flinge, f. [Hohlflinge] hollowed blade. — matte, f. a reed-mat. — meer, n. a sea covered with rushes or reeds; [in Scripture] the Red Sea. — rohr, n. the reed, rush, the oaten reed, calamus. — röhrchen, n. [in artillery] quick-match. — schmäßer, m. V. Rohrverling 1). — sperling, m. V. Sumfmeise. — straßgras, n. reedy agrostis or bent-grass. — vogel, m. V. Rohrperling.

Schilfen, v. tr. to cover or thatch with reeds, to reed. [with glaziers] Eine Glasseibe —, to enchase a pane of glass with reed.

Schilficht, adj. and adv. resembling a reed or reeds, reedy, of a reedy appearance.

Schilfig, adj. and adv. where there are reeds, reedy.

Schilfbank, f. V. Schildbank.

Schillebold, m. [-es, pl. -e] [provincial = Heurferd] dragon-fly, libellula, uniseta, herothrix.

Schiller, m. [-s] [perhaps from the old Northmannic skiljan, to distinguish] 1) a body, substance, stone &c. of a changing colour, a watered, waving or shot-coloured body, a chameleon-hued body &c. 2) V. — farbe. 3) V. — wein.

Schillerbaum, m. V. Silberbaum. — farbe, f. a changing, changeable, fickle colour, a chameleon-hue, [of silks &c.] a shot-colour. — glanz, m. changeable, changing, fickle lustre or gloss. — quarz, — spath, m. 1) opaline or variable feldspath, changeable feldspar, Labrador spar or stone. 2) common variable spar. — stein, m. 1) V. — spath. 2) opal. — taffet, m. shot-taffety. — vogel, m. 1) a bird with chameleon-hued plumage. 2) the chameleon-butterfly. — wein, m. 1) [wine which is the produce of red and white grapes and having an intermediate tinge] German claret, shiller-wine. 2) [sometimes] claret.

Schillerig, adj. and adv. changing, variable, fickle in colour, chameleon-hued; [of silks &c.] shot.

Schillern, v. intr. to play or change in colour. — der Zeug, shot stuff; — der Taffet, V. Schillertaffet; — de Steine, variable, polyphanous stones, cat's-eyes; einige — de Feldspatharten, some variable feldspars; die Perlmutter ist — d, mother-of-pearl is prismatic; in Roth — [as colours], to pass, to blend into red, to tend towards the red hue, to mantle. Das —, blending, changing.

Schilling, m. [-es, pl. -e] [probably allied to the Swed. skilja, to divide] 1) [name of an English, Danish, Swedish, Hamburg, Lubeck &c. coin of very different values] a shilling. Fig. V. Kauf —, Pfand —. 2) [provincial] Ein — Stroh, sixty trusses of straw. 3) [with miners] five loads of ore. 4) [Prague measure] Ein — Wasser, 480 quarts of water. 5) [in the old law-style, and in common people's lang.] a spanking, a spank, slap on the breech, flogging on the bare bottom. Einem einen — geben, to give any one a slap on the backside, a spank, [low] to slap any one's arse, V. Staubbessen. 6) a kind of limpet, the patella crepidula.

Schillingebauer, m. [provincial] a copy-holder, lease-holder at a long term. — bracht, m. iron-wire Nr. 18. — gut, n. [provincial] hereditary farm, copyhold-estate in fee-tail. — hos, m. V. — gut. — lehen, n. a fee-tail, a copyhold on a long lease. — mann, m. V. — bauer. — recht, n. the right of fee-tail, of inheritance by entail or copyhold.

1. Schimmel, m. [-s, pl. -] [probably allied to the Old Sax. scym = Schein] a white horse. V. Apfel —, Grau —, Roth —, Schwarz —, Silber —.

2. Schimmel, m. [-s] [probably allied to the Swed. skymma, to cover, to coat] mouldiness, mould, hoariness, mustiness, mildew. Wenn der — sich daran setzt, if the mould gets to it; den — wegmachen, to remove the mouldiness, [if produced by metallic oxydes] to take out the iron-mould, [if from damp] mildew, [if in timber] to expel the dry-rot; [in botany] — an den Wurzeln der Pflanzen, the mouldiness, fungus, worm at the roots of plants.

Schimmelartig, adj. and adv. Eine — artige Wurzel, a capillary root resembling mildew. — ente, f. V. Moderente. — grau, adj. and adv. [in botany] greenish grey. — kraut, n. 1) [Sitzkraut] filago, cotton-weed. Großes — kraut, great cotton-weed. 2) [Rainblume] filago-formed gnaphalium or everlasting, cottony cud-weed, goldy locks; it. [Wiesenwolle] cat's-foot, mountain-gnaphalium, elychrysum.

Schimmelig, Schimmelig, adj. and adv. musty, mouldy, hoary, mildewed, fusty. — es Eingemachtes, any preserve mildewed; das Brod fängt an — zu werden, the bread begins to get mouldy; an feuchten Orten wird Alles leicht —, in moist or damp places every thing easily becomes mildewed; — machen, to mildew.

Schimmeln, v. intr. [u. w. haben and seyn] to turn or get mouldy, [also] to be mouldy, to mildew. Das Brod &c. schimmelt, the bread &c. grows mouldy, gets mildewed, [also] is mouldy.

Schimmer, m. [-s, no pl. except, sometimes, in poetry] [in Old Sax. scym; allied to schien] glimmer. Ein bleicher, matter —, a pale, weak or feeble glimmer, a faint twinkling, glimmering or gleam; der — der Sterne, des Mondes, the twinkling of the stars, star-light, light of the moon, moonlight; beim sanften — des Mondes, by the soft radiance of the moon; — des Goldes, the gleam, shining, brilliance of gold; — des Stahles, der Waffen &c., the sheen, dazzling, play of steel, of weapons &c.; dieser Zeug hat einen —, this stuff has a gloss, polish, lustre; der — der feurigen Lusterscheinungen, the coruscation of meteors; der — der Morgenröthe, the glow of day-break, the rosy hue of aurora. Fig. Raum einen — von Licht in den Augen haben [of purblind eyes], to have a faint glimmering of light in one's eyes; ein — von Hoffnung, a ray of hope; er hat einigen — von Verstand, he has some glimmering, some dawning of understanding, some rays or beams of intellect, some glimpse of reason. SYN. V. Schein.

Schimmer=glück, n. delusive or imaginary good fortune. — fäfer, m. 1) lampyris, fire-fly, glow-worm, omalysus, cossyphus, pyrochroa, lychnus, the noctiluca. 2) the brown fire-fly of India, the lampyris depressa. — los, adj. and adv. gleamless, beamless, lustreless, lack-lustre. — reich, adj. and adv. brilliant. — sand, m. V. Glimmersand. — stein, m. 1) [in mineralogy] blend. 2) [rather unusual] [with lapidaries] brilliant. — stern, m. a twinkling star. Fig. — sucht, f. the mania or folly of shining. — wesen, n. [a thing of apparent but no real value such as] a false-brilliant, a spangle, tinsel, a paste-jewel, a false-stone, mica. — witz, m. bastard-wit.

Schimmern, [V. Schimmer] v. intr. 1) to glimmer, to gleam, to glow, to shine, to twinkle, to coruscate, to beam, [as a lamp] to shine, [as the stars] to twinkle, [as the planets] to glow, to shine. — der Zeug, glossy, sheeny stuff; von Gold und Edelsteinen —, to blaze with gold and precious stones; — der Putz, brilliant ornament, high-dress [with jewels &c.]; dies schimmert beim Sonnenscheine, this glistens, shines in the rays of the sun; man sieht Etwas zwischen den Bäumen durch —, one sees something shining through, glistening &c. from between the trees; — de Farben, brilliant, dazzling, prismatic, [also] gaudy, [also] lustrous, metallic colours; — de Tulpe, brilliant, gaudy tulip; die Wassermahlereien &c. haben das Gute, daß sie nicht —, paintings in water-colours &c. have the good property of not gleaming, are happily devoid of all metallic lustre. Fig. Ihre — den Reize, her brilliant charms; — der Witz, brilliant or fine wit, it. [in a bad sense] bastard or seeming wit; — de Schreibart, a brilliant style; eine Rede mit — den Gedanken ausschmücken, to lighten up a speech with brilliant imaginings, to sow a speech with a galaxy of splendid thoughts; es ist ein großer Unterschied zwischen bloß — den und wahrhaft glänzenden Gedanken, there is a great difference between thoughts trickied out or tinselled off and truly splendid ones, or those which are of genuine beauty. 2) to twinkle, to glisten, to shine feebly. Es schimmert mir Etwas vor den Augen, something shines dimly, feebly, faintly before my eyes, I see a faint glimmering; — de Miner [with miners], scintillating, twinkling, micaceous ore; — des Licht, a scintillating, twinkling, trembling, dancing light. Fig. Da schimmert keine Hoffnung mehr, there is not a ray, a glimpse of hope more or left. Das —, the glimmering, gleaming, beaming, twinkling, V. Schimmer.

Schümmelig, V. Schümmelig.

Schümpf, m. [-es] [V. Schümpfen] 1) [obsolete = Scherz] joking, jest, quizzing, fun, gam, play. Aus — kann Ernst werden, play often becomes downright earnest. 2) [generally] ignominy, disgrace, dishonour, injury, shame, opprobrium, affront, outrage, abuse, contumely. V. Schande, Schmähung. Einem einen — anthun [in pop. lang.], to pass an affront upon any one, to affront or abuse any one, to insult any one [grossly]; einen — ertragen, to suffer, to endure an affront; einen — einstecken, auf sich sitzen lassen [in pop. lang.], to swallow, to wash down, to digest an affront, to put up with an insult; Etwas für einen — halten, aufnehmen, to look upon, to deem, to consider, to take any thing as an affront, as an insult, as a slight; ein großer — für seinen Namen, ein — für seine Familie, a great ignominy for his name, a disgrace, a blot for his family, [also of a person] [to be] a disgrace to one's family or friends; mit — und Schande bedeckt seyn [in pop. lang.], to be covered with disgrace and infamy; er macht seinen Eltern — und Schande [in pop. lang.], he reflects shame and disgrace upon his parents. SYN. V. Schande.

Schümpf=gedicht, —lied, n. a song full of invectives, loaded with abusive, epithets, a libellous song. — name, m. injurious name, V. Etelname. — rede, f. defamatory, injurious, libellous speech. — schrift, f. V. Schmähschrift. — spiel, n. [old] a funny game. — vogel, m. [low] a man fond of hard words, a lover of invective, an abusive blackguard, a sad reviler. — weise, adv. injuriously, affrontingly, insultingly, by way of opprobrium. — wort, n. an injurious or offensive word, a hard word, a taunt, an invective. — worte, abusive language; empfindliche —worte, bitter invectives; —worte gegen Einen austossen, to launch out into invectives against any one.

Schümpfen, [is said to be allied to the Ice. skimpa, Swed. skymfa, originally = to abridge, and so 1) to abridge the time by any pastime, hence to play, and 2) to abridge or curtail any one of his honour, that is to injure, to disgrace] I. v. intr. [obsolete = Scherzen] to sport, to jest, to play. II. v. tr. to disgrace, to affront, to insult, to revile. Er hat ihn, sie geschümpft, he has insulted, reviled, abused him or her, has called him or her names; auf Einen, auf Etwas —, to declaim, to launch forth, to inveigh against any one or any thing; man muß nicht wieder —, vulgar abuse is not to be returned, insolence ought to be treated with silent contempt; Jemand einen Spighuben &c. —, to call any one a rascal, to treat any one as a blackguard. Das —, V. Schümpf 2); er kann das — nicht lassen [in common people's lang.], he cannot refrain from calling names, using abusive language, insulting, [fam.] he cannot keep his tongue quiet; ein Sachwalter soll sich alles —s und Schmähsens enthalten, an advocate, a counsel, counsellor ought to refrain from all abuse and insult.

Schümpfer, m. [-s, pl. -] — inn, f. a person who uses hard words, employs invective, utters an insult, a foul mouthed fellow, an abusive person, a reviler.

Schümpfisch, adj. and adv. [low] delighting in insult, fond of affronting, of reviling, of blackguarding, of giving tongue, [cant] of huffing.

Schümpflich, adj. and adv. injurious, outrageous, defamatory, reviling, calumnious, disgraceful, opprobrious, ignominious. — von Jemand sprechen, to speak disgracefully, ignominiously, insultingly of any one; — e Behandlung, degrading treatment; eine — e Strafe, Todesart, an ignominious punishment, death; er starb eines — en Todes, he perished by an ignominious, a humiliating death; — es Betragen, vilifying, shameful, disgraceful conduct; — e Handlung, an infamous act; das — e einer Handlung vermischt sich nicht, the ignominy, disgrace of an action is not to be effaced, extinguished; das ist — für seine Familie, that is injurious, disgraceful, pregnant with shame to, for his family; — es Verfahren, an opprobrious proceeding; — e Reden [Schümpfreden], outrageous words, unmeasured invective, insulting expressions, contumely.

Schümpflichkeit, f. the quality of that which is ignominious &c., shame, disgracefulness.

Schindel, f. [pl. -n] [from schinden, Lat. scindo = to split or cleave] 1) [generally] any thing split or cleft; [with surgeons] [Schiene] a splinter, splint. 2) [for roofing] shingle. Ein mit —n gedecktes Haus, a house covered with shingles; die — [in heraldry], billet; liegende —, billet couchant, lying; mit —n besetztes Feld, a field billeted; vier goldene —n im blauen Felde, four billets or in a field azure.

Schindelbaum, m. tree fit for making shingles. — brett, n. a thin plank. — dach, n. a shingle-roof. — decker, m. a shingler, shingle-tiler. — eisen, n. a tool for joining shingles. — fuge, f. the groove in a shingle. — hauer, m. a shingle-maker. — holz, n. wood for shingles, shingle-wood. — frieher, m. [Baumhacker] woodpecker, pianet, creeper, picus. — macher, m. V. — hauer. — nagel, m. a shingle-nail. — nuth, f. V. — fuge. — sparren, m. a rafter for shingles. — stamm, m. the trunk of a tree fit for shingles or wooden tiles. — wand, f. a covering, wainscoting of shingles.

Schindeln, v. tr. Ein Haus, Dach —, to cover a house, roof with shingles or wooden tiles. Eine Wand —, to line a wall with shingles, with planks; [in heraldry] geschindeltes Feld, a field billeted; [with surgeons, schienen] to secure by splinters, to bind up with splints, with a cradle of splints.

Schinden, [Lat. scindo, Gr. σκίζω] irr. v. tr. to skin, to flay. [in some parts of Upper-Germany] Ein Kalb —, to flay a calf; einen Hasen —, to skin a hare; proverb. [low] er schünde eine Laus um des Balges willen, he would skin a flint; Apoll hat den Marsyas geschunden, Apollo flayed Marsyas; sich —, to graze, to rub off one's skin; sich im Fallen den Fuß —, to graze one's foot in falling; er hat sich am Beine geschunden, he has grazed, excoriated, abraded, galled his leg; das gefallene Vieh —, to flay cattle when dead, V. Abdecken 2); einen Baum —, to bark, to decorticate a tree; proverb. man muß die Schafe scheren, aber nicht —, the sheep must be shorn but not flayed alive. Fig. [low, in a bad sense] Die Leute —, to fleece, to flay people [as an innkeeper, publican, usurer &c.]; die Unterthanen —, to flay, to be a scourge to one's subjects; der Geizige schindet und schabt, the miser is a regular skin-flint; ein Pferd &c. —, to knock up, to do up a horse &c. [by over-riding, over-work &c.]; sich — [low], to knock one's self up, to beat one's self to a dead stand, to be obliged to come to a dead-halt [from too much work, anxiety &c.].

Schindsaas, n. [low] carrion. Fig. [extremely low, insulting] bitch, jade, jesabel. — anger, m. [low] flaying-ground. — grube, f. [low] carrion-pit. — hund, m. [low] V. Schinderhund. — kracke, f. [low] V. — mähre, — luder, n. [extremely low] V. — saas. Fig. [extremely low] bitch. — luder mit einem spielen, treiben, to treat any one as so much dirt. — mähre, f. [low] rosinante, brute of a hack, sorry jade. Fig. [extremely low, insulting] V. — saas. — messer or — messer, n. 1) a flaying-knife. 2) [low] Scalpell a scalpel, dissecting knife. — thor, n. gate or door of or to the killing-place. — vieh, n. [low] poor brute, miserable beast.

Schinder, m. [-s, pl. -] a slayer, a skinner, V. Abdecker; it. [during the American revolution, a kind of highwayman or bandit that robbed both parties and betrayed either side] a skinner; it. [low] Henker a hangman, Jack Ketch. Fig. [low] Der — hat es geholt, Jack Ketch, the Devil has taken it away with him; geh' zum —! daß dich der —! go and be hanged! go to the Devil and shave yourself! [very low] go to Hell! solche Fürsten sind die — ihrer Unterthanen, such princes are the slayers, the scourges of their subjects; dieser Kaufmann, Wirth ist ein — [in common people's lang.], this tradesman is a regular take in, an extortioner, this landlord is a fleecer, an extortionate publican, a woodcock; [of an official person] er ist ein — [seute. —], he is an extortioner, an extorter, a publican and a sinner.

Schindergrube, f. [low] V. Schinderanger. — hund, m. [low] the dog of the flayman. Fig. [low, injurious] cur, mongrel, pug, vile dog, sneaking hound, paltry whelp. — karren, m. [low] the flayer's cart. — karren des Henkers, the hangman's cart or van. — knecht, m. [low] the flayer's man, it. the hangman's man, [in Switzerland &c.] hangman's deputy. Fig. [low and insulting] thief of the gallows, hangdog, gaol-bird. — mäßig, adv. Fig. [low] like a flayer; it. like an hangman; it. like a fleecer, extortioner.

Schinderei, f. 1) [low] flaying, skinning. Fig. extortion, vexation, plundering, exaction, scourging, robbery. Das Volk wurde dieser —en müde, the people were weary of these exactions, extortions. 2) [rather low] killing place, flaying yard or field; it. the flayer's dwelling or place of abode.

Schinderisch, adj. and adv. like a flayer, hangman, extortioner, [in the Bible] publican &c.

Schinnren*, v. tr. [with weavers] to dye the threads of the warp after a pattern. Das —, the dying of the warp-threads.

Schinnrer*, m. [-s, pl. -] a dyer of the warp-threads.

Schinken, m. [-es, pl. -] [allied to the Fr. hanche, a hip or haunch, and also to Schenke] 1) a ham. Dim. Schinkchen, || Schinklein, n. [-s, pl. -] a little ham, a gammon of bacon. Gesalzener, geräucherter, roher —, salted, smoked or dried, raw ham; eine Schmitte —, a slice of ham. Fig. [in common people's language] Ein alter —, an old musty, worm-eaten book. 2) [low, sometimes for Schenke] leg. Er hat derbe —, he has got stout calves of his own. 3) [in conchology] Das Schinkchen, a species of the tellina or caspa, the jambon.

Schinkenbein, n. bone of a ham, the ham-bone. — brühe, f. juice or gravy of a ham. — kessel, m. a kettle, boiler or copper for boiling a ham. — meise, f. V. Rohlmeise. — messer, n. a ham-knife. — muschel, f. V. Holtermuschel. — pastete, f. a ham-pie. — schnitte, f. slice of ham.

Schipp, n. [-es, pl. -e] [allied to Schäufel, || schieben] 1) [in salterns] a deposit of brine. 2) [in Denmark's German provinces] a salt-measure, a schipp [the eighth part of a tun].

Schippe, f. [pl. -n] [allied to Schäufel, || schieben] 1) [with miners, Schäufel] a shovel; [with bakers] instrument for removing the embers from the oven, a strike. 2) Fig. [in common people's lang.] Die — bekommen [weg, or fortgeschoben werden, as it were] to be dismissed, to receive one's dismissal, to be sent about one's business. 3) V. Schuppe.

Schippsscheren, n. [-s] [with shearers] Das — der schwarzen Tücher, the second and third shearing of the black cloths.

Schippstuch, n. [-es, pl. -tücher] kind of Silesian cloth.

Schirdel, m. [-s, pl. -] [Schörl] [with miners] scorlus genuinus, black schorl or shorl, Brasil tourmaline, columnar figured basalt, [in Cornwall] cockle; [another variety] Ceylanite, Zeylanite, pleonaste.

Schirl, V. Schörl.

Schirthaar, n. [with cloth-manufacturers] those coarse hairs of a fell whether shorling or morling that do not take a dye and must be removed. — lobalt, m. V. Scherbenlobalt. — born, n. [Stußgranate] river-garnet.

Schirling, V. Schierling.

1. Schirm, m. [-es, pl. -e] [of doubtful derivation] 1) [with miners] the hanging or recumbent surface of a lode or ore-vein. 2) [in sportsmen's lang.] [Schurz, Scheibe] the disk of the rump.

2. Schirm, m. [-es, pl. -e] [Fr. escrime; in Ital. schermo means defence; perhaps allied to the Old Sax. scir = taking care of] [generally] protection, safeguard. 1) [Zelt, Hütte] a shelter. Ein Anstand —, a covert [for sportsmen], V. Heß. — it. — [spanische Wand] a screen, folding screen; ein — von vier Blatt, a screen of four leaves. 2) [with engravers] a screen for diminishing the light, an eye-screen. 3) [Licht —, Ofen —] a hand-screen, fire-screen, chimney-screen; it. V. Sonnen —, Regen —, Fall —. 4) [in war, formerly = Schild] shield, buckler, [with poets] screen. 5) [in botany] [Dolde] umbel, a rundle; — hen, n. an umbellule, an umbelet. 6) Fig. shelter. Dieses Haus hat — von einem Berge, this house is sheltered by a mountain; Schutz und — finden, to find shelter and protection; Einem zum — dienen, to serve as a rampart, a defence to any one, to protect any one; wer unter dem — des Hohen sitzet [in Scripture], he that dwelleth in the secret place of the most high; Einem in Schutz und — nehmen [in fam. lang.], to take any one under one's protection, [in Quakers' &c. lang.] to be unto any one a shield and a strong tower; [in Scripture] du bist mein —, thou art my hiding place, [that is] refuge. Syn. V. unter Schirmen.

Schirmbaum, m. [in botany] the magnolia, the umbrella-tree. — blume, f. [Doldenblume] an umbelled, umbellate, umbelliferous flower. — brett, n. board serving as a screen; [with founders, glass-burners] a furnace-screen; [in seamen's lang.] — bretter, a ship's side-boards. Die — bretter mit einem Schanzkleide bedecken, to cover the side-boards with a waist-cloth or quarter-netting. — brief, m. V. Schugbrief. — dach, n. 1) a pent-house. Bei'm Regen unter das — dach stehen, to stand under the pent-house, the piazza, the veranda out of the rain. 2) a goose-footed roof, archway or coping [over a bridge, cellar &c.]; [of a galley] the awning or canopy; [of a boat, steamboat, waggon, cart &c.] awning, tilt, [if inclined at a very acute angle] pavillion; [in war] blind, screen; [in fortification] mantelet; it. [with the ancients, = Sturmdach] testudo, tortoise; it. [with gardeners] straw-mat, matting, frost-mat, pentice-mat. — förmig, adj. and adv. umbrella-formed, parasol-formed; [in botany] umbelled, umbellate, umbelliferous. — futster, n. the case, sheath or bag of an umbrella. — geld, n. V. Schuggeld. — genos, m. V. Schuggenos. — gerechtigkeit, f. V. Schuggerechtigkeit. — gott, m. — götstinn, f. V. Schuggott &c. — haus, n. [rather unusual] asylum, V. Schutzstätte, Freistätte. — herr, m. patron, protector, [elegantly for artists &c.] Mecaenas. — hut, m. [Fallhut] a padded or cushioned hat [for protecting children from falls]. — krant, n. [Sternblümchen] trientalis, chick-weed, winter-green; [especially] trientalis Europaea. — leder, n. [with coachmakers, in gigs, buggies &c.] the apron, [in landaws, phaetons] leather-curtain. Das — leder herablassen, aufbinden, to let down, to fasten up the leather-curtain, the hood. — macher, m. umbrella-maker. — mauer, f. [in glass-furnaces] the screen. — moos, n. splachnum. — palme, f. 1) the palipot of Ceylon, saribus, the coddapana of Malabar; it. the macaw-tree of Brasil and the Antilles. 2) corypha, fan-palm, umbrella-tree, V. Säbervpalme. — pflanze, f. [in botany] an umbelliferous plant. — recht, n. V. Schutzrecht. — träger, m. — trägerinn, f. [chiefly in tropical countries or Eastern states] domestic who carries the parasol or umbrella; umbrella-carrier. — traube, f. [in botany] V. Doldentraube. — überzug, m. V. — futter. — verwandte, m. V. — genos. — vogt, m. [formerly] avowee, protector, patron, guardian, defender. — wache, f. safe-guard. — waffe, f. V. Schugwaffe. — wand, f. screen-wall; [on a galley] tilt, netting-sail, quarter-cloth, waist-cloth. — werk, n. [in fortification] the defences, the works.

Schirmen, v. tr. [befschirmen] to shelter. Sich vor der Hitze —, to screen one's self from the heat; eine Hütte schirmte uns vor dem Regen, a hut sheltered us from the rain; ein Panzer schirmte seinen Leib, a coat of mail protected, sheathed his body. Syn. Schirmen, Schützen. Schirmen is the action of covering in order to ward off any ill; schützen, the effect of this action. A Schirm is a flat surface which prevents any evil from making an impression on us, as a Feuerschirm &c. But as things do not always answer the end for which we use them, a Schirm is not always a good Schutz. God only is both a Schirm and Schutz.

Schirmer, m. [-s, pl. -] — inn, f. protector, protectress, defender, [in chivalry] champion; [in sportsmen's lang.] V. Retter.

Schirmsling, m. [-s, pl. -e] [out of use] the protégé, [fam.] the person taken in hand, [classically] client.

|| Schirpen, v. Sirpen.

Schirr, n. [-es, pl. -e] [obsolete] for Geschirr, tools, implements, but still in use in its compounds:

Schirr=beil, n. [in domestic economy] hatchet. — geld, n. [obsolete] v. Geschirrgeld. — hak, m. [on to the thill-shaft] fastening-hook, strap-hook. — holz, n. [Geschirrholtz] [in salterns &c.] wood for tressels, stands, bearers, supporters &c. — hammer, f. v. Geschirrammer. — kette, f. the pole-chain, the thill-tug. — meister, m. conductor of the artillery-waggons; [in English mail-coaches] guard; [in German diligences] conductor; [with farmers] the head-ploughman, the foreman, the bailiff; [in royal households] the second groom; it. a head-valet, chief-lackey; [with blacksmiths] [Worfschläger] the man with the hand-hammer who beats first [followed by the sledge-hammer]. — meister, f. 1) office of a master-valet or head-servant. 2) the dwelling of the master-valet or butler. 3) [Geschirrplass] the harness-room. — nagel, m. [in artillery] a hooked piece of iron at the end of an axle-tree.

Schirren, v. tr. [allied to the old Sax. scir = taking care of] v. Ab-, An-, Aus-.

Schirting, m. [-s, pl. -e] [with drapers &c.] [hemdleinwand] shirting.

Schisma, n. [-s, pl. -s or Schismata] [Glaubensstrennung] heresy, heterodoxy, schism.

Schismatiker, m. [-s, pl. -] — inn, f. a schismatic.

Schismatisch, adj. and adv. schismatic, schismatical.

Schiss, m. [-fies, pl. -fies] [quite low] 1) shitting, cacking. 2) [Unflath] shit, turd. Fig. shit, stuff, nonsense.

Schlabbe, f. [pl. -n] [in common people's lang.] v. Schlappe 1).

Schlabbeere, f. [pl. -n] v. Schlagbeere.

Schlabben, v. Schlabbern.

Schlabber, m. [-s, pl. -] [allied to the Engl. slabber = to make wet] 1) [with fishermen = haringsschiffe] a Dutch herring-boat or ship. 2) v. — tuch.

Schlabberel, f. [in common people's lang.] slobbering. Fig. prating, babble, tittle-tattle, scan-mag.

Schlabberer, m. [-s, pl. -] [in common people's lang.] one who slobbers, a slobberer. Fig. chatterbox, prater, driveller.

Schlabberig, adj. and adv. [in common people's lang.] — essen, to eat in a slabbering manner. Fig. — seyn, to be a babbler, a prater, a gossip, an old washerwoman.

Schlabbern, v. intr. [in common people's lang.] to slobber. Fig. to prate, to gossip, to scan-mag, to give tongue.

Schlabber=maul, n. [low] a prater, chatterbox. — tuch, n. [in common people's lang.] a bib, a slabbering-bib, a bib and tucker. — werf, n. [in common people's lang.] poor-house soup, ticket-soup, workhouse-broth, sky-blue, water bewitched, parish-gruel.

Schlacht, f. [pl. -en] 1) battle, fight, engagement, [sometimes] the day. Eine — an- bieten, liefern, gewinnen, verlieren, to offer battle, to come to an engagement, to action, to gain or win, to lose the fray, fight or day, to gain or lose the field; es kam zur —, it came to an engagement; v. See—; in der — bei Waterloo, at the battle of Waterloo; einer — ausweichen, to decline coming to engagement; eine regelmäßige —, eine große — [eine Feld—], a pitched battle. 2) [provincial] v. Schiffslände. Syn. Schlacht, Treffen, Gefecht. A Gefecht may take place between two persons, or two animals, or between a man and an animal. Schlachten and Treffen take place properly only between armies, the first being between two entire armies, the latter, when large bodies of the hostile forces are engaged. An engagement between smaller detachments is also a Gefecht, as a Vorpostenge- fecht &c.

Schlacht=bank, f. shambles, slaughter-house; [for sheep] butcher's board or stool. Fig. Einen, sein Heer &c. zur — bank führen, auf die — bank liefern, to lead, to deliver up any one, one's army &c. to slaughter, to be butchered. — bär, m. great bear. — beil, n. butcher's cleaver. — block, m. butcher's block [for killing on]; it. [for beheading] the block. — essen, n. v. — suppe. — feld, n. the field of battle, battle-field or plain. Syn. Schlachtfeld, Wahlfeld. Wahlfeld is a place on which the combatants, whether whole armies or only two opponents, fight for life and death; Schlachtfeld, a place where entire armies only have fought against each other. — fertig, adj. and adv. ready for combat, prepared for battle. — fleisch, n. butcher's meat. — geld, n. 1) v. Schlächterlohn. 2) [in seamen's lang.] money for the keeping up of a landing-place. — gemählde, n. v. — stück 2). — gesang, m. battle-strain or chaunt, martial song, a war-song. — geschrei, n. cry of arms, the war-cry, [with the American Indians] the war-whoop. — getümmel, n. the tumult or throng of the fight, the din of battle or arms, the mélée or medley. Im — getümmel fallen, to fall in the midst of the fight, in the shock of battle, amongst the dying and the dead. — gewühl, n. the uproar, throng of battle, v. — getümmel. — gott, m. v. — engott. — haufen, m. 1) [from the verb Schlachten] cattle driven to the shambles. 2) [from the substantive Schlacht] a body of engaging troops. Der mittlere — haufen, the main-body or centre of the engaging troops; der vordere — haufen, the van, vanguard; die preussischen, englischen — haufen rückten im Sturmschritt vor, the Prussian, English battalions advanced in double quick march. — haus, n. slaughter-house, butchery. || — herr, m. overseer of a molo, pier, quay &c., overseer, master of a port. — laterne, f. [in seamen's lang.] [during night] signal-lantern for action. — lied, n. v. — gesang. — linie, f. line of battle, the line, battle-array. — messer, n. butcher's knife. Fig. Einen an's — messer liefern, to deliver any one to his deadly enemy, to his murderers. — monat, m. [not much used] month when animals are killed for winter-store, the month of November. — ochs, m. fattened ox, ox at or for the shambles. — opfer, n. victim, sacrifice. Fig. Sie ward das — opfer ihrer Wuth, she became the victim of their fury. — ordnung, f. 1) [with butchers] regulation, order for the butchers. 2) [in war] order of battle. Ein Heer in — ordnung stellen, to range an army in battle-array, to draw up the troops; in — ordnung anrücken, to advance in order of battle. — pferd, n. 1) battle-horse, war-horse, charger. || 2) in the north of Germany a horse on the quay for towing or hawling goods to land &c., barge-horse.

— plan, m. plan of battle, of the fight. — ross, n. v. — pferd. — ruf, m. summons to combat, call to the field; it. the battle-cry, war-cry, cry of arms. — schiff, n. [little used] v. Kriegsschiff. — schreiber, m. [in ports] clerk or auditor of the cargoes &c. — schüssel, f. a dish of chitterlings, liver &c. from the pig &c. just killed, sent to one's friends as a present. — schwert, n. fighting-sword, [formerly] two-handed sword; [with the Scotch] claymore, broad-sword. — statt or — stätte, f. 1) [haus] slaughter house, butchery, shambles. 2) v. — feld, Wahlfeld. — steuer, f. tax or poll-tax upon shambles. — stück, n. 1) a piece of a killed animal, v. — schüssel. 2) [gemählde] a battle-piece, a picture or print representing an engagement. — sturm, m. the onslaught. — suppe, f. [Wurstsuppe] pudding-broth, soup made of the water wherein black pudding and liver-pudding are boiled, gravy-soup. — tag, m. 1) [with butchers] killing-day. 2) [in war] day of battle, of engagement, of action. — verband, m. 1) dressing and tending of the wounded [chiefly in seamen's lang.]. 2) [in seamen's lang.] the cock-pit. — vieh, n. cattle at or for the shambles. — vogt, m. v. — herr. — wagen, m. 1) butcher's cart or dray. 2) battle-car, chariot. v. Sichelwagen. 3) [in commerce] the wagon of the quay. — wolle, f. the wool of slain sheep, raw fleece or fell. — wurm, m. v. Spießwurm. — zettel, m. 1) [with butchers] ticket of permission to kill an animal. 2) [in seamen's lang.] bill of lading. — zeug, n. a butcher's tools or implements.

Schlachtengang, m. 1) the way to battle, the march of battle. 2) the chance of arms, the fortune of the day, it. the path of combat. — getümmel, n. v. Schlacht, getümmel. — gott, the god of battle, of combats; [in Scripture] the Lord God of Sabaoth, the God of armies. — göttin, f. Bellona; it. Minerva. — mahler, m. a painter of battle-pieces.

Schlachtbar, adj. and adv. fit, good for killing, [with butchers] fit for the knife.

Schlachten, [from schlagen = töden, to kill] v. tr. and intr. [with butchers] to kill, to slaughter, to slay. Einen Ochsen —, to fell an ox, to knock down or poleaxe an ox; ein Schwein —, to stick a pig; ein Kalb —, to slay, to dress a calf; eine Gans, ein Huhn —, to kill a goose, a fowl; dieser Fleischer schlachtet jede Woche nur einmal, this butcher only kills once a week; viel —, to kill upon a large scale, [fam.] to do a great business in the slaughtering line; er schlachtet besseres Fleisch als sein Nachbar, he kills better meat than his neighbour; [in Scripture] und [Abraham] rechte seine Hand aus, und fassete das Messer, daß er seinen Sohn schlachtete, and Abraham stretched forth his hand, and took the knife to slay his son. Fig. [niedermachen] to massacre. Ein — war's, ein Schlagen nicht zu nennen, it was mere butchering, not fighting. Das —, the slaughtering, the slaying; [with butchers] the killing, [for pigs] the sticking.

Schlächter, m. [-s, pl. -] 1) slaughterer, slayer, killer. 2) [in natural history] the butcher-bird.

Schlächter, m. [-s, pl. -] 1) a butcher, v. Fleischer, Syn. v. Meßger. 2) [in nat. hist.] Schlachtbär.

Schlächter=bank, f. a butcher's bench or board [for killing sheep, pigs &c. on]. — beil, n. the butcher's ax. — geselle, m. a journeyman-butcher. — handwerk, n.

butcher's trade. —lohn, m. money for killing and dressing. —meister, m. a master-butcher. —zunft, f. company, guild of butchers.

Schlack, m. [-es, pl. -e] 1) [in saltpetre-works = Boden[st] sediment, deposit. 2) [in sportsmen's lang.] a dawdling sniffing dog or hound.

|| Schlackdarm, m. [-es, pl. -därme] V. Mastdarm.

Schlacke, f. [pl. -n] [from schlagen = legen, nieder- or ablegen, to lay down, to deposit, or to cast off] slag, scoria, dross, metallic recrement. Die —n der Metalle, the scoriae of metals; das Kupfer gibt eine röthliche —, copper yields a reddish slag; [with founders] die —n abheben, abziehen, to remove the slag, the scoriae.

Schlackenbad, n. [in medicine] a bath of scoriae. —bett, n. [with founders] bed of scoriae, the slag-heap. —blau, adj. and adv. blue-coloured like scoriae, slag-blue. —erz, n. a vitreous matrix of silver resembling scoria. —förmig, adj. and adv. slag-formed. —führer, m. [with founders or ore-smelters] the barrowman who wheels away the slag. —gang, m. [in smelting furnaces] a tap-hole or pipe for letting off the scoriae or raking the slag through, the slag-duct. —grube, f. [with founders] the slag-pit. —gut, n. scoria, slag, dross, recrement, metallic cinders. —haken, m. [with founders] a hook or crook for the slag. —halde, f. [with founders] a heap of slag. —hütte, f. [with miners] hut or shed for the slag. —kienstock, m. [with refiners] copper that remains on the muffle-floor in cupellation. —klein, n. [with founders] slag-cobs or corns. —kobalt, m. [with miners] grey cobalt-ore, crystalline cobalt. —krücke, f. V. —haken. —läufer, m. [with miners] the barrowman who wheels away slag. —lava, f. scoria, spongy lava, volcanic slags. —loch, n. [in glass-furnaces] one of the apertures in the screen of fire-bricks partially closing one of the furnace-mouths. —ofen, m. [with founders] a slag-furnace. —räumer, m. [with blacksmiths] the forge-shovel, stithy-pick [for removing the cinders and mending the fire]. —schaufel, f. V. —zieher. —scherbe, f. [with chemists] a muffle. —schicht, f. [with founders] the slag-layer, layer of scoria [deposited in the furnace or thrown in with the charge for resmelting]. —stein, m. [with miners] a lapidaceous mass separating from the scoriae and attracting the silver, slag stone, slag-matt. —stich, m. [with founders] slag raked off at first for assay or trial. —tiegel, m. small crucible or cupel of the muffle. —trift, f. V. —gang. —trog, m. a trough for washing the slag in. —wäscherei, f. [with founders] the economy of slag [in the smelting of copper]. —werk, n. scoriae, slags. —zange, f. [with founders] cupel-tongs. —zieher, m. [with blacksmiths] stithy-pick, shovel. —zinn, n. block-tin.

Schlacken, v. intr. [Schlacke geben] to slag, to throw off slag, to be or become scorious, drossy, recrementitious.

Schlackerer, m. [-s, pl. -] a merchant selling off [at any rate] to get custom, a cheap merchant.

Schlackerig, adj. V. Schlackig.

|| Schlackern, I. v. imper. to keep on raining, to mizzle. Es schlackert, it mizzles; it is nasty rainy weather. II. v. intr. 1) to slubber or slobber over. Bei dem Essen —, to eat slobberingly; beim Gehen —, to splash or bespatter one's self in walking, to dabble. 2) [in seamen's lang.] Die Segel —, the sails are flapping; mit dem Ruder —, to fetch crabs [i. e. to splash through clumsy rowing]. 3) [in commerce] to undersell, to sell under cost-price, V. Schleudern.

Schlackerregen, m. continual rain, making the roads heavy, mizzling. —wetter, n. V. under Schlackig.

Schlackicht, adj. and adv. resembling scoria or slag, scorious, slaggy, recrementitious, scoriaceous, drossy.

Schlackig, adj. and adv. 1) [nass, regen, haft, forbig] wet, damp, rainy, nasty, [in seamen's lang.] foul. —es Wetter, nasty weather. 2) containing slag, impure, spongy, cinereous, scoriaceous, drossy. —es Erz, a scoriaceous matrix or gangue, drossy or porous ore.

Schlackwurst, f. [pl. -würste] a sausage [in the skin], German sausage.

Schladden, v. intr. [in seamen's lang.] to keckle.

1. Schlaf, m. [-es] dim. Schläpfchen, || Schläpflein, n. [-s, pl. -] [perhaps allied to schlafen] sleep. Kurzer —, a nap; sanfter, tiefer, unruhiger, unterbrochener —, a soft or gentle, deep or profound, restless, broken or interrupted sleep; in seinem ersten —, in his first sleep; ein tiefer unnatürlicher or ein unnatürlich tiefer —, a lethargic sleep, a lethargy; in — fallen, verfallen, sinken, gerathen, to fall asleep, to sink into sleep, to go to sleep, to drop off into sleep; der — beschlich, überfiel, überwältigte mich, sleep stole over, surprized, overcame, overpowered me; sie kann nicht mehr vor —, sie kann sich des —es nicht mehr erwehren, she can no longer resist sleep, keep awake, she is too sleepy, too drowsy to do any thing; stören Sie seinen — nicht, do not disturb his repose, him in his sleep, in his slumbers, do not break his rest; einen festen, leichten or leisen — haben, to have a sound sleep, gentle slumbers, [fam.] to have a hearty, comfortable, quiet snooze; in tiefem — e liegen, to lie in a profound sleep, to be hushed or buried in deep repose; es ist die ganze Nacht kein — in meine Augen gekommen, I have not closed my eyes, slept a wink the whole night; er hat den — verloren, he has lost the power of sleeping as he was wont; ein Kind in — wiegen, to rock or lull a child to sleep, to hush a child off to sleep by rocking; wieder in den — bringen, to lull to sleep again; vom — erwachen, to wake from or out of sleep; im — e reden, to talk in one's sleep; ein Schläpfchen machen [in fam. lang.], to take a nap, a short snooze; er machte jeden Mittag sein Schläpfchen, he took his siesta daily; ein — machen des, den — beförderndes Mittel, a soporific, somnific or narcotic, an opiate, a sleep-compelling, somniferous, hypnotic remedy; an opiate, a dormitive, a somnolent remedy, an anodyne, a hypnotic; — machende Kraft [of a plant], a narcotic property; die Neigung zum — e, desire of sleep, drowsiness, sleepiness, somnolency. Fig. Der — der Pflanzen, the sleep of plants, V. Winter —; der — eines Gliedes, the benumbed state, the torpor, sleep of any limb; ich habe — im rechten Beine, my right leg is asleep, [fam.] I've got pins and needles in my right leg; ich habe — in meinen Augen, my eyes are picking or catching straws; it. sein Gewissen liegt im — e, his conscience is asleep, is in a state of torpor, is callous; it.

er ist von seinem — e erwacht, he has awoke from his torpor, his lethargy, his sluggish fit, his hybernation; proverb. er wird im — e reich, the larks fall down in his mouth ready roasted, he has the devil's own luck, he has always some windfall, some Godsend or another; fig. der ewige —, the everlasting, eternal, last sleep, the sleep of death, the sleep that knows no waking; der — ist ein Bruder des Todes, sleep is the twin-sister of death, the emblem of death. Syn. Schlaf, Schummer. Schummer is that state which approaches most nearly to waking; Schlaf, that which is most remote from it, so that Schummer may be called a light Schlaf. Schummer, therefore, is the beginning and the end of Schlaf.

Schlafapfel, m. 1) rose-gall. 2) V. —beere. —arzenei, f. a soporific, narcotic or opiate remedy or medicine, a somniferous, dormitive or somnolent remedy, a narcotic, an opiate, a dormitive, a soporific. —balsam, m. soporific or dormitive balsam, an opiate balsam or balm, [in England] a Daffy's elixir. —bank, f. a sleeping-bench, [in a guard-house] wooden-couch; [in the Levant] a divan; [in English ships] a cot. —beere, f. belladonna, deadly nightshade, dwale, atropa, solanum melanocerasus or lethale. —bett, n. [in common people's lang.] bed. —boden, m. floor, loft where one sleeps. —bringend, adj. and adv. somniferous, sleep-bearing or bringing. —bringendes Mittel, V. —arzenei. —reich, m. 1) the secondary, subsidiary dike. 2) a dike grown superfluous by the construction of another before it. —fieber, n. a soporous or comatose fever. —fisch, m. V. Krampffisch. —gänger, m. 1) Nachtwandler sleep-walker, somnambulist. 2) [rather provincial] [in low lodging-houses, in tramp-houses] night-lodger. —gast, m. stranger or traveller who sleeps at an inn. —geld, n. money for one's bed, for a bedroom. Sein —geld bezahlen, to pay for one's bed, for one's night's lodging. —gemach, n. sleeping-apartment, bed-chamber, bed-room, [fam.] berth. —genoss, m. V. —gesellschaft. —genossenschaft, f. V. —gesellschaft. —gesellschaft, m. —gesellschaftin, f. bed-fellow, [comic] sleeping-partner; [in colleges, in the King's Bench &c. where two or more are in the same room] chum. Er ist ein schlimmer —gesellschaft, he is a bad bed-fellow; wir waren —gesellschaften, we were bed-fellows, it. we were chums. —gesellschaft, f. 1) [not much used] act of sleeping with any one. 2) bed-fellows. Ich hatte eine schlimme —gesellschaft, I had a wretched bed-fellow, it. there was a precious set in the room where I slept. —gewand, n. nightdress. —gott, m. the God of sleep, Morpheus; it. Somnus. —haube, f. 1) night-cap [of women], woman's night-cap. 2) Fig. [in fam. lang.] a slothful person, a sloth, a drone, it. a sluggard. Er ist eine rechte —haube, he is a regular drone, a dronish dozy fellow. —hosen, pl. drawers. —kammerad, m. V. —gesellschaft. —kammer, f. [small] bed-room, bed-chamber, night-chamber, sleeping-room. —kammerchen, || —kammerlein, n. very small bedroom, a sleeping cabinet or berth. Fig. [quaint] the grave, the tomb. —kappe, f. 1) night-cap [of men]. 2) Fig. V. [the more usual words] —haube and Schlafmütze. —kasten, m. a turn-up bed, it. a sofa-bed. —kirsche, f. 1) V. —beere. 2) V. Zudenkirche 1). —kopff, m. [in pop. lang.] a dull stupid head, a sluggish mind, [fam.] a slow coach, a pin's head. —krank, adj. and adv. V. —süchtig. —krankheit,

f. the soporous malady, coma. — fraut, n. 1) [Nachtshatten] solanum, nightshade; dulcamara; woody nightshade; garden nightshade, black-fruited morel. 2) [Witwenkraut] hyoscyamus, henbane, black-henbane. 3) [Feldcypresse] chamaepitidis, common ground-pine, teucium chamaepitidis. 4) V. — beere. — krebs, m. cancer caput mortui, crab with a death's head. — funz, m. [—apfel] rose-sponge, spongia rosae, rose-gall; bedegua, bedeguar. — kuß, m. the kiss upon going to bed and wishing good night. — kutsche, f. a coach in which one can sleep. — latwerge, f. a soporific electuary. — lehre, f. 1) hypnology, doctrine upon the phaenomenon of sleep. 2) a treatise upon sleep. — lied, n. a lullaby; it. a sleepy song; it. a song upon sleep. — lilie, f. daffodil, yellow day-lily, asphodel. — los, adj. and adv. sleepless. Die Nacht — los zubringen, eine — lose Nacht haben, to pass or have a sleepless night; — lose Nächte haben, to have sleepless, waking nights, long hours of wakefulness. — losigkeit, f. sleeplessness, watchfulness, [if stupidly drowsy] agrypnocoma, coma vigil. Sie ist mit einer argen — losigkeit geplagt, she is tortured with a wretched inability to sleep, with a cruel privation of sleep. — lust, f. drowsiness, somnolency, sleepiness. — lustig, adj. and adv. wanting to sleep, courting sleep. — ma chend, V. — bringend. — maß, m. [in common people's lang.] a sleepy fellow or chap, a lyebed, a man or woman fond of going to the land of Nod, [in England] to the county of Bedfordshire. — mithridat, n. soporific electuary. — mittel, n. a soporous, soporific, somniferous, dormitive, hypnotic, opiate, anodyne remedy, a soporific, an opiate, an anodyne, a hypnotic. — müße, f. a night-cap [of men]. Fig. [in fam. lang.] a lazy fellow, a drone, a sloth, a sluggard. Er ist eben eine — müße, he is nothing but a drowsy lazy fellow or chap, a sleepy fellow. — müßig, adj. and adv. [fam.] — müßiger Mensch, a sluggard, a snail. — pelz, m. a dressing-gown lined with fur. — pille, f. an opiate pill. — ratte, — raße, f. — raß, m. 1) [Murmeltier, it. Haselmaus] the marmot, it. the dormouse. 2) Fig. [in pop. lang.] a sound sleeper, [fam. and comic] one of the seven sleepers, a humming top. Er ist ein rechter — raß, he is a regular dormouse, he sleeps like a top, as sound as a roach. — raum, m. 1) room or space for sleeping, for stretching one's self out to sleep. 2) sleeping-place, [on board ships] the births. — roß, m. dressing-gown. — rose, f. dogrose. — saal, m. large bed-room, bed-chamber, sleeping-room or apartment, [in convents] dormitory. — salbe, f. anodyne ointment. — seffel, m. sleeping-chair, chair with a truckle bed, easy arm-chair. — stätte, — stelle, f. 1) sleeping-place. 2) bedstead, couch, bed. — stube, f. bed-room, sleeping-room, bed-chamber. — stuhl, m. V. — seffel. — stunde, f. hour of repose; time to go to bed, to take a nap, a siesta; bed-time. — sucht, f. lethargy, lethargic drowsiness, soporous affection, coma, somnolency. Was chende — sucht, agrypnocoma, coma vigil, stupid drowsiness; — sucht mit völliger Betäubung der Sinne, carus; Anfälle von — sucht, lethargic attacks, sleepy fits; die Anzeigen einer — sucht, comatous signs, stertor, comatose symptoms; — sucht der Hunde, still hydrophobia, Fig. lethargy, stupor, torpor. Man muß ihn aus dieser — sucht aufzuwecken suchen, an effort must be made to rouse him out of this lethargy, this deathlike indolence and apathy. — süchtartig, adj. and adv. lethargic, narcotic. — süchtig, adj. and adv. lethargic, drowsy, [from apoplexy] comatous, comatose. — suchtmittel, n. an anti-narcotic remedy. — tisch, m. a bedstead formed like a table. — trank, m. dim. — tränken, || — tränklein, n. 1) a sleeping-draught. 2) Fig. [Stifttrank] a sleeping potion, drink containing poison, a drugged beverage, a poisoned draught. — trunk, m. night-cap [glass of grog &c. for producing sleep]; sleeping-possess. — trunken, adj. and adv. drunk, overpowered with sleep, drowsy, dozing. — trunkenheit, f. drowsiness, doziness, sleepiness. — wagen, m. V. — fursche. — wammis, n. [fam.] a short bed-gown. — wandler, m. V. — gänger 1). — weizen, m. [Sommerlothe] hair-grass, tare, darnel, cow-wheat. — wirkend, adj. and adv. soporific, narcotic. — zeit, f. time for sleeping, bed-time. — zeug, n. night-things, night-clothes. — zimmer, n. bed chamber, bed-room.

2. Schlaf, m. [—es, pl. Schläfe] V. Schläfe.

Schlaf = ader, f. temporal vein. — ader der Pferde, the eye-vein of horses; einem Pferde die — adern öffnen, to bleed a horse in the eye-veins, to open a horse's eye-veins. — bein, n. V. Schlafenbein. — gegend, f. [in anatomy] the temporal region. — grube, f. V. Schlafenrube. — muskel, m. V. Schlafenmuskel. — pulsader, pl. the carotides.

Schlaf, [Schläff] m. [—es, pl. e] [in seamen's lang., Stovvstuck] butt-end of a plank [for lengthening another].

Schläfe, f. [pl. -en] [perhaps = Schlaß; so in Swed slef means Schlaß] the temple [of the head]. Er wurde an der einen Schläfe verwundet, he was wounded at one of his temples; die — n mit Lorbeern bekränzen, to crown the temples, the brows with laurels.

Schlafenbein, n. [in anatomy] temporal bone. — beinsfortsatz, m. temporal process or apophysis. Der vordere — beinsfortsatz, the zygomatic or anterior process; der hintere — beinsfortsatz, the mastoid or mammillary process; der untere — beinsfortsatz, the graphoid or styloid process. — beinsfuge, — beinsnath, f. the squamous suture. — blutader, f. temporal vein. — ecke, f. [in anatomy] sphenoidal angle. — fläche, f. [in anatomy] an den Scheitelbeinen, the semi-orbicular or semi-circular surface; — fläche an den Keilbeinen, the external surface of the sphenoid or pterygoid bone; — fläche an den Wangenbeinen, the temporal surface. — fortsatz, m. [in anatomy] the temporal process or apophysis. — grube, f. temporal fossa. — muskel, m. [in anatomy] temporal muscle, the temporalis, the crotophyte. — muskelnerve, m. [in anatomy] Der äußere tiefe — muskelnerve, the deep exterior temporal nerve; der innere tiefe — muskelnerve, the deep interior temporal nerve. — rand, m. [in anatomy] temporal margin or edge. — schlagader, f. [in anatomy] temporal artery. — zweig, m. [in anatomy] temporal twig [of the seventh pair of nerves].

Schlafen, [V. 1. Schlaf] irr. v. intr. to sleep. Sanft, ruhig —, to sleep gently, tranquilly, calmly, softly; ich werde nimmer ruhig —, bis &c., I shall never sleep quiet, until &c.; fest —, to sleep sound; unruhig —, to sleep restlessly; er schläft sehr leise, he sleeps very lightly; in einem fort —, to enjoy an uninterrupted sleep or rest, it never to get awake, to be very drowsy, to have a good nap, [familiar] a good snooze; er hat die ganze Nacht hintereinander fortge—, he has slept soundly the whole night long; er hat die ganze Nacht nicht ge—, he has not slept [a wink] the whole night; bis an den lichten, hellen Tag, in den Tag hinein—, to sleep till broad daylight, to sleep far into the noon, to sleep away the greater part of the forenoon; er schläft wie eine Raute [in pop. lang.], he sleeps like a top, a dormouse; nach dem Essen —, to sleep after dinner, to take one's afternoon's nap, snooze, doze, siesta; Einem wohl zu wünschen, to wish any one [a] good night; wie haben Sie ge—? how did you sleep? how have you slept? haben Sie gut ge—? have you slept well? did you pass a good night? Kinder — schicken, to send the children to bed, to send the children to sleep; ein Kind — legen, to put a child to bed; sich — legen, — gehen, to go to bed, to sleep; Einen — finden, to find any one sleeping, asleep; oh! er schläft ganz und gar nicht, oh! he is wide awake; das wurmt mir so, daß ich nicht mehr — kann, that teases or frets me so, that I can't sleep any longer; in seinen Kleidern —, to sleep in one's clothes; in einem Bette, auf einer Matratze —, to sleep in a bed, on a mattress; er schläft auf dem Rücken, he sleeps on his back; sie schläft gerne weich, hart, she likes to sleep on a soft, hard bed; auf der bloßen Erde —, to sleep on the bare earth; auf der Straße, unter freiem Himmel —, to sleep in the streets, in the open air, [fam.] under a hedge, in the fields; wer schläft, den hungert nicht [proverbial], sleep is a bellyful of victuals; [in heraldry] ein — der Löwe, a lion dormant, a sleeping lion; in einem Hause, bei Jemand —, to sleep or lie in a house, at any one's or any body's; wir werden morgen in Koblenz —, we shall sleep, lie to-morrow at Coblenz; außerhalb seines Hauses, auswärts —, to sleep abroad, from home, out; bei einer Person —, to sleep with a person, with a woman; er schläft immer mit seiner Frau in Einem Bette, he always sleeps with his wife in one bed; sie schläft nicht mehr in Einem Bette mit ihm, she no longer sleeps in one bed with him; er schläft schon über ein Jahr nicht mehr bei ihr, it is a year since he left off sleeping with her; sie — nicht beisammen, they don't sleep together, they sleep in separate beds; er hat zu früh bei seiner Braut ge—, he knew his wife before marriage, he cuckolded himself before marriage, he tasted the sweets of matrimony without waiting for the parson's leave; die Murmeltiere — den ganzen Winter, marmots hibernate. Fig. Die Pflanzen —, plants sleep; mein Fuß schläft, ist einge—, my foot sleeps, is asleep, is benumbed, [fam.] has got pins and needles in it; sein Gewissen schläft, his conscience sleeps; die Rache schläft nicht, vengeance or revenge does not sleep; eine Sache — lassen, to let a thing drop, pass into oblivion, not to stir up an unpleasant matter; er ist — gegangen [in fam. lang. for gestorben], he is dead, has gone to his long home; Denen, die da — [in Scripture], to those, who sleep. [in seamen's lang.] — de Knie, V. Schlafer. Das —, sleeping; das — der Vernunft, des Bewusstseins, the torpor of the mind, slumber of the conscience.

Schlafengehen, n. going to bed or to sleep. Zeit zum —, bed-time, hour of repose; Wein, den man gewöhnlich vor dem — trinkt, wine, bishop or negus taken as a nightcap.

Schläfer, m. [-s, pl. -] [in seamen's lang.] [schlafende Knie] lodging-knee; it. — der Vorsteven, the apron of the stem; it. — der Binnensteven, inner-post or knee; it. — der Hintersteven, back of the stern-post.

Schläfer, m. [-s, pl. -], — inn, f. sleeper. [in fam. lang.] Er ist ein Erz—, sie ist eine Erz—inn, he, she is a sound or great sleeper. V. Bei —, Bang —, Sieben —.

Schläferig, Schläfrig, adj. and adv. 1) sleepy, drowsy. — werden, to get sleepy; — seyn, to be sleepy; sie ist sehr —, she is very sleepy; er ist außerordentlich —, he is uncommonly sleepy, he can hardly or just keep his eyes open; der Mohn macht —, the poppy sleepifies, sends to sleep, has an opiate virtue; — machend, narcotic, sleepifying, soporiferous, lulling, [in medicine] soporous, soporific, soporiferous, narcotic, hypnotic, somnolent; ein —er Mensch, a sleepy fellow, a heavy dull fellow, a sloth, a drone, a sluggard; —es Pferd, a dull horse, a horse without life, mettle, fire; [with jockeys] without spunk; — reden, arbeiten, to speak, to work in a half-dead half-alive manner, without life or energy, [low] without any ginger; er ist zu — bei dieser Sache, betreibt diese Sache zu —, he is too sleepy in this business, transacts this matter or affair too sleepy by half; die Sachen gehen —, werden — betrieben, affairs are going to sleep, droop, languish, are conducted on the snail-principle; —er Geist, a sleepy mind, a flat, heavy, dull intellect; —e Unterhaltung, a lifeless, sleepy conversation; die Unterhaltung ist —, the conversation flags; —es Wetter, heavy, dull, stupid, killing weather. 2) V. Ein —, Zwei —.

Schläferigkeit, Schläfrigkeit, f. sleepiness, drowsiness, somnolency. Krankhafte —, lethargy. Fig. — des Geistes, the lethargy, torpor, torpidity of the mind; — in Erfüllung seiner Pflichten, nonchalance, indifference as to one's moral duties, indolence, apathy; er bleibt in einer schimpflichen —, he remains in a shameful lethargy, apathy, state of indifference.

Schläfern, I. v. intr. imp. [in fam. lang.] Mich schläfert, I am sleepy, I feel sleepy, drowsy; es schläfert ihn, he is sleepy, drowsy, he has a strong tendency to sleep. II. v. tr. [more usual ein —] to make sleepy or drowsy, to lull asleep, to put to sleep.

Schlaff, adj. and adv. [opposed to straff, strait, tight] loose, lax. —es Seil, a loose rope; man muß das —er halten, that must be held more loosely; — machen, to let go or loose, to relax; die Segel sind — [flattern], the sails are loose, flap; — werden, to relax, to become lax or loose; —e Ohren, pendant, flapping ears, flap-ears; —e Brüste, squabby, flabby breasts, [fam.] Hottentot dugs; — gewordene Muskeln, Nerven, Fledsen, relaxed, flaccid muscles, nerves, tendons or sinews; die Hitze hat ihn — gemacht, the heat has rendered him languid, weak, flabby, has unstrung him; —es Pferd, a weak, feeble horse; [in botany] —er Stengel, a weak, feeble, sickly stalk. Fig. feeble, weak, relaxed, lifeless, strengthless, vigourless. —er Mensch, a weak, puny, slender, feeble man; —e Seele, a helpless, indolent man, an inert mind or soul, a sluggish mind; —e Gründe säge, relaxed, loose maxims, loose principles; —er Sittenlehrer, a moralist not over-rigid in his tenets, not over-scrupulous.

Schlaffseil, n. the slack-rope.

Schlaff, [in seamen's lang.] V. Schläff.

Schlaffen, I. v. intr. [schlaff seyn] [little used] to be lax, to be relaxed, loose. II. v. tr. [schlaff machen] to relax, to render flaccid, lax or loose.

Schlaffheit, f. [in a proper as well as in a figurative sense] relaxation, [in physics] flaccidity. Die — der Saiten an einer Laute, the going-down of the strings of a lute; die — der Muskeln, the flaccidity, laxity of the muscles; die — des männlichen Gliedes, the going down, the flaccidity, the state of rest of the penis; die — in den Sitten, the laxity of manners.

Schlaffig, V. Schläferig.

Schlafwärts, adv. towards the temple, the temples.

Schlag, m. [-es, pl. Schläge] [V. Schlagen] 1) [from schlagen = to lay any where, that is, to place, put or bring in or to any spot] [in seamen's lang.] Der — eines Taues um Etwas, the twist, turn or coil of a rope round any thing; der ganze or runde —, the whole or round turn; doppelter —, double turn; halber —, half turn. Fig. [in the fruit- and wine-trade] offer, bidding, price. Wein auf den höchsten — kaufen, to buy wine at the highest offer. 2) [from schlagen = to move] Der — des Herzens, the palpitation, throbbing, beating of the heart; der — der See, the beating, dashing of the sea [against a ship's bows &c.]; die Schläge des Pulses zählen, to count the beatings or strokes of the pulse, the number of the pulsations; einen berben — thun [derb hinfallen], to fall down heavily, to come down with a crash; ber — einer Pumpe, V. Pumpen —; die Pumpe hat —, the pump works, the strokes of the piston tell [when the lower pump-lox moves free]; die Pumpe hat or pumpt keinen — [surket], the pump does not fetch a stroke [when the pump is foul or clogged] der — [in seamen's lang.], tack; einen — machen, to make or run a tack, to tack; Schläge machen, to ply to windward by tacks or by tacking; beim nächsten —e werden wir das Vorgebirge umsegeln, at the next tack we shall double the cape; das Schiff mußte einige Schläge machen, ehe es den Wind gewinnen konnte, the ship was obliged to make several tacks before she could get the weathergage, before she could spring the luff or haul the wind; über — segeln or wenden, to make short tacks, luffs, gibs; der — [with musicians], beat, time, measure; langsamer, geschwinde —, slow, quick time; den — führen, to beat time; das Stück geht im ganzen —e, im drei Viertel —e, this piece is in common time, in triple time; drei ganze Schläge auslassen, to leave out or skip three bars. 3) [from schlagen = to move violently or to move itself] Ein — mit dem Hammer, der flachen Hand, a blow, stroke, rap, hit, knock with the hammer, blow, slap, clap, smack with the palm of the hand; — mit der Faust, blow with the fist, bang, buffet, whack, thwack, knock; — mit der umgekehrten Hand, a rap with the back of the hand, with the knuckles, [also] a back-hander; leichter —, a light, gentle blow or rap, a tap; ohne einen — zu thun, without striking a blow; — auf —, blow after blow, stroke upon stroke, one after another; der — eines Pferdes mit den Hinterfüßen, a kick of a horse with the hind feet or legs; — halten [with blacksmiths &c.], to beat alternately, in cadence, in time; — [with butchers], blow, smash, knock [with a pole-axe, club &c. for felling neat-cattle]; die Schläge verdoppeln, to redouble the blows; der — [Stoß] eines Gefährtes, the shock, jolt of a vehicle; Einem Schläge geben, to beat, [vulgar] bang any one, to give any one a thrashing; Einem einen berben — auf den Hintern versetzen, to give any one a sound, a proper smack, spank on the breech; Einem einen — auf or hinter die Ohren geben, to box any one's ears for him, to give any one a cly, a buckhorse, [low] a slap, douse or sowse on the chops, [derbe] Schläge bekommen, to get a [sound] caning; es wird Schläge setzen, absetzen [in common people's lang.], there will be blows given, it will come to blows, it will be give and take, it will be monkey's allowance, more kicks than half-pence; sich vor Schlägen fürchten [in pop. lang.], to take precious care of one's skin. Fig. a) [—fluß] stroke or fit of apoplexy, an apoplectic attack or fit. Vom —e gerührt werden, einen — bekommen, to be struck with a fit, to have a stroke of apoplexy; er hat schon mehrere Anfälle von — gehabt, he has already had several apoplectic attacks; er sieht aus, als wenn ihn der — gerührt, als wenn er einen — bekommen hätte, he has an apoplectic look about him, he looks as if he had had a fit of apoplexy; am —e sterben, to die of a fit of apoplexy, [in coroners' courts] to die by the visitation of God; halber — [upon one side], paralysis or paralytic attack on one side, hemiplegia; — der untern Theile des Körpers, paraplegia; Mittel wider den —, apoplectic remedy, V. — mittel; Anzeichen vom —e, apoplectic symptoms. b) Einen großen, wichtigen — vollführen, to execute a great, an important stroke, to strike a great blow; ein entscheidender —, a decisive blow; mit einem —e wurde fast das ganze Heer vernichtet, the whole army was almost annihilated at a blow. c) Die harten Schläge des Schicksals, the hard blows, the cruel strokes of fate; das ist ein harter — für ihn, that is a hard blow, a severe shock for him; die Unglücksfälle trafen ihn — auf —, misfortunes bore down thick upon him, came over him one after another. 4) [from schlagen = to resound] a) noise produced, sound, report, detonation, clap. Es thut einen —, there is a stroke, a report, a boom, a clap; ein kalter —, a flash of lightning falling upon a house &c. without setting it on fire; ein heißer —, a flash of lightning that sets a house &c. on fire; es geschah ein starker —, there was a strong clap [of thunder]; es kam — auf —, the claps of thunder came in quick succession, clap followed clap; fig. V. Donner —; [in physics] der künstliche or elektrische — [from an electric machine], an electric shock or explosion; der galvanische —, galvanic explosion; diese Büchse hat einen guten — [with sportsmen, for knaut gut], this gun has a good detonation, detonates well. b) Der — der Nachtigall, the strain, volley, burst, song, chaunt of the nightingale; — der Wachtel, pipe of the quail. c) Der — einer Uhr, the ticking of a clock; it. the stroke of a clock; den — [Stunden —] überhören, to miss hearing the clock strike, what the clock struck; mit dem —e fünf an die Arbeit gehen, to go to work at the stroke of five, as it strikes five; mit dem — e zwölf, at or on the stroke of noon, of midnight; es ist auf dem — e 4 Uhr, it is on the stroke of four, it is just going to strike four. d) [that which strikes] [with fishermen] Der — eines Fisches, the tail of a fish. e) [that which gives a report, for instance: in rockets above the choke] Der —, the chamber, the head; it. [a kind of small petard] a cracker. 5) [from schlagen = to produce by beating] [in the mint] — [das Gepräge], the die, the impress, the coin, the cast. Duz faten vom nämlichen — e, ducats of the same die, of one and the same stamp, coinage; diese Münze hat, führt den und den —, this coin has, bears such and such a die, cast, head, impress; Münze von einem neuen — e, money of a new coinage; Münze mit vollkommen erhaltenem — e, a medal with a perfectly preserved impression, in perfect preservation; der — des Silbers, Goldes, the stamp, [in England] the lion on silver and gold-plate; auf diesen Messern ist der — des und des Meisters, on these knives is the mark, stamp of such and such a maker. Fig. (= Beschaffenheit; V. Geschlecht) Ein schöner — Menschen, Pferde, a handsome race of men, a handsome race, breed of horses; sie sind von Einem —, they are of one race, [as to disposition] of the same stamp, coin, [low] of the same kidney; ein guter, ehrlicher — Leute, a good, honourable, honest race, set, kind of people; Leute von gewöhnlichem — e, honest jog-trot people; wieder auf den alten — [auf die alten Sprünge] kommen [in pop. lang.], to come back to one's old ways, old kinds of life &c. again. 6) [what is shut or opened by a quick motion] Der —, V. —baum; der — an einer Kutsche, the coach door; [in dove-houses] a dove-cot; der — or Vogel —, a trap, bird-trap; [of a loft] a shutter, V. Laden. 7) [from schlagen = to cut into &c.] Schläge [in sportsmen's language], gashes, rippings [from the tusks of a wild boar]; [with millers] —, the groove, channel, chase, notch [in the mill-stones]. 8) [from schlagen = to separate, to divide] a) [with cloth-manufacturers] a stretch from one pillar or post to the other, field. b) [in rural economy] parcel, strip. Ein Gut, die Felder in Schläge theilen, to part out or divide an estate, the fields into parcels, lots or allotments, to parcel out an estate &c.; Eine theilung in Schläge, allotment; der Acker ist in drei Schläge getheilt, the field is divided into three strips or lots [for the purpose of fallow or of rotation of crops]. [in woods and forests] the coppice part of a wood, that part where the trees have been felled or are marked for felling; ein junger —, a young copse; alle Jahre so und so viel Morgen in seinem — e abtreiben to fell so and so many acres of trees, of copse-wood every year; ein rein abgetriebener —, a complete felling [of the given extent of wood]; der diesjährige — begreift hundert Morgen, the quantity of wood cut or to be cut this year covers, will amount to a hundred acres; junge, abgeholzte Schläge, young coppice of sprouting wood; die Schläge ableeren, to remove or cart the fellings, the wood felled; der —, wo das Holz verkauft or vom Käufer selbst gefällt werden soll, the premises or place of sale for the wood. c) [in fortification] elbow, bend, winding of a trench.

Schlagader, f. artery. Große —ader, aorta, the great artery; kleine —ader [—aderchen], a little or small artery. —aderbruch, m. aneurism. —adergang, m. [in anatomy] the arterial canal. —aderhaut,

f. [in anatomy] the arterial membrane, the tunic of the artery. —aderkammer, f. ventricle of the heart. —aderkumbe, —aderlehre, f. arteriology, treatise on arterial physiology. —aderöffnung, f. [in anatomy] orifice, stoma of the artery. —artig, adj. and adv. [in medicine] apoplectic. —artiger Zufall, apoplectic attack. —balken, m. einer Zugbrücke, the swipe of a draw-bridge; [in hydraulics] —balken einer Stiele, the main-post or sleeper of a flood-gate or lock. —ball, m. a racket, tennis or fives-ball; [at Oxford] a snack; it. a cricket-ball; any ball for a bat. —balsam, m. apoplectic balsam. —band, n. [with coopers] V. Feuerband. —bauer, m. and n. bird-trap. —baum, m. 1) strong piece of wood on a pit-fall for wild beasts. 2) bar or barrier of a door, to a gate. [in fortification] In der Mitte auf einem Posten ruhender —baum, den man auf und nieder lassen kann, the swipe, a turning bar with iron spikes, a herisson; der —baum vor einem Hafen, the barrier at the mouth of a harbour; it. ein or der —baum, a turnpike; durch den deutschen Zollverein sind eine Menge —bäume im Innern Deutschlands gefallen, in consequence of the German commercial league a great many turnpike-gates or toll-gates [especially on the frontiers] have been done away with. —beere, f. buckthorn-berry. —bereit, adj. and adv. V. —fertig. —bette, n. [in seamen's lang.] bilge-way, cradle. —blau, adj. and adv. [unusual] black and blue, livid. —bogen, m. [with hatters &c.] a bow, V. Saabogen. —bohrer, m. a hammer-punch or piercer for the hinges &c. of doors. —brett, n. a bat, a fives-bat; it. a cricket-bat. Kleines —brett, a little bat, a tabler; [for a shuttlecock] a battledoor. —brücke, f. V. Zugbrücke. —brunnen, m. [with new-born infants] the soft part or diamond of the skull, the opening of or on the head. —bug, m. [in seamen's lang.] tack. Das Schiff hat einen guten —bug gemacht, the ship has made a good tack, has made good headway by this tack. —dame, f. [at backgammon] a blot, a hit. —dame spielen, to play at backgammon in such a manner that he wins who first loses the hit. —degen, m. broadsword, cut and thrust sword, rapier, long sword, [with the Scotch] claymore. —eisen, n. [in sportsmen's lang.] the iron spring or trap in a pit-fall; [with tilers] a beater or wrench [for knocking and wrenching off the slates &c.]; [with woodsmen = Waldhammer] a hammer or iron-tool [for marking the trees to be cut]; [with sword-cutlers &c.] a tool for forming pearl-shaped ornaments, V. Perleisen; [with bricklayers] beater for plashing mortar; [with stone-masons] a jagged or toothed stone-chisel, broad chisel. —falle, f. a pit-fall, a snare, a trap. —faß, n. a cask for packing goods in. —feder, f. 1) [in nat. hist.] [Schwungfeder] the beam-feather. 2) [a technical term] a kind of steel-spring; [in gunlocks] spring-rack, trigger. —fertig, adj. and adv. ready for fighting. —fluß, m. apoplexy, [if partial] paralysis. Am —fluße sterben, to die of apoplexy, of an apoplectic stroke or fit. —flußmittel, n. remedy against apoplexy. —gatter, n. [in fortification] the grated part of a gate, the barrier. —gewicht, n. the weight or pulley-weight to a house- or town-clock. —glocke, f. [with clockmakers] the bell [of a clock] that strikes [the hours &c.]. —gold, n. 1) V. Blattgold. 2) [Knallgold] fulminating gold. —hahn, m. [in nat. hist.] colymbus cristatus, crested grebe. —hammer, m. a hammer; [with gold-leaf beaters] gold-beater's hammer; [with bookbinders] the hammer; [with smiths] sledge-hammer. —haube, f. the cap of the holster. —heftlein, —heftel, n. [with fowlers] pegs to which the principal strings are secured —holz, n. 1) [with tennis-players] a racket, a tennis bat; [at fives-courts] a fives-bat, a tabler, a spring-bat; [with hatters] the bat for moving the bow; [with rope-makers] woolder. 2) [in woods and forests] a) [= —barckholz] wood fit for felling, sale; coppice-wood, copse-wood. b) V. Buschholz. 3) ground or land grown over with such wood, copse-land. —hüter, m. [in rural-economy] [Eamenbaum] a tree left on a felled wood-land for raising seedlings, a standel, stander. —instrument, n. 1) any instrument or tool destined for or used in beating with. 2) [in music] any instrument played by striking, a clavichord, a virginal &c. —korn, n. V. —schay. —kraut, n. [Feldcypresse] chamaepitris moscata, germander, poley-mountain of Crete, speedwell, teucrium; it. bastard-speedwell. —kräutlein, n. 1) [Krautkraut] common marum, catthyme. 2) V. Günsel. —laumine, f. an overwhelming avalanche. —leine, f. [with fowlers] the knittle or pulling-string of a bird-net; it. the larker's string. —leiste, f. the hinge-piece. —licht, n. [with painters] vivid light properly thrown on a chief part of a picture. —lien, f. [in ship-building] carpenter's line. —loth, n. [with goldsmiths &c.] strong or hard solder, link of solder. —lothbüchse, f. [with goldsmiths &c.] the solder-box. —mittel, n. V. —flußmittel. —nagel, m. [with watchmakers] the pin that lifts the hour- or quarter-hammer, the driver, [in repeaters] the ring-pin or tooth. —netz, —eneß, n. a racket; [with sportsmen, Falsnet] hunter's trap; [with fishermen, Schteppnet] a sean or sein, a dragnet. Die zwei häre sen Seile oben und unten an einem —neße, the drop-lines. —note, f. [in music] a semi-breve, [in very old church music] a breve. —pfahl, m. the sleeper of a grated door or flood-gate, of a lock. —pfoste, f. [in hydraulics] V. —pfahl. —pille, f. an anti-apoplectic pill. —platte, f. [with gold-beaters] the block or plate for the catch, shoddering or finishing or gold-hammer. —pulver, n. 1) V. Knallpulver. 2) an anti-apoplectic powder. —pumpe, f. [in seamen's lang.] a pump with an English brake or handle. —püße, f. [in seamen's lang.] great pail or water-bucket. —rahmen, m. [with painters] frame. —regen, m. a sudden and violent shower of rain, a pelting or pattering shower. —ring, m. a ring worn as an amulet or charm against apoplexy. —rohrbüchse, f. [in artillery] the box for the quick matches; V. —rohrkentaſche. —röhre, f., —röhrchen, n. [in artillery] the fusee of a cannon. —röhrkentaſche, f. a sac or bag for matches, quick matches. —rolle, f. [with stocking-weavers] the cylindrical bobbin. —ruthe, f. 1) [in windmills] flap of the meal-tub. 2) V. Wünschelruthe. —saat, f., —same, m. seed or grain for yielding oil. —schatten, m. [with painters &c.] the shade or shadow any luminous body throws on a well-lit ground. —schatz, m. 1) tax paid to the min for coining-expences. 2) the seignorage upon coined money. 3) tax for permission to coin. 4) the net-profit or clear return of a coinage. — schleibe, f. [in clock-making] pallet of scapement. — schieber, m. [with bakers] a baker's peel or strike for putting rolls in the oven. || — schlüssel, m. key to a barrier. || — schreiber, m. a barrier-clerk. — schwelle, f. [in hydraulics] the sill [for the flood-gate posts]. — schwert, n. a two-handed sword, a broad-sword; [with the Scotch] claymore; [with students, for duels or fighting-matches] V. Schläger. — seite, f. [in seamen's lang.] lop-side. Dieses Schiff hat eine — seite, this ship is lop-sided, drives too much to leeward. — sperre, f. [of a repeater] the damper, the mute. — spindel, f. [in turning-lathes] mandrel. — spule, f. [on the wings of geese] the strongest quills. — stampfe, f. [with paper-makers] polishing-hammer. — ständer, pl. [in hydraulics] the posts or king-posts of a flood-gate; [in seamen's lang.] riders. — stange, f. V. — baum 1) — stein, m. [with bookbinders] the stone [for beating books on]. — stock, m. [with firework-artificers] stick for filling or charging rockets &c.; [with rope-makers] V. — holz; [in tennis] spring-bat, fives-bat; it. a block for beating wire on. — stück, n. [with gunsmiths] the stop of a gun-lock. — stückfeder, f. a staple-stop. — süll, m. V. — schwelle. — taube, f. the pigeon of a dove-cot. Die zahme — taube, V. Schleierteube. — tuch, n. a wrapping-cloth, any cloth for swaddling, swathing, used as an envelop. — uhr, f. clock that strikes, striking-clock; it. a repeater. — verband, m. [in hydraulics] the frame of a flood-gate, of a sluice. — wachtel, f. common quail. — wald, m. copse-wood, copse, coppice. — wand, f. [in sportsmen's and fowling lang.] a net that can be raised or lowered [for flocks of pigeons &c.]. — wasser, n. Hungarian anti-apoplectic water, rosemary essence; it. [in seamen's lang.] bilge-water. — weise, adv. 1) by strokes, by fits. 2) [in woodlands] Das Holz — weise fällen, to fell at one cutting the whole of the wood marked or plotted out for sale, for timber &c. — weite, f. [in physics] eines Bligfunkens, the percussive distance or scope of an electric spark. — welle, f. [in seamen's lang.] a stormy wave. — wert, n. the striking part of clock-work. — wetter, n. V. Hagelwetter. — wolle, f. [Stoßwolle] flock-wool. — wunde, f. wound from a blow, a weal, a laceration. — zeichen, n. V. Schlagzeichen. — zeit, f. 1) [with woodmen &c.] felling-time [for copse-wood &c.]. 2) — zeit der Vögel, time when birds are in song [after moulting].

Schlagbar, adj. and adv. — er Baum, a tree profitably fit for felling or cutting; — es Holz, wood for felling, fit to be wrought; diese Schölze sind noch nicht —, these woods are not yet fit for sale, ripe for the hammer, turnable to account.

Schlagbarkeit, f. state of that which is in the act of being felled, ripe for cutting, mature or in season for sale.

Schläge, f. [pl. -n] [with blacksmiths] sledge-hammer; it. a locksmith's hammer. V. Schlägel.

Schläge, pl. of Schlag, which see.

Schlägebauchen, v. intr. [chiefly of horses] to labour with the flanks, to pant. — schüch, adj. 1) panting, flank-beating, a blower [as a horse]. 2) V. Herzschüch. — faul, adj. and adv. hardened to blows, inured to beating. Fig. indolent, incorrigible. — forn, n. V. Schlagforn.

Schlägel, m. [-s, pl. -] 1) a beater, mallet, bat; maul, beetle; [with miners] V. Paufschel. — und Eisen [with miners], beetle and pick; — und Eisen anführen, to work with the hammer and pick, the beetle and piercer, wedge or mining-chisel; — und Eisen erklingen lassen [with miners], to make the hammer and chisel ring again, to work hard; großer, hölzerner —, a great mallet; die — zu den Pauken, kettledrum-sticks. Fig. the leg of a slaughtered animal. — Eines Kapauns, the leg of a capon or fowl; der — von einem Wildpret, the leg, thigh, haunch of venison, of game; V. Reh —, Hirsch —; der — von einem Hammel, leg of mutton. 2) [in architecture = Ramme] rammer, beetle, commander; [with paviers] paving-beetle, commander, rammer. — eizner Schleuse, the bung of a sluice or flood-gate, of a lock. 3) [with miners] that part of the hule, adit or gangway where the miner works. Auf dem — arbeiten, to work on the hule, on the flooking, to detach the rock; auf seinen — fahren, to go to one's [allotted] place in the hule, in the mine; den — behauen, to work the rock with the mallet [for ascertaining its hardness]; der — trägt die Kosten, the working pays its expences; der — ist bauwürdig, the load is worth working, is rich and lucrative.

Schlägelzeisen, n. [with miners] the pointed lever. — fisch, m. V. Hammerfisch. — gesell, m. [with miners] a fellow-workman. — grube, f. V. Fischgrube. — kopf, m. [hasenkopf] a horse with a hare's head. — lahm, adj. and adv. [in sportsmen's lang.] limping. Einen Hirsch — lahm schießen, to wound or lame, to hit a stag in the haunch by a shot. — milch, f. V. Buttermilch. — nuss, f. cashew-nut, acajou, anacardium.

Schlageln, I. v. tr. to beat with the rammer, mallet &c. II. v. intr. a) [speaking of a stag wounded in the hind leg or haunch and limping] to trail the hind leg. Fig. [in common people's lang.] [fehlen] to blunder, [fam.] to make a blunderbuss, a mess of it. Er hat gewaltig geschlagelt, he has made a pretty mess, a precious kettle of fish of it. b) to kick and struggle as a hare &c. when struck dead on the pole or nape of the neck; it. [with common people, speaking of little children, raptures] Das Kind ist sehr unruhig, es schlagelt beständig, the child is very restless, is constantly kicking, [if dangerously] is convulsive in the legs, is fitty.

Schlagen, [appears upon the whole allied to legen in all its significations] irr. I. v. intr. 1) [u. w. haben] a) [to move or be moved] Der Puls schlägt stark, heftig, the pulse beats high; das Herz schlägt, the heart beats, palpitates. b) [to move violently] Der Wagen schlägt, the coach jolts; die Kinte schlägt, the gun recoils, hits; wie ein Beseffener um sich —, to beat or strike out right and left like a madman; mit den Flügeln —, to beat, to flap with the wings. c) [to move violently towards any spot] Das Wasser schlägt an die Felsen, the water beats, dashes against, lashes the rocks; die Wellen — an das Schiff, in das Schiff, the waves dash, bump against, belabour the ship, beat or pour into the ship; die Flamme schlug in die Höhe, schlug auf allen Seiten zum Hause hinaus, the flame burst, struck, shot up, burst out from all parts of the house; das Wasser schlug ihm über dem Kopfe zusammen, the rushing water closed over his head, he was covered with the water, der Hagel schlägt auf das Dach, the hail rattles, beats against the roof; der Wind schlägt in die Segel, the wind beats into, fills, swells the sails; [u. w. seyn] mit dem Kopfe an die Wand, auf einen Stein, an die Ecke — [somewhat low], to dash, knock, beat one's head against the wall, a stone, a corner; hin —, nieder — [low], to fall like a flounder, to have a severe fall; er schlug der Länge nach hin [low], he fell at his full length, as flat as a flounder, he measured his length on the ground; [u. w. haben], auf den Raub — [in sportsmen's lang.] to swoop, to pounce; der Bär, Luchs schlägt auf den Raub, the bear seizes, the lynx pounces on his prey; [u. w. seyn] der Dampf schlägt mir auf die Brust, the damp strikes [up] into my chest, affects my breast; der Blitz hat in das Haus geschlagen, the lightning has fallen upon, struck the house. Fig. Der Frost, die Kälte schlug ihm in die Glieder [in fam. lang.], the cold struck into his limbs, laid hold of, seized, chilled him; der Schrecken ist mir in alle Glieder ge — [in fam. lang.], my limbs are paralyzed, [low] struck all of a heap with terror; ein Fieber, der kalte Brand ist dazu ge —, a fever, mortification ensued; aus der Art —, to degenerate; eine Farbe, die in's Blaue &c. schlägt, a colour verging, striking into blue &c.; das schlägt nicht in mein Fach, that is not in my line, does not lie within my scope, comes not within my province or sphere, is out of my way; das Korn ist in die Höhe ge —, corn has risen, grown dearer. V. Ab —, Auf —, Aus —, Be —, Durch —, Ein —, Fehl —, Hin —, Um —. 2) [u. w. haben] [= schallen; where it seems allied to the Lat. loquor, to the Gr. λαλέειν] Die Nachtigall schlägt, the nightingale warbles, sings; eine Granate &c. schlägt [= plagt], a grenade &c. explodes, bursts, [if a very small one] pops, goes off; V. An —; die Glocke, die Uhr schlägt, the bell, the clock strikes; es hat halb ge —, the half-hour has struck; hat es schon halb ge —? has it struck the half-hour yet? es hat so eben ganz ge —, the hour has just struck; wissen Sie nicht, wie viel [Uhr] es gehat? do you know what it has just struck? den ganzen geschlagenen Tag [fam.], all the day long; eine ganze or volle geschlagene Stunde warten [in pop. lang.], to wait a full, good hour, [in England, if the impression of hyperbole is wished to be conveyed] an hour by the Shrewsbury clock, by the horse-guards; der Schall schlägt an das Ohr, the report, sound strikes, hits, reaches the ear; harmonische Töne schlugen an mein Ohr, harmonious sounds, notes, tones struck, greeted my ear. II. v. refl. sich — [= sich wenden] to turn, to strike off. — Sie sich links or linker Hand, strike off, turn to the left, to the left hand; sich auf die Seite —, to turn aside; der Weg schlägt sich linker Hand, the way strikes off, the road turns off, diverges to the left. Fig. Sich zu Einem [auf seine Seite] —, to go over to any one, to any one's side or party; sich zu einer andern Partei —, to go over to another party; sich ins Mittel —, sich darein —, to throw one's self into the midst of, between [contending parties]; to mix one's self up in a business. III. v. tr. and intr. [u. w. haben] 1) [to lay, that is, place or bring any where] Der Adler schlägt seine Fänge in den Raub, the eagle drives, strikes his fangs, darts his talons into his prey; der Wolf schlug ihm die Krallen in die Brust, the wolf dug his claws into his breast; einen Verbrecher in Fesseln —, to load a criminal with irons, to put him in chains; das Salz in Körbe —, to put or stow the salt in baskets; den Mantel um sich —, aus einander —, to wrap one's cloak around one's self, to wrap one's self up in one's cloak, to throw open, aside one's mantle; Etwas in ein Tuch, Papier —, to wrap something up in a cloth, in paper, to envelop; das Bier in Fässer —, to barrel beer, to put beer into casks; Pulver in Tonnen —, to stow away powder in casks, to barrel powder; in Kisten —, to pack up, to stow in chests, to case; die Arme um Eines Leib, Nacken —, to throw one's arms round any one's body, neck; die Füße über einander, die Arme in einander —, to cross one's legs, to fold one's arms; die Schweine in die Mast — [treiben], to send or drive swine out into the woods to pick up the mast, beech-mast; [with wig-makers] die Locken um den Finger — [wickeln], to twist, twine or curl the locks round the finger; Eier in die Suppe &c. —, to beat, to beat up eggs into the soup &c.; Etwas durch ein Sieb —, to beat, to mash, to strain by tapping or beating any thing through a sieve; den Blick, die Augen gen Himmel, zur Erde —, to throw one's look, to cast one's eyes to heaven, to bend or sink one's look, eyes to the ground. Fig. Eine Abgabe, Zoll, auf Etwas —, to put a tax, to lay a duty on any thing; die Unkosten auf die Waare —, to throw one's expences into the scale in the price of goods, to compute, to add in one's expences in the price of goods; die Zinsen zum Hauptgelde or Kapitale —, to add the interest or interests to the capital; er hat so und so viel darauf ge —, he has added so much for his expences, his trouble; sich Etwas aus dem Sinne, aus den Gedanken, aus dem Kopfe — [in fam. lang.], to throw or shake off, to drive any thing from, out of one's mind, one's thoughts, one's head, to try to forget it, to repel or drive away obtrusive, disagreeable, &c. thoughts, ideas, fancies, reminiscences &c.; Etwas in den Wind —, to throw, give, cast any thing to the winds, dogs, to despise any thing, to laugh at any thing, to treat any thing with silent contempt, to set at nought any thing; ein Anerbieten von der Hand — [more usual weisen], to throw away, to reject, to waive an offer, V. 1. S. 1. 2) [to make a blow, thrust, knock against any thing] Das wilde Schwein schlägt mit den Zähnen, the wild boar gores, rips, wounds with his tusks; das Pferd schlägt, the horse kicks; ich schlug ihm an die Beine, I kicked his legs, [fam.] I gave him a kick on the shins; mit einem Hammer, einem Steine, mit der Faust an die Thüre —, to beat, knock, strike, rap with a hammer, a stone, to beat &c., to thump, to bang, pommel with the fist against the door; nach Einem —, to strike at any one; Einen mit der Hand ins Gesicht —, to strike any one [a blow] in the face with the hand; mit dem Stocke auf, in das Wasser —, to strike on, to flog, to lash, to whip the water with a stick; der Schwängel schlägt an die Glocke, the clapper strikes the bell; sich an die Brust —, to strike, beat one's breast; proverb. auf den Sack — und den Esel meinen, to flog, punish or reprimand a person of inferior rank before a superior for a pretended fault of which the superior is really guilty, [also, in a more general and usual sense] to hit, seemingly, one person or thing, but aiming really at another. it. [in a more circumscribed sense] a) [to effect by means of beating, to beat or strike out] Einem Etwas aus der Hand —, to knock any thing out of any one's hand; er schlug ihm den Hut, den Degen aus der Hand, he knocked his hat, sword out of his hand; in Stücke —, entzwei —, to beat, strike, dash in pieces, asunder; einen Pfahl in die Erde, einen Nagel in die Wand —, to beat, knock, ram a stake into the earth, to knock, hammer, beat a nail into the wall; Etwas an die Wand —, to nail, fasten any thing to the wall; die Verkündigung, die Verordnung wurde an die Häuser &c. ge —, the proclamation, the decree was posted [up] on the walls of the houses &c.; an das Kreuz —, to nail to the cross; Jemandes Namen an den Galgen —, to brand any one's name on, to affix any one's name to the gallows; den Feind aus dem Felde, in die Flucht, gänzlich in die Flucht —, to beat the enemy out of the field, into flight, to put to the rout, to rout &c., to drive the enemy into a complete flight, to defeat the enemy utterly. b) [to treat, handle &c. by beating] Ball —, to play at tennis, at fives; einen Schuh über den Leisten —, to put a shoe on the last; die Raketen, Schwärmerhülsen — [in fire-works], to ram, to charge the rockets, squibs [with composition]; Bücher — [among bookbinders], to hammer, beat books; das Tuch — [with cloth-manufacturers], to beat the cloth [for rendering it compact]; gut geschlagenes Tuch, close, well beaten cloth; Regel —, to knock or bowl down, to tip the [live] pins or hit the skittles with the bowl; Holz — [= fällen], to fell wood, it. [= in Scheite hauen] to chop wood into logs or billets; Gold —, to beat gold [into leaf]; geschlagenes Gold, gold-leaf, it. beaten or wrought gold; geschlagenes Silbergeschirr, forged, wrought silver, silver-plate worked by the hammer; Blech —, to beat or hammer into plates, to plate; Kessel —, to forge kettles [on the anvil]; Wasser aus den Schiffen — [schöpfen], to pump out water from ships, to force out water from ships by the strokes of a piston, [also] by hailing; die Erde — [fest stampfen], to pound, to ram tight the earth [with a pavier's rod &c.]; den Mörtel — [anmachen], to beat [up], plash the mortar; die Welle —, to beat the wool [to clean it]; einen Graben — [= säubern], to cleanse, to clean out a ditch; Einem eine Ader —, to lopen a vein for any one, any one's vein, to bleed any one, to let any one blood, to give any one a bleeding; die Wünschelruthe —, to strike, apply the wand; die Trommeln, die Pauken —, to beat the drums, the kettle-drums; die Orgel, den Flügel — [littled used, better spielen], to play the organ, the grand-piano; Einen zum Ritter —, to dub any one a knight, to knight any one; [with poets] eine Schlacht — [liegen fern], to come to an engagement, to action, to fight a fight, a battle. c) Einen —, to beat, to strike, [rather low] to thrash, thresh, to bastinate, belabour, whack any one; Einen in's Gesicht, [low] hinter die Ohren, auf den Hintern —, to give any one a blow in the face, [low] a downe on the chops, a slap on his phiz, a spanker on his posteriors; Einem eins hinter die Ohren — [low], to give any one a box on the ear, to give any one a back-hander, a dry-wiper; was or warum schlägst du mich? why do you beat me? Einen mit dem Stocke, der Ruthe, Peitsche —, to give any one a caning, hiding or drubbing with a stick, to cane or cudgel any one, to spat &c. with the rod [on the hand], to flog any one [elsewhere] with the rod, to horsewhip any one, to lash any one, to lay it on with the horsewhip, with the whip, [on the bottom] to whip or flog any one; Einen zu Boden —, to knock any one down; Einen mit Fäusten —, to lick, cuff any one with one's fists, to give any one a drubbing, a licking, a rib-roasting, a currying; er schlug ihn auf das Maul [low], auf die Nase, he struck him on the mouth, on the nose. Fig. Das Gewissen schlägt ihn [in fam. lang.], his conscience smites, quails him, gives him qualms. d) [to make by beating] Ein Pflaster — [= verflastern], to make or lay down a pavement; eine Brücke, ein Lager — [= errichten], to build a bridge, to bridge, to throw over a bridge, to pitch a camp; eine Wagenburg —, to make a rampart with, to throw up or form a barricade of wagons &c.; ein Tau — [= zusammen-drehen], to twist a rope [by the use of the woad &c.]; Feuer —, to strike a light or fire; Münze, Geld —, to stamp or coin money; Del —, to press, express oil; Wurzel —, to strike, take root. e) Sich —, to beat or strike each other, to hit one another, to fight, to come to blows; sich mit dem Degen, Säbel, auf Pistolen —, to fight with the sword, the sabre, with pistols; sich auf Stieb oder Stich —, to fight at cut or thrust, with the broad sword or small sword; sich mit Einem —, to fight with any one, [fam.] to come to fisticuffs, to box with any one, [with weapons] to fight, to have a duel, to engage in single combat with any one; sich auf Leben und Tod, auf Leib und Leben —, to fight for life or [and] death, with sharpened weapons, à toute outrance; sich zu Fuße, zu Pferde —, to fight on foot, on horseback; er schlägt sich tapfer, he fights well, gallantly, nobly, like a man; sich auf dem Rückzuge —, to fight in retreat, retiringly, retreatingly; sich mit dem Feinde — [or mit dem Feinde —], to fight, to engage [with] the enemy, to contend with the foe. Fig. Sich mit Sorgen und Grillen — [in fam. lang.], to contend, to fight against cares, whims or caprices; sich mit seinen eigenen Worten — [in familiar language], to beat, to contradict one's self with one's own weapons. f) [to cause to be heard, to shew by beating] Lärm —, to beat an alarm, an alarum [with the drum]; Marsch —, to beat a march; die Uhr schlägt drei, vier, the clock strikes three, four; diese Uhr schlägt die Stunden, die Viertelstunden, this clock, repeater strikes the hours, the quarters. g) [to conquer by beating] Den Feind —, gänzlich, aufs Haupt —, to beat the enemy, to beat the enemy hollow, completely, to give the enemy a complete defeat; die feindliche Flotte wurde ge —, the enemy's fleet was beaten, defeated; [at backgammon] einen Stein vier und zwei —, to take up, to hit a piece with kate and deuce; — [= heimsuchen], das Volk mit Pestilenz — [in Scripture], to strike, to visit the people with pestilence; mit Blindheit — [in a proper as well as in a figurative sense], to strike with blindness; ein geschlagener Mann [in fam. lang.], a ruined, lost man, a man blighted in his hopes, blasted in his prospects. Das —, beating, striking, hitting; das — einer Glocke, the striking of a clock, [= anschlagen] the tolling of a bell; — einer Nachtigall, the song, warbling, trill, cadence of a nightingale; — der Wachtel, piping of the quail; das —

des Herzens, the beating, [if violent] the palpitation of the heart; — des Pulses, der Pulsabern, beating, [if violent] throbbing of the pulse, of the arteries, pulsation; daß — einer Ader [Aderlassen], bleeding; den Feind zum — bringen, to bring the enemy to an engagement; die ganze Armee kam zum —, the engagement became general; daß — der Pferde, the kicking of horses. Syn. V. Klopfen.

Schlage=block, m. V. —flog. —brauf, m. [fam.] a hammer-and-tongs gentleman. — hammer, m. V. Schlaghammer. —flog, m. block for beating on, hammering block. — neß, n. V. Schlagwand. —schag, m. V. Schlagschag. —stod, m. [in artillery] ram-rod, rammer. — todt, m. [in pop. lang.] a knock-me-down cove, a bully, hector. Fig. [chiefly comic] a soldier. — uhr, f., — werk, n. V. Schlaguhr, Schlagwerk. —zeichen, n. [with clock-makers] tick of the warning-wheel.

Schläger, m. [-s, pl. -], —inn, f. 1) a striker, a hitter; it. a duellist, a bully, a brawler. V. Blech—, Gold—, Det—&c. 2) [unusual, for Säbel, a sword]. [with students, for duelling or fighting-matches] a peculiar kind of sword or broad-sword, a rapier. 3) [in seamen's lang.] a mallet; [with rope-makers] V. Schlagholz.

Schlägermühle, f. [with paper-manufacturers] a mill for hot-pressing.

Schlägerei, f. beating, fighting, [low] skrimmage, [with fists] boxing, [with sticks] drubbing, cudgelling, [for a wager] single-stick; it. [= Zweikampf, chiefly with students] a duel. Er kam bei einer — ums Leben, he was killed in a duel; sich in die — mengen, to mix in the fray; es war eine zufällig entstandene —, it was an affray, a row, a rumpus, a kick-up that arose by chance.

Schlägisch, adj. and adv. [in common people's lang., in a good sense] fond of a row, of a spree, of having a lark, of kicking up a shindy, a rumpus or a bobbery, fond of a set-to, [in England] real Irish. Ein —er Kerl [in a bad sense], a quarrelsome fellow, a bully, a swaggerer, a brawler, a tilter, a duellist.

Schlafen, v. tr. [the Engl. verb to slacken = schlaff machen, lösen] [in seamen's lang.] Die Segel — [= losmachen], to slacken sail, the sails, to loose the sails.

Schlamm, *m. [-es, pl., but seldom used, Schlämme] [appears allied to Seim, Seim, Lat. limus] mud, dirt, mire. Dieser Fluß &c. ist voll —, this river &c. is full of mud; im —e stecken bleiben [as a vessel], to stick [fast] on the mud, [as a coach] to stick in the mud, mire, slough; Fluß, der viel — mit sich führt, a river that brings [down] much mud along with it; fig. in den — der Wollüste versunken seyn, to be sunk, to wallow in the mire of sensual enjoyments; it. — [with miners, founders], slich, schlick; it. the ochraceous sediment of sulphate of cobalt, and of iron, the whitish green deposit of the sulphate of niccol, the white sediment of sulphate of zinc, the sediment of vitriol.*

Schlamm=beißer, m. [a variety of roach or cobitis] the fossile, ditch or pond-roach; it. the mud-fish of Carolina. — bütte, f. bucket or tub for the sediment or turbid lie of vitriol. — fang, m. [Roafe] cloacus, drain. —fisch, m. a fish delighting in mud, in ponds, V. Schlammbeißer. —gewäch, n. a mud-plant, a plant that is a foul feeder. — graben, m. a muddy ditch or moat, a mud-ditch. — grube, f. a muddy pit, a mud-pit. — grund, m. muddy soil; [in seamen's lang.] a muddy bottom [for anchorage]. — herd, m. [with miners] the plane or table of a launder or buddle [for washing tin-ore]. —früße, f. [in salt-works] a mud-drag. —füße, f. [with founders] a rake for spreading the slich. —lauge, f. the lie of any vitriolic sediment. — mühle, f. [in hydraulics] a machine, a drag for cleansing a ditch or dike. —muschel, f. the mud-muscle, V. Rothmuschel. —peißer, m. V. —beißer. —pfanne, f. [in salterns] a small salt-pan within a larger, a pan holding the hot salt-brine to be skimmed. —pfüße, f. a muddy or dirty puddle, a quagmire, [in Dorsetshire] a pucksey. — ruthe, f. V. Schleinruthe. —schleiffröte, f. the testudo lutaria, mud-tortoise. — schlich, m. [with miners] washed slich. —schnecke, f. the blue cornet, helix stagnatus. — stein, m. 1) [with miners] the washed ore or slich of tin, washed tin-stone. 2) [Schleifstein] a whet-stone, it. a hone. — stiesel, m. a mud-boot. — vulkan, m. mud-volcano. — werk, n. [Seifenwerk] place for or operation of washing sand in search of gold.

Schlamm, v. intr. to deposit mud, to form an alluvial deposit. Die Flüsse —, the rivers deposit, leave a sediment of mud, an alluvial sediment.

Schlamm, Schlamm, V. Schlemmen &c.

Schlammicht, adj. and adv. muddyish, dirtyish, resembling mud. Dieser Fisch hat einen —en Geruch, this fish has a muddy smell.

Schlammig, adj. and adv. muddy, miry, marshy, quaggy, puddly, oozy, slimy. — er Erde, muddy, miry earth; — es Wasser, — er Fluß, muddy water, river; dieser Bach ist sehr —, this rivulet or brook is very muddy, turbid; — er Boden, sloppy, swampy, boggy, rotten soil; — er vulkanischer Ausbruch, mud-volcano, or mud-eruption.

Schlampampen, [allied to the Lat. lambo and schlemmen] v. intr. [in common people's lang.] to live in clover, to live well, like an alderman, like a prince, to live in a pampered manner.

Schlampämper, m. [-s, pl. -], —inn, f. [fam.] a person fond of good eating and drinking, a man or woman who lives in clover; it. [with miners] V. Schlemmer.

Schlampamperei, f. 1) good-cheer, merry-making. 2) [with miners] V. Schlemmerei.

Schlampe, f. [pl. -n] [allied to Schlamm] a mess, potage, boiled stuff for dogs, for hounds.

Schlampe, f. [pl. -n] [allied to Schumpen, Fr. lambeau] [in common people's lang.] a slattern, a dirty slut, a sloven, trollop.

Schlampen, [V. 2. Schlampe] v. intr. 1) [u. w. haben] [low] to hang any how, disorderly, carelessly. Ihr —des Halstuch, her neck-shawl hanging down any how. 2) [u. w. seyn] to be slovenly [as a man], to be sluttish, slatternly [as a woman]; to be negligent or dirty in one's dress.

Schlampen, [V. 1. Schlampe] v. tr. [as a dog] to lap.

Schlämper, m. [-s, pl. -] [in common people's lang.] a sloven [a man], a slut, slattern [a woman].

Schlämper, m. [-s, pl. -] [in common people's lang. and provincial] a trailing gown or cloak [of a woman], [fam.] a draggletail.

Schlämpig, adj. and adv. [in common people's lang.] 1) [too watery] — es Essen, wish-wash, water-gruel, sky-blue, [in an angry tone] hog-wash; — es Wetter, dirty, nasty, beastly weather. 2) dirty, piggish, slovenly, slatternly, sluttish, [fam. adv.] any-how. — es Mädchen, a dirty girl, a slut of a girl, a young slattern, a gipsy-wench, a dirty jade, a scullion, a cinderella; sie geht immer — einher [umher], she is always slovenly dressed; dieses Weib geht den lieben langen Tag — herum, that woman goes any how all day long; dieser Mann geht den ganzen Morgen —, that man goes [unshaved, unbuttoned, unwashed, in fact] any how all the morning.

Schlämpigkeit, f. disorderdness, negligence, slovenliness, sluttishness.

Schlänge, f. [pl. -n], dim. Schlängchen, || Schlänglein, n. [-s, pl. -] [allied to lang, schlang] 1) [especially something long] Die — an den Feuerspißen [langer Schlauch], the leathern pipe or hose of a fire-engine; [with gunsmiths] the side-plate, the S.; [with chemists] the worm of a still; [in seamen's lang.] the tarpaulin-hose for water-casks; [in artillery, formerly] ganze — [Feld—], culverin, an extraordinary or ordinary culverin; halbe —, a half-culverin; doppelte — [of double caliber, and either a forty or fifty-pounder], a drake [the English piece of ordnance so named was small]. 2) [a reptile] snake, serpent. Die gemeine — [Wald—], common snake, harmless viper; vielköpfige — [fabulous], hydra; zweiköpfige — [not in reality], amphibia; versleinerte —, fossil snake or serpent, ophiolite; die Anbetung der —n, the adoration of serpents, snake-idolatry, ophiolatry; die Anbeter der —n, the serpent-idolaters; die Anbeter der — [in church history], ophites; [in heraldry] große — mit geringeltem Schwanz, snake, serpent with a curled tail or ring-tail; kriechende —, serpent rampant; sechß flug, wie die —n [in Scripture], be wise [cunning] as serpents. Fig. a serpent, a snake, a viper. Eine — im Busen nähren, to cherish a viper, an adder in one's bosom; [in Scripture] die alte —, the old serpent, the infernal serpent, the Devil. 3) [in astronomy] Die —, Hydra. 4) [in conchology] Die kleine —, the goat's eye screw-shell, helix oculus hirci, cornu Ammonis; die gespaltene —, cyclostoma, the wentletrap, worm; das Schlängelchen [a volute], the hunter's horn, cornu venatoris.

Schlangen=anbeter, m. an ophite, ophites, a serpentologist, V. —verehrer. —art, f. 1) kind, species, sort, race, genus of snakes or serpents. Ein kriechendes Thier von der —art, a reptile or creeping beast of the serpent tribe. 2) the nature or disposition of the snake, of serpents. Fig. malignant, venomous, subtle character. — artig, adj. and adv. after the manner or nature of serpents, like a snake, snakish, snaky, serpentine, for instance ein —artiger Weg, a serpentine way. — auge, n. 1) a snake's or serpent's eye. 2) [in nat. hist.] [smallest kind of the Krötenstein] serpent's eye; it. bnfonite; it. the ichthyolite, petrified grinder of the sea-wolf. — äugel, n. V. Scharfraut. —bad, n. [a well-known watering-place in the Duchy of Nassau] Schlangenbad. — alg, m. the cast or slough, spoils of a snake. — banner, m. V. —beschwörer. —baum, m. V. —holz 2). — beer baum, m. [native of the East] antidesmia alexiteria. — beere, f. berry of the female antidesmia alexiteria. — beschreibung, f. ophiology. — beschwörer, m. snake-charmer, adder-charmer, [in India] snake-juggler, [in Africa] the psylli. — biegung, f. fold, coil of a serpent. — biß, m. serpent's bite, [vulgar] snake's sting. — blech, n. V. Schlange [with gunsmiths]. — blume, f. — blümchen, n. V. Schneeglöckchen. — brut, m. V. — verehrer. — brut, f. brood, covey, hatch, nest of young snakes; litter, swarm of vipers. Fig. [in a bad sense] generation of serpents, race of vipers, adder's brood. — bienet, — bienst, m. V. — verehrer &c. — dorn, m. V. — holz 2). — ei, n. 1) snake's or serpent's egg. 2) [in nat. hist.] V. — auge 2). — eidechse, f. the tri-dactylous or three-toed snake-lizard. — falk, m. the secretary-vulture, bird or falcon. — fett, n. snake's fat or axungia. — fisch, m. ophidium, bearded ophidion. — form, f. form, figure, shape of a serpent. — förmig, adj. and adv. serpentiformed, ophiomorphous [in nat. hist.]; it. serpenti-form, serpentine; it. macandering or meandering, sinuous, anfractuous; it. [with painters] waving, in waves. — förmige Linie, — förmiger Weg, tortuous or waving line, serpentine way, macandering road. — förmigkeit, f. 1) form or figure of a serpent. 2) sinuosity. — fressend, adj. and adv. ophiophagous, living upon snakes. — fresser, m. an ophiophagist, snake-eater. — gang, m. serpentine, winding, macandering alley, V. — pfad. — geißel, f. the whip of the Furies. — geschlecht, n. [in nat. hist.] snake-race; it. snake-lizards, ophidians. — geziß, n. serpent's hiss. Fig. Das — geziß des Reides, the venomous hiss of envy. — gezißt, n. V. — brut. — gift, n. poison, venom of the snake, serpent's poison. — glatt, adj. and adv. slippery as a snake, smooth as a serpent. — gleis, n. [little in use] serpentine path, macandering way, a winding, anfractuous road. — gras, n. 1) [wilder Kräutenfuß] coronopus, wart-cress, buck's-horn-plantain, hart's-horn. 2) [kind of Mannstreu] fetid or stinking eryngo. — gurke, f. serpentine cucumber. — haar, n. the snaky hair of the Furies, of Alecto. — hals, m. 1) [seldom used in the sense of something beautiful] a swan-neck, [fam. and comic] a dolichodeirion neck. 2) V. — halsvogel. — halsig, adj. and adv. long-necked, swan-necked. — halsvogel, m. [in nat. hist. der Ganghals] Brazilian water-hen, the anhinga. — haupt, n. 1) a snake's or serpent's head. 2) Fig. head bristling with snakes or viperous locks, the head of Medusa. 3) [in botany] echium vulgare, viper's bugloss. — haut, f. 1) snake's or serpent's skin, slough, V. — hatg. 2) [in conchology] serpent's skin, mother of pearl, the princess; it. the nun, the daw, cypraea pediculus. Versteinte — haut, the horn of Ammon, cornu Ammonis, the ammonite, ram's horn. — herz, n. 1) Fig. a serpent's heart, a malignant and treacherous heart; a traitor. 2) [in astronomy] heart of hydra, cor hydrae, alaphard. — herzig, adj. and adv. Fig. malignant, treacherous, subtle, venomous. — holz, n. 1) [Marderwurzel] the root of the mungos. 2) ophiorrhiza, mungos, mangos, munguia. 3) [Kanonbaum] the ambaiha of the Brazils. 4) V. — wurzel 2). 5) ophiocylum, — holzbaum, m. V. — holz 2). — horn, n. 1) [a species of thick-lipped cake-shell] the hunts-man's horn, elephant's trunk. 2) [a musical instrument] a serpent. — hornbläser, m. player on the serpent. — hülle, f. slough, cast of a snake. — insel, f. island of serpents. — klugheit, f. cunning or prudence of serpents. — knoblauch, m. serpentine garlick. — könig, m. — königin, f. [fabulous] king, queen of serpents. — kopf, m. 1) a serpent's or snake's head. 2) [in nat. hist.] an aquatic bird of prey with feathered legs, anhima, aninga. 3) [a fish] ophicephalus. 4) [in conchology] Der große — kopf, the great turtle-leopard; der kleine — kopf, the viper's head; der blaue — kopf, the onyx cowry. 5) [in medicine] a falling off of the hair, ophiasis. — köpfchen, n. 1) [Muschelmünze] the cowrie, the black-amoor's tooth, cypraea moneta. 2) ostreopsecteute, ostreo-perna, anomia, kind of teredo utriculus. 3) [Kameelhaarsfliege] [neuropterous] raphidia. — köpfig, adj. and adv. 1) snake-headed. [in heraldry] — köpfiges Kreuz, V. — kreuz. 2) [in medicine] attacked with ophiasis. — kraut, n. 1) [Wundkraut] officinal speedwell, European tea, veronica officinalis, polychresta herba veronica. 2) Großes, gemeines — kraut, serpentaria, colubrina or viperina Virgineana, Virginia snake-root, rattlesnake-root; kleines — kraut, arum, wake-robin, cuckoo-pint, lords and ladies. 3) [Matterwurz] histort, snake-weed, polygonum, adder's wort. 4) water-arum, red water-ginger, frogwort. 5) vorticillate lily of the valley. 6) [Fleisch, das Pfennigkraut] lysimachia nummularia, herundinaria, moneywort. 7) [gemeines, der Dragen] tarragon, mug-wort, artemisia. 8) V. Bärlapp. 9) [matabarisches] moxa, adarodian. — kreuz, n. [in heraldry] cross vivrée, givrée, snake-headed cross. Doppelpeltes — kreuz, double snake-headed cross. — krone, f. 1) the crown of a cow's grinder fallen off from its fang, formerly believed to be the crown of a snake and endowed with miraculous virtues. 2) [in nat. hist.] V. See-münze. Falsche — kron [Käfermuschel], a kind of lepas or limpet, the sea-boat, oscabrion. — krümme, — krümmung, f. sinuosity, anfractuosity; serpent-winding, macandering. — kürbis, m. snake-gourd. — lahn, m. twisted or spiral gold or silver-thread. — lauch, m. V. Otterlauch. — leib, m. the body of a snake or serpent, any body shaped like a serpent's. — linie, f. serpentine, macandering, mazy line; [with painters] waving line, wave-line. — list, f. subtlety, malice, craft, cunning of the serpent, of the snake. — loch, n. serpent's or adder's hole. — mann, m. V. — träger. — moos, n. V. Bärlapp. — mord, m. [in botany] [Matterwurz] viper's grass, scorzonera. — nest, n. nest of serpents, of vipers. — osterluzei, f. aristolochia, serpentary, birth-wort, snake-root. — paar, n. a pair or couple of snakes. — papier, n. serpentine silver-paper. — pfad, m. [—gang] macandering, winding path, serpentine way. — pfeife, f. 1) a twisted whistle. 2) [in nat. hist.] V. See. — pulver, n. [formerly, in medicine] the dried flesh of a snake reduced to powder. — raden, m. the throat, mouth, gullet, maw of a serpent. — rohr, n. twisted, tortuous pipe; [in music] the serpent; [in organs] the serpent-stop. — röhre, f. 1) [with chemists] the worm of a still 2) [in conchology] vermicular serpula, watering-pot. — säule, m. ophisperm. — säule, f. 1) a tortile column, a torse. 2) a column composed of three inter-twining snakes having one snake's head, a serpentine column. — schnecke, m. 1) [in architecture] V. Schneckel. 2) [in conchology] the thorny six-spiraled planorbis. — schur, f. [with silk-workmen] the snake-cord. — schwanz, m. 1) a snake's tail. 2) [in conchology] snake-tail star-fish or sea-star, the asterias ophiura. — schweif, m. serpent's tail. — seele, f. [emphatic] Fig. false, base, treacherous soul. — segen, m. [in popular superstition] charm against or for fascinating and alluring snakes. — schne, pl. [in mythology] the ophiogenes. — spritz, f. [more usual Schlauchspritz] a fire-engine with a hose. — stab, m. the caduceus [of Mercury]. — stecher, m. [Wasserjungfer] dragon-fly, libellula. — stein, m. 1) [Serpentinstein] serpentine, nephrit, jade. 2) the bezoary of the snake. 3) — stein or — fels, m. [Serpentinfels] ophite, serpentine marble or rock. 4) serpent-stone [used by the Indians to cure the sting of the scorpion &c.]. 5) the horn of Ammon. — stich, m. 1) bite of a snake, [low] sting of a snake. 2) [with sem-stresses] serpentine stitch. — streifen, m. serpentine streak. Blonde mit — streifen, lace with wreathed stripes, waved lace. — tanz, m. 1) a serpent's dance, the dancing of snakes [to the pipe of an Indian juggler, conjurer &c.]. 2) a peasant's dance round three trees; it. [in Scotland] a reel. — töbter, m. 1) a snake-killer, a slayer of serpents. 2) [in nat. hist.] [Pharaomaus] ichneumon, the viverrachneumon, Pharaoh's rat. 3) [in botany] aristolochia anguicida, snake-killing birth-wort. — träger, m. 1) [in astronomy] serpentarius, ophineus, ophichus. 2) [with the Ancients] Aesculapius. — treter, m. V. — zertreter. — verehrer, m. [formerly] one who believed the God of the Jews to be not the supreme God and who called him Jaldabaoth, pretending also that the serpent was Jesus Christ; [in general] an ophite, a serpenticolist. — verehrung, f. ophitism, ophiolatry, idolatry of the serpent. — vogel, m. V. — halsvogel. — wahrsagerei, f. ophiomancy, augury or soothsaying from serpents. — weg, m. serpentine way or walk, sinuous road or path. — wegborn, m. lignum colubrinum, snake-wood, snake thorn. — weise, adv. like a snake, viperously, colubrine, serpentine, snake-fashion; it. in a serpentine motion, waving, sinuous, macandering. — weise gehen, fließen [as a road, river], to wind, to macander; — weise laufen, to run in a winding or coiling manner, to circumgyrate; — weise reiten, to ride a horse round in rings or mazes; [in architecture] — weise gemachter Zierrath, a tortile ornament or serpentine decoration to rustic cottages &c.; [in heraldry] — weise gezogen, tortile. — wendung, f. 1) a tortuous or sinuous turning or winding, V. — krümmung. 2) Fig. a crafty doubling, a cunning dodge, subtle wily or shuffling round-about way, [fam.] a crafty circumbendibus. — windung, f. sinuosity, anfractuosity. — wurz, — wurzel, f. [in botany] 1) V. — mord. 2) [Mungowurzel] ophiorrhiza, mungos, ichneumon-root. 3) V. — osterluzei. 4) V. — fraut 3). 5) [—fraut] verticillated Solomon's seal or lily of the valley. 6) Amerikanische — wurzel, the actaea racemosa, bane berry, herb-Christopher of North-America. — zahn, m. 1) serpent's or snake's tooth, [if poisonous] serpent's fang. 2) [petrified teeth of fish] odontolite. — zertreter, m. [a surname of Christ] serpent-crusher or bruiser. — zischen, n. 1) hiss of a serpent, hissing of snakes. 2) Fig. [emphatic] slander, spiteful venom. — zunge, f. 1) a serpent's or snake's tongue, a forked tongue. 2) [with farriers] a horse's tongue constantly moving, serpentine tongue. 3) Fig. [emphatic] adder's tongue, viper's tongue. 4) [in botany] V. Natterzunge. 5) [in conchology] V. Zungenstein. 6) [in architecture] dart, [of iron] spike. — züngig, adj. and adv. serpent-tongued. — zwanig, m. V. — gras.

Schlängelicht, adj. and adv. [rather unusual] — er Weg, serpentine or meandering way, tortuous or sinuous road, zigzag path.

Schlängeln, I. v. intr. and refl. to meander, to wind. Bäche, die durch Wiesen sich —, rivulets that meander, steal in a mazy bed through meadows; ein Weg, der durch die Ebene, am Berge hinauf schlängelt, a way that winds round and round through the plain, zig-zags up the mountain or hillside; Blitze schlängelten sich durch die Luft, forked lightnings played across the sky; sich um Etwas herum —, to coil, to entwine one's self, itself round any thing, [as a plant] to coil spirally round any thing. II. v. intr. Fig. [in fam. lang.] [= sich krümmen und winden, it. falsch or hinterlistig seyn] to wriggle and twist, to bend and coil, it. to go stealthily to work, to be wily or crafty, to be subtle. Das —, V. Schlängelung.

Schlängelgang, m. [not much used] a serpentine path or walk, meandering alley.

Schlängelung, f. 1) twisting, twining, coiling, meandering. 2) V. Schlängelnte.

Schlank, [another form for lang] adj. and adv. slender, thin, slim, slight, light, easy, delicate, graceful; it. tall. — er Mensch, — e Figur, a slim or slight-built man, a slender-made man, [also] an easy, delicate, light shape; [also] a tall man, a tall figure; — er Wuchs, a slight, slim, [also] a slender shape, a tall figure; sie hat einen — en Leib, she has a slender form, a fairy-figure. Fig. [in pop. lang.] — weg, roundly, plainly, without ceremony, without round-abouts or bother. Syn. schlank, schwächig, hager. A tall thin man is schlank when his limbs are supple; schwächig, in so far as his thinness gives him the appearance of weakness; and hager, when from the visibleness of the bones he has an air of stiffness.

Schlankel, m. [-s, pl. -] [in common people's lang., and provincial, in a bad sense] a long, lanky, awkward fellow, a fellow all lath and plaster, a bag of bones, a stuffed eel-skin, the church-steeple.

Schlankeln, Schlanken, v. intr. [in common people's lang., and provincial] to swing, to see-saw, V. also Schlenkern.

Schlankheit, f. [of a person] slenderness, slightness, slinness, lightness, airiness of figure, [also] talness; [with painters and sculptors] lightness, easiness, gracefulness.

Schlapphant, m. [-es, pl. -e] [in nat. hist.] V. Plattehant.

Schlapp, adj. and adv, it. —heit, f. V. Schlaff, Schlaffheit.

Schlappbrüstig, adj. and adv. swag-breasted, with dugs for breasts, flabby-teated. — hut, m. [in pop. lang.] slouching broad-brimmed hat. — maul, n. V. 1. Schlappe 1). — ohr, n. 1) [in common people's lang.] a lap-ear, flap-ear, spaniel-ear. 2) [low] a lob-eared man. — ohrig, adj. and adv. [of dogs &c.] lap-eared, lob-eared. — seil, n. V. Schlaffseil.

Schlapp, m. [-es, pl. -e], dim. Schlappchen, n. [-s, pl. -] [in pop. lang.]

1) V. Klapp. 2) a cap [of men] with flaps or ears; it. small slippers [for children], V. Schlarfe.

1. Schlappe, f. [pl. -n] 1) [= Schlappmaul] [low] a blubber-lipped mouth, a mouth like a dew-flap. 2) [in common people's lang.] any thing flopping. Alte — n, old slip-slop shoes, V. Schlarfe.

2 Schlappe, f. [pl. -n] [allied to flappen] [in pop. lang.] clap, flop, box, flap, dab, spank, whack. Fig. loss, damage, the worst of it. Der Feind hat eine —, eine tüchtige or berbe — bekommen, the enemy received a check, has had a hard rub. got the worst of it; er bekam auf dem Rückzug eine —, he got a licking on his retreat; sich von einer — erholen, to recover from a loss, to retrieve or make good one's loss.

Schlappen, I. v. intr. [u. w. haben] [in pop. lang.] to be flabby, to hang loose. Es schlappt und hängt Alles an ihm, every thing hangs loose and flaps about him, he looks as if he had jumped into a sack. II. v. intr. and tr. [of dogs while eating] to lap. III. v. intr. [u. w. seyn] [in common people's lang.] to slip-slop about, to patter in slippers, in slops. Er schlappt den ganzen Tag herum, he goes about slip-shod all day long, click-clacks about in slippers the whole day long.

Schlappern, V. Schlappen II.

Schlappig, adj. and adv. 1) V. Schlapp. 2) [in pop. lang.] [nachlässig] slovenly [for men], slatternly, sluttishly, dabbish, drabbish [for women], [for both] untidy.

Schlapp, m. [-es, pl. -e] [in common people's lang.] a slovenly fellow, a negligent, neglectful, careless man; it. a boor, a coarse lout of a fellow, a vulgar rude-mannered man.

Schlaraffe, f. [pl. -n] [allied to the Swed. slarvig, [schlotterig, to the Engl. slur, a stain or spot] [in fam. lang., in contempt] a sluggard, a sloth, an indolent voluptuary, a do-nothing, a lazy-bones, a drone.

Schlaraffen-gesicht, n. 1) a monkey's-face, a face like boiled leather, as if steeped in vinegar, a face made out of a sow's ear, a stupid noodle face; it. a lazybones, [low] a lie-about fellow that cares for nothing save his own guts; fig. [in England] a face with a mouth like a Cheshire cat. 2) [in architecture] a grotesque figure of a head, a mask, an ogre, a grinning monster. — land, n. the land of milk and honey, the land where the larks fall into your mouth ready roasted, fool's paradise; it. [sometimes, but always in a familiar style, used for] a dreamed land of terrestrial happiness. — leben, n. idle, voluptuous, sauntering, careless life. Ein — leben führen, to lead a lazy, nothing-to-do life of it, to humdrum or toddle through life, living for the day and thinking nothing of the morrow.

Schlarfe, f. [pl. -n] [allied to schürfen] [in pop. lang.] a slop-slipper, it. a shoe down at heel, doubled down, slip-shod, a slop-shoe.

Schlarfen, v. intr. [in pop. lang.] 1) to drag or trail the feet, to dandle or drawl along in walking or shuffling about. 2) to go slip-shod.

Schlätting, f. V. Schladding.

Schläu, [Sw. slug, Old Germ. glau, Old Sax. gleaw, allied to flug and schlagen in the word verschlagen] adj. and adv. sly, crafty, cunning, adroit, subtle or subtle, knowing. — er Kopf, crafty head or mind, a man of deep reach, [cant] a knowing cove, a sly codger, a knowing blade, a long head; er, sie ist —, sehr —, er ist ein — er Fuchs, sie ist eine — e Dirne, he, she is a knowing one, [fam.] up to snuff, knows a thing or two, understands twig, he is a sly [old] fox, she is a sly jade, puss, a slyboots, [insulting] she is a sly bitch, a crafty thing in petticoats; — es, verschmitztes Weib, [low] Weibsbild, crafty, sharp woman [low]; ein — es Mädchen, — es Ding, an artful or designing woman, girl, [also] a sly girl, a little sly devil, a crafty little hussey; ein rechtschaffener Mann kann — seyn, aber nicht hinterlistig, an honourable, honest man may be acute, subtle, but not deceitful; er hat sich — dabei benommen, he went skilfully, adroitly to work in that business, about it.

Schlaugewandt, adj. and adv. fine, adroit, crafty, cunning, subtle, sly, knowing. — Kopf, m. 1) an acute, knowing man. 2) a sly dog or fox, an old hand, a long-headed chap. Sie ist ein kleiner — Kopf, she is a little crafty jade, a sly puss, a knowing little hussey. — sinn, m. 1) adroit mind; cunning disposition, slyness, sublety. 2) V. — geistsinn. — sinnig, adj. and adv. fine, knowing, crafty, cunning, sly-minded, long-headed.

Schlaube, f. [pl. -n] V. Hülse, Schale.

Schläuben, v. intr. [= flauben] to shell, to shuck.

Schlauch, m. [es, pl. Schläuche] [allied to Schlauch] 1) [especially certain hollow objects] Der — eines Abtrittes, the pipe or funnel of a water-closet or privy; [in seamen's lang.] — [for bringing water into a ship], hose for the water-casks in the hold; — einer Spritze, hose of a fire-engine; [in the veterinary art] the sheath of the stallion's or donkey's penis; [in botany] utriculus, utricle, [also] bladder or bag at the root of utricularia; [with upholsterers] the tick of a bed, the cloth &c. that covers the stuffing of a chair &c. 2) [generally] a leathern bottle, a budget, a black jack, a bladder, a pipe. Edderner, leinerner —, a leathern, linen pipe or tube, a hose; —, Wein daren zu füllen, a skin, black jack, leathern bottle for wine; — von Bockfellen, a goat-skin [for a bottle &c.]; mit Wein gefüllte Schläuche, skins of wine, wine-skins; der — [Röhre von Holz], a wooden-pipe. Fig. a drunkard, guzzler.

Schlauchartig, adj. and adv. in the form or shape of a funnel or pipe, [also] bladder-shaped; [in botany] utriculated, utriculed, utriform, ascidiform. — bohrer, m. sort of brad-awl for tapping wine-skins or leathern bottles holding wine. — förmig, V. — artig. — näher, V. — bohrer. — ruthe, f. a rod or pole for cleaning water-pipes or conduits. — [schwamm, m. [in botany] utriformed boletus, ascidium. — spritze, f. fire-engine with its hose. — thier, — thierchen, n. [one of the infusoria] paste-eel, eel in vinegar or sour paste.

Schlauch, v. tr. and intr. 1) to provide with a hose, bladder, goat skin, leathern-bottles. 2) Fig. [old] to cram, to gorge, to guttle, to stuff, to fill one's guts; V. Aus — &c. Wein —, to draw or tap wine through, it. to fill wine into a skin; die Röhren einer Wasserleitung aus —, to clean the water-pipes or conduits with a pole.

Schlauchicht, V. Schlauchartig.

Schläuder, f. [pl. -n] [from schlaun vern? something like Schling from schlingen] [in architecture &c.] [Giebelanker] iron-chain, gable-anchor.

Schläuder, Schläudern, V. Schleuder, Schleudern.

Schläuderhaft, Schläuderhaftig-keit, V. Schläuderig &c.

Schläuderig, adj. and adv. [nachlässig] careless, heedless, un- careful, inattentive, negligent, neglectful.

Schläuderigkeit, f. [no pl.] negligence, neglect, neglectfulness, carelessness, indifference, inattention.

Schläudern, [allied to schlottern] v. intr. to swing, to balance one's self, to see-saw. Die Spule schlaudert, the spool shakes, the bobbin is loose; der Schlitten schlaudert, the sledge rocks, jolts, jumps. Fig. to work slovenly, carelessly, indifferently.

Schläuf, m. [es, pl. -e] V. Hülse, Schale, Schlauch.

Schläufen, V. Hülfen, Schälten.

Schläuheit, f. 1) slyness, craftiness, cunning, acuteness, spirit of intrigue &c. V. Schlau. Er hat es aus — gesagt, he said it from some double or sly motive, out of cunningness, craftiness. 2) [not much used] a sly or crafty action, a cunning act, a stratagem.

Schläuheitsinn, m. [in Gall's phrenology] the organ of cunning, [in Spurzheim's and modern phraseology] the organ of secretiveness.

Schläufigkeit, f. V. Schläuheit.

Schlecht, adj. and adv. 1) [from schlagen = ausdehnen, to beat out flat or straight] [obsolete] Was frumm ist, kann nicht — werden [in Ecclesiastes], that which is crooked cannot be made straight; Hiob ist — und recht [in Job], Job is a perfect and an upright man. 2) [obsolete] = glatt, [schlicht] smooth. — e Manschetten, smooth ruffles or wrist-bands. Fig. [= bloß, nichts als] else than, alone, merely. Die Taufe ist nicht — Wasser [in Scripture], baptism is not merely water, not water alone. 3) [from schlagen = schwächen, vermindern, to deteriorate; allied to leicht] [= nicht gut beschaffen] bad, base. — es Gold, — es Geld, — e Münze, bad gold, money, base or bad coin; — er Wein, — es Wasser, bad wine, water; dieses Brod ist noch — er, als das vorige, this bread is even worse than the last; — es Tuch, — es Fleisch, bad cloth, meat; — es Essen, bad repast, sorry meal; — es Haus, a bad-built house, it. [fig.] a bad house, bawdy-house; — es Holz, bad wood; — er Weg, — es Pferd, bad way, bad horse; — e Entschuldigungen, sorry pretexts, wretched excuses; — e Verse, wretched, bad verses; — lesen, singen, to read, sing badly; das ist ungleich — er, als &c., that is infinitely worse, than &c.; er hat eine — e Aussprache, einen — en Vortrag, he has a bad pronunciation, a bad delivery; er ist — gekleidet, am — esten unter Allen, he is badly clothed or clad, the worst of all; er sitzt — zu Pferde, he sits badly on horseback, has not a good seat; — er Bezahler, a bad paymaster; — er Fußgänger, a bad walker, a poor pedestrian; — er Jäger, a bad [ignorant] hunter or sportsman; — er [= magerer] Hirsch, a lean stag; [in sportsmen's lang.] dieser Hund hat eine — e

Nase, this dog has a bad nose, bad scent — behangen seyn [of hounds], to open false, to be a babbler; to lay on wrong or false; — jagdbarer Hirsch, a two-year old stag; sie sind — e Freunde, they are not good friends; — er, kümmerlicher Gehalt, poor salary, crippled appointment, [comic, in England] Midshipman's pay, [fam.] not enough to buy blacking; — besoldet, badly, poorly paid; der Handel, [in commercial style] die Handlung geht —, trade is dull, it is very depressed, low, sluggish, flat in the market; in — en Umständen seyn, to be in bad circumstances; — e Zeiten, bad times; dieser Kaufmann wird — [in commercial style], seine Sachen gehen täglich — er, this merchant is on the eve of bankruptcy, is likely to fail, his affairs are getting more and more involved, are getting worse, more embarrassed every day; ein Gut wird — er, an estate deteriorates, sinks in value; der Kranke ist —, wird täglich — er, the patient is bad, is getting worse every day; — er Trost, sad, poor consolation; er behilft sich sehr —, he is going or getting on very bad, he muddles on, he scrapes a living, he is [or his affairs are] in a bad way; ein — es Essen, [low] — es Fressen, poor fare, horse provender, sorry stuff, food only fit for the hog-tub, for the workhouse; — es Wetter, bad weather; — e Luft, bad air, unhealthy air; — er Weg, bad way, wretched road; sich — [unmoralisch] aufführen, to conduct one's self ill, immorally; — e Aufführung, bad conduct; Einen — machen [in common people's lang.], to make any one out a bad character, a bad man, [low] a bad one; er spricht von Niemand —, he speaks ill of no one; er hat — davon gesprochen, he has spoken ill of or about it; dabei kommt man — zu rechte, there is no thriving under such circumstances or with that, you will always come off a loser by it, [also] one will lose one's pains or labour in that; eine — e Meinung von Jemand haben, to have a bad opinion of any one, to think hard of any one; das wird ihm — bekommen, he will be all the worse for it, he will only get trouble for his pains, that will turn out bad or badly for him; es ist ihm — bekommen, daß &c., it was, it has been bad for him, that &c., [fam.] it was a bad job for him, that &c.; — bei Etwas wegkommen, to come badly off in an affair, to be ill used for it &c.; das ist gar nicht —, that is not at all bad; — er Mensch, a bad man, a man of intemperate or vicious habits; er führt ein — es Leben, he leads a bad life, a depraved or irregular life; — es Buch, a bad book; — e Handlung, bad action or deed; er hat sehr — an ihm gehandelt, he has behaved very ill towards him, he has treated him very badly; er hat ihm seine Dienste — vergolten, he has ill repaid, requited his services; das war — von Ihnen [in pop. lang.], that was bad on your part, bad of you not pretty of you. Das — e, the bad; das Gute und das — e bei einer Sache, the good and the bad of any thing; das — ere, the worse; das — ere von Beiden, [fam.] the worst of the two; das — este, the worst.

Schlecht-färber, m. [V. Schwarz-färber] a dyer of the lesser dye or in black. — löstig, adj. [of a coin] base, bad, of base alloy. — that, f. a bad action, bad deed. — weg, adv. [ohne Umstände] without ceremony, without ado, without fuss, plainly, roundly, quite short, short and brief, [comic] short and sweet. Sagen Sie nur — weg, ich will nicht, just say at once, in a word, short and sweet, [low] plump and flat, I won't; sich — weg [einfach] kleiden [in pop. lang.], to dress plainly, simply, without pretension or affectation.

1. Schlechte, f. [pl. -n] [of a person or thing] the bad, the bad part. V. Schlechtigkeit, Schlechtigkeit.

2. Schlechte, f. [pl. -n] [closely allied to lage] 1) [with miners = Schicht, Stöck] bed, layer, stratum. 2) [in hydraulics] V. Buhne.

Schlechterdings, adv. [durchaus] absolutely, positively, certainly, determinedly, resolutely. Ich will es —, ich thue es — nicht, I won't positively, I will absolutely, decidedly not do it; es ist nicht — wahr, daß &c., it is not absolutely, positively, actually [quite, all] true, that &c.; es ist — nicht wahr, it is totally, utterly untrue.

Schlechtfalk, m. [-en, pl. -en] the falco lanarius, lanner, lanneret, lanner-hawk.

Schlechttheit, f. [of a person &c.] the badness, V. 1. Schlechte.

Schlechtthin, adv. 1) [schlechterdings] absolutely. Ich will es — so haben, I will have it so positively, this or that way and no other. 2) [ohne Umstände] simply, briefly, without ceremony or [fam.] fuss. Erzählen Sie mir die Sache —, tell me the thing quite plainly, just as it was; sagen Sie es nur —, say it only plainly, simply, in a few words.

Schlechtigkeit, f. 1) — einer Sache, the badness, bad quality of any thing. 2) V. 1. Schlechte. 3) a bad action or deed, wickedness, depravity. 4) the worthlessness. Die — dieser Waaren, the bad, worthless quality of the goods or articles.

Schlechtlich, adv. [little used] baddish, V. Schlecht.

Schleß, m. [-es, pl. -e] [in pop. lang.] dainty, tit-bit. Fig. [in common people's lang.] Das ist kein —, that is a thing not to be coveted; it. that is no easy matter, no pleasant job, I assure you.

Schleß-bissen, m. [V. Leckerbissen] a dainty morsel or bit, tit-bit. — koß, m. [not much used] a confectioner, a pastrycook.

krämer, m. [not much used] dealer in confectionary, in dainties, in rarities for the table. — markt, m. [not much used] a market where dainties are sold. — maul, n. [in common people's lang.] V. Schleckmaul.

speise, f. [in common people's lang.] dainty food, luxurious food, tit-bits.

Schlecken, v. tr. [in common people's lang.]

1) V. Lecken. 2) to take little bits at a time, to relish by eating little morsels. Gern etwas Gutes —, to relish any thing good, tit-bits; sie schleckt gern, she is fond of dainties, has a lickerish tooth, has a sweet tooth of her own; Katzen — or naschen gerne, cats are very dainty, choice, nice [in their food].

Schlecker, m. [-s, pl. -], — in n, f. 1) [in pop. lang.] a dainty person, a person with a sugar-tooth, a lickerish mouth, palate or tooth. 2) [in sportsmen's lang.] a stag who yields fine sport by doublings and shifts, who does not go straight ahead.

Schlecker-bissen, m. V. Schleckbissen. — gans, f. [nordische Schnegans] pelican, it. the frigate-pelican. — maul, n. [in common people's lang.] a lickerish mouth, [low] dainty chops; it. V. — 1). — wert, n. [in pop. lang.] dainties, lickerish food, tit-bits.

Schleckeret, f. [in pop. lang., mostly in contempt] 1) [das Schleckern] relishing, sensually enjoying, smacking; daintiness, lickerishness 2) dainties, tit-bits, the good things.

Schleckerhaft, adj. and adv. dainty, lickerish.

Schleckerhaftigkeit, f. daintiness.

Schlecken, v. intr. [in pop. lang.] to be dainty or nice in one's food, to eat dainties, to pamper one's self with choice bits, [in England] to eat always Quin's bits.

Schlepp, [Schlepp] n. [-es, pl. -e] [in seamen's lang.] a sledge, cradle or camel for drawing up ships on shore [in Holland.]

Schleß, n. [-es, pl. -e] [allied to schlagen] 1) the wreck, fragments of a wreck, [old] wrack. 2) [in rural economy] the loft of a barn.

Schlägel, m. V. Schlägel.

Schleß, adj. and adv. V. Herb.

Schlehe, f. [pl. -n] 1) [provincially schlehe = herb] a sloe, [provincial] snag. 2) [See Kreuzdorn] hippophae, sea-buckthorn.

Schlehdorn, m. V. —dorn. —blüte, f. the blossom of the black-thorn. —blütwasser, n. distilled water from sloe-blossoms. —busch, —dorn, m. the black-thorn, the sloe-tree, the wild plum-tree, [provincial] snag-tree. —dornflechte, f. the lichen of the black thorn. —roth, adj. and adv. [with vintners] sour, rough, sharp, sloe-rough [of grapes]. —wein, m. sloe-wine, [in England] mock-port, English port. —weiß, adj. and adv. white as the sloe-blossom, snow-white, very white.

Schlehen=blüte, f. V. Schlehlüte. —busch, m. V. Schlehdorn. —flechte, f. V. Schlehdornflechte. —muß, n. a conserve, preserve, inspissated juice of sloes, sloe-rob. —saft, m. sloe-juice. Gefottener —saft, boiled or inspissated juice of sloes. —strauch, m. V. Schlehdorn. —traube, f. a sour grape. —wein, m. V. Schlehdorn.

Schlehen, I. v. intr. 1) [herbe seyn] to be sour, sharp, tart, rough. 2) to have one's teeth on edge. II. v. tr. Die Zähne — [sumpf machen], to set the teeth on edge.

Schleichen, [Sw. slika, slinka, Lettonian slenka; appears to be the same as schlagen = to move] irr. I. v. intr. 1) [sich sachte bewegen] to move gently, to glide, to creep, to slide, to flow. Der Bach, der durch die Wiese schleicht, the streamlet that flows, glides through the meadow; Thränen schlichen ihr die Wangen herab, tears stole down her cheeks; das Blut schleicht träge in seinen Adern, the blood flows, creeps sluggishly in his veins; wie eine Kaze, wie ein Wolf —, to walk, creep, slink like a cat, like a wolf; der Fuchs schleicht nach dem Hühnerstall, the fox steals, crawls, glides by stealth to the poultry-house; der Fase schlich längs der Hecke hin, the hare crawled away along the hedge; ganz sachte —, to creep, to glide &c. quite gently; sie schlichen längs des Waldes hin, they glided, moved noiselessly, [the German being chiefly used in a bad sense] they sneaked along [the edge of] the wood or forest; wohin —, to glide, to move on tip-toe towards any spot; er schlich beschämt davon, he slunk away in shame or ashamed; sie schlich leise in das Zimmer, she glided, slid, stole noiselessly into the room; geschlichen kommen [fam.], to come crawling, like a cat, to come unawares, [in a bad sense] to sneak up; er geht nicht, er schleicht nur, he does not walk, he only creeps, crawls. Fig. a) [relative to that which is gradual in its effect or operation] Ein Wunsch schleicht in unser Herz, a wish steals into our hearts; ein —des Gift, eine —de Krankheit, a creeping, lurking, insidious, slow poison, a creeping, slow or insidious disease. b) [relative to that which is secret] Die Bosheit, die im Finstern schleicht, the wickedness that creeps, steals about in darkness; ein Biedermann schleicht nicht, a gentleman never shuffles, never resorts to rampant wiles. V. Be—, Er—. 2) [kriechen] to creep, to crawl, to be rampant. [in Scripture] Was auf Erden schleicht, that which creeps upon the earth. II. v. tr. [unusual] to slide glide, steal. Er schlich seine Hand in die ihrige, he slid his hand into hers; verbotene Waaren in die Stadt —, to pass, introduce by stealth forbidden goods into the city; er schlich ihm einen Dukaten in die Hand, he slid a ducat into his hand. III. v. refl. sich —, to glide, to introduce one's self &c. furtively, to insinuate one's self by stealth. Sich in das Haus —, to steal, to glide, to slink into the house; die Truppen schlichen sich längs dem Gegenwalde hin, the troops glided along the counter-scarp; die Räuber schlichen sich durch das Gebüsch, the robbers crept through the bush, the thicket; sich sachte davon —, to sneak off or away, to slink off, to back out, to vanish; sich heimlich herein—, to enter or creep in on tip-toe, to glide in by stealth, secretly. Fig. Es haben sich mehrere Fehler in diese Ausgabe eingeschlichen, several faults, errors, errata have crept into this edition.

Schleich=brief, m. [in some parts of Germany, in law] deed validifying the exchange of two things, a letter of permutation. —druck, —drucker, m. V. [the more usual words] Nachdruck &c. —fieber, n. a slow fever. —gang, m. 1) a slow walk, a lounging gait. 2) a secret gallery, way, passage, corridor. 3) Fig. [—weg] secret way, by-way, by-path. Ich liebe solche —gänge nicht, I don't like such secret ways. V. —weg. —gift, n. slow poison, imperceptible poison. —gut, n. smuggled, contraband goods or property. —handel, m. smuggling, contraband trade. —handel treiben, to carry on smuggling. —händler, m., —händlerinn, f. a smuggler, a dealer in contraband. —miene, f. hypocritical, feigned, demure countenance. —treppe, f. secret stairs or stair-case; [in fortification] steps of the counterscarp. —tritt, m. stealthy, gliding, sliding step. —waare, f. smuggled or contraband goods. Mit —waaren handeln, to deal in smuggled goods. —weg, m. 1) secret way or path, by-way, path interdicted as a thoroughfare. 2) Fig. indirect, secret way or means. Seine Absichten auf —wegen erreichen, to accomplish or attain one's views, aims and ends by indirect means. 3) way or path serving as an ambushade. 4) [in sportsmen's lang.] shift [of a stag], double, doubling [of a fox &c.].

Schleicher, m. [-s, pl. -], —inn, f. a creeper, a crawler, one who walks by stealth, glides furtively or on tip-toe, who creeps along. Fig. a person who employs artifice, stratagem, shifts, evasions, a wheedler, a coxer, a plausible person.

Schleicheret, f. 1) [in a bad sense] action of creeping, gliding, sneaking. 2) [little used] secret outlet, by-path, bye-way, covert walk. 3) Fig. shift, evasion, pretext, turn-off, dissimulation, secret way or means. Wozu diese —en? why these shifts, what's the good of these evasive tricks, these shufflings?

Schleie, Schleihe, f. [pl. -n] [allied to schleichen] 1) [in nat. hist.] [Schlammfisch, slippery as an eel] the tench. 2) [die Bläse, Bleibfische] a species of bleak, the ballerus.

Schleien or Schleihen=ale, m. a kind of mullet.

Schleier, m. [-s, pl. -] [appears to be derived from schlagen, legen = to cover] 1) [generally a cover] [in botany] Der — der jungen Schwämme, the curtain, veil of the young mushrooms; [with poets] der — der Nacht, the veil, mantle, curtain of night. Fig. Unter dem — der Frömmigkeit verbirgt sie ihre Bosheit, she hides her baseness, malice under the veil, cloak of piety, garb of sanctity; man muß ihm den — abreißen, womit er sich bedeckt, the veil, the mask with which he conceals, secretes himself must be snatched from him, he must be unmasked, exposed. 2) [worn over the face] a veil. Dichter, dünner —, a thick, thin veil. 3) [Schleiertuch] [stuff for veils &c.] lawn, gauze, crape, blonde, veil-lace, net, leno.

Schleier=seule, f. common or barn-owl. —flor, m. lawn. —kappe, f. a head-kerchief [worn by female peasants]. Sie trägt —kappen, she wears head-kerchiefs. —lehen, n. V. Kunkellehen. —leinwand, f. netting or lawn for veils. —los, adj. and adv. without a veil. Fig. Die —lose Wahrheit, the plain, naked, simple, unadorned, undisguised truth. —mantel, m. a mantle or cloak made of a veil, [also] of lawn, gauze, crape &c. —meise, f. the long-tailed titmouse, parus laudatus. —natter, f. [in America] ribbon-snake, the hisser. —taube, f. nun-pigeon. —trägerinn, f. she who wears the veil, a veil; [in a more confined sense] nun. —tuch, n. 1) V. Schleier 2). 2) gauze, lawn. —wanze, f. a species of bug.

Schleierig, adj. and adv. [unusual] provided with a veil, it. veiled, covered or screened with a veil.

Schleiern, v. tr. 1) [gene ally = decken, to cover] [with miners] Den Kolm o' Kolben —, to stop or bung up the pipes of hydraulic machines with wadding &c. 2) [not much used] to veil, to cover with a veil. Die Braut —, to veil the bride, to put her on a veil, to cover her with a veil.

1. Schleife, f. [pl. -n] [pronounce Schlatfel, dim. Schleifchen, n. 1) a thing that drags or trails; [in sportsmen's lang.] [Geschiepp] track [made with carrion or flesh as a lure]. Die — eines Kleides [Schleife], the train of a dress. 2) [Schlinge] knot, bow. Eine — von Band [Band=Schleife], a ribbon-bow; doppelte, laufende —, a double tie or bow, a slip-knot; eine — binden or machen, auflösen, to tie or do, to undo a knot, to tie or untie a bow, to make, to undo a tie; Etwas in eine — binden, to fasten any thing with a knot, to secure any thing with a tie or bow; — von Rundschnur [statt eines Knopfloches], a loop of cord, bobbin or twist [instead of a button-hole]; — an einem Hüte, loop to a hat; — [with fowlers = Schlinge], snare, noose, springe; — n in der Feinwand, loop in linen [for hanging to the pegs in bleaching]; — an einer hölzernen Kanne, the handle of a wooden can. 3) a sledge. Ballen, Fässer &c. auf einer — fortführen, to transport bales, casks &c. upon a sledge; die — [formerly, for conducting a criminal to the place of execution], hurdle; er ist auf einer — zur Gerichtsstätte geschleppt worden, he was dragged to the place of execution on a hurdle.

Schleifen-lufe, f. the bars of the sledge or sled. — Laffette, V. Schleiflaffette. — pferd, n. a sledge-horse.

2. Schleife, f. [pl. -n] [allied to the Low. Sax. slōpp = a wound] notch, mark upon boundary-stones.

3. Schleife, f. [pl. -n] [upon ice &c.] a slide. — n auf einem zugefrorenen See machen, to make or cut out slides upon a frozen lake.

1. Schleifen, [allied to schleppen, schlüpfen] [pronounce schlaifen] I. v. intr. [schleppen] to drag, to trail. Ihr Kleid, die Kette &c. schleift auf dem Boden, her dress, the chain &c. trails upon, sweeps the ground; die Kette schleift hinten am Wagen, the chain trails behind the carriage; der Schlitten schleift, the sledge glides on one side; sein Kleid — lassen, to let one's dress trail, sweep. II. v. tr. 1) fortziehen) to draw, to drag, to trail. Etwas auf der Erde —, to trail &c. any thing along the ground; Einen im Kothe herum —, to drag any one about in the dirt; Einen Missethäter zum Richtplatze — [formerly], to drag a malefactor to the place of execution; einen Balken —, to drag a beam; sie schleiften den Jason und etliche Brüder vor die Obersten der Stadt [in Scripture], they dragged Jason and some of his brethren before the magistrates of the city; Waaren —, to transport goods on a sledge. Fig. Einen Buchstaben —, to slur a letter; [in music] eine Note —, to play a note legato, to slur a note; zwei Noten —, to join or slur two notes; diese Noten sollten geschleift werden, these notes ought to be slurred; geschleifte Note, a slurred note; [with dancers] einen Schritt —, to glide a step, to make a coulée; machen Sie zwei Schritte und — Sie den dritten, make two steps and slide the third. 2) [einreißen] Eine Festung &c. —, to raze, to level to the ground a fortress &c.; [in seamen's lang.] ein Schiff —, to break up, to take to pieces a ship. 3) [schief auführen] Einen Schornstein —, to place obliquely, to slant a chimney. 4) [in eine Schleife vereinigen] Ein Band —, to tie a piece of riband &c. in a bow; eine Schnur —, to knot a string; einen Knoten —, to make a slip-knot. 5) [mit Schleifen fangen] Federwildpret —, to ensnare [feathered or winged] game. 6) [mit Schleifen zieren] Einen Hut —, to put a cockade, a bow of ribbons on or in a hat. Das —, die Schleifung einer Note, the slurring, joining, playing legato, it. gliding of a note; das —, die Schleifung wird durch Bindestriche angezeigt, the slur is marked by the legato sign; das — or die Schleifung einer Schornsteinröhre, the slanting of a chimney; — einer Festung, the razing, razing, demolition, leveling of a fortress.

Schleifbaum, m. [in artillery] a trailing-beam [fastened under the axle-tree near a broken wheel]. — göthe, m. V. —pathe. — hamen, m. [schleppnet] [with fishermen] a trammel, a drag-net, a draw-net. || — handel, m. [unusual] V. Schleichhandel.

— kanne, f. a wooden jug, pot or pitcher. — knoten, m. [to a bridle &c.] running or slip-knot. — lade, f. [with organ-builders] the sound-board. — Laffette, f. [in artillery] a sled-carriage, sledge-frame. — nadel, f. a hair-pin; it. V. Schnürnadel. — pathe, m. [with artisans] godfather or sponsor to a young workman upon giving a new-name or distinguishing nick-name. — rebe, f. scion, spout, sucker of a vine. — reis, n. a fagot acting as a drag or stop to a cart. — schritt, m. [with dancers] a slide, sliding or gliding step. — treppe, f. V. Schleichtrepp. — trog, m. [hemmschub] a sort of wooden trough or moveable gutter of wood for wagons, a drag, a clog. — weg, m. [unusual] V. Schleichweg. || — zehente, m. tithe where the tithe-owner can pick and choose his sheaf. — zügel, m. [a light bridle for young horses] snaffle, bridle, brake.

2. Schleifen, irr. v. tr. 1) to polish, to smooth, to make smooth. Dieser Stein schleift gut, this stone polishes, smooths well; Spiegelgläser —, to grind down, to polish looking-glasses, plate-glass; geschliffenes Glas, ground, cut, polished glass; Brillen —, to grind down, cut spectacle-glasses. Fig. Dieser junge Mensch muß erst noch geschliffen werden [in fam. lang.], this young man must still be polished, requires finishing, has still a little of the rough diamond about him; ein geschliffener Mann, a polished man; ein geschliffenes Wesen, Betragen, polished manners, behaviour. 2) to sharpen, to set, to whet. Ein Messer, eine Art &c. —, to sharpen a knife, an axe &c.; ein Schermesser scharf —, to set, to hone a razor; eine Tuschschere —, to set a pair of cloth-shears; etwas Spitziges dünn —, to sharpen thin any thing pointed; Spitzen an die Nadeln —, to point the needles; Etwas von Neuem —, to resharpen, to reset, to regrind any thing; einen Degen —, to restore the edge, to give an edge to a sword; ein scharf geschliffener Degen, a sharp ground or set sword; eine gut geschliffene Art &c., an axe &c. well ground; Messer von Neuem — lassen, to have knives new or fresh ground; die Spitze einer Schere auf einem Steine dünn —, to grind down thin the point of a pair of scissors upon a stone. Das —, die Schleifung, [of marble] polishing, [of a knife] grinding, setting, whetting. Fig. Den Verstand — [schärfen], to whet the intellect, to sharpen the understanding, to clear up one's wits. Syn. V. Schärfen.

Schleifbank, f. bench or board for whetting on. — haken, m. [with cutlers &c.] hook for hanging scissors or shears on. — mühle, f. mill for grinding, for polishing. — platte, f. [with spectacle-makers] grinding-plate. — rad, n. wheel of a grinding-mill, it. a grinder's or knife-grinder's wheel. — sand, m. [for glass-plates] scouring sand, polishing sand. — scheibe, f. [with lapidaries] [for grinding the diamond on] a steel-grinding-plate; [with spectacle-makers] mullar, muller. — späne, pl. steel-dust &c., grinder's dust or earth. — stein, m. a whet-stone, sharpening-stone, a grindstone, [for razors] a hone. — stock, m. [with cutlers] the wheel-frame or cage. — trog, m. [am —rade] trough. — zeug, n. 1) instruments requisite for polishing. 2) a knife-grinder's tools.

3. Schleifen, v. intr. [u. w. haben and seyn]

[with fishermen] to fish with the trammel or drag-net, to drag. Auf dem Eise — [gleiten], to slide on the ice; [with dancers] to glide, to make the sliding step or coulée; machen Sie zwei Schritte, und dann — Sie, make two steps and then slide the third &c.; it. [walzen] to waltz; [in music, dancing] V. Schleifer.

Schleifbahn, f. [upon the ice] a slide.

4. Schleifen, v. intr. [as wood-grouse] to cry, to crow.

Schleifenblume, f. V. Steintresse.

1. Schleifer, m. [-s, pl. -] 1) [on the ice] a slider; it. [with fishermen] the gut part of a fishing-line. 2) —, —inn, f. [Messer-] a grinder, knife-grinder; [with glaziers] polisher. 3) [with dancers] a slid or gliding step; it. [Walzer] a waltz. 4) [in nat. hist.] V. Wasserjungfer.

Schleiferlied, n. 1) song of the knife-grinder. 2) [the tune, air of] a waltz. — lohn, m. wages of the grinder, polisher &c.

2. Schleifer, m. [-s, pl. -] [in music] a legato or slurred passage, slurred or tied notes.

Schleifgerte, f. [with foresters] V. Fackergerte.

Schleiffel, m. [-s, pl. -] V. Schleifspäne.

Schleifung, f. V. Das Schleifen under 1 and 2. Schleifen.

Schleife, V. Schleie.

Schleim, m. [-es, pl. -e] [allied to seim and schlamm] [in the kitchen] [Gersten-, Reis- &c.] mucilaginous barley-water, rice-water, barley-gruel, V. Graupenz-, Haber-; [in botany] the mucilage, mucilaginous part [of plants]; [in anatomy] schwarzer —, the black membrane [of the fine vessels of the choroid]; der — im Körper, the mucus, mucosity in the body; [from the nose] pituita, matter; — im Magen, den Magen voll —, viel — auf der Brust haben, to have slimy, ropy matter or blenna in the stomach, the stomach full of mucus, much phlegm on the breast; der — [from the vulva], whites; mit Blut vermischter —, slime, slimy matter, mucus tinged with blood, phlegm mixed with blood, bloody or sanguineous phlegm; den — auflösen, zertheilen &c., to dissolve, break, relax, dissipate the phlegm, the mucous matter.

Schleim-aal, m. V. —wurm. — abführend, adj. and adv. phlegmagogue. Ein —abführendes Mittel, a phlegmagogue. — affe, m. ribbed-nose baboon, the smitten, the tre tre of Madagascar. — apfel, m. fruit of the three-leaved pear. — apfelbaum, m. [in the East-Indies] the three-leaved pear-tree. — artig, adj. and adv. like phlegm, like mucus, viscid like slime, like pituita. — bälglein, n. pituitary crypt. — behältniß, n. pituitous receptacle. — beutel, m. [in anatomy] mucous bag, one of the bursae mucosae. — blutig, adj. and adv. phlegmatic. Der —blütige, a phlegmatic person. — blütigkeit, f. phlegm. — barmgicht f. pituitous colic. — drüse, f. [in anatomy] 1) pituitous or mucous gland of the nose. 2) pituitary gland. — fieber, n. pituitous fever. — fisch, m. [Rostfisch] blenny, hake. Der lebendig gebärende —fisch, the viviparous blenny. — geswäch, n. V. —pfropf. — harz, n. resinous gum. — harzpflaster, n. diachylon. — haut, f. [in anatomy] 1) the pituitary membrane. 2) the arachnoid. — höhle, f. [in anatomy] 1) the mucous sinus of the sphenoidal bone. 2) the pituitary sinus. 3) the frontal sinus. 4) the maxillary sinus. — höhlen der Harnröhre und Mutterseide, excretory canals, mucous cavities of the urethra and vagina [with pores for orifices]. — kapsel, f. [in anatomy] capsular mucous bag [attached to one side of the sinew]. — lerche, f. ch. rarius hiaticula, ringed plover [it. the Spanish variety]. — natter, f. [in South-America and India] the slimy adder. — pflaster, n. V. — harzpflaster. — pfropf, m. [in medicine] a polypus [in the nose], [comic] a noli me tangere. — pfropf an den Fasern des Herzens, [a coagulable substance found in the cavities of the heart of those who are a long time in the death-struggle, improperly called] polypus of the heart. — ruthe, f. [in hydraulics] a rod or pole for cleaning pipes &c. — sack, m. 1) [in anatomy] synovial membrane, mucous bag. 2) Fig. [low] a person full of mucous matter, of phlegm, snot &c. — salz, n. [in chemistry] mucous or mucic salt. — sauer, adj. and adv. [with chemists] mucous. — saure Augensalze und Erden, mucites. — säure, f. [in chemistry] mucous or mucic acid. — scheide, f. [in anatomy] vaginal mucous bag. — schlange, f. a snake whose skin is slimy or viscous. — staar, m. [in medicine] glutinous amaurosis or gutta serena. — stein, m. 1) [kind of white slippery stones] marl. 2) [Krebsstein] crab's eye, crab's claw, crab's stone, chelae, lapides or oculi cancerorum. — stoff, m. [in chemistry] mucous substance. — thier, n. a slimy, viscous animal; [in natural hist.] mollusca. — wurm, m. [in fishes] white eel, myxina.

Schleimen, I. v. intr. [speaking of food] to cause or produce phlegm, mucus. II. v. tr. to remove viscosity, mucus, phlegm, blenna. Fische —, to scour, to purge fishes; den Zucker —, to purify, scum or skim sugar.

Schleimer, m. [-s, pl. -] 1) [not much used] one who removes viscosity, slime, mucus &c.; V. Ab schleimen. 2) [in botany] the elidadium of Surinam.

Schleimicht, adj. and adv. resembling mucus or the white of eggs, viscous, mucous, pituitous; [in botany] mucilaginous. — es Wesen, mucous substance; — er Mensch, a phlegmatic man.

Schleimig, adj. and adv. containing slime &c.; pituitous, viscid, viscous, ropy, slimy; [in botany] mucilaginous. — es Feuchtigkeits, — es Fleisch, pituitous humour, mucilaginous meat.

Schleimigkeit, f. sliminess; mucilaginousness.

Schleife, f. [pl. -n] 1) [Späne] chip, splint, splinter. 2) lint. 3) beard, fringe, down [of a feather or quill feather]. 4) a large sort of vermicelli.

Schleißbaum, m. [Kienbaum] pinaster, wild pine; [in Scotland] the Scots or Scotch pine. — feder, f. [for feather-beds] a feather for stripping. — fohre, f. V. — baum. — holz, n. 1) wood fit for splitting, scissile wood, cleaveable or wedgeable wood. 2) V. Kienholz. — lorbeere, f. common spurge-laurel, ever-green daphne. — stein, m. a stone of easy fracture; it. V. Schiefer. — zwiebel, f. winter-onion.

Schleissenliefer, f. V. Schleißbaum. — schneider, m. 1) one who makes splinters.

2) a knife for splitting or slitting. — stamm, m. any pine or fir fit for being reduced to splinters. — stock, m. the stick or holder of fir-torches.

Schleissen, [Old Sax. silitan, allied to schlitzen] irr. and reg. I. v. intr. [spalten, reissen] to split [as wood, as a stone does]. Die Kleider — [= nugen sich ab], clothes wear out, give way. II. v. tr. 1) to cut, to split, to slit. Weiden —, to split osiers &c.; holz —, to split wood [with the grain]; Federn —, to strip quill-feathers [for feather-beds]; Steine —, to split, to fracture stones. 2) to stop up with splinters. Die Bretter eines Bodens —, to stop up the flaws or cracks in the boards of a flooring.

Schleisser, m. [-s, pl. -], — inn, f. V. Feder —.

Schleissig, adj. and adv. 1) covered with the plumes, beards or down of quill-feathers. Ein —er Rock, a coat covered with the plumes &c. 2) [abgetragen] worn out, threadbare, shabby. Ein —es Kleid, a worn out or old dress.

1. Schlemmen, [from Schlamm] 1) to wash. Asche, Sand &c. —, to wash ashes, sand &c.; [with miners] Erz —, to wash ore [in the buddle &c.]. 2) to clean or cleanse from mud, from mire. Einen Teich, Graben —, to cleanse a pond, a ditch; eine Wand — [with masons], to give the first coat of whitewashing to a wall. Das —, the cleansing or cleaning, it. the washing [in the buddle].

Schlemmfaß, n. [in potash-works] the vat containing the lixiviating ashes. — graben, m. [with miners] a miry ditch or hole. — pinsel, m. [with masons] a cleaning-brush used before the first coat of whitewash. — werk, n. V. Schlammwerk.

2. Schlemmen, [appears allied to schlingen, and to the Lat. lambo] v. intr. to guzzle and gult, to gormandize, to stuff and soak one's self. Das —, gormandizing and tippling, living in sensual debauchery. Syn. Schlemmen, Prassen, Schweigen. Schlemmen simply implies to eat or drink immoderately or intemperately without following any other impulse save that of blind appetite; should however too great an enjoyment or too sensual an indulgence, so apt to cause surfeit, accompany or stimulate the cravings of hunger or thirst, it is then schweigen (to over-indulge, to revel), and where sumptuousness or display ministers to the gratification of one's appetites, it is prassen (to banquet, to feast). Schweigen is also used figuratively, for instance, lovers and friends after a long separation schweigen (revel, riot, swim) for a time in the delight of meeting again. He, who enjoys intensely the pleasure of perusing an agreeable book, is sometimes said to schweigen (to feast) on it.

1. Schlemmer, m. [-s, pl. -], — inn, f. [V. Schlamm 2)] 1) [with miners, smiths] a washer. 2) the cleanser [of a pond &c.].

2. Schlemmer, m. [-s, pl. -], [seldom] — inn, f. [Schweiger, Schweigerinn] a guzzler and gormandizer, a sot.

Schlemmerei, f. debauch, gormandizing, sousing, guzzling. In — versunken seyn, to be sunk in depraved appetites, in debauch, to be a devotee to one's stomach, one's animal desires.

|| Schlempe, f. [pl. -n] V. Schleife. Schlempeholz, n. [in seamen's lang.] bolster of a hawse-hole. — holz des Kiels, forefoot of the keel; — holz der Hinter- und Vorste

ben, knee of the stern-post, standard of the stem. — floß, m. V. Kieflöß.

Schlender, m. [-s, pl. -] 1) [in fam. lang.] [of a person] V. — gang. 2) [now, mostly comic for Schleppkleid] a trailing-dress, a dress with a train.

Schlendergang, m. 1) a sauntering, lounging gait. Fig. [in a bad sense = Schlendrian] knack, song, way, tune, hamdrum-way. Das ist der alte —gang, that is the old tune, old song, old way; er geht den —gang, he is going the old course; das ist der gemeine —gang, that is the usual hamdrum-way; der juristische —gang, the routine in courts of law. 2) [Spaziergang] a walk, a lounge, a promenade. — jan, m. 1) a lounge, a saunterer, an idler, a stroller, [in London] a Bond-street dandy, a pavement-exquisite. 2) V. — gang, fig.

Schlendern, [allied to schlenkern] v. intr. [in fam. lang.] to lounge, to stroll, to saunter. Ein wenig im Garten —, to take a turn or so, to stroll a little in the garden; müßig herum —, to saunter or idle about; sie sind allgemach voraus geschlendert, they have just sauntered, strolled on ahead.

Schlendrian, m. [-s] V. Schlenderjan.

Schlénge, f. [pl. -n] [in hydraulics] work or fence of fascines, work made with fascines.

Schlénge, m. [-s, pl. -] 1) string with a loop. 2) rim round the mouth of a well; [in architecture] thick plank or madrier under the foundation-wall; [in hydraulics] the boom [of a harbour].

Schlénge, v. tr. to furnish [a dike &c.] with fascines.

Schlénker, m. [-s, pl. -] 1) V. Schlender. 2) [in hydraulics] thin planks. 3) V. Schleuder.

Schlénkerwein, n. [in fam. or pop. lang.] 1) leg that one swings or dandles with. 2) he who swings or shakes his legs while walking, [fam.] a man with fungus-legs, a dangler. — beinig, adj. and adv. shakyllegged. — hede, f. the shortest combings of hemp [for tow].

Schlénkern, [appears allied to schlänke, schlagen, legen] I. v. intr. to hang, to dangle; [in seamen's lang.] to roll, to wallow [as a ship]. Die Füße, Arme — lassen, to let one's feet, arms dangle. II. 1) v. tr. and intr. [in fam. or pop. lang.] to shake, to swing. Die Füße, die Arme —, mit den Füßen, mit den Armen —, to swing one's legs, arms. 2) v. tr. [in common people's lang., for schleudern] to shake off, to throw or fling off. Paulus schlenkerte die Otter ins Feuer [in Scripture], Paul shook off the beast [viper] into the fire. Das —, the swinging, dandling, dangleing &c.

Schlénkerer, m. [-s, pl. -] 1) one who swings or dangles, a shaker, a dandler, a dangler. 2) [unusual] a shaker off.

|| Schlénzen, v. intr. [in common people's lang.] to idle, to loiter about and do nothing. Das —, idling, killing time.

|| Schlénzer, m. [-s, pl. -] [in common people's lang.] an idler, a do-nothing.

Schlepp, m. [-es, pl. -e] V. Schleppe 1).

Schleppe, f. [pl. -n], dim. Schleppchen, n. [-s, pl. -] 1) the train [of a dress]. Ein Kleid mit einer —, a dress with a train; die — tragen, to carry the train. 2) [in sportsmen's lang.] die —n [das Geischleppe], the track [of carrion used as a lure]. 3) [with miners] the two rolling-pins or rollers of the sledge. 4) [with paper-manufacturers] the felt-board.

Schleppen=natter, f. [in Asia] the train-snake, chayc. —träger, m. —träsgerinn, f. a train-bearer. —träger des Papstes, eines Kardinals, caudatary or train-bearer to the pope, to a cardinal.

Schleppen, [in Boh. sslepowati means to draw; appears to be allied to the Lat. levare, to the Germ. lupfen] I. v. intr. to drag, to trail, to skirt or fringe the ground, to sweep the earth. Das Kleid &c. schleppt, the dress &c. trails; das Kleid —lassen, to let one's dress trail. [fam.] draggle; [in seamen's lang.] der Anker schleppt, the anchor drives, drags, the anchor comes home, is come home, the vessel drifts. Fig. —de Schreibart, a drawing, creeping, languid, heavy style, it. [sometimes] a diffuse, intricate style. II. v. tr. to drag &c. Etwas auf dem Boden —, to drag or trail any thing along the ground; die Pferde können den Wagen kaum —, the horses can scarcely draw, drag the carriage on; er konnte die Last keine zehn Schritte weit —, he could not drag. [low] lug the burthen along ten steps; ein Schiff — or im Tauge — [bugfizen], to tow a vessel, to take a vessel in tow; den Anker — [vor Anker treiben], to drag the anchor, to drive or drift at anchor; eine feindliche Flagge hinter sich her —, to drag the colours or ensign of an enemy after the ship through the water, as a sign of victory; das Bein — [in walking], to trail or drag one's leg; einen Strick, eine Kette &c. hinter sich her —, to draw a string, drag a chain &c. after one; einen Menschen ins Gefängniß —, to drag, [low] to lug a person to gaol. Fig. [in familiar or popular language] Eine große Menge Bediente mit sich —, to have a great number of footmen at one's heels, in one's train, one's suite, [low] to lug about a score of footmen after one; Jemand überall mit sich —, to take or carry somebody every where about with one. III. v. refl. [in fam. lang.] Sich mit Etwas —, to drag one's self or shuffle about with any thing heavy. Fig. Sich mit Jemand —, to have any one upon one's hands, a dead weight upon one, live lumber about one; er schleppt sich mit allen möglichen Ueberflüssigkeiten, he takes all sorts of unnecessary or lumbering things, articles, traps about or along with him; er schleppt sich mit dieser Krankheit, he has had this disease hanging about him, pulling him down a long-while; ich schleppe mich schon lange mit diesem Gedanken, I have been worrying myself, vexing myself [for] a long time with this thought; man schleppt sich mit einer Neuigkeit [rather quaint or unusual], a piece of news is being bruited or hawked about, going the rounds. Das —, training, dragging, drawing &c.

Schlepp=bauch, m. 1) a hanging belly, a pot-belly, a belly like a sack. 2) a pot-bellied person or animal. —boot, n. [in seamen's lang.] a boat towed by a ship, that rides at the stern, a tow-boat. —dampf=boot, n. a steam-boat used for towing larger [sailing-] vessels, a drag. —gewand, n. a trailing or sweeping dress, a dress or robe with a train, a train-dress. —haken, m. 1) [with miners] a hook on the drawing or hauling chain. 2) [with shipwrights] a dog or a cant-hook. —harke, f. V. Hungerharke. —karren, m. a tumbrel, a dung-cart. —kasten, m. [with miners] the sledge, skip. —kette, f.

[with miners] chain for dragging burthens or weights. —klammer, f. V. —baken. —kleid, n. 1) a trailing or sweeping dress. 2) dress with a train. —kübel, m. [with miners] a bucket used in the shaft or pit of a mine. —mantel, m. a trailing or sweeping mantle or cloak, it. a mantle with a train. —netz, n. [with fishermen] a trammel, a drag-net, a draw-net, a hauling-net; [in seamen's lang.] a fishing drag-net, a sea-drag-net, a seine. —riegel, m. [with locksmiths] the great bolt [a motor of the rest]. —sack, m. 1) [with fishermen] a purse-shaped drag-net. 2) Fig. [low and rather unusual] a draggle-tail, a trapesing trollop, a dirty slu, it. a low street-walker. —schiene, f. [with miners] the wooden friction-band screwed on to the shaft-poles of a gin, of a mole-engine or hydraulic machine. —seil, n. cord for drawing or dragging, towing-rope; [in artillery] the lashing [to a gun]; [in seamen's lang.] a hawser, a tow-rope; [in fishermen's lang.] the hauling-string. —strang, m. [with miners] ropes for dragging or hauling burthens. —tau, n. [in artillery] the gun-lashing, lasso; [in seamen's lang.] tow-rope, the warping, towing or hauling rope; it. the cable for towing astern; ein Schiff auf's or in's —tau nehmen, to take a ship in tow [if disabled]; das —tau [with whale-fishermen], the cable for hoisting or slinging the fish on board. —tauring, m. [in artillery] ring or screw-ring [in front of a gun-carriage]. —träsger, m. V. Schleppenträger. —trog, m. [with miners] sledge. —wagen, m. [in artillery, Hauptwaggon] a truck [for cannon]. —werk, n. [with miners] a gin or mole-machine of one lift.

Schlepper, m. [-s, pl. -], —inn, f. 1) one who draws, drags, trails; [in seamen's lang.] V. Schlepptau. 2) V. Hungerharke.

Schlepperei, f. [in a bad sense] Das ist eine unaufhörliche — mit ihm, that fellow is an incessant dead-weight, live-lumber, a regular drag-chain, a perpetual damper, a bore there is no getting rid of, no shaking off.

Schlesien, n. [-s, pl. -] [in geography] Silesia. Die beiden — [das österreichische und das preussische], both parts of Silesia. Austrian and Prussian Silesia.

Schlesier, m. [-s, pl. -], —inn, f. a Silesian.

Schlesisch, adj. and adv. of Silesia, Silesian.

Schleswig, n. [-s] [in geography] Sleswick [the Danish province and town].

Schleuder, f. [pl. -n] 1) a sling; [with the ancients] the balista. Die —schwingen, umbrehen, to swing, whirl round the sling; einen Stein mit der —werfen, to cast, throw a stone with the sling. 2) [something dangling or hanging] —an der Sense [Riesmen &c.], the thong or strap of a scythe.

Schleuder=affe, m. gibbon, gibbo, long-armed ape, simia lar. —ball, m. ball for a sling. —leder, n. the leather of the sling, the strap [with one or two slits]. —schlange, f. [in Ceylon] the dart-snake. —schwanz, m. [in nat. hist.] [kind of lizards or sauri] whip-tail of Peru, the stellion of Chili. —stein, m. stone for a sling, fit for slinging [as a pebble]. —wurf, m. cast or throw of the sling.

Schleuderer, m. [-s, pl. -] 1) slinger. Fig. [in French history, more usual ein Frondeur, one of der Fronde] Frondeur Die —, the Fronde. 2) V. Schleuderschlange. 3)

Fig. [in fam. lang., in commerce] a merchant or tradesman who sells under market-standard, under trade-price, [called by his fellow-tradesmen] a sneak, an interloper, a trade-poiler, an underhand-dealer, an underseller.

Schleudererbund, m. [in French hist.] [more usual, die Fronde] the Fronde.

Schleudern, I. v. intr. 1) [provincial for Schläudern] V. Schlendern. 2) Fig. [in fam. lang.] to work in a hurry, to boggle, to daub over, to get over any how, to botch, to huddle through, to dabble out. In der Arbeit —, to gallop through one's work or business. it. to spoil trade by selling under the fair price. Dieser Kaufmann schleudert, this tradesman undersells, is an underseller. II. v. tr. to hurl, [especially] to sling. Steine &c. —, to sling, hurl, cast, throw stones &c.; er schleuderte ihm einen Krug an den Kopf, he hurled shied a pitcher at his head; Getzstücke auf den Feind —, to hurl, to launch, to heave fragments of rock against the foe; [with poets] Gott schleuderte den Blitz, den Donner, God launched, winged the lightning, the thunder.

Schleuen, v. tr. Die Därme — [with butchers] [auswühlen], to clean the bowels or tripe.

Schleunig, [from the old verb schleuen = fortrücken, and allied to schleudern] adj. and adv. quick, prompt, sudden, [fam.] double-quick. Hier ist —e Hilfe nöthig, here prompt aid is necessary; —ausbrechen, to set out, to start in haste, in a hurry, with speed; eine —e Antwort, a prompt reply. [by note &c.] a speedy answer; eine —e Abreise, a hastv, a sudden, a precipitate departure: der Feind kam uns so —auf den Hals, daß &c., the enemy fell upon us so suddenly, so unawares, took us so by surprise, that &c.

Schleunigen, [unusual] V. Be —.

Schleunigkeit, f. haste, speed, quickness, suddenness, hurry.

Schleuper, m. [-s, pl. -] [in seamen's lang.] a brad.

Schleuse, f. [pl. -n] [from schließen] 1) drain. Die —n in einer Stadt, the [subterraneous] drains in a town, the sewers, [low] shores. 2) [with organ builders] [Gießbrücke] the bottomless chest or mould for the lead and grain-tin intended for the round pipes. 3) sluice, lock. Eine —bauen, to construct or build a sluice; die —n öffnen, verschließen, ablassen, to open, shut, let off or discharge the sluices, the locks; —mit geradlinigen Thoren, a sluice with square flood-gates; eine —voll Wasser, a sluice or lock with its chamber filled, a sluice-full, a lock-full; der zweite Ausguß der —, the second outlet or flood-gate of a sluice; dieser Kanal kann nur vermittelt der —n befahren werden, this canal is only navigable by means of locks, V. Schrauben-, Vorraths—. Schleusenbau, m. 1) construction, it. structure of a sluice, of a lock. 2) —bau, m. or —kunst, f. the science or art of constructing sluices or locks. —boden, m. the bottom or foundation of a sluice [formed by grate-work]. —einsag, —fall, m. 1) the sluice-fall. 2) the sluice-chamber, the lock-chamber. —flügel, m. one of a pair of flood-gates, the wing of a sluice-gate, of a dam-gate. —geld, n. V. —zoll. —gerinne, n. V. Gerinne 2). —geschworene, m. sworn inspector of the sluices or locks. —grundboden, m. the floor or bottom of a sluice. —hammer, f. the chamber of a sluice or lock, [fam.] the lock, the locks. —mauer, f. the sluice-wall. —meister, m. the sluice-keeper, lock-keeper. —pforten, f. V. —thor. —räumer, m. a cleanser of sluices or locks. —rost, m. the grate-work of the sluice-bottom. —schütze, f. the sluice or lock-shutter, flood gate, hatch; a weir-gate. —thor, n. the sluice or lock-gate, the flood-gate. Das obere —thor [with workmen &c.], the sluice-gate; das untere —thor, the flood-gate. —thür, f. V. —thor. —vorboden, m. the bottom or floor of the sluice [on which the grating lies]. —wand, f. wall of the sluice, side or bank of the lock. —wasser, n. water held in the chamber of the sluice or lock. —zoll, m. toll, right of toll upon vessels passing the sluice or lock, ship-toll, sluice dues.

Schley, m. [-es, pl. -e] [a fish] V. Schleie.

Schleier, V. Schleier.

1. Schlich, m. [-es, pl. -e] [in pop. lang.] 1) [schleichender Schritt] slow step; it. stealthy, creeping step. In den —kommen, to put the best leg foremost [if in haste], [if not] to be jogging, to be on the move, to put one leg before the other. 2) [schleichweg] a secret way, a bye-way or path. Alle —e eines Ortes kennen, to know all the holes and corners of a place; alle —e in einem Hause kennen, to know the latitude and longitude of, all the ways about a house. Fig. way, going on, manoeuvres, old trick, intrigue. Ich kenne seine —e, I know his tricks, his goings on, [fam.] I am up to him; ich bin hinter seine —e gekommen, habe seine —e entdeckt, I have ferreted out his schemes, got a good scent of his tricks; die rechen —e wissen, to know where or how the land lies, to know a trick or two, to be up to snuff, to know how to set to work. 3) [Schlendrian] Im alten —e bleiben, to keep to one's old way or ways, to stick to the beaten track, to keep on one's old course.

2. Schlich, m. [-es, pl. -e] [= Schliff] pounded and washed ore, slich, slick.

Schlichfaß, n. barrel, tub for the slich. —kasten, m. chest for the slich. —kübel, m. bucket, small tub for the slich [to weigh it in].

Schlicht, adj. and adv. [ungefälscht, natürlich] genuine, natural, inartificial, simple. —es Haar, hair worn straight or flat [as nature intended], [in a bad sense] sleek hair; —er Anzug, plain, unpretending dress; —er Mann, plain, straight-forward, honest man; der —e Menschenverstand, common sense, [fam.] common, plain nous.

1. Schlichte, f. [pl. -n] V. [the usual word] Schlichtheit.

2. Schlichte, f. [pl. -n] [= Schliff i. e. thick pap] [with weavers] paste, glue, [with letter foundry on the continent] cinder-paste.

Schlichtebürste, f. paste-brush, glue-brush. —faß, n. a glue-pot, a little tub for paste.

1. Schlichten, [allied to schlagen, te. gen] v. tr. 1) to make smooth and even, to smooth, to plane, to planish, to render sleek, to sleek. Das Krumme —, to straighten what was crooked; das Zimmerholz —, to join wood-work; Bretter mit dem Schlichthobel —, to smooth planks with the rabbet-plane; [with glass makers] das Glas —, to grind down, to polish the glass; [with tanners] die Felle —, to hone the hides or skins; [with locksmiths] die Arbeit —, to polish the work with the pottance file; [with wire-drawers] to pass the silver-ingots through the drawing-plates [including the rolling and slitting-mill]. 2) to arrange, to put in order. Das Holz —, to arrange or pile the wood; Mauersteine auf einander —, to lay building-stones one upon another; die Haare —, to smooth [down] the hair, [in a bad sense] to sleek or stroke down one's hair; [with charcoal-burners] einen Meiler —, to pile the wood for charring. 3) Fig. to settle, to arrange [amicably]. Verwickelte Angelegenheiten or [obsolescent] Hindel —, to arrange, set to rights, make straight again entangled or embarrassed affairs; einen Streit or Haber —, to make up a quarrel; der Streit ist geschlichtet, the quarrel is amicably settled, peaceably arranged. Das —, V. Schlichtung.

Schlichtart, f. —beit, n. [with carpenter's] chipping-adze. —bier, n. [with masons] beer given to the workmen after plastering a wall &c. —butt, m. [in natural hist.] a flounder. —eisen, n. 1) [Glatt-eisen] [with tanners] scraping-iron, scraper. 2) [in different arts] V. Glatt-eisen, Glatt-eisen. —ente, f. V. Sägeschnäbler. —seile, f. [with locksmiths &c.] a pottance-file. —haarrig, adj. and adv. wearing the hair flat, [in a bad sense] sleek-haired. —hammer, m. [with tinner] flattening-hammer, hammer for planishing. —hobel, m. [with joiners &c.] [Glatt-hobel] a rabbet-plane. — Klinge, f. [with tawers] a dressing-knife —meißel, m. [with turners] the smoothing-chisel [with a double-bevelled edge]. —mond, m. [with tanners] quoit-shaped scraper, hone. —pinsel, m. [with painters] brush for softening and mellowing the tints. —rahmen, m. [with tanners] stretching-frame. —schwein, n. [Küchenschwein] a sty-pig, domestic pig [when sleek]. —stahl, m. [with turners] iron for polishing or planishing, the broad chisel. —stein, m. V. — Klinge, it. —mond. —zange, f. [with tanners] pinchers or callipers for stretching the hides.

2. Schlichten, [from 2. Schlichte] v. tr. to glue, to paste, to size. [with weavers] Den Aufzug —, to glue the warp; [with letter-foundry] den Kernsehm auf der Kernstange —, to kern the type on the dressing-stick.

1. Schlichter, m. [-s, pl. -], —inn, f. 1) arranger, uniter, joiner. Fig. mediator, reconciler. —eines Streites, the mediator of a quarrel, the peace-maker. 2) [with miners and in rural oeconomy] the wood-piler.

2. Schlichter, m. [-s, pl. -], —inn, f. the person who glues or sizes the warp.

Schlichtheit, f. simplicity; plain, upright manners, behaviour. Die — dieses Mannes, the single-mindedness, integrity, uprightness of this man.

Schlichthin, adv. 1) in an unaffected, plain manner, simply. 2) [more usual schlichthin] absolutely, positively.

Schlichtig, adj. and adv. smooth, plane; regular; it. sleek; it. [in dike-making] even, level.

Schlichtigkeit, f. unity, equality.

Schlichtung, f. straightening, making straight, levelling, planing, planishing, polishing. —der Häute, honing of the skins. Fig. —eines Streites, amicable arrangement, friendly termination, happy settlement, making up of a quarrel.

Schlick, m. [-es, pl. -e] [appears to be derived from schlagen, te. gen] 1) [fetter Schlamm] mud, slime, coze, mire. 2) the dirty water of the grindstone after grinding, slush. 3) [on spinning-wheels] grease, smeary stuff.

Schlickbalken, m. [in hydraulics] traverse, groundsel, sleeper. —boden, m. a muddy, boggy, slimy soil. —deich, m. a gripe, dike or ditch of a miry soil or ground. —fall, m. first layer of mud-deposit in a pond. —fänger, m. [in hydraulics] secondary dike for arresting the mud, for forming banks or accretions of mud or river soil. —grund, m. muddy, miry ground or bottom. —harke, f. [in hydraulics] a mud-harrow or drag [for cleaning the beds of rivers &c.] —krappe, f. dim. —kräpfchen, n. [with cooks] a sort of mince-pie. —land, n. alluvial land or country, marshy land or country. —pflug, m. [in hydraulics] a plough for disengaging alluvial deposit in a river &c., a muck-plough. —rolle, f. [in conchology] Midas' ear. —ufer, n. [in hydraulics] a bank or shore formed by the mud. —watte, f. a shallow, flat or shoal of mud, a mud-flat. —weide, f. V. Pfirsichweide. —zaun, m. V. —fänger.

Schlicken, v. intr. [an onomatopoeia of a fluid striking against a solid] to wash, to splash or splash against, to touch in flowing, to bathe, to slush.

Schlickengans, f. [pl. -gänse] [wilde Gans] wild goose.

Schlickenthaler, m. [-s, pl. -] [formerly, such as the counts of Schlick in Bohemia had coined] a Schlick-dollar.

Schlickerei, f. V. Räscheri.

Schlickerig, adj. and adv. muddy, miry, slimy, marshy, boggy, fenny.

1) Schlickern, v. intr. [u. w. seyn] [of milk, gerinnen] to curdle. Geschlickerte Milch, V. Schlickermilch.

2) Schlickern, v. intr. [allied to lecken] [as a dog] to lap; it. [schlucken] to swallow with a noise, to suck or soop down, to gurgle down.

Schlickerbahn, f. a sliding-path, a slide. —loft, f. —zeug, n. V. Räscheri. —milch, f. curdled milk.

Schlies, m. [-es, pl. -e] [allied to schütten] [with bakers] a dough-kernel in bread. Dieses Brod hat —, this bread has a great many doughy places in it, is heavy.

Schliesfäßer, m. V. Mehlfäßer.

Schliesen, [allied to schlüpfen] irr. v. intr. to slide, to flow, to run. Durch ein Loch, in ein Loch —, to creep through a hole, into a hole; die Dachsbunde — in die Dachslöcher, the terriers crawl, creep, slip into the earths of the badgers; in die Kleider —, to slip into one's clothes, to dress.

Schlieser, m. [-s, pl. -] 1) [in sportsmen's lang.] a terrier, V. Dachshund. 2) V. 1. Muff.

Schliesig, adj. and adv. doughy, pasty. —es Brod, doughy, pasty, clammy bread, heavy bread. V. Schlies; —e Kartoffeln, watery, squasy, unmealy potatoes; dieser Teig wird ein —es Brod geben, this dough will turn to, make, yield heavy bread; den Mund &c. —machen, to make the mouth &c. doughy, sticky, pasty, clammy.

Schlier, m. [-es, pl. -e] 1) [old] V. Schleier. 2) V. Lehm, Mergel. 3) [provincial] V. Gule. 4) [old] a boil, a carbuncle.

Schlieren, v. tr. 1) [mit Mergel &c. überziehen] to give a top-dressing of marl, of rich loam. 2) [provincial] Sich — [= sich verschlingen], to entangle or ensnare one's self, to hamper one's self [in a spring or snare].

Schließ, m. [-es, pl. -e] [in salters] a rough sketch, a rude draught of the expenses of a work, of the outlay.

Schließbar, adj. and adv. [from Schließen fen] 1) able to be shut, capable of being locked or fastened. 2) deducible, what one can conclude or follow, regard as conclusive.

Schliesse, f. [pl. -n] [from Schließen] [Vorstecken] peg, bolt; it. forelock of a bolt; [in hydraulics] the shutter or hatch of a sluice or lock; [with bookbinders] a book-clasp; —n, irons, fetters, [slang] darbies, bilboes [for criminals].

Schließen, [Lat. claudo, claus-i (clusi), in Swed. sluta, in Engl. to close, Gr. κλείω, fut. κλείσω; Ice. las means a lock. It might therefore be allied to lassen and legen = to move to or towards a place away] ir. I. v. intr. 1) [generally, to lie close to any thing] Dieses Kleid schließt gut, this dress sits, fits well; diese Thür schließt gut, this door shuts well, closes [to] well; diese Fenster — nicht gut, these windows don't shut well, close or join tight; machen Sie, daß diese Thür besser schliesse, make this door shut or close to better; der Deckel schließt gut, the cover or lid shuts well, fits on tight or close; [in the manege] ein Reiter, der gut schließt, a horseman or rider with a good seat, [fam.] who sits as close as wax; geschlossen reiten, to sit firm, fast. [in riding]; to ride as well as a post-boy or a fox-hunter, as if one and the same animal, as if a part of one's horse; it. [in the army] geschlossen reiten, im Reiten aneinander —, to ride in serried ranks [so as to graze each others legs]; rechts, links — [as soldiers], to close or fill up to the right, to the left. 2) [to pass into the lock and move the bolt] to lock. Dieser Schlüssel schließt nicht, this key does not fit; dies Schloß ist verdorben, es schließt nicht, this lock is spoiled, it won't move, turn, lock; dies Schloß schließt zwei Mal über, this lock double-locks, locks, turns double, twice. 3) Fig. a) [enden] to end, to close. Hier schließt der Brief, die Geschichte, here closes the letter, the story. b) to follow, to ensue. Das schließt nicht, that does not follow, that is by no means a natural result or consequence, a reason why, is not conclusive to the matter, argument &c. II. v. tr. 1) [legen or festlegen] Die Hände in einander —, to close, to fold, to join, to clasp one's hands; Jemand in seine Arme, an sein Herz —, to clasp [fam., but low] to hug any one to or in one's arms, to one's heart. Fig. Einen in sein Herz —, to carry away engraved on or in one's heart the image of any one, to hold any one dear in remembrance, to keep any one enshrined in one's heart or bosom. 2) [ausfüllen] to fill out. Ein geschlossenes Pferd, a horse whose flanks are firmly knitted and well filled out, a well barrelled horse 3) [zumachen] to close up, to shut. Einen Bogen, ein Gewölbe —, to close up an arch, a vault [from the imposts to the key], to secure an arch &c. when built up by inserting the key-stone; einen Winkel —, to close an angle, i. e. to unite the legs or ends of an angle by a baseline; [in mathematics] to subtend an angle by the base or chord; die Hand, den Mund, die Augen —, to close one's hand, one's mouth, one's eyes, it. the mouth, the eyes [of another]; geschlossene Blütendecke [in botany], closed perianth [of the flower]; die ganze Nacht kein Auge —, not to close an eye, one's eyes the whole night; wenn einst der Tod sein Auge schließt, when once death closes, seals up his eyes; das Fenster, die Fensterladen —, to shut, close, put to the window, the window-shutters; man schloß die Thore der Stadt, they shut, closed, barred to the city-gates; die Stadthore werden um 9 Uhr geschlossen, the town-gates are shut, closed at 9; ein geschlossener Garten, eine geschlossene Stadt, an enclosed or walled in garden, city; um 10 Uhr wird das Haus geschlossen, the house closes, is closed, shuts up, the doors of the house are locked at 10, wieder, von Neuem —, to shut again, to reclose, to relock; einen Verbrecher in Ketten und Banden —, [fam.] einen Verbrecher —, to put or lay a criminal in irons, to fether or handcuff a criminal; V. Krumm —, [in the army] die Rotten or Reihen —, to close, serry the files; die Glieder —, to close, serry the ranks; der Feind rückte in geschlossenen Reihen und Gliedern vor, the enemy advanced in close, dense, serried ranks, V. under I. — der Offizier or Unteroffizier, the commissioned or non-commissioned officer who is the bringer-up of a file; eine geschlossene Jagd, a chase or preserve surrounded with toils; ein geschlossenes Land, an enclosed country, it. a country defended [by nature &c.] on all sides; fig. [in feudal times] a closed parish or glebe or country where prevailed the custom or right of mortuary or corse-present. Fig. a) [einschränken] to restrain, to confine, to limit. Die geschlossene Zeit [die Adventszeit &c.], Lent or any other time or day when certain indulgences or acts are prohibited as, fast-time; eine geschlossene Jagd, a preserve, private game-cover or shooting-manor; geschlossenes Handwerk, a trade or business with a limited number of masters, a trade &c. where competition or opposition is crushed by laws favouring monopoly; geschlossene Wiese, an enclosed meadow [where right of common does not exist]; geschlossene Gesellschaft, private, select, exclusive society or club, a coterie, a private meeting [where only members are admitted]; es sind zwei geschlossene Gesellschaften in diesem Wirthshause, Garten &c., there are two clubs in this inn, garden &c.; it. geschlossene Gesellschaft [comic or ironical], the forced inmates of a bride well, of a bagnio. b) [zu Stande bringen] to effect, to bring about, to cause. Einen Vergleich, Kauf, Vertrag, Handel &c. —, to conclude an arrangement or accommodation, to make a contract, effect a purchase, close a bargain &c.; ein Bündniß —, to enter into, to form, to contract an alliance; Frieden —, to conclude a peace, to enter into terms of peace; einen Heirathsvertrag — [abschließen], to make or sign a marriage-settlement; eine Heirath —, to contract a, to enter into marriage, to form a marriage; proverb. die Ehen werden im Himmel geschlossen, marriages are made, formed, brought about in Heaven, marriage-treaties are registered above; eine Periode, eine Klammer —, to close a period, a parenthesis; eine Sache —, to close, to adjust, bring to a conclusion, to settle an affair; die Predigt, das Gebet, die Vorlesung &c. —, to finish the sermon, prayer, lecture or dictation &c.; hier schliesse ich meinen Brief, here I close, finish my letter, come to an end of my letter; eine Rechnung, einen Ueberschlag —, to close an account, a calculation or computation, an estimate; eine Versammlung, den Reichstag —, to close a meeting, the diet; die Reihe — [in military affairs], to bring up the file; ein geschlossenes Ganzes, an independent, absolute whole, an abstract totality, a concentrated and united whole; sein Leben —, to close, to terminate one's life. c) [surtheilen] to conclude, to infer, to imply, to judge, to reason. Von Einem auf's Andere —, to judge of the one by the other; — Sie von sich auf Andere, judge of others by yourself, [fam.] measure others by your own bushel; — Sie nicht von Andern auf mich, don't judge of me by others; aus seiner Unruhe schliesse ich, daß &c., by his agitation, I infer, I conclude, I naturally determine, I presume, I imply, that &c.; falsch, richtig —, to deduce, reason, deduct falsely, rightly, to make false, right conclusions or deductions; aus einem einzigen Fall kann man nicht —, it is impossible to determine, to decide by or from one solitary case; was wollen Sie daraus —? what do you conclude, what will you infer from that? — [in logic], to infer, to make an inference [by virtue of one proposition]; was nicht ist, kann nicht denken; ich denke, folglich, schliesse ich, bin ich, that which is [exists] not, can not think; I think, ergo, [I infer] I am [exist]. III. v. refl. sich —, to close, to shut. Die Pforten schlossen sich, the gates closed; sich — [in the army], to close, to serry the ranks, the files; die Soldaten schlossen sich, the soldiers closed ranks; diese Blumen — sich des Nachts, these flowers close, fold up, sleep, nestle at night; der Kohl, der Salat fängt an, sich zu —, the cabbage, lettuce is getting a heart; die Wunde schließt sich, the wound is closing, healing. Fig. Der Bund schloß sich, the confederation, the league was formed, cemented; der Bund ihrer Herzen, Seelen schloß sich, their hearts formed their union, their souls, their hearts united, met in sympathy; das Jahr schließt sich, the year is coming or come to a close; traurig schloß sich sein Leben, his life closed sorrowfully; [fam.] es schließt sich [man kann —], it follows, it is a natural consequence, hence; was schließt sich daraus or hieraus? what is the natural result, consequence, conclusion, inference from this? schließt es sich wohl, wenn man &c.? can it be said, presumed, inferred, if &c.? Das —, V. Schließung.

Schließanker, m. [for securing threatening walls] a brace, a wall-clamp, an S. — baum, m. bar, barrier, turnpike-gate, [slang] pike. — baum eines Hafens, the stoccade of a harbour. — blech, n. [with plumbers] rundle. — bolzen, m. a forelock-bolt, a bolt with an eye for a pin or plug; [with coopers] a cask plug, a plug-tap. — eisen, n. [with locksmiths, = hakenblatt] the clasp [with catch for a lock]. — feder, f. 1) a master-quill, a pinion. 2) V. Schleifeder. 3) [with locksmiths] spring-bolt, a spring that secures; [with watchmakers] the balance-plate or cap, the cock. — gat, n. V. Schloßgat. — geld, n. 1) gaoler's fees, prison-fees, carcelage. 2) V. Thorgeld. — gevierte, n. [with printers] [—quadranten] the M quadrate. Das kleine — gevierte, the N quadrate. — hahn, m. [for casks] cock, spigot, broach or tap with a key. — haken, m. [with locksmiths] the catch or eye of a clasp. — haken an einem Koffer, staple an iron flap or loop of a trunk; die — haken an einem Buche, the clasps of a book. — holz, n. [in architecture] under-rafter [of a dome or of a dome-roof], V. Schloßhaken. — kappe, f. [with locksmiths] the staple. Mit gespalttenen Haken in die Mauer eingelassene — kappe, staple or bolt-staple let into the wall. — keil, m. [with turners] wedge, coin, wrench. — keilchen, n. little wedge for securing the handle of a hammer. — Letzte, f. a fastening-chain, V. Everletzte. — Flammer, f. [with carpenters] iron-dog, hold-fast, pelican. — Flöben, m. V. — haken. — Knief, n. [in ship-building] cheek of the head. — Kohl, m. V. — fraut. — Korb, m. a basket that shuts or fastens, a flap-basket, a reticule-basket. — krout, n. a drum-head cabbage, a white-heart cabbage. — Lattich, m. V. — salat. — mäuslein, n. V. — musfel. — meisel, m. [with sword-cutlers, Guet-meisel] a scarifying chisel. — muskel, m. [in anatomy] a sphincter muscle, constrictor. — muskel des Augenlides, constrictor muscle of the eye-lid; — muskel der Lippen, the orbicular or sphincter-muscle of the lips; die muskeln des Schlundes, der Mutter-scheide, the constrictors or sphincters of the pharynx, of the vagina. — nagel, m. Der nagel eines Thores, bolt-nail of a gate; der nagel an einer Kutsche, the pole-bolt of a carriage or coach; der nagel an einer Buchdruckerform the shooting-stick, the bar. — paß, m. [with basket-makers &c.] a tool for facilitating the slitting of the splints &c., splitter. — quadrätchen, n. [with printers] the M quadrat. — riegel, m. [with locksmiths] bolt, dead bolt. — säge, f. [with joiners] a fine saw, tenon-saw. — salat, m. [Rossalat] lettuce with a heart or head.

Schließer, m. [-s, pl. -], — inn, f. the gaoler, bridewell-keeper, prison-keeper, [Schließerinn] the wife of the gaoler; it. turnkey; it. [Wörtner] porter, door-keeper; it. V. Be —, Wer —.

Schließeramt, n. office of a gaoler, turnkey, it. of a gate-keeper, turnpike-gate keeper.

Schließerei, f. 1) [das Schließen] [in fam. or pop. lang., in a bad sense] shutting, closing [in an awkward &c. manner]. 2) V. Gefängniß.

Schließlich, adj. and adv. [= zum Be-schluss] — bemerke ich noch, daß &c., finally, in conclusion I remark [once more], that &c.; — entscheiden, to decide definitively, conclusively; — e Erklärung, final declaration; — es Urtheil, final, definitive, decisive judgment.

Schließung, f. [das Schließen] action of closing, of shutting. Bei or mit — der Thore, at the closing or shutting of the gates; bei — der Predigt, der Vorlesung, at the end or close of the sermon, of the lecture or dictation; die — eines Vertrages, the concluding, passing, closing of a contract or treaty; die — eines Handels, the conclusion, winding up of a bargain; — einer Ehe, celebration, consummation of a marriage.

Schliff, m. [-es, pl. -e] [from schleifen] 1) [das Schleifen] sharpening, setting, grinding, honing. Einen — thun, to sharpen, to set, to whet, to grind. 2) edge, polish. Das Messer, das Glas hat einen guten —, this knife has a good edge, this glass has a good polish &c. Fig. [in fam. lang.] [outward] polish. Er hat viel —, his outward man is very polished, he is of very polished manners. 3) V. Schleifspäne.

Schliffel, m. [-s, pl. -] [from schleifen, as the Lat. lucus a non lucendo] [in common people's lang., for grober Mensch] an ill-mannered or clownish booby, country booby, vulgar fellow, bumpkin, raw rustic.

Schlümm, [originally = schleif, allied to the Lat. timus] adj. and adv. 1) [generally opposed to the views, the object, the mark or goal in view] wrong, bad. Die Sachen stehen —, affairs are taking a wrong turn or bias, are in a bad train or way, are going on wrong, are bad; es steht — mit ihm, he is badly, poorly off, his affairs are going wrong, it. he is bad, poorly, ill, his health is bad, he is in a bad way, he is in a dangerous state, his state is very precarious; das ist eine — Sache, ein — er Handel, Umstand, that is a bad business, embarrassing or bothering affair, a difficult or critical situation, an awkward circumstance; das ist so — nicht, that's not so bad, [fam.] that's not so bad either or after all, that's not so much out of the way; desto — er, so much the worse; was noch — er ist, what is worse still, what makes the matter worse, the worst of it is that &c.; der, die, das — ste, the worst; Alles von der — en Seite betrachten, immer auf das — ste urtheilen, to consider every thing on its worst side, to look at every thing in its worst aspect or point of view, always to judge by the worst [specimen &c.], to regard or judge every thing by its defective parts, by its blemishes; Etwas — deuten, to interpret any thing wrongly, in a wrong sense, to put a wrong or harsh construction upon any thing; — bei Etwas wegkommen, to get out of a scrape in an awkward manner, to come off from an affair or out of a business badly, with a bad grace, to make a lame business of it; — e Gewohnheit, bad custom or habit; — er Weg, — es Wetter, bad way, weather; — e Nachricht, Kunde, bad news, sad intelligence, unwelcome tidings; — e Zeiten, bad, hard, disastrous times; wenn's zum Schlimmsten kommt, im — sten Falle, at the worst, if the worst comes to the worst, if it comes to extremities. 2) [unwohl] unwell, ill, bad, indisposed. Mir wird —, es wird mir —, I feel [myself] ill, bad, sick. Fig. Es ist mir — zu Muthe, I am not at my ease, I am out of sorts, in great pain, trouble of mind, anxiety. 3) [in fam. and pop. lang.] hostile, inimical, evilly inclined. Sie ist keine von den — sten, she is none of the worst, not worse than her neighbours, she is as good as people go now-a-days; ein — er Kopf, a wrong-headed, a wilful-headed person, it. a sly rogue, crafty old fox; er ist so — nicht, als Sie glauben, he is not so bad as you think; sie ist — genug, mir diesen Streich zu spielen, she is bad enough, sufficiently malignant or spiteful to play me this trick, she is fully capable of playing me this trick; ein — er Herr [in common people's lang., for scharfer, strenger Herr], a hard, harsh, strict, severe, bad master, prince &c.

Schlümmen, I. v. intr. to become bad, to deteriorate. II. v. tr. to render bad or wicked, to vitiate, to impair.

Schlümmern, [rather unusual] I. v. intr. to get or grow worse. Der Kranke schlümmert, the patient gets worse. II. v. tr. [schlimmer machen] to make or render worse.

Schlinge, f. [pl. -n] 1) snare, springe, noose, net, toils. Eine — von Pferdehaar, a snare, noose or springe of horse-hair; eine —, — n legen, to lay a snare, to lay or set snares, springes; der Vogel hat sich aus der — losgemacht, the bird has got loose from the snare, has disentangled itself; Rebhühner mit der — fangen, to take partridges with the springe; einen Hasen in der — fangen, to catch or take a hare in the noose; den Hasen &c. — n legen, to lay or set slip-knots, nooses for hares, [in poacher's lang.] to wire hares &c.; ein Pferd mit der — zu Boden werfen, to trip up or throw down a horse with a noose, with the lasso; den Arm in einer — or Binde tragen, to wear or carry [about] one's arm in a sling; — n [in ship-building], the trestle-trees; — n [in botany], tendrils. Fig. Einem eine — legen, to lay a snare, trap for any one; den — n einer Buhlerin entgehen, entkommen, to escape, to baffle, to elude the snares of an artful harlot; in die — gerathen, fallen, to fall into the snare, the meshes; den Kopf aus der — ziehen, to hack out of a scrape, to make one's retreat in time, [in England] to get one's head out of chancery, to save one's bacon. 2) V. Schlingbaum. 3) [Hundswinde] periploca, dog's bane, apocynum, swallow-wort, virginian silk, asclepias.

Schlingel, m. [-s, pl. -] [perhaps allied to schlenken, schlendern] [insulting appellation, in common people's lang.] rascal, black-guard. Ein fauler, lieberlicher —, ein grober —, a lazy, low, coarse blackguard, a sluggish hound, vile dog, ill-mannered or clownish booby.

Schlingelei, f. [in common people's lang.] rusticity, vulgarity, coarseness, black-guardism; it. [less frequently, for] sloth, slothfulness, sluggishness, hebetude.

Schlingelhaft, adj. and adv. [in common people's lang.] clownish, rustic, coarse, vulgar. — es Betragen, rustic, clownish, loutish manners, manners of a blackguard, vile dog.

Schlingelhaftigkeit, V. Schlingelei.

Schlingeln, v. intr. [herum —] [in common people's lang.] to saunter, stroll, lounge, loiter about, to kick one's heels up and down, to wear out shoe-leather, to ramble up and down the streets, to kill time.

Schlingen, [in Sw. slinga, in Low. Sax. stengen means flechten; allied to legen, schlagen] irr. I. v. tr. Die Arme in einander —, to cross or fold one's arms; Baumzweige in einander —, to interlace the twigs or branches of trees, to plash; geschlungener Bierath, geschlungener Zug, ineinander geschlungene Schriftzüge, knot, twine, true-knot, lover's knot; [with sculptors] ein geschlungener Bierath, wodurch Etwas getragen wird, a fret-work of support; geschlungener Namenszug, a cypher; einen Lorbeerzweig um Jemandes Scheitel — [in higher style], to weave or wreath a laurel-branch round the brows or crown of any one, to crown any one with a wreath of laurel; Länze — [chiefly in a higher style], to weave dances; it. —, V. Durch —, 2. Ein —, II. v. tr. and intr. [verschlucken] to swallow, to gulp down, to bolt, to gorge, [in a hurry] to gobble Alles in seinen Bauch — wollen, to wish to swallow every thing into one's maw, to long to devour every thing; nicht — können, to be unable to swallow, to be incapable of swallowing; der Abgrund schlang sie in sich, the abyss engulfed them, swallowed them up, drew them in and absorbed them, V. 1. Ein —, Wer —. III. v. refl. sich —. Diese Pflanzen — sich auf dem Boden hin, these plants creep, trail along the ground; der Epheu schlingt sich um die Bäume, [the] ivy entwines itself, clings, twines, round [the] trees; diese Weinreben haben sich or sind um die Ulmen geschlungen, these vines have twined round, have embraced the elms, are entwined round, are married to the elms; die Schlange schlang sich um seinen Körper &c., the snake curled, twined coiled, twisted, wreathed itself, folded spirally, lapped, laced or lashed itself round his body &c.; der Bach schlingt sich durch das Thal, the brook meanders, winds through the valley. Das —, entwining, intertwining. Syn. Schlingaen, Schlucken, Verschlingen, Verschlucken. Schlucken means simply to swallow and if with an effort, to gulp; schlingen to swallow greedily, to devour, in popular language, to bolt, to gobble; verschlucken is to swallow down, to gulp down, verschlingen to gorge (as the pike does its prey).

Schlingbaum, m. 1) [—beerbaum, Weibbeerbaum, Schlinge &c.] viburnum, white bryony, way-faring tree. 2) V. Sumach. —faden, m. interlaced thread; [in botany] V. Schlinge. —kraut, n. —pflanze, f. climbing plant. —rabe, m. [Seerabe] the cormorant. —wurm, m. V. Erdgrille.

Schlinger, m. [-s, pl. -] [from schlingaen] [not much used] 1) one who winds &c., a winder 2) one who swallows, a swallower.

Schlingerer, m. [-s, pl. -] [from schlingern] [in seamen's lang.] a rolling, wallowing vessel.

Schlingern, [allied to schlenkern] v. intr. [in seamen's lang. = schwanzen] to roll, to wallow. Das Schiff schlingert, the ship rolls, [from loss of masts &c.] wallows [in the trough of the sea]. Das —, the rolling, wallowing.

Schlingerpardune, f. [in seamen's lang.] a preventer back-stay. —schlagbug, m. a bungling, lubberly, bad tack. —stag, m. the second preventer-stay.

Schlinschlant, [allied to Schlingel and to schlenkern] m. [-es, pl. -e] [rather low] a beastly fellow, a hog, a dirty beast, a nasty pig, a filthy wretch.

Schlinschlanken, v. intr. [rather low] to tramp the streets

Schlipp, m. [-es, pl. -e] [from schleppen] the lap.

Schlippe, f. [pl. -n] 1) [from schlippen] narrow interval between two houses. 2) V. Schlupf. 3) [provincial] the lap.

Schlappen, v. intr. [schlappen] 1) [in seamen's lang.] Das Ankertau — lassen, to let the cable veer out. 2) [in walking] to trail or drag one's foot.

Schlappenwurz, f. [Matterwurz] histort.

Schlappermilch, f. V. Schlickermilch.

Schlappwurz, f. V. Schlappenwurz.

Schlitten, m. [-s, pl. -], dim. Schlittchen, || Schlittlein, n. [-s, pl. -] [allied to gleiten, in Old Sax. (flidan) 1) a sledge, a sled, [low] a sley or [American] sleigh. V. Rennschlitten. —schellen. —fahren, to drive, ride or go in a sledge, [fam.] to sledge it; zu — an einen Ort fahren, to drive to a place in a sledge; man fuhr uns —, wir wurden — geführt, we were driven in a sledge; ein —, Schneegebirge herunter zu fahren, a sledge or sled for sliding down snow-mountains. it. a boy's sled or sliding barrow. 2) [that on which any thing slides or glides along] a) [in launching a ship] a cradle. b) [in saw-mills] chariot, carriage, sledge. c) [in ship-building] skeeds of a ship's side. d) — der Ruderpinne, the sweep of the tiller. e) [with ropemakers = Träger des Hoofes] the four-wheeled frame.

Schlittenbahn, f. the sledge-way, sledge-road, it. sledge-track. Es wird bald —bahn werden, we shall soon have a road for sledge-driving, enough snow will soon have fallen to enable the sledges to come out; es gab keine —bahn, there was not snow enough for going in a sledge. —balken, m. [in ship-building] a ship's ways while or for launching. —baum, m. the tree, shaft of the sledge —baum einer Sägemühle, V. Straßbaum. —beichsel, f. the pole of the sledge. —fahren, n. sledge-driving. —fahrer, m. the sledge-driver. —fahrt, f. sledge-drive. Eine —fahrt veranstalten, to make up a sledge-party. —führer, m. [on inclined planes of snow] the sledge-conductor. —geläute, n. V. Schellenläute. —haken, m. [in saw-mills &c.] the see-saw or pinion of a cog-wheel. —hals, m. the neck of the sledge. —holz, n. 1) wood fit for sledge-makers 2) V. —baum. —kasten, m. chest of the sledge [drawn by reindeer]. —kufe, f. V. —baum. —pferd, n. sledge-horse. —rad, n. [in saw-mills] a rochet or cog-wheel. —reise, f. sledge-journey or expedition. —schelle, f. a sledge-bell. —ständler, m. [with shipwrights] blocking up of a ship's cradle. —welle, f. [in saw-mills] the axle-tree or arbor of the cog-wheel. —wetter, n. weather favourable for sledge-driving. —zeug, n. sledge-furniture, it. harness for the sledge-horse.

Schlitten, I. v. intr. to go. drive or ride in a sledge. II. v. tr. [with foresters] Holz —, to conduct or transport wood on sledges.

Schlittschuh, m. a skate. Auf —schuhen laufen [in fam. or pop. lang. —schuh fahren or laufen] to skate. —schuheisen, n. the keel of a skate. —schuhfahrer or —schuhläufer, m. skater. Er ist ein guter —schuhläufer, sie ist eine gute —schuhläuferin, he, she skates well, is a good skater.

|| Schlittern, v. intr. to slide.

Schlitterbahn, f. a slide.

Schliß, m. [-es, pl. -e] [generally a rent, a split, V. Schleißen, Schlißen] notch, gash. Einem einen — in das Ohr, in den Bauch machen, to make a slit in any one's ear, a gash or rip in any one's belly; — in der Nase, a slit in the nose; — im Gesichte, a slash, a cut in the face; — einer Feder, eines Hemdes &c., slit of a pen, of a shirt &c.; — an Hosen, a slit in a pair of trowsers, [also] the flap, [very low] cod-piece; ein — [in female garments], slit; Wamme, Beinkleider &c. mit —en, slashed doublet, hose &c.; it. der — [in anatomy], the aortic hiatus; [for the gullet] the opening of the oesophagus, the stomo-gastric; it. der — [in architecture], a glyptic ornament, the glyph; — [with miners] [Geschiß], notch.

Schlißauge, n. 1) an eye with too little opening or separation of the eye-lids, a mogul-eye. 2) a person with such eyes, a mogul. —äugig, adj. and adv. with eyes incapable of being opened wide. —bruch, m. [with surgeons] V. Spaltbruch. —eisen, n. a card or blade of metal for separating or splitting the warp-threads. —fenster, n. a lofty and narrow window. —graben, m. a small irrigating canal or furrow; [in fortification] [in the middle of the main moat] trench, drain, gutter. —mantel, m. a mantle without sleeves but arm-holes. —messer, n. [with surgeons] [Lanzette] a lancet.

Schlißen, [= schleifen, to slice] I. v. tr. to slit, to slice, to split, to cleave, to slash, to gash. Einem den Bauch —, to rip up, to gash any one's belly; einem Pferde die Ohren, die Nase —, to slit a horse's ears, nose; schön geschlitzte Augen haben, to have eyes with eyelids of proper aperture; eine Feder —, to slit a pen or quill; die Wange mit einem Säbelhiebe —, to lay open the cheek with a sabre-cut. II. v. intr. to split, to burst asunder, to gape, [as woolen stuff &c.] to tear, to slit, to split, to give way.

Schlißig, adj. and adv. having slits, fissures, flaws, rents, gashes.

Schlödderig, Schlödbern, V. Schlotterig. Schlottern.

Schlödbern, [from schlottern?] Die Arbeit — [with locksmiths], to solder or let in the work tight by means of clay-plaster or mortar.

Schlofen, v. tr. [with cloth-manufacturers] to twist the wool slightly.

Schloßweiß, corrupted from schloßweiß, which see.

Schloop, f. [-, pl. -e] [in seamen's lang.] V. Schlupe.

Schlope, f. [pl. -n] [in hydraulics] leak of a dike.

Schloß, n. [-es, pl. Schlösser] dim. Schlößchen, || Schlößlein, n. [-s, pl. -] 1) [every thing that may be shut, fasten'd or lock'd] a) — eines Feuergewehrs, the lock of a fire-arm, gun, musket, pistol &c. b) — eines Buches, the clasp of a book. c) — an einem Halsbände, Arm-bande &c., the snap of a necklace, bracelet &c. d) [in seamen's lang.] a clove-hitch [of a strip of canvass on a sail]. e) [on doors &c.] lock. —, das zwei Mal schließt, a lock with a double turn, that locks double, that double-locks, that can be full-locked; — mit einer Feder, a spring-lock, a tumbler; französisches —, a French lock, a rim-lock; deutsches —, German lock; V. Hänge-, Riegel-, Vorlege-; — mit einem erhabenen Rasten, welches auswendig an die Thür geschlagen wird, blindes —, a lock with a cap or box on the outside; V. Fall-; der Rasten eines —es, the box of a stock-lock or spring-lock; ein — an eine Thür anschlagen, to fix or put on a lock to a door; das — ist verdreht, the lock is overshot, strained. Fig. Etwas mit — und Riegel verwahren, unter — und Riegel halten [in fam. lang.], to guard or keep any thing under lock and key; Einem ein — vor den Mund legen [in fam. lang.], to clap a padlock on any one's mouth, to stop any one's mouth. f) [in sportsmen's lang.] —, V. —tritt. 2) [the place where any thing is locked] Das — an den Reifen [with coopers], the notch in the hoops; [in anatomy] — or —bein [one of the three ossa innominata], the os pubis; das — an der Nase der Pferde, the partition wall of a horse's nose, the tip; it. das — an Kunstgestängen [in hydraulics], the kerf of two rods in a hydraulic machine; it. — an zweifachen Muscheln [in conchology], the hinge of the bivalves. 3) [an enclosed or a secured place, it. a magnificent dwelling] castle; it. mansion; it. chateau, manor-house; it. palace. Ein festes —, a castle, a citadel; das königliche, fürstliche, gräfliche —, the royal palace or [if turreted and battlemented] castle, the palace or castle of a reigning prince or prince of royal blood, the castle of a count or [in England] earl, [also manor-house]; das [königliche] — zu London, zu Windsor, the royal palace [St. James' or, at present, the Buckingham or New Palace] in London.

like a sack; der Kopf schlottert ihm, his head keeps shaking, is palsied; — [of eggs], to rattle, to be addled, V. Schlotterei. 2) [u. w. haben and sein] to totter, to walk with an uncertain step, to vacillate. 3) [u. w. haben] Fig. to work slovenly, to bungle, to botch.

Schlöcher, m. [-s, pl. -] [in common people's or in nursery lang., Kinderdutte] an infant's sucking-bag, sugar-titty, titty-bottle.

Schlöße, V. Schloßweiß and Schloßweiß.

Schlucht, f. [pl. -en] [allied to Schlau, Schlund, Loch] 1) [Kluft] a hollow, a cavity, a hollow way; it. a hole or hollow made by falling, dripping or running water; gutter or rut in a road. 2) [Engras] defile, narrow, gorge, cleft, mountain or rocky pass, strait. 3) [in botany] — [Geschoß an] einer Nelke, the shoot, offset, stalk of a pink.

Schluchzen, [allied to schlucken, schlucken] v. intr. 1) to sob. 2) to utter or speak sobbingly, to sob forth or out. 3) [= den Schuchzer haben] to have the hiccough, to hiccup.

Schluchzen, n. [-s] 1) sobs, sobbing, [in common people's lang. also Schuchzer] sob. 2) V. Schuchzer.

Schluchzer, m. [-s] the hiccough, hiccup or hiccup. Den — haben, to have [got] the hiccough.

Schluck, m. [-es, pl. -e], dim. Schluckchen, || Schlucklein, n. [-s, pl. -] 1) [das Schlucken] draught, [old] stoup, [low] swig, drain, pull, gulp. Beim ersten — merkte ich &c., at the first draught I remarked &c.; in einem — e, at one draught, pull, breath; es ist bei ihm nur ein Druck und ein — [in pop. lang.], he bolts his food, [fam.] whatever he puts in his mouth goes down the red-lane like a shot, that man eats like a boar-constrictor. 2) Ein — Wasser, Fleischbrühe &c., a draught, [low] a drink of water, a gulp or swallow of broth &c. Ein Schluckchen Brantwein, a dram, a taste, a sip, a thimble-full, a sup, a whet of brandy; einen guten — nehmen, thun, to take a good pull or swig, not to spoil one's draught. 3) [low] V. Rehle. 4) [provincial] V. Schornstein.

Schluckente, f. long-billed mallard. — fieber, n. [fatal typhus] fever attended with hiccough. — hals, m. V. Schlucker. — weise, adv. in or by draughts, gulps, stoups, it. by or in drams.

Schlucken, [allied to the Lat. lurco]. I. v. intr. V. Schluchzen. II. v. tr. [ver-] to swallow. Die Erde schluckt das Wasser in sich, the earth or soil imbibes, absorbs, drinks or sucks up the water; er kann nichts mehr —, he is no longer able to swallow any thing, he has lost the power of swallowing; Pillen, einen Bissen —, to swallow pills, a bit; er kann gut — [in pop. lang., for viel essen], he can swallow with a vengeance, he has a capacious throat of his own, he has got the throat of a cormorant; Etwas in sich —, to swallow any thing, to imbibe, to absorb, it. to engulf, it. fig. [of a provoked or insulted person] to gulp any thing down in silence, as: er hat seinen Kummer, Born in sich geschluckt, he has choked down his anger, his wrath, kept it silently back. Das —, deglutition. Ein Fehler im —, a defect in deglutition; das beschwerliche — [in medicine], difficulty in swallowing, dysphagy. Syn. V. Schlingen.

Schlucken, m. [-s] V. Schluchzen, n. 2).

Schlucker, m. [-s, pl. -] 1) a swallower Fig. Ein armer —, a poor devil or wretch, a sorry fellow, a poor half-starved tatterdemalion, [also] a poor toad-eater. 2) [in nat. hist.] a) V. Schlingrabe. b) V. Tauchergans. c) V. Biegenmelter.

Schluckerei, f. [in a bad sense] gormandizing, cramming, gorging, gluttony, gutting, [old] lurching.

Schluder, m. [-s, no pl.] V. Schlamm.

Schluderhaft, adj. and adv. V. Schwachhaftig.

Schludrig or Schluderig, Schludern, V. Schlotterig, Schlottern.

1. Schlüß, m. [-es, pl. -e] [from schlupfen, schleifen] [in sportsmen's lang.] a narrow passage or ambushed path taken by animals, [for hares] a meuse.

2. Schlüß, m. [-es, pl. -e] [allied to Schließ] [with potters] sandy, poor clay.

Schlüß, adj. and adv. V. Schlotterig.

Schlüssel, m. [-s, pl. -] 1) the great garden-mouse. 2) V. Schliffel.

Schlüft, f. [pl. -en] 1) cleft, ravine, V. Schlucht 2). 2) [with brickmakers] arch of a brick-kiln.

Schluffloch, n. [with brickmakers] hole in the arch of a brick-kiln.

Schlüg, m. [-es] [allied to Schlacke?] [with jewellers] amber of the fourth module, of the fourth kind.

Schlummer, m. [-s] [V. Schlummern] 1) slumber, doze, drowsiness, doziness. Das ist kein Schlaf, es war nur —, that is not sleep, it was only drowsiness; in — gerathen, fallen, to fall into a slumber, into a slumbering state, into a drowsy fit; in — liegen, in einem süßen — liegen, to lie in slumber, in a sweet slumber, to slumber, to slumber sweetly, calmly. Syn. V. Schlaf. Fig. [= der Tod] death, the tomb, the grave. 2) Fig. slumbering of the mind, apathetic consciousness, insensibility. Aus seinem — erwachen, to awake out of one's lethargy, one's apathy, one's soporiness.

Schlummergott, m. Morpheus. — kopf, m. [rather unusual] an apathetic, lifeless, supine, lethargic mind; a sleepy fellow. — börrer, pl. the poppies of sleep, of Morpheus, of Somnus, balmy sleep. — kraft, f. a lulling or soporific power, an opiate force. — kraut, n. an opiate or soporiferous herb. — los, adj. and adv. V. Schlaflos. — stätte, — stelle, f. sleeping place, place where one takes a nap or slumber. Fig. [in higher style] the grave. — trunken, adj. and adv. heavy or drunk with sleep, V. Schlaftrunken. — wirkend, adj. and adv. sedative, soporific, somniferous, opiate, dormitive, lulling, sleepifying.

Schlummerer, m. [-s, pl. -] a slumberer.

Schlummern, [in Dutch sluymeren and luymeren; probably allied to the provincial lummerig = schlaf, V. Schlaf] v. intr. to slumber. Gansst or süß —, to slumber calmly or sweetly; er schlief nicht, er schlummerte nur, he did not sleep, he only slumbered. Fig. Er schlummert schon im Grabe, he slumbers, sleeps already in his or the grave; es — herrliche Anlagen in ihm, excellent qualities, great talents are lying dormant in him. Das —, slumbering; lying dormant or latent.

Schlump, m. [-es] [appears allied to schlupfen] [in common people's lang.] 1) [Eile] haste, speed, hurry. Auf den — sich anziehen, to dress in haste. 2) [Zufall] hap, chance, hazard, hap-hazard. Es war ein bloßer —, it was a pure chance, a mere wind-fall, quite a God-send.

Schlump = schuß, m. [in war] random shot, a chance shot. — weise, adv. by chance, haply, perchance, accidentally.

Schlumppe, f. V. Schlampe.

Schlumpen, [allied to schlupfen] I. v. intr. [in common people's lang.] 1) to succeed by chance, to stumble upon. 2) Die Kleider — lassen, to let one's clothes dangle, trail, hang negligently. 3) to be slovenly or sluttishly dressed. Das —, negligence in one's dress, slovenliness, [for women] sluttishness. II. v. tr. [Kardätschen] to card [wool &c.].

Schlumper, m. [-s, pl. -] 1) [low] an indolent, a careless man [in his affairs], a neglectful man; it. a sloven. 2) [in common people's lang.] V. Schleppkleid. 3) [Kardätscher] a [wool-]carder.

Schlumpen, V. Schlumpen.

Schlumpig, [in common people's lang.] V. Schlampig.

Schlünd, m. [-es, pl. Schlünde], dim. [seldom used] Schlündchen, n. [-s, pl. -] [from the old schlünden, instead of schlängen] 1) [generally] any opening of a hollow place &c.] a chasm, an abyss, gulf, whirlpool. Es gibt in diesen Gebirgen viele Schlünde, there are many gulfs, depths in these mountains; — einer Höhle, the mouth of a hollow or cave; — eines Meerstrudels, the gulf, vortex of a whirlpool; aus dem — e des Vesuvus, out of the crater, funnel, gulf, jaws, throat of Vesuvius; das Meer öffnete seine Schlünde, the sea opened its depths of waters; der — eines Kanonentaußs, eines Rauchfangs, the mouth or throat of a cannon, gorge of a chimney; — eines Hofofens, the mouth of a furnace; it. der — [sometimes for Rauchfang], chimney; it. der — [in sublime style for Kanone or Feuerstund], cannon; tausendfacher Tod verbreitete sich aus ehernen Schlünden, death in a thousand shapes was vomited forth by brazen-throated engines; it. [in nat. hist.] der — an gewundenen Schnecken, the throat of spiral univalves; it. [in botany] the throat [of labiate, ringent plants &c.]. Fig. Diese Spielhäuser sind Schlünde, welche &c., these gambling-houses [hells] are gulfs, sinks, which &c. 2) the throat, gullet, weasand, [fam.] the red lane; [in anatomy] the pharynx, the oesophagus. Die Beschreibung des — es, V. — beschreibung; Abhandlung über den —, pharyngology; ihr — ist ein offenes Grab [in Scripture], their throat is a yawning sepulchre. V. Speiseröhre, Luftröhre. Syn. V. Rehle. 3) [in nat. hist.] the black-throated helix.

Schlundbeschreibung, f. a description of the pharynx and oesophagus. — drüse, f. [in anatomy] thyroidian gland. — gaumenmuskel, m. V. — kopfgaumenmuskel. — kopf, m. [in anatomy] the head of the pharynx. — kopfsblutader, f. [in anatomy] the pharyngeal vein. — kopfgaumenmuskel, m. [in anatomy] the pharyngopalatine muscle. — kopfmuskel, m. [in anatomy] the cephalo-pharyngeal muscle.

—kopfsnerve, m. [in anatomy] the pharyngean nerve. —kopfschlagader, f. [in anatomy] the pharyngean artery. —kopfschnürer, m. [in anatomy] constrictor or sphincter of the pharynx. —mäuslein, n., —muskel, m. [in anatomy] oesophagean muscle. —öffner, m. [with surgeons] a pharyngotomist. —öffnung, f. pharyngotomy, oesophagotomy. —röhre, f. [in anatomy] V. Speiseröhre; [in hydraulics] V. Schlungöhre. —zäpfleinmuskel, m. [in anatomy] pharyngo-staphiline.

Schlündlich, adj. and adv. [unusual] gulflike, abyss-like.

Schlúnge, m. [-es, pl. Schlünge] 1) [low] [das Schlingen] act of swallowing, of gulping. In einem —e verschlingen, to swallow at a single or in one gulp or draught. 2) [low] as much as one can swallow at one breath, draught. 3) [verschlungener Zeug] [with upholstery] a knot, an interwreathed twine.

Schlungebeere, f. the berry of the viburnum or white bryony. —röhre, f. [in hydraulics] the barrel of a sucking or lifting pump. —thür, f. [an —röhren] the clack-door of the fixed valve.

Schlüngel, V. Schlingel.

|| Schlúnk, V. Schlund 2).

|| Schlúnken, V. Schlottern.

Schlúnt, m. [-es, pl. -e] [in seamen's lang.] [Kuckuck] a dark lantern.

Schlúpe, f. [pl. -n] 1) [Stoop, from schlupfen] a light vessel, a sort of sloop, a boat, a cutter, V. Jacht, Schaluppe. 2) V. Schlupfenohl.

Schlupenohl, m. [in botany] a cabbage without a head or heart.

Schlupmeister, m. the steersman or pilot of a boat, of a cutter &c.; [if to a man-of-war's boat] a cockswain.

Schlúpf, m. [-es, pl. Schlüpf] [allied to schleifen] 1) [in common people's lang.] a slip, a slide, a dive. Einen — in die Tasche thun, to make a dive into one's pocket, to put or slip one's hand into one's pockets; den Strumpf in einem — anziehen, to draw on one's stocking at one slip, one pull. 2) a [narrow] pass, a defile, V. Schlucht; [in sportsmen's lang.] the mouse [of a hare &c.]. || 3) — or Schlúpf, a slipping down of the earth or soil, a land-slip.

Schlupfbiene, f. ichneumon bee. —fliege, f. ichneumon fly. —hafen, m. [in seamen's lang.] a cove, creek, small haven or bay, inlet. —käfer, m. V. Mehlkäfer. —könig, m. V. Baunkönig. —loch, n. hole for creeping in or out of, a lurking hole. Fig. [in pop. lang.] a secret door; it. a recess, hiding-place, a corner, nook, a by-place or by-spot. Prov. Die Maus, die nur ein —loch hat, ist bald gefangen, the mouse with only one hole is soon caught, one should have two strings to one's bow. —pforte, f., —thor, n. postern. —wespe, f. 1) ichneumon-wasp. 2) V. Starnwespe. —winkel, m. a secret or hiding corner; it. retreat, repair, recess, cave, den, lair. Er verbarg sich in einem —winkel des Hauses, he hid himself in a secret corner of the house; die Räuber aus ihren —winkeln vertreiben, to hunt out the robbers from their dens, caves, lurking-holes. Fig. [not much used] Die —winkel des Herzens, the windings, recesses, depths of the heart.

Schlúpf, V. Krieche 2).

|| Schlúpf, f. [pl. -n] V. Zipfel.

Schlúpfen, [better style] Schlúpfen, [in Low Sax. slupen, in Swed. slipa, Lat. labi] v. intr. to slip, to slide. Der Aal, der Vogel schlúpfte mir aus den Händen, the eel, the bird slipped out of my hands; die Maus schlúpfte in ihr Loch, the mouse slipped into its hole; er schlúpfte aus dem Hause durch die hintere Thür, he slipped out of the house by the back-door; in ein Loch —, to slip, to glide, to thrust one's self into a hole; er schlúpfte in den Schlafrock, in die Beinkleider, he slipped into his, he slipped on his dressing-gown, his trousers; sie schlúpfen längs der Hecke hin, they slipped, [of men, also] they stole, glided, sneaked along the hedge. Fig. Es schlúpfte mir dieses Wort unbedacht über die Lippe, this word slipped unawares out of my mouth; leicht über Etwas hin — [es leicht berühren], to slip, to slide, to pass slightly over any thing.

Schlúpf, Schlúpf, m. [-es, pl. -] 1) [not much used] one who slips or thrusts himself any where. 2) [Muff] a muff.

Schlúpf, adj. and adv. slippery. Der Weg, das Eis ist —, the way, the ice is slippery; es ist sehr — zu gehen, it is very slippery walking; —er Tritt, slippery step; — [so glatt] wie ein Aal, slippery, smooth as an eel; — machen, to make or render slippery; [in medicine] to lubricate. Fig. a) —er Schritt [= ein mißliches Unternehmen], a slippery step, a dangerous, delicate or ticklish undertaking, hazardous proceeding. b) [not much used] [= unbeständig] —er Mensch, a slippery, fickle, inconstant man. c) [not much used] [= ausweichend] —er Beweis, an illusory, delusive demonstration. d) [unsittlich] wankton, amatory. —e Bilder der Einbildungskraft, heated or warm images of the fancy; —e Gemälde, Gedichte, glowing, indecent &c. pictures, poems; —e Erzählung &c., a story &c. not well wrapped up, rather broad; es ist etwas —es in diesem Gemälde, there is something indecent, too glowing in this picture; —er Dichter, an amatory poet.

Schlúpf, f. slipperiness, lubricity. Fig. indecency, dirt, smut. Verdeckte —en, veiled obscenities.

Schlúpf, v. intr. and impers. to be slippery. Der Weg schlúpfert, the way, path, road is slippery.

Schlúren, v. tr. [in ship-building] to mark and measure wood with a line, to line.

Schlúr, [in Dutch slurpen, in Low Sax. slieren] I. v. intr. Mit den Füßen —, to trail, to drag the feet, to go with a trailing or shuffling foot. II. v. tr. Etwas —, to sup up, to suck in, to sip any thing, [low] to swig any thing. Fig. [chiefly in a higher style] to relish. Er schlúrte mit Begehren, mit Wonne, die reine Luft der Berge, he inhales with quiet enjoyment, with delight the pure air of the mountains; schlúrte den Becher der Freude, der Seligkeit! empty the cup of joy, of bliss!

|| Schlúr, [from the Low Sax. slieren] adj. and adv. [in common people's lang.] dejected, sad, downcast, pensive, cast down. —gehen, to walk dejectedly, pensively.

|| Schlúr, m. [-es, pl. -e] [Schlund] gulf, abyss, it. whirlpool.

|| Schlúse, f. [pl. -n] V. Schluße.

Schlúß, m. [-ses, pl. Schlúße] 1) [the action of closing, das Schließen] the closing, the shutting. Bei dem —e der Thore or bei Thores — antommen &c., to arrive &c. at the closing of the gates; als man am —e des Gewölbes war &c., when they were at the closing of, on the point of closing [with the key-stone] the vault &c. Fig. Zum —e einer Sache kommen, schreiten, eine Sache zum —e bringen, to come, proceed to the closing of an affair, to bring a thing to a close or conclusion, [fam.] to bring a thing about or to pass; es ist schwer, mit ihm zum —e zu kommen [fam.], it is a hard thing to come to terms with him; wir sind dem —e nahe, we are near a conclusion, we are on the point of coming to terms, to a close; der — der Rechnung, the closing of the account, V. Ab—; gegen den —, am —e der Sitzung, towards the end, at the closing of the sitting; am —e des Reichstages, der Kammern, der Sitzungen or der Session, at the closing, end of the diet, at the closing of the chambers, at the termination of the session, at the breaking up of congress, parliament &c.; — einer Rede, close or winding up of a speech; der — [in rhetoric], peroration; die Schlúße der Ciceronischen Reden sind &c., the perorations of Cicero are &c.; am —e des Briefes, der Woche, at the closing, close, end of the letter, of the week; der — [—fall] eines Tonstückes, einer Periode, the cadence of a piece of music, of a period. 2) [the manner of closing] Dieser Reiter hat einen guten —, hat keinen guten —, this rider has a good, not a good seat; auf den englischen Sätteln, meinen viele Reiter in Deutschland, hat man keinen rechten —, keinen guten —, on english saddles, according to the opinion of many horsemen in Germany, one has not a proper, a good seat; diese Perrücke hat einen guten — [liegt gut an], this wig has a good fit, fits well; diese Thüre hat keinen guten —, keinen rechten —, this door does not shut well, properly, close, tight, does not close to right. 3) [the place of shutting] — einer Tabakdose, the shutting of a snuff-box; — eines Gewölbes, the key [key-stone] of a vault, V. —stein; — eines Kugelgewölbes, the tholus; — einer Muschel, the hinge of a bivalve. 4) [more usual Entschluß] resolution. Mein — ist gefaßt, my resolution is taken, my mind is made up. 5) [Folgerung] conclusion, consequence. Einen — machen, ziehen, to draw a conclusion, to make an inference; dieser — ist richtig, falsch, this conclusion is correct, erroneous; daraus mache ich or ziehe ich den —, daß &c., from that I make the inference, the deduction, that &c.; logischer —, a logical deduction, a syllogism; —, wodurch man Etwas zu beweisen sucht, a conclusion, by which it is desired to prove any thing, an argument; durch Schlúße beweisen, to prove by arguments, to argue, [low] to arguify; einen wahrscheinlichen — aus Etwas ziehen, to draw an induction from any thing, to extract a rational or probable inference from any thing. 6) [Beschluss] resolution, decree, decision, result of deliberation. Die Schlúße dieser Versammlung, the decrees &c. of this meeting; einen — abfassen, to draw up, form, embody a resolution; die Schlúße müssen so abgefaßt werden, daß &c., the result of the deliberations must be so headed, so worded, so drawn up, that &c.; die Schlúße der Kirchenversammlungen, the decrees of the church-assemblies or synods. V. Capitel—, Raths—, Reichs— &c.

Schlúß, f. [either the process or mode of reasoning] argumentation, reasoning.

—balken, m. [with carpenters] the closing-piece or beam, the top-girder of the roof-rafters, [in England, especially if jogged and with struts] king-piece, king-post.
—balken eines Kugelgewölbes, tholus, thole.
—bein, n. V. Hüftbein. —bemerkung, f. final observation closing or winding-up remark.
—blatt, n. [with joiners] a hand-saw. —brett, n. [in hydraulics] shutter, hatch, flood-gate, dam. —cadenz, f. —fall, m. [in music] final cadence. —fassung, f. conclusion, resolution. —folge, f. 1) reasoning, course of arguments. 2) the result. Es wäre unrecht, eine solche —folge zu ziehen, it would be unjust to draw such an inference, to form such a conclusion. —folgerung, f. inference, conclusion. Eine —folgerung ziehen, to draw an inference, to form a conclusion. —form, f. 1) [in logic] form of a syllogism. 2) V. —arr. —gerecht, V. —recht. —gesang, m. [in music] the finale. —kette, f. V. —reihe. —leiste, f. V. —sierath. —nagel, m. V. Schließnagel. —punkt, m. 1) —punkt einer Rede, final point or period of a discourse. 2) —punkt eines Vertrages &c., final or closing article of a contract &c. —rechnung, f. final or closing account, it. closing of the account. —recht, —richtig, adj. and adv. just, conclusive, convincing, logical. —richtige Folgerung, a just consequence or conclusion; dieser Beweis, Vernunftschluß ist nicht —richtig, this argument, this reasoning is not conclusive, logical; —richtig verfahren, [schließen, to proceed, to reason logically. —rede, f. 1) [Syllogism] [little used] syllogism. 2) final, closing or winding up speech; [also] epilogue. —reif, m. [with coopers] hoop for mounting, it. last hoop. —reif, adj. [in law] ready for judgment [said of a cause]; V. Spruchreif. —reihe, f. 1) reasoning, series or course of arguments. 2) [in the army] the closing rank. —reim, m. the closing, final or last rhyme; it. the burthen of the song, the chorus. —richtig, V. —recht. —ring, m. [in botany] the neck [sort of crown bordering the leaves of certain plants]. —säge, f. [with joiners] a fine saw. —satz, m. 1) final proposition 2) conclusion [drawn from previous propositions]. —sitzung, f. final sitting, last sitting previous to prorogation or breaking up. —steg, m. [with printers] V. Schrägsteg. —stein, m. 1) key, key-stone [of an arch, vault, dome &c.]; [in the Corinthian and composite orders] console. —stein an einem Thür- oder Fenstersturz, key of the plat-band or lintel of a door or window; —stein mit Haken oder Absätzen, key-stone with crosettes, returns, ancones, corbils; hervorstehender —stein, rustic key-stone; hängender und vorspringender —stein, hanging and projecting key-stone. 2) [with masons] stretcher, closer. —stein auf einem gemauerten Brunnenrande, the kirb-stone, curb-stone, brim of a well. —tritt, m. [in sporting lang.] V. Schloßtritt. —urtheil, n. 1) final judgment, definitive decree, definitive sentence. 2) V. —folge 1). —ziegel, m. a tile in the shape of an S, a Flemish tile. —zierath, f. [with printers] a tail-piece, an ornament at the end.

Schlüssel, m. [-s, pl. -] dim. —chen, ll —lein, n. [-s, pl. -] 1) [in its widest sense an instrument for opening, for stretching or straining tight any thing] — eine Büchse zu spannen, a spanner; —, eine Uhr aufzuziehen, the key of a clock, a watch-key; [for tuning stringed instruments] a key, tuning-key; [in architecture = Stichbalken] binding joist, trimmer; tie-piece; brace, strut. Fig. [in music] —, the key, the clef Der F — or Bass —, der C — und der G — or Geigen —, the C or base-clef, the clef of F or fa; the clef of ut or C and the clef of sol or G, i. e. the bass, tenor or counter and treble clef; den — verändern, to change the key or clef. 2) [commonly an instrument for unlocking or locking a lock] a key. Ungebohrter oder französischer —, a key without a pipe but with a solid cylinder or shank; gebohrter oder deutscher —, a pipe-key; —, der alle Schlösser öffnet, a pass-key, a master-key; mit dem — öffnen, verschließen, to open, to shut with the key, to lock, to unlock; dieser — macht mehrere Schlösser auf, paßt zu mehreren Schlössern, this key opens several locks, fits, does for several locks; sie hat den — zu Allem, she has or keeps the keys [for every thing]; Etwas unter seinem — or zur Bewahrung haben, to have, keep something under [one's] lock and key; ein Bund —, a bunch of keys; das ist ein unrechter —, ist nicht der rechte —, that is a wrong key, is not the right key; die — einer Stadt übergeben, to surrender or give up the keys of a city. Fig. a) [that which secures or locks up a certain district &c.] Die — zu einem Lande [= die Festungen], the keys [fortresses] of a country; Silistria ist der — zur Donau, Silistria is the key, secures the command of the Danube; wer [gewisse] Schweizer Alpenpässe besetzt hält, hat die — von Italien, he, who holds [certain] passes of the Alps of Switzerland, has or holds, too, the key of or secures the entrance to Italy; Calais ist einer von den —n zu Frankreich, Calais is one of the keys of France. b) [means of acquiring or learning any thing] Der — zu einem Lehrgebäude, zu einer Grammatik &c., the key of a system, of a grammar &c., [fam.] the shirk; den — zu einem Roman, zu einer Satyre haben, to have the key or list of the real names of a novel, of a satire; der — zu einer Geheimschrift, the key of a secret correspondence or writing in cipher. c) [= Gewalt] [in theology] Die — des heiligen Petrus, die — zum Himmel, die — des Himmelsreichs, die Gewalt, das Amt der —, the keys of St. Peter, of heaven, of the kingdom of heaven, the power or office of the keys of St. Peter or the power to bind or unloose in earth or heaven.

Schlüsselader, f. [in anatomy] subclavian vein. —band, n. [Balkenband] iron-strap, branch-strap. —bart, m. the key-bit, key-web. —bein, n. [in anatomy] the clavicle, collar-bone. —beinader, —beinblutader, f. V. —ader. —beinschlagader, f. subclavian artery. —beinmuskelfel, m. [in anatomy] clavicular or subclavian muscle. —blatt, n. V. —bart. —blech, n. [with locksmiths] 1) the key-plate. 2) the scutcheon. —blume, f. [in botany] primrose, cowslip, oxlip. Mehlige —blume, garden, downy primrose. —büchse, f. a pipe-key metamorphosed into a gun by children through filing a touchhole. —bund, m. bunch of keys. —dame, f. [at the Austrian court] a lady of the gold key, [usually] gold key [in waiting or not]. —dorn, m. [with locksmiths] the stem of a lock [for the pipe-key]. —feile, f. V. Spaltfeile. —geld, n. a sum of money given as goodwill or as pin-money by the purchaser of a house to the seller's wife or daughter or [now, also] higher servants, key-money [for the final delivery of the keys in recognition of the new right of property to the house]. Seine Frau hat 100 Dukaten —geld bekommen, his wife has received a hundred ducats as pin-money from the purchaser. —haken, m. a hook or swivel for keys. —herr, m. [unusual, except perhaps in jest] V. Kammerherr. —kamm, m. V. —bart. —kluppe, f. [with locksmiths] a sort of vice for holding the key-bit, the gag. —kraut, n. saponaria, soap wort, bruise-wort. —loch, n. 1) the key-hole [in the lock]. 2) the hole or bore of a key, key-pipe. —lochdeckel, m. V. —blech 2). —reif, m. [in the lock] ward. —riemen, m. the string or thong for carrying keys. —ring, m. [with locksmiths] 1) the ring of the key. 2) a key-ring, a ring for a bunch of keys. —ringförmig, adj. [in heraldry] cléché. —ringkreuz, n. [in heraldry] a cleche. —rohr, n. —röhre, f. [with locksmiths] the bore or pipe of a key. Die Höhlung des —rohres, the hole or bore of the key-pipe, V. —sch. —schast, m. [with locksmiths] the shank of the key. —schild, m. V. —blech 1). —senke, f. the steel plate with gauged holes in which the key-pipes are rounded off.

Schlüssig, adj. and adv. 1) resolved. —werden, —sehn, to be resolved, to have made up one's mind; ich bin noch nicht —, ob ich es thun soll oder nicht, ich kann nicht — werden, I am not yet determined as to whether I shall do it or not, I cannot make up my mind, form a resolution, come to a determination, V. Un—. 2) [unusual] conclusive.

Schlütte, f. [pl. -n] [in botany] [provincial] rush, reed.

Schlüttenkraut, n. the red or bastard sweet-rush.

Schlütte, f. 1) V. 2. Schlampe. 2) [in botany] alkekengi or winter-cherry.

Schlüttenkraut, n. V. Schlutte.

Schlüter, V. Schloßer.

Schmach, f. [no pl.] [from schmähen, Old schmaden = beschmugen] ignominy, injury, affront, outrage, disgrace. Einem alle — anthun, to cover any one with all sorts of ignominy, of disgrace, of injuries; große — erdulden, to suffer or endure great ignominy; für eine — annehmen, to receive as an affront, to take as an insult, it. to look upon as or in the light of a disgrace, a dishonour; mit — bedeckt, covered with shame, with disgrace. Syn. V. Schande.

Schmachrede, f. insulting discourse or speech, affronting or provocatory language, it. calumny, slander, defamation, libellous discourse. —sache, f. [in law] action for libel or assault. —säule, f. V. Schandsäule. —schrift, f. a libellous writing, a libel. —voll, V. Schmähtich.

Schmächten, [appears allied to schmelen, Geschmack; V. schmen] v. intr. to languish, to pine. Vor Hunger, vor Durst —, to pine from hunger, from thirst; er schmachtet im Gefängnisse, he languishes, pines in captivity, in prison; er hat lange in Armuth geschmachtet, he has long pined, drooped in poverty; nach einem Trunke, nach einer Erfrischung —, to long, to languish or pine, to thirst after drink, refreshment; vor Liebe —, to pine away for love; den — den Liebhaber, den — den bei einer Person machen [in fam. lang.], to play the part of a pining, languishing, doleful lover, the dyeaway before any person; Einen — lassen, to let any one pine, to leave any one to languish, mourn; sie läßt ihren Liebhaber nicht lange —, she does not let her lover pine long, sigh long; —der Ton, —de Stimme, languishing tone, voice; —de Blicke, languishing, dye-away looks, [comic for lovers] sheeps-eyes; sie sah ihn —d, mit —den Augen an, she looked at him languishingly, with languishing eyes; sie reichte ihm —d die Hand, she held out her hand to him with a languishing air. Das —, languishing, languor; das — der Blicke, the languishment, languor of the looks.

Schmacht-hals, —hals, m. [in common people's lang.] V. Schmachttappen; it. V. Hungerleider. —Forn, n. [in agriculture] straggling, weak blades of corn. —Lappen, m. [in common people's lang.] a weak fellow, a youth or man without any energy; it. V. Hungerleider. —riemen, m. V. Reitgurt.

Schmächting, adj. and adv. 1) V. Hungerig, Kermlich. 2) [perhaps allied to mac-aer, to the Lat. mac-ilentus &c.] —er Zweig, Stengel, thin, weak, slender, sickly, puny, delicate branch, stalk; —in die Höhe geschossener Ast, a straggling, weak branch; —e Äste, die keine Früchte tragen, weak and slender [hence barren] branches; —es Pferd, a horse shrunk or swayed in the flank, backswanked, a lanky horse; er ist —, von —er Leibesgestalt, er hat einen —en Leib, —e Beine, he is thin or puny, of a puny or thin make, he has a slim, thin or lanky body, thin legs or [fam.] spindle-shanks, long-shanks, grasshopper legs; —er Mensch, a lanky fellow, [fam.] a walking rushlight; —es Gesicht, Aussehen, a thin face. Syn. V. Schlank.

Schmächtingkeit, f. weakness, thinness, weakliness, slenderness, slightness, the puny state.

Schmächting, m. [—es, pl. —e] a person of a thin, slender, delicate, slim make and weak constitution.

1. Schmach, m. V. Geschmach.

2. Schmach, m. [—es, pl. —e] [in common people's lang.] or Sumach [Span. sumaco] [Gärberbaum] the sumach-tree.

Schmach-gar, adj. and adv. [with curriers] —gares Leder, leather boiled or dressed in sumach or rhus. —leder, n. leather dressed in sumach or rhus. —schwarz, adj. [with dyers] sumach-black.

Schmache, f. [pl. —n] [instead of Ma che n?] [in seamen's lang.] a smack.

Schmachhaft, adj. and adv. having a taste, tasteful, savoury, gustable, gustful, relishable. Syn. Schmachhaft, Wohlschmeckend. That, which has the taste it ought to have, is schmachhaft [sapid, tasteful]; that, which not only has a taste, but also one that is agreeable, is wohlschmeckend [savoury, palatable]. Water is best when it is neither schmachhaft nor wohlschmeckend, in short when perfectly insipid or tasteless, but, on the other hand, food must have taste, and savour or flavour, it is therefore requisite for it to be both schmachhaft and wohlschmeckend.

Schmachhaftigkeit, f. savouriness, gustfulness, relishableness, savour, taste.

Schmachlos, adj. and adv. V. Geschmachlos.

Schmachpfund, n. [—es] [in commerce] a weight of 400 pounds.

Schmadderig, [allied to the provincial matsch, Lat. mad-idus] adj. and adv.

smear'd, dirty.

Schmaddern, V. Sudeln.

Schmadderbuch, n. V. Sudelbuch, Kladder.

Schmähen, [V. Schmach] v. tr. and intr. Einen —, auf Einen —, to inveigh against any one, to abuse any one; er hat auf ihn geschmähet, he has inveighed, launched out into abuse against him, has held abusive language regarding him. Das —, V. Schmähung.

Schmach-handel, m. [Injurienproceß] action for defamation. —rede, f. outrageous, insulting, abusive discourse, libellous speech or language. —reden gegen Einen ausstoßen, to launch out into invectives, to vomit forth abuse against any one. —schrift, f. [Pasquill] a libel. Bersäumerische —schrift, a calumnious, defamatory libel; öffentliche, angeschlagene —schrift, a libellous or injurious placard; —schriften machen, to make, invent libels; —schriften anheften, austreten, to post up, to distribute libellous placards, handbills; eine —schrift gegen Einen anschlagen, to post any one. —schriftler, m. a libellous, scandalous, calumniating writer. —sucht, f. the love of invective, the proneness to scandal, to outrage, to backbiting, of saying insulting or bitter things, thirst for slander. —sücht, adj. and adv. malevolent of speech &c., fond of invective, slanderous, having a propensity to insulting or libellous language. Ein —süchtiger Mensch, a calumnious fellow, a scandal-monger, a back-biter; die —en, the slanderers. —wort, n. V. —rede.

Schmähbrief, m. a letter full of abusive language, of injurious epithets, a libellous, calumnious letter.

Schmäher, m. [—s, pl. —], —inn, f. [little used] a defamer, a back-biter; it. an abusive or insolent person. V. Lästler, Bersäumer, Schimpfer.

Schmählich, adj. and adv. ignominious, outrageous, disgraceful. —er Tod, —e Strafe, —e Todesstrafe, ignominious death, disgraceful punishment, degrading penalty of death; —e Behandlung, ignominious, vile treatment; —e Reden, outrageous language; das ist — für seine ganze Familie, that is ignominious, infamous, humiliating for the whole of his family; er ist — behandelt worden, he has been ignominiously, [if innocent] shamefully treated. V. Schimpflich.

Schmähung, f. [das Schmähen, it. die Schmäherei] the act of insulting, invective; it. an invective, an injurious discourse, an insult, outrage, [in law] an assault [with words]. —en gegen Einen ausstoßen, to vomit forth, to launch out into invectives against any one; seine Vertheidigungsrede enthält nichts, als —en auf seinen Gegner, his speech or defence contains nothing but declamation, invectives against his opponent.

Schmal, [in Old Sax. and Swed. smal is small or little] adj. and adv. narrow. —es Band, Tuch, narrow riband, cloth; dieser Zeug ist schmaler, als der andere, this stuff is narrower than, not so broad as the other; dieser Weg ist zu —, this way is too narrow; —e Streifen, Bretter, narrow strips, boards; das Bett eines Flusses schmaler machen, to make the bed of a river narrower; die Leinwand wird durch das Bleichen schmaler, linen shrinks in width, becomes narrower after bleaching; der Weg wird immer schmaler, the way or path grows narrower and narrower; die Steine. Balken auf ihre

—e Seite legen, to lay, place stones, beams on their narrow, smallest side; einen Stein in der Mauer mit der —en Seite herauslegen, to lay a stone end-wise as a header; er hat ein —es [magere] Gesicht, he has a narrow, long face; —er Leib, Wuchs, slim, slender body, growth or shape; dieses Pferd ist vorn, hinten —, this horse is narrow-chested, cat-hammed; dieser Gang, dieses Blumenbeet ist zu —, this alley, flower-parterre is too narrow; —e Fensteröffnung, a narrow, scanty casement; [in anatomy] der —e or dünne Schienbeinmuskel, the plantaris, tibialis gracilis, extensor tarsi minor; [in sportsmen's lang., for mager] lean, wasted, poor, out of condition; [with miners] —e, —schwebende Gänge, narrow, thready veins. Fig. Der —e Weg [zum Himmel] [in Scripture], the narrow way or road [to heaven]; [in fam. lang.] ein —es Einkommen, eine —e Befoldung, a small, pinched, humble, scanty income, pay or wages; —e Bissen, eine —e Kost haben, to have poor fare; —leben, to live scantily, in a humble poor way; es geht — bei ihm her, he is very poorly off, he is very much pinched, put to it for a livelihood.

Schmal-bächtig, adj. and adv. hollow, thin, lean-cheeked, [fam.] lantern-jawed. —bächtig, adj. and adv. pinch-bellied, [vulgar] herring-gutted. —beet, n. [Rabatte] a narrow flower-bed, a parterre. —bier, n. small beer. Englisches —bier, table-ale. —blättrig, adj. and adv. narrow-leaved. —eisen, n. [with blacksmiths] iron left in the forge after the fire is put out. —ente, f. a small species of wild duck, a teal, a widgeon. —fleisch, n. inferior kinds of butcher's meat —flügel, m. V. —flügler. —flügelig, adj. and adv. narrow-winged. —flügler, pl. [in nat. hist.] [butterflies with narrow wings, Helikonier] the heliconians, it. [those coleoptera whose wings sheaths are narrower behind] the stenoptera. —hans, m. [popular] 1) a poor, hungry, half-starved wretch; it. a poor devil all lath and plaster, a lanky fellow. Bei ihm ist —hans Küchenmeister, it is an empty cupboard, pantry in his house, [in England] if he dines at all, it must be with Duke Humphrey. 2) [in common people's lang.] V. Mose. —holz, n. [with charcoal-burners] small wood. —kopff, m. [in nat. hist.] the Leptocephalus Morisii, the morris-fish. —leder, n. [with curriers] [dünnes Leder] thin leather, thin skins. —leibig, adj. and adv. long-bodied, lanky, slender, slight, slim. —leibiges Pferd, a lanky, long-backed horse. —leibigkeit, f. the slim or slight shape, slenderness, meagre or scanty proportions of any person. —meßger, m. a butcher that kills and sells only inferior sorts of meat. —reh, n. V. —thier. —saat, f. [provincial for Hülsenfrüchte] pulse. —schiff, n. a Dutch barge. —schnäbelig, adj. and adv. narrow-beaked. —schwanz, m. [in nat. hist. = Ackerholzfäher] leptura, wood-beetle. —stern, m. [in botany, weißes Meierkraut] galium album, white lady's bed-straw, clivers or goose-grass. —thier, n. [in sportsmen's lang.] the fawn of the hind or roe [until he ruts]. —vieh, n. 1) cattle not fattened [such as inferior butchers buy and kill]. 2) animals in flocks [as sheep], in herds [as swine or goats], it. in droves [as sheep or swine]. —zehente, m. tithe upon —vieh.

Schmale, f. [pl. —n] V. Schmal-schiff.

Schmale, f. [no pl.] narrowness, scantiness, paucity of width or breadth. Die — dieser Leinwand, dieses Zeuges, the narrowness of this linen, of this stuff.

Schmälen, [allied to melden, originally = rören] 1) [in sportsmen's lang.] to call [as the roebuck]. 2) [hanten] to scold, to find fault. Er schmält den ganzen Tag, he does nothing but scold all day long, he keeps on scolding or rating from morning to night; auf Einen —, to scold, lecture, reprove, reprimand any one, it. to declaim or launch forth against any one; wenn ihr zu lange ausbleibet, werdet ihr geschmäht werden, if you stay out too long, you will get a scolding, you will be scolded; ich habe ihn sehr wegen sehr geschmäht, I have read him a sharp lecture about it, given him a reprimand or setting down about or for it. Syn. V. Reifen. Das —, scolding, reprimand, lecture.

Schmäler, m. [-s, pl. -] [with basket-makers] splitter [for the osier-twigs &c.].

Schmäler, m. [-s, pl. -], —inn, f. a scolder, a scold, V. Reiser, Reiserinn.

Schmälerer, m. [-s, pl. -] diminisher, encroacher &c. V. Verkleinerer.

Schmälern, v. tr. 1) [schmäler machen] [little used] to narrow, to straighten, to make narrower. 2) Fig. to diminish, to lessen. Jemandes Einkünfte, Befoldung —, to diminish, curtail any body's income, pay; man hat seinen Antheil sehr geschmätert, his portion or share has been very much curtailed, reduced; ihre Freiheiten sind geschmätert worden, their liberties, immunities or privileges have been clipped, encroached upon, pared, abridged, impaired; das Verdienst, den guten Namen eines Andern —, to undervalue, cry down, vilify, depreciate the merit, the good name of another. Das —, die Schmäterung, diminution, curtailing, retrenchment. Das ist eine Schmäterung seiner Einkünfte, Rechte, Freiheiten, that is a diminution of his revenues, an attack or vital aim at his rights, encroachment on his liberties.

Schmälheit, f. narrowness, thinness, leanness. V. also Schmäle.

Schmällich, [from schmal] V. Armselig, Gering, Spärlich.

Schmalkalden, n. [-s] [chief town of the province of Schmalkalden in the Electorate of Hesse-Cassel] Schmalkalden.

Schmalte, f. [pl. -n] [= Schmelz, from schmelzen] smalt.

Schmalz, n. [-es, pl. (seldom used) -e] [in Swed. mal, perhaps allied to the Lat. mollis] [zerlassenes Fett] [if of any roasted or baked meat] dripping, melted fat; [if the boiled fat of the pig] lard, [with apothecaries] apungia, hog's lard; [Schweine-, Gänse-] hog's or goose-grease, [zerlassene Butter] melted butter. Eine Speise ohne Salz und — zubereiten, to dress an article of food without salt or grease; Fische im — e backen, to fry fish in lard.

Schmalzbirn, f. melting-pear, butter-pear. —blume, f. —blümchen, n. [in botany] cyperus, caltha palustris, marsh-marigold, populago. —brod, n. V. —schutte. —faß, n. a lard tub, butter-tub. —feder, f. V. Fettsfeder. —fisch, m. 1) [Bartfisch] liparis, dab, it. smear-dab, pearl, whiff. 2) [Butterfisch] blennius gunnelus, spotted blenny. —gebäckenes, n. any thing fried, a fry. —grube, f. fertile or rich land, fine grazing country. —läfer, m.

[der blaue Maikäfer] the oil-beetle, proscarabaeus. —traut, n. garden-lettuce. —kübel, m. V. —faß. —kuchen, m. 1) [with cooks] pancake, skimmer-cake or any pudding when fried. 2) [in conchology, Sammtmuschel] velvet Noah's ark, arca nucula. —pfanne, f. frying-pan. —salz, n. soda, mineral fixed alkali. —sau, f. a fattened pig [ready for the knife]. —schutte, f. a slice of bread and butter; it. a slice of bread smeared with dripping, [also] dipped in melted butter or in grease or fat or boiling lard. —schwein, n. V. —sau. —ständer, m. V. —faß. —sternblume, f. [one of the buttercups] cheilidonium minus, pile-wort, ranunculus ficaria. —topf, m. butter-pot, butter-jar, pot or jar for dripping, grease, lard &c. —trog, m. [with cloth-manufacturers] grease-trough. —wurz, f. 1) [der Beinwell or das Beinheil] anthericum, asphodel. 2) symphitum officinale, common comfrey. 3) pinguicula, butterwort.

Schmalzen, Schmalzen, [V. Schmalz]

1) [generally to soften or render supple through any thing] [with cloth manufacturers] Die Wolle —, to grease the wool. Fig. [with foresters] Den Boden —, to sow with corn a land just ploughed with the turf-plough or from which the turf has been removed by the spade; den Wein — [with wine-merchants], to give body to wine by mixing, to improve a poor or thin wine by a richer. 2) [usually] to grease. [with cooks] Die Suppe —, to put fat or any oleaginous principle into soup for giving it body [by the incorporation of it with any farinaceous principle]; dieses Gemüse ist zu stark ge- or geschmalzet, this dish of vegetables is too greasy, has had too much grease or butter put to it; diese Speise ist weder gesalzen noch ge-, this dish has neither been seasoned or flavoured with salt nor enriched with melted butter &c., this dish is tasteless or insipid for want of salt, and as dry as a hedge-stick; mit Zwiebeln —, to flavour with roasted onions in melted butter &c. V. Schmelzen. Das — [with cloth-manufacturers], the greasing.

Schmalzig, adj. and adv. [Schmalz enthaltend] [little used] greasy, fat.

Schmänt, m. [-es, pl. -e] [in Bohem. zamany means schmierig] 1) [provincial for Sahne or Rahm] cream. 2) [with miners, weiche Bergart] loam, fat and unctuous earth. 3) [in vitriol-works] sediment of vitriol. 4) [in salterns] V. Salz—.

Schmänten, I. v. tr. 1) [schäumen] to scum, to skim. II. v. intr. [Rahm or Sahne ansetzen] to throw up or yield cream [as milk does]; —lassen [in dairies], to let the cream rise or settle, to give or gather cream.

Schmaragd, Smaragd, m. [-es, pl. -e] [= der Glänzende] 1) [a gem] the emerald. Rohes, ungeschliffenes —, rough emerald; Capischer —, Cape-emerald; dieser — ist fleckig, wollicht, this emerald is spotted, clouded or cloudy; ein Tafelstein von —, an emerald-table. 2) [in conchology] Der kleine —, V. —schnecke.

Schmaragd-farbe, f. emerald-colour. —farben, —farbig, adj. and adv. emerald-coloured, smaragdine. —fluß, m. 1) [Art Krystall] green crystal, crystalized hyaline quartz. 2) false or paste-emerald. 3) [grüner Flußspath] smaragdine fluor spar or fluat of lime. —grün, adj. and adv. emerald green, smaragdine. —insel, f. 1) [in nursery-places &c.] the smaragd-island. 2) [poetical and, sometimes, comic] the Emerald Isle, Green Erin [Ireland]. —kristall, m. V. —auf 1). —mutter, f. [der Prasert] prase, actinolite-quartz, pellucid agate, smaragd-matt. —prasert, m. [in mineralogy] chryso-prase. —schnecke, f. [in conchology] the emerald-whelk. —spath, m. green feldspath or felspar, the smaragdite. —tafel, f. emerald-table.

Schmaragden, adj. and adv. of or like emerald. —es Armband, an emerald-bracelet; [with poets] die —e Flur, the emerald fields or plains. Fig. Die —e Insel, das —e Eiland, the Emerald Isle, Green Erin [poetical and, sometimes, comic, instead of Ireland].

Schmaragdīt, m. [-en, pl. -en] V. Schmaragdspath.

Schmaröhen, [from the Old Sax. smære = lachen? or springing from the old Schnarzenlehrer = a cat-gut scraper, a fiddler] to sponge or sponge upon. Er hat bei uns geschmaröht, he has been spunging on us; —gehen, to go spunging for a dinner, to be a diner-out, to go a dinner-hunting, to shark for a dinner, [at public houses in London] to go out oyster-eating, [in schools] to suck, to play the parasite. Das —, spunging, hanging on; er lebt bloß vom —, he only lives by spunging.

Schmaröher, m. [-s, pl. -]. —inn, f. a parasite, [fam.] a spunger, a suck, a dinner-hunter, a lead-captain, [a woman] a toad-eater, toadee, inseparable, shadow. Er ist ein hungeriger —, ein Erz—, he is a hungry parasite, an arch-parasite, [low] a lick-spittle, [modern] a tiger.

Schmaröherbaum, m. [in botany] a parasitical tree, a parasite. —krebs, m. [in nat. hist.] 1) the Bernard crab. 2) hermit-crab. 3) flea-crab. —meve, f. [Strandjäger] lestris parasitica, strunt-jogger. —nessel, f. [in botany] parasitical nettle. —pflanze, f. parasitical plant, parasite-plant. —schale, f. [in conchology] a parasitical shell. —schwamm, m. [in botany] parasite-mushroom or fungus.

Schmaröherei, f. [das Schmaröhen] sponging, spunging; [familiar of children, of dogs &c.] cupboard-love, [of men] dinner-hunting, [of women] toad-eating, toadyism.

Schmarre, f. [appears to belong to mären, morden = schneiden, to cut] 1) [in pop. lang., the better word is Schramme, Narbe, which see] gash, slash, a great cut, [if healed over] scar, [fam. for both] scratch. Er hat eine große —, eine hässliche — über die Nase, he has a great gash, a frightful or ugly scar across, on his nose; Einem eine — in's Gesicht hauen, versetzen, to give any one a gash, a cut in one's face; er hat eine —, mehrere —n im Gesichte, he has a scar, a seam, several marks of sword-cuts &c. in his face, [modern term] he is a balafré. Syn. V. Narbe. 2) [provincial] V. Obstmuß. 3) V. Klumpen.

Schmárrig, adj. and adv. scarred, gashed, [new word] balafré. —es Gesicht, scarred face, it. a person with a seam or cicatrised wound in the face.

Schmárting, f. [pl. -en] [in seamen's lang.] parceling.

Schmásche, f. [pl. -n] [in Polish smusik is a lamb's fleece or fell] [with fellmongers] the fell of abortive or unborn lambs.

Schmáß, m. [-es, pl. Schmáße], dim. Schmáßchen, || Schmáßlein, n. [-s, pl. -] [appears allied to the Fr. baiser, to the Lat. bas-iare] [in common people's lang., for Ruß] a smack, a buss. Einem einen derben — geben, to give any one a hearty kiss.

† Schmäße, f. [pl. -n] [from the old meiten, meien] [in forests] stump. Die — n abbauen, V. 2. Schmägen.

1. Schmägen, [V. Schmaß] [in common people's lang.] I. v. intr. to sputter. Er schmägt beim Essen wie ein Schwein, he sputters, he smacks or snops when eating just like a pig; Einen küssen, daß es schmägt [low], to give any one a hearty or jolly smack, a chirping kiss. II. v. tr. [unusual] Eine Person —, to give any one repeated hearty or chirping kisses; to hug any one. V. Ab—.

2. Schmägen, [V. Schmaße] v. tr. [in forests] to root up the stumps, to clear the land of stumps.

Schmäßer, m. [-s, pl. -] 1) [in common people's lang.] one who smacks, snops, sputters, chops in eating; it. [not much used] a kisser. 2) [in nat. hist.] V. Hecken—, Stein—.

Schmauch, m. [-es] [in common people's lang., for dicker Rauch] thick smoke. Einen — machen, to make a thick smoke.

Schmauchfeuer, n. a stifled or choked fire. — gesellschaft, f. a set of smokers.

Schmauchen, [in Gr. σύνω, allied to meucheln] [in pop. lang.] I. v. intr. to give a dank smoke. Holz, daß schmaucht, wet or damp wood that smothers or smoulders, gives out a dank thick smoke. II. v. tr. 1) Tabak —, to smoke tobacco. Er hat sein Pfeifchen geschmaucht, he has smoked [out] his pipe; er schmaucht beständig, he smokes incessantly, he is always smoking, a-smoking. 2) V. Schmoren.

Schmauchen, v. tr. [provincial] Fleisch &c. —, to smoke, to smoke dry, [old] to buccan meat or flesh &c., V. Räuchern. Die Bienen, Füchse &c. —, to smoke [i. e. to kill by smoke] bees, to smoke out foxes &c.

Schmaucher, m. [-s, pl. -] [in pop. lang.] a smoker, [fam.] a great or old smoker.

Schmauchig, V. Rauchig.

Schmauß, m. [-es, pl. Schmäuse] [V. Schmausen] [in fam. or pop. lang.] dim. Schmäuschen, || Schmäuslein, n. [-s, pl. -] a feast, merry-making, a spread, a blow-out. Großer, prächtiger —, great, splendid spread, feast; einen — geben, anrichten, halten, to give a dinner, a spread, a feast; zu einem — e einladen, to invite to a feast, to a spread &c.; bei einem — e seyn, einem — e bewohnen, to be a guest at, to partake of a feast &c.; seinen Freunden einen — geben, to give one's friends a treat, a good blow-out; zum — e gehen, to go to the feast &c. Fig. Das ist ein wahrer — für mich, that is a real treat for me, to me, V. Augen—, Ohren—.

Schmaußbruder, — geseß, m., — Schwester, f. [fam.] a feaster, a high feeder; a lover of feasts, one fond of good eating and drinking, of high living, of good cheer.

Schmaußen, [from the obsolete mausen = essen, to eat] v. tr. and intr. to feast, to banquet, to revel. Er schmauset gern etwas Gutes, he loves good cheer, likes good eating and drinking, is fond of feasting; heute wird geschmauset, there is feasting, good eating going on to-day; man tanzte und schmausste bei dieser Hochzeit, there was dancing and banqueting at this marriage-feast, there was revelry and wassail at this wedding; er thut nichts als —, he does nothing but feast, [fam.] all he does is to cram into the good things of this world; wir haben hoch geschmauset, we have feasted splendidly, [fam.] we have had a glorious tuck-in; a superlative blow-out; mit guten Freunden —, to have or be at a nice cozy dinner-party, to dine or feast with some friends; bei Einem —, to be at, to be invited to the dinner, blow-out, spread given by any one. Das —, V. Schmaus, Schmauserei.

Schmauser, m., — i n n, f. V. Schmausbruder.

Schmauserei, f. feasting, feast, a blow-out, spread. Das sind immerwährende — en, these are continual feastings, a lot of spreads, [at colleges &c.] a run of blow-outs.

Schmeckbar, adj. and adv. [little used] discoverable or capable of being recognized by the taste.

Schmecken, [in Dan. smage; appears to be allied to schmauchen &c.] I. v. tr. to taste, to relish. Er schmeckt wohl, was er ißt, he tastes well, he relishes what he eats; haben Sie den Knoblauch an dieser Brühe geschmeckt? did you taste the garlic in this sauce? er schmeckt gar nichts mehr, he no longer tastes any thing, he has entirely lost the sense of taste, the power of tasting; er fängt an wieder etwas zu —, he begins again to taste or relish somewhat, he is beginning to lose that insipidity of food that he had, his sense of taste is reverting. Fig. Einem Kinde die Ruthe zu — geben [rather affected], to give a child a taste of the rod, to let a child taste the rod or birch-broom; wir schmeckten die Vergnügungen der Tafel, we tasted, relished, appreciated the pleasures of the table; die Freuden des Lebens —, recht —, to taste, to enjoy, to relish the sweets of life; schmecket, wie freundlich der Herr ist [in Scripture], O taste and see that the Lord is good. SYN. V. 2. Kosten.

II. v. intr. 1) to be of a certain taste, to taste. Dieses Fleisch schmeckt gut, schlecht or übel, this meat tastes good or well, bad, ill or amiss; das schmeckt vortrefflich, köstlich, herrlich, that tastes excellently, exquisitely, magnificently, beautifully, capital; sauer, süß, bitter, scharf —, to taste sour, sweet, bitter, acrid, pungent or sharp; wie schmeckt dieser Wein? how does this wine taste? er schmeckt gut, it tastes well; das schmeckt brandig, that tastes burnt, [if of spirituous liquids] that has an empyreumatic taste; dieser Wein schmeckt nach dem Fasse, this wine tastes of the cask; dieser Apfelmoss schmeckt faulig, this cider tastes rotten; diese Suppe schmeckt nach nichts, this soup tastes of nothing, has no taste whatever, is perfectly insipid, tasteless; der Pfeffer schmeckt bei dieser Brühe vor, the pepper tastes too much in this sauce, this sauce tastes too strong of [the] pepper; er weiß, was gut schmeckt, he knows what tastes good, what is good; wie schmeckt Ihnen dieses Gericht? how do you like, find this dish? how do you find this dish taste? es schmeckt mir recht gut, I like it very much, I find it taste very good, it tastes exactly as I like it, [fam.] it hits my taste, suits my palate to a T; dieser Wein schmeckt nach mehr [fam., comie], this wine says „come and drink me“. Fig. [in fam. lang.] Das schmeckt nach der Schule, nach dem Handwerk, that smells, has a taste of the school, of the shop. 2) to relish, to taste well, to have an agreeable taste, a pleasant savour, to be savoury. Schmeckt Ihnen diese Pastete, dieser Wein? do you like this pie, wine? do you find this pie &c. good? das schmeckt mir nicht, I don't like it, that is not to my taste; es schmeckt mir nichts mehr, es will mir nichts mehr —, I have no longer taste or relish for any thing, I am disgusted with every thing, every thing seems or tastes insipid to me; das Essen fängt an, ihm wieder zu —, a relish or taste for his food is returning; auf dieses Gericht schmeckt ein Trunk Wein, after this dish a glass of wine will relish, won't be amiss or a bad thing; er läßt es sich — [in fam. or pop. lang.], he eats [drinks] with a relish, with gout, [with epicures] he inhales the nare, the aroma of his food, he feels what he is eating, he eats with sentiment. Fig. Das will ihm nicht — [in common people's lang.], he won't relish that, that is not to his or after his taste; diese Antwort schmeckte ihm gar nicht, wollte ihm gar nicht —, he did not relish, fancy this answer at all, this answer did not go down at all with him. 3) [low] to taste high [as game], putrid [as meat &c.]; [vulgar] to sink, V. Riechen. Das —, V. Geschmack.

Schmeckförner, pl. [with farriers] the papillae [of the tongue]. — kraft, f. power or sense of taste.

Schmecker, m. [-s, pl. -] 1) [effer] an epicure, a dainty person, [fam.] a dainty-bird. 2) [low] the mouth, the nose, [slang] ivory-canister or taster, claret-bottle or smeller; it. [in sportsmen's lang.] the stag's mouth.

Schmeer, V. Schmer.

Schmeicherei, f. 1) flattery, [fam.] butter, smoothing down. Die — hassen, to hate flattery, compliments; niederträchtige, niedrige —, humiliating, base, abject, low flattery, adulation; schändliche or schimpfliche —, shameful or disgraceful flattery, praise; kriechende —, rampant, servile, cringing, sneaking adulation; Etwas aus — sagen, to say any thing out of flattery; Etwas ohne — sprechen, to speak without flattery. 2) [Schmeicheltrede] Feine, grobe or plumpe —, a fine or delicate, coarse or vulgar piece of flattery; Einem süße, ekelhafte — en machen, vorsagen, to bestow fulsome epithets on any one, to utter honied words to any one; sie hört es gern, wenn man ihr — en vorsagt or sagt, she likes soft speeches, flattering or cozening words; abgeschmackte — en, insipid flatteries; das ist eine zarte —, this is a delicate, a fine compliment.

Schmeichelhast, adj. and adv. flattering. — e Worte, Reden, Lobeserhebungen, flattering words or epithets, speeches, eulogies; er hat auf eine sehr — e Art von Ihnen gesprochen, he spoke, he has spoken of you in a most flattering manner; das ist sehr — für uns, that is very flattering for us; er weiß den Leuten immer etwas — es zu sagen, he always knows how to say something flattering to a person, he has always something flattering to say to people; — e Hoffnung, flattering, fallacious, delusive hope, [in refined style, schmeichelnde Hoffnung] fond hope.

Schmeicheln, [from the old schmeichen = streichen, allied to schmiegen] [= streicheln] v. intr. to flatter, [fam.] to butter, to soap down; it. to cajole, to caress, to fawn upon, to blandish, [fam.] to gammon, to come round, to wheedle, to do. Der Hund schmeichelt seinem Herrn, the dog fawns upon, caresses his master; — de Kage, a wheedling, coaxing cat, fig. V. Schmeicheltage; dieses Kind schmeichelt seiner Mutter, this child coaxes, comes round, [in a bad sense] wheedles its mother. Fig. a) Ein guter Wein schmeichelt dem Gaumen, a good wine tickles, captivates the palate; das schmeichelt den Sinnen, der Einbildungskraft, that pleases the senses, tickles the fancy; sich mit vergeblichen Hoffnungen, mit einem glücklichen Erfolge —, to flatter one's self with vain, fond or delusive hopes, with a happy result; man schmeichelt ihm damit, he is flattered, wheedled by or with it; er schmeichelt sich, daß man seine Bitte bewilligen werde, he flatters himself that his request will be granted. b) [to gain one's private ends by dint of flattery or cringing] Er kann sehr —, he knows well how to flatter, [low] to bamboozle; — ist nicht meine Sache, flattery is not my trade, is not in my line; die Höflinge — den Fürsten, courtiers flatter princes; er ist zu rechtschaffen, als daß er dem Kaiser — sollte, he is too upright to pay adulation or homage to vice, to flatter or pay his court to vice; der Mahler hat ihr ein wenig geschmeichelt, the painter has flattered her a little; dieses Bild ist geschmeichelt, this picture is a flattering likeness; dieser Spiegel schmeichelt, this looking-glass flatters, does not tell the truth; sagen Sie mir, ohne mir zu —, was Sc., tell me, without flattering me, what Sc.; ich kann, ohne mir zu —, sagen Sc., I can affirm, without flattery Sc.; der Eitelkeit, den Leidenschaften —, to flatter, feed or pamper vanity, the passions. Syn. V. Liebkosen.

Schmeicheltage, f. [for schmeichelnde Kage] a wheedling, flattering cat or puss. Fig. [in fam. lang., einschmeichelnde Person] coaxing, insinuating, flattering person. Die kleine — Kage! the little coaxing baggage, the wheedling little gipsy, the flattering little puss! — rede, f. flattering speech; it. flattering or insinuating word. — wort, n. flattering term, word or epithet. Einem — worde sagen, to say flattering things to any one; trauen Sie seinen — Worten or — reden nicht, don't believe his soft speeches, his honied words, [low] his buttered morsels. — zunge, f. 1) flattering, coaxing tongue. 2) Fig. a flattering, coaxing person.

Schmeicheln, v. tr. den Aufzug — [with weavers], V. 2. Schlichten.

Schmeichler, m. [-s, pl. -], — inn, f. a flatterer, adulator; it. [Liebhaber] cajoler, wheedler. Du kleiner —! you little wheedler you! niederträchtiger —, vile flatterer; er ist ein großer —, ein Erz —, he is a great, an arch-flatterer.

Schmeichlerei, V. Schmeichelei.

Schmeichlerisch, adj. and adv. flattering, given to adulation. — er Mensch, a flattering fellow; ich will keine — en Freunde, I want no false, flattering, fawning friends; — e Worte, Reden, flattering words or epithets, language; — e Sprache, flattering language; sein — es Wesen, his flattering, fawning manners; — er Spiegel, a flattering looking-glass.

Schmeidig, V. Geschmeidig.

Schmeidigen, V. Geschmeidig machen [under Geschmeidig]. Sich —, V. Geschmeidig werden [under Geschmeidig].

Schmeidigkeit, V. Geschmeidigkeit.

Hilpert, Deutsch. Engl. Wört. 2. Bd.

1. Schmeißen, [in Old. Sax. smittan, in Sw. smita; appears allied to the Lat. mitt-o, miss-um] irr. v. tr. [low] 1) [= schlagen] to smite, to beat. 2) [= werfen] to chuck, to smite. Er schmiß ihn mit einem Steine, he smote or hit him with a stone; man hat ihn zu Boden geschmissen, he was knocked down.

Schmeißwerk, n. [with miners] work. — werker, m. [with miners] a workman earning high wages.

2. Schmeißen, irr. v. intr. [probably allied to beschmigen, Schmuck, to the Low. Sax. smitten = schmieren] [vulgar] to have an evacuation, to go to the place, [low] to cack, to shit or shite; it. [of animals] to dung, V. Misten.

Schmeißfliege, f. [in nat. hist.] the meat-fly. Die blaue — fliege, the blue bottle-fly.

Schmiele, f. [pl. -n] V. Schmiele.

Schmelte, f. [pl. -n] [in nat. hist.] 1) V. Sandaal. 2) V. Stinfisch.

Schmelvogel, m. [-s] [in nat. hist.] V. Wiesentierche.

Schmelz, m. [-es, pl. -e] 1) enamel. Schwarzer, weißer Sc. —, black, white Sc. enamel; erhobener —, enamel in relief; Kupfer Sc. mit — überziehen, to do over copper Sc. with enamel; Verzierungen von — auf einen Ring machen, einen Ring mit — verziern, to make ornaments in enamel upon a ring, to ornament a ring with enamel; dieser — ist abgesprungen, hat sich geschiefert, this enamel has cracked, has scaled or peeled off; die Kunst, — zu machen, in — zu arbeiten, the art of making enamel, to work in enamel; eine auf — gemachte und eingebrannte Malerei, a painting in enamel; ein Bild auf —, an enamelled portrait, a likeness in enamel, an enamel-picture; den — im Laufe zu langen Fäden ziehen, to draw the enamel lengthwise, in threads. Fig. [with poets] Der — [die glänzende Farbe] der Blumen, der Wiesen, the enamel of the flowers, of the meads; — der Zähne, the enamel of the teeth; — der Thränen [in poetry, little used], pearly tears. 2) [with embroiderers] bugle, glass-bugle. Weißer, blauer —, white, blue bugle; schwarzer —, jet-bugle; Stickerei von —, embroidery with or of bugles. 3) V. Schmelzbütte. 4) [in falconry] V. Mist.

Schmelzbar, adj. and adv. fusible; that may be melted or molten [away]. — e Stoffe, fusible substances.

Schmelzbarmachung, f. der Metalle [with chemists], ceration.

Schmelzbarkeit, f. fusibility.

Schmelze, f. [pl. -n] V. Schmelzhütte.

Schmelzen, [allied to mild, to the Lat. mollis, to the Gr. μείδω] reg. and irr. I. v. tr. to melt, to smelt, to fuse, to liquify, to cast. Wachs, Talg, Erze Sc. —, to melt wax, tallow, ores Sc.; die Sonne schmelzt den Schnee Sc., the sun melts the snow Sc.; geschmolzenes [geschmolzenes] Eisen, Kupfer Sc., melted [molten, cast] iron, copper Sc.; das Feuer schmelzt die Metalle, fire melts, smelts, fuses the metals, reduces the metals to fusion, to a liquid state; vor dem Löthrohre —, to melt before the blow-pipe; den Bismuth auf der Stange or im Winde —, to smelt bismuth upon a layer of wood, that is placed upon two upright rods, in such a manner that the wind can play on the upper and under surface; auf leichtem Gestübe, auf schwerem Gestübe —, to melt upon the light cement, upon the heavy lute. Fig. [with painters] Die Farben — [ver —, vertreiben], to melt or blend the colours, to work up the colours and soften them gradually into each other by neutral tinting, washing &c.; [with enamellers = mit Schmelz überziehen] to enamel; auf Stahl —, to enamel on or in steel; einen Ring, ein Uhrgehäuse —, to enamel a ring, a watch-case, geschmelzte Arbeit, enamelled work, enamelling; it. [with cooks] —, V. Schmalzen; eine Suppe mit Zwiebeln —, to season a soup with onions roasted in butter; mit Gänsefett geschmelztes Sauerkraut, sour-craut smeared or softened with goose grease; dieser Salat ist nicht genug geschmolzt, this salad has not oil enough. Das —, die Schmelzung, melting, smelting, fusion, liquefaction, [classical] dissolution; das — der Metalle, der Erze vornehmen, to undertake the melting of the metals, of the ores; das — vor dem Löthrohre, fusion before the soldering-pipe. II. v. intr. [flüssig werden] to melt to dissolve, to liquefy, to grow liquid or limpid. Der Schnee schmilzt an der Sonne, das Wachs schmilzt am Feuer, snow melts in the sun, wax melts before the fire; zum — bringen, to cause to melt; geschmolzenes Blei, melted or molten lead; geschmolzener Schnee, melted or dissolved snow; Butter auf dem Feuer — lassen, to melt butter, to let butter melt [on the fire]; Obst, das auf der Zunge schmilzt, fruit that melts upon the tongue. Fig. Sein dicker Bauch ist geschmolzen [in pop. lang.], this thick paunch of his is worked down, fallen in; das Geld schmilzt einem unter den Händen [in fam. lang.], money melts away in one's hands, slips through one's fingers; sein Heer ist durch Krankheiten Sc. sehr geschmolzen, es schmilzt zusehends, his army has very much melted away through sickness &c., it melts, diminishes visibly, sensibly. Das —, melting, solution or dissolution; das — des Schnees Sc., the melting of [the] snow, V. under I.

Schmelzarbeit, f. 1) [in metallurgy] the smelting or fusion of metals; [with enamellers] enamel-work, enamelling. Er ist vorzüglich geschickt in der — arbeit, he is remarkably skilful in enamel-work. 2) enamelled articles or work. Grobe, feine — arbeit, coarse, fine, enamel-work. — arbeiter, m. a smelter, a melter, a founder; it. an enamel-workman, enameller. — blau, adj. and adv. it. n. enamel-blue; it. zaffer-blue. — bogen, m. [with founders] leaf on which the amount of molten metal is marked. — buch, n. [with founders] the ledger of the foundry. — butter, f. [with cooks] melted butter, i. e. potted butter. — eisen, n. [with founders] cast iron — esse, f. [with blacksmiths] [große Schmiede] chafery, chaffery [the other forge being the finery]. — farbe, f. enamel colour. — feuer, n. fire for melting or smelting. — fisch, m. V. Schmalzfisch. — form, f. [with founders] form, mould. — gast, m. [with founders] a miner who has his ore melted in another's furnace. — gefäß, n. [Zett] muffle, cupel. — gemälde, n. an enamel-portrait, painting or picture. — glas, n. enamel; smalt. — grubbe, f. pit [for tin-smelting or roasting]. — haus, n. V. — hütte. — herd, m. a stithy or hearth in the chaffery [for smelting copper in]. — hütte, f. [with founders] the foundry. — junge, m. apprentice in a foundry. — kanten, pl. [with embroiderers] lace or fringe of hagle-work, of jet-ornaments. — Welle, f. a coppel, a ladle [for baling out the molten metal]. — Kessel, m. 1) [with organ-builders &c.] pit [for melting the tin and lead in for the pipes]. 2) a kettle or coppel for melting fat in, a melting-pot. — Kunst, f. art, science of smelting or fusing, it. of roasting metals; [with enamellers] enamelling. — Kunstler, m. a founder; it. an enameller. — Kupfer, n. dross of copper, copper for remelting. — Löffel, m. a melting-spoon, an iron-spoon [for melting lead, tin &c. in]. — Mahler, m. a painter in enamel, an enamel-painter, a miniature-painter in enamel. — Mahlerei, f. 1) the painting in enamel. 2) an enamel-painting. — Ofen, m. a melting-furnace. Ein — ofen die Ziegel auszubrennen, a sweating-furnace; der — ofen über dem Ziegel, a cupelling-furnace, a reverberatory furnace; der — ofen auf dem Stroh, V. Strohofen; das Erz in den — ofen bringen, to bring the ore to the smelting furnace; den — ofen mit Gestein zumachen, to lute the furnace, to cement or stop up the furnace with lute. — Pfanne, f., dim. — Pfännchen, || — Pfännlein, n. a melting-pan. — Rohr, n., dim. — Röhrchen, || — Röhrlein, n. an enameller's blow-pipe. — Silber, n. oxyd of silver mixed with bole [for silvering], paste for silvering, luna cornea. — Stahl, m. molten steel. — Stein, m. V. Schmelstein. — Tiegel, m. [with founders] 1) a crucible, melting or smelting-pot. 2) [Theil des — ofens] coppel, cupel. 3) [in glass-ovens] pot, crucible; it. a vessel for reducing to scoria, a test. Großer — tiegel, the coffin. — Tiegelofen, m. a kiln for crucibles, tests, cupels &c. — Trog, m. [with wax-chandlers] melting-trough. — Werk, n. 1) V. — Hütte. 2) [with enamellers, goldsmiths] relief or alto-relievo-work in enamel, enamelled work. — Werker, m. V. — Arbeiter. — Zeug, n. tools and utensils for melting, casting &c., smelting-apparatus.

Schmelzer, m. [-s, pl. -] one that smelts, melts &c.; [especially, with founders] a founder.

Schmelzerknecht, m. a journeyman-founder. — Meister, m. a master-founder.

Schmelzerei, f. 1) the act of smelting, melting [sometimes in contempt]. 2) V. Schmelzhütte.

Schmelzling, [-es, pl. -e] 1) V. Schmalzstisch. 2) V. Schlotterapfel.

Schmelzung, f. V. under Schmelzen. it. [with painters] Dieser Mahler hat eine gute —, this painter understands well the art of blending.

Schmelzungsmittel, n. [with founders] a flux, V. Stufmittel 2).

Schmier or Schmeer, m. [-es] [allied to schmieren, Märgel, Gr. μῦρ or sc.] 1) lard, fat, dripping, grease. Dieses Schwein hat viel —, this pig has a great deal of lard, of bacon, of fat; mit — schmieren, to smear with fat, with grease, to grease. 2) V. Wagenfchmiere. 3) [Schmutz] grease, dirt, greasiness. Syn. Schmeer, Sett. Any substance of an adipose, oleaginous or butyfaceous nature whether fluid or solid is Sett [fat]; when of such a consistency that it may be spread, it is then likewise Schmeer [grease].

Schmerz [or Schmeer] ader, f. V. Settader. — Bauch, m. 1) the paunch, the abdomen. 2) big paunch, [comic] corporation, portmanteau, [low] guts. Er hat einen — Bauch, he has a big belly. — beere, f. [Vogelbeere] service or sorb-apple. — blume, f. 1) V. Dotterblume. 2) V. — kraut 1). — büchse, f. [with wagoners] box for the cart-grease or wheel-grease. — butte, f. V. Meerbarbe. — erz, n. plumbago or galena ore. — flosse, f. [a fish] a variety of the silurus, the bagre. — gebirge, n. [in mining geology] mountain or metallic clay. — haut, f. adipose tunic. — holz, n. V. — wurz 8). || — hude, f. [in woods and forests] the mast or mastage of a forest, pannage. — flust, f. [with miners] crevice or flaw filled with clay, loam or fat earth. — kraut, n. [in botany] 1) [Wohlverlei] the doconicum germanicum, mountain arnica. 2) [Erbfrenwürger] orobanche, broomrape. — laib, m. roll or globe of lard, of dripping, of fat, of wheel-grease. — lappen, m. [Bauchfett] lard [of pigs], fat [of other animals]. — leder, n. V. Schmierleder. — linde, f. [in botany] the lime or linden-tree of Holland. — meiste, f. V. — büchse. — pfanne, f. [with millers &c.] the grease-pan — stein, m. [Speckstein] steatite. — vieh, n. V. Schmiervieh. — vogel, m. [Heidelerche] the tit lark. — wanst, m. V. — Bauch 2). — wurz, — wurzel, f. [in botany] 1) [fettes Sedum, fette Henne] officinal illecebra, butterwort, houseleek. 2) V. — kraut 1). 3) V. — kraut 2). 4) [Fettkraut] officinal comfrey or consound. 5) [Schwarz-wurzel] orpine stone-crop, sedum telephium. 6) [Weinweiss] white bryony. 7) [Zaunrübe] yellow alkanet or gromwell. 8) [das — holz, die gelbe Ochsenzunge] yellow bugloss, Montpellier plant, orobanchoid hypopythis. 9) Die falsche — wurzel, V. Fichtensauger.

Schmierbel, m. [-s] [in botany] 1) [auter Heinrich] good Henry, goose-foot, wild orach. 2) V. Schmalzblume. 3) V. Schmergel 1).

Schmergel, m. [-s] [allied to schmieren] 1) [in botany] a) Kleiner — [Feigwarzenkraut], little celandine or scrophularia. b) Großer —, V. Schmalzblume. 2) [with miners] — or Schmirgel, m. [-s] or — stein, m. emery, [in mineralogy] smiris poliens. Mit — poliren, to polish with emery; man schneidet das Glas mit —, glass is cut by emery. 3) —, grease, greasy filth or dirt.

Schmergelartig, adj. and adv. of the nature of emery. — asche, f. — staub, m. emery-putty. — pulver, n. emery-powder. — staub, m. V. — asche. — stein, m. V. Schmergel [with miners].

Schmergeln or Schmirgeln, 1) [provincial or low, for beschmieren] to besmear. 2) Stahl &c. —, to polish steel &c. with emery.

Schmergler, m. [-s, pl. -] 1) [provincial or low] one who besmears, a greaser 2) one who polishes with emery.

Schmierfel, m. [-s] [in salterns] the last lie the last deposit of the brine.

Schmierl, m. [-es, pl. -e] [Ital. smiriglione] [in nat. hist., Perchenfalk] the merlin.

Schmierle, f. [pl. -n] 1) V. Schmierl. 2) [a fish] cobitis.

Schmierling, m. [-es, pl. -e] V. Schmierle 2).

Schmerz, [-ens or -es, pl. -en] [allied to Schmare, from the old verb märzen = to cut, in Slavonian smrt means to die or death] 1) [corporeal] pain, throe, smart, ache, anguish, pang, spasm, agony. Großer, heftiger, empfindlicher —, great, violent, sensible pain, great bodily anguish, a pang; beißender, brennender —, biting, burning, stinging, racking, acute pain; einen — in einem Gliede haben, to have pain, an ache in any limb, to smart as to a limb; ich fühle, empfinde einen grausamen, rasenden — im Leibe, I experience, I am suffering from a torturing, cruel, maddening pain in the body; ein — in der Seite, a stitch; das sind unerträgliche —en, these agonizing pains are insupportable; ein vorübergehender, ein anhaltender —, a temporary or acute, lasting or chronic pain; die Geduld erleichtert den —, patience mollifies, assuages pain; —en in den Eingeweiden, spasms, aches in the bowels, [fam.] the gripes; die —en der Gicht, the achings, throes, gnawing pains of the gout; V. the compound words Kopf—, Zahn—, Leib—en, Geburts—en, Glieder—en, Stein—en; dieses Mittel wird die —en lindern, besänftigen, stillen, this remedy will calm, mollify, assuage, lull the pains, the throes; dieses verursacht große, viele —en, this causes or occasions great pain, much pain. Syn. Schmerz, Weh, Pein. As Schmerz [pain] is antithetical to Vergnügen [pleasure], so in a like manner is Weh [ill or evil] the reverse of Wohl [good, welfare &c.]. Pein [agony or torture] is only a higher degree of Schmerz. See Pein. 2) mental agony, grief. Der Tod seines Sohnes hat ihm einen tiefen, einen tödtlichen — verursacht, er hat darüber einen tiefen — empfunden, the death of his son has caused him a profound grief, a mortal agony or woe, he has felt or experienced deep affliction about it; von — durchdrungen, ganz vom —en [—e] überwältigt, penetrated with affliction or grieved to the heart, quite overpowered with sorrow; die Zeit wird seinen — mäßigen, time will moderate his grief, calm his affliction; erneuern Sie seinen — nicht, do not renew, reawaken or recall his grief; ich theile seinen —, nehme Theil an seinem —e, [less usual] —en, I participate [in] his grief, sympathize in his sorrow or mental anguish; ich habe mit —en erfahren, daß &c., I have just learned with pain, with deep sorrow, that &c.; [fam.] Eilen mit —en erwarten, to wait for any one with painful impatience or anxiety. Syn. Schmerz, Traurigkeit, Betrübniß, Leid. As long as a disagreeable sensation is still novel, recent or acute, it is Schmerz [pain or suffering]; as soon however as the first Schmerz has lost a portion of its violence, it leaves behind it a Traurigkeit [sadness &c.] and Betrübniß [affliction &c.], which are of a milder nature. Schmerz is therefore the condition of a more exquisite sensibility or sensation, than Traurigkeit and Betrübniß. Der Traurige as well as der Betrübte complains, but great Schmerz is passively silent. Leid is chagrin, vexation or annoyance, and is that sorrow or grief felt under some misfortune occasioned by our fellow creatures, more especially so, should it be coupled with injustice.

Schmerzfrei, —en=frei, adj. and adv. free, exempt from pain, from anguish. Heute habe ich einen —en=freien Tag, to day I have no pain, to day I am free from pain. —en=geld, n. indemnification, damages or fine as compensation for an injury. —en=lindernd, adj. and adv. soothing, solacing or assuaging pain. —en=los, —los, adj. and adv. without pain or aches. —lose Krankheit, a disease exciting no pain or spasm. — lofigkeit, f. freedom or exemption from pain or throes. — enzstillend, — stillend, adj. and adv. [in medicine] lenitive, anodyne, assuaging. — stillendes Mittel, a lenitive, an anodyne, a paregoric, a soothing remedy. — voll, adj. and adv. full of pain, painful, oppressed with grief or woe.

Schmerzen, [v. Schmerz] v. intr. 1) to cause corporeal pain, to pain, to rack, to hurt, to ache, to cause a pang or throe. Seine Wunde schmerzt ihn sehr, his wound pains him very much, [fam.] smart again; das schmerzt ein wenig, that pains a little, smart rather, aches a trifle; die Hand schmerzt mich von diesem Schlage, my hand smart, stings, tingles from this blow, from this spat; der Fuß schmerzt ihn, his foot pains him, smart, is tender; da ist der Theil, der Ort, wo es mich am meisten schmerzt, that is the part, the spot where it pains me, aches the most. 2) [to cause woe or sorrow] to afflict, to chagrin, to vex, to distress, to pain. Dieser Unfall hat mich sehr geschmerzt, this mischance has annoyed me very much, this misfortune has deeply afflicted, pained me; es schmerzt mich sehr, daß &c., it grieves me, pains me much, that &c.; sein Tod &c. schmerzte mich tief, his death &c. deeply affected me, afflicted me. Syn. V. Kränken. Das —, V. Schmerz.

Schmerzhaft, Schmerzlich, adj. and adv. painful, smarting, grievous, dolorous, afflictive, sore, aching. Schmerzhafter Wunde, Krankheit, smarting or racking wound, painful disease; schmerzhafter Verlust, painful, distressing loss; sein Tod ist mir sehr schmerzhaft or schmerzlich gewesen, his death has been most afflictive to me; schmerzhaftes [sehr empfindliches] Glied, a smarting, painful, tender limb; schmerzliches [sehnliches] Verlangen, ardent desire, intense longing; sich schmerzlich beklagen, to complain bitterly, mournfully, to moan; daß that ihm schmerzlich weh, that afflicted, hurt, pained him very much, gave him pain.

Schmetterling, m. [-es, pl. -e] [probably from schmetzen, in Low. Sax. smitten, because it lays its eggs about everywhere] 1) [in nat. hist.] the butterfly, V. Tag —, Nacht —. Die Raupen verwandeln sich in —, caterpillars or grubs change themselves, are metamorphosed into butterflies. Fig. Er ist ein — [flatterhafter Mensch], he is a butterfly, courts every flower of beauty; he is a male coquet, male-flirt. 2) [in conchology] Der bunte —, V. —flügel [in conch.].

Schmetterlingfisch, m. lepus aequus, sea-hare.

Schmetterlingsartig, —förmig, adj. and adv. butterfly-formed, like a butterfly, [in botany] papilionaceous; fig. —artige Liebhaber, butterfly-lovers, inconstant swains or suitors; [in botany] eine —artige or —förmige Blumenkrone, Blume, eine —blume, a) a papilionaceous power. b) [species of orchis] the butterfly-orchis. —fang, m. butterfly-capture, hunt or chase. —flügel, m. 1) the wing of a butterfly. 2) [in conchology] Der —flügel, der bunte —flügel [das Färbungswerk, species of Napfuschel], the streaked butterfly-shell, the fortress, the radiated ruby-eye; it. the cornet-shell or cone of Guinea, the butterfly's wing. —förmig, V. —artig. —jagd, f. V. —fang. —werk, n. an entomological treatise or work on butterflies.

Schmettern, [allied to smiten, schmetzen = to smite] I. v. tr. Einen zu Boden — [= mit großer Heftigkeit werfen], to hurl or to throw [violently] any one down, [fam.] to floor or grass any one, [low] to give any one a floorer, a purler, a poller. Der Donner schmettete ihn zu Boden, the thunder struck him to the ground; Etwas in tausend Stücke —, to dash any thing into a thousand pieces, to smash something into a thousand fragments. II. v. intr. 1) [chiefly in fam. and, still more, in common people's lang.] An einen andern Körper —, to impinge with a shock, to dash or to smash upon another body; auf or an Etwas —, to fall with a crash, a flop upon or against something; er schmettete mit dem Kopfe an die Wand, he banged, knocked his head, floundered with his head against the wall. 2) to make a noise or din, to yield a crashing, violent sound or noise. Man hört den Donner —, one hears the thunder roar, bray, rumble; mit der Trompete —, to flourish with, to sound the trumpet; die Trompeten schmetteten, the trumpets brayed, crashed, clanged; —de Stimme, Trompete, a clanging voice, a clanging or braying trumpet; das —, der —de Gesang der Nachtigall, the warbling, the vollied rolls, the rattling volleys of the nightingale.

Schmied, m. [-es, pl. -e] [appears allied to smitan to smite, others identity it with the Old Sax. smæthe = soft, allied to the Lat. mitis] 1) a smith; [Grob—] a blacksmith; [Fuf—] a farrier-blacksmith, a shoeing blacksmith. Die —inn, the wife of the smith, of the blacksmith, V. Anker —, Blech —, Fahnen —, Gold —, Hammer —, Klingen —, Kupfer —, Messer —, Nagel —, Waffen —, Zug —. Fig. Er ist selbst seines Unglückes — gewesen, he has been himself the author of his own misfortune. V. Fügen —, Ränke —. Proverb. Ein Jeder ist seines Glückes —, every one is the maker, creator, carver out of his own fortune. 2) [in nat. hist.] — a) [a species of Lyvffische] the doree, faber. b) V. Meer —. c) V. Schmerle 2. a) V. Schnellkäfer.

Schmiedkäfer, m. V. Hirschkäfer.

Schmiedbar, Schmiedebär, adj. and adv. malleable, that can be welded or forged. —e Metalle, the malleable metals; nicht alle Metalle sind —, all the metals are not malleable.

Schmiedbarkeit, f. malleability.

Schmiede, f. [pl. -n] the forge, smithy, stithy. Eine große —, a smithery, iron-mill, V. Anker —; it. [in an iron-mill] a chafery. Fig. [proverbially and fam.] Vor die rechte — gehen, to find one's man, to come to the right shop, to address one's self right or well.

Schmieden, [v. Schmied] Das Eisen &c. —, to forge or weld iron; das Eisen glühend —, to forge iron at a red heat; der Wis-muth, das Spießglas &c. lassen sich nicht —, bismuth, antimony cannot be wrought or forged, are not malleable; eine Stange Eisen —, to forge a bar or rod of iron; in Stangen geschmiedetes Eisen, iron forged in bars, wrought iron; das Eisen lang —, aus —, to draw out or lengthen the iron in forging; eine Degenklinge, einen Kürass, einen Anker &c. —, to forge or weld a sword-blade, a cuirass, an anchor &c.; kalt —, to forge or hammer cold; hoch geschmiedete Hufeisen, horse shoes forged hollow; einen Verbrecher in die Eisen, an die Kette, auf die Galeeren —, to put a criminal in irons [by welding them on], in chains, to rivet or fasten a criminal in chains to or on the galleys. Proverb. Man muß das Eisen —, so lange es heiß ist, one must strike the iron while it is hot, [fam.] one must take time by the forelock, the current at the tide; zwei Nägel in einer Hufe —, to weld two nails in one heat, [that is] to kill two birds with one stone. Fig. Sein eigenes Unglück —, to work out or build up one's own disgrace, to be the agent of one's own misfortune; gegen sich selbst Waffen —, to furnish arms, to forge weapons about to be hostilely employed. [fam.] to furnish a rod for one's own bottom; Wörter, Ausdrücke — [erfinden], to coin, to forge, to strike out, to invent words, expressions, phrases; dieses Wort ist aus dem Lateinischen geschmiedet, this word is forged, formed from the Latin, this word is derived from Latin; er schmiedet Verse, Reime, he forges, hammers out vers, fashions rhymes; böse Anschläge gegen Einen —, to hatch, to form bad designs against any one; Fügen —, to forge, to weave or hatch lies. Das —, forging, welding, hammering; das — macht die Metalle dichter, the metals become more dense, more tough by forging, for being wrought.

Schmiedebel = a m b oß, m. anvil of a forge or stithy. —arbeit, f. 1) smith's or blacksmith's work. 2) V. —waare. —balg, m. forge-bellows. —eimer, m. forge-bucket. —eisen, n. forged or wrought iron. —esse, f. the chafery or chimney of a forge. —geräth, n. a smith's implements or working-tools. —hammer, m. a forge-hammer. —handwerk, n. trade of a smith or blacksmith. —handwerkzeug, n. V. —geräth. —knecht, m. 1) journeyman-smith or blacksmith. 2) [in nat. hist.] 1) [grauer Seehahn] grey gurnard, trigla. 2) V. Schnellkäfer. —kohle, f. charcoal, coal, coal-dust for blacksmiths. —kunst, f. art of welding and forging, smith's art. —meister, m. a master-smith or blacksmith. —schlacke, f. —sinter, m. iron-dross, slag or scoria from the forge; it. the iron sparks. —stock, m. the block of the anvil. —taxe, f. [with miners] tax or duty on smith-work. —waare, f. [weiße or kleine] hard ware in tin-articles &c., tinned or japan-ware; [schwarze, grobe] hardware. —werk, n. V. —arbeit 1). —zange, f. pincers, blacksmith's tongs, smith's callipers. —zeug, n. V. —geräth. —zunft, f. company or guild of smiths, of blacksmiths.

Schmiedweise, adv. [in seamen's lang.] —geschlagenes Tau, a rope thicker at one end than at the other, with a rat's tail, [that is] a pointing or tapering rope.

Schmiege, f. [pl. -n] [v. Schmiegen] 1) [Schräge] slope. In die — gehen [as a beam], to slope or slant, to be aslope or aslant, to lean on one side; dieses Zimmer geht in die —, this room runs into a slope, is bevel. 2) [in architecture] Die — einer Fensteröffnung, Thüröffnung, the embrasures, splays of a window, door. 3) [with carpenters and joiners &c.] a bevel-square or rule [with the two arms moveable in a hinge].

Schmiegen, [ist. mykia = biegen, Swed. smygga (schleichen)] 1) [krummen, biegen &c.] to crook, to bend. Einen Degen —, to bend a sword; den Finger —, to bend the finger; sich — [as wood does], to bend; der Hund schmiegt sich vor seinem Herrn, the dog crouches, crawls, creeps, bows down before his master; die Ruthe, die Gerte schmiegt sich um den Leib, the rod, the switch twines or curls round the body; das Kind schmiegt sich an den Busen seiner Mutter, the child presses, snuggles, nestles into the bosom of its mother, V. An—. Fig. Sich unter Jesumandes Gewalt —, to bend, submit or conform to another's will; er weiß sich zu — [in fam. lang.], zu — und zu biegen, he knows how to yield with a good grace, how to bend and bow; — Sie sich, es ist da nichts zu machen, yield, give away, concede, there is nothing [else] to be done there; hierbei kann man nichts thun, als sich — und schweigen, there is nothing to be done in this case but to stoop to circumstances and keep one's own counsel, the only thing to be done here is to yield with a good grace and be silent. 2) [genau anpassen] (little used) to adjust, to fit or shape. Eine Thür —, to make a door fit, shut close; [with masons] eine Wand —, to raise a wall at a fixed bevel-angle; [in seamen's lang.] —, to take the oblique angles with a bevel-square or with a bevel. Das —, V. Schmiegun.

Schmiegsam, adj. and adv. [biegsam, geschmeidig] pliant, supple, flexible, bending, elastic.

Schmiegun, f. 1) the action of bending, carving &c. 2) [Schräge] V. Schmiege 1).

Schmiege, f. [pl. -n] [from schmiegen] or —gras, n. 1) [in botany] a) wheat-grass, hair-grass, tall oat-grass. Weiße — or Silber—, alpine oat-grass; hohe — [Rasfen—], fine bent-grass, turf-grass; graue —, grey or whitish oat grass; gebogene — [Draht—], bent-grass. b) [Binie] the rush. 2) V. Schmiege.

Schmielende, n. [pl. -n] [instead of das schmale Ende] V. Schmalende.

Schmier, n. [-es, pl. -e] [allied to the Gr. μύρον, die Salbe] [Schmiere, Wagen-schmiere] grease, wheel-grease; [in English stages] antirrition-grease; [in seamen's lang.] [for smearing the sheaves of the blocks] grease, stuff, tallow.

Schmieralien, pl. 1) [low] V. Gesudel, Sudel. 2) Fig. [low, often comic] a bribe, presents [to a judge previous to a trial or sentence]. — geben, annehmen, to give, to receive bribes.

Schmiere, f. [pl. -n] 1) fat, grease [for greasing any thing]; carter's grease, wheel-grease. 2) [low] [= Salbe] ointment. 3) [in common people's lang. = Schmutz] grease, filth, dirty spot, dirt. Er ist voller — or Schmutz, he is full of grease or dirt, he is as dirty and greasy as he can be. 3) [with founders, sometimes] V. Blasebalg.

Schmierer, v. tr. and intr. [V. Schmier] 1) to grease, to anoint, to besmear, to smear over with grease, tallow, oil &c; to plaster with grease &c. Das Treibwerk einer Maschine, — to grease the machinery of an engine; den Wagen, die Räder —, to grease the coach, the wheels; die Schuhe, Stiefel —, to grease the shoes, the boots; mit Unschlitt, mit Seife —, to rub with tallow, with soap, to grease, to soap; mit Haarfalbe —, to rub in hair-ointment or pomatum; mit Del —, to oil; das Leder —, to grease the leather; die Felle mit Unschlitt —, to put or dip the skins in tallow; eine Geschwulst mit Salbe —, to anoint or soften a tumour with ointment or salve; ein Pflaster —, to spread salve over a plaster, to make a pitch-plaster &c.; Butter auf Brod — [rather low], ein Butterbrod — [rather low], to spread butter upon bread, to spread a slice of bread and butter; Lehm über etwas —, to spread loam over any thing; einem Kinde Brei in den Mund — [in common people's lang.], to put pap into the mouth of a child; den Boden eines Schiffes mit Talg —, to pay a ship's bottom with stuff; die Laue mit Theer —, to tar the ropes, to pay the ropes with tar. Proverb. Wer gut schmirt, der fährt gut, a fortress is taken best with a golden key. V. An—, Auf—, Aus—, Be—, Ein—, Ueber—. Fig. Den Wein — [in common people's lang. = verfälschen], to adulterate, to drug wine; it. Einem den Buckel — [low = einen Prügeln], to give one a good lathering; it. Einen — [low = bestechen], to grease any one's palm, to bribe any one; dieser Richter läßt sich —, man hat ihn geschmirt, this judge has an itching palm, he has been bribed, his palm has been greased; er würde diese Sache nie zu Stande gebracht haben, wenn er nicht geschmirt hätte, he never would have brought this matter to bear, if he had not bribed; den Thürhüter —, um sich Eingang zu verschaffen, to fee the porter, tip to the door keeper, stow the maw of cerberus; unterlassen Sie nicht, diese Leute ein wenig zu —, don't forget to fee these people, to tip to these people; it. V. Gurgel; it. [very low] Einem das Maul — und nichts hinein geben, to dally with any one, to amuse any one with fine words. 2) [in pop. lang. = sudeln] to scribble, to daub. Et was in ein Buch —, in einen Brief —, to scribble, to scrawl any thing in a book, in a letter; er hat dieses Gemälde geschmirt, das ist bloß geschmirt, he has daubed through this picture, that is merely daubed. Fig. Dieser Schriftsteller kann bloß —, this author can only scribble, only knows how to blot paper. Das — des Leders, the greasing of leather. it. Das —, scribbling, scrawling, daubing.

Schmierarzt, m. V. Quacksalber. — baum, m. 1) [more usual Kiefer] the wild pine; the scotch fir. 2) [in seamen's lang.] — bäume, pl. skeeds, skids. — buch, n. V. Sudelbuch. — büchse, f. — eimer, m. — faß, n. box, tub for grease, wheel-grease, gom or coom. — gording, f. [in seamen's lang.] a spilling line. — hammel, m. [low] V. Schmutzhammel. — käse, m. [in pop. lang.] soft cheese, [in England] Bathcheese; it. cream-cheese; it. V. Quarkkäse. — kittel, m. V. Schmutz kittel. — lappen, m. V. Schmutzlappen [if used fig., low]. — leder, n. [with curriers] leather greased with train-oil. — meste, f. V. — büchse. — ofen, m. pitch-furnace. — pfanne, f. [in seamen's lang.] bed or planks of the cradle. — pstopf or — proppen, m. [in seamen's lang.], plug [for stopping a shot-hole]. — quast, m. mop, swab or brush [for paying a ship's bottom &c.]. — rack, n. [in seamen's lang.] a truss-parrel. — salbe, f. ointment. — schafe, pl. — vieh, n. [in veterinary art and in rural oeconomy, räudige Schafe] scabby sheep or flock, sheep with the rot. — schäfer, m. a shepherd who has only a scabby flock. — seife, f. [in pop. lang.] soft, fat, greasy soap. — vieh, n. V. — schafe. — weg, m. [in woods and forests] a road greased for wood to slide on. — wolle, f. wool from a scabby or rotten sheep.

Schmierer, m. [-es, pl. -e] — inn, f. one who smears, greases or anoints; it. V. Schmiererschäfer. Fig. a scribbler, a hack of a writer; it. a daub [of a painter]. Dieser Schriftsteller ist weiter nichts, als ein —, this author is a mere scribbler, a mere penny-a-line writer.

Schmiererei, f. [in pop. lang.] constant greasing, bedaubing, besmearing. Fig. daubing, scribbling. Dieses Gemälde, Werk &c. ist eine bloße —, this picture is nothing but a daub, this work is nothing but scribble and scrawl.

Schmierig, adj. and adv. fat, greasy, unctuous, smeary, oily, tallowy, V. Schmutzig. — e Haare Hände, greasy hair, greasy or smeary hands; sein Weißzeug und seine Kleider sind immer —, his linen and clothes are always greasy; geben Sie Acht, daß Sie Ihre Finger, daß Sie sich nicht — machen, take care, you don't grease your fingers, make yourself greasy; — er [schlammiger] Weg, Boden, a miry, sloppy way, soil; [in commerce] — e [ölige] Feigen, Turkey figs, [low] dough figs; — es [dicke, zähe] Del, thick, fat, clammy oil; — es Leder, oiled leather.

Schmiering, m. [-es, pl. -e] [in nat. hist.] V. Gelbbein.

Schmierlein, n. [-es, pl. -e] V. Schmirle 2).

Schmierling, m. [-es, pl. -e] [in botany] lacteous amanite, milky agaric.

Schmiere, f. [pl. -n] [in seamen's lang.] [Hafse] tack of the main-sail or fore-sail.

Schminke, f. [pl. -n] [V. Schminke] 1) rouge, paint, colour [for the face]. Rothe, weiße, glänzende —, rouge, white, glossy paint, pearl-powder; die weiße — [das Schminkeweiß, spanische Weiß], Spanish white; sie legt rothe, weiße — auf, she uses rouge, pearl-powder; sie hat die — fingerdick aufliegen [in fam. lang.], she has plastered her face with pearl-powder, rouge &c. two inches deep. Fig. Etwas ohne — darstellen, sagen, to represent, say any thing without gloss; in seiner Rede trifft man mehr —, als wahre Schönheiten an, in his speech more tinsel is perceived than natural beauties; ich will Wahrheit ohne —, I will have or I want to have the truth without embellishments, the naked truth. 2) [in rural economy] V. Bienensalbe. 3) [provincial, for Schmitte, Stück] Eine — Speck, Butter &c., a slice, a piece of bacon, of butter &c.

Schminke-argnei, f. V. — mittel. — balsam, m. white balsam. — beere, f. [in botany] blite, strawberry-spinach. — bohne, f. the common French bean or scarlet-runner. Die — bohnen ranken sich an Pfählen in die Höhe, the scarlet-runners climb up by means of stakes; — bohnen in Essig &c. einmachen, to pickle French or kidney-beans. — büchse, — dose, f. rouge-box, paint-box. — fleckchen, — läppchen, n. 1) a rag or morsel of linen or cotton for dabbing on the rouge &c. 2) [in commerce] scarlet cuttings or pieces of cloth. — mittel, n. a cosmetic, cosmetic remedy. — pflasterchen, n. 1) [Schönheitspflasterchen] a small piece of court-plaster over a beauty-spot or dimple. 2) [in conchology] winged murex. — pinsel, m. a brush for rouging or painting. — stein, m. common or laminary talk. — topf, m. the rouge-pot, paint-pot. — wasser, n. a cosmetic water, a water for the skin. — weiß, n. Spanish white, pearl-white. — wurz, — wurzel, f. [in botany] 1) stone-crop or gromwell of the fields, gold moss. 2) Solomon's seal.

Schminken, [allied to schmieg, schmieren] v. tr. to rouge, to paint, to colour. Das Gesicht, die Wangen, den Hals —, to paint one's face, cheeks, neck; sich —, to paint, to rouge; zu stark —, to paint too highly; sie ist roth, weiß geschminkt, she is rouged, has used pearl-powder; ein geschminktes Frauenzimmer, a lady who paints, who is painted; geschminkte Wangen, painted, rouged cheeks; ein stark geschminktes Gesicht, a visage painted high, bedizened with paint. Fig. Geschminkte Waare, goods glossed or glazed over, trimmed or tricked up; geschminkte Freundschaft, Worte, feigned or pretended friendship, honied words.

Schmürzel, V. Schmergel.

Schmürzeln, I. v. tr. V. Schmergeln. II. v. intr. [in common people's lang.] to smell rancid, to smell rusty.

Schmiß, m. [-es, pl. -e] [low] 1) [Wurf] cast, throw. 2) [Schlag] blow, hit. Er hat — bekommen, he has had a licking, got a sound beating. 3) [Auswurf, Roth] turd, [comic] daisy, V. Fliegen —.

Schmitte, Schmitten, V. Schlichte, Schlichten [with weavers].

Schmiß, m. [-es, pl. -e] [from schmeißen = schlagen] [in common people's lang.] 1) lash, stripe cut with a whip, birch &c.; rap, spat, [low] whop. Er hat — auf die Finger bekommen, he has had a spat on the fingers, a rap over the knuckles. 2) V. Klecks.

1. Schmiße, f. [pl. -n] [from schmeißen] 1) the lash [of a whip]. 2) [with sheavers] a stripe or furrow in the shearing of the cloth.

2. Schmiße, f. [pl. -n] [allied to Schmug] 1) [provincial, Salbe] ointment, salve. 2) [provincial] V. Klecks. 3) [with curriers] die for streaking the skins.

1. Schmißen, v. tr. [in common people's lang.] to whip, to cut, to lash with the whip, V. Schmiße.

2. Schmißen, [V. 2. Schmiße] I. v. tr. 1) [with curriers] to die, to stain. Die Felle —, to die the skins; [with weavers] V. Schlichten. 2) V. Beschmugen. Fig. Einen — [old], to blacken any one's character. II. v. intr. [with printers, when the character marks double] to mackle. Die Schrift soll auf dem Druckbogen nicht —, the type must not mackle on the printed sheet. Das —, mackling.

1. Schmizer, m. [-s, pl. -] [unusual] one who whips &c.

2. Schmizer, m. [-s, pl. -] a scourer [with sellmongers] [Jelt —] a skinner, a pelt-monger.

Schmölle, f. [pl. -n] [allied to mollis] 1) the crumb or soft part [of bread]. 2) V. Bissen. 3) V. Fettklumpen.

Schmollen, [allied to Maul, Fr. moue, in Swed. smala means to smile] v. intr. [u. w. haben] [especially to distort the face] v. intr. 1) to pout, to make [up] a face; to look sulky; to be in sulks, in a fit of the sulks. Dieses Kind schmollt, this child pouts; er schmollt mit mir, he pouts at me; sie — miteinander, they pout, they look glum or sour at one another; nachdem er lange geschmollt, mit mir geschmollt hatte &c., after pouting a long time, looking sulky at, after having been sulky with, me &c.; sie haben immer Etwas miteinander zu —, they have always something to sulk about with one another. Das —, pouting, sulking, sulky fit; es ist ein beständiges — von seiner Seite, it is an everlasting sulky fit with him, he is always moping in the sulks; selbst ihr — ist reizend, even her pouting, her pouting mood is charming or is another charm; wenn sie die Laune zum — anwandelt, when the sulky humour comes over her, V. Maulen. 2) [rather provincial = lächeln] to smile slightly or with secret complacency. Syn. Schmollen, Maulen. Maulen is to make a wry face at any thing, and especially to pout, inasmuch as the mouth, more than any other organ of the face, is the index of that feeling, which maulen implies. Schmollen [to be sulky] conveys however the idea of a more lasting and secret discontent, and that feeling, which often can only be subdued by a continued self-control. A peevish, irritable or sickly person is peculiarly apt to schmollen.

Schmollbruder, m. — Schwester, f. [in fam. lang., often in jest] V. Schmoller. — Kämmerchen, — Stübchen, — Zimmer, n. — Winkel, m. [fam. and comic] dressing-room, a boudoir. Sie ist in ihrem — Winkel, hat sich in ihren — Winkel begeben, she is in her dressing or private room, has retired to her boudoir.

Schmoller, m. [-s, pl. -] — inn, f. a pointer, a sulker, a mumbler.

Schmöllig, adj. and adv. 1) pouting, sulky. — es Kind, — e Laune, sulky, fretful child, humour or disposition. 2) [rather provincial] smiling slightly or with secret complacency, good-humouredly funny, chuckling.

Schmöllis, n. [student's cant] — mit Einem trinken, to fraternize with any one in drinking, [of other people] to hob and nob. [the glasses or rummers having been filled with wine the two persons, bent upon drinking Schmöllis hold, crossing their outstretched arms, each his glass to the lips of the other who then empties it in one draught and kisses the other, and from that moment a regular thoning is established between them]; — Herr Bruder! let's drink or empty our glass on good fellowship henceforward!

Schmören, [in Low Sax. schmoren means to burst into a stifling sweat in an enclosed place, to swelter] I. v. intr. 1) [in pop. lang.] to be half dead, knocked up, stifled, smothered or suffocated with the heat. 2) [little used] to waste and shrivel [up] through heat, to be parched up. II. v. tr. [dämpfen] [with cooks] Kalbfleisch, junge Hühner &c. —, lassen, to let veal, fowls stew or simmer, to stew veal, fowls &c.; geschmortes Fleisch, a stew, stewed meat, [with rich sauce] ragout; eine geschmorte Hammelskeule, a stewed leg of mutton; junge Hühner —, Geschmortes von jungen Hühnern machen, to make a fricassee of fowls, [if with hot peppers] a fowl-curry; das wird geschmort gut schmecken, it will be fit to eat if stewed or prepared stew-fashion. Das —, the stewing, [for vegetables] simmering; [meat with the addition of onions] smothering, [with hot peppers] making a curry.

Schmorbraten, m. a stew, [or rather] stewed meat. Einen — braten machen, essen, to make, to eat a stew, [if with rich sauce or gravy] ragout. — pfanne, f. V. — tiegel. — stück, n. [with cooks] 1) a piece good for stewing, a stewing bit. 2) V. — braten. — tiegel, — topf, m. [with cooks] a stew-pan, a stew-saucepan.

Schmü, m. [indecl., low] [Gewinn, Vorthell] profit, a nice thing, a good spec. — machen, to make a good spec, a good thing of it, a nice morning's work, a good job.

Schmuck, [perhaps allied to σμάω, σμίζω, = to wipe off, to deterge, to clean] adj. and adv. [zierlich, hübsch] smart, pretty, nice, comely, buxom. Ein — es Mädchen, a pretty girl; ein — er Bursche, a smart youth; ein — er Anzug, a smart, nice dress.

Schmuck, m. [-es] [especially something brilliant] [Kleinodien] jewels, ornaments, decorations. Der priesterliche, bischöfliche —, the sacerdotal, pontifical ornaments; der — zu einem Altare, der Altar —, the ornaments of the communion-table, of the altar; der königliche —, the royal or kingly ornaments, it. the crown-jewels; den — von Etwas wegnehmen, to despoil, to strip; sie hatte ihren besten — an, she had her best ornaments, clothes on, she wore her gayest attire, [fam.] she had on her sunday-best; sie hat einen schönen —, she has a fine set of ornaments; sie hat ihren — versetzt, she has pledged all her fine things; ein Kästchen voll —, a casket of jewels, a case for a set of jewels; — von Perlen, von Diamanten [ein Perlen —, ein Diamanten —], a suite or set of pearls, of diamonds; die Schönheit bedarf keines — es, beauty requires no [meretricious] ornament, display; ihre Schönheit ging weit über ihren schimmernden —, her beauty was far beyond her sparkling gems; V. Braut —, Haar —, Hals —, Hochzeit —, Kirchen —, Kopf — &c. Fig. Der rednerische —, der — der Rede, der Schreibart, the ornaments, flourishes, flowers of rhetoric, of language, of style; es ist zu viel gesuchter, gekünstelter — in seiner Schreibart, his style is too affectedly or laboriously ornamented, too artificially dressed out or decked out, he is too flowery, too meretricious in his style; die Bilder dienen sehr zum — der Rede, the figures of speech are peculiarly subservient to the embellishment of discourse; die Natur war in ihrem schönsten — e, nature was in her gayest attire. Syn. V. Pug.

Schmuckangel, f. a hook with a brilliant plate for luring the fish. — arbeit, f. work in objects of dress and ornament, it. V. Juwelierarbeit. — arbeit, m. a maker of fancy-articles, it. V. Juwelier. — bohne, f. V. Schminkbohne. — geld, n. money laid out upon dress, upon ornament, V. Nadelgeld; money for rings and jewels. Das — geld macht zuweilen einen Theil des Heirathsgutes aus, the jewel and ring-money forms sometimes a part of the marriage-settlement. — geräth, n. every thing relating to ornament. Sie hat schönes — geräth, she has some beautiful jewelry, trinkets, things. — gewölbe, n. V. — laden. — hand, f. [provincial] V. Kuchhand. — handel, — händler, m. — handlung, f. V. Juwelenhandel &c. — kasten, m. — kästchen, n. ring-case, jewel-box or casket. — laden, m. jeweller's shop. — los, adj. and adv. simple, unadorned. — nadel, f. a breast-pin, hair-pin, shirt-pin, pearl-pin, diamond-pin &c. — waare, f. finery, ornaments, it. [Juwelen] jewelry, trinkets.

Schmücken, v. tr. Einen —, Etwas —, to adorn any one, any thing; die Braut —, to deck the bride; die Perlen — ein Frauenzimmer gar sehr, pearls become or set off a lady; mit Blumen —, to deck with flowers; sich —, to adorn one's self; sie hatte sich sehr lich geschmückt, she had put on her festive attire, [also] she was dressed for a or that party, for a ball &c.; [with poets] die Natur schmückt sich von Neuem, nature puts on her livery anew; [with feather-men] Federn —, to dress up, to get up the ostrich plumes &c. Fig. Ihre Bescheidenheit schmückt sie mehr, als Gold &c., her modesty adorns her more than gold; eine Rede —, to adorn, to embellish a speech. SYN. Y. under Puß. Das —, ornament, decoration, embellishment.

Schmücker, m. [-s, pl. -] [unusual] one who adorns, decks out; V. Federschmücker.

Schmüdelig, adj. and adv. [fam.] V. Schmutzig.

Schmüggel, m. [-s] Schmuggelei, f. [Schleichhandel] smuggling, contraband trade.

Schmüggeln, [from schmiegen] v. intr. [low] to smuggle.

Schmüggelhandel, m. V. Schmuggelei. — händler, m. V. Schmuggler. — schiff, n. a smuggling-vessel or ship, a smuggler.

Schmügglér, m. [-s, pl. -] a smuggler.

Schmünzeln, [in Sw. smysta and mysa, perhaps allied to the Engl. smooth] v. intr. [fam.] [lächeln, freundlich sehn or thun] to smile with self-satisfaction. Einen — an sehen, to smile at any one; — de Miene, smiling countenance or face. Das —, smiling, smile.

Schmüz, Schmüz, m. [-es] [from the old smitan = beschmützen, beschmieren] 1) [low = Fett, Butter &c.] fat, [as butter, lard &c.] 2) [generally] dirt, filth, jobs. Ein Kind im — e, in seinem — e liegen lassen, to let a child lie in its dirt, in its ordure; das ist kein Flecken, es ist nur —, that is no stain, it is harmless dirt, mud-dirt, only dirt; pugen Sie Ihr Kleid aus, es ist voll —, clean your dress, it's all over dirt; der — an Händen, auf der Haut, auf dem Kopfe, dirt on one's hands, skin, head; er ist voll —, he is all over dirt, he is quite filthy; die Haut, die Zähne &c. vom — e reinigen, to clean one's skin, one's teeth; die Wäsche vom größten — e reinigen, to clean the linen from the coarsest dirt, [with washerwomen] to first linen; diese Seife nimmt den — gut weg, this soap takes well away the dirt, makes a strong lather; — an Etwas bringen, to dirty, foul any thing; den — gehen lassen [abschmüzen], to smear, bedaub any thing; dieser Zeug nimmt den — leicht an, this stuff soon dirties, soils, becomes sullied or spoiled; wenn man sich nicht fleißig wäscht, so setzt sich — auf die Haut an, if one does not wash frequently or without constant ablutions, dirt soon forms, settles on the skin. Fig. — [unsittliche Bilder, Ausdrücke, Reden], indecent pictures, expressions &c., obscenities, indecencies, smut. SYN. Schmutz, Unrath, Unflath. All sorts of impurities, that excite our disgust or loathing, are independently and abstractedly considered Unrath [filth] and Unflath [slush, matter]; when any impurity adheres to any other solid, so as to spoil or contaminate it, it is then Schmutz [dirt]. Unrath is vile and disgusting nastiness, and may be either solid or liquid. Unflath is only fluid, of the most revolting properties.

Schmutz = ärmel, m. false sleeve or sleeves [for keeping the others clean during dirty work]. || — bartel, m. V. — fittel 2). — bauch, m. [in nat. history] the speckled lub-fish. — bogen, m. [with printers] waste sheet of printed paper. — buch, n. V. Sudelbuch. — farbe, f. 1) dirty, dull colour. 2) a colour that takes well or does not shew the dirt, that wears well. Die dunkeln und gemischten Farben sind —farben, dark and mixed colours are the best colours for wearing. —farben, —farbig, adj. and adv. 1) dirty-coloured, dull-coloured. 2) of a colour that takes well the dirt, drab or drab-coloured. —fink, m. [low] 1) V. —fittel 2). 2) a filthy wretch, a man guilty of obscenities, a person fond of smut. —fleck, —fleckén, m. spot, stain, mark. —fleckén in or auf ein Kleid machen, to stain one's dress. —grau, 1) adj. and adv. dirty-grey, whity-brown. 2) n. dirty grey. —hammel, —igel, m. V. —fittel 2). —fittel, m. 1) an apron, frock or pinbefore [when engaged about dirty work]. 2) Fig. [low] [= —fink, —hammel, —igel] an uncleanly person, a filthy, dirty or beastly person, a pig, a hog. Seht den Kleinen —fittel, wie er seine, wie sie ihre Kleider beschmüzt hat, look at the nasty little wretch, see how he, how she has dirtied his or her clothes. —fisch, m. —fischin, f. V. Sudelbuch &c. —lappen, m. 1) a dirty rag; it. a duster; it. a dishcloth. 2) Fig. V. —fittel 2). —nickel, m. [low] a slut, a dirty wench, a trollop; it. a scullion, V. Nickenbrödel. —papier, n. coarse whity-brown paper. In —papier einwickeln, to wrap up in dirty-white paper; to wrap up in waste-paper. —rede, f. an obscene discourse, indecent speech. —reden führen, to talk bawdy, tawdry, smut, filth. —riß, m. [in architecture, drawing] the minute or first draught, the rough sketch. —titel, m. [with printers] a first or sham title-page [for keeping the real one clean]. —wort, n. obscene, bawdy, smutty word. —zeichnung, f. rough sketch or drawing.

Schmützen, v. intr. 1) to stain, to soil, to begrime, to defile or sully; [with printers] to maculate, to blot. 2) to become foul, to dirty. Die weißen Zeuge — leicht, — sehr, articles [of wearing-apparel] in white soon dirty, get dirtied or foul; — de Farbe, a sullyng colour. Das —, dirtiness, foulness.

Schmutzig, adj. and adv. 1) dirty, filthy, foul. — e Hände haben, to have dirty, filthy hands. — e Wäsche, — es Hemd, dirty, foul linen, dirty shirt; — e Teller, Gläser, dirty plates, dirty glasses; — er Druck, Abdruck [with printers], a blotted, smudged impression; — e [zusammenfließende] Schrift [with printers], blotted, running, smudged writing; — es Zimmer, a dirty room; es ist — es Wetter, it is dirty, foul weather; es ist — auf den Straßen, it is dirty, muddy in the streets; — er Mensch, a dirty man, a smutty fellow; er ist immer —, sieht immer — aus, he is always unclean, looks always dirty; — e Weibsperson, a dirty slut, a slattern, a trollop, a filthy female; er ist —, auf eine — e Art, he eats piggishly, in a dirty manner; er hat eine — e Lagerstätte, he has a sty of a bed, of a bed-room, his bed is always in a dirty condition, foul, uncleanly; — e [unreine] Farbe, an unclean, a dirty colour; [with engravers] — er Kupferstich, a smudged, botched engraving; — e Schraffirungen, dirty, botched, jumbled hatchings; — machen, to make dirty, to dirt; geben Sie Acht, daß Sie Ihre Hände, Ihre Kleider nicht — machen, take care you don't make your hands, your clothes dirty; sich — machen, to make one's self dirty, unclean; — werden, to get dirty, to become unclean; die weißen Zeuge werden bald —, white articles of dress soon get dirty or stained, soon soil, V. Schmutz gen; er hat sein Kleid ganz — werden lassen, he has let his coat get dirty. 2) Fig. a) [niedrig, gemein] — er Geiz, Gewinn, sordid, mean avarice, profit; — er Eigennuß, sordid, mean, paltry interest; er ist einer der —sten Geizhälse, he is one of the meanest of misers, of niggards. b) [unanständig] — e Worte, Reden, filthy, smutty, bawdy words, language; er führt gerne — e Reden, er ist sehr — in seinen Reden, he likes to talk bawdy, he is very smutty in his conversation, — es Lied, — e Erzählung, a bawdy song, a smutty story; — er Dichter, an obscene poet; er erzählt gern etwas — e Geschichten, he likes to tell stories that have a double-meaning; — e Gemälde, indecent pictures. Das — e, dirtiness, filthiness; it. Fig. [Unsittlichkeit] obscenity, indecency. Dieser Schriftsteller fällt zuweilen in das — e, this author sometimes falls into the obscene.

Schmutzigkeit, f. V. Das Schmutzige unter Schmutzig. Die — dieses Geizhalses, the meanness, abjectness of this miser, the pitiful meanness of this skin-flint.

Schnäbel, m. [-s, pl. Schnäbel] dim. Schnäbelchen, || Schnäbelein, n. [-s, pl. -] [in Old Sax. naebbe means beak, nose and face, in Swed. naebb and naef means head and beak, in Swed. nabb is a cape or promontory. The word is therefore allied to Knopf, Nabe, Nabel] 1) [generally a certain elevation and projection] — einer Schreibfeder, Gießkanne, Flöte, Zange, eines Blasebalges, the nib of a pen, spout of a can, mouth of a flute, knob of the tongs, nosel or nozzle of a pair of bellows; [in botany] der — gewisser Blumen, the spur of certain flowers; der — einer Schmetterlingsblume, the keel of a papilionaceous flower; der — an dem Samen, beak of a seed; das Schnäbelchen an dem Keime, the radicle of the germ; [in conchology] der —, lobes or both sides of the fundament; die Schnäbel an einer Muschel, the summits of a shell; [in sportsmen's lang.] dem Hunde den — anhängen, to hang on the pointed clogs to a dog's neck; [in seamen's lang.] der — eines Schiffes, the beak of a ship; der — eines lateinischen Fahrzeuges, beak-head, stem of a lateen-bark. 2) [especially, the horned mouth of birds] beak, bill. Kurzer, langer —, short, long beak; spitziger, stumpfer —, pointed, blunt beak or bill; die Schnepfe hat einen geraden —, the snipe has a straight bill; dieser Vogel vertheidigt sich mit dem —, hackt, haut mit dem — um sich, this bird defends himself with his beak or bill, hacks, hews, right and left with his beak or bill; mit dem — picken, beipicken, to peck, it. to bill; mit dem — nach Einem hauen, to make a stroke of the beak against any one; ein — voll, a beak-full, a bill-full; V. Eulen-, Raben-, Schwanen-, Storch-, Schnauze. Fig. [in common people's lang.] Er spricht, wie ihm der — gewachsen ist, he speaks the language, the jargon of his country, as his fathers before him; it. he speaks as he understands it; it. he speaks out his mind, never withholding the truth; das ist nicht für seinen — gewachsen, that is not for his dainty chops, that is meat for his master.

Schnäbel-bein, n. [in conchology] Dorniges-bein [sort of bastard tiara], spur-shell. — eisen, n. [with French hair-dressers] curling-tongs. — fisch, m. [in nat. hist.] 1) [Rüffels-fisch] shooting chaetodon, chaetodon rostratus. 2) [Bustopf] boops or pike-headed whale. 3) [Juviterfisch] beaked whale. — flöte, f. [obsolete] a beaked flute, a flute with a reed. — fßrmig, adj. and adv. beak-shaped, bill-formed; [in antiquity] rostriform. — haut, f., der Wasservogel, epidermis of the beak. — horn, n. [in botany] [from the Cape of Good Hope] gnidia. — kraut, n. V. Storchschnabel [in botany]. — möhre, f. [in conchology] V. Nadelkerbel. — muschel, f. [in conchology] a bivalve, the swallow-shell. — ring, m. [with wagoners] ring at the rack of a wagon. — rodel, m. [in botany] alpine louse-wort or pedicularis. || — schiff, n. beaked ship, ship with a beaked prow. — stiefel, pl. [formerly] beaked or Chinese shoes, boots turned up at the toe. — spitze, f. point of the beak or bill — stich, — stoß, m. a peck, a stroke of the beak. — thier, n. [in Australasia] ornithorhynchus, platypus anatinus, duck-billed platypus; beast with a bill. — voll, indecl. beak-full, bill-full — weide, f. 1) a goose common, a marshy or poor land only good for geese. 2) Fig. [in common people's lang.] dainties, tit-bits. — wurz, f. V. Haarstrang [in botany]. — zange, f. beaked tongs or callipers; [with surgeons] callipers with long legs often skate-formed; [with foundries] a cramp or [a pair of] pinchers for taking the crucible out of the furnace; [with blacksmiths] tongs, it. V. — eisen.

Schnäbelchen, Schnäbelein, n. V. Schnabel.

Schnäbeln, [more usual] Schnabelren, [in common people's lang.] [of men] to eat with good appetite or great jest, to feed on much or on dainty food, meat or victuals.

Schnäbeln, I. v. refl. sich, [of birds] to bill, to caress with the beak or bill, [fam.] to bill and coo; Fig. [in pop. lang.] to bill and coo, [low] to hug and buss. II. v. tr. Ein Schiff — [little used, except geschnäbelt, the past participle or as an adj.], to furnish a ship with a beak, a rostrum; geschnäbelte Schiffe, beak-prowed, rostrated ships; [in heraldry] geschnäbelt, beaked.

Schnäbler, m. [-ß, pl. -] 1) [in nat. hist.] anhima or anhinga [of Brazil]. 2) Der verzehrte —, rynchops. 3) V. Breit —, Säbel —, Säge —, Sichel —.

1. Schnäfe, f. [pl. -n] [is derived from the Old Schnaken, in Old Sax. snican, Engl. sneak] 1) [Wasserschlange] water-snake. 2) [kleines Muttertschaf] a little ewe.

2. Schnäfe, f. [pl. -n] [appears allied to necken, Lat. neco, originally to sting, i. e. stechen, in Swed. snicka means to snick, to nitch or notch] 1) [Mücke] a gnat, a culex, [low] midge. 2) [der Langfuß] tipula, old father or daddy long legs, [der Zimmermann] crane-fly, the sempstress. 3) [Grüblingstiege] phryganea, caddis-worm, caddy, semblis, hemerobius. 4) [Eintagesfliege] ephemera, day-fly, may-fly, ephemeron-worm.

Schnäfenstopp, m. [Münzmuschel] cowrie, cowry-shell, gowrie, coury, cypraea, moneta, the African nun. — kraut, n. [Sarrnkrant] fern. — stich, m. sting or bite of a gnat.

3. Schnäfe, f. [pl. -n] [appears allied to the Lat. nugae, to the Engl. word snack, meaning a five-ball and a merry short repast] [in fam. or pop. lang.] V. Schwank, Schurrel waggers, fun, frolic, comicality, nonsense. Er erzählte allerhand — n, brachte allerlei — n vor, he told all sorts of ridiculous or funny things, told a thousand funny things, brought out of his budget all sorts of gim-cracks, squibs, comicalities.

Schnakenmacher, m. jester, buffoon, tom-fool. Fig. [in common people's lang.] a fellow full of waggeries &c., it. V. Fragen, gesicht.

Schnäfen, v. intr. and tr. [in pop. lang.] 1) [= vlandern] to gossip, to chatter, to prate, [low] to scan-mag. 2) [= Schnäfen machen] to talk or act funnily, to jest, to quiz.

Schnäfer, m. [-ß, pl. -] 1) [in common people's lang.] V. Schnakenmacher. 2) V. Schluchzer.

Schnäferer, f. facetiousness, fun, drollery, flam, quizzing, humbug, gammon, nonsense.

Schnäfersch, [low] [spasshaft, lustig, drollig] adj. and adv. merry, jesting, comic, droll, funny. — es Zeug reden, to talk nonsense, flams, gammon, humbug, fiddle-faddle.

Schnäße, f. [pl. -n] [from schnellen, zuschnellen] 1) [generally, an instrument making a snapping noise] Die — an einer Thüre, the latch or catch-bolt to a door; [with printers] [an iron little tongue or stay] button or stay of the frisket, it. the gallows of a printer's press; [in sportsmen's lang.] the female organ, cunt, slit [of the bitch or female beast of prey], it. [fig. very vulgar or coarsely jesting, of women] the female organ, cunt, quim; die — [with dressers of chamol-leather, = Streiche], a sort of strap. 2) [especially] a buckle. Mit einer — befestigen, zumachen, to fasten, tighten, secure with a buckle; — n ohne Herz, buckles without any anchor or chape; Gürtel mit einer —, girdle with a buckle; die — n an den Hängriemen einer Kutsche, the brace-buckles of a carriage. V. Gurt —, Gürtel —, Hals —, Hosen —, Hutz —, Knie —, Schuh —; [in heraldry] — [= Evange in einem Wappen], a clasp; runde, rautenförmige — n, round, lozenge-shaped clasps; [in botany] V. — nblume.

Schnallenblech, n., —bügel, m. anchor, chape, lockel. — blume, f. wild poppy, corn rose, red-poppy. —bürste, f. a brush for cleaning buckles. —born, m. the tongue, prong or tooth of a buckle. —gürtel, m. a girdle with a buckle. —macher, —schmied, m. a buckle-maker. —riemen, m. [an Schuhen], tongue, shoe-strap, buckle-strap. —ring, m. [in heraldry] mail. —schuhe, pl. buckle-shoes, [fam.] square-toes. —stiefel, pl. boots with buckles. —zunge, f. V. —dorn.

1. Schnallen, v. tr. Die Schuhe &c. —, to buckle, to fasten by buckling; schlecht geschnallte Beinkleider, breeches badly buckled [to]; fest —, to tighten with a buckle, to buckle tight; fester —, to buckle [up] tighter; die Steigbügel länger —, to buckle down, lower, to let down the stirrups [so and so many holes].

2. Schnallen, [another form for snallen, to make a report &c.] v. intr. — or schnalzen, to smack, clack, snap, crack, pop, flick, snop, knock. Mit der Peitsche —, to crack with the whip, to smack the whip; er hat mit dem Munde, mit den Fingern geschnallt, geschnalzt, he has popped or clucked with his mouth, snapped, knacked with his fingers. Das —, clacking, snapping, popping.

Schnälzen, V. 2. Schnallen.

Schnäpel, m. [-ß, pl. -] [instead of the old Schnabel] [in nat. hist.] 1) lavaret, gwiniad, vangis. 2) V. Hornhecht. 3) [Epignaje] the salmo thymallus, grayling, V. Adelfisch.

Schnäper, m. [-ß, pl. -] [instead of Schnabel] [a kind of whale, die Nase, der Nüsting] the beaked whale.

Schnäpp or Schnäpps, [in Sw. snabb = quick, cheerful] interj. [in fam. lang., for schnell] —! ging das Schloß zu, ging das Schloß los, snap! the lock closed, crack the lock snapped to, clicked to; —! hatte er es weg, crack! he had it off, he carried it off in a jiffy.

Schnäpp, m. [-es, pl. -e] [in common people's lang.] a snap. Der Hund that einen — darnach, hatte es mit einem — e, the dog made a snap at it, had it in one snap. Fig. In einem — e [plötzlich], in a crack, in the twinkling of a bed-post.

Schnäppe, f. [pl. -n] [from schnappen = to fall down quick] 1) [low] V. Maul. 2) [in sportsmen's lang.] any cloth that can be raised or lowered, a sort of screen.

Schnäppen, [allied to knappen] v. intr. 1) [in common people's lang.] V. Hinken 2) to snap [by quick motion in any direction]. Das Schloß schnappt, the lock snaps [to], V. Ab —; das Flintenschloß schnappt, the lock of the gun snaps; das Flintenschloß — lassen, to snap the lock; das Brett schnappte [= fuhr schnell] in die Höhe, the plank or board sprang up, flew up, V. Auf —; sie ließ das Kind — [in common people's lang. = vom Arme fahren], she let the child slip or fall down [out of her arms]; V. Ueber —. 3) Nach Et was —, to snap at any thing; der Hund schnappte nach dem Brode, the dog snapped at the bread; dieser Vogel schnappt nach den Fliegen, this bird snaps or snatches at or after the flies; nach Athem, nach Luft — [in pop. lang.], to gasp for breath, for air. Fig. [in common people's lang.] Nach Etwas —, to hanker after any thing; nach Reichthümern, einem Amte —, to thirst, hanker after wealth, a situation; [low] nach dem Bettzipfel —, to be sleepyw [fam.] gaping for Bedfordshire. 4) [in Lo, Sax. snabben = to gabble] [in sportsmen's lang.] Der Auerhahn schnappt [= schnalzt], the heath-cock clucks.

Schnappfeder f. a catch-spring. —galgen, V. Wippgalgen. —hahn, m. [obsolete or now chiefly comic] 1) [Räuber] foot-pad, pad, a vagabond. 2) V. Freibeuter, Parteigänger. 3) V. Bettelvogel, Gerichtsdiener. 4) [in the mint] a foreign coin worth four pence. —karren, m. [Sturzkarren] a dung-cart, scavenger's cart. —messer, n. a clasp-knife. —sack, m. [in common people's lang.] a knapsack. Er hatte seinen —sack auf dem Rücken, he had his knapsack on his back; Etwas in seinen —sack stecken, aus seinem —sack hervorholen, to put something into one's knapsack, to produce or take out any thing from one's knapsack. —tuch, n. [in sportsmen's lang.] V. Schnappe 2). —weife, f. a reel or windle with a clapper or flap.

Schnäppe, V. Schneppe.

|| Schnäppen, v. tr. Tauben — [low], to nab or bag one's neighbour's pigeons.

Schnäpper, Schnepfer, m. [-ß, pl. -] 1) [in surgeon's lang.] lancet. [for bleeding horses] a fleam, V. Schröpf —, Laseisen. 2) —, —ling, m. [for amusement] a cross-bow for quarrels, bolts, arrows &c. 3) [rather provincial, in fam. lang., chiefly comic = Schwätzer] a chatterbox, a jabberer. Du bist ein kleiner —, you are a forward little prattler, [if to a little girl] you are a miss prate-a-pace. 4) [in nat. hist.] muscipa, fly-catcher, V.

fliegen—.

Schnäpperlein, n. [-s, pl. -] des Blas-sebalges, the value, sucker of a pair of bellows.

Schnäppermaul, Schnapper, n. [in Pop. lang.] V. Plappermaul, Plappern.

|| Schnäppisch, V. Schnippisch.

Schnäpps, V. Schnapp, interj.

Schnäpps, m. [-es, pl. Schnäppse] [as much as one drinks at a gulp, at a snap or Schnapp] [in common people's lang.] a sort of brandy or cherry-water called schnaps, gin, schedam &c.; it. a gulp or little go of any strong spirit or liqueur, a glass of raw spirits.
Einen — nehmen, trinken, to take, to drink, a glass of snaps, of the creature, of thunder and lightning, of sky-blue, of the enemy &c.; ein — or ein Schluck —, a dram; ein bitterer —, bitters; er trank sechs Schnäppse hinter einander, he drank six glasses or goes of brandy &c. one after the other.

Schnäppsbruder, m. [in common people's lang.] —trinker, m., —schwester, f. [in common people's lang.] —trinke-rinn, f. a gin-drinker, a dram-drinker. — glas, n. a small glass used for snaps, gin &c. drinking. —laden, m. a low shop where snaps and other ardent spirits are retailed, gin-shop. —schenke, f. gin-shop, low public house where snaps and other ardent spirits are retailed.

Schnäppsen, v. intr. [in common people's lang.] to drink a dram or drams of any ardent spirit. Er schnäppset gern, he likes a dram, loves a drop of the creature.

|| Schnärcheln, V. Schnarchen.

Schnärchen, [in Sw. snarka, Ice. snorka, the same word as snarren, in Low Sax.
snarren = murren, and appears allied to the Germ. snurre, to the Lat. narro to sound that is to speak] v. intr. to snore. Dieser Hund schnarcht wie ein Mensch, this dog snores like a man, [fam.] like a christian; er hat die ganze Nacht geschnarcht, he has been snoring the whole night. Das — snoring.

Schnärcher, m. [-s, pl. -] —inn, f. a snorer.

Schnärre, f. [pl. -n] 1) a rattle. Mit der — schnarren or ratschen, to spring the rattle. 2) [in nat. hist.] a) the land-rail.
b) V. Schnarrdrossel. c) V. Schnarreute.

Schnarren, [another form for snarren,
V. Schnarchen] v. intr. 1) [generally, to give forth or yield spontaneously a twanging and jarring sound, a rattling sound. Diese Saite schnarrt, this string jars, grates; im Reden —, to purr in speaking. it. to lisp, to speak thick; sie kann das R nicht recht aussprechen, she cannot pronounce the R, she speaks thick; das — steht ihm [ausnahmsweise] gut an, lispings becomes him [but only him], it does not shock the ear to hear him lisp; das erkünstelte — ist widerlich, lispings from affectation is disagreeable, speaking thick or indistinctly when put on is odious. 2) [in fam. lang.] —, to speak in a grumbling, snappish tone, to grumble, V.
Anschnarren. 3) to spring the rattle [for singing sparrows &c.]. Der Nachtwächter hat so eben geschnarrt, the watchman has just sprang his rattle, [that is] has just called the hour by springing his rattle.

Schnarrbaß, m. [in music, snarrender
Baß] drone. —baß eines Dubelfasses, einer Sackpfeife, einer Feier, the drone of a bagpipe, pibroch, hurdy-gurdy; —baß

[in organs], V. —werk. —brossel, f. the mistletoe-thrush, missel, misselbird. — eisen, n. [with gold and silversmiths] a bickern, a thin anvil. —ente, f. anas clangula, golden eye; it. brent goose.
—heuschrecke, f. cricket, house-cricket, hearth-cricket. —pfeife, f. drone-pipe, short bassoon, double-curtail [to a bagpipe &c.]; [in organs] the reed stop. —werk, n.
[in organs] reed-work.

Schnatterer, m. [-s, pl. -] [in fam. lang.]
a chatterer, blabberer, V. Plauderer, Schwäger.

Schnatterhaft, Schnatterig, adj. and
adv. [in fam. lang.] gossiping, blabbing, chattering, prating.

Schnattern, [allied to snattern, snar- ren, snarren, in Swed. snater means = beredt eloquent] v. intr. 1) [especially to give forth a sound spontaneously] Die Enten, Gänse &c. —, the ducks quack or cackle, geese cackle; er schnattert in einem fort [in fam. lang.], he gabbles on or away, he keeps on gabbling, cackling. 2)
[in fam. lang.] [to chatter with the teeth] Vor Kälte —, to chatter for cold; dieser Kranke hat einen Fieberschauer, er schnattert, this patient has an ague fit, his teeth chatter.
Das —, Geschnatter, cackling, [for ducks] quacking, gabbling, cackling.

Schnatterente, V. Schnarreute.

Schnau, f. [pl. -en] [in Low Sax. snau = Schnauze or snout] V. Schnauze.

Schnau = mast, m. [in seamen's lang.] the mast of a snow, a try-sail mast. —schiff, n. V. Schnauze. —segel, n. the sail of a snow-brig, a try-sail.

Schnäuben, [appears allied to snabel, in Swed. snobba means to pout or in Germ.
snäuben, and snubba means to snub any one, or anfahren] reg. and irreg. v. intr. 1) to puff, to blow, to pant, [of horses] to snort, it.
to roar, to puff and blow, to wheeze. So-bald er einige Stufen gestiegen ist, schnaubt er wie ein Ochse [in common people's lang.], as soon as he has mounted a few steps, he snorts like a bull-calf; dieses Pferd ist däm-pfig, sehen Sie, wie es schnaubt, this horse is broken winded, see, how he roars; lebhafte Pferde — gerne, lively, spirited horses are fond of snorting, are easily induced to snort; dieses Pferd schnaubt aus Furcht, aus Ungebuld, this horse snorts for fear, is snorting through impatience; ein —des Pferd, a broken-winded horse; Pferd, wel-ches im Laufen immer schnaubet, a roarer, a horse that coughs or roars when running; das — der Rosse, wilder Thiere, snorting of steeds, roaring of brutes, [also] the roaring of broken-winded hacks; man hört das — dieses Thieres, wilden Thieres von ferne, one hears the snorting of this animal,
wild beast, from afar. Fig. Nach Rache —, it. v. tr. nichts als Rache —, to thirst, to pant for revenge, to breathe nothing but vengeance; [in Scripture] Saul schnaubte mit Drauen und Morden wider die Jünger des Herrn, and Saul yet breathing out threatenings and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord &c. 2) [rather provincial] Die Nase —, V. Schnäuzen.

Schnäuber, m. [-s, pl. -] a brokenwinded horse, a pury horse, it. a roarer [such as, for instance, the well-known race-horse Eclipse was].

Schnauze, f. [pl. -n] [allied to snau =
Schnauze a snout] [in seamen's lang.] a vessel with two masts and a try-sail mast, a snow.

Die —n dienen besonders zur Kaperei, snows are excellent vessels for cruising, make good privateers.

Schnäusen, [in common people's lang.] V.
Schnauben, Athmen.

Schnäuze, f. [provincial] V. Schnauze, Schnuppe, Richtschnuppe.

Schnäuze, f. [pl. -n] dim. Schnäuzchen, || Schnäuzlein, n. [-s, pl. -] [allied to snabel] 1) [originally something projecting or prominent] — einer Lampe, Was-serkanne, eines Destillirkolbens, the beak of a lamp, spout of a water-can, beak of a still; — eines Kruges, spout or mouth of a pitcher, jug or ewer, [with chemists] canthus;
die — an einem Gefäße abstoßen, abschlagen, abbrechen, to knock off, to break off the spout of any vessel, the beak of &c.; die — an einer Dachrinne, the spout of a housegutter; die — eines Blasebalges, the nozzle or muzzle of the bellows; [in seamen's lang.]
— des Schiffsnabels, volute to the beak or prow of a ship. 2) — eines Hundes, Wolf-ses, Fuchses &c., the muzzle of a dog, of a wolf, muzzle or snout of a fox &c.; — eines Karpfens, snout of a carp; — eines Schweines, snout of a hog, V. Rüssel; schlagen Sie diesen Hund auf die —, give this dog a rap, a blow over his muzzle, chops; [low for Mund] eine garstige —, a horrid Cheshire-cat of a mouth, a villainous mouth; Einem Eins auf die — geben, schlagen, to give any one a blow on the mouth, a muzzler. Fig. [very low] Halt die —! hold your jaw, give us none of your sauce, your gammon; sie hat eine naschhafte —, she has a piquant turned-up little nose; er trägt die — hoch, he carries his nose high, he walks very fess, as if the town was his own.

Schnauzbart, m. [in common people's lang.] V. Schnurrbart. —kanne, f. —krug, —topf, m. can, pitcher, jug or pot with a spout.

Schnauzenkäfer, m. V. Rüsselkäfer.
—nadel, f. [in conchology] the duck's-bill shell [of the East Indies].

Schnäuzen, v. intr. [low] to stick out one's mouth, one's lips, to pout; it. V.
An—.

Schnäuzen, v. tr. [to furnish with a spout &c.] 1) [little used] Einen Topf, einen Krug —, to put on a spout to a pot, to a pitcher or jug. 2) [to take away the snout, to handle the snout, as it were] v. tr. and v. refl. Das Licht —, to snuff the light; die Nase —, sich —, to blow one's nose; schnäuzet dieses Kind, schnäuzet diesem Kinde die Nase, make this child blow its nose, wipe this child's nose; er, sie hat sich geschnäuzt, he, she has blown his, her nose; es hat sich ein Stern geschnäuzt, a star has just fallen, there was a shooting star. Fig. Einen — [low], to trick, to do, to dupe any one, V. Prellen, Schnellen.

Schnäuzicht, adj. and adv. resembling a muzzle, snoutish. Ein —er Mund, a pouting mouth.

Schnäuzig, adj. and adv. having a muzzle, snouted, spouted, V. Schnauze. —e Kanne, —er Krug, V. Schnauzkrug.

Schnëcke, f. [pl. -n] [from the old schne- cken, Old Sax. snican, Old Engl. sneak, meaning to creep, to crawl] 1) [a creeping thing]
— mit einem Gehäuse, a snail; essbare —, edible or vine snail, oviparous pomatia; das Haus, Gehäuse or die Schale der —n, the house, covering, roof, shell of a snail, a snail-shell; langsam wie eine —, slow, dilatory as a snail; versteinerte —n, V. —nstein. 2) [something spiral] [in anatomy] Die — im Obre, the cochlea; [in architecture] —, an ornament to Ionic pillars in a spiral line, volute; ram's horn or cornu ammonis; it. scroll; [in artillery] curl or ring [round a fascine]; [with surgeons] a peculiar mode of dressing, the spiral bandage; [with harness-makers] the curl or scroll of the bit; die — einer Taschenuhr, the fusee of a watch; [in hydraulics] V. Wasser—; [in seamen's lang.] — am Schiffschnabel, the volute of a ship's beak or prow. Fig. [very low, chiefly in students' cant] the female organ, cunt, quim, my hat.

Schnecken=achse, f. [einer Säule] the axis of a volute [to an Ionic column]. —art, f. 1) nature of the snail, of the vine-snail. 2) species, kind, sort of snail. —artig, adj. and adv. after the manner of a snail, snail-like. —auge, n. snail's eye [at the end of the tentacle], the eye of the vine-snail or vine-cockle; [in architecture] the central point of a volute, of a scroll, of a roll; [in geometry] centre of a spiral, of a curve. —berg, m. 1) [on the Continent] a hill or mound for keeping edible snails and where they are fattened. 2) [with gardeners] a mound in a garden spirally formed or with a winding path on it. —blut, n. 1) V. —saft. 2) [der Purpur—] the juice or purple juice of the purple-fish, the Tyrian die of the murex. —bohne, f. the large-flowered French-bean or runner. —bohrer, m. a gimlet, an anger or wimble with a spiral centre-bit. —brühe, f. snail-broth or soup. —deckel, m. operculum of a shell; [versteinert] operculite, fossile operculum. —feder, f. [with watchmakers] spiral spring, main-spring. —fett, n. V. Speckfett. —förmig, adj. and adv. spiral, conchylid, in the form or shape of a snail, volute. —förmig winden, krümmen, biegen, to turn, to wind, to bend spirally, to coil up; [in architecture] —förmig gewundener Pfahl einer Säule, spire of a column; [in botany] —förmige Knospe, a bud rolled or twisted transversally; —förmige Hülsen, the spiral-formed cod, shell or siliqua [of a leguminous plant]. —frass, m. 1) the eating or gobbling of snails, of edible snails or vine-cockles. 2) food for the snails. —gang, m. 1) the march or crawling of a snail. Fig. [in fam. lang.] snail's pace, a crawling gait. Er geht im —gange, he goes, walks at a snail's pace; diese Sache geht einen —gang, this affair goes at a snail's pace. 2) [in landscape-gardening] an alley, [also] a walk formed in a spiral line. —gehäuse, n. V. —haus. —gewinde, n. V. —windung. —gewölbe, n. [in architecture] snail-formed or spiral vault. —grube, f. [on the Continent] a pit [in which the edible snails are fattened]. —haus, n. [dim. —häuschen, || —häuslein, n.] snail-shell, [fam.] a snail's house or buckler. —horn, n. 1) snail's horn, tentacle, feeler, antenna. 2) a spiral horn. 3) [in conchology] Triton's shell or conch. —kegel, m. [with watchmakers] the fusee or spindle [around which the chain winds itself]. —klee, m. [in botany] lucerne; medicago. Arabischer —klee, Arabian lucerne; baumartiger —klee, arborescent lucerne; spanischer —klee, Spanish or pinnated lucerne; gekrönter —klee, crowned lucerne; durchflochtener oder verworren —klee, entangled lucerne, moon-trefoil; —klee mit kleinen Früchten, lucern bearing small fruit or seed; der eigentliche —klee, polymorphous lucerne; schildförmiger —klee, scutcheon lucerne; gedrehter —klee, twisted lucerne, medich. —kohl, m. red cabbage, pickling or blue cabbage. —könig, m. the edible vine-snail; pomatia. —krebs, m. [Schmarogerkrebs] the Bernard-crab. —lehre, f. conchyliology, conchology, helminthology. —linie, f. [in geometry] helix, spiral line, a spiral, conchoid. Es gibt eine unendliche Menge verschiedener —linien, there is an infinite number of spiral curves; die Kunst, —linien zu ziehen, the art of drawing spirals, helicosophy; von der —linie eingeschlossener Raum, a conchoidal space; die Asymptote der —linie, the asymptote of the conchoid; Uhr, deren Feder wie eine —linie gedreht ist, a watch whose spring is wound up spirally, a watch with a main-spring; nach einer —linie gezogene Ausschweifung eines Rasens [with gardeners], a roll or scroll of turf. —luzerne, f. polymorphous lucerne or moon-trefoil. —marmor, m. V. Muschelmarmor. —milbe, f. [in nat. hist.] the parasitical mite of snails. —nubeln, pl. macaroni served up in spiral wreaths; it. [in German cookery] a sort of dumpling made in a spiral form, macaroni. —post, f. fig. [in fam. lang., chiefly comic] slow-going stage-coach, stage-waggon, snail-coach. Mit der —post fahren, to travel by the road-wagon, by the snail-coach. —rad, n. [with watchmakers] [in pocket-watches] the fusee-wheel. —rauchstein, m. V. —topas. —raupe, f. a caterpillar formed like a snail, a volute caterpillar. —rundung, f. V. —linie. —saft, m. 1) the juice or liquor of the vine-snail, pomatia-juice. 2) V. —blut. —sammler, m. 1) a gatherer of snails, especially of the vine-snail or pomatia. 2) [in nat. hist.] the shelly amphitrite. —schale, f. V. —haus. —scheide= wand, f. [in anatomy] the spiral wall of the cochlea. —schlange, f. 1) [in nat. hist.] helmintholite. 2) wimble. —schritt, m. fig. snail's pace. —stein, m. [in mineralogy] 1) [kind of Glimmer] mica with steatite talk. 2) a little stone or stony secretion in the head of a snail. 3) V. Muschel-marmor. 4) V. Ammonshorn. —stiege, f. V. —treppe. —stücke, f. V. —stängel. —topas, m. [in mineralogy] lack-lustre or limpid topaz, topaz of Saxony. —treppe, f. [in architecture] spiral or cochlear staircase; a helical stair-case. Hängende —treppe, a hanging spiral stair-case, screw of St. Giles. —werk, n. shell-work, collection of shells. —windung, f. a spiral turning; [round a cone] winding in a spiral line, spiral winding, spire; [round a cylinder] helical winding, a helix. Fig. Ein [Berg=] Weg in —windungen, a zigzag path or road. —zapfen, m. [with watchmakers] pinion of report. —zug, m. [in architecture] [of mouldings, cornices &c.] scroll of volutes. V. —windung.

Schnee, m. [-s] [in Polish snieg, Fr. neige, Old Fr. noif, nois, in sportsmen's lang. or with German huntsmen das Neue, in Lat. nix, niv-is, Gr. (νίψ) νιψάς. Perhaps allied to the Gr. νίξ-ω, νιν-ω. According to others it belongs to neu, to nett = shining] snow. Dieser Wind wird uns —bringen, this wind will bring us snow; es lag zwei Schuh hoch —, ein zwei Schuh hoch —, the snow lay on the ground two feet deep, it was two feet of snow; es ist viel —, ein tiefer — gefallen, much snow, a deep snow has fallen; der erste —, the first fall of snow; mit — bedeckt, covered with snow; weiß wie —, V. —weiß. Fig. [with poets] Sein Haupt ist schon mit — bedeckt, his head is already covered with snow, snowy age has whitened his head; der — ihre Busens &c., the snowy whiteness, the matchless whiteness of her bosom &c.; it. [with cooks] — or —ballen, a preparation of whipped eggs, egg snow, snow-balls.

Schnee=ammer, f. [in nat. hist.] the snow-ortolan, snow-bird, winter hunting, emberiza nivalis. —bahn, f. road or path cut out or formed in the snow. —ball, m. 1) a snow-ball. Einander mit —ballen werfen, to throw snowballs at each other, to pelt one another with snowballs; it. V. [the more usual word] —laune. 2) [with cooks] —ballen, pl. V. under —. 3) [in botany] —ballenbaum, m. [Hirschholder] the Guelder rose, opulus, snow-ball tree, way-faring-tree. —baum, m. [in botany] [in North America &c.] chionanthus, the snow-drop-tree of Carolina; it. the compact Caribbean snow-drop tree. —beere, f. [in botany] the chiococca, strawberry-tree [of the Friendly Isles]. —berg, m. 1) mountain, high hill covered, capped or crowned with snow. 2) a hilly drift or great heap of snow. —birn, f. white butter pear. —blind, adj. and adv. dazzled or blinded with the snow, snow-blind. —blume, f. [dim. —blümchen, n.] [in botany] 1) [—treppe] the galanthus, the snow-drop. 2) [weiße Küchenschelle] the anemone or wind flower of the Alps. —brille, f. [for wearing against the blinding effects of snow-fields] goggles, green spectacles. —bruch, m. [in woods and forests] the breakage of a tree or its branch-work by snow. —brüchig, adj. and adv. [in woods and forests] branchwork or wood broken by the snow. —doble, f. [in nat. hist.] [gemeine Doble or Dohlenackel] common daw. —drossel, V. Kinadrossel, Meerdrossel. —enzian, m. [in botany] the snow-gentian, the gentiana nivalis. —eule, f. [in nat. hist.] the great white owl, the strix nyctea or harfang. —fall, m. 1) [modern word] snow-fall. Es war heute ein starker —fall, it was a heavy snow-fall to-day. 2) V. Gaudine. —finke, m. [in nat. hist.] 1) the emberiza nivalis, snow-bird. 2) V. Bergfink. —flechte, f. [in botany] the snow-lichen, [fam.] rock-tripe. —flocke, f. 1) a snow-flake. 2) V. —blume. 1) —flockenbaum, m. V. —baum. —gans, f. [in nat. hist.] 1) [nordische] the snow-goose. 2) [witde Gans] wild goose, solau goose. 3) V. Kropfgans. —garn, n. [in sportsmen's lang.] a snow-net for taking partridges. —gebirge, n. mountains whose summits or sides are covered with snow, [with poets] snow-capped mountains. —gefilde, n. [with poets] snow-decked, snow-wrapped plains. —gestöber, n. fine and thin-flaked snow falling in flakes or whirled down from the sky. —gewölke, n. [popular term] a cloud charged with snow, a snow-cloud. —gläser, pl. V. Schneebälle. —glöckchen, n. [in botany] 1) the white winter-flower, the white or spring crocus, narcissus-leucoium. 2) V. —blume. 1) —grenze, f. V. —linie. —grube, f. 1) a pit, cave or cellar expressly prepared for the conservation of snow, a snow-house. 2) pit or hollow filled with snow. —hahnenfuß, m. [in botany] the snowy ranunculus or crow-foot. —hase, m. 1) the white hare. 2) V. —huhn. —haube, f. V. —garn. —haufen, m. heap, drift, mound of snow. —huhn, n. the lagopede tetrao, white game, white ptarmigan. —klumpen, m. a mass or lump of snow. — schönig, m. V. Jaunfönig. — suppe, f. snow-capped summit of a mountain, mountain-top crested or crowned with snow. — laumwine, f. V. Jaumwine. — lerche, f. the snow-lark. — licht, n. light, lustre of snow. — linie, f. [in physics or geography] the snow-line, the line where there is eternal snow, where snow never melts. — luft, f. air charged or pregnant with snow. — mann, m. a mannikin of snow. Diese Kinder belustigen sich damit, — männer zu machen, these children are amusing themselves with making snow-men snow-dolls; fig. [in fam. lang., in jest] a man cold as ice, not apt or capable to be warmed by any fine sentiment, by any passion &c. — masse, f. mass of snow, a snow-mass. — maise, f. the snow-tom-tit, the long-tailed tit-mouse. — merkur, m. [in nat. hist.] pinnated grouse, tetrao cupido. — milch, f. [with cooks] cream whipped up with eggs, snow-cream. — mozat, m. January; [in Fr. hist.] nivose. — muß, n. V. — milch. — neg, n. V. — garn. — pappel, f. V. Silberpappel. — pflug, m. a plough or sledge for removing or clearing snow on the high-roads. — pilz, m. [in botany] [der Eichhaie] a branched boletus or fungus [infesting the roots of the oak]. — regen, m. rain mingled with snow, cold drizzling rain or sleet. — rose, f. [in botany] [sibirische gelbe] the yellow rose [of Siberia]. — schlange, f. [in nat. hist.] the white snake of Africa. — schmelze, f. melting of the snow or snows, a thaw. — schuh, m. a snow-shoe [as used by the Laplanders &c.]; it. [in England] a snow-shoe. — spertling, m. V. — ammer. — staub, m. the dust or blight of snow, snow-dust. — steinbrech, m. [in botany] snow-saxifrage, white saxifrage. — stufe, f. V. — linie. — sturm, m. snow-storm. — sturz, m. a falling or rolling down of great masses of snow, V. Jaumwine. — tropfen, m., dim. — tröpfchen, || — tröpflein, n. 1) V. — blume 1). 2) V. — glöckchen. — veilchen, n. V. — glöckchen. — vogel, m. 1) V. — ammer. 2) V. — huhn. 3) V. Seidenschwanz. — wasser, n. snow-water, melted snow. — wähe, f. [modern word] snow-drift. — weiß, adj. and adv. snow-white, snowy white, white as snow. Sein — weißes Haar, ihre — weiße Haut, his snow-white or blanched locks, her snowy skin, [with poets] the snow of his hair, the snow of her complexion; die — weißen Alpen or Alpengipfel, the snowy, hoary Alps or Alpine tops. — weiße, f. the whiteness of snow, snow-white. — wetter, n. snowy weather; it. a snow-storm. — wiesel, n. the little white weasel or mouse-hunt. — wind, m. a wind threatening, portending snow, charged with snow. — wolke, f. a snow-cloud, cloud charged with snow. — wurm, m. [in nat. hist.] the snow-worm, the larva of the slaty cantharis. — wurz, f. anacampseros, fabia crassa, telephium, true orpine. — zeit, f. the snowy season.

Schneeficht, adj. and adv. similar to, resembling or like snow, snowlike, snowy; V. Schneeweiß.

Schneefig, adj. and adv. charged or covered with snow, concealed by snow, containing snow, snowy. — e Berge, V. Schneeberge; — es Wetter, — e Jahreszeit, snowy weather, the snowy season [of the year]; Ihr Kleid ist —, your dress is all over snow.

Schneffell, V. Schnäpel.

Schneide, f. [pl. -n] 1) Die — eines Messers, Degens, the edge of a knife, of a sword, [with swordsmen] the cut [opposed to thrust]; die — eines Meißels, slanting, feather or bevel-edge of a chisel; die — eines Bohrerers, the bit of a centre-bit, borer &c. V. Schärfe; die — ist abgenutzt, stumpf, hat sich umgelegt, the edge &c. is worn down, blunt, has got flat or lost its keenness or sharpness; einem Degen &c. die — geben, to give an edge to a sword &c.; Messer mit zwei —n, a double-edged knife, a knife with two cutting-sides. Fig. [in pop. lang.] energy, sharpness. Dieser Beamte hat keine —, this public functionary wants energy, more sharpness. 2) [in seamen's lang.] Die — des Schiffschwabels, upper part of the knee of the head or prow, edge of the beak; die — des Vorderstevens, cutwater. 3) [with bakers] a sort of brake for the dough; [in sportsmen's lang.] [Sprengel] a kind of bird-net, a springe; [in woods and forests] V. Schneuse.

Schneidelholz, n. [-es, pl. -hölzer] wood such as willows &c. that can stand cutting; it. slips, cuttings [of such wood].

Schneideln, v. tr. [with gardeners] Die Bäume —, to lop, to prune trees, V. Ausschneiden, Beschneiden.

Schneiden, [originally = eindrücken, allied to the Gr. χνέω] irr. I. v. tr. and intr. 1) [to make an incision in any thing] Mit einem Messer, mit der Schere —, to cut with a knife, with a pair of scissors, [fam.] to snip with the scissors; entzwei —, in Stücke —, to cut in two, apart, asunder; einen Aal in Stücke —, to cut an eel in pieces, to spitchcock an eel; auf das Kerbholz —, to tally, cut, nick, score on a notched stick; er hat sich bis auf den Knochen geschnitten, he has cut himself, given himself a cut [down] to the bone; bis in das lebendige Fleisch —, to cut to the quick; sich in den Finger —, to cut one's finger; klein —, to cut [up] small, to mince, to collop; dieses Fleisch läßt sich gut —, schneidet sich gut or weich, this flesh or meat is easily carved or cut up, is tender, is soft to the knife; [in geometry] zwei Linien, die sich — [kreuzen], two lines that intersect, cut one another. Fig. Das schneidet mir ins Herz [in fam. lang.], that cuts me to the heart; sich — [low, for sich irren], to make a mistake, blunder. 2) [ab-schneiden] Brod, Fleisch, große Stücke, grünes Futter —, to cut bread, meat, large bits, green fodder; das Getreide —, to cut the wheat. Proverb. V. under Pfeife. 3) [= schneidend zubereiten] Holz, Bretter, Stroh, Häcksel, Futter —, to cut wood, planks, straw, chaff, fodder [in the chaff-cutter &c.]; ein Kleid aus dem ganzen Stücke —, to cut out a dress from the whole piece [without quarters &c.]; die Münzschnitten zu Schrötlingen — [in the mint], to cut [out] the plates into planchets or blanks; eine Feder, Schreibfeder —, to make a pen, it. [less usual] to mend a pen; gut geschnittene Federn, well-made pens; Leisten, Formen —, to cut out or make lasts, forms, moulds; Sammet —, to cut or clip velvet; Riemen —, to cut out thongs or straps of leather; Diamanten &c. —, to cut diamonds &c.; in Rauten or vielschichtig geschnittener Edelstein, a gem cut into facets, a precious stone in facets; er versteht das — der Steine, he understands the cutting of gems; [with masons] die Steine —, V. Behauen; [with hairdressers] die Haare —, to cut hair, the hair, to dress one's hair. Fig. Geld — [in common people's lang.], to turn a penny, an honest penny, it. fig. to pick one's pocket, to be extortionate, to screw out an exorbitant profit; Capriolen —, to cut capers, to caper; Gesichter —, to make faces, to make mouths. 4) [to treat by cutting] Bäume, Reben —, V. Be-; [with surgeons; farriers] den Stein —, to cut or operate for the stone, to perform an operation of lithotomy; Einen —, to cut any one, for the stone, to perform an operation for the stone on any one; er hat sich entschlossen, sich — zu lassen, sich den Stein — zu lassen, he has made up his mind to have himself cut for the stone, to submit to an operation of lithotomy; einen Bruch —, to reduce a [strangulated] rupture or hernia [by an operation or cutting the ligament]; ein Pferd, einen Hund, Schweine — [kastriren], to geld a horse, a dog, pigs, to spay a mare, bitch, sows; die Bienenstöcke — or aus —, to cut out the honey-combs from the hives, [so as to save the lives of the bees]; einem Hunde den Wurm —, to worm a dog; junger, geschnittener Ochse, a gelded bullock, a steer, a young ox; [at billiards] einen Ball —, to cut a ball [into a pocket]. Fig. Den Wein — [= verfälschen], to work up or brew wine [by mixing]; to drug or adulterate wine. 5) [to work on by cutting or graving, = graviren] Den Stempel zu einer Denkmünze —, to engrave a medal, the die for a medallion; den Stempel, die Patrizie —, to engrave the die, the stamp, the cast; geschnittene Steine, engraved stones [for seals &c.], it. [Gemmen] cut stones, gems; — [used as a v. intr.], in Holz, in Edelsteine —, to carve, cut or engrave in wood, to engrave or grave on or in precious stones. Das —, V. Schnitt 1). II. v. intr. 1) [= schneidend seyn] Dieses Messer schneidet wie ein Schermesser, this knife cuts like a razor; diese Säge schneidet gut, this saw cuts well, is well set; — de Werkzeuge, cutting or sharp instruments, edge-tools. Fig. a) [empfindlich auf den Körper einwirken or, in general, schmerzhaft seyn] Es schneidet mir or mich im Leibe, ich empfinde ein — im Leibe, I have a cutting or sharp pain, it cuts me like a knife or saw in my bowels, I have the colic, [low] I've got the gripes; ein — der Wind, a cutting, piercing, sharp wind; es geht ein — der Wind, ein Wind, der Einem in's Gesicht schneidet, it is blowing a cutting wind, there is a bitter cold wind enough to cut one's face in two, there is a piercing blast; — de Kälte, bitter, piercing, chilling, cutting cold; — der Schmerz, a sharp, cutting pain; das — de Wasser [in medicine], dysury, dysuria, ischury, strangury. b) [to act sensibly on the mind] Das schneidet mir in's Herz, in die Seele, that cuts me to the heart, cuts or wounds me to the very soul; — de Worte, Reben, Vorwürfe, cutting words, sarcastic, mortifying, bitter words, cutting or bitter reproaches. 2) — d [without blending or harmonious shadowing]. Ein — der Kontrast, a violent, strong, forcible contrast; — de Farben, — de [scharfe] Umrisse, inharmonious, bold, glaring colours, gaudy tints, sharp outlines. Das —, V. Schnitt; das — im Leibe, a griping pain, the colic, [low] the gripes, the guts-ache.

Schneidebank, f. [with coopers, carpenters] 1) a bench, stool, block or table for cutting, planing &c. on, a planer's or coo-per's stool, planing-bench. 2) V. Stückettafel. — bock, m. V. Sägebock. — bohrer, m. a borer, wimble with a bit, a centre-bit; it. a trepan or trephine. — brett, n. a cutting-board; it. V. Zuschneidebrett. — büchse, f.

[with lapidaries] vice [in which the gem to be cut is inserted and held tight]. —démant, m. [with glaziers] diamond. Ein im Blei-feste eingefasster —démant, a glazier's diamond set in the latherkin. —eisen, n. any cutting tool of iron, sharp tool; [with locksmiths &c.] screw-tap, tap, screw-plate, [with slaters] edging-tool, [with coopers] V. —meißer. —feile, f. knife-file, blade-file; it. an enameller's file. —gezeug, n. V. —werkzeug. —holz, n. 1) [in woods and forests] wood fit for planks, shelves, boards &c., saw-wood. 2) V. Schneidholz. —flöß, m. couples, rafters [of a saw-mill roof]. —fluppe, f. [with locksmiths] a screw-plate or tap consisting of two detached pieces. —lade, f. [Sutterbank] chopping-bench for cutting straw or stubble. —leder, n. [with curriers &c.] [for soles &c.] leather for cuttings, sole-leather; leather for tapping. —lohn, m. 1) V. Säge-lohn. 2) V. Schnitterlohn. —maschine, f. [for tobacco] cutting machine. —meißer, n. [with chandlers] chopping-knife, tallow-knife; [with wagon builders &c., coopers] plane, adze, adze, two-handled knife, edge-tool; [with letter-founders] [for paring and trimming the letters, grooving and equalizing the shoulders]; kerning-knife, the steel-cutter of the plough or plane; [with tawers, Schwanzmeißer] tail-knife; it. V. Beschnidemeißer; [in paper-mills] knife, blade [for lacerating the rags]; [with sawers] dullede, V. Hobbeisen; [with basket-makers] [Schmitzmeißer] a paring-knife. —mühle, f. V. Sägemühle. —muskel, m. [in anatomy] levator menti, levator labii inferioris, incisivus inferior, lower incisive muscle. Großer —muskel, depressor labii superioris alaeque nasi, incisivus medius, constrictor vel compressor alae nasi, the middle incisive. —nadel, f. [with shoemakers and saddlers] [with a square edged point] needle, awl. —rad, n. —scheibe, f. V. —zeug [with watchmakers and lapidaries]. —radlein, n. [with pastrycooks] dough-cutter, jaggling-iron. —stein, m. [in mineralogy] ollary talc, steatite talc mixed with mica, potstone; it. cosmetic talc, talcose mica. —stichel, m. [with engravers] sharp-graver. —werkzeug, n. cutting instrument, an edge-tool, edged or sharp tool, pointed tool. Allerlei —werkzeuge, all sorts of cutting or sharp instruments, edge-tools. —zahn, m. [in anatomy] an incisive tooth, one of the four incisors. —zahnmuskel, m. V. —muskel. —zeit, f. V. Erntezeit. —zeug, n. 1) V. —werkzeug. 2) Das —zeug, a screw-tap, screw-plate; [with watchmakers] machine for cutting the teeth, cogs and pinions of wheels &c.; [with lapidaries, for diamonds] mill with a wheel of soft steel, [for rubies &c.] mill with a copper-wheel, [for emeralds, garnets &c.] mill with a leaden wheel, [for girasol, opal &c.] mill with a wooden wheel; [with paper-makers] V. —meißer. —zirkel, m. a cutting pair of compasses, compasses with one of the cursors or legs adapted for cutting out segments, circles.

Schneider, m. [-s, pl. -] —inn, f. 1) [one who cuts any thing], a cutter. 2) [especially] he who cuts out to measure a tailor, V. also Mannschneider; [comic] the ninth part of a man, the knight of the thimble and shears, of the bodkin, Master Snip; it. [Damenschneider, in contradistinction to Herrenschneider who makes only gentlemen's dresses] a ladies-tailor, a man-milliner. Eine —inn, a female tailor, a dress-maker, a sempstress, it. [less usual] the wife of a tailor. Er ist ein guter —, sie ist eine gute —inn, he is a good tailor, [fam.] he is a good fit, a capital cut, she is a good cutter out, an excellent milliner; die Frau —inn [nickname or in jest], Mrs. Snip. Fig. [in pop. lang.] Einem den —ausstopfen, to slap a man on the back, when he has a new coat on for the first time, pretending in fun to beat the tailor, or as who should say, the shopboard out of it; [in chess] —wer-den, zum —werden, to be beaten or check-mated, to have fool's mate or scholar's mate, it. to be mated by a pawn; [at piquet] to be capotted; Einen zum —machen, to make pique, repique and capot; [at billiards] to win a love-game. 3) [in sportsmen's lang., magerer Hirsch] [here the root of Schneider seems to be nieder] a rascal [after the rutting season]. 4) [in common people's lang.] [an insect] V. Wasserjungfer.

Schneiderarbeit, f. tailor's work; it. tailor's job. —burische, m. 1) a tailor-boy, tailor's boy, tailor's apprentice. 2) V. [the usual word] —gefell. —fisch, m. [Nas-ling] blay or bleak; it. white-bait. —fleck, m. [generally in the pl.] [with cooks] strips of paste cooked with butter and salt. —ge-sell, m. a journeyman-tailor. —gewerk, n. V. —junst. —handwerk, n. the trade of a tailor; it. V. —gewerk. —herberge, f. inn or public-house for tailors or where the tailors' guild meets. —innung, f. V. —junst. —junge, m. V. —burische. —fatz-pfen, m. [in fun] V. Häring. —krankheit, f. a disease incidental to tailors, to which tailors are most liable; it. [Gräbe] the scotch fiddle, the itch. —freide, f. tobacco-pipe clay. Graubraunische —freide, fuller's earth. —lohn, m. tailor's wages; the making. —mäustein, n. —muskel, m. [in anatomy] the sartorius, tailor's muscle, the muscle of Spigelius [the longest muscle in the human body] —meister, m. —meisterinn, f. a master-tailor, a master tailor's wife; it. [less usual] a female master-tailor. —meße, f. [low] [an insect] V. Wasserjungfer. —nadel, f. a tailor's needle, a short awl-pointed needle. —naht, f. a tailor's seam, tailor's stitching. —rechnung, f. a tailor's bill or account. —schere, f. a tailor's shears. —schild, m. a tailor's sign [before his house]. —seele, f. 1) fig. [in common people's lang., in contempt] a pusillanimous soul, the ninth part of a man. 2) [low] V. Dämmerungsfalter. —sfrau, f. a tailor's wife. —stube, f. V. —werkstatt. —tisch, m. a tailor's shop-board or board. —vogel, m. [in nat. hist.] the tailor-bird, tailor-wren, motacilla sartoria. —werkstatt, f. tailor's shop or workshop. —junst, f. body, guild or company of tailors, the tailors-company; [in England, the well-known great company] the merchant-tailors.

Schneiderei, f. 1) trade, business, art, calling of a tailor, [low but fam.] tailoring, [for women] dress-making, cutting out, [in a bad sense] bungling tailor's work, sad tailoring, botching, slop-work. Die —erlernen, treiben, to learn, to carry on the business as a tailor, [fam.] to learn the mysteries of the shears and the art of cabbage; er ver-steht die —sehr gut, he understands his business as a tailor very well. 2) V. Auf-schneiderei, Beutelschneiderei, Geldschnei-derei.

Schneidern, v. intr. to carry on the business or trade of a tailor, to work as a tailor, to make clothes, [low] to live by tailoring, [for women] to make dresses; it.

[of females, not of the trade, or of ladies working for their amusement or oeconomic purposes] to be engaged in, to occupy one's self with dressmaker's work. Wie eifrig sie schneidert! how busily she is at her work [of making a gown &c.]!

Schneidig, adj. and adv. [little used] cutting, trenchant. [with miners] easy to be cut or worked. —es Gestein, soft rock.

Schneien, [V. Schneen] v. intr. and impers. to snow; to be a fall of snow; to come down in snow. Es schneiet, it snows, it is snowing; es wird gleich, bald —, it will soon snow, there will soon be a fall of snow; es hat den ganzen Tag geschneiet [provincial geschneien], it has been snowing, there has been snow falling all day long; es schneiete [provincial schneit] sehr stark, it snowed hard and fast, it was snowing very hard, the snow came down thick; es fängt wieder an zu —, es schneiet wieder or auf's neue, it is beginning to snow again, it is snowing or it snows again.

Schneise, f. [pl. -n] 1) [perhaps from Schneate = Reiß] [Döhne, Sprentel] a snare, noose, springe, net. 2) [perhaps from Schneiden] [in sportsmen's lang., Stenweg] alley; [in woods and forests] V. Schneuse.

Schneisenbeere, f. V. Vogelbeere.

Schneiteln, V. Schneideln.

1. Schnell, adj. and adv. [in Old Germ. snell, Ital. snello, probably allied to knappen = to move]. 1) [hurtig] rapid, arrowy. —er Flug, rapid flight; die Schwalben haben einen —en Flug, swallows have a rapid flight; —fließender Bach, a rapidly flowing brook; mit —en Schritten, with rapid, hasty strides. 2) [geschwind] quick, swift, prompt, nimble; sehr —es Pferd, a very swift horse, a fast-running horse; —wie ein Pfeil, wie der Wind, swift as an arrow, as the wind; —e Bewegung, swift, quick, nimble movement; einen sehr —en Puls haben, to have a very quick pulse; dieser Abschreiber hat eine —e Hand, this copyer has a very fast hand; gehen Sie, laufen Sie —, go quick, speedily, run quickly, [fam.] be there and back in no time; er spricht sehr —, he speaks very fast; diese Uhr geht zu —, this watch goes to fast, gains; er lief or eilte —herbei, he came up in all haste; die Zeit ver-geht —, time flies, [fam.] tempus fugit; —abreisen, to set out promptly; eine —e Ab-reise, a quick, prompt departure; —er Ent-schluß, —e Antwort, prompt resolution, quick answer; er ist —in Allem, was er thut, he is very prompt, off-hand in all he does; sich —entschließen, to make up one's mind promptly, to decide or resolve upon readily; —e Eroberungen, rapid conquests; —e Fortschritte machen, to make rapid progress, [American] to progress rapidly; die-ses Land macht —e Fortschritte zur Gesit-tung, this country makes rapid strides to-wards civilisation; —er Blick, Ueberblick, a rapid glance, quick survey; er hat in Allem einen —en Blick, he has a quick perception of or in every thing; — [in music], allegro; —er [plöglcher] Tod, sudden death, [in England, with coroner's juries] death by the visitation of God; er starb —, he died suddenly, his death was sudden; sie ist —mit dem Munde, mit der Zunge [in pop. lang.], she is quick at an answer, at repartee, she is never at a loss for an answer; it. she speaks too fast or inconsiderately, her tongue runs faster than her head, too fast; her tongue runs faster than her heels; er ist — [in fam. lang., for bistig], he is hot, peppery, [fam.] he is soon up, his back is up in a moment, he takes fire in a moment.

Schnell=bereit, adj. and adv. [modern word] ready [at a moment's notice], quick at work, nimble, dexterous. — bote, m. courier, kings-messenger; [Eilbote] an express, a despatch, a special messenger. — feuer, n. lucifers, Prometheans. — fluß, m. [with founders] [a mixture of two parts of tartar and one of saltpetre] rapid, quick flux, black flux. — füßig, adj. and adv. swift-footed, nimble, agile. — füßiges Pferd, fast horse swift-footed horse, a courser. — füßigkeit, f. legerity, agility, nimbleness or swiftness of foot. — futtsche, f. [Postfuttsche] 1) [on the Continent] the diligence, [in England] the mail. 2) [name usually given in England] [leichter Wagen] the Rocket, the Telegraph, light coach. — lauf, m. fast run. — läufer, m. 1) a swift or fast runner, a runner, a fast and long walker, [sometimes] a scout [used in war]. 2) [= schnell laufendes Pferd] [for hunting] courser, hunter; it. V. Renner 1). — loth, n. [leichtfüßiges Loth] a lute or solder apt to flux — post, f. V. — futtsche 1). — schiff, n. V. — seger. — schreibebekunft, f. short-hand, stenography. — schreiber, m. short-hand writer, stenographer. — schrift, m. accelerated, redoubled, precipitate step. Im schritte gehen, to go at an accelerated, swifter pace, [fam.] to put one's best leg foremost, [in the army] to double-quick march [if running], quick march [still walking]. — segler, m. a fast-sailing vessel, a fast-sailer, quick sailer. — spiel, n. [in music] an allegro, a piece in quick time. — wagen, m. V. — futtsche. — wüchsig, adj. and adv. [schnell wachsend] growing quick, fast-growing. — wüchsiges Holz, — wüchsiges Bäume, wood, trees of quick, speedy growth. — zinn, n. V. — soth. — zug, m. [new word] V. Eilmarsch. — zügig, adj. and adv. [little used] nimble-tongued, having great volubility of tongue or speech. — zügigkeit, f. nimbleness of speech, volubility of tongue or speech.

2. Schnell, [= schnellkräftig, chiefly or only used in compositions] adj. and adv. elastic, springy, elastical, [fam.] like fungus or Indian-rubber.

Schnell=balken, m. a spring-board, V. Schlagbalken 1). — bank, f. [Wurfmaschine] [with the ancients and also now at Gibraltar] a catapult. — bock, m. [Sturmbock] [with the ancients] the ram, the battering-ram. — brett, n. einer Mäuselage &c., the spring-board of a mouse-trap &c. — brunnen, m. V. Pumpbrunnen. — falle, f. [in sportsmen's lang.] a spring-trap [flying up and catching the intruder]; it. a mole trap. Eine falle stellen, to lay a spring-trap; to set a mole-trap; der Fuchs hat sich in der falle gefangen, the fox has let himself be caught in the spring-trap, in the gin. — feder, f. the spring [for the knife-blade]. — fäfer, m. [in nat. hist.] [Springfäfer] elater noctilucens, the spring-back fire-fly. — fäulchen, n. [of clay stone] a marble, a stoner, [bigger] a taw, [biggest] a boss, [of white marble] an alley. — fäulchen spielen, to play at marbles, [amongst children also] to knuckle down. — kraft, f. [in a proper as well as in a figurative sense] elasticity, springiness, elastic power or virtue, resultant force. Die kraft der Luft &c., the elasticity of the air &c.; — kraft der Stahlfedern, the elasticity, springiness, flexible yielding of steel-springs; Körper, welche kraft besitzen, bodies possessing elastic properties, elastic bodies; die kraft seines Geistes, the elasticity of his mind. — kräftig, adj. and adv. elastic, springy, resultant. — kräftigkeit, f. V. — kraft. — kugel, f. V. — käulchen. — ruthe, f. [in sportsmen's lang., with fowlers] elastic rod for bird-catching; [in angling-rods] the top-joint. — schleife, f. [amongst sportsmen, fowlers] noose, snare, springe. — schleifen stellen, to lay the snares, wires, to set the springes. — seil, n. [in sportsmen's lang.] springe, noose. — wage, f. a steel-yard. Mit or auf einer wage wiegen, to weigh with or on a steel-yard; diese wage ist nicht richtig, this steel-yard is not true, can't be depended on. — wagering, m. the steel-yard ring.

Schnelle, f. 1) [no pl.] V. Schnelligkeit. 2) [pl. n] [in America, in the St. Laurence river &c.] [Stromschnelle] rapid.

Schnellen, [V. Schnell] I. v. intr. 1) [u. w. sein und haben] to spring. Eine Feder lassen, to let go, to touch a spring, to let a spring fly or go off; diese Feder schnell nicht genug, this spring is not strong enough, does not go off strong enough, is not elastic enough: eine gebogene Klinge schnell zurück, wenn &c., a bent blade flies back, springs back, returns with a spring, if &c.; eine Wage, in die Höhe lassen, to touch the scales, to make the scales spring up. 2) [u. w. haben] Mit den Fingern, to flip, to flick, to fillip with the fingers; Einem an die Nase, to fillip any one's nose for him or one, to give any one's nose a fillip. II. v. tr. 1) to let fly, to launch, to dart, to flip, to pop. Einen Pfeil vom Bogen, to let fly, to shoot an arrow from the bow; er schnellte ihm mit dem Finger ein Brodkügelchen an den Kopf, he flicked or filliped a bread-pellet at his head. 2) Einen, to fillip any one, to give any one a fillip; Einen an die Nase, to fillip any one upon his nose; [with sportsmen] den Leithund, to give the hound a slap, a whack, a flick with the end of the rope &c. by which he is led; einen Fuchs, V. Pressen. Fig. Einen — [in pop. lang., for übererheben], to gammon, to do, to trick, to chouse, to bamboozle any one; man hat uns in diesem Gasthose tüchtig geschnellt, we have been regularly fleeced, choused in this inn; er hat mich um einen Dukaten geschnellt, he has gammoned, choused, humbugged me out of a ducat; er schnellt, wo er kann, he cheats, diddles where he can. 3) Sich — [in common people's lang., sich sputen] [little used], to hasten, to make haste, to go quick, to despatch, to do out of hand.

Schneller, m. [-s, pl. -] 1) flicking, snacking, a fillip. — an die Nase, a nose-fillip, crack on the nose with the fingers, V. Nasenstüber; [in sportsmen's lang.] — mit dem Wippseile, a crack with the end of the rope over the back of the led quest-dog or hound. 2) [was schnellt] [with gunsmiths] — an einem Feuergewehre, spring-rack, catch, it. trigger of guns &c.; V. Drücker; [in botany] V. Milchblume; [in nat. hist.] V. Schnellkäfer. 3) V. Strähne. 4) V. Schnellkäulchen.

Schnellerfluß, m. V. Schnellfluß.

Schnellheit, V. Schnelligkeit.

Schnelligkeit, f. swiftness, speed, promptitude, rapidity, velocity, celerity, despatch. Die — einer Bewegung, the swiftness, velocity of a movement; die seines Laufes, the rapidity of his career, the celerity of his course, speed of his race or course; die eines Hirschens, Pferdes, Vogels, the speed of a stag, horse, bird; die des Adlerfluges, the rapidity of the eagle's flight; die eines Stromes, the rapidity, swiftness, violence, impetuosity of a stream; die seiner Aussprache, the rapidity of his utterance. Fig. Die — der Gedanken, des Denkens, the velocity, the readiness of thought, of thinking; mit großer, mit außerordentlicher —, with great velocity, with extraordinary swiftness; die der Ausführung, the promptitude, celerity of the execution; die seiner Siege, seiner Eroberungen, the rapidity of his victories, of his conquests.

Schnepel, m. V. Schnäpel.

Schnepf, m. [-en, pl. -en] V. Schnepfe.

Schnepf=fisch, m. V. Schnepfenfisch. — huhn, n. 1) V. Schnepfe. 2) V. Holz-schnepfe.

Schnepfe, f. [pl. -n] [allied to Schnabel] Dim. Schnepfchen, || Schnepf=lein, n. [-s, pl. -] 1) a wood-cock; a sort of snipe, tringa, dunlin, sand-piper; it. common snipe; it. [Grünbeinchen, Wasser-] water or meadow-snipe, jack-snipe; V. Brach-, Doppel-, Haar-, Heer-, Meer-, Moor-, Pfuß-, Regen-, Strand-, Ufer-, Wald-, Wasser-; it. V. Geißkopf. Die gemeine — [Busch-, Berg-, Holz-], the common woodcock, [amongst sportsmen] a cock; die mit rothen Füßen, the redshank; die mit grünen Füßen, the greenshank; die weiße or lana-dische, the godwit; die gestreifte or gefleckte, the whimbrel; [with cooks] ein Würzgericht von —n, a hash of woodcocks; die Eingeweide mit Dreck einer, the trail of a woodcock. 2) kind of scales or weigh-bridge for iron-ore. 3) [in conchology] the mitre or snipe-volute.

Schnepfen=braten, m. roast woodcock, baked woodcock. — dreck, m. dung of the woodcock, [if dressed] the trail. — fang, m. woodcock-shooting or catching. [in woods] cocking. — fisch, m. [in nat. hist.] 1) the saury pike. 2) — fisch or Schnepf=fisch, m. the sea-pike, gar-pike, esox belone. 3) the great gar fish. — fliege, f. empis, bibio, snipe-fly. — garn, n. [with fowlers] a draw-net for woodcocks. — gasse, f. [in sportsmen's lang.] a lane or meuse where the nets for woodcocks are stretched. — jagd, f. woodcock-shooting or sport, [in woods] cocking. — kopf, m. 1) a woodcock's head. Fig. [in common people's lang.] a goose, a booby, V. Dummkopf. 2) [in conchology] a) Der — kopf [die gezackte Nase, das Pimpelchen], the Ceram spur-shell, the larger devil, voluta ceramira. b) Gezackter — kopf [die Perfkuleskeule, Nagelschnede], the thorny snipe's head, the purple whelk with solid spikes, murex brandaris or purpura. c) Der gezackte — kopf [der — schnabel, die gezackte Perfkuleskeule], the thorny snipe, the Guinea thorny murret, murex cornutus. d) — kopf [— schnabel, der Schnepfer or Böffel], the snipe, snipe-bill, murex haustellum. — schnabel, m. 1) a woodcock's bill. 2) [in conchology] V. — kopf 2) c) and d). — stoß, m. [amongst sportsmen] catching of the woodcock by means of suspended nets into which the birds are frightened or chased and there entangled in the meshes. — strich, m. [in sportsmen's lang.] the migration or passage of the woodcocks in spring and autumn; it. woodcocks flight from the wood to the fields. Auf den — strich gehen, to go out a woodcock catching or shooting as they leave the wood. V. — zug 1). — zeit, f. [in sportsmen's lang.] season for woodcocks, woodcock-shooting or cocking-season. — zug, m. 1) V. — strich. 2) Ein Zug — n, a flight of woodcocks.

Schneppe, f. [pl. -n] [allied to Schna- set] 1) [formerly worn on the forehead as an emblem of mourning] widow's peak. Eine zierliche —, a fashionable, a neat, a well made peak; sie hat, trägt eine —, she has, wears a peak the widow's peak. 2) Schnä- bel, Schnauze, the spout [of certain vessels].

Schneppefisch, m. V. Hornhecht. — haube, — mühe, f. a widow's or mourning cap with a peak in front. — fan- ne, f. — trug, m. can or pitcher with a spout or lip.

Schnuppenbeil, n. a peaked axe.

Schnapper, m. —lein, V. Schnip- per &c.

Schnirkel, m. V. Schnörkel.

Schneise, f. [pl. -n] [perhaps from Schnei- den] [in forest &c.] a riding, a lane, a hewn wood-path or way. Eine —, — n durch ei- nen Wald hauen, to cut a riding, ridings through a forest.

Schneuzen, V. Schnäuzen.

Schnickschnack, m. [-es, pl. -e] [an onomatopoeia, from Schnake = Vögel] [fam.] verbosity, fustian, stuff, fiddle-faddle.

Schnieben, V. Schnauben.

Schniedel, m. [-s, pl. -n] [with charcoal- burners] the second row of splints or wattle in a charcoal-kiln.

Schniegeln, [allied to schmiegen pro- bably] [fam., comic or in a bad sense] to trick or rig out, to bedizen, to dress for the fair. Sie ist immer gepußt und geschniegelt, she is always tricked out and bedizened as fine as twopence, as a maypole-girl; ein geschniegeltes Herrchen, an overdressed fine gentleman, a dandy; hier kommt er, geschniegelt und gebügelt, there he comes, tricked out in his Sunday- best, dressed as fine as a fool.

Schniffeln, V. Schnuffeln.

Schnipfel, Schnipfeln, V. Schnip- pel &c.

Schnippchen, n. [-s, pl. -] 1) [a noise produced by the sudden jerking of the middle-finger from the end of the thumb and striking the palm of the hand] snap of the finger. Ein — schlagen, to snap with the thumb and finger; Einem ein — schlagen, to snap one's finger at any one [in derision, contempt &c.], to fig. 2) Ein — [eine Prise] Taback, a pinch of snuff.

Schnippe, f. V. Schneppe.

Schnippel, Schnipfel, n. [-s, pl. -] cuttings, strippings, parings, shreds, clip- pings. [of cloth by tailors] cabbage; V. Ab- schnittlein, Papierschnigel.

Schnippeln, Schnipfen, Schnip- pern, [allied to knappen, kniff] v. intr. to cut into little bits, to snip or snick into tiny fragments.

Schnippen, [allied to knappen, knav- pen] v. intr. 1) [ein Schnippchen schlagen] V. und Schnippchen 1). 2) V. Schnippeln. 3) V. Fortschellen. 4) to move or jog up and down. [indecent] to bumfiddle, to buck. Die Feldhühner, Bachstelzen &c. — mit dem Schwanz, partridges, water-wagtails or dishwaters wag their tails up and down. 5) [perhaps allied to knappen = schnaufen] [in sportsmen's lang.] of blackbirds when they see a wild animal] Die Schwarzamsel schnip- pet, the blackbird twits.

Schnipperling, m. [-es, pl. -e] V. Schnippel.

Schnippeln, V. Schnippeln.

Schnippisch, [in Low. Sax. knappen = plaudern] adj. and adv. [fam.] pert. — es Gesicht, a pert face; — seyn, to be pert, snubish in one's answer; eine — Antwort geben, — antworten, to give a pert, a snubish answer, to answer pertly, snubishly.

Schnippes, m. [-es, pl. -e] 1) V. Schnippchen. 2) V. Schnippel. 3) [fam. and comic. for tailor] Meister —, Master Snip.

Schnirkel, m. [-s] V. Schnörkel.

Schnirkel-nadel, f. [in conchology, ab- gestumpfte —schnecke] truncated helix or screw-shell. —schnecke, f. [in conchology] 1) the helix or screw-shell. 2) V. Tute, Turenschnecke.

Schnirring, m. [-es, pl. -e] V. Meers- schwalbe.

Schnitt, m. [-es, pl. -e] dim. —chen, —lein, n. [-s, pl. -] 1) [das Schneiden] cutting, dressing, pruning, lopping. Der — der Haare, the cutting of the hair, hair-cutting; der — [das Behauen] der Steine, the cutting, hewing of stone, of free-stones; der — der Bäume, the pruning, lopping of rees; dem Weinstocke den ersten, den zwei- ten — geben, to give the vine the first, second dressing or pruning; [amongst surgeons] einen Bruch durch den — heilen, to cure a strangulated rupture by an operation; er ist am —e, unter dem —e [Bruch—e, Steins —e, Blasen—e] gestorben, he died under the operation for reducing his rupture [while being cut for the stone, under the operation of lithotomy]; unter diesen Um- ständen ist der — gefährlich, under these circumstances the operation [in case of hernia or stone] is dangerous; er hat sich zum —e entschlossen, he has made up his mind to undergo the operation; den — vornehmen, to operate [by cutting in certain cases of hernia and for the stone], to make the operation; der — [with engravers], carving, engraving in wood, a wood-cut; der — und der Nach— [in wood-engraving], the cut and after cut, V. Holz—; der — [das Abschneiden] des Getreides, the cutting, reaping of the wheat. 2) [way and manner in which the cutting of any thing is effected] cut, make. Dieser Schneider, Schuster, hat einen guten —, this tailor has a good cut, this shoemaker makes a good fit; dieses Kleid steht übel, der Fehler liegt am —e, der — taugt nichts, this dress is badly made, does not do, the fault lies in the cut, the cut is good for nothing; Klei- der nach dem neuesten —, clothes of the newest cut or fashion; der — einer Feder, the cut, make of a pen; [with lapidaries] der — der Edelsteine, the cutting of precious stones or gems; [in architecture] der — eines Gewölbes, einer Treppe, section 3) [= Einschnitt &c.] Einen — in Etwas thun, to make a notch, incision, cut, [fam.] nick in any thing; großer, langer, tiefer —, a great cut, deep incision, a gash; beim Ras- siren hat er sich einen — in das Kinn ge- macht, he has given himself a cut, he has cut himself while shaving; er hat einen — am Finger, he has a cut in his finger, a cut finger; diese Narbe kommt von einem —e her, this scar, seam, mark proceeds from a cut; es ist ein —, es sind —e in diesem Zeuge, Leder &c., there is a cut, a slit, there are cuts in this stuff, leather &c.; [with surgeons] einen — in das Fleisch, in den Arm machen, to make an incision in the flesh, an incision or opening in the arm; einen — in die Rinde eines Baumes machen [with gardeners], to make an incision, cut into the rind or bark of a tree; in den — propfen [with gar- deners], to graft by cleft, stock or slit, it. by crown or shoulder, it. by whip or tongue, to whip-graft; die —e in einem Korbholze, the notches in a tally or umpire's stick. Fig. [in heraldry] Der — an einem Schilde, the partition in a shield. 4) the place where something has been cut out, off or away; cut, notch, slit, clipping, edge, slice, chop, [fam.] snick, nick, snip. An dem —e erkennt man, daß diese Münze falsch ist, one can see by the notch, clipping, that this is base coin, that this piece of money is bad; dieses Tuch ist schön auf dem —e, betrachten Sie es auf dem —e, this cloth is superfine judging by the cut, judge of it by the pattern, by the piece cut, V. Ab—, An—, Aus—; [with bookbinders] der — eines Buches, the [cut] edges of a book, the edge; der vordere, gebogene Theil des —es, the hollow fluted edge of a book in front, the front-edge; ein vergoldeter, mar- morirter —, a gilt, marbled edge; ein Buch mit vergoldetem or goldenem —e, a book with a gilded edge, with gilt edges; Papier mit einem goldenen —e, paper with a gilt edge, with gilt edges, gilt-edged paper. 5) Der —, die —e [= abgeschnittenes Stück] a slice, a piece; ein —, eine —e Brod, Fleisch, Braten, a slice of bread, a chop, steak of flesh, a slice of meat, of roast or baked meat; ein schöner — Haare, a quantity of hair cut, a handsome cutting of hair; ein ganz dünnes —chen Fleisch, Kalbfleisch, Schinken, a very thin slice of meat, veal, ham, [fam.] a Vauxhall slice of meat, veal, ham, [also] a sandwich- slice, [in Scotland] a collop; eine —e Brod zu einer Suppe, a slice of bread, a sop for broth or soup; [in England] toasted bread, small toast squares for soup; längs- liche —e Brod zum Tunken, longish bread- strips or slices, fingers of toast for steeping, dipping, sopping, [fam.] sippets; ein —chen Wurst, Schinken, a little slice of a German or dried sausage, of a ham; [with cooks] gebak- tene —en, goldene —en, baked slices of bread, toasted slices of bread, [in England] toast, it. toasted sippets, it. rounds of toast; eine —e Speck, a slice of bacon; it. a thin bread slice of bacon for larding poultry, rabbits &c.; —e Speck zum Spicken, a slice or strip of bacon for spiking over a roast hare &c.; [with dress-makers] der — [papiernes Muster] zu einer Mütze, Haube, zu Ärmeln &c., a pa- per-pattern for a cap, a bonnet, for sleeves &c., it. a bonnet-shape, a sleeve shape. Fig. [in pop. lang.] [= Nutzen, Vortheil] Einen, seinen — bei Etwas machen, to make one's profit by or out of any thing, to come in for a slice of any thing, to get one's pickings, to turn a penny out of any thing; er weiß sei- nen — zu machen, he knows how to get his snacks, his share his allowance. 6) [that which cuts] the edge. Der — am Diamant [die Schneide], the edge of a diamond, the diamond-point.

Schnitt-bank, f. V. Schneidebank. — bohne, f. V. Schnittbohne. — en — weise, V. —weise. — gras, n. [in botany] 1. horse- tongue, bur-reed, sword-grass, burweed, cat's or dog's grass, sparganium. 2) V. Schaftheu. —handel, m., —handlung, f. [in commerce] a draper's, woolen-draper's, clothier's, mercer's, hosier's trade in retail [where the cloth &c. is cut off by the ell or yard]. —händler, m. a retailer [by cutting off]. —hobel, m. [with bookbinders] paring-knife [to the cutting-press]. —holz, n. [with vine-dressers, abgechnittene Reben] vine-cuttings, vine-branches, provine, grass; [in woods and forests] wood fit for sawing into deals, planks, boards &c., good sawing-wood. —kohl, m. [with gardeners] cabbage-sprouts; sprouts of cabbage produced by cutting notches in the cabbage-stump; colewort tops. —lauch, m. [with gardeners] a small onion that sprouts on being cut down, cives, chives; [in botany] allium schaeenoprasum, rush-leaved garlic. —linie, f. [in geometry] eines Winkels, the secant of an angle. —messer, n. [with vine-dressers] —messer zum Beschneiden der Reben, pruning-knife for vine-dressing; [with surgeons] a) —messer, Schnitte in das Fleisch zu machen, an incision-knife, scalping-iron; a dissection-knife. b) V. Schneidmesser. —riß, m. [in architecture] sketch or plan for the cutting and shaping of the stone-blocks [in the required proportions]. —salat, m. small lettuce, small or young salad, V. Stedtsalat. —schein, m. [in commerce] [Rebenschein] remnant, shred, pattern. —waare, f. 1) V. Ellenwaare. 2) [in woods and forests] sawed wood, planks, deals. —waren Händler, m. a retailer [by cutting off]; a linen-draper; a haberdasher. —weise, adv. in slices, in cuts, in morcels, by cuts, sections or scissions. —wunde, f. a wound by incision, by a cut. Eine große or tiefe —wunde [a wound by a gash], a gash. —zwiebeln, pl. [with gardeners] 1) onions transplanted and cut down [for improving the growth]. 2) [less usual] V. —lauch.

Schnitte, f. [pl. -n] V. Schnitt 5).

Schneider, m. [-s, pl. -n] —inn, f. [in rural economy] reaper, [with the sickle or reaping-hook] [in England, also with the scythe, and then] mower. Man hat die — in die Ernte geschickt, the reapers have been sent into the fields; —innen dinge, to hire the reaping-women, the female reapers.

Schneider-blume, f. staechas citrina, gnaphalium staechas, yellow-flowered goldilocks. —forn, n. [in Korn gereichter —lohn] reaper's wages paid in corn, in leasings. —lohn, m. reaper's wages, mower's hire or winnings. —mahl, n. 1) a reaper's meal. 2) harvest-home. —schmaus, m. harvest-home, [fam.] a blow out or treat given to the reapers and harvest-gatherers.

Schnittling, m. [-es, pl. -e] 1) V. Schnittholz. 2) [with gardeners, Jahreszöß zur Fortpflanzung] yearling-sprout or offset for planting out. 3) V. Schnittlauch. 4) [with surgeons] a foetus obtained or a child whose life has been saved by the caesarean operation or section.

Schnitt, m. [-es, pl. -e] dim. —chen, —lein, —el, n. [-s, pl. -n] [from schneiden] 1) a piece cut off. V. Schnitt 5). 2) [ausgeschnittenes Stück von einem Apfel] a slice of an apple, [if the apple be pared and the core taken out for apple tarts or crowdies] a score, a quarter, [of an orange when peeled and the white scraped off] a peg, [of a melon &c.] a slice; it. —e [zer schnittenes, gedörrtes Obst], a slice of a dried apple or pear, a dried slice, score, quarter, [sold in German markets]; V. Apfel—, Birn—.

||Schnitzel, n. [-s, pl. -n] V. Schnitz.

Schnitzeln, [from schneiden] v. tr. to cut out, to cut, to cut up. Kleine Figuren aus Holz —, to carve or cut out little figures in wood; Äpfel, Birnen zum Dörren —, to score apples, pears for drying; er hat diesen Schattenriß, diese Silhouette aus Papier geschnitzelt or ausgeschnitten, he has cut out this shadow, shade in paper [which forms a likeness in shade upon the wall]; Etwas ganz klein —, to cut or snip up any thing very small.

Schnitzen, v. tr. and intr. to cut, to carve, to sculpture. Zierlich aus Holz —, to carve or cut out figures in wood; geschnitzter Rahmen, geschnitztes Bild, a carved frame [to a picture, mirror &c.], carved or sculptured [wooden] image; ein Stück Holz mit dem Schnitzmesser glatt, eben —, to carve or cut smooth, to plane a piece of wood with the knife [of a carver in wood]. Das —, carving in wood.

Schnitzarbeit, f. V. —werk. —bank, f., —rett, n. V. Schneidebreit. —eisen, n. V. Schneideeisen. —kunst, f. art of carving in wood, wood-sculpture. —messer, n. 1) a knife for carving in wood, for sculpturing. 2) V. Schneidmesser. 3) V. Schnitzer 2). —schere, f. scissors for shredding, cutting up or out &c. —tisch, m. V. Schneidebank, Schneidebreit. —werk, n. sculpture, carving in wood. Dieser Rahmen ist mit —werk überladen, this [picture &c.] frame is too much carved, has too much carving, carved work about it. —zeug, n. [Werkzeuge zum Schnitzen] any tool or tools for carving in wood, for wood-sculpture. V. Schneidezeug 1).

Schnitzer, m. [-s, pl. -n] 1) [Bild—] a carver in wood. 2) any tool for carving out or in, for cutting out &c., a knife, a plane; it. a sieve-maker's knife; the carving-knife of a toy-maker or maker of wooden and [in England] Tunbridge-ware; [with basket-makers] a paring knife, a pruner or parer, whittle. it. [with engravers] a graver, a point, a graving or etching tool, needle. 3) Fig. [in fam. lang.] a fault in grammar, a grammatical blunder, a violation in the laws of grammar, an error in syntax; it. a fault in spelling, orthographical error, a misspelling. Einen — machen, to make a fault, a solecism; das ist ein großer, grober, arger —, that is a great, a glaring or gross, a sad blunder, oversight; diese Schrift wimmelt von —n, this writing is full of mistakes, swarms with grammatical errors, faults in syntax, in the parts of speech, in the laws of concord, three concords, [also] in orthography, is misspelled, has misspellings in many places; einen — wider die Sprachlehre machen, to make an error in grammar, in syntax, to commit solecisms, [fam.] to clip the King's [Queen's] English.

Schnitzern, v. intr. [in fam. lang.] to be guilty of improprieties in speech, to commit grammatical or orthographical errors, to commit solecisms, to utter a barbarism, to solecize, to violate any of the parts of speech. [fam.] to clip the King's [Queen's] English.

Schnöde, [appears to be allied to schneiden] adj. and adv. 1) [verächtlich] [old] vile, vain, frivolous, paltry, trumpery. Die —n Dinge, Lüste dieser Welt, the paltry or vain things, the abject, vain pleasures of this world; —r Gewinn, vile, despicable, unworthy, blackguard profit or gain, abject, contemptible advantage or winnings. 2) [in a causal sense] injurious, disdainful, degrading, derogatory, vilifying, insulting, debasing, lowering, contemptuous, contumelious, scornful; Einem — begegnen, to treat any one disdainfully, contemptuously &c.; Einem — Worte, — Reden geben, to use harsh, bad, outrageous language to any one; —e Antwort, a disdainful, a sneering, an impertinent, insolent, insulting answer.

Schnöde, f. [pl. -n] [from schneiden] [in botany = spitzes Niedgras] sword-grass, bur-reed, shave-grass.

Schnödesenf, m. 1) V. Federich b). 2) V. Winterkresse.

Schnödigkeit, f. [of a vile thing] [not much used] worthlessness, paltriness, frivolity; it. indignity, baseness, meanness, vileness, abjectness.

†Schnödiglich, V. Schnöde.

1. ||Schnöppern, V. Raschen.

2. ||Schnöppern, Schnüppern, V. Schnüffeln, Beschnüffeln.

Schnörkel, m. [-s, pl. -n] [allied to Schnur = Schlinge] [something moved around, something flourished] a curl, a wreath, a curve, whip, a bow, a coil, a twine, [fam.] a round-about, whirling [in any thing]. Ein — im Schreiben, a flourish, loop, bow in writing; [in architecture] der — an dem Kapitäl einer Säule, the volute, scroll on the capital of a column; laubichter —, a volute or scroll of foliage, in leaves; die kleinen — am Kapitäl, the helices, spirals, tendrils of the corinthian capital; an dieser Bildhauerei sind zu viele —, there is too much flourishing in this sculpture, the sculpturing is overloaded, overdone with ornaments; ein — an einer Einfassung von Buchs, von Rasen [with gardeners], a scroll or roll of box, of turf; — an Beschlägen [with locksmiths], coil, twine, scroll in brass-work or garnishing. Fig. V. Schnurre, Schwank.

Schnörkelmodell, n. [with locksmiths] mould or form for the scroll. —perpendikel, m. [in architecture] —perpendikel durch das Auge des —s des jonischen Säulensknäufes, the cathetus of a volute; der — perpendikel einer Säule &c., the cathetus or imaginary perpendicular axis or line of a column &c.

Schnörkelei, f. too much of flourish.

Schnörkeln, v. intr. to flourish, to make flourishes, whips, bows in writing, [fam.] to write like a shop-boy; [in architecture] to make volutes, scrolls; [on furniture-paper] to make arabesques; it. to make spiral ornaments, curves, tendrils, ornaments in bad or a depraved taste, V. Schnörkel.

Schnöte, f. [in botany] V. Schnöde.

Schnüffeln, Schnüffeln, [allied to schnaufen] v. intr. [to inhale through the nose with a noise and in short breaths; also] to speak through the nose] to snuff up, to sniff; to speak through the nose, to snuffle, [cant] to come the nasal twang. Dieser Knabe schnüffelt beständig, this boy is always snuffling or snuffling up [with his nose]; dieser Prediger schnüffelt, this preacher snuffles, [cant] comes the methodist parson over one; dieses Pferd schnüffelt auf dem Haber herum, this horse sniffs, is sniffing about after the oats; dieser Hund schnüffelt überall herum, vor sich hin, hinaus, this dog is sniffing about every where, is snuffling the air. Fig. [rather low] Ueberall herum—, to sniff or ferret about, to thrust one's nose or snout every where, into every hole and corner; über Alles —, to criticize, censure turn up one's nose at every thing. II. v. tr. [in pop. lang.] Wasser in die Nase —, to snuff up water into the nose, to inhale water through the nose. Das —, snuffling, it. sniffing.

Schnüffler, Schnüffler, m. [-s, pl. -], —inn, f. [in common people's lang.] one who sniffs or snuffs up, a sniffer; it. a snuffler. Fig. [rather low] censor, critic.

Schnüpfen, [allied to schnuffeln and schnaufen] v. tr. and intr. Taback —, to take snuff, [comic] to snuff; er schnupft stark, he takes a great deal of snuff, he is a great snuff-taker; ich habe aus seiner Dose geschnupft, I have taken a pinch out of his snuff-box; sich das — angewöhnen, to get [into], to acquire the habit of taking snuff, [in a bad sense] to contract snuffy habits.

Schnupfmittel, n. [a remedy to be snuffed up into the nose for exciting the mucous membrane] errhine remedy, an errhine. —pulver, n. V. Niesepulver. —taback, m. snuff. —tabacksbüchse, f. 1) snuff canister or jar. 2) [not much used] snuff-box. —tabacksdose, f. 1) [unusual] snuff-canister or jar. 2) snuff-box. —tuch, n. pocket-handkerchief, handkerchief. Farbiges —tuch [for snufftakers], a coloured pocket-handkerchief; seidene —tücher, silk-handkerchiefs.

Schnüpfen, m. [-s] a cold; a stoppage, a defluxion of the nose; [in medicine] coryza. Starker, heftiger —, a strong, a violent or dreadful cold; mit Husten verbundener — [Katarrh], a cold together with a cough, a catarrh, [where epidemic, in medicine] influenza; der russische —, influenza; hartnäckiger, verstockter —, an obstinate, refractory cold; den — haben, bekommen, to get, to have, to catch a cold; sein — fängt an zu zeitigen, sich zu lösen, his cold is beginning to ripen, to diminish; Einem den — verursachen, to give any one a cold; Einem den — vertreiben, to drive away, expel, or cure any one's cold; die geringste Wetterveränderung verursacht ihm den —, the slightest change in the weather gives him a cold; dieses Mittel hat mir den — vertrieben, this remedy has driven my cold away. Fig. Den — haben, to have a cold [as the fox]. V. Kopf—.

Schnupfenartig, adj. and adv. catarrhal, catarrhous. —fieber, n. a catarrhal fever; influenza. —mittel, n. remedy for a cold, for a catarrh.

Schnüpfen, m. [-s, pl. -] —inn, f. or Taback — Sc., a snuff-taker, a taker of snuff, [in a bad sense] a snuffer.

Schnüpficht, adj. and adv. [in pop. lang.] 1) —es Wetter, weather liable to give colds, when colds are likely to be caught. 2) V. Schnupfenartig.

Schnüppe, f. [pl. -n] [the snuffed wick] snuff [of a candle, sometimes called] snuff-tinder; [still burning] the snuff still burning, the live wick or snuff; [not yet snuffed] the wick, the lighted wick [requiring snuffing]. Die — aus der Lichtschere herausmachen, to clean out the snuff from the snufflers; beim Pugen der Kerze fiel die — herunter, at the snuffing of the tapers the snuff, live wick fell down.

1. Schnüppen, V. Schnupfen.

2. Schnüppen, v. intr. [in Low. Sax. snubbein = stracheln] [with miners] Die Beche schnuppet, the ore diminishes in produce, becomes poorer.

Schnüppern, V. Schnuffeln.

1. Schnür, f. [pl. -en] [in Lat. nurus, Gr. νύος, perhaps = die Verbundene, and therefore allied to 2. Schnür] [old or scriptural] daughter in law.

2. Schnür, f. [pl. Schnüre] [appears allied to the Gr. νύος and the Lat. nervus, as well as to the Low. Sax. snar = schnell and schnurren = to move rapidly in a circle, i. e. to snare] 1) [generally something moving circularly] [in hydraulics] a whorl or string of pipes round a fountain for producing several jets or streams of water. 2) [especially] string, cord, twist. —, ein Paket zusammen zu binden, packthread, twine, V. Bindfaden; dünne —, [dim. Schnürchen, || Schnürlein, n.] thin string, cord or twist; edging, lace, bobbin; leinene, roßhärene —, thread, horse-hair line; seidene, goldene —, silk, gold threads or strings; an seidenen Schnüren hängendes Siegel, a seal suspended by silken twist or cord; man erdrosselte ihn mit einer seidenen —, he was strangled with a silken bow-string; der Großherr schickte ihm die seidene — [= ließ ihn erdrosseln], the sultan or grand signor sent him the bow-string; Etwas mit einer — befestigen, binden, anbinden, to fasten, to bind, to tie any thing with a string; die Schnüre an einem Beutel, the strings of a purse, the knittles; V. Angel—, Garten—, Hals—, Hut—, Nicht—, Rund—, Trompeten—, Zeug—; Haare, Seide zu einer — zusammenziehen, to twist, braid, work hair, silk into a cord or string; eine — um den Kopf eines Hutes machen, damit er enger werde, to tie the head [crown] of a hat, close with a string to make it narrower; einen Mannsrock or Weiberrock mit Schnüren einfassen, to embroider, [formerly] to purdle a coat, a gown with cord; die Schnüre an einer Maschine, the cords or strings of a machine; die — am Drehrade einer Drechselbank, am Rade einer Schleifmaschine, the cord or whiplcord to the wheel of a lathe, to the wheel of a grinding machine, endless line; V. Maß—, Zieh—; [with bookbinders] die Schnüre auf dem Rücken eines Buches, the bands [6 to a folio, 5 to a 4to, 8vo &c. on to which the leaves are sewed]; —, wo mit ein Buch fest zusammen gebunden wird, packthread with which a book is bound tight [for marking its nerves or bands]; die Schnüre von einem Buche abnehmen, to take off the packthread from a book; die Schnüre, auf welche die planirten Bogen aufgehängt werden, the lines on which the glued or sized leaves are hung up; [with carpenters, masons] nach der — ziehen, to square or lay out by the line; eine Mauer nach der — auführen, to lay out a wall by the line; diese Mauer ist nicht ganz nach der — aufgeführt, this wall is not well laid out by the line, juts, bulges or is out of the line; [with gardeners] —, line or cord [for cutting turf, laying out gravel walks &c. by]; it a dibbling-line; Bäume nach der — setzen, to plant [out] or set trees by the line; Einem die Schnüre anlegen [formerly, in criminal law], to put the thumb-screws on any one; to apply torture by means of string-pressure on the fingers. Fig. Ueber die — hauen [in common people's lang.], to commit [an] excess; Einem am Schnürchen haben [in fam. lang.], = Einem nach seinem Gefallen streiten, to have any one in one's leading strings, under one's thumb, to be able to lead any one by the nose; it. Etwas am Schnürchen haben [= eine große Fertigkeit in Etwas haben], to know any thing by line and mark, to have or know any thing at one's fingers' ends; das hat man nicht so am Schnürchen [das ist nicht so leicht zu machen], that is not so soon done as said, not so easy as you take it to be, as it looks, is not to be easily strung together; er lebt recht nach der — [in fam. lang. = recht regelmäßig], es geht bei ihm Alles nach der — he lives by clock-work, he lives by rule, every thing at his house goes on as regularly as clock-work, as systematically as the rule of three. 3) [eine Schnur voll] Eine — Perlen, Kastanien, Zwiebeln &c., a string of pearls, chestnuts, a rope of onions &c. Fig. Von der — zehren [von dem vorher erworbenen or ersparten Vermögen], to consume or spend one's hard-earned savings.

Schnur=eben, adv. [nach der —] V. —gleich. —feuer, n. [in pyrotechnics, Kunst-feuer, das an einer — herabläuft] a squib or serpent that runs on a line; it. a line-rocket. —folge, f. V. —richtung. —förmig, adj. and adv. string-formed, in the shape of a cord, [in nat. hist.] moniliform. —gerade, —gerecht, —gleich, adj. and adv. laid out, squared, drawn by the line. Diese zwei Gebäude stehen —gerade neben einander, these two buildings are in a row together; —gleiche Gassen, streets laid out by the line, in a row; Steine, Balken —gerade legen, stellen &c., to lay, to place &c. stones, beams in a line. Fig. [in fam. lang.] Das geht dem Befehle —gerade entgegen, that is, goes, works exactly contrary to rule and line, to what was marked out or arranged, to the given order; diese Straße führt [Sie] —gerade auf die Stadt zu, this road leads or takes [you] directly to the town. —macher, m. a maker of twist, cord, bobbin, twine, a ribbon-weaver. —mühle, f. [Weberstuhl, auf welchem mehrere Schnüre zugleich verfertigt werden] the loom of a ribbon-weaver. —perlen, pl. threading-pearls. —recht, adj. and adv. straight by line, laid out &c. by line, in a row; V. —gerade. —richtung, f. [little used] a squaring or laying out by line, row. —stein, m. [with miners] V. Grenzstein, Lochstein. —stock, m. [with weavers, Stab, der in das Untergetöse der Kette gesteckt wird] the upper roller. —stracks, adv. [obsolescent, for gerade, gerades Wege] quite straight, mathematically straight. Sie sind einander in ihren Meinungen —stracks entgegen, they are directly, diametrically opposed to each other in their sentiments or opinions; —stracks sich widersprechen [von Sätzen], to be contradictory to, to be peremptorily, diametrically, antagonistically opposed to each other [speaking of arguments]; —stracks in sein Verderben rennen, to run headlong, prone to one's ruin.

Schnüren, v. intr. Der Wolf, der Fuchs schnuret, the wolf, the fox gallops straight ahead [so that the track is in a straight line], [in sportsmen's lang.] takes the country.

Schnüren, I. v. tr. 1) to tie, to cord, to lace. Einen Ballen &c. —, to cord up a bale, packet &c.; mit Bindfaden —, to tie with packthread; einen Mantelsack &c. auf das Pferd —, to tie on a cloak-bag &c. to a horse's crupper; sein Bündel —, to pack up one's things, one's bundle, to do up one's trunk, fig. [in fam. lang.] to prepare for leaving. to pack up; eine Schnürbrust —, sich —, to lace a pair of stays, one's stays, one's self; sie hat sich selbst geschnürt, she has laced her stays herself; sie ist nicht gerade, ſie iſt ſchief geſchnürt, ſhe is not laced ſtraight, ſhe is laced on one ſide; [with bookbinders] ein Buch —, to bind a book tight with twine between two boards; einen Miſſethäter auf die Folter &c. — [formerly], to bind, to faſten a criminal to the rack &c.; [with farriers] ein [männliches] Thier —, to castrate an animal [by strangulating the teſticles], V. Auf—, Zu—, Ein—. Fig. Einen — [in common people's lang.], to fleece any one, to be guilty of extortion; dieſer Gaſtwirth ſchnürt ſeine Gäſte, daß ihnen die Augen übergehen, this landlord fleeces his gueſts without mercy, in a moſt unconſcionable manner. 2) [little uſed] to provide with cords, to put on cords &c., to faſten any thing with twine &c.; V. Ab—. II. v. intr. 1) [with ropemakers] to twist. 2) [with miners] Dieſe zwei Zechen — mit einander, theſe two mines jut upon, lie near each other.

Schnürband, n. [for lacing up, to or down certain articles of wearing apparel] lace, ſtay lace; point, tagged point; V. Neſtel. Das —band durchziehen, anziehen, nachlaſſen, to paſs the lace or cord through, to tighten, do or draw up the lace &c., to looſen or undo the lace, to lace [up], to unlace. —bruſt, f. der Frauenzimmer, the body of a gown, the bodice, [chiefly] eine mit Fiſchbein durchzogene —bruſt, a waſtcoat, body or bodice ſtiffened or quilted with whalebone; it. a pair of ſtays with whalebone ſtiffeners; eine mit eiſernen Schienen verſehene —bruſt, a pair of ſtays with a ſteel buſk and ſteel rods in lieu of bones; dim. —brüſtchen, || —brüſtlein, n. a corſet, a bodice; eine —bruſt auſlaſſen, enger machen, to let out, to take in a pair of ſtays; eine geſtepte —bruſt, a quilted pair of ſtays. —haken, m. a hook for faſtening a woman's dreſs [ſold with the eye in England under the name of hooks and eyes], a clasp. —holz, n. [with lacemen] a ſort of ſpindle for forming the loops; a bobbin; [with harness-makers] a wooden tool or pin for twisting whiplcord and tightening the loops or ties; it. a brushmaker's wooden pin round which the packthread or wire is wrapped. —kaſten, m. clasp of a necklace. —kette, f. a ſtay-lace. —lag, m. piece of the body, bodice or ſtays. —leib, m. [dim. —leibchen, n.] [of females] a corſet, bodice; [of the peasantry] jumps. Sie trägt einen —leib, ein —leibchen, ſhe wears a bodice, a quilted body, a corſet; ſie hat ihren —leib angezogen, ausgezogen, ſhe has put on, taken off her corſet; Kleid mit einem —leibe, a dreſs with a quilted body or corſet. —loch, n. an eyelet-hole [to a pair of ſtays &c.]. Dieſe —löcher ſind zu weit von einander, theſe eyelets or eyelet-holes ſtand too far apart. —mieder, n. [chiefly of females of the lower order or female-peasantry] V. —bruſt, —leib. —nachbar, m. [with miners, Grenz Nachbar] a perſon whoſe property &c. is contiguous, a neighbour. —nadel, f. a lace-tag, a bodkin. —neſtel, f. V. —band. —riemen, m. V. —band. —ſchuhe, pl. ſhoes that lace up, tie-ſhoes; [in England, with gentlemen] Oxford-ſhoes. —ſenkel, m. lace, ſtay-lace; boot-lace. —ſenkelſtift, m. the tag of a ſtay-lace. —ſtiefel, pl. boots that lace up, lace-boots. —ſtift, m. V. —ſenkel.

Schnurrant, m. [-en, pl. -en] —inn, f. [in common people's lang.] a ſtrolling ſcraper, grinder, fiddler, beggarly-muſician.

Schnurre, f. [pl. -n] 1) [V. Schnarre] 2) [low, Mund, Naſe], V. Schnauze. 3) Fig.

[ſam.] merry tale, funny ſtory; [if caricatured] out-and-outer. —n [her]vorbringen, erzählen, to produce or invent laughable anecdotes, to tell or relate funny tales, jeſts; V. Schnake, Schwanz; 's iſt eine bloße —, 'tis mere humbug.

Schnurrbart, m. a muſtachio, the muſtachios, [in old authors for men and ſtill for cats &c.] whiskers. —bärtig, adj. having or wearing muſtachios, [if falſe] having a pair of muſtachios on. —käſer, m. V. Miſtkäſer, Roſtkäſer. —pfeife, f. or —pfeiferei, f. [ſam.] [for abſtract things] fiddle-faddle, tweedle-dum. [for things] trifles, trash. Schaffen Sie dieſe —pfeifen ab, get rid of theſe baubles, gewgaws, toys, knick-knacks, gimcracks, kick-shaws, of this ſtuff.

Schnurren, [allied to fnarren] I. v. intr. 1) [originally = to move voluntarily] Das Rädchen ſchnurrt, the little wheel is moving, going. 2) [brummen] [as a ſpinning-wheel] to hum, to purr. Die Maikäfer —, wenn ſie fliegen, cockchaſers buzz, whiz, hum in flying, [as cats] to purr; it. [in ſportsmen's lang.] [little uſed] to be in heat [as the wild ſow]. 3) to shrivel [as ſkins do]. II. v. tr. [in common people's lang.] 1) V. Betteln. 2) to pilfer, to nab, to bone, to crib.

Schnurrer, m. V. Bettler, Betteljude.

Schnurrig, V. Drollig, Lächerlich, Poſſenhaft, Schnakſch.

Schöb, m. [-es, pl. -e or Schöbe] [from ſchieben] [in agriculture, Bund] Ein —Stroh, a truſs or bundle of ſtraw; [if ſmall] a lock of ſtraw; V. Schaub.

Schöber, m. [-s, pl. -] [dim. Schöberchen, || Schöberlein, n. [-s, pl. -] [from ſchieben] 1) a rick or ſtack [pointed atop]. Ein —Getreide, Stroh, Heu, a wheat-ſtack, ſtack of ſtraw, hay-rick; Kleiner — [on a hay-field], a hay-cock; ein —Holz &c., a heap or pile of wood &c. 2) [a certain meaſure of hay] ſixty truſſes or bundles of hay, ſtraw &c.

Schöberfleck, m., —flatsche, f. [in agriculture] place for the rick or ſtack.

Schöberling, m. [-es, pl. -e] [in nat. hiſt.] 1) V. Korallenschwamm 2). 2) V. Eichpilz.

Schöbern, v. tr. Heu, Getreide &c. —, to ſtack hay, corn &c.; it. Heu auf der Wieſe —, to cock hay in the meadow or hay-field; geſchobertes Heu &c., hay &c. in ricks, ſtacked hay &c., [on the meadows or hay-fields] cocked hay, hay in cocks.

1. Schöck, n. [-es, pl. -e] [allied to Schake = Ring] [in ſportsmen's language] —e, rings on the horns of the wild goat.

2. Schöck, n. [-es, pl. -e] [allied to hoch, to ſchocken, to the Fr. choquer to ſhock i. e. push againſt] 1) [häufen, Menge] a heap, a quantity, pile, a ſcore, a lot [of any thing]. 2) [a number of ſixty pieces] Ein —Apfel, Rüſſe &c., three ſcore of apples, of nuts &c.; nach —en or —weiſe verkaufen, zählen, to ſell by three-ſcores or the baker's half-hundred, to count by ſixties; ein halbes —Stroh, thirty truſſes or bundles of ſtraw. 3) Ein —Groſchen, Pfennige [according to the various diſtricts as the caſe may be], a ſcore, a ſcore and a half, two ſcore of or twenty, thirty, ſixty groats, pfennigs. 4) [old or provincial] the ground rent, land-tax.

Schöckanſchlag, m. valuation of ground [for fixing the ground-rent]. —frei, adj. and adv. exempt of or from ground-rent, of land-tax. —groſchen, m. [formerly] [in Saxony] a groat of which ſixty once went to a mark and later twenty to a florin. —holz, n. [in woods and forests] ſagot-wood or branch-wood of which ſixty ſagots are ſold at a time.

Schöcken, I. v. tr. 1) to count by ſixties; it. to range, to place or lot out in ſixties. in three-ſcores. 2) [in woods and forests] Das Unterholz —, to do up the brush-wood in ſagots and range them out in ſixties. II. v. intr. 1) Das Getreide ſchocket gut, the wheat gives plenty of ſheaves. 2) V. Schaufeln; [in ſeamen's lang.] Das Schiff ſchocket, the ſhip floats. is afloat [at high tide].

Schöfel or Schöfelig, [V. Schöfel, m.] adj. and adv. [in common people's lang., for gering, ſchlecht] vile, miſerable, deſpicable, contemptible, paltry.

Schöfel, m. [-s] [appears to be derived from ſchaben] [in common people's lang., for Ausſchuß] rubbish, reſuſe, offal, trash, waſte, ſag-ends.

Schöffe, m. [-n, pl. -n] [from ſchaffen or ſchöpfen = gleich machen, in the Lat. of the middle ages ſcabinus] an aſſeſſor, an alderman [in ſo far as he ſits by the recorder]; it. a jurymen.

Schöffensamt, n. the functions or office of an aſſeſſor. —bank, f. 1) the bench of the aſſeſſors, the aſſeſſor's bench. 2) V. —gericht. —buch, n. book or register of the aſſeſſors, of the aldermen, a Jury. —gericht, n. tribunal or court of aſſeſſors, of aldermen. —kammer, f. V. —gericht. —meiſter, m. the chief aſſeſſor, foreman of a jury, ſenior alderman. —ſtuhl, m. V. —gericht.

Schöffensbar, adj. and adv. having the rank of, eligible as an aſſeſſor or alderman.

Schokolade, V. Chocolate.

*Scholar, m. [-en, pl. -en] [obsolete, for Schüler, Schörling] a ſcholar, a diſciple, a pupil.

*Scholarch, m. [-en, pl. -en] [Schularch, ſcher] ſchool-inſpector, the viſitor of an endowed ſchool, of a government ſchool.

*Scholarchät, n. [-es, pl. -e] 1) the dignity, place, office of a ſchool-inſpector, the ſchool-inſpectorſhip. 2) the inſpector's or viſitor's houſe. 3) body of ſchool-inſpectors.

*Scholäſter, m. [-s, pl. -] [Schulherr und Lehrer an einer Domschule] the maſter and teacher in a ſchool attached to a church.

*Scholäſtik, f. the ſcholastic lore [of the middle-ages].

*Scholäſtiker, m. [-s, pl. -] a ſchoolman

*Scholäſtiſch, adj. and adv. [ſchulmäß, ſchulgerecht] ſcholastic. Die —e Gottesgelehrtheit, Weltweiſheit, ſcholastic divinity, philoſophy, ſchool-divinity, ſchool-philophy.

*Scholiäſt, m. [-en, pl. -en] the ſcholiast.

*Scholie, f. [pl. -n] the ſcholia. Die alten —n über den Ariſtophanes ſind ſehr geſchätzt, the old ſcholia on Ariſtophanes are highly prized.

*Scholion, n. [-s, pl. -s] [in mathematics] the ſcholium.

Schölken, [from ſchellen] v. intr. [in ſeamen's lang.] Die See ſchölkt, the ſea ebbs, ſplashes, beats [high but not violently] againſt the sides of the ship. Das — der See, the splashing, the running in billows or heaps of the sea.

Schellkraut, n., — wurz, f. V. Schellkraut.

Schölle, f. [pl. -n] [Ital. zolla, from the old schellen = theilen? 1) [Ger.] a clod, a sod. Die — n auf einem Acker zerschlagen, to break or crush the clods of earth on a field; eine — Rasen, a turf-sod; — Eis, a lump or piece, [if large] a flake, [if very large] a floe of ice. Fig. [chiefly in higher style] Er ruht unter der —, schon deckt ihn die —, he is, lies, reposes under the sod [is dead, buried]. 2) [in nat. hist.] a) Die — [der Plattfisch], the pleuronectes, flat-fish, turbot. b) [Plattfische] plaice or plaice. c) [Meerzunge] halibut. d) [Soble] the sole; it. flounder, pearl, dab, whiff.

Schollenhüpfer, m. [Weißstehchen] the wheat-ear.

Schöllicht, adj. and adv. cloddy, soddy; V. Schölle.

Schöllig, adj. and adv. full of clods, clod-covered; V. Schölle.

Schölung, f. 1) [in hydraulics] oblique movement of the water. 2) [with fishermen] — des Bernsteins, alluvium [of amber].

Schölz, V. Schulz.

Schölzenbirn, f. a species of pears.

Schön, [appears allied to schēhen in ge. schēhen] adv. 1) [= bereits] already. Ich habe es — gesagt, I have already said so or it; es ist — vier Uhr, it is four o'clock already; wie! Sie sind — zurück? what! you are [come] back already; wie! jetzt —? what! already? ach, wäre doch die Zeit — da! ah! why is not the time already come; es gibt des Glendes so — genug, there is enough misery already. 2) Fig. [for the sake of emphasis] Er wird — kommen, ich werde Sie — rufen, he will be sure to come, I'll take care to call you; fassen Sie Muth, es wird — kommen, be of good cheer, that will all come right; ich muß es ihm — zu Gefallen thun, I see I must do it to please him, to oblige him; das wäre ihm — recht, aber Sc., that would be just the thing for him no doubt, but Sc.; es ist — wahr, aber Sc., that is all very true, but Sc.; wenn —, ob —, V. Obgleich.

Schön, [allied to schēnen = glänzen] adj. and adv. 1) [= glänzend, rein] [in seamen's lang.] — Deck machen [das Deck abspülen], to swab the deck, to rub the deck with the holy-stone; — Schiff machen, to make the ship clean and tidy. 2) [producing an agreeable impression on the senses either with respect to the colour, shape, or other properties of any thing] beautiful [for women], handsome [for men], [for objects Sc.] handsome, beautiful, fine; — es Kind, — er Knabe, — er Jüngling, a beautiful child, a handsome, fine boy, a handsome youth; — er Bursche, — es Gesicht, fine shape or growth, countenance, handsome face; ein — er Mann, a handsome, fine man; ein — es Mädchen, a beautiful girl, [of lower people] a fine or bucksome lass; ein — er Herr, ein — es Herrchen, [ironical] a fine [young] gentleman, [in quite a bad sense] a fop; ein — es Dirnchen, a fine [little] lady; ein — es Grün, a beautiful green; — e Augen, Haare Sc., beautiful eyes, hair Sc.; eine — e Frau, ein — es Weib, a beautiful woman; sie ist — er, als ihre Schwester, die — ste unter Allen, she is prettier than her sister, the most beautiful, the prettiest of all; sie ist zum Entzücken —, she is enchantingly, exquisitely beautiful; Philipp der — e, Philip the Fair; das — e Geschlecht, the fair sex; in diesem Lande ist ein — er Schlag von Leuten, ein — er Schlag Leute or Menschen, the race or breed of men and women in this country is fine; eine — e Wiese, — e Gegenden, a beautiful meadow, delightful regions; die Gegend hier ist —, the country here, the neighbourhood is, the environs are fine, beautiful; eine ziemlich — e Gegend, ein — es Land, a pretty neighbourhood, a fine country; eine — e Stimme, ein — es Tonspiel, Lied, a beautiful voice, a fine piece of music, a charming song; — schreiben, singen, tanzen Sc., to write, sing, dance Sc. beautiful v. well; er schreibt —, hat eine — e Handschrift, he writes well, has or writes a good or pretty hand; es ist heute ein — er Tag, es ist — es Wetter, it is a beautiful day to-day, it is charming or lovely weather; die — e Jahreszeit, the fair or fine season; das läßt —, sieht — aus, that looks well or pretty, has a pretty look; er ist — gekleidet, he is tastefully, well dressed; die — e Zeit des Lebens, the beautiful time of life, the spring of life; — machen, to make or render beautiful, to embellish, to beautify; — er werden, to become or wax more beautiful; sie wird von Tag zu Tag — er, she grows more beautiful, she gets prettier every day; er sieht —, reitet —, he fences or fights well, rides splendidly, capitably; er ist ein — er Tänzer, he is a beautiful dancer. Das — e, the beautiful; was die Natur — es hat, the beautiful in Nature. Fig. Eine — e Seele, a beautiful soul, a fine, thoroughly well-constituted mind; ein — er Gedanke, a beautiful, bright thought; — e Gefinnungen, Handlungen, Thaten, beautiful, creditable sentiments, ingenious or noble actions; ein — er Geist, a fine mind, a genius. it. [in a bad sense] V. Schöngest; die — e Welt, the beau monde, the ton, the elite, the first society, [in a bad sense] the exclusives, [at Vienna] the cream, [in an English Cathedral-town] the close-people, [fam.] the fashion, the fashionable circles, [in London a few years ago] the initiated at Almack's, [in America] the shopocracy; das ist nicht — für einen or an einem jungen Menschen, that is not pretty in or for a young man, not becoming [to] a young man; Alles von der — en Seite sehen, to see every thing on the fair side, [in fam. or pop. lang.] es ist eine — e Sache um die Wahrhaftigkeit, veracity, truth is a fine thing, a beautiful thing; bedanke dich —, return thanks in a pretty manner, prettily; ein — es Alter erreichen, to reach a good, a green old age; — thun, to mince, to primp, to mimic; Einem, mit Einem — thun, to caress, to fondle any one; einem Frauenzimmer — thun, to play the lover, to court a woman; Sie haben mir — e [ironically = schöne] Karten gegeben, fine, splendid cards, a beautiful hand you've given me; [ironically] das ist etwas — es! that's beautiful! there's a pretty mess! there is a fine piece of business! that's a pretty, a nice pickle, a pretty go.

Schönzadel, m. [with vintners] V. Gutedel. — baum, m. V. Lärchenbaum. — blatt, n. [in botany] großes — blatt, the tacamahacca of Bourbon, the calophyllum irophyllum; kleines — blatt, the Calabra of America. — blind, V. Mondblind. — druck, m. [with printers] prime, first form, the first printed page of a sheet still fair. — fahrsegel, n. [in seamen's lang.] the mainsail. Nur das — fahrsegel gebrauchen, und das Schiff treiben lassen, to use only the mainsail and let the ship drift or drive; to bring to, to try, to lie to, to lie under the fore sail [in a storm]. — färben, n. V. — färberkunst. — färber, m. a dyer in bright, warm and lasting colours, a dyer in great dye or in grain. — färberkunst, — färbererei, f. the great dye, dying in grain. — flecken, n. V. — västerchen. — geist, m. [now, chiefly in a slight sense of contempt] a wit, a bel-esprit, a genius. — geisterei, f. [generally in a bad sense] witticism, wit-mongery; it. [in a bad sense] affectation of being a wit. — geistig, adj. and adv. like a wit, after the fashion of wits. Die — geistigen Schriften, the writings of the wits; the belles lettres. — gras, n. [in botany] nodding melic-grass, ropegrass of the Hebrides. — härlein, n. [in botany] [Eberwurz] common carline-thistle. — herr, m. V. Stutzer, Schönting. — leiste, f. V. Carrouche 1). — pflästerchen, n. a beauty-patch [of court-plaster over a dimple Sc.]. Sie hat das Gesicht voll — pflästerchen, her face is full of dimple-patches, beauty-spots; ein Büchchen zu — pflästerchen, a box for patches, a patch-box. — reder, m. 1) a fine speaker. V. Schönredner. 2) [in a bad sense] a fine talker, mighty fine speaker. Er macht den — reder, he is a fine talker, he talks mighty fine. — redner, m. an elegant speaker, an accomplished orator. — säu = lig, adj. and adv. [in architecture] having a suitable intercolumnal space. — säuliges Gebäude [with just intercolumniations], an [or, a] eustyle. — schreibekunst, f. calligraphy, penmanship. — schreiber, m. 1) a good penman. 2) [not much used] a fine or elegant writer, a writer whose style is brilliant and pure. — schreibung, f. V. — schreibekunst. — schwäßer, m. a fine chatterer, V. — reder [in a bad sense]. — seite, f. [in trade] die — seite eines Zeuges, the right side of a stuff, the fair side, [with printers, — druck] the prime, the first printed side of a sheet [that is not yet printed on both sides]. — sprecher, m. 1) V. — reder 2) V. — redner. — wissen = schaftlich, adj. and adv. appertaining to the belles lettres or polite literature. Das — wissenschaftliche Fach, the belles lettres, polite literature.

1. Schöne, n. [-n] the beautiful, V. Schön.

2. Schöne, f. [pl. -n] 1) [in higher style, for Schönheit] beauty. 2) [in fam. lang. and frequently even comic] a beautiful woman, a pretty woman, a belle, [formerly] a toast; it. any woman, a fair one, one of the fair sex. Fürchten Sie nichts, meine —, don't be afraid, fear nothing, my beauty, my sweet creature, my dear; ein Jeder führte seine — [Geliebte], every one brought his mistress, his sweetheart, his fair one; eine junge —, a young beauty; er ist ein Verehrer aller — n, he is an adorer of all the sex, a universal lover, [with women] he is a male coquet or flirt, [also] not a marrying man, a gay bachelor. 3) means, remedy, ingredient for lining, for clarifying. Die Hausenblase ist eine — für den Wein, Kaffee Sc., isinglass is a clarifier of wine, coffee Sc. 4) [in medicine] V. Kopfwassersucht.

Schönen, [originally = schirmen, therefore allied to Schöne] v. tr. to take care of, to preserve, to spare, to save. Die Augen —, to spare, to screen one's eyes; seine Kleider, seine Gesundheit, seine Kräfte —, to take care of one's clothes, to be careful of one's health, to preserve one's health, to husband one's strength; er schont sich zu sehr, he coddles himself up too much: er hat sich nach seiner Genesung nicht geschont, he did not take care of himself after his convalescence; seine Zeit —, to economize, to husband, to save, to make the most of one's time; hier ist mein Beutel. — Sie ihn nicht, here is my purse, don't spare it, [fam.] use it as your own; seine Freunde, seinen Kredit —, to spare, to keep, not to tax one's friends, one's credit, die Truppen, ein Pferd —, to spare, to have consideration for the troops, a horse; er ist ein Mann, den man — muß, he is a man to be treated with circumspection: Eines Schwäche —, to make allowances for, to hum or any one's weakness or foible, er schont Niemand, he spares no person; man muß sehr —d mit ihm umgehen, ihn sehr —d behandeln, viele Schonung gegen ihn beobachten, one must treat him behave towards him with great circumspection, behave very cautiously towards him, be on one's guard with him, [fam.] he is a man that understands no nonsense, can't take a joke, that must be humoured; wenn er Ihnen nützlich seyn kann, so — Sie ihn nicht, if he can be useful to you, don't spare him, use him freely, turn him to account; man hat seinen guten Namen nicht geschont, his good name has not been spared, has been roughly handled, has been mauled, been made free with; man hat ihn in der Steuer &c. geschont, he has been spared, let off in the duty, tax &c.; der Tod schont keines Menschen [in old or lofty style with the genitive], death spares no one, pays no respect to persons; [in woods and forests] die Waldungen — [wirthschaftlich benutzen], to regulate the planting and felling of forest timber. Das —, V. Schonung. Syn. Schonen, Verschonen. Schonen means to save, to take care of, from a wish to preserve or defend from injury, whereas verschonen is to spare, where we refuse to exert our supposed power and right of injuring or destroying.

Schonzeit, f. V. Hagezeit.

Schonen, v. tr. 1) Eine Flüssigkeit, den Wein —, to clarify, to fine, to defecate a liquid, the wine; dieser Wein ist mit Hausenblase geschönt, das ist geschönter Wein, this wine is clarified with isinglass, this is fined, clarified wine. Das —, clarification, fining, defecation. 2) Die Bäume —, V. Ausputzen.

Schöner or [less usually written] Schöner, m. [-s, pl. -n] [in seamen's lang.] [a sort of brig whose mainsail and foresail are suspended by gaffs and stretched below by booms] a schooner.

Schönheit, f. 1) beauty. Die — des Körpers &c., the beauty of the body &c.; die — eines Weibes, the beauty, prettiness of a woman; eine vollkommene, vollendete, unvergleichliche —, a perfect, accomplished or matchless beauty; seiner — pflegen, to bestow great care on one's good looks; die — der Natur &c., the beauty of nature &c.; die — ihrer Stimme &c., the beauty, sweetness &c. of her voice; die — des Geistes, der Seele, the beauty of the mind, of the soul. 2) a beautiful thing, a charm. Sie besitzt tausend —en, she possesses a thousand charms; die —en in der Natur, the beauties, charms in or of nature; sie ist die erste — der Stadt, she is the first beauty, she is the belle of the town; alle —en des Hofes, all the beauties of the court, all the court-beauties.

Schönheitsmittel, —wasser, n. a cosmetic remedy or water, a cosmetic. — salbe, f. V. Schminke.

Schönlich, V. Schönsam.

Schönling, m. [-es, pl. -e] [new word] a pretty man [in his own opinion], an effeminate coxcomb, a beau, a fop. Er ist ein —, er hält sich für sehr schön, he is an exquisite, a dandy. [fam.] he thinks himself vastly handsome, quite the go, quite a love, quite the ticket; den — machen, to play the beau, [fam. in England] to be of the tenth Hussars, to be in the regiment of the irresistibles.

Schönsam, adj. and adv. sparing, saving, economical, careful. Er ist — mit seiner Kleidung, geht sehr — mit seinen Kleidern um, he is careful of his clothes, takes great care of his dress; man muß sehr schönlich or — mit ihm umgehen, he [it] must not be roughly handled, [also] one must go to work with, one must treat him or it very carefully, smoothly.

Schönstens, adv. in the most beautiful manner. Ich bedanke mich — [in fam. lang.], danke — [still more fam.], I thank you most sincerely, cordially, [if very fam.] thankee, thankee, [ironical] thank you, you are very good, very kind.

Schonung, f. [das Schonen] management, care, circumspection. Einen mit vieler — behandeln, to treat any one with great management or address; seine Gesundheit erfordert viele —, große —, his health requires much care, great management; man hat keine — mehr gegen ihn nöthig, man braucht keine — mehr gegen ihn zu beobachten, no more ceremony need be observed towards him, it is no longer requisite to treat him with any delicacy, with any regard to his feelings whatever; die Wahrheit ohne alle — herausfagen, to speak out the truth without reserve, without mincing the matter; diese Brille dient zur — der Augen, these spectacles serve to defend, protect, save the eyes.

Schonungsbrille, f. goggles; eye-preservers, sight-preservers. —los, adj. and adv. 1) without management, careless. 2) not sparing [of] one's health, body, life. Der Feind ging —los mit den Besiegten um, the enemy showed no mercy towards the conquered, treated the conquered without mercy.

Schöner, m. [in seamen's lang.] V. Schoner.

Schöpf, m. [-es, pl. Schöpfe] [allied to Schöpfel, or in general to schütten = to cast] 1) [generally a cavity, a depth] Die Nesttalle erzeugen sich im — im Innern der Erde, the nests reveal themselves, are deployed in the bosom of the earth; im —e in der Tiefe des Meeres, in the bosom, depth of the sea, dieses Kind schläft auf dem —e seiner Mutter, this child sleeps in the lap of its mother; sie nahm das Kind auf ihren —, she took the child into her lap, upon her lap; die Hände in den — legen [in fam. lang.], to lay one's hands in one's lap, fig. to put one's hands into one's pockets, to do nothing; die Frucht, welche sie in ihrem —e trägt, the fruit, which she bears in her womb, [delicately] in her bosom. Fig. Dem Stücke im —e sitzen [in fam. lang.], to sit in the lap of fortune, to be the spoiled child of fortune, [fam.] to be born with a silver-spoon in one's mouth, to live in clover; Abraham's — [in Scripture], Abraham's bosom; wieder in den — der Kirche zurückkehren, to return to the bosom of mother church, to recant or repudiate one's heresy or schism; im —e seiner Familie, in the bosom of one's family; das liegt im —e der Vergessenheit begraben, that lies buried in the lap of oblivion, in the waters of forgetfulness. 2) [closely allied to schiefen and Schoß, = something projecting] skirt, flap; it. [of a coat] lappet; [of a gown] hem. Die Schöße an diesem Kleide, Rocke sind zu lang, the skirts, flaps of this dress, the tails of this coat are too long. Dim. Schößchen, || Schößlein, n. [-s, pl. -n] a little skirt, flap, hem &c.

Schoßbein, n. V. Schambein. —fall, m. [in law] that inheritance, whereby on the death of a minor the usufruct of the paternal estate reverts to or devolves upon the mother, succession of a minor or infant to the usufruct. —fell, n. V. Schürzfell. —hund, m. [dim. —hündchen, || —hündlein, n.] a lap-dog, pet-dog, a darling dog. —jünger, m. the beloved disciple [he who reclined on the triclinium next to Christ]. Johannes der —jünger Jesu, John the favourite disciple of Jesus. —katz, f. a pet-cat, [in Ireland] pusheen. —kind, n. a pet-child, a darling; it. a spoiled child. Er ist das —kind des Glückes, he is the favourite, it. spoiled child of fortune. Syn. V. Liebling. —kraut, n. V. Durchwachs. —neigung, f. favourite inclination or pursuit, hobby-horse. —rippe, f. [with butchers] eines Rindes, the short rib of an ox, of beef. —schlange, f. [in nat. hist. = Zunafernschlange] the tame snake, the virgin-snake, coluber domicella. —sünde, f. V. Lieblingsünde. —tuch, n. V. Schürze. —tuch eines Bischoffes, a bishop's apron.

Schöp, V. Schöpp.

Schöpf, m. [-es, pl. Schöpfe], dim. Schöpfchen, || Schöpflein, n. [-s, pl. -n] [another form for Schöpf] — der Bäume, top of trees, tree-top, — von Haaren, a tuft, lock of hair; — des Wiedehopfes, der Haubenlerche &c., crest, tuft, cop of the hoopoe, of the crested lark; — von Pflanzen, tuft, green dress of plants; Einem einen — Haare ausreißen, to tear out a tuft or lock of hair from any one's head, die Tartaren scheeren sich das Haupt und lassen nur einen — Haare stehen, the Tartars shave their heads, and only let a tuft of hair remain; Einen beim —e nehmen or fassen [in pop. lang.], to take hold of a lock of any one's hair; it. fig. Einen beim —e nehmen, to take hold of any one, to seize, to arrest any one; der — des Pferdes, forelock, foretop; it. der —, a Roman feather; it. a feather in the hair of the forehead.

Schöpfartig, adj. and adv. [in botany] [of the roots] fibrous. —ente, f. V. Haubenente. —lerche, f. V. Haubenlerche. —meise, f. V. Haubenmeise. —raupe, f. [in nat. hist.] the crested caterpillar. —taube, f. V. Haubentaube.

Schöpf, m. V. Schöpfe.

1 Schöpfe, f. [pl. -n] [little used] 1) place for drawing water. 2) V. Schöpfseimer, Schöpfgelte, Schöpfstelle, Schöpfslöffel.

2. Schöpfe, m. V. Schöpfe.

Schöpfen, [from Schorf] v. intr. [in agriculture] to bloom, to bud [speaking of the hop-plant or hop-tops].

Schöpfen, [a clumsier form for heben, allied to Schaffe] v. tr. to draw water, to dip for water. Wasser aus dem Flusse, aus einem Brunnen —, to draw water from the river, from a well; einen Brunnen leer —, V. Aus—; einen Zuber voll —, to draw a tub full of water, to fill a tub full by drawing water; [in sportsmen's lang., in falconry] —, to drink [as wild beasts, the falcon &c.]; Wasser aus einem Nachen &c. —, to bale water out of a skiff &c.; it [in seamen's lang.] den Wind in die Segel —, to let the wind fill the sails; Wasser —, to leak, to make water [as a ship does]; Athem —, to fetch breath, to draw in a breath, to respire, to breathe; frische Luft —, to inhale, taste, breathe the fresh air. Fig. Argwohn gegen Einen —, to imbibe, conceive suspicion against any one; er hat diese Nachrichten aus einer guten Quelle geschöpft, he has received this news from a good source, he has obtained this intelligence from high authority; er hat aus der Quelle geschöpft, aus den Urchriften, he has drunk at, drawn from the fountain-head; [stiff] einen Gnadengehalt aus einer gewissen Kasse &c. —, to create a pension out of a certain fund; man hat ihm einen Gehalt aus der königlichen Kasse geschöpft, a pension has been created for him, granted him out of the privy-purse, he has been placed in [or on] the privy-list; [in law] ein Urtheil —, to come to a legal decree, judgment, judicial sentence, [of the jury] to find a verdict. Das —, the drawing of water, baling out &c.

Schöpfbrett, n. [to a mill-wheel] joint, board, step, a ladle-board, float. —brunnen, m. a well, a draw-well. —eimer, m. a bucket for drawing water; a draw-well bucket, a well-bucket; [in salterns] a brine-bucket; [in hydraulics] —eimer eines —rades, trough of an overshot-wheel, bucket of a chain-pump. —fäßchen, n. [in salterns] a ladle or bowl for baling. —gebäu, n. [with miners] the building for or of a hydraulic machine. —gefäß, n. —gelte, f. —geschirr, n. vase, vessel, bowl, utensil for baling, drawing of water. —haken, m. a perch-hook, pole-hook for letting down a water-bucket or pail; hook to a well-bucket &c. —kanne, f. pot or can for drawing water. —kelle, f. [in saltpetre-works] a copper bowl or great ladle with a spout or lip; [with chandlers] V. —löffel. —kessel, m. [with wax chandlers] a dip-kettle, a copper. —kübel, m. a water-bucket, pail or tub, [especially] leathern bucket of a fire-engine. —löffel, m. [in different arts] a ladle; it. a kitchen-ladle, pot-ladle, [for a tureen] soup-ladle, [for butter-boats] sauce-ladle; [with chandlers] the tallow-ladle; [with foundries] a copper-ladle; [in sugar-manufactories] ladle; [in glass-works] pan, copper, basin; [in saltpetre-works] V. —felle. —maschine, —mühle, f. [in hydraulics] a hydraulic machine, any engine or machine for pumping &c. —probe, f. [with foundries] specimen, essay of the fused or molten metal. —quelle, f. a well; [if rising above the surface to any height] a fountain. —rad, n. 1) [in hydraulics] any water-wheel for raising water, an overshot wheel, tympanum of some water-machines; any wheel for irrigating or floating land, for supplying feeders, main-feeders, cross-feeders, catch work &c.; [in China] a Chinese-wheel [with ladle boards or floats], a Persian-wheel. 2) [with watch-makers = Ausheber] the rash, ratch, fang-wheel [to lift up the detents]. —rüffel, m. V. Saugerüffel. —schaufel, f. scoop or bale [for baling a boat &c.]. —stelle, f. place where water is drawn; [in England] landing-place or steps by the river's side; it. [in paper-mills] V. Ruderstelle. —topf, m. V. —kanne; [with bakers] pot, jug, can [for pouring water on the dough]. —werk, n. V. —maschine.

Schöpfer, m. [-s, pl. -], —inn, f. 1) a drawer of water, one who bales water out &c.; [in paper-mills] the workman who plunges the frame into the stuff-vat, the plunger; [in salterns] he who pours out the brine drawn up by the workmen stationed at the brine-spring, the pourer. 2) Fig. [= Urheber] creator, maker, architect, producer. Gott ist der — aller Dinge, God is the creator of all things; dieser Fürst war der — unserer Seemacht, this prince was the founder of our navy; Homer wird als der — des Heldengedichtes angesehen, Homer is looked upon as the father of epic poetry, of the epic; er war selbst der — seines Glückes, he was himself the artisan, the architect of his own fortune; sie ist die —inn meines Glückes, she is the author, source of my prosperity. 3) any vessel for drawing water with, as a bucket, pail &c., V. Schöpf-eimer, Schöpfgette, Schöpfkelle, Schöpfstößel; [in seamen's lang.] the bowl, pail or scoop for the water-casks; it. [in saltpetre-works] V. Schöpfkelle. 4) [in nat. hist.] a species of echinus, sea-hedgehog or sea-urchin. 5) [with watchmakers] V. Schöpfrad 2).

Schöpfergeist, m. creative genius, mind or spirit. —hand, f. a creative, productive hand. —kraft, f. creative or productive power or force. —macht, f. creative might, power of creating. —stuhl, m. [in paper-mills] trestle or stool before the stuff-vat or feeder for the plunger or dipper of the frame.

Schöpferisch, adj. and adv. creative, productive. —er Geist, —es Genie, creative spirit or mind, genius; die —e Natur, creative, productive nature.

Schöpfig, adj. and adv. tufted, copped, [also] crested, [in botany] fibrous.

Schöpfung, f. 1) [das Schöpfen] the drawing of water. Fig. Die — eines Gehaltes [granting of a pension out of any fund] the creation of a pension or annuity; die — eines Urtheils, the coming to a judicial sentence, giving of a judgment. 2) [Erschöpfung] creation, formation. Die — der Welt, des Menschen, the creation of the world, of man; die — aus Nichts, creation out of nothing; seit der —, since the Creation. 3) [something created] Diese Anstalt ist seine —, this institution is his creation, of his foundation, this is his foundation. 4) [all created things] Creation, the Universe, Nature. Die ganze — schläft, all creation, all nature sleeps; der Mensch, das Meisterstück der —, man, the master-piece of Creation, of the Universe.

Schöpfungsbau, m. V. Weltbau. —geschichte, f. the history of the Creation. Die mosaische —geschichte, the Mosaic account, Genesis. —kraft, f. V. Schöpfer. —tag, m. the day of Creation, one of the six days. —werk, n. the work of Creation.

Schöpfe, f. V. 1. Schoppen.

Schöpfe, m. V. Schöpfe.

Schöpfeln, v. intr. [low] to drink by pints, to order and drink a pint at a time and so on. Er schöpelt gern, he likes to tinkle in small measure, in pints.

1. Schoppen, m. [-s, pl. -] [from Schaffe, = something built] any loft for covering certain things from the weather, a shed; [for wagons, carts &c.] a cart-house. [for carriages &c.] a coach-house. Unter einem — arbeiten, to work under a shed; V. Holz—, Was-gen—.

2. Schoppen, m. [-s, pl. -] [allied to Schöpfen, Schöpfet, Schiff], dim. Schöppchen, || Schöpplein, n. [-s, pl. -] a pint, a pintmeasure, [in England] an imperial pint; it. [in England] a small pint, a wine or milk-pint. Zwei — Wein &c., two pints [a quart] of wine; einen — trinken, to drink a pint; man muß ihm seinen — bezahlen, one must pay his pint for him, i. e. one must give him something to drink, something for himself, a gratuity, [in England] a pint of beer for himself; ein Schöppchen trinken, to drink one's allowance, to whet one's whistle; laßt uns ein Schöppchen trinken, let us drink a pint or so, let us whet our whistles; einen — um den andern, nach dem andern austrinken, ausleeren, to drink [out] one pint after another, to tope, to tinkle.

Schoppenbecher, m. a pint-pot, cup or goblet. Ein zinnerner —becher, a tin-pint, a pint-pot of tin; it. a pint-pewter-pot. —glas, n. a glass or tumbler holding a pint. —krügelein, n. a jug or earthen vessel holding a pint. —weise, adj. and adv. in pints, by pints, pint-fashion.

Schoppen, v. tr. [with cooks] [= stopfen, mästen] [little used] to stuff, to fatten, to cram, to feed [turkeys &c.].

Schöppig, Schöppig, adj. and adv. of a pint, holding a pint. —es Glas, —er Becher, a pint glass, pint-pot; pint-goblet. V. Schoppenglas.

Schöpps or Schöps, m. [-es, pl. -es] [is derived from Schöpfen = to cut] 1) [Schaf, bod] a sheep, [or more properly] a wether, [if slaughtered] mutton. 2) Fig. [low] [in common people's lang., for dummer Mensch] a lout, a booby, a sheep, a calf. Er ist ein —, Erz—, he is a ninny-hammer, a regular booby.

Schöppskopf, m. V. Schaffkopf.

Schöppsenbraten, m. —brühe, —brust, f. —bug, m. —fleisch, n. —feute, f. V. Hammelbraten &c. —mäßig, adj. and adv. Fig. stupid, boobyish, foolish, idiotical, heavy.

|| Schöre, f. [pl. -n] [probably allied to Scheren] 1) [provincial for Schäufel, Swaten, which see] 2) [in seamen's lang.] —n [Stützen], stays or uprights [for a ship while still on the stocks]. 3) a post serving as a landmark on a dike.

Schorreisen, n. V. Scharre. —erde, f. V. Scharrerde. —kopf, m. 1) [in common people's lang.] a shaved, shaven or shorn head. 2) [often in contempt] a shaven-crown, a bald-headed friar or monk. —schaufel, f. [with gardeners] a spade, it. a weed-hook, a spud, a hoe, a mattock.

|| Schören, [= Scheren, that is Schneiden, to cut] 1) V. Scheren. 2) [umgraben] to dig with a spade or shovel. 3) [scharren] to weed, to hoe, it. to spud. 4) [schuern] to rub, to polish, to burnish.

Schorf, m. [-es, pl. Schorfe] [allied to scharren] — auf einer Wunde, the scab of a wound; der — ist abgefallen, the scab has fallen off; wenn die Krätze abtrocknet, bildet sich ein — darauf, when the itch-pustule dries up, a scab forms over it.

Schorf-erzeugend, adj. [in medicine] escharotic, caustic, searing. — erzeugendes Mittel, an escharotic remedy, a caustic. V. Krage, Schafrade. — hobel, m. V. Bestohobel — lattich, V. Vierdeamser.

Schorfen, v. intr. [of the sheep] to be scabby or scurvy, to have the scab. Schaf, das schorft, a scabby sheep.

Schorfenmoos, n. [-moose, pl. -moose] [Stechen] lichen.

Schorfig, adj. and adv. 1) covered with scabs, scabby; it. [räudig] mangy; [of the head] scurfy, full of dandruff. Sein ganzer Leib ist —, his whole body is scurvy, scabby. 2) [uneben] rough, rugged, uneven.

Schorl, m. [-es, pl. -e] [according to some is allied to the old Schor, Gr. σχῶρ = uncleanness] [in mineralogy] schorl or shorl. Blauer — or Cyanit, blue shorl, cyanite, zeolite, sappure, sappare, disthine; it. Hauy's mesotype; natrolite; schwarzer —, augite, V. — granat, purpurrother —, axinite; rother — or Siberit, red shorl, siberite, red tourmalin; dunkelgrüner — or Olivin, dark-green shorl, olivine, olive chrysolite; grüner — aus Dauphiné, Epidot, green zeolite, Phrenite, Epidot; weißer — or Nephelin, nephelin, it. sommite, white shorl; edler —, elektrischer — or Turmalin, electric shorl, Ceylon tourmaline, diaphanous borax; dichter —, faseriger — or Strahlstein, actinote; asbestoid, radiated shorl; glassy actinolite, vitreous striated shorl, malacolite; V. Hornblende; thoniger — or Prehnit, prehnite, chrysoprase, chrysolite; vesuvischer —, vulkanischer — or Vesuvian, idocrase, vesuvian, hyacinthine, leucite, volcanic shorl, basaltine, white garnets.

Schorl-artig, adj. and adv. like shorl, shorlaceous. — artiger Beryll, shorlite, shorlous topaz, pycnite. — blende, f. amphibole [including tremolite, hornblend, actinolite]. — fels, m. shorlous rock. — granat, m. axinite, thumnerstone, yanolite, violet shorl. — granit, m. granite with tourmalin. — krüner, pl. tourmalin in grains or seeds. — kristall, m. the crystal of shorl; [in Cornwall] cockle. Grüner — kristall, actinote. — quarz, m. micaceous schist mixed with tourmalin. — säule, f. V. — kristall — schiefer, m. schistous hornblend, micaceous schist with tourmalin — spath, m. V. — blende.

Schorstein, [less usual Schorstein] m. [-es, pl. -e] [in Old Swed. schar-sten means a hearth, and schor means probably fire] the chimney, a chimney, chimney-flue. Eine Reihe — e, a row of chimneys; mehrere — beisammen, a stack of chimneys; liegender, schiefegeführter —, an oblique funnel or chimney; der — brennt, es ist Feuer im — e ausgekommen, the chimney has caught fire, is on fire.

Schorstein-busen, m. a sort of chimney-funnel, [if moveable] a kite — feger, m. a chimney-sweeper, a sweep — haube, f. a small shed over the chimney to prevent smoking in the room or passages, a chimney-top. — mantel, m. chimney-piece, mantel-piece. — mündung, f. a mouth or vent of the chimney. — röhre, f. the chimney pipe, funnel or tube, chimney-shaft.

Schörpfisch, m. [for Schorpfisch] [-es, pl. -e] [Seeisorpion] sea-scorpion.

1. Schöß, m. [-es, pl. Schöße] V. Schoß.

2. Schöß, m. [-fess, pl. -ffe or Schöße], dim. Schößchen, || —lein, n. 1) [from schießen = to come forth] a) [the coming forth of plants] a sprout, shoot, scion, twig, sprig, offset. — e treiben, to push or send forth shoots, sprouts; [speaking of barley] im — e stehen, to stand in ear or in grain, to be in ear, V. Schossen. [with gardeners] — am Fuße eines Baumes, a stolo, a sucker, ground-shoot; V. — reis; — der Getreidespflanzen, false or bastard-stalk, runner of certain grasses. b) n. [in architecture] [Schöß] stage, story, floor. Im ersten —, on the first floor or story. c) [with miners] the rubble of a lode, gang, soil, coal &c. 2) [from schießen = to fall, to fall or move spontaneously] a) [provincial, Schüb. or Falltür] a pulley-door, it. trap-door. b) Schößchen, a small window within a greater [moving on a hinge in a sash, slide or on an axis]; it. a peep-hole in a window or door, a postoffice-window. 3) [from schießen = to give or give away] [Abgabe] tax, impost, shot, scot. Den — bezahlen, to pay the taxes, imposts, tribute, to pay one's shot; drei — e geben, to pay the triple tax.

Schoß-balg, m. [in agriculture] the sheath of a wheat-ear, of an ear of corn. — bank, f. a bench with a back to lean on. — beere, f. V. Scheißbeere. — bleibe, f. [in nat. hist.] a young bream. — buch, n. [Steuerbuch, Grundsteuerbuch] book or register of the ground tax, book or register of the shot. [in English hist.] doomsday-book. — bühne, f. [with miners] a shed or roof in the pit over the place where the pails are filled. — eid, m. an oath or affidavit attesting one's property or estate, the property-tax or income-tax oath. — faß, n. [with brewers] the large rimmed floor for receiving the wort, cooling-vat. — frei, adj. and adv. scot-free. V. Steuerfrei. — freiheit, f. V. Steuerfreiheit. — gatter, n. V. Fallgatter. — gerinne, n. [with miners] canal or gutter out of which the water shoots upon the wheels; it. gutter for the current that moves the ore-stamper or pounder to shoot out of; it. the fine pounded or stamped ore carried along by the current through the gutter into the stamping-works. — gras, n. [Sommerfeld] annual or summer-darnel. — haring, m. V. Hohlharing. — herr, m. receiver of taxes, of the imposts, tax-collector. — jahr, n. [seldom used] year in which a person still grows, has growing or shooting pains, growing year. — kette, f. the hind-boot [of a mail-coach]. — kiel, m. [in agriculture] young stalk of wheat, the wheat-blade. — kraut, n. 1) [Bruchwurz] therow or thorow-wax, hare's ear, perfoliata. 2) [großer, gelber Weiderich] lysimachia, loose-strife. — loth, n. [with masons, builders &c.] line with a weight for ascertaining the perpendicular, the level, plummet-line. — pflichtig, V. Steuerpflichtig. — rebe, f. a vine-shoot [cut down to three or four eyes]; a vine-layer — register, n. V. — buch. — reis, n. a scion, shoot, sucker, bud, gem, button, it. [of a fig-tree &c.] a layer Neuer — reis, new shoot, a sprout; [with vine-dressers]

V. — rebe. — rinne, f. a gutter [between the roof and the chimney]. — stein, m. [in mineralogy] V. Pfeilstein. — wurz, — wurzel, f. 1) [Strabwurz] common southern-wood. 2) [Hundsahn] creeping panic-grass. — zeit, f. expiration of the time allowed for the payment of a tax, term for paying one's tax. — zins, m. property-tax levied on the interests of the capitals.

Schößbar, V. Steuerbar.

Schößchen, n., dim. of Schoß or 1. Schoß, which see.

Schößchen, n., dim. of 2. Schoß, which see.

Schöße, pl. of Schoß or 1. Schoß, which see.

Schöße, pl. of 2. Schoß, which see.

Schößel, m. [-s, pl. -] V. Schößer 1).

Schoßeln, v. intr. [with tailors] to add a length, a seam, a piece on to a dress, a quarter-piece to a gown; to lengthen, to let out or widen a dress by a seam, a gusset, a join &c.

Schossen, [V. 2. Schoß] I. v. intr. [of wheat &c.] to shoot out into ear, into spikes, to push forth or shoot into grain, to grow to an ear, to spire; it. to mount into culm, [with farmers] to come to grain, to straw, to flower. Der Weizen fängt an zu —, hat noch nicht geschossen, the wheat is beginning to shoot into ear, has not yet come to ear; der Salat ist geschossen, the lettuce has run to seed; — [of barley], to be in sheath, in blade, to shoot up into culms or stalks, to mount into stem, culm or stalk; geschossen haben, to be in ear or spike, to be in culm or stalk. II. v. tr. a) [from schießen = to move] [provincial] to restrain or detain by a bolt &c., to bolt or lock in or out. b) [from schießen = to give away] [Schoß, Abgabe geben] to pay tax or duty, scot and lot, to be liable to pay taxes, to be rateable. Dieser Acker &c. schößt zwanzig Thaler, this field is rated, taxed twenty dollars a year, pays a ground-rent or land-tax at the rate of twenty crowns per annum.

Schößer, m. [-s, pl. -] 1) [with bakers] a baker's peel [for setting the bread &c. in the oven]. 2) [a bird] —lein, Schößlein [provincial], V. Hänfling. 3) [obsolescent] receiver of taxes, tax-collector.

Schößeramnt, n. [obsolescent] V. Schößerei 1).

Schößerei, f. [obsolescent] 1) office, place or situation of a tax-receiver. 2) the dwelling of a tax-receiver; it. the office of a tax-receiver.

Schößig, adj. and adv. V. Kurz —, Lang —.

Schößlein, n. V. Schößer 2).

Schößling, m. [-es, pl. -e] 1) [generally something shot out or forth] [aufgeschossener Mensch] a young man shot up very tall, a [tall] stripling. 2) Schoß, Schößreis shoot, scion, sprout, twig. — e an der Wurzel, creepers, offsets from the root, false stem; wilber — neben dem Stamme aus der Wurzel, a false stem near the trunk out of the root, sucker, stolo; die — e an Reben, Artischocken, creepers or suckers of pinks, artichokes; — von einem Weinstocke, Feigenbaume &c., a layer of a vine, of a fig-tree; man braucht die — e zu Segreisern, the layers are used for slips, sets or cuttings; ein Busch von — en aus einem Stamme, a tuft or head of shoots or twigs from one common trunk; junge — e [one or two-year old wood] twigs, young shoots; dieser Baum hat dieses Jahr schöne — e getrieben, this tree has pushed out, given out some beautiful new shoots or scions this year; man muß die — e an diesem Reifensstocke ausbrechen, the suckers or creepers must be removed from this stock of cloves; die — e an einem Baum ausbrechen, to nip, prune or shred off needless buds on a tree; dieser Baum &c. hat — e an der Wurzel getrieben, this tree has shot out a sucker, sent up a stolo; — e [in botany], the creepers or runners, offsets to the roots, stolos which strike root. 3) [unusual] V. Schoßkind.

1. Schöte, f. [pl. -n] [allied to Kette, Kage, Haut &c.] 1) cod, shell, shuck, husk, pod, [in botany] a bivalvular pericarp, a silice, siliqua, silique; dim. Schötchen, || Schötlein, n. [-s, pl. -] a silicle, a silicle. — n tragende Pflanzen, siliquose or siliquous, [also] siliculous plants; alle Schmetterlingartige Pflanzen haben entweder — n or Schötchen, all papilionaceous plants are either siliquose or siliculous; Bohnen &c. in — n, beans in the shell or pod; Erbsen &c. aus den — n maschen, to shell peas, [low] to shuck peas; die Frucht des Binsfers wächst in — n, the fruit of the broom grows in pods. 2) — n [—nerbsen], green peas; it. gelbe — n [gehörnter — n], meadow-lotus, birds-foot trefoil of the meadows.

Schotenblume, f. [Schneebume] the anemone of the Alps, the Alpine windflower. — dorn, m. [in botany] [Akazie] 1) common acacia, locust-tree, the Robinia pseud-acacia, false acacia. Rothblühender — dorn, red-flowering acacia, rose acacia, rose robinia. 2) Ägyptischer — dorn, nilotic mimosa, true acacia, Egyptian thorn, gum Arabic tree. 3) Der — dorn mit drei Stacheln, catechu; V. Honigdorn, Honigervie. — dotter, m. cysium alliaria, jack in the hedge, hedge-mustard. — erbsen, pl. pease in the shell or pod, green peas. — fürmig, adj. and adv. pulse-formed, leguminous, siliquose, siliquous, it. siliculous. — gewächse, pl. the leguminous plants. — kaper, f. zygophyllum, bean-caper. — klee, m. 1) bird's foot trefoil. 2) [gemeiner Steinklee] common melilot, sweet trefoil. — kummel, m. hyscopum or wild cummin. — pfeffer, m. Indian pepper, capsicum, Cayenne pepper, Guinea pepper. — stein, m. [—nformige Fischhäute] siliquose, fossil fish-tooth. — viole, f. [Mutterviole] double rocket, dame's violet, gilliflower, rocket-violet, hesperis. — weiderich, m. narrow-leaved willow herb or epilobium.

2. Schöte, f. [pl. -n] [from schießen, allied to Schoß] [in seamen's language] rope fastened to the lowest clew of a sail, the sheet. — n des Schönsfahrsegels, the great sheets; — n der Leisegel, the false sheets; die — n anziehen, anstrengen, nachgeben or lösen, to haul aft, to let out the sheets; die — n bei Sturmzeit beständig zur Hand haben, to have the sheets constantly in one's hand during stormy weather.

Schotbolzen, m. a forelock-bolt with a ring, a bolt one end of which is provided with a head and the other end with a hole [Eulingar]. — gat, n. the hawses or hawse-boards of the great sheets or cables. — horn, n. sheet-hole, a sail-clue.

Schöthenne, f. [pl. -n] [a variety of the pheasant] dwarf cock.

1. Schött, n. [-es, pl. -e] [instead of Schuß?] [provincial] [Karat] a carat.

2. Schött, n. [-es, pl. -e] [from scheiden] [in seamen's lang., Schotting] a bulkhead; it. breast-work of the quarter-deck, of the poop. Das vordere — der Back, the beak or beak-head; it. [Knoten, Strich] a knot in wood, of wood.

Schottbolzen, m. V. Schottbolzen.

3. Schött, n. [-es, pl. -e] [from schießen] [in hydraulics] a flood-gate or water-gate of a sluice &c. moving up or down in a groove, a hatch.

Schottständer, pl. [in hydraulics] the slides or grooves for the hatches of sluices, locks, weirs, feeders, for flood-gates or water-gates to move up and down in, hatch slides; [for the moats of fortresses] shutter-grooves; [for inundating] culises.

Schötte, m. [-n, pl. -n] a Scotchman, [in a bad or jeering sense] a Scot, a Sawney. Eine Schöttin, a Scotchwoman, a Scottish-woman. it. [sometimes for Bergschotte, Hochschotte] Highlander [of Scotland].

Schottenbruder, m. [so called, because Christianity was first brought into Germany and there spread by Benedictines from Scotland] a Benedictine [monk]. — gang, f. the Bass-pelican, the gannet. — kloster, n. a convent of Benedictine monks. — tanz, m. a Scotch dance or reel; a Highland fling. — tracht, f. the Highland-dress, the tartan.

Schötten, m. [-s, pl. -] [from scheiden] 1) [provincial] V. Wölken. 2) [with tawers] a hawk or peeler of skins.

Schottenkäse, m. a rammel-cheese, a whey-cheese, a skim-milk cheese.

Schötting, f. [pl. -en] V. 2. Schott.

Schöttisch, [less usual or obsolescent] Schöttländisch, adj. and adv. Scotch, Scottish, of Scotland; it. [hochschöttisch] Gaelic. Die — en Küsten, die — e Mundart, Sprache, das Schöttische, the Scottish coasts, the Scotch dialect; it. [das hochschöttische] the Gaelic; der — e Tanz, [in pop. lang.] ein — er, the Highland reel, fling or jig, a strathspey, a Scotch hornpipe; — tanzen, einen — en aufspielen, to dance a Scotch reel &c., to play a Scotch hornpipe.

Schöttland, n. [-s] [in geography] Scotland, [in higher style] Scotia, Caledonia.

Schöttländer, m. [-s, pl. -], — inn, f. V. [the, now, more usual word] Schotte, Schöttin.

Schöttländisch, V. [the, now, more usual word] Schöttisch.

Schöttling, m. [-es, pl. -e] V. Ferkel.

Schövel, V. Schöfel.

Schöversegel, n. [in seamen's lang.] V. Schönsfahrsegel.

Schräbe, or Schraße, [from schra-pen, to scrape or scrub, Old Sax. [scrovan], allied to raffen &c.] [in seamen's lang.] a ship's scraper; V. Schrape.

*Schräffiren, [it. sgraffiare, allied to graben, to the Fr. graver] [in drawing, with engravers] to shade by lines in drawing or graving, to hatch, to form hatchings. Gegen —, to counter-hatch, to shade by counter-hatchings; schraffierte Zeichnung, a hatched drawing, a drawing composed of hatchings. Das —, die Schraffirung, hatching, shade-lines, hatching strokes; Gegenschraffirung, counter-hatching.

Schräg, [less usual] Schräge, [appears to belong to schrecken = springen, to hop as in the word Heuschrecke a grass-hopper, as the

Lat. obliquus does to lego in its antique and obsolete meaning of lying or laying] adj. and adv. [schief] oblique, slanting, sloping, aslant, aslope, inclining, inclined, diagonal. — e Linie, an oblique &c., [also] diagonal line; der Thierkreis durchschneidet — den Gleichert, the zodiac intersects obliquely the equator; — e Fläche, an inclined plane; der — e Durchschnitt eines Kegels, the oblique section of a cone, an oblique conic section; im Winter fallen die Sonnenstrahlen — er, als im Sommer, in winter the rays of the sun fall more obliquely, slantingly than in summer; dieses Zimmer ist —, this room is bevel, slanting, not rectangular; einen Zeug — schneiden, to cut a stuff across slantingly, slopingly; Linie, welche ein Viereck — durchschneidet, the diagonal line of a square, a diagonal; ein Stück Zimmerholz — behauen or sägen, to hew, chop or chisel off, to saw wood at a bevel angle; eine Sache — stellen, legen, to put, to lay any thing aslope, slanting, on one side; die Kanone schießt —, the cannon fires slanting; — er Hieb, a slanting, glancing blow; der Weg läuft — [allmählig], the road forms a continued, a gentle slope or descent; — e Schrift [—stehende], writing all on one side, not straight, awry, uneven writing, [fam.] Chinese writing; [in heraldry] ein dreifach — rechts getheiltes Schild, a shield tierce in bar dexter.

Schrägsfenster, n. [where the light falls from above slantingly] a sky-light. — linie, f. V. Querslinie. — schnitt, m. a cut diagonally, slantingly, a bevel-cut, sloping cut. — schritt, m. a slanting step, a step aslant, across, diagonally. — steg, m. [with printers] ledge of the composing-stick. — stempel, m. [with miners] wooden traverses or cross-beams between the walls of the gang or vein. — strichraupe, f. the obliquely streaked, caterpillar. — zeitig, adj. and adv. placed, disposed in quincunx.

Schräge, adj. and adv. V. Schräg.

Schrägebalken, m. [in heraldry] a bar or bend dexter, bar of unsullied birth, the bend [from the dexter chief to the sinister base point]. Linker — balken, the bar sinister, bar of bastardy. — maß n. [with joiners, bewegliches Winkelmaß] carpenter's ruler, moveable square, Gunter's scale, sliding Gunter; compasses of proportion, proportional compasses, compound proportional compasses. — mauer, f. [in architecture] the partition-wall of a flight of stairs.

Schräge, f. [Schrägheit, it. schräge Richtung, Stäche] obliquity; it. slope, slant, bias descent, bevil, crookedness. Es ist eine — an diesem Gebäude, there is a slope, a slant in this building; die — eines Zimmers durch einen Verschalag verbergen, to conceal the inequality, the sloping of a room by a partition or wainscoting; V. Schiefe.

Schrägebock, m. [-es, pl. -böcke] [with tawers] prop or jack of the horse, of the trestle.

Schrägel, m. [s, pl. -] [provincial] V. Krüppel.

1. Schrägen, m. [-s, pl. -] [V. Schräge] a trestle, horse, stool; joint-stool [with the legs standing obliquely or at obtuse angles from each other]. Der — eines Tisches, Bettes &c., the trestle or joint-stool of a table, of a bed; der — der Brettschneider, the sawyer's frame, horse block or trestle; — der Weißgerber, a tawer's horse or trestle; — der Bäcker, the stool of the hutch, trestle of the kneading-trough; it. V. Brod —; [with anchor-by his menaces, I am not afraid of, not terrified at his intimidations; die Kinder —, mit dem schwarzen Manne —, to frighten children, with the black man in the hole, with old Bogey; geschreckt durch diese Worte &c., intimidated, awed by, appalled at these words &c.; Einen zu Etwas —, to frighten any one into any thing, to induce any one to do any thing by working on his fears.

Schrécken, m. [-s, pl. -] 1) fright, terror, dread, awe, horror, fear, dismay. In — gerathen, to take fright, to be afraid; vor — zittern, zusammenfahren, von — ergriffen werden, to tremble or quake for fear, to shrink with dread, to be seized with apprehension; — befiel ihn, er wurde von einem — befallen, terror seized him, he was overcome with dread, seized with fright; der — ist mir in die Glieder gefahren, geschlagen, terror, horror has crept into, taken hold of, paralysed or palsied my limbs; Einen in — setzen, ihm — verursachen, einjagen, einflößen, to put any one into a fright, to fill any one with dread, with apprehension; Alles in — setzen, to spread fright, dismay around; sich von seinem — erholen, to recover [from] one's fright; dem Tode, der Gefahr ohne — entgegen gehen, to meet death, danger without fear; durch diese Drohungen in — gesetzt &c., put in [bodily] fear through these threats; ein panischer — ergriff sie, a panic terror, a panic seized them; schon sein Name verbreitet — unter den Feinden, already his name spreads terror among the foes; mit freudigem — erkennt sie den Geliebten, with trembling joy she recognises her lover. 2) [that which terrifies] Die — dieses Ortes, des Todes, the terror of this place or region, the dread horrors of death; er ist der — der Feinde, he is the terror of his foes.

Schréckenslos, adj. and adv. 1) fearless, undaunted, intrepid. 2) without terror or dread horrors. — stein, m. V. Schreckstein. — voll, adj. and adv. frightful, full of horror.

Schréckensbild, n. 1) [rather unusual, for Bild des Schreckens, in a higher style] image, statue of horror, terror, the very picture of fright. Ein — bild stand sie da, a picture of fright there she stood. 2) V. Schreckbild. — bottschaft, f. terrible news, news causing dismay. — herrschaft, f. [chiefly in the first French Revolution] the faction of the reign of terror; it. the reign of terror, terrorism. — mann, m. 1) [rather unusual, sometimes comic] a man or individual given to fright, easily frightened. 2) [chiefly, in the first French Revolution] partisan of the system of terror, a terrorist. — nacht, f. a night of horror, a terrible, dismal night. — ort, m. a terrible, horrid, dismal place. — system, n. system of terror, terrorism. — tag, m. day of affright, of dread, V. — nacht. — ton, m. terrible, dismal sound. — wort, n. terrible, fearful, threatening word. — zeit, f. terrible time, time or period of alarm. V. — nacht.

Schrécker, m. [-s, pl. -] [unusual] one who frightens, a frightener, an alarmist.

Schréckhaft, adj. and adv. 1) [chiefly in fam. lang.] easily frightened or taking alarm, fearful, timid, [of a horse &c.] skittish. Er ist sehr —, he is very fearful, nervous at every thing, he is afraid of the least thing, apprehensive of every thing. 2) [little used, and then chiefly with common people] dreadful, terrible, horrible, appalling.

Schréckhaftigkeit, f. fearfulness, timidity, nervousness, [of a horse, it. comic of a woman] skittishness; it. V. Schrecklichkeit.

Schrécklich, adj. and adv. terrible, horrible, frightful, terrific, horrid, dreadful, redoubtable. Die Todesstunde ist —, the hour of death is terrible; —er Mensch, —er Wütherich, a terrible, dreadful man, a horrible tyrant; ein —es Gesicht, eine —e Erscheinung, a frightful vision, horrible or fearful apparition; —e That, —e Drohungen, a frightful, atrocious deed, horrid threats; es liegt etwas —es in diesem Gedanken, there is something dreadful in this thought; —schreien, die Augen verdrehen [in common people's lang.], to scream, to roll or twist the eyes horribly; —hässlich [in fam. lang.], frightfully, monstrously ugly; it. [außerordentlich] [in pop. lang.] —groß, langweilig, gelehrt &c., terribly or shockingly great, excessively tedious or tiresome or [of a man] boring, uncommonly learned; [low] —saufen, spielen, verlieren, to drink, play, lose frightfully, inordinately; es regnet, schneiet —, it rains, snows terribly or dreadfully; eine —e Menge, ein —er Fehler, a terrible lot, a terrible, shocking fault; [in fam. lang.] Sie sind ein —er Mensch, you are a terrible, dreadful fellow; er ist ein —langweiliger Mensch, he is a terrible bore; einen —en Lärm machen, to make a terrible, [very fam.] uproarious noise.

Schrécklichkeit, f. 1) [no pl.] frightfulness, terribleness, horribleness, shockingness. Die — einer That, the enormity, flagrantcy, atrocity of a deed. 2) [pl. -en] a frightful thing, horror. Man erzählt sich viele —en dieser Art, many horrors, dreadful occurrences or events of this nature are related.

Schréckling, m. [-es, pl. -e] [little used] a fearful, timid, nervous, trembling man, a poor weak mortal, a man afraid of or who starts at his own shadow.

1. Schréckniß, f. [no pl.] [Fr. cri, V. Schreien] the cry [of certain birds &c.].

2. Schréckniß, f. [pl. -ße] or n. [-ße, pl. -ße] [der Schrecken] terror, dread, fright, fear, dismay. Du kannst dir nunmehr diese —ße ersparen, you may now spare yourself these terrors, nervous fits; dieser mit —en erfüllte Ort, this place filled with terrors, with horrors, this horrid place.

Schrei, m. [-es, pl. -e] [Fr. cri, V. Schreien] [in general a cry, for instance of certain birds] a scream, a shriek, a cry; [of bats, mice, children when pinched] a squeak. Einen — thun, to utter, give out a cry; er, sie stieß einen schrecklichen — aus, he, she uttered a horrible cry or scream; ein — der Freude, des Schmerzes, die —e der Verzweiflung, a cry or scream of joy, of pain, the screams, shrieks of despair.

Schreibeln, v. intr. [unusual] to scribble.

Schreiben, [allied to graben, greifen, Lat. scribo, Gr. γράφω, to the Fr. graver] irr. I. v. tr. and intr. 1) (= to make certain characters, written signs) to write, to trace marks &c. Mit dem Stöcke, mit dem Finger in den Sand, Schnee —, to write with one's stick, one's finger in the sand, in the snow; gut, schlecht, deutlich, leserlich, undeutlich —, to write well, ill, clearly, legibly, illegibly; mit Kreide &c. —, to write with chalk &c.; auf eine Tafel, auf Papier &c. —, to write on a table, on paper &c.; dieser Bleistift schreibt nicht, die Feder schreibt gut, schlecht, this lead pencil does not mark, the pen writes well, badly or ill. 2) to write down, to book, to put down in writing. [in commerce] Einem Etwas gut, in Rechnung —, to put down any thing to any one's credit, to carry to any one's credit or account, to put down to account; Ich habe Ihnen die Rimesse von 1000 fl. [Gulden] gut geschrieben, I have put down to your credit the remittance of a thousand florins; Etwas in das Einnahmebuch, Ausgabebuch —, to set down, to post in one's book of receipts, of expenditures; Etwas, eine Urkunde &c. ins Reine —, to write any thing fair, to engross a deed &c.; Noten — or abschreiben [either for one's self or for money], to copy music; seinen Namen unter Etwas —, to write one's name under any thing, to subscribe one's name to any thing; eine Rechnung, ein Verzeichniß —, to write or make out a bill, a list; ein geschriebenes Buch [opposed to a printed one], a manuscript book; Briefe zu — haben, to have letters to write; ein Buch, Bücher —, to write, [old] to indite a book, books; die Geschichte eines Landes —, to write the history of a country; er hat über diesen Gegenstand geschrieben, he has written concerning, on or about, treated in a work on this subject; gegen Jemand —, to write against any one; in seiner Muttersprache —, to write in one's native tongue, in one's own language; er schreibt französisch, deutsch &c., he writes [in] French, German &c.; ein lateinisch, in Versen geschriebenes Werk, a work written in latin, in verse, a latin work, a poem. Fig. [in a somewhat higher style] Sein Andenken ist in mein Herz geschrieben, his memory is written, engraved, impressed in my heart; sein Verbrechen steht ihm auf der Stirn geschrieben, his crime stands written on his brow, is branded or engraved on his forehead. 3) [emphatically and elliptically] to write a letter. An einen Freund —, to write to a friend; man schreibt mir aus Paris, they write me word from Paris; ich muß um Geld —, I must write for money; ich habe darnach geschrieben, I have written, I wrote for it. Fig. Sich wo her — [dort seinen Ursprung haben], to write one's name down where from, where born, where resident; wo schreibt sich dies her? [speaking of any news] where is this written from, on what authority is this affirmed? diese Gewohnheit schreibt sich aus dem grauesten Alterthum her, this custom is to be traced back, to be ascribed to the most venerable or obscure antiquity; das schreibt sich von meinem Vater her, that is bequeathed, willed to me from or by my father; diese Krankheit schreibt sich von meiner Mutter her, this disease is to be traced, descends from my mother, is hereditary on the maternal side. 4) to have a certain style, to write. Gut, schön —, to write well, beautifully; rein, edel, erhaben, zierlich —, to write clearly, nobly, sublimely, elegantly; unrein, schlecht —, to write without clearness, badly; dieser Schriftsteller schreibt vorzüglich, this author writes in a superior manner, excellently. II v. refl. sich — [= sich nennen], to be named. Schreibt er sich mit einem F or B? is his name spelled, does he spell or write his name with an F or a V? it. wie schreibt er sich? what is his name? [ambiguous] what does he call himself? er schreibt sich Baron von N., his name is Baron von N., [ambiguous] he calls or styles himself the Baron von N.; er schreibt sich von adeligem Geschlechte, he is of noble birth or blood, [ambiguous] he gives himself out to be of a noble race, he represents himself as belonging to the nobility; woher schreibt er sich? what country does he say he is of?

Das —, 1) V. Schreibung. Von vielem — ermüdet, tired, weary of writing, fatigued with writing. 2) any writing, [especially] a letter. Was ist das für ein —? what writing may that be, is that? ich habe Ihr werthes — vom dritten dieses Monats erhalten, I have received your very welcome letter of the third of this month, [in commerce or on formal business] I have received your favour of the third instant; ein königliches —, a royal letter, writing or missive, an autograph of the king's; it a letter patent; V. Aus—, Einfas—, dungs—, Hand—, Kreis—, Send—. Syn. Schreiben, Brief, Sendschreiben. A written address to one or more individuals, is denoted by the word Brief [letter] as far as regards its form, and Schreiben [writing] with respect to its contents. A Sendschreiben is a writing, which conveys a certain idea of solemnity or importance depending on the rank or dignity of the persons to whom it is sent, or on its greater size, as well as on the amplification and elaborateness of the contents. It corresponds therefore to our missive, despatch or epistle.

Schreibart, f. 1) style of handwriting, a peculiar hand; it. mode of spelling, peculiar orthography. Schreiben Sie dieses Wort mit einem l, dieß ist die einzige, richtige —art, write this word with one l, this is the only, the correct spelling. 2) [generally, Styl] style. Die erzählende, geschichtliche, rednerische, dichterische, briefliche, gesprächsliche, vertrauliche &c. —art, the narrative, didactic or descriptive, the historical, oratorical, poetical, epistolary, conversational, familiar or intimate style; die epische or heroische —art, the epic or heroic style; in der edlen, höhern, erhabenen —art, in the sublime style, in an exalted strain; die ungebundene, bandlose, zwanglose —art [the style free from metrical constraint], prose; dieser Schriftsteller hat eine kräftige, männliche, matte, schleppende, unzusammenhängende, gezielte —art, this author has a powerful, vigorous, nervous or racy style, has a manly or bold, a weak or feeble, a drawing or crawling, an unconnected, loose or disjointed, an affected or foppish style. Syn. Schreibart, Styl, Diction, Ton. Styl [style] is applied to a production in any of the fine arts. Schreibart, Diction and Ton are applicable merely to rhetorical or poetical works. A royal palace must be built in a grand and majestic Styl, a summer-house in a light and pleasing one. Thoughts and images constitute the Schreibart [the manner of writing, the style], sentiments give the Ton [tone]. Diction [diction] is only applicable to the Schreibart of an individual author or work. Whatever practice a man may have in Styl or Schreibart, should he be without genius, he will never attain the talented and energetic Diction of a Herder, a Swift &c. —blei, V. Schreibblei. —feder, f. 1) a pen. 2) [in zoology] the entire tubularia; it. [of cephalopods] the pen; it. [in anatomy] a kind of canal at the bottom of the fourth ventricle of the brain, the calamus scriptorius. —fehler, m. [through haste &c.] an orthographical error, a fault in writing or spelling a word; it. a slip of the pen, an oversight. —fehler gegen die Rechtschreibung, a misspelling, a blunder in spelling, an offence against the laws of orthography. —fertig, adj. and adv. ready for writing with pen, it. ready at one's pen, a fast writer. —fertigkeit, f. good or ready penmanship. —flechte, f. V. Schreibflechte. —gebühr, f. V. Schreibgebühr. —geist, m., —geld,

